Perceptions and Recognitions: African Americans of Eastern North Carolina

The Greenville Museum of Art (GMA) is pleased to offer the traveling exhibition, Perceptions and Recognitions: African Americans of Eastern North Carolina, a new body of work by internationally recognized photographer Burk Uzzle. Perceptions and Recognitions, which debuted at the GMA in 2017, consists of 25 original photographs of residents in Eastern North Carolina. The exhibition is designed to offer individuals, families, and organizations a way to experience their neighbors, whether familiar or unknown. The title of the exhibition reflects the fact that too frequently we hold perceptions about others that are disconnected from their truths and therefore inaccurate. Art has always afforded us the opportunity to share seminal emotions with strangers, to realize a connection, to know that our human experience may not be unique although our circumstances may be unrecognizable.
