To Nameless Ghost who said John was not doing the Lord's work. Wouldn't that be a little PRESUMPTUOUS for YOU to decide who is and who is not doing the Lord's work? Are YOU the Lord, btw? If you are the Lord, then, yes, YOU CAN SAY who is and who is not doing your work. Otherwise, I would be careful making such judgments. Do we all wish John did not let a curse word fly now and then? Sure. But everything else he says reminds me of this: "Speak the word of Jehovah WITH BOLDNESS." Maybe the Lord chooses all kinds of people, some BOLD, some more meek. When you get off your self-righteous judgment trip, then we will welcome you. Otherwise, you're a REAL DOWNER HERE. /SLC

Remote User:

Date:
04 Sep 2002
Time:
22:52:57
Comments
JOIN NOW! The 700 Club! (Oops. That's a typo, I meant): John The 300 Club! Yes, The 300 Club was begun by me, SLC, for any and all regulars who would like to post at least 300 replies to guests here who may not really be writing to you specifically but your heart compels you to write/reply/welcome/comfort, and yes, you even might have to chastise a few now and then. :-) :-) :-) :-) :-) LOVE TO EVERYONE!!! /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 22:53:12
Comments
Iris Clifford: Please tell us what happened when you took the perp to court. Criminal or civil? Did you include the elders that should have helped but didn't. Do you know of any others that this creep attacked - attack that could/should have been prevented? I hope you got some satisfaction. - Buster

Remote User:
Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:00:04
Comments
Reminder to those who don't recall or haven't read: SLC = Definition = Silent Lambs Cheerleader. ----- Cheerleader = Definition: "One who leads the cheering of spectators." Hence, I began posting and making an effort to cheer-on/reply/acknowledge/validate/welcome/ comfort/console/or Just Say Howdy! to everyone who takes the time to visit the Guestbook, and who leaves a comment. ----- Another word for cheerleader (per the dictionary) is adulator = Definition: "To praise or admire excessively." ----- You Better Belief It Too! That's my heart's desire: To PRAISE & ADMIRE EXCESSIVELY SURVIVORS OF ABUSE; to Praise & Admire the SUPPORTERS & ADVOCATES of the Victims/Survivors of Abuse! If you want to be on the cheerleading team, which most of you WONDERFUL PEOPLE already ARE, keep up the GOOD WORK. When we all reach the 300-post mark, we become automatic members of THE 300 CLUB!!! :-) :-) :-) :-) Love ya/SLC!

Remote User:
Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:00:56
Comments
SG . . . . . . This is the counterpoint to your commentary . . . . . Years ago some Jehovah's Witnesses in the door to door service rang my doorbell and I eventually studied and was baptized. One of the points they drilled home to me was I needed to leave my current religion because of its wrongdoing. They convinced me that to stay would be guilt by association. And now you are telling me that it is okay to stay part of a religion regardless of what its leadership does? Also you are saying that Jehovah will sort out the wicked from the righteous within the JW's religious organization; therefore I must conclude that he would be willing to do the same for any religion. I have a couple of other problems, you say that true religion should have LOVE among their selves, so my question is: Does that include love for VICTIMS? Would it be okay to destroy the lives of tens of thousands of children and then throw them away by disfellowshipping them if they had problems? Would it be okay to threaten and coerce people like me who complained about the abuse? I have another question: When the bible says all you are BROTHERS, did it mean that it was okay to have a hierarchy of elders that would rule over the lay class with secret instructions received via secret letters and secret meetings? Does the Bible have a SECRET PART that I don't know about? Would it be okay for me and many others to study our watchtowers and think we were being taught by the FDS but in fact they were using double speak and secret documents to hide the truth? You seem to have the Hebrew Scriptures down pat, but let me ask you another question? How hard do you think it was for First Century Christians to leave the Jewish religion?
What did it cost them? Weren't they disfellowshipped by the synagogues? Why couldn't they just remain a part of that Pharisaical organization and let God sort it out in the end? I have a few more questions but I'll stop with this one. In my congregation about 90% of the members did not care about the victim, the elders ran a dis-information double speak campaign that would have made Bill Clinton proud and lies were taught. Mr JR Brown and Watchtower Service Dept was very personally involved it this particular mess. So do you think those people are my brothers? My name is Nan, Nancy Naranjo

Remote User:

Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:04:13
Comments
NP! LOL! on the "beware of JW sending/gifts." --- And What does "shiil pew" mean??? ?SLC

Remote User:

Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:08:59
Comments
TROLL MAN, RJ: How nice of you to visit us again. What you are evidently not grasping, even though I have mentioned this before, is that when there are BIG EVENTS COMING UP/TAKING PLACE having to do with the Silent Lambs Organization, then everybody gets busy and is taking care of things; hence the # of posts drop down, and everyone is very excited as we have BIG DAYS COMING! Now, once those Events die down again -- and they will in the interim, as occurred more recently after Dateline and before BBC Panorama... and then between Panorama and CNN.... and in between CNN and this NEXT BIG OCCURRENCE.... -- The point I am making is that IN BETWEEN big Silent Lambs Functions, there is a slowdown and people like to discuss SIDE TOPICS having to do with the WTS. When that time comes again -- and it will -- we will give you ADVANCE WARNING so you can disappear for awhile so you will not get sooooooo discouraged and obnoxious about the Side Topics which we also like to discuss. Now, do you understand how the EBB & FLOW of this guestbook works? I hope I have explained it in a way you can comprehendo! LOVE YOU MR. TROLL RJ!!!! LOVE LOVE LOVE IS IN THE AIR!!! SILENT LAMBS ARE A-NUMBER-ONE PEOPLE!!!! /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:13:11
Comments
DUHHHHH! I did not even "GET" the story John's uncle told him about the lady in the window, until just now when I read the NAMELESS Ghost's post. NOW I GET IT! Now I see how John was applying it: THE GB GETTING IT FROM BEHIND. Well, we already know that is TRUE (i.e., Greenlees, Canadian Branch Office; and Chitty, et al.) GB PERVERTS ARE DISGUSTING, so how can you find fault with the discreet way of putting it? Would you rather have us describe in DETAIL what Greenlees and Chitty Chitty Bang Bang did????? /SLC

Remote User:
Comments
For a people who like to label themselves "IN THE TRUTH", it has been my personal observation over the years that they run from the truth and cower in their dark holes whenever they hear it. Also whenever they are asked a direct question, they will lie lie LIE, no matter how ludicrous the story they have made up to cover their evil tracks. I have never known anyone to fear the truth like a JW CJV Ontario, Canada

Remote User:

Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:17:49
Comments
SORRY I didn't have time to read AND reply to all the posts tonight or the past few days, especially the longer ones I didn't even read tonight. Doing laundry for outfit for the BIG DAY TOMORROW for SILENT LAMBS ACROSS AMERICAN & THE WORLD!!! I WILL BE THERE!!! Come RAIN (most likely Tropical Depression Eduardo!) or SHINE!!! My laundry is done so I gotta go put it in the dryer and get to bed. Hope to check in late tomorrow or very soon with more news!!! Love ya/SLC

Remote User:

Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:42:26
Comments
CENTRAL FLORIDA PEOPLE: If anyone visits the guestbook late tonight or early tomorrow (today) THURSDAY 9-5-02, from the Central Florida Area, and you want to lend support to the Silent Lambs, why not come to the press conference 10:30 am TODAY/Thursday, in the Heart of Orlando!!! All you have to do is just STAND THERE & SHOW YOUR SUPPORT! For info write Zenreese@aol.com, or write info@silentlambs.org, or call 386-295-4545 for DIRECTIONS & LOCATION.

Remote User:

Date: 04 Sep 2002
Time: 23:46:05
Comments
ATLANTA, GEORGIA & SURROUND AREA: CENTRAL FLORIDA PEOPLE: If anyone visits the guestbook late tonight or early tomorrow (today) THURSDAY 9-5-02, from the Atlanta, GA area, and you want to lend support to the Silent Lambs, why not come to the press conference 10:30 am TODAY/Thursday, in Atlanta!!! All you have to do is just STAND THERE & SHOW YOUR SUPPORT! For info write obedf@hotmail.com, or write info@silentlambs.org or call 1-877-WT-ABUSE for DIRECTIONS & LOCATION.
CORRECT VERSION: ATLANTA, GEORGIA & SURROUND AREA: If anyone visits the guestbook late tonight or early tomorrow (today) THURSDAY 9-5-02, from the Atlanta, GA area, and you want to lend support to the Silent Lambs, why not come to the press conference 10:30 am TODAY/Thursday, in Atlanta!!! All you have to do is just STAND THERE & SHOW YOUR SUPPORT! For info write obedf@hotmail.com, or write info@silentlambs.org or call 1-877-WT-ABUSE for DIRECTIONS & LOCATION.

GREATER LOS ANGELES AREA: If anyone visits the guestbook late tonight or early tomorrow (today) THURSDAY 9-5-02, from the Greater LA area, and you want to lend support to the Silent Lambs, why not come to the press conference 10:30 am TODAY/Thursday, in LA!!! All you have to do is just STAND THERE & SHOW YOUR SUPPORT! For info write info@silentlambs.org or call 1-877-WT-ABUSE for DIRECTIONS & LOCATION.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON & SURROUNDING AREA: If anyone visits the guestbook late tonight or early tomorrow (today) THURSDAY 9-5-02, from the SEATTLE area, and you want to lend support to the Silent Lambs, why not come to the press conference 10:30 am TODAY/Thursday, in SEATTLE!!! All you have to do is just STAND THERE & SHOW YOUR SUPPORT! Contact: Charles L. Eakins: Both Home & Cell 206-706-0797; or Bill Bowen: 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345; or write info@silentlambs.org or call 1-877-WT-ABUSE for EXACT DIRECTIONS & LOCATION.

REPORT FROM THE FIELD: MISSION ACCOMPLISHED Sep 5, 2002 00:46 ------ JUST GOT HOME A SHORT WHILE AGO AFTER VISITING A COUPLE OF LOCAL KINGDOM HALLS. YEP, LEFT THEM A "PRESENT" A LITTLE LAMB WITH A NOTE REGARDING THE "SILENCED LAMBS" AND THE SILENT LAMBS WEB SITE. THEY'LL BE THERE TO GREET THE PIONEERS AND PUBLISHERS FOR THEIR EARLY MORNING FIELD SERVICE MEETING. (Posted by SisterAct at J-W.com) ------ GREAT IDEA! WE ALL should do that, maybe the Thursday night before the 9-27-02 March --or-- the Saturday night after the March, so the lambs would be there for their SUNDAY meetings! What do you think my fellow CHEERLEAERS??? (Yes I'm supposed to be IN BED by now!) /SLC THE LAMBS WILL BE DOING THEIR OWN WITNESSING.
Buster, if you recall back on 31 Aug 2002 19:17:34 John said he was doing the Lord's work. It is a DISGRACE to take Jehovah's name in vain as he has done so many times on this site. He alludes to "your god Jehovah" often and follows up with obscene remarks that are sickening. Buster you make me sick even trying to condone such behavior. I don't care how much research he does, I am really upset that anyone DARES to condone his antics. HOW DARE YOU condone his obnoxious behavior with references to what our Lord Jesus did on behalf of Jehovah when he tried to clean his Father's house?! This is an absolute outrage and truly sickening to say the least, that you would even offer an explanation for his behavior. You also said the following "As for your speech on behalf of Christ's opinions" WHAT??? I don't have to speak for him, pick up a bible! What do you mean I'm wrong there? The bible clearly delineates what makes a true follower of Christ, would you say Buster he fits the bill? And to SLC, why don't YOU be careful when YOU make your judgments? I base mine on what is clear as day, and John has made it very clear he is a dangerous individual by the crude obscene language and descriptions he uses. "Speak the word of Jehovah with CRUDESTNESS, is what John does SLC. Before you quote from the bible make sure you know what you're talking about. I was abused as a child and I think it is a disgrace what is happening here. So now what SLC, am I not welcome here anymore? Are you going to tell me that I am lying? Your comments about the GB were despicable. I expect that from you and from others here. And someone says they're lumping me in with other WT zombies, go ahead if that makes you feel better. I thought that this was a site for anonymous posts. When did that change?

TAMPA, FL VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM??? For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

PANAMA CITY, FL VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in PANAMA CITY, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM??? For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

NASHVILLE, TN, VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in NASHVILLE, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM???. For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 00:21:32
Comments

LOUISVILLE, KY, VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in LOUISVILLE, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM???. For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 00:22:20
Comments

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in ST. LOUIS, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM???. For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 00:23:01
Comments

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in SALT LAKE CITY, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM???. For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 00:23:58
Comments

TUCSON, AZ, VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in TUCSON, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM???. For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.
PORTLAND, OREGON, VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in PORTLAND, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM?? For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

SACRAMENTO, CA, VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in SACRAMENTO, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM?? For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

VIRGINIA & MAINE VISITORS: If you would like to lend support to Silent Lambs, why not attend the press conference in VIRGINIA & MAINE, Thursday, TODAY, 9-5-02, at 10:30 AM?? For directions to location call ASAP: #1-877-WT-ABUSE, or email: info@silentlambs.org, or call 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345.

WE FIND ANONYMOUS POSTS AN ANNOYANCE because it leaves us NO NAME in which to address the person. IT IS A COURTESY to give yourself a code-name! But since you are basically an annoyance anyway, what do we care? Get with the program. I remain Anonymous but I use a code name as do many of the other regulars here so we can know Who Said What, and when we reply, we know WHO we are replying to by their code name. SEE? How hard is that to understand??? Abused or not, you are still sitting on a very High Pedestal, with a very self-righteous attitude. THAT is what is such a turn off. At least "crude" John is NOT SELF-Righteous, and neither is Buster. -- And another thing, speaking for myself, I think not even using a code name is COWARDLY. For pete's sake, make up a name for yourself. How about SELF-RIGHTEOUS? or Nameless or NO NAME or whatever. Just pick one and USE IT Repeatedly, or would you rather PLAY CHILDISH GAMES by making yourself INVISIBLE so NO ONE CAN REALL Y GET TO KNOW YOU???? OK, keep hiding in the corner without a name. Reminds me of that guy who wrote the book: A BOY CALLED "IT." --- That's what his mother called him as she abused him horribly all his life. DO you want us to refer to YOU as "IT"???? ----- The more you provoke John with your condemnations, the more he will lash out. That's the way New Yorkers Are! (joking, John). He has a right to post his anger here, just as you unfortunately have a right to post your DISDAIN OF EVERYONE HERE. WHY DON'T YOU GO SOMEWHERE ELSE and find a group you REALLY LIKE if all you can do is COMPLAIN COMPLAIN COMPLAIN???? Abused or not, I really feel no empathy for you whatsoever. You've got a cork you know where. ---- As for the GB - THERE IS DOCUMENTED PROOF & FACTS ABOUT GREELEES & CHITTY. GO EDUCATE YOURSELF ABOUT YOUR LEADERS before you spout off like the naive blinded JW you are. Sheeeesh! Take off the blinders and START READING! Then come back with your tail between your legs, show some humility and we may -- just may warm up to you. GOODBYE! /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 00:50:39
Comments
DALLAS, TEXAS, VISITORS: If anyone visits the guestbook late tonight or early tomorrow (today) THURSDAY 9-5-02, from the DALLAS area, and you want to lend support to the Silent Lambs, why not come to the press conference 10:30 am TODAY/Thursday, in DALLAS!!! All you have to do is just STAND THERE & SHOW YOUR SUPPORT! For exact location and directions, Contact: Bill Bowen: 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345; or write nfo@silentlambs.org or call 1-877-WT-ABUSE -- or email janderson817@earthlink.net -- or -- Ohsophat63@hotmail.com -- or -- Linthoman@hotmail.com.

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 00:51:30
Comments
BTW, NAMELESS "Self-Righteous" NoName Complainer: ARE YOU GOING TO A PRESS CONFERENCE TOMORROW TO SUPPORT SILENT LAMBS? Or are you going to hang around the Guestbook and complain all day? /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 02:39:41
Comments
Ghost: Somebody needs a sense of humor. Absolutely, John has an occasionally crude way of delivering his message, no question. But he is to the point, well-researched, and sometimes pretty darn funny. He is committed to his cause, and I think that cause is the same 'house clearing' you refer to. And as far as being a qualified follower of Christ - I'd stack him, and most of the posters here, up against any elder that has ever told an abused, crying for help 12-year-old that they need to either shut up or find another witness. By the way, this wide world of ours needs instigators too. Thanks for keeping the repartee lively. - Buster

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 03:54:17
Comments
Remote Looser: (New handle for no name insulters?) Date: 05 Sep 2002 Time: 00:08:51 …“HOW DARE YOU condone his obnoxious behavior with references to what our Lord Jesus did on behalf of Jehovah when he tried to clean his Fathers house.”…. HOW DARE YOU… Jesus did not try. He succeeded then, and succeeds now…. He will succeed in our futures. And you questioned and answered yourself I recommend physiological help and medication before this turns into full a full blown mental illness. (Just looking out for ya buddy.) You say you were abused. I am sorry for that. Really, I am. I was too. (Not sexually) but abuse mental or physical sucks! This site is very unique. It is holding the people in command of the WTBS responsible for their direct actions and the policy that they created. They are accountable. What they have said about Mr. Bowen and all the other people called Silent Lambs here is what is obscene. That is the real outrage. This time it is not going to just be swept away. People and the GB are going to have to atone for what they have done and what they are doing. No more will anyone be able to silence a victim of rape, or molestation. No more physical abuse to keep someone in line. No more fearing the loss of love, or companionship because you have drawn the wrath of an earthly man trying to play god. NO MORE! NO MORE! NO MORE FEAR! NO MORE PAIN! At least no more feeling alone. You, We are not alone here. At least we try to give comfort in our own ways. It is like a TV. If you don't like John pass over him. If you like whomsoever say so. But John, Buster, Linda, Jessica, Bill, RMK, SLC, Rich, NP, Nancy, (You are new I think but boy from the heart), Bonnie, Mole, Soapbox and many more all deserve respect. I believe that they are real and all are different in views but they are here and that is believable and therefore that, and they are respectable. –Just my opinion-Jayson-Let the lashings begin……………

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 05:41:26
Comments
Zombie,Zombie I regret your situation. Your brain is not functioning You are the only one that will have to pay for the inexperience that is equal with stupidity. You are wasting your time thinking that you might confuse somebody here or discourage. Our mission is clear. We endeavor to show the world that the GB of JW is a criminal element in our society that must be brought to jusice.RMK

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 09:49:49
Comments
SLC, You want me to go somewhere else if I want to complain about those who take Jehovah's name in vain? You are UNBELIEVABLE!!!! You're calling ME self-righteous? I read some of your posts, stopped right about where you were blowing up at people when they disagree with you. John is at LIBERTY to take Jehovah's name in vain, because no one is stopping him from writing, but Jesus and Jehovah do not give him the RIGHT, OK?? He has acted shamefully and what is more shameful is those who condone his behavior. YOU are vulgar and offensive also, which is why I suspect you take issue with what I said to John. Can you respond respectfully without making references in peoples private areas? Look who is talking about hanging around complaining all day. Now I see why those who disagree see the irony in all of this. Buster – HOUSE CLEANING? ARE YOU FOR REAL?!?!?! I can't BELIEVE you think he is imitating Christ. Just because I am extremely upset that this site unfortunately turned out to what I thought it would be when I checked in, and made my comments. I am an instigator? Now I am a loser to Jayson? Did I HAVE to agree with your views in order to not be called a loser? Can you see how insulting the posters here are? RMK or whatever your name is, I'm stupid??? I call it as I see it, hope not to offend but unfortunately it offends. I am truly outraged, what a disgrace to our god Jehovah and his son Jesus, who I can say without a doubt lump verbal abusers with all those who abuse children. That is MY belief, whether you like it or not. And don't try to say I am engaging in the same thing, which is what I suspect you will. I state my observations without calling names. I am guessing you all were disfellowshipped, right? I see what's going on here……. What a waste of my time trying to get John not to be vulgar and use the Lord's name in vain.
Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 10:34:21
Comments
Nice to know that the JW's can't hide from this one. Go get ‘em!

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 10:46:52
Comments
John is a lovable person. When he speaks about Jehovah your god he speaks about the WT as god that has taken the NAME of the Holy ONE of ISRAEL on ITSELF and blasphemes it. He loves Jehovah or Jahve. You however Nameless One do not know who Jehovah is or the relationship between Him and His Son Jesus Christ because the WT made tremendous effort to eliminate that possibility from your conception. It is up to you. If you want to learn than be patient and study. Do not attack anybody whose character you are unable to read. rmk

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 11:14:58
Comments
05 Sep 2002 Time: 09:49:49\\\ I did not call you a loser. - Jay

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 11:41:18
Comments
Ghost: An instigator is not necessarily a bad thing. One more word about John - I think many at this site are unoffended by his specific choice of words because we are listening to the message he is conveying. Anyway, enough of all that I hope. I think most here would like to hear your story - only as much as you can share without much pain. And I think you want to tell it too (a bit presumptuous). Did anyone in authority (privilege) help, or fail to help? This is a great chance to disarm and get back to the point. - Buster

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time:
11:51:17
Comments
RMK are you serious? I don't know who Jehovah is or what his relationship is with his son? The fact that you love John after he seriously takes the Lord's name in vain gives me the creeps. I know EXACTLY who Jehovah is, he is our creator. I know who Jesus is, he is our savior, our redeemer, our Christ. Don't lecture me on who Jehovah or Jesus is. I know what the relationship is between the two, and what I also know is that NO ONE here or ANYWHERE is worthy of even breathing the air that we breathe because of our stupidity. With that said, Jehovah was gracious enough to send his son Jesus to earth and set an example for us all to follow, and was gracious enough to preserve a collection of inspired works that can help us imitate his son Jesus to the best of our ridiculously limited capabilities.
WOULD YOU AGREE WITH ME SO FAR? It is CRYSTAL clear by a careful examination of scriptures that the example Jesus set is seriously compromised here. You can sit there all day claiming that I don't know anything it doesn't bother me in the least bit. What DOES bother me is the fact that you believe someone that is obviously twisting everything to his liking AND MAKING VEILED THREATS is lovable. Stop embarrassing yourself by condoning his despicable behavior. And Jay, did you get amnesia? Do you recall the following: 05 Sep 2002 03:54:17 “Remote Looser: (New handle for no name insulters?)”???? You DID call me a loser. AM I A LOSER? What, because I am fuming that our creator's name is being dragged through the mud? I already ran out of words to describe how I feel at being attacked IN SPITE of the fact that I am a victim myself.

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 13:24:46
Comments
05 Sep 2002 Time: 11:51:17 (1) The "Remote looser" was a question. So, again only you decide if you are. What I think does not matter. If you are attacking out of your own hurt then you deserve understanding sympathy. You may not see it or understand it but it has been given to you. Look for the best in the posts without spite and you will see that the anger is not at you, not at the religious body of Jehovah's Witnesses. The outrage is at over 100 years of punishing true God loving people by a small band of earthly men working hard to maintain power that is exclusive to God. The teachings of Christ is not about crushing the spirit of your own kind or anyone else. If you can not see that by now you do not want to. If I have offended you then I am sorry for that my mission is to not infirm. If others here offend you then I am sorry for them too. Unfortunate many here seem to intend to infirm. Look past them. Heck, look past me if you need to. Help the lambs, they are what matter to me. I don't care if you hate me as long as you will help those asking for help. You have no name which makes it harder to see you as a person. That is your choice I have no power to change that, you do. But if you want to be better accepted you must have the courage to make yourself a person and not a remote user. You can heal here if you wish. You can leave here if you wish. Many quotes of the Bible are given here. Remember there are 1000's of God's people and they are in so many institutions out in the world. They are everywhere. God is everywhere. If you limit your scope to the WTBS point of view you are very limited but I am sure that there are people there that can help you if you need it. If not then maybe God is telling you to become that helping person. No matter what it is your choice. You asked if I think that if you do not accept my point of view are you a looser. You decide; It does not matter what I think it only matters what you think. If I do not accept the WTBS and the GB feelings (beliefs) on all matters do you think that I am a looser? If Christ had been told by the Religious establishment to accept their views what would he have said? What would his disciples have said? If we are so mislead to speak out for the crimes that are being and have been shunned by the GB, if this is so outrageous to God then we will fail. But, if God is using us to make change in the GB or the WTBS to make it in harmony with the Teaching of Christ then do you want to be in the way? The GB has been wrong many many times about many many things in the past, maybe just maybe they are wrong here. (What do you think? Could they be wrong?) And yes maybe just maybe John is a disciple of Christ. Only he decides that. Not you not me and not the GB.-Jayson

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 14:14:16
Comments
Nameless, you are not a victim and you do not know JEHOVAH. You prove that every time you open your mouth. You have knowledge of some scriptures from NWT and the standard lies from the WT and Awake magazines but you lack biblical knowledge and have NO UNDERSTANDING. For example: You don't know that you are claiming perfection for yourself and demand the same from others. But Jesus did not die for you the perfect Nameless. John and myself and others are not perfect but the Lord died for us imperfect people. Jesus was a company to beggars prostitutes and thieves and it was not embarrassing or shameful for him to give them hope cure them eat with them and remove their sin. It is below your dignity to talk to some of us. So you judge us as a typical Pharisee Who gave you that right? As I said before You are not to blame as much as those who keep you enslaved. Indeed as you just proved again you do not know your Creator yet nor his Son not to mention the Holy Spirit! He is only a thing to you and your Slave masters the WBTS. (Even the title is so ridiculous - Masonery. Bizzare! John is acceptable to everybody here but you make yourself abhorrent to us and the LORD. I hope you understand that in right context.

Remote User:
Date:
05 Sep 2002
Time: 14:56:57
Comments
To Iris---welcome and good for you. Love Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

Remote User:
Date:
05 Sep 2002
Time:
14:57:49
Comments
Buster - An elder's son abused me. It was not the elder. I don't remember if he was baptized or not. It was long ago. I do remember the son denying everything. Am I angry if he was baptized or not? NO. Are my parents angry, NO. Why aren't we angry? Well, people are imperfect, and we cannot hold the elders accountable for what happens to children. Yes I still carry a scar, from the abuse not from the JW's. I've been around the block and back, and would be someone COMPLETELY different person if I wasn't a JW. Believe me when I say that, it wouldn't be pretty dealing with me as a worldly person. It took me a while to realize that out of all religions, JW are the ones that STICK TO THEIR GUNS and follow the bible for better, or for what some mistakenly view as worse. This is EXACTLY what bothers most here. It's easy to discard Jehovah's point of view on serious sins if you're not a JW, such as immorality, but not easy if you are. That's because there IS NO LEEWAY. There is no room for adultery, divorce, fornication, loose conduct, vulgar language, etc., etc., but what do you see of those who are not a JW's? LOOK AROUND!! And what happens if a JW commits a sin and does not repent? They get what's coming and well deserved, as outlined in the scriptures. When disfellowshipped, it's easier for some to wickedly make it their life's devotion to destroy the very religion that taught them the truth, and complain about how their family does not talk to them, as opposed to repenting. WHAT A COP OUT!!! Now you're crying because your supposedly brainwashed family doesn't want anything to do with you, FOR GOOD REASON! MAYBE THEY DON'T LIKE THE NAMECALLING!!!!!! I am sick to my stomach to see how much hatred is going on here. I am even sicker that TLC or whatever has no empathy towards me for the simple and OBVIOUS reason that I am not on the same wagon she is. DO I HAVE TO BE? I think not. I call the bluffs, and when I see people taking the Lords name in vain which is EXACTLY WHAT HAPPENS HERE I TELL IT LIKE IT IS!!!!!!!! Forgive me for losing it but I can't believe what is going on here. Here's a prophecy for you, watch all the names I will be called because what I say will rub those who this applies to the wrong way. UNBELIEVABLE!!! WHAT DOES NAME CALLING ACCOMPLISH?!!?!?!! What a disgusting display of bad manners. The lack of love and compassion and consideration for abuse victims is appalling to say the least. Do you honestly expect ANYONE that is impartial to listen to your message? Why are you trying SO HARD for people that I encounter door to door to assume that I'm a child abuser? I HAVE KIDS!!! That is SO DAMAGING! That is EVIL!!! All I have is love for kids, but you want my community to believe that I am a child abuser because I am a JW?? SICK!!!! TWISTED!!!! Tell me, ISN'T THAT ONE OF YOUR GOALS? You think I'm going to stop preaching because I'll be afraid if you ever accomplish your evil goals? I'LL BE THE FIRST TO TELL YOU THAT I AM NOT AFRAID OF MAN. I carry the name Jehovah with me and whatever happens happens. I'll let Jehovah decide what to do with me and in the meantime, I'll continue to preach a message of hope and peace and not one of hate. SLC\TLC YOU ARE SO PETTY THAT THE FACT THAT I DON'T USE A HANDLE WILL COMPEL YOU TO CALL ME NAMES. WHAT A JOKE!!! Jayson – I have been given the love and compassion I needed a LOOOOONG time ago, back when Bill Bowen used to sit on Judicial committees. You have absolutely no idea what the love I receive from the elders and congregations I have had the pleasure to be associated with. I compare it with the supposed love that is offered here and I wonder how you can make the statements you make in spite of the FILTH and GARBAGE that litters this place. Again, how do you have THE NERVE to compare what is being done here with what our Lord Christ was sent here to earth by Jehovah to do? And YOU'RE STILL BELIEVING THAT JESUS IS WOULD USE AN ABUSIVE PERSON TO DO HIS WORK?!?!?! ARE YOU KIDDING? RMK – Why do you equate my indignation of name calling and using our Lords name in vain to me claiming I am perfect? John and others use obscene language and disgusting descriptions of what they would like to see in people's rear ends. Do YOU think they are doing the Lord's work? You have absolutely no credibility when you refuse to see WHAT IS OBVIOUS. It really bothers you doesn't it when I say not to use the Lords name in vain. And calling me a liar? Are you suggesting that I made up the abuse that happened to me because I don't agree with the perversions that are on display here? This is really sickening, what a gross attempt to validate the abusive and threatening tones that rule most posts here.

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 15:00:12
Comments

DALLAS PRESS CONFERENCE: Ok, well we had 7people total to support the silent lambs. It was me, Valis, my roommate, country girl, and 3others from Oklahoma. We had 2 reports show. One was a talk radio station, and another was from a TV station--no camera though. The reporter from channel 8 is wanting us to do a documentary type thing. He wants us to keep in contact with him and email him info and he took all of our names and #'s. Before the conference started I passed out flyers right in front of the KH. A guy across the street came out to get a newspaper and I ran over and said "Well since you live right across the street from them you might want to know this," then I smiled and told him to have a nice day--LOL. We were holding up signs and everyone driving by couldn't ignore us--it was great!!!! OH DID I FORGET TO MENTION THE JW's SHOWED UP??????????????????????--LMAO One lady drove up in a mini-van and I had already placed the lamb on the front door (it faces the street--this KH is at a MAJOR intersection in Dallas and in a very snooty part of town) and I had also put a sign by the door--Valis has pics of it. Well, she went up to the door and the next thing we know we see the sign and the lamb in the middle of the driveway. She threw them on the ground and got back in her car. Well, she pulls up and actually stopped to talk to us. Well, I approached the door and she asked why we were there and I started to tell her and she told me we were in the wrong place--so I corrected her and told her we were definitely in the right place. She asked if we were JW's and I told her I was df. I thought for sure she would drive away but she stayed and kept talking to me and one of the ones from Oklahoma. There was a women in the back seat holding an infant and she started asking me ?'s too. She seemed very interested in what I had to say--I think it was the women's daughter in the back seat. Anyways the women in the front seat said we were causing the congregations problems by being there and she was going to call an elder (can you see me shaking LOL) so I told her to please do so--elders don't scare me--LOL. Well, about 10min later another car pulls up and a man gets out of the car. He told me I left my stuff(he was standing by the front door pointing at the lamb and sign). So, I told him I left it for him. He is on the cell phone the whole time and the woman in the car gets out and starts pulling the signs we had placed in the ground (we were going to leave them there). She looked pissed off as hell--LOL. Some of the signs said "Watchtower supports child abusers", "Jehovah's Witnesses support pedophiles", "Support silent lambs", etc. Well, before we they got the chance to throw us off the property(LOL) we all got together at a Mexican restaurant down the street---It was REALLY hot out and we needed to get something to drink. I passed out every single flyer I had and I am going to do it again cause it made me feel really good. That's all folks and Valis will be posting pics later, I don't know if he took pics when the dubs showed up--boy I hope so!!!! Love, Jesika
THE Dallas press conference was posted on JW.com and I wanted to post it here too. Love Jesika Thoman

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 15:23:14
Comments
This is for you, Nameless.... You think what you read here on this site is so perverted and sickening, I wonder what perversion in your heart keeps bringing you back? I will tell you what true perversion is: It is when elders tell the parents of a raped 5 year old girl that as she is no longer a virgin, she is forever unacceptable to Jehovah. It is when elders tell a beaten, battered wife that no matter what her husband tells her to do, she must submit to his rule as he is Jehovah's servant. This woman was beaten for refusing to give sexual services to her husband's friends so she was beaten almost to death. I could go on and on, but I would not want to be guilty of 'titillating' you. CJV, Ont. Can

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 16:36:41
Comments
It is just about time to dsf the Nameless. He is one of the wolfs and senseless! My previous word to him is the last one.rmk

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 17:29:34
Comments
Hey, awesome idea to leave a silent lamb at some local Kingdom halls after/before the walk.. or both times? With their presence alone the silent lambs won't be so silent...:)) Keep up the awesome work everyone, striving to keep the Truth Alive~Thank you, thank you, thank you... Hugs, Kathy

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 17:44:39
Comments
this comment is for the mole.. i hope you don't leave. i came to this site when the news came out in dateline and i seen your past writings and current. i am and will be upset at our loss with you gone. the brothers in placerville now want me removed as you predict if i spoke out, now the come each week asking questions even sending a C.O. to my house. you were right, he tested my faith and didn't hear my concerns. i refused to go out in service not feeling good preaching about something not sitting in my heart right. now they told me in our last meeting that i'm not following the commandment of christ. ....the brother that i mentioned who is an elder still sits on the body of elders. i told all his dui's, cheating on his wife, and assaults he committed but to no avail it meant nothing and he still df's those who oppose him. mole sorry you are discouraged but if you read this come back with more info.....to the mole from a friend....brother in placerville, ashly w....

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 17:46:35
Comments
I left this cult and all of it's hypocrites 15 years ago. It was the best thing I could have ever done. I thank my almighty creator for the good and protection it gave me during the early years of my life, but my God reveal their evil ways and I had to leave. Your website is the best! I hope more people read it. Jehovah's Witness do not want their members to find the truth because they would leave this organization for good it they did.

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 17:56:39
Comments
I left this cult and all of it's hypocrites 15 years ago. It was the best thing I could have ever done. I thank my almighty creator for the good and protection it gave me during the early years of my life, but my God reveal their evil ways and I had to leave. Your website is the best! I hope more people read it. Jehovah's Witness do not want their members to find the truth because they would leave this organization for good it they did. I met some genuine loving people. But I met some of the most evil immoral people of my life in that organization who have never been punished by that group and remain in good standing. If you have love for yourself and our creator do not become a Jehovah's Witness. They will use. And You will waste your life living the goals of someone else.' Nancy Jackson LAThing@aol.com

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 17:57:21
Comments
I left this cult and all of it's hypocrites 15 years ago. It was the best thing I could have ever done. I thank my almighty creator for the good and protection it gave me during the early years of my life, but my God reveal their evil ways and I had to leave. Your website is the best! I hope more people read it. Jehovah's Witness do not want their members to find the truth because they would leave this organization for good it they did. I met some genuine loving people. But I met some of the most evil immoral people of my life in that organization who have never been punished by that group and remain in good standing. If you have love for yourself and our creator do not become a Jehovah's Witness. They will use. And You will waste your life living the goals of someone else.' Nancy Jackson LATHingNancy@aol.com

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time:
Thank you for bringing that which was in darkness out to light. Your courage and sacrifice will be one that will be remembered by all, most of all by Jehovah God himself. Hold your heads up high on Sept. 27th, and let the world see the dirty little secrets the Watchtower hides! May Jah bless your efforts in helping the littlest of His flock.

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 19:18:17
Comments
NANCY NARANJO; NEXT TO PERFECT ,why didn't the jews just wait on god. because their leaders like the gb were full of them selves.and like the fools in proverbs. refused reproof and were happy in their folly! and like prov. 4;19 in their darkness they don,t see why they stumble .. jw defender ever read that verse . it,s next to jw,s favorite for when they screw up????????? I've been confronting wt-ites in the field and , told by more than 95% that the wt never prophecies the end of the world!! is this what they teach you in the king-DUM hall!!! to LIE TO HOUSE HOLDERS???????? JW DEFENDER WHY DON,T YOU MAKE EVEN A BIGGER FOOL OF YOURSELF!!!! AND QUESTION SOME OF THE GREAT POSTS WE BEEN READING. YOU NEVER HAD THE NERVE TO ANSWER ANY OF THE EXCELENT QUESTIONS LEFT HERE FOR YOU EXPOSING THE WT . YOU ONLY WANT TO SAY I,M MEAN,VIOLENT, ETC. WHEN YOU ACT REASONABLE I WILL TREAT YOU THE SAME. !!

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 19:22:40
Comments
I DIDN,T SIGN ,SORRY I still have only one name and i don,t answer my own posts.... P>S> a lot of great new lambs around lately!!!freedom in christ for all........john

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 19:37:50
Comments
SLC; that's right the only thing i see is LOVE HERE.I LOVE MY FELLOW MAN AND HATE PEOPLE WHO SCREW THE MEEKER ONES IN THIS WORLD..I DON,T need to only speak about the silent lambs, i tell all the lord has shown me. but I COME HERE FOR THE LAMBS AND RIGHTISHNESS FOR ALL...I EVEN LOVE NO NAME. ONE DAY WHEN HE GROWS UP , IN HIS PRAYERS HE WILL THANK ALL HERE FOR THE LESSONS HE HAS LEARNED....I HAVE A FEELING IT,S NOT AS FAR AWAY AS MANY THINK!!!!!!!!!CHRISTIAN love ....,john

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time:
talking about LOVE !!!!!WERE,S OUR GIRL "SOAPBOX" HOPE she gets her soap box back sooooooon!!!!!!!i think i speak for all here!!!!!!!!!no signature required.....

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 20:17:14
Comments

SLC;;;OHHO OH HO HO HO!!!!!!!!!OH YOU CHITTY ,CHITTY "BANG-BANG" WE LOVE YOU (JWS)---Hi lo any way you go CHITTY-CHITTY ----"BANG!-BANG!" WE (jws) FOLLOW YOU (fds) la ,LA,LA ,LA,LA . i still have the LP RECORD ......WHO CAN FORGET THE GREAT BOOM! BOOM1 THAT CAME OUT OF CHITTY,S EXHAUST AS THE MUSIC CAME TO AN END!!!!!!!!! GO AHEAD JW DEFENDERS TELL ME I,M SATAN , FOR POSTING THE "truth" your gods sprit directed leader chosen over every man on earth .to give the proper spiritual food at the proper time IS A HOMO!!!!!!!!!JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 21:29:08
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 21:36:32
Comments

This I believe is the purpose of this web site, As I see it, Correct me if I am wrong; 1) To Give a place were sex abused X-JW's or JW's can come for understanding and hopefully closure (this Can and does Include other forms of WT Abuse) 2) To Have a place were Changes To the GB's insane policy on reporting child abuse can be organized and carried out. 3) To vent our anger to those who would have a policy that would punish the Lamb and Embrace the perpetrators. We want to feel free to report abuse to the Police Without Guilt that we are bringing reproach on the WTBTS to do so. Impossible. We think not. Because of this God Given Mission were Kickin' Butt and Taking Names.. Our Kids & Future Kids are counting on us, We must succeed...NP

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 21:54:42
Comments

Dear William... In your story you never mentioned whether or not you still believe the Witnesses have the TRUTH or not. Has the veil been lifted? I too was a JW for 28 years, I am now 45. I have found freedom in Christ. I pray you have also. Love...Robin Dyess

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 21:55:15
Comments

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 22:49:49
Comments
I was going to reply to Nameless but after I read his/her posts carefully I decided it was a complete waste of time. nan

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 23:19:02
Comments
to bro in Placerville, I too have had problems in my hall, it sounded like you have written many times here. what dates have you written? I'm interested to know what happened. I have read moles short messages and was enlighten this last month, I will read more on mole the more months i go back. I won't let the brothers in my hall bully me into doing something I'm not comfortable with. I live in Auburn California with my two children and it scares me that I have been with this group for over five years now and seen some things that really bring to question if this group is being lead by holy spirit. If creeps can rape and hurt children and no apology given it is time to rethink my religion.. thanks placerville. mole I don't know you but glad I read your stuff so far.-------tracy w. in auburn

Remote User:
Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 23:43:49
Comments
Many years ago, when I was still stinging under the lash of these elders who had cast me out of their presence and back to a husband who used and severely abused me, I set out to teach each one of them the error of their ways. I had already learned more about the Bible than I had ever had the chance to learn under the tutelage of the JW's. I had spent 6 months with nothing but a copy of Strong's Concordance and the King James Bible. The first to meet with me was my own father. (or at least the man who raised me) I reminded him that the old law had been abolished by Christ and he quite agreed. I then asked him which of the ten commandments we no longer have to keep? Oh, he says, we still keep them all. REALLY!! THEN WHY DON'T YOU KEEP THE SABBATH? His jaw dropped and he tried to tell me that he does keep it, but I pointed out that GOD'S sabbath is on the 7th day, not the 1st. "Oh, well, time has been lost" he floundered. Once time was lost, when the Israelites were in Egypt, but God used the miracle of the manna after he got them out into the desert. They got the message or starved for a day. (Nehemiah 9, notably verse 14) The Sabbath was a sign between God and Israel...a perpetual covenant. (Exodus 31:16) I then pointed out the huge number of Bible prophesies about how God will mete out his wrath in the End Time because ye have defiled my Sabbath. So, I asks again, why do you not keep the Sabbath? He got a sick headache and went home without answering me. Next, an uncle...of course I waited a decent length of time, so they'd forget. Uncle offered to have a Bible study with me. I eagerly agreed that I would enjoy a Bible study. A time was set up, and Uncle showed up with one of his stupid little books. "What is this," I ask in feigned innocence. "This is the book we will be studying," says he. NOW JUST HOLD ON HERE! YOU PROMISED ME A BIBLE STUDY, NOT A BOOK STUDY! YOU LIED YOUR WAY INTO MY HOME IN HOPES OF DUPING ME INTO SOMETHING I NEVER WOULD HAVE AGREED TO!! GET OUT, LIAR! Oh but that felt GOOD! No wonder they began to call me "demonized"!!! I laid low for several months, then one day I hopped into a taxi that happened to be driven by one of my tormenting elders!! God must have put that one into my hands because what happened next was priceless!! He never even looked at me, so he never knew it was me until it was too late. Lying on the seat beside him, was an open copy of a Penthouse magazine!! He had been reading it when I approached the car, and put it down to drive me to my destination. So, just as we arrived, I casually asked, "WHEN DID THE WATCHTOWER BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETY BEGIN TO PRINT PORNOGRAPHY?" He snapped out of his trance in one hell of a hurry! He looked like I had just BRANDED HIM WITH A HOT IRON. I got out of the cab, and went to pay the man for my taxi fare, but he burned rubber out of there, so the ride was free. I stood there laughing, waving the money at him as he sped off. Later, that same elder accused my younger brother of having sex with me. I guess he thought it would take some of the heat off him to spread a lie about me. I just laughed, but my brother was pretty hurt. Anyhow, just thought you'd enjoy my experience at payback.

CJV Ont, Can

Remote User:

Date: 05 Sep 2002
Time: 23:48:44
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 04:41:37
Comments
Harvey, You and I go way back. Our families have been friends for years. I am currently disfellowshipped and have been wanting to talk to you for a long time. I am truly sorry about what your daughter experienced. I am not enclosing my name (my parents are elderly and I don't want to cause them any pain) you can contact me at kmykr@aol.com. I am not contacting you as an ex-jw or a bitter person, just as an old friend. If you think back to lots of snow in MO and sliding down hills when we were teenagers I think you may remember who I am. Hope to here from you.

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 06:54:03
Comments
Hi, I'm a College Student. My girlfriend and I have been following your cause for quite awhile. We agree that pedophiles need to be reported to the proper author ties and do hope all of you find some type of closure to all of this. I'm studying to go into some type of social work(I might change) while my girlfriend would like to pursue journalism (good luck). We have some questions and would like to get some thoughts about them. I hope some of you will be so kind to help us. I think we have missed something. We understand the situation and some of the stories are very touching. Let's say that the Watchtower higher-ups did decide to change the policy. Is there any guarantee that all Jehovah's Witnesses will follow it? The reason for the question: We have noticed that rules and even the simplest rules have been made throughout the centuries and do people in general ever follow them? My Girlfriend had a Jehovah Witnesses pamphlet showing how many members they have present. You can make the rules but all of them are not going to follow it. We also heard in the news that there were going to be a lawsuit against these higher-ups for creating these laws. Would that kind of a gray area so to speak since these higher-ups wasn't the ones that actually molested the victims? Like I stated there might be some things that we have missed. If that could be cleared up we would appreciate it. We both hope all the victims will find some type of closure to this awful situation. Sincerely, College Student and Another College Student

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 07:40:20
Comments
To Nameless, You are right many here ar DA or Df'd. I have a question for you. How old do you feel a person has to be to get married? That is to make the right decision since they will be spending the rest of their life with someone? 18? 20? 25? How come it is then that the organization let me at 12 make a decision (getting Baptized) that will affect them the rest of their life? At that age you only know what your parents have taught you and you want to please them. Was I at 12 mature enough to know the magnitude of my decision? I had never even studied other religions, had not had much experience at all with the real world and had been living in the protective "bubble". I chose to leave on my own accord when I was 17 because of issues I was facing at home. No I was not your normal teenager. Straight A's, aux. pioneered all summer, held regular talks and was a 'model' for all young girls at our hall. My mother was a regular pioneer and my step father a PO. I would be a totally different person had I not been raised a jw and I am thankful I was. I look at things differently know and keep my eyes open wider. However, why should I be judged for a decision I made when I was 12, a baby, and did not know any better. I have made my peace with God and have a very good life. I am 30 with a wonderful family. The funny thing is I am the happiest one out of my brothers & sisters (there were 6 of us) and I am the only one who left. I have more than one of them secretly tell me they have doubts and one even stopped praying and cried when I encouraged her to do it saying "What would everyone say knowing my df'd sister is the one who made me feel good enough to pray again?" My point is, many of us are being judged in a wrong way. I have studied my bible repented for my wrong doings and am sure I will meet God in heaven one day. Hopefully you will see if you pray hard and look deep that finding a religion that is "close" to the bible isn't good enough. "The kingdom of god is in YOU" not a kingdom hall. Jenn

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 09:50:53
Comments
hello my name is ISAIAS GOMES . I LIVE IN PORTUGAL END I LIKE VERY MACTH .

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 11:08:44
Comments
To College Students: These higher ups as you call then HAVE actually molested the little ones. By their policy of protecting the molesters, they sacrifice more and more little ones every day. Perhaps you should READ the rest of the sites here before you judge that which you do not know. Those who tell are effectively and efficiently SHUT UP so that the next victim will be taken unaware. You do not know what you are speaking about. Educate yourself, my college student friend. When your eyes have opened, come back and let us know. CJV Ont, Can

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 12:38:35
Comments
Last night, I saw a piece on the local news about "silent lambs." I immediately called my best friend, and we cried and cried. Having been raised as JW’s, we can relate to the pain so many are feeling on this issue. I can name at least 5 girls, myself included, who were abused in our congregation. What is sad is that it is the main reason I and the others left the organization. Had we not been told to that it was our fault for various reasons, we’d probably all still be members. Through several years of counseling, I and my best friend have dealt with it. Some were not so fortunate. We all deal with the scars every day, my faith has been shook to its core. Elders are not professionals, they are JW ministers, having no formal education beyond what the society has taught them to do on these matters. I wish parents of victims would realize that. A "wordly" professional counselor is better than an untrained, unprofessional elder. AM, Seattle, WA amtmhj@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 12:52:45
Comments
TO: College Student and Another College Student .RE . Like I stated there might be some things that we have missed. . . There is a major point that you have missed. It is the effect of shunning on the life of Jehovah's Witness. I can understand that for a person would is not a member this would be difficult or impossible to understand. As an experiment, tomorrow pretend that EVERY person who is your friend or is a family member acts like you do not exist. Tomorrow your own mother WILL NOT speak to you, your sister will NOT take your phone calls, if you meet your best friend at the grocery store she will look right thru you. NO ONE loves you, NO one cares, you are all alone. Now pretend you know about or have been a victim of sexual abuse and if you tell the POLICE or the other members you WILL be punished. This is a quiet unwritten policy but it uses the effect of PEER PRESSURE and SHUNNING to achieve the results. Now go to this OFFICIAL WATCHTOWER site and read about disfellowshipping. They are very proud of their policy. Pretend every word applies to YOU because you want to tell the TRUTH about a Child molester in your hall. http://www.jw-media.org/vnr/2122827332/311131isdn.htm . . . Read this http://www.watchtower.org/library/w/1988/4/15/article_01.htm . . . And then with this background information come back and ask me some questions regarding policy chances. Sincerely, Nan (Nancy Naranjo)

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 12:55:50
Comments
As a semi-active JW....in the past 3 mo. I have gone from active to semi-active...I too disagree with allowing 12 yr.olds to get baptized. How in the world do they know what they want to dedicate their lives to? As a parent, I wouldn't allow my 12 yr. old to be baptized. I think some parents feel that if they get baptized early then it will keep them from straying but actually what usually happens is when they reach their teens, they do something to get df'd, then you have to deal with that issue. But it looks good for the cong. and the organization to have 'another one baptized.' And it makes parents feel that their child will now be spared during Armageddon AND they have done a good job of teaching their child the 'truth' because he/she is now BAPTIZED...wrong motives, people, wrong motives, and our children pay the price. Well, I'll get off my 'soapbox' and let the real 'soapbox' stand up. :) Spokane 2 jazbug55@aol

Remote User:
Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
14:31:57
Comments
I am still driving to the library to do my work - they give me an hour only, so the last couple of trips I did not get on line at all .....do not know how to retrieve email. The good news is I will have a computer next week at home - insurance paid for me spilling the wine - I feel guilty!! I have been out collecting lambs at garage sales last weekend - I have one for John - a musical lamb that plays Jesus Loves Me....I hope you are all okay! I worry and think about Linda, Loris, Bonnielyn, Cheerleader and of course John - and everyone else - I will have big catch up - to do. Work is too stressful and I am taking a week off to try and regroup. Mediacom gave me an address to pick up my email - I am going to try, but I haven't picked up my email in two weeks. Love, Claudine aka soapbox.

Remote User:
Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
14:57:44
Comments
TO . . . AM, Seattle, WA and other survivors. You have suffered so much and you have been silent to protect THEM so NOW if you can do it .............speak up .....email editors ......TO EVERYONE ELSE>>>>>LET'S MARCH SEPT 27th .... . . . . . . Silence and shame protected the Catholic Church and one of its dirtiest secrets for years. And church officials made the right assumption: If you can't see it, no one will believe it is happening and, more importantly, victims who are shamed and controlled will be quiet, silenced by a sense of complicity and sin. What if all those alleged male sexual assault survivors who went on "60 Minutes" and "20/20" had their faces covered with a gray dot? What if no newspapers or magazines had been willing to publish their names? How much credibility or validity or power can you have when you have no face and no name? Would the public have believed these things had happened if faces had not been attached to the charges?

Remote User:
Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time: 15:09:21
Comments
Please get in touch with me. I had been abused since I was 8 years old. Mostly sexually. It makes me want to cry for those who are still being abused. Honestly, I thought it was just me. I have pretty much been away from it in my adult years. My Mom remained a JW until she died in March. You can't imagine how it feels to find a site like this. I no longer feel alone. dancingmoonlite@aol.com
Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time: 15:16:16
Comments
To CJV Ont Can>>>>> YOU GO GIRL!!!!!! I've been sitting here reading your posts, and I'm floored! I'm so proud of you for roaring!!! You hang in there, it's gonna get better! We will not be silenced ever again, and DAMN it feels good!!! Linda Thoman

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time: 15:25:09
Comments
To Claudine....Just wanted to reply to your post. I'm doing just fine, no need to worry about me. This Lamb has grown CLAWS! I'm roaring as loud as any LION could! Jesika, me, and several others had a blast the other night making up the signs for the press conference here in Dallas and preparing the flyers being distributed, etc. I've been copying these flyers and have been putting them out everywhere I go! You should see my car!!!! I have the flyer taped on my side windows for everyone to read, wherever I go. I also made up another one that says, Jehovah's Witnesses Protect Pedophiles, that is right next to the other ones. Lots of people have stayed right along with me while driving to read it, and I've seen people reading them while my car is parked, etc. See, this girl is roaring!!! I've been talking today with a reporter for the Dallas Morning News, and she's been visiting this site and compiling her information for the article/piece they plan to do soon. So you see, I'm doing just fine. hehehehe Linda Thoman

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time: 15:27:17
Comments
Hey JAYSON! How's it going? I finally had a chance to check the guestbook and just thought I'd say hello. Hi John, Hi Claudine, Hi John, Hi "country girl", and everyone else I know here. "I feel good, na na na na na na na"!!! LOL (James Brown for you youngins) Linda Thoman Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
15:29:58
Comments
< WOW!!!!!!> 9 people attended the Dallas press conference. What a turnout! The propaganda machine is really rolling hard for you guys now. Just think, 9 people in a city of what, 2 or 3 Million? That has got to work out to at least a .0000000001% Ratio!! With all the press conferences around the US that big Billy had planned, I bet you at least 50 showed up! Keep up the good work at exposing the evil JW's. Now I know what the "silent" part in silent lambs means. It means that in the big picture such a minority of complainers with a chip on their shoulders really don't have much of a voice, you are and will be silenced even further! Stay tuned for details. <Trollman> RJ
WOW!!! JESIKA; SOUNDS LIKE YOU HAD A GREAT DAY. WITNESSING FOR GOD AND EXPOSING A FALSE CHRIST. WOW!!! THE JW,S GOT PISSED OFF!!!! WHAT HAPPENED TO THE FRUITS OF THE SPIRIT!!!! JW,S LOVE TO DISH IT OUT. FUNNY HOW THEY CAN'T TAKE IT!!!!!!! wow!!! you have just given most here real joy in their hearts!!!! I can't put i words how proud i am of ya'll ..get ready all the jw defenders are going to bash you......john

Does anyone know for a fact that the WBTS has changed its policy on reporting child abuse to now reporting it to the Police, if so I would like to read the letter instructing the Elders to do so, I need to see it in writing if it does in fact exist, or if this is smoke and mirrors from Brown. Has anyone found this letter, I know Elders will not change there policy unless it is sent to them in writing...NP

RJ, I was going to explain to you in simple terms but basically my only thought is your an ass and I believe probably a pervert or you would understand the seriousness of pedophilia and the harm a pedophile does to a child. If only one voice speaks to let others know then that is great. This subject has been taboo to long and hidden. Pull your head out and begin to feel for others Sheila M

To Jesiika, Claudine and the new ones that have posted: You guys are so great for speaking up stay strong Peace Sheila
When I was driving home the other day I noticed a group of union workers picketing a local factory. They were complaining about low wages and supposed bad work conditions. I read many of their sign which told of their complaints against the company. Some said "we work for a sweatshop" others said "I'd rather be homeless than work for peanuts" I though to myself...man it must be really bad there. When I got home I turned on the news and there was a story about this particular unions cause. The reporter stated how the workers wanted a raise from 16.00 to 18.00 an hour. Then I said what!!! 16.00 an hour for working in an air conditioned factory with full health benefits! I make $14.40 an hour with benefits and I was tickled to death with it. I then found myself not feeling so sorry for them and feeling more sorry for myself. When driving by the protesters they would rant and rave, flash their signs, yell at passing cars etc. I then though about how silly this made them look. What a bunch of wackos! After actually hearing the truth about their conditions at work it made me laugh at them. Their crazy antics of marching and holding up signs etc. only made them a laughing stock of passerby. What is the moral of this story? Well you see my dear friends you are the wackos! You think that by holding up signs and prancing around with stuffed animals you are helping your cause. What you don't realize is that when people see such antics they just simply think you are another dissatisfied wacko! It does nothing to further your cause. It does just the opposite. So keep planning your marches with stuffed animals, keep making homemade signs that look really professional, keep shouting at passerby and picking fights with people you don't even know and then maybe the next time a press conference is call in Dallas maybe 10 people will show up instead of 9. <TROLLMAN> RJ

Sheila the only ass in here is none other than yourself! I have accomplished my purpose. Think about it! <TROLLMAN> RJ

I have just read some of the stories on the Abused Lambs and Battered Lambs - they are heartbreaking - I feel for every single one of you and my heart goes out to you. The "brothers" act a bit like the Freemasons or the gentlemen's club portrayed in The Stepford Wives films and that is how they expect women to behave (like Stepford Wives). I read an article written in the Awake or Watchtower which said that we have smaller brains than men - ha ha very funny - I am a member of Mensa with an IQ of 133 - I wonder how many brothers (with larger brains) can beat that!!! After all, most "brothers" hold down pretty menial jobs in worldly terms. Also, if it wasn't for the sisters JWs would be down three-quarters on their numbers! Jan, UK
Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
16:56:50
Comments
Sheila the only ass in here is none other than yourself! I have accomplished my purpose. Think about it! <TROLLMAN> RJ

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
17:03:27
Comments
By the way Sheila since you are so good at making accusations directed at me i.e.,"you are probably a pervert" Are you a lesbian? Have a good weekend end Shelia! <TROLLMAN> RJ

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
17:31:24
Comments
cjv love how you find it so easy to make lairs out of jw,s and make them go into full zombie mode!!! i find it doing the lords work, to watch jw,s stumble ,and break the commandment not to lie!!!!the only WAY to protect a false god is to lie!!!it is taught non stop in the kingDUM HALL!!!!!NO NAME I WROTE YOU A BEAUTIFUL POST ,BUT I LOST IT ON MY COMPUTER!!!I HAVE NEVER USED THE TRUE GOD,S NAME IN VAIN...YOUR GOD IS A DIFFERENT STORY!!!!MY GOD SPEAKS TO ME ONLY THROUGH HIS INSPIRED WORD!!!!YOUR GOD SPEAKS TO YOU FROM BROOKLYN!!!!IN EVER CHANGING BELIEFS!!!!MY GOD DON,T CHANGE, OR TACK IN THE WIND. HIS WORD IS SET IN STONE. GOD DOESN,T HAVE NEW LIGHT. THE TRUE GOD DON,T SEND CHILD MOLESTERS PUSHING WT SLAVERY DOOR TO DOOR...THE TRUE GOD DON,T TELL VICTIMS IF THEY GO TO THE GOD APPOINTED LAW OF THE LAND. THAT HE WILL DESTROY THEM...IT,S JUST THE OPPISITE. OYU SAY YOU WERE ABUSED, I WONDER HOW MANY OTHERS THIS GREAT JW ABUSED!!!!EVERY TIME YOU POST IT,S YOU WHOP IS USING THE TRUE GOD,S NAME I VAIN. BY SAYING ANYTHING TO PROTECT THE WT. WHEN JW,S DO THAT THEY ARE IN FACT MAKING THE WT THEIR GOD!!!!!!!I TRUELY THINK YOU SEE THE WT IS NOT WHAT THEY SAY THEY ARE. I THINK MANY HERE CAN SEE THAT YOU ARE SITTING ON THE FENCE...THE BIBLE SAYS JESUS DIED TO FREE ALL, HE DIED FOR OUR SINS BECAUSE GOD LOVED US ALL HE WANTS ALL TO BE WITH HIM FOREVER.WE ARE ALL SONS OF ABRAHAM .ALL YOU NEED IS THE NEVER CHANGING ONE. NOT SOME CHURCH OR HOUSE OF WORSHIP. SET UP BY MAN...IT,S SO VERY SIMPLE WHEN ONE TRUELY REACHES SPIRITUAL MATURITY IT BECOMES VERY_plain....I KNOW I,M ALL READY SAVED. IT,S A FREE GIFT. THE GOSPEL SAYS SO!!!!I KNOW I SIN BUT THERE,S ONLY ONE WHO DIED FOR ME!!AND IT,S JESUS I WILL NOT FOLLOW ANY OTHER MAN!!!THE WT DOES NOTHING BUT DRAG PEOPLE DOWN WITH THEIR YOKE OF RULES AND GUILT TRIPS. ON THE OTHER HAND JESUS UP LIFTS ALL IN FAITH AND JOY IN HIS SACRIFICE IN DEATH . PLEASE JUST READ A BIBLE (NOT THE NWT) THAT,S WHY IT WAS PRINTED. TO BRING ALL TO GOD , THERE IS NO OTHER BOOK REQUIRED...JOHN

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Who feeds you people and where do you get all of this time? Go out, get a job, get a life! losers...

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 18:05:37
Comments
CJV YOU ARE RIGHT. COLLEGE STUDENT NEEDS MORE JW EDUCATION. IT’S HARD TO EXPLAIN TO WORLDLY PEOPLE. I THINK THE SOFT TOUCH WORKS BETTER WITH SO CALLED WORLDLY ONES. AS WE EXPLAIN MORE AND MORE. IT’S NOT HARD TO GET THROUGH TO THEM, AS THEY HAVE OPEN MINDS. AND ARE NOT UNDER MIND CONTROL. ALL WE NEED IS TO STATE THE FACTS TO THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL IN TIME THEY WILL GET THE PICTURE....SAVE THE BASHING FOR MIND CONTROLLED ZOMBIES!!!!!!JOHN

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 18:53:15
Comments
RJ Your illustration of workers picketing for higher wages is inappropriate illogical and frankly just very stupid. There is no doubt as far as I can see that you are one of the serving DOGS of the WT Criminals. You sound like a complete Moron. RMK

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 18:53:55
Comments
TROLL MAN, I have a hard time understanding your objectives. It seems to be---THANK GOODNESS no one knows what is happening in the congregations. You continually point out the lack of media concern, you make fun of Connie Chung's name (which I assume is prejudice against Asians) today you are busily poking fun at the Press Conferences. So, Troll man, let's examine the facts: There are 281.4 million Americans according to the 2000 census. There are 64 million Catholics. So more than 1 in five American's are Catholic and if I recall correctly it has taken almost 20 years for the Catholic Church to receive much coverage on the Sex Abuse Scandal. Who is next on the list of large religions: Southern Baptist Convention, United Methodist Church, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Church of God in Christ, you won't find Jehovah's Witnesses until number 24. Jehovah's Witnesses make up less than 1 in 281 Americans. Now that might keep them busy in field service but it doesn't spell a lot of media interest. However, since May 28 and Dateline's airing there has been a major press story approximately every 10 days. Today the Seattle area in particular received plenty of press. It might be good to remember that the Louisville Courier-Journal had the courage to break the McCarthy Era Tyranny. But back to YOUR OBJECTIVES: It isn't protecting the children, it isn't a desire for justice, and it is simply a malicious mocking attack on the victims. Keep it up, it shows the world what kind of people Jehovah's Witnesses are deep inside. And if you need a name to rant and rave at-----------use mine: Nancy Naranjo
Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
19:07:40
Comments
RJ: You accomplished nothing here. Just wasted your time. the page is functioning just fine. We continue pursuing the WT Criminals with more passion and efficiency than ever before. The Silent Lambs are pursuing WT GB with their claims through Courts and the WT is losing money and prestige if they ever had any. It is going to be much worse before God gives it the final blow. God is not with you and the WT Society is condemned by Jehovah since before the creation of the world as a False Prophet. You accomplished nothing except showed us that we must continue to protect those that were hurt and prevent hurting those that do not know who you are yet.rmk

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
20:03:21
Comments
RJ- (No hidden meaning I hope that you can read this and accept it at face value.) I have learned much from yours and other posts. After being so ruthlessly attacked by the JW's in my family it has been hard to regain my spiritual equilibrium..."Blessings in Disguise." by Emily Matthews.....The world is full of miracles to those who recognize them, but we have to look the right way since God sometimes will disguise them. He shines his light in places where we'd least expect Him to, And often does the opposite of what we think He'll do....He has a way of bringing out the best within the worst. The moment we stop worrying and chose to put him first, and if we do He'll pull us through and help us find the door. That very thing we'd been looking for. Sometimes things are hard to understand, but I believe that your faith will see you through. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.-Jayson

Remote User:

Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
20:46:24
Comments
RJ ; WHAT ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE MINIMUM WAGE.THE WT ALWAYS PRINTS HOW PEOPLE ARE SLAVES OR INDENTURED SERVENTS TO A MASTER. HOW MUCH DOES A BETHALITE GET A MONTH I KNOW FOR FACT UP TILL 10 YRS AGO IT WAS $14 A MONTH THEN THE GB GOT NEW LIGHT . THE SLAVES GOT A RAISE TO $20 ha HAHA I KNOW THEY GET FREE ROOM AND BROAD. WHAT DOES THAT COST THE WT.I HAVE GOTTEN ROOM AND BOARD LAST YR. FOR $100 A WEEK . IN THE REAL WORLD WITH TAXS
AND ALL. I WOULD SAY IT COST THE WT $50 A WEEK TO ROOM AND BOARD BETHELITES.AND NOW I
HERE THEY GET $100 A MONTH.... NOW LETS DO THE MATH 40-50 A WEEK IN A HOT NOISEY
SWEATSHOP!!PLUS MANDATORY FIELD SERV. IN ALL PARTS OF NEW YORK. WHAT IS IT 2-3- DAYS A WEEK
ANDF THEY HAVE TO PAY THERE OWN TRANSIT FARES..... AT LEAST 10 -$20 A WEEK!!!!WITH REQUIRED
FIELD SERV. AND WORK IN THE FACTORY YOU ARE TALKING AT LEAST 60 HRS A WEEK TIMES THAT 4 A MONTH YOU GET @240 A MONTH ...AT $100 PAY PLUS @$200 FOR ROOM AND BOARD IS $300 DIVIDE THAT BY 240 HOURS A MONTH AND YOU GET A GRAND TOTAL!!!!!!!!!!!OF ??????????$1.25 AN HOUR!!!!!!!!!!!CHANGE THE NUMBERS AROUND AND YOU CAN'T DO BETTER THAN $2.00 AN HOUR. AGAIN I CAN ALSO FIND .75 CENTS AN HOUR. FOR AN ORG. THAT IS NO PART OF THIS WORLD AND MAKES BILLIONS A YEAR ON WALL STREET AND MILLIONS A WEEK OFF THEIR MAGIZINES, AND CHARGES LOCAL KINGDUM HALLS INTREST ON THE LOANS TO BUILD NEW KINGDUM HALLS ETC. AND TELL THE BROTHERS TO DIG DEEP AND FILL THE CONTRABUTION BOXES .AT ASSEMBLIES AND HALLS ETC. I HAVE HEARD THIS MANY TIMES WITH MY OWN EARS..... HOW CAN THE WT PRINT HOW PEOPLE IN SOUTH AMERICA ARE GETTING SCREWED FOR ONLY GETTING PAID A DOLLAR AN HOUR. FOR SOME BIG COMPANY, WHEN THE WT DOES THE SAME IN THE UNITED STATES THAT HAVE LAWS AGAINST SLAVERY !!!!!!!!!! GO AHEAD RJ AND NOW HOW THEY ARE VOLUNTEERS FOR YOUR MONEY HUNGRY INCORPORATION- I MEAN GOD ORG. IN BROOKLYN THE WT SCREWED MORE PEOPLE THEN.....ENRON CORP......I'M ALL OVER YOU LIKE A CHEAP JW SUIT THE WT MAKES YOU WEAR TO TRY TO MAKE YOU LOOK RESPECTABLE..... ........TRY TO BULL ALL HERE WITH ONE OF YOUR BRAIN DEAD ANSWERS TO THIS!!!!!!!!GROW UP AND BE A MAN?????????????JOHN

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 21:04:44
Comments
To John and especially to College Students...It is true that I reacted with anger instead of love when I answered your post. I am sorry. Of course it is so hard for others to understand the impossible situation we are put in. Freedom is speech is so fundamental, especially in North America. For us, that freedom did not exist. We were cut off, and considered dead. (Dead men & women tell no lies. They don't tell the truth either. You can't hear the voices of the dead) The very ones who should have been loving us would not even see us if they passed us on the street. We didn't know anyone else, because we had been cut off from the world while in the church. So we truly were alone. The true God stayed with me, and sent angels to bear me up, and I eventually came to know how truly BLESSED I am to be among the 'dead', for in death I have found eternal life with my Saviour, Jesus Christ. This does not mean I don't still get angry when I think of other girls (and boys) who are even now going through the hell that I did at the hands of JW's. Anyway, I apologize for my outburst, and hope you will not give up in your search for truth in all things. Thank you John for gently pointing out my error. Love to all...even Trollman. CJV Ont Can

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 21:05:48
Comments
WAIT A MINUTEALL SILENT LAMBS HERE &&&&&&& HAS FOUND US ALL OUT ?????? WE ARE NOW ALL HOMOSEXUALS ...AND WE'RE MOLESTING CHILDREN ......IN FACT THIS SITE IS TO CONCEALED HOW WE PROTECT EACH OTHER IN OUR RAPE OF JW'S ...NO NAME YOU ARE TOOOOO!!!SMART FOR US????JOHN

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 21:25:42
Comments
Linda- I am doing good. And thank you very much for asking.-Jayson

Remote User:
Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
21:29:47
Comments
RJ, No I don't think I am, at least my husband of 20 years seems more than happy with me. TSK TSK Did I get to close to your real problem?....To answer your question logically someone that is lesbian or gay has a sexual orientation it does not make them a pervert or in clinical terms dear RJ(AKA ASS) a pedophile. Again you have no concept of the reality of the situation, only ignorant asses would laugh at people exercising their RIGHT IN AMERICA to pick it or protest. So again you have proven that your have your head placed somewhere where it's very dark and the light of intelligent thought can't get in. As I said your an ass RJ and you keep proving my point Sheila M

Remote User:
Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
21:37:05
Comments
John, Hey do you think RJ is mad because he only make $14.40 an hour, hmmm must be an unskilled laborer. LOL Funny I'm going to school to further my education but I haven't worked for under $15.00 for YEARS and I am in my late thirties. Hmmm May BEEEEEE he is mad because the fast food industry doesn't appreciate him LOL Well, John Trolls never learn huh LOL I told my husband RJ thinks I'm a lesbian LOL He is laughing his butt off .... Tolls in Tolkien get turned to stone I wonder what will happen to our Troll LOL Sheila M

Remote User:
Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
21:44:55
Comments
Remote user 14:38:52 Hmm Well most of us work and for myself and my hubby we own our own business, he has finished his first novel and I am attending school working on a novel myself. So hmmm we seem to have a life but take time for venting the anger that is still there from over a zillion years in a cult. GEE, would your rather we drank or drugged our way into oblivion or come here to try to vent and heal??? Peace Sheila M

Remote User:
Date:
06 Sep 2002
Time:
21:45:02
Comments
i couldn't help but repost this again. it was so lovely of true heart. Hey mole, this was great. a gift from tracy wallace of auburn. I was in love with an older man and my family threaten to shun me if i dated him. TJS of sacto if you see this hi. mole this is beautiful, everyone read this! >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>> >>>★Requiem of a jehovah's witness family In the past years it has come to a boiling point for all our family of certain things that exist and will permeate all facets of our lives even more so than now. As things progress our family has digressed to a nature that cannot be labeled but only explained. As the years pass and the Matriarch of the family grows older our families last and only adhesive will soon be gone. It is my fear as one of the only of two in our family who can pass on our legacy, will dissipate as soon as our beloved mother and my Grandma leaves us. I grieve everyday of what I see as a so called family especially labeled as a True Christian family to come to so much defiance and lying that it can only be described as sickening. Many complain and has chosen sides of a battle field no one knows the boundaries or the war. Is what I say wrong or do we as people, family, and true Christians see the glass walls we have chosen?
As the oldest grandson but also the last son of Grandma as she feels, She has nothing to offer me such as material things only the wealth of loving me for whom I am as a person and to give counsel in her own loving way. Whether I take it or not she tells me it's my free choice and using the wisdom she has taught me to make my way while all along all of you have lived your lives and ignored her going against the very scripture you preach door to door. But what I have seen of the family has grieved me so, to the point to right this letter to all members of our family. I shall try to stay objective and stay true, so forgive me if I have offend you but all must know and read what I have to say and make your own conclusion. First the taking of sides not knowing the whole facts, Little Mikey's wedding the most important day of his life, NOT one of our family MEMBERS ever used their free choice of conscience of will. Was it not Aunt Carmen and Uncle Mike who suggested to everyone not to show and made such a scandal of it to embarrass the family itself? Why were members in her family who are Jehovah's Witnesses attend and give gifts and excempted Little Mikey as a brother and family member? Even I was under threat and was accused of being rebellious if I attend. What is interesting is that Mikey was not disfellowshipped? So why where told not to attend his wedding because his wife was worldly? I thought if you borrowed some money you paid it back whether or not you're worldly or a Jehovah's Witness. Any worldly person knows that, yet we posses the mental capabilities to forget so quickly and ask for money only to give the song and dance of why you cant pay yet in your same breath you accuse those in the Kingdom Hall spiritually weak if they use the same excuses not to pay back. My dad has the power to take away a home and yet he holds back in fear of only one thing, keeping his family and friends close. So why deprive of him of his friends and family. Once an agreement is signed that's it, right? I have always liked Ashley and felt some mutual bond with him so its nothing personal, but the fact is the fact, if you owe and signed the dotted lines your ass is in the sling. Now here is the kicker. We have an elder in our mist that was seen with another woman and was drunk at a bar. This elder asks an individual who walked in hours later to cover his story or get an ass kicking. Is it true? I was threatened when he came to my home. I want to know does this elder and so-called brother of the faith have the love to pay back the $2,000.00 loan for his bail for the D.U.I. or can he say not? But he can accuse and point a finger to wrong doers within his eyesight and no one will question his motives for doing so. Is it the boy who cried wolf in Uncle Dan's case when he yells apostate to his brother? Should we keep the pitchforks and torches ready each night for the crucifixion? We are civilized, yet we act no better then Spanish inquisitors of 1600's. Uncle your words and actions are your own damnation. Keep your accusation for your own grave none of the living care. Another thing, I was told that my daughter is being corrupted for using E-net and E-mail and it is the work of Satan. Yes, this is what I was told and headhunters came to my home investigating such allegations. Are we now to cower when something new comes out? Fear of the new brings questionings, to be labeled apostate if your small minds don't understand. Do I live in Salem in fear of being accused of a witch? Uncle could send his minions to do his bidding to search out guilt, so then it must be that we are guilty first? Is it not we are innocent first? Well, what can we say, get the stake and nails, we will moan after the fact, right? Your actions as a family for doing nothing are proof enough of the vile and septic mentality in which we glory ourselves as Jehovah's slaves. My family is the a good example of being a false Lover of Christ teachings. Family unity now is further away than before. Can we say in 10 or 20 years from now that any of us or family members will even now each other, or are we condemned to walk past each other not knowing who the other is. Are we to drive away our blood for strangers who come and go throughout our lives? All we have is but us, Jehovah blessed families who where unified not divided. Uncle Sammy and I are the only ones to pass on our names. I have begged the family at the gatherings I attended and subtly asked where did Grandpa's stuff go. What hurts the most is that those who have it won't share it. Even one of our family members evicted from his home didn't call anyone to come and get grandpa's yard tools. Yet it was left to go to the dump. This was the family love that our organization taught then it would better be to be a catholic, what's the difference from one liar to another? Sam and me have but our stories to tell and nothing to show. While all of you where gone, it was Sammy, Grandpa and me who would go together and do things. Yet family members took stuff not thinking of that proud legacy he left for our name. None of you appreciated his love, sweat and blood he put into his land or you would have seen it as an investment not a rattrap. Telling grandma to burn down the house and get the insurance money. Shame on you for the words told to Grandma during her grief. I remember it all or has all of you purposely hidden it deep within. Another example of christian honesty and love isn't it? When Grandma dies we will all drift away, I have Aunt Rose's strong will and Uncle Dan's power to fight and won many victories, but I miss my Aunt Margie, she was compassionate and understanding. She would be so disappointed in all of you for she strived in family unity not the chaos we have now. She may not have approved of my life's past but she would have not judged me either knowing that it is up to a much higher power to do, not Danny or some unknown elder. When Grandma goes, are you so sure you will see her again? Is it loud public praises that will save you? Is it that you got 100 hours in service or that you never missed a talk? Is it not love that Christ commanded that supercedes any law? Now already Lines have been drawn for the next wedding or family event, on who's coming and who is not speaking with whom. Can we as a family maintain some unity no matter what differences each of us has? We are so small that we cannot even get together to find out how the other is doing or are regulations of men much deeper than love of your sister or brother because a member is on public reproof or married to a worldly woman? Is it really so hard to come down from your mountain to visit your mother, give a kind gesture, a simple visit to a forgotten family member? Attempts to cheat one another are the most humorist act I've seen yet, and we are family. I sometimes think it's better to deal with a worldly person. We have used have in our family cheaters that would probably put car salesman out of business. Jeez, no one gets a break.
love my God Jehovah and praise only him and his son so I speak not against him but only of those who cannot fulfill the simplest of deeds, respect of your mother. If you are bad then I dare you to hold any position in the organization whether you are female or male, in this way you can say I'm better than the stranger and the Jew. Can you be honest or love without conditions and regulation of men? Who of you ignore Christ teachings and Jehovah's examples of loving your parent, because if you do you have already failed. The organization has so much power to control even the one christ commanded to love, "love your father and mother and show them respect." I have no intention to hurt anyone so I apologize. In a hundred years whose going to care anyway, so this letter will probably be thrown into the trash, but at the least I said something. So if my own cousins can be tossed away like refuse, family members lie to keep their position to judge and excuses on why you cannot love Grandma then don't criticize anyone or a group, which includes me. Please my family: pull the rafter out of your own eye. Gossip is worse than any cut of the sword. I have great pride in all of Grandpa's achievements, they show character in which none of us have; yet I will strive to be like him and persevere. I have no shame to speak of him as a great man and I remember him walking with Sarge down the long back driveway. I will always think of him under the grapes peeling the cactus on his old brown stool. I only hope to live as long as he. Remember when he cried alone and many walked in on him and laughed at the old man? I sat with him in those days. So now I watch grandma and my son sits next to me. Sadly to say my only family is no more than bickering strangers and haters using the name of Jehovah to achieve their own selfish desire. Not even making the effort to see Grandma and drive down the hill and stay for even a day is what I see and this for goes for those cousins out there also. None of you even make the effort to come down and see her, not even once in a while. She is too old to drive and many have driven her up to the hills but should it not be the son or daughter to visit the mother? Is it so much to stay the day with her, in her own home? Don't write your hate mail or send headhunters to neither my home, nor a call. Love Grandma now! That is your commandment not from any man but from God himself, she is to be looked after and come first in your busy lives. Crocodile tears won't mean a thing when she has past on. It's the tears and laughs you share with her now are what mean the most. Your actions speak louder than any word you can tell me. Just do......your nephew.............. This letter is true and shows what real problems exist in a divided family who are all members of the same organization....it is of my opinion as long member that the organization is losing its power of us and many now seek their own way..................The MOLE... I hope all of you understand the true problems facing our religion. It not worth debating with someone who doesn't understand or someone just babbling nonsense..as i wrote and stated I cannot tell anyone why Ray Franz told me personally but a police state is what he likened my organization now, its true, my own family are out to get their own living in the ranks of something like a fascist political group,,,, what good for the goose may not be good for the gander in our religious thinking...This letter was mailed to all twenty family members which are Witnesses....Ray is doing well...good luck to you all in seeking for the truth....THE MOLE

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 21:47:25
Comments
sheila ; rj is a what you called him. rj ; you are such a devote member of the wt. and the preaching work the wt does??????i'll start a fund drive!!!to send you to how about IRAQ, IRAN ,SOMALIA,LIBYA, MAYBE THE PHILLIPINES JUNGLE. YOU CAN PREACH YOUR GOD'S WORD HERE , JUST LIKE IT SAYS IN THE WT HOW GREAT IT IS TO CONVERT THESE DEVILISH ONES TO THE WT. I WILL DONATE THE FIRST $500 FOR THIS CAUSE. !!!!!!!!!!RJ PACK YOUR BAGS IT WILL NOT BE LONG TILL WE GET YOU A PLANE TICKET!!!!HOW ABOUTY CUBA???? NOT FAR AWAY , ARE YOU READY TO BE PERICUTED FOR YOUR GOD??????THE MONEY IS HERE!!!!!!!JOHN

Remote User:
Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 22:24:59
Comments
CJV YOU DIDN'T MAKE AN ERROR !!!!YOU WERE BEING HONEST!!!THAT'S WHAT THE KINGDOM IS ALL ABOUT..GOD LOVES HONESTY...HOW LONG DID IT TAKE YOU 5 MINUTES TO REASON A SIMPLE QUESTION OUT!!!!UN LIKE THE WT IT TAKES THE GB 20-40-50 100 YEARS TO REASON OUT SIMPLE PROBLEMS. AND I NEVER HEARD YOU SAY YOU ARE GOD'S EARTHLY CHANNEL OF COMMUNICATION FOR ALL MAN KIND!!!!!!!!!AND YOU FIGURED IT OUT IN SECONDS!!!!ENOUGH TO MAKE ANY REASONABLE PERSON ASK????????????????WHAT SPRIT IS DIRECTING THE LEADERS OF THE WATCHTOWER?????????????FREEDOM IN CHRIST TO ALL....JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 23:21:11
Comments
RJ- You have made more posts than I can back track and count. Almost a 1/2 dozen today alone. For you to come back here so much there must be more bothering you than just the JWD knee-jerk defense otherwise, you would have said F.O. and been done with us. How can I help you? What do you want? If you wish to continue trading barbs you can. You have the choice of doing that. If you wish to talk about what is on your mind or your soul I am listening.- A Friend- Jayson...

Remote User:

Date: 06 Sep 2002
Time: 23:27:05
Comments
Sheila- Do you mind me asking what your husband' novel is about? What is the Title? Is it published yet ? I promise to buy a copy. I think that is sooooo cool! I would love to be published. I hope you meet your goal of writing your own novel.-Jayson

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 01:49:58
Comments
How do I go about having my name removed from Jeh. witnesses

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 07:29:08
Comments
To the question >>How do I go about getting my name removed from JW's<< It's real easy!! Just publicly walk up to an elder, any elder and tell him you support the silentlambs. Tell him why. Tell him the Watchtower society is full of liars and fornicators and murderers. TELL HIM THE TRUTH!! I guarantee you, they'll not want you back.CJV Ont Can Remote User:

Date:
07 Sep 2002
Time:
08:15:51
Comments
Hey everyone...this is Linda Thoman again. I have a suggestion...With all the JW's posting nonsense on the board, how about everyone just simply ignore those posts and not respond at all. It's obvious these posts are meant to upset everyone, so why give them the time of day? Let them come into this "apostate" site against their own rules, let them rant and rave and call us all liars, what does it matter really? Let their ignorance stand on it's own. If someone posts a reasonable question without the accusations attached, then reply with kindness and tact. But this constant bantering back and forth serves no purpose. We are here for the thousands of Silentlambs who need our help and support and words of encouragement. Please make notice of those who posts requests for help and email them immediately and offer assistance, regardless of whether they are now adults or not. There may be children who post and need help quick! So, let's stick to the reason why we're here, let's help the JW victims, and stop the name calling, bantering back and forth and lets help however we can. Put flyers on your car windows advertising this site; put flyers out everywhere you go; download Bill's posters and Tri-folders and distribute them everywhere you go. We must get the word out. JW's are doing everything they can to keep it all hushed up, so we have to work that much harder to counter their efforts. Please people...........stick to the focus. Linda quick! So, let's stick to the reason why we're here, let's help the JW victims, and stop the name calling, bantering back and forth and lets help however we can. Put flyers on your car windows advertising this site; put flyers out everywhere you go; download Bill's posters and Tri-folders and distribute them everywhere you go. We must get the word out. JW's are doing everything they can to keep it all hushed up, so we have to work that much harder to counter their efforts. Please people.........stick to the focus. Linda

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 10:23:35
Comments
Read this from JWD http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36161&site=3 . . . Let's help the Anderson's if we can

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 11:06:04
Comments
Jayson; The genre of my hubby's novel is fantasy(i.e.: swords, dragons, magic). The funny thing is there is a cult that parallels the witnesses in it it's funny because he wrote it without really realizing that was a way he was expressing his anger LOL The title tentatively is Thunder Riders Burden. As for my book, I'm not sure at what point I will be willing to take the criticism for my writing. For me my writing is very personal and to have others hack and slash YIKES Thanks for asking, Sheila M PS If you write get Stephen Kings "On Writing" it is so helpful

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 11:22:19
Comments
Sheila M- Thanks! and Thanks again for the tip on King's book. If you choose to write I know you can do it :-) Jay

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 12:52:34
Comments
Seems like the Jehovah's Witnesses Governing body not only protect paedophiles, but are no longer neutral having shares in weapons of war! http://www.watchtowernerews.org/randcam.htm The Watchtower's Investments in Warfare Technology Amazing, UN membership, protecting paedophiles and this, another reason to doubt this organization represents God in any way. Of course if your a JW who never believes any thing, don't read this message. SAB
Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 14:50:48
Comments
http://www.canoe.ca/NationalTicker/CANOE-wire.Jehovahs-Transfusion.html I think it is important to know that this girl died and another family that was once in tact is now in shambles. Good job GB. I'm sure that it is all propaganda and "lashing" grieving individuals that say the WT religiously empowered puts pressure on anyone or any family that does not do what the MAN tells them too. No all that is given is? Nope, That is why the words "I am sorry for the loss of your daughter that you love so much" is completely void. That is why the Father is attacked by the WT group. Yep, no love, no understanding, no compassion, and I am not sorry. That is the way of the WT. And they wonder why I am completely discussed by their actions. They wonder I never joined. And they wonder why I won't be quite. They just don't get it.-Sorry to rant but this hurts-Jayson

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 14:54:01
Comments
great to know fellow bro's & sis are doing Jehovah's will by sending viruses to my email address. being a believer in "what comes around, goes around", I'm sure the love they've shown will rebound back on them. Rich

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 15:51:14
Comments
The man father of a teenager that just died in Calgary is devastated by the WT. Now he declared war on the WT. We should help him somehow. We should find more effective ways to fight them. rmk

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 15:56:05
Comments
This article was printed in 1999 October in a college news letter called New Thinkers Newsletter from a former college student who is a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses Organization. This letter was verified with a phone discussion. Names and dates where deleted purposely to avoid legal action against New Thinkers Newsletter. The girl named J. was afraid of being shunned if this secret came out about her hall.  I remember not long ago in my hall , there was an incident that shocked everyone and no one said anything . It is my belief and still is, that everyone was afraid to speak up in fear of reprisals. A young man in the south area of Sacramento was found molesting young boys that he was in care of. The parent were very upset and went to the Elders of our hall to complain. It was a horrible scandal that literally shook everyone's pillars. I personally thought he was going to prison for his actions. The young mans parents begged the Elders not to turn him into the police and the young man cried and begged also.

With pleading tears the Elders said they would see into the matter. To my knowledge the children's parent was about to inform the police but the Elders told her that it was unscriptural to call the law and that is was a matter for the hall to deal with not outside authorities. They gave the scripture about it is wrong to sue one another in the same faith. Basically, I think they wanted to hush the matter so that reproach wouldn't fall on their congregation. The young man received a demotion and a public reproving. I was shocked. We are supposed to be in subjection to God's laws and to man's law. This was clearly breaking man's law not reporting the matter to the authorities. It was quietly put aside. One of the Elders in our hall gave a talk to the congregation about gossip and subtle threats about discussing things that were of a judicial matter. Fear instilled in the hearts kept everyone silent. This was the most horrible thing I have heard in years. The children's parent was dismayed at the whole situation and I asked why she didn't do it anyway and call the police, she said she was afraid of being accused of not obeying God's words and being called an apostate. So the police were never called and the children will have to live with this ugly memory forever. The Elders swept it under the carpet and no one spoke openly about it again. Six months later M.S. the young man was given back his former position as a ministerial servant and declared he was repentant. This is why I wrote this letter to tell everyone, and to make things worse I just found out that the Organization will send him to New York as a Bethelite. I am sick to my stomach that he is being rewarded for his actions. J. of south Sacramento  This letter was published and distributed to the police and to all colleges campuses in northern California beside watch groups like SilentLambs. Good luck Bill.. New Thinkers Newsletter 2002

Remote User:

Date:
07 Sep 2002
Time:
16:13:48
Comments
hey all found this one too. wow ..really deep. hey slc, hi someone in texas, what's up buster? it bro in lodi again. what is with all the yelling here? found this one deep in the pit of discord. the moleTo all witnesses: I never thought I was in a right wing group, I still don't believe that I am. However, some of the statements are true. I too have had some questions about being a Jehovah's Witness. I was born into the situation and known no other. I have never known any other religion and my parents kept me very isolated from others who were considered worldly (pagans). I believe that we do good, but the attitude by most people is apathy so it has been a struggle for us. It is true most in our group believe everything that is written in our Watchtower Magazine, but that goes for any Religion who publishes anything. I have seen the wrongs; however, this is by no means an expose'of my congregation nor of the others I know of personally. I remember the 1975 period when my parents didn't believe that the world was going to end and my fathers disfellowshipping. I also remember the 1980-83 shake up of our Society which is still very vivid in my mind. Yet my mom wanted to return to our kingdom hall anyway because all her family are members of the Jehovah's Witnesses'; nevertheless, it took years for her to get excepted back into our religion, and my father, he rather not have anything to do with the religion or any other religion as far as he is concerned. I will admit that I am a baptized member of the Organization of Jehovah's Witnesses and I will tell my experience and the truth of what I seen. This is in no way meant to hurt all those I love by writing this response. There are couple of incidents I will mention but I will keep the names hidden so as too refrain from harming the innocent. Here is one more that has to be mentioned. Awhile back in West Sacramento, there is a so called Brother of the faith who committed statutory rape. The mother was very upset and intended phone the police but again she was told to show forgiveness and love. I was told they also gave the same scripture about Christians suing one another. She threatened to do it any way's but was told not too. She said to all of us that she was told by the Elders that if she did, she would be rebelling against gods authority. The law was broken we said, but she said if she did phone the police she would get in trouble. These examples are true to the best of knowledge and it grieves me very much. Now I see why Brother Franz said in his book " It is Christ we should focus on, not some human organization, that our attention and interest should focus, for carefully concealed in him are all are treasures". He may be disfellowshipped but he has made an impact on all Jehovah's Witnesses. His book has passed through many of our hands but he is correct in saying that " drastic actions taken toward those person accused of apostasy were unjustified and repugnant". I can not reject my faith and do say that the previous letter was nothing more than bashing my religion. But I know of those who knew Brother Franz and they discussed all those issues I have just written about. I have heard the he is a very kind and a loving man who does love god. We all need martyrs for what is right and if Ray Franz is right he will be remembered for ever like the others in our past who loved truth. My dad wants nothing to do with my religion and said he doesn't really care to return. As I briefly mentioned before he was disfellowshipped in 1976 when I was very little. He worked over 40 hours a week and didn't have time to go door to door. I remember the Elders of our old hall talking to him constantly about the need for field service. My dad said he would lose his job or his house if he did what they suggested. It got to the point where he grit his teeth every time they showed up. He told my mom that they suggested he quit his job and spend more time going door to door preaching. He was dumfounded at their comments and it was backed up with the reasoning that the world would end soon. I remember so many who lost there jobs because of this kind of thinking. Many were kicked out for apostasy for not obeying these men. My dad says now, where are these fools who told me to quit, the world didn't end in 1976, only there control over him did. He was disfellowshipped in 1976 for not being reasonable and not being humble. I heard the way they spoke to my dad and it was like a quiet serpent with soft words and a superior attitude, like they knew gods thoughts. My mom cried for days because she knew they had already intended to remove my dad. He stood up for his rights and appealed their decision. To no avail it was announced a week before my birthday that he was disfellowshipped. Our world changed at that moment for us. My dad is very successful in his job and now has more free time than ever and ready to retire. He says if he would have done what they said we would have all suffered greatly. He is humored when he sees or hears of these men when we are at our assembly because they didn't get their end of the world and are broke still working at low paying jobs without the possibility retiring. I have heard that out of the five who prosecuted him only one remains in authority. From the five, one was disfellowshipped for what ever reasons, one gave up the religion entirely, one died, and the last stepped down from his position. Hearing this gave my dad some release of the thoughts that he was bad in some way for standing up for himself. My mom is a different story but it is the same ending. My mom has been a member since her birth also. She cannot remember any other association or any religion in her family. My family members are all baptized and have been associated with this organization for years. My mom used to be a pioneer (full time Preaching) for years. She went to New York and worked for awhile there and traveled around the US for a couple of years as a pioneer. I remember her telling us how she was so excited to do all this and who she knew. Names and people she talked too seemed endless and many were very high up in our organization. In 1980 when the shake up began in our organization, my mom cried to hear that some of her friends were removed. Once again she was devastated. Some of those people helped her through her crisis and helped her remained active despite my dads feelings. She continued without a word preaching and telling everyone about our harmony and love for one another. A year had past and she said to a few that it was awful what had happened and how can she say we have harmony when we didn't. I remember more clearly now what mom my went through now that I'm older. I heard the ugly rumors about my moms friends and so did my mom. She defended herself and her friends only to be put in a head hunt situation. I know for a fact she encouraged her friends over the phone to stay faithful and not to do bad. She was lectured week after week that her faith in our organization was weak and possibly apostate. She was crushed to hear this. I remember the toll it took on her health then. She had done nothing wrong in her conscience or her heart she said. My mom was removed in 1983. Our family shunned us, even me. Years passed and my mom was reinstated in 1992. She was able to see her family and my grandma. MY grandfather died a year before and we were not invited because both my parents were disfellowshipped. I got baptized in 1992 and it made my mom happy. My reasons are mine on why I did get baptized; however, I know this, I will be more cautious and not fall prey to wild thinking or throw my life away preaching. I seen the best of both worlds and I will be like my dad, I also will have the devotion like my mother to those I love and care about. It scares me personally to see people suffer needlessly like that girl on the Dateline interview. It shakes me up on how disgusting it is to cover up legal matters and let others be abused; therefore, I believe that my god Jehovah will destroy these people, and I do believe in him without question. I will not listen to any mans foolishness on what they believe god thinks or what they think he wants. Our hearts he will search out, not bible zealots who feel they are better than anyone else. I have my regrets for not doing what I had to do, only to subject myself to ignorant men. I promise not ever to do to my children what was done to me in my past. I will not deprive them the need to release nor to communicate or to express themselves as I was hindered. I think my life could have been much more than it is now. I have a weak High school education because at that time when I was in high school the J.W. organization did discourage any extra curricular activity and college prep courses. I whole heartedly believe that this effected my life style today and to regretfully say I have no skills. My children will play baseball, do Karate, and Play with the neighbor kids. All these things are part of growing up and to hinder them is evil. I was told I couldn't do these things when I was young and I told my mom how I hated not doing anything productive at school in my early days. Her reply was that she was sorry for me not going to college and if she had to do all of over again, she would have let me expand my horizons. She said those were the times then and all higher education was discouraged, if she would have known what she knows now, it wouldn't have happened. I could have been somebody great or better equipped to do good by now. I struggle to survive while those younger than me have the upper management jobs and I'm stuck with some low wage, taking orders from some pee-on. The impact of the Elders carries much weight but the need for the many is control or a sense of purpose. We have good times along with the bad, but a limit should be on how much control over ones mind should be. Our conscience is a gift from god and should not be exploited. I think religion is good in some ways and to have it removed would crush hope. Hope keeps mankind from destroying one another. If the world is to end, I know in my heart I will live to see my dream of being in a paradise. False prophecy I ignore, but love and kindness keeps me going. I believe that God exist and mankind needs teachings that exert love. Avoid those men in cheap suit's with their ideas of God. It is god who we will answer too not to some organization. Keep on searching for the real truth not be polluted in false doctrine and the corrupt ideas of men. For Jehovah is to be sought out not hidden in a building in New York.....the mole Jehovah himself, that which evil what you preach will befall you also." This scripture says it all and so I will quote it one (your personal thoughts of God) out of many? I tell you this, what you do to the Angels, Christ and most of all thought, the essence and law of which is diversity. How can you be true to your nature when you attempt to make one. Through this you have created the torment of incomprehension, and the mutilation of the created world of Organization and that is, "you have substituted the oneness of God for the diversity which cannot be resolved into only ask themselves but as whole group. I have this comment directed to the President of the Jehovah's Witness' mercy to those who have doubts". Do you think they do this simple act of mercy? It's a good question they should not supposed to obey the scriptures they don't seem too follow to closely. In Jude verse 22 say's "Continue showing hierarchy has created than we as people are no more than thoughtless robots in a Nazi regime. For a group of people are they talking about, or is it they believe God was in error in the Holy Scriptures? The shunning destroying families question is what God or God's are they talking about? If Jehovah created us to be individuals with free will than whom like the angles in heaven… Those who believe they are in dividuals be reminded they are rebelling against God." My mole"True love and peace within the Organization; let's remain under God's rule with faith." These words where spoken at the last district assembly of Jehovah's Witness in July of 1999. Do they speak the truth or with fork tongues? Beware all members of the Organization; the time I warned you about have begun; they are out to find you. With a smiles and cheer they come into your home to sneer. They sit in your home and listen to your every word and test every comment to see if your worthy of their man mad blessings and give their evaluation of what they feel how spiritual you are not knowing only God himself can only see these things. Can they really see the love within a person or is of their own perspective they what should be in their own eyes. Their doomsday Prophets has spoken again. In so many words they have declared that the year 2000 will be the coming of Christ; however, they are a little smarter than before when they prophesied in 1975 and 1984 that the end would come. So by not putting anything in print they have plausible deniability if it doesn't come as expected. What is so humorous is that many Brothers and Sisters during one of our afternoon breaks at the assembly gave a long and detail synopsis of how the world is coming to an end in the year 2000 and how his family is preparing for it. I laughed heartily while listening to one of our member's go on and on how they are so faithful and how Jehovah will save them in the time of need. Can anyone be haughtier than this; does this sound like the Pharisees? The real question to ask is will the organization stop or discourage such talk? A well-known and reputable speaker within the Society declared this at our convention and so I thought this needed to be said and I quote, " The time has come when those inside our organization will cool off and betray our brotherhood, … the time is near and the weeding out has begun. The end of the times as declared by the apostles and Jesus is now!" If these words are true than 98% of the world's population is dead with no hope of salvation through Christ, so all peoples of the world must conform to the ideas of the Jehovah's Witness' that salvation must come through their organization. There is NO scripture in the Bible that declared salvation through an organization, it says though it's through Christ alone. Are they to makes us believe they alone have this power? Why would a God of love and peace destroy the innocent along with the evil? The Jehovah's Witness' proclaim they have covered the world with their worldwide teaching and that those who didn't listen will be destroyed, the Mormons are declaring the same message, which is correct? Also are this showing true love and a good example to others around them who are looking for the rule truth about God and his Son? Another thing is that they have an excuse for every crime they commit and act of abhorred brutality they do, the cover ups would reach the sky but will they admit it; but no, it is all good because Jehovah god will only forgive them and no one else. Beware all; they have started their witch-hunt to look for apostates within their own organization. Its looks like they are ready to atrophied as a group of people. Not only do they have enemies on the outside but also on the inside. Many faithful members are now ready to dig in and wait for the fight as I am doing now. Any person in any congregations can now accuse someone of a wrongdoing and remain hidden while the cost to defend one self is enormous to the accused. Does this sound familiar to our Christian past? So now we wait for the new inquisition and burning at the stake just like before when the Pope said all those questioning their authority is to be sought out and purged for their sins. Along with others who are still members, including me are watching with a careful eye; we are waiting for the headhunt to begin and see how their book-burning club seeks out betrayers in their own ranks. One fact is the Elders will come to your home telling you they are there for encouragement while the whole time they are searching through your house and judging you with their soft words as they question ones on irrelevant subjects. The congregation meetings soon after the district assemblies began to create lectures of apostate teachings and those who speak out against the Organization. Here is one talk that I took notes on that shocked not only me but those who are the old members as well. I quote, " Let anyone who has an opinion or voice not in harmony with the Society and the Anointed be removed. We should all sing in chorus like the angles in heaven… Those who believe they are individuals be reminded they are rebelling against God." My question is what God or God's are they talking about? If Jehovah created us to be individuals with free will than whom are they talking about, or is it they believe God was in error in the Holy Scriptures? The shunning destroying families will be the horrid crime that would even offend Christ himself. If one cannot question the authority system that our hierarchy has created than we as people are no more than thoughtless robots in a Nazi regime. For a group of people supposed to obey the scriptures they don't seem too follow to closely. In Jude verse 22 say's "Continue showing mercy to those who have doubts". Do you think they do this simple act of mercy? It's a good question they should not only ask themselves but as whole group. I have this comment directed to the President of the Jehovah's Witness' Organization and that is, "you have substituted the oneness of God for the diversity which cannot be resolved into one. Through this you have created the torment of incomprehension, and the mutilation of the created world of thought, the essence and law of which is diversity. How can you be true to your nature when you attempt to make one (your personal thoughts of God) out of many? I tell you this, what you do to the Angels, Christ and most of all Jehovah himself, that which evil what you preach will befall you also." This scripture says it all and so I will quote it brotherhood, ... the time is near and the weeding out has begun. The end of the times as declared by the apostles needed to be said and I quote, " The time has come when those inside our organization will cool off and betray our talk? A well-known and reputable speaker within the Society declared this at our convention and so I thought this than this; does this sound like the Pharisees? The real question to ask is will the organization stop or discourage such on and on how they are so faithful and how Jehovah will save them in the time of need. Can anyone be haughtier end in the year 2000 and how his family is preparing for it. I laughed heartily while listening to one of our member's go during one of our afternoon breaks at the assembly gave a long and detail synopsis of how the world is coming to an have plausible deniability if it doesn't come as expected. What is so humorous is that many Brothers and Sisters so many words they have declared that the year 2000 will be the coming of Christ; however, they are a little smarter or is of their own perspective they what should be in their own eyes. Their doomsday Prophets has spoken again. In spiritual you are not knowing only God himself can only see these things. Can they really see the love within a person test every comment to see if your worthy of their man mad blessings and give their evaluation of what they feel how
With a smiles and cheer they come into your home to sneer. They sit in your home and listen to your every word and mole"True love and peace within the Organization; let's remain under God's rule with faith." These words from our Organization own Bible. 1 Corinthians 4:3-5, " Now to me it is a very trivial matter that I should be examined by you or by a human tribunal. Even I do not examine myself. For I am not conscious of anything against myself; yet this does not prove me righteous, but he that examine me is Jehovah. Hence do not judge anything before the due time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring the secret things of darkness to light and make the counsels of the hearts manifest, and then each one will have his praise come to him from God." Will the Witness' follow the written word from their own source or will they have an excuse similar to those Puritans who burned witches for Gods sake?
We must resist with all our might the conspiracy to limit and narrow our perception, masquerading tendentious religious dogma as absolute truths. Witnesses want to really know the truth then how come the Organization doesn't admit that its way of conducting the congregation is similar to that of Valentinian Gnosticism in the first century.
Congregation members give talks (preach) to the laity, the women also go on stage, not directly preaching to the audience but to another on the stage (podium), same thing. Preaching from door to door to other Christians declaring the imperfections of their faith that they alone have the good news of salvation, and their ideas of the struggle of light and darkness found only in the Jehovah's Witness' doctrine, etc, etc, etc. Can they really believe the rest of the world doesn't see this? This is why they and the Mormons seek the dregs of life to fill their seats not as Christ did for salvation but for the need of power and money. They are like public braggarts boasting of their enrollment not of those poor they saved from disaster or distress. The many that love and give freely of themselves now have to regulate whom they associate with. During the concluding session of the same assembly in July one of the last speakers insisted on avoiding bad association and the weak; however, isn't this contrary to scripture also? In John 7:24 states these actions clearly by saying," Stop judging from the outward appearance, but judge with righteous judgment." My question to the Society is how can you have a double standard? If Jesus said to go for the lost sheep and leave behind the other ninety-nine, then where does one draw the line on who is weak? If the weak are in need of help but shunned are the Elders no better then the men Christ himself condemned as evil serpents and so Christ sat with prostitutes and beggars. Will the Elders wash my feet as Christ our leader did? Is there such a humble man in our Organization? Each person in our Kingdom Halls is so preoccupied with making a good appearance they have lost the truth on why the first century congregation formed. If anyone has noticed while attending our meetings many of the members are no more than empty shells, regurgitating the same useless babble so not is different. Image is not everything it's the wholeness one can exert with love and kindness is the fine works spoken of in Galatians 5:22-3; therefore, its not a showy display but helping the poor and weak in which the grace of God blesses people. I will keep attending and reporting. Stay on the watch, you may also be next to be questioned about your inner feelings and standing in the congregation. Beware to all of you. Sincerely, The Mole******

Remote User:

Date: 07 Sep 2002
Time: 16:21:14
Comments

hi again..this is another for you sister in auburn...brother in placerville stay strong and fight the good fight! this is the lodi brother what is going on everyone , i have been reading the last months stuff. it seems we attacked so some firecrackers. fresh blood is good. hi all>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>> *the mole"True love and peace within the Organization; let's remain under God's rule with faith." These words where spoken at the last district assembly of Jehovah's Witness in July of 1999. Do they speak the truth or with fork tongues? Beware all members of the Organization; the time I warned you about have begun; they are out to find you.

With a smiles and cheer they come into your home to sneer. They sit in your home and listen to your every word and test every comment to see if your worthy of their man mad blessings and give their evaluation of what they feel how spiritual you are not knowing only God himself can only see these things. Can they really see the love within a person or is of their own perspective they what should be in their own eyes. Their doomsday Prophets has spoken again. In so many words they have declared that the year 2000 will be the coming of Christ; however, they are a little smarter than before when they prophesied in 1975 and 1984 that the end would come. So by not putting anything in print they have plausible deniability if it doesn't come as expected. What is so humorous is that many Brothers and Sisters during one of our afternoon breaks at the assembly gave a long and detail synopsis of how the world is coming to an end in the year 2000 and how his family is preparing for it. I laughed heartily while listening to one of our member's go on and on how they are so faithful and how Jehovah will save them in the time of need. Can anyone be haughtier than this; does this sound like the Pharisees? The real question to ask is will the organization stop or discourage such talk? A well-known and reputable speaker within the Society declared this at our convention and so I thought this needed to be said and I quote, " The time has come when those inside our organization will cool off and betray our brotherhood, ... the time is near and the weeding out has begun. The end of the times as declared by the apostles and Jesus is now!” If these words are true than 98% of the world’s population is dead with no hope of salvation through Christ, so all peoples of the world must conform to the ideas of the Jehovah’s Witness’ that salvation must come through their organization. There is NO scripture in the Bible that declared salvation through an organization, it says though it's through Christ alone. Are they to makes us believe they alone have this power? Why would a God of love and peace destroy the innocent along with the evil? The Jehovah’s Witness’ proclaim they have covered the world with their worldwide teaching and that those who didn’t listen will be destroyed, the Mormons are declaring the same message, which is correct? Also are this showing true love and a good example to others around them who are looking for the rule truth about God and his Son? Another thing is that they have an excuse for every crime they commit and act of abhorred brutality they do, the cover ups would reach the sky but will they admit it; but no, it is all good because Jehovah god will only forgive them and no one else. Beware all; they have started their witch-hunt to look for apostates within their own organization. Its looks like they are ready to atrophied as a group of people. Not only do they have enemies on the outside but also on the inside. Many faithful members are now ready to dig in and wait for the fight as I am doing now. Any person in any congregations can now accuse someone of a wrongdoing and remain hidden while the cost to defend one self is enormous to the accused. Does this sound familiar in our Christian past? So now we wait for the new inquisition and burning at the stake just like before when the Pope said all those questioning their authority is to be sought out and purged for their sins. Along with others who are still members, including me are watching with a careful eye; we are waiting for the headhunt to begin and see how their book-burning club seeks out betrayers in their own ranks. One fact is the Elders will come to your home telling you they are there for encouragement while the whole time they are searching through your house and judging you with their soft words as they question ones on irrelevant subjects. The congregation meetings soon after the district assemblies began to create lectures of apostate teachings and those who speak out against the Organization. Here is one talk that I took notes on that shocked not only me but those who are the old members as well. I quote, “Let anyone who has an opinion or voice not in harmony with the Society and the Anointed be removed. We should all sing in chorus like the angles in heaven... Those who believe they are individuals be reminded they are rebelling against God.” My question is what God or God’s are they talking about? If Jehovah created us to be individuals with free will than whom are they talking about, or is it they believe God was in error in the Holy Scriptures? The shunning destroying families will be the horrid crime that would even offend Christ himself. If one cannot question the authority system that our hierarchy has created than we as people are no more than thoughtless robots in a Nazi regime. For a group of people supposedly to obey the scriptures they don’t seem too follow to closely. In Jude verse 22 say’s “Continue showing mercy to those who have doubts”. Do you think they do this simple act of mercy? It’s a good question they should not only ask themselves but as whole group. I have this comment directed to the President of the Jehovah’s Witness’ Organization and that is, “you have substituted the oneness of God for the diversity which cannot be resolved into one. Through this you have created the torment of incomprehension, and the mutilation of the created world of thought, the essence and law of which is diversity. How can you be true to your nature when you attempt to make one (your personal thoughts of God) out of many? I tell you this, what you do to the Angels, Christ and most of all Jehovah himself, that which evil what you preach will befall you also.” This scripture says it all and so I will quote it from our Organization own Bible. 1 Corinthians 4:3-5, “Now to me it is a very trivial matter that I should be examined by you or by a human tribunal. Even I do not examine myself. For I am not conscious of anything against myself; yet this does not prove me righteous, but he that examine me is Jehovah. Hence do not judge anything before the due time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring the secret things of darkness to light and make the counsels of the hearts manifest, and then each one will have his praise come to him from God.” Will the Witness’ follow the written word from their own source or will they have an excuse similar to those Puritans who burned witches for Gods sake? We must resist with all our might the conspiracy to limit and narrow our perception, masquerading tendentious religious dogma as absolute truths. Witnesses want to really know the truth then how come the Organization doesn’t admit that its way of conducting the congregation is similar to that of Valentinian Gnosticism in the first century. Congregation members give talks (preach) to the laity, the women also go on stage, not directly preaching to the audience but to another on the stage (podium), same thing. Preaching from door to door to other Christians declaring the imperfections of their faith that they alone have the good news of salvation, and their ideas of the struggle of light and darkness found only in the Jehovah’s Witness’ doctrine, etc, etc, etc. Can they really believe the rest of the world doesn’t see this? This is why they and the Mormons seek the dregs of life to fill their seats not as Christ did for salvation but for the need of power and money. They are like public braggarts boasting of their enrollment not of those poor they saved from disaster or distress. The many that love and give freely of themselves now have to regulate whom they associate with. During the concluding session of the same assembly in July one of the last speakers insisted on avoiding bad association and the weak; however, isn't this contrary to scripture also? In John 7:24 states these actions clearly by saying,” Stop judging from the outward appearance, but judge with righteous judgment.” My question to the Society is how can you have a double standard? If Jesus said to go for the lost sheep and leave behind the other ninety-nine, then where does one draw the line on who is weak? If the weak are in need of help but shunned are the Elders no better than the men Christ himself condemned as evil serpents and so Christ sat with prostitutes and beggars. Will the Elders wash my feet as Christ our leader did? Is there such a humble man in our Organization? Each person in our Kingdom Halls is so preoccupied with making a good appearance they have lost the truth on why the first century congregation formed. If anyone has noticed while attending our meetings many of the members are no more than empty shells, regurgitating the same useless babble so not is different. Image is not everything it's the wholeness one can exert with love and kindness is the fine works spoken of in Galatians 5:22-3; therefore, it's not a showy display but helping the poor and weak in which the grace of God blesses people. I will keep attending and reporting. Stay on the watch, you may also be next to be questioned about your inner feelings and standing in the congregation. Beware to all of you. Sincerely, The Mole******

Remote User:

Date:
07 Sep 2002
Time:
17:01:21
Comments
Mole, you really care! How comely that you are back! How encouraging that you see things correctly. My hope is restored. There must be a number of people like you there. They are not stupid they must see that something is wrong. How do we become more effective in helping the sincere ones to freedom? God be with you Mole. Always looking forward to some news from you.rmk

Remote User:

Date:
08 Sep 2002
Time:
01:46:19
Comments
I feel I must be honest, I grow weary of the over expounded bible thumping scholars on this site who do what they accuse there Quote unQuote JW opponents of doing. Being Abusive, that's right, the Endless Page after page of Bible Theorizing and policy debating is in my opinion more Religious Abuse, I get more mind numbing hogwash on this site in one sitting than I would a hole month of sitting in a KH, at least there I am not isolating myself an turning into some sort of moronic Bible relic. Don"t get me wrong, this Child Abuse and Spouse Battering are important subjects and need to be addressed but this Whose the smartest bible scholar on the planet game that goes on here is reminiscent of some street curb alcoholics ramblings and does nothing more than sidestep what is trying to be accomplished here, maybe that is your purpose to try and discourage people, shy sheep if you will from posting here because they can't get a word in edgways. And I will use some names... No I won't, YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE I was appalled to read some posts from obvious new posters spilling there hearts out in a small faint voice, just to be talked over to the greedy ego feeding, language confusing nazi's that frequent this page and never have anything encouraging to say to any of the lambs here, I am personally tired of all the grandstanding that goes on here and doubt that it has anything to do with healing abuse issues. This is my perspective anyway...NP

Remote User:

Date:
08 Sep 2002
Time:
05:51:41
Comments
07:17:40
Comments
NP-- I have to agree with you and I believe that there are many others out there that feel the same. This site was set up for those who have been abused first by the molesters then by the people who are to look after the well-being of the sheep in their care. Bad habits are hard to break for some who have left the organization and for those that have an ax to grind with the Watchtower. there are other forums out there for that purpose, they need to take full advantage of them and leave this site to the true Silent Lambs. The best advice that I could give to anyone is to report criminal activity to the law enforcement in your area, don't leave it in the hands of people that can't or won't help you. In my opinion it serves no purpose to argue doctrine, leave the past behind (I know that is hard to do, especially if you have been abused by this religion) and enjoy the rest of you life. CM

Remote User:
Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 07:34:54
Comments
I hate these posters who post large messages taking up tonnes of space!!!!!!!!!!! Why don't you create a website and post it there like i do? Deepest sympathy to the father of the girl who died of Leukemia. I hope a website is created so donations can be given to help him. bas www.antijehovahswitness.com

Remote User:
Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 10:43:19
Comments
i followed the story of the girl in canada with cancer.and how the wt stepped in to fight the father, break up the family, etc., etc., how many times has the wt printed that we must follow our own conscience. i think the father did that. the wt tried to play god and step in. the wt is a baby HITLER!!!!!THE WT TREATS IT,S MEMBERS, THE SAME AS THE PHARAOH'S TREATED THE JEW SLAVES. STORY'S LIKE THESE MAKE ME SICK!!!JW,S HAVE NO HUMAN RIGHT UNDER THE WHIP OF THE WATCHTOWER !!!!!!!!JUST AS GOD DESTROYED THE TOWER OF BABAL. SO WILL GOD DESTROY THE MODERN WATCHTOWER OF BABALING BULL CRAP.....JOHN

Remote User:
Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 10:49:32
Comments
This whole religion is based on "don't challenge the Watchtower on any subject" because they are Gods organization. Any type of investigation into this religion is useful to help people see that it is not the final authority. It is nothing more than a few older peoples opinions. I welcome all challenges to their authority.
Well many have talked the talk, are you willing to walk the walk? Below is program anyone can do in your local community. We would like to see every Kingdom Hall presented with a stuffed lamb and press statement before the march in Brooklyn on the 27th. How about all the Kingdom Halls in your area? Follow the instructions below, email me if you want one sent to you directly. This can certainly help bring larger publicity to the march and if you are unable to attend, it offers something you can do locally to support silentlambbs. This is a part of history that will be remembered for years to come, please do not miss this opportunity to be part of it. silentlambbs Instructions: This is the announcement press packet for the local Kingdom Hall press release. The top page goes out two days in advance to all media in your local area. TV, Radio, Newspaper, etc., Call and get fax or email along with who the religion reporters are. Send this to news room fax or assignment desk to their attention. Put a local telephone number and name as a contact person above my name. Call the local reporters and tell them you are going to deliver the lamb, which Kingdoms Halls along with when and where. The next two pages are to press conference statements are simply delivered with the lamb and stuck on the front door handle. Do all the Kingdom Halls in your area. When reporters arrive, why not stand under the local through? If JWs order you off the property make them do it in front of the reporter. Then explain this is much the same as child rape victims are treated within the congregation. Then simply go to the sidewalk or by the sign in front of the Kingdom Hall and offer to answer any questions about the purpose of the march and why we are delivering lambs to Kingdom Halls. Give the reporter a copy of what you are leaving at the Kingdom Hall. Mid morning is a good time as typically no one is there and if you are asked to leave then the press will get it on film. Do not be angry or abrasive to any JWs you may meet, be kind and cordial to any requests. If confronted by elders you might try to mention this is about protecting children from child abuse and do they mind if you make a few brief comments to the press statement? If they say no then ask them where you could stand, put them on the spot. Remember sidewalks are public property and can be used as a last resort. Kingdom Hall signs are often located near the sidewalk, stand as close as possible if a reporter wants to talk to you. If you are having supporters with you have them make up posters that say-silentlambbs-protect children-stop child molesters-end the silence-or words to that effect. Answer any questions and then ask if they want to follow you to the next Kingdom Hall. Answer questions as you would for a representative for the silentlambbs organization. Say at silentlambbs we do this or that try to include the name in the sentence. Also say the words Jehovah's Witnesses as much as possible. Say leadership when you refer to the governing body. Wait for reporters to arrive speak briefly with them and tell them what you are going to do. Lead them to the drive through and place a stuffed lamb on the front door. If JWs are there hand it to them and say it is a gift from silentlambbs and you want them to pass it on to the elders. If they refuse just sit it by the front door. Remember let them lose their cool but you keep yours. I do not think there will be JWs around but be prepared just in case. After delivering the lamb give the reporters a copy of the statement left on the front door and ask if they have any questions. Be sure and highlight the purpose of the march in and the indictment of the governing body for hurting children. Remember this is your opportunity to do something to be proud of; you're speaking up for children. Your efforts will protect children that have yet to be born. Sex Abuse Victims and Advocates Deliver Stuffed Animal to Local Jehovah's Witnesses Churches across America Announce Nationwide First Ever March for Jehovah's Witness Child Rape Victims New Support Group Seeks Investigation of Church Hierarchy WHAT: At cities across America local Kingdom Halls of Jehovah's Witnesses will be visited by representatives for silentlambbs to deliver a stuffed lamb as a symbol of innocence lost, also adults molested as kids by Jehovah's Witnesses and advocates will deliver a formal request from the silentlambbs organization for a church hearing to investigate possible criminal cover-ups by the denominations leadership for Jehovah's Witnesses the Governing Body. They will deliver a copy of a press release delivered to Kingdom Halls at 16 major cites across the US last week. The release announces a national march for molestation victims at Jehovah's Witnesses home office in Brooklyn, scheduled on September 27th. WHEN: (fill in dates, times and places here, you can list the sequentially-example:10:30am-11:00am- see locations below. WHO: (give your name and whether you are an abuse survivor or advocate, if you do not wish to use your name that is fine just say abuse survivor or advocate for children that will be delivering the information) WHERE: Give the details of where each Kingdom Hall is located as in this example)Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Hall, Directions: From Interstate 65: Take exit 125 onto Gene Snyder Freeway west. Go ten miles to 31W (). Turn left at traffic light toward . Go 1.4 miles to (Moby Dick fish place on the right), turn right, go one mile to , then turn left. Kingdom hall is 2/10 of a mile on the right. DETAILS: This is a continuation of the first public event ever for child rape victims of Jehovah's Witnesses. According to William H. Bowen founder of silentlambbs, We allege that Watchtower has established a child abuse policy that has ignored abuse survivors, protected child molesters and disfellowshipped those who have tried to support them. This will be a public statement that leadership for Jehovah s Witnesses (Governing Body) must stop hurting children. Silentlambbs is formerly requesting the church to establish a tribunal to prosecute the Governing Body for their crimes against children. Contact: (put your contact information here, use mine below) www.silentlambbs.org, William H. Bowen: 270-527-5350, cell 270-559-5345 silentlambbs, inc. PUBLIC AIRS OFFICE For Immediate Release We are here to speak out for victims of child rape who have been silenced and now know they have a right to speak out. We call them silentlambbs. The house of worship situated in your local community is directed by a group of 11 men who hold legislative, executive, and judicial power over a world-wide religious order known as Jehovah's Witnesses. These men, who are known as a Governing Body (leadership) for 6 million Jehovah's Witnesses world-wide, have chosen to defend an indefensible regulation that has led and continues to lead to unimaginable damage to children who have suffered or who are now suffering sexual abuse. Today we are here to announce the first ever nation-wide march for Jehovah's Witness child rape victims. On September 27th at 2pm, at Jehovah's Witnesses' headquarters in Brooklyn, abuse survivors and supporters will come from around the world to let the Jehovah's Witnesses' leadership (Governing Body) know we will no longer be ignored. We are angry at being silenced when we tried to speak out about abuse; we are outraged that we were disfellowshipped when we spoke out to protect children. Jehovah's Witnesses' Governing Body policies have hurt thousands of children; by their actions they appear to have no remorse; they have made no apology, but instead have sent henchmen in congregations like this to excommunicate victims and advocates who spoke out for children. At least the Catholic Church has taken steps in the right direction for addressing abuse issues but Jehovah's Witnesses leadership, by their actions, appear to think they are above the law and will punish anyone who says different. In a statement made to media dated February 7, the head of the PR Department for Jehovah's Witnesses, J. R. Brown states, "Our Governing Body is willing to resolve differences of opinion within the framework of the congregation and according to Scriptural principles." For these reasons we are asking that a board of key men be selected from within the church to serve as judges. On September 27, in , we will bring dozens of eye-witnesses to testify regarding the harm Watchtower policy has caused by requiring two eye-witnesses to verify child molestation allegations. How often does a child have an eye-witness when they are being raped? We ask them to hear our witnesses and if their testimony proves true the leadership of Jehovah's Witnesses (Governing Body) should either be sanctioned or dismissed from their positions. Today I am here to represent those with many faithful years of service as Jehovah's Witnesses. We are here to deliver a message for the children. Last week twelve lambs were delivered to the Jehovah's Witnesses leaders known as the Governing Body. Later that same week in St Louis, Dallas, Sacramento, Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle, Orlando, Tampa, Nashville, Louisville, etc.in these major cites across a symbolic lamb is being left at a Kingdom Hall. Today we leave a lamb at this Kingdom Hall as a reminder for those who have been silenced by Watchtower policy when they were raped. It is bad policy that requires unauthorized untrained men to illegally investigate the crime of child molestation. It is bad policy that appoints child molesters as elders after 20 years of not getting caught again. It is bad policy that puts child molesters in a position to go to any home in on an annual basis accompanied by fellow members who do not even know what they have done. It is bad Watchtower policy that remains unchanged due to the inaction of Jehovah's Witnesses' Governing Body after silentlambms, along with thousands of abuse survivors, have begged for almost two years now, for needed changes. Each person who participates in this effort across , at one time, had great love for the organization of Jehovah's Witnesses; we are saddened that we are forced to take this action due to the stubborn actions of prideful men who lead this church. The Jehovah's Witnesses' leadership (Governing Body) must change their policy and must apologize to the victims whose lives their policies have destroyed. On September 27th many arrive in good faith to make testimony to the public and testify before Jehovah's Witnesses Governing Body to give closure to victims and protect our children. Victims who have been painfully conned and threatened out of their innocence by child molesters are now being conned and threatened into silence by the local representatives of Jehovah's Witnesses' leadership in Kingdom Halls such as this one around the world. These men consistently teach their adherents that humility is the course of wisdom yet they arrogantly stick to an unwise course that punishes their most precious members. On September 27th in Brooklyn , we will begin a peaceful march at Pierpoint Place and Columbia Heights. We will end the march at the front door of home office of Jehovah's Witnesses. We officially invite any who decry the abuse of children to join silentlambms in this peaceful demonstration to push for a change in policy to protect the children. We encourage all abuse survivors to speak out and never allow anyone to make you a silentlamb. silentlambms, inc, . Telephone: 270-527-5350 Fax: 270-527-5351 Hotline for Jehovah's Witness victims of abuse 1-877-WTABUSE

Remote User:

Date:
08 Sep 2002
Time:
14:02:30
Comments
Looks like someone doesn't know their Watchtower History very well. Marching with Signs & Placards, handing out pamphlets & fliers to passersby = Well, My Oh My! These "wacko" tactics are the Spiritual Heritage, the Theocratic Warfare that has been handed down to us from our WTS FOREFATHERS from earlier in the 20th century, OR DID YOU FORGET??? Tsk Tsk. Better get out some of those old WT litter-chure books and study up young fellas! You don't even know the society's own history.
Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 14:05:16
Comments
Thanks for your hard work on this issue, as an ex JW I can still remember the fear of being kicked out for questioning WT policy was always the last word. Always Howard J Hrobak, lifesupportsus@aol.com

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 14:11:25
Comments
SPOKEN LIKE A REAL DUB (Jay-DUB) who no doubt is angry because they don't have ANY SPARE TIME to do ANYTHING but go to work, go to 5 meetings a week, and go out in service 1 or 2 times a week, and then STUDY for those 5 meetings a week, and then PREPARE for going out in service twice a week; AND have a family Bible study. Yet we get to visit here and have fun, build camaraderie, share stories, comfort & welcome "TRUE" lambs, support the silentlambs CAUSE!! Awwwww, Poor Little Dub. Did you take off your CHAINS in order to visit this Guestbook? Best run along now and put your SHACKLES back on before you get CAUGHT without them by the Pharisee/elders!++++++++++ Some Child wrote: Who feeds you people and where do you get all of this time? Go out, get a job, get a life! losers...

