2020-2021 END OF YEAR REPORT

FLAGLER

AUDUBON
Connecting people with birds and other wildlife in their habitats and taking an active role in preserving and restoring diverse ecosystems.

We provide monthly educational programs, bird walks and trips. We also do periodic bird surveys and outreach.
Our audience has grown significantly the last few years - but memberships are stagnant.
MEMBERSHIP

$360

National members (165) - National Audubon supports the chapter with approx $360 per year regardless of the number of national members.

$870

Local members (29) provide the majority of our chapter's membership income, with one third (10) supporting local work at higher membership levels.
THANK YOU MEMBERS FY20&21

177 Chickadee members (most complimentary - national)

Painted Bunting Level $50

Scrub Jay Level $100
Leona Brent, Barb Greigger, William & Judith Moore, Marge Rooyakkers & Bruce Aiello, David Smith

Osprey ($250) & Peregrine ($500) are new levels for FY22; Bald Eagle memberships are a lifetime honor.
Up until COVID, it was our most ambitious year yet. But then the pandemic started, and April-August activities were cancelled.

COVID has scattered our members and reduced our activities, but we've done our best to stay in contact online.
HOPES FOR 2021-2022

01 Bird walks resume

02 Educational programs return to in-person

03 Continued growth of audience & memberships
