A Christmas Covenant: Our Gift of Hope
An Equitable Structure of Global Regionalism

Preamble: A Church for All in Mission Together

“I, therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God...of all, who is above all and through all and in all.” -- Ephesians 4:1-6

By God’s grace, even in the midst of brokenness in the church and the world, we are all part of the Body of Christ, admonished to love one another as God has loved us. Grace equally shared is best expressed in a church structure that is founded on equity and respect. We, who are entrusted with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, are invited to celebrate the abundance of God’s grace by affirming our common baptism, recognizing the diversity of our spiritual gifts and ministries, striving for a church where every person and region is equal with another, and faithfully engaging in God’s mission together. We face a myriad of challenges, but as John Wesley exclaimed before joining a great cloud of witnesses, “The best of all is, God is with us!” Indeed, nothing can separate us from the love of God and from one another.

Our Vision:

We envision a Church that connects globally, engages in mission together, respects contextual ministry settings, celebrates the diversity of God’s creation in its many beautiful expressions, and values mutually empowering relationships in order to strengthen our core mission of evangelism, discipleship, and social witness for the transformation of the world.

Our Guiding Principles:

To celebrate equity and mutuality, we draw our values from principles cherished by United Methodists from different regions of our global connection:

● We are all children of God. Our United Methodist Social Principles state, “We believe that our primary identity is as children of God. ... The Church seeks to fully embrace and nurture cultural formation and competency as a means to be fully one body, expressed in multiple ways” (2016, ¶161.A) To consider one another siblings of equal stature and rights is a key human value upheld by our Christian faith. “There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3:28). In appreciation of our differences as equals, it is our sacred covenant—anchored in grace—to share with one another the freedom to live out the Gospel in accordance with our various missional contexts.

● Ubuntu. Ubuntu is an African concept that embodies a way of life where humanity is based on the understanding of interdependence and community life. It is lived recognizing that we are all created in the image of God and should do unto others as we wish it be done unto us. Bishop Desmond Tutu of South Africa declares, “The profound truth is, you cannot be human on your own. ... You are human because you participate in relationship. It says a person is a person through other persons. This is what we say. This is what the Bible says. This is what our human experience teaches us.”

● Bayanihan. Bayanihan is a cherished ancient Filipino concept of community spirit and cooperation to achieve communal goals. Rooted in the word bayan, which means nation or community, bayanihan has been traditionally expressed through concrete community support for families that need to relocate. The able-bodied persons of the barrio carry the entire wood and bamboo house and transfers it to a new location, especially in anticipation of typhoons, floods, and landslides. This might be rare in these modern times, but the spirit of bayanihan is alive in the hearts of Filipinos when they act as one community in support of one another in times of need, even when it is deemed impossible to do so.

We celebrate these principles as we commit to build and prosper a church rooted in community, one that welcomes and affirms the sacred worth of all God’s children and extends extravagant hospitality in caring for their welfare, working faithfully to keep them from any harm.

Distracting from and detrimental to these values and to our common mission are calls to dissolve The United Methodist Church. Such plans are harmful to the Body of Christ through whom people of faith seek to connect and live in gracious relationships. We, however, respect the stance of our siblings who seek to do ministry apart and alongside The United Methodist Church.

Our Values:

Holding in gracious tension the differences between us and bearing with one another in love, let us envision new ways of being in relationship together in The United Methodist Church. We lift up these values that undergird our proposal:

● Connectional relationships rooted in mission. Our unity is not for unity’s sake but for the effective proclamation of the Gospel—to invite all into a loving relationship with God and with one’s neighbor. We welcome and affirm the sacred worth of all God’s children and embrace everyone’s participation in building God’s beloved community.

● Respect for contextual ministry settings. This is a missional, structural, and connectional endeavor that expresses faithful stewardship of God’s mission in a diverse and changing world. Such respect implies understanding that our church needs to find appropriate ministry expressions in different mission contexts. Doing otherwise fosters relationships that are essentially colonial.

● Legislative equality for regional bodies of the church. The diversity of our ministry settings is real. Fulfilling the mission of the church together can be strengthened by identifying our contextual differences and allowing for authority to be exercised equitably by regional conferences or any regional structure formed by General Conference to address our respective mission contexts.
Our Call:

We are stronger together. Being in mission together as a global church celebrates our unity in diversity and positively impacts the different contexts we represent. While diversity is a challenge, we do not believe dissolution is the right way to heal the wounds that cause us pain as Christ’s Body. A truly global church committed to be in mission together embraces its differences and allows for self-determination. It is able to find common ground in affirming how we do effective ministry in places we serve.

Acknowledging that our different contexts need different solutions is a better way forward and fosters mutuality. This path affirms a stronger common witness to the global community. God’s grace is present everywhere and in everyone. We are called to humbly respond to this grace in recognizing its many expressions around the world. This call we do best together.

Our Proposal:

Guided by the aforementioned principles and values, and recognizing that we need a new way to be in gracious relationships with one another to better fulfill the mission entrusted to us by Jesus Christ, we support the following existing legislation:

- Establish 5 new episcopal areas in Africa as decided upon by the 2016 General Conference. This is a proposal is from the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters.

- Establish a United States Regional Conference as proposed by the Connectional Table (our Christmas Covenant legislation embraces and incorporates this proposal)

We propose the following actions, constitutional amendments, and legislative changes to our Book of Discipline:

- Establish a vibrant and equal regional conference structure for The United Methodist Church which transforms existing central conferences into regional conferences, and the formation of a regional conference for the church in the United States.

- Upon ratification of a new regional conference structure, General Conference shall authorize a study to update and perfect the new regional conference structure to realize full equity between regions. The study is to be conducted by the Connectional Table and the Standing Committees on Regional Conferences in the United States and around the globe. A report, including any recommendations, will be presented to the 2024 General Conference for action.
AMEND ¶¶ 9, (which shall be renumbered ¶ 10), 10 (which shall be renumbered ¶ 9), 16, 28, 29, 30, 31, 38, 39, 40, and 50 as follows:

¶ 10. Article III Article II. – There shall be central regional conferences for the work of the Church outside the United States of America around the globe and, if necessary, provisional central regional conferences, all with such powers, duties, and privileges as are hereinafter set forth, provided that in The United Methodist Church there shall be no regional or jurisdictional conference based on any ground other than geographical division.