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 14:17:19
Comments
LOL! @ John who wrote to RJ: "I,M ALL OVER YOU LIKE A CHEAP JW SUIT." --- LMHO!!!!

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 14:23:15
Comments
How do I go about having my name removed from Jeh. witnesses +++++++++ I don't think you can EVER get your name removed. Even if you Disassociate yourself and/or get yourself Disfellowshipped, the cong and the WTS keeps records on people (in the USA, I think it is outlawed to do that in the UK). Why not call Brooklyn and ask?
hey the mole didn't come back. those repost are from lodi brother. things toned down here in this site now. i do agree that the few should be heard and cry out their pain, but bible thumpers on this site? each person has their own way to say things but i guess mole was right some lost focus. my name is tracy, that is just the way mom spelled it but i was a victim also. my step mom sexually molested my stepbrothers. in fact she was having sex with the oldest who was then only 15. my younger sister seen my stepmom kissing my younger brother who only 13 at the time and having oral sex with him. we did tell on her but my dad couldn't believe it. the boys were to scared to say until just a few years ago. my stepmom did stuff to my little sister also. my stepmom at the time grew up in a very strict witnesses family even more strict than most and i think this what contributed to her mental illness. she had no release early in life and then took it out on my family to an extreme and horrible way. i was 21 before i could leave the house and was treated like a little girl. when i fell in love with someone they would not let me talk or date him, only someone in good standing like my stepmom was. now time has past and theo still talks to me but i have been with another man and i don't feel clean enough to date him. he still wants to marry me and no longer attends the meetings. theo begs me to marry him but i moved in with some guy that i thought was love but turned out to be abusive, then to escape and moved in with another guy while theo keeps calling me to marry him, i don't know what to do....i know he really is love with me......our heads in my family really got messed up. i wish everyone would call the auburn congregation in california and ask for mike vaughn the elder and tell them that hell was in the hall and never has been addressed. my step mom committed suicide last month and then i felt free to come to this site and say what had to be said.......tracy

To all the children and woman who have suffered in the hands of these people. You are all in my prayers. Hugs to you...hugs to you Bill and your wife. I used to be a JW myself, I left 10 years ago. There is so many things coming out about this organization, so this makes me very happy I left. I have a 14 yr old daughter and it would have been terrible thing to go threw...being threatened to be DF if you say a word...those men walking the streets and still being in good standing within the CONG. They DF for smoking, having sex before marriage, adultery, etc...etc... BUT they will not DF for having sex with your child or someone's child. All I can say is sick and God Almighty in Heaven could not be behind that. A loving God is not like that. Take care all and God bless you all.

Jayson, feel free to rant. And Rich, sorry to hear about your emails. I heard about that over at J-W.com. RMK, the man in Calgary whose daughter died, well I think he already has a lawsuit going. I saw something about it at Jehovahs-Witnesses.com. Check it out. /SLC
ADORABLE BOY LAMBS: Beanie babies makes Bam the Ram, he is fabulous: Info here: http://www.ty.com/images/products/1326_lg.gif

SEX OFFENDER IN MY HALL: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36130&site=3&page=1>

WSMV of Nashville has a brief article about the Anderson's and their "march (press conference Thursday 9-5-02). You can read it here: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36055&page=1&site=3#485346>

Another NASHVILLE, TN, REPORT on Press Conference 9-5-02! with the Andersons and two others who showed up; along with two TV stations and one reporter: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36062&site=3>

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:01:06
Comments
DALLAS, TX, press conference! You'll LOVE this!!!: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36057&site=3>

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:01:28
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:01:51
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:06:39
Comments
CENTRAL FLORIDA SILENT LAMBS (abuse survivors) DON'T BE SHY! When you are ready to tell your story in a more public way, you will feel EXHILARATED afterward! I promise! When you are ready, please call this reporter. He's on standby to do a personal story. Please contact him here: Mark I. Pinsky, Senior Reporter - Religion, Orlando Sentinel, P.O. Box 2833, 633 North Orange Avenue, Orlando, FL 32802-2833, Phone: 407-420-5589; EMAIL: mpinsky@orlandosentinel.com

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:07:29
Comments
All topics ever posted by Bill (silentlambs): <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/search.asp?site=3> If this link doesn't work, type in silentlambs into the SEARCH page.

Remote User:
Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:09:13
Comments
NEXT ADVENTURE: BLITZ the K.HALLS! Get your lambs here: Just saw a new post at the forum with a link to some really cheap stuffed lambs, for future reference! The forum thread, entitled "GOT MY LAMBS" is here: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36132&site=3> The website to order the lambs is here. The lambs are only $1.45 each, and they are cute, too! <http://www.propac-sa.com/new.html>

Remote User:
Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:10:55
Comments
Link to an Excellent Detailed Outline of the "crimes" of the WT in the Vicki Boer child abuse trial beginning next Monday in Canada, where Barbara Anderson will be testifying: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36147&page=1&site=3#486723>

Remote User:
Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:11:29
Comments
Bill posted 9/6/02, several Press Conference media articles, including TV station reports: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36123&page=1&site=3#486624>

Remote User:
Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:12:35
Comments
HERE IS THE PRESS RELEASE which you can STILL SEND OUT TO ALL YOUR NEWSPAPERS/RADIO/TV in YOUR CITY. Just amend the wording where necessary. THERE IS STILL TIME TO SPREAD THE WORD ABOUT THE MARCH 9-27-02! Bill posted the press release today, 9/6/02, here: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36105&site=3>
Remote User:

Date:
08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:14:51
Comments
http://www.dailyindependent.com/kynews/275911719337540.php --- ASHLAND, KENTUCKY --- State Briefs 9/7/02 ---
- Group alleging JW abuse plans march --- LOUISVILLE --- A group that contends widespread child molestation has occurred in the Jehovah's Witnesses church said it will have a national march for alleged victims in Louisville and other cities. --- Silentlambs, a victims' support group, will have the march at the Jehovah's Witnesses headquarters in Brooklyn, N.Y., on Sept. 27, said William H. Bowen of Benton, Ky., co-founder of the group. --- "Abuse survivors and supporters will come from around the world to let the Jehovah's Witnesses leadership ... know we will no longer be ignored," Bowen said in a statement. --- Bowen, a former elder, was recently "disfellowshipped," or excommunicated, for causing divisions in the church. He alleges that Jehovah's Witnesses keep incidents of child molestation secret, won't allow victims to warn other members of abusers in their congregations, and require alleged victims to produce a witness. Those who speak out are cut off from the church and shunned, he said. --- J.R. Brown, the director of the media office at the Jehovah's Witnesses headquarters, declined to comment through an employee who would not give his name. --- From wire service reports Copyright ©1999 -2002 The Daily Independent, Inc. unless otherwise noted.

Remote User:

Date:
08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:18:09
Comments
PANAMA CITY --- Jehovah's Witnesses speak out --- SILENCE: Members want changes in the way the sect handles molestation claims. --- KEVIN PORTER THE NEWS HERALD --- http://olive.flacoast.com/Repository/getFiles.asp?Style=OliveXLib:ArticleToMail&Type=text/html&Path=NHerald/2002/09/07&ID=Ar01704 --- A Bay County Jehovah's Witness has joined a growing number of the religious groups' members across the nation who are speaking out against the way it handles allegations of child molestation. --- By doing so, Steve Imhof, 54, most likely will be disfellowshipped, which means he won't be able to talk to family members and friends again. If Imhof violates that, church policies call for excommunication, too. --- "We have a great love for the organization of Jehovah's Witnesses. We are saddened that we are forced to stand here due to the stubborn actions of prideful men who lead this church," Imhof said on Friday after being kicked off the premises of the Kingdom Hall on 19th Street in Panama City. "The Jehovah's Witness leadership must change their policy and must apologize to the victims whose lives their policies have destroyed." --- A 38-year member of the tight-knit group, Imhof says he is concerned because child-sex allegations are generally not reported to the police. Furthermore, he said victims are not allowed to seek counseling. --- Rather, he said, they are dealt with internally. Imhof said it's because of the beliefs' closed nature and its insistence on handling problems internally. --- "I have had seven children cry on my shoulder," he said. --- However, a spokesman for the Jehovah's Witnesses home base in New York said leaders, called elders, are not encouraged to condone molestation. --- "People have absolutely every right to go to the authorities," said J.R. Brown, director of public information. "We are sorry about people feeling overlooked and certainly for the victims." --- (SIDE NOTE from Swan at J-W.com who said re: JR's above "apology": " What the reporters need to ask is why when elders called HQ they were told to cover it up if they were just overlooked? They need to ask if it was overlooked, then why does HQ keep a database of over 20,000 names of perps? You don't enter all of that data into a database to overlook it." and another person asked: "If the Society can count time down to 15-minutes, how can they OVERLOOK something THIS HUGE?") --- Jehovah's Witnesses are a religious sect that shuns the outside world in many respects. They refuse to bear arms, salute the flag or participate in secular government. --- Imhof said church elders hear sex-abuse allegations. He said if the accuser denies the allegations, little more can be done in a judicial way. Congregations will continue to view the one accused as innocent. --- For the allegations to be heard, he said, it takes two eyewitnesses. --- "How often do children being raped have people standing by watching?" Imhof asked. --- He said there are many similarities between the crisis in the Catholic Church and the one he sees amongst Jehovah's Witnesses. However, Imhof says there is one major difference: Catholics are seeking to correct their mistakes. --- On Sept. 27, Imhof and other angry Jehovah's Witnesses will partake in a march through New York that will end at the front door of the home office of the Jehovah's Witnesses in Brooklyn. The purpose is to put pressure on the organization to change its policies. --- Many of the marchers belong to a group called the Silent Lamb Organization and have been leaving symbolic lambs at Kingdom Halls across the country, representing victims who they believe were unfairly silenced. --- PHOTO: Steve Imhof had a white lamb doll in his pocket Friday, and tried to leave it at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witness on 19th Street. The Silent Lamb Organization uses the symbol to represent victims they believe are unfairly silenced. --- News Herald Photos: Terry Barner Steve Imhof has spoken out against what he says is a cover-up of sexual abuse of children by Jehovah's Witnesses. Imhof says he will be cast out of the group for speaking out. --- <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36123&site=3>

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:19:47
Comments
PORTLAND, OREGON --- Alleged Victim Speaks Out Against Abuse In Church --- March Planned In New York
http://www.koin.com/webnews/20022/20020906_jwabuse.shtml --- PORTLAND -- Child sex abuse victims are launching a national campaign against the Jehovah's Witness church. --- Demonstrations were staged Thursday in 16 cities, including Portland. --- A former member of a Portland-area church claims she was abused. She told KOIN 6 News that church policies make it very difficult to report. --- "Pedophiles know they can be hidden in this organization because of the privacy they have," Pat Garza said. --- Victims are formally requesting an investigation into abuse allegations. --- They ask all victims to come forward and join in a national march later this month in New York to raise awareness. --- Posted: Sept. 6, 2002 --- All Material Copyright 2001-2002, KOIN or by original content developer --- <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36213&page=1&site=3#487851>

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:22:29
Comments
SEATTLE TV NEWS COVERAGE: The KOMO TV 4 Interview --- This was GREAT! They had an elder who knew of one such case speak to the reporter. And, the poor victim began to cry telling her story! Also fantastic was they showed the WT website where it says "two witnesses" are needed! ---You can download it and watch the VIDEO here: http://www.seattle-chat.com/video --- The KOMO TV 4 Interview. <http://www.seattle-chat.com/video/> --- Write to the reporter: Tracy Vedder to say thanks: TracyV@komotv.com ---- <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36160&site=3>

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:24:58
Comments
NASHVILLE, TENNESSE, TV NEWS COVERAGE --- WKRN.COM ---
http://www.wkrn.com/Global/story.asp?S=924294&nav=1ugBB5Z1 --- Sexual Abuse Allegations Within Jehovah's Witness Denomination --- Reporter: Wisdom Martin --- There are new allegations that a religious denomination is turning a blind eye to sexual abuse. This time, it is the Jehovah's Witnesses who stand accused. --- "For me, it took away any concept of trust in religious figures, authority figures, and parental figures." --- The woman who spoke to News 2 does not wish to be identified. She is a former Jehovah's Witness who claims she was abused when she was just 8-years-old by a congregation member. But when she spoke out, she said nothing was done. The women said she was also abused by a member of her congregation. --- "They act like they are the law, they can take care of it.
Something like this, it's abuse, and they shouldn't be the ones taking care of it." --- Now, women like Barbara Anderson are ready to fight for change in the religion, so they've formed a victim's rights group called Silent Lambs. They believe the Jehovah's Witness sexual abuse polices are inadequate and harm children. --- "We believe they are responsible for policies that make it possible for perverted people to come into this organization to get at Jehovah's witness children," Barbara said. --- "We should of all persons, being Christians going by the bible, we should do the right thing for these abuse victims," said Joe Anderson. --- Joe Anderson was a Jehovah's Witness elder for over 50 years. --- "In the organization, you have to have two witnesses, and of course it's almost impossible to have two witnesses to a child molestation. So if a parent comes with their daughter to the elder, they ask and he says, no, I didn't do it, then that's the end of the matter." --- "I would like to see them recognize it, take it to the civil authorities and professionals that are capable and qualified to help the victims." --- News 2 contacted the Jehovah's Witness national office in NY, but they did not return our calls. The Silent Lambs organization will hold a march to bring awareness to their cause September 27th in Brooklyn, NY. --- News 2 at 5

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:27:56
Comments
TUCSON, ARIZONA, PRESS COVERAGE: Tucson, AZ --- WE'VE BEEN HEARING THE PAST FEW MONTHS ABOUT CONCERNS OVER COVER-UPS OF CHILD MOLESTATION IN THE Catholic Church. ---TODAY, MEMBERS OF ANOTHER RELIGION ARE COMING FORWARD WITH SIMILAR ALLEGATIONS. THEY TALKED TO US DURING A DEMONSTRATION AT ONE OF SEVERAL JEHOVAH'S WITNESS KINGDOM HALLS NATIONWIDE. --- KINDRA HAS BEEN A JEHOVAH'S WITNESS FOR DECADES. SHE SAYS AS A CHILD, A FAMILY MEMBER MOLESTED HER. SHE TOLD HER PARENTS, AND HER PARENTS WENT TO THE ELDERS AT THEIR KINGDOM HALL. SHE SAYS JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES ARE TOLD NOT TO GO TO THE POLICE WITH ACCUSATIONS AGAINST A FELLOW MEMBER. --- I was told not to do that I was supposed to leave it in the elders hands that they would pray and they did prayer when I was there and that Jehovah would take care of it , and it kept happening, so as a child you only do what you're told. --- TODAY, KINDRA AND ANOTHER JEHOVAH'S WITNESS CAME TO THE KINGDOM HALL AT 29TH AND ROSEMONT TO DELIVER A SYMBOLIC LAMB - REPRESENTING THE MANY CHILDREN THEY SAY ARE SILENCED BY JEHOVAH'S WITNESS POLICY. THE SAME THING HAPPENED IN NEARLY A DOZEN CITIES NATIONWIDE. --- I have nothing against the religion - I still want to attend. I want to do this for the children and change policies so that someone doesn't have to go through what i went through. --- JOHN BROWN SAYS THE RELIGION FORBIDS PUNISHMENT OF AN ACCUSED MOLESTER WHO DENIES ALLEGATIONS UNLESS THERE IS ANOTHER EYEWITNESS TO THE ABUSE. --- But there never is unless somebody walks in on accident, a parent, while the perpetrator is committing the act. --- THE JEHOVAH'S WITNESS REPRESENTATIVES WE TALKED TO DID NOT WANT TO GO ON CAMERA. BUT ONE TOLD US THE ALLEGATIONS ARE RIDICULOUS. HE SAYS JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES ARE ONE OF THE MOST LAW-ABIDING GROUPS IN THE WORLD. HE ALSO MAINTAINS THEY DO NOT HAVE A POLICY OF SILENCING VICTIMS. --- KINDRA AND JOHN TELL US THEY CAN BE DISFELLOWSHIPPED, WHICH IS LIKE BEING EXCOMMUNICATED, FOR SPEAKING OUT - BUT THEY THINK IT'S WORTH IT. THEY ANNOUNCED A MARCH FOR VICTIMS, COMING UP SEPTEMBER 27TH IN BROOKLYN, NY, WHERE THE JEHOVAH'S WITNESS HEADQUARTERS IS LOCATED. --- <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36123&page=1&site=3#486624>

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 15:30:08
Comments
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, MORE PRESS COVERAGE --- 09.05.02 --- Nashville, TN --- http://www.wsmv.com/Global/story.asp?S=923786&nav=1TcRB5AO --- Former church members march in protest --- People say they were molested as a child by a Jehovah's Witness --- by James Lewis --- Sex and religion make for a potent mix. And Thursday, some Jehovah's Witnesses are being targeted by former members about charges of child sexual abuse. They claim elders are covering it up. The worst part is that women say it's been going on for years. --- The best part is that it is now public, and they have hope that the problem may be addressed publicly by Jehovah's Witnesses. At the Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Hall in Nashville, former member Barbara Anderson left a small stuffed lamb. It's her symbol of innocence lost. As a writer for the organization in NY, says she discovered multiple charges of sexual abuse being hushed up. --- "They're kind of isolated in their ivory tower and they do believe that all the world is controlled by Satan, that theirs is God's organization. They can make the rules," said Barbara Anderson. -- Nationwide Thursday in 16 major cities, demonstrations like this called for change within the religious organization. --- "It was from another member who was there," said "Lisa", who was abused when she was young. --- Lisa, not her real name, says as a 9-year-old child she was molested by a Jehovah's Witness. Despite telling the church - no one within the organization reported it to police. --- "Now that you're an adult, Lisa, what would you like to say to your attacker?" asked Channel 4 Reporter James Lewis. --- "I really feel sorry for him because as an adult I feel sorry that he has went through them because of his own way of trying to cover it up," said "Lisa". --- Former member Joe Anderson grieves for his former friends, but he sees hope that recent exposures will correct some wrongs. --- "Something is going to be done about it. And something has been done about it to a certain degree. But certainly more needs to be done but yeah I am happy to see them coming out with this," said Joe Anderson. --- Channel 4 News attempted to contact the presiding elders at the Jehovah's Witnesses, but none of them returned our calls. --- For more information about this cause, visit the www.SilentLambs.org web site.
A group of former Jehovah's Witnesses stood outside a Kingdom Hall church yesterday with a toy lamb whose mouth was covered with black electrical tape. This symbolically silenced lamb represented 5,000 members of the 6 million-member church who claim to have been sexually abused by leaders or others in the church. They further claim to have been silenced or ignored when they sought the church's guidance and protection.

The news conference was one of about 16 across the country called to bring attention to "silent lambs," an organization planning a march on church headquarters in New York on Sept. 27. Started by a former church member who said he was dismayed by the way the church covered up allegations of abuse, silent lambs is calling for changes in church policies. "We want to open the doors," said Bruce Baker, a former Jehovah's Witness leader in Oregon. "We want Watchtower headquarters to turn cases of abuse within the church over to the police and let the police handle it."

National church leaders could not be reached for comment, but a spokesman recently told The New York Times that the church's policies on sexual abuse were based on the Bible and were exemplary. "We're not trying to say we handled everybody in the right way and our elders are all-knowing, all-perfect. But we say, if you take what our policy is for keeping our organization clean morally, it far outpaces anybody else's," spokesman J.R. Brown said.

Jehovah's Witnesses is a Christian denomination that emphasizes biblical literalism and the imminent end of the world. Members are best-known in the secular world for giving out religious tracts and for not celebrating holidays and birthdays or allowing blood transfusions. Former members said the church's policies and culture conspire to conceal abuse.

The small group of activists in Seattle included several ex-church members who have been "disfellowshipped" or excommunicated, as well as one woman who claimed the church did nothing to protect her and her sister when they came forward with claims of abuse. She said she went to her church leaders to ask for help because her stepfather, who had also sexually abused her, was abusing her younger sister. Her stepfather, who has since been disfellowshipped by the church, never paid a legal price for what she said were years of abuse.

The scope of abuse within the denomination is a matter of debate. The church has recently been sued by eight people in four lawsuits around the country – including one filed in Spokane – alleging abuse. According to Bill Bowen, founder of silent lambs, there have been more than 5,000 current or former members nationwide who say that the church mishandled allegations of child sexual abuse.

SEATTLE TIMES coverage of Press Conference --- 'Silent lambs' speak out about sex abuse
Full story: http://archives.seattletimes.nwsource.com/cgi-bin/texis/web/vortex/display?slug=jehovah06m&date=20020906
By Christine Clarridge --- Seattle Times staff reporter --- Several former Jehovah's Witnesses stood outside a Kingdom Hall church near Green Lake yesterday with a tiny toy lamb whose mouth was covered with black electrician's tape. -- The symbolically silenced lamb delivered to the door of the fellowship hall represented the 5,000 members of the 6 million-member church who claim to have been sexually abused by leaders or others in the church. They further claim to have been silenced or ignored when they sought the church's guidance and protection. --- The news conference was one of about 16 across the country called to bring attention to "silent lambs," an organization planning a march on church headquarters in New York on Sept. 27. --- Started by a former church member who said he was dismayed by the way the church covered up allegations of abuse, silent lambs is calling for changes in church policies. --- "We want to open the doors," said Bruce Baker, a former Jehovah's Witness leader in Oregon. "We want Watchtower headquarters to turn cases of abuse within the church over to the police and let the police handle it."

National church leaders could not be reached for comment, but a spokesman recently told The New York Times that the church's policies on sexual abuse were based on the Bible and were exemplary. --- "We're not trying to say we handled everybody in the right way and our elders are all-knowing, all-perfect. But we say, if you take what our policy is for keeping our organization clean morally, it far outpaces anybody else's," spokesman J.R. Brown said.

Jehovah's Witnesses is a Christian denomination that emphasizes biblical literalism and the imminent end of the world. Members are best-known in the secular world for giving out religious tracts and for not celebrating holidays and birthdays or allowing blood transfusions. --- Former members said the church's policies and culture conspire to conceal abuse. --- The small group of activists in Seattle included several ex-church members who have been "disfellowshipped" or excommunicated, as well as one woman who claimed the church did nothing to protect her and her sister when they came forward with claims of abuse. --- She said she went to her church leaders to ask for help because her stepfather, who had also sexually abused her, was abusing her younger sister. --- Her stepfather, who has since been disfellowshipped by the church, never paid a legal price for what she said were years of abuse. --- The scope of abuse within the denomination is a matter of debate. The church has recently been sued by eight people in four lawsuits around the country – including one filed in Spokane – alleging abuse. --- According to Bill Bowen, founder of silent lambs, there have been more than 5,000 current or former members nationwide who say that the church mishandled allegations of child sexual abuse.

Christine Clarridge: 206-464-8983 or cclarridge@seattletimes.com.

SEATTLE VIDEO PART #2 --- Seattle Press Conference Behind the Scenes now up ---- http://www.seattle-chat.com/video it is in Real Media format, if you don't have real player, then you can download the player for free from http://www.real.com Using this from now on, as it looks better, and compresses better. --- 4.1MB ---

TENNESEAN.COM - PRESS COVERAGE --- Friday, 09/06/02 ---Middle Tennessee News & Information --- Couple to protest Jehovah's Witnesses --- by BILL STEBER / STAFF --- Barbara Anderson, a former Jehovah's Witness, places a toy lamb on the front doors of the Kingdom Hall on Bell Road as part of a national protest by ex-Witnesses who say the denomination has covered up child sexual abuse by members. --- By LEON ALLGOOD, Staff Writer --- Placing a symbolic stuffed lamb on the steps of a suburban Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Hall, a Coffee County couple yesterday said they will help lead a protest march Sept. 27 at the headquarters of the denomination in Brooklyn, N.Y. --- "We are going to let the whole nation know what is going on behind closed doors. There is a massive cover up under way, and we're not going to stand for it," said Barbara Anderson of Manchester, Tenn. --- Anderson and her husband, Joe, made the announcement yesterday at a Kingdom Hall on Bell Road. The Coffee County couple have received national attention since May for questioning how Jehovah's Witnesses have responded to allegations of child sexual abuse. --- Yesterday's news conference was one of 16 held in major cities across the country to announce the Sept. 27 march, which is expected to attract a hundred or more supporters. The meetings were arranged by "Silentlambs," a support group for Jehovah's Witnesses who say they have been abuse victims. --- The Andersons have been disfellowshipped by the Kingdom Hall in Tullahoma, Tenn., where they attended. Disfellowshipping, the equivalent of excommunication, is the harshest punishment handed down by the organization against members. Shunning is included as part of the punishment, which separates families. --- "You just can't imagine what this has been like for us. We can't see our grandchild any more. Our son and daughter-in-law won't allow it," Joe Anderson said. --- Attending the Nashville news conference yesterday were two local women who said they were abused as girls by members of their respective Kingdom Halls. --- "We're speaking out now, as young women in our 20s, because we realize that what happened to us was wrong and that we are not alone. There are many of us who are suffering," one woman said. The Tennessean does not reveal identities of reported victims of sex crimes without consent. --- A spokesman for the New York-based Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, the umbrella organization that is headquarters for Jehovah's Witnesses worldwide, said they were aware of the planned march later this month. --- "But we won't issue a statement until that day," said a man who answered the phone in the press office at Watchtower headquarters. He asked that any statements be attributed to the organization's spokesman, J.R. Brown. --- Leon Alligood covers Tennessee for The Tennessean. Contact him at (615) 259-8279 or by e-mail at lalligood@tennessean.com.
DON'T FORGET TROOPERS! Now we need to write a THANK YOU to all of these newspaper, TV, and radio reporters & stations to THANK THEM for their coverage of the SILENT LAMBS PRESS CONFERENCES last Thursday 9-5-02!!! Most of the articles have either a link and/or an email addy with them. THANKS!!! /SLC

WHEN BUYING stuffed lambs to place at KHalls in your city and/or to send to NY: Here's what Bill wrote: "Try your local walmart, they have some in stock for a reasonable cost. You might also try goodwill or second hand stores, the more beat up damaged the better. Much the way abuse survivors are treated within the congregation. silentlambs" (Also Toys-R-Us, Salvation Army Stores, etc.)

Tracy W . . . .sounds like you have been through more than enough for one lifetime. Remember the best revenge is LIVING WELL. So whatever it takes to make your life happy and better — do it. If you can get some counseling or read some self help books — do it. I personally like Dr Laura — 10 Stupid Things Women Do to Mess Up Their Lives. But whatever makes you feel whole again and worthy — do it. Do it today — Change your life while you're still young.
Tracy W . . . sounds like you have been through more than enough for one lifetime. Remember the best revenge is LIVING WELL. So whatever it takes to make your life happy and better ---do it. If you can get some counseling or read some self help books---do it. I personally like Dr Laura---10 Stupid Things Women Do to Mess Up Their Lives. But whatever makes you feel whole again and worthy---do it. Do it today---Change your life while you're still young.

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 19:46:13
Comments
hi my name is Kathy Engwis{katiakatia54@aol.com } i was recently disfellowshipped after 25yrs of whole souled service. i was molested as a child but not by anyone in the W.T org. the affects of my abuse eventually affected my ability to attend meeting regularly as well as an hourly decline in the door to door service. the elders lack of loving compassion stunned me!! soon i was no longer invited to gatherings,asked out in service etc. so i ended up visiting the SDA church [SIMILAR TEACHINGS]and for those who were jw's know i must have been desperate for christ like love!!!! so because i would not agree to stop visiting the church they disfellowshipped me! just like that! those who are still jw's don't realize how dispensable they really are. just remember this there is freedom in christ. thank you for all you've done, your journey has been a tough one but God would not have put it in your heart if he didn't think you were the right man for the job. God bless.

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 21:03:33
Comments
what's the story every time I write a good post it get's lost it's like I'm wasting my time i wrote such a good post to no name my cross fell off my neck. I will be at the march, but I have to live my life and stop spending all my free time trying to help JW's. I want to live my life in peace with Christ. John

Remote User:

Date: 08 Sep 2002
Time: 21:38:29
Comments
This is directed toward all the JW defenders who feel the need to leave messages on this guest book: Why are you signing onto this website if you believe that we are apostate? Isn't that against the JW's rules? What would the elders say?

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 06:06:55
Comments
its great to hear Depeche Mode tracks on the 'behind the scenes' press conference download. I hope all goes well with the march in Brooklyn. Rich

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 08:01:53
Comments
I am still looking for someone that knows of J.W.s viewing, showing or making porn with children. Contact me at cosmicjill@planetkc.com. Thank you& peace to all, jill

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 09:39:25
Comments
RE: MORE LOCAL SILENTLAMBS ACTIVITY IN YOUR CITY: Per Bill's above post (from Sunday) asking everyone to STILL take time to deliver lambs and/or hold press conferences in ALL OF YOUR OWN CITIES... ----- Please go to this thread <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36269&page=1&site=3#489126> ----- as a lady is ordering LAMBS IN BULK which you can then get from her for your local area. The lambs are either 10" or 12" with a little a "www.silentlambs.org" tie that will tie around their necks, and for $1.64 EACH! plus postage to your address. Please go to the above thread now if you would like to put in your "dubs" for some of these lambs. She is ordering 100 of them! THANKS/SLC

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 09:53:19
Comments
WATCHTOWER FINED $50,000.00 BY THE ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY FOR POLLUTING! You can order your own copy from here: (FOIL) Freedom of Information Law --- New York State Department of Environmental Conservation --- Division of Environmental Enforcement, 14th Floor --- 625 Broadway, Albany, New York 12233-5500 --- Since Watchtower attempted to "ruin the earth" they were required to post $25,000.00 Bond in their Cleanup effort. If Watchtower continues to comply with the law of the land, $20,000.00 of the $50,000.00 FINE is Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 10:07:28
Comments
IS CELEBRATING YOUR BIRTHDAY the SAME as CREATURE WORSHIP? You be the judge: A FUNNY picture here: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36284&page=1&site=3#489150

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 12:53:03
Comments

--- How many more times must children of Jehovah's Witnesses suffer the humiliation and agony of sexual abuse before church leaders decide to change their policies? How many more lives must be broken? --- It is not a question of whether charges of such abuse in the group have reached the ears of the leaders of the 6 million-member sect, which includes a million members in the US. One of those magazines in the hand of the earnest Jehovah's Witness at your door on a Saturday morning, Awake!, in the October 8, 1991 issue, featured a cover series on the problem of child sexual abuse in modern society. The series was in response to an influx of letters from members, recounting their tales of abuse and their concerns about its handling in the church. --- Barbara Anderson, 62, of Tullahoma, Tennessee, was a staff member for Awake! at that time. She recalled in a recent interview that this October 8 issue seemed to give voice to a newfound tolerance toward psychotherapy, and displayed a previously unheard-of willingness to consider the validity of ?repressed memories? in assessing charges of abuse. It was a ray of hope, a glimmer of progressive thinking in an insular and secretive group. --- Nowhere did such thinking find more opposition than in the very building that published it. The governing body member who administered the writing department, Lloyd Barry, now deceased, and the governing body member who oversaw the Service Department, in charge of the congregations, Ted Jaracz, were entrenched in battle. When elders, lay ministers in the congregations, called in confusion to the service department, they were told, according to Anderson, that the magazine was ?a mistake.? --- Mistake or not, Awake! opened the floodgates and a torrent of correspondence came into the group?s Brooklyn Heights headquarters. J. R. Brown, now spokesman for the group, was working in the writing department at that time, and personally passed on information to the governing body concerning this influx of response. In a recent interview, he acknowledged that these letters included claims that cases of child sexual abuse brought to the elders were ?not handled properly? and that members were told that they ?should not make this known.? --- By early 1992, just months after the publication of the October 8, 1991 Awake!, the accusations of mishandled cases of child sexual abuse had reached a new level. According to Anderson, ?some of the governing body were aware in 1992 that there were confessed or convicted pedophiles, who claimed repentance, holding positions of authority in the organization.? Meanwhile, abuse survivors who were able to muster the courage to come forward were being met with ?skepticism or downright hostility.? --- Ten years ago, if not earlier, church leaders knew that widespread allegations of child sexual abuse were coming in from their own members. --- It is also not a question of whether the group?s policies in handling allegations of abuse internally could lead to an abuser finding protection instead of accountability. The Witnesses live under the simple delusion that all outsiders are co-conspirators with Satan, so when faced with a serious problem members turn to their untrained lay ministers: the congregation elders. These men, appointed by Holy Spirit (by way of headquarters), wield the Holy Scriptures, rendering them ?completely equipped? (1 Timothy 3:15, 16) for whatever problems members may have to bring to them, including child sexual abuse. The criterion for evaluating any charge is likewise simple and scriptural, if daunting (Deuteronomy 19:15): there must be two eyewitnesses. --- The elders cross-examine the alleged victim -- often still a minor -- about the intimate details of the act. The intent is to identify what level of sin the charge entails, and whether the victim was somehow complicit in the act, by wearing seductive clothing or failing to scream while being raped. They may even require the accuser to face the accused and repeat the charge. When the accused denies wrongdoing, the elders then must ask for the nearly impossible burden of proof of two eyewitnesses to be met. Failing that, they declare the accused innocent before God. They also remind the accuser that malicious gossip?like spreading accusations of abuse against someone whom God has declared innocent?could result in their expulsion from the congregation, and subsequent shunning by family, friends and God himself. Then, they close with prayer. --- The governing body codified such procedures in the secret elder? s manual Pay Attention to Yourselves and All the Flock, though it is obvious that such a burden of proof could provide a de facto shelter for secretive child sex abusers. The result for many is that victims are silenced while abusers are exonerated. The abuse continues. --- Witness leaders also cannot feign ignorance to the dangers of having known child sex abusers in positions of authority in the group, or having them preaching in their emblematic door-to-door ministry. Instead, the seemed to move in a direction of excluding penitent pedophiles from leadership privileges, though explicitly prescribing evangelism as a token of faith even for convicted child sex offenders. --- Both issues were addressed in the other journal published by the group, The Watchtower of January 1, 1997. It stated, for the first time, that a ?known? molester ?would not qualify for congregation privileges,? such as becoming an elder or ministerial servant (deacon). However, a secret letter to all bodies of elders three months later, on March 14, 1997, quietly backpedaled: ?An individual ?known? to be a former child molester has reference to the perception of that one in the community and in the Christian congregation.? As for determining whether those already in a position of authority had a history of molestation, the letter directed that ?the body of elders should not query individuals.? --- Unknown to the faithful, who would have taken the Watchtower as gospel, molesters could remain in positions of authority at all levels of the organization. The contents of that letter, though leaked on the Internet, remain a secret to the lay members of the group. ?It was explained to the elders,? said Brown, ?and it is not a part of our standard way of handling things to always inform every detail of matters to the congregation in general. What is stated there [in the January 1, 1997 Watchtower] and the way it?s stated there, without the clarification, is certainly what happens most of the time.? --- The same issue of The Watchtower insured that not even a history of criminal child sexual abuse would exclude a penitent member from being required to engage in the Witnesses public preaching activity. Speaking of a molester who may have recently been released from prison, it states, ?If he seems to be repentant, he will be encouraged to make spiritual progress [and] share in the field ministry.? --- Brown reassured that a penitent predatory pedophile might be offered alternatives to going door-to-door, at the discretion of the local elders. "We consider just as valid if he sits on a bench in a mall with magazines and offers them to people there. Or, if he calls up on a telephone." --- As a matter of policy, the governing body stipulated that known child molesters may hold positions of authority in the church and that even criminal child sex offenders must engage in public preaching. --- Underscoring all of this is the refusal of church leaders to simply instruct their members to call civil authorities when allegations of child sexual abuse arise. Instead, a February 15, 2002 letter to all bodies of elders in the United States proffers the advice to immediately call the group? s Legal Department whenever facing allegations of child sexual abuse in the congregation. The letter clarifies that the elders should ?never suggest to anyone that they should not report an allegation of child abuse to the police or other authorities.? The simple advice that it may be the parents? legal obligation to notify authorities, as caretakers of the minor, is never mentioned. Nor is a list of states that mandate reporting of abuse by clerics provided to the elders by their leaders, even though the US government maintains such information, and published it at the National Clearinghouse on Child Abuse and Neglect Information (http://www.calib.com/nccanch/) --- Why not encourage psychotherapy, take child sexual abuse out of the hands of untrained elders, refuse to allow know molesters to be in positions of authority, exclude them from public ministry, and inform parents of their obligation to notify authorities of allegations of abuse? Why not adopt a policy of informing authorities of possible child endangerment regardless of local statute? Why not take the moral high ground on child sexual abuse, when you presume to take God?s name as your own? --- The leadership of Jehovah?s Witnesses knows that today -- maybe even right now -- there is a child trembling beneath the hands of a child sex abuser among their members. They know that maybe a change in their policies could put an end to that, but they refuse to act in a way that consistently places child sexual abuse under those who are trained to deal with it. What do they have to hide? How many more victims, and how many more unspeakable acts will it take for them to see the need to change? How many more little children have to die inside to try to escape the horrid plaque that their moral leaders are afraid to confront? --- One child is too many. Two survivors of child sexual abuse among Jehovah's Witnesses already dwell under my roof. How many more will it take? --- E-mail Michael to comment on this article, here:
mikepence@yahoo.com

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 12:58:15
Comments
ARE YOU GETTING CONFUSED on what the WTS says or does regarding CHILD ABUSE CASES? Here's a SIMPLE, CLEAR CUT OUTLINE, in 1-2-3 FORMAT: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36289&site=3

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 12:59:26
Comments
FEELING LIKE you CAN'T KEEP UP WITH ALL OF THE MEDIA COVERAGE RE: SILENT LAMBS? Here is ONE thread where it has all been brought together: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=35836&site=3>

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 13:00:56
Comments
UNITED KINGDOM FOLKS! SILENT LAMBS is having a PRESS CONFERENCE NEXT WEEK at the BRANCH OFFICE: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36258&site=3> (If this is a repost, sorry!)

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 13:01:45
Comments

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 13:13:59
Comments
BOER v WTS SEX ABUSE TRIAL in CANADA BEGAN TODAY (where Barbara Anderson will be testifying): Here's the first post from 9-6-02: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36147&site=3> and this one from today, 9-9-02: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36310&page=1&site=3#489311>

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 13:31:26
Comments
WOW! Thanks for all the responses. I didn't know that little old RJ could cause such a ruckus! You guys have not let me down. This little experiment I have been running over the past few weeks has proven my point. The point being that you guys are no better than the JW's you are bashing. You see we both seem to take issue with some things. You take issue with injustice at the hands of certain individuals. You in turn take the injustice you have suffered at the hands of a few (the few being by no means the majority of JW's) and then try to make us all look bad. That is what I have taken exception to. If you have noticed I have NEVER posted anything that even claims that abuse has not occurred within our organization, I have not even condoned it. That is because I do not condone it! I sincerely feel sorry for any child that has suffered abuse no matter what religion they belong too. I however am outraged that I too must suffer the injustice of being branded a child molester simply because I am a JW. This is because of the language coming from the angry posts that whether you will admit it or not is intentionally done to make us all look bad. You have taken your anger against the few and turned it against the masses! That is exactly what this site and this room would have everyone believe. Everyone talks about feelings in here and the innocent, but I am here to tell you that I am not a child molester but because I am a JW and don't agree with the way everyone is going about things in here I am branded as one. i.e., Sheila Madonia and her accusation that I am "probably a perv" Sheila where is your witness to that? John and others have defended everyone's right to be mad at the way they were treated, I have never questioned that right, what I have questioned is branding all of us bad because of the actions of a few. Your definitions of "innocent" would then apply to me as one who has never committed such an horrific act. Sheila, John, RMK and others you have responded to me in the same way you condemn JW's for, with anger, selective shunning, with abusive speech and accusations. Who is better than who? John do you have the right to be angry and I don't? Do you have the right to degrade JW's and it is OK, but I can't dare say anything against your cause? Talk about double standards! This is the entire point behind my posts. They have proved that we are all in the same boat. We are all sinners, weak and imperfect. If you can't practice what you preach as you claim is common among JW's then your cause is no more worthy than ours. What if those who made up the main part of this room were calling the shots, would you expect me to be any more confident in you than in the GB? We all feel strongly about something in here. I feel strongly that I am walking in the way of Jehovah, I feel confident that any injustice will be taken care of by Jehovah, even if it is within the governing body. This is the nature of imperfect beings, mistakes happen, and things have always been taken care of within Jehovah's people. When I say "people" I mean anyone claiming to worship God in truth. The Israelites constantly received reproof and discipline. I am sorry if anyone in here has personally been hurt in the past or by abuse. Remember though that I did not personally do it, I am as innocent as you claim to be and it is not fair to be branded by your hot irons. Would it be fair if a member of your family was arrested on either false or true charges and then the rest of the town lynched your entire family because of his actions? That is what you are trying to do to me and other faithful JW's. We are decent people as a whole who try to live by Bible standards but I am evil because I am a JW. That is my point. I do not expect you to understand this reasoning because quite simply
I believe that some in here do not care about the way I feel. Before you respond remember that you came to this site because you were just looking for someone who cared about your feelings and could express your voice. I will refrain from making any posts that are sarcastic or off subject as long as the rest of my innocent brothers are not blasphemed in the way you condemn us for. <TROLLMAN> RJ

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 14:39:13
Comments
Trollman, What you really need to do is realize there is some people will think that all JW's are pedophiles, not everyone thinks that. It is a concern why you take this to heart though. We are just trying to change the policy on how this certain subject is handled. You have to admit, when there is a pedophile concerned, he is not going to have any witnesses around when he abuses a child. We don't want you or any other innocent JW to be attacked. But, Trollman, if you are aware, and other JW's are aware, that this is going on then maybe this alone might make a difference. I sincerely doubt it though. You need to stop attacking us and really sincerely walk in Jesus's footsteps. Did not Jesus say "let the children come to me"? As a brother, you should have some compassion in your heart. I don't see it anywhere in your letters. I believe you are lacking in this. Trollman, better get that checked out. You, need to put yourself in our shoes for just one second. It is not a sin to do this, you know. And realize that this website is for children being abused. We are walking in Jesus footsteps. We want the children to be able to come to us. The ones that are being abused need us very badly. And you are making them feel like they are doing something wrong. Just like the elders made them feel. Stop it Trollman. That is not from Jehovah. I know this for a fact. Why do you care? It must be no different from any other "apostate site" in your book. Think about it! Laura

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 15:06:15
Comments
RJ, You really must be a "brother" possibly and "elder" who else could pick and choose what they wish out of the posts that have occurred. You have been rude to John, you laughed at the press conferences. I see you waited to post again under September, do you think no one remembers what YOU'VE said about Bill and the work being done. Don't get holier than thou when you are the sarcastic, malicious spirit here on the board. I didn't call you a perv I asked you the question, basically that someone that can clearly avoid the reason this board his here and continue being so cruel must have a hidden agenda....I see in the new post you failed to mention that you felt I was a Lesbian???? GEE...RJ do you know what the fruits of the spirit are, or are you a mindless drone??? Why bother coming here at all? Do you have a real reason? A test for the next sixty seconds RJ will be conducting a test LOL Sheila M

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 15:53:26
Comments
RJ – Please move on. This is nameless. no need to defend yourself with a response. You made your point, as I did, and they reply as they see it. But don't engage in lengthy discussions. Please I am concerned for you.
Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 16:12:56
Comments
MIDNIGHT MADNESS "Sale" to help the SILENT LAMBS NON-PROFIT Foundation with assisting children & lambs first and foremost, for the Andersons to be able to travel to testify in court cases (such as the Boer v. WTS going on right now), for Bill to go to the UK for the Press Conference next week, for upgrading the website someday! to pay for the #800 provided for SilentLambs who need to call free of charge, for xeroxing, printing SL fliers, postage, etc. etc. As you can imagine there are many expenses to be covered. PLEASE SUPPORT SILENT LAMBS and at the SAME TIME help get the MESSAGE OUT: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36323&page=1&site=3#489413

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 16:54:35
Comments
rj ; i never called you a molester. i don,t have 2 sets of scales. nor have i heard any one here say all jw,s are molesters..what makes you mad is when we expose the wt for the false christ that it is. they lie every week. read sept.1 2002 wt pg 25 para 1 then find out when millions now living will never die said the world was to end. this is a clear as day LIE!! FOR PEOPLE WHO DO THEIR HOMEWORK!!!!!!IF YOU WANT TO LEARN IF THE WT IS LYING TO JWS I WILL HELP YOU..IF YOU ARE UNWILLING TO TEST THE WT THEN YOU CAN'T BE A CHRISTIAN. THERE IS SO MUCH FOR JWS TO LEARN, ONCE YOU REALLY KNOW THE HISTORY , THE LIES THE WT PRINTS WEEKLY IS ENOUGH TO MAKE A JW CRY..BUT YOU HAVE TO OPEN YOUR EYES FIRST!!!!AND THE WT DON,T WANT JWS TOO!!!!THE WT SAYS JESUS CHOOSE THE WT IN 1919. BASED ON THERE RECORD TILL THAT TIME.GO FIND WT BOOKS AND MAG,S UP TILL 1919. AND READ THEM . I SPENT 2 YEARS DOING THIS. IF ANY PERSON DOES THIS, THEY WILL SEE THE WT WAS NEVER CHOSEN BY JESUS. THE WT IS JUST ONE BIG LIE!!!!!!YOU AND ALL JWS ARE THE ONES USING THE TRUE GOD'S NAME IN VAIN!!!!TILL YOU CAN PROVE JESUS CHOOSE THE WT. IN 1919 TO BE HIS VOICE FOR ALL MAN KIND.. I NEVER MEET ONE JW THAT COULD DO THIS.. YOU KNOW WHY BECAUSE IT'S IMPOSSIBLE!!!!NOW YOU HAVE JUST HEARD WHAT IS IN FACT THE "TRUTH" MAY YOU USE IT WISELY.

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 16:55:46
Comments
Sheila, where's your compassion and forgiveness? You can quote the fruits of the spirit and other of your favorite scriptures that apply to everyone else but you, but where's your fruits of the spirit? I was reaching out to you and the others in here and you proceeded to slam me. Maybe you are going to see a new RJ. But if everyone keeps the hate machine going why would I feel compelled to change my sarcastic posts. No one but Laura even addressed my point of view regarding the branding of all JW's as evil. That is because I still feel you have your own agenda that goes beyond helping abused children, it has to do with getting even with the WTS and you don't care who you step on in the process. What is different about your agenda than the WTS? Prove me wrong Sheila and show a little bit more tolerance in here. Show that by your responses you can refrain from retaliation and maybe I will change the error of my ways. I admit my posts have been harsh but I believe my virtue has been attacked the same as yours. You heard nothing I said in my earlier post. Instead you try to pick it apart and pull out the pieces you want to attack and in the process miss the entire point. THE POINT: We are all sinners and no one in here is any better than the others. That has been proven by not only my attacks on you but your counter attacks on me. You don't know me but you make it seem that all JW's think they are better than everyone else. I do not think I am better than anyone else, if you knew me you would know that I in know way feel superior to anyone. Do you hate all JW's? Am I an evil person because I choose to remain one and put my confidence in Jehovah? Answer my questions honestly if you expect some honesty from me in future posts.....If your answer to these questions is NO, then that is my entire point. How about some sensitivity for the innocent whose names are being defamed? Since everyone has branded me a Troll I leave you with my signature...<TROLLMAN> RJ

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 17:03:50
Comments
RJ I JUST POSTED THAT TO YOU AND TO ALL JW'S OUT THERE!!!MAKE SURE YOU REALLY KNOW WHAT GOSPEL YOUR PREACHING BEFORE YOU KNOCK ON THE NEXT DOOR!!!!! SPEAK AS A FRIEND

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 17:04:12
Comments
JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 17:23:28
Comments
Hey YOU! And YOU! and YOU TOO!!! All of you people arguing back and forth, calling each other names, Yeah YOU!!!! With all your arguing and squabbling, have any of YOU noticed the posts where some are asking to be contacted and need some encouragement and support????????!!! How about DancingMoonLite? Am I the only one responding to these pleas for someone to talk to???? How about Kathy?!! Any one written to either of them except me?! How about getting off these pathetic, rambling subjects that don't serve any purpose but the fill this board with nothing but arguing and squabbling?!!! How are the victims out there going to react when they come here to post their own stories and ask for our help, when all they'll see the last several days, if not WEEKS, is nothing but rambling arguments back and forth?!!! How are YOU helping the Silentlambs effort in your arguing??!!! Linda Thoman If anyone posting here would like someone to talk to, or if you need help, or you want to get in contact with someone local to you, email me at Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 17:23:36
Comments
Hey YOU! And YOU! and YOU TOO!!! All of you people arguing back and forth, calling each other names, Yeah
YOU!!!!! With all your arguing and squabbling, have any of YOU noticed the posts where some are asking to be contacted and need some encouragement and support????!!!! How about DancingMoonLite? Am I the only one responding to these pleas for someone to talk to?!?! How about Kathy?! Any one written to either of them except me?! How about getting off these pathetic, rambling subjects that don't serve any purpose but the fill this board with nothing but arguing and squabbling?!?! How are the victims out there going to react when they come here to post their own stories and ask for our help, when all they'll see the last several days, if not WEEKS, is nothing but rambling arguments back and forth?!?! How are YOU helping the Silentlambs effort in your arguing?!?! Linda Thoman If anyone posting here would like someone to talk to, or if you need help, or you want to get in contact with someone local to you, email me at Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 18:04:13
Comments

TRACY W.........................I am so sorry you have been through so much. I am a victim too and have a hard time explaining some of the actions I have done or my way of thinking. Have you talked to a counselor? For some it helps. Please email my aunt Linda at linthoman@hotmail.com to get in touch with me she will forward your addy to me if you ever just need to talk and want to do so privately. Love Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 19:07:08
Comments

DID WE FORGET????????????????????????????????why this site is here?????? Most of this has NOTHING to do with abuse---sexual or physical abuse. Yes we have all been abused in one way or another by the org. This isn't the place to discuss what the WT has lied about and how it made us feel when we found out they were liars. This particular site is for VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ABUSE!!!!! Some who have been physically abused can find comfort too, but the MAIN OBJECTIVE is SEXUAL ABUSE!!!!! I stopped posting here because everyone was arguing. Some of you think I am new here--I am not new--I am disgusted and disappointed in the turn the site has made and chose not to be a part of the childish bickering. Has anyone greeted the new victims coming here due to the current media????????????????
The JW's coming in here are trying their hardest to get us off topic and have been succeeding. Let RJ and no name rant all they want----why give them the attention the new victims here so desperately need!!!!!!! What have you all done to help the silent lambs here????? Probably scared a lot of them off!!!!!!! I have been to two press conferences and will be doing things locally since I can't be in NYC. I have been passing out flyers and contacting news people. What are you doing????????? You waste your time arguing with people who won't listen to reason no matter what you say!!!!!!! WE ARE SUPPOSE TO BE HERE FOR THE LAMBS------NOT THE RANTINGS OF BRAINWASHED JW's!!!!!!! (if you are a JW and try to get a rise out of me by replying to what I have said, don't bother—you won't get a rise or response from me). I hope everyone understands what I am trying to say. Is it going to take me and Linda to come here everyday to keep everyone on track?? I am a homemaker so I have all the time in the world to be on the computer. Let's stay on topic people!!!!!!! We will be having a lot of people coming here to see what silent lambs is all about, and the arguing needs to stop so they can feel comfortable enough to post or reach out to us. STOP FIGHTING AND STAY ON TOPIC PLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLL
Hi All, I'm from a family of Jehovah's Witnesses and I'm glad a lot of these things are being exposed. I was never baptized into them but was made to go to Kingdom Hall. I watched as they disfellowshipped my Aunt and told us not to speak to Her for a year. As the meeting was over I walked right up to Her and hugged Her and told Her I loved Her. She whispered to me and said you are not suppose to talk to me. Right in front of all, I said do think I care what they think? I had my own mind. At age ten I saw a blind man healed and my 8 month sister healed, she was supposed to be dead by morning of colitis. When My grandma told me God doesn't heal, I said too late to tell me that, I already saw it for myself. That's when I began to realize there was a real true and loving GOD. Not just some one on paper, some one real who would care about us and personally touch our lives. I was saved at ten years of age on an old swinging bridge. A Christian missionary witnessing met me half way and ask me if I would rather go to heaven instead hell. I said yes, she said the sinners prayer with me, and be assured I had an experience with God that day, something no one had ever told me about. I love all of you for what you are doing. Carol Hall Cumberland, Ky.40823 <crystal_star48@hotmail.com> e-mail me any time.

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 20:57:42
Comments
No longer a Witness, I know of a classic case of father-daughter abuse, that the entire family and congregation covered up. The wife knew it was going on, the siblings knew, even my ex-wife who was born and raised in the religion and was this girls child hood friend knew and still remains silent. Sick-- isn't it? Hate is a strong word but that is where I am with JW's. They robbed me of the prime of my life. At least I had the courage to break free. I appreciate your courage to help the lambs. Madison WI

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 21:32:56
Comments
Madison WI>>>Yes that is sick. It is rampant within JW's, and what we're here for. All the victims of abuse need a place to go to speak out, to cry out, to ROAR if need be! All of us Silentlambs know the pain and heartache brought by the perps in our cases, and we're working hard to put a stop to it! JW's can put their head in the sand all they want, I really don't care. It's the victims we're here to help. Welcome to the board. Linda Thoman

Remote User:

Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 22:10:47
Comments
Jesika and Linda, Yes, your right about getting off topic. Now about the sole purpose of the site though. The site is for battered and abuses lambs, there are many forms of abuse and to say that this is directed solely for sexual is I think doing a great disservice to others that have emotional and physical abuses done to them. No one should be made to feel like, ooops I'm in the wrong place. Abuse is abuse it's all about a sense of power. As for asking what others are doing, I'm sure all Silent Lambs are doing WHAT THEY CAN in their circumstance. The comment I felt was a little to reminiscent of the JW's forcing service down everyone's throat. If a Silent Lamb is even just doing enough to get the topic out and that's what they feel comfortable with GREAT. As Bill said it takes time for people to heal there is no set time table. So for those out there don't feel bad if your not up to handing out flyers and lambs. Just do what YOU CAN to make sure this is known to everyone. Each to their own time Peace Sheila

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 22:12:49
Comments
I don't recommend a discussion of this subject on silentlambs.....but if you have an interest in the CROSS or STAKE you must read this : http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36340&site=3

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 22:29:18
Comments
carol hall that's one of the best stories i heard here. how at a young age you didn't listen to the elders, and still talked to your aunt, that is so beautiful. how a 10 year old girl. has more common sense and christian love . than god's sprit directed org. hang around we need more people like you...john

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 22:41:00
Comments
will someone please post what happened with the child molestation case in canada. someone got the GRITS ON this. did you get my offer to stay with me if you can come to the march J_CHITO@msn.com

Remote User:
Date: 09 Sep 2002
Time: 23:59:16
Comments
trollman: This site is for victims of abuse, and their supporters. Are they sometimes bitter and angry? Yes. Are they maybe angry that the organization let them down? Yes. Are they angry that most, if not all, either deny or minimize the abuse and it's coverup? YES YES YES. This site is NOT about YOU, unless you choose to either support the victims by words or means. Don't victimize anyone here again by clouding the issues. Pistoff Is there anyone in Seattle passing the lambs out to the kingdom halls?? I need to know soon. Laura argue they owed her no special duty of care as alleged in the suit. They accused Ms. Boer of "asking the church to pay for the sins of the father." Ms. Boer testified that her father, whom she is not suing and who was never criminally charged, touched her sexually on numerous occasions from the time she was 11 until she was 15. The abuse stopped after Ms. Boer told her mother, who criticized her for dressing immodestly but agreed to confront the father, Ms. Boer told the court. She told no one until four years later, she said, when she was plagued by memories of the abuse and suffering symptoms of severe depression and anxiety. "I just kept crying and crying." Then 19, she went to local elders Mr. Cairns and Mr. Brown, and they in turn asked for advice from Mr. Didur, an elder with the national Watchtower organization, she said. The men made her repeat her story over and over, she said, then insisted she not go to authorities but instead confront her father in the presence of Mr. Cairns and Mr. Brown and give him the chance to repent. "I told them I couldn't do it," she wept yesterday. "They said I had to." In two confrontations at his home, Ms. Boer's father accused her of exaggerating, she said. He did acknowledge some sexual impropriety, apologized to her and agreed to do some extra service for the Watchtower Society, she said. The elders then declared the matter closed. "They said they felt my father had shown signs of repentance, that he was a changed man," she said. They told her if she went to the CAS the family would be investigated, her father would lose his job and her mother would be left destitute, she said.

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 08:54:32
Comments
I was raised as a JW and after reading all of this, my mouth was left open and my eyes with tears....I left the organization years ago when I was around 18, I was never baptized and neither was my sister and now I realize how LUCKY I was not to experienced any of this abuse! I never knew it was so rampant, yet I'm sure in my area (a large metro area) it happened, I just didn't know about it. Now, I sit here and wonder....who did it happen to in my congregation? I feel very angry that these victims were treated like this, and I believe it all, because the examples provided were exactly the way JW behave. Everything you do is never 'their' fault, it's all 'worldly' influences, and everything in your life is controlled. I remember the 'secrecy' of it all, the mysterious elders and the hierarchical ways that the 'popular' members got 'positions'. It's all a mind trap, and my father and his wife are still in it. I wonder what they will have to say when they see this...because this is not going to go away this time. My heart goes out to all those people that suffered like that...I am so sorry. M. Endsley

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 09:14:27
Comments
Laura, hang on hon, Seattle contacts are coming your way. :-) Linda

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 09:15:04
Comments
QUOTE FROM THE CANADIAN TRIAL: The defendants -- the Watchtower Society and elders Brian Cairns, Steve Brown and John Didur -- deny preventing Ms. Boer from going to the authorities and argue they owed her no special duty of care as alleged in the suit. . . . . . Victims don't exist in the Watchtower, just get them to shut up, forgive and cover up. The elders defense is—WE DO NOT OWE our children care, protection, compassion, justice, kindness, humanity.....you name it and I've experienced it!

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 11:10:58
Comments
Thank you Linda! You have been a tremendous help to me! Laura

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 11:18:59
Comments
Sheila, I don't think I said anything at all against people posting various abuse stories they've experienced. As a Silentlamb myself, a child abuse victim myself, and a victim of wife abuse within the Org, I wouldn't dream of telling anyone they shouldn't or can't post those stories here, since I have myself. But all this arguing and name calling back and forth about subjects other than what this site is for I have a problem with. We are supposed to be here not only to speak out about our own stories, but to also be available to help and comfort others who come here. More and more will come here as the media attention grows, and for people to see post after post with people arguing back and forth and calling each other stupid names, is not helpful or beneficial for those who need our help and compassion. We, Jesika and I, are simply asking everyone to stay on topic and not let the rantings of JW's confuse the reason why we're all here. We need to simply ignore the JW's, since they have no clue of what they speak, and are blinded by the mind control tactics of the org. We need to stay on topic. Linda Thoman

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 12:53:37
Comments
Thank you, Linda and Jesika, you are correct we need to stay focused on the purpose of this site. I realize this objective becomes difficult when Trolls mock the victims and make cruel malicious statements. However, that is the Trolls complete intention to cause controversy and discord on this site. September 27th and additional media coverage of this site is on the way-----let's be ready! Acknowledge the distressed victims, ignore the trolls! Nancy Naranjo

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 12:53:46
Comments
SHEILA-----------------Please don't misunderstand what I meant. When I said this site is for sexual abuse I did also mention physical abuse too. I know there are many types of abuse being I have been through any form you can name. My point of saying what are you doing can be anything. Such as supporting those who come here and staying on topic is doing enough. I am not asking you or anyone to do what I am doing or what Linda is doing. We all heal in a different way. The name calling and arguing is just hurting the site and not helping those who come here for healing was my point. Love, Jesika Thoman—Dallas, TX

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 13:57:23
Comments
M Endley....I know all too well the pain and hurt, devastation that you are feeling. I've been through it, and my entire family is still in it too. I have no contact with my family, and here I am planning my wedding but can't share any of my happiness and joy with my mother like most girls/woman would like to. Believe me.......I understand. Linda Thoman Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 14:09:25
Comments
(1) I know first hand that this website can help people who have been "spiritually splintered" by bad doctrine and more important that the dogma was implemented most often by people that we trusted and love/loved. For me this site has truly been a God-send. I never denied to my (non-JW) family that I had deep seeded anger towards the people who used me as a door to hurt the D'fed in my family.(I wanted peace.) They (JW's) have nothing but malice to offer me. I accept that now. I know what to do about it and them..."Nothing." I feel whole again. I don't want to get payback because there is really nothing to return. I loved them and in return they crapped all over me. It is their loss not mine. I have one of two paths to take (1) is "Ahabism" which will lead to my own destruction. Or (2) I can offer an ear to others who have experienced what I have. Silentlams will have my support for as long as it exists. I have nothing but sincere heartfelt thanks for the gift it has given me. I hope that in return as my cup is more than full, I can have the courage to be a friend to others who need what is in it. (LOVE)-Jayson

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 16:23:50
Comments
My name is Joe Joe the Dog Face Boy, I was raised a JW, My Elder father gave me my nick name, It helped me to develop into the person I am today, A housebound on disability. Some other Great things my parents used to do for me is, I new I could always count on my mother to do one thing for me when she got home from her pioneering, and that was to give us a good beating because the house was not clean or the table wasn't set for dinner or we had a worldly friend over to play so we wouldn't be so lonely sitting at home waiting for our beating. I do thank my mother however for all those 100's of hours she put in field service, because it taught me to be independent and take care of myself, I was grateful when the Doctor finally gave her her diet pills because it was causing so much stress in our house that she wouldn't be able to get in her 100 hours a month and make my Elder father look bad. I would like to thank my father for always correcting me from the stage when he was giving a talk, I no now it is wrong to move around in your seat in the Kingdom Hall. I Think my brother really found wisdom in his later years from my parents great example ,Because he raises his kids with similar care. The one thing my mother really helped me with,was when she would tell me after leaving my sister and I in the car for up to an hour while she was on a return visit was to be patient, I don't even care if the other sisters at the hall made fun of me for rocking back and forth in the car seat because I knew that I was being patient. I will always be grateful to my father for helping me get my talks together that can be kinda tuff for an 8 year old kid, but those beatings he would give me would sure help me to focus on what I was doing, because I really needed to focus to be able to read some of those long words he gave me from the stage, this is just a few of the things I am so thankful about while I am sitting here waiting for Jehovah to answer me why did my mommy always hurt me that way... NP (JW defenders feel free to comment)

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 17:37:53
Comments
To NP, Jayson and others, Wow! the last few posts have taken my breath away. I know the pain my husband lives but to know I almost put my children through that. Thank God I chose to get rebuked instead of focusing on the all mighty service time. My husbands father use to beat the all after the meetings it was call the "After the meeting beating" My husbands oldest brother was handicapped so my husband would get the licks for both of them, by then the others were so hysterical they would be sent to their rooms (so guess who was the only one beat). Funny it reminded me to of the sister that was so adamant about "vi-OLENCE" that is to violent...ooh did you see that how VIOLENT" well my husband was working at her home GUESS what the person who never let their kids watch a Disney move cause it was so VIOLENT was doing >>>>Yep BEATING, SCREAMING LIKE A DEMON...at her two little boys. Then we realized why they acted out so much. NP I wish I had words that could make their reasons for what they do make since. I saw the things my in laws did with my own eyes and still have nightmares and I was in my 20's eek gosh. So I just try to look at it as they, somewhere in their actions made a CHOICE to do what they did. They choose and chose the feelings of everyone else but the children in what they did and do. Why is it a witness can leave a child in a car for an hour but in a certain areas of town that is called NEGLECT? All I know is I fight tooth and nail every day against the machinations my husband was raised with. He has NO sense of self and self-esteem is out of his grasp. All because they would rather have "put in service time" than tend to the needs and wants of their babies. NP, Jayson, Jesika, Linda and all I wish the focus of the media was not just the sexual abuse of the young, but also was focusing on the other abuse. I know from the posts it starts with more than just the sexual usually their is more abuse of power in the relationship. They say they believe in counseling but it's evident that is so not true. I hope that at some point they will cease and desist before more are harmed by their so called Truth. Peace Sheila

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 18:04:42
Comments
wow NP HOW SAD THE LOVE YOU WERE SHOWN BY GOD'S SPRIT DIRECTED TEACHINGS. I KNOW JUST SOME OF WHAT YOU ARE TALKING ABOUT..I WAS BEAT FOR NOT WANTING TO GO TO THE HALL....LUCKILY WHEN MY POP JOINED I WAS A TEEN. SO I GOT OFF THE HOOK....BUT MY 4 YOUNGER SIBLINGS WERE NOT SO LUCKY....POP WOULD KICK THE SHIT OUT OF THEM EVERY WEEK AT THE HALL ....MANY TIMES THEY WOULD COME HOME WITH WELTS ON THEIR FACES!!!!!!!!!Mom went crazy she would take us out for the day so we didn't have to go...Mom even went to the hall and blasted pop and all the JW's on the spare the rod crap...and let me tell you if we were bad mom would give it to us...she hated the JW's and their crap!!!My brothers and sisters would cry and beg mom to go to grandma's on sundays.....My father would not give mom grocery money if the kids didn't go to the hall...many weeks we ate rice or macaroni every day...and pop would bring home a steak...and say, if you go to the hall you can have steak too!!!!That's the kind of black mail my father used!!!Funny when we bring up these bad memories he just laughs....and says you don't look hungry to me!!!!!!!!Let me tell you how sick the WT has made my pop about 20 years ago his mom gave him a class picture from when he was in 8th. grade he cut off half of the heads of the girls in the top row...
BECAUSE THERE WAS AN AMERICAN FLAG IN THE BACKGROUND.... THEN HE WOULD SHOW THE PICTURE AND TELL STORIES ABOUT THE GIRLS WITH HALF A HEAD.... NOW THAT'S MENTAL....JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 18:26:03
Comments
NP, I want to thank you for posting your story. It is heart-breaking but it tells a truth and a reality that must be told. We will no longer hide the Watchtower's secrets. I remember a friend with four children and a job cleaning houses and yet she pioneered. Who took care of the children? She went out in early morning service then worked all day and later went out in evening service. What a shame that this cruel organization taught that honest hearted woman that knocking on doors was more important than raising her family.

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 18:27:38
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 18:34:42
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 18:40:16
Comments
John & Sheila: I don't want you to feel overlooked. John, I guess your father demonstrates the Watchtowers belief that everyone will be perfect and will not cause any problems. Beat the children or beat the victims. Sheila hang in there, your husband is lucky to have some one who can understand his past. Nancy

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
NP I HAD TO READ YOUR STORY AGAIN... I HAD TO CALL MY BABY BROTHER AND ASK HIM ABOUT IT. HE SAID IT WAS LIKE CLOCK WORK. LIKE ROLL CALL HE KNEW WHEN EACH KID IN THE HALL WOULD GET SMACKED OR TAKEN TO THE BACK FOR A WHIPPING. I FACT the fathers would take off their belts at the beginning of the meeting, and wait for their cue. He told me every time elder jones would whack his kid, he knew he was next, and would try to go the bathroom. He said when ever he came back from the bathroom his sister just got smacked, he was too smart for her. He just laughed he said he don't know how they continued the meeting with all the kids crying.... That post is from my brother mike....John

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 19:50:08
Comments
bro from lodi again: 'everytime i came back to check in it seems those who raise a voice of their terrible past they are drowned out by people who simply have nothing to do but repeated garbage of junk they spew on this site. take the girl who lived with those molested. only two acknowledged her, then the mom who spoke of why she left, another of his past and now happy he left, then other with inside knowledge and concern now discontent who refuse to return. We lost texas, rjs, placerville, and of coarse the MOLE. why has this site lost itself. is it really jw's on this from the organization who is crushing this place? is it drunkards, apostates or those with their own agenda? mole said it best. i think i too will never come back. i came here because i too suffer in the hall and can see the ignorance the society wants us to except, i see the horror of those neglected and raped. i am here for them to tell my plight and to read and say i too understand. those of you who have nothing to contribute to this site have disgraced it. those of you who repeatedly come to this site to fill it up with nonsense shame on you. i recommend it be shut down to force the haters to another site to do their bashing of one another. you regulars, by acknowledging these fools made it worse. this is not a personal chat line, this is why i enjoyed ray franz thoughts, bill bowen's thoughts and MOLE THOUGHTS, to the rest of you who opened your heart and told the bad that infested your life good luck to you, to the regulars who have skewed the figures for those evil elders at the headquarters you have done more to prove the jw's are right. ))))))))) bro from lodi, ps i hate those jerks who keep putting their advertisements for papers on here with their bogus links....

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 19:54:02
Comments
This place is a freaking ZOO. So much bickering and infighting. Now correct me if i'm wrong, but i've read that in excess of 30,000 boys are molested EACH YEAR in Los Angeles alone. Obviously, the perpetrators in this case are homosexuals. Aren't JW's opposed to homosexuality in all it's forms? And aren't they also strictly opposed to extra-marital sex of any kind? If they kick 15 & 16 year olds out of the organization for sexual escapades, and discourage so much as a grab or a grope in the dark or a drive in a car alone until a couple is "properly married", do you think they suddenly have no standards when it comes to the victimization of children? How can you say that JW's either "encourage" or "condone" such things? The only ones turning a blind eye is you. You are so focused on hating JW's that you don't even see the millions of battered, raped, and abused children, and former victims ALL OVER THE WORLD, abused by fathers, uncles, priests, school teachers, etc. What kind of heartless beasts are you - pretending to be speaking out about abuse when your own selfish reason is to bash JW's. Shame on you! /RON
I am sorry that you have been hurt by what you chose to do but you did the right thing. I am a Survivor and I have had many ppl arrested that has chosen to hurt kids. I applaud you courage to do this for the children. God will reward you for what you have done in your courage to protect the innocent. This is the job of the Adults an the parents but they forget to do so, leaving it to others to do so. I wish that the kids had prosecuted the men who had done this to them. I know they may regret it when they get older. I didn’t remember any abuse till i was 35 yrs old but I did disown my parents. God will make them pay on the day of judgment. I am of your religion but I am religious. We will see justice. Zee http://silentkiller.bravepages.com

Remote User:

i agree with ron and lodi this place sucks now because of some of you. this was a place of refuge and seeking understanding. bill started off to let us know something is wrong, many now share what they see to let the organization know they need to fix the problem. they do read this site and are watching even now. hail to ray franz. julie thomas of dixon california

Remote User:

ITS GREAT INFOSYBILJERRY INC@AOL.COM

Remote User:

Remote User:
	hank you NP for reminding me and my siblings why the wt teachings have abused my family.. i just got off the phone with my sisters. they were scared shit of going to the hall or book study. knowing at any second they would get smacked in the face. no wonder none of us became jw's . i also thank my mom for keeping the heat on pop. instead of taking out the kids to the beach or the park, pop was always selling wt's . brother from lodi when was the last time you missed a meeting to take your kids to the beach?????? it was my mom who told my sisters to go to college...now one is a teacher other a accountant. me i got screwed pop pushed me out to work at 18 or live in the street. thank god my sister married young, and their husbands had brains to let them go to school. who are the spiritual drunkards here????? it not me!!!!! john

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 21:55:44
Comments
everyone this site has degraded. people who need to reveal and to get insight what happens in the hall for former witnesses and current witnesses. what is going on? i'm really disappointed. julie from dixon

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 21:58:17
Comments
To NP....Your post made me cry. it hit too close to home for me, even though I'm now 42. Linda Thoman

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 21:59:58
Comments
To Sheila....I do too. I wish for attention to the other abuses as well. Been through them all myself. But, first things first hon. We have to help these little children, and the children who've now grown up but are still silent. Then we can talk about the other stuff. Roar! Linda Thoman

Remote User:
Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 22:12:28
Comments
Woman scarred by sex abuse, not life as a Jehovah's Witness, lawyer suggests.....
Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 22:28:36
Comments
Ron: Actually there hasn't been much bickering in the last few days but about the sex abuse problem within the congregations try this link: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36147&site=3 . . . After reading it--you might want to ask more informed questions. You can email me if you like: nannaranjo@yahoo.com Nancy Naranjo

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 22:35:01
Comments
Ron, You are wrong, in the presumption that a pedophile that abuses boys "must be homosexual". Studies have shown pedophilia has NOTHING to do with sexual orientation pedophilia is an act against innocence, it is akin to rape not sexual but about power and control. Not that they don't (excuse me) get sexual gratification out of it, but it is a perversion. The stereotyping of one that is gay as one that would abuse a child is incorrect. In fact most studies have shown that a large number are married supposedly heterosexual. A large majority of pedophiles will perpetrate on children of EITHER sex. To me it is their want to defile something pure and good, to debase it and to be the ONE to do this. I hope you can see how classifying a perversion with someone's sexuality is not going to get anyone anywhere. Also yes there are millions of children abused, we can not help everyone. We are here to speak out on the SILENCING of the victims and their families by a religious organization that holds themselves to be for the good of the family. There are many organizations you can look to to help as I said I have volunteered for CASA that is a Guardian ad litem for children in abuses cases (an advocate per se in court cases). So Ron that is why we have one focus here and are not talking about the millions else where. To correct a problem that is societal we all must change what is wrong in society. We need more community, a society where a child's life is important and the old days where when a kid was in trouble the whole street yelled at them before they got home "your Mamma is looking for you where have YOU been" that type of society. I digress... As far as Linda I guess your right one tiny baby step at a time right. ROARRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRR Peace Sheila

Remote User:

Date: 10 Sep 2002
Time: 23:45:14
Comments
will some one please post here what happened ,in the vicki boar case today . i read it but don,t know to post it here....roar vicki ROAR!!!!!!!!JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 00:24:29
Comments
Well, Sheila, I was not saying that ALL homosexuals abuse boys. I think any sexual act against another male (man or boy, consenting or not) makes the one initiating it a "homosexual". L.A. being a city with many homosexuals is the reason why many young boys are being sodomized there. I have yet to be convinced that pedophilia is anything more than a rare occurrence amongst JW's. I believe their standards are among the highest in the world and their attitudes toward sex can hardly be seen as "encouraging" perversion - a lot of their articles discuss self-control and the benefits of working on personal weaknesses, and even avoiding habits such as self-abuse, or masturbation. This is in line with what the bible has to say on controlling the thoughts and desires. There is absolutely NO basis for the claims made that the JW church "breeds" pedophiles, or that there is any higher proportion of them among JW's, or that this particular church "attracts" pedophiles any more than other churches. I don't believe that their elders have as much access to children as, for example, a catholic priest would. Maybe you think the elders pull them into the bushes when they're out going door to door, or drag them into the back room of the KH to molest them? Most of the shepherding duties of these elders are carried out as groups of TWO responsible brothers. In an organization of at least 5 or 6 million not counting minor children, sadly there are bound to be some rotten apples. Most of the cases I have heard of involved father/daughter situations, and some may have been elders, but this is hardly the norm. I am not sure if it is a requirement for such elders to step down from their position even if they are claiming innocence, but it seems to me that this would be the most decent and honorable course of action. Why don't you blame the PERVERTS, rather than spending all your time attacking an organization that in principal is against all forms of sexual deviancy (and by deviancy I mean anything outside normal marital relations: including fornication/adultery/anal/oral/masturbation) And yet those on here continue screaming for blood like the rabid dogs you are.

/RON

Remote User:

Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 01:20:08
Comments

Thanks for all your feedback. I don't no what happened I just sat down and it all fell out on the screen. John what you said sounds like a normal day at the KH, I realize that it is nothing like that today I believe everyone that grew up in the 60's & 70's was taking that rod of discipline scripture literally, Today you may get a good bathroom beating at an assembly and that's about it LOL. and thanks Linda, Sheila for your comments Love to all...NP

Remote User:

Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 01:40:31
Comments

I think people jump to quick to the guestbook...Front page....Do Jehovah's Witnesses approve, condone, and encourage accused, confessed, and convicted child molesters to call door to door on unknowing potential victims in the witnessing work? Yes or No?(2)Do Judicial Committees require two witnesses to the event of molestation before taking any disciplinary measures? Yes or No?(3)Do elders allow sex offenders complete anonymity when they are discovered? Yes or No?(4)Do they threaten parents of molested children with disfellowship if they try to warn other members whose children may be in danger? Yes or NO? (5)Does the Service Department remove elders who warn parents of a pedophile member even though the elder is simply attempting to protect the children of the congregation? Yes or NO? (6)Does your Kingdom Hall provide significant training on how to direct a molested child to get the help they so desperately need? Yes or No? (7) Does the Watchtower Organization advise you that the best way to help a "troubled" person is to instruct them to endure and wait for God's Kingdom to solve their problems? Yes or No? I think they are fair questions. Ron? Your comments? Anyone else? Do I stand alone? Is there anyone else that sees flawed logic in play? This is the heart of the is heart of the issue RIGHT NOW~! Postings should center around these issues and other abuse. Healing, or uplifting, or positive stories would be cool.
To everyone that has been abused, sexually or physically. I know it takes a long time to get over, but I do know some positive steps you can take to heal. The first step is to talk about it. To leave it inside is self damaging. This site is excellent for this. I speak for most of us survivors, we are here for you. Anytime you want to talk about it feel free to E-mail me at dancingmoonlite@aol.com. I do not open zipped files, so please do not send me those. The next step is to forgive and love yourself. This may be very difficult. But we do this by finding thing we like about ourselves and then everyday, add to the list. These two things will take a while. At least it did for me. And to know that you are not alone. Laura

I think we should rethink this hole thing, A Big misunderstanding, what we gots here is a few brothers that probably had a little to much to drink, they come home maybe go into the wrong bedroom and before you no it ,oh I'm sorry I thought you were mommy, of coarse some of them got drunk every night so this happened a lot, hey there only imperfect humans, why can't we just brush all of this under the rug and play like this never happened and go back to the way things were. Besides you know this is happening all around, LA, JERSEY, Europe, you name it, I mean were Brothers you N me Don't go telling me you never made a mistake in Judgment, comon we can werk this out here you n me. (this is a copy of a closed door session of the GB)

Story of Vicki: Church made her cover up sexual abuse, woman says By JANE GADD COURTS REPORTER Tuesday, September 10, 2002 Page A18 A former Jehovah's Witness who says her church forced her to cover up years of sexual abuse by her father told Ontario Superior Court yesterday that church elders use the fear of Armageddon to silence her and other abuse victims. Victoria Boer, 31, testifying at the trial of her $700,000 lawsuit against the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Canada, said she was driven to the brink of suicide when society elders told her to pray, to preach and to forgive her father for the abuse -- but not to report it to the Children's Aid Society or doctors. "I was told if Armageddon came and my father went down for the abuse I would likely go down with him," Ms. Boer told the court. In fact, the entire Jehovah's Witness community where she lived in Shelburne, Ont., could be exposed to God's wrath if she handled the matter by "worldly" means, Ms. Boer said she was told. The defendants -- the Watchtower Society and elders Brian Cairns, Steve Brown and John Didur -- deny preventing Ms. Boer from going to the authorities and argue they owed her no special duty of care as alleged in the suit. They accused Ms. Boer of "asking the church to pay for the sins of the father." Ms. Boer testified that her father, whom she is not suing and who was never criminally charged, touched her sexually on numerous occasions from the time she was 11 until she was 15. The abuse stopped after Ms. Boer told her mother, who criticized her for dressing immodestly but agreed to confront the father, Ms. Boer told the court. She told no one until four years later, she said, when she was plagued by memories of the abuse and suffering symptoms of severe depression and anxiety. "I just kept crying and crying." Then 19, she went to local elders Mr. Cairns and Mr. Brown, and they in turn asked for advice from Mr. Didur, an elder with the national Watchtower organization, she said. The men made her repeat her story over and over, she said, then insisted she not go to authorities but instead confront her father in the presence of Mr. Cairns and Mr. Brown and give him the chance to repent. "I told them I couldn't do it," she wept yesterday. "They said
I had to." In two confrontations at his home, Ms. Boer's father accused her of exaggerating, she said. He did acknowledge some sexual impropriety, apologized to her and agreed to do some extra service for the Watchtower Society, she said. The elders then declared the matter closed. "They said they felt my father had shown signs of repentance, that he was a changed man," she said. They told her if she went to the CAS the family would be investigated, her father would lose his job and her mother would be left destitute, she said.

Remote User:
Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 09:22:36
Comments
More on Victoria Boer: Woman scarred by sex abuse, not life as a Jehovah's Witness, lawyer suggests By JAMES MCCARTEN TORONTO (CP) - It was a childhood of sexual abuse at the hands of her father, not the ways of her church, that sent a former Jehovah's Witness down a rocky path of job insecurity, sexual dalliances and emotional turmoil, a lawyer suggested Tuesday. Colin Stevenson, who represents the defendants in a $700,000 lawsuit against the church and three of its elders, confronted 31-year-old Vicky Boer with a list of problems that have plagued her in the years since leaving the family she says abandoned her. None of them - sexual harassment on the job, being ostracized by friends and her mother, a nervous breakdown and marital troubles, including a variety of extra-marital affairs - are the fault of the church elders whom she alleges failed to deal properly with the abuse, Stevenson argued.

But Boer stood her ground, wiping away tears as she insisted none of it would have happened had she been allowed at 18 by the church to get psychiatric and medical help. With her military husband overseas, she had a nervous breakdown "because my husband was gone and because my family had disowned me; I was being blamed, and everything I knew in my life was gone," Boer sobbed. The alleged efforts of the three elders to cover up the abuse, led to her being shunned by other Witnesses who believed she had lied. "If I had had the support of people I had known my entire life ...I wouldn't have suffered the things I did," she said. "If things were done properly, none of this would have happened. My mother wouldn't have hated me and I wouldn't have been left alone." Boer is suing the three elders along with the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Canada, the religion's governing body, for failing to allow her adequate treatment for the abuse she says she suffered between the ages of 11 and 14 in the family home in Shelburne, Ont., about 100 kilometres northwest of Toronto. Rather than inform the Children's Aid Society and permit Boer to seek counselling outside the church, she was forced to confront her father and give him a chance to repent his alleged "sins," court has been told. Church elders also allegedly refused to allow her to see a psychologist, warning her that it would lead to an investigation and might cost her father his job and her mother her only source of financial support. While victims of sexual abuse normally aren't identified in public, Boer has agreed to allow her name to be publicized as part of her effort to promote what she alleges is abuse within the confines of the church's congregations. As part of their beliefs in a strict interpretation of Bible teachings, Jehovah's Witnesses reject anything political or "worldly" that distracts from their focus on Christ and the second coming, which they consider imminent. Birthdays, secular holidays and Christmas are not celebrated; children are often required to leave class during the Lord's Prayer and the national anthem, Boer said. And anyone who runs afoul of the religion's strictest tenets will find themselves ex-communicated, often to such an extent that they're shunned by their own family, she said. Boer testified Tuesday that when she was finally allowed to see her doctor, she chose not to tell him about the abuse for fear the elders would find out. The Watchtower has not yet had the chance to defend itself in court, although in a statement of defence it says it has "no knowledge of the allegations" that Boer was abused and that the abuse was never reported to church elders in Shelburne or to the Children's Aid Society. The defendants also deny that two of the elders named in the suit prevented Boer from reporting her allegations or from seeking psychological help. "If the plaintiff chose not to seek advice from a psychiatrist or psychologist, it was solely of her own volition and because she believed such advice was unnecessary," says the statement of defence. Boer's 58-year-old father, Gower Palmer, continues to live in Shelburne and has never been criminally charged. It's not the first time that the teachings of the Jehovah's Witnesses have made headlines. The most recent example is the case of a 17-year-old girl in Alberta who died last week after a lengthy and unsuccessful court battle to avoid blood transfusions to treat her leukemia.>>>>Happy to help provide this post. Linda Thoman

Remote User:
Date: 11 Sep 2002
Ron and others who feel threatened by this site, we realize that it seems strange to enter a place where everyone is speaking freely about serious issues. But I must tell you that if these things were happening to you, maybe they are, or maybe you are, I am not the one to say. The point is when a person is so full of rage for the way they have been mistreated, any therapist will tell you to talk about it is essential, to write it down is better, to write it down and no one who cares reads it, and offers loving support, well that is called healing, if we don't do this for ourselves and keep it all inside well, we simply self destruct, maybe commit suicide and take our hell with us. I think this site is the cheapest therapy you gonna find so why not take advantage of it and quit diting those that do. After a while you may find this site to be a God send rather than take offense at your bruised perfectionistic egos, it not about you, its about me, you get it! Good Love to all...NP
The Bible said that there would be unbelievers in the last days and people who would turn from Jehovah and speak ill of him and his work. I guess that would be you.

Remote User:

Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 14:13:03
Comments

This speech was given at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania on November 19, 1863. The Gettysburg Address Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We are met to dedicate a portion of it as the final resting place of those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men living and dead who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work that they here gave the last full measure of devotion. We cannot hallow this ground. The brave men living and dead who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work that they here gave the last full measure of devotion. That we here highly resolve that the dead shall not have died in vain—that the nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom—and that governments of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Remote User:

Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 16:02:02
Comments

TO NP--Jayson--John--Laura--Sheila--and all of you who have shared your stories---thank you. Every time I hear someone's story it just reminds me I am not alone and these things happened all over the world. I find healing in listening to others and to know the fear I had as a child was a normal reaction to the abuse that was a daily--"normal" part of life. It is sometimes hard to remember because the feelings come racing back but these are things I need to deal with. Thank you all for helping me heal and hope I can do the same for all of you. Love,Jesika Thoman---Dallas,Tx

Remote User:

Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 20:15:29
Comments

Remote User:
Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 20:20:14
Comments
They announced that the world had in fact ended in 1914, and if the rest of us hadn’t noticed, that was our lookout. It is astonishing in the face of such transparent evasions that this religion has any adherents at all. But religions are tough. Either they make no contentions which are subject to disproof or they quickly redesign doctrine after disproof. The fact that religions can be so shamelessly dishonest, so contemptuous of the intelligence of their adherents, and still flourish does not speak very well for the tough-mindedness of the believers. “ . . . . Carl Sagan http://www.geocities.com/Athens/Academy/6040/sagan.htm

Remote User:
Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 20:30:53
Comments
They announced that the world had in fact ended in 1914, and if the rest of us hadn’t noticed, that was our lookout. It is astonishing in the face of such transparent evasions that this religion has any adherents at all. But religions are tough. Either they make no contentions which are subject to disproof or they quickly redesign doctrine after disproof. The fact that religions can be so shamelessly dishonest, so contemptuous of the intelligence of their adherents, and still flourish does not speak very well for the tough-mindedness of the believers. “ . . . . Carl Sagan
http://www.geocities.com/Athens/Academy/6040/sagan.htm

Remote User:
Date: 11 Sep 2002
Time: 21:19:24
Comments
Ron, you say that sexual abuse of children is rare among JW's. On what do you base your beliefs? Have you tried asking your fellow brothers and sisters what they know? Around the Dateline time I asked five other witnesses I was having coffee with if they knew of any occurrences. All five did, one brother was a former PO of two different congregations and he had two stories he revealed. One Ministerial Servant pioneered with a sister who's daughter was molested, one sister's roommate had been abused, one knew of a story involving a baptized father and four of his daughters and the last sister's own daughter was raped. So have you asked around? And if you do ask ---are you the kind of person that others will feel free to tell the true to? Have you examined the questions on the front page as someone else suggested? Have you read the stories from the victims? My story is one of them. Do you understand that a POLICY that HAD for many years required TWO WITNESSES for EACH OCCURANCE was impossible to enforce and ONLY PROTECTED PEDOPHILES. Do you understand that an organization that refuses to believe a court of law's decision and still views a PEDOPHILE as innocent is dangerous to children? Can you understand that if a sibling asks why her sister moved out and her father was reproved but IS NOT TOLD the truth this is a crime? Please try to understand the PROBLEM is more than just the PEDOPHILES it is the POLICY of secrecy. Oh, and I am not a rabid dog actually I am witness in good standing. Nancy Naranjo.

Remote User:
Date: 11 Sep 2002
Ron, I really feel your not well informed, LA has more homosexuals...hmm is there a published report on that? Statistical analysis??? I'm glad you feel classifying people as homosexual in your book is OK when the true classification is PEDOPHILE. As far as what you determine as normal sexual development, the GB says masturbation is wrong, that is NOT a scriptural principle that is someone reading into defilements of the flesh what they will. I would love to do a study on Elders that "practice what they preach" as far as oral situations with their spouse. As far as what I do in the bedroom with my husband, that is between me and God. Not a GB or man. As far as what you feel about a few, before you post again why not do some research. Your assumption have the same result as most people that ASS U ME. And yes it is their policy that causes that silence that allows pedophiles to stalk their victims. So in essence Ron get an education about a subject before you decide to take a stance on it, it makes it better for all concerned Peace Sheila

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 00:52:11
Comments
nancy and sheila; thanx for answering. ron or is it no name, rj of jfk. bro from lodi. this guY is JIVING ALL HEAR IT'S ONE OR TWO JWDS AT MOST. OR IT'S 20 WT CLONES. NO NAME JUST CHANGES HIS NAME WHEN EVER HE CAN'T ANSWER THE QUESTIONS. THE BIBLE CALLS IT DECEPTION!!!!!!!!!WAKE UP LAMBS SORRY I HAD TO BE SO BLUNT..JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 00:57:54
Comments
As I said, LA has many homosexuals, probably even more than some other cities. And obviously some of you approve of such things as you openly admit that you engage in practices learned from homosexuals with your husband. Maybe the JW standards are too strict for you. And Elder so-and-so does it too... which makes it OK. JW's are far more opposed to sexual deviancy than any of the perverts posting here. And that is exactly my problem. You see what is MOSTLY a clean organization of decent, upright people with high moral standards and all you want to do is bring them down to their level, prove that they are as "dirty" as you are. Yes, there are some thoroughly rotten human beings among JW's as anywhere in the world. But JW's are one of the very few organizations who try their best to purge such ones from their membership. Speak to any JW out there and I bet they'll say that you have sided with the "world" out there - a world which includes pedophiles, homosexuals, fornicators, liars, thieves, drunkards, etc. etc. Maybe its time to re-evaluate things and consider which side you're really on? /RON

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 01:29:54
Comments
Actually, what I read on the front page was: 23,720 Someone once said there are three kinds of lies: Lies, damn lies, and statistics. I know enough about JW's to know that this figure is quite fictional. Sling enough mud and maybe some of it will stick? What the people on this site are doing is what a JW might call "doing the devils work" The whole object of this site is to turn people against JW's. Sure, have this discussion all you want (2 witnesses biblical?? JW a breading ground for pedo's???) but at least fight with the truth and not these damned lies or grossly exaggerated numbers gained from unreliable sources. /RON

Remote User:

Date:
12 Sep 2002
Time:
03:53:44
Comments
Ron, I must say you have really helped open our eyes here, your comment that our purpose for this site is to turn people against the organization, as a sexual abuse survivor, and you obviously speaking from the heart of an active Jehovah's Witness help us to know just how callus, hard hearted, stubborn, egotistical, self seeking, self gratifying, narrow minded, and yes abusive the organization really is, I was beginning to come to terms with my issues and have a warming heart towards the organization because of some of the healing I was able to do hear, thanks to Bill Bowen and this site, I even went as far as to stick my nose inside of a Kingdom Hall last week and was warmly greeted thinking maybe things have changed, maybe it will be alright now, but thanks to your abuse of the Lambs here, Who are only here to heal themselves so they can move on with there lives, I cannot, I see you will not even give an ounce of compassion when it is needed, gooday Ron...NP

Remote User:

Date:
12 Sep 2002
Time:
09:20:53
Comments
Dear Ron, Your closed minded, ignorant remarks about child abuse show that you have not researched your subject. By the way, are you one of those people who don't believe the Holocaust occurred because you didn't witness it? Or the moon landings were a fraud because you were not there to see it? Your remarks are hurtful and serve no useful purpose in this forum except to cause pain to people who are trying to deal with some serious issues in their lives. Also, if you are one of Jehovah's Witnesses "in good standing" in the congregation, haven't you considered that you are sinning by merely entering this site? You should turn yourself into the elders immediately so that they can "readjust your thinking." If we never hear from you again we will assume the readjustment was successful. Sincerely, Nina Scott

Remote User:

Date:
12 Sep 2002
Time:
10:38:38
Comments
Well, looks like America and the world actually cares more about the possibility of war and remembering the events of 9/11 than silent lambs. Silent who? Most people, in fact 99.5% of america and the rest of the world are saying that they care more about their future than the evil threat of JW's. As the next few months pass and all media attention is focused on more significant world events, think about your cause. Think about the more important things in life. Think about how Bible prophesy is being fulfilled before our very eyes. If you have the sense enough to open your eyes as you say JW's should, then maybe the frustration of seeing your movement grind to a halt in the light of other worthy media attention will not be as painful. Keep posting the little short stories in those pulitzer prize winning papers because in the next few weeks and months they are going to lessen in frequency and mean nothing to the real world. It has already been determined that there are flaws in human nature that make even JW's do less than prudent things from time to time. I think the world in general realizes this and could care less. Your cause will continue to only attract a certain type of complainer and harbector of resentment that represent the minority. Enjoy your Dateline, Paranoia, (or was that Panorama?) and Connie Chang, because my friends it will be the last! <TROLLMAN> RJ

---

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 12:30:28
Comments
Thank you for posting, RJ, because it really shows to the world the attitude of Jehovah's Witnesses, i.e.; we couldn't care less about the children or about the victims and we don't even care to solve problems that are in our grasp. (Yet we will continue to advise "worldly people" to leave their former religions for the same reason.) We are content to make fun of suffering rather than help, mock the New's shows that broadcast the truth and even deride Asian surnames if it serves our purpose. JW's motto is: We ridicule the victims. GO WITNESSES!!!!!

---

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 12:43:42
Comments
NP~ is there anything any of us can do to help you beside letting you know that we are hear to listen? I'm sorry for what has happened to you. I want you to know that I care about you and, I do believe you.-Jayson

---

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 12:52:24
Comments
Remember a TROLL is a type of bully. He writes brutal vile remarks with the sole intention of getting a response from us. As a bully he is just looking for attention. He is trying to make himself feel more important and when he makes fun of someone else, it makes him feel big and powerful. Bullies come from families who have problems at home. TROLLS HAVE PSYCHOLOGICAL PROBLEMS and responding to them in a kind matter or any matter does not work. THEY DO NOT VIEW THE PEOPLE THAT READ THEIR COMMENTS AS HUMAN BEINGS. It is just a computer game to them. Remember our motto: Ignore the troll and support the victims.

---

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 12:55:37
Comments
RJ, TROLLMAN, RON, Whatever the name is you're trying to hide behind to give yourself a larger voice than what you have, is this another 1975 prediction, I remember feeling that way, that the world was going to end every time there was a situation were American Troops were involved, is this the way your feeling, were did you get these feelings from, think about it, if this turns out to be just another day in politics don't blame me for your feelings of fear, remember that your just another subject of mind control, free yourself from this abuse Ron, come heal with us, we will hold your hand and show you true love, thanks for posting here and feel free to come back, we will never turn our backs on you here, Love to all...NP

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 12:58:45
Comments
To the above nameless poster. Thanks for also showing the world that you can interpret anything the way you want to interpret it. Nowhere in my post did I say that I, JW's or the world in general cares less about abuse issues. I said the world cares less about you guys trying to pin abuse and abuse issues solely on JW's. They recognize that JW's are imperfect people and could care less about your trying to demonize them. Frankly most people are smart enough to recognize the inherent imperfection within any organization and care more about the quality of their neighbors and the people as a whole. Whether or not you want to recognize it MOST people know JW's and attribute them as good people. That is why your movement has no impact on the majority of Americans and the world. As I stated, there are other important issues not limited to abuse such as the state of world affairs that people are concerned about. People are concerned about any child molester in any religion but people aren't concerned that Silentlambs says JW's are child molesters because they are smarter than that. They live next to us and know better. Give them a little credit.
Now no-name interpret that through your rose colored glasses and continue to show the world (or at least the 20 or so regular posters in here) that the Silentlambs have another agenda that has absolutely nothing to do with protecting innocent children but rather the demonization of JW's. RJ (I will no longer be referring to myself as TROLLMAN because you are the trolls!) RJ

Remote User:

Date: 12 Sep 2002
Time: 14:05:55
Comments
Mr or MRS NP. I say to you the same as I said to the nameless poster who interpreted what he wanted to in my post:
"quit looking at my posts through the same rose colored glasses." Nowhere did I say anything about the end of the world. Nowhere did I mention a date. I simply said the world is looking on since 9/11 with a different perspective.
People are concerned about their futures. Bible prophecy concerning the last days IS being fulfilled! To say anything less would be foolish. Jesus said "to keep on the watch" That is what I am doing. I do not know when it is coming but I am not going to sit around and latch on to the Silentlambs cause of making JW's look bad just to pass the time and settle old scores upon my bruised ego! Some however are content with pushing things off into the distant future. This is the only thing that gives them a little peace of mind, and free reign to do and practice what they want. This is best done by ignoring the facts. We have been accused of ignoring abuse and turning a blind eyes to the problems. Well, you NP and others choose to "ignore" what you want and focus on what you wish as well. That is obvious by your selective interpretation of posts that are contrary to your views. Its easier when I make legitimate points to be branded a "troll" than respond. That's because no one chooses to respond to the facts. To keep from responding others say
"lets ignore the troll". EASY WAY OUT! We are blasphemed because of shunning but it's OK for you. We are scorned for sincerely believing in something, but you can promote your movement and its OK. You say our interpretation of the scriptures are wrong, but you can interpret a persons posts and its right. What makes us any different then? If I am a hypocrite SO ARE YOU!!! Interpret that any way you would like! P.S. By the way I am still waiting for someone to deny that the world in general respects JW's and know better than to believe that we are evil because of some child molesters. Keep grasping for straws and I'll be here to respond! <RJ>

Remote User:
I'd like to know if Mr. Bowen has been Disfellowshipped or Disassociated for his efforts.

Remote User:

Dude, where have you been? Bill got the ax about a month or so ago. Did you expect anything different?

Remote User:

Ron, Again, I said it's between God and myself what I choose to do in the confines of my marriage. You oh so ignorant, self-absorbed idiot can't even follow normal logic. Oh supreme one the number are from files the GB kept so the number is accurate, again before you get foot in mouth disease again. READ the information SLM

Remote User:

Ron, In response to you ignorance..................... There... Peace Sheila

Remote User:

Ron I believe facts speak louder than words, I myself can only speak for myself 1) I believe the GB is involved in a cover up that has brought great harm to children and adult children with there lame in house procedures. This I have witnessed with my own eyes, I did not read it somewhere. 2) This does not mean that everything they do is wrong but when an organization that claims to help people has a policy (an easy thing to change) that is hurting people, Why not turn it over to the proper authorities. It's like Barbara Anderson said, If your house is on fire do you call the Elders or the Fire Dept. If your House is robbed you call the police. And if your child is molested you call the you fill in the blank. It's that simple. However other issues occasionally pop up here so bring it on...NP
Newsday.com Sept 12, 2002 ........... Group alleging Jehovah's Witnesses abuse plans protest ..........

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) -- A group that claims child molestation is widespread among Jehovah's Witnesses is planning protests Sept. 27 at the denomination's world headquarters in New York City and elsewhere. Silentlambs, a victim support group based in Benton, Ky., is organizing the rallies, including one in New York's Brooklyn borough. The Witnesses recently "disfellowshipped," or excommunicated, Silentlambs co-founder William H. Bowen, who is a former elder. Bowen alleges that the Witnesses keep child molesting incidents secret, won't let victims warn other members about abusers in their congregations, and cut off and shun those who speak out about the problem. J.R. Brown, spokesman at Witnesses headquarters, declined comment. Denominational leaders insist they comply with state laws requiring them to report abuse claims and allow members to report fellow members to police.

Stevenson said. And he made note of the fact that Momm himself, fearful that Cairns and Brown had no plans to report the abuse, did not go to the authorities. "You yourself were concerned about the risks of potential prosecution for not reporting, were you not?" Stevenson asked. "Yes," Momm said. "And you yourself did not report it to the Children's Aid Society?" Stevenson continued. "No, and I regret it to this day," came the reply. John Saunders, at the time a researcher at the Watchtower's Canadian headquarters in Georgetown, Ont., told court he recommended in a memo that in cases of sexual abuse, the victim and abuser should not be made to confront each other. "I included a note suggesting elders not force victims of abuse to face their abusers, since these kinds of confrontations are potentially psychologically dangerous," Saunders testified. The recommendation was not included in a July 1988 directive from the Georgetown office advising elders to follow provincial law and notify authorities immediately in cases of sexual abuse. While victims of sexual abuse normally aren't identified in public, Boer has agreed to allow her name to be publicized as part of her effort to promote what she alleges is widespread abuse within the confines of the church's congregations. As part of their beliefs in a strict interpretation of Bible teachings, Jehovah's Witnesses reject anything political or "worldly" that distracts from their focus on Christ and the second coming, which they consider imminent. Birthdays, secular holidays and Christmas are not celebrated; children are often required to leave class during the Lord's Prayer and the national anthem. http://ca.news.yahoo.com/020912/6/owki.html http://www.canoe.ca/NationalTicker/CANOE-wire.Jehovah-Lawsuit.html

Remote User:

Date:
12 Sep 2002
Time:
21:57:53
Comments
Ghost: So an elder's son abused you, and you have no beef with the Society over the whole deal? I swear I mean this sincerely: I am deeply sorry for you. The elders cannot be held responsible? People are imperfect? That is a horrible load of over-indoctrination you got there. I am willing to accept that you want to carry a scar for the sake of the society and congregational accord. But how do you feel when you think of the other children that this elder's son got a hold of? How many of them could produce another witness? Did he get off scott free by denying it? Lets put he pervert's guilt aside for a moment and think about the opportunity You, Your Family, the Elder - ALL - had to protect the next child in line for the special elder's son's treatment - the opportunity you each had to stop it. You didn't. You wouldn't. You would dare quote some societal stricture as to how you need to go 'Stick to your guns.' YOU state the there is "No Leeway" for loose conduct, etc. Yet, you get molested, and you and your whole family decide that you shouldn't do anything - even to protect other vulnerable children. Sounds to me like simply 'denying' is a pretty good door to a boat load of leeway. YOU stated that a JW that commits a sin and doesn't repent gets what's coming. What does he get, another 10-year-old? You belong to a religion that has taught such beliefs! These are mostly your words. It's nicer here on the outside. - Buster

Remote User:

Date:
12 Sep 2002
Time:
22:18:57
Comments
Buster, I don't know what happened in Ghost's case, but I can tell you what happened in our Plano TX congregation. Brother raped little girl, her family was pressured not to press charges as they wouldn't want to bring reproach on Jehovah's name. I never understood how a victim could bring reproach but on with the story. So the Pedophile moved to Greenville TX, don't know how many other little JW's he raped. He's now in prison for raping the little girl next door. Guess the witnesses did the right thing, huh?
12 Sep 2002
Time:
23:52:59
Comments
If what you mean is that the Guy moved to Texas and that poor little girl just happened to be the next in line, yes that is exactly what I am talking about. The witnesses with their approach to investigating and reporting child abuse propagate the crime. One facet of the argument that I am more and more stunned by is the JW's complete lack of concern for the perpetrator's effect on the population at large (outside of the 100-person world of a congregation). Even if they could handle the issue inside the congregation and protect their own children, that still doesn't excuse them from the harm caused to the worldly children. Odd as this may sound to some, guilt also falls on victims and families of victims that accept the indoctrination that they need to get along to go along and not report the crime. 'Ghost' claims to be a victim. Ok, if he/she wants to carry a cross (wait, torture stake) to protect the good name of the society, fine with me. But the negligence in letting the crime slide because the perpetrator denied it simply ensured that the next children in line got theirs too. Don't we all agree with the absurdity of this stance? - c'mon, even you Witnesses out there. - Buster

Remote User:
Date:
12 Sep 2002
Time:
23:55:24
Comments
Hey, anonymous poster on 12 Sep 2002 22:18:57 who wrote "I don't know what happened in Ghost's case, but I can tell you what happened in our Plano TX congregation. Brother raped little girl, her family was pressured not to press charges as they wouldn't want to bring reproach on Jehovah's name. I never understood how a victim could bring reproach but on with the story. So the Pedophile moved to Greenville TX, don't know how many other little JW's he raped. He's now in prison for raping the little girl next door". We need some facts. Who is the brother, and what prison is he in? You must know his name since he was in your congregation. And he must either be in prison serving his time, or if he was released you must know how much time he did. Remember not to slander anyone. You guys need to start corroborating your stories. Who is the family that was pressured into not pressing charges. What is their name. And what is your name if these allegations are true, so we can start believing you.

Remote User:
Date:
13 Sep 2002
Time:
02:28:20
Comments
Many thanks, TROLLMAN (RJ), you made a lot of sense in your last 2 comments. I was bothered by this site because I know JW's and I don't like the way the truth is being twisted here. I guess this is only a small drop in the ocean in the greater scale of things, the public in general do not give a damn. And neither should I. Let these deluded people have their little party. Nobody's going to listen to them anyhow. /RON (OUT)

Remote User:
Date:
13 Sep 2002
Time:
08:42:56
Comments
When the GB changes their policy to the liking of the equally almighty Silentlambs then you can tell the world how JW's change their policy all the time. You guys are pushing for a change, a change that you say will be better. Guess what my friends? The changes the society has made over the years have also been for the better. At least we have the sense enough to recognize that certain things are unscriptural and then make a separation from it instead of assimilating it as so many others do. What's so wrong with learning the pagan origins of certain holidays and ceasing to celebrate them? What's wrong with learning the ignorance of a certain way such as thinking that one's race is inferior to another and growing out of it? Race issues divide the world today but JW's are made up of all races. What's wrong with learning that a certain practice such as smoking and doing drugs can be harmful to our health but quitting? What's wrong with learning that a doctrine such as hellfire is unscriptural and leaving off such teachings? Early on as all you JW history buffs know, these things were practiced but when we learned better of something we changed. How does religion change today? By ordaining homosexuals, by accepting or looking over premarital sex, by blessing the wars the world is involved in. Wow those are sure changes for the good! JW's are ridiculed for change, yet you guys are pushing for a change in our policy. Is change for the good OK now simply because it suits your taste? Answer that please or go ahead and prove to all the onlookers my point. It is evident that when you don't want an argument brought to the fore you choose to "selectively ignore" it. When something suits your taste then you attack what you want. <TO ALL VISITING THIS SITE GO BACK THROUGH MY PREVIOUS POSTS, SPECIFICALLY THE LAST 2 DAYS AND SEE HOW NO ONE ON THIS SITE HAS HAD A LEGITIMATE COME BACK TO ANY OF MY ARGUMENTS. THIS IS EVIDENT BECAUSE THERE HAVE BEEN NO RESPONSES. THEY TRY TO GET AROUND SOMETHING THEY CAN'T DEFEND BY SAYING "LETS SHUN HIM" OR BY CALLING YOU A "TROLL" AND OFFERING PULITZER PRIZE WINNING DEFINITIONS OF A "TROLL" BUT THIS PROVES MY POINT! WE ARE CALLED UNREASONABLE BUT THEY TOO WILL NOT LISTEN TO REASON AND AT LEAST ADMIT THE VALIDITY OF ANY ONE POINT SIMPLY BECAUSE THEY ARE FILLED WITH HATRED AND BENT ON BRINGING DOWN ALL JW'S. <RJ>

Remote User:

Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 09:42:43
Comments
Oh when the saints, oh when the saints, oh when the the come marching in, then is when you, will feel Gods Power, Oh when the saints come marching in...Just a little tune that has been going thru my head this morning, Seems a certain agitator is still hanging around for no apparent reason, please try to ignore his Abuse, sometimes they find it fun to venture outside of there realm and inflict pain on the survivors in there home...Love to all NP

Remote User:

Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 10:05:25
Comments
Keep proving my point NP to all the visitors who pop in, see your arrogance and never come back again....RJ

Remote User:

Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 10:17:43
Comments
Were you aware that the Watchtower has a statute of limitations on SIN/CRIME? . . . We now have another secret rule revealed: Get away with sin/crime for three years and you're free and clear. While the congregation was sitting there studying the 1997 Watchtower on "Known Molesters" we did not know that the 1972 Kingdom Ministry superceded the information. There is a big gap between what we are taught and what the organization does. And this relates to WTS feeling of superiority . .. http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36532&site=3

Remote User:
Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 10:25:04
Comments
RJ: No news agency, etc, no one reveals the victim’s name. But yes, I do know it. The abusers name is public record and he is still in prison. If you were in the area check the Tx Public Safety website. I don't believe the link should be posted here. Oh, and don't worry I do reveal this info to the right people.

Remote User:
Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 14:51:04
Comments
Hi, there was an article reprinted from Canadian Press of Toronto in yesterday's Chronicle Herald in Halifax Nova Scotia on my initiation about Vicki Boer. Nice wouldn't you say?RMK

Remote User:
Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 14:59:47
Comments
NP, What a great song and attitude. hang in there!!! Love your posts Sheila M

Remote User:
Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 15:07:33
Comments
Ron/RJ, Hint if you want to pretend to be more than one person posting. At least change the context or content of what you say, you use the same verbiage and it's so apparent they are all you. Just a hint if you want to be a good troll come on...learn the right way to do it. Just some friendly advice Sheila

Remote User:
Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time:
Remote User:

Date:
13 Sep 2002
Time:
16:00:47
Comments
He is still around? (RJ) Are all JW's so resilient in stupidity? Most for sure. RJ is more. He is a professional demagoque. Good to ignore him. RMK

Remote User:

Date:
13 Sep 2002
Time:
18:08:26
Comments
TORONTO SUN Friday, September 13, 2002 Jehovah's Witnesses in coverup: Ex-elder . . . By IAN MCDUGALL, . . . A former elder of a Jehovah's Witness congregation told court yesterday the church and defendants in a $700,000 lawsuit were trying to protect a sex abuser and keep the case hushed up. (Full story)

Remote User:

Date:
13 Sep 2002
Time:
18:32:19
Comments
To the Plano Texas poster...I would love to hear from you personally. I am in the Dallas area, have been for many years. I would like to hear more about this case, if you would email me directly at Linthoman@hotmail.com I attended the Dallas "White Rock and Central and Garland" halls, until '95. My name is Linda Thoman, in case you may know my family in the Dallas area.

