

NATAN

WORLDWIDE DISASTER RELIEF

Udi Cohen leads initiatives in education and social impact development and is a key member of NATAN's core professional team. Udi is a professional educator, experienced in both formal and non-formal education. He has a rich history of social activism and volunteering, both in Israel and abroad. Currently, Udi works in aged care in Jerusalem. He is the former Director of Kids4Peace Jerusalem, an NGO bringing together Israeli and Palestinian youth. In 2017 Udi served as NATAN's Head of Mission on Lesbos island, Greece, where he oversaw the OHF Community and Education Center for refugees and served as liaison with the UNHCR as well as local and international NGOs. He holds BA and MA degrees in Education and Jewish Studies from The Hebrew University of Jerusalem and the University of Sydney; a teaching certificate for early childhood education; and an MA from The Hebrew University of Jerusalem in the management of non-profit organizations.