

NATAN

WORLDWIDE DISASTER RELIEF

Noam Leibovitch

Noam Leibovitch heads IT for NATAN. Noam is a technology professional and trainer with over 10 years' experience in the private sector. Noam holds a BA in Business Management from the Open University of Israel. He is currently CEO at Badarom Technologies Ltd., an Information Technology & Services company which he co-founded in 2011. Noam has managed IT projects, infrastructure, and knowledge technologies at several large and small high-tech and telecom companies. Noam is fluent in English, Hebrew and Russian. Noam joined NATAN in 2020 to lead Information Technology, leading NATAN's internet technologies, cloud computing and back-office integration. Before joining NATAN, Noam volunteered with Appleseeds, a nonprofit organization which runs integrated technology & empowerment programs in Israel's geographic & socio-economic peripheries.