¶ 9. Article II Article III. – There may be jurisdictional conferences for the work of the Church in the United States of America within the boundaries of a regional conference, with such powers, duties, and privileges as are hereinafter set forth, provided that in The United Methodist Church there shall be no jurisdictional or central conference based on any ground other than geographical and regional division.

¶ 16. Article IV. – The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional except as provided for elsewhere in the Constitution:

¶ 16.3. To define and fix the powers and duties of annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences and missions, and of central regional conferences, jurisdictional conferences, district conferences, charge conferences, and congregational meetings.

¶ 16.4. To provide for the organization, promotion, and administration of the work of the Church outside the United States of America around the globe.

¶ 16.10. To fix a uniform basis upon which bishops shall be elected by the jurisdictional conferences and to determine the number of bishops that may be elected by central regional conferences.

¶ 16.12. To change the number and the boundaries of jurisdictional regional conferences upon the consent of a majority two-thirds of the annual conferences in each jurisdictional regional conference involved.

¶ 16.17. To prohibit by a two-thirds vote changes to portions or provisions of the Discipline that a regional conference would otherwise by the Constitution be permitted to make.

Section V. Central Regional Conferences

¶ 28. Article I.– There shall be central regional conferences for the work of the Church outside the United States of America around the globe with such duties, powers, and privileges as are hereinafter set forth. All regional conferences shall have the same status and the same privileges of action within the limits fixed by the Constitution, provided that during a transition time ending on January 1, 2033 that the General Conference may allow for differences among regional conferences including having different portions of the General Discipline apply to different regional conferences.

The number and boundaries of the central conferences shall be determined by the Uniting Conference. Subsequently the General Conference shall have authority to change the number and boundaries of central conferences. The central conferences shall have the duties, powers, and privileges hereinafter set forth. Initially, the number and boundaries of the regional conferences shall be as follows:

1. There shall be a regional conference for the work of the Church in the United States of America that includes all of the areas that comprise the jurisdictional conferences identified in Division Two, Section VII, ¶ 37.

2. The number and boundaries of regional conferences outside the United States of America shall be as established by the 2020 General Conference, provided that, should the 2020 General Conference make no changes to the boundaries of a central conference which existed prior to the 2020 General Conference, each such central conference shall become a regional conference.

¶ 29. Article II.—The central regional conferences shall be composed of as many delegates as shall be determined by a basis established by the General Conference. The delegates shall be clergy and lay in equal numbers.

¶ 30. Article III.—The central regional conferences shall meet within the year succeeding the meeting of the General Conference at such times and places as shall have been determined by the preceding respective central regional conferences or by commissions appointed by them or by the General Conference. The date and place of the first meeting succeeding the Uniting Conference shall be fixed by the bishops of the respective central conferences, or in such manner as shall be determined by the General Conference.

¶ 31. Article IV.—The central regional conferences shall have the following powers and duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference:

1. To promote the evangelistic, educational, missionary, social-concern, and benevolent interests and institutions of the Church within their own boundaries.

2. To elect the bishops for the respective central regional conferences in number as may be determined from time to time, upon a basis fixed by the General Conference, and to cooperate in carrying out such plans for the support of their bishops as may be determined by the General Conference, provided that, in regional conferences that have jurisdictional conferences:
   a) its bishops will be elected by each of its jurisdictional conferences, and
   b) the regional conference shall establish a uniform basis to allocate among its jurisdictional conferences the total number of bishops the General Conference has determined may be elected in that region, provided that a jurisdiction may choose to elect fewer bishops than the regional conference has allocated to that jurisdictional conference.

3. To establish and constitute such central regional conference boards as may be required and to elect their administrative officers.

4. To determine the boundaries of the annual conferences within their respective areas, provided that, in a regional conference with jurisdictional conferences, the jurisdictional conferences shall determine the boundaries of the annual conferences within their respective jurisdictions.

5. To make such rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries including such changes and adaptations of the General Discipline as the conditions in the respective areas may require, subject to the powers that have been or shall be vested in the General Conference. To make changes or additions to the General Discipline in the following areas as the conditions and the mission of the Church in the region may require provided that no change shall be made to a portion or provision of the General Discipline which the General Conference has by a two-thirds vote prohibited from being changed:

a. To define and fix the conditions, privileges, and duties of Church membership, which shall in every case be without reference to race, gender, or status.

b. To define and fix the qualifications, powers and duties of elders, deacons, supply preachers, local preachers, exhorters, deaconesses, and home missioners without reference to race, gender, or status.

c. To define and fix the powers and duties of annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences and missions, jurisdictional conferences, district conferences, charge conferences, and congregational meetings.

d. To supplement the hymnal and ritual of the Church and matters relating to the form and mode of worship, subject to the limitations of the first and second Restrictive Rules.

e. To fix a uniform basis upon which bishops shall be elected by its region and by any jurisdictional conferences within its bounds.

f. To secure the rights and privileges of membership in all agencies, programs, and institutions in The United Methodist Church regardless of race, gender, or status.

g. To allow the annual conferences to utilize structures unique to their mission, other mandated structures notwithstanding.

h. To make changes in the chargeable offenses and/or their mandatory penalties.
i. To enact such other legislation as may be necessary, subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution of the Church.

6. To appoint a judicial court to determine legal questions arising from on the rules, regulations, and such revised, adapted or new sections of the central regional conference Discipline enacted by the central regional conference.

7. To appoint a committee on appeals to hear and determine the appeal of a traveling preacher of that central regional conference from the decision of a committee on trial, provided that in a regional conference with jurisdictional conferences that:

   a) the regional conference shall not appoint said committee on a regional basis, and

   b) each jurisdiction conference shall appoint said committee to hear and determine the appeal of a traveling preacher of that jurisdictional conference.

