

TOP TEN HIDDEN GEM RESTAURANTS IN NASHVILLE

• NASHVILLE HIDDEN GEMS •

\\\\\\\\\\\\

nashvillehiddengems.com

/////

LAUARA'S COCINA HONDURAN-MEXICAN

What to order: there is a lot of variety so best to come with friends to try everything! The Pollo Con Tajadas and a baleada are a good start for a first visit. If you have a sweet tooth, we highly recommend the xango or sopapia con nieve. They also serve tacos and other Mexican cuisine.

Location: 4407 Nolensville Pike

BIG AL'S DELI

SOUTHERN COMFORT

What to order: anyone living in Nashville or visiting has to go to Big Al's at least once. Well, twice. Go early for the breakfast menu and come back later for lunch. The pancakes are small but the most flavorful pancakes we have ever tried. Not a lot of tables so avoid going on weekends if you're in a rush.

Location: 1828 4th Ave N

CARACASVILLE

VENEZUELAN

What to Order: What we would do to relive the experience of trying a Caracasville Arepa for the first time. They are truly passionate about their food and methods. This is the place to try Venezuelan food for the first time. The Pabellón Arepa is a must-try.

Location: weekends at the Nashville Farmer's Market

BURRITOS LA MINA MEXICAN (CHIHUAHUA)

What to order: There are few things more comforting than a burrito. The Carne Asada, Chile Colorado, and Lomo are the crowd favorites. For cheese lovers, try a Montado. It is similar to a burrito but comes with a layer of grilled cheese.

Location: food truck at 84
Thompson Lane

MADINA SOMALI

What to order: Madina has a large menu, but all their dishes deliver comforting homemade flavor. Portions are huge. Try the pasta with chicken, or the king fish. Afterwards wash it down with a chai from the Horn Coffee in the same parking lot.

Location: 611 Murfreesboro Pike

VINH LONG VIETNAMESE

What to order: You can't come here without trying the pho. Beef is the most popular, but people rave about the seafood pho as well. Grilled squid is a popular appetizer, and the Vietnamese coffee is a sweet way to finish your meal.

Location: 1061 Murfreesboro
Pike
CASH ONLY

THE INKA TRAILER

PERUVIAN

What to order: Lomo Saltado is the signature dish of Peru, but Chef Marcio's ceviche is a must try as well. Their house-made chicha is refreshingly bright and tart, perfect for balancing the savory flavors.

Where to find them: The Inka Trailer is a food truck on the move! Follow them on instagram: @theinkatrailer

SOY CUBANO

CUBAN

What to order: You really can't go wrong with anything on their menu. Crowd favorites are the Cuban, Frita Burger, Pan Con Bistec. If you get there early enough for breakfast, get the Yuca and Eggs. They have an outdoor patio space but no indoor dining.

Location: 1101 Mckennie Ave

TAQUERIA OAXACA

MEXICAN (OAXACA)

What to order: come for the tacos, stay for the tlaxudas and other Oaxacan specialties. Oaxaca is a state of Mexico known for its amazing cuisine. Order some tacos and anything else off their menu to try unique Oaxacan flavors.

Location: food truck at 6303
Robertson Ave

KING TUT'S EGYPTIAN

What to order: The falafel is the must try here without a doubt. Check in with Chef Rocky to see what specials he's cooking up too. This is one of our go to places for private dinners and catering as well.

Location: 3716 Nolensville Pike

We highly recommend following these restaurants on social media to be up to date on their menu and specials. These ten restaurants are a representation of the many great restaurants in the Nashville food scene. There are many other amazing restaurants. We are happy to answer any questions on Instagram @NashvilleHiddenGems.

Looking for a fun group activity for your friends, family, or organization and want to eat your way through Nashville's international restaurant scene? E-mail us about our South Nashville food tours at anas@nashvillehiddengems.com

Happy Eating!