Remote User:

Date:
13 Sep 2002
RJ: You're wrong. The GB changes the rules when it suits them, and won't when it doesn't. It has very little to do with 'new light' or some other pseudo-inspired method of deciding what today's rules ought to be. No, there is nothing wrong with not celebrating holidays. The problem is with a man-made organization ordering people that God told them to instruct everyone to not celebrate holidays - and that celebrating those holidays is rejecting God's will. There is nothing wrong with avoiding tobacco and drugs. The problem arises when a group of old, unemployed, undereducated, never-raised-a-family, self-taught laymen in New York decide that somehow God told them that they need to kick out everyone that they hear has a cigar during a round of golf. The problem is the control the Society exerts on people, even to the extent of getting them to tolerate child abuse in their ranks. The problem is when a group of men somehow convince those around them that they speak for God and that all who hear must believe and obey all they are taught - without question, and without dissent. Finally, once that same group of self-righteous false prophets comes across a reasonable and effective dissent, they could admit a mistake or falsehood. But instead they attack the messenger and avoid the topic. I cite the 1914 prophecies before 1914, the interpretations of 1914 after 1914, the purge of 1980, the deleting and disfellowshipping of those that pursue child abuse charges against the admonishment of the Society. This is your organization, and the defense is untenable. - Buster

Remote User:

Date: 13 Sep 2002
Time: 20:32:34
Comments
rj ron was right your posts make so much sense?????HA HA ha . i was going to answer you. but then i remembered you never answered one of my direct questions... so i'll just let you and all your alias's make you look like a fool on the world wide web...why does the wt always need revolving, back and forth, and new light that is really old light. ????when you answer some of the direct questions i asked you. we can converse..till then you are just a babbling...doy .....why don't you talk about the vicki boer case. and how current elders are testifying in court for her. how long till the wt shows them the door. i say one month after the case is finished???? time will tell if these jw's have freedom of speach....joh
THE "INCEST EXEMPTION": "The "incest exception" is the special opportunity the law gives to certain sex offenders in most states. It allows offenders related to the victim by blood or marriage to be charged with "incest," instead of "child sexual abuse" or "rape of a child." This "charge bargaining" is a covert form of "plea bargaining," and it can allow predators who grow their own victims to escape prison. This clause exists to 'help' everyone but the victim. The "incest exception" flourishes because prosecutors are elected on the basis of their conviction rates, without regard to the actual sentences handed out to criminals. Worse yet, the intrafamilial abuser escapes prison time and reenters the community. Victims who are considering charging their perpetrators must educate themselves for this harsh reality: the benefits of asserting oneself don't necessarily depend on happy outcomes, legal or otherwise. : From:

Interview with Donald D'Haene, author of Father's Touch --- <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36540&page=1&site=3#493807>

New Haven Register . . .Protests planned against Witnesses . . . September 14, 2002 . . . LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)— A group that claims child molestation is widespread among Jehovah's Witnesses is planning protests Sept. 27 at the denomination's world headquarters in New York City and elsewhere. (FULL STORY)http://www.zwire.com/site/news.cfm?newsid=5368374&BRD=1281&PAG=461&dept_id=7574&rfi=6

MARCH in TUCSON: " I am am not able to go to NY for the march on the 27th, so I am following Bill's suggestion on having a march in the city I live in. Whoever else can't go to NY feel free to come to Tucson if this is closer for you. We are going to have the march in Tucson on either the 27th or perhaps the 28th. If others are interested in this I will give a definite date by the 21st. Take care." See this thread for this person's address: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36608&page=1&site=3

To all: It sickens me that the GB new look at disfellowshipping is just bent on destroying families. Funny how the Bible names gross offenses as reason not to associate. Most of the ones I know that were disfellowshipped were for NONE of those reasons but the ones I knew that were "repentant" were allowed further association. Funny to the repent ones were hmmm always men and the others were women or young teens. Can you say misogynistic.. To have a bunch of men that do not know the circumstances to have the audacity to tell a family that can not treat their family member the same as before the disfellowshipping. How truly sad. I am glad I chose to leave them, they reinforce that decision each time they put their foot in their mouth Sheila M

Remote User:
Date: 14 Sep 2002
Time: 18:40:10
Comments
Alright, here's the scoop, I spent some time sifting through the mountain of information on this WTBTS Child Abuse Issue, Here is what I came up with, It seems we have already won, Thanks due mainly to Brother Bill Bowen and the pressure he has put on the Society, I believe he is close to having a new Legislation if you will, or position on the reporting of Child Abuse that is being implemented right before our eyes. I have read the letter sent by the GB to all Brothers in the United Kingdom outlining to them the procedure they are now to follow for reporting accusations of Child Abuse which many of us are aware of (report all allegations to the proper authorities) Very Good Hurray, But I wasn't satisfied, Why just a letter to the U.K. Were they sidestepping the rest of the worldwide organization, well getting to my point I ended my search at Jehovahs-Witness.com found J.R.Brown and read the letters, scrolled down to a letter dated Aug 7 and read a letter to be released immediately, the letter shows 180 degree turn in my opinion, I suggest we all read it for ourselves, I also believe this will be the basic letter read to to Sept 27th March and feel good about it. Go find it yourself, I had to. Love to all...NP

Remote User:
Date: 14 Sep 2002
Time: 21:21:33
Comments
NP....honestly that message is just a little too cryptic. Don't you think you should provide a link? And don't you mean JW-Media.org when referring to the UK Letter. And do I think the change is enough? NO because there is no clause about the victims...Compare the Catholics...Dioceses/eparchies will reach out to victims/survivors and their families and demonstrate a sincere commitment to their spiritual and emotional well-being. The first obligation of the Church with regard to the victims is for healing and reconciliation. Where such outreach is not already in place and operative, each diocese/eparchy is to develop an outreach to every person who has been the victim of sexual abuse* as a minor by anyone acting in the name of the Church, whether the abuse was recent or occurred many years in the past. This outreach will include provision of counseling, spiritual assistance, support groups, and other social services agreed upon by the victim and the diocese/eparchy. ... http://www.usccb.org/bishops/charter.htm . . .nancy naranjo

Remote User:
Date: 14 Sep 2002
Time: 21:29:15
Comments
JW HISTORY (Discussion on Watchtower errors) Sep 14, 2002 21:59

-------------------- JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES Ed Decker Lecture notes I want to deal with the very important subject of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society headquartered in Brooklyn, New York. They are more commonly referred to as The Jehovah's Witnesses. Most of you are probably familiar with the Watchtower through their two major magazines that seem to be at every Laundromat in the world and also come to us by the way of those infamous door to door visitors The Watchtower Organization is best known by their mass publications. In fact, they are the largest publishers in the free world. In one recent year, they published over 44 million books, over 550 million magazines of the Watchtower Magazine which they publish [over 12 million copies every two weeks] in 103 languages of the world. They also publish over 10 million copies of the Awake Magazine in about 53 languages every two weeks. They are obviously having a great influence around the world through such mass distribution of their Magazines and books. No one can doubt their fiery zeal. They have mapped out the entire United States, so that every home, every dwelling place, will be contacted at least once or twice a year by a team of their workers. They claimed recently that in one year, over 3,200,000 members spent over 700,000,000 hours of door to door witnessing for the Watchtower. And out of that sheer grueling persistence they have been able to harvest many people who have not been grounded in God's Word and were easily led astray by this counterfeit of true Christianity The Watchtower Society was begun by a man named Charles T. Russell who was the founding father of The Jehovah's Witnesses. He was raised in a Congregational Church in Pennsylvania. As he grew up, Russell said there were certain things which he did not like in the Bible. He said he did not like the teaching of hell or eternal judgment, and the teaching of the Trinity. He said it wasn't rational, he could not understand it. Russell began to develop his own theology which he began to publish in a series of volumes called Study in Scripture. Later, in 1879, he began to publish the Watchtower Magazine In 1884, he incorporated the organization in Pennsylvania, as the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society and in 1909, Russell moved its Headquarters to in Brooklyn, New York, where they have remained to this day. Russell is the founding father of the theological errors of the Watchtower. Early in his ministry, he calculated it out and determined that Jesus Christ was going to return visibly to this earth and for many years he prophesied that Christ was going to return in 1874. When Christ did not show up he made his calculations and for many more years prophesied Christ's return in the year 1914. 1914 came and went and again, Jesus Christ failed to show up. Russell was not to be disheartened. He redefined the second coming of Jesus Christ and said that Jesus Christ had returned invisibly as an invisible spirit, a ghost, in 1914 to help set up his organization. He died in 1916 having proven to be a false prophet. The Watchtower Organization was then taken over in 1917 by a very dynamic leader, a man named Joseph Franklin Rutherford. It was under Rutherford's leadership that the Watchtower was built into that great theocratic giant we know today. If you have ever talked at length with a member of the Watchtower you know that they claim to be the theocratic Kingdom of God on earth. What they mean by that is a theocracy is a government ruled by God. Jehovah's Witnesses believe that they are god's government on earth, that all other governments are satanic, that they alone are the true government of god. This is why a Jehovah's Witness will never salute the flag, why they will never say the Pledge of Allegiance, and why they will never serve in the armed forces of any nation, because they believe all governments are satanic, except the true government of god, headquartered in Brooklyn, New York. As you will see, the Jehovah's Witnesses isolate themselves in other ways from their neighbors. They don't celebrate Christmas because they deny the incarnation of Jesus Christ. And they don't celebrate Easter because they deny the Bodily Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It was also under Rutherford's leadership, in 1931, that they changed their name to The Jehovah's Witnesses. He said they were doing this to vindicate the True name of Jehovah, claiming that Jesus Christ was not God, that the Holy Spirit was not God, and that Jehovah alone was God. We have no problem with the term, Jehovah. It is simply an Old Testament identification for God. Actually, the Jews never pronounce the name of God and while writing in Hebrew, you did not use vowels, only consonants, The Jews spelled it, Yhwh, the name of God. Most likely it would have been pronounced Yahweh, but it has been anglicized as Jehovah, simply referring to the Old Testament identification for God. Rutherford was also famous for his many prophecies. In fact, he prophesied that the patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were going to return visibly to this earth to help promote the Kingdom of God. He was so sure of this that he built a large palatial mansion in San Diego, California, for Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to live in when he said they were going to return sometime before 1929. 1929 came and went and Abraham, Isaac and Jacob never showed up. That's when Rutherford moved into the mansion himself and lived there until he died in 1942 The Organization was then taken over in 1942 by a man named Nathan H. Knorr. It was under Knorr's leadership that they developed their strong missionary outreach all over the world. It was also under his leadership that they did their own translation of the Bible, which they call "The New World Translation." The Jehovah's Witnesses claim that seven Greek scholars in the Watchtower did this translation. It becomes quite obvious to anyone who knows Greek or Hebrew that there are gross errors in this translation. In an attempt to get more data on the translation, Ron wrote the headquarters in Brooklyn, asking them for the names of their scholars, in order to verify their credentials. He received a most interesting letter back from them. It said, "We do not make known the names of our scholars because we want to maintain their humility." We have since found out who the seven were. It turns out that not one of the seven had ever studied Greek in his life, and wouldn't know an alpha from beta if it bit him. In fact, only three of the seven had even finished high school. Of those three only one went on to College. His name was Fredrick Franz, the same man who is now the President of the Jehovah's Witnesses.. He dropped out He dropped out of College after the first semester in 1913 because Russell told him Christ was returning in 1914. The New World Translation is a farce, It was under Rutherford's leadership that the Watchtower was built into that great theocratic giant we know today. If you have ever talked at length with a member of the Watchtower you know that they claim to be the theocratic Kingdom of God on earth. What they mean by that is a theocracy is a government ruled by God. Jehovah's Witnesses believe that they are god's government on earth, that all other governments are satanic, that they alone are the true government of god. This is why a Jehovah's Witness will never salute the flag, why they will never say the Pledge of Allegiance, and why they will never serve in the armed forces of any nation, because they believe all governments are satanic, except the true government of god, headquartered in Brooklyn, New York. As you will see, the Jehovah's Witnesses isolate themselves in other ways from their neighbors. They don't celebrate Christmas because they deny the incarnation of Jesus Christ. And they don't celebrate Easter because they deny the Bodily Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It was also under Rutherford's leadership, in 1931, that they changed their name to The Jehovah's Witnesses. He said they were doing this to vindicate the True name of Jehovah, claiming that Jesus Christ was not God, that the Holy Spirit was not God, and that Jehovah alone was God. We have no problem with the term, Jehovah. It is simply an Old Testament identification for God. Actually, the Jews never pronounce the name of God and while writing in Hebrew, you did not use vowels, only consonants, The Jews spelled it, Yhwh, the name of God. Most likely it would have been pronounced Yahweh, but it has been anglicized as Jehovah, simply referring to the Old Testament identification for God. Rutherford was also famous for his many prophecies. In fact, he prophesied that the patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were going to return visibly to this earth to help promote the Kingdom of God. He was so sure of this that he built a large palatial mansion in San Diego, California, for Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to live in when he said they were going to return sometime before 1929. 1929 came and went and Abraham, Isaac and Jacob never showed up. That's when Rutherford moved into the mansion himself and lived there until he died in 1942 The Organization was then taken over in 1942 by a man named Nathan H. Knorr. It was under Knorr's leadership that they developed their strong missionary outreach all over the world. It was also under his leadership that they did their own translation of the Bible, which they call "The New World Translation." The Jehovah's Witnesses claim that seven Greek scholars in the Watchtower did this translation. It becomes quite obvious to anyone who knows Greek or Hebrew that there are gross errors in this translation. In an attempt to get more data on the translation, Ron wrote the headquarters in Brooklyn, asking them for the names of their scholars, in order to verify their credentials. He received a most interesting letter back from them. It said, "We do not make known the names of our scholars because we want to maintain their humility." We have since found out who the seven were. It turns out that not one of the seven had ever studied Greek in his life, and wouldn't know an alpha from beta if it bit him. In fact, only three of the seven had even finished high school. Of those three only one went on to College. His name was Fredrick Franz, the same man who is now the President of the Jehovah's Witnesses.. He dropped out He dropped out of College after the first semester in 1913 because Russell told him Christ was returning in 1914. The New World Translation is a farce, It was created as a conscious attempt to make the Bible appear to fit their preconceived theology. The new translation was just part of the problems waiting ahead for Nathan H. Knorr. You would have thought that he had learned a good lesson about false prophets from his predecessors. The man did withstand the urge for many years, but finally, in 1966 he could no longer resist and Nathan H. Knorr also began to prophesy through the Watchtower and Awake Magazines. His first major prophecy was that the year 1975 was going to be the end of the age and Armageddon was going to occur. Obviously 1975 has come and gone and Armageddon did not occur. It was just too big a lie to weave a new tale around. Many Jehovah's Witnesses understood what God had said, in Deut. 18:20-22, where He gave us the Biblical test for a Prophet. "But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death." You may say to yourselves, "How can we know when a message has not been spoken by the LORD?" If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the LORD does not take place or come true, that is a message the LORD has not spoken. That prophet has spoken presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him." (Deut. 18: 20 - 22 ) In 1975 through 1977, over two and a half million to three million Jehovah's Witnesses left the Watchtower, deeply disillusioned with the organization that claimed to be the voice of God on earth, but had proven again and again to be a false prophet. Knorr, also proven to be a false prophet, died in 1977. The organization is now run by a very aged gentleman named Frederick Franz whose been their leading theologian over the last 60 years. Yet, the Watchtower continues to grow, continues to prey upon the lost and continues to take advantage of the lost plight of man. It's a rare door that hasn't felt the knock of the Jehovah's Witnesses more than once and it's an even rarer Jehovah's Witness who has heard the gospel message at one of those doors from the resident Christian. The reason is simply that it is a far from simple task to witness to a Witness. It's easier to just close the door and avoid the difficult task of sorting through a maze of confusing doctrines.

--------------------

Let's try to make it a bit simpler. Five important facts to remember about the Jehovah's Witnesses and the Watchtower Organization. 1. They have accepted the Organization as the Prophet of God. 2. They have accepted the Organization as God's sole channel for His truth. 3. They believe that to reject the Organization is to reject God. 4. They believe that only the Organization can interpret the Bible; as individuals they are unable to do so. 5. They believe the Watchtower Magazine contains God's truth, directed by Him, through the Organization. What does the Organization and Watchtower Magazine teach that is in conflict with Orthodox Christianity? 1. That Jesus is a created being/a creature. 2. That Jesus is actually Michael the Archangel 3. That Jesus was not resurrected bodily, but as a spirit being. 4. That Jesus returned invisibly in 1914 (secretly to the Organization) 5. That Jesus was only a man when on earth, not the Word Become flesh. 6. That the Holy Spirit is only an active force, not the person of God. 7. That Hell is simply the grave. 8. That Heaven's doors is open to only 144,000. 9. That the majority of Witnesses must remain on earth. 10. That salvation is found only through the Organization. 11. That it must be maintained by energetic works for the Organization until the end when one may merit eternal life on a paradise earth. 12. That Satan is the author of the doctrine of the Trinity. 13. That Jesus cannot be given worship, but only honor as Jehovah's first creation. The Jehovah's Witnesses do not believe or teach some of the very basic tenets of Christian doctrine. They deny: 1. The Trinity. 2. The Omnipresence of God. 3. The Deity of Christ. 4. The dual nature of Christ. 5. The bodily resurrection of Christ. 6. The visible return of Christ. 7. The person of God the Holy Spirit. 8. The Promise of Heaven to all believers. 9. The necessity of the New Birth for all believers. 10. The Lord's Supper for all believers. (only for the 144,000). 11. The Eternal Security of the believer. 12. The conscious Eternal Punishment of the lost. The Bible Teaches the Truth... 1. That God exists in a Trinity of three eternal and coequal persons: Father: "To all in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ." (Romans 1:7), S Son: "Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28) Holy Spirit: "Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land? Didn't it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal? What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to men but to God." (Acts 5:3,4) "For there are three that testify." (1 John 5:7) 7. God, the Holy Spirit, is the third member of the Holy Trinity "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," (Matt. 28:19) "While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." (Acts 13:2). 4. Jesus Christ rose bodily from the grave "The Jews replied, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?" But the temple he had spoken of was his body." (John 2:20,21) "Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have." (Luke 24:39). 5. Jesus is visibly coming again to set up His Kingdom on earth "At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory." (Matt. 24:30) "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8) "Look, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and all the peoples of the earth will mourn because of him. So shall it be! Amen." (Rev. 1:7). 6. Salvation is in the person of Jesus Christ and comes through faith in Him. "They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved --you and your household."(Acts 16:31). 7. It's the work of God for man, not a work of man for God "But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior" (Titus 3:4-6). 8. Jesus was and should be worshiped "A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe." Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:26-28) "When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold and of incense and Bible and smiled. "Let's begin and you will see something very interesting develop here," he promised. Ron turned to any other Book in the Bible. And since they love it so much, you might as well use it with them. Ron brought out his say." Jehovah's Witnesses main denial and stumbling block is the doctrine of the deity of Jesus Christ. For that Bible" they responded. " Ron was warming to the task. He said, "That's good! Why don't we go to God's Word then His own nature?" Ron paused and looked at both men. "You do believe the Bible, don't you?" "Oh yes, we believe the Bible" they responded. " Ron was warming to the task. He said, "That's good! Why don't we go to God's Word then and see what God has to say about the trinity. Why don't you put away all your magazines and books, and I will put away all my lexicons, concordances and dictionaries. Why don't we just go to God's Word and see what God has to say." Jehovah's Witnesses main denial and stumbling block is the doctrine of the deity of Jesus Christ. For that reason, we in ministering to Jehovah's Witnesses, we need to deal with that specifically. There are many passages that show the clear teaching of the deity of Jesus Christ. Jehovah Witnesses love the book of Revelation more than any other Book in the Bible. And since they love it so much, you might as well use it with them. Ron brought out his Bible and smiled. "Let's begin and you will see something very interesting develop here," he promised. Ron turned to of myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route." (Matt. 2:10-12) "Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God." (Matt. 14:33) Witnessing to a Witness. We need to remember that anyone who denies the divinity of Jesus Christ and carries the heavy burden of a false, religious spirit is going to be going through a lot of highs and lows. True believers, empowered by the companionship of God, the Holy Spirit have a constant presence of the Lord about them that seems to act like a magnet at times. When a Watchtower member comes to your front door and you open it, what are they thinking about? What do they think when you talk about Christianity? First, it's impossible to offer them any hope of heaven. The Jehovah's Witnesses teach and believe that only 144,000 people are going to make it to heaven. They teach that only 144,000 people are going to make it to heaven and the odds are that the visitor at your door isn't one of them. This wonderful news came from Joseph Franklin Rutherford, the second President. After he became President in 1917, they were prophesying that Armageddon was right around the corner. And order to increase the membership, he began to tell his followers that only 144,000 people were going to make it to heaven. The door to door crews began to tell their prospects that they had better join the Watchtower before its too late because Armageddon is right around the corner and the ranks of the 144,000 were filling fast. For many years they preached this. However, in 1934 they ran into a terrible problem. In 1934, the Organization grew larger than 144,000 people and Armageddon had yet to occur. The Watchtower was in a quandary about what to do with all these extra people. Rutherford saved the day when another revelation from God came forth that said that everyone who became a Jehovah's Witness before 1934 would go to Heaven. Everyone who became a Jehovah's Witness after 1934 would stay here on earth and live in a new paradise. That is why today when you talk to most Jehovah's Witnesses they have absolutely no hope of ever going to heaven. They believe it because Rutherford told them so. That is so sad. Perhaps the most cultic doctrine of the Jehovah's Witnesses is their doctrine concerning Jesus Christ and the trinity. Let's look at their book, "Let God Be True". "The justice of God would not permit that Jesus as a ransom be more than a perfect man. And certainly not the supreme God almighty in the flesh. Some insist that Jesus, when on earth, was both God and man in completeness. This theory is wrong. The Holy Spirit is not a person and is therefore not one of the Gods of the Trinity." (page 87) That's another common mistake they make in defining the Trinity, they define it as three separate Gods. However, Christianity is not polytheism.) But going further on they say, "The Trinity doctrine was not conceived by Jesus or the early Christians. The plain truth is that this is another of Satan's attempts to keep the god fearing person from learning the truth of Jehovah and his son Christ Jesus. The obvious conclusion therefore is that Satan is the originator of the Trinity doctrine." (Ibid., page 92) Then concerning his death and resurrection they say, "He was put to death a man, but was raised from the dead a spirit being. The man Jesus is dead, forever dead." (page 122), So King Christ Jesus was put to death in the flesh and was resurrected an invisible spirit creature." How do you deal with someone who comes to your front door and brings this theology? How do you share your faith with them? Recently, a pair of Jehovah's Witnesses knocked on Ron Carlson's door. He is my coauthor in our book, Fast Facts on False Teachings. After the usual greetings, Ron invited them in on the condition that they would answer a few of his questions regarding the Jehovah's Witnesses. They said they would be glad to answer any questions that he may have. They were sitting across the kitchen table from Ron when he said, "You know, I guess I really only have one question. Throughout your literature, you continually say that the Trinity is not taught in Scripture." "That's right," the elder of the two responded with a warm smile. "Nowhere in the Bible will you find the word Trinity." But Ron countered, "The Trinity is taught throughout God's Word." "Sorry, nowhere in the Bible will you find the word Trinity." He replied. Ron answered, "Well you won't find the word Trinity. That's a Latin term. It only means three in the unity of one. It's simply a term used to describe what God has revealed to us. You use the term theocratic kingdom more than any other term in your literature. Can you show me one place in the Bible where theocratic kingdom is found? It's not in there." "I'll tell you something," Ron continued, "If you stop using the term theocratic kingdom, I'll stop using the term trinity." The elder Witness paused before he answered. "But the Trinity is not rational, you can't understand it." "Well sir," Ron answered, "who told you that because you could not understand something it's not a reality? Let me ask you a question. Do you fully understand Einstein's formulation? The basis of his theory of relativity, the motion of all bodies in a circular universe moving relative to each other? Which he later developed into the quantum theory of light which was the foundation stone for his unified field theory? Do you fully understand that?" They look warily and silently at Ron. He said, "If you tell a physics professor at the University you went off outside this building right now that you would have immediate, scientific verification of it, whether or not you ever understand it." They remained silent. Ron continued, "The question is not what our three pound brain can understand. The question is what has God from His infinite eternal perspective has chosen to reveal to us concerning His own nature?" Ron paused and looked at both men. "You do believe the Bible, don't you?" "Yes, we believe the Bible" they responded. " Ron was warming to the task. He said, "That's good! Why don't we go to God's Word then and see what God has to say about the trinity. Why don't you put away all your magazines and books, and I will put away all my lexicons, concordances and dictionaries. Why don't we just go to God's Word and see what God has to say." Jehovah's Witnesses main denial and stumbling block is the doctrine of the deity of Jesus Christ. For that reason, we in ministering to Jehovah's Witnesses, we need to deal with that specifically. There are many passages that show the clear teaching of the deity of Jesus Christ. Jehovah Witnesses love the book of Revelation more than any other Book in the Bible. And since they love it so much, you might as well use it with them. Ron brought out his Bible and smiled. "Let's begin and you will see something very interesting develop here," he promised. Ron turned to Lord, we love you, Lord. "Father, Son and Holy Spirit." in us and gives us new life. To God be the honor and glory and praise. We worship Him alone and we thank you, infinite payment, the eternal lamb of God once for all time. We thank the Lord for the Holy Spirit, who comes and lives
We thank God for Jesus Christ, who took our sin and nailed it to the cross and covered it with His shed blood as the says that they are destroyed. What an ignoble end for a misled people who only seek to serve God. What a tragedy.
who guide this people mislead them, and those who are guided are led astray." (Isa. 9:16) The King James Version for the lost members of the Jehovah's Witnesses, people ensnared by lying leaders. The Word of God says: "Those leave them? The Apostle, Paul helps clarify this point for us. "Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ see, the Jehovah's witnesses can deal with the humanity of Christ, but will not submit to His divinity. Where does that say, they never returned. Jesus Christ was one hundred percent God and he was one hundred percent man. You But Jesus died." Ron asked, "Well, if Jesus is Jehovah God, that would change everything else in the Bible. everything else we believe about him." You know, that's what I thought too," Ron answered. The
"Why not," Ron asked? "Well, if Jesus is Jehovah God, then I can't believe he died on a cross." Ron asked, "Well, if Jesus is Jehovah God, then I can't believe he died on a cross." Ron asked, "Well, if Jesus is Jehovah God, that would change everything else in the Bible. everything else we believe about him." You know, that's what I thought too," Ron answered. The "Well, no. He can't be." Why not," Ron asked? "Well, if Jesus is Jehovah God, then I can't believe he died on a cross." Ron asked, "Well, if Jesus is Jehovah God, that would change everything else in the Bible. everything else we believe about him." You know, that's what I thought too," Ron answered. The
"We have to leave now." Ron said, "Sir, could you find out for me when Jehovah died? Would you go back to your Kingdom Hall and ask your overseer when did Jehovah die? When you get the answer could you bring your Watchtower leaders back to my house so they could tell me? I would really appreciate that." Needless to say, they never returned. Jesus Christ was one hundred percent God and he was one hundred percent man. You see, the Jehovah's witnesses can deal with the humanity of Christ, but will not submit to His divinity. Where does that leave them? The Apostle, Paul helps clarify this point for us. "Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death-- even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2:5-11). Paul is telling us that though Jesus Christ is eternally God by nature he did not cling to his prerogative as God's equal, but he chose to humble himself and take on human flesh. Christ did not give up his divine nature. But while on earth Jesus Christ chose to temporarily self impose limitations upon his divine attributes. While on earth, Jesus Christ chose not to be omniscient. He chose not to be omnipotent and he chose rather to live as a man and to submit himself fully to the will of the father, to do the father's will on earth. When he died on that cross, he was the perfect sacrifice, the infinite sacrifice, the eternal lamb of God who shed his blood once for all time for the remission of sins. It doesn't matter what the Jehovah's Witnesses believe about Jesus. One day, every single one of them, including every leader who perpetuated this gross heresy, will have to meet the Master. ON that day, every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Whether it's at the banqueting table of joy or at the great white throne judgment of the damned, every knee will bow. Our prayer is that God would open up the hearts and minds of these people who are ensnared in this foolishly created, manmade system and organization, as they believe the lie and try to earn their salvation through the watchtower, apart from Jesus Christ. We pray that they would come to know the triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who loves us and desires that we come into a personal relationship with Him. We pray for the lost members of the Jehovah's Witnesses, people ensnared by lying leaders. The Word of God says: "Those who guide these people mislead them, and those who are guided are led astray." (Isa. 9:16) The King James Version says that they are destroyed. What an ignoble end for a misled people who only seek to serve God. What a tragedy. We thank God for Jesus Christ, who took our sin and nailed it to the cross and covered it with His shed blood as the infinite payment, the eternal lamb of God once for all time. We thank the Lord for the Holy Spirit, who comes and lives in us and gives us new life. To God be the honor and glory and praise. We worship Him alone and we thank you, Lord we love you, Lord. "Father, Son and Holy Spirit."
No matter how interesting a subject is (i.e. JW History) - if it is too long, IT IS TOO LONG. Please if the item is pages long JUST POST A BRIEF description and a LINK to the info's website. Please - this is a guest book.

I AGREE----I personally know several people on the guestbook and NONE OF THEM read the loooonnggggg postings so it's a waste of time on the posters part and a waste of space on the guestbook....especially since there is no one to separate it and it gets larger by the minute. jazbug Spokane 2

I thought this web site had something to do with J.W.'s or child abuse or something. Instead all I find here is a bunch of whining, c*cksucking bitches. You deserve all the abuse you get. Just go to hell and STFU.

i went to the conference in Wales yesterday where Bill gave some talks. Bill gave us some really good information on the WTS cover up. Bill and i had a personal chat that evening about things we were concerned about. i have to say i was really impressed with Bills attitude and his integrity. he is a fine man who is giving his life for the sake of others, if only we were all as courageous. i feel although this is a major task that Bill has taken on, i feel he will be rewarded by his efforts, and he will go down in history as a man who stood up for what is right, and has fought against an evil of this world, and won. the WTS can run, but they cant hide. who can save them now? RICH RJ: Let me just clarify one point. This SilentLambs movement does not belong to the general public who post on this guest book. It belongs to Bill Bowen, and the victims of abuse who are or have been a JW. The people who post here support SilentLambs, but they have their own agenda for doing so, which I personally can't subscribe to. Most here would love to see the JWs finish. You do raise good points that these people can't refute because they probably believe what you are saying is true. * Unfortunately, and I say unfortunately because it needn't have been the case, the WTS have put themselves between a rock and a hard place when it comes to their policy on child abuse. If they change their policy to an appropriate policy of reporting the abuse or suspicion of abuse to the authorities first before reporting to the elders, then they openly admit their previous policy was wrong and they'd lose every lawsuit that was brought against them. The WTS know they can't do this so they're standing their ground. Keep your eye on what happens in the Vicky Boer court case in Canada, because if the WTS loses this case it will set a precedent and will open the floodgates of other lawsuits. What is being put to the test in this case is the WTS policy. If they lose it spells disaster. Not only will the WTS be publicly proved liars in court but they would face bankruptcy, which would mean the end of the organization. Millions of sincere bros and sis will be completely disillusioned as to what's happened, only those who have looked at things objectively and haven't put their faith in men will see a way out and keep their faith. Really RJ, I know where you're coming from. I believe there are many good and positive things in our religion we can be proud about, but it's a waste of time arguing with people on this guest book, you just won't achieve anything. All I'd say to you is look at the evidence presented on both sides, after all this is what would happen in a court of law, and don't just take peoples word for it, no matter WHO says it. We as rank and file do not get any information we need to come to a proper conclusion from the WTS, they just tell what THEY think we should be privy to. Bill as an elder and his co-operation with Barb Anderson who was in a position in the WTS to know all the relevant information have the evidence that we can't get hold of. They made every effort within the WTS to get this problem sorted out but to no avail. This is why SilentLambs exists. They are making this evidence available to you and everyone if they so choose to view it. If there's no evidence, then there's no case, and Bill and everyone would just pack up and go home. RICH

Remote User:

Date: 15 Sep 2002
Time: 12:56:36
Comments

Rich very good post to no name RJ. Yes the WT does teach some good things. Almost any church teaches basic good over evil. I can refute any JW that says the WT is God's chosen people and Jesus choose the WT in 1919, just as you say if the WT loses these cases, they will be in big trouble. Well in the early 1900-20's the WT lost many court cases proven them to be heretics. But in a free country you can believe anything. So the WT continued on it's merry way. But now the WT is getting caught being an accomplice to child molestation. This has nothing to do with what doctrine one may teach. It has to do with criminal offenses. That's were the WT made the big mistake. JW's need to understand this...John

Remote User:

Date: 15 Sep 2002
Time: 13:04:38
Comments

Here's a good one go to eBay under Watchtower. There is a WT document for sale. From the early 1900's offering a $1500 reward if any one can prove Russell's prophecies are wrong. I think this had something to do with some of the court cases that Russell lost in court. If no one has collected as of yet I would love to get that money!!! John

Remote User:

Date: 15 Sep 2002
Read Bill's post from the UK . . .http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36683&site=3 . . (one excerpt) . . I find it humorous when angry JW's say silentlambs has had their 15 minutes of fame, it seems they just do not get it. The issue is gaining momentum, more and more pressure is being brought to bear on this matter. Is our 15 minutes over? Or has it been more like 30 minutes? Whose fame are we really talking about? It is the silent lambs fame, they are roaring, the media is listening, and WT has no comment. Great PR guys, that makes the media really think you have compassion.

Remote User:

Date: 15 Sep 2002
Time: 16:01:36
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 15 Sep 2002
Time: 18:02:09
Comments
Okay all...here goes my story as a JDub, long but true. JW's here....bite me.Hi All, Please bear with me through this, this could likely become lengthy. I feel it's time for me to give you My Story as a Dub. I was born and raised in a Jehovah's Witness family. An extremely "hardcore", strict witness home. I am/was third generation witness. My father has always been the presiding overseer since I can remember. I have five brothers, four of which are Elders in various witness congregations. One brother, no longer a witness like myself, lives in Barcelona Spain. I have no sisters. My mother converted into it when she met my father, she was raised Lutheran. When I was nine years old, I was molested by a jw, close friend of my father. This man had been converted by my father, and they had established a close friendship and this man was often at our house for dinners and other gatherings. This man, Mike, lived in a house that was on my way home from school. Without going into all the sordid details of what happened, I ran home afterwards without stopping and went straight to my father. My shirt was torn and I was crying. I told him what Mike did to me and showed him my torn shirt. His reaction was rage. But, not rage at Mike, but rage at me. My father accused me of lying about Mike, saying that how terrible if was for me to blame my torn shirt on Mike when I was just horsing around on my way home from school, subsequently tearing my shirt. He then ordered me to my room, with a swift kick to my backside as I climbed the stairs. He also ordered me to never discuss this ever again. That was HIS reaction. MY reaction to his words were devastation. My Daddy didn't believe me, and I got into trouble for telling. It was never brought up again by either of my parents. That day and experience changed me immediately. My relationship with my father, in my own mind, changed from being "daddy's little girl" to just Mel's daughter. It unfortunately taught me that if anything "bad" were to happen to me, that I cannot tell anyone because I got into trouble. A short time later, my father was called to speak with Mike's wife (pregnant at the time), who had discovered he had cheated on her. Since my mother wasn't at home to watch us six kids, my father had to take all of us with him. When we arrived where she was staying, all of us kids were sat down in the living room while my father was in the dining room (in earshot of all of us), listening to her tell what she had discovered. I couldn't help but look at Carol as she talked and cried to my father, but mostly I just stared at my father's eyes, trying my best to read a sense of compassion for her tears. When Carol mentioned the person Mike had cheated with was a "young girl", my eyes stayed on my father's. I peered deeply into his eyes, trying to find some recognition and almost begging him to look me straight in the eyes. When he finally did, I only saw emptiness, no special look from my father that NOW he believed me. Nothing.... just him pointing at the coloring book I had telling me to color instead of watching what was going on. Man, that hurt. My brothers and I had reason to be fearful of my father when he was angry. I remember all of us watching All In The Family one day, and my making a comment that my father's temper was much like that of Archie Bunker's. Remember how Archie would jump out of his recliner in a rage? Ooooooh, bad thing for me to have said. Another example is the beating my younger brother received one day when I caught him and a couple of his friends in an alley after school "seeing whose was bigger". I, being the typical kid to tattle, ran home and told my dad (this was prior to what Mike had done to me). My father sat all of us down in the living room, including my mother, and proceeded to beat my brother with a leather strap until my brother literally passed out on the couch. I don't remember how many times he was hit, I lost count. After several licks, my mother began to silently cry. One of my older brothers stood up and was starting to tell my father Enough! My father simply pointed at him and angrily told him to Sit Down! By then we were all crying, and starting begging my father to stop. My younger brother, the beatee, wasn't moving anymore on the couch but my father kept hitting him. A couple of my brothers ran to my father and put their arms around him to make him stop. The sense of guilt I had over that was incredible. At the age of ten or 11, I was molested by my oldest brother. He, apparently, had been a bit too intrigued by his Biology class in school and wanted to see for himself. I never told a single, solitary soul until June 7th of this year when I posted it on Silentlamb's guestbook as an "Open Letter To My Parents", for anyone interested in reading the "sordid" details of that which I won't add here. When I was sixteen and living in Illinois, my mother appeared suddenly at my high school announcing to me that I was being removed from school and that she and I were to begin working together cleaning houses. When I shockingly asked why, she simply said she and my father were concerned about the association I was getting at school. To this day I'd like to know what association they felt I had in school? We weren't allowed close friendships with anyone that wasn't a JW of course, so the only "association" I ever had was just riding back and forth on the bus, and the minimal time in between classes!!! What association?!!! During this time, I had been seen by my father talking to a boy in our apartment complex. This boy was already, unbeknownst to me, talking with another of my brothers about the "proof", and had begun studying. At the age of seventeen, I married this boy/guy. My parents belief, in total alignment with JW teaching, is it's "better to marry very young than to possibly sin against God". We were married for fifteen years, until I divorced him in '93 due to abuse throughout all the years we were married. I'll never forget my father's words to me the first time I was hit by my husband. Before I could even get the story out, he said and I quote, "What did you do to deserve it?" With almost every occurrence, I went to the Elders in my local congregation for help, as is also dictated through the organization. The Elders would come to our home and tell my husband that if he didn't stop treating me that way, that he "could be disfellowshipped". Throughout the fifteen years I was married to this abusive witness man, more Elders than I can count came to our home and told my husband that same phrase, but it was never carried out. That's not to say that I felt his being disfellowshipped would have changed anything for my circumstances, but I felt that if the Elders were going to make the threat, surely at some point their threat would be carried out. It never was. Many times I found myself sitting on the floor of a closet, crying hysterically, praying to God to please help me. Please God, help me; show me what I should do before this man kills me. After each of my heart wrenching prayers, the immediate thought that came to my mind was, "get a divorce". But that only confused me more since jw's don't believe God approves of divorce unless there is proven/admitted adultery. How could God answer? my prayer with, Get a divorce, if God doesn't approve of divorce. My confusion and inner turmoil only increased. My faith in God as the answerer of prayers came to a halt. I stopped praying completely. I believed I must be being attacked by Satan for me to have thoughts of divorce, rather than it possibly being God giving me "a way out". Only when I caught myself momentarily considering harming myself did I realize I needed to get away from this man. I then began a plan to get my divorce. It took six months for me to save enough money from secretly working part time to afford the lawyer. When the six months were up and I had the money needed for the lawyer, I threw my husband out of the house and told him I was divorcing him. The next day I got a call from an Elder in our congregation saying he and the C.O. wanted to come by and speak to me about what they had heard I was planning. They came over that evening to "remind" me that if I got the divorce without the scriptural grounds of adultery, then I would have to spend the rest of my life alone, never to date a man or even entertain the notion of ever remarrying. That is, until my husband had found a woman and had committed "scriptural adultery"; after that I would be "free" to date and remarry. Their words went in one ear and out the other, they meant nothing to me at that point. I got my divorce with the firm belief that if God now hated me for getting a divorce, then I had no use for this kind of God. A God who would have me stay with this man until he killed me. I moved to Dallas (we were in Illinois) with my children to begin a new, safe life. My entire family was now living here. For two years after moving here, I occasionally went to the meetings, but my faith in God, in prayer, in religious meetings of any kind has grown sour. I had also learned from my mother at that same time that my father was seriously considering going into a business opportunity with the same Mike that had molested me when I was nine years old. I was furious to say the least, and quickly drove to my parents house to confront my father. He had no response other than to say that it was time I "got over it". I cursed him out and walked out furious! I changed from their Kingdom Hall to one in Garland. I did this in an attempt to slip out of the religion, not attend any meetings, but still have contact with my family. It didn't take my father long to discover that I had only attended the Garland Kingdom Hall once or twice and hadn't been seen in several months. I was of course confronted by my father as to why I hadn't been attending, but I simply walked away from him, leaving him standing there dumbfounded. During this same time, my oldest brother (an elder) was found to be having a lengthy affair with a married sister in his congregation. My father had told my mother not to tell me, or anyone else in the family/congregation about my brother and sister in law being separated and why, because "if they can work things out and reconcile no one needs to know". My mother finally told me two weeks later and I went straight to my brother and told him everything I ever thought of him. I was furious that he wasn't df'd, since he'd been having the affair for more than five months! But, my brother knew how to play the game. He cried crocodile tears to the other elders, cried hysterically on my mother's lap, and he was rendered "repentant". The elders had told my brother to stay away from moments when I felt as though God were tapping me on my shoulder to say, "It's going to be alright, I'm watching discovering the Deity of Christ. Where my research in questions will lead me, I still don't know. I've had recent pedophile was knocking on the door of a latch-key child. I spent the first thirty five years of my life being controlled; by pedophiles. I felt pain during the months children were out of school during their summer break, wondering if a jw cannot stand back and do nothing when I know that children everywhere are put at risk on a daily basis by these numerous other silentlamb survivors, including my two nieces. This brings me healing in more ways than I can say. I millions of people. Now that made me mad! During that last several months, I've been a regular visitor and poster on making false prophesies about when Armageddon will come but doesn't come, controlling the lives and thinking of entire family, due to the pathetic mind control of the g.b, men in New York who change the beliefs back and forth, was shattered glass on the ground. I cried and cried. I ran to my car, drove off and drove for hours, crying. I felt total hurl the book and papers across the room, yelling "NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO"! I felt as though I in that book ripped my soul apart, to put it mildly. Reading those damn yearbooks about the "persecution", murders simply facts Ray Franz discovered about the inner workings and decision making within the religion. The information would be able to tell me where I came from religiously, since I already knew the book was not quite an "expose", but written by a previous member of the "Governing Body", Ray Franz. I figured, who else but a previous gb member wanted to know if there was real "truth" about God, who he is, who he isn't. I wanted to know what really, with "truth", happens to a person when they die. Witnesses teach that when you die, your soul dies too. That Armageddon is coming "right around the corner", and will destroy all of mankind except all of Jehovah's Witness. JW's believe they are the only "true religion", and they alone are God's inspired earthly organization. I wanted to know what would happen to me if I died this minute. Would I be "damned to hell" because I divorced my husband? Who is this God? Why should I put my faith and trust in him? Who is this Jesus? Are they a Trinity? Really?! Prayer???? I hadn't prayed since that horrible day in the closet. My research began on the topic of who is God in relation to Jesus. Are they a Trinity or not? To me, that was the one topic that I had to have answered first. That subject was more important to me to know truthfully, before I began further research into any of the other topics. My research results were emotionally, mentally and spiritually devastating to me. I had stumbled upon a book written by a previous member of the "Governing Body", Ray Franz. I figured, who else but a previous gb member would be able to tell me where I came from religiously, since I already knew the book was not quite an "expose", but simply facts Ray Franz discovered about the inner workings and decision making within the religion. The information in that book ripped my soul apart, to put it mildly. Reading those damn yearbooks about the "persecution", murders and rapes in Malawi, and then to discover the reality of that vs. what was going on in Mexico nearly caused me a nervous breakdown. After reading that book, I began researching Trinity and Deity of Christ. I discovered that I'd been taught wrong all my life about the Deity of Christ. When I read the proof in black and white, it literally caused me to hurl the book and papers across the room, yelling "NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO"! I felt as though I was shattered glass on the ground. I cried and cried. I ran to my car, drove off and drove for hours, crying. I felt total devastation to see for myself that I'd not only been taught wrong about God and Jesus, but to realize that I'd lost my entire family, due to the pathetic mind control of the g.b, men in New York who change the beliefs back and forth, making false prophesies about when Armageddon will come but doesn't come, controlling the lives and thinking of millions of people. Now that made me mad! During that last several months, I've been a regular visitor and poster on a web site called Silentlambs. And I will personally be helping distribute those lambs here in Dallas, along with numerous other silentlamb survivors, including my two nieces. This brings me healing in more ways than I can say. I cannot stand back and do nothing when I know that children everywhere are put at risk on a daily basis by these pedophiles. I felt pain during the months children were out of school during their summer break, wondering if a jw pedophile was knocking on the door of a latch-key child. I spent the first thirty five years of my life being controlled; by my father and his leather belt; by my husband's strong hand; and controlled by the jw belief system. I believe in God and Jesus. I believe they are real, and I prayed for the first time in many years the day I drove away crying, discovering the Deity of Christ. Where my research in questions will lead me, I still don't know. I've had recent moments when I felt as though God were tapping me on my shoulder to say, "It's going to be alright, I'm watching over you little one”. Whether God will lead me to a church, I don’t know. Whether this means I’m “saved”, I don’t know. It’s hard for anyone who hasn’t gone through it, or lived it themselves. Even those who were converted at some point in their lives, but were not born into it, can’t really understand because they have a “before, during and after” image to return to once they leave the religion/cult. I don’t have that luxury. It was all I ever knew. And it was a lie. I’ve had a real strong sense of wanting to tell my story, and to do everything I can to protect the children from these pedophiles in this excuse of a religion. My son was molested by a jw when he was in second grade, when we lived in Illinois. He didn't tell anyone either, not even his parents. His molester told him that “this is how God wants us to show love for each other, and you want God to love YOU don't you”? My son is now serving time in jail for molesting another child, my youngest daughter. My emotions are confused, mixed between pain and anger. Pain and anger over what happened to my little boy so many years ago, how his molester threatened to kill me and my husband, and claiming this is how God wants us to show love for each other. And, in pain and anger over how my son then victimized my little girl, taking away her innocence and threatening to kill both me and their father. What happened to me has gone full circle and devastated my children. I've had a very hard life up until I met my new fiance'. I feel blessed to have found him. I can't help but feel that it's important for Larry and I to feel similar in a spiritual sense, in our beliefs together as man and wife. I feel as though I'm starting at ground zero, working my way up. Where my research will bring me in a religious sense, I have no idea. But, I do know that whatever it is, I'm ready for it, and I will never again be controlled by any man, or any one else. My mind is clear, and my claws are very sharp. Linda Thoman

Remote User:
Date: 15 Sep 2002
Time: 23:28:36
Comments
I have read your articles and I am very saddened over them. And I do have to say that I feel for each and every one of the victims because I have experienced some of these same experiences growing up as a witness. My name is Sheryl (Pollard) Peterson. My e-mail address is sheryl_ann321@yahoo.com

Remote User:
Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 00:36:15
Comments
SEND SILENTLAMBS’ eCARDS to EVERYONE in your Address Book and ask they forward them on to Everyone in THEIR address book! It's another way to get the word out! You can use these photos from Bill's webshots site, details here: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36703&page=1&site=3#495643

Remote User:
Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 00:49:26
Comments
THIRTY-SIX ABUSE VICTIMS COME FORWARD after reading the SEATTLE NEWSPAPER COVERAGE LAST WEEK: Read about it here: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36656&page=1&site=3#495660
Remote User:

Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
03:33:10
Comments
Linda, I read your post, your story is so similar to mine, I'm also 3rd generation with similar story, I noticed the same thing, that is when something horrific happens its blame and beat the kids, then the next day as if nothing ever happened. It may be a defense mechanism in our parents, I don't know. Today is the first day of your life, We can try to forget the past, but cannot shut the door on it in order to go on the best we can, the part were you looked in your father's eyes when he was talking to your abuser's wife, looking for that of recognition and not getting it was heartbreaking, I truly am sorry this happened, also for your son, thanks for sharing your story...NP

Remote User:

Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
05:11:45
Comments
We are in a progress to start a site like this in Sweden, for the Scandinavian people. It's remarkable that nearly none of Jehovah's Witnesses knows what's going on in this area here in this country. I know a "brother" who in secret put up papers about what's happening in U.S.A. and about the BBC-program, at the congregations wallboard. The elders took them down and there is now a reputation about some apostate who puts up propaganda at the Kingdom Hall! They try to avoid and hide the truth for the members. So there is a need to give word to this here too. Do you have any suggestions of how we shall work this out? I can produce a homepage for this subject. I have been a Jehovah's Witness for several years but left it for ten years ago. The site must be open for both x-Jw and Jw. I have a contact with a person who still is a Jehovah's Witness and who is interested in this project. Have you any suggestions? My email is elinor.karlsson@telia.com and I live in Sweden.

Remote User:

Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
08:49:33
Comments
I am an inactive Jehovah's Witness who was molested by my father. Everyone protected him and called me a liar. Even my own family members who were supposed to protect and love me. Now that I am inactive they throw it up to people and say things like "see SHE left the truth because she can't handle all the lies she told. I am not the one who is lying though. My story has not changed in all of these years. The last time I saw my father in person, and was alone with him he started talking about "what happened" like it was no big deal, then he goes and tells people he didn't do it AND has a family member corner me and tell me that they had proof that I was lying. They also have sent another family member to ask me to write a notarized letter saying that I lied about the whole thing because I was mad about something. The elders never even had a meeting with me about it instead they told my father that I was just rebelling against the religion and family. I felt like I was the only one being treated this way and then I saw the special on Dateline NBC and it really hit me hard to know that the organization that I loved allowed so many people to be hurt. I do not blame God but I do blame the people that make the overall decisions for not handling things in a law abiding way and protecting innocent children. Me sbugnmike@aol.com

Remote User:

Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time: 16:04:38
Comments
linda ; thanx for the heart breaking facts of your life. i can only pray and wish you peace and happiness in the future.....love john

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 16:52:19
Comments
WELCOME to all the new ones who have posted here. I have emailed everyone to say hi and let me know if you need to talk or if I can help in any way. Thank you for your strength and in sharing your stories so that others who come here may feel comfortable to do the same. Love to you all!!!!!!!!!!! Jesika Thoman, Dallas-Tx

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:32:16
Comments
/RON must be related to RJ Troll since they sing the same old blues. FEEL FREE /RON to start a support site for the 30,000 abused boys in LA. We are NOT here to fix the ENTIRE world of victims (go ask the current JWs in the KHalls to do that, since that is THEIR job). This site is for "fixing" the "world" of the ABUSED JWs and those associated with them. THAT'S ALL. If you can carry the ENTIRE WORLD on YOUR SHOULDERS, please! Be Our Guest. People who speak like you are from Satan himself, like the GB brow-beating the JWs saying they are Never Doing Enough. GO DO IT YOURSELF, if you want it done! We're doing what we set out to do and are BEING VERY SUCCESSFUL AT IT. Sign me Sick and Disgusted with the Complainers!

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:33:50
Comments
No, SHAME ON YOU /RON for not recognizing a BLESSING when it's right in YOUR face. /Disgusted

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:35:41
Comments
WELCOME silentkiller-bravepages! HAPPY TO MEET YOU, a fellow SURVIVOR! Thanks for your refreshing UPBUILDING comments! LOVE to you. Sign me a Little Less Disgusted Now that I saw BRAVE's post!
Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:37:05
Comments
Julie Thomas - Quit Complaining! How many times do you post here? Every one who complains - HEAR THIS: POST SOMETHING POSITIVE OR DON'T POST AT ALL! All COMPLAiners PLEASE LEAVE & NEVER COME BACK. WE DO NOT NEED YOUR NEGATIVITY HERE. /Disgusted Again.

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:38:20
Comments
WELCOME & THANK YOU to: INFOSYBILJERRY INC@AOL! POSITIVE POSTS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME! /Disgusted

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:40:01
Comments
QUIT COMPLAINING JULIE FROM DIXON. If you don't like what you read, then POST SOMETHING POSITIVE. You are only ADDING DISCOURAGEMENT. GET IT????????????? /Disgusted

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:42:06
Comments
FYI: ALL of the Canadian Trial Info (Boer v. Canadian WTBTS) can be found at www.jehovahs-witness.com. Click on the SEARCH feature at the very top of the page, type in BOER, and everything on that case will come up.

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 19:44:01
Comments
/RON has ALOT to learn about the ORGANIZATION. Spend more time at www.jehovahs-witnesses.com and click on all of the sites at the bottom of that website, and do your reading, and then try sticking up for the ORGANIZATION. Give it SIX MONTHS. That's about how long it takes once you start reading. You WILL have your EYES OPENED.

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
19:45:58
Comments
GREAT POST about the #1-#7 questions on the FRONT PAGE. SO TRUE SO TRUE.

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
19:47:28
Comments
LOL @ Closed Door Session of the GB. You KNOW it's true, too! Read the BETHEL posts at J-W.com from those who were THERE.

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
20:25:37
Comments
THANKS to JESIKA & LINDA (& everyone) for taking care of the correspondence and welcoming the new visitors, leaving messages, writing them, etc. And here's a HELLO to Buster and RMK and Rich and John and Soapbox and NP and Sheila, and even Bonnielynn wherever she may be! Hope I didn't leave anyone out! The ORLANDO press conference was fantastic. The link to it is further above. Greetings to All & Hugs/SLC

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
20:26:00
Comments
LOL @ Closed Door Session of the GB. You KNOW it's true, too! Read the BETHEL posts at J-W.com from those who were THERE. It's amazing to get the INSIDE VIEW for those of us who always thought it was the Most Holy of Places on Earth. /SLC

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
RJ & RON must DEFINITELY BE RELATED. They speak like the Double-Mint Twins. I'm sorry to have to say this, but it sounds like a perfect EXAMPLE of the "unified" WT brainwashing. No offense fellas. You guys must be in a lot of pain. Here's a SINCERE (((((HUG)))))) for each of you. /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 20:28:06
Comments
GO FOR IT NP! GOOD COMMENTS to /RON! You explained it perfectly! THANK YOU for carrying the torch! (Nina, too!) /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 20:28:37
Comments
LOL @ SHEILA who responded to /RON with ............ --- /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 20:28:58
Comments
THANKS RICH for the report from the UK and the chat will B Bowen! Great News! /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time: 20:29:22
Comments
LOL @ John re: the $1500 prize to prove Russell's prophecies are wrong. GO FOR IT, J! /SLC (Also, your post about you and your brother going witnessing and 80 percent didn't have time to talk.) :-)

Remote User:

Date: 16 Sep 2002
Time:
20:29:44
Comments
WELCOME to Sheryl Peterson!!! ((((HUGS)))) /SLC

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
20:30:05
Comments
To ELINOR in Sweden who wants to create a similar website: THANK YOU for wanting to do that! For concrete suggestions it would be good to please write to: info@silentlambs.org for assistance! Bill Bowen will be back soon from the UK and he can guide you. I also sent a copy of your post to him. Thanks/SLC

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
20:30:22
Comments
WELCOME to sbugnmike@aol.com !!! Your story is unbelievably upsetting. They were scheming all around you. ((((HUGS)))) If you like, please send your story to help@silentlambs.org.

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time: 20:33:06
Comments
SILENTLAMBS will SOON have a SHOPPING CART! It's Looking BEAUTIFUL SO FAR, and it works even now, but waiting for Bill to return to finalize some of the details and pictures, etc. You can read about it here:
<http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36683&site=3> And/or you can see it here:
<http://web.pinwebhost.com/~megasyte/support/> THANKS TO REVMALK FOR MAKING THE SHOPPING CART for SILENTLAMBS!!! /SLC

Remote User:
Date:
16 Sep 2002
Time:
20:36:29
Comments
DOWNEY, CALIFORNIA: READ HERE what occurred when two Silentlamb Supporters and a REPORTER took Stuffed Lambs to the KHall in Downey. The Elder Didn't Like It Too Much: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36741&site=3
Before the nay-sayers start getting attacked again I want to say thank you to "Disgusted" for this "This site is for "fixing" the "world" of the ABUSED JWs and those associated with them. THAT'S ALL." Anyone else helped is a bonus...Right? I don't think that it is possible to marry into a JW family and to not be effected. And a DF'ed spouse; OH BOY! If you don't understand the game plan and want to play peacemaker I hope you like empathetic bloody noses. Get used to them. I have to admit that when I came to SL I was much more angry at the JW body that I was aware of. But after awhile (and a phone call from Bill) I started to see that being angry and blabbering about it is not going to help me or anyone else. So I asked myself what do I want? How can I help myself? When I did that all the anger just melted away. I was free of it. (SO COOL) I hope that every hurting person here will get to experience this. (and justice) I know that what you have endured is beyond my understanding and I am so sorry. But, I hope that you all can find a way to either live with the burden (and be happy) or are able to move past it. (and be happy) I know that some of you are in the JW movement and are afraid of what the world will view you as now. Most I have met are confused and find all of this hard to believe. (Me too) But I think that in the end this issue will be dealt with in a much more just way than it is now. I also do not think that you should have to leave your faith. Period. If you are happy then that is where you should stay. I can not. But if you can then I hope you find peace if you do not have it, and keep it if you have it now. Before I can say I would have been looking for a fight, now I can say that you would get a hug at my door. Discussion,,no. But a hug that is the best I can do right now.-Jayson

Not to detract from child sex abuse issues, but if you want a few laughs, there's a guy named BlackMan at J-W.com who used to be a Bethelite and he writes the FUNNIEST STORIES of life at Bethel! Here's one about GLEANING: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=7343&site=3 ----- And here's one about THE BIDDING WARS: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36761&site=3 ----- And last but not least are his thoughts on the MINISTERIAL TRAINING SCHOOL (MTS): http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36760&site=3 ----- OK. Now back to your Regularly Scheduled Reading. /SLC

Anger, Depression Common Results of Molestation -- Newspaper article about that subject here: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36742&site=3 -----/SLC
Comments
We positively agree with what is being stated on this website in behalf of the many victims that have suffered needlessly at the sacrifice of keeping the molesters secret!! We were J.W. for almost 40 yrs. of our lives and have experienced many injustices at the hand of so-called holy spirit inspired elders! We are inactive at this time because of injustice that has occurred in our immediate family!

Remote User:

Date:
17 Sep 2002
Time: 13:37:31
Comments
JOHN: Terms and Conditions: to claim the reward of $1500, evidence to disprove Russell's prophecies must be received at WTB&TS HQ before Dec 31 1913. the "Judge's" decision is final. your statutory rights will not be affected(unless you're baptized). people who work for the WTB&TS or who are associated are forbidden to enter. :-)

Remote User:

Date:
17 Sep 2002
Time: 15:12:45
Comments
STATE-by-STATE LIST of the STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS soon to be posted at J-W.com. That information may be helpful to USA abuse victims who may be THINKING about coming forward and/or taking legal action. In the meantime, that list can be seen here by this weekend: www.lovenorrisattorneys.com ----- Thanks/SLC -----

Remote User:

Date:
17 Sep 2002
Time: 15:14:33
Comments
HEAR YE! HEAR YE! MORE LAWSUITS in Nevada, Oregon, Florida and Texas will be filed within the next 2 weeks... STAY TUNED!!! /SLC -----

Remote User:

Date:
17 Sep 2002
Time:
16:01:56
Comments
Tina Alfano gave me your link. The only way I am able to help is to add your link to our web site. Marcia Duning mduning@woh.rr.com Webmistress, Angels That Care www.angelsthatcare.org
Remote User:

Date: 17 Sep 2002
Time: 17:00:10
Comments
All bullshit, call it silent bulls.

Remote User:

Date: 17 Sep 2002
Time: 17:49:07
Comments
"A lie has short legs. The truth will outrun a lie."

Remote User:

Date: 17 Sep 2002
Time: 17:50:20
Comments
WT has short legs, and TRUTH is prevailing!

Remote User:

Date: 17 Sep 2002
Time: 18:53:14
Comments
IF ANYONE NEEDS A LAMB, there are 75 left at a GREAT price, $1.47 each plus shipping. Can't beat that! I ordered TEN for the KHallis around here. /SLC ----- (Info at this link: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36831&site=3 -- "Hi all, The last of the lambs arrived today, as well as the ribbon. (My cup runneth over with 500 lambs!)They are scheduled for delivery tomorrow, for those of you who've ordered them. I have about 75 lambs left for any last minute takers! Please e-mail me at susieswindowsill@aol.com if you are interested. Thanks!"

Remote User:

Date: 17 Sep 2002
Time: 20:38:33
Comments
I was tossed in 1990 in Portland ME for exposing a rape kept secret and confessing to having read Ray's book. Come visit the best Bible site on the internet: http://home.main.e.rr.com/bittertruth Keep the Faith, everyone!
Remote User:

Date:
17 Sep 2002
Time:
22:45:13
Comments
My heart goes out to all the ones who have been abused sexually, emotionally, physically and spiritually who have posted on this site. I was sexually abused and so were my daughters by men who were leaders in the Jehovah’s Witness Organization. I was a JW for over 45 years. I saw injustice and inequities in the Watchtower for years, but I kept thinking “Jehovah will make it right, I just have to be patient.” In the early 1980 things just kept piling up and my husband and I and another Witness sister started reading the Bible (NWT) together on a regular basis after the Watchtower study on Sunday. We began to see lots of things that seemed different, but as good witnesses, we still were reading with WT glasses. When we got to Luke 11:11-13 and read that we could “ask for Holy Spirit”, I did and began to try to prove that the WT was right about the “great crowd” being on earth. I really believe that I would have proof after I began to read the Greek Scriptures through. I read it three times and the third time I started checking the interlinear reading of the Kingdom Interlinear Translation. I was amazed at what I found. The “great crowd” was in the “divine habitation of God” “in sight of the throne. Sounded like heaven to me. This was the beginning of our exit out. Holy Spirit had shown us the truth, the real truth. I noticed that there are several posters here in No. California, Auburn, Placerville, Lodi. I would love to meet you. There are about a dozen of us who meet once a month, first Saturday at 5PM. There is a website you can go to to sign up and find out where it will be on October 5 http://exjw.meetup.com Here is my email if you care to contact me. Eliveleth@hotmail.com With love, Velta

Remote User:

Date:
17 Sep 2002
Time:
22:47:19
Comments
Oops, also meant to tell you to click on "Sacramento" to find the meetup location. Sorry about that. Velta

Remote User:

Date:
18 Sep 2002
Time:
01:41:07
Comments
SILENT RAMS: This is not associated with the SilentLambs website, but merely FYI. /SLC --- Photos from Survivors Sought <http://www.jimhopper.com/male-ab/#last> Photos of male survivors of childhood or adult sexual abuse are being sought to be included in a poster which will be sold to help raise money for the 2003 international conference on male sexual victimization. We are seeking current photos of survivors and photos taken at the age when the abuse took place. We are interested in cultural, ethnic, and racial diversity. In addition we would like to include men in military uniform, clerical garb, judicial robes, sports equipment, medical clothing, or other dress that indicates that males who survive sexual abuse go on to have successful careers. We are also interested in including a man who is incarcerated. Photos will be returned if desired. Participants will be required to sign a release. Those who are interested can contact Dr. Mic Hunter at 357 East Kellogg Blvd., St. Paul, MN 55101, USA or MHunt689@aol.com (Dr. Hunter has a book, "Abused Boys." /SLC)
Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 02:34:19
Comments
What is the WORST damage from abuse? QUOTE: "Whether the child told anyone, and if so, the person's response. Doubting, ignoring, blaming and shaming responses can be extremely damaging - in some cases even MORE than the abuse itself." http://www.jimhopper.com/male-ab/

Remote User:

Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 05:10:45
Comments
Thank You so much for the above link on male sexual abuse, as they say big things come in small packages, there is a wealth of info here...NP

Remote User:

Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 05:18:06
Comments
"All bullshit, call it silent bulls."  the WTS is a beautiful place and any thing evil that happens is just a figment of our imaginations. nobody is ever abused they just imagine they are. the WTS is whiter than white and holy. how dare anyone think otherwise, you must be possessed by a demon to think so. the WTS is God's organization on earth, AND YOU ALL HAVE TO BELIEVE THAT OTHERWISE YOU'LL ALL DIE!!!! THE REICH WILL LAST FOR A THOUSAND YEARS!! WATCHTOWER, ZICH HAIL!! Rich

Remote User:

Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 08:18:31
Comments
A word to the wise... it doesn't take even half a brain to realize that this site is inhabited by APOSTATES who, like ESAU despise their spiritual heritage. Sure, terrible things might have happened to a handful of the people posting here (the rest are just in it for the Anti-JW mileage) but the real reason any of you are here is to cause dissent. What you people are doing is utterly despicable in the sight of J. God and you will not go unpunished. Remember the DEVIL is the one who seeks to turn people against the true god. Those who deliberately serve him IN OPPOSITION TO GOD are the most reprehensible of all. If there was a HELL, you'd burn in it. You are the most worthless human garbage on this planet, the scum of the earth. You are lower than dogs. [STFU&D]
What is "lower than dogs" is YOU for coming on here and ok fine so you want to make a point that there are apostates and yes probably true there are some on this site but, there are however people who have been truly hurt and there congregation did not help them when they could have. I love Jehovah very much. Yes I am inactive but its because of people that claim to be such good witnesses who then go and do the things they have done to me and my mother. I saw from a very young age how apostates and two faced double life living witnesses COULD be. I know a lot of witnesses that are so loving strong and kind. I however was not raised by them. I was raised by so called witnesses that use the truth and the good people in Jehovah's service for there own self centered reasons. Furthermore, IF you were so worried then perhaps you should not be coming here to read what you disagree with and you should be out in service teaching people about Jehovah instead of in here trying to stop people from doing or saying what you have no control over. whether its the truthful ones or the liars sbnm

Remote User:

Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 14:29:23
Comments
I grew up in a congregation on the Olympic Peninsula of Washington State. The youngest of six brothers, I observed many time my older brothers doing things that were contrary to the JW teachings, including reading "male magazines" and being sexually involved with "sisters" in neighboring congregations. I was DF’d at age 14.5 for "disobedience to my parents" a crime punishable by death according to II Cor. Unfortunately for the Cong. Servant who hated by trying questions, the civil authorities wouldn’t allow the stoning to take place. Several years later I found out three of my brothers, all in good standing were guilty of molesting their daughters. Only one was turned in to the police and he served ten years in prison, at the advice of the "elders" who counseled him not to participate in psychological counseling. The only option was to serve time. Neither he or the other brothers were ever disciplined for their abuse of their daughters. One of the sisters-in-law took her girls and move out only to be DF’d for it. Can you imagine, for protecting her children from a pedophile she is punished? The third sister-in-law followed the elders admonition to "let Jehovah deal with it". She is now in a mental institution, here daughters are pathetic in their varying states of mental anxiety, obesity and self delusion. All my brothers are still in positions of leadership, still go door to door and think Jehovah is a cool guy! I have had many years to reflect on the whole mess. I see the same stories repeated over and over again within the Witnesses and marvel at the total blind faith the rank and file have about this issue. It took me nearly 18 years to overcome my prejudices toward religion. Thank God I am now in a tolerant, law-abiding moral community of God fearing souls. I can only pray that each individual Witness will come to terms with reality before it destroys them. As to the organization, clearly their fruits expose their reality. Neither are they "of God" nor do they represent any channel to His grace or guidance. God Bless, Tod Jones third sister-in-law followed the elders admonition to "let Jehovah deal with it". She is now in a mental institution, her daughters are pathetic in their varying states of mental anxiety, obesity and self delusion. All my brothers are still in positions of leadership, still go door to door and think Jehovah is a cool guy! I have had many years to reflect on the whole mess. I see the same stories repeated over and over again within the Witnesses and marvel at the total blind faith the rank and file have about this issue. It took me nearly 18 years to overcome my prejudices toward religion. Thank God I am now in a tolerant, law-abiding moral community of God fearing souls. I can only pray that each individual Witness will come to terms with reality before it destroys them. As to the organization, clearly their fruits expose their reality. Neither are they "of God" nor do they represent any channel to His grace or guidance. God Bless, Tod Jones

Remote User:

Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 15:03:06
Comments
Todd Jones, thank you for telling your story. It's so sad, but I'm proud you had the strength and courage to share it with us. Linda Thoman Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 15:07:23
Comments
If the watchtower changes its stance on abuse and conforms to your demands will you be happy? What issue will you then take up with the WTS? We all know this goes beyond your pseudo "cause" of helping abuse survivors. Your issues are actually issues of hate and revenge at the WTS and anybody who has ever offended you. They are easily unmasked by an objective reading of the undercurrent of hate filled rhetoric in your posts. Any fool can see this because there are far too many posts of completely unrelated crap! Who are the hypocrites? You use an issue such as abuse and the cover of caring, to exact revenge and implement an agenda that means much more to you than abuse issues. You will not rest until the WT is brought completely down. That's why I asked what will you do if the WTS changes its stance on abuse. Answer: You will find something else to gripe about because you could care less about solely helping abuse survivors, it has become personal and you are bent on one thing and one thing only making JW's look bad. That is why you are as much hypocrites as you say JW's are. The only ones in this room who I can honestly give any respect to for sticking to the issue is LINDA and JESIKA. They are the only ones not motivated by hate but by a real caring. They are not digging up the same old crap everybody else is, but are focused on the issue. Linda herself has tried to tell you guys this but you choose to ignore her in favor of exposing your own hypocrisy. Who's better than who?.........RJ

Remote User:

Date: 18 Sep 2002
Time: 18:11:59
Comments
RJ, thank you for your comments. I am not trying to toot my own horn here, but I feel it's very important that everyone remember that this site is for abuse victims. Those that want to bash, argue, nit-pick, questions and comments over various doctrinal matters...there is an appropriate discussion board just for that purpose. If some of you want to argue doctrine, meet me in the jw discussion board and let's get to it! But, please make sure you all take note of those who posts comments, email addresses etc that need our help. That is what we are here for, isn't it? Isn't it?! It saddens me to see that this guestbook has become the PERSONAL forum for a few, almost taking over the guestbook as though it's yours to do so. Let's be in contact with those who need our help, when no one helped us years ago. Linda Thoman

Remote User:

Date:
18 Sep 2002
Time:
19:11:02
Comments
RJ You are absolutely right! The abuse of children is only one aspect of the problem with the WT. We want it completely destroyed. Why? you are right. We hate it. For your information: I just received an application form to join the World wide Class Suit against the WT Society which needless to say I will join. All that were hurt or deceived by this ungodly organization in any way whatsoever are called upon to apply. The cost is 100.00 US per person. My advise is: DO NOT SUE FOR THOUSANDS BUT FOR MILLIONS OF DOLLARS US FUNDS you fully deserve the money. They hurt us more than any money can compensate! RMK

Remote User:

Date:
18 Sep 2002
Time:
22:53:32
Comments
Remote User:

Date:
19 Sep 2002
Time:
00:17:19
Comments
Dear RJ, this is avishai & I haven't posted in months as I recently had a baby & then had surgery. One of my main soapboxes in the past has been not to argue doctrine as it detracts from the horror of sodomizing young children & the resultant cover ups. I have known many honorable individuals within the org, & don't hate them. My beliefs as to the validity of the org, are my own. However, I can assure you that this is not a "Red herring" to bring the wts down. Your right, the issue has nothing to do w/ doctrine. It has to do w/ large adults fucking small children. And, no, I will not soft pedal it by using words like molest. It's an ugly word, not nearly ugly enough to describe the act. I suspect that much of the "unrelated talk" as you put it is rationale & anger at having been fucked by these bastards. No, we're not talking about doctrine, we're talking about a CONTINUING cover up, collusion & accessories to child fucking. No doctrinal argument even comes close to how awful this is. Let me ask you something, RJ, doctrinally speaking. What happened over & over again in the bible who continued to follow wrong teaching or leadership, even if it came from the "rightful" king, judge, or priest in ancient israel? What the hell are you thinking, coming in here! Go sit in your tower, practice a christlike attitude, get some compassion, examine your heart. I could care less about whether someone is right about the 144,000, the blood issue etc., etc. if that person is, or is party to the fucking of babies. My god. You should be so ashamed of yourself, coming in here & judging these people. I could care less about whether someone is right about the 144,000, the blood issue etc., etc. if that person is, or is party to the fucking of babies. My god. You should be so ashamed of yourself, coming in here & judging these people. Would you go & offer the watchtower to someone burned & bleeding laying on the ground? Say, "you're bad, because your worldly?" No, you probably have at least that much sense. All of the rest of you who so pompously come in & judge the battered & bleeding from your "Pure ivory tower" THINK!!!! Would jesus do that? What about the good samaritan? No, you're so full of hate & vitriol for those that were too small to defend themselves to see beyond your noses. Shame on all of you. Go read your bible, not wt publications, get raped or have your children get fucked & have it covered up, get told "We keep these things quiet" & then you can come tell me it's about doctrine.
Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 06:39:26
Comments
Avishai, I can fully understand your feelings about this. Lets not wrap the truth up in cotton wool and talk detachedly about "molesting" children, or "child abuse" because people are desensitized to these words. It is an hateful thing. Don't just talk as if it's words. GET ANGRY I am talking about known abusers, we do not judge them, they judge themselves, by their actions. Our creator has put in us a sense of justice. And never forget that god hates those who prey on innocent and defenseless children as much as we do. And he has equally as much contempt as we do for those claim to serve him while covering up abuse, whether they are the perpetrator or those who protect that one. These kind of persons will not go unpunished. Anyone deliberately or negligently covering up abuse is reprehensible, and carries a measure of bloodguilt for the lives destroyed, both physically and spiritually. Maybe you've heard it before, and it's a hard thing to believe in, but it will all come out in the wash. Believe that god can and will undo all the wrongs that have been done. All the more reason why all servants of god need to pull together and press on towards this goal - a world without abuse, without suffering... no more pain. (rev 21:3,4) The terrible things that god has allowed to happen among his people only highlight how far mankind has fallen, how much we have been dented by imperfection. Be assured that god can read the heart of each and every heart and those with bad motives or those who have been negligent in carrying out their christian duty will not escape punishment. When the end comes, there will be many surprises when it comes to who survives through it and who doesn't. Satan has roared and many of us have run for cover, but god sees our hearts and looks for each and every one. Satan is roaring now in the midst of the organization. The great tribulation is now. And one last thing, I just wanted to say to you: this isn't the way. Please, work towards the permanent solution to all these problems - not one child abused, ever again. Live for that day. Never let up in preaching to others about what god will soon do to wipe abusers and their supporters from the face of the earth. Don't focus on the organization, imperfect though it may be. Can you show me any other organization on earth where 6 million people are taking positive steps towards ending abuse and injustice forever? (jahismighty)

Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 07:08:55
Comments
RJ, who is "you"? RMK who is "we"? i want nothing to do with the sins of the GB, and i want nothing to do with those who want to destroy JWs. RJ when you ask will 'I', and not 'YOU', be happy when the WTS change their abuse policy, TOO RIGHT! will i go on to gripe about something else? well, if the society want to have any more policies that affect my conscience and make me feel ashamed to be known as a JW then, TOO RIGHT i will. Did Jesus not tell the scribes and the Pharisees exactly what they needed to hear, or did he sit back say nothing knowing they where gona be destroyed anyway? i would rather follow Jesus' example and stand up for what's right, rather than keeping quiet and sharing in the GB's sins. Rich
"Wicked" Testimony. Church sex abuse case. http://www.canoe.ca/TorontoNews/ts.ts-09-18-0036.html. comments from trial attendee: . . . We found out last night that Mr. Walker actually worked hand in hand with head office and lived at Bethel. He made it sound yesterday like he was just another elder from a neighbouring congregation. So he got mud on his face today. The judge also read in the judicial committee letter that they asked my father if he was "getting his due". The judge was curious as to what this meant. It was explained that it meant "they asked Vicki's mother if she was giving her husband enough sex" that perhaps that was why he had went to his daughter. She was shocked! I thought she was going to fall off her chair. Could you believe that they wrote that in their letter to the society, blame everyone else but the abuser. Sorry my spelling is bad, lack of a good education. http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36857&site=3

Hey, everyone!!!!!!!!! Someone may have already thought of this...but just in case they havn't....HERE IS A GREAT IDEA! ALL THOSE OF US WHO WISH WE COULD BE PRESENT AT THE SILENTLAMBS MARCH IN BROOKLYN BUT CANNOT: ON THE SAME DAY, THE 27TH, WE CAN ALL, IN OUR OWN HOMETOWNS, GO TO THE LOCAL KINGDOM HALLS, AND LEAVE STUFFED LAMBS AT THE DOORS!!! THINK OF IT!!! STUFFED LAMBS AT KINGDOM HALLS ALL OVER THE WORLD ON SEPT. 27TH!!! WHAT SUPPORT OF THIS CAUSE, AND WHAT A STATEMENT AGAINST THIS WICKED INJUSTICE!!!!!!!!!!! IS ANYBODY GAME??? Love you all, Jan

HEY JAN------------Linda and I will be leaving lambs all over the metro in our area. Hope everyone does the same. Jesika Thoman

Hey I have an even better idea....Why don't we get real lamb poop and leave it in front of the KH's. We can stick a little sign in it that says "this is real lamb poop and it stinks just like your abuse policies"
Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 14:43:41
Comments
New information re state-by-state statutes of limitation related to sexual abuse at www.lovenorrisattorneys.com (click on Jehovah's Witness Abuse) Kimberlee D. Norris attorney-at-law kdnorris@airmail.net 817.335.2800

Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 16:35:03
Comments
Jan, Jesika and I and two others will be spending the afternoon of Sept. 27th placing over 50 lambs all over town. The lamb I have had in my car will be placed at the K.H. of my family. A smaller one that I have hanging on my rearview mirror is special....it will be delivered to the Elder who called to inform me I am/was df'd (in '95), along with a little note making sure he knows it was from me! This Sunday, we will also be plastering the area with Silentlamb flyers at a very busy intersection! I can hardly wait! Linda Thoman

Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 16:57:49
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 17:03:03
Comments
no i'm not going to post:::AVISHAI said WHAT i think all reasonable ones HERE ARE TALKING ABOUT..... THANX AVASHIA.....JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 17:14:15
Comments
JANISMIGHTY:;

DON,T YOU HAVE A BOOKSTUDY tonight..hoqw dare you come here and tell all . the wt is god,s people??????that was the biggest line of crap i have ever read here. you need a labotomie..john

Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 19:20:42
Comments
To Rich. "We" are all those that know the WT.We are all interested in the DEATH of this organization just like God our heavenly Father is. How more plain one can be?rmk.

Remote User:

Date: 19 Sep 2002
Time: 21:58:41
Comments
to john, the "spelling retard". Your arguments make as much sense as your grammar. Why aren't you in school, little boy?

Remote User:

Date: 20 Sep 2002
Time: 00:10:46
Comments
Has any one counted how many times you here the word satan the devil when ever you get around a group of JW's ,Its almost as if there worshiping him.I once commented to my Mother, mom why do you talk about satan so much, it's almost as if you think he has more power than God, It's always ,Satan does this,Satan is causing that, I told her I won't even give him the power in my house by talking about him, I believe in (Jehovah) or God as I choose to call him and would appreciate it if you would not keep speaking of Satan as if he were more powerful than Jehovah, You know That was 15 years ago and I haven't heard her mention him again...NP

Remote User:

Date: 20 Sep 2002
Time: 03:52:45
Comments
RMK: when you say "WE", you don't speak for me, even though i know that these court cases will more than likely be the downfall of the WT organisation. Rich

Remote User:
The Catholic and Anglican churches in Australia are already engulfed in the scandal of child abuse, with mounting evidence that they have covered up sexual assaults by members of the clergy and allowed paedophiles to continue preying on young victims, often for years. This week, we reveal another church has been routinely covering up cases of child abuse in its ranks. Sunday has managed to get inside the highly secretive Jehovah's Witnesses, who have some 60,000 adherents in Australia, and found the Church has secretly pursued a policy of obstructing police investigations into child abusers. Some Church elders believe that, since the rest of us live in a world run by Satan, they have a divine right even to lie in court. Child abuse victims tell for the first time how they were told not to take their complaints to the police. In one case, the same paedophile molested up to 40 children, but still the Jehovah's Witnesses did nothing ...

The full transcript will be up on this site, after the show goes to air. http://sunday.ninemsn.com.au/sunday/cover_stories/article_1149.asp Don't forget, this Sunday at 9am AEST.

Time: 12:28:18
Comments

Remote User:
Date: 20 Sep 2002
Time: 17:53:21
Comments
AUSSIES!!! & ANYONE WITH SATELLITE TV! THIS SUNDAY: If you can pick up Australian TV... THIS SUNDAY, September 22, 2002, at 9 AM, AEST, on Australia's Major Network, CHANNEL 9, the show "Sunday" (which is Australia's investigative reporting show similar to the USA's Dateline and the BBC's Panorama): The "Sunday" program runs from 9-11 AM, and same time throughout Australia. The segment on the SILENT WITNESSES will be about 40-45 minutes, but we are not sure what time that portion will begin. The information comes from interviews with former WTS directors, Bethelites and insiders, along with victims. ----- Q RE: VCR Tapes: The video can be ordered, hopefully AU use the standard VHS format? Australia uses the PAL 625 line format, which is different to the American NTSC system, so there might be a problem here. ----- For those with Austar, the Sunday programme is shown on Sunday afternoon on the Sky News channel. ----- A firewire card and a Dazzle Analog/DV to Firewire bridge get's you broadcast quality. :) ----- PS: MELBOURNE TIME is 14 hours LATER than EASTERN TIME/USA. ----- The full transcript will be up on this site, after the show goes to air: http://sunday.ninemsn.com.au/sunday/cover_stories/article_1149.asp ----- Silent Witnesses September 22, 2002 - Reporter :Graham Davis - QUOTE: The Catholic and Anglican churches in Australia are already engulfed in the scandal of child abuse, with mounting evidence that they have covered up sexual assaults by members of the clergy and allowed paedophiles to continue preying on young victims, often for years. This week, we reveal another church has been routinely covering up cases of child abuse in its ranks. Sunday has managed to get inside the highly secretive Jehovah's Witnesses, who have some 60,000 adherents in Australia, and found the Church has secretly pursued a policy of obstructing police investigations into child abusers. Some Church elders believe that, since the rest of us live in a world run by Satan, they have a divine right even to lie in court. Child abuse victims tell for the first time how they were told not to take their complaints to the police. In one case, the same paedophile molested up to 40 children, but still the Jehovah's Witnesses did nothing ... END QUOTE.

Remote User:
Date: 20 Sep 2002
Time: 17:55:20
Comments
You Are Invited to a silentlambs March in Brooklyn New York! --- On September 27th 2002, we are asking for survivors and supporters of those who have suffered abuse within the Jehovah's Witness community come together for a peaceful march in Brooklyn New York. --- WHY ATTEND? At silentlambs we care about children, in addition, we wish to let abuse survivors know that are not alone and have our support. This will be a united statement to the Watchtower organization that they must change policy to protect our children. Also, if you can serve as an eyewitness it is another way to take a stand for righteousness in behalf of all silentlambs. --- WHO MAY COME?
EVERYONE! At silentlambs we practice "don't ask don't tell" when we gather for important events. We do not care if you are DF, DA, or what you may personally hold as belief. We ask that all simply support those who were abused as Jehovah's Witnesses without prejudice as to standing in the organization. If you plan to attend please email and let us know how many are in your group to help us to know beforehand how large a group will be there so we may plan accordingly. --- WHERE: The march will start on the west side of Pierrepont Place and Columbia Heights at the park, see map enclosed, we will then walk about seven blocks to our destination 25 Columbia Heights. --- WHAT WILL WE DO? We are going to have a police escort all the way to the front door of 25 Columbia Heights . All permits have been obtained. Plan to be at Pierrepont Place and Columbia Heights at around on 12:30 PM on the 27thof September, 2002. We will proceed in an orderly fashion to 25 Columbia Heights . This march is not about anger, it is not about other issues you may be upset about, it is about protecting children and supporting abuse survivors. I prefer that all banners and posters support this theme. We are united for one cause. Some have stated they wish to express other agendas at the march, I feel this is not appropriate. What if you were an active witness whose child had been molested, would it be fair to them to express views that may be offensive? To reach out to all and keep the focus we have to be neutral on doctrinal issues. Silentlambs is about support of ALL, not any certain side of doctrinal issues. --- Dress however you wish, wear comfortable walking shoes, casual clothing will be fine. Be sure to bring rain protection just in case, cheap ponchos are about $1 at Walmart. Be aware it could be cooler in this time of the year. We will have t-shirts available when you get there. --- When we arrive at 25 Columbia Heights, we will first have a program in which abuse survivors will be asked to make a brief 60 second comment for whoever wants to speak. I will introduce different ones after the opening comments. We will then request a meeting with the Governing Body as outlined in my June 2002 letter. If the Governing Body refuses to meet we will then deliver the lambs to them as a reminder of who they are hurting by not meeting. Anyone who cannot make the trip can send a lamb along with a friend. We will then conclude with closing comments by those who wish to speak and I will conclude the program. Afterwards for those who can we would like to meet for dinner at a location nearby. This will be announced when we get there. --- Be aware New York has strict ordinances when it comes to signs and posters. No sticks or hard supports structures are allowed. You can use cardboard tubing or similar materials to hold up your posters. I was thinking of making posters when we arrive and having materials available to do so. We can start about 12:30 for those who would like to assist at Pierrepont Place and Columbia Heights at the park. Bring stuffed lambs for abuse survivors who cannot be there.
We will deliver them to Bethel when we arrive, if you wish to send a lamb contact me for assistance in doing so. ---
EYE WITNESSES: If you wish to serve as an eye-witness regarding how the Governing Body has allowed Watchtower Policy to hurt children, you are invited to come forward. Whatever your status regarding the organization you have the right to serve as an eye-witness. Please bring any written documentation such as Watchtower policy not being enacted in the USA? Was the Governing Body guilty of weakness or wickedness? ignorance or evil?
abuse properly in the congregation. Read this letter and ask yourself, how many children were raped due to this letter which was authorized by Watchtower Legal Department shows the home office knew exactly how to handle molestation? To date the thought brought forward was when research was done in 1992 about molestation the Governing body was then informed and refused to make proper directives in the interest of protecting children. Well it appears that is no longer the case with the recent discovery of a 1988 letter to all bodies of elders on Canada. The letter which was authorized by Watchtower Legal Department shows the home office knew exactly how to handle abuse properly in the congregation. Read this letter and ask yourself, how many children were raped due to this policy not being enacted in the USA? Was the Governing Body guilty of weakness or wickedness? ignorance or evil?
Regards, Bill ++++++++ WATCHTOWER BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETY OF CANADA Box/C,P, 4100, Halton Hill: (Georgetown), Ontario, Canada L7G 04 Telephone: (418) 873-4100 +++++ LB:LSB July 29, 1988 ++++++ TO ALL BODIES OF ELDERS IN CANADA - CONFIDENTIAL ----- Dear Brothers: Awake! has drawn to our attention the problem of sexual molestation of children (see January 22, 1985, pp. 3-10). It was appropriately described as a "growing horror." This is further evidence of the depravity of many in the world around us.-Rom. 1:20. --- These situations are rare, and we are glad that most of the depravity of many in the world around us.-Rom. 1:20. --- These problems arise. Please be willing to explain how you were hurt by Watchtower Policy. ----- Ya'll Come Now, Ya Hear?? /SLC!
Witnesses certainly support the objective of protecting children. --- The difficulty is to balance between your obligation to report such matters and your congregational duty to maintain confidentiality. We have asked our Legal Desk for some comment, and the following legal opinion is passed on to you: --- When to report? There is a duty to report when one has reasonable and probable grounds to believe that there is abuse or a substantial risk of abuse and parents have failed to protect the child. The report shall be made forthwith to the local child welfare authorities. Sexual offenders are notorious repeaters. Therefore, careful investigation should be undertaken to ensure that no other children are at risk from the same person. --- Who must report? Most provinces place the duty on "any person." There is no statutory provision for an ecclesiastical privilege. Generally, one cannot be sued if he reports in good faith. A minister cannot ignore this obligation. He would be subject to prosecution, fines, and imprisonment if he did so. --- TO ALL BODIES OF ELDERS IN CANADA July 29, 1988 Page 2 --- Does a minister have an alternative? Yes. A minister could make definite arrangements for someone else to report. --- For example, family members should be encouraged to discuss the abuse with a family physician. He can arrange for therapy from a suitable mental health professional. Then either the family or the physician could report the matter. The abuser himself could report it and is well advised to do so. This will usually result in assistance being provided, and officials are always more sympathetic to an abuser who seeks help. --- Elders must be aware, however, that once they have knowledge, they have an obligation. They cannot just hope that someone else will report. They must follow through quickly and be sure that it is done. Once it is reported, either by them or by someone else, they have discharged the obligation. --- Are there other considerations? Yes. If the abuser lives in the same home as the children, it is best for the offender to voluntarily leave the home, even temporarily. Otherwise, the child welfare authorities will likely remove the children from both parents. These authorities could conclude that the non-abusive parent has also failed to sufficiently protect the child. Such a decision, of course, rests with the family, but the advantages are obvious. --- Is the law identical in every province? No, there are variations. If you encounter difficulties in discharging your obligation, contact the branch office of the Society in Georgetown. --- Should records be kept? It is important that you document carefully everything that happened, including names, dates, and times; and keep it in the confidential records of the congregation in a sealed envelope. --- TO ALL BODIES OF ELDERS IN CANADA July 29, 1988 Page 3 . --- Checklist The following checklist will give you a brief summary of the steps you should follow in handling this problem: --- 1. Read page I of this letter under subheading "When to Report," and determine if there has been sexual abuse that must be reported. --- 2. Advise parent to take immediate steps to protect the abused child, i.e., abuser not remain in the same home as victimized child and all access between abuser and children should be strictly supervised. --- 3. Recommend family take victim to family physician immediately. Recommend abuser or family seek physician's or psychologist's assistance. Doctor will have duty to report. --- 4. Promptly follow up with family and/or physician, psychologist, etc., to make certain abuse was reported. --- 5. Make written memorandum of steps taken to report abuse, and keep it in a confidential congregation file in a sealed envelop. --- We appreciate very much your work in handling such problems. The brothers and sisters benefit by your service in both keeping congregation clean and providing help to erring ones. We pray that Jehovah may continue to support and bless your faithful ministry. Accept this expression of our Christian love and best wishes. --- Your brothers, WATCHTOWER BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETY OF CANADA

Remote User:

Date: 20 Sep 2002
Time: 18:35:19
Comments
You have an informative site about the J.witness cult! List of clergy crimes:
http://community.webtv.net/cyberministry/Articles

Remote User:

Date: 20 Sep 2002
Time: 18:50:24
Comments
I thought the latest Watchtower had an interesting topic on Apologizing. Seems as though they should practice what they preach!
Remote User:

Date: 20 Sep 2002
Time: 18:59:31
Comments
Rich. I never met you and probably never will. If you want to sympathize with the WT that makes you unacceptable company for those that KNOW this organization. Even if all those that I consider "WE" go back to WT Jehovah I would still be against the existence of this ungodly group. And never presumed on you being in my "we" company. Please kindly save your comments. I am tired.

Remote User:

Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 01:41:58
Comments
O.k, John, this is avishai here again. I can handle my own responses, thank you. I've torn people a new one & stuffed the old one in it on this guest book more than once, when it was deserved. jahismighty may be misguided, in your opinion, but is not being an apologist for their coverups, which is what matters. O.k, jahismighty, thank you for your kind words. I appreciate your reasoning w/me & attempting to start dialogue, rather than reacting. Doctrine or not, I want you to think about what happened to "gods people" every time they followed a precedent of gods own priests, kings, etc., that their heart told them was wrong. There were 3,000 israelites killed due to the golden calf incident, not all of whom bowed down. Some just didn't speak up. What about all the innocent kids who had to wander in the desert for forty years just because their parents were whiners? The poor boys had to get circumcised as adults because of that, too! Next case in point, Eli, father of Hophni & Phineas. His kids were a couple of pervs, & he was indulgent, let them do what they want. There was even a drama about this in the 80's, & the jw's use this story as a reason to remove elders & ms's who can't keep their houses in "order". Eli was Samuel's teacher, who was one of the bible's most revered prophets. Yet what happened to good old Eli? Yup, Jehovah made him take the good old dirt nap! Witnesses main spiel is to tell others that their religion is wrong, & that god says to make sure of all things. And yet, they are forbidden this self examination. Defense of a corrupt religion is no virtue. It never has been. Neither is mere complacency in the face of corruption. If you believe that you have the truth, & that what is happening is wrong, the bible, wt publications in support of the bible & human decency DEMAND that the least you can do is speak up, shout it from the hills. To do otherwise is lethal, in Gods eyes. "Waiting on Jehovah" does not apply. So, in conclusion, my brother jahismighty, I have to tell you, if & when armageddon comes, there will be very few surprises for me of who gets through. I, for one refuse to lay down for satan's twisted pharisees. And if you'll recall, until the second Jesus died, the pharisees were the equivalent of elders today, they were the mature men of the cong. With love, Avishai. avishai@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 05:52:05
Comments
RMK: since you've appointed yourself as the spokesman for those that want the JW org destroyed, i'll appoint myself as spokesman for those who want change in policies. you don't have the power to destroy, God does and he's made/making it happen. every time i see a comment from you for "WE want to see the WTS destroyed", there'll be my posting afterwards saying "WE want the WTS policies changed": where on this website can you quote Bill saying he wants the WTS destroyed????? i know this WTS, i'd rather not have you speak for me in this regard. save your narrow minded comments yourself. Rich
Remote User:

Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 10:28:52
Comments
Rich. let me tell you one thing: very few on this site are in favour of the WT Society. The WT is a very dangerous secret Society that is in the business to make money and mislead humans regarding God. Vast majority of us (as I can see it) we can't stand even the smell of the WT and are deeply ashamed that we were ever associated with this Organization. I sympathize with you that you are tactical and want to be moderate in your expressions. That is good for you and perhaps I should be more careful how I speak. But I said what I said and what I said is true. Therefore I can't take it back or do otherwise. You seem to lack the knowledge ( i think though you will get there ) necessary to see the naked truth about the WT and sim. organizations. You are entitled to stick to your ways and opinions. I don't mind. You do not have to agree with me on anything at all and I would never even attempt to try to convince you to do so. There are millions who do not agree with me out there. So what? It is assumed here that this is a site for those who suffered at the hands of the WT Society and NOT for Jehovah's Witnesses that argue their "rightness" to serve Jehovah God ( the Borg ) the WT way. According your organization you are prohibited to be on this site (that constitutes a disfellowshipping act but you are here and argue!) and we tolerate you here hoping that you will learn enough from us to quit them and save yourself and your loved ones. If you are serious you should look at things without prejudice and decide what you want. I certainly pray for that kind of outcome for you. I have better things to do than argue with you about words. If your dignity was offended I apologize. Please forgive me but most of JEH Witnesses here want to argue and discourage those that know this satanic Society the WT. Do not try to brainwash anybody here. We do not want your teaching. We went through all that stinking garbage in the organization and want everyone to know who the WT is so they could prevent the harm that would happen to them. That harm can't be ignored or forgotten. You can see that right here. (Unfortunately.) I agree with what Mr Bowen is doing but I am not his worshipper and am ready to disagree with him anytime that is needed. So far I can easily discern in him deep knowledge about the WT and I am pretty sure he knows the great danger this Org.presents to all humans on the Earth. Wisely he attacked one of the problems at this time. Others like him are handling other problems and hopefully all will bring success because the Lord Jesus Christ is behind this all. I hope you will take my words the way intended and in no way to offend you. rmk rmk

Remote User:

Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 14:32:38
Comments
ANY ONE IN MONTANA??? --- Posted by SilentLambs: Sex Scandal in Montana Sep 21, 2002 12:22 ----------- It has been brought to my attention that there may be a major scandal working in the Billings Montana area. It involves more than ten elders in a motel room at the District Convention this summer and 14-16 year old girls. My information source says there is more to come with possible charges being filed, but key JW's work for social services there and are involved in the investigation. If anyone knows anything about this please contact me or if you know any of the victims please direct them to silentlambs. silentlambs (victims call 1-877-WT-ABUSE; others please email info@silentlambs.org) http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=37055&page=1&site=3#501583

Remote User:

Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 14:44:21
Comments
TUCSON, ARIZONA, MARCH FRIDAY 9-27-02: WHEN: 10:00am & 11:00 am. --- WHERE: 1. 207 W. Flores @ 10:00 am --- 2. 1701 E. Miles @ 11:00 am --- WHO: Event coordinator: John B. Brown --- Directions: --- 10:00 am @ 207 W. Flores St. From Downtown (85701) go So. on Stone. Turn left on E. 15th St. Turn left on S. 6th Ave & continue on N. 6th Ave. Turn left on E. Adams St & continue on W. Adams St. Turn right on N. 10th St & continue to W. Flores St ------ 11:00 am @ 1701 E. Miles From W. Flores turn right on N. Stone Ave. Turn left on E. Speedway Blvd. Turn right on N. Campbell Ave & continue on S. Kino Pky. Turn right on E. Miles St. ----- This is a continuation of the first public event ever for child rape victims of Jehovah's Witnesses. According to William H. Bowen founder of Silentlamb, We allege that Watchtower has established a child abuse policy that has ignored abuse survivors, protected child molesters and disfellowshipped those who have tried to support them. This will be a public statement that leadership for Jehovah's Witnesses (Governing Body) must stop hurting children. Silentlamb is formerly requesting the church to establish a tribunal to prosecute the Governing Body for their crimes against children. ----- Contact: John B. Brown at 400-0650 --- www.silentlambs.org, William H. Bowen. http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=37046&site=3

Remote User:
Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 14:45:25
Comments
ALSO ONE IN WINNIPEG: Go here for the person's name/email address: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=37046&site=3

Remote User:
Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 14:46:04
Comments
LINDA AND JESIKA, YOU GO GIRLS!!!!!!! MY MOM AND I WILL TAKE CARE OF OUR AREA!! LOOK OUT WORLD, HERE COME THE SHEPHERDS WITH TIER STUFFED FLOCKS!!!!LOVE, JAN-"JIPSY" MEADOWS

Remote User:
Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 15:52:14
Comments
Rich you hAVE THE right idea that you are against how the wt haNDLES MOLESTERS, but you need to see RMK doesn't want jw's killed he wants the wt mind control stopped!!!! the only way to do it is to stop the leaders of the wt from poisoning jw's minds with their weekly bullshit on how the jesus is leading the wt... do you truly think jesus would send lawyers to court to protect child molesters??? jesus could not be supporting this org. the wt lies weekly about their history ...you know what i'm talking about. it sounds like you have talked to some elders and they bullshitted you. come on RICH your too smart to be suckered i know there a lot of good people in your cong. but you know they are being lied too by the wt. leave rmk alone ,, if you were screwed by the wt like he was ,you would feel the same way...john CHEAP FLIGHTS TO NEW YORK FOR THE MARCH!!! If any one is still "sitting on the fence" trying to decide if they can make it to New York this Friday, 9-27-02, for the Silentlambs March on Brooklyn World Headquarters, here's some info that might entice you to "go for it."

SPIRIT AIRLINES - SYBER-SPECIALS FOR FLIGHTS THROUGH 9-30-02! YOU MUST ORDER YOUR TICKET ONLINE BY SUNDAY NIGHT AT MIDNIGHT, 9-22-02!! http://www.spiritair.com/syberspecials/welcome.cfm?Language=English

Hurry! These Syber Special Fares are available for purchase from September 19 EST/EDT through midnight September 22 EST/EDT. Syber Special Fares may be combined with any of the other low fares offered by Spirit Airlines. Syber Specials are available for travel between September 21 and September 30, 2002 on selected dates on selected flights and are only available online. --- Select a Departing & Arriving City from this list: Atlantic City --- Chicago/O'Hare --- Denver --- Detroit --- Fort Lauderdale --- Fort Myers --- Las Vegas --- Los Angeles --- Myrtle Beach --- New York/LaGuardia --- Oakland/San Francisco Bay area --- Orlando --- San Juan Puerto Rico --- Tampa --- West Palm Beach

NOTE: As an example, the ORLANDO (MCO airport code) to LaGUARDIA (LGA airport code) is only $98 ROUND TRIP plus tax, total $115. The prices may be higher for cities farther away from NY/LGA. Granted, the flight TIMES are not that great, rather early or rather late, but, hey, a buck saved is a buck spent on a Silentlambs coffee mug or bumper sticker!

More to follow...

PAN AM HOTEL near LaGuardia (which was on the silentlambs HOTEL list, and where several silentlambs supporters will be staying, from what I understand): SPIRIT AIRLINES also has a HOTEL DISCOUNT & BOOKING SECTION: http://www.hoteldiscounts.com/html/spiritair.html Their price for PAN AM is showing $89.95 for the night of 9/26 and 9/27. And $99.95 for 9/28 and 9/29. In comparison, the silentlambs Hotel list showed a flat rate of $119. for Pan Am. FYI...

Another "cheap" deal from SPIRIT AIRLINES is this Hotel: --- HOLIDAY INN NEWARK AIRPORT, 160 Frontage Road, Newark, NJ07114, @ Newark Airport --- For questions or to make a reservation call us at 1-800-360-7081 --- $65.95 + 12% tax $7.91 = $73.86 per night for 3 nights: Thu. 9/26, 9/27, 9/28 --- Cancellation Policy: 6 pm --- Check In Time - 11:00 AM --- Check Out Time - 01:00 PM --- Hotel Tax Rate - 12% --- Saturday Night Arrival --- FROM LaGUARDIA to THIS HOTEL: 10.1 miles; 14.0 minutes driving time; MAP here: http://yp.bellsouth.com/yp/

The Holiday Inn North is a first-class hotel... Ideally located adjacent to the New Jersey super highway network ... only 20 minutes from downtown Manhattan... Area Attractions -New York City 10 Miles --- Don't forget CAB FARE!

More to follow...
MORE TRAVEL DEALS!!! If there will be TWO of you traveling together, there are some pretty good "LAST MINUTE WEEKEND GET-AWAY" PACKAGE DEALS being offered to NEW YORK CITY & VICINITY at various sites (www.cheaptickets.com, orbitz, travelocity, etc. but I am herein presenting info from www.cheaptickets.com, though all of those three sites mentioned are offering the SAME PACKAGE DEALS to NY, so use the site of your choice). The departure date is next Thursday, 9-26-02, and then you can choose your Return date beginning with Sunday, 9-29-02, or thereafter. The package includes FLIGHT & HOTEL FOR TWO, so you split the cost. And from what I can see, this almost looks more economical than buying separate flight tickets and separate hotel rooms. Of course that is IF you can STAY for the 3-day-Minimum (Thursday-Sunday), and if there are at least TWO of you who want to travel on ONE package deal. -------------------------------------------------- Details to follow...

There are FOUR "STYLES" of package deals to NEW YORK CITY & VICINITY -- and here's the FIRST ONE ---- New York VICINITY, NY - Cosmopolitan Osmosis --- It makes sense that NYC's surrounding areas have absorbed a great deal of New York's splendor. Includes flight & hotel (NOTE: This was the most economical deal, at least originating from MY area. Pricing may be different if you are coming from other areas of the country. It listed several hotels, 3 in Stamford, 1 in Greenwich, 1 in Newark, and 1 in Whippany, NJ. and the JFK Sheraton near JFK Airport. Prices WITH flight and hotel for 3 nights ranged from $344 to $534 PER PERSON from my area.) ----------------- The second one is coming up next...
There are FOUR "STYLES" of package deals to NEW YORK CITY & VICINITY --- and here's the SECOND ONE... ----- New York, NY - Autumn in New York City ----- Unearth New York City's autumnal cornucopia of culture and recreation. Includes flight & hotel. (NOTE: There are about 26 hotels listed to choose from, and they were on Manhattan Island for the most part; hence these deals were a little more pricey, from approx. $435 and WAY UP, PER PERSON, for 3 nights hotel AND flight, from MY area, your's may be different.) ----- Two more to go....

There are FOUR "STYLES" of package deals to NEW YORK CITY & VICINITY, and here's the THIRD one... ----- New York, NY- Gotham Savoir Faire --- Cut a figure in New York society this weekend. Includes flight & luxury hotel (NOTE: I did not research this section at all because it says "luxury hotel," so I figured the prices would even be higher.)

There are FOUR "STYLES" of package deals to NEW YORK CITY & VICINITY, and here's the FOURTH one... ----- Central New Jersey, NJ (via New York) It's Not What You Think --- Forget Bon Jovi, teased hair and suped-up Cameros. The central part of this state is as bucolic, cultured and historic as New England. Includes flight & hotel. (NOTE: I did look at some of these hotels but they seem to be getting pretty far "out there" away from where we need to be in NEW YORK. The cab fare would be a killer, but the hotel prices were LESS, of course.) ---------- FAQs coming up next...

FAQs: http://cheaptickets2.lmdeals.com/faq.html Can I book a package for two people departing from different cities (and meeting at our destination)? --- Currently, our technology does not allow the purchase of a package for travelers who have different origination cities, so the best way for two people to travel from two different cities to the same destination is to look for two different types of packages- one package for each traveler. --- The first package is a flight & hotel package, which the first of the two travelers would purchase as a solo traveler. The full cost of the hotel room will appear in this package. --- The second package, purchased by the second traveler, is a flight plus package, such as our Fly & Drive option, which includes a flight and rental car. This second package does not include hotel, but would include the full price of the car. --- Both travelers together will pay no more this way than if they bought one package that included the flight for two, the hotel room and the car, though distribution of this cost may not be even. We leave the fair division of your travel costs up to you.
Remote User:

Date: 21 Sep 2002
Time: 19:02:27
Comments
ALL OF THAT ABOVE TRAVEL INFO can be seen in ONE PAGE here: <http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=37082&page=1&site=3#501724>

Remote User:

Date: 22 Sep 2002
Time: 10:03:55
Comments
i told you you can get a $99 flight to new york so i will look forward to seeing you at the march. i'm sure we will all go for a meal and celebration after, i'll bring my truck license etc. as proof...see you soon ..john

Remote User:

Date: 22 Sep 2002
Time: 13:25:59
Comments
RMK: thanks for your post. i absolutely agree that few on this site are in favor of the WTS continually existing. i know you want to see the WTS finished, and i really don have a problem with that. you're a reasonable person so i just wanted you just to think about the way you reply to people like RJ. the more the agenda for destroying the WT is pushed onto people like him the worse it is for us to get them to see what's on this site is true, i'm sure you can understand that. you and i know how highly strung these JW die hards are and we should be patient with them. i think RJ may have come to this site because deep down inside he feels there's some truth in all this, but to see people here talking so belligerently shuts his open mind down. my freeness in Christ and my conscience allows me to be here, if i get kicked out for it then, so what? you know that i haven't tried to brainwash anyone here with my posts and i wouldn't at all. your wish i believe will come true. the WT has become an obstacle between Christ and his followers, and its an obstacle that needs removing. i'm not offended by what you say, just don't want people like RJ thinking i think the way you do. i've read just about everything i can find on the net, if you think you know of anything i may have not been able to read on the net let me know by sending me an email to thereflex84@hotmail.com. all the best to you, RICH

Remote User:

Date: 22 Sep 2002
Time: 13:26:33
Comments
John: don't worry mate, I'm not having a go at rmk for his agenda, all I'm trying to get across is what i mentioned in my previous post to him. I'm sure he doesn't want JWs killed. i've not been spoken to by anyone. I'm sure rmk has every reason to feel the way he does, I'm not taking that away from him. don't over react mate. you really don't trust me do you? :-) Rich
Rich: i see you...i'll admit i sometimes worry about you... i'm aware of what you know about the wt .people like noname rj are here because they are afraid of the wt.. when someone hits the right button on some of these jwd,s the light will truly wake them up.the girls here are great, in how they can talk and help the victims, some here like me don't really have that ability. i yell a lot but i don't lie...i just had a big fight with my pop ....i caught him in 10-20 lies ...every time he tried to change the subject. because he couldn't factually or from the bible answer the questions. he wasn't even able to answer the questions he gave. he left an hour early for the study with his foot in his mouth!!!! i just keep pounding away day after day. you name the topic i'll pound away. my new one is when you go into the field serv. are you honest with their interested ones and tell them straight out the hundreds of false prophecies of the wt past. about the molesters,U.N ,WALLSTREET, ETC. if we all tell what we know on this site... it has the potential to catch some jw's inner questions . each person has something different that will wake them up...jw's don't come here if they don't have questions .. good day mate....john

Remote User:

Date:
22 Sep 2002
Time: 15:12:35
Comments
RMK AND RICH ;;do you guys go to www.jehovahs-witnesses.com/forum/???? think yall would like it...even rj should check it out....john

Remote User:

Date:
22 Sep 2002
Time:
19:03:25
Comments
You can fly to New York from Dallas for $320.00 round trip http://www.orbitz.com/

Remote User:

Date:
22 Sep 2002
Time:
19:07:50
Comments
You can fly to New York from Dallas for $320.00 round trip http://www.orbitz.com/
Comments
You must read the 9/22/02 Australian news report on Jehovah's Witness:

Remote User:
Date: 22 Sep 2002
Time: 20:10:14
Comments
thank you for creating this web address. I'm glad there are stronger ones than me, that can speak up and tell their story. please send me information and stories rinada01@yahoo.com

Remote User:
Date: 22 Sep 2002
Time: 22:54:06
Comments
What a load of crap! Don't blame the society for you being molested. Blame the person doing it or your parents for not stopping it. Then get on with your life

Remote User:
Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 06:13:55
Comments
I just wanted to say thank you to silentlambs for the new Bible study. Over the weekend I was in the door to door ministry and a lady questioned me about the story (story in the fictional sense) that she saw on Connie Chang. She said that she has known a few JW's over the years and this just seemed out of character. After getting a chance to explain things she said that she told her husband that she felt this was a social problem that affects all religion but that she was impressed with our zeal so she decided to talk to us. One question led to another and to make a long story short she attended the meeting on Sunday and set up a Bible study for this coming week. Isn't that exciting news? So again I thank the silentlambs for helping us gain newly interested ones. Your movement (which can be compared to a bowel movement) only serves to weed out the "undesirables" and draw intelligent ones who choose not to listen to your bunk and listen to the truth. Thanks again! Meow...RJ

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 06:34:19
Comments
I would like to be added to your mailing list. Thank you. Dina N. Beswick-victim/survivor dnb@cblhlaw.com (formerly dbeswick@hewm.com)

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 08:01:52
Comments
Dina, to be added to Bill's email list, go his home page and click on Add Me To Email. Linda Thoman

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 08:03:51
Comments
Hey all! Me, "Elsewhere", Jesika and her sister spent about four hours today at a busy intersection (the same intersection where Jesika did the press conference, right in front of the K.H.) and passed out flyers to everyone at the light! Man, those Dubs were sooooo mad!!!! hahahahahahaha It was great!!!! Elders were patrolling the parking lot, watching us, a couple of them knocked down our signs we had planted in the ground too! hahahahaha We had people complimenting us on what we were doing, thanking US for doing it!!! One couple that I approached had just pulled out of the K.H., but since I ain't askeeeered, I offered them one, and they took it! I simply said Thank you, and the lady said "No, thank YOU"! Wow!!!!! Another lady told me she knew of a dub pedophile that lives right in that same neighborhood! It was awesome! The responses we got! I'm sure Jesika and Elsewhere will comment on it too, and Elsewhere took pics!!!! It was a blast!!!!! Just wait till next Friday when we lamb-bast the K.H.'s with 50 lambs all over town! My cd player will be cranked up loud, windows rolled down, and my car will be rockin and boomin!!!! Whooohooooo!!! Linda Thoman Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 08:18:13
Comments
Ooops, I meant for the just posted comment to say Yesterday (Sunday) was when Jesika and I and the others handed out flyers. Sorry, typo! Linda Thoman
Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 08:33:48
Comments
RJ: If I had never watched Connie Chung, heard about Silentlambs, watched Dateline or Panorama, I would still know personally 7 children of three different families & congregations who were molested and the molester remained in "good standing." I have a brother who is one of the "sweetest" men you would ever want to meet, but he supports my other brother who molested my children. I had to come to the conclusion that my sweet brother lacks deep character when it comes to difficult dissections.You are not very kind to come here to "gloat" but show a complete attitude which isn't christ-like. Jesus had compassion for those with a broken spirit- and that is the "truth." Jesus also hated the Pharisees because they were legalistic and lacked compassion, and that is the "truth." You are mean-spirited in defending your "selected truths; you may win over a stranger at a door, but your brothers/sisters who have been devastated by molestation you abandoned. my father use to say "meow" when we were being "catty" - which isn't christ-like is it? You don't have a deep christ-like attitude by to getting a stranger to come to the meeting while you call your brothers and sisters in the truth liars. That is a poor common denominator in attracting"new" ones to the truth.*soapbox/ce

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 08:39:32
Comments
RJ I do not envy the happiness you expressed. rmk

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 09:57:26
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 10:37:37
Comments
RJ – I have come here before to ask you to refrain from posting. You seem to want to post for the pure joy of causing trouble. There is no need to continue posting here once you've made your point and realize that no matter what you say, it won't make a difference. If you KEEP posting, make it clear to everyone here that you speak only for yourself and not for the 6 million other JW's that have better sense than you and I, and don't come to this site.
Remote User:

Date:
23 Sep 2002
Time:
11:34:54
Comments
Here here soapbox. (thank you) I still hold out hope that even RJish people will one day see that the true nature of this site is 2 fold. One, help Silentlambs to heal, and give them the strength to seek justice for the injustice that has been done to them if they so wish it. This as opposed to seeking revenge which is the "Bastard Child Of Justice." And second, it shows people like me a better way to "fight" as RMK puts it by just helping the spiritually sick and hurting. Trading barbs only begets wounds. I don't want that and never did. To be angry and prideful about it, well, I was wrong, or at least misguided. So I have submitted to the cause of Silentlambs as Bill Bowen created it (It's purpose, and it's cause) and I like it. (it is better) It is so simple. Help those who are in need, offer help, aide, and understanding to those who ask for it it. The WTBS doctrine and policy is a JW/EXJW fight and not directly mine. But I still support Silentlambs and all of its causes. It is a "Just" organization of people.-Jayson

Remote User:

Date:
23 Sep 2002
Time:
12:40:15
Comments
Remote User:

Date:
23 Sep 2002
Time:
12:48:06
Comments
Nameless....I do speak for the other 6 million witnesses. If I didn't then there would be about 6 million less witnesses who made a mass exodus to support the silentlambs cause, the freeminds cause, the JW.com cause etc. etc. You guys who try to make the witnesses out as such bad people are a dime a dozen and will continue to do no real good except inflate the head of your charismatic leaders. True a few will leave but this just sifts out the riff raff. For the few that leave a hundred will be gained. Instead of the downfall of JW's within a few years you guys better prepare for an increase in our numbers and be thinking about what excuses you will have as to why. Why won't people just listen to me you may say, why don't they just see? Well the simple reason is that most people are smarter than that. Most people can see who simply have an ax to grind by your pathetic marches and street corner flyer distribution versus those who are actually sane! So nameless and others I do speak for the others if I didn't then all the other informative sites about JW's like this one would have a much larger following versus a passing interest that is ultimately offset by reality and we wouldn't continue to grow. Lets see who is around in 5 years silentlambs or JW's......RJ

Remote User:

Date:
23 Sep 2002
Time:
14:15:35
Comments
RJ – This is nameless. I AM a JW and I am asking you to refrain from posting. Don't confuse me with the apostates here. I wanted to make that clear because from your reply to me you don't seem to realize that. I have asked you on 3 separate occasions to stop posting, mainly because I am a little concerned for you. I wish I could tell you this in private without all the apostates weighing in, but unfortunately we don't have that option. Don't take this the wrong way I too have been counseled about posting here. I think you know that we should not be talking to apostates. Let them do what they have to do, good or bad these things have to happen, don't fight it. A much better way to disprove what apostates say is to turn the other cheek. This is the conduct preferred by 6 million witnesses, which is a much better approach than you and I trying to take on these apostates. I apologize for the way I sounded in my other post. No need to reply to this message. Do well in your ministry and wait on Jehovah.

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 14:51:52
Comments
Nameless, As much as I hate to say it you are right but I can't help but defend myself the same way these idiots are saying that they are defending children. It's complete horse hocky. They have a completely different agenda masked by a pseudo care for the abused. It goes beyond that! You, I and even they deep down know it. I will try to control myself from now on. Thanks for the counsel....RJ

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 15:44:08
Comments
To RJ and Nameless; I hate to tell you this but I am an active JW and I know several others on this site. I have to feel sorry for you because you are still letting the WTS control your mind and thinking abilities. The lives of children are at stake her and I also know several cases of abuse within the congregations. How could you possibly know about such cases since anyone who speaks about it will be df'd and the elders are sworn to secrecy. So unless it happens to someone in your family, there is little chance of you ever hearing about it. Don't you find it strange that Bill, Barbara, Joe, etc. were not df'd until they went public with the abuse info? Of course, they had to be df'd so that no one could talk to them and find out the truth. I don't know how old you are but you would do well to wake up. Yes in 5 yrs. JW's will still be around because there are always people who want to be told what to do and how to do it and they have a need for a religion to provide structure in their life. However, lets see if the US sees any increase in recruits and if their money dwindles. jazbug

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 15:45:29
Comments
'Lets see who is around in 5 years silentlambs or JW's......'RJ A good question, considering all of the lawsuits pending for the JWs. ashitaka

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 17:02:04
Comments
linda, jesika.elsewhere.;;;you girls are great i read about your witnessing work on j-w .com. i read on another post. soon the jw will no longer be known as the people who wake you up on saturday morning.banging on your door but the public will know jw as the ones knocking at your door who make a 6 year old girl cry, because she does not have 2 witnesses to a 45 year old elder pulling down her panties....i would have loved to see the jw's pacing the parking lot. saying over and over your fooling with jehovah's chosen people....go lambs!!!!!!!!!}

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 17:13:25
Comments
Thanks RJ....

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 17:35:23
Comments
Any one ever notice; ; ; that people who come knocking on your door.when maybe your taking a bath or sleeping. are always trying to sell you something that is of such bad quality or over priced that it would never sell at the mall .. if i wanted the greatest vacuum in the world i would have went to sears years ago ..if i wanted encyclopedias i would call world book etc.if i wanted candy i would go to the candy store.if i wanted pots i would go to macy's and if i wanted religion i would go to church...i'm sick of slick salesman coming to my door with a prerehearsed pitch to deceive homeowners and who laugh all the way to the bank on how they sold an other sucker.... door to door salesman will say anything to get their foot in the door....john

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 18:30:20
Comments
We are thankful for your website. Our married daughter-in-law (age 38) was abused by her uncle, who is a circuit overseer in Houston when she was young. To our knowledge, no one else knows. We pray for them to come to the "real" truth and see what is happening. Thank you for having the courage to speak out. Please keep us on your mailing list.

Remote User:

Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 19:34:10
Comments
Hi, just wanted to register my opinion on all this. I don't really agree with most of what's being said here. One thing that does concern me, and which I feel is absolutely wrong is that I have seen a copy of a WT letter which seems to state that a person may be made an elder or MS if it is definitely known that they were an offender, but this happened "many years in the past" and they are unlikely to re-offend. I feel very strongly that such ones should NEVER be used in any position of responsibility, and it is grossly indecent of anyone with such a history to seek appointment to any responsible position. I was most disappointed and upset to read the contents of that letter. But let me repeat that this is my one and only complaint. I also feel that trying to destroy an organization for the sake of a few sex perverts is wrong. Certainly individual elders and others have failed to show the proper disgust and horror at the crimes of such people. Some may have even broken the law by not reporting and should be prosecuted for this. But please don't forget there are 6 million other witnesses on this earth and rest assured that we do care. We became witnesses because we are the ones sighing and groaning about the terrible things going on on this earth and we look forward so much to jehovah's clean earth. This earth will be a better place because the sexual deviates who prey on children and the elders who have sheltered them aren't going to be there. So please stop putting across the view that all of us JW's are on the side of the pedophiles or that we support the elders that fail to act properly in such cases. We despise both these types of criminals as much as you do. The only difference between us and you is that we still have faith that Jehovah sees all that is wrong and will clean up his organization in due time. {{{JW's Care!}}}

Remote User:
Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 20:03:52
Comments
Hey RJ, keep up the good work... maybe your comments here are just a little oasis of sanity in this god-forsaken hell hole. Probably you shouldn't be here and there's better things you could be doing, but do what you feel you have to. Any unbiased person who is reading this guestbooks will find your comments make 100 times more sense than all the other half baked arguments put across by this bunch of ill-bred, grammatically challenged losers.

Remote User:
Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 21:27:35
Comments
RJ my wife who is EXJW made a perfect point to your 5 year statement. "As long as there are Jehovah's Witnesses there will be silentlambs." End Quote.-Jayson

Remote User:
Date: 23 Sep 2002
Time: 21:59:42
Comments
To Jayson...tell your wife, that is a great statement. How true that is. I think this has all gone to far for the WTS to turn back now. I would like to think that they will apologize and change their policies but their history doesn't show much of an apologetic attitude about anything. For some of the JW defenders, I would like them to ask an elder what he would do if he knew of an abuse case. His probable response is going to be, "I would immediately call the legal dept." Then I would ask him what he would do if the WTS told him to keep it quiet at all costs. Would he go against what the WTS said? Not unless he wants to be removed as an elder or disfellowshipped...he may not agree and he may not like it but he will do what the WTS says. His only other option is to resign as an elder. I'm going to ask this of the next elder I see. jazbug

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 05:37:07
Comments
RJ: beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Caesar. you're getting yourself involved in the politics of religion. if you carry on the way you are you'll come undone big time. Rich

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 06:26:38
Comments
Jayson......and my wife who is still a JW said as long as there are apostates there will still be plenty of head doctors to treat their insanity.....end quote! RJ

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 06:42:05
Comments
" I would like them to ask an elder what he would do if he knew of an abuse case." Did ask an elder this question, and he said, "You know, in our state we have to notify the authorities." Asked him if he lived across the border where he wouldn't have to and he responded, "No!"... the reason; he would be afraid of ending up in a lawsuit. Great businessman answer, lousy shepherd response! Reminds me a lot of the Good Samaritan parable - just wish they could open their ears and hearts to what they say and do, instead of worrying about their pocketbook! JerryN

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 06:53:43
Comments
Rich....I don't know which angle you are coming from in all this, but if your profound comments were meant to scare me off it will not succeed. I feel as strongly about defending JW's character as the ones in here supposedly do about defending the abused. You will not find in a single post of mine or a single statement defending a molester, nor as a JW would I not feel inclined toward helping a child at all costs. I have children of my own. What I don't like and will always be here to defend with fervor is the attack on JW's as a whole and their character! This is what many in here are trying to do and I take great exception to that! When there is bashing going on you can rest assured I will be there to defend my fellow brothers and sisters. I will never defend a molester as many would make it seem all JW's do, but I will defend our honor. If there is corruption going on at any level it will be taken care of I am confident of that, if not now in the end when Jehovah passes final judgment on all of us for our actions. You can call it politics to scare me off, call it what you may. The fact is many in here are scared by this kind of reasoning because it does not fit their ultimate agenda. Many would like me to go away because an objective observer can look at my posts and see where I am coming from. They look at the other posts and they see a much broader agenda than that of helping the abused. They see people bent on hate and this severely discredits the so called mission of this site. To relay another omnipotent, all wise and all knowing Jayson quote...."as long as there is silentlambs there will be RJ"....

Remote User:

Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 09:20:58
Comments
"as long as there is silentlambs there will be RJ".... Not "is" RJ "are" silentlambs are people (Like JW's are people) not things. But, I think that you are right on target with your point.-Jayson

Remote User:

Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 09:33:08
Comments
I've been sitting on the sidelines watching the site deteriorate. I'm sorry to see the anger and fear being generated when the possible benefits of this site for abuse victims is being choked out. Many posters here are coming from opposite poles on this issue with the idea that they are going to win an argument. But this isn't a debate about ideas, or scriptures, or doctrines. This is about people. And the choice each person must make for themselves. In the Bible, Jehovah told his people many times to "choose between good and bad, life and death." For each of us, the choice is based on our personal experience. If the congregation has been a wonderful haven from an old life of pain and suffering in this system, then your choice is to stay and continue with what makes your life good and bearable until Jehovah's appointed time. If a person has been abused and hurt, in any way, that turns the haven of the congregation into a "bad" choice for them. It's up to the individual to determine. And it rests with each person to account to their Creator. Meanwhile, children are put at risk because of secrecy. Why is it more important to maintain an individual's "reputation" than it is to diligently respond to a child who has somehow mustered up the courage to tell their most horrifying secret? Did Jehovah cover over the sins of his servants in the Bible? No, we read about kings, prophets, and servants who were disciplined for their sins. And the reason was always spelled out. No secret meetings, no generic announcement of reproof. The wicked man or woman was exposed before onlookers, and each person could make their own decision as to how to treat the individual. Of course, that put each person's faith to the test. But isn't that what life in this system is supposed to be? Do we really believe that nothing bad can happen inside the congregation? Surely we remember all the scriptures that point out drastic problems in the first century congregations, and they had the apostles around still! (Of course, they weren't too terribly concerned with having lawsuits brought against them.) Let's take a look, instead, at the life of a witness child. If you didn't grow up in the truth you can't possibly know what they deal with. They go to school, a tiny minority, and have to find the courage to a) Not salute the flag or sing patriotic songs. b) Not participate in any birthday or holiday activity. and c) Not engage in sports, clubs, or other extracurricular activities. But that's not where it ends. No, they not only have to refrain from these daily, weekly, monthly "tests of faith", they also have to be able to defend their beliefs. And they do it. Constantly. Every day when they go to school they know they'll probably have to miss out on something that looks fun, or turn down an invitation to a party, or stand out from everyone else when they don't salute the flag. They do this faithfully every single school day. How often do we adults have to do this? And yet, when one of these same faithful children is molested by someone in the congregation, what is likely to happen to them? You won't know unless it happens to Your Child. I know what happened to me. And I was an adult at the time I finally reported it. It was so devastating to my family, but through it all I knew that Jehovah would help me. How did I know this? Because I had learned to rely on Him every day at school and through so many years of growing up with an abusive, alcoholic mother. But enough about me. I really just wanted to let you all know that I respect each of you and your right to exercise your free will. If you choose to remain in the congregation then I must assume that you are happier there than anywhere else. Jehovah will bless your honest efforts to keep your congregation clean. And if you choose to leave the congregation I must assume you cannot find peace and happiness there. Jehovah will still bless your efforts to live a spiritual life. His love doesn’t end at our point of weakness, that is where it really begins. I don't have any idea what will happen to the society over this issue. I hope they can respond from a place in their hearts that welcomes Jehovah’s reproof, because it shows that He still wants to use them. If so, it means that my mother will still have a place where she feels purposeful and happy. My in-laws, who happen to be the "real deal" among witnesses, can continue to enjoy the life that has taken them far from their own abusive family backgrounds, and made them wonderful parents and just plain good people. If the society cannot respond from a place of love, God help us all.
Especially the innocent children who take their stand on faith every day. from your Sister to All Here, Brenda

Remote User:

Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 10:12:10
Comments

Brenda, Well put! I am touched by your eloquent words and I feel much the same. You made some very good points many have found comfort and solace in a congregation of good people trying to do the right thing. I am in a loving warm and caring congregation. This issue has come up before and we had to deal with it. It was dealt with swiftly.
The accused denied doing anything but we encouraged the family to do what they needed to do to find closure. They went to the authorities which is perfectly alright. It all came out in the wash and the accused was found guilty. This was Jah’s handling of the matter. Everything is revealed but you have to give it a chance. If some unscrupulous ones are trying to cover something over then that will come out in the wash also in Jah’s due time. The problem in here is that some have not chose to wait on Jah and have taken matters into their own hands which may not necessarily be wrong. But when you drag all JW’s through the mud and make us all look like criminals then that is wrong. That has been my point of contention about this whole matter from day one! There are those in here who hate JW’s so bad because of their bad experience that they want to brand us all. That is not fair. The system has worked in our hall and as I have stated in here I would be the first to make sure a child was protected as would the elders in my congregation I know that for a fact. But many in here think they speak for all congregations and all witnesses which is simply not true! Brenda I truly appreciate and respect your comments. I think they are well balanced and genuine.
When I try to express my genuine feeling certain ones take it upon themselves to interpret my words and make them into what they wish. That is the way it is when hate enters the pictures versus an objective posture. Best wishes to you Brenda....RJ

Remote User:

Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 10:44:30
Comments

As much as I hate too I must admit that RJ has raised some good points, you however are no angel RJ your posts have been mean spirited from time to time. The fact is most everyone in here is mean spirited in my opinion. I only come in from time to time to check things out and like Brenda most of the time I do not like what I see so I refrain from posting. The only reason I am saying anything right now is just to agree with Brenda on something and that is the fact that my folks are quite happy as JW’s also and I visit their congregation every now and then and I must say that everyone is quite friendly and kind, about that I can say nothing. I don’t agree with pedophiles being shielded either and if that happens then I think the shielders must pay and pay dearly. My father is a JW elder and he is one of the kindest men you would ever meet. He has told me how they would deal with the matter and it is not at all in the way I have been reading in here. Maybe there is a problem of uniform enforcement in various congregations I don’t know but to say that all are the same is a gross exaggeration. Anonymous for now...