8. To establish jurisdictional conferences by dividing all of the area within its boundaries into jurisdictional conferences, and also to abolish such plan of jurisdictional conferences provided that a majority of annual conferences within each jurisdiction consent to the abolishment of the jurisdictional conferences. Changes in the number, names, and boundaries of the jurisdictional conferences may be effected upon the consent of a majority of the annual conferences of each of the jurisdictional conferences involved.

38. Article II.—The work of the Church outside the United States of America around the globe may be formed into central regional conferences, the names, number and boundaries of which shall be determined by the Uniting Conference, the General Conference having authority subsequently to make changes in the number and boundaries. The General Conference shall have the authority to establish regional conferences by a two-thirds vote including where no regional conference exists, provided that changes in boundaries which involve of one or more existing regional conferences require the consent of two-thirds of the annual conferences of each regional conference involved. Further, once this paragraph is ratified:

a) The General Conference shall have the authority to make changes to the boundaries of regional conferences without requirement to amend to Division Two, Section VII, ¶ 37.

b) Regional Conferences shall have the authority to make changes to the boundaries of their jurisdictional conferences without requirement to amend to Division Two, Section VII, ¶ 37.

DELETE ¶ 39 and renumber all of the articles within its section and renumber all subsequent paragraphs of the Constitution.

¶ 39. Article III. – Changes in the number, names, and boundaries of the jurisdictional conferences may be effected by the General Conference upon the consent of a majority of the annual conferences of each of the jurisdictional conferences involved.

¶ 40 Article IV. – The number, names, and boundaries of the annual conferences and episcopal areas shall be determined by the jurisdictional conferences in the United States of America and by the central regional conferences outside the United States of America which have not organized jurisdictional conferences within their boundaries according to the provisions under the respective powers and pursuant to the respective structures of the jurisdictional and the central regional conferences. The authority of jurisdictional and central regional conferences provided herein is not circumscribed or limited by the authority provided to the College of Bishops to arrange a plan of episcopal supervision.
¶ 5049. Article VI. – The bishops, both active and retired, of The Evangelical United Brethren Church and of The Methodist Church at the time union is consummated shall be bishops of The United Methodist Church.

The bishops of The Methodist Church elected by the jurisdictions, the active bishops of The Evangelical United Brethren Church at the time of union, and The bishops elected by the jurisdictions or regional conferences which include parts of the United States of The United Methodist Church shall have life tenure. Each bishop elected by a central regional conference which is entirely outside of the United States of America of The Methodist Church shall have such tenure as the central regional conference electing him shall have determined.

The Each regional conference without jurisdictions and each jurisdictional conference shall elect a standing committee on episcopacy to consist of one clergy and one lay delegate from each annual conference, on nomination of the annual conference delegation. The committee shall review the work of the bishops, pass on their character and official administration, and report to the jurisdictional conference its findings for such action as the conference may deem appropriate within its constitutional warrant of power. The committee shall recommend the assignments of the bishops to their respective residences for final action by the jurisdictional conference.

Section III. Central Regional Conferences

¶ 540. Authorization—1. In territory outside the United States, annual Annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, mission conferences, and missions, in such numbers as the General Conference by a two-thirds vote shall determine, may be organized by the General Conference into central regional conferences or provisional central regional conferences, with such duties, privileges, and powers as are hereinafter set forth and as the General Conference by a two-thirds vote shall prescribe, provided that the names or boundaries of an existing regional conference may not be changed without the consent of two-thirds of the annual conferences in each regional conference that is involved.

2. There shall be such central regional conferences as have been authorized or shall be hereafter authorized by the General Conference, provided that a central regional conference shall have a total of at least thirty clergy and thirty lay delegates on the basis of representation as set forth in this section, except as the General Conference may fix a different number.

3. The United Methodist Church shall have central regional conferences with ministries in the following countries:

   a) Africa Central Regional Conference: Angola, Botswana, Burundi, Ethiopia, Kenya, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, Rwanda, Swaziland, South Africa, South Sudan, Uganda, Zambia, Zimbabwe;

   b) Central and Southern Europe Central Regional Conference: Albania, Algeria, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, France, Hungary, Republic of Macedonia, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovak Republic, Switzerland, Tunisia;

c) Congo Central Regional Conference: Central African Republic, Democratic Republic of Congo, Republic of Congo, Tanzania, Zambia;

d) Germany Central Regional Conference: Germany;

e) Northern Europe and Eurasia Central Regional Conference: Belarus, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Latvia, Lithuania, Moldova, Norway, Russia, Sweden, Tajikistan, Ukraine, Uzbekistan;

f) Philippines Central Regional Conference: Philippines;

g) West Africa Central Regional Conference: Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Cote d’Ivoire, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia, Mali, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, Sierra Leone, ...

h) United States Regional Conference: United States of America and all countries, regions and territories that are part of ¶ 37.

4. A provisional central regional conference may become a central regional conference upon the fulfillment of the necessary requirements and upon the authorization of the General Conference.

¶ 541. Composition for regional conferences in ¶ 541.3a-g — 1. The central regional conference in ¶ 541.3a-g shall be composed of clergy and lay members in equal numbers, the clergy members elected by the clergy members of the annual conference and the lay members by the lay members thereof. Their qualifications and the manner of election shall be determined by the central regional conference itself, subject only to constitutional requirements. Each annual conference and provisional annual conference shall be entitled to at least two clergy and two lay delegates, and no other selection of delegates shall be authorized that would provide for more than one clergy delegate for every six clergy members of an annual conference; except that a majority of the number fixed by a central regional conference as the ratio of representation shall entitle an annual conference to an additional clergy delegate and to an additional lay delegate.

Each missionary conference and mission is authorized to elect and send one of its members to the central regional conference concerned as its representative, said representative to be accorded the privilege of sitting with the committees of the central regional conference, with the right to speak in the committees and in the regular sessions of the central regional conference, but without the right to vote. Representatives of missionary conferences or missions shall have the same claim for payment of expenses as is allowed to members of the central regional conference.

2. In the case of a central regional conference, the rule of proportionate representation shall be applied by each annual conference.

