

NATAN

WORLDWIDE DISASTER RELIEF

Gil Reines is a pilot whose career has spanned the globe, encompassing both his love of flying as well as humanitarian action. Following his air force service, Gil worked in non-formal education, serving as a coordinator for the Israeli Moshav Movement, heading community centers and serving as a Jewish Agency emissary in the USA. He has been a commercial airline pilot for the past 15 years. On one of his flights he met a friend, Itzik Aharoni, who told him about his humanitarian work with Natan. Gil caught the bug from Itzik and the rest is history. Over the past 6 years Gil has served with NATAN at disaster sites all over the globe. He headed NATAN's mission to the Philippines in 2013 following the typhoon, and the mission to Nepal after the earthquake in 2015. Currently, Gil has lead NATAN's mobile dental clinic projects since 2018. Currently Gil is in Cucuta, Colombia leading the operation to protect and support women and children fleeing Venezuela: The Center for Migrant Women. In addition to his aviation training, Gil holds a BA in Sociology and a degree in family mediation.
