OUR MISSION

THE CENTER INSPIRES INDIVIDUALS – FROM CHILDREN TO ADULTS AND EVERY STUDENT, EDUCATOR, AND ADVOCATE – TO TAP INTO THEIR OWN POWER TO TAKE ACTION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

The National Center for Civil and Human Rights is a sacred space. As it was on our opening day – June 23, 2014 – legacy, conversations, and learning continue to fuel our belief of how an individual can effect change.

Our compelling exhibits connect US civil rights history to the global struggle for human rights around the world. In partnership with Morehouse College, we display curated exhibits of artifacts from the life and career of Dr. King. Through engaging events, education, and advocacy training, we bring together leading thinkers on advancing rights, civic engagement, and democratic ideals.

OUR WORK

Over the five years since opening, our Museum, Education programs, Public Engagement programming, and Innovation Lab have helped our visitors understand the responsibilities of a civil society and the impact of civic engagement. The Center is committed to expanding our work to nurture our contributions to the city, encourage civic and cultural life, and serve Atlanta as the epicenter of rights advocacy, diverse thought, and progress.

“[THE CENTER] COULD AND SHOULD NOT FUNCTION SOLELY AS A MUSEUM, BUT RATHER A TRUE CENTER WHERE PROSPECTIVE WORK WAS PAIRED WITH PAST ACHIEVEMENTS.”

EARL LEWIS, FORMER EMMORY PROVOST
OUR PILLARS
The National Center for Civil and Human Rights believes in the power of people - and our shared responsibility to take the rights of all humans personally.

IMMERSIVE & POWERFUL EXHIBITIONS
Our dynamic exhibitions tell stories of courageous rights advocates - and connect the U.S. civil rights movement to the struggle for human rights around the world today.

INSPIRING CONVERSATIONS & ENGAGEMENT
Our public engagement programs encourage thoughtful conversations and inspire action.

EDUCATION FOR EVERY STAGE OF LIFE
Our education initiatives provoke students to think critically and become agents of change.

ADVANCING ADVOCACY IN OUR INNOVATION LAB
Our Innovation Lab nurtures seasoned advocates to advance critical rights issues and provides training so people can learn how to protect rights.
THE POWER OF PEOPLE

Each year the National Center for Civil and Human Rights recognizes individuals who promote and deepen democratic ideals at the Power to Inspire Tribute Dinner.

Join us for our 6th annual Power to Inspire Tribute Dinner on Thursday, May 14, 2020 in the Georgia Aquarium Oceans Ballroom.

IT IS VITALLY IMPORTANT FOR ALL OF US TO COME TOGETHER - NOT ONLY TO SHOW SOLIDARITY IN SUPPORT OF BASIC HUMAN DIGNITY, BUT ALSO TO SHOW THE STRENGTH OF OUR NUMBERS.

Past honorees have included activists and scholars, including Vice President Joe Biden, Ambassador Andrew Young, The Honorable John Lewis, Dr. Henry Louis Gates, Jr., The King Center, and George C. Wolfe.

“FREEDOM IS NEVER REALLY WON. YOU EARN IT AND WIN IT IN EVERY GENERATION.”  CORETTA SCOTT KING
Make a commit to the values we all fighting for as a sponsor for the 6th Annual Power to Inspire Tribute Dinner. Your generosity will make a tremendous impact on our ongoing work. We invite you to join The Center and together we can inspire and educate more people on protecting civil and human rights for all.