¶ 542. Organization for regional conferences in ¶ 541.3a-g — 1. The first meeting of a central regional conference shall be called by the bishop or bishops in charge at such time and place as they may elect, to which members of the annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, and missions concerned shall be elected on the basis of representation as provided herein. The time and place of future meetings shall be determined by the central regional conference or its executive committee.

2. Each central regional conference shall meet within the year succeeding the session of the General Conference at such time and place as the central regional conference itself or its bishops may determine for the purpose of electing bishops when vacancies occur and for attending to other matters as required. The central regional conference has the right to hold such adjourned sessions as it may determine. The sessions of said conference shall be presided over by the bishops. In case no bishop is present, the conference shall elect a temporary president.
from among its own members. The bishops resident in a central regional conference or a majority of them, with the concurrence of the executive committee or other authorized committee, shall have the authority to call an extra session of the central regional conference to be held at the time and place designated by them.

3. The Council of Bishops may assign one or more of its number to visit any central regional conference or provisional central regional conference. When so assigned, the bishop shall be an accredited representative of the general Church, and when requested by a majority of the bishops resident in that conference may exercise therein the functions of the episcopacy.

4. The presiding officer of the central regional conference shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the central regional conference, and shall decide questions of law, subject to an appeal to the Judicial Council, but questions relating to the interpretation of the rules and regulations made by the central regional conference for the governing of its own session shall be decided by the central regional conference.

5. A central regional conference, where the laws of the land permit, shall have the power to organize and incorporate one or more executive committees, executive boards, or councils of cooperation, with such membership and such powers as may have been granted by the central regional conference for the purpose of representing it in its property and legal interests and for transacting any necessary business that may arise in the interval between the sessions of the central regional conference or that may be committed to said boards or committees by the central regional conference.

6. Each central regional conference within the bounds of which the General Board of Global Ministries has work shall maintain a cooperative and consultative relationship with the said board through a duly constituted executive committee, executive board, or council of cooperation; but the legal distinction between the General Board of Global Ministries and the organized church on the field shall always be kept clear.

¶ 543. Powers and Duties for regional conferences in ¶ 541.3a-g — 1. To a central regional conference shall be committed for supervision and promotion, in harmony with the Discipline and interdenominational contractual agreements, the missionary, educational, evangelistic, industrial, publishing, medical, and other connectional interests of the annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, and missions within its territory and such other matters as may be referred to it by said bodies or by order of the General Conference; and it shall provide suitable organizations for such work and elect the necessary officers for the same.

2. A central regional conference, when authorized by a specific enabling act of the General Conference, may elect one or more bishops from among the traveling elders of The United Methodist Church. The number of bishops to be elected by each central regional conference shall be determined from time to time by the General Conference.

3. When a central regional conference shall have been authorized to elect bishops, such elections shall be conducted under the same general procedure as prevails in the jurisdictional conferences for the election of bishops. A central regional conference shall have power to fix the tenure of bishops elected by the said central regional conference.

4. The General Council on Finance and Administration shall determine the apportionment amounts for the annual conferences of the central regional conferences for the succeeding quadrennium based on calculation methodology approved by the General Conference upon recommendation by the Council. This determination shall be informed by consultation with the Council of Bishops.
5. A central regional conference, in consultation with the bishops of that central regional conference, shall fix the episcopal areas and residences and make assignments to them of the bishops who are to reside in that central regional conference. The bishops of a central regional conference shall arrange the plan of episcopal visitation within its bounds.

6. A central regional conference shall have authority to elect and support general officers in all departments of the work of the Church within the boundaries of the central regional conference but may not determine the number of bishops.

7. A central regional conference shall have power to make such changes and adaptations of the Book of Discipline as the special conditions and the mission of the church in the area require as provided by the Constitution including ¶31.5 to make changes to the General Discipline in the following areas as the conditions and the mission of the Church in the region may require provided that no change shall be made to a portion or provision of the General Discipline which the General Conference has by a two-thirds vote prohibited from being changed:

   a) To define and fix the conditions, privileges, and duties of Church membership, which shall in every case be without reference to race, gender, or status.

   b) To define and fix the qualifications, powers and duties of elders, deacons, supply preachers, local preachers, exhorters, deaconesses, and home missioners without reference to race, gender, or status.

   c) To define and fix the powers and duties of annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences and missions, jurisdictional conferences, district conferences, charge conferences, and congregational meetings.
d) To supplement the hymnal and ritual of the Church and matters relating to the form and mode of worship, subject to the limitations of the first and second Restrictive Rules.

e) To fix a uniform basis upon which bishops shall be elected by its region and by any jurisdictional conferences within its bounds.

f) To secure the rights and privileges of membership in all agencies, programs, and institutions in The United Methodist Church regardless of race, gender, or status.

g) To allow the annual conferences to utilize structures unique to their mission, other mandated structures notwithstanding.

h) To make changes in the chargeable offenses and/or their mandatory penalties.

i) To enact such other legislation as may be necessary, subject to the limitations and
restrictions of the Constitution of the Church, especially concerning the organization and administration of the work on local church, district, and annual conference levels. Such changes shall be made provided that no action shall be taken that is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The United Methodist Church, and provided that the spirit of connectional relationship is kept between the local and the general church. Subject to this restriction, a central conference may delegate to an annual conference within its boundaries the power to make one or the other of the changes and adaptations referred to in this paragraph, upon the request of such annual conference.

8. A central regional conference shall fix the boundaries of the annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, and missions within its bounds, proposals for changes first having been submitted to the annual conferences concerned as prescribed in the Discipline of The United Methodist Church. No annual conference shall be organized with fewer than thirty-five clergy members except as provided by an enabling act for the quadrennium, which shall not reduce the number below twenty-five. Nor shall an annual conference be continued with fewer than twenty-five clergy members except as provided by an enabling act for the quadrennium.

9. A central regional conference may advise its annual conferences and provisional annual conferences to set standards of character and other qualifications for admission of lay members.

10. A central regional conference shall have power to make changes and adaptations in procedure pertaining to the annual, district, and charge conferences within its territory and to add to the business of the annual conference supplementary questions considered desirable or necessary to meet its own needs.

