F4F harnesses the power of young leaders to address food insecurity and basic needs nationwide.

"F4F has changed the culture of community service at my school, and our school culture in general. Before F4F, my school wasn’t aware of how many people struggle with food insecurity. Now, we feel like there’s so much more we can do in the community, and having that direct impact is so powerful."
- Conrad Brady, F4F Student Leader, 12th grade, Bethesda, MD

As always, I’m not just stunned by the success of the effort (a million meals!) but by how many young people will be amazing leaders in the future because of what they are learning. You’ve created something that is a short-term miracle and a long-term driver for change. We’re proud to be supporters.” - Bob King
