Any violation of this pet policy will result in a $250 lease violation penalty, and may also result in the eviction of the tenants. This is completely at the Landlord’s sole discretion.

NO SMOKING is permitted anywhere inside or outside on property or premises by tenants or guests. Violation of this will result in immediate eviction and forfeiture of security deposit.

Tenant shall not keep any dangerous or flammable items that might increase the danger of fire or damage on the Premises without Landlord's consent.

Tenant shall not create any environmental hazards on or about the Premises.

Tenant shall not destroy, deface, damage, impair, or remove any part of the Premises belonging to Landlord, nor permit any person to do so.

Tenant shall be required to vacate the Premises on 7 days' written notice, if necessary, for extermination pursuant to this subparagraph. When vacation of the Premises is required for extermination, Landlord shall not be liable for damages but shall abate the rent.

The only man-made product that Tenant is permitted to flush down the toilet is toilet paper. Only fluids are permitted down the drains. Any damage or required repairs to plumbing as a result of improper usage or disposal of grease, oil, sanitary products, or any other item not permitted will be considered damage to the unit and be the responsibility of the tenant.

Tenant shall not install any alarm system or change the locks of the property.

VIII. UTILITIES. With the exception of _____ which will be provided to the tenant for an additional monthly fee of $_____, Tenant shall pay all other charges for hook-up, connection, and deposit for providing all utilities and utility services to the Premises during the Lease Term.

X. LANDLORD'S ACCESS TO PREMISES. Landlord or Landlord's Agent may enter the Premises in the following circumstances:

- At any time for the protection or preservation of the Premises.
- After reasonable notice to Tenant at reasonable times for the purpose of repairing or renovating the Premises.
- To inspect the Premises; make necessary or agreed-upon repairs, decorations, alterations, or improvements; supply agreed services; or exhibit the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workers, or contractors under any of the following circumstances:
  - with Tenant's consent;
  - in case of emergency;
  - when Tenant unreasonably withholds consent; or
  - if Tenant is absent from the Premises for a period of at least one-half a Rental Installment Period. (If the rent is current and Tenant notifies Landlord of an intended absence, then Landlord may enter only with Tenant's consent or for the protection or preservation of the Premises.)

In addition to the aforementioned scenarios, Landlord may also inspect the interior and exterior of the property on a quarterly basis at a time that is suitable for the Landlord, giving Tenant 24 hours notice. This inspection will be to ensure cleanliness and care of the property and to search for any potential lease violations that may result in fines, repairs, or eviction.

If Tenant vacates, Tenant is not liable for rent that would have been due after the date of termination. Tenant may vacate the part of the Premises rendered unusable by the damage or destruction, in which case Tenant's liability for rent shall be reduced by the fair rental value of the part of the Premises that was damaged or destroyed.

XIII. DEFAULTS/REMEDIES. Should a party to the Lease fail to fulfill their responsibilities under the Lease or need to determine whether there has been a default of the Lease, refer to Part II, Chapter 83, entitled Florida Residential Landlord and Tenant Act which contains information on defaults and remedies. Landlord shall not be liable if such damage, theft, or loss is caused by Tenant, Tenant's family, agents, employees, guests, or visitors. Nothing contained in this provision shall relieve Landlord or Tenant from responsibility for loss, damage, or injury caused by its own negligence or willful conduct.

XVI. SUBORDINATION. The Lease is automatically subordinate to the lien of any mortgage encumbering the fee title to the Premises from time to time.

XVII. LIENS. The interest of the Landlord shall not be subject to liens for improvements by the Tenant as provided in Section 713.10, Florida Statutes. Tenant shall notify all parties performing work on the Premises at Tenant's request that the Lease does not allow any liens to attach to Landlord's interest.