11. A central regional conference shall have authority to examine and acknowledge the journals of the annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, and missions located within its bounds and to make rules for the drawing up of the journals as may seem necessary.

12. A central regional conference shall have authority to adopt rules of procedure governing the investigation and trial of its clergy, including bishops, and lay members of the Church and to provide the necessary means and methods of implementing the said rules; provided, however, that the ordained ministers shall not be deprived of the right of trial by a clergy committee, and lay members of the Church of the right of trial by a duly constituted committee of lay members; and provided also, that the rights of appeal shall be adequately safeguarded.

13. A central regional conference is authorized to prepare and translate simplified or adapted forms of such parts of the ritual as it may deem necessary, such changes to require the approval of the resident bishop or bishops of the central regional conference.

14. A central regional conference shall have the power to conform the detailed rules, rites, and ceremonies for the solemnization of marriage to the statute laws of the country or countries within its jurisdiction.

15. Subject to the approval of the bishops resident therein, a central regional conference shall have the power to conform the detailed rules, rites, and ceremonies for the solemnization of marriage to the statute laws of the country or countries within its jurisdiction.

16. A central regional conference shall have authority to edit and publish a central regional conference Discipline, which shall contain in addition to the Constitution of the Church such sections from the general Discipline of The United Methodist Church as may be pertinent to the entire Church and also such revised, adapted, or new sections as shall have been enacted by the central regional conference concerned under the powers given by the Constitution or the General Conference.

17. In a central regional conference or provisional central regional conference using a language other than English, legislation passed by a General Conference shall not take effect until twelve months after the close of that General Conference in order to afford the necessary time to make adaptations and to publish a translation of the legislation that has been enacted, the translation to be approved by the resident bishop or bishops of the central regional conference. This provision, however, shall not exclude the election of delegates to the General Conference by annual conferences within the territory of central regional conferences or provisional central regional conferences.

18. A central regional conference is authorized to interpret Article XXIII of the Articles of Religion (page 71) so as to recognize the governments of the country or countries within its territory.

19. A central regional conference shall have power to authorize the congregations in a certain state or country to form special organizations in order to receive the acknowledgment of the state or country according to the laws of that state or country. These organizations shall be empowered to represent the interests of the Church to the authorities of the state or country according to the rules and principles of The United Methodist Church, and they shall be required to give regular reports of their activities to their respective annual conferences.

20. A central regional conference may, with the consent of the bishops resident in that conference, enter into agreements with churches or missions of other denominations for the division of territory or of responsibility for Christian work within the territory of the central regional conference.

21. A central regional conference shall have the right to negotiate with other Protestant bodies looking toward the possibility of church union; provided that any proposals for church union shall be submitted to the General Conference for approval before consummation.

¶ 544. [Reserved]

¶ 545. Records and Archives for regional conferences in ¶ 541.3a-g —1. The journal of the proceedings of a central regional conference, duly signed by the president and secretary, shall be sent for examination to the General Conference through its secretary. Two paper copies in every translation shall be sent without charge to the General Commission on Archives and History and the General Council on Finance and Administration, and one copy of a digital version shall be sent along with the paper copies, if available. It is recommended that the journal include memoirs of deceased clergy and deceased clergy spouses.

2. The secretary of a central regional conference in which one or more bishops have been chosen shall report to the secretary of the General Conference the names of the bishop or bishops and the residences to which they have been assigned by the central regional conference.

3. The secretary of each central regional conference shall submit a hardcopy of every translation and adaptation of the general Discipline or portion thereof in use in that central regional conference to the General Commission on Archives and History and the General Council on Finance and Administration.

¶ 546. Property for regional conferences in ¶ 541.3a-g —1. A central regional conference, through a duly incorporated property-holding body or bodies, shall have authority to purchase, own, hold, or transfer property for and on behalf of all the unincorporated organizations of The United Methodist Church within the territory of that central regional conference or on behalf of other organizations of The United Methodist Church that have entrusted their property to that central regional conference.

2. A central regional conference shall have authority to make the necessary rules and regulations for the holding and management of such properties; provided, however, that (a) all procedure shall be subject to the laws of the country or countries concerned; (b) no transfer of property shall be made from one annual conference to another without the consent of the conference holding title to such property; and (c) the status of properties held by local trustees or other holding bodies shall be recognized.

3. A central regional conference shall not directly or indirectly, through its incorporated property-holding body or bodies, alienate property or proceeds of property without due consideration of its trusteeship for local churches, annual conferences, the General Board of Global Ministries, and other organizations, local or general, of the Church.

4. A central regional conference or any of its incorporated organizations shall not involve the General Board of Global Ministries or any organization of the Church in any financial obligation without the official approval of said board or organization. All invested funds, fiduciary trusts, or property belonging to an annual conference, a provisional annual conference, a missionary conference, or a mission, or any of its institutions, acquired by bequest, donation, or otherwise and designated for a specific use, shall be applied to the purpose for which they were designated. They shall not be diverted to any other purpose, except by the consent of the conference or mission involved and with the approval of the central regional conference concerned and civil court action when necessary. The same rule shall apply to similar funds or properties acquired by a central regional conference for specific objects. In cases involving the diversion of trust funds and properties within the territory of a central regional conference, the central regional conference concerned shall determine the disposition of the interests involved, subject to an appeal to the judicial court of the central regional conference.

¶ 547. Regional Conference Agencies for regional conferences in ¶ 541.3a-g —1. A central regional conference may have a standing committee on women’s work. This committee should preferably be composed of the women delegates and such other persons as the central regional conference may elect. The duty of this committee shall be to study the relation of women to the Church and to devise ways and means of developing this portion of the Church membership, to the end that it may assume its rightful responsibilities in the extension of the Kingdom. The committee shall make recommendations to the central regional conference regarding women’s organizations within its areas. A central regional conference organization may become a member of the World Federation of Methodist Women and may elect a representative to the World Federation of Methodist Women within the provisions of the federation.

2. A central regional conference may organize a women’s unit, after consultation with the committee on women’s work, in connection with any annual conference or provisional annual conference within its bounds and provide a constitution and bylaws for it.

