SFW 2022

INTRO

Sustainable Fashion Week (SFW) is the only fashion week of its kind. Whilst loving the joyful possibilities that fashion offers us, we're not focused on next season's trends...but instead on inspiring, empowering and equipping people to have a more sustainable relationship with fashion. We work creatively with the community to make sustainability in fashion more accessible, sharing skills and knowledge to help drive and enable positive change.

WE BELIEVE A 'SUSTAINABLE' FASHION INDUSTRY IS ONE THAT DOES NO HARM, IS BASED ON A CULTURE OF EXCHANGE AND IS FUELLED BY COLLECTIVE ACTION.

Our annual flagship SFW event is an explosion of activity – where people connect with each other in a vibrant variety of ways across the UK, sharing solutions to support each other in moving away from fast fashion.

FORMAT

In 2022, our event programme is split into three parts. In Bristol (our hometown) we're staging the SFW HUB and SFW CATWALK.

Across the UK we have curated a packed COMMUNITY EVENTS PROGRAMME, where organisations, community groups, brands and individuals take part: hosting their own event or workshop to connect with their networks. From clothes swaps to skills workshops, fashion shows, repair shops, talks and mending circles – check out what's close to you and join in.

DATES

SFW HUB // 17 & 18 September, at the Bristol Beacon.

SFW CATWALK // 21 September, at The Mount Without, Bristol

COMMUNITY EVENTS PROGRAMME // 16 - 25 September

OUR FOUR THEMES

There are so many ways in which we can make positive changes in our fashion habits to make them more sustainable. We've narrowed it down to four stand out themes, with calls to action for each.

#REGENERATE #REWEAR #REPURPOSE #RECONNECT

WHY

Clothes matter. Clothing is a necessity, alongside food, clean water and safe housing. Equally, clothing is a language – communicating who we are, what we stand for, and to which communities we belong.

And yet... the production of fashion is one of the most polluting and damaging industries globally. Fast fashion is degrading soils, polluting waterways, destroying habitats, exploiting people and contributing to the climate crisis.

We need to make bold changes now. If we act collectively – holding fast fashion brands to account and inspiring each other at a grassroots level – we can drive significant change in the industry. Be part of our community and take action for the future you want to see.

WHO ARE WE

SFW 2022 is designed and delivered by A Single Thread CIC – a non-profit organisation seeking to help re-imagine our collective relationship with fashion and grow a movement for change. We partner with a variety of organisations to deliver engagement activity both online and in person and offer creative consultancy for a range of fashion projects.

A SINGLE THREAD

"OUR WELLBEING AND THE HEALTH OF THE PLANET ARE INEXTRICABLY CONNECTED TO THE PRODUCTION OF CLOTHING. MAKING CHANGES IN OUR FASHION HABITS NOW WILL HELP SECURE A SAFE FUTURE FOR US AND FOR COMMUNITIES ACROSS THE CONTINENTS" Amelia Twine

"COLLECTIVE ACTION IS A POWERFUL MEANS TO MAKE CHANGE. SFW IS ALL ABOUT COLLABORATION. WE ALL SHARE THE SAME PLANET, AND WE ALL GET DRESSED EVERYDAY – SO IT MAKES PERFECT SENSE TO WORK COLLECTIVELY IN MAKING FASHION FAIR" Amber Rochette

WORKSHOPS

Lower Ground Floor

WORKSHOPS ARE FREE but must be booked on our website in advance.

SATURDAY 17 SEPTEMBER

10am-11am // Beginners Sewing Introduction With Lisa Bailey from The Sewing Room @ The Island
A workshop for complete beginners who need help setting up their own sewing machine.

1130am-1230pm // Quick Pattern Hacks With Jamilla Ives from Highgrove Traditional Crafts

Come and be guided through some quick pattern hacks and simple adaptations to commercial patterns.

1pm-2pm // Children's introduction to repair with the Repair What You Wear team
Give kids a kick start in learning how to mend their own clothing. Suitable for 8+.

230pm-4pm // Upcycling for Carnival with Carol Sherman from St Paul's Carnival
Come and make a headdress for carnival using reclaimed and repurposed materials.

SUNDAY 18 SEPTEMBER

10am-11am // Children's Upcycling Workshop with Amy Ward from The Children's Scrapstore
Explore upcycling and create new things from discarded materials. Suitable for 8+.

