Alliance Global Advisors appoints new board members

BY RELEASED

Alliance Global Advisors' has appointed four new board members, Paul Dolinoy, Gloria Gil, Micolyn Magee and Christina Scarlato.

The board consists of strategic advisers who contribute valuable guidance and provide the Alliance team with additional diversity of thought.

Dolinoy has more than 40 years of real estate experience. He spent 32 years with Equity Real Estate and was a founding partner at GMAC/Capmark Real Estate Advisors.

Gil is the senior managing director of real estate for the Regents of the University of California. Previously, she worked as a senior investment office for the Los Angeles County Employees Retirement Association.

Magee has more than 30 years of real estate consulting experience. She retired from The Townsend Group at the end of 2018, where she was a partner and spent the last 20 years of her career.

And Scarlato is a principal portfolio manager for real estate investments at the World Bank Pension Fund since 2007, and previously worked for several years in various departments across the Treasury Department of the World Bank.

Additional members will complete the advisory board in 2020.

Heather Fernstrom Border and Jennifer Stevens launched Alliance Global Advisors in April. Alliance Global Advisors is a women-owned business that will partner with organizations to provide an independent perspective on strategic planning, business and operations, so executive management teams can focus on what matters most: diligently managing client capital, creating value and delivering exceptional returns in a performance-driven market.