3. A central regional conference that adapts and edits the Discipline as provided in ¶ 543.16 shall establish a judicial court, which in addition to other duties that the central regional conference may assign to it shall hear and determine the legality of any action of the central regional conference taken under the adapted portions of the Discipline or of a decision of law by the presiding bishop of the central regional conference pertaining to the adapted portions of the Discipline, upon appeal by the presiding bishop or by one-fifth of the members of the central regional conference. Further, the judicial court shall hear and determine the legality of any action of an annual conference taken under the adapted portions of the Discipline or of a decision of law by the presiding bishop of the annual conference pertaining to the adapted portion of the Discipline, upon appeal of the presiding bishop or of such percentage of the members of the annual conference as may be determined by the central regional conference concerned.

4. A central regional conference may have a standing committee on young people’s ministry. This committee shall be composed of youth, young adults, and adult leaders of youth or young-adult ministry from each annual conference in the central regional conference. The duty of this committee shall be to study the relation of young people to the Church and to devise ways and means of developing the Church’s ministry for, with, and by young people. The committee shall make recommendations to the central regional conference regarding youth and young-adult organizations within its areas as well as elect delegates to the Global Young People’s Convocation (¶ 1210).

5. Every board, standing committee, commission, council, and work area of the central regional conference shall designate one of its members as its coordinator of witness ministries. These persons shall help the agencies of which they are members to engage in witness ministries and, in particular, to ask, “How are we intentionally reaching new people for Jesus Christ through our ministries?” and “How are we helping new people grow and mature as disciples of Jesus Christ through our ministries and areas of responsibility?”

¶ 548. Bishops in Retired Relation for regional conferences in ¶ 541.3a-g—1. An ordained minister who has served a term or part of a term as a bishop in a central regional conference where term episcopacy has prevailed shall, upon retirement from the effective relation in the ministry, be paid an allowance from the General Episcopal Fund in such sum as the General Council on Finance and Administration shall determine for the years during which the ordained minister served as a bishop.

2. When former central or regional conferences of The United Methodist Church become or have become autonomous churches or entered into church unions, retired bishops therein shall continue to have membership in the Council of Bishops if the retired bishops involved so desire.

¶ 551. Composition for United States Regional Conference in ¶ 541.3h) —The United States Regional Conference shall be composed of all General Conference delegates from annual conferences in its jurisdictions who are elected to the General Conference immediately prior to the United States Regional Conference meeting and said delegates shall represent those same annual conferences. Reserve delegates elected from the annual conferences in its jurisdictions to the General Conference shall also serve as reserve delegates to the United States Regional Conference. In addition, one lay person and one clergyperson from each regional conference outside the United States shall be elected by their regional conferences or their leadership bodies and shall serve with voice but not vote.

¶ 552. Organization for United States Regional Conference in ¶ 541.3h) —1. The United States Regional Conference shall initially meet as the Interim Committee on Organization during General Conference and then within the year succeeding the meeting of the General Conference at such time and place as determined by the preceding United States Regional Conference. The date and place of the first United States Regional Conference meeting shall be fixed in such manner as determined by the General Conference.

2. The United States Regional Conference has the right to hold such adjourned sessions as it may determine. The sessions of said conference shall be presided over by the bishops of the jurisdictional conferences. The bishops shall have the authority to call an extra session of the United States Regional Conference to be held at the time and place designated by them.

3. The presiding officer of the United States Regional Conference shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the United States Regional Conference, and shall decide questions of law, subject to an appeal to the Judicial Council, but questions relating to the interpretation of the rules and regulations made by the United States Regional Conference for the governing of its own session shall be decided by the United States Regional Conference.

4. The United States Regional Conference shall have the power to organize and incorporate one or more executive committees, executive boards, or councils of cooperation, with such membership and such powers as may have been granted by the regional conference for the purpose of representing it in its property and legal interests and for transacting any necessary business that may arise in the interval between the sessions of the United States Regional Conference or that may be committed to said boards or committees by the United States
Regional Conference, provided these actions do not modify or supersede the powers and duties of its jurisdictional conferences.

¶ 553. Powers and Duties for United States Regional Conference in ¶ 541.3h) — 1. The United States Regional Conference shall receive and act on missionary, educational, evangelistic, industrial, publishing, medical, and other connectional interests of its annual conferences, missionary conferences, and jurisdictions and such other matters as may be referred to it by these bodies or by the General Conference. It shall provide suitable organizations for such work and elect the necessary officers for the same.

2. The United States Regional Conference shall have power as provided by the Constitution including ¶ 31.5 to make changes or additions to the General Discipline in the following areas as the conditions and the mission of the Church in the region may require provided that no change shall be made to a portion or provision of the General Discipline which the General Conference has by a two-thirds vote prohibited from being changed:

   a. To define and fix the conditions, privileges, and duties of Church membership, which shall in every case be without reference to race, gender, or status.
   b. To define and fix the qualifications, powers and duties of elders, deacons, supply preachers, local preachers, exhorters, deaconesses, and home missioners without reference to race, gender, or status.
   c. To define and fix the powers and duties of annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences and missions, jurisdictional conferences, district conferences, charge conferences, and congregational meetings.
d. To supplement the hymnal and ritual of the Church and matters relating to the form and mode of worship, subject to the limitations of the first and second Restrictive Rules.
e. To fix a uniform basis upon which bishops shall be elected by its region and by any jurisdictional conferences within its bounds.
f. To secure the rights and privileges of membership in all agencies, programs, and institutions in The United Methodist Church regardless of race, gender, or status.
g. To allow the annual conferences to utilize structures unique to their mission, other mandated structures notwithstanding.
h. To make changes in the chargeable offenses and/or their mandatory penalties.
i. To enact such other legislation as may be necessary, subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution of the Church.

These changes shall be made provided that no action shall be taken that is contrary to the Constitution and the General Rules of The United Methodist Church, and provided that the spirit of connectional relationship is kept between the local and the general Church.

3. The United States Regional Conference shall have power to make changes and adaptations in procedure pertaining to the annual, district, and charge conferences within its territory and to add to the business of the annual conference supplementary questions considered desirable or necessary to meet its own needs.

