Corporate Partnership Opportunities

The FLCCT mission is to promote community prosperity by providing financial education that empowers Central Texans to achieve their dreams.

Help us create a stronger community!

Financial Literacy Coalition of Central TX
Who do we serve?

FLCCT provides financial education classes to low-income individuals and families who represent some of the most vulnerable people in the Central Texas community. We partner with community organizations, nonprofits, employers and schools to design classes that meet the specific financial literacy need of the diverse class participants.
