Directions: Create a model to solve the problem using materials. Draw a picture of your model to show how you solved the problem.

10,377 tourists visited an art show in the morning and 11,915 visited in the afternoon. How many people visited the show?