4. The United States Regional Conference shall have authority to examine and acknowledge the journals of the jurisdictional conferences, annual conferences, and missionary conferences within its bounds and to make recommendations for the drawing up of the journals as may seem necessary.
5. The United States Regional Conference shall have authority to edit and publish a regional conference Discipline, which shall contain in addition to the Constitution of the Church such sections from the general Discipline of The United Methodist Church as may be pertinent to the entire Church and also such changed or new sections as shall have been enacted by the regional conference under the powers given by the Constitution or by the General Conference.

¶ 554. Records and Archives for United States Regional Conference in ¶ 541.3h)—1. The journal of the proceedings of the United States Regional Conference, duly signed by the president and secretary, shall be sent for examination to the General Conference. Two paper copies shall be sent without charge to the General Commission on Archives and History and the General Council on Finance and Administration, and one copy of a digital version shall be sent along with the paper copies.

2. The United States Regional Conference shall submit a copy of every adaptation of the general Discipline or portion thereof in use in the regional conference to the General Commission on Archives and History and the General Council on Finance and Administration.

¶ 555. Conference Agencies for United States Regional Conference in ¶ 541.3h)—1. The United States Regional Conferences shall establish a judicial court, which in addition to other duties that the regional conference may assign to it shall hear and determine the legality of any action of the regional conference taken under the adapted portions of the Discipline or of a decision of law by a presiding bishop of the United States Regional Conference pertaining to the adapted portions of the Discipline, upon appeal by the presiding bishop or by one-fifth of the members of the United States Regional Conference. Further, the judicial court shall hear and determine the legality of any action of an annual conference taken under the adapted portions of the Discipline or of a decision of law by the presiding bishop of the annual conference pertaining to the adapted portion of the Discipline, upon appeal of the presiding bishop or of such percentage of the members of the annual conference as may be determined by the United States Regional Conference.

2. The United States Regional Conference shall establish such other agencies, commissions, or committees as it may determine are important to the work and witness of the Church within its bounds.

Section IV. Provisional Central Regional Conferences

¶ 560. Authorization—Annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, and missions outside the United States that are not included in central regional conferences or in the territory of affiliated autonomous churches and that, because of geographical, language, political, or other considerations, have common interests that can best be served thereby, may be organized into provisional central regional conferences as provided in ¶ 540.1.

The United Methodist Church shall have a provisional central regional conference with ministries in the following countries:

a) Southeast Asia and Mongolia Provisional Central Regional Conference: Laos, Mongolia, Thailand, and Vietnam.

¶ 561. Organization—The organization of provisional central regional conferences shall conform to the regulations prescribed for central regional conferences insofar as they are considered applicable by the bishop in charge.

¶ 562. Powers—The General Conference may grant to a provisional central regional conference any of the powers of a central regional conference except that of electing bishops.

¶ 563. Ad Interim Provisions—In the interval between General Conferences, the General
Board of Global Ministries, upon the recommendation of the bishops in charge and after consultation with the annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, and missions concerned, may make changes in the boundaries of a provisional central regional conference and may grant to a provisional central regional conference or to any of its component parts any of the powers of a central regional conference except that of electing bishops. All changes in boundaries and all grants of powers authorized by the General Board of Global Ministries shall be reported to the ensuing session of the General Conference and shall expire at the close of that session unless renewed by the General Conference.

¶ 564. Lay Membership—An annual conference or a provisional annual conference in the field of a provisional central regional conference shall have the power to set standards of character and other qualifications for admission of its lay members.

¶ 565. Ad Interim Provisions for Regional Conferences Outside the United States—To annual conferences, provisional annual conferences, missionary conferences, and missions that are outside the United States and are not included in central regional conferences or provisional central regional conferences, the General Conference may grant any of the powers of central regional conferences except that of electing bishops; and in the interval between General Conferences, the General Board of Global Ministries may grant such powers when requested to do so by the bishop in charge and by the annual conference, provisional annual conference, missionary conference, or mission concerned.

¶ 566. Episcopal Supervision—The General Conference shall make provision for the episcopal supervision of work in the territory outside the United States that is not now included in central regional conferences.

¶ 567. Episcopal Visitation—The Council of Bishops may provide, if and when necessary, for episcopal visitation of mission fields not included in central or provisional central regional conferences.

AMEND Section XVI. Standing Committee on Central Regional Conference Matters Outside of the United States of America

¶ 2201. General Provisions—1. The General Conference recognizes the differences in conditions that exist in various areas of the world and the changes taking place in those areas. There shall be a Standing Committee on Central Regional Conference Matters Outside of the United States of America serving as an independent coordinating body. The General Board of Global Ministries shall be the facilitating agency to the standing committee. The standing committee shall serve as the coordinating body to study the structure and supervision of The United Methodist Church in its work outside the United States and its territories and its relationships to other Church bodies.

2. The standing committee shall meet at least twice within the quadrennium in order to review, consider, and develop resolutions and petitions related to Central Regional conferences outside of the United States of America (see ¶ 540.3a-g) and may be called into session during General Conference as needed. It shall review and prepare such recommendations as it considers necessary for presentation directly to the General Conference. The committee shall submit its report and recommendations in accordance with the timelines governing general agencies for submission of petitions and resolutions. All resolutions and petitions related to Central Regional conferences outside of the United States of America presented to the General Conference shall be referred to the committee for consideration, and the committee shall report its recommendations directly to the General Conference. On matters dealing with the determination of episcopal areas (¶ 404.1), affiliation and autonomy (¶ 572), and joining The United Methodist Church (¶ 575), the committee shall report directly to the General Conference.