Remote User:
As much as I hate too I must admit that RJ has raised some good points, you however are no angel RJ your posts have been mean spirited from time to time. The fact is most everyone in here is mean spirited in my opinion. I only come in from time to time to check things out and like Brenda most of the time I do not like what I see so I refrain from posting. The only reason I am saying anything right now is just to agree with Brenda on something and that is the fact that my folks are quite happy as JW's also and I visit their congregation every now and then and I must say that everyone is quite friendly and kind, about that I can say nothing. I don't agree with pedophiles being shielded either and if that happens then I think the shielders must pay and pay dearly. My father is a JW elder and he is one of the kindest men you would ever meet. He has told me how they would deal with the matter and it is not at all in the way I have been reading in here. Maybe there is a problem of uniform enforcement in various congregations I don't know but to say that all are the same is a gross exaggeration. Anonymous for now...

Remote User:

Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 11:21:23
Comments
RJ, I recommend once again that you refrain from posting here. This is an apostate site, and although you have good intentions, it will do you harm to continue posting here. We have been told repeatedly the dangers of paying attention to what apostates have to say, if what they say is that important to you then I would encourage you to discuss with one of your elders what's on your mind. I am positive you wish to walk away from all this but like you said it is hard to. I told one of my elders that I was frequenting this site and he told me that that's how apostates get started. I implore you once again to be an example and let the apostates have their say, nothing is gained by arguing back and forth. This would be my fourth call to you, I hope you have the good sense to realize that this can become an obsession, paying attention to what apostates have to say. I hope you will pay attention to these words, as this is my last post.

Remote User:

Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 11:56:13
Comments
Nameless, I would recommend that you quit coming in here also. Then you will not see what I post! I believe nameless is none other than a regular in here like perhaps Rich who feels threatened by my comments and would like to see me leave. I will not be swayed that easily! RJ

Remote User:

Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 12:22:10
Comments
RJ – Disappointing, to say the least. Hope you come to your senses before it's too late.
Here is the Toronto Sun article. Read by about 1 million Ontarians... Tuesday, September 24, 2002 Jehovah's lawsuit near end By Ian McDougall Final arguments began yesterday in a $700,000 civil suit against the Jehovah's Witnesses launched by a woman who claims the church tried to cover up the sexual abuse she suffered from her own father. The woman's lawyer, Charles Mark, said the church should be forced to pay damages because they were negligent in the way they handled her case and failed to notify the Children's Aid society immediately. "This process was an injustice to her," Mark told court. "When you have a person who goes through this process, she comes out feeling she is guilty." Shelburne church elders Steven Brown and Brian Cairns are also defendants in the lawsuit. The defence will present its closing argument today. http://www.canoe.ca/TorontoNews/ts.ts-09-24-0061.html

RJ: Nameless who keeps posting to you is not me. whether you should or shouldn't post here is up to you. nameless may well be right though, as i said before this is politics and at the moment you're involved. i'm not saying it to scare you, i'm just saying it so that you'll become careful about what you say and what your mind dwells upon. i don't feel threatened by your comments as only few months ago i was saying more or less the same as you, and was being attacked by john, buster and others. the thing is RJ you've had your say and everyone knows where you stand, just get on with what you have to do. i only feel that there's something other than what you said keeping you on these sites. things argent black and white RJ, Satan would have you think so. beware. Rich

I am deeply saddened to see the guestbook turned into a chatroom. I don't think that is what this was made for. As a victim I don't feel safe to post here anymore because others feel it is their right to comment and/or to tear one's comments to pieces.
CANADIANS????? ----- From: "silentlambs" <info@silentlambs.org> Date: Tue, 24 Sep 2002 15:54:19 -0500 To: <info@silentlambs.org> Subject: Anyone coming from Canada? ----- IF anyone is coming to the silentlambs March on Brooklyn this Friday, 9-27-02, from Canada please let me know asap, the CBC wants to know to provide a basis for coming to the march. bill

HOUSTON, TEXAS, UNIVERSITY ARTICLE: Volume 68, Issue 1, Date Opinion Should Elders report child abuse? Jonathan C.R. Davis Guest Columnist It seems the controversy concerning child molestation in the Catholic Church has finally calmed down. But now the spotlight is turning on another religious group: Jehovah's Witnesses. Jehovah's Witnesses are an American-born fundamentalist sect known mostly for its mandatory preaching work. It is led by the Brooklyn, N.Y.-based Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, which claims six million members worldwide and one million in the United States. Members are part of an extremely close-knit society that has its own way of life, its own values and its own judiciary. Jehovah's Witnesses have been under increasing pressure recently because of their child abuse policy. In a statement on its Web site, the Society explains; "When any Jehovah's Witness is accused of an act of child abuse, the local congregation elders are expected to investigate." Not local authorities the elders. In America, only 16 states require all allegations of abuse to be reported to the authorities; and in those 34 states where its not required, elders prefer to handle such matters internally. Child abuse typically leaves only two witnesses to the crime the perpetrator and the young victim. The abuser is unlikely to confess, and this leaves only one witness the victim, a terrified and violated child who is intimidated into silence by either threats or the belief that he (or she) has done something terribly wrong in Gods eyes. When the matter is brought to light (often through the victims brave actions), the Society explains that congregation elders should meet with the young accuser and the accused separately. If the accused adult still denies the allegations, then a second meeting is arranged, with both the accuser and the accused present at the same time. If "during that meeting the accused still denies the charges and no others can substantiate them, the elders cannot take action within the congregation at that time." Basically, the accused molester gets off the hook. Witnesses claim that this is so because of the injunction in the Bible at Deuteronomy 19:15, which says that accusations can only stand if they are corroborated by at least two or three witnesses. But is a child likely to speak out accurately and comfortably with his (or her) rapist sitting right across the room, glaring at him? Is it right to force a raped child to confront his molester? And more, do Jehovah's Witnesses have the right to supersede the authorities and place a proper investigation in jeopardy? You might ask, what kind of "action within the congregation" can be taken? Unrepentant wrongdoers will likely be expelled and shunned. But if a wrongdoer acts repentant, then an announcement will be made that this person has been "reproved" by a judicial committee. In either case, no one outside of the situation such as parents of other young children is told of the wrongdoers admittance to raping a child. How can they say that children are safe within their Kingdom Halls? Why no mention of local authorities yet? In its statement, the Society makes its position clear. After reporting the alleged wrongdoing to their local branch office (which in turn notifies the Society's headquarters), "the elders may be required by law to report even uncorroborated or unsubstantiated allegations to the authorities. If so, we expect the elders to comply." If, however, the congregation resides in a state where reporting isn't mandatory, time has shown that the crime rarely gets reported. Again, better that it is handled without involving the law. The Society's secret database of child offenders holds well over twenty thousand names, but the Society has declined to share this list with the authorities. The Society has repeatedly declined interviews about this issue, instead offering videotapes and statements full of even contradictions. It makes one wonder, what are they hiding? The "safety of our children is of the utmost importance," they say. But since they keeping everything hidden, it appears that their reputation is what's most important. The next time a Jehovah's Witnesses talks with you, you should ask him or her about this topic. Carefully examine the answers they give you, and see if Jehovah's Witnesses are really concerned about the children and not their own image. Davis, a freshman English major, can be reached at jonathan@jcrd.org http://ca.news.yahoo.com/020924/6/p5hm.html . Excerpt from the Vicki Boer Trial. Statement by Colin Stevenson, Watchtower lawyer. Because they're acting solely as spiritual counselors, he continued, religious figures such as priests, rabbis or church elders have no duty of care to their congregation members. Another excerpt: Anyone who runs afoul of the religion's strictest tenets will find themselves excommunicated, often to such an extent that they're shunned by their own family.

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 17:30:31
Comments
Re: I am deeply saddened. We know and we are sad too but those opposers will not go away and there is little that can be done about them. Just know that your comments are read and enjoyed by many others. If you are attacked don't take it personally....the attack will come from a creature who is barely human and thinks this is a cyber-game. He is incapable of feeling and doesn't realize you have feelings either. So go on with you life, ignore him, do as you please. The rest of us are human! Nancy Naranjo

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 21:10:18
Comments
I would like to commend those who decided to stand up to the organization. I officially left the Witnesses about a year ago. This website was very instrumental in helping me to leave the Witnesses. Thank you.

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 22:31:44
Comments
I wish most of the people responding to this website would use the chatroom. THIS IS NOT A CHAT ROOM......but......it is being used as one. This website is for the encouragement of the victims I'm tired of wading thru the crap to get to the help for the children/teens/parents.

Remote User:
Date: 24 Sep 2002
Time: 22:38:34
Comments
Wow! the lady that wrote in on Aug 6 at 11:55 who says "who showed you this?" "who showed you that" we owe a debt of gratitude to J.W. Please use the chatroom. This is NOT ONE! If all we have on here are jw's and x-jw's bashing one another We will NEVER GET ANYWHERE. This site is to encourage people. If you can't stand the heat.....get out of the kitchen. Spokane

Remote User:

Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 06:46:00
Comments
Enough already RJ! You have made your point. We know where you stand. As much as I hate to admit you have even made me reconsider my position. I must say I was letting my anger lead me towards inappropriate feelings toward other JW's. I know that all JW's aren't evil but what about the leaders and policy makers? That is what needs to be focused on which is what we are trying to do

Remote User:

Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 14:11:57
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 14:13:34
Comments
Here is a link to an article some of your readers may appreciate. http://ewatchman.com/essays/justice_for_silentlambs.html

Remote User:

Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 18:23:08
Comments
A few excerpts from the above essay "Justice for Silentlambs. Print it out it's 6 pages and it's worth reading. . . . Jesus Christ condemned the Pharisees for their hypocrisy because they scrupulously observed relatively minor aspects of the Law, but disregarded the weightier matters having to do with justice, mercy, and faithfulness. Likewise, we have devoted ourselves to faithfully engaging in field service and regularly attending meetings, we have even proclaimed that we abhor child abuse, yet by our organizational policies we are denying justice and mercy to thousands of sexually abused children in our congregations! And do we imagine that Jehovah God shall be an accomplice to such atrocities? How could God possibly condone what is taking place among Jehovah's Witnesses? . . . The Watchtower has frequently advised victims of child abuse, as well as Jehovah's Witnesses in general, that we must "wait on Jehovah." Ironically, our waiting on Jehovah means that inevitably he is going to mete out some very harsh discipline upon those who probably imagine themselves to be least deserving of it. . . . . . . Nancy Naranjo

Remote User:
Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 18:42:39
Comments

Remote User:
Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 19:28:36
Comments
RJ I hope you are still hear to read this, you seem to have concern regarding this issue. I have tried talking to the Elders in my congregation about my Childhood Abuse by my Mother when I was a young child, it has in recent years affected me greatly, I suffer from depression and often have thoughts of suicide, I wrote a letter to the Elders in my Hall describing what happened, It was easier for me to write it down rather than tell them face to face because I still feel a great amount of guilt and embarrassment about the subject, they told me that it was so long ago that they couldn't do anything about it. The worst part of it though is that now when I go to the hall they don't greet me and avoid any eye contact with me, I seem to have marked myself as a trouble maker, It gets worse, the job I had was working for a Brother in his business making Signs A few weeks after I sent the letter I was sitting at the computer working on some designs he walked up and unplugged the computer and said my job there was done and I should leave right away, I refused to leave because he was paying me as an outside contractor and I had my own Business License, He than called the Police to have me thrown out but they couldn't do anything since legally it was my business. Anyway I left because he was getting so mad I believed he would become violent. I could really use your help, I have no were to go no one to go to for help, I am asking you now to please help me straiten out this mess I am in, I believe you are a standup Brother and will not turn your back on me like the Brothers in my hall, I just want a fresh start and to make amends to those I have harmed, will you speak for me I really need some help with this...NP NJMiller1956@wmconnect.com

Remote User:
Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 21:39:56
Comments
Hi, We have been following your site for awhile and some of you mentioned to us to read some of the information and come back and tell you what we think. Here's goes: We feel that the child abuse issue do need to be investigated if none of these names have ever been turned in to the police as claimed. That is a criminal offense. With any cooperation (and we feel that this is a cooperation) there is one point to keep in mind. A cooperation knows how to cover their tracks. Someone told me to read their(Watchtower)website. They are saying that they have a policy. So if these people feel like they have a policy,they won't see the need of changing anything. (I guess in away they have brainwashed themselves.) Media Coverage- Let the world world know of the mind control, deception and abuse within the church or whatever. That's good. There is one thing to consider. Most JW's or Watchtower people just have a one track mind. So whatever comes on TV, many will just ignore it and then a few might listen, hard to tell. A few here mentioned some book to read about the False Prophecies. Good reading. Then again the Watchtower have fixed that too. By changing things so much, if anyone wanted to sue them over beliefs. They would just simply show that they have made changes to the way things are ran and if you show information that they believed years ago, you or the persons that wanted to sue really wouldn't have a case. Shunning/Disfellowshipped-I think they have covered their backs on that one too. Someone had a site if I'm not mistaken where they asked one of the Watchtower Lawyers that question. In gist, he stated that you joined the religion/cult by free will, so if you don't abide by their rules to stay in the religion/cult you will have to leave and suffer the consequences. As a member since you joined on your own free-will, you're under any obligation to stay. Yeah, they have covered their backs here. About the March: Your voice will be heard. I don't know if the higher-ups will listen though. We have been advertising your March around here. Much Success. From, College Student and Another College Student

Remote User:

Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 23:02:22
Comments
To everyone who is worrying about what this guestbook has become, (& RJ, who really enjoys getting a reaction, way to go RJ!) there always has been at least some of this sniping going on, myself included. However, those JW's who come on here "defending" obviously feel that this is a real threat to them, or they wouldn't spend any time arguing about it. They obviously feel that they are the ones to defend the honor of the supreme being (like he needs it) & are people w/ too much time on their hands. I, for one, am not going to tell anyone to leave, or what to write or think, or to worry about "apostates". I am not the thought police. I don't think I have all the answers. But, I do think the sites RJ mentioned, freminds etc. would be a better place for these arguments, not a place w/ hurt people. Even when I was a "dub", I would have been horrified at the thought of arguing theology w/ someone who has been horribly abused. There are comments I desperately want to make in response to these people's jibes, just as I desperately wanted to argue w/ the "evil slave" at conventions, to prove I was doing the right thing. I DO like to argue! But, I too have decided to focus on helping the hurt ones, & hopefully be able to treat those others as lost, except when I believe I can help, them or others who may buy into their abuse, because I gave up shunning long ago, & always knew, even as a child, deep down, that it was wrong. Just as I know that believing that "talking & praying w/" one of these pedophiles won't cure them. Their recovery rate anywhere is near 0. It's wrong, they know it, deep down somewhere, that's why their here all the time, thinking out loud w/ ridiculous rationale, trying to defend an indefensible position. Unless, as I suspect, some of these "defenders" are pedophiles themselves. MOST witnesses ARE good people. But, being "good" and "following along" doesn't make you any less bloodguilty. I love all of you. If anyone, ANYONE, even you RJ, needs to talk, my e-mail is avishai@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 25 Sep 2002
Time: 23:16:31
Comments
Jehovah's Witnesses are a terrible organization. Their followers in the main are honest, good hearted, but brainwashed and destroyed but this evil and innocuous organization. Several members of my family are still trapped in it, ten people actually, they are all just simple ordinary people but totally brainwashed. They do not speak to me, and I have never caused them any trouble, or made any comments, just happen to be "of the world" and not "in the Truth" - I was, but I walked away from it at the age of 19 years in 1949 because I simply could not believe anything of their teachings and ways any more. G.Gilmore gilorgil@yahoo.com.au
Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 00:42:03
Comments
Hello, I am a college student that stumbled across silent lambs from an internet report; "ex-Jehovah's Speak Out", by Bobby Ross Jr. I have a paper due in My Human Resources class and chose to write it on this. I wanted to visit your site to get a better understanding of silent lambs and the issues behind child molestation, and secrecy within religion in general. I will also be visiting the watchtower site also to hear their point of view even though I am upset, but visiting their site will help me write this 4 page paper that may turn into a ten page paper. I just wanted to write you and let you know that the information is being passed along nationally. There are many reasons that I chose this field to receive my masters in Social Work. My daughter was molested at age three, she is seven now. No, we are not jehovah witnesses. She was molested at school, by a teacher, and he got off, never was arrested, never did time, even after there was medical proof. But someone was protecting him, because of this I want to be apart of the solution of breaking down those barriers of children's rights, the way the laws are, especially, politically because this took place on a Government Site that had no connection with this daycare and had the choice to kick this daycare off their grounds after the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd allegation from three different children (all 3yrs old at the time). Sincerely, Future MSW/LICSW, LaToya Salley College Student, Boston, MA latoyasalley2002@yahoo.com

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 00:44:25
Comments
Some day the stronger of your membership will come to realize that your "religion" is nothing more than a crutch. A crutch, that is, tolerant of no other. Your beliefs, like those of Christians, are based on The bible, which is nothing more than an old story whose meaning was mangled over the years by numerous poor translations. The problems with abuse in your cult come of no surprise. Denial seems to be the norm here. I have a good friend who is a JW and I hope that over the years she and her family will shake this silly cult and get on with their lives. One does not need the teachings of a controlling organization like that of the JW to lead a good, honest, and spiritual life.
Excellent web site, we need to educate the unsuspecting people who are looking for Bible truth but are caught up in the lies of the WatchTower Society. Jane Darby.

I think that you are doing good work. It amazes me that so many people of authority in various religious communities use their positions to take advantage of others, especially the young and the weak. Then they punish the people who have been abused by ostracizing them. What a cushy position these abusers have. I am a faithful Christian who currently does not have a church home, and I am not sure that I want one. There is too much hypocrisy. We are to confess our sins, yet so many church leaders are committing atrocious acts and hiding behind their churches and their gods. Yahweh must be appalled at this type of behavior. Admitting our sins (confession) is the first step toward salvation. If the church leaders can’t do that, something is terribly wrong. Best wishes in your efforts to help those who have been victimized. May God bless you. One of the first step toward
Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 05:56:31
Comments
Please add me to your email list. I have a new email and miss your updates. I really appreciate what you are doing, as I am a victim of abuse in the organization myself. My new email is dnb@cblhlaw.com. Thank you for everything you are doing! Dina Beswick Gaithersburg, MD

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 06:36:21
Comments
God Bless you in your quest to expose this.. You don't need any additional "help" from Watchtower to understand the bible. Read it(not the Watchtower versions) and you will find the truth.. www.libertychurchjax.org

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 07:28:46
Comments
our prayers are with your organization as you strive the right the wrongs that have been done in the Lords name Augustine & Sondra Sodaro

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 08:05:46
Comments
This is the first time i have visited your website. I found it most encouraging. I too am a women of abuse in a JW relationship. I was in the relationship for 10 years. It is hard for me i have no friends any more, but still love God. Please contact me at nancy_j01@yahoo.com. I could use some one to talk to.

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 08:16:18
Comments
EVERYONE THIS IS AN Associated Press ARTICLE...Email your local newspaper and ask them to run it in their papers. Barbara & Joe Anderson interviewed ...Ex-Jehovah's Witnesses speak out"By BOBBY ROSS JR. Associated Press Writer. September 26, 2002, 1:32 AM EDT one excerpt: Joe and Barbara Anderson have been abandoned by their peers. Their son won't talk to them, and won't let them see their 3-year-old grandson. http://www.newsday.com/news/nationworld/nation/wire/

Remote User:
Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 10:58:54
Comments
Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you in your march tomorrow. It is a great effort on your part and a very courageous one. My love goes with you as I know God will be with each one of you. Although I am considered an enemy by the WT I am not. Just one who loves the Lord and want healing for these most tragic events in each of your lives. God does love all the folks he made, non more than the other, for we are one in Christ. Love and peace.
Brenda Dockery

Remote User:
Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 12:56:26
Comments
Hope it doesn't rain on your parade...... Then instead of 10 people showing up there might only be 5! Go get em tigers.....

Remote User:
Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 14:40:12
Comments
my wife was disfellowshipped before i met her nine years ago-i have never met her 5 brothers and sisters an hour away or her parents--its not allowed--at this point i wouldn't want to--this isn't being religious and doings gods will --its a vindictive religion with sick people running it-- ps it was for being divorced and smoking cigarettes-not a crime in my book?????

Remote User:
Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 14:45:44
Comments
Torrential rain forecast for NYC tomorrow. I'm sure the media and every duck in NYC will be out in droves to be able to witness the "march of dimes" This date will no doubt go down in history as one of the biggest events of the millennium. I heard the president might even be there. (the president of the local moose lodge)
I cannot make it to the march in New York because of finances, I have had a very hard time even making ends meet since speaking out against my childhood abuse. My prayers go with all those who prepare to go on this journey and I believe the poster who made a comment on the rain is the best example of a witness there is, and why we must fight this so hard, to say in a smug tone that it is suppose to pour down rain, well I have no words for your callous heart, which is the reason we are forced to take this to the streets, I believe Jesus will open the sky, and send down his sunlight to show all those who is in charge, this is something who's time has come and we will not be swayed or made to feel unworthy of our cry's any longer, God will see to that, May you all go in Peace and with God Jehovah thru his son Jesus Amen...NP

My very best wishes on a wonderful march. Your strength and determination are phenomenal. Bill, Sheila, Barbara, Joe, & others whose names I do not know. You are my HERO'S. You are my great crowd of witnesses. Nancy Naranjo . . . (forget the rain-people, they are like the homeless with all their belongings in a shopping cart and they are afraid of a different kind of rain...one that is falling on their belief system)

My prayers are with you all as you do whatever you can to heal from abuse, and protect other children from being abused. I'm so sorry that some current witnesses feel threatened, but having been there myself, I understand and pray for you. I don't believe this site was intended to "persecute" you, but rather, to make sure that people are fully informed on an issue that simply cannot be ignored anymore. It's been almost six years since I stopped attending meetings, although I still attend the Memorial out of respect for God and my family who are witnesses. My journey has brought me to a place where I feel more spiritual and happy. Even though I wasn't disfellowshipped, my mother treated me as if I was. Our relationship has improved recently, but I know that this issue is one she can't handle. She knows exactly what happened when I went to the elders about my own abuse as a child. And she must follow her own conscience. I, however, could not stay and participate in a ministry that encourages people to join a group that welcomes you with such loving arms, and then boots you out the backdoor as soon as you have a problem that just isn't supposed to happen in a spiritual paradise. Denial is a way of life for many, many witnesses. Not all of them, mind you, but many. May Jehovah bless all who put their hearts on the line in order to do what is Right. Jesus told his followers to love one another, to pray for their enemies, and to become like little children if they truly want to be his disciples. Those of you going to the march in Brooklyn are very courageous. I know you have no fear of man and are willing to face your detractors, because that is what your heart has motivated you to do. I still pray for witnesses that I know and love, and feel such compassion for those who are yet to be abused (emotionally, spiritually, physically, or sexually). Perhaps there is still time for the governing body of the WT society to take the course of goodness. It all depends on them. Millions of people put their very lives in the hands of these men, and I truly hope they are ready to be accountable for the "flock" they have been entrusted with. For those of us who have fled to a place of safety from unbearable pain, there is always the comfort of God's Word and the power of His Spirit to keep us close to his Son. For those who remain witnesses, please consider your own discipleship and pray for us, too. Do what you can personally to protect All children, because each person must answer for their actions. There's no passing the buck.
and saying that the elders are the only ones responsible. Listen to your own conscience. If you are going to stay in the organization then make it a better place than the world you disdain. I will do all I can to make my little part of the world a better place. Love to All, Brenda C. from Portland, Oregon

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 17:35:56
Comments
My prayers are with you all as you do whatever you can to heal from abuse, and protect other children from being abused. I'm so sorry that some current witnesses feel threatened, but having been there myself, I understand and pray for you. I don't believe this site was intended to "persecute" you, but rather, to make sure that people are fully informed on an issue that simply cannot be ignored anymore. It's been almost six years since I stopped attending meetings, although I still attend the Memorial out of respect for God and my family who are witnesses. My journey has brought me to a place where I feel more spiritual and happy. Even though I wasn't disfellowshipped, my mother treated me as if I was. Our relationship has improved recently, but I know that this issue is one she can't handle. She knows exactly what happened when I went to the elders about my own abuse as a child. And she must follow her own conscience. I, however, could not stay and participate in a ministry that encourages people to join a group that welcomes you with such loving arms, and then boots you out the backdoor as soon as you have a problem that just isn't supposed to happen in a spiritual paradise. Denial is a way of life for many, many witnesses. Not all of them, mind you, but many. May Jehovah bless all who put their hearts on the line in order to do what is Right. Jesus told his followers to love one another, to pray for their enemies, and to become like little children if they truly want to be his disciples. Those of you going to the march in Brooklyn are very courageous. I know you have no fear of man and are willing to face your detractors, because that is what your heart has motivated you to do. I still pray for witnesses that I know and love, and feel such compassion for those who are yet to be abused (emotionally, spiritually, physically, or sexually). Perhaps there is still time for the governing body of the WT society to take the course of goodness. It all depends on them. Millions of people put their very lives in the hands of these men, and I truly hope they are ready to be accountable for the "flock" they have been entrusted with. For those of us who have fled to a place of safety from unbearable pain, there is always the comfort of God's Word and the power of His Spirit to keep us close to his Son. For those who remain witnesses, please consider your own discipleship and pray for us, too. Do what you can personally to protect All children, because each must answer for their actions. There's no passing the buck and saying that the elders are the only ones responsible. Listen to your own conscience. If you are going to stay in the organization then make it a better place than the world you disdain. I will do all I can to make my little part of the world a better place. Love to All, Brenda C. from Portland, Oregon

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 18:25:34
Comments
A point of reasoning...If I contribute at my local Kingdom Hall to the World Wide Witnessing Effort, Does this include paying for the lawyers that are trying so hard to keep this child abuse issue hushed up, I believe instead of contributing this month I will just slip a piece of paper in the contribution box with the words Silent Lambs on it.

Remote User:

Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 18:47:31
Comments
A point of reasoning...If I contribute at my local Kingdom Hall to the World Wide Witnessing Effort, Does this include paying for the lawyers that are trying so hard to keep this child abuse issue hushed up, I believe instead of contributing this month I will just slip a piece of paper in the contribution box with the words Silent Lambs on it.
Comments
i hope these will cause i turning point to the watchtower society,i love the society for what it stands but there its got to be some major changes.wish you all well on 9/27/02 and also jehovas blesing.

Remote User:
Date: 26 Sep 2002
Time: 19:06:35
Comments
Good for you!!!! It takes a lot of courage to do what you have done and I am truly thankful for people like you. God Bless You!!!! and he will Bridget charbrid@nwol.net

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 07:13:38
Comments
Early pictures in from the march on NY check it out.
http://search.gallery.yahoo.com/search/corbis_id?p=cid%3A11227942

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 07:39:24
Comments
Need last minute or future march items> Check out this link.
http://www.thomasregister.com/olc/plastex/rw2.htm#economy

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 07:47:23
Comments
When I saw an article in our local paper, it brought a well of emotions to me. I agree based on my own experience, that this conduct was pushed under the rug, and I was given no support because of my conduct at the time. I was told that there was nothing that could be done because it happened so long ago and that because I had taken so long to come forward with the information, the time had expired for any disciplinary actions. It makes me sick to see that this kind of behavior is treated this way by the Jehovah's Witnesses. I was a "model" Witness, a Regular Pioneer, had several assembly parts and was cited as an example for other teenagers, but when the effects of abuse started to manifest itself and I searched to find an outlet for my confusion, I was told that my recent conduct was not acceptable and I was disfellowshipped soon after that. At the time this was happening, I didn't realize the reasons for my conduct because I had repressed the abuse. When I did remember the abuse, I eventually wrote letters to the elders of my old congregation, the abuser, and elder's in the abuser's congregation. I never even got a response from the elders and was eventually told by my mother (she is still a witness and regular pioneer) that the time had expired to do disciplinary action. For years I felt like I was a rare case and that this did not happen to others in the congregation, now I know this is not true. Sincerely, Lorinda lmd123@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 08:07:10
Comments
I was just wondering what the outcome was on the Canadian court case. Anybody got any news?

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 08:10:08
Comments
I recently wrote a comment but unfortunately I put in the wrong e-mail address. It is lorinda_1971@hotmail.com
Lorinda

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 09:10:52
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 09:16:57
Comments
Trouble up ahead * Former Jehovah's Witness elder Bill Bowen charged in June that the sect manages a secret database of 23,720 members who have been accused of sexual abuse but that little if anything happens to those named unless a witness comes forward (a stipulation supposedly commanded by Deuteronomy 19:15, requiring witnesses to prove a sin). When Bowen complained, he was expelled from the sect for “causing divisions.” Furthermore, Bowen charged, even confessed abusers are “punished” only by being kept from proselytizing door to door unless accompanied by another Witness. http://www.azstarnet.com/star/mon/20923weird.html

Remote User:
Dearest Lorinda, What a sad but typical story about the conduct of elders toward abuse victims. I was shocked myself to discover that the society imposes a THREE YEAR STATUTE of LIMITATIONS on abuse allegations. I discovered this from comments by the society’s lawyer in the Canadian trial. Strangely enough acts of fornication between consenting adults are always up for review, however the RAPE of a CHILD is not. Therefore, child rapist can continue to serve in the congregation. It shows to me that Watchtower does not view child abuse as a crime. http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=36532&site=3 my name is Karen Elliott. I am so glad that u r speaking out against the elders. I am going to add what happened to me in "My Story". I know that it isn't new but i believe in numbers. my address is kassienp@hotmail.com

"They will not speak to you," Joe Anderson said. "I mean, if you are lying on the road, they will drive right past you." Pleassssse. A little exaggeration perhaps?

AP: TWO PROTESTERS ARRESTED AT NYC MARCH ON THE WATCHTOWER..... Two of the 3 protesters who marched on the Watchtower Headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses were arrested today for conduct unbecoming an apostate. It seems that the two protesters just couldn't wait to take a leak and were caught relieving themselves behind a dumpster. When questioned about their conduct the two protesters claimed that listening to all the rain made them want to urinate but there was not a restroom nearby and they just couldn't wait. The third unnamed protester acknowledged that it was pretty silly of them to do such a thing when they could have just went on themselves like he did. "My clothes were already soaked from all the rain so I just did it on myself, nobody even knew and the warmth was quite refreshing." The identity of the two has not been released pending further investigation.
Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 12:07:01
Comments
Samantha Mills samanatee@msn.com

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 12:11:31
Comments
That's a great idea no name poster that suggested instead of contributing at the Kingdom Hall this month just leave a slip of paper with the words silent lambs on it, it would be a way you could cast your vote without the possibility of being shunned off the premises, and it would hit them were it counts, in the pocket book...NP ouch!

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 13:02:09
Comments
Bill Bowen is a jackass. I wrote him a letter and he called me an idiot. Wow, a true scholar! I'm sorry your life is crap bill but you shouldn't take it out on the rest of us.

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 13:16:31
Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 13:23:15
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 13:36:41
Comments
It is NOT RAINING in BROOKLYN NY .......live webcam...http://www.newyork.ru/webcam/

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 14:43:01
Comments
Keep up the good work, We are right behind you with this Keep the KIDSSAFE. Ex Jws and Christians here in England Out of the Watchtower into Christ.

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 15:10:54
Comments
Bless You!!!!! I have lost all my family to JW's (Lifetime members) who have shunned me. I lived in the horror of being raised a JW. My brother lost his life for two pints of blood. It is high time that they were exposed for what they are!. Left the "kingdom hall" at age 17 ... Lost my family the same day. I can never thank you enough for having the insight and courage to speak up!!! Tom lostinlove486@yahoo.com

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 15:27:46
Comments
To all those who have been abused as a young one or a wife, and had to deal with unspeakable horrors by those who would inflict harm on defenseless ones....My love and empathy goes out to you, I was once associated with the JW organization, and I have just recently visited this site....I am in awe of the courage you display in speaking out against the many injustices you have endured. Please remember........................................ Not all persons think as those who would inflict harm on you. I wish only the best for you in whatever courses of life you take. Be careful where you place your trust , but be strong and move on...I know the true God knows of your sorrow and pain. There is so much to speak about, but for the sake of time , I will not at this moment. At time in life , I am not a religious zealot...But if I could draw your pain from you ... I surely would May you dwell in the security , of the true Father of the celestial lights. Joseph jwhit212@hotmail.com

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 15:49:08
Comments
I agree with what you have done, To sit silently by, is the same as condoning a crime. I have a son who is a Witness, he has told me of his wife's step relative. He was a pedophile, I asked what was done about him? My son said his man's wife had him investigated and found out what he had done. She divorced him, but he was never turned into the police. My son said they didn't want the police involved , he wasn't allowed to be alone with any of the congregation's children. He died a few years ago, unpunished. We have a lot of molestings in our town, most go to jail, but some never do. Thanks, Shela Kelker--daisyjunebunny@yahoo.com

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 18:33:52
Comments
My parents are Jehovah's Witnesses and after years of being forced to attend meetings, I will have to say they are a conceited group of people. They are the quickest to judge and the last to admit any wrongdoing. I applaud your work and wish you many blessings. As for the Andersons', hopefully your memory will live in Luke's heart until the time when he is able to communicate with you of your own free will. I can tell you from my parents word that he is a delightful child and misses his grandparents very much.

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 20:25:40
Comments
Blah blah blah Watchtower blah blah 1914 blah blah blah just around the comer blah blah blah Christendom blah blah blah slave class blah blah other sheep blah blah blah this generation blah blah blah Just how much longer do we have to listen to this 120 year old record? People are getting sick of the boy that cried wolf, and nothing ever coming true. From HAD ENOUGH

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 22:09:14
Comments
Hi! I am a friend of a very special lady who is a abused JW and I would like to say that I think that this site is so great for giving JW abuse victims a way to express what they have been through and to find others who can share their experiences possibly help. I have never met or corresponded with Bill Bowen, but what I have read and been told by my friend, he is a remarkable and brave man. Now for my reason for making a entry into the guest book. My friend who I love dearly, attended the march in New York today(Thursday Sept 27th). She called and asked if I had seen any news footage on the march. We live in Oklahoma and there doesn't seem to be any local television stations that aired footage about the march. My friend said that she had seen a several news network crews(CNN, Fox News) taking footage. I would like to know if there is anyone who might have video or knowledge of how to find or obtain video. I would gladly pay shipping and any associated cost to anyone who has a video copy of the march. Any help would be greatly appreciated. You can reach me at the e-mail address below if you can be of assistance. Thank you and Love and Care to all. Uncnditionalme@aol.com

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 22:09:27
Comments
Hi! I am a friend of a very special lady who is a abused JW and I would like to say that I think that this site is so great for giving JW abuse victims a way to express what they have been through and to find others who can share their experiences possibly help. I have never met or corresponded with Bill Bowen, but what I have read and been told by my friend, he is a remarkable and brave man. Now for my reason for making a entry into the guest book. My friend who I love dearly, attended the march in New York today(Thursday Sept 27th). She called and asked if I had seen any news footage on the march. We live in Oklahoma and there doesn't seem to be any local television stations that aired footage about the march. My friend said that she had seen a several news network crews(CNN, Fox News) taking footage. I would like to know if there is anyone who might have video or knowledge of how to find or obtain video. I would gladly pay shipping and any associated cost to anyone who has a video copy of the march. Any help would be greatly appreciated. You can reach me at the e-mail address below if you can be of assistance. Thank you and Love and Care to all. Uncnditionalme@aol.com

Remote User:
Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 22:43:18
Comments
dano243@attbi.com. I seen your Article in the Tribune-Review Newspaper and caught my attention. I admire your Stance. It seems to me to be very WRONG to be DISFELLOWSHIPPED for UNCOVERING The "TRUTH". I am Disfellowshipped. I was brought up a witness. I committed Burglary for which i am sorry I did but did not go back to them. The ELDERs in the Congregation were a Joke. One Disfellowshipped himself from the congregation and others were dispersed to other congregations. Growing up I realized one person Whom I liked and he was troubled child. Sad to say I learned he was being Molested by his own DAD, Not anything important in the congregation but TOTALLY Ignored. Sad and BREAKS my HEART. Your picture says to me, You are a very sincere couple and LOVING. Your son and Watchtower is WRONG. Please HELP these POOR Kids in any way you can. I will be a JUDGE and EXECUTOR if ANYONE I mean ANYONE would harm my CHILD or those that I loved so DEARLY. Good Day. Daniel J. Scullion

Remote User:

Date: 27 Sep 2002
Time: 23:05:55
Comments

OK I JUST GOT BACK FROM THE MARCH::: WOW WE HAD ABOUT 100 THERE. I WAS A LITTLE WORRIED THAT IT WAS GOING TO BE LIKE HANGING WITH A BUNCH OF JW ZOMBIES. IT WAS AN GATHERING OF LOVE THAT I HAVE NEVER SEEN JWS SHOW..... I'VE BEEN TO THE KH ETC. AND EVERYONE WAS ALWAYS SO STIFF...THIS WAS A NATURAL HIGH...THE REPORTERS WERE THERE FOR THE WHOLE 4 HOURS ...THE wB REPORTER WAS ON TOP OF IT THERE WERE RADIO STA'S NEWSPAPERS AND 4 TV CREWS.... THEY SHOT HOURS OF FILM...WE MARCHED DOWN TO THE WT CAMERAS ROLLING THE WT ZOMBIES WERE PEEKING OUT OF THERE WINDOWS. THEM ALL AT ONCE THEY LEFT THE WINDOWS. IT MUST HAVE JEHOVAH ON THE LOUD SPEAKER. THE WT IS CLOSED IN BY GATES AND YOU HAD TO SEE SOME JW BIG WIGS RUNNING IN AND OUT OF THE DOORS.LOCKING IT ALL DOWN LIKE THEY WERE AT WAR...WE WERE AT THE WT FOR AN HOUR OR MORE.... THE JWS NEVER TALKED TO ONE OF US BUT THEY LET THE REPORTERS IN ONE AT A TIME ...THE REPORTER FROM THE WB SAID THEY WERE THE MOST WICKED PEOPLE SHE EVER MET. WHEN BILL RANG THE INTERCOM THEY TURNED IT OFF. YOU JUST HAD TO BE THERE... WE HAD LAWYERS AND CHILD ADVOCATES FROM ALL WALKS. THE WT MADE FOOLS OF THEM SELVES..... IT'S THE FIRST TIME I'VE BEEN TO THE WT ...THEY NEVER SHOWED THE LOVE OF CHRIST....THE WT SHOWED WHAT THEY ARE.....SHIT!!!! I WILL LET THE OTHERS TELL THE FACTS. IT WAS A BEAUTIFUL DAY ....I WAS SURPRISED HOW HONEST THE SILENT LAMBS WERE....I'M NOT EASY TO IMPRESS......JOHN

Remote User:

Date: 28 Sep 2002
Time: 03:45:43
Comments

My internet access here at home is almost at it's end but I would like to hear viewpoints concerning this MARCH. Appreciated the comments I just read by someone named John. Sounded like everything was orderly. I could not be there in person but I was thinking about those of you who were. I can access my email at my job so if anyone who was privileged enough to be in Brooklyn yesterday would care to send their thoughts my way I would be most grateful. My address is rosalyn52000@yahoo.ca My thoughts are with those that are persevering in this cause. rosalyn

Remote User:

Date: 28 Sep 2002
Time:
Can anyone give me a link to a real news organization that covered this march? John claims there was lots of press coverage for this 4 hour, 1,000 person march. If this is true, there must be a link or URL somewhere? Right? Or maybe it was just exaggeration? John H. in Dayton OH <--- Looking for hard facts!

Remote User:

Date: 28 Sep 2002
Time: 07:22:38
Comments
MESSAGE TO ALL SILENT LAMBS: LOOKS LIKE YOUR 15 MINUTES OF FAME IS OVER. THIS IS OLD NEWS. EVEN STORIES OF CATHOLIC ABUSE ARE BEING IGNORED BY THE MAINSTREAM PRESS. TIME TO RESUME YOUR PATHETIC LIVES - THE MANAGER AT BURGER KING IS WAITING FOR YOU TO CLOCK IN...
STEVEI@KNOLOGY.NET - IN PANAMA CITY BEACH FLORIDA

Remote User:

Date: 28 Sep 2002
Time: 07:30:54
Comments
http://www.nytimes.com/pages/nyregion/index.html No Coverage of the march...

Remote User:

Date: 28 Sep 2002
Time: 07:35:55
Comments
John, did you mean that only one hundred (100) showed up for the march? It didn't get any news coverage where I live. I'd like to know more about it -- preferably with photo and video coverage. Where can I find that?

Remote User:

Date: 28 Sep 2002
Time: 10:18:47
Comments
God was watching the march yesterday and that is the most important coverage there is. God is not impressed with numbers - that is a watchtower thing. God cares about one little lamb and the watchtower society cares about numbers. True or not true???? soapbox/aka Claudine*********
God was watching the march yesterday and that is the most important coverage there is. God is not impressed with numbers - that is a watchtower thing. God cares about one little lamb and the watchtower society cares about numbers. True or not true????? soapbox/aka Claudine it was on the news at 10 pm on the wb ch 11 in ny and ch47 at 11 pm in nyas i said we had about 100 silent lambs at the march ...canadian tv was there,was well as radio and news papers.. there was a lady lawyer there she was taking cases and said she filed a case in oregon this week..her name is Kimberlee D. Norris western union building 314 main street suite 309 fort worth texas 76102 ph 817 335 2800 email kdnorris@airmail.net she asks any wt victims to get intouch with her. i spoke to the girl on dateline erica garza. one look at her and you could see she was not lying..you name the state we had supporters from there alot from florida panama city.tampa,calif, mass,minnisota,arizona,wash,n.j.,n.y,texas yes texas etc etc.you all read the stories here and about some of the court cases.well i met some of these victims. and what they told me would break any reasonable persons HEART. IN EACH conversation they told me how the wtn covered it all up.and sent jws and lawyers to court for the molesters. some of it sounded like torture. i will let the lambs tell it them selves when they come home from n.y. i'm going to get the newspapers in n.y. now john in the bronx....ps RJ i was looking for you at the march ??was that you wearing the mask?? there are some pictures on j-w.com

Did anyone see the movie: Shallow Hal? Hal had the ability to see people's true personalities not their outward appearance. Ever notice how this Guest Book does the same thing? Every comment from JW defenders is mocking and malicious. Never a shred of compassion for the victims, never a cry for justice, never a demand that the truth be told, no, they are just glad it is still covered up and hidden. They seemed to be filled with poison. Not, one kind Christian remark. Why?

With my deep interest I read about the problems with Jehovah's witness. Pleas give me information what more groups, religious or not, have problems with child abuse in usa. Manfred Neumann Psychologist für Children and Teens. Berlin (Germany)
Soapbox Claudine, my question was a simple one about the 100 as I was wondering if it was a typo and, perhaps, it was 1000. So, why would you make this into an argument? JOHN, thank you for a very humble and informative reply.

Soapbox - numbers are important when you're trying to establish support. Goodness gracious - don't you know that one person can brutalize and murder hundreds of people and get tried for only one or two -- if it even gets that far? Besides that, God is watching everything and everyone as well as the heart's motivations and intentions. HOWEVER, it doesn't seem to be his custom to appear as a witness in court for anyone - not even Jesus Christ. Therefore, when trying to establish a case before humans and, at that, imperfect humans, one needs numbers to get their point across. We're living in times that most people have become numb to crime and victims unless it is so heinous that it cannot be ignored. So, numbers ARE important. They "tell" how much interest there is in something or how many victims there are -- to the people such ones want to get the appropriate attention from.

I am so pleased that this is finally coming to light. I hope that you will put my story on here so I can call up my "parents" who are JW's and tell them to read it. Thank you so much. karen ann

Much of the Watchtower religion is abuse. Don't question anything they say, and you will be a member in good standing. But what about your own self respect? Are you as a person that inferior to an organization that is made up from people, just like you and I? And God will not have any interaction with you unless you and He go and meet first at the Watchtower headquarters in Brooklyn New York USA??? I think not. People are listening to people here. Not God. Thank You
Remote User:

Date:
29 Sep 2002
Time:
06:59:48
Comments
There are some early posted pictures of the March and press conference from N. Y. at www.jehovahs-witnesses.com
This is a discussion group forum "anything related to jw's. A mixture of current jw's and those who have left, disassociated ones and disfellowshipped as well. At that site, click on "friends", and there are pictures of the march. More will be posted soon, but some picture takers and videographers are just getting home, so please be patient.

Remote User:

Date:
29 Sep 2002
Time:
10:07:35
Comments
Hi Everyone: I haven't been here in 2-3 weeks. Just got back from the SILENT LAMBS MARCH ON BROOKLYN!!! IT WAS FANTASTIC! AWESOME! MIND-BOGGLING! MAGNIFICENT!! The LOVE & CAMARADERIE & BONDING experienced by everyone Melted Our Hearts! Wish you ALL could have been there! It was a GROUND-BREAKING experience! A total of 125 men, women, children, families participated in the March! There were 22 states represented from the USA. 80 remained and gathered for dinner at Park Plaza Restaurant within walking distance from our meeting spot at Pierrepont Park (BEAUTIFUL PLACE near the Promenade by the River! What a View!) Even though it was cloudy and overcast, IT DID NOT (and I repeat -- NOT) RAIN ALL DAY!!! (It rained that evening after everyone had finished dinner, and were back at their hotels safe and sound!) We placed approx. 160 stuffed toy lambs in the chain-link fence across the narrow street in front of 25 Columbia Heights!!! WHAT A SIGHT TO BEHOLD! There were more cameras and video recorders too numerous to count, so there will be LOTS & LOTS of pictures and video. Numerous TV stations were there: Univision (spanish), CNN, WB, CBS, etc. We saw ourselves that night on the 10 pm news (WB) and the 11 pm news (UNI). We only could watch one TV at a time in the hotel room that night, so we missed CNN and CBS, but the shuttle driver (who took us to Pierrepont Place earlier in the day) told us later: "I SAW YOU! I SAW YOU on CNN!!!" He exclaimed to those around the TV where he was watching: "THAT'S MY GROUP! I TOOK THEM TO THE MARCH THIS MORNING!!" :-) ----- It's almost 1 pm my time, and I haven't been over to JWD yet to see all the posts there, so I'm sure there's more news to be had. I'm heading there now, but stopped here first to give a little report. I just got in late last night (Saturday night). Bill & family are staying in NY a few days so we will get more news, I'm sure, when he gets back. --- How's Soapbox & Buster & RMK??? Oh! BTW. I met JOHN at the March! He was GREAT! While "marching" from the Park to the WT, 125 voices were chanting: SILENT LAMBS NO MORE! 2-3-4 SILENT LAMBS NO MORE! 2-3-4... -- and "J. R. BROWN MUST GO DOWN! 2-3-4 J. R. BROWN MUST GO DOWN! 2-3-4... --- It was JOHN who posts here who was pulling up the rear of the marching crowd by counting for us: 2-3-4. It was SO COOL! -- Barb & Joe Anderson were there, they are wonderful! Erica & her Mom! LOVE YOU! LAURIE! LOVE YOU!! JEAN JEAN from NY! LOVE YOU LOVE YOU! KIM NORRIS! FANTASTIC LADY! Kelley from OK, LOVE YOU! K.B. & BARB, LOVE YOU! JESIKA! LOVE YOU! LOVE YOU! "D" from Tampa, LOVE YOU! Larry, Mark, another John, Willie, Jeff, Mike & Kids, HUGS TO YOU ALL! Too many to remember or count! --- Later, gang, heading over to www.jehovahs-witness.com -- to see what's up over there, should be LOTS pictures by now! (I took 3 rolls of film and used every one. Will take me 2 weeks to get the film developed and put on CD which I could then load-up to the net.) -- HUGS, SLC

Remote User:

Date:
29 Sep 2002
Time:
10:10:56
Comments
What's with the guestbook? It is show 2.4 MB's, took forever for the page to load in, and the last post says Sept. 19th
- which is 10 days ago! Did we lose a bunch of posts again? -- My above post about the March may not even show up, if this Guestbook is not working-??? - SLC!

Remote User:

Date:
29 Sep 2002
Time:
10:22:42
Comments
TO THE LOCAL BROOKLYN PSYCHOTHERAPIST who walked up to me about 4 pm at PIERREPONT PARK to pick up his child from the day-care --- KEEP IN TOUCH! We want to hear what you have to say! You had grayish hair, checkered jacket. You walked up to me to ask what was our group all about? I explained we had "marched" on the Watchtower Society re: child sex abuse & their policies & their cover ups& their DF'ing of the victims, etc. etc. You replied: "GOOD! THEY ARE A CULT!" I told you about the database at HQ of the 23,000+ abusers on file. Then you asked me WHY the Brooklyn DA's Office was not investigating this? I said that's what we want them to do. Since Bill was standing nearby, I got Bill's attention and hooked up this Dr. with Bill and then they chatted awhile. I heard the Dr. say he has had clients who have experienced this. Then the Dr. spoke to one of the reporters who was standing there, and told her SHE should go straight down the street a few blocks to the Brooklyn DA's Office (the Dr. was giving her the address/directions) and that she should Interview the DA and ask him why nothing is being done about this legally?? The Dr. said it is election year and it would be the perfect timing to ask the politicians WHY they are NOT doing something about this! Bill gave the Dr. some fliers and papers with this website's info. So if the Dr. visits here and sees this, after you read this site, come on over to www.jehovahs-witness.com, as there are lots of posts & threads there, too, about this issue. My handle over there is GRITS, I'm the first lady you stopped and asked what we were doing there at the Park with our tee shirts, etc. -- Either way, THANKS FOR YOUR INTEREST IN OUR CAUSE! /SLC (My handle HERE at the Guestbook is SLC = Silent Lambs Cheerleader). :-)

Remote User:

Date:
29 Sep 2002
Time:
10:26:15
Comments
:(- SO SORRY ALL OF YOU COULD NOT HAVE BEEN WITH US!!! IT WAS JUST TOO WONDERFUL!! We made NEW FRIENDS for LIFE! IT WAS JUST TOOOOOO GREAT!!! /SLC VERY HAPPY! :-)

Remote User:

Date:
29 Sep 2002
Time:
10:28:43
Comments
OH! I forgot to tell you: WE HAD HUGE BANNERS & SIGNS. The BEST ONE was a HUGE BANNER, held up by two poles on each side of it, which were carried by two people holding each pole. The BANNER was way above everyone's heads. On one side of it, it read: "STOP WITNESS TAMPERING!" on the other side it read, "FBI: INVESTIGATE THE WATCHTOWER!" in HUGE LETTERS! It was SO COOL! /SLC

Remote User:
Remote User:

Date: 29 Sep 2002
Time: 11:22:36
Comments
RJ I feel you are probably a Pedophile of young Boys and Girls, in fear of having your paradise removed, either that or your are some Kinky SOB that masturbates while abusing lambs on line. Either way I would ask you to take your problems to a therapist, some of us are too sick to be helped on this site and I believe you are one of these sick people, Silent Lambs Activity Committee Inc.

Remote User:

Date: 29 Sep 2002
Time: 16:15:54
Comments
My name is Maria and I'm 25. I am a former JW who left when I was 20 for reasons which I was bitter over. I am thankful for the actions you are taking in trying to help these victims. I am disgusted with what I've read on your website silentlambs. Since they've tried to hide this they've made it much worse for themselves now because what they've done contradicts their own teachings. I am thankful for Jehovah entering into my life and giving me morals and having been part of an organization who helped me learn about God and life. At the same time I don't agree with all of their teachings and the way in which the organization operates which is why I left. So I wish you all the best and I know God is on your side because he is a God of justice and love and would most certainly want justice to be done to all those victims of abuse. If there is anything you'd like to send me my e-mail is elena71177@aol.com

Remote User:

Date: 29 Sep 2002
Time: 18:10:10
Comments
To "Silent Lambs Activity Committee Inc.": Hey john, are you posting under a new name now ? How many in your "Committee" ? One ? You are the one that "masturbates" while posting crap on here with incredibly bad spelling and grammar. You can barely read or write, and you don't have the brain power to prove any of your lame arguments. Keep on tugging, boy.

Remote User:

Date: 29 Sep 2002
Time: 18:45:47
Comments
AP: BILL BOWEN LAUNCHES NEW WEB SITE! Bill Bowen, administrator of the silentlambs.org web site devoted to JW abuse issues has just launched a new web site for JW's and EX-JW's - you can find it at www.silentmasterbaters.org. Bill Bowen said today: "lambs, there is no need to struggle with your masturbation problem alone! Now you can talk to other masturbators on the all-new guest book". In related news, Bill Bowen also revealed today that he is gay.
Remote User:

Date:
29 Sep 2002
Time:
19:28:19
Comments
This is a wonderful haven for those especially who have been abused or fallen pray to the false message of the "cults". May God bless you as you reach out to the hurting. Blessings, Patti PalJn832@AOL.com

---

Remote User:

Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
03:52:18
Comments

Remote User:

Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
06:13:40
Comments
Hello, just visiting for the moment in my research on JW's. Trying to help two of them at this time. Shannon Schneider e-mail bound2fly2002@yahoo.com

---

Remote User:

Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
06:14:44
Comments
I am signing this guest book on account of a very brave women I know and love. She has been an important part of my life since her son and I got together, and I just want to tell her that I love her very much and I am always here for her. She has gone through a lot of hurt and pain, and since she has joined the "Mint Green Ribbon" and "Silent Lambs" she is being saved and heard. Her feelings are well explained and she is able to speak how she feels, and help others too. My (soon to be) sister in-law and other members of the family have all been hurt by their past experiences with abuse, and what my mother in-law has been doing is making a change for the better in their lives and everyone else around her. She puts much mind and all of her heart to help everyone one and be there for every one that has been abused by loved ones. A few years back when I met her she was so depressed, always down and never feeling well. Than she met the man of her dreams.. (Papa) He lifted her up and made her better again, supported her and is always there for her and all of us. She was once told no to marry him because he was not a J.W.--- I am glad that she did not listen to them cause marrying him was the best move she made, because she only became this strong since then. Thank you Silent Lambs for being able to be there for her as she is for all of you. I am always here for her and her family, I love them all very much... But to feel and really understand what they have gone through, I never did so I couldn't, and you all could thanks... With Love always Wackywicked@aol.com Ma' I love you and I am here for you... Thank you for being in my life, Your son's and Your grand daughter. I will always support you and Michele... I promise.
Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 06:37:56
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 06:41:55
Comments
yes i support silentlambs. my husband and his family are JWs and that's been hard to live with i don't allow my kids to have any part of it my e mail is princesscork68@aol

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 09:03:21
Comments
My name is Nancy and I was a Jehovah's Witness for 10 years as a young adult. I consider myself a recovering JW, I say somewhat tongue in cheek. However, even though I've been out of it for 24 years, (thank you Father)....my heart is burdened to help others who have or are in this type of bondage. I was a victim of spousal abuse that was reported and ignored by the elders. I was the one who was chastised. I am excited about the work you are doing and I'd like to help where I can. My email is kingskid2@charter.net. God bless you for the work you are doing. Nancy

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 09:08:02
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 09:29:03
Comments
March Pictures: Rich, Jayson, John, and NP identified who are the other two? Click below.
http://www.animaltime.net/monkeyfile/pic7.htm
Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 09:34:40
Comments
More March Pictures: Bill just barely got his finger out of his nose in time for this surprise picture. http://www.animaltime.net/monkeyfile/pic30.htm

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 09:45:53
Comments
March Photos: This is a picture of Bill gathering his thoughts. http://www.abc-kid.com/chimp/index11.html

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 09:48:33
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 09:55:34
Comments
love this site, an x-jw

Remote User:

Date: 30 Sep 2002
Time: 10:09:15
Comments
Say what you will but the marchers of September 27th were not the ones hiding behind a locked gate cowering inside a building.
Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
10:54:16
Comments
As a practicing JW, I am appalled at the "monkey" photos and slams someone is posting here. Personally, I am in sympathy with the issues the abusers are raising. This happens in many different types of cases. Blame and silence are imposed on wives (I've never heard it being imposed on husbands -- perhaps because all the Elders are husbands), children with parents with issues other than sexual abuse, new people that haven't learned to think in matters according to the scriptures, and older ones with a lot of years as faithful servants of God. Matters are NOT handled with the promptness and spirit of Matthew 5 and 18 nor are they resolved in a win-win condition. The society will not interfere with elders in any matter and innocent people are tried and judged by elders in unreasonable and harsh manners, even when they are advised otherwise by "higher ups" because they know the society will not come in as an unbiased arbitrator and get down to the real facts, motives and intentions in a matter. However, you didn't see me at the march because too many anti-JW remarks can be seen here and, wanting to remedy these matters is one thing. Destroying JWs is another. I'm not interested in destroying JWs. I've been baptized for over 60 years now. I was converted in the concentration camp in Germany. As a Jew, I was warmed by the love and comfort the JW women gave me, even sharing their meager rations. I've seen a lot and learned a lot from lots of people. JWs are the only ones who, in spite of all these difficulties, have endeavored to bring Bible truth to people in all nations and have remained, as an organization, consistent in remaining neutral as the Bible represents God's people to be. I'm sure there would have been a greater show of support if it wasn't for the JW bashing here. It has done a tremendous disservice to the victims and all those JWs who would like to see changes within the organization and would have given support -- especially when it comes to giving elders power without accountability. Isn't that what the Nazi's did?-
Deborah Shlimmer

Remote User:

Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
10:57:34
Comments
Even Moses came out, face to face, to meet with the people who were complaining.

Remote User:

Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
10:57:53
Comments
I'm sure the poster of the monkey photos must be mistaken. Those weren't the marchers. I'm pretty sure they were the Governing Body. You notice the zombie-like stare in their eyes, as well as the fact that they are nearly clone-like copies of each other? Yep, I'm positive. They are the Governing Body! Now, throw them a banana!
Deborah Shlimmer- You are right. There is "bashing" on all sides. However, Silentlambs gives anyone and everyone who has a "stake in" or an "axe to grind" a place to find common ground. Some have said that all Pro Jehovah's Witnesses posts are against victims and hostile, that is not true. And anyone who speaks out against the WTBS is a demon, war monger, and wants to see the Jehovah's Witness movement "scraped off the face of the earth." That also is false. We have an opportunity to find common ground to say that child abuse, molestation, and the abuse of mates is wicked and wrong. To do so in the name of God is beyond words. No one should disagree with that. If the Body of Jehovah's Witness steps forward and says and follows through with their words, and actions, that they will never again be silent conspirators in the cover ups of the evil in their mists, then that will change everything. But first the Body needs to know what is going on in their names. I have so much respect for the brave people who carry the banner of the Silentlambs. I can not state that enough. Also, for the first time via this horrible issue I have met active Jehovah's Witnesses whom I can say I respect. I respect them because they put down the verbal bludgeons long enough to realize that I am not their enemy. We all have agendas. Each of us need to ask ourselves "What is yours?" Mine is to help those who call themselves "Silentlambs." If they are JW/EXJW or other is not relevant, and I don't even need to know. We are all people of God even if we deny Him that does not change where we came from. - Jayson

Thank the Lord for the work you are doing. I and a few of my neighbors have sent letters to the local kingdom hall requesting no visits from their propagandizers. A couple came to the door on Saturday. I asked for their names and addresses. I did get their names (unless they lied) and I will be filing a complaint at the police station. I will protect my family from these people. I have seen what happens to families that lose members to this "organization". Can someone answer a question for me? Why don't JW men wear beards (like the Lord Jesus, as well as Charles Russell). Is there ANY bible reference for this? Or is this a man-made rule. What will happen to a male member who grows a beard? Just curious.

Deborah Shlimmer-------I just wanted to thank you for your comments. It is truly refreshing to see an active JW who can see that their is a problem. I am not interested in seeing the JW destroyed—even though I would not be totally against it either—but I have my own reasons for that, but honestly that is not my motive for bringing my abuse to the forefront for all to see. I was abused by my uncle, I was living in my grandfather's house (he was--is a PO). My own father walked in on it happening and my grandfather was told right after. Nothing was done. The Two eye witness policy is unjust and unfair. Although I had the witnesses, as my sister did, they did nothing for fear of reproach on Jehovah and my family's name. I do thank you again for understanding the need for change. I respect what you have been through and thank you for respecting what I and many have been through. God bless you.--------
--Jesika Thoman, Dallas, TX
TO ALL NEW ONES HERE----------------I want to say welcome and I send you my love and support. I was there on the 27th and the love in the room and around me was amazing. I have emailed all who have left their email address and hope to hear from you all. I wish I could leave my address, but because of viruses I can't, I am using someone else's computer. Thank you for your courage and if I can be of any help you can email my aunt Linda for help or have her forward your email to me at linthoman@hotmail.com. We are here to help or just to listen. Thank you again for your courage. I want to help and I do understand, I have been through any abuse you can name. I want to help others heal, or at least have someone they can talk to who understands. Email me through my aunt Linda---linthoman@hotmail.com----------------Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

TO--------princesscork68@aol---I had this email returned, could you leave the correct one so I can email you please. Thanx--------Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

SILENT LAMBS MARCH TRANSCRIPT IN FULL!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=37709&site=3----------------enjoy everyone---Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

Nice monkey pics
Comments
The Watchtower has been instrumental in breaking up families (including my own) and has nothing to be proud of. Around the corner will not be the excitement of Jehovah's earthly Kingdom, but the shame of failed prophesies, broken families, broken dreams and hurt to others. SHAME WATCHTOWER SHAME SHAME GOVERNING BODY SHAME

Remote User:
Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
19:30:33
Comments
AP: BILL BOWEN LAUNCHES NEW WEB SITE! Bill Bowen, administrator of the silentlambs.org web site devoted to JW abuse issues has just launched a new web site for JW's and EX-JW's - you can find it at www.silentmasterbaters.org. Bill Bowen said today: "lams, there is no need to struggle with your masturbation problem alone! Now you can talk to other masturbators on the all-new guest book". In related news, Bill Bowen also revealed today that he is gay. [APNEWS]

Remote User:
Date:
30 Sep 2002
Time:
19:47:39
Comments
From the WT Jan 1, 1997: "For a man who was a child molester before he was baptized, there may be another consequence. When he learns the truth, he repents and turns around, not bringing that cruel sin into the congregation. He may thereafter make fine progress, completely overcome his wrong impulses, and even be inclined to 'reach out' for a responsible position in the congregation. What, though, if he still has to live down notoriety in the community as a former child molester? Would he "be irreprehensible, . . . have a fine testimony from people on the outside, . . . [be] free from accusation"? (1 Timothy 3:1-7, 10; Titus 1:7) No, he would not. Hence, he would not qualify for congregation privileges" http://www.watchtower.org/library/w/1997/1/1/article_01.htm (FROM THE WT)

October 2002 Guestbook

Go to Page 2

Remote User:
Date:
01 Oct 2002
Time:
00:32:26
Comments
Masturbation? Bills gay? Dammit, who let the 8th graders in again! Geez, you guys are sooooo cool, you really got us this time! I guess being gay and/or masturbating really is worse than raping babies! Wow. Hooray for people like you. If your over 15, I really, really feel bad for you. Did you get your ass kicked on a regular basis in high school? Does your daddy not love you? WAYYYYYYYY to much time on your hands. Shouldn't you be out in service or something?
Go volunteer at a suicide hotline or a rape crisis center, perhaps a domestic violence house. Oh, wait, I forgot, witnesses just do enough by handing out literature. We know who you are, & your quotes here will be reported to the elders! Then you'll really have some time on your hands!

Remote User:
Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 05:16:02
Comments
It was a privilege to be among the 125 on the 27th. I had a chance to meet many wonderful people on that day - not only the courageous survivors of abuse but also those who have sacrificed so much to lend their support. I applaud the efforts and mission statement of SilentLambs and hope that one day the Society will implement the much-needed changes it recommends. BB BbsStuff@aol.com

Remote User:
Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 05:20:23
Comments
I am happy to know that people are speaking out against a religion that is so anti-Christian in their actions. I wish I were brave enough to add my name. But here is another sad example of Witness behavior. My mother and I had studied with the witnesses for 9 years. In 1977 I was invited along on a trip to the skate rink with a group of supervised teens. One of the church elder's son was there. Even though I knew I shouldn't, I went off with him and two other girls and boys. I was naive and trusted him to do good. I was wrong-raped-terrified of letting anyone know. I found out I was pregnant, he was disfellowshipped. His best friend, also a witness offered to marry me, (looking back, it was probably the church elder's idea), which I did. For the brief time I stayed married to him, I was continually reminded of my failure to call out, (I had been knocked out), during the rape and told that I was at fault. He was also very abusive. Not only that, but despite their claims of honesty, the relationship with him, other members and his grandparents was fraught with lies. I have kept this largely a secret for many years. My son is wonderful and I am so glad we left when we did. I can't even begin to go into the psychological harm he suffered when they tried to pull him back in to the religion 9 years later when I agreed to let him see his Witness grandparents on the condition that they not bring him to see his, (step), father until it was settled in court, (he had tried to suffocate my son with a pillow when he was 9 months old because he made too much noise when he was trying to sleep- that's when I left), and they lied to me about not giving him to his, (step), father too. I am so glad to be away from those people and their religion. I would like to excuse it with every group has some bad people in it but I can't. In every congregation and Kingdom Hall, I saw similar situations evolving or being hidden and I just can't justify them. My neighbors have been studying for almost a year now and I'd love to point out some of the websites I have found, so that they may know there are two sides to this, but they are too involved to see. Thank you-I feel better for being able to share this. I love your web site, I feel as though I am no longer alone :)

Remote User:
Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 06:50:55
Comments
Still waiting to see all the press coverage other than backwoods newspapers. Show me some CNN, some NBC, ABC, FOX something for God's sake. If this stinking march was so big show me some press!
Remote User:

Date:
01 Oct 2002
Time:
06:58:55
Comments
You are doing a vital work. Ian White iwhite63@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date:
01 Oct 2002
Time:
07:57:44
Comments
Hey everybody RJ is back! (Don't look so disappointed) I've been on vacation for a week and just trying to get caught up on all the posts and march news (or lack there of) Who ever posted the links to the monkey pics that was pretty clever. What are you trying to do steal some of the limelight from me? So what's up with the low turnout? Everybody was expecting such a big thing with national press coverage but I stayed glued to all the news channels that day and the next but I never saw a darn thing! What's up with that? SOAPBOX aka CLAUDIA what's the deal with saying numbers aren't a big thing to you guys? All I see when you first enter this site is 23,720. Then there are all the posts with numbers. How many TV stations did a piece on SL. How many newspapers did an article on SL. You always mention the numbers when it comes to crap like that! So numbers are important to you! You can bet your rose colored glasses if there were 1,000 or 5,000 at the march it would be broadcast with post after post of the good news! But with such a poor turnout all the sudden numbers don't matter only that God was looking. Hah!!!!!!! Who do you think you are kidding? You are a hypocrite just like you say we are! Lets see 100 or so out of 5,000 that Billy boy has said have called him (the Popes right hand man) reporting abuse. That's not a very good turnout in comparison with the thongs of the so called abused. What's your explanation for this? Did the elder mafia order hits on everyone that went to the march? Or maybe it was some other crazy crapload of propaganda laden excuses similar to this? I want to help anyone hurt and abused also whether you believe it or not but I will do so within the congregation. This is the wrong way. You guys have a terrible chip on your shoulder that is about to get knocked off. Can't you see that the way you are going about it is futile? RJ

Remote User:

Date:
01 Oct 2002
Time:
08:23:33
Comments
To Not Alone: Thank you for sharing your story. I am so sorry about what happened to you and your son. The most important vital aspect of silentlams, to me, is that the ones who have been harmed now know they are not alone or crazy or spiritually weak and that you do not have to be silent any more. *Have you told your story to the neighbors? Or maybe you could print a few of these stories for them to read.  Please know that you can call Bill Bowen or email him if you need to talk or need help. You can also write your story in the Abused Lambs section of this web site. *****

Remote User:

Date:
01 Oct 2002
I was in a congregation in So. California for 16 years. During that time, a friend of mine's husband was found to be a child molester. He was disfellowshipped several times, but always reinstated. Now, at the time, we, of course, did not know why he was disfellowshipped. And my kids played at their house all the time, even spending the night. Years later, when I found out why he kept getting disfellowshipped, I was appalled. Every child in the congregation who had contact with this guy was at risk. I was deeply disturbed and disappointed that protecting the image of the society was more important than protecting its members.

There is an article in today's Dallas Morning News regarding child abuse within the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. For those of you who do not know this church is in an extremely wealthy area of Dallas. Contrast this church's response to abuse allegations to Watchtower's response (or lack of one). Although the abuser is now dead, the CHURCH ITSELF mounted an investigation that revealed DOUBLE the number of victims. . . . . Some excerpts: "This evidence was more than compelling; it was overwhelming," the report said. "At the close of the investigation, with the puzzle pieces in place, the . . . [committee] is left with an inescapable conclusion about which there can be no doubt," that Mr. Pruitt molested 22 females, including three adults, a total of "at least 48 times. " Their median age was 12 to 13. Two girls were not believed when they told other missionaries that they had been molested by the kindly man who entertained children with magic tricks and humor. For many, if not all, of his victims, his abuse left lifelong injury," the report said. The document also said Mr. Pruitt's wife, Virginia, "played an active role in concealing the truth about her husband. " (IN THE VICKI BOER CASE WATCHTOWER ARGUED THAT ELDERS DO NOT OWE VICTIMS A DUTY OF CARE) notice the comment from Presbyterian church Pastor: "We're trying to do whatever we can pastorally for the alleged victims. "Those who feel they were abused need to be cared for. "SHOULDN'T WE EXPECT MORE FROM WATCHTOWER http://www.dallasnews.com/latestnews/stories/100102dnmetabusereport.9ab42.html

R. J - you are hopeless and one spiritually ugly guy and you stand out like a sore thumb here. Are you really a JW???????? You sound like a pagan. Don't forget Jehovah watched while these silent lambs were being raped and molested - that is the "news" broadcast up to the heavens, just like your posts look ugly, mean, petty, all the way up to the heavens. You are broadcasting all the way up to the heavens how ugly you are and the lack of love your heart projects. And you are worried about us??????? Don't bother.

If there is one thing I know, you cannot reason with a ridiculer. I am tempted to reason with RJ - but proverbs says it will only bring shame to try and do so. Experience has proven this to be true - I have had lots of experience with ridicule.

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 12:42:45
Comments

Hooray, the watchtower society is in the limelight for pretending their policy on child abuse works, now what about the mental abuse we suffer for having a different thought to the GB, and being kicked out as apostates! and telling us god hates us, and we'll be destroyed by their killer God, Now that's Abuse! www.antijehovahswitness.com

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 13:36:28
Comments

To all those who were disfellowshipped because they didn't scream when raped, there was an article about rape that PLAINLY STATED that screaming wasn't required. It pointed out that some women (or girls) may be so scared that they can't scream. This isn't a case of someone being knocked unconscious. It's a case of not being able to scream because of fear, etc. Being knocked unconscious is even more reason for not screaming. I'm into it with elders all the time because they don't know what's in their own publications. Even those at H. Q. don't necessarily know what's in their publications. You've got to do your own homework and bring this stuff up -- if they let you. I know of cases where they don't let you defend yourself or want to know what you have to say. I looked but can't find that article but I had a talk with an elder and he was saying that "if she screams" and I told him that's not what the article says. He apparently had it handy and he started reading it aloud and he, too, realized that the article specifically talked about cases where the victim couldn't scream. The biggest trouble is we don't do our own research before seeking the assistance of elders. We're looking to them to know what to do or say and, in a lot of cases, they don't know because they're not familiar with our publications. Oh, they may say that's not true but I've had elders argue with me about information in our very current magazines -- study articles to boot. I don't like being at odds with people, especially the elders or the society, but they contradict their own information practice so much that I've finally come to realize that they don't even know what's in our own publications. Therefore, in specific matters, you better believe that I'm armed with information that comes from our own publications and the scriptures that support their statements. I'm sure there are some who'd love to knock me out of the congregation or organization. I'm a thorn in their flesh, so to speak. However, NO ONE EVER TAUGHT ME THE BIBLE and ALL THE GOOD THINGS OF THE BIBLE but Jehovah's Witnesses. I know this is the right organization. The problem is some are trying to make it their own exclusive paradise regardless of whom they harm. There was a child abuse case in Georgia a couple of years ago and the society successfully argued in court that they're not responsible because the abuser was not in an appointed position. I strongly disagree and I've said so. Now they want everyone to agree that they're doing the right thing in this child abuse sham. I've made it clear that I do not agree with what they're doing. I'm not disfellowshipped but I'm sure they like to think I'm the one that's not in the right, or crazy, or spiritually weak, or whatever. No matter how hurt one is, they MUST do their own research to find FROM THEIR OWN PUBLICATIONS the information you need because the odds are (and it is a "toss up" when it comes to what elders you have to deal with) that the elders don't know this information and they didn't do any relevant research, either. They apply a scripture or scriptures as the letter of the law and ignore important information in our publications that SHOULD help them exercise the scriptures in the SPIRIT of the law. My opinion is that there are a bunch of lazy ignorants running things -- for whatever reason or excuse. YOU'VE GOT TO KNOW FOR YOURSELF IN EVERYTHING. Even if you're going through a divorce or any secular legal matter, you need to do research because you can't even trust an attorney to do proper research and give you all the assistance that is available to you. I am surviving as a Jehovah's Witness because I know for myself what the Bible and publications say and I don't make it a secret. I'm not obnoxious but no one can pull anything over on me because when one is right, they're right -- especially when you've got the proof there for anyone to see in black and white in their own publications. This organization will not die but someone isn't running it right and it's important to find out who the apostate(s) is and get rid of them. If what they're doing isn't scriptural, then someone is abusing this organization. The result is that the sheep are being abused — in more ways than one. --Anonymous Until It's Time

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 14:23:44
Comments
To all the new posters here. . . . Welcome. I am Linda Thoman. We are here to help anyone who wants or needs someone to talk to. If there is anything either Jesika or I can do to be of help, please let us know. If you want/need contacts local to you to talk to, let me know. If you would like to be a part of a group who've been through it too, let me know. Don't hesitate to email me or Jesika, my niece. Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 14:23:55
Comments
To all the new posters here. . . . Welcome. I am Linda Thoman. We are here to help anyone who wants or needs someone to talk to. If there is anything either Jesika or I can do to be of help, please let us know. If you want/need contacts local to you to talk to, let me know. If you would like to be a part of a group who've been through it too, let me know. Don't hesitate to email me or Jesika, my niece. Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 16:14:54
Comments
WOW. So much time devoted to this matter. I wonder if anybody would take some time to go preach the word of GOD. If Someone is abused they should go straight to the authorities if they feel they should, nothing wrong with that. I guess the watchtower doesn't have enough to do, that now they have to be district attorneys too, how silly u all are. . . . just handle things as u must. People inside the congregation have settled various things using the judicial system, nothing wrong with that, u all just wasting your time.

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 16:28:19
Comments
Your march on 9/27 was a farce. See if it will help you or anything else---it won't! See if it will hurt the JW's---it won't. The are steps ahead of you and a whole lot smarter. I heard you left a lot of litter there at Brooklyn. You relish in the attention of the Media and that IS what's important to you. I was wondering if you were ever going to be disfellowshipped and now finally you are! Jehovah is just! That's what happens to people who cause divisions in the Labette County http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Plains/3524/sex.html
Sedgwick County http://www.sedgwick.ks.us/sheriff/index.html
Macomb County: http://www.mipsor.state.mi.us
New Mexico: http://www.nmsexoffender.com
New York: http://www.parentsformeganslaw.com/
North Carolina: http://www.sbi.jus.state.nc.us/sor/
Ohio: Greene County: http://www.co.greene.oh.us/sxoffendr.htm
Stark County: http://www.sheriff.co.stark.oh.us/pr01.htm
University of Akron: http://www.uakron.edu/police/sexoff.htm
Oklahoma: Blaine County: http://www.pldi.net/~blaineso/blaine_county_sexual_predator_pa.htm
Enid PD: http://www.enid.org/police/registered.htm
Oregon: Benton County: http://www.co.benton.or.us/sheriff/registrations/ttbccc/sonote/
Yamhill County: http://www.co.yamhill.or.us/corrections/
The Sex Offender Network and Oregon's Special Sex Offender Strategies Tennessee: http://www.ticic.state.in.us/
Texas: http://records.txdps.state.tx.us/dps/default.cfm
Balch Springs PD: http://www.bspd.com/public/sexoff.html
Collins County: http://www.co.collin.tx.us/sheriff/sxoffen.htm
Duncanville PD: http://www.ci.duncanville.tx.us/framespage.htm
Garland PD: http://www.ci.garland.tx.us/police/gpdsex.htm
Virginia: http://sex-offender.vsp.state.va.us/cool-ICE/
Washington: Cowlitz County: http://www.co.cowlitz.wa.us/
Island County: http://www.islandcounty.net/sheriff/sex-map.htm
King County: http://www.metrokc.gov/sheriff/sxoffsch.htm
Okanogan County: http://okanogancounty.org/Sheriff/soffend.htm Wahkiakum County: http://www.geocities.com/CapitolHill/Lobby/7649/Renton:
http://www.ci.renton.wa.us/police/sexlevel3.htm
TriCities: http://www.tricityherald.com/sexoffenders/
West Virginia: http://www.wvstatepolice.com/West virginia:
Madison PD http://offender.doc.state.wi.us/public/
Toll Free Registry Hotline, in English and Spanish 1-800-398-2403 Another good online source of information is:
http://www.wolfenet.com/~dhillis/sexoffen.htm
Oklahoma: http://www.state.ok.us/~ag/dci/so/so_registration.html
Converse County http://www.state.wy.us/~ag/dci/so/counties/so_converse.html
Fremont County http://www.state.wy.us/~ag/dci/so/counties/so_fremont.html
Laramie County http://www.state.wy.us/~ag/dci/so/counties/so_laramie.html
Natrona County http://www.state.wy.us/~ag/dci/so/counties/so_natrona.html

Remote User:

Date:
01 Oct 2002
Time:
16:42:31
Comments
I don't get it, did anybody bother to see what the watchtower encourages people to do? obviously not, perhaps u should read watchtower january 1st 1995 page 11. simple explanation: 2 sides to each problem, in the congregation, and outside the congregation. Outside the congregation someone is free to make an accusation against someone if its a brother and take them to court if they see fit, the proper authorities investigate that. now inside the congregation:
(now come on guys we all know how this works) just cause u make an accusation that is not enough to punish someone, do you have proof? do u have witnesses? if the person does not confess there are no grounds to punish him, only based on your word, including child abuse. Very simple huh? now are the elders going to tell the whole hall about it? or the authorities? OF course not, innocent un till proven guilty. now do u still want to report that person to the authorities? YES? well its your right, go on have a ball. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .

Remote User:

Date:
01 Oct 2002
Time:
16:47:02
Comments
THE MOLE******
Info update. I thought I would return one MORE time just to let you know that the couple who questioned the elders in our hall was removed as apostates. I did get another letter from Brother Franz and he stated that he is saddened over the crisis that he heard only rumors of long ago from some large cities but not the magnitude of what was being addressed on TV. Much of his knowledge are those who were wrongfully accused for questioning the society's reasoning. I on the other hand seen things as I have reported before that was just horrible and swept under the rug. After the Connie Chung report it is clearly evident that the brothers now want to sweep this under the rug also. Basically the subject is being ignored in our hall and anyone who speaks of it is ignored and spoken of as being spiritually weak. The grind stone has crushed and bullied many to remain silent so the matter will just blow away and forgotten. It saddens me that I have no power to control or will it to help those in need. All I can do is advised those current members to be weary and keep an eye open. I meet with several now in our homes to have study and question the things the brothers want us to feel they the have power over us. Reading is power, I shall break the chains of my past and become free. . . . . . . . THE MOLE includes sex offenders' home addresses.  In California, residents must visit a sheriff's office or police station to view the database. There, they can search for sex offenders by name, zip code or birth date.  California's database includes photos for most offenders, a list of sex offenses they've been charged with, aliases they use and whether they have scars or tattoos.  While people convicted of nearly any sex crime must register with police, the public can only view information on offenders considered serious or high-risk. A third category, simply called "other," includes those convicted of lesser sex crimes, such as exhibitionism or incest.  The sex offender registry can also be searched by calling a 900 number set up by the state. It costs $10 to check two names.  Note-taking prohibited  Sheriff's departments in every county are required to make the Megan's Law database available to the public, as are cities with population greater than 200,000.  Palo Alto and Mountain View have opted to provide public access to the database even though they're not required to do so.  In San Mateo County, the city of San Mateo lets its residents view the registry.  But residents of smaller cities -- including East Palo Alto, Menlo Park and Burlingame - - are referred to the sheriff's office in Redwood City if they want to view the database.  That means a trip to downtown Redwood City during working hours, finding a parking space and then passing through an airport-style metal detector to get into the county government center.  Prospective database viewers must sign a form saying they're not sex offenders themselves. Then they wait behind a security window while a staff member makes a copy of their driver's license and checks their criminal background.  Then the viewer is led to a special booth with a sliding plastic door that is set up next to the front desk. A glass window into the booth lets the desk clerk on duty keep an eye on the person using the database, and a digital timer placed in the window counts down the 15-minute session.  If the viewer takes out a pen and paper and starts taking notes, the desk clerk will tell him or her to stop. Under Megan's Law, members of the public who copy or distribute information from the database can be charged with a misdemeanor and spend up to a year in jail.  And police or sheriff's departments have the discretion to ban note taking or set a time limit, according to Van Winkle of the attorney general's office. Those who visit the attorney general's office to see the database can take notes, Van Winkle said.  San Mateo residents can view the sex offender database by appointment at the police station on Delaware Street. It usually takes one day to get in to see the records after making the appointment.  Andrea Lozano, the police department's information services supervisor, sits next to the resident using the database on a computer terminal inside an office, giving tips on searching the records and making sure nothing is written down.  Law enforcement officials say the many restrictions placed on using the database are so that viewers comply with its intent -- to allow residents to protect themselves and their families from sexual predators.  The fear is that wider dissemination of the sex offender information -- such as by posting it on the Internet -- would make it easy for sex offenders to network and share strategies, according to the attorney general's Web site.  Van Winkle said wider distribution of the information could lead to vigilantism.  For example, East Palo Alto residents who found out a paroled rapist had moved into their neighborhood successfully drove the man away. Jack Manes, who was nicknamed the "doggie door rapist" because he invaded homes through pet doors, asked police to move him out of East Palo Alto in November 1998 after demonstrations erupted outside his home.  While some say the prospect of visiting the sheriff's office discourages many would-be viewers, Burlingame Police Chief Gary Missel said the trip wouldn't stop parents who are concerned about the safety of their children.  "It wouldn't be too inconvenient," Missel said.  And Missel said the database isn't the only way residents can get information about sex offenders. He said residents are welcome to call their local police department to discuss concerns about someone they think might be a sexual predator.  Some successes  Megan's Law has scored some successes.  In a well-publicized incident after California enacted Megan's Law, parents in San Bernardino spotted a longtime Little League coach on the sex offender registry after rumors began circulating that he had a history of child molestation. A sheriff's investigator then began questioning Little Leaguers and found that Norman Watson had been molesting boys for the past eight years. He was ultimately convicted of 39 counts of lewd acts with children and was sentenced to 84 years in prison.  Nathan Barankin, spokesman for Attorney General Bill Lockyer, admits there's no way of knowing how many sex offenders are stopped from committing new crimes.  The best evidence Lockyer has that Megan's Law is doing some good is the response from people who view the database at booths set up at state and county fairs, Barankin said.  Barankin said viewers often see people they know.  "They're shocked. It came as a surprise," Barankin said.  Van Winkle, also of the attorney general's office, estimated that one in every seven or eight people who view the database at the fair recognizes someone they know.  Safety versus privacy  The crafters of Megan's Law tried to strike a balance between the public's right to know about sex offenders in their midst and the offender's right to privacy.  Users of the public database sign an agreement that the information is to be used only "to protect themselves and their children from sex offenders." Officials say the ban on taking notes from the database is a further protection of offenders' privacy.  But some say the law doesn't do enough to protect the rights of people who have already served their sentence.  "This registration is like wearing the scarlet letter and it has become an instrument of social ostracism," said John Webster, an unsuccessful Libertarian candidate in last month's election for the state Senate seat that represents San Jose and Sunnyvale. Webster was convicted of child pandering in 1990. "There's no way you can go out and be an accepted member of your community once your name is on this list."  Webster, a San Jose resident, told the Daily News he answered a personal ad from the "swingers" classified section of a weekly newspaper and began having lengthy telephone conversations with the woman who placed the ad.  During the conversations Webster mentioned that he had wished his own parents had been more open with him about sex and that if he ever met the woman he would consider letting her "educate" his own son, Webster said. The "woman" court challenges.  And the attorney general's office claims that an Internet listing would make it too easy for sex offenders to avoid being found. So far, California's version of Megan's Law has withstood legal challenges.  The law requires that sex offenders register with local law enforcement and provide regular updates on changes of address.  "Police Detective Jean Bready said she knows several sex offenders who register in Palo Alto during the summer and then move away to avoid the hassle," Schiller said.  "But it turns out John Smith moved out a month ago and we have no idea where he is," Schiller said.  Palo Alto police Detective Jean Bready said she knows several sex offenders who register in Palo Alto during the summer and spring months but go to Sunnyvale in the winter when the National Guard Armory shelter opens.  "Vigilante fears  "Just as criminals are sentenced to prison for specific amounts of time, Webster said there should be an expiration date to an offender's listing on the Megan's Law database depending on the crime.  "There has to be some kind of recourse for second chances," Webster said.  "Otherwise you're essentially destroying people's lives, and I don't see what that has to do with protecting kids. "  It's an argument that's been the rallying point of the American Civil Liberties Union's opposition to Megan's Law -- the illegality of double jeopardy, or punishing someone twice for the same crime.  And the ACLU argues the database encourages vigilantism.  Elizabeth Schroeder, an attorney and director of the ACLU of Southern California, has questioned whether the purpose of the notification laws are to let the public "vent its anger at sex offenders, like a stoning in the Bible. " The ACLU says it's against notification laws because it won't prevent sex offenders from committing new crimes and rehabilitated former offenders have no chance at a fresh start.  Law enforcement officials argue that sex offenders are extremely likely to commit the same offenses again, and so extra safeguards are needed.  "They have a real poor record of rehabilitation," said Burlingame Police Chief Gary Missel.  But Missel acknowledged the public database would be "one heck of a hindrance" for an offender who is truly trying to reform.  Dr. Douglas Tucker, a forensic psychiatrist who evaluates sex offenders for the state prison system to see if they're fit for release, said Megan's Law is "useless. "  When people find out there's a sex offender in the neighborhood, the usual response is suspicion and prejudice, Tucker said.  "That just makes it more difficult for the offender to develop healthy relationships and forces them to remain in a deviant lifestyle," said Tucker, also an assistant professor at the University of California, San Francisco.  "When people check the list and don't find any offenders in their neighborhood they get a false sense of security," Tucker said.  "There's a far greater number of sex offenders who are out there than just the names on the database," Tucker said. "Some people are never caught, and they're out there just the same. "  "List unknown to many  "A major factor working against the Megan's Law database is that many people don't know it exists.  A Peninsula father whose son was molested by Robert Hunter Wilson of Menlo Park told the Daily News he didn't know about the public database before his son was attacked.  "Megan's Law could be a valuable resource, but I don't think enough people know about it," the father said. "I certainly regret not going and checking it out when Wilson first came into our lives. "  Wilson, an attorney who has resigned from the state bar, was fired from his job as a prosecutor in Sacramento County after he molested two boys in 1979. He spent a year in a locked mental ward -- then the standard punishment for child molesters.  In 1991, he was prosecuted by San Mateo County District Attorney Jim Fox for failing to register as a sex offender. Fox discovered the lapse when Wilson was defending several men charged with importing children for sex. While Wilson was acquitted of the charge, Fox called it "ludicrous" that Wilson wouldn't have known he was supposed to register.  Mike Piha, president of the Palo Alto Little League and Palo Alto Knights junior football program, said he didn't know the Megan's Law database was available at the police station. Most of the people who volunteer with the two sports leagues are parents of players, Piha said. The other volunteers must provide three references which are checked, Piha said.  "When a parent sponsored last year that more thorough background checks be performed, other parents balked, Piha said.  "Some people saw it as an invasion of privacy," Piha told the Daily News.  "Weaknesses in Law  "A hole in the Megan's Law system is that only those who have been convicted of a serious sex crime are listed. Many molestation cases involve perpetrators with no sex crimes on their criminal records.  Richard Allen Davis, the convicted killer of Polly Klaas, had no prior convictions for sex offenses and wouldn't have been on the public database had it been available when the girl was kidnapped from her Petaluma home in 1993, according to her father.  Marc Klaas said that although Davis had been charged with a previous sex crime, the charge was dropped as part of a plea bargain.  But listing people suspected of committing sex crimes on the database -- rather than only convicted offenders -- would face staunch opposition from civil libertarians.  Davis was also a drifter, and may have been hard to find on the database if someone checked by zip code, which is the only location given for offenders. Sex offenders are required to reregister with police when they move, but some may not comply.  It's not uncommon for sex offenders to move frequently -- in part to avoid harassment, said Santa Clara County Sheriff's Sgt. Bob Schiller of the county's Megan's Law enforcement division. There are also sex offenders who are transients and must reregister every 90 days, Schiller said.  "The database is updated monthly and therefore doesn't show changes of address that have occurred more recently.  "The database may say John Smith lives at 123 Main St., but it turns out John Smith moved out a month ago and we have no idea where he is," Schiller said.  "Palo Alto police Detective Jean Bready said she knows several sex offenders who register in Palo Alto during the summer and spring months but go to Sunnyvale in the winter when the National Guard Armory shelter opens.  "What about the Internet?  As an increasing number of states post their sex offender databases on the Internet, a debate is brewing whether California should do the same.  Officials are leery of going online with the database, fearing the law will then get knocked down in court by privacy advocates. So far, California's version of Megan's Law has withstood court challenges.  And the attorney general's office claims that an Internet listing would make it too easy for sex offenders to avoid being found.
offenders to network with one another.  James Sibley, a prosecutor with the Santa Clara County District Attorney's Sexual Assault Unit, said sex offenders do seek each other out.  "There's no question pedophiles are using the Internet to find each other and share ideas," Sibley said. "For them, it normalizes their behavior when they can find someone else who's doing the same things."  Pedophiles will use chat rooms and Web sites to direct each other to park locations, give names of social service agencies looking for "big brothers" and even direct each other to the nearest video arcades and shopping malls, Sibley said.  But State Sen. Jackie Speier, who was one of the co-authors of Megan's Law when she was in the state Assembly in 1996, said the pluses of moving the database to the Internet outweigh the minuses.  "Information should be made available to the public with the least effort required," Speier said. "Otherwise it's not truly public disclosure."  Some police departments are posting maps on their Web sites that show the general location where sex offenders are residing. Palo Alto posts such a map, as does Pleasanton.  Palo Alto shows where sex offenders live by marking the map with house symbols. Most of the sites are in south Palo Alto, with the exception of a residential hotel and a low-income apartment complex in the downtown area.  Attorney General Lockyer hasn't taken a position on posting the sex offender registry on the Internet. "What the Attorney General supports is making this information much more accessible to the public," said Barankin, Lockyer's spokesman.  But Hamilton Woods, the Redwood City resident who couldn't find out if he had a neighbor who is a sex criminal, has no doubt that access to the Megan's Law database needs to be expanded.  "There's only one computer in the whole city," Woods said. "That's not really giving people access to the information."
prostitutes. Are you happy? Are you proud now you've started your own cult under the leadership of your grand "masturbator", Bill B.? Gather 'round to take the milk from flaccid Bill B. ! Gather all the lambs to the great circle-jerk!

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 19:05:07
Comments
Re: I don't get it, .... Ok, I'll explain IT to you. Question: Why should ALL acts of sexual abuse by reported to the authorities? (Regardless of the abuser DENYING the charge, regardless of having only one witness: the VICTIM, regardless of the elders opinion of guilt or innocence) .... Oky follow along; we are going to talk about Federal Rules of Evidence admitted in criminal prosecution. Evidence of Other Acts of Sexual Assault or Molestation by Perpetrator IS Admissible for any Relevant Purpose under New Federal Rules. Evidence of other sexual offenses may be admitted regardless of whether the charge or accusation led to a conviction. (Rules 413, 414 and 415 of the Federal Rules of Evidence) WHY is this law important? ) In support of the new rules, advocates argued that a history of similar acts in child molestation cases, for example, tends to be probative because it demonstrates an unusual disposition that does not exist in ordinary people. In addition, the difficulties proving cases of child sexual abuse were cited to Congress . . . . . . . So do you get it now? Child abusers molest again and again and again in the congregation or in the neighborhood. If the first victim does NOT report the crime then the molester may not be convicted if charged with a second offense. Very simple you say? Yes, very simple to apply Watchtowers rules if you are protecting Pedophiles rather than Children.

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 19:20:26
Comments
To HaHAHAHAHAHAHAHA -- I'm not agreeing anyone here is a prostitute. You demonstrate a total lack of compassion and understanding for humans -- their mental and emotional needs. Being a victim doesn't make one stupid or immoral and certainly doesn't warrant their being called derogatory names! -- What would you call Rahab, the PROSTITUTE that became an ancestress of Jesus Christ, himself. Apparently, Jehovah God doesn't ridicule prostitutes, so why would you?

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 19:38:42
Comments
FIRST, the ELDERS have NO BUSINESS knowing anything about anyone IF MATT. 5 OR MATT. 18 hasn't been followed with the right spirit and intentions. If MATT. 5 or 18 has been correctly followed, then one needs to take 2 or 3 witnesses with them to establish the matter. These witnesses, according to the society's own publications, DO NOT HAVE TO BE ELDERS. They should be people FAMILIAR WITH THE PROBLEM. NOW, we have a difficulty. HOW CAN ONE BRING 2 OR 3 WITNESSES FAMILIAR WITH THE PROBLEM if they DON'T KNOW ANYONE that KNOWS ABOUT THE PROBLEM (especially in the matter of CHILD ABUSE)? To me, it means that a parent or parents of another or other abused children should be coming with the one that approached an "offender" and wasn't successful between them alone and confidentially. If elders get involved as witnesses and a person denies the allegations, it is my opinion that EVEN INSIDE THE CONGREGATION, they should make a covert investigation. I don't think investigations should be left up to the secular authorities only. Besides that, since it appears that the elders ALREADY KNOW that one or another is a child molester, they have MOUNTING EVIDENCE that that person is a problem and a danger to the others in the congregation. That cannot be treated as here say or insufficient evidence. Of course, if an elder or elders themselves are responsible for child abuse, you wouldn't expect them to make a big to do about child molestation, would you? Of course not. They'd poo-poo it and minimize it to seem as though it's not as bad as it seems. My bible training taught me to reason situations out. How would you like to be treated as though your mind and heart don't matter? So, to the paralyzed minds that are posting such idiotic ridiculing of the victims, get a brain that lets you reason on matters.

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 19:41:56
Comments
Hah hah hah Mole is gonna dig himself a hole. Kiddin' Mole. One other reason Bill Bowen is doing this so called service to the world besides grabbing media attention is because--------he LOVES to hug and get all the attention from the girls who supposedly were abused. Yup, he loves those hugs!!

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 20:00:34
Comments
To the IDIOT that continues to post SLANDEROUS remarks about Bill and who pretends that he is posting AP news articles: I have a question. Do you realize that your IP address is recorded with each post you make? Do you know that your identify is not actually hidden? Slander is a civil offense. Do you think your host provider would be interested that their customer vilifies a Sexual Abuse Victim's Support Website? How do you intend to protest your innocence: Will you explain you slandered the victims because you didn't think they were obedient to the elders? Idiot!!

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 20:09:21
Comments
CAN ANYONE SHARE WHAT HAPPENED WITH THE "MARCH" ON 9/27? THANK YOU . . . . FRED

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 20:12:50
Comments
Hi, i have been dealing with a sexual abuse case with the witnesses over the last 14 months and i don't go anymore as a result of nothing being done about the abuser. i was wandering if anyone knows: Is New Zealand one of the NON-REPORTING STATES? I REALLY NEED TO KNOW. THANX SW (N. Z)
Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 20:39:08
Comments
Bill Bowden loves his work. He really loves those hugs and attention from the supposedly abused girls. Hey Bill---- why don't you work for the Protestants? They are the top sexual abusers of all. It's a fact. Read about it!

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 20:43:50
Comments
Hey HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA That's exactly what we say when one of you people present your outdated 1914, this generation will not pass, just around the corner, canned presentations. People are more informed in these times and all the Watchtower failures spring up in our minds when you are mentioned. The Organization is experiencing zero or negative growth in developed countries, because people know better. Better send people where "the need is great" (countries where no one knows your background). Then you may be able to buy another 120 years till they catch up to you too.

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 20:56:37
Comments
" Millions now living will never die". That was another one of the big Watchtower predictions from 1925. What a joke this religion has turned out to be. HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 21:28:39
Comments
To the slanderous idiot, any "christian" religion that is not catholicism, is by definition protestant, THE JW'S ARE PROTESTANTS.

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time:
This is so sad. I really feel for the people who have been so devastated by these issues. The Bullies will get their fill of picking on the weaker ones and that shows their character. I know the value of arguing. ATTACK always ATTACK this takes away the others power. So they think. All power belongs to you the individual, all power, "yours and theirs". That is why if you are a victim of these crimes, even right now, and you have anyone, ANYONE, who tells you that you are to be silent or to wait is a fool and has nothing to do with God or the spirit of Christ. You must come forward; If you do not then others will suffer as you suffer. You will find that there are people all around you that will help you, I know that. As more people awaken and understand that ALL that these people have is the perception of power over you. For so long women have been led to believe that they are nothing with out their husbands. Regardless of how pigish he may be. It is a part of the "Big Lie." Being a husband is a privilege not a birth right. A wife is not an indentured servant or a slave of a man. The so called "secular laws" are in place to protect all of us and thank God they are, because just think of life with the Governing Body as the law of the land. That is scary. There will be so many news reports as people come forward. You the victim have the key. You have the power. You have the choice. I will support you, and so will others. That does not mean to abandon your faith. Your faith is not (or should not) be in a building, or in any man. Your faith is in God though Jesus Christ. That does not = the Governing Body. It just does not! WAIT? At the expense of our children? NO! We must stand together. I want to believe that the things that I do today will make for the better world of a child 100 years from now. Many believe that there will not be 100 years. But there just might be. As there was 100 years. "Pray to God but row to shore. " You would not get very far if you just "waited on Jehovah." How would Tom Hanks fair if he had just waited in Cast Away? He did not and this is no different. If you are called a liar for telling the truth but later say that what you said was not true then what are you? Were you a liar or were you turned into one? I want to be one in Christ but not at the expense of everyone around me. I would rather be labeled "apostate" by a man than to answer why I could have protected children and helped victims but instead I was worried about image on Judgment Day. -Jayson (The talking ape)

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 22:02:57
Comments
Since the so-called FDS is composed of supposed "spirit-anointed" persons, what is going to happen in the next decade or so when they are all dead? I'm not a JW, but from what I understand, there are only about 8000 or so of these folks still around, so how will the FDS dispense it's so-called "food" once they are all gone. Do you think the borg will just drop the teaching (sort of like the 1914 "generation") and hope the rest of their followers don't notice the doctrinal change? After all, we all KNOW that eventually the rest of the anointed are going to die and Armageddon will not have arrived. As a wise person once said, "Time is always the greatest enemy of a false prophet". Lawrence P. S. Congrats to the courageous marchers. You have definitely exposed the dirty linen of the GB and their mind-numbed "theocratic" followers! I'm enjoying turning the tables on the JWs I meet on the street or at my door.

Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 22:03:15
Comments
Since the so-called FDS is composed of supposed "spirit-anointed" persons, what is going to happen in the next decade or so when they are all dead? I'm not a JW, but from what I understand, there are only about 8000 or so of these folks still around, so how will the FDS dispense it's so-called "food" once they are all gone. Do you think the borg will just drop the teaching (sort of like the 1914 "generation") and hope the rest of their followers don't notice the doctrinal change? After all, we all KNOW that eventually the rest of the anointed are going to die and Armageddon will not have arrived. As a wise person once said, "Time is always the greatest enemy of a false prophet". Lawrence P. S. Congrats to the courageous marchers. You have definitely exposed the dirty linen of the GB and their mind-numbed "theocratic" followers! I'm enjoying turning the tables on the JWs I meet on the street or at my door.
Remote User:

Date: 01 Oct 2002
Time: 23:47:13
Comments
HaHAHAHAHAHAHA you apostate wankers your march sucked and you only proved you're a bunch of gays and prostitutes. Are you happy? Are you proud now you've started your own cult under the leadership of your grand "masturbator", Bill B.? Gather 'round to take the milk from flaccid Bill B. ! Gather all the lambs to the great circle-jerk!

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 00:05:31
Comments
To the person who said "You demonstrate a total lack of compassion and understanding for humans -- their mental and emotional needs." I am laughing at Bill B. and his limp-dicked followers. Like you, I'm not associated with JW's any more, but I think your attitude sucks. Just move on, GET A LIFE GROW A BRAIN GROW UP. Bill B. is in it for the attention, so he creates his own lil' "cult" following, at least 50% of the people involved have nothing to do with being abused, but found out about this and said "Whoopee!! Now I can jump on the bandwagon and proclaim my irrational hatred for JW's!". John (the "spelling retard") being a case in point. Anyone who rubs shoulders with these kind of venomous snakes who make it their life's work to spread lies and hate do not fit my definition of victims. Nobody who posts here can claim to be "innocent". Any so-called victim who thinks he or she will find love and acceptance amongst Bill B. and his cronies is warped and completely mistaken. The same kind of twisted people that make up lies to accuse elders or say "I was raped at bethel!" I'm not in denial, it goes on. But people who tune in to this web site are seeing an overblown, unrealistic picture. The apostates LOVE it. YEAH! Negative propaganda against the witnesses! Satan laughs with delight. HaHAHAHAHAHA

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 04:44:48
Comments
The person that signs HAHAHAHA is a probably a JW elder loser who leads a double life(surprise,surprise)Not that uncommon.

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 06:55:47
Comments
Hey Jayson the talking ape. Your little speech was so compelling. Wow! What graceful, articulate and well arranged words. It should go down in annals of history as one of the greatest stories ever told. You and Martin Luther King Jr must have the same blood line or something. And to the one who is trying to scare the AP poster with all that crap about IP addresses. There is nothing illegal about obvious parodies. You need to take a look at the law or get you a better legal encyclopedia. That is no more slander than what this site says and claims about JW's and their teachings. Take a look back through some of the posts and you will see all the kind comments about JW's. Is that slander or is it matter of opinion? That is the difference you big nameless jerk (oh did I slander you? Sorry) So AP poster you just keep on posting if you want. There is nothing that can legally be done by a cowardly nameless poster or this site unless they want a lawsuit themselves. We have as much right to express opinion as anyone else. The problem is that it scares some in here who would like to keep the party to themselves so they can wallow in each others mire rather than look at other points of view. Your threats are no different than the so called threats and intimidation you say JW's dish out to dissenters. Hypocrite! Again I ask all objective observers, Who's better than who? RJ

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 08:47:56
Comments
To the legal expert that keeps posting here, there is NOT any slander at this web site. Slander is when one or others talk to people other than the person they're talking about and they say or repeat derogatory talk about the non-present person or persons. Slander is face-to-face VERBAL abuse. It is LIBEL when you vilify or publish derogatory talk about another or others. That's when the bad talk is put in writing. You need to check your legal encyclopedia. By the way, there is software that can record each visitors address and capture their E-mail address if it's not already a capability within the system one is using. There is so much ignorance posted here about everything and everyone, including the Watchtower organization. Yet, such ones talk as though they're authorities on the subject. Also HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA, what's wrong with wanting hugs and kisses? Affection is a natural demonstration of liking, respect and appreciation. Regular people like expressing and receiving it. What is the matter -- didn't anyone ever hug and kiss you without sexual overtones?!?!?! Poor baby in an adult's body.

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 08:53:14
Comments
March pictures can be view here

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 08:58:50
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 09:13:59
Comments
What you say on your website is so true. I used to be a JW years ago, my aunt, uncle, cousin and his wife recently have left. I am so glad for them. This is more of a cult than religion. They have to much control on peoples life. I am so glad to be out of it. Your website is fantastic and you hit the nail on the head. I heard there was a protest march in front of the watchtower headquarters but it was not televised, Why wasn't it? If you know please advise. Thanks.
ginny@pivot.net

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 09:33:44
Comments
NEW ZEALAND CHILD ABUSE LINKS: http://www.geocities.com/peterzohrab/ischlabu.html and http://library.canterbury.ac.nz/web/ref/justicestat.shtml -- FOR MORE INFORMATION GO TO http://www.google.com and type child abuse in New Zealand in the "Search" rectangle and then press "Enter". I didn't notice anything about reporting. Perhaps you will find information that is helpful to you through these links.

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 09:37:05
Comments
CHRIST CHURCH, NEW ZEALAND, RITUAL ABUSE CASES -- http://www.religioustolerance.org/ra_newze.htm

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 09:38:48
Comments
GENES, CHILD ABUSE AND VIOLENCE IN NEW ZEALAND AND AUSTRALIA -- http://www.abc.net.au/health/minutes/stories/s641516.htm

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 10:05:34
Comments
Hi I hear the March on the WT headquarters was successful. Congratulations to the organizers and those that attended. I am sure you had lots of fun. I am sorry for not being with you. Mr. Lawrence Hughes is looking for those that are hurting because of Jeh. Witnesses. He is organizing a GLOBAL CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT against the Governing Body of the WT in Brooklyn New York. All interested parties call him for information so you can register for compensation. Here is his email. LawrenceH@cpgroup.com Even those qualify that were never members of this Cult but were somehow connected so there was emotional or other damage done to them. Let's have more FUN with the Watchtower "god's gift to mankind". rmk. RMK

Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
10:06:35
Comments
to ginny@pivot.net There was no televised footage of the march because nobody gave a hoot. The JW organization works hard to help those in need and the world in general knows that and view JW's as no more a serious threat than the mennonites, catholics, protestants or any other religious group. They had more important news to broadcast other than 100 people or so spouting out hot air. Thus no one really gave a hoot.

Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
10:26:43
Comments
Jayson, Thank you for the profound wisdom. I especially liked the "Pray to God but row to shore". We can not sit back and do nothing and expect God to bless us for the "nothing" I have recently been silenced by the congregation. My DA announcement was on Tuesday Sept 24. But even those of us who have been cut off from communication with the former "friends" can have a voice. And like you I would rather be branded an apostate by man than be found wanting by God. Jah's opinion of me is what counts. * Mole, My family has begun having a serious Bible search lately too. We are not using the prescribed study formula of the WTS. We are digging into various subjects using every source we can until we come to an understanding. Amazing what we find.  I have been out of touch lately. Sorry if I caused anyone concern. I still visit this site and enjoy reading everyone's thoughts. (even the sad rantings of the seriously disturbed)(they deserve our kindness since their minds have been twisted and distorted by years of mental abuse by the WTS)  I still love Ya'll, Loris

Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
10:43:39
Comments
RMK give me a break! A global class action lawsuit against the GB what a laugh! Why don't you just get on with your life? If this Mr hughes has nothing better to do than organize a global class action lawsuit against the GB then he too needs to get a life. It will never get the momentum to even get on the docket. I'm sorry for anyone that has ever gotten hurt but is brooding over it for the rest of your lives going to give you peace and closure? You have already removed yourself from the JW organization why don't you just move on now? That's what I am doing and it has worked for me. I don't even want to go through all the bad memories again. Sorry if I sound harsh but I just think it's futile. Leave it in God's hands just as you leave your salvation in his hands by the choices you make.
02 Oct 2002
Time: 10:51:44
Comments
It seems the protest was quite a success. The most direct evidence here is the vitriol it elicited from the JW defenders. Not one word assailing the value of the issues. What I read is a boat load of unreasoned, childish name calling and attacks on the messenger. Excellent job! One point I have been considering: I think the JW defenders are laying bare one of their most significant weaknesses, namely their lack of education. It is weak minded to address an issue by name calling and attacking the messenger. But they do it because it is an approach that they hear constantly in their five-times-weekly indoctrination sessions. I firmly believe they are sincere. If they would learn to think for themselves, they would be willing to work through the issues. Again, nice job folks. - Buster

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 11:07:35
Comments
Mary had a little lamb, its pee was yellow in the snow. A circuit overseer saw how "unclean" the snow was, and asked an elder to oversee its removal. The elder, being lazy as elders are, used a commanding, authoritative voice when commanding the ministerial servant to clean it up. The bashful, humble, sick MS had someone he molested clean it up. See how piss and shit work flow downhill??

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 11:25:38
Comments
And Buster does the above Mary had little lamb story comes show that the SL supporters are more educated? Man that was about as childish as anything I've seen posted on here. Even the AP poster who is undoubtedly ignorant cannot be compared to that little bit of literary genius. That just shows that ignorance comes in all forms of life. Don't go bad mouthing some of the JW's who have come in here for being uneducated in your opinion when it clear that some of the SL supporters are just as ignorant if not more so. Case in point above!

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 11:34:42
Comments
The Jehovah Religion has disrupted my family. My sister is active in the jehovah religion and my family is very upset with this. You cannot talk to her about religion or god as she believes that we are all wrong and that jehovah is right. This is very sad for our family as we are loosing her as a family member. mayngo@aol.com

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time: 12:03:48
Comments
Sorry to say I will not be posting here until there is a way of registering with ID# and password if I wanted to be further abused by WT pedophiles I would go to the KH and use the rest room RJ you are a pile of steaming pucky, I will be on Jehovahs-witnesses.com were there is a little more structure to the site, I have not noticed this sort of abuse going on there, sorry I will be back when there are sanctions of some sort removing these abusive pedophiles from the WT from entering the site. . . NP

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 12:29:55
Comments
NP  DITTO  There has to be more order and less chaos here. The lambs are going to shrink back into silence. ABUSE MUST STOP. Here would be a good place to start

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 13:02:27
Comments
To the better legal expert. You are correct. The remarks are SLANDEROUS however, the legal charge is LIBEL. . . . SLANDER - A false defamation (expressed in spoken words, signs, or gestures) which injures the character or reputation of the person defamed; distinguished from libel. The defaming a man in his reputation by speaking or writing words which affect his life, office, or trade, etc. Falsity and malice are ingredients of slander. Written or printed slanders are LIBELS. . Each guestbook users IP address should be captured along with the time of the entry. Also IP addresses can be blocked by the website host or a complain can be made to the guestbook abusers service provider. Most providers do not care about TROLLS on a forum but libel and harassment of victims on a support site could be a different issue. Basically I think the child using the computer should be aware that there can be consequences.

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 14:09:08
Comments
And you still have not told me how the words and statements on this site both by Bill Bowen and numerous posters to the guestbook and marches made on the WT with signs is not slander or libel. They are not slanderous or libel they are simply opinions. Facts have to be presented to prove something. That is why a class action lawsuit would fail and that's why the other lawsuits have failed. The problem is that you guys don't like dissenting views. You like to be in your own little paradise and tell your stories to make each other feel better. You can't take the heat that you yourselves began to dish out the moment you started call all JW's pedophiles and calling for the destruction of the WT society. So go over to JW.com because there they only let in your kind. The reason there is "structure" is because the minute someone registers with a dissenting view he is booted after a few posts. This keeps you all in your little paradise without having to listen to us. Then you can bash and poke fun at JW's and doctrine without interference which is how most cowards like it. Yes IP addresses can be logged and yes the administrator of this site could block one. But there will be no lawsuit over freedom of speech. It has been struck down more times than Clinton said "I did not have sexual relations with that woman, miss Lewinsky" What do you think keeps Jay Leno and Letterman in business? It is called freedom of speech! They have made many JW puns and jokes. Yet they are not sued by JW's. It's called freedom of speech! Why do you think all the other JW sites are online? Do they have nice things to say about JW's. No they are full of dissenting views and insinuations, even GB names are used and blasphemed. It's called freedom of speech my friends. The worst thing that can happen is an IP address is blocked and then there are public libraries, cyber cafes, and other computers for rent. You will not be able to stop opposing views so get used to it legal genius! RJ

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 15:59:58
Comments
RJ: The slander remarks was not in reference to dissenting opinions but was in regard to the false AP reports and the false website listed as owned by Bill, calling Bill a homosexual and insinuating that he was a child molester. Those type comments are not opinions they are libelous statements. You constantly complain that JW's are not treated fairly on this site, therefore, you surely must agree that this type of conduct should be taboo.

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 16:21:23
Comments
What is an FDS?

Remote User:
Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 16:47:57
Comments
RJ: The trouble is we already know your views are the same as the WTS and that your attitude is one of hatefulness towards anyone who opposes your "view." WTS keeps people "silent" within the organization and then yells for free speech in public. There is no "free speech" within the organization unless it is agreeable to the WTS. You come here to exercise this free speech that the "society" forbids you at the KH and amongst the "friends." Would you print all your posts and proudly present them to the District Overseer and know that he would approve of the way you love your enemies? You come here to let it all hang out in a way you could never ever speak openly with your congregation. JW's idea of free speech is oppressive and that is exactly what you try to do here. You intimidate and try to oppress free speech of others and then when someone wants to stop you - you yell free speech. Your right to "free speech" has to be done responsibly with the rights of other's free speech not infringed upon. But you don't know the meaning of "free speech" or the responsibility that goes with it. You don't hear, you don't respect that this is our place here - not yours. You have a right to disagree respectfully - but you do it oppressively like you have been taught at the KH. We left because of the oppressive atmosphere - to the extent that they would intimidate and oppress a child who has been raped or molested. The whole show is based on oppressiveness and now you want to come here and intimidate people into more oppressiveness with mockery and ridicule. If they have to shut you out because they can't shut you up - well, deary this is exactly what they do at the KH! Do you GET IT? I know you don't approve of Bill and Silentlams - but why do you come here? Tell us once and get on with your life, right??? Get over it. You don't see the grave concerns, we accept that you don't. Now accept we are not going to accept your "grave concerns" and you just need to get over it. RJ, I don't think any of us hates you - but you do the hypocrite thing and you don't realize what a hypocrite you are being because you believe so sincerely that the WTS is holy, that we are nothing but a bunch of goats that can't get over it and are condemned to be destroyed. Another time I will give you my take on the 1st Amendment "rights" and how they have been twisted to allow child porn and how the 1st Amendment has lost the original meaning and purpose of the original intention. I truly believe in God's Kingdom as the ultimate solution to all mankind's problems. Out of the love for Jehovah we all need to show the love that Jesus commanded.

Balancing Act in Progress

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
17:42:58
Comments
Nameless. I do not need your advise regarding life. My mission in life is precisely what you want me stop doing. There is a high moral issue here. The existence of the WT a secretive Society that is enslaving unsuspecting destroying physical spiritual and economical life of it's members must be opposed. There is nothing more noble than to become a helper in liberating our loved ones from the the clutches of the Borg in Brooklyn. The prognosis of a successful GLOBAL LAW SUIT against the GB is realistically great provided there is sufficient number of individuals that are willing to participate. The participation will be basically free for all because the case will be conducted on Contingency principal. I personally refuse to forgive the WT anything because their tyranny continues. Please give my regards to your friends in the GB and tell them what is coming to them. I suggest that you stop mentoring. Your position here is clearly to promote the GB. Again here is the address for Mr. Hughes. LawrenceH@cpgroup.com

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
17:52:51
Comments
Lois-I have not seen a E-address so I want to say that I hope you are happy right now. I hope that you have found friends here. I hope you have a support network IRL. We love you I want you to know that. You are not alone-All lambs

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
18:14:17
Comments
More proof that silent lambs are a bunch of "masturbators"! To the idiot who suggested that what I'm saying is slander or libel, that's what this whole site is based on. False numbers suggesting 23,720 abuse cases on file. Suggestions that there are at least 2 molesters per cong. A person saying he was "abused at Bethel". Get real. And suggesting this is any kind of "victims support website" - this is no different to any other apostate or hate site. There are privacy laws and free speech laws that basically mean I can post just about anything I want here. How ironic. Bill B. and the rest of you can keep tugging all you like, and I'll keep laughing. HaHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA
AP: BILL BOWEN ARRESTED! Bill Bowen, administrator of the silentlambs web site is in police custody tonight after being caught doing unspeakable things to stuffed toys. A staff member at silent lambs said "I couldn't believe it. I walked into the store-room and there he was, naked from the waste down, indulging in some weird sexual fetish! It was then I realized why all the lambs had large holes in the back of them!" The stuffed toys, which are sold by the hundreds, were analyzed and found to contain traces of Bill's masturbatory emissions. The "abused lambs" were too traumatized to make any comments today. AP.

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 19:07:08
Comments
Actually you are wrong about both the privacy issue and free speech comments. Legal Definition of LIBEL - Published material meeting three conditions: The material is defamatory either on its face or indirectly; The defamatory statement is about someone who is identifiable to one or more persons; and, The material must be distributed to someone other than the offended party; i.e. published; distinguished from slander. Criminal Law. A malicious defamation expressed either in printing or writing with intent to provoke the living; or the reputation of one who is alive and to expose him to public hatred, contempt or ridicule. It has been defined perhaps with more precision to be a censorious or ridiculous writing, picture or sign, made with a malicious or mischievous intent. The writer of a libel is liable to be punished criminally by indictment or is subject to an action on the case by the party grieved. Both remedies may be pursued at the same time.

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 19:17:21
Comments
I have rarely talked to ANYBODY who left a mainline church that was treated with the aversion and hatred that ex-members of the JWs, Mormons, Churches of Christ International, and certain other cultic groups are treated. Shunning is an awful, anti-Christian, method of controlling members who have not got the courage to leave such groups yet. I have seen much love in action from many Christians in the churches (which, according to the WT liars, were to be destroyed in 1918) who feed the poor, clothe the naked, build aps. for senior citizens, hospitals, etc. What an awful place most cities would be if the churches shut down tomorrow. But if every Kingdom Hall were to close, most neighborhoods would not be any worse off. The "works of Christ" are evident to the needy. That's why when people need material help, they avoid Kingdom Halls at all costs. After all, an Awake!(ZZZZZZZZZZZZZ . . . ) or a Watchtower has never put food in the stomachs of the hungry. But many churches have. I believe that the Lord of the Universe takes notice of this, and no amount of "bible-based" reasoning will ever excuse the WT. Oh, by the way, JR, in a previous post you accused others of "blaspheming" the Governing Body. In case you are not aware (and you probably aren't) only a deity can be blasphemed! And those old geezers are NOT God, although some of them are pretty ancient! Silent lambs, continue to comfort the afflicted, and afflict the comfortable!
Time:
19:35:50
Comments

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
20:31:33
Comments
ha ha thank you ; no name, rj, mary jane,. your comments. are helping all here go to a wacktower comic book study and come in our pants. . . how's that spelling . make up your mind are you a member of the wacktower or not. . one second the wacktower is your god , 2 seconds later it's not. . . sounds like you have turning disease. . . your posts are perfect,, it lets all non jw's know how the wacktower mind control works. . i'm sure you are winning over a lot of converts here?????? the only ass hole here who agrees with you . . is yourself . you post and 2 minutes later you post again and glorify yourself. . . you ARE tooooo!!!!smart for me. . . i know if i listen to you and the wacktower. i'm sure ya'll take me to a higher place. like the top of the brooklyn bridge, and then try to push me off!!!!then my picture will be put on the cover of the wacktower!!!!!!!!!!thanx for all your love . . . . . . . . . john

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
20:37:33
Comments
SHOCKING NEW EVIDENCE! Neighborhood in shock as Bill Bowen is accused of displaying flagrant homosexuality!
Go here: (no, really, I mean it, this site is real): http://www. bill. bowen. isgay. com

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
20:40:58
Comments
hi girls; slc soapbox, linda, jesika, etc. etc. etc. please keep up the good work here i see a lot of new lambs that need ya'll help. . . so keep it up . . . i didn't forget you guys we have some good men here also!!!!john

Remote User:
Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
20:46:32
Comments
Hey, that site is actually real. Where did you find that story? We want details.
Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 20:48:33
Comments
Hey, that site is actually real. Where did you find that story? We want details.

