The Greenville Museum of Art (GMoA) is hosting a juried group exhibition, Growing Up Queer in the South, guest curated by Parks McAllister. This exhibition will showcase work influenced and inspired by the experiences of growing up queer in the American South. The application is open to queer individuals who are 18 years or older, and who have spent part of their lives or can identify with “growing up” in the American South.

All media will be considered but works must not have been exhibited at the GMoA previously. Artists can submit up to five (5) artworks but should clarify if multiple works are part of a series. There is no submission fee for this exhibition.

SUBMISSIONS CLOSE FEBRUARY 27, 2022.

Send the below application (one per work), a brief artist bio/statement (including age and location), along with up to three photos of the proposed works, to exhibitions@gmoa.org (subject line “Queer Show – [LAST NAME]” by Sunday, February 27, 2022. Contact the Museum at 252.758.1946 with questions. No in-person visits with artworks please.

Artists will be notified of their acceptance into the exhibition via email by March 11, 2022.

Selected artworks must be delivered or shipped to the Museum by May 6, 2022. Any artworks that are shipped must come with a pre-paid return label. All work must be completely dry, framed, wired, or otherwise ready to exhibit. After the exhibition, artworks must be picked up by October 15, 2022.
Call for (Queer) Artists

Growing Up Queer in the South

June 3 – September 24, 2022

Application Form

Contact Information

Name: ______________________________________________________________________
Address: ____________________________________________________________________
Phone Number: _________________      Email Address: _____________________________

Artwork Information

Title: ________________________________________________________________________
Creation date: _________        Dimensions (framed, if applicable): H ______ x W_______
Medium: ____________________________        Insurance Value: _____________________
Special installation instructions: ________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
Object description or statement (if applicable): _________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Send this application (one per work), a brief artist bio/statement (including age and location), along with up to three photos of the proposed works, to exhibitions@gmoa.org (subject line “Queer Show – [LAST NAME]”) by Sunday, February 27, 2022. All images must be at least 300dpi resolution and should be saved as [LAST NAME – Title]. Images can be sent through a cloud service if too large to include in an email attachment.

Artists will be notified of their acceptance into the exhibition via email by March 11, 2022.

Selected artworks must be delivered or shipped to the Museum by May 20, 2022. Any artworks that are shipped must come with a pre-paid return label. All work must be completely dry, framed, wired, or otherwise ready to exhibit. After the exhibition, artworks must be picked up by October 15, 2022.