3. Other paragraphs of the Discipline notwithstanding, members may serve for three (3) four-year terms and may serve on one other general agency. The standing committee shall be composed of one bishop from each jurisdiction in the United States Regional Conference and from each central-regional conference outside of the United States of America named by the Council of Bishops; one ordained minister and one layperson from each jurisdiction in the United States Regional Conference and from each central-regional conference outside of the United States of America who are delegates to the General Conference and named by the Council of Bishops; central-regional conferences outside of the United States of America with more than three episcopal areas shall elect additional members, lay or clergy, up to the total number of episcopal areas in the central such regional conference; one bishop, one ordained minister, and one layperson who are members of the General Board of Global Ministries and named by the General Board of Global Ministries. The central conference bishop from the regional conference outside of the United States of America assigned to the Office of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships shall also be a member of this committee. Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of women, lay, clergy, youth, and young adults. The chairperson of the committee shall be a central conference bishop in a regional conference outside of the United States of America and shall also serve as a member of the Connectional Table. (This legislation will take effect immediately upon action by General Conference for the membership of the Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters for 2016-2020.)
4. The Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters will convene at the conclusion of the General Conference at which it was elected and continue its work through the following General Conference. To facilitate transition, incoming members shall participate in the deliberations of the committee during such General Conference, having voice but no vote until the organizing meeting.

5. The General Council on Finance and Administration shall recommend to the General Conference for its action and determination a provision in the budget of an appropriate general Church fund for the expenses incurred by the standing committee.

A Non-Disciplinary Petition Enabling Legislation for a United States Regional Conference

A United States Regional Committee (“the Committee”), a committee of the General Conference with legislative function, shall be established to deal with United States Regional Conference – Adaptable petitions concerning U.S. matters. The objectives of this Committee are to unburden the full General Conference from U.S. legal, contextual, and financial matters that are outside the purview of Regional conference delegates [outside of the United States of America] and to provide a venue for consideration of U.S. Regional Conference – Adaptable petitions and other matters pertaining to the Church in the United States. This Committee may be an interim body and shall continue functioning until a United States Regional Conference is created and is functional. The Committee shall operate according to the following provisions:

1. A bishop assigned by the Council of Bishops shall convene the Committee initially for the purpose of electing Committee officers. Officer elections shall follow the processes for election of legislative committee officers in the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the General Conference.

2. Based on the number and nature of petitions assigned to the Committee, the Commission on the General Conference shall set the number of subcommittees as needed.

3. Legislative items receiving no more than 50 votes against the prevailing position in the committee shall be placed on a General Conference consent calendar for U.S. Matters. It shall require the requisite number of signatures, as per the Rules of the General Conference, to remove an item from this consent calendar.

4. The Commission on the General Conference shall be responsible for developing any other rules, responsibilities, and limitations needed for the functioning of the Committee and the attainment of its objectives as stated above.

5. Where not otherwise specified in the Book of Discipline, in this petition or other General Conference actions, or in the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, the rules for General Conference legislative committees will direct the processes of this Committee.

6. Petitions which pertain to U.S. Region – Adaptable matters shall be coded accordingly, in a manner comparable to the coding used to denote petitions with financial implications or global impact.

All provisions of this petition shall take effect immediately upon the adjournment of the 2020 General Conference.

A Non-Disciplinary Petition to Create a Plan for Organization of a United States Regional Conference

Authorization—There shall be an Interim Committee on Organization (ICO) for one quadrennium that organizes and plans for the establishment and functioning of a new United States Regional Conference (USRC) comprising the five jurisdictions of the United States.

Composition—The Council of Bishops, through the Leadership Discernment Committee, shall appoint a 20-25-member Interim Committee on Organization (ICO). The committee membership shall be determined using proportionate representation of the United States jurisdictions, with a minimum of three members from each United States jurisdiction, ensuring broad diversity, including racial, young adults, persons with disabilities (special needs) and gender inclusion. All members of the ICO shall be chosen from among the voting delegates elected by the annual conferences in the U.S. jurisdictions. Meeting and other necessary costs shall be funded by the General Administration Fund. In addition, two regional conference members shall be elected by the Regional Conferences outside of the United States or their leadership bodies to advise and consult the ICO.

Responsibilities—The ICO shall be charged with the following responsibilities:

1. The ICO shall choose the time and place for the convening of the initial gathering of the United States Regional Conference.
2. The ICO shall work with the Secretary of the General Conference and the Business Manager of the General Conference in planning for the first gathering of the United States Regional Conference.

3. The ICO, in consultation with the appropriate committees of the Commission on the General Conference, shall recommend to the United States Regional Conference for action at its first gathering what committees and officers are required to ensure the functionality of the USRC.

4. Upon the completion of the first United States Regional Conference gathering, the ICO shall cease to exist as a committee of the General Conference, unless the USRC authorizes the continuation of their work for a specific time and purpose.

This petition will go into effect only upon the General Conference approval of the establishment of the United States Regional Conference.

APPENDIX

Anticipated Financial Requirements—United States Regional Conference

The creation of the United States Regional Conference is predicted to decrease the cost of General Conference by reducing the number days of the gathering, due to a decrease in number of days for the entire General Conference and the expectation that the United States Regional Conference would save money for the denomination. The United States Regional Conference could convene during or at the end of General Conference or in conjunction with Jurisdictional conference and meet for not more than a few days to handle the U.S. specific matters.
The Interim Committee on Organization for the United States Regional Conference would meet two times total during the quadrennium, each time for no more than three days (two nights lodging). The committee could meet in a central United States location and perhaps could receive donated meeting space from a church or an agency. At a maximum number of 25 members with flights, meals, lodging, staffing, and venue costs meeting two times, the committee would need new funding of between $83,000 and $98,000. The committee would only meet for one quadrennium, so the expenses would be needed for 2021-2024, but not beyond.

A Non-Disciplinary Petition to Update and Perfect the New Regional Conference Structure Contingent Upon the Ratification of the Constitutional Amendments to Create Regional Conferences on a Global Basis

Authorization—There shall be a study to update and perfect the new regional conference structure to ensure full equity between regional conferences. This will be facilitated by the Connectional Table with the new Standing Committees created by General Conference relative to ministry matters in regional conferences in the United States and around the globe. The Connectional Table shall report the results of this joint study, including any recommendations, to the 2024 General Conference.

This petition will go into effect only upon the General Conference ratification of the constitutional amendments to create regional conferences on a global basis. The study may begin even while the annual conferences are still going through the ratification process.

All provisions of this petition shall take effect immediately upon the adjournment of the 2020 General Conference
