

The Diocese of New Jersey

PROCLAIMING CHRIST IN THE GARDEN STATE

The Five Marks of Mission

The Five Marks of Mission, developed by the Anglican Consultative Council between 1984 and 1990, have won wide acceptance among Anglicans, and have given parishes and dioceses around the world a practical and memorable way of considering missional activities. They were adopted by General Convention in 2009.

Proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom

Teach, nurture and baptize new members

Respond to human need by loving service

Seek to transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind and to pursue peace and reconciliation

Strive to safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth
