Supporting Our Bulletin Advertisers

My parents had a family business, a grocery store in Memphis, Michigan. It goes without saying that my siblings and I worked in the store until we left for college. I remember that my parents were always asked to place an advertisement in this or that paper. Placing an advertisement in any publication is an expensive proposition. It always made them feel good when a customer would come in a say they saw our ad in the paper. My parents would always say that placing the ad was money well spent.

This little journey down memory lane brings me to my point. You have probably seen the ads that are in our bulletin. These advertisers are contacted by the bulletin company and pay a set amount to have their ad placed in our bulletin depending upon the size of their ad. As you can image, it can be an expensive proposition. By placing their ads in our church bulletin, we are able to receive the church bulletin every week at no cost to you or the parish.

I would like to thank all the businesses that have renewed their contract with the bulletin company and I would like to thank and welcome those businesses that have “signed on” for the first time. I thank you and appreciate all you do for the parish of St. Jane Frances de Chantal. Thank you for your generosity.

Which brings me to another point. I would ask that all of us support the businesses that advertise in our bulletin and to tell them that you saw their ad in the St. Jane Frances de Chantal church bulletin. As an aside every week a business is highlighted on the parish sign on Ryan Road. I hope that the advertisers who have made a commitment to St. Jane Frances de Chantal parish through their advertising will echo the words my parents spoke, “it was money well spent.”

Have a great week.

St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin

Mary. In honor of this feast, we will celebrate St. Joseph with food and fun following the 9:00am Mass today. All are welcome to enjoy continental breakfast and, for the kids, assemble birdhouses in honor of St. Joseph's vocation as a carpenter. Please join us!

The spouse of Mary the mother of Jesus and the legal father of Jesus according to Jewish law, Joseph is a model of humility and obedience to God's will. He followed God's instructions, given by angels in dreams, and took the pregnant Mary into his home as his wife, protected her and Jesus at the child's birth in Bethlehem through the family's sojourn in Egypt, and provided for them as a carpenter in Nazareth. This feast, which was celebrated locally as early as the ninth century, became a universal feast in the fifteenth century, when it was placed on the liturgical calendar. Pope Pius IX named St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church in 1870; he is also the patron saint of carpenters, the dying, and workers.

"Being a guardian is the distinctive trait of Joseph: Being the guardian is his great mission . . . We look to Joseph as the model educator, who watches over and accompanies Jesus as he grows 'in wisdom, age and grace,' as the Gospel says. He was not Jesus' father: the father of Jesus was God, but he was a father to Jesus, he was a father to Jesus in order to help him grow. And how did he help him grow? In wisdom, age and grace." —Pope Francis, March 19, 2014

Prayer to Saint Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph,
do we come in our tribulation,
and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse,
we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance
which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family,
defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;
O most loving father, ward off from us
every contagion of error and corrupting influence;

O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril,
so now protect God's Holy Church
from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity;
shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection,
so that, supported by your example and your aid,
we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness,
and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Amen.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

FAMILY GOSPEL PAGE
MARCH 19, 2023
JOHN 9:1-41, FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

REFLECTION

In today's Gospel story, Jesus met a man who couldn't see. This man was born blind. He had never been able to see, not once in his whole life. Jesus decided to heal the man. He took some dirt, and he mixed it with his own spit, to make mud! Umm, eew? Then he spread that mud on the blind man's eyes! Jesus told him to go wash up in a pool, and when the man did, he could see again! It was a miracle! Some people weren't too happy about this, though. Some people didn't believe it was the same man as the one who had been born blind. Some people were angry because Jesus did "work" on the Holy Sabbath day, since He made mud and healed someone. The neighbors and church leaders were questioning the healed man, and his parents. They were so suspicious and upset that they missed out on appreciating this great miracle. They closed their eyes, in a way.

Did you know we have eyes in our hearts? Not actual eyeballs, of course...but we can think about seeing with our hearts when we consider our attitudes towards God and one another. If your thoughts and your actions are focused on yourself, it's hard to have a "vision" or see outside your own little problems and needs. You might be able to look at things with your eyes, but you'll be "blinded" to what God wants you to see, or to the things other people need and are doing. It's like closing your eyes or wearing goggles that don't let you look around.

God wants us to recognize that HE is the light. He should be our vision and desire. Jesus is the light of the world, and our heart eyes should seek Him. Jesus sometimes said that people did not see things clearly, even if they could see with their physical eyes. That's how some people missed out on HIM and the amazing things He did! So let's keep our eyes open, spiritually and physically. We can look around to know what others need. We can keep our minds on God, and what He wants to do in our lives.

DISCUSSION

- When you close your eyes, what do you see?
- What, or who, do you look forward to "seeing" in your life?

FAMILY ACTIVITIES

BLIND IDENTIFY: Have one family member sit at the table with a blindfold on. Other family members bring items from around the house to place on the table. The blindfolded person tries to feel the items and identify them.

BLIND DRAWING: Sit at the table blindfolded with a piece of drawing paper and a pencil or crayons. Someone say what picture you should draw. Try drawing it blindfolded and see how they turn out. IE: boat on a lake, Jesus on the cross, etc.

Blood Pressure Screenings next weekend March 25th & 26th

You can fight high blood pressure

While heart disease is still the No. 1 killer in the United States and around the world, death rates have decreased significantly. You can reclaim your health today for a better tomorrow. Earlier and better treatment of high blood pressure has played a key role in that decrease. (heart.org)

You can get your blood pressure checked next weekend on Saturday, March 25th (4:45pm-5:15pm) and on Sunday, March 26th (9:45am-12:30pm) in Room K.

During the Lenten season, we ask you to pray for our Adults seeking Initiation. We would also like to ask you to also give them a card with a note of welcome to the parish.

A simple Easter card is sufficient and the note need be nothing more than "Welcome to St. Jane Frances." These cards will then be given to the newly Initiated after the Easter Vigil. This gesture is always appreciated by our newest members, making them feel welcome and truly a part of the community of St. Jane Frances. This year we have three catechumen: Deirdre Tracey, Nadia Raft, and Selah Fischer. Please bring your cards of welcome to the Parish Office by Holy Thursday, we'll see that they get to Deirdre, Nadia, and Selah. Thank you for your welcoming spirit and please remember our catechumen in your prayers this Lenten season!
