Approved CSA Sessions
RSA Annual Meeting, San Juan, 2023

1. Making, Unmaking, and Remaking Cervantes’s Fiction
Moderator: Catherine Infante (Amherst College)

- Paul Michael Johnson (De Pauw University), “Renegade Translation”
- Manuel Mühlbacher (University of Munich), “The Poetics and the Politics of Wounding in Don Quijote”
- David A. Boruchoff (Independent Scholar), “Rectifying Cervantes”

2. Staging Union and Disunion in Cervantes’s La gran sultana
Moderator: Paul Michael Johnson (De Pauw University)

- Catherine Infante (Amherst College), “Spanish Fashion and the Threads of Empire in Cervantes’s La gran sultana”
- Ana Laguna (Rutgers University), “Eastern Boundaries and Pan-Mediterranean Questions: Domestic Enclosures in Cervantes’s La gran sultana”
- Timothy McCallister (Auburn University), “Religion and Its Incommensurables: Cervantes’s La gran sultana Reconsidered”

3. Words and Images in Cervantine Narrative
Moderator: David A. Boruchoff (Independent Scholar)

- Rachel Schmidt (University of Calgary), “Virgins and Pícaros: The Visual Culture of Pilgrimage in Cervantes’s Works”
- Cory A. Reed (University of Texas at Austin), “Enchanting Devices: Tableaux of Magical and Technological Illusion in Don Quixote”

4. Cervantes Society of America Business Meeting and Annual Lecture
Presiding: Mercedes Alcalá-Galán (University of Wisconsin)

Luis Avilés (University of California, Irvine), “A Sweet Shared Perception: Reflections on Friendship in Cervantes”