Ordinations

I'm happy to share these words of announcement and invitation as the Church of Detroit celebrates with great joy.

“With praise and thanksgiving to God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the Archdiocese of Detroit joyfully announces the Ordination to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ of these chosen men through the laying of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit by His Excellency, the Most Reverend Allen Vigneron.”

The Archbishop, Allen Vigneron, will ordain four priests to serve within the Archdiocese of Detroit. These men will serve as associate pastors in parishes within the Archdiocese. I ask that you remember these newly ordained priests in your prayers as they begin their ministry as priests to the people of God.

I would ask us to also remember to pray that others may respond to the Lord's call in service to the church. As I reflect upon my thirty-seven years as a priest, I recall the many people I've encountered, been invited to share in their lives, in the celebratory times of their lives as well as the challenging times of their lives. These are indeed blessed moments.

Throughout the past thirty-seven years of my ministry as a priest, the church and society has changed. However, the one thing that has not changed is that God continues to call each of us to a particular vocation in our life. A vocation that calls forth our gifts and talents to be used in service to the church and to and with each other.

As we prepare to celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, the birth of the Church, may we be open to receiving the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts and minds of your faithful people. Enkindle in us the fire of your love.

Bon mot: A good vocation is simply a firm and constant will whereby one is called to serve God in whatever manner and place Almighty God beckons them.”

-St. Francis de Sales

Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. The ascension of Jesus to heaven marks a new time in the lives of the disciples. Jesus had already showed them how to preach, teach, and reach out to the sick, the poor, and the afflicted in his name. They had even gone out in pairs to do this. But now Jesus tells them to continue to minister in his name, without his presence, after he has been taken up to be with the Father. Jesus promises they will not be alone, that he will give them the Holy Spirit, who will guide them, empower them, and lead them in witnessing to Christ to the ends of the earth. Jesus has not left them orphans, nor does he leave us orphans. We are guided by the Holy Spirit as we witness to our faith in our families, our workplaces, and our communities.

The first disciples faced a very challenging task from the beginning. The people who had shouted for Jesus to be crucified and those who stood idly by remained a factor. This was only a short time later. The Jewish and Roman authorities were still in power. So when Jesus told his disciples that "you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you," he is not just speaking idly (Acts 1:8). He is reminding his disciples that a power greater than the power men have on earth would be theirs as they boldly proclaimed Christ to a hostile people.

The Holy Spirit is present to us, just as the Spirit was present to the first disciples. We can call on the power of the Holy Spirit when we face opposition to the witness we make in the world. How are we actively witnessing to our faith? Do we speak up when someone says or does something unchristian? Do we speak out against injustice, whether social, political, or economic? Do we support those who act in charity for those in need? Or are we just "standing there looking at the sky?" (Acts 1:11). Sometimes, like the disciples, we could also use a couple of God's messengers to remind us that our faith is an active faith.

On the day Jesus ascended to heaven to remain with his Father, he commanded his disciples to carry on his ministry, proclaiming the good news to the whole world. Now we are that whole world. Now we are those disciples. As you reflect on this Gospel and the importance of today's solemnity, spend some time thinking about what you can do today to actively witness to your faith. As you reflect and pray, ask Jesus to strengthen your resolve to spread the Gospel in our world today.

"The mission that Jesus entrusted to the Apostles has continued through the centuries, and continues still today; it requires the cooperation of all of us."
– Pope Francis, May 13, 2018

Pentecost is the great feast that concludes the Easter Season, May 27th and 28th this year. The liturgical color of Pentecost is RED, representing the tongues of fire that descended upon the Apostles and also representing the blood of the martyrs. In keeping with the spirit of Pentecost, on the weekend of May 27th and 28th, you may want to wear red. If you don't have anything red to wear, you could carry a pot of red geraniums. We are returning this year to our tradition of asking parishioners to bring pots of RED geraniums to Mass to decorate the sanctuary. We will later plant the flowers around the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the courtyard for all to enjoy!

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth!

ST. JANE FRANCES

BIKE CLUB

Want to join others for a non-competitive bike ride once a week? Come along on our summer rides. This year the Bike Club will be meeting twice a month on Wednesday or Thursday at 6:15pm with our rides beginning at 6:30pm. We will be meeting in the Onyx Ice Arena parking lot located at 24 Mile Rd. and Dequindre. From there we will either ride the Macomb Orchard Trail or the Clinton River Trail. You don't need to register but you must wear a helmet! Please bring bug spray, sunscreen, water, or anything else you will need.

The dates for the rides are: Thursday May 18th, Wednesday June 7th, Thursday June 22nd, Wednesday July 5th, Thursday July 20th, Wednesday August 2nd, Thursday August 17th.

Liability – At no time does St. Jane Frances de Chantal, the Archdiocese of Detroit, employees or volunteers assume liability for any event that may occur during these workouts. The members participate of their own free will understanding that any exercise program has the inherent risk of injury. No one associated with this group is operating as a doctor or licensed medical practitioner. Members should consult with their doctor or other licensed care representative if they have any questions or concerns about participating in an exercise program.

EDEN CLUB

The Eden Club will be meeting on Tuesday, May 23rd at 2:00pm to discuss the Spring Clean Up and Planting tasks. Please join us if you want to learn more about the awesome work the Eden Club does to make our parish grounds beautiful.

The Eden Club will also be meeting on Friday June 2nd at 9:00am to clean up the garden beds and on June 10th at 9:00am to plant flowers. Contact Linda for more information at Lsmith@sjfparish.org or 586-977-8080, ext. 101.
