

NATAN International Humanitarian Aid

Dr. Sharon Shaul is a graduate of Tel Aviv University's Faculty of Medicine and a long-standing member of NATAN's Board of Directors. Dr. Shaul heads Natan's medical relief activities. She is a family doctor, specializing in emergency medicine at Poria Medical Center in the north of Israel. She lives in Alon Hagalil, married and a mother of five. In recent years Sharon has taken part in the following NATAN international aid operations: 2010 - Head of aid mission to Haiti, following the earthquake; 2013 - Led medical relief operations in the Philippines, following the Typhoon Yolanda; 2015 - Aid delegation to Nepal following the earthquake; 2016 - Establishment of a primary clinic for refugees in the transit camp in Presevo, Serbia. Sharon headed the medical initiative in NATAN's Assessment Team visit to Kerala India following the monsoon floods in 2018 and most recently Sharon was in the first team sent to Mozambique to provide medical aid following Cyclone Idai – in March – April of 2019.

Here's an interview conducted with Sharon:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=youtu.be&v=EzZvJ75BOQA>

Meet Dr. Sharon Shaul – Natan's first volunteer in the field

<https://www.natan-ih.org/blog/2015/9/8/meet-dr-sharon-shaul-natans-first-volunteer-in-the-field>