GROWN UP GRUNGE

“This jewelry is very intimate. It highlights erogenous zones and makes you more aware of your physical self.”
– Rachel Loren

Carefree confidence of the grunge era sets the tone for Loren Stewart's latest collection. Inspired by the effortlessly uncoordinated and self-assured style and music of the 90s from Kate Moss to Kurt Cobain, Rachel Loren imbues her fine jewelry pieces with a rebellious spirit. Velvet and silk cords are strung with 14kt gold charms, gemstones and pearls. Blue kyanite and pink tourmaline gems in prong and bezel settings accent necklaces and earrings. Oversized and ultra-versatile sterling silver chains channel an industrial vibe. ID bracelets are crafted from mixed metals. Gold puff hearts lend charm to velvet ribbons, blue kyanite hearts decorate signet rings. White zircon and green tsavorite appear in Victorian style flower settings. Gold and Silver Lingerie chains, miniature keys, bongs and lips charms add an air of insouciance.
