Cardinal Kung Academy Announces Appointment of New Principal

MAY 4, 2021: The Cardinal Kung Academy Board of Directors is delighted to announce that Dr. Alexander B. Miller will be joining Cardinal Kung Academy as its new principal effective July 1, 2021.

Dr. Miller comes to us from Fordham University, where he teaches courses in Biblical Studies. He previously taught courses in Classics, Philosophy, and Theology at Notre Dame University, Fordham University, St. John's University, and SUNY Purchase. Dr. Miller is excited to advance the renaissance of classical Catholic education here at Cardinal Kung Academy.

Dr. Miller graduated magna cum laude with a double-major in Philosophy and Theology from Georgetown University. He earned an MA in Early Christian Studies from the University of Notre Dame and an MA in Christian Near Eastern Studies from The Catholic University of America with a major in Syriac and minor in Coptic. His PhD in Theology is from Fordham University, where he specialized in patristic theology.

Dr. Miller is an active member of the Knights of Columbus and Saints John and Paul Parish in Larchmont. He lives in Westchester County, NY with his wife and two children.

Dr. Miller will be succeeding Barbara Logsdail, our beloved founder, board member, and first principal. Barbara will remain as an active board member of Cardinal Kung Academy.