Remote User:

Date: 02 Oct 2002
Time: 20:57:45
Comments
Here is the transcript of the MARCH—It was on TV on Channel 11 in NYC I was there and saw it on TV that night.

Jesika Thoman--------------- silentlambs march September 27, 2002 Summary
On 9-27-02, 125 abuse survivors from 22 states delivered hundreds of stuffed lambs for victims around the world as a symbol of innocence lost. The march started at Pierrepont Place and Columbia Heights and proceeded down Columbia Heights to Jehovah's Witness Home office at 25 Columbia Heights at the front entrance. We had the t-shirts at the park and were setting up when the park officer asked if we had a permit to be in the park. We had to say no and it was moved to the Promenade which was much nicer anyway. The park officer said they would be glad to store any extra materials we had on the march till we returned. We supplied them with silentlambs t-shirts when we returned. The hurricane that hit the gulf was supposed to be coming over New York that day. Rain was predicted at 90% and it looked like we were going to be drenched. I had bought forty poncho's just in case. I am sure six million Jehovah's Witnesses were praying for rain to see us get washed away, but it appears our prayers were answered instead. It did not rain one drop through the entire march. Do you think that our experience will be in the next Watchtower? We passed out silentlambs t-shirts to everyone there and then the press showed up just as we were getting ready to go. There was two newspapers, three television crews, and one very well known radio DJ on abuse in the New York area. While this was good I am sure it could have been better, but we were happy just the same. The march was for those who were there to march more than anything else. As we started off the police decided to have us march on the sidewalk instead. I think it was better as we stretched out for over a block and made it look even bigger. As a side note we were in Brooklyn Heights at noon. I found it interesting to see bethelites patrolling all over in two's. Now they were supposed to be working why were they walking around the Heights? They had patrols on every block and when they saw our t-shirts would follow and switch off. Boy, were they sneaky, it was like trying to hid two Mormons walking around Iraq, it was a little obvious. When the police arrived they were very kind and helpful. Asked to see the permit and we were ready to go. A few locals from the Heights stopped by and asked to join us, I found that interesting. Some walked up and asked what it was about and were appalled to find out what Watchtower was doing to children as the survivors testified. Most were aware due to news coverage that there was a problem. As the march started certain ones started marching chants and everyone joined in, they were as follows: One, two, three, four, Silentlambs No More! No More Pedophiles at My Door! I Don't Know What You've Been Told, But Silentlambs Are Mighty Bold!, Listen to the Lambs Roar! It was quite loud and I am sure we woke up the neighborhood along the way. People were looking out their windows and stopping on the street to see what this was about. Then we got to 107 and 124, it really got loud there. I am sure all the home boys and house keepers knew when we walked by. As I got closer I realized I had forgotten how loud it was with the BQE going in front of the 25 building. I was so happy Jeannie suggested we get a bull horn, it really came in handy to speak to the crowd. When we arrived there were a few more chants to wake them up. Several noted different ones peeking out the windows and hiding trying to look. It was a surreal scene, 125 abuse survivors all smiling and laughing coming together to support one another. It is true there were those angry but more importantly everyone felt they were being support and cared about, something few get from Watchtower when it comes to abuse. When we arrived they were chanting, J. R. Brown Must Go Down!! Silent Lambs No More!! "They're looking out the window, when we looked back or waved they would hide I started the program off with the following script: Opening Statement: Bill Bowen: Today is a wake up call to the men and women who work behind these walls. For twenty one months we have been saying something is wrong and children need to be protected. For twenty one months they have been saying nothing is wrong and you do not exist. Today we are here to say we exist, your policy hurts children. Acknowledge the problem and apologize to those who have been hurt by Watchtower Policy. This march is about a cause for protecting children, it is about exposing the protection of child rapists, it is about a religion crushing a movement that has as its only goal and purpose to support and encourage healing to Jehovah's Witness victims of abuse. As the Governing Body appoints judicial committees in an attempt to “beat their brothers” (Matt...
Bill Bowen: The next silent lambs “courage” Award to children. The next person to receive this award is Pat Garza. Pat is overwhelmed with emotion and gets a long hug. She did an excellent job of articulating how Watchtower policy hurts so many and the need to protect the victims of abuse but also spoken about her own abuse and has went fearlessly to the media recently and contacted that she has been involved with the progress of the silent lambs organization over two years.I have seen her growth.

Bill Bowen: Sherry!! Sherry!! Sherry!! Bill Bowen: Watchtower intimidates those who suffer abuse. The next recipient policy that can ruin lives it continues to damage untold thousands who live in denial. Today the lamb Roar!! All: Nice molested as a child along with my brothers who cant be here today, and I hold lambs for them. This is an evil, wicked abuse, I’m happy to award Sherry Galvez as the next recipient of the silent lambs “courage” Award. Sherry: I was abused and how it had affected her life. So for her courage in coming forward, for protecting and helping a victim of abuse, you were called a liar, when you tried to warn others you were silenced, when you tried to get justice in the courts you were stabbed in the back by your brothers and sisters. Yet today we are honored to be in the presence of real heroes, people with enough courage to sacrifice everything in the interests of protecting children. Watchtower punished you for doing so, today silent lambs wishes to introduce a new program to award heroes who stand up for children. It is called the silent lambs “courage” award. Your names will appear on the silent lambs website as the heroes who in spite of the odds had the honor and integrity to do what was right. We will continue to award those this honor as decided by the silent lambs board of directors on a quarterly basis. Today we have the first twelve “courage” awards to deliver on the front steps of those who punished you for doing what was right. We are proud to recognize heroes and set the example for Jehovah’s Witnesses to see how they should treat those who stand up for children.

(applause) The first recipient is one of the first persons to step up to the media and reveal the terrible abuse she suffered as a child. Her effort opened the way for the many other abuse survivors to speak out and finally be heard. She did an extensive interview for Dateline but it was all left on the cutting room floor. Today I am happy and very honored to name Cory Pandelo as the first recipient of the silent lambs “courage” award. (applause) All: Corie!! Corie!! Corie!!! Corie accepts her award and gets a hug, she is a bit overwhelmed to say anything, but says a thank you to all present. She gets a nice round of applause. Bill Bowen: The next person I would like to announce, went to the national media, spoke out, and when she came forward about her abuse, she was told that she would be disfellowshipped. She then went to the police, and reported her molester. When she went to court to testify about the horrible abuse she suffered from age four to thirteen her fellow Jehovah’s Witnesses sat on the molestors side of the courtroom, and protected him and even sent her a death threats, for standing up and reporting a child molester.

Today we are very honored to present Erica Garza as the next recipient of the silent lambs “courage” Award. All: Erica!! Erica!! Erica!! Erica goes up and says a few words about standing up for what is right and gets a hug along with nice applause. Bill Bowen: The next recipient of the Silent lambs Courage Award was not able to be here today. She was in court for the last two weeks testifying about the Watchtower policy that literally destroyed her life. As she was in court for the last two weeks, the Watchtower hierarchy sought to get close to one hundred Jehovah’s Witnesses called from several congregation in Toronto to sit on their side of the courtroom in opposition to her. Yet she stood forward and she testified. That court case has yet to be decided as of today, in Canada, where this trial took place. And so I’m very honored, in absentia to present Victoria Boer with the next silent lambs “courage” Award. All: Victoria!! Victoria!! Another nice round of applause for Vicky. Bill Bowen: The next person was also featured on Dateline and it was discussed about the molester that she knew who molested 17 little girls. He remains a Jehovah’s Witness in good standing as he resides in a prison penal facility. Yet when she tried to warn other members of her congregation about what happened, the elders disfellowshipped her for trying to protect the children. So I’m very honored to present Laurie Fitzwater with the fourth silent lambs “courage” Award. All: Laurie!! Laurie!! Laurie!! Laurie!! was quite surprised and came forward to say: My father in law raped seventeen children according to a letter from the circuit overseer. When he gets out of prison he will go back to the congregation in good standing because he’s continues to deny the charges. When I tried to tell others in the congregation the elders came after me, they said I had a bad attitude and that I was a danger to the congregation. I was disfellowshipping for trying to protect their children. Bill Bowen: Not all people who receive the Courage Award are necessarily victims of abuse, but they step up and stand up for them. The person that is next in line, sat on the other side of that courtroom with Erica as the Witnesses gave them dirty looks and ill treatment, but she was a friend who stood by Erica. She came back to the courtroom when this man had to be reconvinced and she testified in Erica’s behalf and told about the extent of the abuse and how it had affected her life. So for her courage in coming forward, for protecting and helping a victim of abuse, I’m happy to award Sherry Galvez as the next recipient of the silent lambs “courage” Award. Sherry: I was molested as a child along with my brothers who cant be here today, and I hold lambs for them. This is an evil, wicked policy that can ruin lives it continues to damage untold thousands who live in denial. Today the lamb Roar!! All: Nice applause Sherry!! Sherry!! Sherry!! Bill Bowen: Watchtower intimidates those who suffer abuse. The next recipient was afraid when she spoke to me to use her own telephone for fear of what the organization would to do to her. Now that she has been involved with the progress of the silent lambs organization over two years I have seen her growth both personal and spiritual. She is a person who has courageously stepped up and not only spoken out in court for victims of abuse but also spoken about her own abuse and has went fearlessly to the media recently and contacted them.She did an excellent job of articulating how Watchtower policy hurts so many and the need to protect the children. The next person to receive this award is Pat Garza. Pat is overwhelmed with emotion and gets a long hug, she says a few words of appreciation. There is nice applause. Bill Bowen: The next silent lambs “courage” Award to goes to two parents that stood beside their daughter and enabled her to be strong to stand up. They supported her when she went to the media to be interviewed about these things. They have fearlessly stood up for what was right and for their bravery they were disfellowshipped. The next recipient of the silentlamb's "courage" Award is Carl and Barbara Pandelo. They are greeted by a nice round of applause and then Barbara talks first. Barbara Pandelo: We were told that we were the only ones, that if we say anything that we would be bringing reproach on Jehovah's name. To find out that there was just so many people like us, its so encouraging and being here for the other children is an honor. Thank you it's all an honor for me to be here. Carl Pandelo: Being raised by Jehovah's Witnesses, probably one of the most horrifying things is to be disfellowshipped, but in fact its an honor to be disfellowshipped for being apostates and to stand and know what is wrong and knowing what's right. I'm really proud to be, me and my wife, are disfellowshipped for speaking out, we have no fear of them. Thank you. (There is another nice round of applause) Bill Bowen: The next person I would like to present the silentlambms "courage" Award to is a person who was abused herself. When trying to reach out for justice in helping her daughter she to was threatened with disfellowshipping for trying to warn the congregation about the man who molested her daughter. When they went to the elders, they were told to be silent, threatened with disfellowshipping, and by her being here today, the elders may still try to disfellowship her. She helped many of you to be here today. She is the director for the local chapter of silentlambms, her name is Jeanne Kraus. Jeanne Krause: My daughter was molested by my husband, when I went to the elders they said it was a misunderstanding because we did not have two eye witnesses. The elders ordered me and my daughter into silence and refused to allow us to warn others in the congregation. I am happy to be able to speak out now and appreciate this award. Bill Bowen: Next award goes to another married couple who stood up on abuse issues and were terribly sanctioned as a result. When the wife went on Dateline and told the truth about cover-ups she was faced with judicial committees, when the husband simply resigned as an elder after 43 years to protest abuse, he was disfellowshipped within two weeks. For their courageous effort in standing for what is right I am honored to present Joe and Barbara Anderson with the silentlambms "courage" Award. Joe Anderson: If I take this (referring to award) over to that building (pointing to 25 building) do you thing they would make me a Witness again? I doubt that and I would not accept it if they did. The policy has harmed thousands of children and they want to act like nothing is wrong, they know it is wrong and they willfully put children in danger. They should be afraid of what the Creator thinks and who will hold them accountable for their actions. Barbara Anderson: I worked for ten years right here in this building behind us, for three years I was in the Writing Department, two of those years, I knew of the extent of the abuse. For the last ten years I have been trying to find a way to get the word out and protect the children. Children of Jehovah's Witnesses are not safe and its just wonderful to see you here today united and taking a stand for what is right. It is shameful to force Jehovah's Witnesses and their children into danger for the way they use old bible edicts of having two witnesses to each molestation We love our children, yes, we love our children more than we love the Watchtower Society. (nice round of applause) Bill Bowen: The last recipient of the Silentlambms Courage Award goes to someone I know very well. When I first came out on this issue of abuse, this person was told, that all they had to do was just leave me, and they would be protected and taken care of along with my children. She turned them down flat and as a result has suffered the ridicule that follows those who stand up for children in this organization. So the next recipient of the silentlambms "courage" Award is Sheila Bowen. All: (applause) Sheila!! Sheila!! Sheila!! Bill Bowen: I think this illustrates to everyone that silent lambs come from all walks of life, and abuse victims know that they support them and stand behind them with the courage to say don't be silent and let them know that they can speak out. For you to be here at this march, for your efforts to present this to the media, for just wearing the silentlambms t-shirt, it may appear to just be small things, yet those small things will multiply and multiply until Watchtower is forced to see the reality and change their policies. Thank you for all your efforts and we appreciate your courage and please email or write silentlambms to do so. Bill Bowen: We have some kind supporters from the New York area who represent several groups who support abuse survivors. Would you like to welcome them here today? The first person I'd like to ask to speak is Tina Alfano, Tina my memory is not good you'll have to tell them the name of your group. First I'd like to have Tina come up, and then well hear from David Carillo from SNAP, and then third from Van Dugo, from Child Protection Advocates. (applause) Tina Alfano: Thank you all for coming here today. I know for some of you, it was really hard whether to come or not today. So for your strength and your courage we support you and are happy to see you here. My name is Tina Alfano, and I'm the president and founder of Keep-Our-Children-Safe. com. I came here today in support of all the silent lambs. Today, you are SILENT NO MORE! Every child matters. We will stand strong and firm against child abuse and molestation. We will be united in our plight and we will prevail. Children have rights. Children should have better laws to protect them. The wilderness has more laws to protect animals than we have laws to protect our children. Somehow, somewhere, we have failed to protect our children. But we can and must make a change to right this wrong. Where are our legislators? Where are our Congressmen and our Senators? Today you may ask, when will this all end? We must bring accountability to every individual who abuses our children no matter WHO THEY ARE! And to Watchtower: You have the power to change your policies. The power to change the lives of thousands of your children. I know you WILL do your best to change because it is God's will. And God has gathered us all here today, to rally for change, to say No More dead children, no more abused children, NO MORE SILENT CHILDREN! Thank you all again for coming to this history making March. Together we have already made a difference. God bless all of you here today and may today be the start of a better life for you and your children. (applause) Bill Bowen: Next we would like to hear from David Cerulli of SNAP Survivors Network of those Abused by Priests. (applause) David Cerulli: Thank you for inviting me. I’m a survivor. As a boy of 14, I was repeatedly raped and sodomized by a priest at a church in Allentown, Pennsylvania. I was incapable of fighting the power of the priest and the church at age 14. Thanks to the help of my family and their wonderful people along the way, and most recently SNAP, I can say I am a survivor. Many other victims are not so lucky. They try to numb the pain with alcohol and drugs and suicide. This tragedy continues today. SNAP exists to help victims become survivors. We don’t want to lose any more victims along the way. We have monthly support group meetings and this Sunday we’re having a rally outside of Saint Patrick’s Cathedral from nine in the morning until one. You’re all invited. I hope you can make it. I’d like to thank you for inviting me, for allowing me to speak today, I think you’re doing a wonderful job, keep up the good work! (applause) Bill Bowen: We appreciate the extra effort David put forth to be here, he took off work to be with us today, and he’s here to support us as abuse survivors. We’re very appreciative of him making this trip. Thank you, David! (applause) The next person I’d like to let speak is Dan Dugo of Child Protection Advocates. (applause) Dan Dugo: I think its touching and nice to see everybody come here together from different congregations, from different religions, even no religions, just to stand here and give support to the cause. I tend to think that people need to speak a little more about the bigger picture, like the politics behind things, that’s something I’d like to touch on. I feel that the issue of clergy members who abuse children sexually is an issue of child safety and not a religious issue, which these people hide behind. All religious leaders as well as politicians have a moral and civil obligation to take children under their watch. While our country is in the middle of a crisis of children that are being molested and raped by clergy members as well as other members of society, Senator Bruno of the New York State majority leader stated publicly that the clergy mandated reporting bill is not a priority right now. As for our top guy, Governor Pataki, it’s nice to watch him stand on platforms and receive awards, but what is he really doing to protect children? It’s time for him to put politics aside and do his job. If Pataki wanted a bill on his desk that would make clergy mandatory reporting, or for the statute of limitations to be extended, he would have that bill on his desk within the week. But because of his bid for re-election, the welfare, safety and health of defenseless children have been put on the back burner. God forbid he should pass a law that should upset some Catholics or some Catholic group that he might lose some votes from. Politicians are sacrificing the children for the sake of votes. We won’t tolerate this and I’m asking society as well to put their foot down and say no, they won’t tolerate it either. I don’t know much about politics, but I’m being forced to learn very quickly, and what I see so far is disgusting. I also feel that the federal and state agencies should investigate all religious organizations who engaged in covering up and obstructing justice. (applause) Bill Bowen: Thank you Dan, Tina, and David for being with us here today. (applause) Next, we have an attorney here with us her name is Kimberly Norris from Dallas Texas area. And she has an announcement she would like to make to you here today. Kim Norris: Hey, I’m Kim Norris from FORT WORTH Texas! I hold in my hand the first of countless lawsuits to be brought in the fifty states filed by my firm and lawyers affiliated with us to be filed in Oregon today on behalf of a Jehovah’s Witness Congregation victim/survivor asking for compensation in the amount of three million dollars. This is one of many, check our website, we’ll update as we go. LET’S GO GET THEM! (applause) Bill Bowen: This is the last part of the program, and at this point, different abuse survivors said that they would like to say a few words. I ask you to keep it brief because we have a kind of a large group and were taking the valuable time of these police officers here. So if any of you would like to come forward, remember to hold the megaphone close and you’re welcome to say a few words. The first is Barbara Carr from Michigan. Brenda, I’m sorry. Brenda Carr: I’m not a victim myself, but on behalf of a victim from Winnipeg Canada, who could not be here today, and whose family has been destroyed by the protection of pedophiles by the Watchtower congregation. She asked me to read a poem she wrote it’s entitled, “I am a voice from the past” I am a voice from the past, abandoned, rejected and outcast. A child of twelve, and all alone, abused and treated like a criminal. Shamed and silenced by those I trusted. I die alone, depressed and deserted. I am a voice from the past, abandoned, rejected and outcast. A child of five abused by brothers, no one to hear my cries, alone and scared, My life a mess, drugs and alcohol, to deal with the stress. I am a voice from the past, abandoned, rejected and outcast. Abused as child, again as wife, no compassion from you I found. Abusers you keep within your walls, but you never hear the  call. I am a voice of the future, of all those you call sinners, Hear me declare, for all to hear,  you were. Hear from the innocents, God says, so do it!” Signed Lee Marsh (applause) Bill Bowen: Thanks you Brenda, next, I would like to ask Dorian Baker to come up and read a piece that was written by an abuse survivor that couldn’t be here, and she asked her to share this today. (applause) Dorian: I’d like to begin by stating that I am honored to be in the company I am in, although I could not be there physically. Many of you know me as “a lamb”. I am a victim of sexual abuse by two elders, one being my father. One is an admitted child molester, having admitted to his actions both in court and at judicial meetings. No actions were taken by the elders involved, and he is still actively involved in a congregation and baby-sits for sisters on their studies. He is also regularly in contact with my own children against a court order the same court order that I am respecting by not attending today. If someone had done this thirty years ago, this lamb would not exist. How many lambs will there be next time? What price for the children to pay? What is enough? ONE is too many! To those who support the faulty policies of this organization: you can silence the cries of the innocents and the believers, but you will never silence us, the survivors. We are not going away! We will not disappear! We only ask that you do not add to our ranks. You can cripple our spirit and trample our innocence, but you cannot put out the fire that has been started. Truth and right will win. You can view us as dead and shun us, but you cannot kill our spirit, it is FREE! (applause) Bill Bowen: Thank you very much, would someone else like to come forward and speak? This is Mike Pence from Arizona. Mike Pence: Thank you very much. I would like first of all to thank the 16 and some odd individuals on the internet most of whom I have never known and will never know and who funded our trip here to be with all of you today. So a thank you to all of them. When I first started to write, after 9/11 I decided I wanted to be a writer and when I first started to write I realized I had to write about what was going on with Bill Bowen and silentlambs. And in the course of researching some articles it came forward that my own children had been abused. They had the courage to come forward and so I would like to salute them for their courage. My new lawyer has authorized me to say that the presiding overseer of the Orland Pennsylvania congregation is the man who our children alleged abused them, and we will not rest until this individual is brought to justice. Finally, I'd like to thank this man for the courage to step forward and to make the sacrifices in his personal life that I know he's had to make because that kept him tied up on the phone for enough hours and I'm sure some of other people have too. So thanks to Bill and to his family for the sacrifices they've made and thank you to, all of you for supporting victims of abuse like my children. (applause) Bill Bowen: Thank you Mike, next we hear from Barbara Lees from Illinois.

Barbara Lees: I'm so proud to be here with all of you, I just want to make it very clear that when a congregation body of elders decides they're above the law they're hurting so many people by just sending a pedophile out into the world and not warning authorities, not warning the congregation, not warning families in the congregation. We would love to be able to have the chance to make the decision whether we want our children around a pedophile and to threaten to discipline us because we won't go door to door with them. It's really important that they realize that they need to report this to the authorities. I know of a situation where the elders decided they could not handle a particular pedophile they removed him, let him out, he became a little league coach, admitted to multiple victims, went to prison, got out, went to another Kingdom Hall, got caught again, it was covered up and to this day remains a Jehovah's Witness in good standing. This has got to stop, they people must take responsibility and protect our children.

(applause) Bill Bowen: Thank you Barbara and now here's Charles Riley from New York. Charles Riley: I just wanted to say that I'm here in support of everyone here and I also wanted to say that I'm also here in support of my niece in California because in 1984 she was molested on three different occasions by one of our brothers in the congregation in Tujunga California. And when my sister went to the elders to get it straightened out, they refused to do anything about it, she sent a letter to the Governing Body, and they wrote her back saying that they were not going to get involved. And this brother… this so-called brother….. went to another congregation and molested two other young ladies. I'm here in support of her, and I also wanted to say: I was an elder for seven years. And I know for a fact that they instructed elders NOT to go to the police when it comes to child molesting. And I also wanted to mention that of all the Governing Body members of the Watchtower appointed, one of the main culprits is Theodore Jaracz. He is the main culprit; he has to pay. And we are not gonna stop until justice is done for all of our children and for all of us that have been abused by this organization. (applause) Bill Bowen: Thank you Charles for your comments, next is Debra. Debra: It is a thrill to be here today. The elder uncle that molested me when I was 14 years old was in North Carolina at the time, I normally live in Staten Island New York. He traveled on to Tennessee where he was disfellowshipped for molesting many young girls. He had many flagrant affairs. I was warned that if I said anything my dear precious aunt would be dead. Less than a year later she did mysteriously die after her six year old son also mysteriously hung himself in North Carolina. “Steve” is now one of the anointed remnant of Jehovah's Witnesses. (applause) Bill Bowen: Thank you Debra and now we will hear from Pat Garza. Pat Garza: I'm Pat Garza, and I'm here to say that I was raped by Theodore Jaracz when I was a little girl, in the city of Los Angeles, he was the District Overseer at the time. There are two boys; their initials are "M. D." and "M. W.". If they could be found they could confirm my allegations- if I could find them they're older than me, they were there, there were witnesses! We were terrified and silenced! We were not allowed to talk. My life was threatened and my brothers were threatened, they were going to be killed if I spoke. And when I started remembering the abuse I was abused horrifically in the congregation and I wrote the Watchtower Society and I begged for help. I have the letters with me to show you the names of ten of the elders who hurt me and they told me they could not answer any of the questions I asked, nor could they comment on the circumstances that I described in the congregation. I ended up in the hospital, in crisis in the emergency ward because of what the elders did to me. And then I was hospitalized for months, because I had nowhere to go, I was homeless. They threw me out in the street, I was destitute and I was disabled, I was unable to work because of the flashbacks I was having. And I ended up on the street, and I have with me a photocopy of the letter that the elders, the entire body of elders sent me, it has all of their names on it. It says that they called the Watchtower Society here in New York, and asked how to help me and they sent me a list of homeless shelters and I have that list of homeless shelters, one of them was Parkside Projects on skid row in Portland Oregon. Two of them were churches in Beaverton Oregon and the other was the YWCA. The humiliation that I felt was beyond belief. I almost died when I got that letter from those elders, and I almost stopped praying. The Watchtower Society has stood as a block between children and your God. All they do is destroy a person's faith, take away their self esteem and make them feel like God does not love us. And I'm here to say that He does, and I'm saying for those of us who are victims of Satanic Ritual Abuse in this organization it is time to fight these elders and fight Ted Jaracz. It's safe to come out now and you can come out and talk and I'm begging anyone who knows "M. D." and "M. W." - I would say their names but for privacy I won't reveal them, but silentlambs knows the full identity of "M. D." and "M. W." who were there - would you please call silentlambs at 1-877-WTABUSE Please step forward and be my witnesses. They're bringing pedophiles into this organization, they're ruining children for sex and that's what they were doing with me, the boys were there to prepare me for sex with Ted Jaracz! They were there to keep me, to make me, disassociate so that I could not remember him. Bill Bowen: Thank you Pat for coming forward, thank all of you for speaking out and supporting abuse survivors. I would not like to attempt to deliver the lambs to Watchtower. (Bowen walks across the street and checks the gates, all are dead bolted. He then goes to the intercom and asks to speak with a representative about his meeting with the Governing Body. They turn the intercom off and do not answer. At this point a Watchtower Rep comes out with some of the media. Bowen speaks to him and is ignored, Bowen asks, "Will you accept this lamb as a gift from abuse survivors? The WT rep turns to go in and Bowen pitches the lamb and it hits him in the head as he walks away. Bowen turns to the group and says, "They ignore us today just as they ignore the cry of all abuse survivors within the organization."") ALL: Let him in! Let him in! Let him in! What are you afraid of? What are you afraid of! What are you afraid of? Bill Bowen: Everybody get back to the other side of the street, come back over. Come back on this side. (Headquarters refused to accept delivery and denied abuse survivors the right to do so when Headquarters summoned the police to charge anyone who left lambs at the front door with littering. Participants left hundreds of lambs stuck in a chain link fence across the street from the front door much like mementos left at ground zero from the 9-11 disaster. ) We thank you for your sacrifice and kind support in making the effort to be here. In Ezekiel there is an interesting scripture regarding the shepherds of ancient times it states, "The sickened ones you have not strengthened, and the ailing one you have not healed, and the broken one you have not bandaged, and the dispersed one you have not brought back, and the lost one you have not sought to find, but with harshness you have had them in subjection, even with tyranny. " The Governing Body must wake up and realize as God did not tolerate tyrants in bible times he will not tolerate tyrants today. So while we "wait on Jehovah" we follow the course of Ezekiel and speak out to protect the lowly ones. Thank you for being brave, thank you for standing for righteousness, thank you for proving you are no longer silent lambs. I invite all in attendance to attend a meal at a nearby restaurant, We thank you for your sacrifice and kind support in making the effort to be here. Were going to have a meal at a restaurant that's right nearby within walking distance. And I invite all of you to come that would like to attend. So with this we will conclude, well let these nice police officers get on their way. We appreciate their kind effort in protecting us here today. So let's all move in that direction, and Jeanne Krause is going to show us where it's at. ALL: Thank you NYPD! Bill Bowen: This now concludes the silentlambs march. Afterward at 5pm we met at a local restaurant, there was around 70 who were able to make it. It was kind of like when a big group of JW's meet after an assembly, except better. All were laughing and having up building conversations about how rotten Watchtower acted today. There were many hugs and congratulations offered to the great sacrifice so many had to make to be there. We talked and visited for about two hours, the manager was very kind and totally supportive of what we were there for. When we left I gave silentlambs t-shirts to all the waiters at their request. It was an empowering day, it was a day we took the power that was robbed by Watchtower Policy. I believe everyone who participated will remember this day for the rest of their lives as a turning point for the better. Watchtower made asses of themselves they treated abuse survivors with disdain in front of the media and the rest of the world. Where was the compassion? Where was the humility? Where was the apology? Where was one iota of kindness? The very qualities that are held up for all members to follow were ignored in front of the children they have damaged by their policies. Was this wickedness or weakness? Silentlambs was able to assist 12 abuse survivors to be there due to the kind support of persons who donated toward their travel expenses. The expenses came to around $5,000 for the march and would not have been possible without the kind support of so many. I remember a $5 donation from one abuse survivor, it was all she could do and it reminded me of the illustration of the widow's mite. She gave all she could and her gift was part of the collective that made this all possible. The appreciation of those there made it worth every penny. It was a good day and it is the hope of all silent lambs that it will be the beginning of many more as we support those who suffer and stand up to those who bully the weak. silentlambs
Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
21:24:50
Comments
Hi loris:: I'M HAPPY FOR YOU. NOW YOU CAN LET THE HOLY SPRIT GUIDE YOU... HOW REFRESHING... you have lost nothing worth while and have gained the love of the lord... may you be blessed... john

Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
21:33:21
Comments
SHOCKING NEW EVIDENCE! Neighborhood in shock as Bill Bowen is accused of displaying flagrant homosexuality!
Go here: (no, really, I mean it, this site is real): http://www. bill. bowen. isgay. com

Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
21:33:31
Comments
hey NONAME RJ ; WHY YOU F!@#$%g WITH RMK ???? WHY DON'T YOU COME OVER HERE ,AND LET ME PUT MY SIZE 13 BOOT UP YOUR ASS... THEN LET US ALL HERE ,SEE YOU WAIT ON JEHOVAH... YOU WOULD BE THE FIRST FAGGOT CRYING TO THE POLICE... PLEASE TAKE THIS BOOT OUT OF MY ASS. AND LOCK THAT ASPOSTATE UP... JOHN

Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
21:36:49
Comments
Hey, stop posting right after my posts with great big long boring posts about your lame silent pansies march that only 5 people turned up to.

Remote User:

Date:
02 Oct 2002
Time:
21:44:26
Comments
RJ GET A LIST OF ALL THE MONEY$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$THE WT PAID OUT IN THE FORM OF GIG ORDERS
JUST TO KEEP THE CASES FROM COMING TO COURT. And to silence the victims. . . . i'll be waiting for dooms day for this info!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!john

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
06:18:34
Comments
so we all know who RJ's god really is, the GB. how dare anyone blaspheme them on this site! RJ proves himself to be such a good Jehovah's Witness. oh, but hang on, in order for someone to have a relationship with Jehovah, you need to go through Christ as he is the mediator, but only if you're of the anointed(according to the WTS). RJ isn't of the anointed, so Christ isn't his mediator, so he's mediator is the GB!!! no wonder he thinks they're a god!!!

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
06:47:15
Comments
OK the bill is gay website is taking things a little bit to far. I would ask the poster of this useless info to refrain from posting things like that. That is really in poor taste. However Johns comments laden with expletives is also in poor taste. John, don't commence to calling me a hypocrite when you use such vulgar language. This really shows a lack of character. I have never used such language to express my opinions. The fact is your filthy post was nothing less than an idle threat, one that serves no purpose on the web. You know and I know a fight will never happen because neither of us know each other. For all you know I may be a 300lb brute or on the other hand you could be a 300lb brute. Either way you know it's childish to make such threats over the internet because it simply won't happen. Before you tell people how to be good christians you should practice what you preach as you say we don't. Then maybe your message will come across w/o hypocritical undertones. Also to those who proclaim me as the great GB defender, show me one post where I have ever condoned a molester or the act and/or the GB as infallible angels. You interpret things and say what you want to say the same way you accuse JW's of doing. This again is exactly what I have been saying all along. If you ever tone down your attacks on my brothers then maybe my mission in here will be done. RJ

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
07:05:13
Comments
John. . . . thank you for your good wishes. I will not ever stop helping the victims. I have emailed those who have been posting their email addresses and will continue to do so. I find it rather funny that the JW defenders post the nonsense they put on the guestbook, it shows we've struck a nerve! Let them rant, I really don't care. But I also won't give them the satisfaction of replying to their nonsense. Ignore them everyone. Until Bill is able to make this guestbook/board? to where people have to have joined with a password etc, I just ignore the defenders. I only focus on those that need help and those who can be of comfort and care. These are the ones I care about most. Let the defenders foam at the mouth and rant and rave, it makes no difference to me. Linda Thoman Linthoman@hotmail. com
Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 07:05:21
Comments
John... thank you for your good wishes. I will not ever stop helping the victims. I have emailed those who have been posting their email addresses and will continue to do so. I find it rather funny that the JW defenders post the nonsense they put on the guestbook, it shows we've struck a nerve! Let them rant, I really don't care. But I also won't give them the satisfaction of replying to their nonsense. Ignore them everyone. Until Bill is able to make this guestbook/board? to where people have to have joined with a password etc, I just ignore the defenders. I only focus on those that need help and those who can be of comfort and care. These are the ones I care about most. Let the defenders foam at the mouth and rant and rave, it makes no difference to me. Linda Thoman Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 08:23:47
Comments
Hi guys: found a web site I think is helpful. Go to sidran.org and search: Recovery Bill of Rights. I also found w2w.lhm.org - a christian woman's website. Don't know if this is the same woman to woman that Jesika and Linda spoke about - I never could find that one!! This site has radio programs you can listen to. Love, Claudine

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 08:58:05
Comments
Want to view the Australian News Report about Jehovah's Witnesses cover up of child abuse? ... Silent Witness. It has an account of a child molester in a congregation, this man was reported to the elders by a young brother, by a mother and her 4 yr son, but the witnesses were not to the same event so nothing was done. When the police arrested him he had 40 victims, mostly young witnesses. http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/media.asp

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 09:51:53
Comments
Claudine? Woman to Woman? I used to have a web site called Woman to Woman, but I let it go due to my work with Silentlams. There is a wonderful group for just ex-jw woman at woman-awake@yahoogroups.com Jesika and I both are on that group. Linda Thoman
Remote User:

Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
14:43:44
Comments
Ken Grant. England. 13/3/02 ken@askmen. fsnet. co. uk Having read most of what is on your web site I don't honestly know what to say. My wife said we should say something to let you know we will be thinking of you at all times. We believe that our son in law a JW has had unlawful sex with both our daughters but he is so smug and righteous. He has now taken our daughter away from us to God knows where.

Remote User:

Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
16:14:25
Comments
RJ, for once I don't agree with you. I thought the bill is gay website was damn funny! Just trying to inject a little humour into this god-forsaken place. I admit I do post some useless crap, but as long as jerks like john boy keep posting illiterate garbage, I'll feel free to post what I like. I suppose john is much more likely to be tolerated here, being a rabid apostate and all... although he's no less offensive. Anyways, here's that web site for those who haven't seen it: http://www. bill. bowen. isgay. com

Remote User:

Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
16:17:23
Comments
APNEWS: BILL BOWEN ARRESTED! Bill Bowen, administrator of the silentlambs web site is in police custody tonight after being caught doing unspeakable things to stuffed toys. A staff member at silent lambs said "I couldn't believe it. I walked into the store-room and there he was, naked from the waist down, indulging in some weird sexual fetish! It was then I realized why all the lambs had large holes in the back of them!" The stuffed toys, which are sold by the hundreds, were analyzed and found to contain traces of Bill's masturbatory emissions. The "abused lambs" were too traumatized to make any comments today. APNEWS.

Remote User:

Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
17:13:39
Comments
Complaints regarding the above website link should be addressed to: abuse@dwhs. net
These JW defenders are offenders - for language and content. Free speech doesn't come free. One way of looking at the criticism regarding the number of people who showed up from ALL OVER THE COUNTRY on 9/27 is that we only get two people out of the 6 million JWs to come here and they don't even have to leave home! And at least we acknowledge that they are here - we haven't locked the doors yet. We give them a chance to have their say no matter how offending which is better than the WTS who can't acknowledge a grave concern that does bring shame upon the christian congregation and the name of God and has ruined the lives of countless people. What effort does it take to turn on the computer and punch thoughtless offensive words of no concern???????? What effort does it take for 125 people to go to NY? A lot of effort and thoughtfulness, and time and money. ^^^^^^^^^ These two "guys" (RJ & AP) sit on their big butts AT HOME (two of them at most because they can't conjure up more support) and cannot lift a finger to defend the JW's but do lift a finger to offend the already offended. I say it is a poor showing to only have two butt heads with fingers on their keyboards compared to the 125 that showed up, traveled some for days to be at the March 9/27. RJ & AP can chide, deride, belittle all you want but your "numbers" are not even mentionable and the effort it takes to do this is even less mentionable.  Let's hear it for all those who contributed, organized, supported, actually went, the police that kept it safe, the stories told. . . CLAP! CLAP! CLAP! CLAP! Good hands do good. Out of the mouth the heart speaks.

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 19:30:16
Comments
This needs to be in CAPS and REPEATED so here goes ----- "CONTINUE TO COMFORT THE AFFLICTED, and to AFFLICT THE COMFORTABLE." ----- Yessssirreee, that's a good one. Thanks to whoever posted that. THE LAMBS WERE MOST DEFINITELY COMFORTED by the AWESOME March itself, the program, AND the LOVE & COMARADERIE felt by EVERYONE present (not like here, where the soreheads seem to still be kicking up a lot of flak. Tsk Tsk. What a NEGATIVE WASTE of energy. Probably they are the SAME WT SPIES who were in Pierrepont Park & Promenade who were sent to, no doubt, take a head count. LOL! They TRIED to act so inconspicuous -- NOT! Try again fellas!) GLORIOUS! IT WAS A GLORIOUS DAY! HURRAY FOR SILENTLAMBS! ---- SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 19:34:42
Comments
Hey To My FRIENDS!! Sorry I haven't been around. Glad you girls and guys are running the show here. THANK YOU! THANK YOU! Please keep up the GREAT WORK! (I got other stuff to take care of re: SL, etc.). LOVE TO YOU "FINE" PEOPLE! (And you know who you are!) Hugs/SLC (seeing how many of the past few weeks of posts here I can read tonight. . . there's a lotta them!)

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 19:36:52
Comments
WELCOME LAWRENCE H. to the SilentLambs Guestbook! Keep up the great work! /SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
19:46:15
Comments
For everyone frustrated with the SL site. . . All I can say is it's being worked on. No, I don't have any specifics, but I DO KNOW FOR A FACT it IS being worked on. It could take months to re-vamp the entire site, but it IS "under construction." So keep the faith and hang in there. -- Unfortunately, I do NOT know if the actual Guestbook will be changed to a Forum (with registration, etc.), OR whether a forum will be added in addition to the Guestbook. If/when I hear anything on that, I'll let ya know. But the re-construction of the SL SITE ITSELF IS being worked on, but my guess it will take several months (there's a lot of info on this site, and it needs re-organizing, etc., plus lots of new stuff -- media stuff -- that hasn't been added, etc.) All in all, IT'S GREAT NEWS! Love/SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
19:50:01
Comments
BUSTER: Excellent observation of yours at Date: 02 Oct 2002 Time: 10:51:44. Thanks/SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
19:52:18
Comments
To the No-Name who posted the Mary had a little lamb (pathetic) and then the self-righteous No-Namer who wrote immediately after it -- It would be my thought they are ONE & THE SAME PERSON. Remember the Troll? THEY like to write disgusting stuff, and then turn around and say WE wrote it. Sheesh! What a waste of energy. /SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
19:55:08
Comments
HI LORIS! Glad to hear you are well and studying right along. . . Did you DA yourself, or did they DF you? You wrote you had been "silenced," so that's why I ask. Big Hug & Best Wishes/SLC
TO: ginny@pivot.net ----- Contrary to what the ILL-INFORMED poster wrote in reply to your post, THERE WAS TELEVISION NEWS COVERAGE of the SL March. It was on the 10 PM NEWS that same night, WB channel, I saw it with my own eyes. And it was also on the UNI 11 pm NEWS that same night, I saw it with my own eyes. And I was told by two other people who saw it with their own eyes on CNN earlier in the afternoon (and a third person was told by four people HE knows that they saw it on CNN ALSO!) --- Even if it had not made the news (which it DID), it was a GRAND SUCCESS FOR THE LAMBS, which was one of the MAIN PURPOSES for it to begin with. The purpose was for the LAMBS TO TAKE THEIR POWER BACK, to SPEAK OUT at the GB, and to BOND IN LOVE WITH FELLOW SURVIVORS. It was a GRAND SUCCESS in all respects. It was an HONOR & a PRIVILEGE to be part of it! /SLC

JAYSON - Keep up the good thoughts! Thanks for the great post! /SLC

FRED: (You're not the SAME "FRED HALL" from JWD are you? Hope not, cuz nobody likes him anyway). For reports on the MARCH, see further below. . . I'll post some links. . . /SLC

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:13:29
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:14:55
Comments
VIDEO of the SILENTLAMBS MARCH, professionally edited: Scroll down the list to: "SILENT LAMBS MARCH (VIDEO)"<http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/media.asp?site=3>
Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:25:39
Comments
HANG IN THERE MR. MOLE! Thanks for the report. /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:28:44
Comments
Here's the FLORIDA Dept. of Law Enforcement website. I forgot to add it: Florida: http://www.fdle.state.fl.us

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:32:56
Comments
“DC” accused the Marchers of leaving a bunch of litter in Brooklyn. I WAS THERE. I SAW NO LITTER. However, I DID SEE a Silentlambs Flier or two, here and there, on a bench for anyone to read since there were ALOT OF WORKING PEOPLE around there sitting on the benches. But litter all over as you describe? Your sources (obviously BIASED sources) are in ERROR. ---- Additionally, you feel the WT is way ahead of SL? Well, guess who is Way Ahead of the WT? THE F. B. I. /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:35:25
Comments
Speaking of LITTER-ature, how many mags do you see on park benches, tracts floating in the yards, brochures in the sidewalks??? The more WT litter-ature the JW's hand out, the more end up all over the place as LITTER. I see it all the time. Why do you open yourself up for this? Silly people. /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:37:00

THANKS LINDA & JESIKA for helping the newbies to this site! Love ya/SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
20:39:32
Comments
Thanks for the Dallas article about the Presbyterian church. YES, SHOULD WE NOT EXPECT A WHOLE LOT MORE FROM "GOD'S CHANNEL"?? /SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
20:42:50
Comments
WHO in their RIGHT MIND would even CONSIDER going to "RJ" for HELP? PUKE! Any newbies -- IGNORE THIS CREEP "RJ." He would be extremely detrimental to your well-being as can be seen from his posts. (Reference his post: Date: 01 Oct 2002 Time: 07:57:44)

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
20:46:17
Comments
Dear "NO LONGER ALONE" -- Thanks for sharing your story, and glad you are able to get it out of your system. THAT IS THE SUCCESS OF SILENTLAMBS. Please join the "Email List" (sign up from the home page: ADD ME TO EMAIL). Hugs/SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Time:
20:47:37
Comments
Dear BBsStuff@aol.com! THANKS for your thoughts on the March. Wasn't it AWESOME being there? Wonder if I met you? Hope so! Can't wait to go to the next one! Love/SLC

Remote User:
Date:
03 Oct 2002
Agent says Longo confessed to killing his wife and three young children, although Longo wouldn’t say how. Special Agent Daniel C. Clegg said during a pre-trial hearing in Lincoln County Circuit Court that Longo confessed on a Jan. 14 flight to after being arrested in a Mexican beach town. Clegg said during the flight he told Longo his theory: Longo’s wife, MaryJane, caught him molesting one of his children and she was injured in the ensuing fight. “And then you killed them,” Clegg said he told Longo. . . .

During an interview with Longo in a Houston FBI office Jan. 14, Turre said that Roy Brown, an Oregon State Police investigator, told Longo that normally men who kill their families kill themselves. Then Brown asked Longo why he didn't kill himself. "There was a long pause," Turre said, "and I interjected, 'The reason you didn't do that is because you're not right with Jehovah yet.' He said, 'That's right.' "

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:52:04
Comments
Whoever posted the '97 WT: Thanks for reminding us how pathetically ignorant and pitiful the WT is. Anybody who knows anything about pedophiles KNOWS THEY DO NOT STOP. So if the WT wants them IN the congs, they are just saying, "Here's a FREE TICKET. COME AFTER OUR KIDS." And to not allow the pedophile to have microphone privileges? BIG DEAL. Like THAT is really gonna keep a pedophile IN LINE. Sheesh. The ignorance is disgusting. --- And wait! The WT doesn't have enough kids to offer up to the sacrifice of the pedophiles, so their CAMPAIGN (as seen at their website) is now to BRING IN MORE SINGLE PARENT FAMILIES. Isn't that nice? Their website SHOULD read: "Bring us more PAWNS for our PEDOPHILES!!" --- /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:56:29
Comments
BEARDS -- To the person who asked about JWs and BEARDS -- a good source of info on that subject is by using the SEARCH feature here: www.jehovahs-witness.com ----- Type in "BEARDS" in the SEARCH window, and it will give you lots of discussion on this topic. The guys on that forum bring it up all the time. Actually, it's not something that interests me a whole lot. :-) /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 20:58:26
Comments
EXCELLENT POINT about Moses coming out. /SLC ----- Date: 30 Sep 2002 Time: 10:57:34 Comments Even Moses came out, face to face, to meet with the people who were complaining.
Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:03:19
Comments
To the person whining about the lack of JW defenders on this site: Sorry, the 6,000,000+ JW's are out doing what they should be doing. A handful of the people who post here seem to be in defense of JW's and we have our own reasons for doing so. Perhaps some are JW's or used to be. One of the reasons I am here is to expose the hypocrisy of Bill Bowen and the silent lambs. The smug, smart-ass attitude that Bill shows, the way he seeks glory for himself, the way he tries to make him look "big" by pretending to comfort the women who have been abused. He only sucks up to his fag followers because he's got nothing else to do now (having been kicked out from being an elder/JW) Get your hand off it, Bill. You're nothing but a big, stupid, fat c*nt. And that's all you'll ever be. And guess what? I'm going to make fun of that retard john and his irrational arguments at every opportunity too. Nobody can stop me. Ain't free speech grand? HaHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA [the ANTi-john]

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:04:17
Comments
To Deborah: Thanks for your comments. Sadly, you were very misinformed about the atmosphere at the MARCH. IT WAS NOTHING BUT LOVE EVERYWHERE. It was FANTASTIC. It's a shame you allowed the small-minded actions of posters on a guestbook to HINDER YOU FROM PARTICIPATING! That is a BIG SHAME, and makes me wonder how SINCERE you really are? Sheesh! If you read the rest of this site, you will see that SILENTLAMBS is "Don't Ask/Don't Tell." In other words, whether supporters of SL are DF or DA or active, inactive, etc. does NOT MATTER. If your HEART is with the CAUSE of the SILENCED LAMBS, then THAT is ALL that matters. What a pity you would let a GUESTBOOK keep you from joining in. HOW SAD INDEED, because you missed an AWESOME, WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE to BOND with OTHERS of LIKE-PURPOSE, and to experience a camaraderie that will be long-lasting for those of us who felt it an HONOR & PRIVILEGE to be there. --- I just can't believe you would allow a GUESTBOOK to block your brain like that. What a crying shame. Hopefully, you will wise up before the next March or SL Event. Best regards/SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:07:26
Comments
To 9-30-02: Welcome xJW. Glad you love this site! AND, so true the words of the next poster after you, who wrote: "Say what you will but the marchers of September 27th were not the ones hiding behind a locked gate cowering inside a building." --- HOW RIGHT YOU ARE BROTHER!!! /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:07:03
Comments
To Deborah: Thanks for your comments. Sadly, you were very misinformed about the atmosphere at the MARCH. IT WAS NOTHING BUT LOVE EVERYWHERE. It was FANTASTIC. It's a shame you allowed the small-minded actions of posters on a guestbook to HINDER YOU FROM PARTICIPATING! That is a BIG SHAME, and makes me wonder how SINCERE you really are? Sheesh! If you read the rest of this site, you will see that SILENTLAMBS is "Don't Ask/Don't Tell." In other words, whether supporters of SL are DF or DA or active, inactive, etc. does NOT MATTER. If your HEART is with the CAUSE of the SILENCED LAMBS, then THAT is ALL that matters. What a pity you would let a GUESTBOOK keep you from joining in. HOW SAD INDEED, because you missed an AWESOME, WONDERFUL EXPERIENCE to BOND with OTHERS of LIKE-PURPOSE, and to experience a camaraderie that will be long-lasting for those of us who felt it an HONOR & PRIVILEGE to be there. --- I just can't believe you would allow a GUESTBOOK to block your brain like that. What a crying shame. Hopefully, you will wise up before the next March or SL Event. Best regards/SLC hey you JW's on here your not supposed to be talking to apostates you know. do you talk to apostates if you seen one on the street? I don't think your allowed to associate with df'd and apostate. go ask and elder if I'm right.

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:08:44
Comments
WELCOME NANCY!!! Please read the ASSISTANCE page of this site to see how you can help! And be sure to add your name to the EMAIL LIST (can be found from the home page). Love/SLC

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:12:14
Comments
MICHELE: What a beautiful tribute to your family. Thanks for sharing. Are you on the SL Email list? Love/SLC

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:13:49
Comments
Hi Shannon! Thanks for stopping by. Hope you are finding the research material you need. There's lots more on the web, but you probably know that already. You can start with www.freeminds.org, and go from there. /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:14:03
Comments
haha bill buggers the lambs up the bum hole. that's funny.

Remote User:
Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:15:02
Comments
THANK YOU Patti Pal! We're doing the best we can and will continue to do so! Thanks for the comments! /SLC
Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:18:06
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:31:39
Comments
To John H in Daytona Ohio -- Don't you know how to do a search on the internet? John gave you the news channels. Go find their sites. The audio is already up at www.jehovahs-witness.com (streaming media section). When those who videotaped the news coverage get copies to those who can put it online, we'll have more links to that too. -- Sheesh. Everybody wants everyone ELSE to put forth the effort, and all they do is sit around and complain. /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:32:33
Comments
To Steve in Panama City who thinks the 15 minutes of fame of SL is over. . . Things have ONLY JUST BEGUN my friend. Stay tuned for more. . . /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 21:44:33
Comments
Whatever sorehead wrote the fake AP article about 2 of the 3 protesters at the march being arrested -- THAT IS SO NOT TRUE. Visitors, I hope you recognize the soreheads on this guestbook from the sincere ones. Sheesh. The soreheads get worse and worse with their ridicule as time goes on. Just wait until all the SL lawsuits start flying all over the newspapers and in the courts. /SLC
To whoever asked about the VICKY BOER trial in Canada... you can get all the info you need by going to this site: www.jehovahs-witness.com and in the SEARCH feature type in either CANADA, or BOER, etc. Many many threads there with all the newspaper articles and reports from those who attended the trial. /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 22:32:26
Comments
"But when you drag all JW's through the mud and make us all look like criminals then that is wrong. That has been my point of contention about this whole matter from day one!" (written by RJ). ----- RJ, RJ, RJ, RJ, RJ. Either you have a very big head (pride) or you are so totally MISSING the point. ALL JWs are not being dragged thru the mud. ONLY THE ABUSERS, THE ELDERS & OTHER JWS WHO GO ALONG WITH THEIR COVERUPS, DF'ING OF VICTIMS, MISTREATMENT OF VICTIMS, and above ALL of those persons, THE GOVERNING BODY who instructs you elders what to do. Why do you keep whining about the reputation of ALL jws being dragged thru the mud? Sheesh. SHALLOW thinking, because you are MISSING THE WHOLE POINT. Make yourself at home and make a real pain of yourself. The guestbook IS ALL YOURS. The Silentlambs and their Supporters have more important things to do than try to remove the shackles from your narrow-minded eyes. Now, be sure and PAT YOURSELF ON THE BACK for the fact that ONE abuse case was handled properly (as you described in your post). WOW! ONE OUT OF 5,000 to 23,000! You can be so proud of yourself! Since you are so GOOD at handling things properly, why don't YOU start your OWN website strictly for all of the 40,000-60,000 ELDERS so you can EDUCATE THEM HOW to do the RIGHT THING, eh? Make yourself useful, why don't you? Not all of your fellow elders are as SMART as you, evidently. (If you do not know how to create a WEBSITE for such a MUCH-NEEDED purpose, then use YahooGroups. It's a piece of cake to set up a YahooGroup just for all of your fellow elders on the planet to teach THEM what to do, and to SHARE YOUR EXPERTISE in the matter. Let us know when you get it set up, so we can come to your site or your yahoogroup and read how ALL OF YOUR group of ELDERS IN THE WORLD ARE DOING. We would like to be INFORMED of how they are CURRENTLY HANDLING each and EVERY sex abuse case. And the FBI would like to know too. SINCERELY, and this is a SINCERE plea for YOU to make yourself USEFUL by USING your EXPERIENCE in sex abuse matters within the cong. /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 22:44:06
Comments
TO Nameless who wrote to RJ to "Wait on Jehovah" (23 Sept. 2002, 14:15:35). "Waiting on Jehovah" translated by the GB means "COVER OUR BUTTS FOR AS LONG AS WE CAN, and ALLOW THE ABUSE TO CONTINUE." ----- "Wait on Jehovah" (in JW language) means DO NOTHING, and allow abuse to CONTINUE. ----- Both of you sad fellows are missing the point. If your child gets run over by a car, do you sit back and say, "WAIT ON JEHOVAH"? Or do you pick up the child and take him to get help? I wish each of you would follow the other's advice and quit hanging out with us so-called "APOSTATE" guestbook/webpage. /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time:
22:47:53
Comments
WOW! Linda, your post from back on 9-23-02 about handing out the flyers with Jesika and Elsewhere! That is so great! especially the lady who took the flyer (in the car) and said, "No, THANK YOU!" --- Say, how did it go when you held your mini-march with the 50 stuffed lambs? /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 22:48:44
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 23:03:34
Comments
THANK YOU TINA & MARCIA! Adding Silentlambs to your website as a link is a GREAT THING! We appreciate it!
/SLC ----- From Post 9-17-02: "Tina Alfano gave me your link. The only way I am able to help is to add your link to our web site. Marcia Duning mduning@woh. rr. com Webmistress, Angels That Care www. angelsthatcare. org"

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 23:10:00
Comments
HOW CAN YOU HELP? Make yourself useful. Write your congressmen and senators about removing ANY statute of limitations on child abuse cases. ----- Find out what YOUR state laws are re: the statute of limitations here: Statute of Limitations for sex abuse/all states: <http://www. lovenorrisattorneys. com/statute. html> ----- Then go here to add what you find to the list for the letter-writing campaign: <http://www. jehovahs-witness. com/forum/thread.
aspx?id=26969&site=3&page=1> ----- Thanks/SLC

Remote User:

Date: 03 Oct 2002
Time: 23:15:15
Comments
Of course, we know RJ and his fellow elders around the planet, along with all JWs, will NOT write their congressmen and senators because you think it's going against Jehovah to do so. And you'd likely rather sit back and "Wait On Jehovah" to change the laws from Heaven, right? Think: If Jehovah allows the Superior Authorities to exist, and expects us to make use of those means, why is it wrong to write your congressmen and senators about changing laws? Even the WTS itself and its lawyers petition the Superior Authorities to change the laws, so why can't the lowly elder and average JW write letters for the same purpose? --- And I remember in the '80s when the WTS had all of us write letters to the Brazilian President over some matter (can't remember now what it was), but if it was OK for us to write letters to government officials for WT-directed-purposes, will you be writing to YOUR congressmen and senators from YOUR state to ask them to make sure YOUR state laws allow for any abuse victim to receive justice, no matter at what age they work up the courage to come forward? (Your answer to this should prove what kind of character you really have. . . . ) ---/SLC

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 03:10:01
Comments
Regarding 'bad apples: To the poster of Aug 6, regarding your statement to 'clear that one out and keep the rest'
What a priceless comment. Beautiful!

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 03:33:20
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 04:33:02
Comments
SLC . . . would you please email me directly? I would like to talk to you. Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 04:33:12
Comments
SLC . . . would you please email me directly? I would like to talk to you. Linthoman@hotmail.com

Remote User:
Witnesses Now for Jesus Convention is being held October 10-13, 2002 at Blue Mountain Christian Retreat, R. R. #2, Box 118A, New Ringgold, PA 17960. Phone: (570) 386-2154 Fax: (570) 386-1145 We hope you will come and meet with many other ex-Jehovah’s Witnesses and hear their testimony. There will be speakers who are experts on the many various cults that mislead our society. This is a wonderful opportunity to join together with prayer and sharing and making new friends. For more information, write to Joan Cetnar, Hostess and Coordinator, Rt. 3, Box 127, Kunkletown, PA 18058 or visit their website at www.pfo.org.

Rhonda, thank you for your comments. You have mail! :-) Linda Thoman
Remote User:

Date:
04 Oct 2002
Time:
13:14:12
Comments
. Reporter :Betsan Powys . . . . Last week's Sunday investigation of the cover-up of child sexual abuse within the Jehovah's Witnesses in Australia has prompted a flood of new allegations against the church. Our report found the church (also known as the Watchtower and Bible Tract Society) had routinely pursued a policy of obstructing police investigations into child abusers. This week on Sunday there is damning evidence that these policies are part of a worldwide, systematic effort by the Church to protect its reputation and wealth — regardless of the cost to victims.

Remote User:

Date:
04 Oct 2002
Time:
13:20:59
Comments
SUGAR MAGAZINE (Britian's Popular magazine for teenage girls) has storied entitled:'I Put My Sex Abuse Dad in Prison', the true story of a girl called Alison who suffered years of sexual abuse from her Dad ‘cus nobody believed her. Her father was a Jehovah's Witnesses. Article is not online but has been scanned: http://www. jehovahs-witness.
com/forum/thread. aspx?id=37985&site=3

Remote User:

Date:
04 Oct 2002
Time:
14:28:54
Comments
SLC . . . . . you are a little sunshine on a gloomy day. Thanks for your time and effort.

Remote User:

Date:
04 Oct 2002
Time:
15:22:56
Comments
Bowen's group will head to the Jehovah's Witness church headquarters to demand a hearing to investigate possible criminal cover-ups by the denomination's leadership.

BENTON, Ky. --Less than two years ago, Bill Bowen resigned as an elder in Draffenville's Jehovah's Witness congregation because of church policy on handling accusations of child abuse. Since then, he's been disfellowshipped, kicked out of the church and shunned by its members, including some of his own relatives, for "causing divisions" in the congregation. He set up a support group for abuse victims called silentlambs and has been featured in local, national and international media stories. He recently returned from presenting a program on the issue in England, and is considering invitations to travel to Australia and several countries in Europe.

Bowen said he never thought his decision to quit his leadership role in the church and go public with his concerns would have worldwide implications. "This was just a Kentucky thing when we started out," he said. "Now it seems to be on a global scale. The message is appealing to people around the world." Bowen takes another step today in his struggle to make the church, which denies it has done anything wrong, change its policies.

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 17:12:20
Comments
From: "silentlambs" <info@silentlambs.org> Date: Fri, 4 Oct 2002 10:43:49 -0500 To: <info@silentlambs.org>
Subject: Governing Body In Trouble

Dear Brothers, On June 6, 2002 you were sent a formal request to establish a judicial hearing in order to hear serious allegations against the Governing Body. The basis for doing so was a letter submitted by JR Brown to Dateline regarding the willingness of the Governing Body to resolve differences following theocratic procedures with the brothers and sisters who appeared on the program. While this request was made in good faith and it is interesting to note immediately you brothers at the direction of the Governing Body mobilized judicial committees to disfellowship those who were bearing witness to the harm WT Policy on child abuse has caused. At my appeal hearing the only proof submitted of charges against me was the letter written to you to request a judicial hearing for the Governing Body. What authorization does a committee have to disfellowship a brother with eye witnesses to wrongdoing committed by another? Why have you chosen to not respond to any letters written addressing these charges? Is this... due to weakness or wickedness?  On September 27 I arrived at 25 Columbia Heights and at great expense we arranged for 125 eye witnesses to be there to provide substance to the allegations that the Governing Body is guilty of apostasy, loose conduct, and causing divisions within the organization of Jehovah's Witnesses. Your cowardly response was to ignore your brothers and sisters, lock the front gates and refuse to speak to any of those who came to bear witness. Was this due to weakness or wickedness?  With the current the allegation that Theodore Jaracz is a child molester, this now brings to five the number of Governing Body members who are alleged child molesters. Your inaction to these allegations along with the lack of compassion offered to abuse survivors within the organization have given many brothers and sisters great cause for concern. The lack of one word of apology argues this conclusion further. Is there not one spiritual man left who works at Bethel?  Therefore with the above matters being taken into consideration, it has been requested that I notify you of the following.  1. The Governing Body made up of the following eleven members; John E. Barr, 90, Carey W. Barber 98, Theodore Jaracz, 78, Gerritt Losch, 61, Milton Henschel, 83, Albert Schroeder, 92, Daniel Sydlik, 84, Samuel Herd, David Splane, Steve Lett, Guy Pierce, is summoned to appear at a judicial hearing at the Holiday Inn Express in Draffenville, Kentucky on October 27, 2002 at 2 P. M.  2. It has been alleged that you have been committed apostasy, loose conduct, and causing divisions by eye witnesses who are Jehovah's Witnesses in good standing.  3. The committee authorizes the Governing Body to notify William H. Bowen of your compliance with theocratic order within ten days of the receipt of this letter.  The committee wishes to invite any elder currently serving who would like to assist on this judicial hearing to contact William H. Bowen to confirm your attendance.  This letter makes the fifth attempt in offering counsel to properly address the problem of child protection in the organization. This counsel dates to December of the year 2000 with the actions of the Governing Body authorizing the minimizing of the wrong, ignoring the cry of abuse survivors and disfellowshipping those who try and support them. Once again the question that begs to be answered, is this due to weakness or wickedness? We humbly wait for the judicial committee to make that determination on October 27th.  May we suggest that the Governing Body sincerely consider their actions to date turn around and manifest works of repentance. Their eternal life is in the balance as the judicial committee endeavors to determine the decision already made in heaven. Beg Jehovah for his spirit to allow the Governing Body to humbly submit to His will, set the example for all brothers and sisters by showing their submission to theocratic arrangement.  Very Truly Yours, William H. Bowen silentlamb ***

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 17:15:53
Comments
How many of you elders (and other JWs) here are going to finally stand up for the victims, and assist in getting to the bottom of the problem with THE BROTHERS in Bethel? Now's your chance, since you missed out on the 9-27-02 March. Plan to be in Kentucky on 10-27-02. We are sure you will not hold back any longer, right? Thanks for your support. /SLC

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 20:36:07
Comments
From what I know of the "religion" Jehovah's Witnesses. Bin Ladin have your way with it.

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time:
The Jehovah's Witnesses are unique. Here's why: They have their own judicial system. Whenever a Jehovah's Witness commits a serious sin, he is expected to confess it to an elder. If he does not confess, anyone who knows about his sin is required to turn him in. The elders will appoint a judicial committee of three persons who secretly hear the case and render judgment. That judgment ranges from disfellowshipping, to removal of certain congregation privileges, to a simple warning. Although the punishment may be public, no other details are ever revealed. They keep meticulous records of judicial actions, both at the local congregation level and at the national headquarters. So, if a judicial committee uncovers an illegal act, and does not report it, this failure is documented in their own records. If the sinner does not admit his wrongdoing, the elders follow the advice from Deuteronomy 19:15, which requires two witnesses for a conviction to be made. Child molestation rarely has two witnesses. The primary motive of this system is to keep the reputation of the congregation clean. This means that they consistently act in the best interests of the organization, rather than those of the victim. It is this fourth point that gets them into trouble. Following written instructions from the Brooklyn headquarters, local elders have consistently covered up child molestation. They have failed to report molesters to the police, even in states where this is mandatory. And worst of all, they have re-victimized the children by threatening them and their parents with expulsion if they continue with their accusations, after a judicial committee has dismissed them. On numerous occasions, the offender remains in good standing, able to continue with door-to-door preaching, while the victim is threatened, marginalized, and even expelled. Since molestation is not reported, either to the police or the congregation, these molesters often offend repeatedly; turning the Jehovah's Witness religion into what Bowen calls a 'paedophile paradise'. This paradise has turned into an enormous problem for the organization. A researcher at Watchtower headquarters has come forward with the information that 23,720 child molestation cases are on file in Brooklyn. Several test cases are now before the courts. Victims in Washington, Minnesota, New Hampshire, and Ontario are currently suing the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society for their failure to deal properly with the issue. If these cases are successful, the Jehovah's Witnesses could find themselves with a legal epidemic of Catholic proportions. The Jehovah's Witnesses have responded by denying all wrongdoing, making some slight improvements to reporting policies (although they still hold to the 'two witness' rule), and embarking on an aggressive campaign of shooting the messenger. Bill Bowen is not the only one disfellowshipped over this issue. Barbara Anderson, the former headquarters researcher who leaked the size of the problem, and Carl and Barbara Pandello (parents of a victim) have also been disfellowshipped. The rank and file has been warned to have no communication with these persons, and to stay away from their web site. For decades, Jehovah's Witnesses have hypocritically denounced other religions, particularly the Catholic Church, for corruption. Well, I guess what goes around, comes around. Resources and Avenues for Further Study

- Miami Herald: Abuse charge against Church gets Jehovah's Witnesses Ousted <http://www.miami.com/ml/4163522.htm>
- Liberator Homepage: http://www.liberator.net/articles/
Comments

Another Forum where you can discuss the JW child abuse policies: http://www.carmforums.org/cgi-bin/dcforum/dcboard.cgi?az=read_count&om=1008&forum=DCForumID17&omm=11&viewmode=threaded

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 21:27:41
Comments
ANOTHER "NEW" FORUM recently created (which used to be the JustJWs group at msn); but is now called The Watchtower. Visit it here: http://www.theWatchtower.org/ ------------- Of all the categories, the one entitled DEBATE has the most posts.

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 22:53:40
Comments
I have been pretty upset with RJ and Ap, the crude crud and such. But I realize that they really make the witnesses look bad - and we have nothing to with it, they do it themselves without a word from us. So RJ and AP and hahahaha. . . . as representatives for the WTS you do a great job to validate everything said here about the WTS is true and then some.

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 22:58:44
Comments
Sincere question for RJ, who wrote to whoever, I guess the group at this site: "If you ever tone down your attacks on my brothers then maybe my mission in here will be done. RJ" ----- (We can only hope, eh RJ? <JOKING, RJ! Can ya take a joke???> ----- Seriously, here's the Q: Why do you feel you have to defend your brothers? (Did Jesus defend himself and his brothers?) Either way, we hereby personally INVITE YOU to ALL of the silentlambs EVENTS from now on so you may do just that (you should have come to the March). We would like you to come IN PERSON from now on, and defend your brothers before us IN PERSON. Please. Are you willing to do that? If so, you'd be a bigger man than the Governing Body, since they won't defend themselves IN PERSON before their accusers, but only via videotape and paper statements to press, online, etc. (I guess the only way we'll ever get to hear an IN PERSON "defense" from them would be in a courtroom). -- We look forward to seeing you and meeting you at the next Silentlambs Event, and hearing your defenses for your brothers IN PERSON. Sincerely/SLC

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 23:11:45
Comments
LAWSUITS being filed in SEVERAL STATES and CITIES across the nation. COMING SOON to a COURTROOM near YOU. . .

Remote User:
Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 23:14:04
Comments
Another sincere Q for Elder RJ, et al: When a JW-sex-abuse trial is conducted in YOUR town, we would sincerely like to know: Will you sit in the courtroom on the side of the (JW) ABUSER or on the side of the (JW or DF’d) VICTIM? This is a sincere question in light of this comment by you. . . ----- RJ had written: "Also to those who proclaim me as the great GB defender, show me one post where I have ever condoned a molester or the act and/or the GB as infallible angels. " -----That sounds to me like you, as a respected member in your cong and in your community, would do the right thing when a trial is held in YOUR town, and you would go to the trial and show YOUR SUPPORT for the VICTIM by sitting on the side of the courtroom behind the VICTIM, whereas (most likely) the majority of your brothers/sisters would sit on the side of the ABUSER (as has happened in all the trials so far). So, really, how would YOU, as a JW/elder, etc. , deal with such a situation? Would you have the COURAGE in PERSON to support a VICTIM at a trial, as you seem to say you do [support victims and not abusers] in your post? Thank you for your honest reply. /SLC

Remote User:
Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 23:25:58
Comments
One last comment for RJ who had previously written to John ----- "John . . . You know and I know a fight will never happen because neither of us know each other. For all you know I may be a 300lb brute or on the other hand you could be a 300lb brute. " ----- LOL! Yes, we don't know your physical size or strength, RJ, but I, personally, wouldn't want to go messing with John. He's no "runt," that's for sure. . . . he "towers over" me (I'm a runt in size), and believe it or not, he was quite the gentleman at the March. Too bad you didn't join us. I really think you would have a whole different perspective on everything, as the great vibes, feelings, bonding and camaraderie that was evident would have softened that rattlesnake attitude that you have sometimes. I hope both you guys chill out, shake virtual hands, and never come to blows. So whattaya say, RJ? Will we be seeing a change of heart in you from here on in? Thanks! I know you have it in you. /SLC (PS: Please start planning now for the next Silentlambs event. You can come "incognito" if you need to. At the restaurant after the March, I sat at a table with a lady who was in a dark wig --- she's naturally a blonde, she said --- because she didn't want to be recognized in the photos and/or news filmings, videos, etc. If you're FOR THE VICTIMS, then I bet you have as much courage as the lady with the wig, don't you?? We look forward to meeting you, toupe/beard/dark shades and all. ) Sincerely, SLC

Remote User:
Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 23:33:32
Comments
WHOEVER WROTE THIS, I THANK YOU for your good reasoning powers. Yes, it took A LOT of effort to get to the March, v. all who sit back and continue to "offend the offended. " I second your APPLAUSE!!! /SLC ----- An Anonymous Person wrote: Date: 03 Oct 2002 Time: 17:49:14 Comments These JW defenders are offenders - for language and content. Free speech doesn't come free. One way of looking at the critics regarding the number of people who showed up from ALL OVER THE COUNTRY on 9/27 is that we only get two people out of the 6 million JWs to come here and they don't even have to leave home! And at least we acknowledge that they are here - we haven't locked the doors yet. We give them a chance to have their say no matter how offending which is better than the WTS who can't acknowledge a grave concern that does bring shame upon the christian congregation and the name of God and has ruined the lives of countless people. What effort does it take to turn on the computer and punch thoughtless offensive words of no concern?!?!?!???? What effort does it take for 125 people to go to NY? A lot of effort and thoughtfulness, and time and money.  These two "guys" (RJ & AP) sit on their big butts AT HOME (two of them at most because they can't conjure up more support) and cannot lift a finger to defend the JW's but do lift a finger to offend the already offended. I say it is a poor showing to only have two butt heads with fingers on their keyboards compared to the 125 that showed up, traveled some for days to be at the March 9/27. RJ & AP can chide, deride, belittle all you want but your "numbers" are not even mentionable and the effort it takes to do this is even less mentionable.  Let's hear it for all those who contributed, organized, supported, actually went, the police that kept it safe, the stories told. . . CLAP! CLAP! CLAP! CLAP! Good hands do good. Out of the mouth the heart speaks.

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 23:43:46
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 04 Oct 2002
Time: 23:54:08
Comments

Remote User:

Date: 05 Oct 2002
Time: 00:29:56
Comments

C'mon EVERYBODY! Clap your hands together now. . . Remember the MO-TOWN beat AND the Rhythm & Smooth-Moves, 'cuz HERE TONIGHT to perform for YOU, THE LAMBS, YES!! Ladies and Gentlemen!! ENTERING the stage for your listening pleasure, THE GREAT, THE AWESOME, THE MAGNIFICENT. . . T-E-M-P-T-A-T-I-O-N-S!!! (Lovin' those fellas in their pale-blue suits, shiny shoes, harmonizing their voices ranging from one end of the music scale clear to the other!!) ANNOUNCING in the deep bass voice: THIS song is dedicated to YOU, and here we go now. . . . . . "Doo, do do do doooo, Doo do do do doooo. . . I Got SUNSHINE, On a CLOUDY Day. . . Doo do do do dooooo. And When it's COLD Outside, I've Got the Month of MAY. . . Doo do do do doooo! I Guess YOU Say, WHAT CAN MAKE ME FEEL THIS WAY?? MY LAMBS! MY LAMBS! Talkin' 'bout MY LAMBS!!!!!!"

 Hey, THANKS to whoever wrote: "SLC. . . . you are a little sunshine on a gloomy day. Thanks for your time and effort." ---- See how such a little nice comment like that INSPIRED ME? :-) It propelled me to get THE TEMPTATIONS here to do a song just for THE LAMBS! :-) :-) :-) :-)  Let this be a lesson for all of us! We get a lot more with HONEY than VINEGAR! Let's hear it for another chorus by The TEMPTATIONS . . . (anybody wanna take over for the next chorus???) ----- Thanks again! /SLC

Remote User:

Date:
05 Oct 2002
Time:
00:53:23
Comments
MISS PENNY (remember her from 1950's TV?) says, "Play NICE until I get back, or I'm going to have to put you kids in SEPARATE sandboxes." ----- And Jesus Christ says, Whoever shows the most Christ-like ATTITUDE will receive the CROWN OF LIFE. ----- Signing off. 'Til next time. /SLC

Remote User:

Date:
05 Oct 2002
Time:
01:23:44
Comments
what happened to october??????????

Remote User:

Date:
05 Oct 2002
Time:
08:28:26
Comments
Please tell me the other 4 GB members who are known molesters? Bill referred to them in his latest letter. Bill and Barbara, I admire both of you. I have been a JW nearly 30 years. I am shocked and disappointed with the bad behavior of the GB. This is really a wake up call!

Remote User:

Date:
05 Oct 2002
Time:
09:24:00
Comments
Who are the other 4 alleged molesters on the GB? I am referring to Bill's letter to GB.

Remote User:

Date:
05 Oct 2002
Time:
12:10:18
Well, from what I can see, there are 2 primary issues that MUST be satisfactorily resolved. They are (1) The fact that the society does not interfere with local elders and let their decisions stand no matter how unjust or unscriptural they are and/or in the spirit that they made their decisions and (2) that they judge themselves and not to any committee like the rest of us have to experience and endure. They must oversee what the local elders do and rehear cases as unbiased and objective hearers. They must demonstrate superior scriptural knowledge and a clear knowledge of what their publications state in these matters -- not just a few choice quotes from a limited amount of articles (or only one article). They need to be familiar with the "new" information, too (e.g., a woman doesn't necessarily have to scream in a rape). The second matter is how they are being judged when they do wrong and, in particular, who judges them. I think they should be subjected to a committee of local elders who do not know who they are and let them experience what a lot of others in our association experience -- ignorance, intolerance, unreasonableness, unsympathetic and heartless insensitivity (similar to what some of the ridiculers display here). I figured this out a long time ago and I believe it's true -- they like to let each one of us feel as though we're the only one having a problem (no matter what the problem is) and make us feel isolated from all the rest. That, in itself, changes our behavior and we isolate ourselves because we believe (for lack of compassionate caring and clarifying) that we're the only ones with the problem, too. This helps to sweep unpleasant matters under the rug. Several single parent sisters (all previously married and divorced by their husbands who ran off with other women), privately told me the same things that I'd heard from other sisters in the same "boat". My suggestion was that we all get together and go directly to the society -- then they would see that it isn't just one person having the same problem (in this case, from the same body of elders). The reaction was one of fear and, of course, they stayed away from me for quite some time after. One sister likes to tell me that she's learned how to deal with men and elders. She prides herself on her acquired skills. All I can see is that she's learned to forget she's a person with legitimate feelings and she acts as though she doesn't know how to do anything without having to tell the elders her difficulties and getting them to help her figure things out -- even though she already knows the answers. These mere mortal men "eat it up". They seem to only like sisters that flatter them and treat them as though they're the smartest and most wonderful man in the world. This is puke behavior to me. Women are people and they have minds and hearts and feelings -- all legitimate. How dare anyone, in or out of the truth, expect women to still behave in a manner that completely denies that they are not second-class to men and that they cannot function without a man's putting his opinion into everything that they do? They interviewed an expert on the Moslem religion and he stated that the Moslem religion holds women in high esteem. That the people (men and women) that are beating and murdering the women are uneducated and poor who have fallen to very low standards in life and do not represent their religion. Perhaps that's what we have -- men and women who are uneducated and poor and still behave as a bunch of savage villagers rather than enlightened men and women who truly are educated by Jehovah God and understand his higher standards governing men and women who genuinely understand him. This sure isn't attitudes and behavior from people who respect Jehovah and his creations -- including women and children. I say hand them over to local elders who don't know their identity and let them do with them what they do to the rest of us who don't "know" anyone or "are" anyone in or out of this organization. THAT would most likely be the best lesson for them. Maybe THEN they would see that this is a system that is unjust and needs to be revamped.

Remote User:
Date: 05 Oct 2002
Time: 13:10:13
Comments
QUESTION TO ADMINISTRATORS Can someone break this guest book into months again? It takes me 5 minutes to get to the new messages. Thank You

Remote User:
Date: 05 Oct 2002
Time: 16:34:34
Comments
RE: 2 primary issues. You wrote an insightful and factual account of a situation that only a true insider can know. I have only one point of disagreement with your essay------ 1) The fact that the society does not interfere with local elders and let their decisions stand no matter how unjust or unscriptural they are and/or in the spirit that they made their decisions. Actually some of the worst decisions are made with much input from the society. Remember Bill Bowen's call to the legal dept regarding an abused child? He was told to not get involved. In our hall the terrible treatment of a little abuse victim was done with the society's approval. Our body of elders told us their hands were tied, as they had to follow WT guidelines. Did you read JR Brown's recent comments regarding a woman needing to scream if she was not to be viewed a guilty of fornication during a rape? Watchtower has continued to train elders to believe that they are superior and will be rewarded as Princes in the Earth, that they deserve a double measure of respect, etc. All these perks are used to allow good men to over ride their consciences and do the bidding of an evil corporation. Sorry as sad as it is, but the Watchtower Society is much more guilty than any local body of elders.
Nancy Naranjoy

Remote User:
Date: 05 Oct 2002
Time: 17:38:15
Comments
I'm mortified but by far not surprised at what goes on behind the closed doors of the Jehovah sect. There is JW's in my family, but my parents and I are not part. All religion these days seem to have this happening and so I make the choice not to believe in anything. I really feel for you people out there suffering because of the ways of the religions you were born into. I cannot begin to understand how that makes you feel, I really do not know what to say. . . I feel sorry for you although it is not my fault, I feel sorry because I am part of a race, humans, that condone such things. I. . . I don't know what to say. . . but I'm sorry.

Remote User:
Date: 05 Oct 2002
Time: 18:01:48
Comments
To above poster- I hope that you have faith in you. In the ones that you love. I hope that you would stand with them and they you. We are all that we have. Believing that your actions have consequences and the ability to take responsibility for those actions without assigning blame to others goes a long ways to explaining what the true meaning of faith is. Religion or "religious law" without justice is good for little else than toilet paper. -Jayson

October 2002 Guestbook - Page 2

Go to Page 1 | Go to Page 3

Comment: YAY IT WORKS!!! w00 h00!!! go me . . err something
October 5, 2002

Comment: This is a test to see if your guestbook is working. The new security has been updated, OUT WITH OLD AND IN WITH THE NEW!
October 5, 2002
Comment: Guest Book Test
October 5, 2002

Comment: This is a truly noble effort. Although I am an atheist, I would like to offer you my best wishes to you in your battle against those who enforce ignorance upon others and to those who have suffered that they’ll find happiness one day. I am thoroughly disgusted with the acts of the JW, and needless to say they’re worse than the Christian Depiction of Satan. By the way, it would be helpful too to pinpoint JW communities around the globe so that others will be aware of the possibility of the existence of a pedophile in the local community.
October 5, 2002

Comment: CONGRATULATIONS on breaking up the months of August & Sept. & October in the Guestbook! Is that you who I think it might be working on this???: -) THANK YOU, if it is You. If it’s someone else, well, thank them Too!: -) ------- QUESTION, though: Where are all the posts from 1st of October through NOW? I posted a lot of posts last night (Friday 10-4-02) and the night before that, etc. I am hoping/assuming you are still working on this OCTOBER Section? and that all the posts from 10-1 through 10-5 will be added back in here soon? -------------- ONE MORE QUESTION while I’ve got your attention: I don’t see a SCROLL BAR on the right side of the OCTOBER Guestbook Page. Is that under construction also? -------------- YES, YAHOO, & THANKS TO YOU & GOOD FOR YOU, like you wrote in your funny messages at the top of the October page, dated 10-5-02. WE APPRECIATE YOUR HELP!!! ----- And Hi Everybody Else, too! /SLC
October 6, 2002

Comment: HELLO WEBMASTER: Got another question: I notice there is no "CLEAR MESSAGE" button on this "COMMENT" page/window area. SO when I came back to write a second message, I had to manually "highlight" all the previous copy that was in this window from my first message, and then delete it, before I could write this second message. Will you be adding a "CLEAR MESSAGE" button to the "COMMENT PAGE" area? THANK YOU!!! (Also, I DID see the scroll bar on the October Message Page once I submitted my message. My goof!)/SLC
October 6, 2002

Comment: WEBMASTER: I notice when I use QUOTATION MARKS around a word, they show up as slashes on each side of the word rather than Quotation Marks. Is that something that can be fixed? THANK YOU! LOVE WHAT YOU ARE DOING FOR THE SILENTLAMB WEB PAGE & GUESTBOOK!!! /SLC
October 6, 2002

Comment: OK, I didn't describe that exactly right in the above post. The QUOTE MARKS DO show up, but IN ADDITION, there are slash marks // on each side of whichever word with Quotes. I guess that is no big deal really. --- ----- But I sure do HOPE HOPE HOPE all the messages from October 1 through October 5, 2002, WILL BE ADDED BACK IN HERE???: (I looked at the September Messages to see if they were at the bottom of that, but they are not). Do you have them in storage somewhere until you have time to put them here in the OCTOBER page? THANK YOU!!! /SLC
October 6, 2002

Comment: ONE LAST QUESTION, and I will shut up for now. I DON’T SEE A TIME-OF-DAY for each post, but only the DATE. Will the TIME-OF-DAY of each post/feature be added back in? Sometimes we have to use that in order to differentiate who we are replying to, for the posters who do not use their names or give a name. Then we reply to them by saying, "To No Name who Posted on 10-6-02 @ 3:40 AM" -- see what I mean? ----- THANK YOU !!! /SLC
October 6, 2002

Comment: Hi AGAIN WEBMASTER: ONE MORE THING I NOTICED, if you don't mind me asking: As of late Friday night 10-4-02, the prior "Most Recent" Guestbook page (which included everything from Part II-August 6th clear thru 10-4-02) had a total of 2. 6 MBs on that one page. ----- Now that the months are broken up, the figures are showing up like this: August Part II has a total of 1. 3 MBs; and Sept. has 736 KBs. Therefore, MISSING are a TOTAL of 564 KBs worth-of-posts from October 1 through October 5th. WILL YOU PLEASE look around your office & and see if you can find our missing 564 KBs of OCTOBER posts???: -) THANK YOU!!! /SLC ----- (Also, if this is WHO I think it is working on the Guestbook: Please let me know WHEN I can tell the others WHO you are so they can THANK YOU ALSO! My lips are zipped until you give the OK. )
October 6, 2002

Comment: Very informative. One wonders who you can trust anymore. There seems to be nowhere left that a predator can’t go. . . . What better way into a flock than to dress a wolf in sheep's clothing. . . . . There is no sanctuary left in this world, so very, very sad. . . .

October 6, 2002

Comment: I want to read other postings today
October 6, 2002

Comment: After watching the Sunday program I can only congratulate your excellent work with this website. I did not experience abuse from this religious order, however, the elders of this order took away a very fine and beautiful gentleman from my family. They are a poor excuse for human beings.
October 6, 2002

Comment: Here is an essay that looks at the child abuse issue from Jehovah's viewpoint. http://www.e-watchman.com/essays/justice_silentlambs/justice_silentlambs.htm
October 6, 2002

Comment: For those of you who are interested, there is a new msn group for anyone who is contemplating leaving the org, those who have been df'd or da'd, or simply want a small setting to make and meet new friends. This is not to take away from any other groups around, just to give another option and this one is smaller than many others. http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerExcape Linda Thoman
October 6, 2002

Comment: Webmaster: THANK YOU for the new guestbook forum. . . . . every endeavor takes time and I know this took a lot of yours.
October 6, 2002

Comment: Greetings, yes there are some differences in the way this new guest book operates. Number one, it is most assuredly higher security now. The first posts of October can be seen as you enter the Guest book button from the first page and before you click on view or add a post look all the way down the links to October 02 Part 1. Here you will find the first part of October already archived away from this current book. I have noticed the syntax problems within the add message part of and have no immediate fix for that except to ask you not to use hyphens so they won't show up in your messages for now. I will look into this. In Him Webmaster
October 6, 2002

Comment: is it not possible to enter without writing a message?
October 6, 2002

Comment: This is great! I went back to January 2002 posts to see if there was a difference in the tone of the posts. I did this a couple of days ago and yes the posts were much more to the subject and deep. The security here was needed. Thank you for keeping this a safe place. I can't image how much work this involved. Love, Claudine
October 6, 2002

Comment: Dear Webmaster: Thanks for checking in and answering our Qs! If I am following your instructions correctly, the first page I see (without clicking on "view" or "add a post") is this, and I do not see any October 02, Part 1. The list of months ends with Sept. 02, Part 1. ----- Here's what that page shows on my computer: --------------------- We'd like to know what you think about our web site. Please leave your comments in this public guest book so we can share your thoughts with other visitors. --- Add to Current Guest Book, View Current Guest Book, Past Months Here: March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November, December, January, February, March, April, May 02 Part 1, May 02 Part 2, June 02 Part 1, June 02 Part 2, July 02 Part 1, July 02 Part 2, August 02 Part 1, August 02 Part 2, September 02 Part 1, 2002 -------- Copyright © 2002 by silentlambs.org- All rights reserved. Revised: 05 Oct 2002 21:32:47 -0700 . -------------------------- And that's all there is on this page, no October Part 1. Is it my computer or is anyone else out there seeing it this way? Thanks for any info. . SLC - ------------------ Mr. Webmaster had written: The first posts of October can be seen as you enter the Guest book button from the first page and before you click on view or add a post look all the way down the links to October 02 Part 1. Here you will find the first part of October already archived away from this current book.
October 6, 2002

Comment: Greetings, Dear Guestbook visitors, If you see less than October Part one, then you either need to restart your computer or REFRESH your page, you are not seeing the most current page. The most current page of the guest book entry has October the first five days archived at the bottom of it. I have had several immature persons e mail me with virus attempts recently. This will not stop me and only firms up my faith in what I am helping with on Silentlambs. It is a very sad thing that so much hate gets reflected out from some. God is not about Hate, God is Love. . . . . . . Webmaster

October 6, 2002

Comment: I've refreshed the web page. I deleted all temporary Internet files. I still can't find October 1-4, 2002. ???

October 6, 2002

Comment: I'm sorry, too, that there is so much hatred expressed. However, there isn't a lot of sympathy for victims, even outside of the organization. It's a sickness that is pervasive everywhere. People perceive victims as weak and, therefore, deserving of their victimization. Therefore, it's understandable that their is hatred and blaming of victims - even by people who should know better and who should know better than Jehovah's Witnesses. Yet, in spite of all their Bible reading and excellent articles on this subject, they keep giving in to a very common, ingrained hatred and fear of victims. Yes, fear - if they need to admit there is victimization then they need to admit to having wrong thinking or that they, too, have been victimizers. Everyone likes to think they are upright and honorable and they have a lot of difficulty in seeing let alone admitting to having done wrong. Unfortunately, the lack of sympathy stems from CENTURIES of brutality. There is a fear of admitting to weakness or or having been taken advantage of. That fear is loss of respect from others, loss of employment, and, worse, fear of being victimized even more. Getting these ingrained tendencies turned around is not an easy task. Refusing to see that one or others - even an organization - has such ingrained wrong tendencies and thinking is not unusual. It takes one or others to do UNusual thinking and examination to see and understand the issues - even for people who know the true God, Jehovah. Remember, in the entire ancient Isrealite nation, only 7,000 were serving Jehovah faithfully - and HE NOTICED THEM. This is not an excuse. It's a sad statement against those who refuse to adjust themselves to the scriptural guidelines of God's love. They tread on very thin ice in Jehovah God's eyes. That is very scary - for them. So scary that I, for one, would not ridicule or complain against or even be glad for their downfall because it is THAT SERIOUS before Jehovah God.

October 6, 2002

Comment: hi

October 6, 2002

Comment: Still can't find October, last archive is Sept 02. . . no matter how many times I have gone and come back. *Good thoughts about how bad things are everywhere - one thing I noticed years ago is that when you have been a victim and you go to court you must prove how much the offender has ruined your life. It isn't enough that a crime has been committed against you, but you have to prove how much damage this has caused to your life. You have to prove that what you lost was a lot And then like you say everyone hates you if it has caused you to appear "weak". . . . the victim is damned one way or the other. *There is contempt for the victim. . . geeezzz magee. They are blamed for getting themselves into it, and if that doesn't hold true because it is a child, then they's better get over it. . . or there is something deficient in them. The world is sick, we do need God's Kingdom and we do need to pray for those walking on the thin ice as hard as that is to do and it is very hard to do. Love, Claudine

October 6, 2002

Comment: VIDEO of Silentlambs MARCH -- Here's another site where you can watch the Silentlambs March of 9-27-02. This one is in Real Player. There are two parts of it up already (17 min. each), and two more forthcoming: http://www. dannyhaszard. com/brooklynmarch. htm -------- I'm going there now as my computer wouldn't work at the other site which used Windows Media Player. Enjoy!! /SLC

October 6, 2002

Comment: PS: Refreshing isn't making the Oct. archived posts show up on my Mac. I use I. E. v. 5. 1. 5 for Mac, if that makes any difference? ----- That's really pitiful the way those people send viruses to the webmaster for this site. What drives people to act that way, I do not get it. -- I got a weird email yesterday addressed to the addy I created to use on the other forum, so it had to come from someone who saw it there. And it had some attachment but I did not open it, sent it straight to the trash. It had a nonsensical subject line, so I knew it was bogus. And it came from someone named: starsfan50. So Beware! Love/SJC

October 6, 2002

Comment: Hey Gang, here's the addy I created for public guestbook/forums/etc. -FYI: My_JW_Stuff@yahoogroups.com

October 6, 2002
Comment: This is SLC's message. I tried using the "Name" feature at the comment window, so that's why I didn't sign my name at the end of the comment, but my name didn't show up once it posted. So anyway, here it is again. . .
My_JW_Stuff@yahooogroups.com
October 6, 2002

Comment: Please forgive me! I guess I'm too tired and not thinking straight! THE CORRECT ADDRESS for SLC is HERE (ignore the ones above, please, as I forgot to add the word: owner, in them)! CORRECT: My_JW_Stuff-OWNER@yahooogroups.com ----- Thanks for your patience! /SLC
October 6, 2002

Comment: Greetings, this is a "test" of the guestbook. In Him
October 6, 2002

Comment: Greetings, it looks like the syntax issues are solved. Thanks for your patience. In Him Webmaster. . . . .
October 6, 2002

Comment: I went to www.silentlambs.com and www.silentlambs.org and, in both cases, I still cannot get Oct. 1 through 4 postings.
October 6, 2002

Comment: Hi
October 6, 2002

Comment: AP: BILL BOWEN ARRESTED! Bill Bowen, administrator of the silentlambs web site is in police custody tonight after being caught doing unspeakable things to stuffed toys. A staff member at silent lambs said "I couldn't believe it. I walked into the store-room and there he was, naked from the waist down, indulging in some weird sexual fetish! It was then I realized why all the lambs had large holes in the back of them!" The stuffed toys, which are sold by the hundreds, were analysed and found to contain traces of Bill's masturbatory emissions. The "abused lambs" were too traumatised to make any comments today.
October 6, 2002

Comment: This new guest book is pretty gay. why don't my name show up? And no more web links to click on. Maybe you just want to keep people from finding out the real truth about bill. Also some of my posts have been deleted. I don't see how the security is better. Why don't you block out those great big long posts that idiots keep posting? It takes ages to load the damn page. And the font is too small. blah.
October 6, 2002

Comment: yes I think the guest book has been a roaring success! Another grand victory for the silent lambs! I think I will go masturbate now. B. Bowen.
October 6, 2002

Comment: Who are the other 4 alleged GB molesters? Has it made the media yet?
October 6, 2002

Comment: Whoever wrote: "And the font is too small. blah. " ----- All you have to do is go to your browser's menu bar under View, and drop down to TEXT ZOOM, and you have total control over the size of the fonts on ANY webpage. -- - Now say "THANK YOU" like a good little troll and run along (maybe spend some time learning your computer instead of writing vulgar comments. ) /SLC
October 6, 2002

Comment: "When the wicked ones sprout as the vegetation, and all the practicers of what is hurtful blossom forth, It is that they may be annihilated forever. " (Ps. 92:7-NWT) ------------------------- "When the wicked ones SPROUT as TROLLS, and all the practicers of what is HURTFUL blossom forth by posting their vulgar UGLINESS all OVER the Guestbook, It is that they may be annihilated from posting forever. " (Ps. 92:7-SLC version)
October 6, 2002

Comment: What is a troll? The term "troll" can mean a number of different things, but in essence, a troll is a person who aims to have 'pleasure' at your expense. If you find his posts about Bill Bowen upsetting rest assured THAT was his intention. He is a person who is psychologically disturbed, and seeks to feel good by making other guestbook members feel bad. His post make this pretty obvious. He is filled with hate but he is ill, too. He is a sort of "psycho troll", whose deception involves deceiving himself as well as others. He probably believes he is serving God or at least the governing body. In this respect, he is no different to the sorts of people we meet in everyday life who are disturbed - some of them are easy to spot, and others aren't. However, in the real world it is easier to avoid this animal.
October 6, 2002

Comment: I saw the "Sunday" program in Australia yesterday - it was excellent! The comment about "Waiting on Jehovah" is all the advice the victims ever get. Well, Dear Governing Body, the Waiting is OVER and jehovah will execute his vengeance on you all!
October 6, 2002

Comment: I was part of the Jehovah's Witnesses about 6 years ago. This religion has broken my immediate family apart, my sister was sexually abused, possibly by her father (not a JW but was involved with the 7th Day'ers) and I now have no contact with them and haven't for around 2 1/2 years. I was totally shocked when I read the articles on this website,directed to it by a recent report on TV here in Australia. My heart goes out to everyone who has suffered!!
October 6, 2002

Comment: thank you web master for bringing some sort of good here. . i will look foward to supporting the lambs. and not having to fight with the jw's here . . it will work out. . hi to all the girls. . if they throw me off. . i will be with all in my heart. . love to all i'm still doing my part. . . john
October 6, 2002

Comment: i still see noname mary jane posting. . with his crap!!!webmaster if you want me to be polite. . please remove this garbage. . or i will respond . . if you dump me so be it. . . john
October 6, 2002

Comment: Dear Webmaster, The guestbook is wonderful. The print is easier for me to read. I'm sure there are bugs to work out but we are grateful to have your help. Thanks!!!
October 6, 2002

Comment: I would jut like to say that I am saddened by these outragous allegations against the JW church. It's about time a legal investergation was carried out by American law enforcement officials which saw the home office raided noly then will the true severity of this problem be known. My heart and tears go out to all those who have suffered at the hands of this criminals, and there protectors. johnalan@totalise. co. uk
October 6, 2002

Comment: Hey john, go play on the freeway or something. The anti-john.
October 6, 2002

Comment: And you, SLC - misquoting the bible, shame on you. Now run along like a good little troll. I think I hear bill calling you. The anti-john.
October 6, 2002

Comment: "Let fornication and uncleanness of EVERY SORT or greediness NOT EVEN BE MENTIONED amoung YOU, just as it befits holy people; neither shameful conduct nor foolish talking nor obscene jesting, things which are not becoming, but rather the giving of thanks" (Ephesians 5:3,4) Just how does this disgusting talk about Bill Bowen fit into the mind and heart and MOUTH of a true Christian? If some or all here are so terrible, how is your speech going to help them to be recovered? What kind of a person, Christian, are you? I think a DEPLORABLE ONE - the reason people will speak abusively about the true Christians. "However, there also came to be false prophets among the people, as there will also be false teachers among YOU. These very ones will quietly bring in destructive sects and will disown even the owner that bought them, bringing speedy destruction upon themselves. Furthermore, many will follow their acts of loose conduct, and on account of these the way of the truth will be spoken of abusively. " (2 Peter 2:1,2) These words are talking about YOU, pig mouth!
October 6, 2002
Comment: Well i must say its an interesting site i am a practicing Jehovah's Witness and certainly do not condone any sort of child molesters . i must say i am truely sorry to any vitims if they have not been looked after and it the allegations are true it certainly does reflect badly on the organization. Having said that however i thing i do disagree with is that some say we can't be reformed Jehovah's organization is constantly being reformed and if Elders are guilty of not reporting these crimes then i hope the society will take the appropriate action. Only 3 weeks ago a letter was read out in our congregation clearly stating that victums certainly have every right to go to the appropriate authorities. i've been in the truth about 18 years now been in about 5 congregations and in only 1 have i seen any case of child molesting obviously thats 1 too many however i know that this person certainly was not protected and as far i know when people found out about him had nothing to do with him even though he has not been reproved at the time how ever he is now disfellowshipped and hopefully the authoritys will have been notified of his actions.
October 6, 2002

Comment: Oct 05, 2002 . . . Suit targets Jehovah's Witnesses Benton complaint about sex abuse and church policy is said to be the first of hundreds across the U. S. By Jennifer Rouse Mid-Valley Sunday One excerpt:Time passed, and Davidow didn't see anything being done, either to help her son or to discipline the offender. She continued to ask the elders what they were doing about the issue, the lawsuit says. Eventually, she contacted the elders at the North Corvallis congregation, where the alleged abuser and his mother were members. "The elders of (Corvallis congregation) instructed her to 'stop talking about it, we've got it handled,'" the lawsuit states. When Cathy Davidow finally reported her son's abuse to the police, she was disfellowshipped. Tyler was not disfellowshipped but chose to leave the faith on his own. http://www. midvalleysunday. com/display/inn_local/news02. txt
October 6, 2002

Comment: FYI: Some of the people who administer the site have reported receiving viruses by e-mail. I would like to point out that most viruses are sent unintentionally (ie. a person receives a virus in e-mail and as soon as they open it, the virus e-mails itself to everyone in their address book) Please do not assume that you are being personally targeted. There are some very prolific viruses spreading at the current time. Go to the antivirus research center at http:www. symantec. com and look up the details on the new viruses that are spreading like wildfire at the moment. It is unlikely that someone could target you deliberately unless they had access to virus source code. prof
October 6, 2002

Comment: I have a fleshly sister who is also supposed to be a spiritual sister that is vile and foul-mouthed and likes to write such derogatory things. She doesn't see the inappropriateness of her conduct and speech. When people react, rightly, indignant at her, she thinks it's FUNNY. The foul-mouthed, disrespectful and arrogant person posting here could very well be her. I wouldn't put it past her. She's been known for using phoney names and different email addresses to harass others. I have nothing to do with her. There's no doubt in my mind that she's a sicko. Yet, she "knows the right people" and seems to always get away with her deplorable behavior. However, Jehovah God sees her and hears her and he knows the WHOLE STORY. You see, he's not just HER witness, he's OUR witness, too. He knows it ALL. Trying to lie to Jehovah God is the stupidist thing anyone can do. Yet, when people don't accept responsibility for their actions and try to cover them up, that's exactly what they're doing. When elders make an accounting for those in their care, they need to remember that Jehovah God doesn't care that they're elders. He cares how they treated his sheep. If they're liars, they're liars - elder or not. Same goes for my insane sister. I agree, such a person is psycho sick.
October 6, 2002

Comment: To the "pig mouth" person and the other comments about foul speech: I AM NOT A JW. And since when do you make the rules for me? And how about telling john to tone down his foul speech and threatening posts. Sorry, I forgot. He's not speaking against your precious lambs. And what about Bill ? I think he's a pretty big hypocrite considering what I read about him on this web site: http://www. bill. bowen. isgay. com Foul speech is one thing, but that's just disgusting. The anti-john.
October 6, 2002

Comment: hey ask your sister for me how can I get a fake e-mail addy
October 6, 2002

Comment: Really i mean come on , I cant work out what you peole are talking about. I dont think you even know what you are talking about. The fact is that these people need to be punished for such inhuman acts and in time they will be.
October 7, 2002
Comment: "I Put My Sex Abuse Dad in Prison." is the title of a two-page article about Alison in the "Real Life" Section of the November 2002 issue (pgs. 20-21) of the UK's most popular teen magazine, "Sugar." The below link will take you to the scanned copy of the article. Alison, as you know, is the young lady who was featured on the BBC's Panorama show regarding the JW sex abuse in the UK. -------- Please Write a thank you to the editor and/or reporter for this article. I think it's a great idea to put a story like this in a Teen magazine so other young ladies will know what to do should anything similar ever happen to them. Good job Sugar Magazine and Alison!

You may also write Alison herself, as she posted this here in our Guestbook in July after the BBC program. Thanks!

/SLC -------- Hi. I am Alison Cousins who you will have heard about in the BBC program, if any person would like to write to me about the program or give me there comments please feel free to do so. My email address is: SANDYCOUSINS@HOTMAIL.COM Looking forward to hearing from you. Good Luck and God Bless, Bill.

October 7, 2002

Comment: HERE's the LINK to the above article about Alison: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=37985&page=1&site=3#516899 -------- And Here's the email addy for "Sugar" teen Magazine: websugar@hf-uk.com ----------- It seems you cannot put those little pointer/quote marks on each side of the URL nor on Email Addy's, because if you do, then they do not show up in your post here. ---- We're learning new rules for how this new G-book works! ;-) /SLC

October 7, 2002

Comment: I have just read the Oct 8 1993 Awake! and I see no endorsement for obstructing police or telling abused children to remain silent. To the contrary the article encourages children to tell their parents and the parents to believe them even if the abuser is the other parent! The reason given is that kids do not have the resources adults have. Be careful about going ahead with a class action as everyone knows when money is involved the truth is never told. Here in Australia a class action against a sport coach was dismissed because the allegation were proved false and based solely on greed and wanting money by the alleged victims. So suing the org. when they have openly in that Awake! encouraged victims to speak out and parents to take action will only lead to more sorrow for the victims. When individual elders take it upon themselves even to defy the scriptural injunction about respect for the law (Romans 13: 1-4) then the organisation is clearly not liable when they have advised otherwise.

October 7, 2002

Comment: Oct. 7

October 7, 2002

Comment: I was both fascinated and horrified by the material in this website, about a third of which I have examined in the past few hours. It is now listed with my "favourites". I was brought up in the "Truth" and have now been disfellowshipped for four yrs. I was sexually abused by my father from the time I was brought home from the hospital until the abuse was reported when I was six. My parents separated at this time, divorced when I was eight, and my father was killed in a hit and run accident when I turned nine. I continued to be molested by non-Witnesses, until at thirteen (with only a year or so abuse-free), my mother finally met and moved in with a Ministerial Servant in a neighbouring Congregation. In full knowledge of my past, he continued where the others had left off, at a time (puberty) when my mind and body were at complete war with one another. . . . My body finally awakening to the sensations, while my mind was screaming NO! this is wrong. With my background, for a while, I almost accepted the situation as being 'normal', even 'natural' behaviour on his part, and as such offered no resistance, even tacitly encouraging Him. The only thought that soon prevented this was remembering all the scriptures in Leviticus about the 'wrongness' of 'laying bare the nakedness' of close family members, and the consequences of doing so. The situation was eventually uncovered, when he accused me of sleeping around, and even tried to pin blame on my own brother (falsely). I had remained silent mostly because I felt my mother was finally happy again, and didn't want to jeopardize her happiness. But after all this, I eventually screamed: "It was you!" at Him, and Mum just happened to overhear. He then tried to lay all the blame on me, claiming that I instigated every act, tried to touch him sexually (a thought that repulsed me as he was almost 70), and that I belonged in a home for wayward girls. When the matter was brought before the Elders, I was the one viewed darkly, and felt to be a threat to other males in the congregation. On a personal level He even had the audacity to tell the principal of a school that Mum tried to enroll me in that "I could not be trusted around any males". Had the matter not been reported to the secular authorities, I have no idea what would have happened. He and Mum were both disfellowshipped from the congregation, but for living together unmarried, not due to the abuse. I tried to get my life together (after my older brothers took over my care), but in 1994, after finally discovering what a true loving relationship was like, and finding it impossible to remain alone, (and having been publicly reproved from the platform for my resulting conduct) decided to skip the country, and try to make a 'fresh start' with a 'clean slate' in South Africa, where no-one would know anything about me, or my past, other than what I shared with them (which I did, a little too freely). I eventually met and married one of my romantic interests, the only way I felt I could return to the Congregation without feeling like an absolute hypocrite. In 1996 (after having had my handbag taken at knife point by a 'local'), I brought my new husband home to Adelaide and in order to prove that I was truly prepared to 'let bygones be bygones', we even stayed in Mum and her now Husband's home. There was some attempt to get my husband interested in 'the Truth', unfortunately knowing my history, he was little impressed that both Mum and Partner had been not only re-instated in the Congregation, but were even permitted to hold a Book-Study in their own home. Not to mention that my own brother (now an Elder himself) greeted my arrival with "You know you are never going to get away with this", after two years or more of not having had any communication with me. I had privileges taken from me in the Congregation belatedly for my misconduct prior to my marriage, but eventually after many months regained my standing in the congregation. Finally after three-and-a-half years of marriage, my relationship fell apart, and my husband and I separated. When I eventually took up with someone outside the Congregation (and before things got too out of hand), I was reproved, and eventually disfellowshipped, effectively cutting me off from the only true friends I had ever known, the Witnesses, all 5000 of them (this is about how many I knew by name or face by this time). I had privileges taken from me in the Congregation belatedly for my misconduct prior to my marriage, but eventually after many months regained my standing in the congregation. Finally after three-and-a-half years of marriage, my relationship fell apart, and my husband and I separated. When I eventually took up with someone outside the Congregation (and before things got too out of hand), I was reproved, and eventually disfellowshipped, effectively cutting me off from the only true friends I had ever known, the Witnesses, all 5000 of them (this is about how many I knew by name or face by this time). I am now in a happy and loving relationship with a non-Witness, but my past certainly scarred my life. Despite all this, I bear no grudges against the Society, and am deeply saddened that Jehovah's own reputation is being dragged through the mud through the misconduct of his 'Special People'.

October 7, 2002

Comment: Jayson, come check out my new group! http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerExcape Linda Thoman

October 7, 2002

Comment: To the person who just posted their story this morning, I wanted to say Welcome to Silentlambs. We hear you, and understand the difficulties you've experienced. Many of us have experienced similar things ourselves. Linda Thoman

October 7, 2002

Comment: To anti-John: Those scriptures are found in the BIBLE and they apply to anyone that wants to be decent. IF Bill Bowen is what you say he is, you STILL do not have the right to talk as you do. JOHN has been repeatedly told about his speech. Read back to numerous posts in August and September. He, himself, stated in a recent post that he's aware that he can be banned from the group. Don't mistake patience with acceptance. The words found in the Bible apply to all especially to you and anyone else that is INFLAMATORY. This isn't the place for cussing and brawling.

October 7, 2002

Comment: Fixed some minor glitches such as (" was '") So We had to get that resolved. . . . Anyway . . . If there is any more glitches please report them to the webmaster. Thanks, JV

October 7, 2002

Comment: I still can't get 10/1-10/5/02 posts.

October 7, 2002

Comment: The Watchtower has had a history of saying one thing in literature and doing another in practice. This double standard is what has gotten them in trouble. . . . . Hopefully all eyes will be open now.

October 7, 2002

Comment: For those who would like a copy of the posts from October 1 to October 5, contact the webmaster at webmaster@commservco.com and request in subject line "GUEST BOOK". . . . . webmaster

October 7, 2002

Comment: SLC----I tried to go to your group and couldn't find it. Is there a specific page you can go to? To all the new ones welcome!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Love,Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

October 7, 2002

Comment: Hi SLC: You had mentioned a little while back that you would like to hear new ideas and thoughts on the Bible, as you wanted to resolve Bible questions regardless of the source. I found some information I thought you might find helpful and useful in your search for real "truth". * 2-KINGDOM CONCEPT -- A Great "Sacred Secret" (Mark 4:11) * The Bible shows the Kingdom of God that Jesus himself referred to in John 18:36, "which is not of this world", is NOT one and the same with other mentions of "Kingdom", like the "kingdom" mentioned in Daniel 2:44, which crushes "all other kingdoms" upon earth and "it itself stands to time indefinite". Instead the latter is an earthly "kingdom" which exists and acts more as an extension and physical representation of the Grander Heavenly Governmental arrangement or "kingdom" in Heaven. So the Bible teaches us that God actually has two (2) distinct and separate "kingdoms" or governments that he uses to accomplish all of his purposes, of which it is to be understood the earthly arrangement is always subservient to Greater, All-Pervasive Heavenly Governmental arrangement that was promised to Jesus Christ. Here is a simple breakdown of each. 1) The earthly government mentioned above is indeed an earthly "kingdom" or government that actually starts out here on earth, as the "tiniest [smallest] of mustard seeds" from a human standpoint, but grows up to be a powerful EARTHLY GOVERNMENTAL arrangement which eventually engulfs the entire earth. Interestingly, this earthly "kingdom" was foretold to have the most dubious beginning, even something that could be "despised" by man because of its "smallness" -- before God exalts it to earthly greatness. (Daniel 2:34, 35, 44, 45; Ezekiel 17:22-24; Zechariah 4:10; Mark 4:30-32) This earthly government will be headed up by a mystery figure, unknown to mankind today, and yet vividly described as being the "Chieftain" of Ezekiel 44:1-3, 45:22 and 46:16,17. He will prove to be a "christian" follower of Jesus Christ and will rule the earth from this new future "tempile" arrangement spoken of in Ezekiel chapters 40-48. This EARTHLY government will be eternal and everlasting. (Daniel 7:13, 14, 18) We can be assured of this because of what Ezekiel himself said about that holy city, "The name of the city FROM THAT DAY ON will be Jehovah Himself Is There. " Thus, this "kingdom" or "city" that sits upon a great and lofty Mountain, actually lasts forever. It is God's Heavenly Governmental Arrangement. (Ezekiel 40:2; 48:35) The prophets of old referred to this earthly kingdom many times. For instance, Isaiah and Micah showed it as being "Zion", a lofty mountain, where countless nations willingly "beat their swords into plowshares" and "learn war no more". These individuals literally "stream" to this new earthly governmental arrangement, in the "final part of the days". Daniel referred to it as a "Mountain of Decoration" that Jehovah God protects from the attack of the "King of the North", in the last days. But before this new governmental arrangement can take place, serious issues have to be resolved. Godly discipline must come upon earthly "Israel" as God's seat of governmental rule, before the full establishment of this new earthly government. Once established and "Israel" is restored to God's full favor, it then begins its rule over earth eternally with God's backing. (Isa. 2:2-4; Micah 4:1-4; Daniel 11:44,45; Isaiah 4:2-6; Micah 4:6,7) Unbeknownst to JWs and the WTS, this explains why Revelation 5:9, 10 shows this "kingdom" actually rules "UPON THE EARTH", rather than "over the earth", just as the WTS' NWT Kingdom Interlinear Word-for-Word Bible clearly shows. 2) Of course, this earthly kingdom definitely differs greatly from the "heavenly kingdom" Jesus spoke of and primarily directed his first century christian followers to look to as their "heavenly inheritance". The earthly "kingdom" would always operate UNDERNEATHE the Heavenly Governmental arrangement as a subsidiary or extension of that all-pervasive government in Heaven. This is true at all times. Nevertheless, God's word shows the heavenly governmental arrangement of Jesus, definitely was NOT to last forever or eternally. The particular governmental arrangement that Jesus spoke of clearly existed IN HEAVEN, where Jesus Christ and his associate kings and rulers were to rule in the very presence of the Great August One, Jehovah God. This clearly is a UNIVERSAL RULERSHIP, including all of God's creation, visible or invisible. Its scope covers both heaven and earth, as Jesus said at Matthew 28:18. Jesus was to have "authority" over both "heaven and earth". The Bible shows this "rulership" actually started in the first century starting with Jesus' heavenly resurrection to spirit life and being "declared a Son" in the ultimate sense. (Romans 1:4) Jesus became a "conqueror" at this time. Also, Jesus promised his disciples that they too would become "conquerors" too. And as such, they would join him in that particular heavenly rulership. They would be allowed to "sit upon his throne", just as Jesus had been permitted to "sit upon Jehovah's Throne" in heaven. (Rev. 3:21) But this kingdom's seat of government was heavenly, not earthly. This is the vital difference. Additionally, this heavenly rulership of Jesus and his followers would prove to be only temporary, and not permanent. Another vital difference. That is, the governmental rule of Jesus where, as it were, he rules from God's Throne, sitting at God's Right Hand would not last forever. It would have definite ending point. It was not meant to last forever. We know because of Paul's words where he stated that Jesus' kingdom must GO BACK TO GOD HIMSELF. Jesus must "hand over" the "kingdom" back to God Almighty. This means at some point, Jesus gives up his heavenly governmental rule, and returns it to his God and His Father, Jehovah. Jesus "turns the kingdom over" to Jehovah, when Jesus has fully accomplished Jehovah's will toward the earth, namely by the complete removal of the effects of adamic death, sin and the complete removal and destruction of all human "governments and authorities" upon earth as "enemies placed under his feet" in subjection. (Hebrews 1:3; 2:8; 1 Cor. 15:24-28) Therefore, in retrospect, we see the "kingdom" mentioned in Daniel 2:34, 35, 44, 45 as being "cut out of a mountain" arrangement that ALREADY EXISTS on earth. I believe this earthly "mountain" arrangement that already exists actually represents the spiritual nation of "Israel" upon earth, in its wayward, apostate state. Thus the dramatic scene depicts God's Mighty Hand rescuing the righteous who dwell helplessly in this "apostate"situation, and making a "kingdom" of out of them. In other words, Almighty God selects the appropriate people from that spiritual nation, who would and should make up (according to His Wise estimation) the new earthly "kingdom" arrangement of His choosing, and makes them INTO a "kingdom" where they appropriately rule "upon earth" as Revelation 5:9, 10 foretold. Thus, these individuals proceed from a previously existing EARTHLY arrangement, a "mountain" where Almighty God "cuts" them out to become this magnificent "stone" of authority. And of course, we notice this "kingdom" stone is "cut out without hands", human hands, so we see Jehovah God actually does all of the choosing and selecting of the makeup of this earthly "kingdom" governmental arrangement that eventually engulfs the entire earth, so no mistakes will be made in personnel choice. It will be a perfect, earthly arrangement to God's satisfaction. This is why we can say, the Kingdom that Jesus referred to in John 18:36, "which is not of this world", is not one and the same with the kingdom of Daniel 2:44, which crushes "all other kingdoms" upon earth and "it itself stands to time indefinite". Instead the latter earthly "kingdom" exists and acts more as an extension and physical representation of the Grander Heavenly Governmental arrangement or "kingdom" in Heaven. So the Bible teaches us that God actually has two (2) separate and distinct "kingdoms" or governments that he uses to accomplish all of his purposes, of which it is to be understood the earthly arrangement is always subservient to Greater, All-Pervasive Heavenly Governmental arrangement that was promised to Jesus Christ. *The Scriptures teach the earthly government can be distinguished from the heavenly one as an earthly "kingdom" or governmental arrangement that actually starts out here on earth, as the "tiniest [smallest] of mustard seeds" from a human standpoint, but grows up to be a powerful EARTHLY GOVERNMENTAL "PLANT" or "stone" which eventually engulfs the entire earth. Interestingly, this earthly "kingdom" was foretold to have the most dubious of beginnings, even something that could be "despised" by man because of its "smallness" — before God exalts it to its rightful state of earthly greatness. (Daniel 2:44, 45; Ezekiel 17:22-24; Zechariah 4:10; Mark 4:30-32) * Unbeknownst to JWs and the WTS, this explains why Revelation 5:9, 10 shows this "kingdom" actually rules "UPON THE EARTH", rather than "over the earth", just as the WTS' NWT Kingdom Interlinear Word-for-Word Bible clearly shows.

 Okay, I hope this information is helpful to you. Write me back, and let me know what you (and Bill, Barbara & Joe) think of it, when you have time. Take care. * bjc2read@yahoo.com

October 7, 2002

Comment: This website and this guestbook is a place for VICTIMS of Watchtower abuse. It should be a place for victims to complain about injustices suffered and their voices should be heard. This is not a place for ABUSERS. If the abusers want to silence or attack the victims then they already have the forum for that. It's called the local kingdom hall. Not one word from the broken in spirit validated there. Fake websites fake press releases etc have no place here. So I suggest we all email info@silentlambs.org and webmaster@commservco.com Request that the abusive posts attacking the victims be removed and the offending IP address be blocked.

October 7, 2002

Comment: The Game of Trolling Trolling a game - there is a point to the game, and that point is to win. There are various ways of winning for the internet troll. These might include: · gaining credence for false and invidious ideas · driving victims out of the guestbook · dominating the guestbook with messages/posts that they have generated · distracting victims from their own bona fide discussions or objectives. · gaining attention that they cannot get using their real personalities

October 7, 2002

Comment: Linda, Thanks and congrads on a new "sight." I applied so I hope to be accepted soon. Tell Ang I got the "gold star." I have agreed to help those in her situation in any way that I can. To turn your back on a child like that. I hope that "we" are there for the next person in her shoes. What power that victimizers would loose, (will loose), as we all join hands and leave them to themselves. John, as for swearing I know, but to quote John Wayne, "Don't give the "Bastards" the satisfaction. " I will always love ya buddy; I know that you would protect those who are innocent, and those who have had their spirit trampled. Unlike some who need not be spoken of. ~Jay

October 7, 2002

Comment: I thank those who publish literature about the Watchtower. It has helped me break free. I was fooled by there one sided opinions. There is much that the Slave does not want us to know.

October 7, 2002

Comment: None of this talk about trolls means anything. Anyone who like Bill tries to attract followers to themselves for their own glory must be put in their place. His hypocritical stance is to pretend to be the only one who "cares" about abused ones. I've seen the pictures of his so-called appeal and I see the smug look on his face. At least some of us left the organisation with more dignity. He goes around with his smart-ass attitude, thinking he is doing something great when in reality he is merely a tool of satan, a puppet. Anyone who follows Bill B. is SHIT. I don't care how many relatives/elders/MS's or other JW's raped you when you were 7. Don't think I don't care about abused children - I do, more than you know. But those who choose to follow a gutless, fat, stupid C*NT like Bill B. show how truly worthless you are. You DESERVE everything you get. The anti-john.

October 7, 2002

Comment: HTTP Error 403 403. 6 Forbidden: IP address rejected This error is caused when the server has a list of IP addresses that are not allowed to access the site, and the IP address you are using is in this list. Please contact the Web server's administrator if the problem persists. Blah.

