

NATAN

WORLDWIDE DISASTER RELIEF

Itzik Aharoni serves as Treasurer and Human Resources Manager. Itzik is one of the founding members of NATAN, a lifelong humanitarian and community activist with extensive global experience. From 2005 – 2015 Itzik was a Board Member and active volunteer at Brit Olam – International Volunteering and Development. In 2004, Itzik helped found NATAN, where he serves as Treasurer, Board Member and Head of Volunteer HR. In addition to taking a central role in planning disaster relief operations, Itzik also leads HR recruiting, interviewing and vetting volunteers for active assignments. In 2004-2005

Itzik headed the Tsunami relief operation in Sri Lanka. Then, in 2008, Itzik headed the refugee aid operation in Georgia. Previously, Itzik served as Regional Manager, Northern and Central regions, of the Israel Association of Community Centers. Itzik holds a BA in Behavioral Sciences from Ben Gurion University, Israel and an MA in Business Administration from the University of Manchester Extension Program, where he graduated with honors.