Nashville Ntrak Update

By Tom Staggs

Nashville Ntrak has been working on Barry Beckett's home layout. In three “full day” work sessions we built the benchwork, laid the subroadbed, transferred the track plan to the subroadbed, laid the roadbed, laid the track, installed the DCC system, and placed feeders on most of the layout. We still need to finish the feeder net to ensure full coverage without voltage drop on the layout. This layout is an 11’x14’ U-shaped layout that has three loops of track, two mains, and a branchline with several industries. http://www.nashvillentrak.org/Images/barryslayout/becketthmlayout.html

Nashville Ntrak is leading the effort to assist the Town of Smyrna in the restoration of the old NC&StL Ry Depot. We have met with the Architect, the Museum Planner, and the renovation committee on several occasions. When the construction on the inside of the Depot is done it will be turned over to the Town of Smyrna. So by mid November to early December, we will start building the layout. The layout will be in an E-shape with the Town of Smyrna (1940s-50s) in the center and Murfreesboro and Nashville on the ends.

We will also be attending the National Train Show in Cincinnati this summer from 6-10 July. We are taking several modules and our yard along with our DCC equipment. The layout will be a compilation of over 30 Ntrak clubs from all over the country.

NEXT MEETING Willow St Building Thursday June 16, 2005 7:00 PM
Nashville Ntrak will have twelve members there. So if you are at the National Train Show, come by the Ntrak layout and look us up!

NRHS Notes

Let's talk about big! In June of 1947 the C&O ordered three of their M-1 class, steam-turbine electric engines from Baldwin. They were the heaviest and longest steam powered locomotives ever constructed - 154 ft long and 1,233,970 lbs. Please compare to UP's "Big Boy" at 1,200,000 lbs and almost 133 ft in length.