October 7, 2002

Comment: HAHA your new guest book sucks as much as you do. Are you happy? Are you proud now you've started your own cult under the leadership of your grand "masterbater", Bill B. ? Gather round to take the milk from flaccid Bill B. ! Gather all the lambs to the great circle-jerk!
October 7, 2002

Comment: Comments or complaints contact me at ronpthomson@usa. com Ask me nicely to stop posting here, or tell me what you think of me. Maybe I'll reply, maybe I won't. The anti-john.
October 7, 2002

Comment: although these crimes are truely wrong and awful I believe it's wrong to attach or associate the crimes with the religion. Just as, you would agree, it's wrong to look down upon a whole race if you experienced an awful crime from some of them. There is nothing in the bible that supports such crimes. These things occuring in the org. just proves once again that imperfect humans are part of the org. It would be the devils plan to make the congregation look bad and discourage anyone but Jahovah. It's very easy to get discouraged when you have a bad experience with people in a congregation but your relationship with Jahovah and what was given to us as a guide in the bible is what we as individuals are responsible for and the only thing we have control over is ourselves. Don't let someone else's imperfection keep you from your relationship with Jahovah. If you do you're only hurting yourself and accomplishing the devil's goals. to discourage you.
October 7, 2002

Comment: Left the Watchtower back in 1987. Took many years to get my head straight. (That will explain all the sick posters who support the Org. on here). My advice to others. Get out. It's a big fantastic world out there and sorry Governing Body, everything is not black and white like your underwear. Later people
October 7, 2002

Comment: Please check out this new group for those with doubts, those who've been df', da'd or just want to share experiences. http://groups. msn. com/WatchtowerEscape
October 7, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "the disaster of Armageddon, greater than that which befell Sodom and Gomorrah, is at the door. " (1946 Let God Be True)
October 7, 2002

Comment: Hi, just wanted to highlight a discrepancy in the news story regarding Bill. On this particular ocassion, Bill and Kiki were using a stuffed toy lamb, rather than a gerbil as had been reported in the Daily Post. And it is evident that the resulting fire was mostly caused by the flammable nature of the material used in the stuffed toy, and was not entirely due to the effects of intestinal gases, as had been reported. “in him”
October 7, 2002

Comment: To those who blame the governing body for the actions of some of their members - how would you feel if your child committed a crime behind your back, without your consent and everyone blamed you for it? Let the victims of abuse and injustice not become unfair themselves. Speak out by all means - against the abusers, but dont blame all JW's for the actions of a few. My heart goes out to those genuine victims, but not to the apostates who may only be after money. The genuine victims will only suffer more if you go ahead with a class action. user: bioharmony - Askme. com/Religion
October 7, 2002

Comment: May God bless the Lambs and give them solace and victory over their enemies. Especially those still caught in the mind-numbing grip of the borg. May you find the love of the great Shepherd of the sheep, the Lord Jesus Christ. ALWAYS remember, the true God is not found in any “organization” He is nigh you, no matter where you are for He is spirit. The GB and their duped followers are simply a bunch of UNSAVED, LOST religious sinners. Pure and simple.
October 7, 2002

Comment: Keep up the good work. As odious as the fact of sexual abuse is, there is a an even more damaging factor to be considered. People who are enticed into this sick dysfunctional organisation are literally victims of a mind control system. To be required to read and remember their strange religious quackery on a regular cycle of three or more times a week for the duration of your life is immensely damaging to the psychi-these people are actually suffering from institutionalized depression!!It is indeed abuse of mind boggleing proportion. The real issue is that these people have no voice outside or inside this organisation. This means that they are trapped for their life. Imagine children growing up believing that the end of the world is near- don't worry about an education don't get involved with people from out side the organisation, and then to be told that they must spread "the truth" so that they can recruit more dysfunctionality. . . where does it end!!! Suffer the children indeed. Terry morrison, gold coast Australia.
October 7, 2002

Comment: Thanks JV for continuing to fix the new Guestbook glitches! ----- Welcome to the new reader & lamb from Australia who told her story on 10-7-02! What horrors you have been through. I am so glad you are now experiencing some peace in your life. Love /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: To the 10-8-93 Awake! reader: I concur with what someone else wrote, that what the Society puts in the magazines and has announced from the platform is NOT what is practiced. The elders have a different set of "rules" which they receive via orally from the CO/DO and/or via the BOE letters, many of which can be found on the internet, so you can see for yourself. It's more of the "Do as they say, but not as they do" which Jesus spoke about. And lawsuits by abused lambs is not about money. It's about holding the abuser and the society accountable for their actions. -- If you keep reading and researching the matter, you will see. Take care/SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Hi Jesika! I didn't really create a "group" for the purposes of having a "group. " I merely opened up a yahoogroup account so I could have an Email Address so that I could use for public places like this Guestbook and J-W.
com, where my email at J-W. com is now "open. " (I never wanted to put my private email on J-W. com, so this works great for that). As "owner" of the "yahoogroup," any emails sent to: My_JW_stuff-owner@yahoogroups. com are automatically forwarded to my private email. (I like using yahoogroups for such thing rather than just plain yahoo-email. I dunno why!) ;-) I just read your thread about going to Vegas and left a post there. WOWOWOW! Have a great time! Love ya! /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Hi BJC: Yes, thank you for that info, I did receive it via email. I haven't had time to do much "serious" reading, but I have it "saved" in my inbox, and planned to write you a thanks in return. Now that I see you here, I do say THANK YOU! Best/SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: I agree with whoever wrote we should ask for the abusers here to be blocked. I had thought of doing that the other day, but then I remembered reading something Bill wrote at somepoint, somewhere (maybe in the Guestbook months ago), that by letting these posts stand as is, it just shows the visitors what arses (that's my word for them) people can be about exposing the abuse & pedophile situation in the org. --- However, since the troll-posts are becoming more and more vulgar, I think it IS time we all write and say something. Copy the offending posts and put them in your email to silentlambs and the webmaster. And everyone who does so, post back here what webmaster/silentlambs has to say. OK guys? Thanks/SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: I'm sure all of the "honest" people who post here are wise enough NOT to write Ron P. Thompson, the anti-John, who left his addy and asked people to write him. Surely he will just sent you a virus if you write him with your email addy. And he cares about abused children? Hardly. Nobody that talks like he does could possibly care about anybody but themselves. If you care about children so much, why didn't you stand up against the almighty WTS and do something about it? You're just jealous, Mr. Weasle. /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Bioharmony wrote: ". . . don't blame all JW's for the actions of a few. " --- Correction, not "a FEW," but 23,720 "few" who most if not all have been "covered up" at the DIRECTION of the WTS. That's where the blame lies, along with the individual elders who agreed to "pass these things over. " /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Seems we have a lot of JW visitors to the site on 10-7-02!!! Very interesting! It tells us that they ARE at least hearing, even though they are still not "believing. " Give it time. . . /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Someone wrote: "Don't let somone else's imperfection keep you from your relationship with Jahvah. " (That's JEhovah, must have been a typo). Anyway, Jahvah is EVERYWHERE, not just in the KHalls, contrary to what we thought/were told as JWs. Jehovah can be found by ANYONE at ANY TIME. That's the GOOD NEWS. /SLC

October 8, 2002

Comment: Welcome Terry Morrison from Australia. Wow, "GOLD COAST" sounds beautiful! And yes about the high-mind-control training as a JW. "Thinking" is not allowed, not after you are baptised. Anyway, welcome! /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Testing Testing (by SLC) to see if a URL will show up using the quote marks on each side of it such as: October 8, 2002

Comment: The answer to my above Test is "NO," the URL and email addy did not show up. Hmmmm. . . wonder why it does that? /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Question for the regulars here: Do you guys like the "bold" font? It kinda hurts my eyeballs after awhile. Just wondering what you others think. Thanks/SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: I also do not care for the bold font. Also, I miss the time-stamps which made it a lot easier to follow threads and jump to certain sections.
October 8, 2002

Comment: To SLC I have to agree with you and Bill about leaving the abusers on this site vs. blocking them. My x's family were Jehovah's Witness and were the biggest hypocrites. Every time these people post it reminds me and I am sure thousands of others that there is no real change of heart in many of the members. I'll bet some of them are elders who did some of the abusing. Right HAHAHA? Which congregation do you oversee? Later everyone Sah October 8, 2002

Comment: NOTICE: You guys may already know this, but I was just reminded of it: If you have a "Pennysaver" or "Pennypincher" type newspaper in your area, they will print "Public Service Announcements" for FREE. Since silentlambs. org is a non-profit organization, any announcement by us would qualify. Granted, it all depends on how many such PSA's they receive each week as to which ones make it in the paper, but if we submitted one to them every week as a standard practice, that is a great way to get the word out about silentlambs. It could be short and sweet or up to a paragraph. Example -------- SUPPORT GROUP for victims of sexual or domestic abuse. www. silentlambs. org -- #1-877-WT-ABUSE, and/or locally call #1-000-000-0000 (put your own number there. They may be more likely to publish your PSA if a local contact person is listed). -------- Will you guys offer suggestions: Should we mention the JW religion or just leave it out? If so, how should it be worded exactly? Maybe like: ----- SUPPORT GROUP for victims/survivors of sexual and/or domestic abuse by and for members of the Jehovah's Witnesses. Please visit: www. silentlambs. org. Or call #1-877-WT-ABUSE. Local contact support #1-000-000-0000. - ---------- What do you think ladies (& silent rams?) Thanks for your input. /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Yes, I also liked the DATE stamp, and I asked in an earlier post to the Webmaster, but he didn't answer that specific query. Maybe they are working on it. --OR-- maybe we can't have everything, eh? LOL! ;-) /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Hi SAH: Well, it isn't really my PERSONAL choice to leave the abusive comments in, I was merely stating what I remember reading Bill had written. Personally, I'd remove all of them! ;-) --- However, your reasons are valid for leaving them in, and Bill's too. It just gets really depressing to have to read that garbage. Thanks for the comment, though. /SLC -- PS: Were you asking me what congregation I oversee? Or were you referring to the abusive posters? Just in case it was directed to me, I am Silent Lambs Cheerleader, hence of the female gender. ;-) October 8, 2002

Comment: Hi SLC No not you. I mean the posters like HAHAHA and antiJohn. I have to credit these idiots for reminding me of my x's family. Good Jehovah's Witness at the meeting, drugs, affairs, heavy drinking when away from the Hall. Tell me they really believed. SAH October 8, 2002
Comment: Brain Teaser: During the first few centuries of the last millennium, approximately 900,000 Christians were massacred, according to a WT magazine of 9-1-51. Then in the 1-15-52 WT's Questions from Readers, someone wrote in asking: "How can this be harmonized with the Scriptural limitation of 144,000 placed on the number being in Christ's body, and which position was the only one open to Christians during those centuries?" --- Good question, eh? (My comment: If 900,000 were martyred in those early years, surely the entire number of 144,000 would have been "used up" way back then). So how did the WT reply to the Question from Reader? See the WT's answer here & get ready for your brain to be teased. ;-) /SLC ----- http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=38198&page=1&site=3#518633
October 8, 2002

Comment: Hi SAH! Duh! Sometimes I'm a little slow! ;-) Thanks for the clarification. --- I was a single sis in the cong, so didn't get to "mingle" much with the Elder Crowd. Most of the "married folks" hung out together. I knew they had "football parties" at certain homes to watch the games on TV, etc. I'm sure they got a little rowdy 'cuz I would hear them talking about it at meetings. But overall I was never privy to much of the real dirt. Getting an earful these days, though! (via internet). LOL! /SLC
October 8, 2002

Comment: Thanks Jay for the compliment on the new group. I've got lots of new pages added already and more to come! Trolls and abusive people will be banned, no problem. SLC, come check us out! http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerExcape Linda Thoman
October 8, 2002

Comment: Last wk I met a lady in the Superstore. I knew her from the time I was JW. She tried to avoid me but took courage and approached her. It turned out that she was disfellowshipped and very disappointed with the "friends" and the Organization. She was DSFL because she was asking questions. She was abused while in the Borg since tender age. I will ask her to share her experiences with us on this site. She is going to sue the WT. Her family was ruined. Hers husband a JW was cheating on her and married another women. Her son committed suicide last year by hanging himself with a bed sheet on a tree right beside the local hospital. The note he left behind indicated great unhappiness in his life.
October 8, 2002

Comment: Question: What does Borg stand for? I think part of it is Organization but I am not sure of what the B stands for.
October 8, 2002

Comment: "Borg" refers to a fictional race of cyBORGs, cyBernetic ORGanisms, (part machine/part human or other species) that are the recurring "Bad Guys" in the newest incarnations of the Star Trek TV series' and movies. Their goal is to "convert" all unique species into Borg drones. Their motto: "You will be assimilated. Resistance is futile"
October 8, 2002

Comment: EVERYONE, I noticed the web hosting for this site is DONATED. I would assume that the technical expertise is also donated. What does that mean? Well, in the real world I have to pay $125-$175 an hour to have my technical difficulties handled. So I'll bet someone fixed the guestbook for FREE. Yes, the site might still have some bugs however; it takes someone's hard earned knowledge and time to correct them. So everyone please stop complaining and just thank the webmaster for the improvements. I'm sure he'll solve problems IF he has the time, but we certainly have no right to demand anything. Let's appreciate the time he has donated. Nancy Naranjo
October 8, 2002

Comment: What happened to this guestbook? This guestbook used to be cool. Now it's totally gay.
October 8, 2002

Comment: http://www.geocities.com/osarsif/bethsarim3.htm
October 8, 2002

Comment: Nancy N - Yes, advice the society has given elders in the matter of child abuse is appalling. Has anyone tried an appeal to their disfellowshipping or whatever else? The society appoints a another committee to look into the matter, however, they, themselves do not sit in to act in an unbiased and scripturally and publication-aly educated manner. If the appointed committee reaches the same conclusion -- ignoring reasonable and logical evidence -- one doesn't have another place to go and the society won't bother with it anymore. At this point, one is told to wait on Jehovah and he'll straighten it out. I just can't see Moses or King Solomon handling the differences between their people in such a manner. Can you? They RESOLVED issues between their people, brothers. This current system doesn't RESOLVE anything and only leaves injured people around. If one objects to THIS method of handling differences, the FIRST QUESTION is: Don't you trust in Jehovah to take care of this matter? I don't believe that is the issue. I don't believe Jehovah God wants people walking around mentally and emotionally (even physically) wounded waiting for him to step in. It's my opinion that when matters fall into Jehovah's hands that he isn't going to be happy because he'll know that we didn't respect him and his instructions to go about quickly resolving issues between us. Resolving issues doesn't mean that the victim or injured party needs to carry wounds around. It means that their wounds have been "cleaned and dressed and kissed" TO AID IN THE HEALING PROCESS. I see no healing, love, trust, AFFECTION -- I only see very, very HURT PEOPLE who haven't been reassured of God's love and the congregation's love. People who haven't had care and affection. People left alone to either bleed to death or to stop bleeding on their own, so to speak. Healing can take place in such circumstances but NOT WITH JOY AND LOVE. The pain NEVER goes away. I don't believe that's the kind of resolution to issues among us Jehovah God wants. It's not representative of a compassionate and loving God that has affection for his people.

October 8, 2002

Comment: If you are "infected" by the borg in the fanasy world of Star Trek you no longer have your own personality. "You service US" I. e. The borg collective. They add whatever worthwhile traits that you have to their own in a delusional attempt to achieve "perfection." They cling to that old the creed that they are the most "perfect" race of living beings ever to exist. You can exist around them and not be part of the hive if you are not perceived as a threat or a prize. As a threat if you stand against them then, you are destroyed. (However it is amazing what happens when people work together to resist.) They have great abilities to adapt/overwhelm to the offensive or defensive abilities of others they are admerable as much as they are scary. The real comparasion to the WT and the GB is that the "slaves" in the WT are totally expendible as are the "borg drones" in the star trek saga. The "drones" do as they are commanded as do the "slaves." Once infected "drones" work to infect other people including fellow individuals, friends, and family that do not want to be assimilated. Most important "will" is overwhelmed and they serve a master that has total control over them. To move against the hierarchy in any way = death. Again compaire to the WT and the slave class. There are comparisons except it is really giving the WTBS way to much undeserved credit and power. They are but like a fly compared to a cobra in abilities, (compared to the borg). At best they are "borgish." For some with an open mind could/should see the common threads without being either insulted or terrified of the Jehovah's Witnesses ideology. I'm not.

October 8, 2002

Comment: Oh, sorry, did I mess up your guest book? Well, too bad. Ron P. Thomson (alias The Anti- John) is here to stay. I will continue to post THE REAL TRUTH ABOUT BILL. http://www. bill. bowen. isgay. com

October 8, 2002

Comment: Hi Ron P Thompson(Anti-John) You truly must be one of the stupidist persons to sit at a computer. A half brick is much more dangerous than a full brick. What that means Ron is that if you throw a half a brick it will travel farther than if you throw a full brick. The same goes for a half lie vs. a full lie. A half lie/half truth will travel farther than your overwhelming Bill stories. Your so far out in left field that you even a Jehovah's Witness would be ashamed to be associated with you. So keep going with your big stories from your little mind and you will be our daily entertainment. Someone has to play the fool.

October 8, 2002

Comment: The "borg" is just about any organization and, even, relationship that's ever been know by humans. That includes marriage, too. Why should the humans in the Watchtower be any different from all other humans? They, too, have to sort through all the "borg" stuff the WORLD MAKES SOCIETY BELIEVE AND LIVE to get to the truth from Jehovah God the same as anyone else. Do we expect them to be DIFFERENT? I do. It's very disappointing to find people that are intellectually enlightened that still exercise in some things, agreed serious things, the BORG OF THE WORLD'S THINKING AND METHOD OF HANDLING THINGS. Each individual person, no matter who they are or what position they hold, has a very difficult time SEEING that it is THEY who are having a BORG MOMENT in their mind in some matters -- that THEY'RE carrying on wrong thinking and need to change THEIR mind and actions over. Life's tough and most people don't get past the physical necessities to figure out and understand that their MIND and HEART needs to be fed, revised, adjusted and that it's a constant thing so that they can get more and more of the WORLD'S BORG OUT OF THEM -- even JW's!

October 8, 2002

Comment: AP: BILL BOWEN LAUNCHES NEW WEB SITE! Bill Bowen, administrator of the popular silentlambs. org web site devoted to JW abuse issues has just launched a new web site for JW's and EX-JW's - you can find it at www. silentmasterbaters. org. Bill Bowen said today: "lambs, there is no need to struggle with your masterbation problem alone! Now you can talk to other masterbaters on the all- new guest book". In related news, Bill Bowen also revealed today that he is gay. [the anti-john]

October 8, 2002

Comment: Keep those e-mails coming, folks. The anti-john. ronpthomson@usa. com

October 8, 2002

Comment: hey linda thoman, can I join your watchtower excape group? I already excaped but I thought it might be fun. p. s. your spelling is almost as bad as johns. Excape, indeed. Or was that just a (clever?) play on words? The anti-john.

October 8, 2002

October 8, 2002

Comment: Just got done looking at the pictures of the march! Right On everyone. You were representing the thousands that could not make it such as me. Just remember. ONLY PRISONS HAVE WATCHTOWERS

October 8, 2002

Comment: . . .

October 8, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "If the wicked system of this world survived until the turn of the century[the year 2001?], which is highly impobable in view of world trends and the fulfillment of Bible prophecy, there would still be survivors of the World War 1 generation. However, the fact that their number is dwindling is one more indication that 'the conclusion of the system of things' is moving fast toward its end. " (WT Oct 15 1980 31)

October 8, 2002

Comment: Ron . . . . Since you are going to be a regular poster I would like to welcome you to the silentlambs website. I noticed you mentioned you had also been abused. I hope you receive counseling or other help to overcome your difficulties. Although I find your ridiculous newspaper articles highly offensive I must admit that they are well written and humorous. Maybe sharing your misery here will bring you peace. Sincerely Nancy Naranjo

October 8, 2002

Comment: Ron, I asked RJ and now I ask you, "What do you want?" "How can I help?" I would rather not have you as an enemy. The people who are called the "governing body" put forward very bad opinions as biblical/dogma law about how to handle very heinous crimes. Many elders take their appointing like a ruthless lord. (Not everyone) Some seem to have the mentality keep the peace at any and all costs. Inocence be damned. These who did, these men who were co-abusers by proxy are just as accountable. (Maybe more so) I assume that you do not approve of the rape of children (or anyone) I assume that you are not in favor of the beating of women and children. I hope that I am not singing to a bag of jelly beans. It seems that accept by a court of (real) law these men will not be held accountable. They have caused the divisoin here, not bill, the anderson's, the lambs, me, or you. Unless you belive these men divine they are just plain old men. And as men they are accountable for their actions and the words (policy/dogma/dogma) that they put forward. To cover up that which you do, to lie about it, to refuse to accept responsibility makes you unbelivable and there for not respectable. (of ill character) JW's as they learn what are the facts of the WT they will not be pleased. I don't know if this is the end of the road for the WTBS. They are in control of that. (maybe) But if they can not face their actions; Then a lie can only fool or intimidate for so long. Propaganda in a black form is always temporary. When propaganda as leadership fails it is sudden; Where and when we do not know. I wonder how many families and how many kids, wives, husbands, and friends would not have to suffer if the GB/WT would just mind thier own bee's wax. -Jayson

October 8, 2002

Comment: Bethel offices have issued directives in accordance with the contents of the Oct 8 1993 Awake! published by the governing body of JW's worldwide. Nowhere do any of those letters say "Obstruct police investigations" or "be silent and dont report abuse to the authorities" It is only referring to how the elders must deal with pedophiles who may have offended many years before they became Jehovah's witnesses. The local elders are not the long arm of the law with respect to illegal immigrants either. Im sure many reading this would be glad of that. But if a complaint comes up or there is a police investigation they must co operate in accordance with Romans 13:1-4. Also the question of clergy/laity or doctor/patient confidentiality comes into it. But rightly elders should advise offenders to fess up. However if in Court a judge orders an elder in the witness box to tell the whole truth, then Romans 13:1-4 applies.

October 9, 2002

Comment: Well i've been reading through a lot of different comments no doubt there are many different opinions too. However one thing we all agree on is child molesters are bad. No doubt anyone who hates Jehovah's Witnesses will grasp at anything to try and rubbish the good people in the truth. There are a couple of things I'd like to clarify 1/ Some people have stated that they would or have been disfellowshipped for going to police about child molesters that can not be true no one is disfellowshipped for that. disfellowshipping is for unrepentent wrong doers. It is a last resort used by the Elders if all consell has failed. 2/ The society to the best of my knowledge has never ever said children or parents can't go to the police. 3/ Parents are ultimately responsible for there children and bare responsibility for there childs welfare not the elders. 4/ personally I think all these child molesters and homosexuals should all be wiped from the face of this earth, however after learning about love and forgiveness i know that we must forgive also. And that is why some child molesters have been accepted back into a congregation if they have sincerely repented. This is what God has told us to do. The only reason I can come up with as to why some elders have tried to cover child moleston up is perhaps there was some nepitizm involved . This of course doesn't make it right . And certainly does bring reproach upon Jehovah's name. Titus1:16

October 9, 2002

Comment: Silent Lambs press release 9/19/02 Quoting a letter sent from Bethel to all congregations in the UK: "Our position is that the secular authorities deal with crime while elders deal with sin. To avoid a miscarriage of justice elders must not interfere with, prevent or impede any secular investigation into child abuse. They must ensure that secular laws are adhered to. (Romans 13:1) To that end they are instructed to contact the legal dept. at Bethel whenever they receive information from even one person that child abuse has occurred. When a report is received guidance is given by the legal dept to ensure that 1. The alleged victim and other potential victims are protected from possible abuse 2. The counsel is given to report crime to the proper authorities and comply with any additional legal requirements. " This is totally contrary to the claims made by others on this Guestbook that instructions given to elders in letters are different to those in the Oct 8 1993 Awake! Mr Bowen raises the question that the above recommendations do not occur in the the same letter sent to US congregations. An error of omission, a typeset error, someone forgot to Save those sentences when putting the data into the main computer - whatever reason there is no possible just cause to deliberately omit those words in the US letter and include them in the UK. Im sure all of is here have made similar mistakes. To err is human, to forgive divine, to make an issue out of an honest mistake is unreasonable.

October 9, 2002

Comment: EXCELLENT OBSERVATION from a post on 10-5-02; 12:10:18; which read: ----- "I figured this out a long time ago and I believe it's true -- they (elders) like to let each one of us feel as though we're the only one having a problem (no matter what the problem is) and make us feel isolated from all the rest. That, in itself, changes our behavior and we isolate ourselves because we believe (for lack of compassionate caring and clarifying) that we're the only ones with the problem, too. This helps to sweep unpleasant matters under the rug. " ------ That is so true. Not sure why they think that way. It could be due to the SECRETIVE NATURE which elders are supposedly sworn to, i. e. , to not tell what the bros/sis tell them. When a person has a problem and feels NO ONE ELSE has the same problem (I remember that feeling MANY times during the 11 years as a JW), it is so true what the above person wrote, it changes your behavior and makes you feel like there's something wrong with you and you alone. What needs to be done is revamp the entire atmosphere of congregations and make them OPEN, i. e. , have OPENLY-KNOW support circles/groups for, say, single parents, or divorced ones, or single sisters, etc. But instead, they have always "FROWNED" on any such "SOCIAL" gatherings saying instead, GO OUT IN SERVICE MORE. So you go go go go out in service, but you still feel ALONE WITH YOUR PROBLEM. NOT a good atmosphere, not at all. Here's hoping they wise up and change things for the uplifting of spirits of all concerned. /SLC

October 9, 2002

Comment: BTW, THANKS to the WEBMASTER for getting those OCTOBER 1-5, 2002, POSTS up!!! The link to them is now CLEARLY SHOWING UP on the GUESTBOOK PAGE. Hurray! & Thanks again! /SLC

October 9, 2002

Comment: Hi Linda! I promise to get over to your site and sign up soon. I did "stop by briefly" but I couldn't find my MSN passport info, which is on a piece of paper around here somewhere (drowning in little pieces of papers!) I was able to see your "main page," though, and Wow! You definitely have a lot of links up there already! You've been working very hard on it, I see! Great job!! Hugs/SLC

October 9, 2002
Comment: That is SO SAD about the young son who hanged himself with the bedsheet! I hope you can help your DF'd friend. Suicide is no joke. Been deadly-close to it myself several times, earlier years and then when all the abuse issues came out early in the last decade. It's a miracle I'm still here. Thankfully, all is so much better and I never feel that way anymore. That boy must have been in DARK DESPAIR, which is a really BAD place to be. Personally, I think it's DESPAIR that causes suicides. I'm so sorry for that lady. /SLC
October 9, 2002

Comment: Seems we have another "blind" JW Defender Visitor, who also doesn't have the courtesy to use a handle (give himself a code name) so that I may properly address that person: That person wrote: "I/ Some people have stated that they would or have been disfellowshipped for going to police about child molesters that can not be true no one is disfellowshipped for that." ---- Sheesh! Where have you been? With your head in the sand? That is EXACTLY WHAT HAPPENS and HAS HAPPENED OVER & OVER, when an abused lamb wants to warn others in the cong of the pervert who is still IN the cong, they have been told over and over they will be DISFELLOWSHIPPED IF THEY TALK ABOUT IT TO THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE CONG. ---- Sir, you have no idea what you are talking about. Rose Colored Glasses you wear. /SLC
October 9, 2002

Comment: Someone wrote: "However if in Court a judge orders an elder in the witness box to tell the whole truth, then Romans 13:1-4 applies." ---- Well, we all know it is SUPPOSED to apply, but what is done in REALITY is NOT WHAT YOU SAY. The elders will LIE LIE LIE and use the "excuse" that it is THEOCRATIC WARFARE. Go read all of the information on the BOER v. WTS case that was just heard in CANADA. Those elders on the witness stand lied through their teeth. /SLC
October 9, 2002

Comment: PLEASE DON'T BE SO IGNORANT about CHILD MOLESTERS! PLEASE! "And that is why some child molesters have been accepted back into a congregation if they have sincerely repented." --- A child molester CANNOT SINCERELY REPENT. They CAN PRETEND to be "repentent," but THEY WILL WITHOUT A DOUBT CONTINUE THEIR PERVERSIONS. Please go EDUCATE YOURSELF on the subject of molesters/pedophiles/abusers before writing such NAIVE information. You only make yourself look foolish. There are links on this site (go to the home page), and/or just do a search on the internet. READ & LEARN & then come back and say something intelligent and we might believe you then. /SLC
October 9, 2002

Comment: The elders and the organization are both liars. You can tell about the organization by all the big claims through out their 120 years history and then the coverups. This group represents Jehovah??? I think not. Ron
October 9, 2002

Comment: To the person who quoted the unverifiable statistics about the WT pedophile register - 27000 represents 0.5% of the total of 6,000,000 JW's or 1/200 JW's. The ugly statistics on pedophilia world wide - 1 in 4 girls and 1 in 8 boys will be sexually abused by the age of 18. That means in effect with the average no of children per family being 3 that 25% of the general population are pedophiles! Hence to say that JW's have the largest number of pedophiles in the community is simply untrue. And that's if the unverifiable number - 27000 is correct. Satan's world is a seething cesspool of debauchery and degradation. Of the 27000 only a relatively small number would be convicted pedophiles as the register has the name of anyone who has had a complaint made against- even if only by one person. bioharmony
October 9, 2002
Comment: What’s all this BS about theocratic warfare and lying in Court?? Theocratic warfare is a fight not against the courts, police and secular rulers but against WICKED SPIRIT FORCES. Ephesians 5:10-12. Court transcripts can be wrong. I know first hand as I was in court years ago with a Statutory Declaration and the transcript of the words were nothing like what was read out of that document!! One witness actually evaded a question and both the Q and A were omitted (they had not been order to be omitted as the other side’s lawyer did not object).

October 9, 2002

Comment: Why not an honest mistake - a typo error? Perhaps you can come up with a reason why it would be deliberate????? I’m glad I’m not married to you - if you can’t see an honest mistake hitting you between the eyes you would eb very hard to live with! By the way I’m not Bro Elder - I am a woman and I was sexually abused as a child, NOT by a JW, even though I had been in the truth since I was 7. It was an outsider - a swimming instructor.

October 9, 2002

Comment: testing

October 9, 2002

Comment: For reference the 27k molesters that are going out to people’s homes without any warning from the WT. That is the statistic from the U. S. Canada and Europe. That is not the statistic for the World wide JW population. You quoted the whole population and came up with .5% of the population. A small number, yes. Smaller than the national average of 1% by half. Of course we are also discussing how those cases are being handled or swept under the rug. (Is the porogitive to protect the religion or the people) True the people who elect to go to the police may not be DF’ed for protecting themselves and everyone else. No, they are defellowshipped for “causing division.” OR, some other trumped up charge. But, the underlying factor is that they broke the unwritten code of do not go outside the inner circle. “Do not think for yourself about what is justice.’ (Those are my opinions) Now back to statistics, if you take the 27k number of molesters that are in fact given a haven in the wt rarely given to such creatures in any society and factor for one or two million members you get quite a different number as high as 2% of the population of jw’s. That is double the national average. Do the statistics for yourself. Some will peddle bullshit and try to spin the facts. Others will look at numbers and try to prove their point but, the numbers do not lie. Do it for yourself; And, there are not 5 or 6 million recorded jw’s in the US, Canada, and Europe. That there are somewhere up to to 2% of the population of them that are predators is again reasonable by national statistics and by the wt’s own records. They do wish to keep this private and that is in the favor of the criminal not the person wronged. The big mistake is the the name WTBS is not the name of God. One does not bring “reproach” upon God by protecting society from criminals. One brings “reproach” by allowing evil to spread ramped. -Jayson

October 9, 2002

Comment: I have been a JW since 1986, have been active and in-active over the years, been married and not married also. And I have seen what good elders can do and what bad ones have done, up close and personal. Being a single mother with a heavenly hope, ‘they’ come after you and your children like you have a target on your back. They, in God’s name will lie, intimidate, or whatever it is in their means to destroy my relationship with Jehovah. I have tried hiding from them, changing congregations, marrying outside of the congregation so they have to go thru my husband to get to me, I have Matthew 18ed congregation overseers, ended up in the hospital for stress related illnesses, etc. I have lost faith in men not Jehovah. As far as the organization goes, even the governing body legally separated its self from the organization. In Daniel 11:31 and Matthew 24:15, the ‘disgusting thing’ standing in the holy place refers to those bad elders. And in Luke 16:15, Jesus refers to the ‘elders’ of his day as a ‘disgusting thing’ in his Father’s sight. I, personally like to refer to them as hypocrites just as Jesus did in Matthew 23. Please don’t lose faith in Jehovah because of men. I believe His promises written in the Bible and I believe Him. You don’t need a hall to bezeal or worship Jehovah, He is everywhere!!! And all that call on him will be saved(Acts 2:21)in these end times. Agape.

October 9, 2002

Comment: Hi, My 40 year old sister has been a Jehovahs Witness since 1986. We grew up with sexual abuse at the hands of my moms husband. None of which were JW’s. But I think the way JW’s represent themselves as one big happy family seemed to appeal to her. I was studying with them at the same time as she was and red flags came up when I saw how controlling they were appearing to me. I question EVERYTHING. I never take anything at face value that I am told and they didn’t seem too happy with that. It caused alot of division between my younger sister and myself. We were always so close. She seemd to have some scriptures memorized to answer alot of questions to support their beliefs. But, even after all these years If I ask her about a scripture that seems to contradict some of what she has ben told she will stammer and not seem familiar with it and say, “let me talk to an elder and i’ll get back to you. Then she would call me back and say "No, that isn’t so". as thoug she just took his word for it and didn’t really do any research herself. My sister is a very kind person and I have met some really nice JW’s. I’m sure that would never harm a child. She says how they have a loving small congregation in her small town. Well, that may be so and I'm glad for her. But, that doesn't erase or negate the other congregations where it may be happening and being covered up. I plan to print out some of the victims stories. I don't know what she will think of it. I'm not doing it to attack her organization. We both swore years ago that we would never remain silent about children being abused. As a rule she tends to pooh-pooh any negative thing said about JW's. She almost looks smug about it as though that's just further proof that they are being persecuted as the true church. I have always thought it was a little more self righteousness then true humility. I don't even know if she will read any of the information. Maybe she will since she is also paranoid someone will try and hurt her little girl after the way we grew up. But, that would be the only thing that would inspire her to read any of it. Personally, no organization tells me what to read or do. Although I am careful to try and read articles of substance. I mean I don't read romance novels or porno. Not that romance novels are bad. I used to like them as a teen. I WILL however look into allegations as serious as child abuse or other important issues. Or if an accusation has been made against my church. Our church knows this about me and they encourage us all the time to "prove all things". Not to just accept what they or anyone else has to say about the scriptures without checking it out themselves, and praying on it. God won't leave you floundering in darkness. And you don't need any group to tell you what he has to say on it. Yes, I go to church. I love the people there. However, I follow no group or man. Only God. Then I don't worry about being lead down the wrong path. I DO look into things and read the Bible and pray and see what God is telling me in his word about it. Sometimes all it takes even is just the good sense he gave us to know the difference between what is real and false. I'll let you know what she has to say about the literature I give her about the victims stories. Sincerely, Windy

October 9, 2002

Comment: I don't understand. Why do people waste their time posting "Attacking" material when in all people who read this just skip on and don't give a crap what or who. They are here for the purpose this website brings. Not to listen to some punk who thinks he can bring down the owner of this site . . . Sue me :) -JJV

October 9, 2002

Comment: JJV- If you are new here then welcome. You will not need a lawyer with me young lad/laddy. It is hard to understand the postering that goes on. But it does and will continue. (Unfortunaly) There is much anger here. Many JW's feel that anything that shows them as less than obtaining the perfect strikes at the real heart of the issue. That if they are not special as a religion then they might be just plain ordinary. If they are not the "divine truth" then think of all the needless suffering that goes on. So anger is better than doubt. Attacking is a better defense for flawed character that wants to maintain the status quo then to admit fault take responsibility and make good on the harm that has been done. I have a 4 year old. If he messes up and says he is sorry that does not always make it ok. There are consequences for actions taken. It is my opinion that rather than working on true forgiveness the JW's allow thier elders to pardon people or not. That has little to do with forgiveness as forgiving is an internal act. Pardoning is an external act done by one with either authority or power to do so. Talking about such things as forgiveness Vs. pardons chips away at an authority personalities power base. Thus the slander. namecalling. yadayadayada. . . But in order to help these people sometimes some of us have to stand on the bridge and say "no one may pass. "-Jayson

October 9, 2002

Comment: Just testing

October 9, 2002

Comment: I was shocked to read an article about the dateline show and even more so when I read all this on silentlamb.org. I too was raped by a member of the congregation and was interrogated by the elders chosen to investigate the incident. They basically blamed me for the entire thing, I was 12 at the time, but as I got older began to understand better. The man who did this was reprimanded and they even found out he had done this to several other girls. However, our entire family was shunned from that point on and we ended up moving out of town because of this. J. W. was our life and that came to a screeching halt. I got out of the religion as soon as I was able and I would never go back. They are hypocritical and very wrong. I have somewhat gotten over what happened to me but I will never forget.

October 9, 2002

Comment: Anti-John, No to your first question. . . and correct on the comment about my cleverness. Windy, welcome to the guestbook. Linda Thoman

October 9, 2002

Comment: http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerExcape/nowwhat.msnw

October 9, 2002
Comment: Bioharmony……I think Jayson answered you pretty clearly on the 23,720 pedophiles on record. But I would like to add----there are less than 2,000,000 witnesses in USA, Canada and Western Europe. The largest percentage of JW's are women I’m guessing only 40% or less are men. According the US Dept of Justice 94% of all abusers are men. Most pedophiles have multiple victims. Dateline covered the story of Fitzwater who had abused 17 witness children. The Australian news show covered the story of a witness who had abused 40 children in various congregations. Now multiply the 23,720 pedophiles by the average number of victims----I’ll use a low figure how about 12? Equals 284,640 VICTIMS!!! OUR innocent little children. DO YOU UNDERSTAND THAT THERE IS A PROBLEM????????
October 9, 2002

Comment: Dear lady who was raped at 12. I am so sorry, so very sorry not only for the abuse but also for the way you were treated. I unfortunately do understand very clearly what it is like to be treated that way. I know what it feels like to have the rapist in the same hall and hear him comment. I remember the sound like a screech on a chalkboard. I know the desire to run, to think you can not stand to be there another minute. I know the confusion and the terrible hurt and finally the anger. I know the betrayal by the elders—that they would support him and not you the INNOCENT victim. I know. . . Maybe calling that lawyer will help. . . Kimberlee D. Norris attorney at law kdnorris@airmail. net 817. 335. 2800 314 Main St Suite 300
October 9, 2002

Comment: hi all i'm watching. . . alot of good stuff. . . slc;; good idea about the penny pincher i have to go there next week. . . they for years made flyers for my pizza store. . . they know me. . i will ask them. . . funny theres a slow guy there . . . i would always talk to him. . you know give him my order. . well guess what he got sucked up by the wt. . . worked him over on time in the street, with 2 elders. . . wait till i get them to print about the silent lambs. . . think i will play with him at the penny pincher. . in front of all the other workers. . sure he tried to convert them. . . this will be fun. . . slc please e mail me so i say the right thing when i go there. . . love john
October 9, 2002

Comment: Wroug, there are over 6 million witnesses world wide. I. E. 6,000,000 in the world.
October 9, 2002

Comment: What does a truly repentant pedophile look like????? What does a truly repentant pedophile look like that deserves forgiveness???????? Although, we cannot read hearts we can interpret action as to acts of repentance. *any man who calls himself a "christian" and touches a child is in a league all by himself. *any pedophile who calls himself a christian and isn't broken to the heart, cut to the core, and doesn't show acts of repentance equal (as if that were possible)to the disgusting thing he did THEN WHY IN THE WORLD WOULD ANYONE FORGIVE THEM???? 70X7 was about insults NOT CRIMES and certainly NOT CRIMES AGAINST A CHILD in our PROTECTION. There is nothing in God's word that makes a mockery out of forgiveness. And if a pedophile does not show acts of repentant evident to the victim then there is no cause to forgive. A repentant pedophile wouldn't want or need the support of the congregation - he would want that congregation to support and help the victim. That would be an act of repentance worthy of forgiveness. I have not heard one story yet that describes such a situation - have you????? A mind that is so warped that his christian conscience would not prevent him from touching a child in the first place doesn't have a christian conscience at all. And there is nothing else that can save him. All the forgiveness in the world won't save him - only cut to the heart repentance will. And that is up to him.
October 9, 2002

Comment: Linda Thoman I think you are not nice for refusing to let me into your Watchtower Excape. You are shunning me and I don't like that.
October 9, 2002

Comment: JJV, you are an idiot. You talk about some punk who thinks he can bring down the owner of this site. Well, guess what? I can, and I will. Biding my time, for now. The anti-john.
October 9, 2002

Comment: I must say I strongly agree with the very insightful comments posted above about pedophiles. The facts are clear: 1. Pedophiles DO NOT HAVE a conscience, and never will. 2. Pedophiles are utterly selfish to the core, such a person CAN NOT reform, nor can there be any redemption for them. Not even God can save them. 3. A pedophile who has abused even just one child forfeits ALL rights as a human being. But, I think we need to be extremely clear on our definition of a pedophile. Pedophile registers are all well and good, but often include, for example, a man who touched up a 15 year old girl (with consent), hardly in the same league as preying on school age children. As for the real, bona fide, dyed-in-the-wool pedophiles, my preferred course of action would be immediate castration. I'm sure the parents of the victims would feel the same way. Once again, it also comes down to the burden of proof. There must be CLEAR evidence, not just repressed memories. RPT.

October 9, 2002

Comment: To: Subject: Sorry, your membership application was denied for Watchtower Excape, an MSN Group.
Date: Wed, 9 Oct 2002 17:21:08 -0700
We're sorry, the anti-john. Your application for membership in Watchtower Excape was denied by the group's manager. » Could this be a mistake? If you think your application was denied by mistake, you can apply again. When you fill out the application, be sure to type a message explaining why you want to join. The group manager has the right to allow or deny membership. » What else can I do? Search for other groups to join or create a group of your own.

October 9, 2002

Comment: Nice try Anti-John, but no dice. Funny since you decided to try to sign on under another handle too, Aardvark something. LOL Nice try. Trolls are not welcome in my group. Your hateful comments here, inflammatory comments are not welcome on my group. Even if you managed to slip in, the first hateful, inflammatory comment, you'd be banned instantly.

October 9, 2002

Comment: Sorry, your math is flawed. You are suggesting that each molester only attacks ONE child. The sad reality is that each molester attacks multiple children, some have over a hundred victims. This certainly puts a wrench in your stats. CJV Ont, Can

October 9, 2002

Comment: There is an article written by Patience Mason called FALSE MEMORY SYNDROME V. S. THE LYING PERPETRATOR SYNDROME: THE BIG LIE. Go to patiencepress.com and look for Free Download enter and look for Article #4. *This article is information as to the validity of "repressed memories" as a way to block out what cannot be sanely taken in... it is God's way of protecting us from what we cannot emotional process.  I am aware that there are some awful people who do yell "rape" and know for a fact that these women have put innocent men in jail - for a fact I know this. But the majority of the victims are for real. Even if we knocked 1,000 reports off the total 23K it is a problem. How many there are is too many, how the WTS forgives them is wrong, and how the victims have had to fend for them selves is outrageous: GIVEN THIS IS A CHRISTIAN ORGANIZATION USING JEHOVAH'S NAME TO HIDE BEHIND. Please take the time to read Patience Mason's articles and newsletters. She is very articulate and knowledgeable regarding trauma - child rape and molestation is a trauma. A nugget of this information can really be helpful in helping those who are suffering. My guess there are more "unreported" real molestations than reported false ones. Alot of people are silent out of fear and shame and exhaustion. Love C. E.

October 9, 2002

Comment: We're sorry, Anthony C. Aardvark Your application for membership in Watchtower Excape was denied by the group's manager. » Could this be a mistake? If you think your application was denied by mistake, you can apply again. When you fill out the application, be sure to type a message explaining why you want to join. The group manager has the right to allow or deny membership. » What else can I do? Search for other groups to join or create a group of your own.

October 9, 2002

Comment: Anthony C. Aardvark is my friend. Linda Thoman you are very bad person for not letting him in. And when have I ever post inflammatory comment here? I think this is your imagining things. You are shunning me and calling me troll. This is not nice. I do not like you. the anti-john.

October 9, 2002

Comment: And one more thing to think about: a pedophile who causes a victim even more pain by watching them struggle with having to face them at a kingdom hall or in court, watch the victim struggle with their sanity and is not moved to do something to relieve the pain they caused and continue to cause is heartless. The elders and jws who support these "repentant" pedophiles, so there are now 100 people watching the victim suffer are even more heartless and worthless in their walk with Jesus. In fact, they are not walking with Jesus at all in the company they keep while they watch a young person struggle. Wicked, heartless, not knowing the meaning of forgiveness. Flaunting their "inferior" forgiveness for the sickest of the sick, while showing no affection for the afflicted: is the hypocrisy the Jesus hated and is spoken about in the gospel. Amen, C. E. (gseez magee... don't get me started!)

October 9, 2002
Comment: Everybody come to my new group to escape from the evil Bill Bowen. I will post the link later. So far we have 2 members, that is me, and Anthony C. Aardvark. We welcomes everybody and does not shun anyone. the anti-john.
October 9, 2002

Comment: Along with your thoughts Jayson- it is arrogant to think that I can forgive something that was done to someone else. How easy and meaningless to forgive someone that harmed, possibly ruined someone else and didn't do a thing to me. . . or my family. I don't have the right or the power to forgive the person who harmed you. It is a betrayal and disloyal as well as totally without meaning. Spiritually shallow and a mockery of forgiveness that makes people "feel" superior while acting inferior.
October 9, 2002

Comment: Forgiveness is an internal mental act that does not necessarily imply the external act of pardon. Forgiveness puts aside the desire to hurt the person who has hurt us or a loved one. It presupposes the knowledge that we really have been wronged and that such wrongdoing ought to be hated. Forgiveness leaves off hating the person. I could forgive a person and still think that he ought to be punished. That's because punishment is not to get back at the wrongdoer but to restore justice in the community and virtue in the wrongdoer. Thus Pope John Paul II forgave Ali Agca for the attack upon his life but still thought it appropriate that he be punished. We are always free to forgive others, whether we insist on their due punishment or not. Since forgiveness is an act of will, we need only will it to be done. On the otherhand to Pardon is an external act that does not necessarily imply the internal act of forgiveness. Pardon puts aside due punishment for some greater good. It presupposes the knowledge that there has been a wrong done and that ordinarily it ought to be punished. There can be many motives for the pardon genuine love for the offender need not be one of them. We might pardon an offender because our show of mercy would make a good impression on some person or a group of people. (Ask yourself do you see that this person has wronged someone? Do you refuse to insist on a due punishment for the wrongdoer? If so, then you pardon the offender. )- Jayson-Taken from Montague Brown's Book "Philosopher" "forgiveness/pardon.
October 9, 2002

Comment: http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerEscape/mindcontrol.msnw
October 10, 2002

Comment: I am always saddened to read the stories here. I submitted a bit about knowing of molesters in the congregations I had attended. Sadly, I now believe my sons were molested a few years ago by someone in their dad's congregation. I have no real proof and not even a whole name. My kids were being babysat by a JW family, all in good standing when suddenly their behavior changed. They both started wetting the bed, fighting violently with other kids, refusing to bathe etc. My older son even killed a kitten. My older son's teacher also reported that he was showing himself to other kids and touching other kids. So an investigation of sorts was launched. The only clue was that the 3 year old had mentioned that a son in the babysitting family had hurt him. My ex said he looked into it. . . and no one would talk to me. I couldn't even get their names!!! Resources being stretched to their limit DYS did not investigate. . . I hired three therapists in succession and have even consulted a psychiatrist. My older son who has far more likelyhood of remembering and accurately reporting is clammed up tighter than tight. The little one was a late talker with a limited vocabulary. I know my kids were victimized, but I don't seem to have any options. Thanks to anyone who reads this and doesn't just disregard it. ~Witch
October 10, 2002

Comment: Hi Witch: my children were threaten with me being killed first and then them - so of course they didn't tell. I have no advice to give you as to how you get to the bottom of what happened. I only have this probable reason of why they are not telling. I would contact Bill and he can direct you to resources for help. First and foremost is to protect your children and then be a constant comfort to them until they feel safe enough to tell. What a huge job you have ahead of you. And it may not be the JW babysitter - you need to suspect everyone until your children tell you. What does your husband say about the children's bedwetting and inappropriate behavior at school? Is he concerned and realize that something is terribly wrong? Have you been able to engage him in helping the children??? There were signs from my children but 33 years ago no one knew what the signs were. . . so I didn't know either. This is all too sad. First step is to keep them safe and when they are safe they will tell. Why is there a babysitter during his time with the children? Love, C. E.
October 10, 2002

Comment: I'm a JW and I refuse to walk around acting perfect. I am in the sense that I live a moral life - make appropriate decisions as to what is right or wrong but I don't see that for a reason to brag or raise myself up over others. After all Jesus came to find those who are sick and in need of his help. I see no end to my needing his help. I represent only about 0.1% of the total number of JW's in those same countries, whereas the overall stats of child which has 1/6 of the world's population. Hence the stats do basically compare. 27k on a pedophile register would the whole world but to western countries only, as there are no stats on reported cases in other lands such as China
Comment: Actually the stats about 1/4 girls and 1/8 boys being sexually abused before the age of 18 applies not to the whole world but to western countries only, as there are no stats on reported cases in other lands such as China which has 1/6 of the world's population. Hence the stats do basically compare. 27k on a pedophile register would represent only about 0.1% of the total number of JW's in those same countries, whereas the overall stats of child abuse is 25% in the larger community. Simply reporting child abuse to the authorities is not a disfellowshipping offense as it is co-operating with the law with respect to crime. However they cannot publicly name anyone who has been accused of pedophilia (but not convicted) in the congregation because of defamation laws!! So if anything it's the law of the land that prevents them from publicly identifying these creeps. Well you may say - the law is an ass. I agree - so take your protest to the Court buildings, not the WT headquarters. Even with the pedophile problems in the Catholic church, the victims have sued the local diocese where the abuse/coveups have occurred, not the Vatican.

October 10, 2002

Comment: I THINK THIS NEW FORMAT IS GREAT. I hope in the future we can put hits on those abusive people and drunkards who come here not to participate but only downgrade and write bad words to be blocked. We have a need to express ourselves being that we are former or current witnesses to discuss here what we cannot say in the Kingdom Halls. Maybe now we a fresh start to explore ourselves and the religion we chose or was born into such as myself. With several generation surrounding me it is easier said than done to break away from some of the lies we know exist. I hope all of you have enjoyed my last writing and I hope I have encouraged and brought reality to it all. Child abuse, mental abuse and religious abuse is bad but it is worse if we cannot discuss it and find ways to rid it from us and carry on without a heavy grindstone around our necks. Thanks to you all with kind hearts and to those needing an outlet who have been injured by my religion. . . . THE MOLE

October 10, 2002

Comment: To the JW who posted about the lack of confidentiality where it is warranted (doctor/patient), the gossip of untruths and then the silence when it is not warranted is exactly why I have never belonged any group of people and prefer to remain independent. I am so sorry that you are caught in such a "soap opera" - but equally as glad that you are brave enough to come here and you are articulate enough to express how terribly unspiritual these people are. Absolutely essential: be as innocent as a dove but as cautious as a serpent.

October 10, 2002

Comment: Everybody come to my new group to escape from the evil Bill Bowen. I will post the link later. So far we has 2 members, that is me, and Anthony C. Aardvark. We welcomes everybody and does not shun anyone. the anti-john.

October 10, 2002

Comment: The more i read about the wt i'm sure that they are doing the work of satan. . when they kick followers to the curb. . with problems or questions it shows they are only in it for the money. . screw you if your problems interfere with the preaching (SALE OF MAGS) IT'S THE SAME OLD SONG AND DANCE WITH THE WT. ALL your problems will be solved with more fs. . wait on jehovaH AND DO MORE STUDYING. . TRY QUITTING YOUR JOB AND PIONEER- OR JOIN THE BETHEL THAT WILL SOLVE ALL YOUR PROBLEMS. . BULL CRAP THE WT HAS NOTHING BUT THEIR PRINTING HOUSE IN MIND. . . . FREEDOM IN CHRIST TO ALL . . . . JOHN

October 10, 2002

Comment: john you are a retard. If I ever met you I would kick you in the head. Learn to spell and stop using those frigging CAPITALS. the anti-john.

October 10, 2002
Comment: john drinks his own pee. hehehe.
October 10, 2002

Comment: Stats- I am confused. Here is your post "Actually the stats about 1/4 girls and 1/8 boys being sexually abused before the age of 18 applies not to the whole world but to western countries only, as there are no stats on reported cases in other lands such as China which has 1/6 of the world's population. Hence the stats do basically compare. 27k on a pedophile register would represent only about 0. 1% of the total number of JW's in those same countries, whereas the overall stats of child abuse is 25% in the larger community. Simply reporting child abuse to the authorities is not a disfellowshipping offense as it is co-operating with the law with respect to crime. However they cannot publicly name anyone who has been accused of pedophilia (but not convicted) in the congregation because of defamation laws!! So if anything it's the law of the land that prevents them from publicly identifying these creeps. Well you may say - the law is an ass. I agree - so take your protest to the Court buildings, not the WT headquarters. Even with the pedophile problems in the Catholic church, the victims have sued the local diocese where the abuse/coveups have occurred, not the Vatican. "/// I'm not sure what you are saying. But here is my take. Why do you state the 25% of the victims in the general population compared to the 1%+ of Jehovah's Witness victimizers. Don't you think that a pedophile could also add to the general populations victims? Once a victim leaves the Jehovah's Witnesses are they not added to the general population stats? As I see it you are comparing the victimizers numbers to the victims. I don't see the connection. And, I don't know the number of Jehovah's Witness victims. Do you? Linda made a guess. But she did not compound for years and years of abuse that has gone on unchecked. Also if you are not De'fd for going to the police or speaking out then why are people being De'fd? Are you more concerned with CYA than protecting those that God has in-trusted you with? I'm not. If someone like the brave people here are comming forward then we should be there for them, no, with them. If the Church is coveting evil then burn it! Build a new one. And I think that these brave folks are taking it all the way to the court building. Goodspeed to them. ! The Catholic Church also admitted Mea Cupla, Right next to the article in Newsweek where the Jehovah's Witnesses refused to even lift a finger to take responsibility for the actions of the WT. (just my take) Jayson
October 10, 2002

Comment: HI NO ANTI JOHN ; you like my name so much . . . i will start a group or page . and will let you and all your alaises join it will be called www. watch the jw's make jack-asses out of them selves . org then you all can yell at me and worship your god in brooklyn . . john
October 10, 2002

Comment: Everybody come to my new group to excape from the evil Bill Bowen. So far we has 2 members, that is me, and Anthony C. Aardvark. We welcomes everybody and does not shun anyone. If you want to join send email to ronpthomson@usa. com
October 10, 2002

Comment: Hey Anti-John All this time you are spending on the net may be affecting your field service time. You had better get back out on field service and bring in some numbers before one of the elders takes you into that little room in the hall, pulls down your pants and gives you a spanking. AHAHAAAAAAA
October 10, 2002

Comment: john, this is not the place to share your warped little fantasies.
October 10, 2002

Comment: Well, Jehovah's Witnesses like to point out the faults of others. When the time came to look them over, they should have been squeaky clean. They're not. The misrepresentations, outright lies, ANYTHING to minimize the seriousness of their criminal negligence just make them look dirtier in the eyes of reasonable people. If they had handled these problems right in the first place and didn't try to hide them, they would have gained respect for TRULY upholding God's standards. It's my opinion their reputation would not have been sullied. They wouldn't have had anything to hide. They SHOULD be ashamed but they're so deep into their lies they think they're right and don't know they're disgraceful and THEY have disgraced their organization and all their faithful -- especially their living dead, the dejected, hurt and bleeding victims. There's an old saying: People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones.
October 10, 2002

Comment: Poor little anti-john. He was touched and felt on in his private area by a MS. Then his own fatehr french kissed him. Now he plays with himself while sitting in the car during field service while fantasizing about a group-grope witj governing Body. Don't be too hard on him. He can't help himself. He's just a religious sinner doing what what religious sinners do. Just make sure you wear rubber gloves before you shake his jand! Sincerely, the ANTI-
October 10, 2002

Comment: Poor little anti-john. He was a crack baby, so his brain and personality did not develop properly. Don't be too hard on him. Sincerely, The ANTI-anti-john. P. S. Whatever happened to Brocha?

October 10, 2002

Comment: Hey YOU! Are you tired of being shunned just because of your sexual orientation? Visit Bill's new support group at www. silentbumjackers. org. In the online guestbook you can talk to other turd burglars, poo pokers and bum bandits just like yourself! And in the handy shopping section, you can purchase all kinds of products from butt spray to a giant-sized tub of astroglide! But wait, there's more! Play the fun online games, such as "Bill's Glory Hole" and "Stinky Finger"! You'll have so much fun you'll forget that you're a social deviate and everyone hates you. the anti-john.

October 10, 2002

Comment: OH NO!!! This could be anti-john's toughest assignment yet. Can anti-john prevail against the might of the superhuman ANTI-anti-john??? Or will he get his ass kicked all the way to Brooklyn? Stay tuned for more exciting, nail-biting suspense in the next episode of THE JOHN WARS.

October 10, 2002

Comment: More JW's in the News. . . . . Man denies sex attack on girls. . . October 10, 2002 13:38 . . . . . A WOMAN who claimed she was indecently assaulted more than 20 years ago by a senior member of the Jehovah's Witness Congregation in Ipswich has described how he removed her socks and sucked her toes. http://www. eveningstar. co. uk/content/news/NewsStory.asp?Brand=ESTOnline&Category=News&ItemId=IPED10+Oct+2002+08%3A39%3A05%3A853

October 10, 2002

Comment: Dear "waiting to exhale" your story is so true and your warning to all JW's should be heeded. I remember a Watchtower article that commended a sister because she reported some confidential info on another witness that she had seen in her work in a doctor's office. Scary isn't it and some people still believe the elders don't engage in "theocratic warfare". Sorry, folks, but those guys would rather lie to you than look at you.

October 10, 2002

Comment: The worst thing about stupidity is its insistancy. Jayson

October 10, 2002

Comment: Statistics on sex crimes in the US from The Bureau of Justice Statistics (online) "On any given day in 1994 234,000 were convicted of rape or sexual assault. The median age of victims was less than 13" That means that 50% of victims of sexual assault are 13 yo or younger. And that in one year 85,000,000 perps. were convicted. 85,000,000 represents 25% of the population of the US at that time. Check it out for yourselves.

October 11, 2002

Comment: HEARSAY: Mr Bowen claims his sources reveal the JW pedophile register contains 27k names. That's hearsay. Let him come forth with documentation. And correction of a previous post If Bowen's sources are correct , 27k represents 1% of the number of JW's in those countries. (Sorry about the decimal point) See the previous post about the US sex crime stats for 1994. bioharmony

October 11, 2002

Comment: WRITTEN BY silentlambs (Bill Bowen) Oct 9, 2002 19:18 --- While there are many doctrinal points that could be debated, I have from day one endeavored to keep silentlambs focused on one thing, the protection of children. That is why many brothers and sisters from within support silentlambs as an organization that works ultimately for their children. If there were any other motive it would have to be the education and support of abuse survivors. Through silentlambs more abuse JW survivors have been given a voice to the media and public than ever before in history. Personally it is a great source of satisfaction to see that happen. That in a statement is the direction of the silentlambs organization, a direction I strongly support and suggest everyone support. --- I have never demanded people support me or my personal "agendas", whatever that is I do not even know. I do not have a church, I do not want anyone following me for anything. I did that for 43 years. If on the other hand I ask people to come to a court trial to support an abuse survivor, is that following me? If I ask people to come for a candlight vigil and burn candles for over 300 abuse survivors, is that following me? If I ask people to march on Brooklyn, deliver lambs and let WT know abuse survivors exist, is that following me? I just do not see what I am getting out of this deal, it certainly isn't money. --- On the other hand if you were one of those persons who "showed up" and looked into the eyes of those who have been terribly hurt and see them have hope. . . You see them finding strength and taking back the power that was robbed from them. . . You hear laughter from people who haven't laughed in a long time. . . You see kindness and compassion that has been withheld by those they hold dear, expressed by people they do not even know. That is the work of silentlambs, and is not subjecting yourself to the will of Bill Bowen. --- Child abuse is happening as I write this because the GB refuses to change WT policy. Call it "black and white" thinking but I truly believe anyone who comes to a clear understanding of this would certainly throw their support with silentlambs. We do not ask you to change your religion, beliefs, or love Bill Bowen, just support JW abuse survivors and ask for a wicked policy to change. --- I am not going to hurt you down and kill you if you do not, but I have difficulty understanding why anyone with full education of these matters chooses to not support silentlambs. Are you a bad person? Certainly not, but in my opinion you are certainly missing a great opportunity to help those who truly suffer. --- We have fought a night and day battle with the media to get the coverage we have, was it for Bill Bowen's fame and prominence? or was it so more abuse survivors could come forward? I think you know the answer to that question. --- As many have stated, more need to come forward and get involved in the support of silentlambs and I would certainly welcome fading into the background and let more of a collective carry this load. This is a problem involving crime that is happening in the here and now. There are new cases coming in everyday and many involving children, they need help. --- The cause of silentlambs is we support those who need it the most and let them know they are loved. If you want to be a JW, so what? If you hate JW's, so what? We can work together and help abuse survivors make progress on the path to healing and stand up to those who hurt them. . . . (Contributed by SLC, post by BB taken from JWD public forum)

October 11, 2002

Comment: Testing the "NAME" field on the reply/window page. Did my name show up?
October 11, 2002

Comment: LOL! @ Linda Thoman! I love it! Awwww, poor little anti-john. I wouldn't let him near any group of mine either. You're on the ball LT!! Keep up the good work!
October 11, 2002

Comment: Hi C. E. a/k/a "Don't Get Me Started"! LOL! Keep up the great posts! You are right on, as usual. Love/SLC (Is the "name" feature working?)
October 11, 2002

Comment: WELCOME WINDY! Thanks for sharing your story! Also to the other lady who wrote her story but left no name, welcome, and glad things are going better now. Love/SLC
October 11, 2002

Comment: Another round of "Pats on the Back" for the GOOD GUYS-Behind-The-Curtain, in this case, theWEBMASTER(s). They are doing fine things for silentlambs. God bless 'em all! Love/SLC
October 11, 2002

Comment: Dear Witch: This is terrible what is happening in your family and to your kids. I'm not sure what to suggest either. If DYS would not assist you. Did the therapists interview the children? Are they pediatric therapists? Doesn't your ex know the name of the family that did the babysitting? Why will he not tell you who they are? (or did I not read your comment correctly?) Have you called the Sex Crimes Unit of your local police department merely to ask for advice as to what you can do? They might have some ideas. Also, call the local Rape Crisis Center. They might have some suggestions. I agree with CE who said it could be anybody that might have gotten to your boys, and not just the JW babysitting family. I also agree to call the #1-877-WT-ABUSE and see if they can give you some specific ideas beyond what has been printed here. Did you read all of the links on the Assistance/Help pages of this website? There are other organizations for child sex abuse and you may find that one is in your town, and they also might have even further ideas. Hang in there, and like CE said, the kids may not yet be feeling safe, they may have been threatened, etc. Let them know you support them 100% no matter what, they did nothing wrong, and reassure them no harm will come to them/you. Let us know how it goes. /SLC
October 11, 2002

Comment: That is absolutely pathetic that RN/sister who told an ELDER of all people about the CONDITION of the other sister's examination by the OB/GYN. That sister ought to be hung out to dry, and the elder, TOO, for listening and condoning it. HE should have told the RN/sister that she was behaving INAPPROPRIATELY. If I were you, the Patient/sister who went to the OB/GYN, I would SUE THE PANTS OFF that blabber-mouth RN/sister. If you know which elder it was, he could be subpoenaed to testify to the fact that the blabber-mouth RN told him. And even if you don't feel like suing, you most definitely should fill out a complaint on that RN with the State Board for your State that regulates RN's, etc. Call your local city's Medical Society and/or search the net for the correct Regulation Dept. in your State for RN's, etc. Just my 2-cents. The same thing happened to me sort of, but it was a JW/psychologist/Jewish/arse who blabbed to his Jewish/JW/fellow-arses info that was confidential. That was years ago, and a friend of mine told me years later, but she was too chicken to act as the witness who heard the "breaking of the doctor/patient confidentiality" by that creep. /SLC
October 11, 2002

Comment: To slc good to see your reading the Guess book however your comment about me not knowing what i'm talking about is rather childish of course i know what i'm talking about . And if you go back and read what i said "that nobody is disfellowshipped for going to the police. " Is quite correct. However if someone were to slander someone that would be a different matter. Obviously for legal reasons elders have to be careful what they say about disfellowshipped persons because in the past some have turned around and sued for defamation. hope that answers your question regards josh
October 11, 2002

Comment: Total Bummer. I posted about 5-7 or 8 posts tonight and they are not showing up. I have reopened the page several times, refreshed, shut down , started over, and they are not there???? I did not keep copies and just cannot re-do them. Here's hoping they will show up later. In the meantime, HI ALL! /SLC
October 11, 2002

Comment: As one of JWs for 41years, I can say we are not perfect. But just like Jesus the majority of us love children, and all our brothers and sisters, so please do not judge God's Organisation because of the sickos that we sometimes get, because of our love. If you have been molested go to the police first.
October 11, 2002

Comment: Just to correct the previous stats: 23720 on the JW pedophile register ( most not convicted pedophiles) Peak publishers for 2001 in those countries 1,205,637 which means the pedophiles are 2/100. The user posting the Justice Bureau stats got it wrong: 240,000 CONVICTED sex offenders either in prison , on parole etc ( in 1994) -half have abused kids under the age of 13 - which represents . 05% of the US population at that time However those convicted are just the tip of the iceberg, for every 1 convicted there's at least 20 who have not been caught and convicted. That translates to 10% of the population of the US. Hope that clears up the confusion. And we do only have hearsay to support the number of 23720. I understand they keep this register so that if a reported pedophile who may have abused one child in a congregation moves to another and is reported by another child, then they can take action both in the congregation and have evidence for the authorities to prove he is a serial offender.
October 11, 2002

Comment: http://groups. msn. com/WatchtowerExcape/silentlambs. msnw
October 11, 2002

Comment: hearsay or not,if the figure of 23,720 is incorrect, then i'm sure the WTS will take Silentlambs org to court. i dont think i'll hold my breath for that. Rich
October 11, 2002

Comment: SLC - I do put my name in the "Name" space just before he comment box. It doesn't show up in the comments, though. It's too many years since the incident with the nurse. However, when I went to the lab a few weeks ago, there was a young woman standing behind the desk (an employee) and on her part of the desk, there was the pocket size NWT. I asked her what that is doing there. She, somewhat defiantly, said she was a Jehovah's Witness. Her manner made me cautious. She began her inquisition of me to find out where I live and what congregation I was in as though she was evaluating if I was a good JW or not. Then she mentioned a wedding that would be taking place and if I knew them. I didn't (young people don't hang out with old people). She said the bride was related to her and she was marrying a MINISTERIAL SERVANT! Oh, my, what a catch!!! I looked at her gently, smiled kindly and said, "I was married to an MS, too. I hope it works out better for her than it did for me. " She was to challenging and combative, especially for a work place. Considering I am much older, I felt she was out of order trying to challenge my credibility as a JW. I'm sure time and experience tells even you that, no matter how enthusiastic and dedicated a younger person behaves, only TIME will tell if they have what it takes to endure - that's what cleanses by fire. However, I am tempted to report to the medical facility the "commission" most all if not all JW personnel has and that is to report on JWs or those associating if they come through their medical facility - that they will breach patient/doctor confidentiality and squeal on them to elders. This, in itself, is not the method of approaching someone you may think has taken a false step as outlined in Matthew 5:23, 24 (keep going to 25 and 26) and Matthew 18:15. Jehovah God understands our feelings and he expects us, if we don't understand, to respect them and the person that has them. The Bible is one huge book of PSYCHOLOGY. It's all about things a person or people did and the outcome of their action or actions - sometimes very horrible and sometimes very good. We, ourselves, choose what we want to learn from these and what we want to imitate. Since I grew up among JWs, I know for a fact that some, even those taking the lead in the congregation, spy on others trying to catch them at something. Then, instead of having the motive, intent, spirit and working toward a favorable outcome as outlined in Matthew, along with confidentiality, they use it to vilify one or others. We’re dealing with people who are refusing to make their personalities over. They are EXCELLENT in making excuses for their behavior. In my experience, however, NONE dares to use SCRIPTURES to support their behavior. They fall back on their position, their charm, ANYTHING to distract from the REAL ISSUES - their behavior that does not reflect Jehovah God's and Jesus Christ's love and practices, especially in matters of interpersonal relations among their brothers and sisters and the pain we all have at one time or other in our lives. So many things, in my opinion, would not escalate to serious conditions or problems if the right help with love was there when they were minor issues. Some, in the name of the Bible, just harp and browbeat others until they actually do become what they've been accused of. I was dismayed when I saw photographs of some of you smoking at the march. Yet, I know that when one is suffering mental and emotional pain, they are given to doing things they would not ordinarily do. I hope those of you who did a lot of things you wouldn't have ordinarily done (and I believe your "sins" are the result of your abuse and mistreatment and not because you were "like that" in the first place) find your peace and hold yourselves erect and be the person or people I know you are and can be rather than the victim you're forced to play repeatedly because of the lack of nurturing that's caused you to constantly be in defense of yourselves - once you figured out it wasn't, I repeat, it WAS NOT, your fault. Everything the victims have done and been involved in are symptoms of their original abuse. They are not a statement of who they really are as a person.

October 11, 2002

Comment: I'M DELIGHTED TO BE A HOST FOR SILENT LAMBS MARCH ON BROOKLYN PEDOPHILES.
October 11, 2002

Comment: DANNYHASZARD. COM FOR ABOVE HOST SITE FOR BROOKLYN MARCH.
October 11, 2002

Comment: I have NEVER once ever heard a person blaspheme the god the Jehovah's witnesses worship because of what a witness did wrong. I have never heard a person blaspheme Jesus Christ because of what a Christian did. This "let's protect the name of Jehovah" business is so stupid. It's all about "protect the denomination". The true God does not need our puny little efforts to vindicate Him! We are like flies (in the case of the anti-john, a fly on the fecal matter he likes to talk about!) on the back of a whale! Fight on silent lambs! Now, anti-john, get your hands out of your pants and get out to field service! Sincerely, The ANTI-anti-john
October 11, 2002

Comment: It is reported that the parents of anti-john were closely related relatives before they were married. When asked about this, the local Kingdom Hall MS stated that he often wondered why so many of anti-john's sibling had three eyes and twelve fingers. Sincerely, The ANTI-anti-john
October 11, 2002

Comment: Regarding this statement: . . . I understand they keep this register so that if a reported pedophile who may have abused one child in a congregation moves to another and is reported by another child, then they can take action both in the congregation and have evidence for the authorities to prove he is a serial offender. . . . That sounds reasonable and sensible and if it was in fact what Watchtower actually practiced they wouldn't be in as much hot water. In the past the society has required TWO witnesses for EACH act of molestation. Don't believe it? Read the Abused Lambs stories here, Watch Alison Cousins on Panorama (Father had previously confessed to abusing her older sister) On DATELINE the society had records of Fitzwater abusing 17 kids, in Australia a boy named Simon reported an abuser and that abuser had previously been reported but he continued to abuse 40 others. NO, the society doesn't keep these records to PROTECT the children!! In our hall a convicted molester was treated as innocent because he had only one victim. He confessed to the court, the results of a rape test proved him guilty, etc, etc, but the Society viewed him as still innocent. Is his name on the list? Probably, but so what?
October 11, 2002

Comment: If you want to discuss Department of Justice's Child Abuse statistics. . . . here is the most current brochure. . . . Bureau of Justice Statistics . . . Sexual Assault of Young Children as Reported to Law Enforcement:
October 11, 2002

Comment: Dear Ron P, or Anti John, or whoever else your calling yourself this week. You make up pretty far out stories for your fake newspaper articles. But can you compete with the TRUTH? Check out this REAL story about a REAL court case in England. More JW's in the News. . . Man denies sex attack on girls. . . October 10, 2002 13:38 . . . A WOMAN who claimed she was indecently assaulted more than 20 years ago by a senior member of the Jehovah's Witness Congregation in Ipswich has described how he removed her socks and sucked her toes. http://www.eveningstar.co.uk/content/news/NewsStory.asp?Brand=ESTOnline&Category=News&Itemlid=IPED10+Oct+2002+08%3A39%3A05%3A853
October 11, 2002

Comment: There should not even be ONE VICTIM. If there's ONE victim, there should NOT BE MORE victims. We don't NEED TO KNOW if someone is a SERIAL child molester. He or she needs to be STOPPED WITH THE ONE victim!
October 11, 2002

Comment: SLC-Jehovah does NOT NEED humans to vindicate him but he DOES USE humans in this manner because the original issue was made BY humans under the influence of the serpent's allegations against him. That's why Jesus had to be born a human, to prove a perfect human COULD stay faithful to Jehovah and make the LIKE sacrifice (Adam=Jesus) and be there continually without interruption to make a case in our behalf before Jehovah God. Humans answer Satan's accusation he made clear in Job's case -- that we only serve Jehovah for what we can get from him. Therefore, it IS each human's responsibility to know Jehovah and to make a decision as to who they will serve and for what reasons. By choosing Jehovah God and staying faithful to him, we prove Satan the Devil a liar - there ARE people who will serve Jehovah, no matter what, in whatever circumstances they find themselves in, just as Job did as an imperfect man. Our decision-making won't be over once we're perfect humans. THEN, we get a chance to prove if we would REALLY be better than Adam and Eve or if we'll follow the same course they did.
October 11, 2002

Comment: i see i have struck a raw nerve here with some of the jw defenders. . well thats to bad my posts are based on facts not wt jargon. . call me names -use my name anyway you like. . . not one jw has ever answered one of my direct questions here. . it proves my point the wt is full of crap. . everything from false prophecies to child molesting. . the wt is not from the real god. . . love to all the lambs. . and screw all the surporters of the god in brooklyn. . the watchtower. . . may all jw's find freedom in christ . john
October 11, 2002

Comment: Well, we certainly know that protecting, hiding or denying that there is an atrocity committed against a child, does not vindicate Jehovah's name, purpose or God's Kingdom or in any way imitates Jesus. The pharasees had twisted the law so much that when Jesus did his sermon on the mount the crowds gathered to hear this extraordinary man who spoke with authority. Praise God for Jesus.
October 11, 2002

Comment: John, sorry that you have been selected as the namesake of the single thorn in our side. I really thing that he believes that without his posts the WT will be abandoned.
October 11, 2002

Comment: its so boring without RJ. i've got nobody to laugh at. RICH
October 11, 2002

Comment: John, John, John, you were doing so WELL, too. Anyway, one doesn't have to be a JW to know what the BIBLE says. You aren't against JWs, you're against the BIBLE. Either THAT or you don't know what the Bible says. You were doing sooo well, too.
October 11, 2002

Comment: To the person who feels a pedophile should be reported if he has only one victim. The Oct 8 1993 Awake! states very clearly that when a person reports a buse an adult must take decisive action even if it means the offender may go to jail! And even if the offender is one's own mate. So the onus is on the parents or whoever the child reports the abuse to to ACT and go to the authorities. The register is kept to protect children from suspected pedophiles. Do Scout groups, schools etc keep such a register? Do they go that far to protect their young members? The only problem is that defamation laws do not allow the elders to announce publicly a pedophile’s name, unless he/she has already been convicted in which case the perp’s name is already a matter of public record. I was molested by a swimming instructor who was a member of a surf life saving club. I never reported, mainly because it became a repressed memory. And to this day I don’t know that creep’s name. He was supposed to be teaching me to swim, but he had his own agenda, and I almost drowned trying to get away from him. He was not a JW. bioharmony

October 11, 2002

Comment: Bioharmony - apparently you haven’t read many of the posts here or you wouldn’t have ASS-U-ME-D that I didn’t know there were perverts in the congregations that have most certainly molested more than one child -- if not in their current then a combination of congregations. Also, clearly, reporting to the authorities has been discouraged and threats have been made about going public with these matters, including within the congregation. Other people are “gossiped” about in the congregation without sanction, so why shouldn’t people “gossip” about the child molesters? My point is that there SHOULD BE ZERO TOLERANCE for child molestation within the congregation and supported by the headquarters. It isn’t that way in reality. I’m sorry you were molested as a child and, that fact that it wasn’t a JW, makes it clear that this is a prevalent problem everywhere. It should NOT be a prevalent problem within the organization. As far as defamation, there are SO MANY OF US THAT HAVE A DEFINITE CASE FOR THAT AMONG JWs but that is not the issue. MEAGAN'S LAW IS LAW IN ALL 50 STATES. THAT LAW SAYS THAT YOU MOST CERTAINLY CAN NAME SUCH PEOPLE. THERE'S NO DEFAMATION LAW IN RELATION TO EXPOSING PERVERTS! NO MORE EXCUSES. NO MORE COVER UPS. NO MORE WRINGING OF THE HANDS SAYING I CAN'T DO ANYTHING, I CAN'T DO ANYTHING. IN THIS MATTER OF CHILD MOLESTATION, THERE SHOULDN'T BE ANY DELAYS. - Janice.

October 11, 2002

Comment: Does the 23,720 number include people ACCUSED or Confessed or CONVICTED molesters? One poster said the list was of accused molesters but according the JR Brown this is not so. . . . . . From Silent Lambs web site I obtain the following quotes from letters to Bodies of Elders and Statements made by JR Brown, Public Affairs Office and Mario Mareno, Legal Affairs Department. (bold and caps added for emphasis) Those who have confessed to child molestation, or who have been found guilty of child molestation by the congregation on the basis of two or more CREDIBLE witnesses, should appear on the Child Protection List . . . . . . There are, however, many other situations that are connected with the abuse of a child. For example, there may be just one eyewitness, and the brother denies the allegation. . . . . . (Many quotes, more info) http://www. jehovahs-witness. com/forum/thread.aspx?id=24050&site=3

October 11, 2002

Comment: I'd like to tell you a little story about a father and a son. You see they were entering a village both riding on this donkey. And the people seen them and said look at those 2 guys riding that donkey wouldn't that be a huge strain on the animal? So the son got off the donkey and let his father ride Then the people said look at that father making his son walk like that so the father got of the donkey at let his son ride. Then the people said look at that son making his father walk like that. So they now both decide to walk and the people say look at those silly guys why don't they ride the donkey they've got. The moral of the story is no matter what you do in life you can never please everybody. Regards Josh.

October 11, 2002

Comment: On the subject of reporting a wrong doing in relation to witnesses. When they say 2 or more witness to an incident it doen't mean there has to be 2 together at the same time. It just means at least 2 people must have seen or reported a similar incident. For Example i see a brother drinking an excessive amount of alcohol or in other words he's drunk. Then i reported it to the elders. so its only me thats seen it so far ok. So the elders would make a note of that . Now another Brother see's the same brother on another occasion an he's seen that this brother is drinking too and is abit intoxicated, so he also reports this to the elders. which they note as well so now what we have is 2 credible witnesses to an incident and the elders could approach the guilty person and take action on the basis of 2 reports. However they could still approach the person on the basis of one report too however if he or she denied it then they would have no ground to take any further action. Regards Josh

October 11, 2002

Comment: to noname; you are trying to say that the jw's follow the bible. . . and i don't know my bible. . . . i left a short list a while back on what the inspired word of god says about false prophets. . . go find it. then comment. . . and show me were the wt prints that they shouldn't be judged by the inspired word of god the bible. . . you are a follower of men not god. gods light never changes. . . ie wt teachings . . . so what happened now when a child is abused he needs one or no witnesses. . . are you up on the latest from the wt. . . is that new light from jehovah or from pressure in the media and courts??? maybe slc will post that one from jr brown. . here's one for all . . . would jesus approve of the wt sending lawyers to court to protect JW's that are child molesters??? well that what the wt has done in many cases do your homework. . . now tell me that is bible based. . . god is directing the wt to do these demonic things. . .

October 11, 2002

Comment: Bioharmony could you please give me the RCW that you are refering to? Your fear of being sued reminds me of someone saying "Yeah I would have dialed 911 but I could not remember the number." And Josh, What is your point? What does that have to do with sending a little girl back into the arms of the man that is raping her? Why then are the cases that are going on all over the world with people who have never met each other telling the same horrible truth again and again? Is it a big conspiracy? Yes, and it goes all the way back to N. Y. -Jayson

October 11, 2002

Comment: thats right you can never please everybody. . . and in over 120 years the wt has never pleased god jesus, the holy spirit the angels . but they have pleased themselves plenty, with the name of god to mislead and lie to followers for their own greed. . .

October 11, 2002

Comment: josh you are spritually intoxicated. . and you know what the bible says about that. . we have many witnesses here to your twisting of the bible. . so it has been brought the the attention to the only elder that counts JESUS. SO NOW YOU WILL HAVE TO ANSWER TO HIM. AS NO MAN IS MY SEPERIOR. . READ YOUR GOSPEL. . .JOHN

October 11, 2002

Comment: i thought the whole purpose of this site was to help victims of child abuse. What we need to focus on here is on the perpetrator's of these crimes. Note i did say crimes. If what these people have done to children is true and can be proven in a court of law that they are guilty then by all means let them be tried and sentenced to the appropriate time in prison. Jehovah's organization does not harbour criminals as some seem to make out, no more does it condone any wrong doing if it did then why are there around 50 000 disfellowshipped every year. Another thing that needs to be re-emphasised is that if these people do these things and then sincerely repent after having served there time then we are are obligated to forgive. True i agree that these crimes are despicable however Jesus' did say to forgive and he did not put conditions upon that principle. However such a person if reinstated into a congregation would be watched very carefully. I see alot of people here after viewing some things about incidents have said "we as Jehovah's witness's are not to be trusted" So tell me that if there are say corrupt police that we can longer trust all police. If Hitler and his henchmen were resposible for exterminating millions of Jew's does it mean that we must hate all Germans? The answer to that would obviously be no so the same principle apply's to all things in life yeah hate or disipize the person but don't blame the entire race or organisation.

Regards Josh

October 11, 2002

Comment: Josh - There are conditions to forgiving. Read your magazines. I don't trust cops. I don't trust Germans, either. I know Germans who don't trust Germans. Jehovah God tells us to not put our trust in earling man. He tells us to trust him. The emphasis has been on having 2 eye witnesses of the SAME allegation of child molestation. With child molestation, there will not be EVEN ONE witness. If there are, then they are a party to the child molestation because no one can just watch and do nothing about the molestation. If that's what they're doing, then they're a party to the child molestation. Do you think they'd tell on themselves? If your faith is being undermined by coming here then you shouldn't associate here. You're trying to dispute something that is very well documented. Things need to be changed at headquarters and it's as simple as that!

October 11, 2002

Comment: Sorry for not signing my name. I put it in the "Name" box before I make my comments and keep forgetting to sign my name at the end of the comments because I guess I'm conditioned to thinking it's going to appear in the post but it doesn't. I'll try to remember.

October 11, 2002
Comment: John, I said: John, John, John, you were doing so WELL, too. Anyway, one doesn't have to be a JW to know what the BIBLE says. You aren't against JWs, you're against the BIBLE. Either THAT or you don't know what the Bible says. You were doing sooo well, too. I did NOT say that I'm a JW nor did I say that only JWs know the Bible. Get your hot head in some cold water and read what is actually there before you go flying off your handle.
October 11, 2002

Comment: Excuse my ignorance Jason, but what's RCW stand for? All keep in mind that the parents, usually the first to know of child abuse are the ones who are instructed to go to the police/welfare agencies in the Oct 8 1993 Awake! Any elders who tried to stop them outright are very much in the wrong as in the US and many countries child abuse is a reportable offense. Sadly many dont go to the police just as many adult rape victims dont go to the police -they know they will get drawn and quartered in Court - they know that the expericnc of a trial is like being raped all over again. What concerns me with this whole silent lambs scene is that it making the victims relive their trauma over and over again. There's no closure for them until they can put it behind them. Marching on Bethel, going to the media only multiplies the stress and trauma. Why let the abusers destroy you? Try to put it behind you and get on with your lives. By all means take legal action against any individual elders who have engaged in cover ups. But not the organisation who have given us the advice found in that Awake! and subsequent letters to congregation elders. bioharmony (Cert. IV Psychology)
October 11, 2002

Comment: show me were i flew off the handle????i think not. . . that is fallcies in arguementation 5-22-90 pg. 13-4 you can't lie to me . . . . i know enough about the bible to know the wt is a false christ. . . the holy sprit showed me. . . . holy sprit can show the truth to all . . without a org or church . . read a real bible. . . john
October 11, 2002

Comment: p. s. noname i'm doing fine jesus is my only teacher. . . not some man made group. . that says they speak for jesus. . john. .
October 11, 2002

Comment: Meagan's law must contradict defamation laws then. Even the media reports on BBC Panorama and nine. msn Sunday have only named CONVICTED pedophiles. Publicly naming someone for any crime who has not been convicted is defamation. In some States it is defamation only if the claims are true, in other states a person's reputation only has to be smeared - true or false, and it's defamation. A case involving a sports coach here was kicked out of Court and now the coach is considering suing for defamation and consideration is being given to ammend the Law so that ANY criminal can only be publicly identified after, not before he/she has been convicted.
October 11, 2002

Comment: hey josh ; what are you trying to do here either you are misinformed of you are joshing us. . i will let the girls here tear you apart. . you are a waist of my time. . john
October 11, 2002

Comment: Well good to see people reading the comments. i'll re - empathise this one more time a witness to an incident can also be the victim now does that satisfy every one . so in other words young Johny is abused by someone in the cong and reports it to the elders Then young billy is abused and reports it to the elders both by the same person so now we have 2 witnesses and the elders can take affirmative action. Just wished people understood good english. Like i said before you can't please everyone in this world. I guarantee if the witnesses did do everything 100 % right you guys would still find something to complain about. And as regards to Bill our Host of this site it is good to remember that he set up this site to help victums he certainly did not put it here to run down Jehovah's Witnesses whom 99. 3% are ok or Jehovah God who is 100% ok and i'm sure Bill would confirm that if he reads this. Regards Josh
October 11, 2002

Comment: First it is Jayson with a "y" but there is no need to feel that you are ignorarant. I abbreviated. Sorry. Written Code of Washington, (or whatever state you are in. ) But I want to say that I agree with much of your last post. Elders who get in the way of the police about a crime are wrong. I agree with that and you. We can hang the hat there if you want. I have had experince with Elders who basically believe that they can do anything that the damn well please. I know that not every Elder is like that but really at one time when I tried so hard to get along with my JW family some of them admitted that I have seen nothing but the worst that the JW's have to offer. Here I try to refrain and keep on target. I don't want to get off track I want supporters not more hate. There is enough of that already. I also agree that anyone who rapes is wholly responsible for their actions. I don't think that becoming a JW suddenly makes you a rapist any more that holding a gun makes you want to rob a bank. They have little, or nothing to do with one another.
But, like a robber wants a gun child rapists want access to children. And, Jehovah Witnesses fear/detest anything that makes the Organization look less than perfect. Or, at least (they are) better than anyone else. And, if you are a survivor of this issue and this causes you pain then you have my sympathy. But, it seems that others like those who marched want justice. Even you say that is they right to seek it. And I like many of them feel and believe that the Organization does in fact bear much responsibility for all of this because of thier action.

October 11, 2002

Comment: Jason. the WT Society is 100% wrong in everything. There is no good tree that grows on rotten roots. The WT is based on the principle of denying Jesus Christ as the God. It is a part of the Free Masonry. John is a good man. His thinking correct. His delivery not important. You are a JWD and evil for as long as you stay that way. Your friends here also. It is the whole org. of Jehovah that is stinking from Brooklyn to the ends of the earth and must be sued and sued and sued and sued by all that they hurt. Not only the young ones, the Silentlambi but ALL. May God repay them most 10 x more than what they did to others. Sue the bastards whoever you are for big money. Expose them far and wide in all available media and from mouth to mouth for protection of others. mk

October 11, 2002

Comment: Josh-Disfellowshipping, and defaming words like "apostate" belittles God and the need for religion. It is sick and dirty and very unholy. It is anything but clean. With the disfellowshipped do you feel good? Do you feel love? Or, do you feel anger. Pain, guilt, frustration, what do you feel? Anything? Think of the one woman you love most in this world. Your mother, your sister, your wife. Or worse, your child. Imagine a full-grown man getting her to follow him into a corner of a house or even in a Kingdom hall hidden from sight. What would you feel if you knew that this man was rubbing her genitals and even penetrating her? What do you feel? Now imagine that not only does no one believ her but no one care. This man looks her in the eye and says it did not happen. Then the elders say well, that is the end of it. Do you care? How can you not? How is this different from the policy on rape? You must scream or you want it? How about the issues of Elders in the bedroom or the Governing Body deciding who will live and who will die for the faith and money of the Watchtower's Society. Forgiving has to do with not hating. Not holding a grudge. It does not mean to ignore a clear and present danger to society. Would this pedifile ever be sent out to my house? Would I be warned? Why or Why not? As a body Jehovah Witnesses you should not be believed because you lie. You have had reality completely distorted. I know that so many don't believe me. Other's who do will stay silent. But it is true. That corrupt officer of the law would be stripped of his position and sent to jail if he used his authority to take advantage of a young girl. He would never be a police officer again. Nor any position of power over people. If a teacher raped your child in school would you want two witnesses? Would you just L. I. T. J. Did anyone ever hear of the "evils" of the Catholic's about this issue? Which is the bigger sin, that it happened or that they are now being forced to take responsibility for it? Anyway in both cases court would be open to the public there would be a record. There is the "Freedom of Information Act. " Secular Law is not hidden behind closed doors. Be careful about speaking of the Jehovah Witnesses and the Nazi's. That one belongs on JWD. But, not every German was a Nazi. And, the people elected Hitler. The people supported him. They surrendered power to a very evil man and governing body during that part of German history. -Jayson (SLC should I just shut up now? I feel like I am singing to that bag of jellybeans)

October 11, 2002

Comment: mk I'm gonna pretend I did not read that. And it's JaYson with a Y :? I have been thinking about you I hope that you are ok. "To hate a dumb thing is blasphmy captian. "-Moby Dick

October 11, 2002

Comment: What does (cert IV pshycology) mean?????

October 11, 2002

Comment: no jw's are not OK!!! they are preaching a false gospel . they will lie all day to protect their god in brooklyn. josh so you are saying that it's ok that your jehovah is happy with keeping a child molester in good standing in your gods org. if two or three little girls don't come foward. while that one girl is getting raped for years. . . i would love to be behind you at judgement day and here you tell that to jesus. . . lol i'll be a monkeys uncle if the wt teachings are pleasing to the real god. . if that s the case i don't want to live in your paradise???john

October 11, 2002

Comment: Josh: after reading the devastation that this causes, is it really okay with you that more than one child should be molested by the same guy in order to be right in doing something about it????My personal experience with the JW's over a period of 18 years is that only 3% are spiritual and the rest are superficial, shallow, gossips, make poor decesions, hateful, judgemental and have no idea of what a true Christian is or what an act befitting repentance looks like. And they scared the heck out of me! WTS may not be equal to a Nazi but they are equal to a pharasee by being legalistic, cruel, and caring more about the "letter of the law" rather than the intent. . . Jesus hated them. I don’t like pharasees or nazis - doesn’t matter what religion or what nationality. Something is wrong with you to think it is okay for two children to be molested by the same person before something can be done. . . Jesus does not think that way and neither does God. Bill was DFd without any witnesses-WTS is hypocritical and does not even follow it's own policy for dfing unless it benefits them. Bill is not the only person dfd without witnesses.

BIOHARMONY - ONE OF THE BEST WAYS TO RELIEVE STRESS IS TO WALK AND MARCHING IN NY QUALIFIES AS RELIEVING STRESS - NOT RE-LIVING TRAUMA. THESE FOLKS WERE FACING THEIR OPPRESSOR IN A VERY PUBLIC WAY, WITH THE SUPPORT THEY NEVER GOT FROM THE JWS. STANDING UP FEARLESSLY, SPEAKING UP AND OUT. WHAT COULD BE MORE HEALING THAN THAT????? And those who were not able to do this will find their "voice" and will heal in a way that is meaningful to them, in their own time - at their own pace. And the truth is one never "gets over this" and that is what makes it the most horrendous of crimes. Silentlambs is about not being silent anymore by writing their stories, posting when they want and practicing defending themselves. Here they are believed for the first time. . . here they find they are not alone for the first time. And here they can relive it as many times as it takes and no one will judge them that it takes too long. . . because it takes as long as it takes. That is the comfort for the silentlambs that they never got. Love, soapbox

October 11, 2002

Comment: Moby Dick. I made my self clear. I pray for speedy destruction of the WT Society and all false religion every day period. The JW is formost in blaspheming because it carries the name of my heavenly Father. Now prove that this is not true. Amen rmk

October 11, 2002

Comment: BIO: Am I to be grateful for listening to WTS tell me it is wrong to fly the American Flag while they join the UN as an NGO? Am I to be grateful to an organization that allows my brothers and sisters in Malawi to be murdered, raped and torn from their homes because the org would not allow them to sign a government card. . . while at the very say time they let the mexicans bribe their government to stay out of the service to the government ???? WTS is a dangerous organization. They supported Hilter, and were prejudice against the Jews. *I fly my American Flag in protest to these actions that do not befit a Christian in any sense of the word. I am not grateful to anyone that lies, deceives, manipulates me or others. . . . "even if."

October 11, 2002

Comment: I really do understand your anger because I understand your pain. rmk to hate them is dumb. They cloud your mind. They bastardize the name placed in the bible by a 13th century monk. Even the Jw's admit that. So God can take care of itself. Its you that I worry about I know you hurt. me to, I still love my jw family I always will I can not change that. But, i now accept that it does not matter. They only have love for that bif golden calf in brooklin. maybe if the second comming had come sooner on thier terms they would not be so angry. but they no longer will contol me not even will i hate them. i will not give the bastards the satisfaction. (still confused over how i am a jwd) last i need prove nothing the jws history speaks for itself.

October 11, 2002

Comment: Josh: I am curious as to how long you have been part of the Society. New enough to to have the enthusiasm, old enough to have all the indoctrination - deep and hard. I hope everybody read your recent post quite closely - you may find it interesting to back and take a look yourself. You may be surprised to see yourself capable of retelling such policies with such conviction. In your mind, it makes sense that "young Johny is abused" and yet nothing can be done until "Then young billy is abused". By your organization's inaction when they had a chance to help "young Johny", they personally doomed "billy" to the same fate. Could have helped, but didn't! Imagine a judgement day when those clowns are asked why they didn't protect Billy. What kind of anser will they have? I assure you, Christ's true followers would have helped Johny, and even moreso, Billy. Can you even see that point? Only a severe case of overindoctrination would stop you from seeing that point. You need to know something else too: Your religion's separatist attitudes are part of the core of the problem. If the WTBTS weren't so scared of participating in the world, it may have even occured to a board of elders, when "Johny" came to them, that they could even see if this perpetrator had molested children elsewhere, maybe even worldly kids. This is not about a few bad apples. It is about an organizational structure and culture that perpetuates the problem. - Buster

October 11, 2002

Comment: Donkeys and people pleasing. The story of the Bible is to please God!!!! Dear Josh you try so hard to reason and miss it by a long shot. If you walk in the steps of Jesus, imitate Jesus you please God. And then it doesn't matter what people you displease. Jesus is the way, the life and the truth no matter what anyone says. . . not even what the WTS says. Not what you say or I say but only what Jesus says.

October 11, 2002
Comment: The Order of Special Full-Time Servants --- When I read my 1995 Yearbook for the first time, I spotted something I had never seen in any literature before. This is the paragraph that made me stop and wonder: --- SLC did not write that, but am submitting it for the SL Guestbook readership. For details of this interesting bit o’ info, please go to the Channel C public board here: MESSAGE = http://www. channelc. org/cgi-bin/eboard30/index.
cgi?board=Main&message=3824 -------- Hi all! Later/SLC
October 11, 2002

Comment: ANOTHER NEWSPAPER CARRIED the "AP" article back on 9-27-02 --- FYI/SLC ----- My Mom mailed me the article she cut out from The Florida Times-Union (Jacksonville, FL) which was printed on 9-27-02. It was the same AP article by reporter Bobby Ross, Jr: re: Barbara and Joe Anderson. The big bold title is: "Silentlambs' speaks. Below that is a big picture of Joe Anderson with the photos of their grandson. Then there is another bold headline which says: "Group protests child abuse in Jehovah's Witnesses." Then the article begins, and centered in the text is another picture of Barb & Joe standing with all their research files. --- When I received this article in the mail on 10-9-02, I researched the current and archived files at the Florida Times-Union website, but this article is not in their current or past archives, so it must have only appeared in their newspaper edition.
October 11, 2002

Comment: I do not hate JW's. I hate false religion I hate the legal instrument the WT Society for what it stands for. This organization was set up by individual criminals like Russell Rutherford Franz and others they and they must be brought to justice. Since they are no brothers the court is the only place that remains. This is being done now on dayli basis now and that is good. but not good enough. We must join the Global SUITE as a Class to strip the Borg of everything they have because all they have was taken from US! Who said that this is narrow minded? Should I put it in a poem form for some of you? I could you know? . mk
October 11, 2002

Comment: PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT for Silentlambs -- SUGGESTIONS ----- Hi Gang. One of our regular posters here wrote and asked me for some suggestions on submitting PSA's to their local Pennysaver and/or Penny Pincher newspapers. So I wrote out the below. Yes, it's a little long, so please bear with me. I am merely submitting it here in case anyone else may benefit from it. Just my thoughts/suggestions, FYI. . . Love ya/SLC -------- ----- Call the Advertising Dept. at the Penny Pincher/Pennysaver and: (1) Ask for someone who specifically deals with the PSA's. (2) Ask if they have to be submitted in typing or via US Mail and/or in person? & by when? (3) Ask if they can be submitted via email, and does your local PP have a website? (4) Ask if your local Penny Pincher has branches in other cities round about? (5) Ask if you can have it published in ALL of those cities, too, or do you need to submit a separate PSA to each branch? ----- (Example, in Florida there is a statewide network of Pennysavers. So I am going to ask if my PSA can be published in ALL of those, and/or do I have to submit it to EACH individual Pennysaver in EACH of the Florida cities, etc. ) ----- Also, PSA's are usually published for support groups or events, who are having an upcoming function on a certain date. As an example: "The Parkinson's Support group meets every Wed. at 3 pm at the Local Community Center on Main Street, USA. This week (date), the speaker will be Dr. John Doe concerning the latest drugs for Parkinson's. Refreshments will be served. For more information please call Jane Smith #000-0000. " ----- In other words, they are more likely to print those PSA's that have a "dated" function coming up, and the other PSA's get "booted" depending on space. (PSA's are actually used as "FILLERS" around their "PAID" classified ads, know what I mean?) ----- And since Silentlambs is an ongoing kind of thing, via the web mostly, and/or calls to Bill & Sheila, who direct them further, etc. , and not any specific Weekly or Monthly meeting being held anywhere (yet!), I'm not sure if we can convince these Penny Pinchers to publish our PSAs on a regular weekly basis. But we can still try! If they hate pedophiles and/or do not like JWs, maybe they will try HARDER to "fit it in" every week! Who knows!! ----- Anyway, here's a "rough draft" example of what you might could write, depending on how much they will allow (a paragraph or two???) You may have to shorten it! If needed, ask the lady at the Penny Pincher who is in charge of the PSA's to help you shorten it. -------------- PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT -------------- Are you a "SILENT LAMB" or a "BATTERED" LAMB? YOU ARE NOT ALONE! A silent/battered lamb is an individual who is a victim of sexual or domestic abuse by a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses/Watchtower, and who feels they are alone and/or feel they are not able to talk about it. --- For direction, assistance, comfort, validation, please visit our website: and/or call #1-877-WT-ABUSE (#1-877-982-2873). Join our Email List by writing: Editor@silentlambs. org. If you want/need help, write to: Help@silentlambs. org. To "pinpoint a pedophile" write to: Pedophile@silentlambs. org, or fill out the anonymous form at our website. To present material to establish hard evidence of Watchtower abuse, please call or write to: Info@silentlambs. org. US Mail, write to: Silentlambs, PO Box 311, Calvert City, KY 42029. For local contact, please call (your name) at (your phone number). --- Silentlambs, Inc. is a 501. C. 3. non-profit charitable corporation. All donations to support our work are tax-deductible, and are used exclusively for the benefit of victim assistance and for public education regarding the misguided sex abuse policy of the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society. --------- END OF PSA --------------- If you put your own name and phone # in your PSA, make sure you have Bill & Sheila's numbers handy so you can direct anyone who calls you to Bill/Sheila if they need/want it. ------------------ Bill/Sheila's numbers are: --- Silentlambs, P. O. Box condemned forever? Even if they have changed in their ways. Even if they have learnt a lesson. What do you all everyone is this ok the criminal does his time so what happens to him/her when they leave jail? Are they to be committed then the guilty person should be dealt with according to their crime. The question I would like to pose to the golden rule to forgive and we must forgive. He also taught us to pay caesars things to caesar so yes if a crime is destroyed but desires all to attain to repentence. Notice he desires all to attain to repentence. Jesus taught the

what he will reap Sin offends God Our creator is loving and merciful though. (2pet3:9) He does not desire any to be clean up, to get their lives in good moral order. (Rom12:9) Abhor what is wicked. Whatever a man is sowing this is Because God does not allow perfection to be a constant excuse for bad conduct. (Jude4) Jehovah wants humans to foster care due to her instability which was CAUSED BY THE LACK OF SUPPORT of the congregation she belonged to and the terrible circumstances of what happened to her children. This story is a "repeat" of what happens in congregations all around the world. What first hand experience do you have in these matters other than reading what the WTS would like you to believe???? Why don't you believe the stories told in Abused Lambs???? Why is the WTS more valid to you, then the stories told here???? I know why but do you?

October 11, 2002

Comment: JOSH: FOR A FACT 3 CHILDREN WERE MOLESTED BY THEIR FATHER SEPARATELY... and the elders told the mother that was not 3 witnesses... this was in California. The mother divorced the father and he stayed in good standing and began dating a sister with a child. The mother whose children were molested lost them to foster care due to her instability which was CAUSED BY THE LACK OF SUPPORT of the congregation she belonged to and the terrible circumstances of what happened to her children. This story is a "repeat" of what happens in congregations all around the world. What first hand experience do you have in these matters other than reading what the WTS would like you to believe???? Why don't you believe the stories told in Abused Lambs???? Why is the WTS more valid to you, then the stories told here???? I know why but do you?

October 11, 2002

Comment: My pastor, who is a loving shepherd to our local assembly, developed a list of professional standards for all who are employed by our church. Among them are the fact that sexual harassment will not be tolerated, and that ANY report of child abuse will immediately be reported to the GOVERNMENTAL authorities, no if, ands, or buts. The employee will be suspended until the outcome of the criminal proceedings. If they are a lay member, they are reported as well, and if the individual is found guilty by a court, the conference votes on whether to expel the member or not. ALL employees who deal with youth in events other than Sunday School are given background checks by the denomination. No adult is EVER allowed to be in a room or area of the church alone with any child that is not theirs.
EVER. The pastor rarely counsels women without his wife (one of the sweetest women we know) being present.
When he counsels them alone, his door is left open and his secretary is at her desk right outside the door. This protects him as well. I have yet to meet a Christian that though these policies were too severe. In fact, most of the parents feel that their children are in a safe environment, with no real worries about child molestation from other members. To me this shows love for us and our children. I think the WT policy is very short-sighted. ANY member of a JW congregation who hears that a child has suffered abuse should immediately call the child protective services or the police. TO NOT do so is unethical. I believe my church's standards are definitely much higher than the WT.
Lawrence
October 11, 2002

Comment: well well what have we here now a josh bashing session. You try and speak some common sense and nobody seems to understand. I certainly am not stating WTS policy no one has to me what to say. Common sense tells you that. If what that person said is true I'm sorry I don't know your name then that body of elders has a very very big problem yes I'll repeat it that body of elders has a very very big problem. ok if it is true of course. And the Governing body would have to look into that and sort the matter out very quickly. When I said that you need 2 or more witnesses that was to actually take appropriate action however even if only one witness came forward the elders could still approach such a person and action could be taken also although in this case the guilty party would have to confess to them. However in the mean time if the parent wished to report this matter to the police they are quite entitled to do so. The reason the elders would take no action in case of only one witness is because what if it proved to be false. You only have to look at a criminal case in court what happens there? Isn't evidence brought forward to substantiate the accusation. Image if one day you were falsely accused by someone of a crime you never committed and you were arrested for it how would you feel? What is the law in the usa is it Guilty until proven innocent sounds like it to me. Prov15:3 The eyes of Jehovah are in every place, keeping watch upon the bad ones and the good ones.
Because God does not allow imperfection to be a constant excuse for bad conduct. (Jude4) Jehovah wants humans to clean up, to get there lives in good moral order. (Rom12:9) Abhor what is wicked. What ever a man is sowing this is what he will reap Sin offends God Our creator is loving and merciful though. (2pet3:9) He does not desire any to be destroyed but desires all to attain to repentance. Notice he desires all to attain to repentance. Jesus taught the golden rule to forgive and we must forgive. He also taught us to pay caesars things to caesar so yes if a crime is committed then the guilty person should be dealt with according to there crime. The question I would like to pose to everyone is this ok the criminal does his time so what happens to him/her when they leave jail? Are they to be condemned forever? Even if they have changed in there ways. Even if they have learnt a lesson. what do you all Comment: At the end of Williams letter to JR Brown he mentioned 3 points which we should do 1. Call the police 1st well that of course is up to the parents or the victim or the elders if they choose to do so. 2nd No brother or sister who is molesting a child have privileges well bill knows perfectly well that no child molestor is given privileges in the congregation . and cannot serve as an elder or ministial servant. No brother or sister that molestes a child should go out preaching well i agree too how could they be out preaching if there disfellowshipped? The way some people portray witnesses you'd think that everyone of us was a molestor. If the figure that bill says is correct 25000 in USA Canada, Europe. Ok so we'll double it to include the rest of the world so thats 50 000 . there are over 6 000 000 dedicated Jehovah's witness's on the earth. so i'm doing my maths here 50% would be 3 000 000 25% would be 1. 500 000 12. 5% would be 750 000 6. 25% would be 375 000 1. 25% would be 187 500 1. 5625 % would be 93 750 so i've gotten down to 1. 5 % and still haven't gotten to this figure so what i ask is what about the other 98. 5 % are you all trying to say where all molestors too ? Obviously even say 1/2 a percent is too much i really wished that we had none of this happening in the organization but while this system continues no doubt there will be other incidents too that is why we more than ever need Jehovah's intervention on this troubled earth.

