CASE STUDY: GHOST COMPANY OFFSITE

Ghost contacted us to help them find their perfect location for their company offsite for January 2024. They have had 10 years of experience hosting their own retreats and this was the first one they contacted us for.

We got to work and gave them 4 fantastic proposals and consulted them every step of the way until choosing.

CASE STUDY: TESTING TIME COMPANY OFFSITE

Testing Time reached out to us at Venue Retreat looking for advice on where and how to host their annual team building offsite.

After understanding more about the team and the objective of the offsite we put together different packages and options for them. They loved them all but one really stood out and it was a massive success for them, the venue and us.

CLIENT ONBOARDING TO BOOKING

1. NEW CLIENT

When we get a new client we have a call and understand what they need for their retreat. Such as type of booking, locations, venue type, budget, group size etc.

3. CONNECTION

We then connected the client directly to our venue partners who wish to send a proposal. This means you can send a proposal directly and communicate directly. Please keep us in the email thread and update us on the booking process. Please always factor in our agreed commission within your prices.

2. NETWORK MSG

We either connect directly to venue partners and or send out a WhatsApp Announcement with a group reference number.

Our venue partners then message us on WhatsApp or email asking to be connected. We will always connect unless a client is not interested or already decided on a venue.

4. CLOSE BOOKING

If the client chooses your venue and wants to book you send them the next steps of how to book through you.

Update us on the booking process and we will invoice the agreed commission when the booking is completed.
