From Targets to Transition Plans: The strategies banks need to take the carbon out of credit before it's too late

September 14 & 15, 2021
6-10am PDT / 9am-1pm EDT / 2-6pm GMT / 3-7pm CET

CONVENING INTENT
Source the most influential, effective and feasible ideas from across the climate-safe lending system for developing transition plans that are the best they can be for accelerating the decarbonization of the banking sector and real economy.

CONVENING OBJECTIVES & AGENDA

CONNECT
Build and deepen trust-based relationships among cross-sector allies working to align bank lending with climate-safe scenarios.

ALIGN
Align around the key features of a good transition plan that are essential for achieving climate safety (e.g., a just transition to net zero that limits atmospheric warming to 1.5 degrees Celsius).

LEARN
Engage in collective sensemaking around what constitutes a good transition plan and develop a shared understanding of what strategies and approaches are working.

TAKE ACTION
Make The Good Transition Plan into a practical guide that is widely used by lending institutions around the world for taking the carbon out of credit.