Comment: I've got a favor to ask of you guys: Are you guys (the regulars, the victims, the survivors, etc. ) happy with what Bill Bowen has done so far? Even if he looses his cool now and then, like every other human on the planet? Please go here and read. I do not want to speak for others, but I couldn't help myself in this instance, 'cuz I am sick to death of these people criticizing not only Pat, a victim, but also silentlams and Bowen. Thanks/SLC. . . http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=38318&page=5&site=3#523249

Comment: If you were molested by Dan Fitzwater, please go here: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=38434&page=1&site=3#523292

Comment: If you were molested by CHRIS McKENZIE, please go here: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=38435&site=3

Comment: What are you trying to accomplish with statistics? While it may be true that the statistical incidence is extremely low in comparison with the entire number of JWs, statistics do not represent the whole picture. The whole picture most likely is that there are many more victims and predators. Even if it's only another 5% more, what is the point of insisting on saying this is a small amount compared with the whole? Are you really trying to vindicate the other 90% or are you, perhaps inadvertently, minimizing the problem of child molestation? The fact remains that Jehovah God requires shepherds to go after ONLY THE ONE SHEEP that has strayed. When we start wanting MORE VICTIMS to prove a person is a criminal, what has happened to our humanity? Besides that, the point is that the known predators were known by elders to have more than one victim. They have refused to treat the victim as a witness and they wanted SOMEONE ELSE(S) to be a witness to the victim's ALLEDGED allegations that they were molested. It's true that there are some false allegations. However, INTELLIGENT INVESTIGATION, not accusations and calling victims liars, will produce, usually, the desired result - to learn what really happened. Even so, we need to be sensitive to each individual's boundaries and to not violate them. When they're violated, then THAT ONE PERSON has been hurt, even if there wasn't actual molestation. That person's feelings in a matter were violated. If there was truly a misunderstanding, there STILL WAS DAMAGE to the complainer. At least an apology is in order and DEFINITELY RESPECT FOR THE VICTIM'S FEELINGS, BOUNDARIES AND WISHES. You don't keep poing at an animal that has already make it quite clear that you've overstepped your meeting with it because you know it'll attack you and, perhaps, it'll prove fatal to you. Why would you keep "poking" at a human, adult or child? That's not a test of their Christian personality - that's asking to get attacked - it's going against nature, even human nature. The Bible, through JWs, has taught me to be SENSITIVE to human needs. I've learned that we need to have Jehovah God's laws and principles in our hearts, to not violate them but to know to exercise them with compassion and genuine brotherly love. I've learned that to know Christ, we need to have love, patience, compassion without prejudice as to whom we extend it to. I have to agree that, in spite of the great number of people in our association, the vast majority do not extend themselves beyond the "milk" of Bible teachings. We need to start helping those that are into the "meat" of the Bible and let those that like milk too much fall where they may, even if they're elders, MSs, whatever. There are plenty of women around that demonstrate the maturity and responsibility necessary to handle congregation functions and matters. If there aren't enough mature men, then the women should be used as they once were in the middle of the 1900s. Too many "young" men have been appointed in positions of authority in the congregation and organization and they do not have the longevity required to refine one's faith and understanding. They've been appointed only because they're males. They've done a lot of damage to their flock because of their immaturity. It's time to reevaluate this policy, too. I think it'd be better to appoint sisters who have proper understanding of the scriptures, a solid record of PLEASANT faithfulness to those principles and laws because they've come to terms with themselves and Jehovah God's requirements, and demonstrate genuine love and caring toward all in the flock. A lot of the males appointed aren't even known by everyone in the congregations today and do NOT have good reports from everyone, primarily for that reason. How can you be a shepherd over the entire flock if the flock doesn't even know them? Our primary function IS the worldwide preaching work and I do not recommend letting that slide. However, we need to now realize that we have tremendous numbers of people among us and we should be like King David who took into consideration the PHYSICAL, EMOTIONAL and MENTAL needs of his soldiers, too. He didn't just drive them until they dropped and then just got fresh people to use until they dropped. We need to learn to take care of our people, now, too. It's not Christian love to just use people for one's own advantage and then leave them in the lurch when they need help. There's a lot, I think, that needs to be revamped -- and it's already in our literature. We can't just continue to supply good knowledge and not do it among ourselves for us. When you don't feed and nurture your "slaves", you get rebellion or dead slaves. We need our hearts to be full of love and devotion to one another first. THAT shows Jehovah God that we have love for him. We can't love him separate from our brothers. HE REQUIRES we love our brothers first. Part of that love is to remember them with good deeds and Christian love. We can't enter into Jehovah God's love if all we're concerned about is the preaching work and not concerned about the people that are doing it. It's that DEMONSTRATED WARMTH AND LOVE AMONG US that stays in our minds and hearts - not the HOURS we've spent in the field ministry. We have to recognize that Jehovah God NEVER expected us to denounce our humanity to serve him. I'd be VERY PROUD of our organization if they SHOUTED FROM THE ROOFTOPS that they wouldn't allow ANYONE that disturbed the flock's safety and peace and got rid of them rather than even just give the APPEARANCE of being worse than the world in such matters such as child molestation. Also, yes, Meagan's law allows for the child molesters who have been CONVICTED to be made public but how can one get convicted if people are being threatened and restrained from reporting them? I believe that Jehovah has caused all this ruckus because he starts cleaning in his own house - from the top down. Yes, there IS a sifting work being done now but it's not with the victims. It's within Jehovah's own house. This didn't EVER have to be this way if those taking the lead did the right things in the first place. There's really no discussion in these matters. ANYONE that cares about the cleanliness of Jehovah's people will NOT support badness - no matter from whom or where within the organization it's coming from. Yes, elders are imperfect people, too, and they make mistakes. HOWEVER, THEIR mistakes affect the flock. It's better they not be an elder and make their mistakes and learn where they can't harm the flock than for them to continue as elders or MSs. Not enough brothers? There ARE enough SISTERS that can do this work until better brothers become available. It's been done before and throughout the Bible, Jehovah and even Jesus used the women to do what is right when the men wouldn't, couldn't, didn't or didn't know how. I think we're in such times now, especially with the rapidly expanding organization. - Janice October 12, 2002

Comment: Lawrence's church has the right way of doing things. . . on the other hand JOSH. . . what pedophile do you know has admitted to the elders his guilt and WHAT DO YOU THINK WOULD BE ACTIONS BEFITTING REPENTANCE OF A PEDOPHILE???? A rependant pedophile would not expect the congregation to rally around him with their "FORGIVENESS" but would take the back seat to the emotional and spiritual well-being of the little child he has destroyed. We are not talking about a drunk but a man who preys on a child that cannot defend itself, protect itself, and cannot mentally process this action upon it's little body. Heartfelt sorrow would be equal to the damage done. God has conditions to forgiveness. . . we are to repay the damage in at least double the value of what we destroyed. You are defending the WTS, not God's laws or standards. October 12, 2002

Comment: I would rather go to Lawrence's church than try and cleanup the WTS. . . alot easier. October 12, 2002

Comment: spending time in jail must be hell for a pedophile. . . no children to get at and when he gets out do you really think he has learned his lesson or is he "just can't wait to find a child" . . . why do you think SEX OFFENDERS have to be registered????BECAUSE THE SEX OFFENDERS REPEAT THEIR OFFENSES. They paid their debt, but the cops know that doesn't mean they are sorry and won't do it again. Gee, Josh you don't get it. Sex Offenders are most desplicable people of society and ONLY THE WATCHTOWER SOCIETY WANTS TO TREAT THESE PEOPLE BETTER THAN YOU TREAT SOMEONE WHO SMOKES A DAMN CIGERETTE OR WAS MOLESTED. YUCK. October 12, 2002

Comment: Janice if you would not have signed your name Janice I'd thought you were an elder from WT. You know all the nice things to say. Your bottom line is: The WT Society is good. I say to you this: You do not know the WT Society. Or, you pretend not to know. The WT is Demon possessed Commerce oriented Society that pretends to be a christian religion. The damage they do to people is beyond believe. The damage to God unforgivable. Please do a little of thinking. rmk
October 12, 2002

Comment: I am referring to the victim, even if it's ONE, as the lost sheep that needs to be found, not the pedophile. Communication is very important, however, I find some here that are so easily inflamed by their anger and hatred that they don't really read what is there. - Janice
October 12, 2002

Comment: I understand that it is NOT fun for pedophiles in jail. The other prisoners can't stand them and find many ways to make their lives miserable. They get back, I'm told, what they deserve when they get to jail. I honestly hope that true. - Janice
October 12, 2002

Comment: Maybe I am being blinded but Janice I agree with much of what you have said. Are you a JW in good standing? If so what you said, if that is in your heart, that you a woman could lead, then you are brave. I'm glad that you are here. Josh it is not bashing. Welcome to Silentlambs-Jayson
October 12, 2002

Comment: the mole Christianity teaches us that, small and inconsequential as we are, we can each contribute good to others that is out of proportion to our own smallness. It is faith that make this possible. We do not need the bulk of a big organization to back us up, nor its headship, its control or prodding to accomplish this. Heart appreciation for god's undeserved kindness in making life a free gift is not dependent on works but on faith should be what motivates us. I feel certain that when life comes to its close the only thing that will, in retrospect, bring any true sense of satisfaction is the extent to which life was used to contribute to the welfare of others primarily spiritually and emotionally. I have no doubt but that effort will be made to disparage the significance of the information from the society. Time alone will tell if my religion will fade away like the old puritans and be remembered only for the abuses left behind. . . the mole
October 12, 2002

Comment: Janice, what you said about pedophiles and their victim Silentlambs is correct. It is refreshing to have a JW member here with an open mind and critical of the policies and practices of the WT's GB. I encourage you however to look into the background of the Society. I recomend Raymond Franz : Crises of Concience and 2. In search of Christian Freedom. 3. Arnold Schnell: 30 years of the WT Slave. When you read this let us know if what you read is a lie or the truth. OK? I say it again : I do not hate J. Witness. My 4 children are still there as members my brother and my sister also and numerous relatives across Europe also. But please do not ask me to pray for the WT Society and it's GB. I prey for you. rmk n search
October 12, 2002

Comment: I don't mean to be disrespectful but how are you going to get the WTS to let women teach, guide or be elders? Why would they (WTS) cooperate with this idea? How many generations would it take to do this???? THE ANGER is useful to the silentlambs who need to express it and this is the appropriate place for them to do it. This is their site to do with what they want: we comfort them, not blame them. Who can blame them for being angry?????? The anger will go once it is spent. I do wish that this were a safe place and anyone who wants to support the WTS would go somewhere else. . . obviously you don't know what enrages decent people and I am sick of the comments that express someone's anger is wrong, inappropriate, not healing etc. . . . taking too long. This is the safe and appropriate place to express anger . . . and you need to look at yourself and why you are pissing off a lamb. No one is on your time schedule with their anger; and if you piss someone off there is a reason. It is about you not them. I give permission to all silentlambs to be pissed off and express it. Pissed off JW's don't belong here - silentlambs do. And that is enough to piss off any silentlamb. LOVE, soapbox
October 12, 2002

Comment: Some people feel superior when they make someone angry and they do it by blaming the person for being angry . . so it becomes an anger problem not a problem with the one who provokes the anger. If you persist on disrespecting the boundaries of others, they get pissed off. Silentlambs is for silentlambs . . not jws, or supporters of the jw/wts. If someone gets angry at you it is because you don't respect the boundary here. You were not invited, you insist on staying, being self-righteous, you intrude, impose and then accuse us of being angry. I know I don't care if you support silentlambs or not - but I do care if you come here. Just leave . . before there is an argument . . . it is in the bible. Take your leave.
October 12, 2002

Comment: Janice - why don't you write the society about your idea?
October 12, 2002

Comment: josh you posted to sic.. that jqw's that go to the police don't get df'ed.. well read some of the posts here.. sounds like you will be eating a lot of CROW. . HOPE YOUR HUNGRY!!!JOHN
October 12, 2002

Comment: JANICE : I READ YOUR POST and i argee with rmk . . half way through it i had to puke!! you did nothing more than glorify your god the wt in bklyn. . . john
October 12, 2002

Comment: Ok this is as good a place as any to call soapbox's points into action. rmk I am at a complete loss as to what I did that makes you think that I am for the wt. I am at a loss as to why you think that I am evil or my friends are. (I have friends??) If I offended you then really I am sorry. But I don't know what I did. Tell me. I do not support the death of jw's like they teach that I do, and neither do you. We both have family trapped inside the delusioned teaching of the wt. I know that wt teachings are evil because of what they produce. They claim to produce good "workers" of society. But it is the society that they claim is so evil that produces the good "worker" the wt society provides very little if any of that good. I don't know how your class action lawsuit will work tell me about it. Maybe we should take it to JWD? (is it there?) I'm all for forcing them (wt) to change or die as a religion. I would love to see the wt loose its tax exempt status. But these are hard things to do in reality. How do you think that we should go about it? I think also all those who are the victims of the mind control tactics that they (wt) use are people who should file a lawsuit. I don't know how to prove it but in court but I think it is ignoble. (the wt tactics.) Another problem is that our families do choose to do what they do i. e. "Freedom of Association. " Which I say fine because I don't want my kids around the b. s. So for me that is also "Freedom from Association. " As they use it also. But they also coercer people into shunning and lying to loved ones and that needs so desperatly to be exposed. I would love to see people tape the df'ed hearings and put them on the web. The truth of thier actions and not what they print is the key here. If only some more lambs like bill at the headcourters getting advice to "walk away!" on tape then the lawsuits can go forward. I agree with you. And dispute your loss of family rmk I want you to be happy. I hope you are. I just understand "ahabism" all to well, and the JW's will feed this if they can. Justified anger turned to rage. It shuts down people who are unaware of the JWs from listing to your story. The JW stories I have, they are so much less than what is posted here is still unbelivable because of the level of the JW malice. Even by my own nonjw family. Until now. With the help of Silentionmbs here and "Thank you all" I can talk without rage and hurt. God rmk, they have make me cry as a grown man and they just loved that. The quote was "Sheesh you are such a pathetic baby. You make me sick. You are not a man, just a baby need some milk? sheesh. " After that payback in the form of kickin some butt was sounding quite appealing. Of course they would just love that and call themselves the victim and a marter. But bill and others reminded me that these guys are just dumb dipsticks. Big boys don't cry but big men do. Jesus did. For what it is worth I like you rmk. And I never for a second thought that you hate jw's. For me, the wt, like its members, I hate their actions. The actions that the silentlambs have spoken about on this site is about evil action and evil intent it is not about God. Nor is it about religion. It is about injustice and malice. And your words are not wrong rmk. At least I think not. -Jayson PS John neither are yours.
October 12, 2002

Comment: Dear Janice. I was like you. Honest and exemplary JW. There are many there like that. Maybe a vast majority. I pray about them very often. You are also very lucky because I found you to be very intelligent receptive and humble. We made a big mistake Janice in joining the WT. The WT is set up as a branch of a great conspiracy for the NEW ORDER under ILLUMINATTTI of which Freemasonry is a part and JW one of it's branches (Mormons another one) founded by Russell. This is all secret and kept only for very few in the top to know and opretate. This New Order is a system that is man'idea inspired by Satan himself. It is quite transparent when a proper key of understanding is used and very widespread. I am not a leader by nature and do not have answers to your many questions but others do on different web sites on the internet. So please be patient Soon you will learn many useful things. Please! do not rush into anything. Do not quit JW rushly because you might regret it later. Do not leave behind you those that you could help to get out. Unless you find out for yourself that the only Salvation comes through Jesus Christ you can't be saved. DO YOU UNDERSTAND WHAT I JUST SAID? (There is no other God that can save you.)Please think about that. My dear sister I have deep respect for you and your loved ones and I am glad you do not think evil of me. I never thought you are. My hope and prayer is that you come to Christ with full understanding of it's importance. rmk God's blessings to you. rmk
October 12, 2002
Comment: A wound kept open will never heal. Marching on Brooklyn Bethel, going to the media is keeping the wound open. The best way to overcome that stress and anger you feel is to use your experience in a positive way - like becoming a welfare worker and helping abused children. Cert IV Psychology is the level I was required to attain in psychology to become a health worker here in Australia. bioharmony
October 12, 2002

Comment: I've read the rubbish about the WT and the UN - they have to members of the NGO to obtain press information from the UN - such as stats health issues including child abuse. But they do not support the UN's political endeavors. Hope that helps. bio.
October 12, 2002

Comment: It's simply amazing as to what each individual person thinks they've read within the same context of words. - Janice
October 12, 2002

Comment: BIO:: THE MARCHERS AS WELL AS ONES WHO HAVE GONE TO THE MEDIA ARE HELPING PEOPLE TO BE AWARE, BE CAREFUL, TO SAY IT IS OKAY TO SPEAK ABOUT IT EVEN IF YOU GET DF'D FOR SPEAKING OUT ABOUT IT. THIS IS A PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE WTS THAT THEY CANNOT CONTROL OR MANIPULATE PEOPLE INTO SILENCE. VERY IMPOWERING, VERY HEALING - THIS IS ALL BEING DONE WITH SUPPORT. THIS IS YEARS OF SILENCE COMING OUT -THE FIRST STEP TO HEALING AND HONORING THE PAIN. THE PAIN HAS TO BE HONORED FIRST. *The AWAKE magazine promoted the UN - I read it and thought why is WTS promoting the UN?? That was a year or two or three before I ever found out about the NGO status. search your old awakes, read them. *I have found personally that therapists have no understanding about PTS which most people suffer if they have been sexual abused & traumatized. I also have found that therapy does not trust that the individual knows what works for a meaningful healing and usually hinders the healing process. People in pain have a fascinating way of healing - in their own way, in their own time. Who can dictate what is healing - each person will find their way. Anyone who can live thru this horrible violation is strong and strong enough to decide for themselves what will heal them. I trust every silentlamb will process this pain and anger into what is meaningful and useful to them. No one here is being re-traumatized except by the JW's who show up here with no respect and try to minimize what happened. Have you seen the movie A Beautiful Mind??? Well, the silentlambs have a beautiful mind - God gave them a beautiful mind. ***
October 12, 2002

Comment: Bio: Go to patiencepress. com - she is the most knowledgeable person I have encountered. Every social worker, therapist should read her information if they want to assist and direct a person who has been traumatized.
October 12, 2002

Comment: Josh: I am please that you seem to have kept a cool head under some pretty aggressive opposition. Nice job. You claim to have your own beliefs and are not repeating WTS policy. But then you go into a scenario when one person accuses and the other denies and then decide the matter must be stopped there. Maybe someday you'll see just how indoctrinated that statement is. Perhaps you will be able to see the false assumption you made to get to the 'cannot do anything' conclusion: There are other people, yes even outside the congregation, that may have information and accusations and may even be at risk by exposure to the accused. Those people outside the congregation include professionals that can cooraborate or perhaps contradict the accusation. I agree that we need to be aware of possible false accusations, but these undereducated laymen are not the ones to handle it. The elders are over their heads with this issue and yet you feel comfortable giving them such discretion that they (1) hear from Johny, (2) the accused denies it, and (3) they can still decide to drop the matter. The elders should be trying to help. But did you notice how short a shift you gave that facet with your reference to the parent's privilege to report the matter to police. Where is the elders' "lets get you some help" or even "I don't care what the WTS rules are, I can tell you're scared and I will protect you"? Instead you have society rules and the most you can conjure up is to step aside while they take actual action to get actual help from people that can actually help them. I just hope some 12-year-old needing help has somewhere else to go. It doesn't sound like you plan to be there. I can tell by your posts that you can think for yourself. But you aren't doing it yet, chief.
October 12, 2002

Comment: Prior to Johsh - from Buster
October 12, 2002

Comment: How do you know that I am a woman? - Janice
October 12, 2002
Comment: I never criticized the anger. I know better than anyone about anger, especially from a lack of justice. First the deep, intense hurt. Then the anger and then the hatred. It's all a normal process that one must go through before one can sort through it all and find themselves, who they are, what they stand for and what they believe in - without prejudice or hatred. It'll come in time. Each one has their own time. All I said is that that anger and hatred gets in the way of understanding what is being written. Written communication leaves a lot to be desired because you can't see and hear the person and don't know how they're saying it. Some here wouldn't talk, even in person, without anger and hatred; not for a long time. Those who did the hurting will pay for it, believe me, they'll pay for it. - Janice
October 12, 2002

Comment: Date: 01 Oct 2002 Time: 21:28:39 Comments To the slanderous idiot, any "christian" religion that is not catholicism, is by definition protestant, THE JW'S ARE PROTESTANTS.
================================================================ UH, SORRY JOE SHOME BUT YOU ARE WRONG. GET A LIFE AND A DICTIONARY! Protestant noun, adjective [C] (a member) of the parts of the Christian Church which separated from the Roman Catholic Church during the 16th century The JW's are far from Protestants in definition and in actions. Thank God.
October 12, 2002

Comment: Having been a victim of sexual abuse myself as a child I am certainly not here to minimise anyone's trauma or suffering. But I know first hand how mulling over it or lashing out at all and sundry does nothing else but make it all worse. Putting it behind you and channeling your frustration and anger into something positive like becoming a welfare worker is the best and only way to go. I want to see all the victims stop hurting. So putting it behind you is the only way. bioharmony PS. Please stop SHOUTING. Whether you realise it or not using CAPS in cyberspace is shouting. I have done you no wrong so I do not deserve your anger.
October 12, 2002

Comment: According to the Justice Bureau Stats, 60,000 convicted pedophiles are free in the community, subject only to restraining orders to keep them away from schools etc. But they do not walk around with a sign saying "I am a pedophile" so they are still free to abuse children who may not know of their past. Nor can the media publish their names and faces. So to you who claim that 23,000 pedophiles are knocking on your doors - no chance. They would not even be allowed to go door to door! (Unless they got a job with Rawleighs!)
October 12, 2002

Comment: Bio-The only thing that I agree with you on is that the elders of the jehovah witness kingdom halls are very wrong to interfere with crimes. They should mind their own god damn business! I do not agree with anything else you say!-Jayson
October 13, 2002

Comment: Bio: your way is your way but not the only way. Silentlams are helping each other, and bringing to the attention of as many people as they can anyway they can. That is part of the Help. This website directs people to professional help. All of us will email anyone who is in crisis. I have given good support and received good support. We cannot all become welfare workers - some of us have other careers, interests, families, husbands and lives to tend to BUT all are ready to help any silentlamb that comes here, write to the newspapers and some went to the march. If you had left this behind you, you would not be here.
October 13, 2002

Comment: Dear Janice and Jayson thanks for your support . Its nice to know that some people out there have common sense. All my posts are there in black and white for everyone to see i have nothing to hide. However its amazing how many times you have to repeat yourself before anyone can understand. i'll repeat this one more time and hopefully a few more will understand. Firstly i'm not in here to fight anyone call anyone names abuse anyone . I respect everyones view point yes i respect your view point but i don't necceisarily agree with it however we live in a democracy so we have freedom of speach. I understand very well why some people may be angry and i also understand why people would defend Jehovah's organization. Having said that i'll make this statement. (a) i'm not in here to defend nor critize the WTS (b)I'm not in here to defend nor critise the elders. (c)I'm in here simply to state the truth. (d)i personally feel that all child molestes should be locked away. (e)Having become a christian i also beleive that wrong doers if truely repentent must be forgiven. (f)i beleive that elders should report any serious crimes to police. whether it is state law of not. (g)Our congregations are open to the public for anyone to come and check for themselves. (h)If elders have stated to any victim not to go to the police then they are accountable for there actions. {Lev5:1} Regards Josh
October 13, 2002
Comment: oh yeah janice the answer to how do we know your a woman is because i thought janice was a girls name.
regards Josh
October 13, 2002

Comment: One of the biggest problems that I see when it comes to child abuse within the WT organization is that everyone in the organization is way too trusting of those who call themselves "Brothers". I have commented here on a number of occasions about things that I found very disturbing when I was a faithful Witness, most of these things centered around common sense. If something doesn't sound right, look right or smell right don't put you or your children at risk! Don't let others or the "Organization" do your thinking for you, Jehovah gave us a brain to use, use it! If anyone tells you that you should do something that goes against your better judgment, a red flag should go up, trust your God given instinct and don't do it! One thing that I noticed and most JW's have a problem admitting to, is that many JW's live double lives. When they go to the Kingdom Hall or are around other JW's they put on what I call their Kindom Hall face. This can be very deceptive if you are judging someone based on what you see at the KH. Arm your children with the knowledge, that if anyone touches them in an inappropriate way or tells them to do something that they know is wrong to let you know about it. The Organization may not be willing to keep your children safe from predators but you can do something about keeping your children away from them. When it comes to your children DON'T TRUST ANYONE!
October 13, 2002

Comment: bio; i'm not going to bash you!!!you need to get more info on the u. n. qwhat are the requirements to be a ngo. get a library card. and get info from the dpi. . you don't need the be a ngo to get info from the dpi. . or get a library card. . there is much info about this on the net. . or try your local library. . i live in new york. and not one jw i know will go to the public labary with me or to the united nations. on 49 st. 1 ave. . . because they know the wt is lying. . or they would check it out in person. . i offered to take a day off from work to go there. and pay for the day out lunch and all. . not one taker. . thats what i call BLIND FAITH. . . if the wt had nothing to hide my jw friends would spend a free day in midtown. and make me look stupid. . but they know i got them busted. . . the wt is in bed with the wild beast. . . john
October 13, 2002

Comment: bio; i'm not going to bash you!!!you need to get more info on the u. n. qwhat are the requirements to be a ngo. get a library card. and get info from the dpi. . you don't need the be a ngo to get info from the dpi. . or get a library card. . there is much info about this on the net. . or try your local library. . i live in new york. and not one jw i know will go to the public labary with me or to the united nations. on 49 st. 1 ave. . . because they know the wt is lying. . or they would check it out in person. . i offered to take a day off from work to go there. and pay for the day out lunch and all. . not one taker. . thats what i call BLIND FAITH. . . if the wt had nothing to hide my jw friends would spend a free day in midtown. and make me look stupid. . but they know i got them busted. . . the wt is in bed with the wild beast. . . john
October 13, 2002

Comment: bio; i'm not going to bash you!!!you need to get more info on the u. n. qwhat are the requirements to be a ngo. get a library card. and get info from the dpi. . you don't need the be a ngo to get info from the dpi. . or get a library card. . there is much info about this on the net. . or try your local library. . i live in new york. and not one jw i know will go to the public labary with me or to the united nations. on 49 st. 1 ave. . . because they know the wt is lying. . or they would check it out in person. . i offered to take a day off from work to go there. and pay for the day out lunch and all. . not one taker. . thats what i call BLIND FAITH. . . if the wt had nothing to hide my jw friends would spend a free day in midtown. and make me look stupid. . but they know i got them busted. . . the wt is in bed with the wild beast. . . john
October 13, 2002

Comment: RE: "Nor can the media publish their names and faces. So to you who claim that 23,000 pedophiles are knocking on your doors - no chance. " What STATE do you live in? I live in Texas . . . when a pedophile moves into the neighborhood the states mails out a flyer to the neighbors. This flyer contacts the offenders name and address and is mailed to a radius of a few miles, (lots of people) Also parents are notified if a pedophile is a student. Our mothers groups etc take certain avenues to inform people. The Texas Dept Public of Safety website has the pedophiles names, addresses and Photos and the caveat for the info reads: This is public information available to be used by anyone at anytime for any reason. So what about your state and your neighborhood. . . . check it out but remember Megan's Law is a Federal requirement. Oh, and yes, in the Plano congregation a convicted Pedophile is knocking on doors.
October 13, 2002

Comment: carl pandalo, in new jersey is a convicted molester. . has admitted to molesting over 40 girls and is a jw in good standing. . . and he still goes door to door. . .
October 13, 2002

Comment: http://groups. msn. com/WatchtowerExcape/victimsofabuse. msnw
October 13, 2002

Comment: Who ever said the 23,000+ pedophiles within the org have been convicted? That's the whole point! The abuses have been hushed up, the accusers have been told they'd be in serious trouble and most likely disfellowshipped if they accuse anyone or tell others of the abuse done, etc. No authorities are informed, the elders don't do jack about the accusations, they only sweep it under the rug and the abused continue to be abused. All the while the molesters are knocking on doors with their preaching. Do you ever consider the latch-key kids at home alone with people knocking on their doors? We're NOT talking about convicted molesters here! That's the whole point! No one knows they have molested children because it's all kept quiet! http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerExcape/victimsofabuse.msnw Linda Thoman
October 13, 2002

Comment: The answer about a pedophile is only partially correct when it comes to contacting the neighborhood. In some states, the police only contact schools so the school officials can be responsible for children while in their care. Some of those schools post where parents can see them and some don't. I know of a case where a young girl 4th grade was looking at a publicly posted bulletin board at a school and noticed that one of the persons on that board was "currently coming over to her house". I told the dad and he confronted the level 3 child molester. The child molester simply told the dad that he didn't think it important to share the "unknown" facts about his criminal history. The dad told him to leave and not come back. Not every state bothers to tell a neighborhood. Many do not. Beware. I would say it is a very high probability that a child molester lives in nearly every neighborhood in America. America, don't be ignorant. It may your child that is saved from a horrible act.
October 13, 2002

Comment: If there are so many repentant pedophiles who have been forgiven - why have none of them posted their sorrow, their shame, their grief for what they have done here or anywhere?? Or at least write a letter to Bill???? That is the thanks you get for "forgiving" someone who is not repentant. Why have they not come forward and confessed? Why do they continue to let the silentlams take the "heat"? Jesus died for us - that is the kind of love that is required to be a Christian. Any so called christian who harms a child and does not confess, make retribution, but feels entitled to forgiveness not to mention a prominent place in the congregation is wicked and evil. Look at the divisions the pedophile has caused with the help of the WTS, the elders and the members. You feed the arrogance of the pedophile and humble the truly humble with your "forgiveness." A child has the god-given right to be protected and it is the god-given responsibility of the parent to protect their children. . . . just like our Father in Heaven protects us. This is not about forgiveness but protecting children. To the WTS it is about their image and lawsuits. To the average JW it is about obeying the WTS and waiting on Jehovah.
October 13, 2002

Comment: hi' what happen? I don't see any messages from Oct. on on the web page. Happy Thanksgiving anyway!rmk
October 13, 2002

Comment: rmk-I created an address if you want to talk via direct email. rmktoday@aol.com. Jayson
October 13, 2002

Comment: the mole The saddest point in any persons life is when family members of the same faith deny the love they should express towards one another but based on false reasoning of the scriptures they take upon themselves to ignore you and tell others not to associate with you. To have an opinion is our right and a gift from god himself. Has anyone read the new book published at our last assembly "Worship the Only True God"? The title should be "worship the Organization or Else." . . . Throughout the entire book it has frases such as this, "This world is saturated with the spirit of independence from God and his laws. So we need to curb that spirit in ourselves. " I, who has been a member since birth can see this, but so many who have been so indoctrinated are blinded by these sentences. Did God not say in Genesis "we shall know right and wrong", this is the definition of being independent. Maybe Genesis should say "be that a drone and not think but be told to do only right. " The organization is setting themselves up for demigodship. We must resist the evil of ignorance or lest someday another Hitler be raised in our ranks because we where to afraid to say no. . . THE MOLE
October 13, 2002

Comment: Josh - Are you aware that some men are given women's names? A lot of times, it's a name of a very loved relative, usually already passed away. Not always, but frequently, you'll find a man signing his name, for example, J. Charles Steinway. The letter "J" could easily stand for Jane, Janice, or any other woman's name that starts with the letter "J". It's been customary to do this for a lot of centuries. This reminds me of Johnnie Cash's song, "A Boy Named . . . " - I forgot what the boy's name was; it's a girls name. I learned the HARD way to not assume anything but to ask questions if I thought something was odd or didn't make sense or didn't agree with what I thought or knew. We don't always remember to do that, though, even when we've learned that lesson. Our emotions are deep and they DO get in the way of really listening to one another sometimes. - Janice
October 13, 2002
Comment: Josh - That song Johnnie Cash made famous is, "A Boy Named Sue". I loved that song and he did it good, too. - Janice
October 13, 2002

Comment: Janice, Josh, Jayson, Bio: what about a reply to the post regarding "repentant pedophiles"? If I recall the boy named "Sue" had to be really tough and defend himself because of his name. . . not too different than a silent lamb having to get really tough and defending themselves. . . Where are the repentant pedophiles you forgive???? What have they done in the congregations as acts of repentance???? What just retribution have they endured? How have they paid compensation to the ones they destroyed? Like to hear the other side of the "story." I am listening and waiting and listening and waiting. . . still waiting. The question is: where are the repentant pedophiles and how do they prove to you they are repentant and deserving of forgiveness and trust???? Just one story would do. Maybe this isn't about forgiveness but TRUST. . . and you have to at least trust your friends or THE friends to tell you if someone is dangerous, don't you think???? I am waiting for a reasonable reply. What does the WTS say is repentant actions for a "sorry pedophile"??? How do they determine this????
October 13, 2002

Comment: I AM 45YRS OLD AND HAVE BEEN AND STILL ARE OF WITNESS FOR 31YRS. AS A YOUNG CHILD FROM 5-9, I WAS ABUSED/MOLESTED BY A BABY-SITTER. UNFORTUNATELY, IN TURN, FROM THE AGES OF 10-14, I ABUSED/MOLESTED OTHERS I. E., (2) OF (3) OF MY YOUNGER SISTERS, (2) AUNTS, A COUPLE OF SISTERS IN THE CONGREGATION AND EVEN A NEIGHBORHOOD GIRL. I WAS NEVER FOUND OUT BUT, AT AGE 15, I STOPPED AND TO THIS DAY DON'T EVEN WHY I WHAT I DID AND HAVE COME TO ABHOR THAT CONDUCT. LATER IN LIFE (MY MID-30'S), I APPROACHED AND APOLOGIZED TO ALL PARTIES AND SURPRISINGLY A COUPLE DID NOT EVEN REMEMBER THE ABUSE. I HAVE BEEN DISFELLOWSHIPED TWICE (GREED RELATED-LOVE OF MONEY) AND EVEN SPENT 5YRS IN PRISON WHICH WAS AN EYE-OPENER AND GAVE ME A GREATER APPRECIATION OF SELF AND OTHERS. I AM NOW AT A POINT IN MY LIFE WHERE I AM SUPER PROTECTIVE (EVEN TO THE POINT OF BEING A LITTLE PARANOID)OF ALL FEMALE MEMBERS OF MY FAMILY, THE CONGREGATION AND WORK. THE WORD IS "CONSEQUENCES". INDIVIDUALS WHO ENGAGE IN THE MISCONDUCT SHOULD BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE "SPIRITUALLY" AND "CIVILLY" REGARDLESS OF TIME. JESUS SET THE EXAMPLE - "THERE IS THE LETTER OF THE LAW AND THE MORAL OF THE LAW". THE MORAL ASPECT AND PROTECTION OF CHILDREN MUST ALWAYS COME FIRST. JEHOVAH IS A GOD OF JUSTICE BUT HE GAVE OF THINKING ABILITY WITH WHICH TO REASON. KEEP UP THE FINE FIGHT.
October 13, 2002

Comment: fcoul-There is no way for a rapist of a child or an adult can ever do anything to replace what they take from thier victims. I could not even "forgive" a rapist in the sense of a "pardon" it is that simple. They are not "pardonable" they are not "curable". " They are not "trustable" period. If I chose to "forgive" in the sense of no longer "hating" the dickhead then that would be good for me because then the creature no longer has power over me. That is what rape is about, control. It is not about sex. It is about power. That is the main reason that I comment here. Over and Over I keep saying you are in control of you. You are your own authority. The wt says that anyone can leave any time they want to. The wt says they do not make anyone do anything they do not want to. Yes, the average or any jw could leave anytime they want to the problem is they can't want to. The wt is full of crap. And jail just might be the only safe place for the scum if it hurt someone in my family. And if some dingleberry elderoid told me to "pray" and "wait on Jehova" I would kick him in in his teeth!-Jayson (clear?)
October 13, 2002

Comment: Jayson I do not agree. Yes, rape of adult women is mostly about power. It is a crime of violence. However, I feel pedophilia is motivated more by extreme sexual perversion. Anyone who deviates from the norm in a sexual way has potential to be a molester of children. There is of course an element of control and power over the defenseless victim. But pedophiles are deviant in the same way towards children as homosexuals are toward their own sex. These abusers are motivated by unnatural desires and satisfying their selfish urges comes before all else. There is little concern for the age or consent of the victim. I'm sure you and I both agree on one thing though: these filthy, perverted animals MUST be stamped out, no matter what the cost. RPT.
October 13, 2002

Comment: Great. Now we have round-the-clock deleting of all my posts. Fuck you, Bill Bowen. the anti-john.
October 13, 2002

Comment: Don't get me wrong, I dislike anti-john and his inane comments as much as the rest of you. But this business of deleting stuff that makes you look bad smacks of WT tactics. I know you just want the problem to go away but there's got to be a better way.

October 13, 2002

Comment: "I'm sure you and I both agree on one thing though: these filthy, perverted animals MUST be stamped out, no matter what the cost. "//\//I am all for the "out" part but what do you mean by "cost?" And it is about power I can say sexual power but it is about the type of contol like all rape. We used to call the rape of women just about sex. It is not, it is control. Date rape is not about sex, it is about the power to choose sex with out consent. My will over yours. "I will take your control over your body away from you. " It is about power and self gratification not "just" sex. It is an act of violence. It is about taking innocence. It is in every aspect of the word an abomination. To say that they are just of a diviant type of sexual creature belittles what they do. They are worse than just a predator. They also can kill the spirit of the victim. Those that can recover are survivors. God bless them. Those that can not I pray that God comforts them. I pray that they find an earth angles to help them heal and help them take back what is taken from them. Give them Justice. I will do more research on child rapists however I think it is much more insedious than just sexual deviation. It is evil. "The willful infliction of harm upon another be it mental or physical."-Jayson

October 13, 2002

Comment: Someone wrote, What does the WTS say is repentant actions for a "sorry pedophile??? How do they determine this???? . . . Forgive me for laughing, but the answer I have is so pathetic it makes me laugh. First of all, you must be "in" with the right people, the right Elders, and have them as your buddy friend. Then you have to cry real hard, and alot, and say things like What have I done to Jehovah? Then you cry some more, and more again. My brother, an Elder, had an affair with a witness sister who was also married. This affair went on for over five months. No coming forward with confessions, and crying and pleading to Jehovah to forgive him, and no What have I done to Jehovah and all that jazz. When his affair was found out, that's when the boo-hooing started. Oh, and he boo-hooed real good! Big crocodile tears on mommie’s lap; torential downpours of tears to the Elder committee, and guess what? He was simply "reproved". Not disfellowshipped, considering the affair went on for several months. Nope, just a little tap on the wrist and off he went to marry the &*% once his divorce was finalized. Oh, and the Elders even warned him not to even talk to this chick, or have any contact whatsoever, until the divorce was finalized. Yeah whatever. . . . he continued seeing her in public places, basically thumbing his nose at the Elders instructions to him, and still nothing was done in any serious way. Just tapped on the wrist and sent on his way, by the Elders in the congregation that he also played basketball with. Hmmmm, I doubt very much that a pedophile who admitted to hurting children would get much more than a Shame On You. All they have to do is cry, cry, cry crocodile tears and know the right people. Linda Thoman

October 13, 2002

Comment: Someone wrote, "Don't get me wrong, I dislike anti-john and his inane comments as much as the rest of you. But this business of deleting stuff that makes you look bad smacks of WT tactics. I know you just want the problem to go away but there's got to be a better way". I must disagree. This guestbook is for victims of abuse to have their voices heard. Not to be ridiculed and called names by anyone. It is not for the perverted pleasure someone derives from posting inflammatory comments such Anti-John posts here. It benefits no one, and censorship of these things are well within the right of the moderator/webmaster. I have a group for victims as well, and it's well within my right as the moderator/owner of the site to ban anyone I choose for posting comments that are hate-filled and not beneficial to anyone, especially the victims for which this site was created for in the first place. Their voices must be heard, not the rantings of an Anti-John. Linda Thoman

October 13, 2002

Comment: Everybody come to my new group to escape from the evil Bill Bowen. So far we has 2 members, that is me, and Anthony C. Aardvark. We welcomes everybody and does not shun anyone. If you would like to join, send e-mail ronpthomson@usa. com

October 13, 2002

Comment: RE:"Don't get me wrong, I dislike anti-john and his inane comments as much as the rest of you. But this business of deleting stuff that makes you look bad smacks of WT tactics"------No, I disagree with you. We have tolerated many differing opinions, we allow people to explain why they support the WT and how the elders are just imperfect. Okay, but the Anti-John is mentally disturbed and abusive, he needs professional help or a room in a hospital. Whatever—but his dangerous threatening rantings should NOT be allowed here

October 13, 2002

Comment: I said it before and I'll say it again. MY comments are NOT favorable toward pedophiles. They are focused on the victims. I think all pedophiles (all serious criminals actually) should just plain get the DEATH SENTENCE. Why spend our hard-earned tax dollars on feeding, clothing, educating and helping criminals when so many good people are going without? After YEARS in jail, yes, they may develop better thinking ability but that's not the majority of cases from what I know. It doesn't matter if it doesn't serve as a deterrent. For those that it doesn't stop, they should get the death penalty. Besides, the Bible tells us that there will be a resurrection of the good and the bad. Therefore, to protect society, there is the death penalty. For the benefit of the criminal, also an imperfect human who only GOD knows why they're like they are is the resurrection of the BAD. However, THEN, they will have a sound mind and body and they will have the opportunity to enjoy peace, nurturing and LEARNING about what is right and wrong and being able to make those decisions. If they won't learn, they will get a permanent death penalty. The GOOD thing is that they won't be able to harm anyone, as they do now, in God's kingdom. Also, I want to know WHO'S ASKING? You did not sign your name but you're making challenges of people who DO sign their names. Hmmm, I wonder what word THAT would be to describe a nameless challenger?

October 13, 2002

Comment: rj/aa/aj/jwd/ Did I miss any of your personas? Are you here to just have fun? Its hard to see people hurting isn't. I mean, as a Jehovah Witness you get doors slammed in your face, called names and worse. Your religion is not accepted as even Christian anywhere but in the Kingdom Hall (other wise known as the slave hut). And your Bible has been proven a fraud time and time again. You are right as a Jehovah Witness your fake bible is not needed for a book study. Just memorize your answers to your little cute magazine that most people round file. Your growth is stagnating in all but Africa (I may be wrong on that) It must be scary to think that if even a portion of what is said here is true. The Watchtower might fall. What then little man. I feel sorry for you. No wonder you pick on people here.
Where else could you go to get the type of power or attention that you with your all your personalities that you get here. It must be fun to kiss your watchtowner shakles every night just before you go to bed. I think that you are like a bad smell. None of your posts have a shred of substance. I think that they are becoming rather wussy like. Are you getting board? I'm not. I enjoy helping people to improve their lives and realize that they have all the power and control that they need. In or out of the wt. I'm sure that when the elders hear of all your works here you will be richly rewarded for all that you have done for the wt cause. If you are not one gosh man go get a jw card. It is people like you that give it the "fine" reputation that you have all over the globe. I would love to see some responsible God fearing men and women (in awe) inherit the reminites of the society. I think that rmk would be just "duckie!" Of course he might have the building imploded. HA! that you be a sight. Don't you think. Of course all this might be a big time drop. You could be right. We are all just gay and do not know it. But with all your obsession with Bill and his sexuality I think that the anti-john is crusing for a peice of ass.

October 13, 2002

Comment: I think we should just ship all the pedophiles off to that country, you know, that really filthy one that everyone hates. . . and make sure they can't leave. Also we should send all our garbage and nuclear waste there. And I agree with the above poster (who forgot to sign his name), God's Kingdom is the answer to PERMANENTLY ridding the earth of this scum. If you don't support God's Kingdom and the permanent end to all injustice and man's inhumanity to man, then you are PART OF THE PROBLEM, not the solution. RPT.

October 13, 2002

Comment: Comment: Janice - why don't you write the society about your idea? - October 12, 2002 -- I already did. Don't you think that they read the comments here? They keep up with everything. They KNOW they used to use women when there weren't enough brothers. That was true during the 1930s, 1940s and 1950s. Actually, during that time, we didn't have all these problems among us, either. It's only been since so many men are assigned as MSs and Elders that aren't ready for that work. There's a lot of favoritism, too, as well as promoting family members of some sort. The society goes by the recommendations of the elders when they approve someone for a position in the congregation. These spiritually immature men have created a lot of the problems you see today. Some are "recruited" right after baptism and put on the "fast track" to congregational responsibilities. This isn't scriptural. They should be using the women, sisters, who have proven to be PROPERLY faithful over a period of time to handle positions such as the congregation accounts, magazine and literature servants, etc. I'm not talking about giving talks and conducting the WATCHTOWER study, however, that's been done, too. The sisters wore a head covering to show respect for the men, as the Bible counsels. MY opinion is that brothers shouldn't be appointed simply because they're MALES (in particular) or a family member or a favored person that isn't based on SOLID SCRIPTURAL QUALIFICATIONS. The society can't continuously second guess the recommendations of the elders that are requesting the appointment of one or another. However, they should WONDER and START CHECKING OR THEMSELVES when a congregation starts having more than the usual difficulties and REMOVE the elder or elders that are causing divisions and dissention among the flock. THEN, they should appoing a good woman who has proven herself, not just in field service but in wisdom and love until a GENUINELY QUALIFIED MALE REALLY becomes available. They know that's in the Bible and that they've operated that way in the past. - Janice

October 13, 2002
Comment: i just love those dinkalberries the anti john and no name mary janess. . . they liven up the site with wt propaganda. . . it's like an un biblical jc kangaroo court in a back room were you have the facts . . and the elders are calling you a whore for busting the wt in lies. . . and we all know what the bible says about lying in the name of god . . . so i say let then stay . . . i love to here how i'm a lesbian and satan. and the biggest sin of all i can't spell. . . that will make the jehovah in bkn. . unhappy . . . john
October 13, 2002

Comment: actually, john you're just a pathetic loser.
October 13, 2002

Comment: And, by the way, I think the ones that are causing dissention and division in the congregations are the nasty elders who make victims squirm and are impotent in handling matters quickly and appropriately. If I was an elder, I would tell the society a thing or two if they ever told me to "just ask" if the brother molested a little girl or boy. If he denies it, forget it. I'd let them know that they're in violation of HUMAN DECENCY if nothing else and that I wouldn't do things that way. I would NEVER allow ANY of the elders to question a small child about every detail of the molestation. It's none of the business of an elder or elders. WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES IT MAKE WHAT WAS DONE TO THE CHILD? That SOMETHING was done that was inappropriate IS ENOUGH! HOW MUCH doesn't make it a smaller or greater crime. It's a disgusting crime, period. It's the SAME DEGREE of crime no matter WHAT or HOW MUCH was done. Just TOUCHING inappropriately is a crime! It's the SUGGESTION of sexual abuse that is a crime. THAT is how it STARTS? It, usually, puts a child on guard but A BIG PERSON is telling them it's OK. They seem to ALWAYS start with "just touching". THAT, IN ITSELF, should be enough to HANG PERVERTS! - Janice
October 13, 2002

Comment: Re: Comment: Janice, Josh,Jayson, Bio: what about a reply to the post regarding "repentant pedophiles?" If I recall the boy named "Sue" had to be really tough and defend himself because of his name. . . not too different than a silentlamb having to get really tough and defending themselves. . .  I was talking ON A LIGHTER NOTE here about "A Boy Named Sue". Lighten up. I think they say "chill out" now. Yeowzer, the black slaves survived because they didn't lose their sense of humor and they used SINGING to help relieve their stress and cope with their circumstances. Just because you're at a support group web site doesn't mean you can't SMILE and SEE SOME HUMOR sometimes. You want the help of JWs on the "inside" but you're real crap to them. Make up your mind NO NAME or are you just plain ARGUMENTATIVE all the time. THAT is a good reason for one or others ignoring you! That happens OFTEN to you, doesn't it? - Janice
October 13, 2002

Comment: Janice, do you ever wonder why everyone here wants to attack each other? The answer is simple. This is a site for bitter-and-twisted apostates and people who have been abused or had relatives abused. None of these people are even capable of having a sense of humour anymore. Sad, isn't it?
October 13, 2002

Comment: Here's a thought. Why don't people try to rise above the bad things that happen to them in life. Yes, the whole world is groaning in pain. Right this very moment a billion children are near near death because they don't have enough food to eat. Other kids are regularly getting their little hands and feet blown off by land mines. And yes, there are countless millions of battered wives and abused children who continue to be victimised, again and again. So why spend your whole life bashing JW's? That's just honing in on one very small segment of the problem. DO SOMETHING POSITIVE. Rise above it all, enjoy your life, and get the most out of it. Or get out there and actively fight against all forms of inhumanity. Work hard towards a better future for everyone. Trust in God to clean up this whole stinking mess that we've made of the earth. Yes, us. Grow up, and stop looking for other people to blame. RT
October 13, 2002

Comment: the mole a comment from an elder from today when i asked him about the material. "we should obey and not question because if we do we are going against god's organization. " Bill we have lost before we began. Let us continue to fight. We are evil for being independent and saying something about the evil we see in our halls. . .
October 13, 2002

Comment: Janice I have sincerly tried to reach out to you. This site is an open forum for now. I would like a type of chat so that there was more structure to talks like this one. I like this site because ( I got to meet you) as you say by appointing less than qualified elders to positons of major power over individuals lives is weak leadership at the hierarchy level. Women in regard to leadership are not 2nd class. They are not a class at all. That is one of my major issues with the JW's. I have confronted JW's on this very issue and they claim that women have never had any role in leading. It is not their place. Then it was backed with Gen. about Adam & Eve. I know that all this is not wt history or doctrine but it is what is. And it is flawed. You it that on the head. But you also seem to be edged to attack these people. I do not care if you are male or female. You will recive the same respect from me. And the same challenges. I assume no less from you. Also people here are learning. Some like me have really be screwed by zelot warlord like elders who would rather sacrifice me and my family than admit an fault at any level. I know that is an individuals problem but in your religion it is a plague. People have gone from being perisctuted to being the perscutors. Even in the case of rape. I think that there is always room for a U-turn if you are going the wrong way. But first you must admit that you are going the wrong way. You guys assume that you are the only religious path that is worth walking. Every religion of the past that has made that claim self distructed. None have been able to give one ioda of proof that they have any more divine truth than my little finger has. I love God. I belive that through the teachings of Jesus Christ you can know of a God that is a loving Father as opposed to an angery disapointed Warlord. We need to protect all of our children. It seems quite clear at this point the Jehovah Witnesses have failed to do that for many, many people. There is so much evidence that this is true. Brown's statements are enough to show that. If you want to live under the thumb of that kind of stupidity it is your right. But it is my right to tell ever person on Earth that if you become a Jehovah Witness and you are assaulted by another Jehovah Witness then you can not seek justice. Unless you hire a full time body-gaurd with a cam corder. Janice you seem to know what is going on. It would be nice to have some JW's who are not afraid to stand up publicly and say there is a need for change. Would you be willing to to that?-Jayson

October 13, 2002

Comment: Thanks for the reply, Josh. I guess we'll have to "Agree to Disagree" and/or Time Will Tell. . . /SLC

October 13, 2002

Comment: Dear "Name": Thanks for the reply and comments. Sounds like a good plan to at least inform the medical commission about any JW employees and how they are "trained theocratically" to share information in private medical records. --- Interesting story you told about your experience with the younger JW lady. And you're right, the young 'uns don't hang out much with the senior types. --- As far as smokers, you described it well, i. e. , stress will do it to ya. And silentlambs is made up of ALL supporters and/or victims, whether DA, DF'd, current, active, inactive, etc. The officially policy is "We don't ask, so you don't have to tell" since anyone's current standing (or habits) is not the issue or main focus of silentlambs. Please see the 10-9-02 statement by Founder Bowen, posted on 10-11-02. I think that sums it up nicely. But thanks for your concern and obvious insight, which is more than we can say for alot of people! :-) ---- I wouldn't bothing using the "Name" section of the reply window for now. I have tested it several times but it is not working, at least not yet. That's why I put my code-name-initials at the END of my posts. /SLC

October 13, 2002

Comment: Hi everyone! Please go visit www. DANNYHASZARD. COM who posted a comment here on 10-11-02. It's "for real" and not one of anti-John's fake sites. Danny has a Guestbook similar to this, and you can write him a Thank You for hosting silentlambs video and stuff. /SLC

October 13, 2002

Comment: Thank you from Greed & Love of Money for your post. Your honesty is appreciated by me. Sounds to me like you are truly sorry and it sets some sort of example of what it sounds to hear a person who is repentant and sorrowful as well as worthy of forgiveness. So sorry that you were molested as a very young child. Sometimes I think it takes a lifetime to sort it all out what was done to us, what we do in reaction and then coming to some sort of peace with it all to the point we can become a better person. You were very courageous to post here. Thanks, Soapbox

October 13, 2002

Comment: THE MOLE: I noticed along time ago how the "answers" during the WT study on Sundays were not in people's words, but word for word out of the paragraph. A long time ago it was encouraged to use your own words, not any more. Any show of our own thinking is discouraged at the KH. True independance is a relationship with God. That is as good as it gets. My abusive husband use to call me "independant" because I could think, reason, had integrity and but most of all he could not "manipulate me. " If they can't manipulate you, they call you independant. Emotional blackmail. We are dependant on God and Jesus always and people hate that. How is your grandmother?
Love, Soapbox

October 13, 2002

Comment: If you don't like the apostates here, or the ones who have been abused you can leave. We are not here to entertain you or amuse you. If you don't like hearing all the "blame" being put on the WTS don't come here.
BONNIELYNN WHERE ARE YOU???? Now that girl makes us laugh because she is really funny and we know humor when we hear it. Love, soapbox
October 13, 2002

Comment: The MOLE had written: "Has anyone read the new book published at our last assembly "Worship the Only True God"? The title should be "worship the Organization or Else." . . . Throughout the entire book it has frases such as this, "This world is saturated with the spirit of independence from God and his laws. So we need to curb that spirit in ourselves." ----- How about this one from the The WT, Aug, 15, 2002, page 18 paragraph 10: "When someone wants to know why you do not take part in some unscriptural custom of practice, do not be satisfied with saying, 'It's against my religion.' SUCH AN ANSWER MAY SUGGEST THAT YOU LET OTHERS MAKE DECISIONS FOR YOU, and THAT YOU MUST THEREFORE BE a member of a CULT. It might be better to say, 'God's Word, the Bible, forbids it or, 'It would displease my God.' Then give a reasonable explanation." ----- Seems the society is a little of the defensive? Question, though: What if there IS NO Bible explanation or prohibition for whatever question the JW is replying to? (Such as 1914, the anointed being chosen/cleansed 1918, etc.) Then what is the JW supposed to say? "I believe it because they told me too." ---- Back to the drawing board, fellas. ;-) /SLC
October 14, 2002

Comment: That's very brave of 45-YRS. OLD to visit here and admit your perpetrator abuses. I am glad to hear you became repulsed at your actions, turned away from that activity, and apologized to your victims. That says a lot How many perpetrators actually do THAT? /SLC
October 14, 2002

Comment: LOL! @ Onan The Destroyer and his Delete Key comment! Anti-John, if you would "place nice" and keep your tongue in check, but you refuse. I think the moderators of this or ANY guestbook have the right to delete trash mouths, etc. Anyone who wants a wide-open say-anything-you-want, foul, vulgar, etc., you are always welcome to start your OWN discussion board. Right? Freedom of Choice works BOTH ways. /SLC
October 14, 2002

Comment: I agree with Linda Thoman's observations about "How To Repent of One's Sins" JW-style. Crocodile Tears, yeah baby! Works every time it seems. /SLC
October 14, 2002

Comment: I must completely disagree with the person who wrote: "None of these people are even capable of having a sense of humor anymore." --- Quite the contrary, dear. Here, have a laugh: ----- A man in a hot air balloon realized he was lost. He reduced altitude and spotted a man below. He descended a bit more and shouted, "Excuse me, can you help? I promised a friend I would meet him an hour ago, but I don't know where I am." --- The man below replied, "You are in a hot air balloon hovering approximately 30 feet above the ground. You are between 40 and 41 degrees north latitude and between 59 and 60 degrees west longitude." --- "You must be an engineer," said the balloonist. "I am," replied the man. "How did you know?" --- "Well," answered the balloonist, "everything you told me is, technically correct, but I have no idea what to make of your information, and the fact is I am still lost. Frankly, you've not been much help so far." --- The man below responded, "You must be in Management." --- "I am," replied the balloonist, "but how did you know?" --- "Well," said the man, "you don't know where you are or where you are going. You have risen to where you are, due to a large quantity of hot air. You made a promise which you have no idea how to keep, and you expect people beneath you to solve your problems. The fact is you are in exactly the same position you were in before we met, but now, somehow, it's my fault." ----- LOL! Have a laugh and then apply it as you see fit! ;-) /SLC
October 14, 2002

Comment: Get a grip, anti-john -- and didn't you say your name was Ron P. Thompson? It's obvious by the content of what I wrote: What I mean by FAKE is that YOU are a FAKE, and from your track record here, it's a 99. 99% positive that ANYTHING you say or create is FAKE (i.e., CONTENT). You can put up all the websites you want, but that does not mean they are NOT FAKE. But, by all means, continue to enjoy yourself and your 'creations.' I guess it does provide a "hobby" for your warped personality. /SLC ----- Anti-John wrote: "SLC you are a liar. I have never, ever not even once posted a "fake" web site. If you go to http://www.antijohnisanutcase.com you will see that the link is live and the site definitely real. the anti-john"
October 14, 2002

October 14, 2002
Comment: ALL NY MARCH PHOTOS TO DATE (that I know of). Enjoy!! /SLC

October 14, 2002

There is now a mirror site for the video, if it says download site 1, just hit refresh to get the mirror site, download site 2.
October 14, 2002

Comment: VIDEO of the silentlambs March: Scroll down the list to: "SILENT LAMBS MARCH (VIDEO)". This is in Windows Media Player: When done, be sure to watch the Dateline TV program from May and the Panorama TV program from June. /SLC

October 14, 2002

Comment: NY MARCH VIDEO in Real Player at this site: I now have part one of four parts of the Silentlambs march on Brooklyn September 27th in 56k version (grainy) and DSL version up at: --- 56K: http://www.dannyhaszard.com/march1sm.html --- DSL: http://www.dannyhaszard.com/march1smidsl.html --- This is a better page for linking and sending to others: --- http://www.dannyhaszard.com/brooklynmarch.htm --- I can only put a couple of the DSL versions up at a time, since they are about 30 megabytes each, but will have the 56k versions up regularly. Actually the video was shot by Jim Rizoli (I credited Joe by mistake), and he did a good job. The whole thing is an hour. Pretty good action, especially to see the doddering old Henschel who had years to correct his "theocracy" but would not. Shame on these old men for harboring pedophiles! Let me know what you think. Randy Watters - Net Soup!

http://www.freeminds.org
October 14, 2002

Comment: SILENTLAMBS FOUNDER, B. Bowen, is in GERMANY THIS WEEK and visited the German Branch. Great pictures (with article in German) here: http://www.infolink-net.de/docs/news/silentlambs-selters.htm AND here: http://www.infolink-net.de/ --- DO WE HAVE ANY GERMAN VISITORS HERE WHO CAN TRANSLATE THE ARTICLES??? HELP!! --- This info obtained from here. . . ENJOY! /SLC --- Topic: Bill Bowen visits German WT branch office --- posted by GermanJW Oct 13, 2002 13:21 --- On 12th October, Bill Bowen went to the German branch office in Selters/Ts. He came not further than the gate, where he was allowed to contact Werner Rudtke, member of the Branch Committee, via telephone. After some minutes, Rudtke excused for his "bad English" and connected to Hans Obermeier, another Bethel member. It seems that both knew whom they were dealing with. --- They said this was an American topic and hence Brooklyn was the place to be contacted by Bowen. They said, in Germany only a few isolated cases are known. (Operator words: "ARE KNOWN." /slc) --- Bowen was accompanied by members of an Ex-JW-Organisation and a former "silent lamb". --- END OF POST.

October 14, 2002

Comment: To whoever wrote this (NAMELESS???) --- "SLC-Jehovah does NOT NEED humans to vindicate him but he DOES USE humans in this manner. . . " --- YES, WE KNOW! And people like B. Anderson & B. Bowen and other supporters (as the HUMANS they are), are doing just that! Vindicating the "LITTLE SHEEP" (hence, vindicating God since children are HIS to begin with) that "Jehovah's servants" NEGLECTED since they were more interested in "WAITING on Jehovah" and "Protecting the WT Image" to do anything about it. /SLC

October 14, 2002

Comment: Good "comeback" john to the "you can't please everybody" donkey story. /SLC ---- John had replied to the donkey story: "that's right you can never please everybody. . . and in over 120 years the wt has never pleased god jesus ,the holy spirit. the angels . but they have pleased themselves plenty, with the name of god to mislead and lie to followers for their own greed. "

October 14, 2002

Comment: Oh, PUH-LEASE, bioharmony. Please take your certification in psychology, that you read in a book (head knowledge) and flush your certificate down the toilet! You are speaking YOUR OPINION and YOUR OPINION ONLY. How dare you Miss Haughty Taughty attempt to put WORDS in the mouths/hearts of HAPPY SURVIVORS who went to the March in NY??? Puh-Lease!! Your condescending judgmental OPINION is sickening and an INSULT to the people who went to the March to BOND WITH LIKE-MINDED, LIKE-HEARTED PEOPLE who UNDERSTAND, AND to SPEAK OUT & "Take Back their POWER" which the abusers and the WT’s policies took away. Puh-Lease! WERE YOU THERE? Have you personally spoken to any of them who were there? I NEVER SAW SUCH A GROUP OF EXHILARATED & HAPPY PEOPLE!! Absolutely NO ONE was "re-traumatized"! Your ignorance of how people feel
AND FELT in NY or thereafter completely lacks substance and will certainly make you a very lousy psychologist. I hope you didn’t put your name on the list of Silentlams therapists with an attitude like that. Go read some more books! /SLC ---- BIO wrote: "What concerns me with this whole silent lambs scene is that it making the victims relive their trauma over and over again. There's no closure for them until they can put it behind them. Marching on Bethel, going to the media only multiplies the stress and trauma. Why let the abusers destroy you? Try to put it behind you and get on with your lives. "
October 14, 2002

Comment: JASON, keep up the good work! I enjoyed your "public talk" outlining the issues on 10-11-02! However, if the audience is made up of jellybeans, we can only hope they are sweet and colorful (all except the ones that taste like licorice. YUK!) Blessings/SLC ---- (Jayson had asked: "SLC should I just shut up now? I feel like I am singing to that bag of jellybeans. " October 11, 2002

Comment: Someone asked: "What does (cert IV psychology) mean?????" ----- It means the person has had their head stuck in books for a long long time and has no idea how REAL PEOPLE feel, FOUR TIMES (IV) over. /SLC October 14, 2002

Comment: WAY TO GO, Buster, on 10-11-02. Excellent Summation. /SLC October 14, 2002

Comment: LOL & Hugs to Soapbox for explaining very well the lambs' rights to be PISSED OFF! /SLC October 14, 2002

Comment: HEAVEN HELP AUSTRALIA since that is where "Bioharmony" is or will be a practicing psychologist! BEWARE! All that book knowledge taught Bio NOTHING! To repeat: Lambs & Supporters at the NY March were the HAPPIEST PEOPLE I EVER MET! And they/we WERE doing something BENEFICIAL with their/our lives, i. e., THEY/WE ALL SUPPORTED EACH OTHER. HEARTS WERE OVERFLOWING Everywhere, HUGS, CHATTER & LAUGHER day and into the night. SPEAK NOT OF WHAT YOU DO NOT KNOW, Mr. /Ms. BIO. If you know SO MUCH, I hope you are making plans NOW to be at the NEXT MARCH in the UK in March 2003. TRY IT! YOU'LL LIKE IT! /SLC ----- BIO(degradable) wrote: "A wound kept open will never heal. Marching on Brooklyn Bethel, going to the media is keeping the wound open. The best way to overcome that stress and anger you feel is to use your experience in a positive way - like becoming a welfare worker and helping abused children. Cert IV Psychology is the level I was required to attain in psychology to become a health worker here in Australia. bioharmony" October 14, 2002

Comment: PS to bio: It's people like YOU who cause us to feel IRKED and "Keep Our Wounds Open" because of your obvious and TOTAL lack of UNDERSTANDING of what "works" and what "doesn't work. " /SLC October 14, 2002

Comment: Somebody PLEASE HELP bio to understand the UN thing. Dear, please call the UN YOURSELF. No one MUST be a member in order to use the library or get info from them. Go to www. jehovahs-witness. com and use the SEARCH FEATURE and type in "UN" and you will see the documents for yourself. --- And if what you "have been told" is TRUE, then why did the WT NOT TELL YOU back in '91-'92 rather than wait UNTIL THEY WERE EXPOSED by the "apostates" mind you, and THEN they WITHDREW their membership faster than a Jack Rabbit! --- READ THE DOCUMENTATION, ALL OF IT. Better yet, CALL the UN YOURSELF. "Make Sure of ALL Things. " /SLC October 14, 2002

Comment: BIO- CAPS ARE ALSO FOR EMPHASIS! And yes, you speak of things you know nothing about, so you deserve our DISGUST. /SLC October 14, 2002

Comment: What ILL-INFORMED person wrote this?? --- "So to you who claim that 23,000 pedophiles are knocking on your doors - no chance. They would not even be allowed to go door to door!" ----- Did you not see DATELINE?? Have you not read the WTS policies that INDEED YES they ARE allowed to go "door to door" as long as someone is WITH THEM? Child, you are speaking in ignorance of the facts. /SLC October 14, 2002 was a child. Yes, CHILD. Even though I didn't really have facts from book learning, I NATURALLY FELT IT when interspersed with teachings in ANY organization. It's recognizing them and eliminating them from having the leaven even by elders. Some defend me fearlessly. It's not unusual or difficult to get imperfect human's ideas and opinions there are some external voices and not just my own from the inside. Interestingly, I'm considered right and accurate, Yes. But that's only wanting a policy and policies changed. It's not a condemnation of the entire religion. I'm GLAD glad you're speaking out against the unrighteous policies of the society's treatment of abused and molested children? leave to, "Where else can I go?" Pleas, Jayson, don't tell me to go with you because you aren't going anywhere. Am I... things didn't sound right or feel right. The more anyone tried to change that in me, the more I fought for it to not be changed. Simply because you and some others were duped into believing you had to do whatever you were told and listen only to what they were telling you is, very honestly and realistically, NOT TRUE. You were duped because you, probably were very trusting. I'm not a trusting person. Do I think it's wrong this happened to you? Yes, because that is what sheep are - they listen to their master's voice. Whoever was YOUR master, you listened. As we grow, we need to be able to make rational decisions based on accurate knowledge. Accurate knowledge doesn't come just from books or only a certain set of books. We need an anchor. My anchor is the Bible. I go from there. The society encourages research. Those of us that have a higher education, research very well. Our instructors LOVE us. They love the different approach we have and the analytical abilities we demonstrate in our writings. We have our papers researched and in by the deadline whereas other students want extra time because they were playing and not doing their work as assigned. There isn't ONE SINGLE PERSON that hasn't had to struggle in her or his life. When Jehovah told Adam that he would struggle with the earth to make it produce food to eat, he wasn't just talking to Adam. He was letting us all know how tough it was going to be to survive outside of the paradise he originally created. This isn't the WTS talking - that is LIFE talking. You're not the only one that's been raped, beaten, molested, robbed, cheated, etc. Simply because some of us refuse to let hatred run our lives doesn't mean it was any less harmful or painful for us than it is for you. What YOU are failing to see and understand is that we've got more YEARS on you and we KNOW that TIME HEALS ALL WOUNDS. Time doesn't make you forget, it helps you to be able to keep moving forward in your life. You're trying to convert, not correct. You're trying to pull people into your own, limited, experience. To me, you're like a child (and I've raised some and know - GOOD children but, still, children) that keeps trying to get a parent to think like they do and not like an adult HAS to think to continue helping the child grow to adulthood, to keep their money in the bank where they can continue to provide financially for the benefit of their household, to keep food on the table, to keep shelter over their head, to have some comfort in this bitter and otherwise cold life, etc. However, do you know what is REALLY wonderful for a parent? It's when they see their child grow - in spite of whatever mistakes they may make we're just glad they're still in one piece. They get to be late 20s, early 30s, 40s, and all our hard work in NOT LETTING THEM MAKE US THINK AND ACT LIKE THEM WHEN THEY WERE CHILDREN shows in the wonderful maturity and responsibility they display. Too, the LOVE and AFFECTION they give us that they SO VERY READILY DENIED US in the mid-teens through their early and mid-20s. You still have a long road to travel in your life. If you try to define YOUR WHOLE REST OF YOUR LIFE with NOW, you're going to get older and say, as many do, "I got old too fast and smart too late!" You may feel your life has been hurt and wasted so far. Well, you know what? Only YOU can hurt and waste your whole rest of your life now. Take care of the problem? Yes. Stunt your growth? It's not worth it. Because I do NOT let ANYONE, no matter WHO they are, compromise me, I have a tremendous freedom inside of me. I really feel right with God. No one can take that away from me and I won't let anyone take that away from me. The Bible is ALL ABOUT learning to "read" people and not get sucked in by them. And JW's have "sucking in" types of people among them. The wheat and the weeds haven't been separated yet - in ANY religion. Time will tell if Jehovah God has an organization and which one it is. When that time comes, NOTHING you can say will tell me that it isn't Jehovah's Witnesses because I KNOW FOR MYSELF. I look at EVERYTHING not just a narrow list of things that have only one focus. Life isn't that way. There are many facets to consider in ANY issue. Besides that, you don't get to my age without a lot of bumps along the way. It's not the bumps you get but what you do with them that counts. This is NOT saying your issues are not important. It's just saying that the issues need to be handled - not swept under the carpet - handled. That doesn't mean EVERYTHING in any organization has to be destroyed. I'm not into destruction. THAT is Jehovah God's job - believe it or not. -

Janice

October 14, 2002

Comment: Here's some information that's sure to rock your Dub world! http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerExcape/subliminalmessages

Re: the mole

October 14, 2002

Comment: the mole thanks for asking about my grandmother. . Our family is now bickering on facts and dismissing much of the broadcast saying it is the work of the devil trying to destroy god's organization. My argument to them is why was this guy on TV going door to door. It is sad that even with crucial evidence many so narrow and seduced by the society they are reluctant to believe they may have given up much of their lives to something that my be false. My sister who is a devout believer is now questioning a lot of things and asking the hard questions. I brought it to her attention my research these last months on why our family each has their own point of view on the same topic. I believe this to be true with those at the headquarters that they have no clue and this is why bill bowen's issue was dealt with at his local hall. So many errors they keep making but the hard headed and the brainwashed will refuse even if the society is publicly exposed for being money venturers and capitalist. If you remember the letter I wrote to my family and published on this and other websites, it was an atomic bomb that my family is stirred up with. I hit them at the core of their faith. If we don't question our religion we are doomed to suffer a fate worse than Germany. . . the mole*

October 14, 2002
Comment: Janice-I don't see how we disagree so much. I thought that you said that there needs to be change from within the organization. I never said burn all the halls. I was saying to act on what your heart is telling you. I say that if people like you and there must be more then one stood up and were heard then there would be no need for my typing this post to you. I do not want to convert you. You are not a coyote and I am not a sheep. We both have minds. We both can use them. You have no need to attack me. But, if your religion continues on the path that it is on. The results will be of its own undoing. Don't say I did not warn you. -Jayson
October 14, 2002

Comment: Bioharmony, I don't see that people's posts and comments on being molested or raped by Dubs fits your comments to let it all go and live your happy life, etc. First of all, I don't believe any of us who have been molested, male or female, are spending our lives in constant emotional depression over what happened to us in the past. We have grown up, some of us have gotten married and have families of our own. The problem isn't about retribution or vengeance for ourselves, but we post our stories and past experiences so that newbies can see that they are not alone, that others have gone through what they've gone through, and can completely understand where they are coming from, and we are supportive of each other. My feeling is that we are all working hard to make changes for the protection and care of children, so that THEY are not molested/raped in the future. My work and effort is not to keep re-hashing my personal experiences as a Silentlamb, but to work for the future protection of children, so they do not go through what I and others have. Linda Thoman
October 14, 2002

Comment: Bio: it is not just SLC that is pissed. Nothing is more invalidating that telling someone to get over it when they have not gotten over it. You are opening a wound by not hearing what the victim has to say. The elders did not listen. The child/parents had to be silent. They stuffed it for many many years and now they are not stuffing it anymore. How would you like to "worship" with your elders who did not believe you and watch them keep the abuser in good standing??? One elder required the victim's family to have the sex offender to dinner to show that they were forgiving. Can you image having to do that? And how angry one would be with themselves for go-along with that? They stuffed it and stuffed it. #######Then you further invalidate the heroic efforts of the victims to stop this abuse by marching, by writing the newspapers, involving the media. They don't want it to be a secret anymore. Not "just" for themselves but so that others can stop stuffing it and to warn people as a preventive act. #### You are re-victimizing by invalidating the healing process in whatever form it takes. It is the stuffing it that makes people sick and the longer they stuff it the sicker they get. Maybe you had some sort of support, many of these people not only had no support but had to be "nice" to their abuser. Some of these people had parents who made them stuff it in order to please God aka WTS. #######Silentlambs no more - a silent lamb knows when they are not heard, understood, invalidated, and when their pain is being minimized by someone saying "get over it." It is insensitive and selfish. Did you see A Beautiful Mind or K-Pax? You re-victimize people when you know more than they do about their healing process. The words "get over it" Sounds impatient and judgmental. When you talk about how you got over it, you sound superior. #######I believe that it is important that victims don't do anything that would exploit them as victims. . . the media, an attorney, a therapist and the system can do that. No victim should do anything that is not emotional safe for them, even if it means not taking a pedophile to court. But for the first time these folks felt safe enough to walk right up to the WTS and say No More Silent Lambs. . . this is wonderful. Soapbox
October 14, 2002

Comment: RE: 23,720. some people have been wearing out there calculators with regards to percentages of JWs being child molesters and so on. in a fax sent to Betsan Powys, BBC Panorama, by the WTS, they stated "In the United States we do not have records of child abusers who live in other lands." so if the figure of 23,720 is correct, then that would apply solely to the U. S. which could mean there being a lot higher percentage of child abusers in congregations than previously thought, just a possibility. * and for all those who think that an organization needs to be an NGO to get a UN library card, for goodness sake, learn how to research. RICH
October 14, 2002

Comment: Good to see you Rich. Buster too. -Jayson
October 14, 2002

Comment: Linda Thoman - It wouldn't be the first time that someone sabotaged our writing or pictures. A good artist can do that without anyone else realizing it. With computers, people can do just about anything. Personally, I think that those pictures in the link you posted require more investigation. I wouldn't take that on the face value of the evidence presented. - Janice
October 14, 2002
Comment: Not only are pedophiles "allowed" to go door-door, the are encouraged to do so. Participating in the ministry is a sign of repentance and being a good JW.
October 14, 2002

Comment: Jayson: I got a big grin when I saw your greeting. Thanks, and I've been reading your posts quite closely. For the past few weeks while reading the guestbook, just as I am formulating an opinion, the next post is from you, saying just about exactly what I was thinking (usually with a softer tone). Its been kind of eerie. I watched your discussion with Janice and am struck by her closed-mindedness and arrogance. She sure can use a lot of words to say only that they just need to do work thru a few pages of policies and procedures and all will be honky dory. Its all about the authoritarian structure of the organization and how its secrecy provides a haven for pedophiles. These are core to the JW belief structure. - Buster
October 14, 2002

Comment: Sincere question for JWs: I have noticed that several JW posters of the recent past have used references to other religions, such as "we're no worse than . . . ", or 'separating is not complete in any religions.' You know, that sort of stuff. So, since I stopped going to the five-times-weekly indoctrination sessions, has the Society begun to posture itself as 'A' religion? I remember a firm 'THE Religion and scorn the rest' attitude. - Buster
October 14, 2002

Comment: Don't know where these apostates get their info from, but I've searched the UN site - there is no NGO on that site. The NGO is a news info site which has many links, including the UN. To say the WT is supporting the UN is like saying that whenever I pull the plug in the bathtub, I'm supporting the navy!! Or that posting this makes me a supporter of SilentLambs.com
October 14, 2002

Comment: It's not necessary to GO PUBLIC with child abuse stories to be healed. I certainly am listening, and if the victims' parents, elders, police, welfare workers did not listen then they are reprehensible in the sight of God.
October 14, 2002

Comment: All information on the watchtower and its appearance on the list as an NGO, can be found at http://www.randytv.com/secret/unitednations.htm or visit my website www.antijehovahswitness.com for link. Don't like this new style in guestbook. Prefer old one. Dear Bill, if you read this i have written a section about your efforts, and what else needs to be tackled before anyone can ever take this religion seriously again.
October 14, 2002

Comment: the mole to bill, i thought i would write you to let you know what the official response is from the society and i quote from 132-134 from the 'worship the only true god' publication. . . . . . "Jehovah's visible organization is made up of spirit anointed brothers located in the headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses. . . . The elders who make recommendations and those who do the appointing bear a serious responsibility before god. . . . the offer prayer for the aid of god's spirit and seek guidance from his inspired word. . . . Let us show our appreciation for these gifts in men who help us all attain to the oneness in the faith. . . . appreciatively accept the spiritual provisions that come through the slave class and its governing body, . . . . . . . Our attitude toward this arrangement demonstrates how we feel about the issue of sovereignty. . . . If we serve in any way needed and AVOID THINGS THAT DRAW UNDUE ATTENTION TO SELF, WE PROVE THE DEVIL A LIAR . . . If we love and respect those who take the lead among us we bring joy to jehovah. . . . By being loyal to jehovah's organization, we show that jehovah is our god and that we are united in worship of him. . . . I guess in reasoning this out, it is the organization that is now our mediator to god and christ is on break. I thought christ was the mediator between man and god? so now they claim to be God's channel? is this not an example of making false prophets? As a brother in the kingdom halls i can see this, more or less the headquarters is saying shut up and don't question anything we do. Sorry bill bowen but this is the official attitude to speaking against rapist and child molester in the kingdom halls. . . the mole*
October 14, 2002

Comment: "It's not necessary to GO PUBLIC with child abuse stories to be healed" True. true. Do you think that there is a right to go public? That is the issue here. It seems that with every day there is more and more evidence that these people (sl's) are telling the facts as they are, as they happened. The WT and the JWD's continue to wish that is was not what is true, but it is. Not doing anything in the name of justice is the right of the abused. But if that one that was abused demands that everyone else stay silent then I say that person is now an abuser. /// Which does not supervise me at all. Justice, "faith in the community" was broken for them. Why should it be restored for anyone else? That to me would be quite close to hell. -Jayson Be silent no more!
October 14, 2002
Comment: /SCL come to my new group to escape from the evil Bill Bowen. So far we has 2 members, that is me, and Anthony C. Aardvark. We welcomes everybody and does not shun anyone. If you would like to join, send e-mail ronpthomson@usa.com
October 14, 2002

Comment: janice ;;did you forget according to many new wt mag's the elders are appointed by the HOLY SPRIT... put that in your pipe and smoke it!!!!!!!!!!!IF YOU WANT I WILL LOOK IT UP. . john
October 14, 2002

Comment: John - Brothers, usually MSs first, are recommended for appointment by the elders in the congregation they're in according to the requirements set out in the Bible. In that sense, they are appointed by holy spirit. The society depends on the recommending elders to have followed closely the Bible's requirements for a man reaching out for more responsibility in the congregation. - Janice
October 14, 2002

Comment: Buster - No, I don't think the society is calling itself a religion. However, the Greek word IS translated church. In Greece, the last time I was there, they did call the KH "church" (in the Greek language). In the eyes of the world, JW's are a religion. They are recognized as such in many countries. To me, to make a big deal out of this is not too important as, most of the time, it's true in another language and it's not meant as some JWs would interpret it in wanting to be separate and not identified with other religions. Anyway, I've been around a long time and have talked to a lot of people and we are all very similar. Interestingly, we all feel the same when it comes to oppression from our church, family, friends, work, etc. People's feelings are a strong issue in the Bible and, for the most part, the counsel we receive is such that we can learn to understand our psychological makeup and learn to respect it and talk and act in a manner that doesn't harm one another mentally, emotionally, and psychologically. Actually, also, not spiritually, intellectually or socially, too. These things appear to be the moral of a lot of the stories in the Bible as it's usually talking about people's interactions with one another and the results of these interactions - sometimes terrible outcomes and sometimes very commendable outcomes. Much of mankind's anger and hatred seems to come from our EMOTIONS, our MINDS, our HEARTS. If we viewed everything without any "heart" interference, it's possible that there wouldn't be so much conflict as there may not be joy or pain involved. I think that's why Jehovah's counsel has so much to do with how we treat one another and the Bible shows us what attitudes and actions bring about bad or good results. As to how we view ourselves, new information is that the wheat and weeds have not yet been separated. Right now, Jehovah God is giving everyone an opportunity to make their choices. JWs used to think that the wheat and the weeds were sifted way back in the early 1900s. That's where many got the idea that they were already wheat and all the others were weeds. However, it's clear that, right now, the wheat and the weeds are still mixed together. Humans don't make that separation. It'll be JC that makes that separation and it hasn't happened yet. This, I believe, will help to make more JWs humble in their attitude toward others. Even as a child, I never liked that attitude of "I'm wheat" and you are "weeds". It's taken a lot of years to be vindicated in my feelings about that text. - Janice
October 14, 2002

Comment: Janice: Thanks for the well-stated opinions. I sense sincerity and thoughtfulness there. You say things that I can agree with all day. Yup, its all about how we treat each other. But what I cannot get my arms around is the discrepancy between your stated views and my (and I'm certain others - especially the SLs) experiences with the JW's. Being a JW is all about rigidity, separation, paranoia, and most of all, a sense of compulsion. Its about coming together of two general groups: those looking to tell others how to live their lives, and those wanting to be told. (Somebody say Amen) And I'll point to an example you started: "new information" or "new light." Why would you need vindication for your interpretation of that scripture? You felt vindicated because before that you felt oppressed and put upon to believe what made no sense to you. It is perfectly OK for religious leaders to continually see how they may better align their beliefs with divine intentions. What is wrong is the arrogance, pride, and oppressiveness that comes with one group deciding that IT is the arbiter of all things scriptural AND demanding that you obey, and worse, believe everything they tell you. Before you deny, lets generalize: what would happen if you stood up for what you believe in the face of WTS teachings? Pick one - 144,000 as a literal number, 1914, birthdays, male facial hair . . . You would have to either suppress what you believe is true or face ostracism. That is the choice you face - and you call that the Truth? - Buster
October 14, 2002

Comment: Janice. I am sorry to tell you this. You know what you are doing very well. What you stand for is very bad. I could not finish reading your long post because it is sickening with lies and hypocrisy. If you are sincere than I am truly sorry because that way you sound naive. But far from that. what I truly think is that you are a dangerous person.
God holds you responsible for many things. You won’t run too far with this before you are caught. rmk
October 14, 2002

Comment: Tsk, tsk, tsk! All the “loose talk” & threats of violence from such pristine mouths as Anthony c. aardvrk & the anti-john! What a great witness you guys are! A witness to the pacifism the witnesses have always showed, & how well spoken they are! ANTHONY C. AARDVARK & THE ANTI-JOHN ARE APOSTATES TRYING TO MAKE ALL OF US FAITHFUL & TRUE WITNESSES LOOK BAD! PLEASE, IF YOU KNOW WHO ronthompson@usa.net IS, TELL YOUR ELDERS! THIS IS A PLOT TO DISCREDIT US BY JUVENILE RANTINGS & SWEARING! DO NOT SUBMIT TO THE “EVIL SLAVE”!!! ELDER BOB!!! elderbob@poop.com
October 14, 2002

Comment: ANTHONY C AARDVARK HERE. ELDER BOB YOU ARE PISSING ME OFF. IF YOU DON’T SHUT UP I AM GOING TO SHOVE YOUR HEAD UP YOUR ASS AND BREAK YOU IN TWO.
October 14, 2002

Comment: Saw a movie today about a couple whose son had diabetes. True Story. They were of some religion that believed that God would heal their son if the had enough Faith. The son died. It was pride, not faith. Pride in their show of faith that permitted them to watch their son die. The father in the end said: without love no fruit of the spirit has value. Faith without love is pride. Love, soapbox
October 14, 2002

Comment: Anyone who would look forward to spitting on someone’s grave will need luck to make it through! And there is no such luck.
October 14, 2002

Comment: Ever notice how aardvark’s and the anti-john’s posts nearly always follow each other? Guess that crack habit the anti-john developed under the bleachers at the assembly two years ago has finally caught up with him. he’s gone completely SKITZO!! then of course his third alter-ego. RMKISEVL, is about to go over the edge, and he just recently developed. Poor little anti-jonanthonyaardvarkRMKISEVL! See what happens when close relatives marry? Now we get to see a version of “three-in-one”. And you say there is no Trinity? . . . The ANTI-anthonyaardvarkRMKISEVL.
October 14, 2002

Comment: Want to see the anti-john as he, AARDVARK and RMKISEVL are out in field service? Go to www.elvesontricycles.com . The anti-john is the second person from the right. Nice legs, huh? Oh, by the way, the two word statement in the upper left hand corner are a direct command from the Governing Body to anti-john’s MOTHER!
October 14, 2002

Comment: Lest I be accused of illiteracy, the statement above should read "IS the direct command of the Governing Body" . . . Hurry, anti-john, I think i see some innocent little children over in the park. If you buy offer them candy, you might get lucky this time! You sick FREAK!
October 14, 2002

Comment: THE MOLE today's bookstudy. Have you read it? how about this weeks year book? For those not of the faith we are now being told to tell on those lacking faith to the brothers. Sorry to blow all of you with so much info this week but cant help it. now I am supposed to meet with the body of elders this week for my letter to my family. Ray Franz if you are reading this say a prayer for me. I am next. . . . *The mole
October 14, 2002

Comment: ANTHONY C AARDVARK HERE. WHAT’S THIS CRAP? I'M NOT REAL? SEE IF YOU STILL SAY THAT AFTER YOUR HEAD LOSES ITS CONNECTION TO YOUR BODY. THATS NOT A THREAT.
October 14, 2002

Comment: A. C Aardvark, leave your home address, I'll come over. Then we'll see. elderbob.
October 14, 2002
Comment: ANTHONY C AARDVARK HERE. NO YOU GIVE ME YOUR ADDRESS ELDER BOB AND I'LL COME OVER AND BEAT YOUR BRAINS OUT UNTIL THEY LEAK OUT ALL OVER THE FLOOR.
October 14, 2002

Comment: I found a really interesting web site www. countercult. com - many interesting articles on spiritual abuse. A little difficult at first - big big site. I searched: "A", then scroll until you find Abuse, spiritual. Soapbox
October 15, 2002

Comment: MOLE - check out the website that I posted above. There may be some comfort there to keep your sanity in tact. You know they are going to go after you. . . and you will be cut off. But not from God!!!Love, soapbox
October 15, 2002

Comment: evil. I think you made yourself abundantly clear. Ch. T.Russell was promoting Demonism all his life and separated himself from the love of Christ by founding a sect of Freemasonry called Watchtower. This is a fact. That is true Apostasy. You are a follower of his to this very day. Without Christ you have no salvation regardless how much you shout Apostasy”. The WT and all it's supporters will die soon at Armageddon or sooner. You are not welcomed here and as a JW you are not allowed here either. Where are your principles? Do you have any? The WT does not just like the Devil does not! rmk
October 15, 2002

Comment: To all my friends please do not use my name in a combination of the evil name. When answering him just call him Evil.
October 15, 2002

Comment: there are 2 forms of apostasy, the first is what the bible sees as apostasy, and the second is what the WTS sees as apostasy. i always go by what the bible says. * good to see you back MOLE! RICH
October 15, 2002

Comment: Buster - I've already said - MANY times - that I'm always in "hot water" because I do speak up and write letters. I've been doing that since I was a child - first in my own family, then in the congregation and organization - PROBABLY BEFORE YOU WERE EVEN AN IDEA in your parents plans for their life's course together. The DIFFERENCE is HOW I do these things. Read my other posts. The FACT is that, in spite of our inborn stubborn qualities (no one, especially people in the "spotlight", likes to admit they're wrong or didn't understand something right), the society DOES make adjustments to their beliefs and teachings when they can make an appropriate scriptural and reasoning explanation. Yes, I felt vindicated but I HAVE NOT BEEN SUPPRESSED. MY vindication came in the sense that I AM UNDERSTANDING THE SCRPTURES. My understanding is coming from my use of the Bible and the publications. Just because there are things that I'm not in agreement with doesn't mean I'm not in agreement with the majority of things. Jehovah's people who truly appreciative his son's position and importance in Jehovah God's eternal purpose for mankind WILL survive. The Bible tells us so. You're looking at imperfection and I'm looking at purpose. NONE of us would make it if Jehovah God looks at imperfection. I figure most here are 20 to 30 something. Even if some are 40-something, having passed that more than a a couple of decades ago, I can honestly tell you that you WILL view EVERYTHING differently with more experience. You will not lose your sense of right and wrong but you will, with learning first hand the futility of imperfection and the accompanying deterioration of one's body and mind, with death closer all the time, come to understand things that no one can really explain to you. Your pain is very real. Your wanting to correct the handling of matters is not from an imaginary problem. Ultimately, you fix one thing and there's another thing to fix and then another and then another. You learn, not to give up, but that it's NOT within humans' power to fix the multiple problems that CONSTANTLY afflict. We're NEW to this system of things and don't realize that this systems of things keeps going on with or without us - no matter what we do or how we expend ourselves. It doesn't change for anyone - no matter how good they are. THAT is why a total change is necessary and humans just cannot accomplish that - only Jehovah God can. As to WHOM will die - AND SOON - THAT, too, is not in OUR hands. It's Jesus Christ who has been appointed by Jehovah God to make that decision and I'm VERY confident in HIS COMPASSION and ability to make JUST decisions. I'm not scared nor do I feel the need to judge or decide about others, either. It's not in my hands to do that. - Janice - PS: As to the long paragraphs, I really apologize for that. It'd be nice if I could break it up into smaller paragraphs to make it easier to read.
October 15, 2002

Comment: Greetings from Germany! . . . . . We have made some excellent contacts in this country as well as other surrounding countries. There are many silent lambs who are finding their voices and exhibiting great courage to come forward. I am to meet with a young woman Thursday who was raped by her JW father who subsequently murdered the resulting baby. As we speak he remains a JW in "good standing", there are many still "in" and trying to make it work while suffering from the affects of their abuse. Another young sister who is still a teenager has to remain silent as her jw father who raped her, remeannes another sister with two little girls, he to is a jw with privileges in the congregation. I leave out the details as WT would go after them in short order, but it helps the reader to see this is a very current and ongoing problem. These young women need support greater than we can offer. If anyone knows of counselors in Europe that might be willing to assist, please contact silentlambs. In Germany there is a long waiting list for assistance and it can sometimes take months to get in front of help. If you know of resources or contacts please let me know. . . . . . . The stories are the same and many of these cases are documented with correspondence directly from the Branch. It truly is a worldwide problem. I have interviewed with media outside of Germany and was able to assist in backing up the interviews of several abuse survivors. The trip to Selters was interesting as they were caught completely by surprise. They were well aware of who silentlambs was as well as Bill Bowen. They shook my hand and accepted the stuffed lamb as a gift. I will have a further report when I get home, with pictures to boot. The story was the same with all allegiance going to New York and to hell with the victims. Silentlambs will have started a more organized effort in Germany to make known the child abuse issue. It is interesting to note that when the German PR man was interviewed by media and asked about child abuse in Germany he made the statement, "We have no cases of child abuse in Germany. . . " "oops they did it again. . . " silentlambs http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=38659&site=3

October 15, 2002

Comment: Buster if I may. I know that you are capable of defending yourself (and most here) better than me. But I need to say. Janice as I am quite sure the post to Buster was yours despite no name. You are a troll. You come here not to comfort but to "clock time." To do that at JWD is one thing to do here is evil. You are evil to misrepresent yourself as some one who gives a damn about anything or anyone other than you. GO AWAY! End my discussions with you!-Jayson

October 15, 2002

Comment: Jayson - Yes, it's Janice. That my name doesn't appear is in error, not intention. I do NOT count time here. You're in too much turmoil to want to hear anything else but your own thoughts and opinions. THAT is understandable. But I think you should let the others talk for themselves, as you, too, should do. - Janice

October 15, 2002

Comment: Janice. Regardless of what name you use. You are a cruel evil and cowardly man. You fool nobody on this site. You are a shame on humanity. My words were wasted on you last week. Please do not answer. We have better things to do than waist time with you. I think that's exactly what you want. Do you not?rmk

October 15, 2002

Comment: Jayson: I suspect you are correct. Though I have noticed more than a few JWDs trying to take that kind of moderate position. They try to make it look like there is in fact room for dissension and disagreement in the JW ranks. Perhaps it is a result of their abysmally failed self-image as a mobilized army. They still see themselves that way, though they know it doesn't play well in print. Once again you get my opinions in print before I can. I think this site is getting back to a spot it was a month or so ago when it was time to put down the aggressive rhetoric and let people deal with Child Abuse and cover up. With Bill in Europe, we must have numerous things that should be discussed/reported. (I might send one more short one to Janice) Take it away Linda T. - Buster

October 15, 2002

Comment: Yow. Whatta load of cry babies. Some of you see that it's raining outside and you blame it on JW's. Maybe your lives would have been crap no matter what flavor of belief you got stuck into. I was a JW for many years. So was my sister. I got over it. She's still pissing and moaning over how restrictive it was and she's pushing 60. I was the one molested, not her. Face it folks, there's pervs in EVERY religion and ALL religions shun "bad press. " Do you really think that a Jewish boy or girl hasn't been diddled with? That a Pastor or Rabbi or Llama has never gotten away with molesting a kid? Get over it. Stop whining. And stop blaming your messed up lives on someone or something else. Chances are, you'd be a loser no matter what religion you were involved in. :)

October 15, 2002

Comment: Janice: I think the posts would be shorter if you didn't keep espousing the glories of your many years. Let your points stand on their own. You may think you've been in hot water, but you haven't. Whenever it comes down to it, you knuckle under just like the rest. If you didn't at least keep your significant dissensions to yourself, they would have bounced you long ago. Over all those years, you have never been asked about a doctrinal disagreement by another JW? Did you answer as you believed? Or did you recite the party line? If you are the free thinker you claim, you have been in this spot and had to pick between 'going along to get along' or your conscientious belief. The Truth wouldn't put you in that spot. - Buster
October 15, 2002

Comment: Janice, here's a link for you. This link provides more of the information on Subliminal Messages within the Org's literature. click on the link, which takes you to the david icke website; click on 'MIND CONTROL' on the navigation bar on the left hand side. then scroll down to the section entitled 'SUBLIMINAL MIND CONTROL'. then click on 'JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES' SUBLIMINAL COVERT MIND CONTROL' ENJOY!http://www. davidicke.com/icke/index1a. html Linda Thoman
October 15, 2002

Comment: Janice, you are dumb. First of all you are (supposedly) a man with a girls name. Or did you have a sex-change? And secondly you brag about writing letters and 'speaking out'. All well and good but would you want to read somebody else's crap letter trying to put across some personal point of view on doctrine or organizational matters? I pity the poor brothers that have to read it all. I agree with you though that the society even if 'wrong' eventually catches up on any glaring errors. Most of the time it's just minor details though and small things that don't really matter in the scheme of things, ie. in relation to the vindication of Jehovah's name. /zak
October 15, 2002

Comment: Buster, you seem to be full of crap. Can you explain your comment here: "If you are the free thinker you claim, you have been in this spot and had to pick between 'going along to get along' or your conscientious belief. The Truth wouldn't put you in that spot. " You seem to be saying everyone should be going with what THEY think is right. That's why there's 6,000 different religions in the world all sprouting their own peculiar brand of babble. Yeah, but they're basically similar, aren't they? /zak
October 15, 2002

Comment: I didn't say I was a man nor did I say I was a woman. I was only indicating that you (whoever it applies to) were making an assumption that I was a man and that you can't tell by a name if it's a man or woman. Now YOU say that I SAY that I'm a man with a woman's name. I never said that. YOU are AGAIN making an assumption.  I've said it before and I'll say it again: it's ABSOLUTELY AMAZING what each person gets out of the same written words. - Janice
October 15, 2002

Comment: I get it, you are confused about your gender and not sure which one is "you" ? You need to get help, or surgery, or something.
October 15, 2002

Comment: If you read ALL the posts, not EVERYONE disagrees with me. - Janice
October 15, 2002

Comment: Did you ever notice how apostates will latch on to any so-called evidence that 'justifies' their hatred of the WTS? Stuff like "subliminal messages in WT literature". Please, I mean really. . . people. . . do you seriously believe all this crap? And so what if the society was listed to receive press reports from the U. N. ? Believe me, the society keeps up with ALL current events around the globe. And "the society has money invested in weapons of war". Yeah, right. Like it was directly authorized bybethel. They have investments, yes. I'm sure they do research to check what companies they invest in. Would they deliberately invest in an arms company? I doubt it. And lastly, how many people here have said these exact words "I was raped by the elders". One even said "at bethel". Well, OK, how many elders? Was it in the back room of the KH, or out in field service? Come on, people. Does any reasonable person listen to this sort of rubbish? Apostates thrive on lies, slander, speculation and sensationalism. /zak

October 15, 2002

Comment: janice you are wrong. and in a jw twisted way you are right. now i will look up some of these wt gems for you. i read your long response to jayson. i will

October 15, 2002

Comment: janice you are wrong. and in a jw twisted way you are right. now i will look up some of these wt gems for you. i read your long response to jayson. the wt encourages research??? you talk the facts??? jehovah's org????you do so much research. show me in wt teachings from 1914-1918 how jesus choose the wt at that time. using wt books from that time only. if you read those wt teachings. up till 1919. you will know, what the wt says today is plain bull st. it's research time. watch for my posts. i'm going to expose your god. till you answer this one problem you can't say the wt is god's org. start getting some old old wt's up till 1919. do research it will take you years. just one more for you. the wt says now that jehovah got rutherford out of jail in march or may 1919. the first thing he did was start the millions now living will never die campaign. the world has ended. now show me only facts printed from that time. about this. what were the wt teaching at the 1919-22 conventions at cedar point ohio. don't even try the proclaimers book on me with all that whitewashed bull. now we all will see you bare false witness in the name of the true god. if you call the wt god's org. one more time. WITHOUT DOING THE RESEARCH. . . . I WILL BE POSTING. . . JOHN

October 15, 2002

Comment: so we have another blind and brazen one here zak that "loves" Jehovah and His Organization the Borg. rmk

October 15, 2002

Comment: Hey zak, you've got apostates and the Watchtower confused with each other. the WATCHTOWER thrives on lies (miracle wheat, churches to be destroyed in 1918, the "princes returning in 1925, "why are you looking forward to 1975, and on and on. . . ), slander (calling those those members who see through their lies "apostates"), speculation (all the FALSE predictions you KNOW they have made) and sensationalism (read almost any cover of an Awake! and see how they sensationalize bad news). But then again maybe the Watchtower and apostates are really one in the same. . . The ANTI-anti-john

October 15, 2002

Comment: I know of no Christian church that has made as many FALSE TIME PROPHESIES as the Watchtower. They hold the record, as far as I can see, for unfulfilled prophecies and date-setting. We are to NEVER listen to a false prophet. if the GB was around in the days of the Old Testament they would have been stoned to death, no matter how much other so-called "truth" they spouted.

October 15, 2002

Comment: WOW;; IT SEEMS when buster ,rmk,jayson, linda, slc, rich ,lawarence, ,soapbox,,even the mole. . etc. tell the facts the jw's here get all bent out of shape. . . jesus said people who tell the facts would be persecuted, by followers of a false god the WATCHTOWER. . .

October 15, 2002

Comment: JAINICE ; i getting out my new wt's today or tomorrow. you will have were the wt says the holy sprit chooses the elders. . . but i wouldn't want you to stop your research. that you said your so great at. . . NOW MANY YEARS HAVE YOU BEEN A MEMBER OF THE WT?? THAT WILL BE = TO THE YEARS YOU HAVE BEEN IN DARKNESS?? ??AND DON'T POST ME ANY OTHER JW BULLS I WANT YOU TO SHOW ME FROM WT'S TILL 1919 HOW JESUS CHOOSE THEM BASED ON WHAT THEY WERE TEACHING AT THE TIME. . . IF YOU POST ME ANYTHING ELSE . . YOU WILL BE LYING. . FOR YOUR GOD I HAVE ADCESS TO ALL WT'S TILL 1925 AND WT BOOKS. . . BE CAREFUL WITH YOUR WORDS THE TRUE GOD IS LISTENING. . . JOHN

October 15, 2002

Comment: rmk;; what's happening with the mass action suit. . J_CHITO@msn. com. . . john

October 15, 2002

Comment: I don't see how you can discuss correcting the manner in which abuse is being handled WITHOUT talking about the society's organizational structure and its beliefs. You all are one-dimensional. I'm not answering ANY doctrinal subjects here because you who are here to attack the society, itself, are just using ANY comments to twist them and turn them into a debate, misusing this support group for your own destructive purposes. Subliminal messages? In this day of electronics, anyone can do anything they want to if they have a copy of a page in a book or magazine or a copy of anything. That's too lame. The issue is correcting this situation of the handling of molestation victims that exists within the organization. How are you going to do that? - Janice

October 15, 2002

Comment: IF I MAY INTERRUPT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! This arguing is pointless!!!!!!!! How is this helping anyone??????????? This site is suppose to be a place to help victims!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Has everyone forgotten this?????????? Or do you all just not care?? If a victim came in here I don't think this would be a place they would feel comfortable sharing or asking for any help!!!!!!!! I swear!!!!!!!!! I am not online for about a week and this happens AGAIN!!!! Please!!!!!!!! Everyone remember WHY this site is here!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! If there is anyone out there who needs a kind and understanding ear--contact my aunt Linda and she will forward the email to me, or she will help. I can't leave my email addy cause I am not using my own computer. Please email my aunt Linda at linthoman@hotmail.com------Love,Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

October 15, 2002

Comment: Janice. you are to be admired for your efforts to help the victims of abuse in the WT organization. You are asking how could we correct the policies? Well I can tell you. Your leaders were asked already to do that but they refer to Jehovah who they claim He said . "on the testimony of two or three witnesses". . . You got the point? Please do not pretend stupidity. We know you are playing a game for the WT. Don't be anxious we are not looking for help from you. Go back where you belong. You are threshing empty straw. rmk

October 15, 2002

Comment: janice you have not even got up to my posts. . i'm a few days behind. . so you say your in your 60's or so. . hope you have good health. . you are old enough to be my mother that's all. . in your life as a jew you lived through many wt false prophecies. . . lets do some wt history. . . in the 30's the wt said don't go to a doctor,get vaccines,go for appendix operations,used the ouija board to talk to angels of satan, don't have children, dinosaurs are now living on venus, the garden of eden is under the polar ice cap. . . order wt radio active glasses to correct your eye sight. eat grape 3 times a day to cure CANCER?? ETC. now to the 40's the world is to end in a few months, hitler is the king of the north, britain and the u. s. are going to lose the war before Armageddon and become dictatorships. . . don't have children, new light in 46 don't take blood. . etc. . . now world to end in 51 and 54. . . soviet union =the new king of the north . . end of world with Korean war. . generation 37-40 years from 1914. . jehovah caused rutherford to preach millions now living will never die in 1925., the angels tell the wt what to write in mag's. 60's slow till 1966 sons of god book with 1975 world to end. . may aug. 1968 wt can only be off by weeks or months,,not years about 1975. . . i heard it my self at the kingDOM HALL . . LOL may 15 1968 no person will ever finish college and make a career in this system. . km 1974 how wonderful people selling their homes and spending all their money in the short time till the end. . ???preaching a false prophecy. . . end now 1984 may 1984 wt 70 years generation. . 86 89 75 tears generation. . 89 all awakes page 4 the creator PROMISE ABOUT THE GENERATION OF 1914. . TILL NOV 1995 and that beautiful 20 minute wt sales pitch i heard 1000 times about how it is god's word. . . JANICE WILL YOU PLEASE GIVE ALL HERE THAT LINE OF CRAP THE WT TAUGHT YOU TO MEMORIZE OVER THE YEARS. . . YOU KNOW HOW IT GOES. . WITH JESUS WORDS IN LUKE ABOUT THIS GENERATION. . . . WE ALL WANT TO HERE IT AGAIN!!!!!!!!!!!!GREAT BIBLE TRUTH . . . AS YOU SAY THE JWS TAUGHT YOU. . . don't forget the weeds and the wheat !!!!!that all went with it. . . . . . . YOU REMEMBER. . . THAT PROPER SPIRITUAL FOOD AT THE PROPER TIME????????YOU WANT MORE LETS TALK ABOUT 2000 ????. . . I JUST GAVE YOU A LITTLE TASTE OF THE BIBLE KNOWLEDGE THAT YOUR GOD IN BKLYN TAUGHT YOU IN YOUR LIFE TIME. . . NOW HOW MANY PEOPLE HAVE YOU TOLD THESE LIES OVER THE YEARS. . . DID YOU GO BACK TO ALL THEIR DOORS JUST ONCE AND DO WHAT IT SAYS ON THE FRONT COVER OF THE NOV-1 2002 WT AND SAY YOU ARE SORRY FOR LYING TO THEM FOR 60 YEARS. . . IT'S RESEACH TIME. . JANICE. . . AND I HAVE ALL THE FACTS RIGHT FROM THE WT MAG'S AND BOOKS. . TRY ME YOU WONT LAST 5 MINUTES WITH ME. . . REMEMBER STICK TO THE EXACT SUBJECT WITH ME. . . I KNOW ALL THE WT TRICKS. . . MORE TO COME. . . FREEDOM IN CHRIST TO ALL JOHN. . . . P. S. I KNOW ENOUGH BIBLE ALSO TO HANDLE MYSELF. . . LOVE JOHN

October 15, 2002

Comment: JANICE;; I DON,T CARE IF YOU ARE A MAN OR WOMEN,OR TONY ARWARCK. . . . . . WE ALL READ YOUR POSTS. . . . NOW LETS GET TO THE MEAT. . . SHOW ME TILL 1919 THAT JESUS CHOOSE THE WT AS HIS ORG. . . CUT THE BULL GET OUT THE OLD WT'S and prove it??????i don't care how many you bare false witnesses to here. . . your not getting over with me . . . let me see you do your research. . . you said you were so great at. . . i got your number. . . i'm waiting for a reply in proper research . . . not from a wt book after the fact. . .
you want to play . . . let see. . . . there are others here that are better informed than you and i . . . john
October 15, 2002

Comment: That's funny Anthony. Now it's time to put your pj's on and go to bed. Sweet dreams little boy.
October 15, 2002

Comment: Everyone, I think it is good that the conversation gets spirited sometimes. But it also needs to get back to the basics sometimes. Lets see if we can't let the temperature go down and make some room for people that could use some comfort or direction - or just a place to report their past problems. We almost completely blew right by one very significant poster that admitted to being a molester in the past. I'll bet there was/is much more we could learn by letting a thread or two develop along that topic. - As guilty as the rest - Buster
October 15, 2002

Comment: Comment: IF I MAY INTERRUPT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! This arguing is pointless!!!!!!! How is this helping anyone?????????? This site is suppose to be a place to help victims!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Has everyone forgotten this????????
Or do you all just not care?? If a victim came in here I don't think this would be a place they would feel comfortable sharing or asking for any help!!!!!!!!! I swear!!!!!!!! I am not online for about a week and this happens AGAIN!!!!!
Please!!!!!!!! Everyone remember WHY this site is here!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! If there is anyone out there who needs a kind and understanding ear--contact my aunt Linda and she will forward the email to me, or she will help. I can't leave my email addy cause I am not using my own computer. Please email my aunt Linda at linthoman@hotmail. com-------
Love,Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx October 15, 2002
October 15, 2002

Comment: Everyone remember WHY this site is here!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! If there is anyone out there who needs a kind and understanding ear--contact my aunt Linda and she will forward the email to me, or she will help. I can't leave my email addy cause I am not using my own computer. Please email my aunt Linda at linthoman@hotmail. com-------
Love,Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx October 15, 2002
October 15, 2002

Comment: Janice: we have to "assume" because you don't say anything straight forward. It is called guessing what you are trying to say. You are not articulate, talk in circles and you want to blame us for getting confused about what you say and what gender you are. You must have something better to do with your time? I know I do. You might take John up on his suggestion to read the old wts. . . it's your religion and we know more about it than you do! No one is lying to you but the WTS. Read Ray Franz's book, if you dare be so bold, for the truth of the Governing Body. It will make you sick; heartsick.
October 15, 2002

Comment: I WILL CONTINUE TO INTERRUPT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! This is suppose to be a place of healing. If you want to argue take it into CHAT!!!!!!! Don't put it where those who come here for healing to see the same disregard for ones thoughts or feelings in a public form. There are places for this type of behavior!!!!!!!!!!!! NOT HERE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I am a victim, and think it is so sad to see all this nonsense going on. If you feel this strongly about what is being said then take it into CHAT and settle or argue about it THERE!!!! NOT HERE!!!!!!!!!!!! You are all guilty of taking the focus off the problem and making it impossible for those in pain to come here for comfort!! SHAME ON YOU ALL!!!!!!!!!
BUSTER---THANK YOU!!!!!!!!!!!! For the victims email my aunt Linda to get an email to me, I don't use my own computer so I have emails forwarded to me through my aunt. She can help or I can help you. Email my aunt Linda--- linthoman@hotmail. com-------Love, Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx
October 15, 2002

Comment: First I have ever heard, as a health therapist that IBS or IBD results from being raped. WOMEN get it too.
It can be a nervous condition or even due to food intolerance. So I dont believe your nonsense about being raped by elders. Sorry - but if you tell one lie then nothing you say can be believed! bioharmony
October 15, 2002

Comment: TO ALL VICTIMS!!!!!!! I am a person who will believe you!!!! The only thing that will make you not believe is if you are lying. Since I am a survivor, I have a pretty good idea of the truth and untruth. I can direct you to the proper avenues if you need them. Please contact my aunt Linda at linthoman@hotmail. com I can't give out my email address cause I am not using my own computer. My aunt Lin or myself can direct you where you need to go or to just be there to listen. Email her at linthoman@hotmail. com-----Love, Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx
October 15, 2002
Comment: TO ALL VICTIMS!!!!!!! I am a person who will believe you!!!! The only thing that will make me not believe is if you are lying. Since I am a survivor, I have a pretty good idea of the truth and untruth. I can direct you to the proper avenues if you need them. Please contact my aunt Linda at linthoman@hotmail.com. I can't give out my email address cause I am not using my own computer. My aunt Lin or myself can direct you where you need to go or to just be there to listen. Email her at linthoman@hotmail.com. Love, Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx
October 15, 2002

Comment: I MEANT TO SAY-------TO ALL VICTIMS!!!!!!! I am a person who will believe you!!!! The only thing that will make me (I didn't mean to say you) not believe is if you are lying. Sorry for the typo. Jesika Thoman linthoman@hotmail.com
October 15, 2002

Comment: John I do not know your e-mails but you can come to my new group to escape from the evil Bill Bowen. So far we has 2 members, that is me, and Anthony C. Aardvark. We welcomes everybody and does not shun anyone. If you would like to join, send email ronpthomson@usa.com
October 15, 2002

Comment: People need to go to where they feel vindicated. -Jayson
October 16, 2002

Comment: Yes i agree SLC we'll agree to disagree. The 45 year old that wrote in is clear proof to what i've been saying that if people are truly repentant notice i said truly repentant than we as christians are obliged to forgive them. As Jesus said in the Lords prayer we must forgive those that trespass against us. I understand the anger obviously that a victim would have over this however the elders in a congregation must allow repentant wrong doers back into the congregation. And usually if one is disfellowshipped if they are reinstated into a congregation very rarely do they stay in that congregation. From what i have observed those kind of people are generally not very popular in the cong regardless of whether they have been reinstated or not. regards Josh
October 16, 2002

Comment: No offence Janice but i'd hate to be a boy with a girls name we had a brother in our cong called Robin heh heh. Poor soul. regards Josh
October 16, 2002

Comment: JANICE: who needs to alter the bloody pictures when they're already there in the WT publications? just check the pictures yourself in your own books, and you'll see what all the fuss is about. if you don't know what you are looking for you will not find it! an 8 year old child in my BS study group spotted one, when everyone else didn't. he mentioned it to the group much to the embarrassment of the conductor. RICH
October 16, 2002

Comment: Janice. Most of JW's are like you stubborn donkeys or (asses? John and others told you precisely what to do. Why don't you? All is in your books! Look it up women. What are you afraid of? The apostates did not put it there. The WT Society did so it must be safe. PS. Don't belittle John. His spelling is not very good but his information is accurate. I love John's Passion for the TRUTH. I love you John. rmk
October 16, 2002

Comment: I think that Jes makes a sound point. Although most of us here never forget our goal is to offer validation and support to victims of abuse it is easy to get side tracked in rubbish. I don't know how to balance giving people the benefit of a doubt verses calling a spade a spade (Troll and Troll) than I do. Jes you know I will yield to your lead. You understand this issue better than me. You're my goal here. I do not trust those who claim that denial and forcing by pressure that others should do the same. It is neither helpful or therapy to do so. (to wt'ish) How does just moving on protect the next victim? It does not. You know really, the brave men and women that have come forward they are no longer victims, they are no longer survivors; when you come forward, when you take down the rapist you become a Hero. And people, we need Heroes I am not such a Hero. I am but that persons "ass" (donkey) I will carry burdens that are not mine, give support and vindication, I will even give my money to the cause. But I did not experience your pain (To the victims) I do not know what you went through. But you are believed by me. Supported by me. And vindicated should you want it by being here. The trolls if they get around me any more will be kicked as an "ass" can buck. Arguing with a troll is to give them what they want. Talking to a troll, every time you do you allow them some control. For me once a troll is recognized and others agree; For Me "end my discussion. " Bio-you are approaching that label. At this point I think your opinion of not doing anything then was understandable. You were a child. As an adult you should know better, and you do. But it suits your real agenda to take the position that you do. It is wrong to not stand up to rapist and all "controlists" for that matter. And not just as individuals but as groups. As a group controlists have much less influence over people. "When one man says, "No I will not," Rome begins to fear." - Sparticus-Jayson
October 16, 2002

Comment: It never ceases to amaze me how Dubs will comment negatively on links provided saying that they need more information and more proof. Then when it's given, they shrug that off with a "you all don't believe that crap do you?". Tsk,tst,tsk. Wake up! It's right there in your own books and literature! If you want to, take your book and literature and have them enlarged, really big, and look at them yourself! Yeeeesh! Linda Thoman
October 16, 2002

Comment: Jayson, you have done a wonderful thing for standing up for this issue, even though you were not a victim yourself. I applaud you for your efforts and assistance in this cause. The world needs more like you. As Jesika and I have said many times, this guestbook is for those who have been molested, raped, sodomized etc by jw's. This guestbook is not intended for doctrinal bantering and debating over issues or beliefs. There are numerous other sites for those who wish to argue doctrine. If Dubs here don't want to take the time to do the research and work involved in finding out about their religious history and find out things they aren't supposed to find out, as in The Truth of their leaders, then so be it. You can lead a horse to water. . . . . I have no desire to argue and debate with Dubs over things they aren't willing to open their eyes to even the possibility that they were duped, perhaps all their lives, into believing lies. It's their prerogative to stay blinded, but many of us have seen the light and are now free of the Dub control. I prefer to ignore the trolls whose whole agenda is to fill this guestbook with arguing, debates and name calling. Linda Thoman
October 16, 2002

Comment: look back in the last day or so i left it for rmk. . . john
October 16, 2002

Comment: Thank you for your site, I wish every JW in the world would read everything in it.
October 16, 2002

Comment: I was so amazed when I stumbled upon this website. I thought that I was the only person outraged with congregations in reference to how the handle sexual and physical abuse. My mother was raped six years ago by her father and when my aunt called the congregation they said that they would talk to him. Talk was all they did, read a couple scriptures and shook his hand afterwards. They still go to the meetings everyday in Hudson, Florida where Brother Robichaud is regarded well by everyone in the congregation. He molested my mother for a good deal of her childhood on top of this and completely ruined whatever life she could have had. She suffers from a number of anxiety related disorders but my beloved grandfather is still a saint and it is his daughter left weeping in the aftermath. Hurray for all of you. Keep exposing the real "truth." Hopefully this will open some peoples eyes to escape this sick cover up cult.
October 16, 2002

Comment: anti=John. You don't know what love is. rmk
October 16, 2002

Comment: hi hudson fla. did you go to the police or the district attorney. . . sorry for your mom. look at the guest book in the last month for the concerned lawyer. . . she is helping many victims here. . . with the law i met her she is a good woman . her name is kim norris. . email her at kdnorris@airmail. net she may be able to help . . . be well john
October 16, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "The time of the end is from 1799. . " (WT Nov 1 1922)
October 16, 2002

Comment: Recommendation to Webmaster Anti-Johns posts are going over the fine line. I would recommend reporting this information to law enforcement.
October 16, 2002
Comment: Hi! what these JW's are doing here is just too offensive to me. If something substantial is not done about it I would have to go off the site. rmk
October 16, 2002

Comment: Hi! I am being accused of being a homosexual and a murderous hater of 6 million Jehovah's Witnesses and compared with Adolph Hitler. Who here is able to bring this Anti=John to justice? Why should we put up with such antisocial individual? Why should we accept such extreme form of abuse from him and his friends?rmk
October 16, 2002

Comment: Just visited a web site for American Family Association - yahoo is the biggest pusher of child porn- just thought you guys would like to know. . . also K MART sells absolute filth CD's to american's children. Interesting site with family values as it's theme.
October 16, 2002

Comment: ANTHONY C AARDVARK HERE. LEAVE THE PANSY ALONE, ANTI JOHN. HE WANTS TO GO HOME AND CRY TO HIS MOMMY.
October 16, 2002

Comment: RMK - I hear you loud and clear. Stay off for a few days. Email John, I give him permission to give you my email address as long as he can confirm it is you. I have to stay out of here because of what is going on. It is not safe, do some personal correspondence for awhile. Please? None of us agrees with the slander of you. Love, Soapbox
October 16, 2002

Comment: *THE MOLE*it is sad that there are those who wish to chat on this website throwing abuses to one another. it is those who create disharmony in a place where we need info and sympathy. . . . to follow up, yes for speaking out to my family with my letter, to those who read it last month. I'm scheduled for a shepherding call this weekend. I was told this in bookstudy as i left. this is normally a first step in an interrogation on faith. The never ending grinding wheel must crush anyone who speaks against the organization. As i wrote before, the official word is to ignore and hope the pesky flies go away so that the stench of mistruth can continue to draw those to its grand design of total control of those who freely bow to men who assume to be god's in new york city. . . . . the mole
October 16, 2002

October 2002 Guestbook - Page 3

Go to Page 1 | Go to Page 2

October 16, 2002

Comment: RMK please email me J_CHITO@msn. com . . . john
October 16, 2002

Comment: Greetings, the guest book has been refreshed. All inappropriate posts have been filtered out from the archived posts. Each post made in this website is now being tracked by IP address. For those who continue to slander others beware if you post your identity ( a way to track you ) is being left behind. Death threats will be taken seriously and turned over to the proper authorities. This guest book is intended for healing, not for verbal battle. Soon code will be established that will track even the view and submit portion of the guest book and for those who are slanderous and dangerous, you will both not be allowed to view or post to this site. Your choices from here out establish your privileges. . . . . webmaster
October 16, 2002
Comment: Webmaster, thank you for your efforts at improving the site for everybody. There has been a lot of nastiness around here and it was just the last straw when rmk was attacked about his sexuality. We certainly can’t have that sort of thing, and regular posters who make a contribution to this site should feel free to be what they are.

October 16, 2002

Comment: Thank you webmaster for cleaning up the dirt. . . you are great! love, soapbox

October 16, 2002

Comment: Dear Webby: You have your work cut out for you tonight. . . thanks again for tidying up. I emailed you and when I came back, you already got to it. Thanks.

October 16, 2002

Comment: O. k, this is avishai. I said I wasn’t going to respond, but I can’t let this one slide. Anti-john, in answer to your question, your little buddy Anthony c aardvark threatened to kick elder bosbs head in till his brains were leaking out on the floor. But, count yourself successful in getting the recognition you deserve. Anyway, I will reiterate that this site is about little children being raped & the people who have to deal w/ it later, them, their families, etc. When you really think about it, these children, not usually being baptized are really "associates" not full blown jw’s, & that’s why we have these mandatory reporting laws. You say “it’s the parents responsibility to report!” Yes, that’s true, they should. But for anyone to hide behind ecclesiastical privilege is so weak, sick & small. Yes, Parents “should” report these things. But, some of them are the ones molesting the kids. Some belong to wacko cults, like the hare’ krishnas, who are also being sued for the same kind of cover ups. Did those kids choose to be in a wacko cult? No, they didn’t. In the jw’s, a 4 yr. old, a mere associate doesn’t have the same rights as a baptized witness. He didn’t choose to be there. If he chooses later, on his own that it is not the path he wants, he'll still be shunned. It’s about deliberate flouting of federal & state law as a PRECEDENT of the wbts. Ignore the morons, but not too much, zealots are a dangerous thing. Just look at the taliban, who started out as a fairly peaceful fundamentalist group. How far of a stretch would it be to convince a jw, or several jws, who had been taught all of his life that all non-believers were to be viewed as evil, & all df’d & da’d people were to be viewed as dead, to convince them that "new light" says to "Help god out in armageddon by killing unbelievers? The totally blind statements, & threats of violence on this website by jws & their defenders prove my point that the jw’s are perfect manchurian candidates who will win by any means necessary to force their beliefs on others, just like al-queda

Comment: Sorry, refer to some of my earlier posts, there are lots of good people & non-offenders. I was trying to point out that it is the power structure that causes the arrogance of a "god given right" to ignore caesars law, using loopholes if necessary. And, as I said, it's not just jw's doing it, it's contemptible across the board. Also, do you think every taliban is "bad"? I'm sure there are some basically kind & decent people there, but it is there "I am right!!" philosophy that allows them to oppress people & ignore international law. And they believe just as strongly as you that they are GODs chosen religion, everyone else is evil. The phrase " I AM RIGHT!!" has caused more pain & suffering in the world than any other. Oh, sure, it takes on different forms, like "manifest destiny" or "The chosen race" or "The new Jerusalem", but it's really all the same b. s. that's gotten people hurt & babies raped & villages burned since the dawn of time. Could you see yourself practicing ethnic cleansing? No? The ancient israelites did, Killing everything in an entire country, bashing infants heads against rocks. Nice picture, huh? Well, it's not much different w/ covering up molesting, It's just that, like disfellowshipping, it's a different kind of death. One is spiritual, the other emotional, spiritual, & psychological, often ending in physical death due to suicide or self destructive behavior.

October 16, 2002

Comment: sounds like the web master is getting more and more on top of things here. . that's wonderful. . it's ok to have debates. . but when it gets crazy here that's enough. . love to the lambs. . . john

October 16, 2002

Comment: Hey,webmaster, what happened to the post between my two posts saying not to diss on jws? avishai

Comment: For those of you who like to do research from authentic ORIGINAL Watchtower documents, dozens are available at a certain very well-know auction site. You know the one I'm referring to. There you can find tons of out-of-print, error-riddles literature to add to your spiritual "arsenal". Lawrence. By the way, thanks, webmaster, for putting the fear of God into anti-john and the other like-minded ,vicious posters. It will be wonderful not to have to deal with them anymore. John, I found your email addy. Will be in touch. Lawrence

October 17, 2002

Comment: Just wanted everyone to know i am still around a lot has been happening the last few months so i haven't been able to be online much. I have been reading post and i can see we still have the doubters and trouble makers. Some people just need to grow up and wake up more abuse takes place with in churches then people realize or even wanna admit and until we get real and admit its happening those people are gonna keep suffering and i for one am not gonna sit back and watch them hurt. I was a victim of child sexual abuse from my dad for 9 yrs and i know the pain and i am here if anyone needs a friendkingskid2004@juno.com - Penny

October 17, 2002

Comment: WEBMASTER. . . . . You are fantastic!!! Thanks for your time and effort.
October 17, 2002

Comment: CLEAN UP TEAM TO GUEST BOOK 4!!! HEY GUYS YOU BETTER GET DOWN HERE. IT'S NOT PRETTY.
October 17, 2002

Comment: GROW UP PEOPLE SHEESH you don't believe us fine then why come here and slander us? I have never lied about my abuse and i don't believe others on here have either CAN'T HANDLE TRUTH? THEN STAY AWAY. - Penny
October 17, 2002

Comment: penny, I don't like JW's being slandered on this public site for all the world to see. I used to be one and most of them are good people, not child molesters.
October 17, 2002

Comment: I need to write this because i was rereading some of the post of october and i really need to speak out as a person that's been molested over and over for 9 yrs. The person said just get married and get over it and have kids. WELL tell me how to do that when i am so afraid of even a man touching me now and i am 38 yrs old and hate sex want no part of sex because when i was being forced to do it i was hurt and so now i wont do it cause the only memory of sex i have is IT WAS PAINFUL so telling someone just to marry is not the answer either because taking this kind of stuff in a marriage is not so good either what man wants to put up with a female that is afraid like i would be? NONE so people think before u write things here Webmaster i am sorry if i got to descriptive Penny
October 17, 2002

Comment: to the person that commented to me you may have been a good one but there are a lot of them out there abusing and molesting and they need to be exposed and besides jw's are a false cult and many are learning this Penny
October 17, 2002

Comment: Lets face the facts. The silentlambs web site is only a slice of the pie in respect to what is wrong with the Watchtower society. They allow people to be hurt by turning a blind eye. But they hurt other people with broken families, lies, cover ups, and mental cruelty. This religion makes a joke of truth, by holding such high standards in some areas then turning around in the same breath with abuse of its own members. I think the organization is nearing the tipping point, with declining membership or zero growth in developed countries.
October 17, 2002

Comment: the moleif it is true that now those who come here to do evil and stir up trouble are to be asked to leave its a great day in conquering evil. I have brought my knowledge and my wealth of experience to help those who are jw's and those who are current to know that even though I'm trapped in my religion for family reasons, i can still speak out. i may have to hide my true id because of the position i hold in my hall but i am still human and will continue to alert those of the cancer that has come to us from the inside the organization (brooklyn). I will always ask for reformation and continue to point out the neglect and ignorance so that someday the headquarters will see that i will not go silent in the dark! . . . *the mole
October 17, 2002

Comment: Hi Penny. Glad to see you back! Keep speaking out and people will not be so blind. I find people are just uninformed. It is the silence that has been kept for so long that aloud things to become what they have. All we have to do is say No that We will Not be Silent One more time then They say that No one cares. Only they are apathetic. I care. And, I am not alone. - Jayson
October 17, 2002

Comment: To The Mo le: I do not know your situation. What position do you hold in the Hall? Are you trapped because of immediate family? How did you come to the conclusion that something was wrong? Do you believe most Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER

"We should meekly go along with the Lord's theocratic organization and wait for further clarification, rather than balk at the first mention of a thought unpalatable to us and proceed to quibble and mouth our criticism and opinions as though they were worth more than the slave's provision of spiritual food. Theocratic ones will appreciate the Lord's visible organization and not be so foolish as to pit against Jehovah's channel their own human reasoning and sentiment and personal feelings. (WT Feb 1 1952 80)"

AND WHO MADE THEM GOD??? I WILL THINK AND I WILL FEAL. TOO BAD WATCHTOWER. PEOPLE DON'T BUY YOUR CRAP ANYMORE.

Comment: Hey Jason thanks for the welcome back good to see you brother and yes i will continue to speak out because it does bring healing to know that others understand and have been there. Penny

Comment: WE WILL NEVER STOP EXPOSING THE WATCHTOWER FOR WHAT IT IS!!! KEEP FIGHTING THE GOOD FIGHT.

Comment: the mole I'm glad a positive question. thank you. When i became a M. S. i was exposed to something that left a bad impression back in 1999. there was a divorce and the issue i debated with the elders is how can there be more than three witnesses in an adultery issue? soon after when franz came out with his second book they acted as if it was the book of horror. the book passed from hand to hand until i was brave enough to read it and then i realized that brother franz had the same concerns i did, so i wrote him. then another M. S. was accused of molesting a young boy. One night the other M. S approached me during a picnic and said he was accused of this. he didn't know that me and the boy's mother worked out at the same gym. i asked her what happened and then she began to cry and told me the whole story. since then i have doubted the sincerity of the elders. i then wrote a letter to my family who are all witnesses about my grandmother and now i am under serious scrutiny. . . since then i have waited for a site like this to speak out and tell everyone what see and have learned. . . the mole

Comment: rmk, your 10/12/02 post: I never asked you or anyone else to pray for the WTS, GB or ME. Also, I do not pass judgment on ANYONE'S experiences, whether in book form or here or face-to-face. Each one has their own perception and feelings. If that's the way they feel, then, that's the way they feel. No one should take that away from anyone - unless each person, herself or himself, has a different point-of-view and decides to change their mind about this or that. Changes made any other way are not genuine. - Janice

Comment: Josh, your post on 10/16/02: My point exactly. A person who has learned to have respect people will not make fun of, ridicule, a boy or man that has a girl's name. Actually, they wouldn't make fun of or ridicule anyone for any reason. - Janice Comment: To all: I have notified the webmaster of the latest postings. To anyone coming on here for the first time, this is not typical of this site PLEASE don't be offended and leave ignore this until the guilty parties can be blocked and hopefully more.

Comment: awwwww they cleaned it up, too bad:(

Comment: ich bin kein praktizierender Zeuge Jehovas, wohl aber in kenntnis über die lehre weil ich mit ihr aufwuchs. meine eltern brachten mir und meinen geschwistern bei worum es sich bei "unserer religion" handelt und es war nicht immer leicht in der schule "anders" zu sein . . . aber eines möchte ich hier klar sagen - NIEMALS HÄTTE MEIN VATER ODER MEINE MUTTER ES GEDULDET WENN IN UNSERER UMGEBUNG SO ETWAS GESCHEHEN WÄRE ! dies wäre eine sehr schlimme sache gewesen und hätte sofort zur folge gehabt das wir kinder erfahren hätten was derjenige getan hat und das das falsch ist. den zeugen vorzuwerfen solche praktiken wären an der tagesordnung und sich dabei gegenseitig zu decken ist finde ich sehr weit hergeholt. ich kenne keine fälle und kann somit geschehene auch nicht dementieren, natürlich ist es auch möglich das es unter den zeugen pädophile gibt, aber es ist sicher nicht teil der religion und sozusagen "normal". abschliessend möchte ich sagen das mir die erziehung die mir meine eltern zukommen ließen ich heute noch geniesse, da sie mir ein sehr offenes und objektives weltbild gegeben haben. ich bin nur zufällig auf diese seite gestossen und bin wirklich verwundert , darum schreibe ich nun auch diese zeilen - weil ich ihnen mitteilen möchte das es auch Zeugen bzw. kinder von zeugen gibt die nicht schändet wurden und die stolz auf ihr bekenntniss sind. grüesse aus Ö. Peter
October 18, 2002

Comment: To the Mole we all have shepherding calls doesn't mean that we've done something wrong though. And it depends on what you've said of course. Well people how do we really know what is true and what is false?i guess really only the person who writes it knows whether there lying or not. What i find funny is after going back to either august or Septembers post i saw that someone had written that they'd been abused by bill bowden and everyone was going what a liar but if someone says something about any other witness and its the truth very interesting indeed. So who do we really believe?Regards Josh.
October 18, 2002

Comment: Janice. It is certainly not for the name you chose for yourself that people ridicule you. It is for your hypocrisy twisted thinking and outright deception. Whoever is on the side of JWD is evil because the WT Society is EVIL. Reading your posts makes it abundantly clear where you chose to belong. Here is the address of LAWRENCE HUGHES. 20161 CALGARY PLACE R. P. O. CALGARY,ALBERTA,CANADA. he is the one in charge for suing the WT in GLOBAL CLASS ACTION SUITE. Write to him and join so you can be compensated for your suffering from the hand of the WT Society. His email:LawrenceH@cpvgroup. com I have his web site as well and will give it to you in a sec when I find it. RMK
October 18, 2002

Comment: Here it is. If you want to know what Mr. Hughes can do for you go to www. watchtower-victims. org It is very exiting. This month he is going to fight 4 different cases against the wt. 2 days ago he had a meeting with 4 lawyers who specialize in Class action suites against cults and they are very interested in joining the consortium in the States. He asked me to tell all my friends that he wants to hear from you. Wouldn't that be nice to see the WT belly up in our time?rmk
October 18, 2002

Comment: Peter seine October 18, 2002 post - Dankescho(e)n. Diese frage is sehr schwer. Es ist auch aufgerichtet ins alles die welt und bei leute auf yeder lebensweg. Es ist besonders schwer weil die "licht" ins die welt ist auch ins diesen schlamm. Das die Wachtrum mochte zwei zeugen ins eine privat verbrechen ist nicht wirklicht und unbillig. Es ist nict moral. Ich glaube die opfern aber der ist eine paar leute hier das ist bose und schmalern die ausgabe. Ja schule war schwere, aber es macht mich stark und gibt mich gut charakter. Die leute hier das ist immer auf angreifen macht die leute das mochte helfen hochnagis. Es ist night gut fuer die verletzen leute. Ich mochte die Wachtrum richtig machen. Entshuldigen meine Deutsche ist nigh schule Deutsche. - Janice October 18, 2002

Comment: Thank you rmk. I will do my part. And I think it would be nice to free current and past JW's from the prison-cave that now wait for their-our destruction. But, it took Moses 40 years to get his people to shake off the slave mentality that they had. And that was imposed slavery. This type of slavery is one that they willingly stay in. They like the cage. They kiss the chains. They will not see of another way. We can't free them only they can free themselves.
But, we will be there for them when they finally do. -Jayson
October 18, 2002

Comment: To all posts that submit in foreign languages. PLease keep this guest book in english. Other web sites are under construction where you can post in other languages to those guest books. Since we do not speak other languages than english, and can't translate what is said in that foreign language all foreign language posts must be removed. Sorry Webmaster
October 18, 2002

Comment: Comment: Peter seine October 18, 2002 post (IN ENGLISH) - Thank you. This matter is very serious. It is also rampant in all the world and in people of all types. It is especially serious because the "light" of the world also has these problems. That the Watchtower wants 2 witnesses in a very private crime isn't realistic or reasonable. It's not moral. I believe the victims but there is a small number of people here that are hateful and cause those who want to help (the victims) to stay in the background. Yes, school was difficult but it made me strong and gave me good character. It's not good for the injured people. I want the Watchtower to make this matter right. Excuse my German because it's not learned in school. - Janice October 18, 2002
October 18, 2002
Comment: Janice, tell us how you are going to help the victims of the WT. rmk
October 18, 2002

Comment: In support of Janice - on his view of the world: VH-1 is producing a video with a starring the inmate musician from a correctional facility in Pennsylvania who shot two young women (teenagers) to death in the back. Included in his rock band are rapist and another "lifer." This will be viewed on national television. K-Mart, the family store, sells music that is so violent, so graphic sexually, that it is unfit to be sold, or heard. "It is a very sick world that feeds on deviant behavior and then feeds it more." I live this sheltered life and when I come out to see what is happening it is beyond what anyone could have imagined (although someone did imagine & then produced "images"). There is no answer but God's Kingdom and while I support "fighting" for what is right, one of these days Our Father will be so grieved with the people on this earth He will stop it. We are threatened with chemical warfare, nuclear warfare, there will be 14 million children orphaned in Africa shortly due to AIDS, we have American men vacationing in countries to have sex with children, we have MTV idolizing murders and rapists, people addicted to all sorts of drugs, & pornography - a continuous feed frenzy out of control. Don't leave God out of the picture, we are to remake ourselves in His image, hold on to the hand of Jesus only. To all those in pain never forget that your tears will be no more and the memory of it will be no more. There is no job, husband, family, financial security, health, or religion that can save us - only Jesus can do that.

October 18, 2002

Comment: Nothing that you stated has anything to do with the Jehovah Witness policy of protecting edifies or abusers. It does nothing to protect the children from farther exploitation. It does not bring the issues here to justice. You are blaming the world as an excuse to excuse your religion and that is bunk! Jayson
October 18, 2002

Comment: who is the one in support of Janice? There is no name to the post. The content is not specific as Jayson pointed out. No help or constructive thought can be expected of Janice. He tries to mislead and obstruct facts and true issues we are dealing with. He is a faithfully servant of "Jehovah" the Borg. rmk I sent my email to John at the address he gave above. I wonder if I was trapped by one of our "friends" here by writing to John. I am going to call the police and instruct them that if ever anything happens to me they should look to JW for answer.

