

For Immediate Release.

Release Date: January 11, 2023

Pull Date: February 18, 2023

Contact: Steve Sue 209-329-0661 or e-mail at: Northwest.Pacific@live.com

February 18, The Stockton Chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League presents their Day of Remembrance with a premiere viewing of the film “No No Girl” at the Buddhist Church of Stockton 2820 Shimizu Drive, Stockton California at 1PM. This is a fundraiser project for the film as it sets on it’s film festival tour and touring other JACL Chapters.

The film, written and directed by Paul Daisuke Goodman is a generational, Japanese American story that intersects ideas of identity, family, duty and the traumas of war and relocation. Almost a century removed from World War II and the incarceration of her ancestors, one young daughter (Mya Dyo) will take it upon herself to shine a light on their past and uncover the mysteries that have been haunting their family that began In the middle of the night, before being sent to a Japanese American Concentration Camp, one family buries a secret in their backyard garden. 80 years later, a clue is discovered and what begins as a mystery soon turns criminal as a family of different minds try to come together to discover the truth of their past.

Cast includes Mika Dyo, Oscar winning actor/producer Chris Tashima, Jyl Kanashiro, Kurt Kanazawa, Hannah Leigh, Ken Narasaki and Gary Murakami. Scott Takeda

There will be a Q & A session following the film with the director Paul Daisuke Goodman and Laurie Goodman, Producer. A candle lighting ceremony will end the presentation.

Tickets are $10.00 with proceeds to help cover production costs. They are available by phone by calling: (209) 541-9118 or, they can be purchased at the door. Refreshments will be offered including popcorn for the movie.