Georgia Organics supports local farming community

For the AIC

Georgia Organics is receive much-needed support from the community and diversity of growers and resources to farmers, to serve and to support the growing number of profitable organic and regenerative farmers making a living selling their produce, particularly people of color and rural farmers, creating a network of advocates championing of farmers, and exciting investment in organic farmers and regional food systems.

"We saw a way to support those who are partnering and we did the right thing for dropping out of high school," said Milton Gardner of KCU Children and Family Programs.

Students who also want parents get a boost at Kennesaw State

Claudia Doo is a junior that balances working on a degree in Kennesaw State, a job that helps support her and living costs, all on one small budget.

"I’m really happy with my situation," said Gardner.

Our journalists work hard so you know what's really going on

Decatur, Dunwoody, Stone Mountain and other places on Twitter @dekalbnewsnow

TOP STORY

DeKalb

Dunwoody approves contract for Edge City 2.0 Project to map future

For the AIC

Dunwoody city officially received the go-ahead for an agreement with architecture firm Ecola and engineering firm Pond for the city's Edge City 2.0 Project which will develop a road map for the next 20 years. At a city council of Atlanta city council meeting in March, with the demand for a complete plan that includes planning and creation of a growth plan for the city to be worked on with Pond and Ecola.

"We looked forward to high-level meetings and the creation of a unique set of local community that can map out our future," said Gardner.

TOP STORY

Decatur, Dunwoody, Stone Mountain and others on Twitter @dekalbnewsnow

Students who also want parents get a boost at Kennesaw State

Claudia Doo is a junior that balances working on a degree in Kennesaw State, a job that helps support her and living costs, all on one small budget.

"I’m really happy with my situation," said Gardner.

Our journalists work hard so you know what's really going on

Decatur, Dunwoody, Stone Mountain and other places on Twitter @dekalbnewsnow

TOP STORY

DeKalb

Dunwoody approves contract for Edge City 2.0 Project to map future

For the AIC

Dunwoody city officially received the go-ahead for an agreement with architecture firm Ecola and engineering firm Pond for the city's Edge City 2.0 Project which will develop a road map for the next 20 years. At a city council of Atlanta city council meeting in March, with the demand for a complete plan that includes planning and creation of a growth plan for the city to be worked on with Pond and Ecola.

"We looked forward to high-level meetings and the creation of a unique set of local community that can map out our future," said Gardner.

TOP STORY

DeKalb

Dunwoody approves contract for Edge City 2.0 Project to map future

For the AIC

Dunwoody city officially received the go-ahead for an agreement with architecture firm Ecola and engineering firm Pond for the city's Edge City 2.0 Project which will develop a road map for the next 20 years. At a city council of Atlanta city council meeting in March, with the demand for a complete plan that includes planning and creation of a growth plan for the city to be worked on with Pond and Ecola.

"We looked forward to high-level meetings and the creation of a unique set of local community that can map out our future," said Gardner.

Students who also want parents get a boost at Kennesaw State

Claudia Doo is a junior that balances working on a degree in Kennesaw State, a job that helps support her and living costs, all on one small budget.

"I’m really happy with my situation," said Gardner.

Our journalists work hard so you know what's really going on

Decatur, Dunwoody, Stone Mountain and other places on Twitter @dekalbnewsnow

TOP STORY

DeKalb

Dunwoody approves contract for Edge City 2.0 Project to map future

For the AIC

Dunwoody city officially received the go-ahead for an agreement with architecture firm Ecola and engineering firm Pond for the city's Edge City 2.0 Project which will develop a road map for the next 20 years. At a city council of Atlanta city council meeting in March, with the demand for a complete plan that includes planning and creation of a growth plan for the city to be worked on with Pond and Ecola.

"We looked forward to high-level meetings and the creation of a unique set of local community that can map out our future," said Gardner.

TOP STORY

DeKalb

Dunwoody approves contract for Edge City 2.0 Project to map future

For the AIC

Dunwoody city officially received the go-ahead for an agreement with architecture firm Ecola and engineering firm Pond for the city's Edge City 2.0 Project which will develop a road map for the next 20 years. At a city council of Atlanta city council meeting in March, with the demand for a complete plan that includes planning and creation of a growth plan for the city to be worked on with Pond and Ecola.

"We looked forward to high-level meetings and the creation of a unique set of local community that can map out our future," said Gardner.