1130am-1230pm // Japanese Boro Repair with Rhyannan Hall from Boro Repair Society
Explore a Western take on Japanese clothes mending tradition, fixing rips and tears with love and care.

1pm-2pm // Blurring the Lines Between Trash & Treasure with Blondie from House of Savalon
Learn how to pioneer your own look, and challenge the societal expectation to buy new, by making earrings with something from your bin.

230pm-4pm // Introduction to Embroidery: Reflections on Climate Change Through Embroidery with Jamilla Ives from Highgrove Traditional Crafts & Laura Roberts from Public Footpath
SFW collaborated to create a commission piece for the MShed's current 'Think Global, Act Bristol' exhibition. Join us to create a 'patch' and tell your story, to be added to the garment in the exhibition.

FILM ROOM

Lower Ground Floor

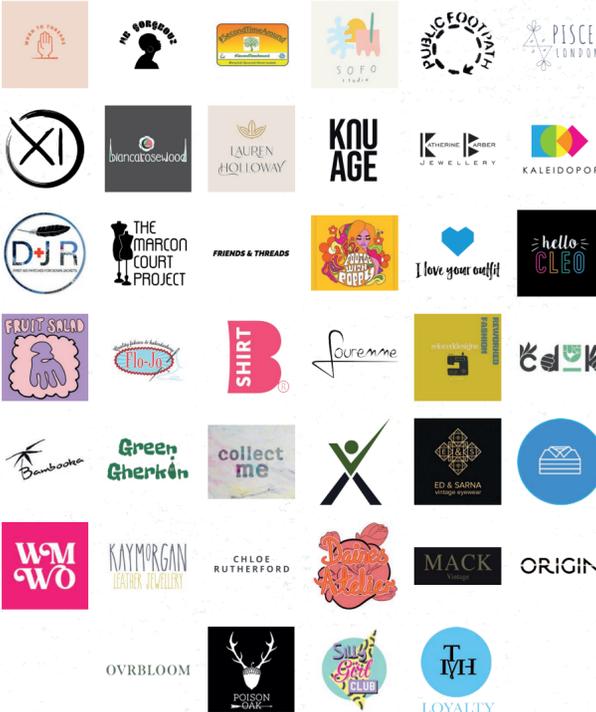

We'll host rolling screenings of our SFW 2021 panel discussions, alongside a variety of other films from organisations working to improve the fashion industry. Here we'll be exploring deeper dives into some of the challenges faced by the industry and its social and environmental impact. With films from LABOUR BEHIND THE LABEL and WATERBEAR among others.

SFW MARKET

Lower Ground Floor, Ground Floor, First Floor

SATURDAY & SUNDAY // 10AM-4PM

Come and explore what sustainability in fashion looks like! Whether vintage, preloved, repurposed or sustainable-new... we have an exciting range of clothing and accessories from independent makers and brands.

Supported by...

All our activity is non-profit and it couldn't take place without working collaboratively and the support from our sponsors and partners. A massive thank you to everyone who helped our tiny team in making SFW 2022 take place.

Headline Sponsor

Aligned with our Regenerate theme, Yeo Valley have launched their Regenerative Farming Project to support and empower their farmers to be part of the solutions to the climate crisis.

Headline Sponsor: SFW Catwalk

To help make our catwalk showcase vibrantly colourful, benecos will be providing their plant-based, natural, organic and cruelty-free make up.

SFW CATWALK

Supported by benecos

21 September
530pm - 9pm

THE MOUNT WITHOUT,
UPPER CHURCH LN, BRISTOL BS2 8FN

A dynamic take on the usual fashion week catwalk, we're working with a collection of community partners to showcase sustainability in fashion through our four themes: Regenerate, Rewear, Repurpose and Reconnect.

Outfits will be created, styled and modelled by students, makers, brands, designers and individuals from the community.

Credit: Future Leap @ Sustainable Fashion Week 2021

Partners

We couldn't be more excited to be including such a wonderful range of organisations - from nationally-loved brands such as Lucy & Yak, through to college students who represent the future of fashion!

The catwalk takes place in the historic Mount Without in the heart of Bristol - an atmospheric space that we'll fill with sustainable style, with outfits that are preloved, repurposed or sustainable new. The evening will be hosted by the inimitable Astro Zenica from the House of Savalon, using benecos' natural and organic beauty products.
