ADVENT GUIDE

with introduction by Sally Lloyd-Jones

INTRODUCTION: BY SALLY LLOYD-JONES

Happy Nearly Almost Christmas

What do you love most about Christmas?

Most of us say, PRESENTS! And probably all the grown-ups will laugh and want us to say something more spiritual.

But actually, do you know what? You're right. That IS the best, most important thing about Christmas.

Because, you see, Christmas is all about a present—a gift. The greatest, most magnificent gift there has ever been ...

Christmas is very hard to wait for, isn't it? Waiting to open all those presents—it's so difficult. Especially when you're little.

We count down the days. We can't wait.

But do you know how long God's people had to wait for Christmas? How long they had to wait for the gift God promised them?

Weeks?

No.

Months?

Um. Longer.

Years, then?

Even longer than that.

They had to wait for centuries and centuries! Can you imagine how excited they were when at last Christmas came?

When do you think Christmas begins?
Does it begin in Bethlehem?
Or with the Angel Gabriel visiting Mary?
Or does it begin with a bright star shining
on a little stable?

Actually, the story of Christmas begins long, long ago—before there were even any stars in the sky at all.

Christmas begins in the heart of God.

Back in the very beginning, God had a magnificent dream inside his heart.

He made his children to share in his Forever Happiness and the world to be our perfect home. But we lost it all when we decided we didn't need him, when we decided we could be happy without him.
And everything broke—in our hearts and in his world when sin and sadness and tears came in.

But God had a plan—a magnificent dream.
One day, he would get his children back.
One day, he himself would come to rescue them and heal their broken hearts. One day, he promised, Christmas would come!

All through the Bible, all through the long years, God has been waiting for exactly the right time to send his great gift. He has been waiting for Christmas!

From the moment Adam and Eve left
the garden he whispered the promise,
“It will not always be so.” To Abraham,
he promised one day a child will come
to bring laughter to the whole world.
He promised Joseph, David, Isaiah. One day, he will send us a Good Shepherd. A Brave Hero. A Young Prince. A Mighty
King. A Great Rescuer.

A Child.

And every story whispers His name.

Christmas is when, at last, everything is ready. The time has come, at last, for God to give us his great gift.

The days leading up to Christmas are called “Advent.” Advent means the “arrival.” It means the long waiting is almost over ...

As we wait for Christmas, we’ll go on a journey together. We’ll read a story every day, decorate the tree, and tell the story of God’s Secret Rescue plan—from the very beginning ... and wait, along with God’s people ...

And on Christmas morning? PRESENTS!

And there is the greatest, most magnificent gift there has ever been—wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

Sleeping under the stars that he made.

The baby who would rescue the world is born!

Happy Christmas!

NOTE TO PARENTS

Not long after the book was published, families started sharing how they were using THE JESUS STORYBOOK BIBLE during Advent. That's when we first realized there were EXACTLY the right number of stories to read each day of Advent beginning on December 1st right up to Christmas day with Jesus' birth. We were amazed. It was almost as if someone had planned it. (Which, of course, Someone had!)

So we wanted to share this special family Advent resource so more of you can enjoy it.

Inside, you'll find that the team at Zondervan have created a reading plan and some beautiful printable ornaments, to make your Advent season especially meaningful as a family. For every day of Advent, there is a printable ornament, and on the reverse of each ornament there is the related story to read in THE JESUS STORYBOOK BIBLE, and the scripture passage it comes from.

As your family adds the ornaments to the tree, trace God's hand through all the stories, and tell the one big story of God's Great Rescue Plan through every day of Advent—starting with creation and leading up to Jesus' birth.

It's almost like an Advent tree calendar. (Is there such a thing?) Actually some people call this a Jesse Tree—named after the prophecy in Isaiah II: 1 “There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse...”.

One family I know of, reads the story together and then they each spend some time drawing something from the story (the big fish from Jonah; the lions from Daniel; the big tower from the Staircase to Heaven, for example) as they listen to Christmas music.

There are lots more ideas the team at Zondervan have created for you. And you will have your own ideas too.

Happy Advent!

Emmanuel!

God has come to live with us!

ADVENT SOUNDTRACK

Sally compiled some of her favorite Christmas songs to accompany you on the journey to Christmas with The Jesus Storybook Bible this Advent. She said this about her “A Jesus Storybook Book Bible Advent Soundtrack”:

“I start with carols from Kings because that is Christmas for me—and move on to some of my favorite contemporary songwriters. (Full disclosure: quite a few of them happen to also be my friends but I’m not biased or anything.) All of the songs are telling the Christmas story. So I thought it might be wonderful resource to have—an advent soundtrack—as you read by yourself or together as a family—or as you decorate the tree—or really anytime at all in the day. I hope you enjoy them as much as I do. My prayer is that as we journey to Christmas together, these songs help prepare our hearts. As we celebrate the Young Prince who loved us and came to rescue us... Happy Advent!

COUNTDOWN TO CHRISTMAS

with Advent bible verses and readings from:

The Jesus Storybook Bible

1 PRINT THE CARDS

You'll want to start by printing the countdown graphics. Use the best color printer and the best paper that is available to you. The photos go on one side, and the Scriptures and readings are on the back so you will want to print double-sided or feed your paper separately into your printer and print each page one-by-one. (If you're not accustomed to printing double-sided, you may want to test this first with your black-and-white printing settings to save your color cartridge.)

2 CUT THE CARDS

The printables have square cutting lines around the images to guide you as you cut with a paper cutter or scissors. If you'd like you can also laminate the cards, either before or after you cut them, for durability. This is a good idea if you plan to use these year after year each Christmas!

3 DISPLAY YOUR CARDS

There are many options for how to display your advent Scripture cards each day as you count down to Christmas! Here are four simple ideas:

1. Turn your cards into ornaments! You can bunch a hole at the top of each card and hang them on your Christmas tree, or create a mini-tree to feature these images and scriptures on their own.
2. Create a clothesline display of the cards. Grab some ribbon or baker's twine and clothespins to hang the Advent pieces across a mirror, a picture frame, or mantle.
3. Place the cards in a pocket chart or other clear type display. You can often find these at teacher supply stores.
4. Hang them from a Christmas-card holder or other type of display that you find at retail stores.

4 SHARE YOUR CREATIONS

We'd love to see how you display your cards. Upload your photos on Instagram, Twitter, or Pinterest with hashtag #JSBAdvent and we will try to like, retweet, and re-pin your images to the FaithGateway, Zonderkidz, and The Jesus Storybook Bible social media accounts. We can't wait to hear your stories and see your creative ideas for displays!
