Lent, it's how we perceive it.

As a child, I remember how much I disliked the season of Lent. We would go to Church on Ash Wednesday and for the next forty days we would hear the same song. The song, "These Forty Days of Lent O Lord", set in my mind a constant reminder of how long the Lenten season is and the disciplines that we are to implement into our spiritual journey. I am not making light of the season of Lent. How we perceive it will determine the outcome.

If we perceive Lent as a time when we have to give up this or that, then Lent is seen as something to "get through", then the song, "These Forty Days of Lent" becomes a dirge or a funeral march. But if we perceive Lent as a time to step back and reflect upon our life's journey, then that same song takes on a totally different meaning for us.

The Church, as well as the calendar, informs us that the forty days of Lent draw us to the Great feast of Easter. Easter will come whether we have prepared for it or not. The season of Lent should allow us time to prepare for the Risen Christ.

Let us use this time for self reflection, self discovery, and renewal within ourselves and those whom we come in contact with. Many people have walked with us on life's journey. Let us pause to thank God for placing them in our life, just as He places us in the lives of others. As I have always said, God has a plan for us. It is not for us to understand what that plan is. Our role as Catholics is to accept His plan.

I recently read the book titled On Heaven and Earth, co-authored by Jorge Mario Bergoglio (Pope Francis) and Abraham Skorka. The book addresses issues of Faith, Family, Prayer, and the Church in the Twenty-First Century. I would recommend it for one's spiritual reading during Lent. The essence of this book can be summarized by a quote from Pope Francis. He says, "God makes Himself felt in the hearts of each person. He also respects the culture of all people. God is open to all people. He calls everyone. He moves everyone to seek Him and to discover Him through creation."

May Mary's response to the angel Gabriel become our humble prayer, "I am a servant of the Lord, let it be done unto me as you will".

Bon mot: He who runs from God in the morning will scarcely find Him the rest of the day.

—John Bunyan on Prayer

Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

We are blessed this year to have three seekers to bring to the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil on April 8th! Several people in the parish are accompanying the seekers on their journey as each person comes from a different place with different needs. It is a blessing to walk this journey with Deirdre, Nadia, and Selah. I ask you to keep them in your prayers as we keep all of you in ours.

Ministry Weekend Update

Our efforts to raise awareness of fulfilling our baptismal call through parish ministry are reaping rewards! Over two weekends, one in January and one in February, the Worship ministries set up in the gathering space with information about ministry and parishioners to share their experience of ministry and answer questions. As a result, we have been blessed with twenty new people! We have new ministers in the areas of Art and Environment, Baptism Hospitality, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Funeral Hospitality, Launderers, Lectors, and Sacristans! Ministering together as a people of God is a gift to God, to ourselves, and to the people of the parish. It is my hope that many more people will seek to engage in ministry as all are needed and welcomed! Our spiritual lives are enriched by service to others, in whatever way we are called to serve.

If you are still considering a Worship ministry, or any other ministry in the parish, feel free to reach out at any time. We are happy to answer questions or help you discern your call.

St. Joseph's Day Celebration

Do not miss an opportunity to enjoy a delicious continental breakfast in celebration of St. Joseph whose feast day falls on a Sunday this year, March 19th. In honor of this feast, we will celebrate St. Joseph with food and fun following the 9:00am Mass. All are welcome to enjoy continental breakfast and, for the kids, assemble birdhouses in honor of St. Joseph's vocation as a carpenter. Mark your calendars and plan to join us!

REFLECTION

God knows that we will be tempted by many things in our lives, and He has given us a powerful weapon to help us fight against it. Does anyone know what it is? It's The Bible! God's Word reminds us of what is true, even when Satan tries to tempt us to forget it. And because Jesus died on the cross and was raised from the dead, we have a promise that whoever puts their faith in Christ will be forgiven and shown grace.

FAMILY ACTIVITIES

ALTERNATE ENDING: Pass out paper and colored pencils or markers to each family member. Have everyone write about (or draw a picture) of how things would have turned out if Jesus hadn't died for our sins.

PLAYDOH CREATIONS: Get Playdoh and let each family member choose a scene from Jesus' life to create with the Playdoh. Share the scenes once they are done. Work in teams if you have enough people.
