Roam Wild is a Dallas-based organization that works to connect youth from diverse backgrounds in carefully designed outdoor adventure trips. Each trip incorporates team-building, working through differences, challenging preconceptions, and giving back through community service. Likewise, through exploration of one’s self and others in a challenge by choice environment, we build healthy habits of self care and self confidence; and in doing this work in natural environments we will create a diverse body of environmental advocates whose collaborative efforts will ensure a more equitable and sustainable future.
