Sapphire Physical Therapy Financial Policy

By executing this agreement, you are agreeing to pay for all services that are received.

Please select the option(s) you prefer:

Payment options if you DO NOT have insurance:

1. You choose to pay by cash, check, or credit card at the time the services are rendered. Our cash payment option for patients without insurance is $125 per visit. Payment is expected at time of service. If extenuating circumstances should arise, you can discuss a payment plan with our Practice Manager, Jennifer Blank.

Payment options if you DO HAVE insurance:

- 1. If you still have a deductible to meet, you choose to pay $125 by cash, check, or credit card at the time services are rendered. We will send your claim to your insurance carrier and will bill you for additional patient responsibilities, if any, which will be determined by your carrier.
- 2. You choose to pay your co-payment and/or coinsurance, determined by your insurance carrier, by cash, check, or credit card at the time services are rendered. If there is a balance on your account at the end of the month we will bill you accordingly. Any balances without a payment within 30 days of the date of service will be charged a recurring $6 monthly rebilling/finance charge until services are paid in full.

I will make payments at time of service
I will make a payment arrangement for my account

Work Related (My workers compensation carrier authorized physical therapy)

Motor Vehicle (A motor vehicle insurance company authorized physical therapy)

Monthly Statement: If you have a balance on your account, we will send you a monthly statement. It will show separately the previous balance, any new charges to the account, the finance/rebilling charge, if any, and any payments or credits applied to your account during the month.

Payments: Unless other arrangements are approved by either John Fiore, Owner or Jennifer Blank, Practice Manager, the balance of your statement is due and payable when the statement is issued and is past due if not paid by the end of the month.

Charges to Account: We shall have the right to cancel your privilege to make charges against your account at any time. Future visits would then need to be paid in full at the time of service.

Finance Charge: A finance charge will be imposed on your account when it has not been paid within (30) days of the statement date. The finance charge will be $1 per billing period and will accrue every (30) days when a payment has not been made on your account.

Re-billing Fee: A re-billing fee of $5 will be imposed on each account that is over (30) days past due and a payment has not been made, unless other payment arrangements and a payment plan have been agreed upon.

Past Due Accounts: If your account becomes past due, we will take necessary steps to collect this debt. We reserve the right to refer your account to an attorney or collection agency. You agree to pay all attorney fees and collection costs incurred in enforcing the terms of this agreement.

Returned Checks: There is a $25 fee for any checks returned by your bank.

Workers Compensation: We require written approval/authorization by your worker's compensation carrier prior to your initial visit. If your claim is denied, you will be responsible for your payment in full.

Motor Vehicle Accidents: If the insurance policy involved in any motor vehicle accident claim does not accept liability for your claim, you will be held responsible for your payments in full.

No Show/Cancelled Appointments: We reserve the right to charge a $20 fee for a third consecutive no show/cancelled appointment. The fee must be paid before a new appointment is scheduled. We also may ask you to switch to same day only scheduling. We require a 24 notice for all cancellations.

Effective Date: Once you have signed this agreement, you agree to all of the terms and conditions contained herein and the agreement will be in full force and effect.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This Notice of Privacy Practices contains a detailed description of how our office will protect your health information, your rights as a patient, and our common practices in dealing with patient health information

Uses and Disclosure of Health Information:

We will use and disclose your health information in order to treat you or to assist other health care providers in treating you. We will also use and disclose your health information in order to obtain payment for our services or to allow insurance companies to process insurance claims for services rendered to you by us or other health care providers. Finally, we may disclose your health information for certain limited operational activities such as quality assessment, licensing, accreditation and training of students.

Uses and Disclosures Based on Your Authorization:

Except as stated in more detail in the Notice of Privacy Practice, we will not use or disclose your health information without your written authorization.

Uses and Disclosures Not Requiring your Authorization:

In the following circumstances, we may disclose your health information without your written authorization:

- To family members or close friends who are involved in your health care
- For certain limited research purposes
- For purpose of health and safety
- To Government agencies for purposes of their audits, investigations, and oversight activities
- To Government authorities to prevent child abuse and domestic violence
- To law enforcement authorities to protect public safety or to assist in apprehending criminal offenders
- When required by court orders, search warrants, subpoenas, and as otherwise required by law

Patient Rights:

As our patient, you have the following rights:

- To have access to and/or copies of your health information
- To receive an account or certain disclosures we have made of your health information
- To request restrictions as to how your health information is used or disclosed
- To request that we communicate with you in confidence.
- To request that we amend your health information
- To receive notice of our privacy practices

Please contact us with any questions, concerns, or complaints regarding our privacy practices.

I acknowledge that I was provided a copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices and that I have read (or had the opportunity to read if I so choose) and understand the Notice.