October 18, 2002

Comment: One question for BIO: If you are so happy and have so righteously put your abuse behind you and are living such a wonderful life, what the heck are you doing HERE? We "come back" to a place where the talk is all about sex abuse matters? Obviously, according to your OWN description, you should be long gone from here, grandma! SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: GOD BLESS SOAPBOX for being "right on" and understanding and expressing EXACTLY the needs of survivors which are: VALIDATION first and foremost, Being HEARD, No More FORCED Silence (not even by "Job's so-called-friends" like BIO who in that Superior-Sounding-Way is trying to SILENCE US again), No More Re-victimization by ANYone, etc. Soapbox, you always say it so well indeed! Thank you! SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: LOL @ Buster for using the phrase, "Hunky Dory"! :-D We must be from the same generation. Too funny! SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: TO: "I am listening" --- Well, unless you are the POPE (see NY Times article from today 10-18-02) and/or your name is Theodore Jaracz, et al., then You (WTS) IS NOT listening, and HAS NOT been listening for 20 YEARS. So, YES, it WAS/I5 necessary to speak out PUBLICLY to "get their attention" so they may "wake up" and take responsibility for their crimes, which they still have NOT done. Are you EMBARRASSED to have the gory truth revealed to the PUBLIC? If so, then it is people like YOU who, even unwittingly, condone and allow abuse to continue. IT MUST BE SPOKEN ABOUT. SILENCE is the ENEMY of children, not their friend. SILENCE aids and abets the ABUSERS. So why would you even say such a thing? SLC ---- "I am Listening" wrote: It's not necessary to GO PUBLIC with child abuse stories to be healed. I certainly am listening, and if the victims' parents, elders, police, welfare workers did not listen then they are reprehensible in the sight of God. October 14, 2002" --- P. S. to "I Am Listening": To "be healed" is NOT the only & main reason for going public! You are missing the point! GOING PUBLIC PUTS PRESSURE where it is needed MOST: On Those RESPONSIBLE for Forcing Silence, For Covering-Up, For Ignoring, i. e., whomever they are: parents, elders, social workers, Governing Body Members, etc. But, of course, if your head is stuck in the Quick-Sand of DubDumb, then you can't see that because JWs are so alienated from the REAL WORLD. Well, here's a little lesson on how it works: Media is the FRIEND of the people, not Satan's Tool as the WTS wants you to think. Silentlamb speaks to Media to EXPOSE the problem (just like any good investigative reporter on your 6 o'clock news will expose that fraudulent furniture mover in your neighborhood). Then with this PUBLIC EXPOSURE comes PRESSURE from the COMMUNITY AT LARGE and/or Law Enforcement to force the GUILTY PARTY to acknowledge the problem, take responsibility for the problem, correct the problem. Get it? -- Additionally, EXPOSING the problem PUBLICLY is also EDUCATIONAL for the community at large who may have been in the DARK, including but not limited to parents, social workers, ELDERS, householders in your territory, etc. Remember, Daniel said knowledge would become abundant in the "last days," so why are you trying to SUPPRESS the outworking of SCRIPTURE? By all means, LET THE KNOWLEDGE BECOME ABUNDANT! SILENCE IS THE ENEMY and AIDS & ABETS THE ABUSERS TO CONTINUE THEIR DIRTY DEEDS. Anyone who knows ANYTHING about abuse KNOWS THAT much. /SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: Hi MOLE: Great quote from the "Worship" book, i. e., "AVOID THINGS THAT DRAW UNDUE ATTENTION TO SELF"... "I would say that is GREAT ADVICE for a pervert, molester, abuser and pedophile. If THEY would stop drawing attention to THEMSELVES by doing dirty deeds to children for their own selfish gratification (GB members included), this website would not be in existence. Therefore, they should practice what they preach. /SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: The various religions are like different roads converging on the same point. What difference does it make if we follow different routes, provided we arrive at the same destination. - -- Mahatma Gandhi

October 18, 2002

Comment: AMEN, Buster! /SLC ---- Back on 10/14 Buster asked for Someone to say AMEN! ;-)

October 18, 2002

Comment: Hey Soap: Interesting about it not being Faith but PRIDE! I never thought of it like that! I most definitely was a way-too-proud (to the point of self-righteousness) JW "back in the day." ;-) /SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: Anti-John can't get enough reaction to his posts, so he creates ELDER BOB @ POOP.com in order to fight with! Pretty funny! :D /SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: I didn't look at the site, but the title cracked me up: ELVES ON TRICYCLES.com. /SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: BLESSINGS to The MOLE! Yes, thanks for the info this week. We don't mind. Pretty TACKY about the command from WT, INC. to "rat on each other." How low is that? Fear, Paranoia, Suspicion is all that breeds among the "friends." ---- Example: Oops! I better rat on you before you rat on me! Is what you are doing worthy of me ratting on you? Or should I wait? What shall I do? Will you please rat on yourself so I don't have to rat on you? --- etc. etc. This is the kind of stuff the friends have to fill their heads with. Ridiculous. Let each man render an accounting for HIMSELF to God. . . And didn't Jesus ask: Am I my brother's KEEPER? --- Give 'em Hades, MOLE! /SLC

October 18, 2002

Comment: john's email is good and so is he - don't worry. It was me who said that Janice had a point about the world. . . if you read my last sentence I also said that religion can't save anyone (WTS is a religion). . . there is no excuse for pedophiles or A WTS protecting them or a world that thinks it's okay to go to Thailand for sex with a child. I don't want to leave my name. There is nothing to argue about: the world sucks - and we are all when stripped, lonely and in need of God. the most negative thing I said was I was in support of Janice in regards to the world. . . . I think he is confusing most of the time too. But what happened here is that a month or more ago. . . if I supported anything good coming from someone who doesn't support SL 100% I would be criticized. This didn't happen before. And this began the beginning of how negative this site has become. First you have to establish what people have in common. . . . anyway, I have an old saying "I don't dance for a dollar." Janice is right the whole world is debauched so much so that to him the WTS looks "good." Not everything needs to be argued. Not every JW is bad and not everyone not a JW is good. What is the big deal? Maybe I should hate all men because a lot of them are perverts.

October 18, 2002
Comment: Religion is not a road with any destination except chaos . . . quote by soapbox. Please feel free to use it!
October 18, 2002

Comment: Dear HUDSON, FLORIDA, visitor! Thanks for your encouraging comments about this website; and for also sharing your story. We are very sorry to hear about your Mom, and how shabbily she was treated once she came forward about her abuse. Yet, as usual, the perv gets his hands shaken and continues on as before. SICK SICK SICK!!! Would you like to be added to the mailing list for this website to be kept updated as to future events? Please see the home page, ADD ME TO EMAIL. And I'm glad John (thanks John) gave you Kim's info. She is someone you CAN trust! Hope you'll come back again. Blessings/SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: Thanks Jayson for your quote. I liked that/SLC: "When one man says, "No I will not," Rome begins to fear. " -Sparticus
October 18, 2002

Comment: BTW, John, that was a great summary further back of the list of all of the WT "truths" from way back. Some of those little diddy's I'd never heard before. LOL! /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: Hi Josh! Hi Rich! Hi RMK! Hi Buster! (Don't want to leave anyone out). Now for the ladies: Hi Jesika! Hi Linda! Hi Soapbox! And Janice -- well . . . It's a Mystery! /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: Who is Anthony? Someone told him to put on his PJ's and go to bed. . . What was that all about? /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: And what the heck was Bio talking about Irritable Bowel Syndrome (IBS)? (Or was she talking about International Bible Students???) LOL! I must have missed the post where that was originally mentioned. . . but she said it was a "nervous condition" and/or food allergies, etc. and not caused by rape. Well, I'm beginning to wonder more and more about her college/psych degree; i. e., One is Raped. One becomes Nervous due to the Rape. One Gets IBS. -- How about that? A connection after all! --- Of course, the IBS - Int'l Bible Students - could also make one Very Nervous, which can lead to chronic stress which can lead to IBS and also a weakened immune system which can lead to allergies. . . So, IBS or IBS -- works either way. Maybe it's time for a few side courses on physiology and/or biology? /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: Above nameless Janice defender. (1) I know that she can speak for herself if she so chooses. You again simply say nothing. About Thai's your right and they call prostitution"patriotic" and that is sick. But I am not a Thai nor would I pay for sex. So again your argument does not apply here. (to us) These people (sf's) were raped; and the Thai issue is condemned all over the world. I know as I was made aware of this in all basic Soc. classes in college. Again it is (((condemned))). But inside the WT this issue is ignored. Thus this site was born. The wt has evil doctrine that binds people in sin. Sin that is not forgivable because jw's refuse to acknowledge it. Here it can not be ignored, it is fact and if you still continue to support the (b)organization then you are guilty by hypocrisy. You may not understand that today. You may hate me today. But someday you will understand. I will not do anything but support the victims of this abuse and I condemn ALL Jehovah Witnesses so long as they support the doctrine that allows evil to run amuck inside your religion. If you are silent then you are guilty. Because if you are silent then the bad "evil" people can continue to do their exploitation. We should be united. There is not room for debate here. It is that simple. -Jsyson-End my discussion with you
October 18, 2002

Comment: I'm thinking some of the really bad posts have been removed, 'cuz I don't see anything about RMK being homosexual, so maybe they were removed. Good idea, though, guys/girls to take a break when it becomes too much. I've done that this week. It helps. Needed to get other stuff done as well. MOLE: Blessings this weekend. There are some great threads at www. jehovahs-witness. com on how to handle such "shepherding calls" when you know they are coming to ask if you still believe it is "God's Organization" or not. . . They give some great advice, lots of people have been thru it. Of course, your answers and strategy will depend on if you want to "stay in," or if you want to "fade away" in your own time and way; or if you don't care if they DF you or not, etc. If you have the time and/or the inclination, you can do a "search" at J-W. com or threads such as "Shepherding Call," or "Elder Visits," or threads like that. They are always fascinating the advice that is given. Good stuff! /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: Looks like RJ is BACK! (See 10/18/02 . . . the NAMELESS post moaning about his having been driven away due to criticism of not being 100% on the side of Silentlambs). /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: WELCOME BACK PENNY!!! So nice to hear from you again. We appreciated your passionate and straight-forward posts. Don't worry! You did GOOD! Feel free to express yourself any time! We love you! /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: CONGRATULATIONS to WEBBY for posting the new rules! I'm glad to see they are "out of the bag" and now we all know. You guy(s) are on the ball and we appreciate it! /SLC
October 18, 2002

Comment: Thank you for the welcome back its really good to be here were i can express and know that i am loved and not put down. I had a lady in my life this past week dump me cause i didn't get over my past yet and abuse. She said its be long enough. Since when do people decide when we should be over this? oh and not to sound dumb what's SLC? lol Penny
October 18, 2002

Comment: Jayson: God's kingdom has nothing whatsoever to do with the WTS. I think that you mis-read what I said. I am not a JW. I don't sign my name all the time . . . my choice. I am 100% supporter of SL, but I don't have to hate someone who isn't. Janice made a good point and I shared some information that I had -stuff that is disturbing me lately that does relate because it is about how shameless people are - what would not have been thought of without shame, is now "normal everyday life" without an ounce of shame. I find it interesting that if I sign my name I get one reaction and if I don't I get another reaction. Sometimes I just don't feel safe enough to sign my name . . that is the truth.
October 18, 2002

Comment: Josh: you referred to a post that accused Bill Bowen as an Elder being abusive. Have you read Franz? His "crisis of conscience" came slowly but he did leave eventually. Franz was involved in serious decisions that devastated people. He redeemed himself by leaving and publishing his book. None of us lives long without huge misdeeds having been committed by us. That is why the truth is so important. We are surrounded with lies. The bible can sharpen your perceptive powers, and so can the Holy Spirit. There is no such thing as just one lie - the WTS does not teach truth. Partial truth is not truth. Read the bible. Pray for truth. Don't depend on anyone else but the Father to teach you. I know about spreading lies thinking it was truth. Such shame I feel. soapbox
October 18, 2002

Comment: No name you are just playing games. Stop. I do not care if you are, were, or are not a Jehovah Witness. I care that you want to dilute the issues of the Jehovah Witnesses and how they handle cases of child abuse, and child rape. We are not here to address the injustice of the "world." (I condemn it) I do not think that you are so narrow and shallow minded that you did not know that before your first post. -Jayson- If you are truly here to offer some support to (Sl) then thank you. But we need to end our discussion.
October 18, 2002

Comment: No name-Of course maybe I am wrong. Maybe I am over reacting. Maybe I'll take some time off from coming here. Maybe then I will see things differently. If so then an apology will be given. If not well, i hope we/l will see things with more agreement at some point. If we both support the lambs then there will be common ground. (On sabbatical)-jayson
October 18, 2002

Comment: Penny: You sound good! Have you looked up patiencepress. com yet??? She has much to say - "it takes as long as it takes." You know you don't need people in your life that are not real friends. Some people don't understand and that's okay, but you don't need them around. I will look for email and email you my address. Love, soapbox
October 18, 2002
October 18, 2002

Comment: Penny, you will NEVER forget what happened to you. However, at some time you will learn to put the responsibility and blame on the one or ones who are responsible, the perpetrator(s), and not you. It won't matter what anyone else will say because you will know how to reply with conviction from the heart. You will look at such ones directly into the eyes without flinching and let them know that you know you are the victim and you are not responsible for what happened to you. At that point, hardly anyone will try and challenge you because they will know that you know the truth about what happened to you. Those who put you down or challenge you may be looking to rub salt into your wounds because they enjoy your pain and torment. Some are ignorant but there are a lot more people around then we would guess that like to know our troubles so that they can hurt us with them. Also, there are a lot of kind, compassionate and loving men who will not hurt you. They will listen to you and want to cherish and protect you. If you want a friend who will be your husband, you can find him - when you're ready. As to the person you thought was your friend but felt you've had enough time to get over it, that's how most people are and that's why it's important to be in a good support group. It's not even predictable when you'll feel more pain than usual and need to talk to someone and get comfort. "Regular" people can't deal with the ups and downs of the emotions. There can be a lot of reasons for that. They may have been through trauma and finally gotten over it, perhaps without help, and don't remember the pain and time involved. It can be that they know how much precious time is spent and how much power the abuser gets over one by allowing oneself to relive it over and over and be pained and crippled by it and they - at this point in their life - know that it's not worth spending your time on it. They may not be sympathetic to such people and difficulties. They may have had the same happen to them and they just kept it inside of themselves and kept going with their life but they never dealt with it. It's really important to learn to not let other people hurt us. The truth of the matter is that they will if we let them. There are a lot of people out there that inflict pain on others, whether they realize it or not. You can tell it's a lack of caring if you tell them that they hurt you with what they said and they tell you that you took it the wrong way instead of sincerely feeling bad about hurting you. As you gain confidence within yourself about the crime and the criminals that perpetrated this crime against you, you will be able to view people with more objectivity. You won't feel the need to explain yourself to others. You'll know you're just as good as anyone else and that you're a survivor. Most of us are survivors. Some of us just don't like being reminded of it, especially when they've put it and the crime and the criminals behind us and have moved on with our lives. We just do not want to give them power over us so we won't give them any time in our minds and hearts. THEY are HISTORY and we won't let them to continue to victimize us by our letting them monopolize us and continue to have power over us by our letting ourselves dwell on the act and hurt. It comes back but we fight it out of ourselves. You're not there yet. You will be. - Janice

October 18, 2002

Comment: Jayson: I can address any issue that is relevant to me about this issue. . . you are not the boss here!!!!!! I have been posting for one year and anyone who knows me knows that I do not dilute this issue. I want to be free to express myself. You are being oppressive and very rude to someone who supports SL. Maybe if I knew more about you Jayson, I would understand why you find me so offensive. Why would you want to alienate me, who supports silentlambs? Because I don't want to destroy the WTS - I mean I won't cry if they go, but my life is too precious to be bothered. But if I can help open eyes, be a support, direct people to real help this I will do. I also come here to share what disturbs me, or hurts me or some insight I might have - and I have a right to do that without someone taking what I say out of context and attacking me. That is the same kind of bs that they do at the KH! If a JW's opinion isn't exactly the way it is suppose to be 100% - they are out. You will not succeed in telling me what I can say unless it is truly wrong - then I would listen. Not everyone cares if the WTS is completely wrong - for some of us the focus is more about having a safe place for SL to speak and express, help them find the help they want and are ready for. . . sometimes it is just letting them know I hear them. But don't tell me to shut up or be rude to me. I am very resourceful person and who has helped people personally here. Please let's try to be friends. The first time I stopped using my name, was about two months ago and it was because of your direct rudeness to me. It intimidated me and I just hate that. It use to be there was none of this EXCEPT from the JW defenders. It made me very unhappy when a SL supporter started ridiculing me. Oh, well. I only have so many hours and so much energy: I devote it to being a support to anyone who is hurting. Some days I hurt, too. If you read between my lines, you would see that I am hurting too for all the garbage: I have children and grandchildren. The world is about as ugly as it can get and amazingly it just keeps getting worse. This site use to be a great support for me and it got me thru a bad time. It isn't hurting too for all the garbage: I have children and grandchildren. The world is about as ugly as it can get and support to anyone who is hurting. Some days I hurt, too. If you read between my lines, you would see that I am

October 18, 2002

Comment: FUNNY I SEE JANICE IS BACK!!!!!! BUT JANICE ANSWERED EVERYONE ELSE BUT ME?????? BECAUSE HE/SHE CAN'T >>>>>> ALL I WANT JW'S TO SHOW ME IS FROM THE WT TEACHINGS UP TILL 1919 THAT JESUS CHOOSE THE WT BASED ON THAT. . THE REASON I ASK THAT QUESTION IS BECAUSE NOT BECAUSE HE/SHE CAN'T >>>>> ALL I WANT JW'S TO SHOW ME IS FROM THE WT TEACHINGS UP TILL 1919

October 18, 2002
Comment: watchtower quote of the day!!!!!!!" the Japanese beetle is said to be, at this time, our country's worst pest. . perhaps the devil made this one too; it looks like his work. . probably the lord made some of the useful insists, no doubt the devil made some of the others. . the lord is a better architect. . golden age 12-19-23 page 163-64,67,68 the g. a is a watchtower mag for all you jw's in the dark. . . in the bible it says that god created all the creatures. . the wt says different. . . look for the next wt quote of the day. . . it gets better. . lol. . john
October 18, 2002

Comment: I want everyone to read what Janice has written. . . this is what SL is about first and foremost. Penny has been thru hell. . . absolute hell and she comes here for support. The only one who gave her deep & wise support was Janice. True christianity can be found hardly anywhere and but anywhere nonetheless. Please Back off of Janice - anyone who can show the insight that she does is not bad and is needed here and wherever she chooses to worship. Christianity is about love. She is no BioHarmony that is for sure - thank god!!!! JANICE: how you talked to Penny is the way it used to be here. Don't stop. Love, soapbox
October 18, 2002

Comment: Janice thank you for the advise I am still in the beginning healing stages my abuser was my real dad from 5-14 he raped me and no one did anything and they new. I am a survivor and always will be SOAPBOX my email is kingskid2004@juno. com email me i wanna stay in touch with u Penny
October 18, 2002

Comment: Soapbox i just went to the site u gave me thank you so much i have it saved so i can read it tomorrow i am going to bed now its after 11 here night Penny
October 18, 2002

Comment: SLC Anthony was Anti-Johns little imaginary friend. I believe Anti-John was coming up with another imaginary friend also. Anti-John is no more. Good by Anti-John, goodbye forever. Your 15 minutes of fame is over. Back to your day to day miserable little life.
October 18, 2002

Comment: Is the anti-john truly gone for good? Bless that wonderful name of JESUS!!!
October 18, 2002

Comment: Soapbox, I am the one that put the Gandhi quote on, after seeing the way the site was yesterday I felt something that might make everyone think for a minute would help. SLC what rules did the webmaster post I must have missed them can you give me a date or the are on the site? As far as your post about anti-johns website, the webmaster is trying to clean this site up I think after last nights horrible posts (which were deleted due to pornographic content and explicit PICS) that it is wise for everyone to not address any posts to them Penny I had written a comment to you about not letting anyone or anything get to you etc. but it was deleted due to it landing in the midst of the vile posts sorry. I just wanted you to know that until a person has walked in your shoes, their judgments and criticism is a mute point. Believe in yourself and be strong that is the best way to fight what happened OK Peace, Sheila
October 18, 2002

Comment: For people who read here often; Be careful. In light of all that I have seen here in the last few days. I find the new divisionists suspect. Very suspect. Be careful. -jayson
October 18, 2002

Comment: The first time I came across this site was by accident. . . the best accident in my life. As I read stories that resembled my life so closely tears started run down my cheeks. Before I finished reading it was well past 6am. My letter is not to preach but to inform. People in the name of all that is good, before getting into any religion. . . research, research and research some more. Because of my parents blind belief, I lost self confidence and precious time. Through the years, I self medicated and tried to commit suicide twice and lost my family. I have my good days and my bad, but for the most part I am learning to be free of fear, anxiety and depression. To everyone out there, stay strong and encouraged.
October 19, 2002

Comment: Janice: you say you want the WTS to put this issue right. we all here would love that to happen, but we all here know it ain't going to happen and that it can't happen! why can't it happen you may ask? well if you look at the WTS corporation as a legal entity which is what it truly is, then you have to understand the legal implications of changing their child abuse policy. It doesn't take a genius to work out that if they change their policy in effect they're saying that their policies were wrong and it would open the floodgates for lawsuits. So they have to stick to their guns on this and fight any lawsuits that are against them at this particular time. Once they lose one lawsuit the precedent is set then a floodgate of other lawsuits will be filed against them and then they'll have no chance. Once you realize that, then you'll understand the truth of the matter.  Hi to SLC keep up the good work. RICH
October 19, 2002

Comment: Sheila M-You get no argument from me there. I have really watched too many games be played out on this guestbook and am growing tired of it. (Not to say you did anything) If you go back a ways some of the posts directed at me flies in the face of everything I stand for. The bottom line is I will yield to someone who have a point to make. (Even a bad one.) I have started the "end discussion thing" not as a slam but to try and stop endless bantering. (At least my own bantering) One of the biggest issues I have is that over and over the "world" is to blame for everything. When the world does nothing. We do it to ourselves and each other. But we take no responsibility for our actions. We are groomed to never hold anyone else accountable for their's. And if we do and they say I'm sorry and cry about it they will never do it again then we have to forgive them. (Not just as jw's) and I think that is bunk. When someone hurts me it hurts and I will never forget it because it hurt. Forgiving is not forgetting. (Anyhow just something in my heart not directed at anyone.) "The characteristics of heroism is persistency. All men have wandering impulses, fits of generosity. But when you have chosen your part, abide by it, and do not weakly try to reconcile yourself with the world. The heroic cannot be common, nor the common heroic. Yet we have the weakness to expect sympathy and appeal to a tardy sense of justice. If you would serve your brother because it is fit for you to serve him, do not take back your words when the prudent people do not commend you. "-Ralph Waldo Emerson-Jayson
October 19, 2002

Comment: Soapbox - Thank you for your support. I really DO understand what it's like to be a victim, to have experienced repeated injustices and to recover, forgive and then objectively view the entire situation, not just my own feelings. That's not to say that my own feelings have, somehow, become insignificant. However, being able to step back and look objectively at a situation helps to see the entire picture. It's very healing when one can do that. It still takes time, though. I've found very sympathetic elders who have given me support and cut me more slack in my difficult times. I'm sorry for everyone that hasn't known such refuge within a congregation. ### That is probably why anyone challenged by a small handful here ignores the challengers. They're trying to respect the purpose of this web site and the victims. I'm sorry to say that I do NOT detect any sincerity on the part of those that say they're in sympathy with silent lambs (SLs), even go on the march, but continue to use this support group as a forum for hate and destruction talk toward jw's and try to promote and force doctrinal debates. ### I only talk about my own experiences and my conclusions after a lot of years. The truth of the matter is that it is Jehovah God that
In fact, I haven't even mentioned ANY NAMES but someone already is on the defensive, trying to mitigate get into debates and create unrest by their hateful talk. I am not alone in saying that such ones do not belong here. They, without any doubt or misunderstanding, have said they want THEM wiped off the face of this earth. THAT is a threatening to destroy anyone or anything is a crime. Hate crimes, in particular, have been a focus in the news over the last year. Such hatred is not acceptable - not to me or the world. Anyone promoting hatred and destruction of a person or group of any kind is advocating hate crimes and they really shouldn't be posting here. It is illegal. It's just as illegal as the crimes the victims are having to endure. Spreading hatred against JW's to friends, neighbors or strangers is a hate crime. Some can be so absorbed by hatred that they fail to realize that they've passed the point of what the world considers appropriate and they are actually behaving in and participating in criminal activities. That's all I'm going to say on this subject. My experiences are MY experiences and no one has the right to trample them. Espousing hatred and debates under the guise of being "for" SLs is, in my estimation, extraordinarily inappropriate for this support group. Such extreme behavior keeps away everyone else that is actually sympathetic to this group - including worldly people. It detracts from the legitimacy of this group (or any other group that seems to tolerate such activities). No one wants to get on the FBI's list of subversives by being associated with a group that promotes the destruction of a person or group. I think such ones should be GLAD of JWs tolerance and refusal to repay evil for evil and that we're NOT JEW'S. THEY don't let such talk slide. It seems, therefore, that a small handful here should be grateful for the patience of JWs (at least in this matter). It does not help SLs. - Janice October 19, 2002

Comment: My personal opinion I am grateful for this place. SIN should be exposed the bible says. JW who molest children should be exposed people who cover for these people should also be exposed maybe this will stop some of the abuse if we start standing up and saying ENOUGH IS ENOUGH and we are gonna expose every last person no matter who they are that hurts children INCLUDING JW'S. And what's worse is the JWS using scriptures to cover up SIN saying they need 2 witnesses to see the child being abused COME ON NOW PEOPLE GET REAL!!!!!!!!!!! you really think a JW or anyone for that matter is gonna ask someone that is abusing a child to sit in and watch the abuse??? My dad sure didn't. It is time to expose the JWS for who they really are Penny October 19, 2002

Comment: Janice. I say you sound like a wolf in sheep clothing. Nobody here hates JW's. We hate the WT Society as a legal instrument and entity and their criminal activities world wide. They should and must be investigated. Do not worry about JehovahHe is not in WBTS. By the way He wants to be known for christians as Lord Jesus. Janice the sweetness of your voice presents for me to hear what is underneath. It is forced. rmk October 19, 2002

Comment: Penny, I'm not disagreeing with you. I've already CLEARLY STATED that in previous posts - even in posts where I didn't use my name. I'm also saying that if law suits arise, that's the way it has to be and that's what the Bible tells us will happen if we don't take proper care of matters. Matthew 5:25-26 says: "If, then, you are bringing your gift to the altar and you there remember that your brother has something against you, (24) leave your gift there in front of the altar, and go away; first make your peace with your brother, and then, when you have come back, offer up your gift. (25) "Be about settling matters quickly with the one complaining against you at law, while you are with him on the way there, that somehow the complainant may not turn you over to the judge, and the judge to the court attendant, and you get thrown into prison. (26) I say to you for a fact, You will certainly not come out fro there until you have paid over the last coin of very little value. " That is Jehovah's warning to us, as individuals or as an organization or both, and he's telling us to take care of such matters or else we're subject to legal action that could leave us penniless. However, there is a small handful that has POSTED HERE IN BLACK AND WHITE FOR EVERYONE TO SEE AND READ that they want the total destruction of the Watchtower society and its supporters. They, without any doubt or misunderstanding, have said they want THEM wiped off the face of this earth. THAT is a hate crime. If a VICTIM said that, I'd understand. That's a part of the injury and process of healing. A part that doesn't last as one continues to heal. However, this is not being said by victims but by those who are posting here trying to get into debates and create unrest by their hateful talk. I am not alone in saying that such ones do not belong here. In fact, I haven't even mentioned ANY NAMES but someone already is on the defensive, trying to mitigate (lessen) their comments or involvement in these hate crimes. Without my mentioning any NAMES, why would anyone react unless they’re doing it? - Janice
October 19, 2002

Comment: Janice I am a victim and i want the JW stopped because there a false cult they twist the bible and lie about scriptures there telling people that only so many go to heaven and all this crap that are flat out lies I would love to see them totally shut down and i am sick of them knocking on my door. I don't want people pushing religion down my throat like the JW have done they don't need to be out deceiving people like they are and when i see them i tell them STOP DECIEVING PEOPLE stop twisting GODS word to fit there agenda and yes i am a born again christian Penny
October 19, 2002

Comment: Janice I am a victim and i want the JW stopped because there a false cult they twist the bible and lie about scriptures there telling people that only so many go to heaven and all this crap that are flat out lies I would love to see them totally shut down and i am sick of them knocking on my door. I don't want people pushing religion down my throat like the JW have done they don't need to be out deceiving people like they are and when i see them i tell them STOP DECIEVING PEOPLE stop twisting GODS word to fit there agenda and yes i am a born again christian Penny
October 19, 2002

Comment: Janice: so if i hate, say, the corporation Adidas for exploiting people as cheap labour in third world countries, would that constitute a hate crime?? i'm not one here who hates the WTS and i'm not bothered if they do go to the wall or not. but everyone here has the right to think the way they like, and just because you don't like it doesn't mean they have to go away. i don't agree 100% with everyone here and i don't agree with everyone's motives. you just have to be more tolerant. tolerance is something the WTS never tried to teach me. RICH
October 19, 2002

Comment: Janice. We all want justice done because we are all victims. This Evil WBTS has done that to us. Bill Bowen Barbara Anderson. James Penton. Ray Franz and thousands of others tried to reason with the GB and they do not listen and continue in criminal activities all over the Globe. They concentrate on poor and underprivileged, depressed and sick people and those in morning and they are after their possessions,money deprive them of their families,friends, jobs their health and FREEDOM. Modern but very cruel form of slavery. Ask anybody on this site if they are proud that they ever were Jeh Witnesses! You like to argue and accuse. I find you what I said above. You are a wolf in sheep covering. You are a Zombie from the Borg and you will stay that way until your eyes are opened. It seams this is going to take a long time because not only you are blind but deaf as well. As far as I am concerned Judas Iscariot was a better man than you. You are crucifying the Lord every single day whenever you open your wolfish mouth. On the subject of the name of JW. You are my witnesses says the Lord:that was given to Israel long time ago who were His witnesses. But you? Who are you? You are a scam religion. Evil , Satanic. God has nothing to do with you. You are a False Prophet! It is determined by Him that All that are guilty of false prophesying will be destroyed. Do not put wrong thought in anybody's mouth! You are a False Prophet and the Lawless Man. There is a book that was written secretly by several of elders from your religion called Report. Why don't you read it? Did you read Franz yet? Of course not. But you want to thresh straw. Keep going and you will starve to death to say the least. rmk
October 19, 2002

Comment: No, I'm educated, trained and experience in the field of law. Hating, alone, doesn't constitute a hate crime. However, threatening and talking abusively as though you will do harm to an organization, its people or both IS a hate crime. This group has to decide exactly what it wants to accomplish. - Janice
October 19, 2002

Comment: JANICE why the hell u defending a group that teaches false doctrine that takes the bible and twist it? Why u defending all these people that have molested children? ARE U ONE OF THEM? are u like someone said in here earlier a wolf in sheep clothing? I sure hope NOT. But it does sound odd that your defending a group that has been found to molest children Penny
October 19, 2002

Comment: janie, I quoted the Holy Bible to you. God hates falsehood false religion the False Prophet and The Man of Lawlessness. It is Him who talks destruction for all above. (I just agree with Him) Please complain to Him or, sue Him for Hate Crimes. Once more for the record: I hate the WBTS personally and wish that it be dissolved (destroyed) so it does not continue harming human society anymore. There are other cults as well that should go the same way. I do NOT hate any person in the WBTS or elsewhere though they brought me to the point of death. I and my family are victim of the WBTS and I do not want even to start relying to you what this religion did to us. I know God knows all what happened. He saw everything. He hears my sighing and groaning every day and knows my unabating pain in the heart., Well Janice . Take me to Court for hating WBTS I will gladly attend. rmk
October 19, 2002

Comment: PENAL CODE SECTION 422. 6-422. 95 422. 6. (a) No person, whether or not acting under color of law, shall by force or threat of force, willfully injure, intimidate, interfere with, oppress, or threaten any other person in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him or her by the Constitution or laws of this state or by the Constitution or laws of the United States because of the other person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, or because he or she perceives that the other person has one or more of those characteristics. (b) No person, whether or not acting under color of law, shall knowingly deface, damage, or destroy the real or personal property of any other person for the purpose of intimidating or interfering with the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to the other person by the Constitution or laws of this state or by the Constitution or laws of the United States, because of the other person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, or because he or she perceives that the other person has one or more of those characteristics. (c) Any person convicted of violating subdivision (a) or (b) shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine, and the court shall order the defendant to perform a minimum of community service, not to exceed 400 hours, to be performed over a period not to exceed 350 days, during a time other than his or her hours of employment or school attendance. However, no person shall be convicted of violating subdivision (a) based upon speech alone, except upon a showing that the speech itself threatened violence against a specific person or group of persons. -What use of force has been used here at Silentlambs? Whom has talked about "scraping off the face of the earth" accept a Jehovah Witness defender who SAID that themselves? RMK has made it very clear that the issue is with the WTBS and he wants to deal with it in civil court. He has been (((screaming))) that. I would love to see the long debates moved over to JW. com. To do it over with the "no name" that would be what I would have said in my first post. That the "Thai" like the "Hmong" rape and sex issues are HUGE and would make a good thread there. It would also alert more people too the plight of these poor people. If that is the goal. But sometimes we don't get thing right the first time around. I just hear Jessika scream that this site needs to be protected, set aside for the Lambs that need to some forward. If I will quite down and be willing to move over to JW. com. Will some of you come with me? "No name?" will you come? "Sheila M" I could use your intellect. Will you come? Anyone else with knowledge of these things? They will blow you away. And the Hmong issue is right here in the USA. -Jayson
October 19, 2002

Comment: My experience in family matters and abuse is extensive, including my own experiences with repeated injustices. Therefore, I, am, frequently, the person who does the initial intake of marriage, bankruptcy, family matters, etc. ### It is me that does that because I am a very understanding person. However, in sincere talk and it IS genuinely concerned and sincere on my part, I sometimes am confronted with underlying motives that appear in our conversation that raises red flags. ### We don't always refuse to represent a case simply because it has red flags. ### Also, after we decide to accept a case, usually it's me that does the research and writing related to individual cases. ### I can tell you that, had you been in an interview with me and you talked to me as you do here, I would not recommend taking your case. ### Of course, my recommendation isn't the final one but it has merit in the discussions of the pro and cons in one's case. ### If we decided to take your case, I would exercise my right to excuse myself from your case. ### And, do you know what? You've lost a potentially powerful advocate. ### I've been at this site for a few months trying to decide about you and your motives. ### Be glad that I'm exiting from here. I, personally, feel that your cause is futile with your current combatism. ### Since I have legislative connections through the family, I've been trying to decide if I should approach them with your issues. They are very much involved in mental and emotional needs of children, adults and the elderly. There's no way I would do so at this point. ### I'm used to various individuals acting nice to me because they think they can curry favors from me. That turns me off more than you'll ever know. Yes, I have to ask questions and make comments to get at how a person or persons really feel, think and act. ### You see, whether I'm in "secret" or "lying" or "hiding" or whatever you want to call it, I needed to see YOUR true "face", too. What I see isn't convincing as to motive. ### You see, there are people out there who have suffered so many more acts against them, didn't get justice but got necessary professional help so that THEY could get on with their lives. They've accomplished tremendous things in their lives in spite of all the dirt they've been faced with, had to swallow, and live with. ### If you want people to fight for you, it's going to be difficult. I doubt very much if you'll get it as a group. ### However, I'm sure there are competent lawyers that will take victims on, on a one-to-one basis - as it should be. ### Anyone willing to take on a class action lawsuit is taking on a huge task and it's not against the society that the load is going to come from. It'll come from you. Right now, you are your own worst enemy. ### You can take my words as a kind "hint" or you can get angry. You've gotta do more in a court of law than you're doing here. Also, don't forget that in a court of law, the OTHER SIDE gets to present their case, too. ### In the issues of child molestation, I don't doubt, one by one, that you'll win. However, in your efforts to make the society look like an untruthful cult, you've got a really UPHILL BATTLE. It's very doubtful that you'll get anywhere with it. Do you think the FBI hasn't already done an investigation of the society? ### My thoughts are that the society... is the one I would legally defend if you're going to focus on threats and imposing verbal hate crimes against them.

Take care and goodbye. You need help but it's not in a court of law, at least, not first.

- Janice

October 19, 2002

Comment: JANICE THEN YOUR JUST AS SICK AS THE SOCIETY IF YOUR GONNA DEFEND THE CHILD MOLESTERS YOU MAKE ME SICK

- Penny

October 19, 2002

Comment: Janice. You are as false as 3 dollar bill. I do not believe a word of what you said. And, thank you for leaving. It was not a pleasure unfortunately. When you read what I suggested come back we will be here.

- rmk

October 19, 2002

Comment: Hi all, it's Linda Thoman. I just wanted to say hello back to SLC, and welcome those who are new here. Hopefully with the changes going on with the Guestbook, the subject matter will continue to be cleaned up. To the new ones here, I'd like to extend an invitation to check out our group. Here's the link: http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerEscape

October 19, 2002

Comment: When RICH first came here I was the only one who gave him respect, and ask for others to listen to him. He was bashed just because he was a JW. . . and now Rich is accepted.

- Jayson

October 19, 2002

Comment: SOAPBOX if u could stay in touch please Penny kingskid2004@juno.com

October 19, 2002

Comment: janice; why don't the wt follow matt 5 26-27 like you said. . . they will be left penny less. . . but were does that money come from. it comes from fools like you and 6 million others that have been fooled into thinking the wt is the fds and chosen by god. . . they speak for god. . . jehovah reviles the bible to them. . . the proper spiritual food at the proper time?????? what a line of crap. . . they change their light more than i change my age. . . rmk is right you are a wolf in sheep's clothing. . . make up your mind are you for the wt or not. . . you contradict your self a lot. . . now you are playing with jayson. . . you are a goat. . . so ahead and sue me for calling the wt a false christ. . . THE WATCHTOWER IS A FALSE CHRIST. . . THEY LET CHILDREN GET MOLESTED, SO THEY CAN SELL MAGAZINES. . . THEY DON'T CARE ABOUT THE FLOCK. . . THEY CARE ABOUT MAGAZINES. . . READ ANY WT ALL THEY WANT IS JW'S TO PUSH MAGS. . . I SEE RIGHT THROUGH YOU. . . YOU SPEAK WITH A FORKED TONGUE. . . I WILL WAIT FOR YOUR LAW SUIT. . . AND BLOW YOU AND THE WT RIGHT OUT OF COURT. . . YOU DON'T KNOW ABOUT THE CASES THE WT LOST?????? IT'S RESEARCH TIME. . . I'M STILL WAITING FOR YOU TO ANSWER MY FIRST QUESTION. . . YOU SAY YOU ARE A STAND UP PERSON AT THE HALL????TELL THEM WHAT YOU ARE DOING ON THIS SITE TOMORROW. . . THEN REPORT BACK TO US. . . NOW YOU SUPPORT THE SILENT LAMBS. . . AND DON'T CARE IF THE WT GETS SLAMMED IN COURT. . . GO TELL THAT TO THE ELDERS SUNDAY. . . YOU WILL NOT. . . BECAUSE YOU ARE A TWO FACE. . .

- John

October 19, 2002

Comment: MORE /SLC BULLSHIT Here: "Anti-John can't get enough reaction to his posts, so he creates ELDER BOB @ POOP. com in order to fight with! Pretty funny! :-D /SLC" and Here: "CONGRATULATIONS to WEBBY for posting the new rules! I'm glad to see they are "out of the bag" and now we all know. You guy(s) are on the ball and we appreciate it! /SLC"

October 19, 2002

Comment: anti-john fights it out with ONAN THE DESTROYER (a. k. a. Bill Bowen) in the fiercest battle seen so far. As ONAN raises his secret weapon, THE MASTURBATER 3000, anti-john lunges at him and dashes it to pieces. ONAN fumes at the loss of his most fearsome weapon. And so, ONAN slinks off to his secret lab in the back room to work on an even more devastating weapon: THE BUMJACKER 4000. Will anti-john's luck run out? Will he be so scared he pees his pants? Tune in next time to find out. . .

October 19, 2002

Comment: See how they run like pigs from a gun, see how they run. . .

October 19, 2002

Comment: MORE BULLSHIT "Anthony was Anti-Johns little imaginary friend. I believe Anti-John was coming up with another imaginary friend also. Anti-John is no more. Good by Anti-John, goodbye forever. Your 15 minutes of fame is over. Back to your day to day miserable little life. "

October 19, 2002

Comment: Thank you soooooooo much for this inspiring site. Truly this site is in harmony with Jehovah's purpose to keep care of the little children! It is a blessing that Jehovah has some faithful on the earth that truly follow His commandments. Agape

October 19, 2002

Comment: Poor little anti-john. Now who pulled his face out of the toilet before he learned his lesson? Quick, plunge his head back into the cool waters of his origin so that his facial orifice may continue to feast upon his favorite food and drink! Be careful, anti-john, that you don't ingest any of the toilet paper. I don't think it contains any nutritional value. And be sure to keep the lid down as you feast! The look of sheer delight that covers your face is pretty disturbing. Sincerely, The ANTI-anti-john.

October 19, 2002

Comment: come on. . . these people are suggesting that religious nuts just come round knocking on our doors to molest our children, not just bash us with large bibles. . . don't you find that a little odd? Next time they wake me up with a hangover early on Saturday morning, I'll probably get so mad I'll put up a sign saying "sorry, We don't have any kids here. Try next door. "

October 19, 2002

Comment: Amazon. com sells books that condones sex with children. They have been asked to stop doing this But will not "censor" their books for sale. More information at afa. com or American Family Association. Maybe buy your books elsewhere.

October 19, 2002

Comment: I love Jehovah and waited 26 years waiting for relief, and waiting for the elders to see. I disassociated myself last year after a decade of waiting for the elders to help. My daughter is also a victim. I, however, saw it to the finish, and witnessed more than I dreamed I'd see. The elders weren't going to take action for my daughter until my husband was arrested. I wanted to leave then. I still could not see the picture. I saw it till the end, every tactic they used. Of course, I was then disfellowshipped, for they could not permit me to disassociate myself. Our extended family has many who have suffered. We puzzled over the family problem instead of seeing it was the religion. My daughter and I had been shunned for many years until I decided, as my daughter had before, that there was no love. My mother-in-law, who had been disfellowshipped many years before said, "If they have it so wrong in just one family, just think across the entire organization. " We have suffered severely as a result. The story is copious, with some of the injured still amid the cult. It's still difficult not to be in denial.

October 19, 2002

Comment: I just noticed a comment about slandering. I did not mention that in my my last message. One of the claims I made about my husband was that he had been slandering me. My daughter and I had been turned into scapegoats for the disfellowshipping of my husband's mother. That began in the early 80's. After the authorities had taken action on my behalf, too, the elders began calling me a slanderer. They threatened me with disfellowship for slandering. And, in the end, before the committee, as I was called it again, I replied, "That's it. I take responsibility for what I do, not for what I do not do!” And, stated that I was still disassociating myself. I trusted in, and went to the elders instead of the authorities all those years, and they refused to help! The world came to the aid of my daughter and myself.

October 19, 2002

Comment: Dear you and your daughter. They did it to you as well?What you said in your 2 posts is a normal practice of JW. You suffered your daughter suffered your whole family suffered but you were blamed. In their eyes you were a complainer a troublesome person that is never happy never submissive enough to your husband and the Borg. So they hated you and sought not a way to help you but a way to destroy you. Not love but punches in the jaw you received. The Pharisees did that to Jesus. He was telling them the Truth. They did not like that so they crucified him. They killed him. I know that many times you feel depressed and in pain and can't believe the reality of that what this" beautiful and clean?" org. of Jehovah did to you. But they did. Please thank God for being out of there because they have no power over you anymore. But the Lord cared for you . He delivered you from the pit of Lions and He will restore you completely. It will take time but he will be with you to guide you. In the meantime please read some books dealing with cults and stay here on this site so you learn to be strong and see that there are many thousands like you. Together we are strong. The Borg is terrified of us and we have to continue pursuing the WT in courts. Look up the email of Lawrence Hughes in previous posts above and join the Global Suite Action against the WT. They owe as a lot. It is basically free of charge. The elders and all wt leaders are just plain criminals. No need to feel sorry for them. More we pursue them more money we extract from them sooner they will fold up and release our loved ones from the Lion’s pit. Please feel free to express your pain here whenever you feel like. People here will help you. rmk

October 20, 2002

Comment: Watchtower Quote of the daythe period must end in 1925. the type ending, the antitype must begin; and there fore1925 is definitely fixed in the scriptures, every thinking person can see that a great climax is at hand. the scriptures clearly indicate that the climax is the fall of satan's empire and the full establishment of the messianic kingdom. The climax being reached by 1925, and that marking the beginning of the fulfillment of the long promised blessing of life to the people, millions now living on earth will be living then and those who obey the righteous laws of the new arrangement will live for ever. therefore it can be confidently said at this time that millions now living will never die” golden age pg 217 jan. 4, 1922, pg 217

October 20, 2002

Comment: Janice: so on the basis of what i said about the fact that the WTS wont change their child abuse policy, are you still going to wait for them to change it? * RMK why do you continually argue with Janice?? what you battle against, you become. just imagine if the WTS did finish, there would be another group set up to take its place. this is the world mate. i'm not saying that you shouldn't carry on the way you are, but this is the way i see it, "he that is doing unrighteousness, let him do unrighteousness still; and let the filthy one be made filthy still; but let the righteous one do righteousness still, and the holy one be made holy still. " Re 22:11. i mean, they're using God's holy name for goodness sake! you don't think Jehovah is going to let them get away with their wickedness do you? when people wake up and stop giving their minds away, then cults like the WTS wont exist anymore, they stop becoming reality. really i don't blame the GB 100%, i blame all those who give them their power. this child abuse policy is the product of the whole group's mentality. the WTS are their own worst enemy. what they fear actually becomes reality. AND IF JANICE DOESN'T BELIEVE SHE'S PART OF A CONTROLLING CULT THEN JANICE SHOULD GO TO HIS/HER ELDERS AND TELL THEM THAT THE WTS CHILD ABUSE POLICY IS WRONG, WHY ITS WRONG AND TELL THEM WHAT IT SHOULD BE AND SEE HOW HE/SHE IS TREATED. IF JANICE DOESNT DO THIS BECAUSE JANICE IS FEARFUL OF THE CONSEQUENCES, THEN JANICE KNOWS WHAT IS BEING SAID IS TRUE. when Christ talked about when he returns would he find the true faith on earth, he wasn't being rhetorical, he was asking a bloody serious question. RICH

October 20, 2002

Comment: Child porn swoop nets 90 police Martin Bright and Paul Harris Sunday October 20, 2002 The Observer Hundreds of child welfare professionals, including police officers, care workers and teachers, have been identified as 'extremely high-risk' paedophiles by an investigation into internet porn. The discovery came after US authorities passed on more than 7,000 names of UK subscribers to an American-based child porn website. When police examined a sample of the most dedicated users, they discovered that many worked with children. Investigators knew paedophiles targeted jobs which brought them into contact with children, but were shocked by how many British suspects had been undetected by the usual checks. The discovery that many were working in jobs of the highest sensitivity will send shock waves through the child protection world and lead to calls for even more stringent safeguards. Investigators now believe as many as 90 police officers have so far been identified from an initial trawl of 200 of the British names found in the US. Many of the other suspects work in other sensitive professions, often linked to the criminal justice system. John Carr of the Children's Charities' Coalition for Internet Safety (CHIS), which represents all major children's organizations, including the NSPCC, NCH and Barnardos, said: 'It's very distressing to learn that so many policeman are being arrested for these sorts of offences. It undermines people's confidence in our ability to deal with it at all. 'Harry Fletcher, deputy general secretary of the probation union Napo, said: 'There has been growing evidence over the past 10 years that paedophiles have infiltrated careers that put them in direct contact with children. This latest evidence suggests we have to be even more vigilant.' Specialist child porn investigators, including officers from the National Hi-Tech Crime Unit, have initially concentrated on users who had made more than 10 purchases of child porn from the internet. They used a US web 'portal' that gave access to dozens of sites with titles such as Cyber Lolita, I Am Fourteen and Child Rape. The sites were run by porn barons in Russia and Indonesia and involved abuse committed on captive children. British involvement in the child porn ring was so large that police set up Operation Ore to investigate all 7,200 subscribers in this country. They have passed on all the names to the relevant forces for further investigation; 700 are known to be in Scotland and 279 in Cambridgeshire. Police believe at least 5,000 could be considered 'goers' and lead to arrests. Operation Ore has also uncovered civil servants, a firefighter and a teacher in Northern Ireland. Another teacher has been arrested in Cambridgeshire and suspended from working with 11-year-olds at a village school. One Home Office insider told the Observer that investigations targeted the most serious cases, where arrests and convictions were thought to be relatively straightforward. These involve images of pre-pubescent children where suspects cannot claim they believed they were purchasing adult porn. The US investigation, Operation Avalanche, was set up by the United States Postal Inspection Service, which probes online porn. It began in Texas and has generated more than 75,000 identities worldwide. The website portal was run by Thomas and Janice Reedy, a married couple in Fort Worth, Texas, who were running an online porn empire from their suburban mansion which generated £1 million a month in fees. Both have been sent to prison. The Association of Chief Police Officers (Acpo) has warned Ministers that forces do not have the resources to deal with the problem. It is awaiting a Home Office decision on a submission for £2 million of crisis funding. A Home Office spokeswoman said Ministers welcomed Acpo's focus on the issue, but they had already provided an extra £25 million to help combat hi-tech crime, including child porn. A police spokesman said: 'There are people up and down this country who are sweating. Give us their computer, even if it's been thrown on a skip, and we can quickly nail them.' Observer sections

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "The Catholic Church occupies a very significant position in the world and claims to be the way of salvation for hundreds of millions of people. Any organization that assumes that position should be willing to submit to scrutiny and criticism. "(AWAKE Aug22 1984 28).

Comment: Hi Rich. What you said is absolutely right. I thought that Janice is a man and I just couldn't take that twisted thinking and double play any longer. I am truly sorry that I did not restrain myself more. He was making many of us sick and I had the feeling he was an impostor. He was ignoring all evidence about the WT. I thank you for your kind reminder to let things go sometimes but I have done that for 25 years in the WT and now I find that my patience with them is over. I find them to be liars and crooks that should be taken to task for what they do right away. I was patient with him for a while but came to the conclusion that he is absolutely not interested to find out where the WT is coming from. But is that my business? I think yes! it is. Why? Because I care about the Lord and His people! "Do not throw pearls to swine says the Lord" and after a while you ought to stop. Don't let anyone be sorry for Janice parting from us. He does not deserve that. If he did not discern that we are genuine in our experience with the Borg than just too bad for him. It is between him and the Lord. Nobody has taken away from him anything. But yes I do not want to battle with anybody and I won't from now on. I will be more tolerant. Thank you rich for your timely reminder. It is appreciated. To all my friends on the site I wish a nice and blessed Sunday. rmk was

Comment: If anyone has soapbox email could u email her for me and tell her i would like to stay in contact with her please She has been an inspiration to me in here as well as some of the men have here Penny

Comment: I have been free from the Watchtower since 1996. It took time to get myself straightened out but I am doing great now. It was the best thing I have ever done. I did a lot of research before and after leaving. It has been a long road but well worth the effort. Keep strong. DWH

Comment: DWH Welcome ! would you tell us why are you so happy to be out of the WT? Some say the ORg. is good but some individuals among the elders are not representing the Society as they should and that's why people complain. Would you like to share some of your experiences with us? It would be appreciated. rmk
October 20, 2002
Comment: hi DWH;; WELCOME happy to have you . . . glad you took off the rose colored glasses. . . it sure makes jesus happy. . . . look forward to hearing from you . . . . john
October 20, 2002
Comment: I am very thankful to Bill, for having the opportunities of seeing what is happening inside the organization, i agree that the policy of watchtower is defend to the abuser, and no protect to the victims, certainly the Society is not showing the love that the little ones need. greetings to Bill and keep on ahead. .
October 20, 2002
Comment: ok i know that i only gave a crumb. of that meat in due season. . about the 1919 1922 conventions and the 5 year campaign of millions now living will never die. . in the wt quote of the day. . . here's another. . 1925 is definitely settled by the scriptures. the christian has much more upon which to base his faith than noah had ( so far as the scriptures reveal) upon which to base his faith in the coming deluge. wt april 1, 1923 pg 106 lets not forget the wt was saying that 1799,1874,78,1914,1918 etc. . were all gods dates also coming from god and the stone witnesses the pyramid. . i will be posting these wt gems shortly. . NOW LETS SEE WT THE WT SAYS ABOUT THESE TEACHING YEARS AFTER THE PROPHECY FAILS. . STIRRING UP INCREASED INTREST IN THEM, JEHOVAH CAUSED TO BE PREACHED FROM 1918 ONWARD THE STARTLING PUBLIC MESSAGE "MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE" NOV 15 55 PG 698 imagine that !!jehovah himself was behind the millions campaign advertising the end of the world in 1925 . . also see wt 4 1, 63 pg 218 or any other wt that glorifies the 1919 22 conventions or the millions campaign. . seems like a lot of these wt are from april fools day. . . are the wt making fools out of jw's????
October 20, 2002
Comment: before all the silent lambs blast me for the wt quote of the day. . . remember the wt will lie about anything to save their hide. . are they lying about their history??? are they lying about child molesters???? and everything else they get busted on???? see the point!!!! it's my angle to show the the wt is a LIAR!!!!! IT HELPS MANY. . . . LOVE TO
THE LAMBS ,. . . JOHN
October 20, 2002
Comment: Hi again, I haven't been to this site for awhile. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . I haven't read all the posts made most recently. . . . . . . . . . . . Our family has been in Crisis. . . . . . . . . . . . . . Since we can be tracked to our server I have changed how I write in to this site. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . I want to protect myself and my family from any consequences of previous posts. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . (I told of many things going on in the congregation; I not one of the threatening persons who come and put down victims; we are Silent Lambs) When I am ready and we are safe we will come forward. . . . . . . . . . . . My safety is paramount right now. I would be knowingly putting my life in danger if I could be identified in any way. I have had my life threatened many times and attempts made. . . . . . . . . . . . . I have put up with attempts made on my life and family and threats from my X (abuser) for years. . . . . . . . . . . . .
Maybe some day he will be made accountable for all the pain, heartache, fear, suffering, death, destruction, and destructive effects he has caused to us and those who have supported us in the community. . . . . . . . . . I want to thank the webmaster for the brief time we were able to say what was happening and talk freely and for being anonymous. It allowed me to speck so freely. . . . . Now I am not safe to say all there is to say. I will not be forced to come forward before all my family members are safe and we are not right now. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Still praying for Jehovah blessing promoting protection of the children. . . . ANONMYOUS
October 20, 2002
Comment: Now nothing could be more hypocrite than this as well as a total twist on free speech: Thank you for writing to Amazon. com with your concern. Let me assure you, Amazon. com does not endorse the content of such books. Simply because we sell a book does not mean we agree with the ideas it contains. Please know that, contrary to rumors that have been circulating around the Internet, such books are not a "how-to" manual for child abuse. We believe that people have the right to choose their own reading material. (YES THIS IS SICK) Our goal is to support freedom of expression and to provide customers with the broadest selection possible so they can find, discover, and buy any title they might be seeking. That selection includes some titles which most people, including employees of Amazon. com, may find distasteful or otherwise objectionable. However, Amazon. com believes it is censorship to make a book unavailable to our customers because we believe its message to be repugnant. While we do not censor items from our web site, I wanted to reassure you that Amazon. com does not promote these kinds of titles. We value all feedback from our customers, and I thank you again for taking the time to send us your comments about this issue. Best regards, Sucheta V. Amazon. com Earth's Biggest Selection
October 20, 2002


Comment: ACCORDING TO AMAZON THESE BOOKS MENTIONED BELOW ARE NOT HOW TO MANUALS OR A RUMOR. The Internet chat rooms are abuzz with the name Jeffrey Bezos, Time magazine's choice for “Man of the Year” for 1999. But those posting on-line opinions lean heavily toward the nuance that Time has erred in its decision. The American Family Association agrees, but for differing reasons.

October 20, 2002

Comment: I hope that all will stop buying books from Amazon - they are fake for $$ $$, and haven't looked at the books they sell that INSITE pedophiles to commit their violence against our children.

October 20, 2002

Comment: TO ANONYMOUS: It is sad that you cannot speak freely here. As usual, a few rotten apples ruin it for everyone else. As far as tracing your IP to your geographical location, it is technically possible, yes. It is often possible to find out what town or city you live in just from your IP headers. In fact, since every server keeps logs, this information has been recorded all along, including the IP's of every person who has even visited the site. But the webmaster is the only one who can access this information. The issue really comes down to whether or not you trust him, the administrator of this web site. If he wanted your name, address, phone number, etc. he could easily locate your service provider and ask for the information. But most ISP's have strict privacy policies and he would have to apply through a lawyer or contact the FBI and prove that you had posted material inciting to violence or unrest, or pornographic stories about children. I'm sure you can see that this would be very costly and time consuming for him, and he would not go through this for trivial reasons. I am quite sure that you have little to be worry about. For all practical purposes it is perfectly safe to post here. GDB

October 20, 2002

Comment: ANONYMOUS-I hope you have safety right now. I hope you are not in hiding. If you are and you need help. Bill does know of people who can help you. You are not alone. Many of us here are willing to help you if you are in trouble or in need. (This is not a Jehovah Witness issue it is a humanity issue.) There can not be anything worse than to fear for your life. If we can help you in a way that you feel safe I hope that we can. This is an open forum so here might not be the safest place for you to come forward but I sincerely hope that we can provide you some safety. Contact Bill Bowen directly. I pray that God will look over this ANONYMOUS poster and if anyone here has the ability to help this person, or anyone in this type crisis please do.-Jayson

October 20, 2002

Comment: Anonymous, Why would you fear posting here? The only ones that would be tracked by there IP would be violators such as ant-john that has posted some pretty vile things. Any site you go on can trace IP even a hacker can. If your not posting things you shouldn't then what do you have to fear or are you trying to create fear for those who post? Sheila

October 20, 2002

Comment: Jayson - you are very sweet, wise and kind in your words of comfort to the person in fear of their life.

October 20, 2002

Comment: To the person you is afraid for their life. Please call Bill Bowen. You have a right to ask 100 or 1000 questions before you want to risk your safety. That is intelligent and wise. If your questions are not answered or respected, or you are shamed for asking - end the conversation and move on. I pray to Our Father for your safety and the safety of your family. I pray for you to find the help you need with speed and efficiency. My christian love to you. (I thought I had posted this already but didn't see it)

October 20, 2002

Comment: Greetings to all, the guest book is still a work in progress. To all those silent lambs out here, worry not, no one will ever have access to your IP address. The only information the public will ever have is that which you post. Yes, there are a select few who have posted extremely vile art work, photos and language. Those IPs are recovered from the Server Logs and I have been directed to go forward with investigations using posted history as evidence as to the guest book abuse. It is not true that the Internet Service Providers do not care about those who abuse. The ISPs and their providing backbone services rely on all our business and serve the public to that end. They react immediately to an investigation of abuse. Rest assured Silentlambs is working to give you the most enjoyable site possible. I commend those of you who have come forth and shared your stories, like the examples in the bible from those who come before you sharing historical christianity with you and I, all examples collectively give strength to the whole body of Christ. Now more than one of us work on the site to improve it and help develop it. The guest book is one of my personal areas of choice and receives much more of my time now. I monitor it when I get up, daily and before I go to sleep at night. I share abuse issues with the owner of Silentlambs and act upon it accordingly with all agencies of internet connectivity and the law. It is my hope, and prayers to those who are the silent lambs of the world that you find peace, healing, and comfort in the Arms of God and within the home of the Silentlambs web pages. In Him. . . . . . . . . . webmaster
October 20, 2002

Comment: Bill is working so hard. . . . . . . too hard for this to turn into a gripe line! Please support the ones who need it and open a chat to complain PLEASE.
October 20, 2002

Comment: I e-mailed the Watchtower society and asked very politely how the man who raped my mother is allowed to sit in a congregation of unsuspecting women and children. His response was that it was my mothers fault for endangering the members of the congregation by not pursuing it legally. She was not given that option. She suffered a nervous breakdown and began abusing alcohol. On top of that her family was misled to believe that it would be handled. Does anyone know if relatives can report issues like that if the family member is not in a mental state to? There are photographic evidence and witnesses to the after effects of what happened to her? Thank you
October 20, 2002

Comment: To the lady who found this site by accident and was up till 6am. . . . . . Please stay with SilentLambs. Bill Bowen has given the last 3 years(at least) to this site and is a wonderful Brother. The WTS is throwing away the cream of the crop (Bill, the Anderson's etc) In Spokane today a 3 yr. old boy was raped. when his Mother found him, his lips were blue and if she hadn't gotten him to a hospital, he would have been dead, they said within hours. I hope the police "accidentally" shoot the Bastard when they catch him. It is a sick world out there, but you surely don't expect it within your cong. The WTS is getting away with murder. . . they feel they are above the law. Soon I hope they will be loosing so much money they will fall on their face. Mole. . . . . please keep us informed. I hope someone out there reports on the Elders meeting of ll/l7. Hang on New Lady, this site will encourage you. Bill is working very hard to help all of us.
October 20, 2002

Comment: Hate to take up so much space, but Ray Franz had it right. . . . they are leaving in droves. . . . ck your yearbook. Why all the interest in "do you have time. . . . l5 min. is all you need" I would not give them 5 min. Unless I sent out letters warning people of what the WTS does. The mind control in this org. is the best I've ever seen. The military should study it. I've tried to reach the FBI, but I think you have to know someone. Let's all keep writing. . . FBI is all you need. . . and write to the news papers whenever you can. Most have an editorial page. We had a dandy in today's paper. . . Jazbug was going to post it. Keep Watch. We should all copy it and send it to every news media we know. Thanks Bill
October 20, 2002

Comment: Thanks be to the webmaster for his efforts at cleaning up the site. However, some of his comments were not quite accurate. The most an ISP will do is terminate the username of an individual for abusive or disruptive activities. Believe me, I know. I once received an e-mail by mistake which contained the filthiest, most graphic story about a father raping his little boy. What little I read of it sickened me to my very soul. And yes, I did pursue the sender of these pornographic stories. His ISP terminated his service immediately but would not report him to the authorities or provide any details about him, to myself, or to an organization that tracks down pedophiles. The plain fact is, the paying customers of the ISP come first. And ISP's are not lining up to give out private information on their customers. Not only that, but those who make a habit of posting disruptive material use anonymous proxies to post. This means that their IP CANNOT be traced unless you happen to be from the CIA. It's all very well and good to jump up and down and make threats, but please, research your facts thoroughly beforehand. There are privacy laws, do you know what they are? GDB
October 20, 2002

Comment: Here is the editorial my friend said I was going to post. SUPPORT THE VICTIMS, NOT PERPETRATORS. . . With respect to the Catholic Church abuse scandal, I was shocked to read recent letters professing the victims to "just get over it," "forgive them" and "money won't solve your problems. " This isn't about "GETTING OVER IT." What has happened to these people is so horrific they will live with it for the rest of their lives. The best they can do is lessen the impact, and then only if they have supportive families, friends and access to good counseling. "FORGIVE THEM" is not about condoning actions or releasing accountability. Forgiveness is about victims releasing the hold perpetrators have on them. For the "MONEY WON'T SOLVE YOUR PROBLEMS" crowd, counseling is for a lifetime, and it's expensive. So this is about money??? NOT A CHANCE! This is about accountability, holding those who committed these sins/crimes or covered them up accountable. There are only two ways to do that. The first is criminal charges. With most past the statute of limitations, that leaves civil action. Hold them accountable by taking something from them (usually money). Not holding these people accountable is not acceptable. For victims of this type of childhood abuse there is no middle ground. YOU ARE EITHER WITH THEM OR YOU ARE AGAINST THEM. This is a black-and-white issue, no gray. Please open your minds and hearts to these people as they struggle to find a semblance of peace. To do otherwise is to support perpetrators instead of victims. There are no real survivors here. (From the Spokesman Review Editorial page).

October 20, 2002

Comment: Dear GDB, Thank you for your concern regarding the safety of those who post in the guest book. At first I wanted to give you a lecture on ISPs and agencies but, in keeping with the harmony of the guest book being for healing for the silent lambs I ask you to e mail me and discuss policies rather than to use the guest book for a battlefield for your view of rights and wrongs. In Him webmaster

October 20, 2002

Comment: Since the webmaster has removed pervious posts about the TRUTH concerning the WT official policy on child abuse, I will repeat it here. Not only does the Oct 8 1993 Awake! encourage kids to speak out, but also recommends that the mother or adult concerned go to the police, even if the offender is a spouse and may be put in jail. It states that if the offender loses his job etc he is reaping what he has sown and that it is the children's needs that take priority because adults have more resources. That is certainly not advocating turning a blind eye or covering up, so it is grossly unfair to blame the WT org for the misguided actions of a few. How would you feel if your son committed a crime and everyone blamed you for it? Search for "pedophiles" or child abuse at http://www.watchtower.org/

October 20, 2002

Comment: The Watchtower written policy may state certain actions be taken, but they certainly have not practiced that policy either. They do different than they say. But all perpetrators are like that. You too can quote anything you like that you find in writing. We all know from history that what they say and what they do are TWO different things.

October 20, 2002

October 20, 2002

Comment: I've just read the press releases and complaints filed with the courts, but I'm curious - WHAT WAS THE COURT RULING ON THESE COMPLAINTS as the silent lambs forum does not publish what the justices ruled in each case. bioharmony

October 20, 2002

Comment: This comment is for Janice who thinks she is God's Gift to everyone here and who DOESN'T UNDERSTAND THE DYNAMICS OF ABUSE. ............... It shows. . . Oh how it shows. ........ Some people take cases to promote their career and not for the cause. ............... Do you even care? Do the children really matter to you? ............... What I have found in my experience is that pedophiles or pedophile sympathizers(sp) talk like this Janice. It tells what they are. It is more about what she/he is than any of the rest of us on this site. The normal person would find the issues so repugnant that as a lawyer they couldn't do it. ............... . . . . . . Most that writes to this site it is obvious they have been abused or had family members abused just by their reactions. We are for real. ............... One thing Janice can take away from this is that we are for real and do not want favors from him/her, by being nice to him/her, as stated on a previous post. ............... We are not out to impress anyone or get favors from anyone. . . . . We want JUSTICE. Most of us are very angry. I know I am and I am sure in some of my comments it shows but it is but it matches what has happened to me and the depth it has affected me. Many of the accounts I have read and it breaks my heart. May Jehovah be with us in our united endeavors to protect the children and expose the abusers of our children. ............... I pray fervently that this will happen. . . From Me!!

October 20, 2002

Comment: This is GDB here. You want to give me a "lecture on ISPs and agencies" ? I've been there, as I related in my earlier post. ISP's have different policies, they might appear willing to help, but when it comes to the crunch you will find them very reluctant to reveal personal information about their subscribers. You also stated "I ask you to e mail me and discuss policies rather than to use the guest book for a battlefield for your view of rights and wrongs" I was not talking about rights and wrongs. I had no wish to enter any dialogue with you about it. I merely posted what I feel is relevant information. I'm sorry if you felt it was unhelpful. For one thing, you are surprisingly opinionated considering how ill informed you are. GDB.

Comment: To Everyone: The webmaster just posted a message yesterday saying he was on top of the problems with the guest book, also what he would be doing with the offensive posts. Yes, the information that has been posted is horrible but if we leave the board they win. I firmly believe that the vile posts are from a witness or witnesses who else would care enough??? Believe me I could have gone a lifetime without seeing the pics that disgusting person put on the site but I am not going to let them win. Notify the webmaster if you see something like that. That is why the address is on the site OK As for mole, I hope it goes well, personally I would tell them it was none of their business and not get into a discussion with them. A shepherding call is supposed to help you LOL Not be an interrogation, woops they forgot that. Sheila M
October 21, 2002

Comment: HI--------Just wanted to say hi to SLC and everyone here. I was out of town and haven't had a chance to be online much. WELCOME to all new ones here. Jesika Thoman--Dallas,TX
October 21, 2002

Comment: Sheila M, surely you are not suggesting that the unprincipled louts who graffitied the site with images of unspeakable filth were actually JW's? More likely they were teenage script-kiddies with too much time on their hands. Lots of web sites get attacked, especially those with insecure guest books, like this one. Perhaps someone lurking at the site noticed the arrogant attitude of the webmaster and this brought on the attack. I'm not excusing this kind of behaviour, but I think it could be handled a lot better to prevent more of the same happening in the future.
GDB
October 21, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER. . . . "All who have taken their stand on the side of Jehovah must abide in his organization under Christ, if they would live. There is no exception to this rule. The name 'Jehovah's witnesses' applies specifically to God's anointed ones who have been taken out of the world {i.e. are not part of this wicked system of things, etc.} and made witnesses for Jehovah, and these alone bear the new name. The official organization of Jehovah on earth consists of his anointed remnant, and the Jonadabs who walk with the anointed are to be taught, but not to be leaders." (WT Aug15 1934 249)
October 21, 2002

Comment: I liked the pictures of Germany. Bill looks tired. I'M SO THRILLED ABOUT THE LAWYERS IN TEXAS THAT ARE DOING A CLASS ACTION SUIT!!!! It may take awhile, but if people really respond to that it will bring down the WTBTS! Yahoo. Wouldn't that be PRETTY? I hope the Elders in Wash. St. know about it, because they have their Elders Meeting ll/17. Please, someone out there, let us know what they are 'secretly doing'. Not just an outline either.
October 21, 2002

Comment: I liked the pics from Germany. Bill looks tired. I'M SO THRILLED TO HEAR ABOUT THE LAW FIRM IN TEXAS, DOING A CLASS ACTION SUIT. It will take longer, but isn't a financial hardship and WILL EVENTUALLY BRING DOWN THE WTBTS!! YAHOO I think personally that shunning is a pitiful form of torture. Hopefully Bill & Sheila can see their G. children again before they grow up. It is pitiful what 'they' do to families. 'One day everyone loves you, the very next day, NO ONE WILL SPEAK TO YOU. And what about those that don't want to come in the T. (ha)again. To NEVER be able to speak to friends and relatives? They should be sued BIG TIME. Please people, . . . . come out of the woodwork. . . . come from every where. If the WTS has hurt you in ANY WAY speak out. If I get D/F and my daughter won't speak to me, I can't even imagine what that is like. My children are my best friends. I've loved them since day one. They love me and show it all the time. I could not live with shunning. Thanks for listening. Has Jazbug written her 'column' yet? I like the new guestbook. Much less name calling.
October 21, 2002

Comment: I just heard about some filth disgusting pictures accusing Bill. It HAD TO BE A J. W. Remember, . . . the Pedophiles have piles of pomo. . . that is what their little minds are on most of the time. There are ways of tracking them down. That is the ULTIMATE IN SLANDER We appreciate you Bill & Sheila
October 21, 2002

Comment: I went to the http://www. patiencepress. com Site. For people wanting to have more understanding about Post Traumatic Stress it is worth visiting. One thing that I got back in an E-mail question was that there is not one perfect way to deal with PTSD. So do what works for you to help and heal. (Thank you for posting it.)-Jayson
October 21, 2002

Comment: GDB: That is exactly what I am suggesting. As for the webmaster being arrogant, how so? I have corresponded with him recently sounds like a nice person too me. As far as arrogant your last posts didn't come off as humble, "those in glass houses. . Sheila M
October 21, 2002

Comment: www. jwinfoline. com hit the button that says AUDIO - many excellent tapes to listen to - especially for ones who have just left, think of leaving and don't know where "to go. " They have all the history, some taped judicial meetings, and many many testimonies of JWs who left. MOLE - this would be very good to listen to while you are dealing with your situation. Also, for anyone who wants to ask Jesus into their heart and just can't "do it" these tapes will open your heart to the simplicity of knocking on the door - of Jesus - not JUST in the neighborhood! IT IS JESUS' DOOR YOU MUST KNOCK ON!
October 21, 2002

Comment: Truth constantly being deleted from this Board. To all who want to know the JW official view of reporting pedophiles to the police, please read the Oct 8 1993 Awake
October 21, 2002

Comment: Truth constantly being deleted from this Board. To all who want to know the JW official view of reporting pedophiles to the police, please read the Oct 8 1993 Awake
October 21, 2002

Comment: TO THE NAMELESS PERSON WHO WROTE THIS: "I just heard about some filth disgusting pictures accusing Bill. It HAD TO BE A J. W. Remember . . . the Pedophiles have piles of porno. . . that is what their little minds are on most of the time. There are ways of tracking them down. That is the ULTIMATE IN SLANDER". . . . . . . . . . WHAT KIND OF BRAINLESS MORON ARE YOU ? ARE ALL JWS PEDOPHILE ? DOES EVERY JW HAVE CHILD PORNOGRAPHY ? IT IS ASSHOLES LIKE YOU THAT MAKE YOUR WHOLE CAUSE LOOK STUPID. AT LEAST PRETEND THAT THIS WHOLE ISSUE ISN'T JUST ABOUT JW VS APOSTATE.
October 21, 2002

Comment: Just because someone points out a Watchtower or Awake policy stating what the WTBTS says they want you to do, it has not been their way to practice what they preach.
October 21, 2002

Comment: To those who think what is written in WTS literature is what is done in real life. . . NOT GENERALLY TRUE, at least with child abuse. My personal experience as well as that of others shows that just does not happen in most cases. As I have said before, I have been a JW for almost 35 yrs. . pioneer, etc. and I have finally seen the "light", the "truth about the truth"and it is not pretty. I am fortunate enough to have a sister and close friend who also took off their blinders after Dateline. So I have some support. However, JW's who have not personally been affected by abuse just cannot believe what is going on. They have been so conditioned to believe everything the WTS says and does that something this horrific is beyond their understanding. . . for the majority anyway. It doesn't mean that most of JW's aren't good people, it's just that they have put their total trust in the WTS; causing them to easily be misled. Sure wish I would have listened to those "apostates" who gave up their time and money to stand outside those conventions, trying to tell us the "truth. " Love and peace, jazbug
October 22, 2002

Comment: Not all JWs are pedophiles and not all that leave the WTS are apostate. Since everyone here wants the truth, so This truth should be a considered too. It would be christ-like to consider that most JWs are deceived and need your prayers. Even the WTS considers the "great crowd" as a separate class and not entitled to the freedom of christ or holy spirit. I would like to see an appeal to any JW that comes here to first read the Abused Lambs stories with a prayerful heart before they come to read the posts. And they can be two postings sites. . . one for the hurting who need to scream and those who are able to comfort. And one for those who want to discuss. The lack of respect from all sides reminds me of the "Lord of the Flies. " WTS is not the only org. that has people in it's grip. I believe we should be more concerned about those in the grip of the WTS - not hate them. The WTS hates them enough and they have no love for the sheep, and teach no love for the sheep.
October 22, 2002

Comment: Agreed. Read the whole "Silentlambs" site if you want to have a balanced complete and fair minded opinion. If you do not read the whole site then you are missing out on much good. And you are denying yourself much truth. There are many ways to take guestbook comments. This happens in an open society. Where expression is, really, with in reason, freely expressed. Many of the comments here are very well suited for JW. com. All the tools to freely express are there for those who want them. And Again, I will stress that my feelings, and, I be live that most of,
Comment: FROM NEW WORLD TRANSLATION: “How shall we know that Jehovah has not spoken?” when the prophet speaks in the name of Jehovah and the word does NOT occur or COME TRUE, that is the word that Jehovah did not speak. Deuteronomy 18:21. The Bible God's word speaks for itself. WTS prophecy has not occurred or come true. No one can dispute this. The last prophet was our Savior Jesus - and even he did not know when the end time would occur. WTS has become a “professional foreteller of events” - Deut. 18:11. Please Brothers and Sisters, God does not lie and He is very exact in his word the Bible in warning and protecting and loving us.
October 22, 2002

Comment: Truth is not deleted from the Bible - please go to the Bible to read the truth. It is written with God's Holy spirit thousands of years ago and it is still true today because God does not lie. The victims of pedophilia stand with their stories as evidence that the AWAKE! 10/93 article is a lie. God does not want you to believe a lie. And Deut. states boldly how to know a false prophet. God does not lie.
October 22, 2002

Comment: It is grossly unfair to judge the WTS by the actions of a few who do not follow the instructions in the Oct 8 1993 Awake! If the victims want justice, let them not become unfair themselves but take legal action against the individual elders who ignored the instructions about going to the police in that Awake! as well as letters from the WTS to them. Some of you have got it wrong about “two witnesses” There does not have to be two EYEwitnesses to any sin/crime. eg if a JW couple married in the kingdom hall and six months later the woman gave birth to a full term baby then obviously they had committed fornication before marriage, even though no-one saw them do it. bioharmony
October 22, 2002

Comment: bioharmony, as usual, is right on the money. Thank god. Most of the comments posted here seem to come from the lunatic fringe. Some sensible, balanced comments and debate are needed, not insincere posters who care about nothing but running down the watchtower society at every opportunity. Such ones could care less about children being harmed as they are merely using the issue as a vehicle to their own personal, hateful ends. They desperately try to prove that the WT society is rotten to the core, even to the extent of asserting that children were raped BY the GB, AT bethel. Their is no end to their slander or the lengths they will go to. But in doing so, the only thing they prove is the blackness of their very soul. DK
October 22, 2002

Comment: Dear Guest book readers, it is obvious many feelings run deep. Feelings about being victimized, feelings about protecting the sanctity of a establishment which some feel is an "only" acceptable form of worship to God. In the Garden of Eden there had to be one form of worship to God, a personal one on one relationship with Him. Today, with over 160,000 different religions is it possible that man who in many groups and claims to have the "only" acceptable might be wrong? Did those of Jim Jones group know what Rev Jones was doing was wrong until it was too late? Did those of David Koresh's group know they were wrong till it was too late? If your a Jehovah's Witness do you judge the Mormons as a CULT or ungodly faith serving false God's. If your a Seventh Day Adventists do you see JWs and Mormons as CULTS? It is my firm belief that we will all stand before God in judgment for the consequences of our choices. Our mothers, fathers, family or friends won't be there to hold our hands and protect us from our choices. Have you really done your homework and do you really know who God is? Are you following admonition to make TRUTH your own. God's truth, not mormon, jw, bahia, oneness Pentecostal, boston movement, or any other mainstream orthodox accepted theocratic group. I pray that when I stand before my Creator that I can say I tried my very best to understand humanity, to show love where love is needed and to be empathetic and show compassion to and for my fellow man. Above all I desire from the wells of my soul to worship the Creator of Heaven and Earth as He wants us to in spirit and truth, to me worship of truth means knowing who he is according to His Word. It is each of our own responsibility to learn who God is and we should make no excuses like, "well, I trusted what they said", or "They told me what they were teaching was the Truth, in fact they told me all others are a lie, and we have the ONLY True religion”. Have you heard that line with the faith you practice. I don’t believe that problem existed in the Garden of Eden. Are you absolutely sure on your own merits of How your worship is viewed by God as acceptable or unacceptable? Do you practice Jesus command to Love God with all your heart and to love your neighbor as you do your self? (showing respect and compassion for the victims who present their hearts for healing within this web site)
Do you know Gods true nature? Do you stand behind a spiritual system of rules as your guide for how to worship the Creator or do you sincerely have a personal relationship with the Creator and have love for your fellow man? After watching this guest book for some time, I felt like asking its audience these questions

October 22, 2002

Comment: Bill Bowen was disfellowship without the benefit of ANY WITNESSES that came forward and said that he had caused a division among them. He was Df'd anyway. Why hasn’t the society disciplined the Elders who did not follow Societies regulations per the 10/93 Awake? by removing them. A couple who had sex before marriage is hardly a crime that needs to be reported to the police. The couple did right their wrong by getting married - so give them a break. Don't compare them to pedophiles and don't please tell us how the Elders disciplined them. I have been wondering why the FAmily Book does not have a chapter on sexual abuse. I have been wondering why there are no talks to the congregations on a regular basis for all the droves of new people at the hall, as to proper and appropriate actions that are to be taken and that the Elders are there to back them up - one to prevent and two if it happens this is the course that will be taken. Everyone has a right to be informed. Not everyone has a 93 awake? handy and most people think the org is clean and would never ever dream that such a thing could happen. In 1975 the end was to come per WTS prophecy - the ones who were faithful, and believed The Prophecy were then beaten by the brothers for the outward show of their faith, by selling their homes and pioneering etc. Now they beat the lambs for being gullible enough to believe that Jehovah's org. was clean. This is not the teaching's of Jesus or the love of the Christ. 10/93 is 9 years ago and the problem did not go away nor solved with that article. The WTS was very aware that the problem was big enough to at least add a chapter in the FAmily Book. They make you study that little book enough times! They need to revise that Family BooK.

October 22, 2002

Comment: please someone advise me on how to deal with my sister who refuses to speak to our family. she is so brainwashed in this religious CULT, that my parents are sick, and very hurt.

October 22, 2002

Comment: the mole it is sad but often a fact the elders in my hall and others only pick and choose guidelines that suit their own personal needs. if a person offends or rubs them wrong it would be easy to bend any scripture and guideline to have them removed. they use a saying that the victims of disfellowshipping needed to be humbled, what they should say is that if you don't kiss my butt i can have people ignore you. There was a person from placerville who used to visit this site in which i advised to be silent and speak out when only needed. if any of remember, he voiced his concerns to the public about an elder who beat his wife and was caught several times with a DUI. the elder dan soria is still serving as an elder but the humor in it from what placerville told me is that this same elder had disfellowshipped a brother for abusing his own wife, and disfellowshipped another for smoking cigarettes. two faced attitude is why i protest and write in this site. the growth has slowed down in the U. S. but people still fall prey to the many lies of a false idol worship of men who claim to have the power to read christ mind. . . . the MOLE

October 22, 2002

Comment: To the person who wrote about the family book. Your lack of morals is quite evident from your comments such as "couple who had sex before marriage is hardly a crime that needs to be reported to the police. The couple did right their wrong by getting married - so give them a break” JW's have strict standards about sex, and they don't accept fornicators, homosexuals or pedophiles. People often leave the org because they don't wish to live up to these standards. As for discussing pedophilia in the family book, WHY? Get your mind out of the gutter. Sex is mentioned and families do study this book with their kids and discuss it frankly. The book makes clear what sex is and that it is only proper within marriage. A child who is educated about sex in this way will know right from wrong and will be better prepared to deal with molesters. DK.

October 22, 2002

Comment: Quoting scripture out of your own bible is on the lunatic fringe????? Interesting! Asking reasonable questions that no one answers is on the lunatic fringe? The stories from the abused are on the lunatic fringe? How interesting.

October 22, 2002
Comment: I could name quite a few here since I've been reading the guestbook that are most definitely on the "lunatic fringe" as you say...for example, John, RMK, Anti John, The Mole...all are very extreme in their own ways. And yet the only ones who get criticized for it are those who seem to support JW's. Nobody tells the apostates hell-bent on bringing down the org to cool it, do they? They are allowed to post their venomous garbage and sensationalist stories for which they have no proof, and nobody appears to be concerned. Integrity is in very short supply here. I want to know, is this site about protecting children and encouraging positive reforms, or is JW bashing the only thing on the menu? DK.
October 22, 2002

Comment: MOLE - IF YOU HAVE TIME AND THE INCLINATION PLEASE RESPOND TO DK.
October 22, 2002

Comment: I just can't imagine a father who molests or rapes his child, giving that child every option thru education, facts, and what is the only sex God allows. And sex-molestation is usually accompanied with threats to a child's life or any threat that will control the child into submission and silence and continued access to the child. You don't have to believe it - it is true.
October 22, 2002

Comment: THE MOLEit is sad many still in the kingdom halls believe what is spewed to the public, but apostate no. i believe in christ and god and i do not except any longer what ever good someone may think is right. i have been in the meetings for too long to ignore the facts that i have personally seen with my own eyes. i cannot defend a religion that my family has raised me in to thinking all they do is right or is lead by god. i was a victim of poor thinking in the 70's and told not to participate in school. i remember when we where being told the end was coming in 75. i also remember the so called apostate period of the 80's. our so called truth was a lie then. i remember when the words of franz was that of paul and now that he spoke his mind we are told to forget his books. i remember in the 90's the sudden change in being that generations meant i would never see death but now even that was taken from me. Truth is when truth is that is to stay true: yesterday, today, and for tomorrow NOT NEW LIGHT WHEN THINGS and prophecy don't work out as we are being told to worship each time the tide changes. it is sad that i cannot leave the hall but maybe it is jehovah's way so that someone not blinded may stand up and say no as did Ezekiel did when the jews said the same to him as you do to all of us now....the mole
October 22, 2002

Comment: I know this is long but thought you might want to read this. The following article appeared in the OTHELLO OUTLOOK weekly paper on 10/3/02. (Town where Erica R. was molested; on Dateline report) LOCAL CHURCH DOES NOT DESERVE TO BE HARASSED Dozens of stuffed lambs were placed on Jehovah's Witnesses church doors across the nation two weeks ago to signify children purportedly raped and molested within the church. Othello's Kingdom Hall was one of the church doors on which a lamb was placed. The church has been named in a civil suit through the US District Court against the elders of that congregation, following the conviction of local church member Manuel Beliz for the rape and molestation of Erica Rodriguez. Beliz was sentenced to 11 yrs in prison. Rodriquez, now in her 20's, claimed Beliz molested her from age 4 to 11 before her family moved to CA. She contends the abuse occurred as a result of WT policy of not reporting crimes and elder negligence. She is not alone in her condemnation of the church. Seven other plaintiffs in the US and Canada have filed similar suits against their churches and WT. But is the Othello cong to blame? Rodriguez herself stated that the church knew nothing of the molestation until she moved out of state and told elders at her Sacramento, CA church, whom she alleges also molested her and threatened to disfellowship her if she went to the police. Is putting a stuffed lamb on a church door the answer? That act borders on harassment and could, in the long run, possibly damage Rodriguez's chances in court. Bill Bowen, the founder of Silent Lambs, an organization dedicated to fighting pedophilia within the JW church, along with Soap Lake resident Richard Rawe, has been adamantly pushing Rodriguez and the others to file lawsuits against the church. The question is, what's in it for Bowen and Rawe?It's one thing to fight for justice, but when that fight involves bringing notoriety to yourself rather than to the victims, how is that going to promote your cause? The Othello cong has been noted in newspapers nationwide and was the main focus of a report on NBC's Dateline in which the Othello water tower was prominently shown at the beginning of the report. Is this any way for Othello to be seen by others across the country? Or any other city for that matter?*The church did not molest Rodriguez. Beliz did and he is now serving his sentence for that crime. It's time for Rodriguez to move on with her life and for others to stop using her for their cause. She had her day in court and justice was served by the Adams County Superior Court. DOES ANYONE WANT TO WRITE A LETTER TO THE EDITOR?? Othello Outlook PO Drawer O...Othello, WA 99344 Posted by jazbug...Spokane.
October 22, 2002
Comment: the mole many of you know that reformation is what i have called for since logging into this site two months ago and it remains my agenda to let all former witnesses, current witnesses, and civilians to know what really goes on in our kingdom halls. some stories are just that, stories but much of it has a basis of truth to it. i find it hard that any human can really believe men are in direct contact with christ. this idea is against the very foundation of christianity and apostate to the teachings of the holy book, for some man to say he has this power is the very definition of being apostate whether your a Mormon, jehovah's witness or Pentecostal. years of study of the bible and research of ancient text such as the dead sea scrolls, kabala and the missing letters of the original apostles is the only way to come to a complete understanding of what we as humans should know to live our lives in the goodness to please god; not man, his religions or his fantastic visions of what he believes to be wholesome truth. i asked and asked the elders things that have no scriptural value but they have no answer and tell me and others that the organization is correct and NOT to question because i may be lead astray. if they cannot give sound reasoning from the bible and not from man made writings this should raise questions to why. covering up issues and not addressing them has been the way of the society, the molesting is but one of many things i have seen to question why do you do this? my family for example is so afraid to discuss these simple questions it only made me wonder is all those in our the halls so caught up they too refuse to see what is going on. i asked why don't my blinders works as theirs and my grandmother who has been baptized since 1942 told me to question, find out why, not to be stagnant in my love for god because we will be tricked with false reasoning. . . To those who have read all my writings knows i will doubt as thomas did and will speak up as ezekiel, and raise my voice to the idol lovers like malachi. i cannot be these men or have their power but i can mimic them and question the authority as they have done in the past. . . THE MOLE

October 22, 2002

Comment: To the one that wrote: "please someone advise me on how to deal with my sister who refuses to speak to our family. she is so brainwashed in this religious CULT, that my parents are sick, and very hurt." There are books for this exact purpose. I have not had that problem since my family pretty much fell away at the same time - and I eventually saw my friends as the close-minded, judgmental types that they had always been (and I once was). Take a look at the website: http://www.kevinquick.com/kkministries/books/reasoning/ There is also a site with lots of forums, and if you'll sign in, you can ask the group any question you want. You'll get a ton of help: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/Default.asp Go ahead, take a look. - Buster

October 23, 2002

Comment: Have some of you got nothing better to do then make fun of someone that's been molested? I mean are u that dense and insensitive? GET REAL PEOPLE THIS IS NOT A JOKE stop coming in here and making fun of peoples pain. One day you will stand before God and answer for this so if i was u i would stop while your ahead because EVERY MAN WILL GIVE AN ACCOUNT Penny

October 23, 2002

Comment: dk; i leave all kinds of facts here... that5 can not be disputed... with out lying... a jw way of life... you have no idea what you are talking about. kids get molested in the wt and when they complain , the elders that the wt says are appointed by the holy sprit call the legal dept... it's the wt big brass that tell the elders to hush it up... get your facts together your a wt zombie... all the names you mentioned have already busted you and the wt... keep lying for the wt and you will have to change your name here in a couple of days, again... your god in brooklyn sucks. . . . john

October 23, 2002

Comment: with out giving names;; seems most of the lambs and apostates here are getting stronger and stronger... with the good facts the jwd's can't honestly answer... it's the same old wt line of crap... seems we got them busted... the jwd's should try that bull in the field serv... with some uninformed householders... it's not working here... love to all... john

October 23, 2002

Comment: MOLE; i've been reading your posts for quite a while. you are making excellent progress in your heart with jesus... i don't know if you see the change but others do... i will pray for you and family. . . be well . . . your fellow christian . . . john

October 23, 2002

Comment: MOLE: Go to www.jwinfoiline.com, then to Audio and then look for Jay Hess. Listen to his testimony. Jay reminds me of you. God Bless!

October 23, 2002
the mole I must admit that I do not believe I am an apostate nor do I bow to false gods but I can claim that even the jews killed their prophets. I admit I'm far from being a prophet but the example is the same, that is, i will be ridiculed for making a stand. I do not believe christ is a god it goes against the psalms 83:18 and other scriptures. I simply want people to know that molestation does exist in the kingdom halls along with other abuses that men would rather ignore and sweep under the so called carpet of faith. There are many thinking witnesses who are repelled by such blatant expressions of blind faith. Yet most are still willing to conform, even to take judicial action against any who express doubts to the society's interpretations. Why? I try in my own mind and heart to understand the feelings of all these persons, including those on the governing body. Based on my own experience among those in my hall, i believe that they are, in effect, the captives of a concept. The concept of a mental image they have of the organization and the world around them, that is to be set apart or different, a feeling of being superior. The concept controls them, moves them, or restrains them. I do not believe that many of them would take the position they now take if they thought only in the terms of god, christ, or the holy book and NOT THE ORGANIZATION, they would have more of a feeling of brotherhood to all fellow humans. Their thoughts have been radically altered and their viewpoint mutated because of the controlling force of this concept. I too catch myself thinking of why i became a M. S. in my hall and I'm still wondering why i am so afraid to lose my family if i leave tomorrow, its the concept of control which entraps me. . . the mole*

October 23, 2002

Comment: TO THE PERSON WHO WROTE--------Comment: please someone advise me on how to deal with my sister who refuses to speak to our family. she is so brainwashed in this religious CULT, that my parents are sick, and very hurt. October 22, 2002--------I agree with Buster go to the web site http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/forum.asp?id=19&site=3&page=1------there is a lot of insight and help there for you, your family, and maybe your sister. Love Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

October 23, 2002

Comment: TO ALL WHO READ THIS GUEST BOOK . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . The definition of apostate is as follows: -n. a person who completely forsakes his religion, faith, political party, or principles. . . . . . . . . So according to the dictionary it doesn't mean someone who for example left the Jehovah's Witness because they don't believe the 1914 teaching! It means someone who completely forsakes! And it means any religion, political party etc. !!! So by this definition half the world is apostates and any Jehovah's Witness who left another religion or political party etc. is an apostate. Please remember that this is the Watchtower's dirty little word to create hate. It is no different than someone using a world like cult to describe them. The Watchtower is famous for re-defining words so that members think that it has the Watchtower meaning only.

October 23, 2002

Comment: Thank you for the entertaining animal stories. I laughed so hard I peed myself.

October 23, 2002

Comment: Maybe you should wear diapers Anti-John

October 23, 2002

Comment: I really wonder if Mr. Yutz has any idea what the meaning of libel is? Do you honestly think you can say and do the things that you've done on this site with out repercussions. I think your major screwup was your last post making a web page is very easy to trace and by the way great evidence of libel in court. To Penny don't let this yutz bother you, he thinks he is funny well I'm not laughing. Sheila M

October 23, 2002

Comment: Since I myself was sexually abused by not only "worldly" men, but also by so-called brothers, I am proud of each and every one of you who have found the courage to speak out and not hold it in yourself. I know what harm can result from not speaking out and the sacrifice is greater not speaking than it is in speaking. My assailants are dead. I tend to believe that it is because of what the Bible says: 'Vengeance is mine, thus saith the Lord.' Maybe I'm wrong but that is the way I tend to look at it and it makes me feel good. Mr. Bowen's comment to the WTBTS was correct when he used Ezekiel. Go for it all of the way! Hear! Hear!

October 23, 2002

Comment: http://groups.msn.com/WatchtowerEscape/_whatsnew.msnw

October 23, 2002
Comment: To the person who has been asked about how many brothers, how many men - you do not have to talk about this here. The person who asked about this is probably ANTI-JOHN, who has no interest whatsoever except to exploit you. This web site is not safe emotionally as long as anti-john is here. The core group here are glad to have you, but we do not require or inquire into details unless you volunteer.
October 23, 2002

Comment: Excuse me, I only asked about this because I find it hard to comprehend. Of course I'm concerned about sexual abuse matters, but it never really came to mind that a child could be abused by more than just one pedophile. It makes me wonder how prevalent this really is. I can't help but be skeptical also. I'm very sorry if you thought I was being rude or if you thought I was somebody else.
October 23, 2002

Comment: The last thing you will see when you leave this life will be a wonderful sight or a terrible surprise. Each of our choices will lead us to one of these two end results. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . webmaster
Comment: This is not the place to be skeptical of someone who was brave enough to post a little of their story. Once a person has been abused just once - they are vulnerable to being abused again by others. I have had repeated experiences in my life because I had no self worth, thought it was my fault, I deserved it for being so stupid or naive, hung around the wrong kind of people - even though they looked different than the last person that hurt me. I repeat that this is not the place to ask anyone to prove their story - this is the place for them to tell their story no matter how unbelievable we will believe. I am sure that this person knows her story is hard for people to believe. And that she blames herself for it happening again and then again. But we believe all stories and comfort all those who come here with their stories. A victim does not have to come here and convince anyone as to the validity of their story - that would be counter-productive as to the healing. I have my own stories and it use to be I could tell them here - but I don't care anymore. This site originally was for the ones who have been silenced and it has turned into a place where it is safer to be silent. . . just like everywhere else. It would be more loving if you are skeptical to keep it to yourself than ask someone who has been harmed this much to explain, or prove or give you details to satisfy your doubts or curiosity. I don't mean to be harsh. . . I am just very protective of those who are vulnerable and need help and that is the purpose or was of SL.
October 23, 2002

Comment: To the person who has had many abuses in her life. . . you can contact Bill Bowen and ask him for email addresses, or phone numbers until this web site becomes a safer place. Most of the comforters have left, or don't come here often. But I do know that there are some absolutely wonderful and wise people who can be a good listening ear for you - just ask Bill who and how to contact them. If you need to tell your story, you need to do it in a safe environment to a safe person. That is healing. I believe you and I hope that is some comfort. I think the hardest damn thing for me to accept is that I am entitled to be safe on my terms. Where I go, who I talk to, who I invite into my home - who I trust is my choice. Safety is my choice and no one can make that choice for me. If I don't make my safety paramount then I set myself up for abuse. I don't explain it anymore - because that is a trap too and a set-up for abuse. Safety is a key is healing for those who have been abused.
October 23, 2002

Comment: I disagree with what you say. This web site is perfectly safe. Nobody can molest you or harm you here, or injure you in any way. The dynamics of this medium (the internet) make that impossible. I guess if you were epileptic, a computer could induce a seizure or something, but that is more a result of an pre-existing condition. I don't understand all this talk about safety at all. This guest book is as safe as it's gonna be - except for one thing. . . you see, Bill left the door open. . . anyone can just march in and type what they like. Disturbing, isn't it? But that's the internet for you.
October 24, 2002

Comment: Actually, I just realized you are completely right. I thought I was dealing with an incredibly paranoid person, but as I read your posts again, it suddenly came to me: Everyone IS out to get you. Love from me to you, and I hope you find the peace you so desperately need.
October 24, 2002

Comment: SAFE???? YOU CALL THIS PLACE SAFE??? I AM A VICTIM OF CHILD MOLESTATION FOR 9 YRS AND TO COME IN HERE AND HEAR PEOPLE MAKING FUN OF PEOPLE RAPED AND SAYING SOME OF THE THINGS SOME HAVE SAID IN HERE HAVE ONLY BROUGHT THE PAIN BACK MORE I CAME HERE CAUSE IT WAS SOPPUSE TO BE SOME WHERE I CAN VENT AND SAY I WAS ABUSED AND RAPE AND I NEED TO TALK BUT NO WE HAVE TO HAVE THE ASSHOLES COME IN HERE AND MAKE FUN OF US THAT BEEN RAPED ITS NOT A FUNNY THING BEING RAPED I AM NOW 38 AND I DONT KNOW WHAT THE HELL NORMAL IS NEVER BEEN MARRIED NEVER ALLOW MEN TO HOLD ME NEVER DATED CAUSE I AM AFRAID IF I DO THAT THERE GONNA DO WHAT MY DAD DID TO ME ALOT OF SHAME THAT MAYBE EVEN THOUGH I WAS 5-14 THAT I COULD HAVE DONE SOMETHING TO STOP THIS MAYBE IF I WASNT CRYING AND DIDNT ASK TO SIT ON MY DADS LAP AND HOLD ME THIS WOULD HAVE NEVER HAPPEND THIS IS WHAT RAPE VICTIMS GO THREW SO UNTIL U BEEN RAPED AND KNOW THE PAIN SHUT THE HELL UP AND I AM SORRY FOR MY ANGER BUT I AM SICK OF SO CALLED PEOPLE SAYING THIS AND THAT AND THEY NEVER FELT THE PAIN OF BEING SO VIOLATED AND USED BY ANOTHER HUMAN BEING PENNY

October 24, 2002

October 24, 2002

Comment: Penny said is all... that she should be able to come here without "sickoids" posting horrible things. Safe as in emotionally safe... it is not emotionally safe to pour your heart out or test the waters with a little of our stories and get no comfort. Or worse be ridiculed, disbelieved, or have filth posted about our stories. This site should be the stories and comfort to those who tell their stories. I am sick of the filth, I am sick of the callousness, the curiosity, I am sick of those you have the time to come here and say "get over it" and I am sick of those who want to defend the WTS and I am sick of the inability to keep this site clean of "antijohn" and sick of all the excuses for allowing this to continue. There is something terribly wrong here. The posting should be shut down and if someone needs help they should call Bill and he can refer them. This has become another set-up for abuse even if it is only words. Words of disbelief and ridicule or filth are triggers for those who have been abused. Those who do not support, know how to support or care should not have access to the post site... they would not be tolerated any where else and it makes me feel that the sexually abused here are just at the bottom of the barrel and that to protect them is of no real importance to anyone. So now the abused can come here to be verbally abused, emotionally abused... instead of "waiting on Jehovah" to straighten it out they can "just wait."

October 24, 2002

Comment: What's the latest from the Society re: child abuse? What are the elders being told at the Supplementary Elder's School this past week? For a copy of one elder's written notes from that school, go to: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=39189&site=3

October 24, 2002

Comment: No!!! This is not the internet for you... Try to post on Channel "C" - it is locked up tight. THIS SITE SHOULD BE 100% secure and the lambs who were silenced have the right to privacy, the love they need and to tell their stories. It is irresponsible to have this open ESPECIALLY CONSIDERING THE SUBJECT AND THE FRAGILE CONDITION OF THOSE WHO MIGHT COME HERE. That is about irresponsibility, not the internet.

October 24, 2002

Comment: The Silentlambs deserve the best and they are not getting it.

October 24, 2002

Comment: ANY SOUTH AFRICAN VISITORS?  From: "silentlambs" info@silentlambs.org; Date: Wed, 23 Oct 2002 12:42:28 -0500; Subject: Reporter S Africa  The Panorama Program recently aired in South Africa and I have a reporter there interested in doing a story. If you know anyone who may be an abuse survivor who is willing to talk to press who was molested in Africa as a JW please let me know asap. Regards, Bill

October 24, 2002

Comment: i don't like this website, i regret visiting this website for the fact that former believers of jehovah have putting his name on the ground. it is a shame of how you people have a lack of faith in jehovah. it is not jehovah's fault that all of this is hap pening. it is satan the devil that is on the loose like a lion. jehovah is loving and he is patient. if you don't agree with what jehovah requires from us then just go on with your way don't pit his name on the floor. have respect for the one that brought you to this world. can you a least do that? i guess you can't because most of all you people have put his name on the floor. the whole point here is to either have faith in jehovah or don't even have faith. or at least trust in him. none of you people have the decency to have love for jehovah the creator of this world. all of you's have mocked and mocked and made fun of jehovah. but its okay because when jehovah day comes you will see who will be laughing in your face. it will be each and one of you that laughed and laughed in jehovah's face. you don't know what you are missing. there might be restrictions here and there but it is for our own good and safety. If you want to live in a peaceful world then you will do what Jehovah asks from us. But if you do otherwise then you are looking for trouble. Jehovah is almighty God and all we have to do is trust in him with all of your heart and don't lean on your understanding. Psalms 3:5.

October 24, 2002

Comment: NOTICE: From: Kimberlee Norris [mailto:kdnorris@airmail.net] Sent: Tuesday, October 15, 2002 11:46 AM; To: silentlambs Subject: Help Get the Word Out  Hey guys- Help me put the word out, I'm looking for victims of Lloyd Cline in Grant's Pass, Oregon, and Dan Fitzwater in Yerington, Nevada.  Also, anyone treated in JW wing of HCA Truckee Fields in Reno, Nevada. Thanks- Kimberlee D.

October 24, 2002

Comment: i don't like this website, i regret visiting this website for the fact that former believers of Jehovah have putting his name on the ground. LET ME TELL YOU SOMETHING THIS HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH JEHOVAH I RESPECT GOD VERY MUCH ITS HIS PEOPLE THAT I HAVE THE PROBLEM WITH THE JW'S SO GET YOUR STORY STRAIGHT ITS NOT GOD WE ARE AGAINST ITS THE PEOPLE THAT SAY THERE HIS CHILDREN AND THERE COMING HERE AND HURTING OTHERS Penny

October 24, 2002

Comment: SILENTLAMBS MARCH SCHEDULED FOR THE UK NEXT SPRING - MAKE PLANS NOW! Contact Brummie, they posted the info here: http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.asp?id=38989&page=1&site=3#535725  Topic: Silentlams. . . advertise! advertise! advertise! Oct 20, 2002 15:43  OK England's ready to rock the boat again! Silentlams March in UK will take place on March 29th 2003. It's only 5 months away so please advertise and make this a significant event for the UK victims who continue to suffer. A lot of scared victims came out of the woodwork after Panorama and felt able to speak out for the first time, there's plenty more yet to speak out so let's support them by raising awareness on this march.  Just so we can get an idea of how many will be expected to march, please email me to confirm whether you can come along or not, you are the first to be given confirmation of the date of the march. exjw@lycos.co.uk Brummie

October 24, 2002

Comment: EXAMPLE OF A FARE to UK, from say Phoenix straight to Heathrow in London: Approx. $540, economy cabin seat on a Boeing 777, flight is 9 hours and 50 minutes and covers 5,266 miles. Not bad. This price thru orbitz.

October 24, 2002

Comment: Penny - you need to contact Bill and express your valid complaints. Please do that. He needs to know what is going on here and how it is hurting you. I already emailed him with my valid concerns. I hate coming here, I do it only to watch out for others who might need an advocate as to how offensive and deplorable this site has become.

October 24, 2002

Comment: The Watchtower Organization does not = Jehovah or God. This is a perverted Organization that cannot be cleaned out. It is built out of lies and control. The best thing a person can do it 'get out of her'. The Watchtower (man made) Organization does not represent Jehovah or God.

October 24, 2002

Comment: We are near ready to begin the blocking process of IPs. Some of those who abuse have used multiple IPs. All of them will be blocked. In addition dialog has been opened up about the possibility of having a second "closed door" victims only guest book. Details will follow soon.

October 24, 2002

Comment: WEBMASTER thank you for all you are doing here. I am a victim that is in the healing process and I thank you that your doing everything you can to make things better for us here God bless you Penny

October 24, 2002

Comment: IF YOU WERE MOLESTED BY RONALD WEAVER... Posted Oct 24, 2002 14:56... when this alleged perp lived in Penn., Bethel, Tennessee or Florida, please contact me at kdnorris@airmail.net - 817. 335. 2800 - Kimberlee D. Norris, attorney at law  http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.aspx?id=39269&site=3 ***

Sue. WWW. LOVENORRISATTORNEYS. COM

October 24, 2002

Comment: The central part of the problem with trying to change the Watchtower Organization is it WILL NOT LISTEN! In the 'Make Sure Of All Things' book under Organization(Jehovah's) is states 'Entire Organization Functions Theocratically, from God(Thesos)Down.' HOW DO YOU MAKE A FEW MEN IN POWER LISTEN WHEN THEY BELIEVE THIS FIRST? I don't think you can. Many on the outside and some on the inside know it is not the truth, because we did 'Make Sure Of All Things'. But as far as any real change, you will be talking to a brick wall.

October 24, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "Our thought is, that 1925 is definitely settled by the scriptures. As to Noah, the Christian now has much more upon which to base his faith than Noah had upon which to base his faith in a coming deluge." (WT Apr1 1923 106)

October 24, 2002

Comment: Penny, hang in there girl. That's all I have to say, just hang in there. Linda Thoman

October 24, 2002

Comment: To Penny and the other victims: I know that there has been horrible things said but if you look at as that is the same mind set of the witnesses that didn't believe you. There are horrible people everywhere, this doesn't make this site bad or wrong. This website is what it always is a catharsis for those abused. The people that choose to say abusive things should be ignored, DON'T read their trashy posts and don't ever let anyone MAKE YOU FEEL anyway. You control your feelings always remember that abusers take away that right they want you to feel bad don't give them that validation. There are so many that care and believe you remember that, if I could strangle the idiot that has left those horrible posts I would but you know he has to live with his sick demented mind and that may be punishment enough. Penny don't let Bills efforts go in vain, they want to keep you in a place with no place to vent. That gives them power this is our place Bill gave it to us. Let's enjoy it and ignore the bad until they can be dealt with

OK Love n Peace Sheila M

October 24, 2002

Comment: 1Tim 2:5 says For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, a man, Christ Jesus 6 who gave himself a corresponding ransom FOR ALL and this is what is to be witnessed to at its own particular times.

^^^^WTS is not the mediator and they have pushed Jesus into second position by putting themselves into the position of mediator. They teach the love of the organization, not the love of Christ. They teach obedience, and submission to the organization - not Christ. Jesus is a footnote at the end of a prayer at the KH. Our relationship with Christ cannot peacefully coexist with the relationship of being a slave to the WTS or any organization. Jesus is the master. I would rather be accused of being accountable/worshipping/following/being obedient/listening/praying to/ being a slave to Jesus than the WTS.

October 24, 2002

Comment: To the JW who claims that God is going to laugh at those he destroys. . . where is the scripture to back that up???? Now, don't lean on your own understanding- but give us a scripture from God's Holy bible. Jesus is the way, the life and the truth. No one here hates God. What is hated is the way the WTS has hoarded the holy spirit and minimized Jesus as our mediator which God's word clearly states that Jesus is man's mediator. Show us a scripture that proves an organization is the mediator for (Jesus) the mediator for man. Go to the Holy Scriptures in prayer and you will be able to discern the truth of Jesus and don't lean on the understanding of anyone.

October 24, 2002

Comment: I'm sorry that people like Penny are hurt by what is said here, but this is a public forum and perhaps she is not emotionally strong enough to survive here, or indeed in the world at large. I hope someone here will listen to her cry for help and give her the support she needs, she is not going to find it here in the guest book. If she is as fragile as she appears to be, perhaps it is best that she not read or post here, as there will always be opposing views and no matter what is said here it is always going to upset her. You can't MAKE the world just fall in line and treat you with kindness and consideration all the time. People aren't like that. It is tantamount to abusing others when you try to force them into your mould, stop them expressing themselves and be what they are not. The reason for this site, and this guestbook is to support people like Penny. But while it is open to everyone, others can read and post too. And they all have something to say - for, against, indifferent, or just plain stupid. No offence, Penny, but I'll be damned if I'M going to change MY whole world and outlook on things just for you. You want the whole world to change and treat you a certain way, but I'll tell you something. That isn't going to happen. YOU need to change. YOU have to toughen up if you're going to survive in this world. V.

October 24, 2002

Comment: I have a suggestion. If you don't want this site to be targeted by "sickoids", there are positive things that could be done. How about being more honest in your approach, relying on facts, not sensationalism and dubious statistics. Make it clear that the aim of this site is to help and support victims. Try to appeal to JW's to look into how the policies can be changed for the better. Don't do anything antagonize people, because it always comes back to bite you.

October 24, 2002

Comment: And V why do you come here???? It appears you are just some negative, insensitive, cold and heartless creature that wants the world to tolerate you even when you are not invited or welcomed. You have nothing to offer us here. I hate bullies.

October 24, 2002

Comment: You may provide options for the member(to change), but you will NEVER change the Organization. It plain and simply does not care what others think.

October 24, 2002

Comment: V TOUGHEN UP? WHAT AND ALLOW ASSHOLES LIKE U THAT ARE SO DAMM INSENSITIVE TO HURT PEOPLE LIKE ME. THE HELL WITH YOU I DONT HAVE TO TOUGHEN UP AND BECOME A HARD CORE PERSON IF YOU DONT WANNA BE SENSITIVE TO PEOPLE LIKE ME GET THE HELL OUT OF THIS FORUM VICTIMS NEED A SAFE PLACE AND IF U ARE SO FUCKING IGNORANT TO THAT THEN U NEED MORE HELP THEN I DO PENNY

October 24, 2002

Comment: I can assure you I am not a bully, and I'm sorry if you read that into my comment. I feel for Penny and the challenges she faces in daily life - she is far too fragile for this world as it is. The cold hard fact is that nobody's going to wrap her up in loving arms and cotton wool. Telling you that the world is a harsh and unforgiving place does NOT equal being a bully. I am just being realistic here. It's important for me to be who I am and be true to myself. I won't sugar coat the truth to avoid trampling some fragile flower. Love, truth and honesty are the most important things in this world. It is not loving, or honest, or truthful to give someone a false reality and a false sense of security. V.

October 24, 2002
Comment: I FUCKING NO THE WORLD IS AN UNFORGIVING PLACE REMMEBER I AM THE ONE THAT WAS RAPED NINE YRS EVERY NITE SO DONT COME IN HERE BEING A BULLY AND EXPRESS YOUR CRAP I HAVE EVERY RIGHT TO BE HERE THIS PLACE IS FOR VICTIMS AND MAYBE U NEED TO LEARN HOW TO TREAT PEOPLE THAT BEEN ABUSED PENNY
October 24, 2002

Comment: Thank you for your kind words, Penny. I guess I deserve it since I presumed to think I could try to help you somehow. You are drawing attention to yourself by the way you post and please do not be so eager to jump on someone who is trying to be kind to you. V.
October 24, 2002

Comment: Penny, this bastard who raped you for 9 years ??? My god, how can this sort of thing go on ?? Is he still alive, because I don't think he should be. His life should be stamped out of existence. "and your eye should feel no sorrow"
October 24, 2002

Comment: TRYING TO BE KIND TO ME? BY TELLING ME I SHOULD BECOME SOME TOUGH PERSON? GET REAL MAN. I DONT NEED PEOPLE LIKE YOU IN MY LIFE TELLING ME TO TOUGHEN UP SO IN CASE OTHERS HURT ME I BEEN FUCKING HURT MORE THEN U WILL EVER KNOW IN MY LIFE. MAYBE U NEED TO LEARN HOW TO ALLOW VICTIMS TO VENT AND SAY WHAT THEY ARE FEELING DO NOT EVER TELL ME AGAIN WHAT THE HELL I SHOULD DO THIS FORUM WAS MADE FOR PEOPLE LIKE ME SO WE WOULD HAVE A PLACE TO COME TO THIS IS THE ONLY PLACE I KNOW OF ON THE NET I CAN COME AND BE REAL AND NOT BE BOOTTED PENNY
October 24, 2002

Comment: Yes the molestation went on for 9 yrs from 5-14 i was sexually abused by my real father and yes my mom knew and did nothing and people wonder why i feel so confused inside my dad is dead now and yes i am glad but i am still in pain over all this because i don't know what the hell normal is all i saw growing up is abuse and sex being used as something women had to do because that's what they were made for and now i am 38 yrs old and have no clue how to have a normal relationship Penny
October 24, 2002

Comment: OK so some of the people posting here are ignorant. But we all have some interest in the subject matter or we wouldn't be here. We are either here because we have an interest in abuse issues, to diss JW's, or to defend them. Some of us maybe all three. But we haven't been trained in how to deal with abuse victims. It's all very well to dump on somebody but do they know HOW to act or WHAT to say ? Some of us don't have a clue what it's like to be abused. We don't know what to say to the victims, so we just say what we think. Why push people away who might be able to help your cause and spread the word ? Try to educate them, don't just send abuse flying back and forth.
October 24, 2002

Comment: WHY IN THE HELL WOULD U DEFEND A GROUP OF PEOPLE THAT KNOWLY PROTECTS CHILD MOLESTERS? AS A CHILD THAT WAS MOLESTED I CAN TELL YOU THE PAIN AND IT HURTS MORE THEN U WILL EVER KNOW TO KNOW ASSHOLES ARE OUT THERE PROTECTING PEOPLE THAT HURT US WHETHER IN THE PAST OR EVEN NOW WHY WOULD ANYONE WANNA PROTECT PEOPLE THAT HURT CHILDREN? WHAT HAPPENED TO PROTECTING CHILDREN AND MAKING THE ADULT BE RESPONSIBLE NOW IT SEEMS MORE CHILD MOLESTERS SEEM TO GET AWAY WITH THINGS AND THATS REALLY SICK THAT TELLS YOU WHAT KIND OF SOCIETY WE LIVE IN V BY THE WAY I AM SORRY YOU DONT LIKE THE WAY I POST BUT THATS TO BAD BECAUSE I WILL EXPRESS MY PAIN AND I AM NOT GONNA ASK U IF I CAN OR NOT TELL THE WEBMASTER I AM NOT ALLOWED TO BE HERE OR EVEN EXPRESS AND SEE WHAT HE SAYS PENNY
October 24, 2002

Comment: I don't see anyone here defending JW's.
October 24, 2002

Comment: why should we defend jw's??? there a cult as far as i am concerned there false teachers and lie and twist the bible so why would i defend someone like that? They came in my home for months having bible study and good thing a real christian came along and showed me the truth or i would still be involved with this cult i was getting into Penny
October 24, 2002
Comment: WEBMASTER sir i apologize for my anger but i am sick of coming in here and having to deal with some of the assholes in here. This forum is the only forum on the net that allows us to vent our pain and for that i say thank you now i am signing off for the nite Penny
Comment: IP blocking test in progress. . . . . . . . . . . . . . 3 IP address's are being blocked currently to test the new codes. . . . . . . . . . . . . . webmaster
October 24, 2002

Comment: Penny you hang in there. Some people and I call them that with disdain, enjoy getting a rise out of people. They see feeling as weakness. Ignore the piss ants and know that your considered family here. You are right to be here and tell your story. Thank you for doing so. I see you as very strong to have gone though all that you have and be able to come here. I see it as noble to share what has happened in the hope and will to say that it should be addressed. That things as they are is not good enough, not acceptable. You are strong Penny. Others, who ever can not see that has lost their humanity. One day when they find it they will regret the cruel and unnecessary words they decided that needed to sprout from their hearts. -Jayson
October 24, 2002

Comment: V - you don't know how to help, so I recommend you go back thru the months and read the posts that do comfort. You could also read Jayson's post as an example of how to help. You do not give the impression that you are strong enough to help. As Jayson said: Penny is very strong. But as I say that is no reason or cause to hurt her, be mean and not comfort. If she were in my home I would wrap her in a soft blanket. Everyone needs love. I have children her age and if she were my daughter I would protect her. V- you don't have to come here to help. Just read and absorb the pain until you understand. That will bring out your love and then you will know how to help.
October 24, 2002

Comment: V: You really aren't one to give advice, the world is cruel and heartless because people like you don't want it to change. Leave Penny alone, she is a dealing with a grief you have obviously no clue about as I have said before "until you walk the walk don't try to talk the talk" . Sheila M
October 24, 2002

Comment: Folks, sorry for the mess, some abusers of this guest book are tenacious. It is taking a bit more work to get the mules attention. I have had to resort to a larger stick. The IP blocker is working very well, the current abuser is using a floating IP address with his dial up. I will eventually catch all the address's and stop many of the games. Sorry for the inconvenience and May God bless each of your lives with an abundance of peace. In Him. . . . webmaster
October 24, 2002

Comment: Question: Is there a support group for people who have lost loved ones because of the Organizations cruel shunning policy?
Comment: Dear Readers I've been busy the last week or so. To penny my heart goes out to you what a horrible thing for a father to do. I'm not sure what's the worst him doing that to you or your mother knowing about it and saying nothing. And to readers i must apologize about the no name person who put that thing on he has obviously no clue about as I have said before "until you walk the walk don't try to talk the talk". Lev5:1 Regards Josh
October 24, 2002

Comment: JOSH: it will never be cleaned up by the GB for reasons i mentioned to Janice a few weeks ago. RICH
October 25, 2002

Comment: The Watchtower is not "Gods only channel and voice" on this earth. This is what people have to get past. This is why there is a problem. The GB lacks ACCOUNTABILITY to members because they have convinced many they are under the direction of God. They are not. All you have here is a new religion(120 years compared to Christianity) that has had very low success with predictions with time deadlines. What about all the other information they pass out that is not time sensitive. Come on folks. You can clean out the inside of a garbage can, but if it still holds garbage, then what is the use.
October 25, 2002
Comment: Josh, I agree with Rich. The mess will never be cleaned up by the GB. They have power. And power corrupts. Promoting the erroneous notion that they deserve that power plays into their ability to keep that power. Josh, do some research on that cherished 607 BCE date and you will see that they do not possess the credentials for being the "faithful" slave or the claim for being a governing body over Christians. They are just a bunch of power hungry old men trying to hold onto the power. Acknowledging that any of them have made a mistake or promoted a bad policy would be giving up power. Reproach on Jehovah seems to be the least of Their concerns. Reform is out of the question. The best we can hope for is to publicly expose their bad policies to protect future abuse of innocent children and to give voice to those who have been abused as a way for them to heal from the abuse. I refuse to play into their claim to fame and power. So on a lighter note. Hi all. I have been away for awhile (mentally) Sometimes I have to shut down to survive. I am fine. I got DA'd because I refused to go thru another inquest hearing and I will not go back to the KH. So far none of my baptized children have agreed to shun me. They will be drug over the coals next. When a person begins to think for themselves they become an enemy of the GB. and the organization.  I have a very low budget so my participation in the Silentlamb campaign has went like this. I made copies of "Tiny" the Silentlamb on card stock. She looked so cute! I cut her out and attached a pink yarn string to her. Next I made copies of the brochure, rolled it into a scroll and tied it with a pink string. I went around to the Kingdom Halls in my area here in Tampa, Florida. I tied Tiny and the scroll to KH doors and fences. I felt SO good doing that. I plan to do it again soon. After all different people arrive first each meeting. So that is my low budget campaign. I may get down sometimes but I refuse to stay down. Love Ya'll, Loris October 25, 2002

Comment: Welcome back Loris My name is Penny I am 38 single never married and a survivor 9 yrs of child molestation and learning how to heal with people in here. I am very out spoken sometimes because of some of things said in here but I am a really cool person LOL Again welcome back Penny October 25, 2002

Comment: Loris - it is soooo good to read your post. Go to jwinfoine.com - there are many audio tapes there to listen to that will get you out of the doldrums. You are absolutely correct that the WTS will not be brought down, nor will they change. I lost your email address when I spilled wine on my computer, email me whenever you want. The address is the same. I never ever thought I would go to a "church" - but I did. I just "happen" to attend a church that Kevin Quick belongs to and he is an exjw, wrote a book even and you can hear his story on jwinfoine. Be great for your children to hear these tapes too, before they meet with the elders. I think of you often and would have emailed you if I had not lost your address. Love, Claudine October 25, 2002

Comment: Josh - please listen to the tapes - at jwinfoine.com. Some of the facts will blow your socks off. You are very sweet and I know you love God. The WTS started with spiritism -some of their doctrine comes right from a book written by a guy name Grievers whose wife was a spirit medium. He wrote a book called Communication with the spirit World of God - and need I say that the WTS forbids the reading of this book yet their doctrine is the same regarding Jesus as this man's. There is a wonderful audio tape by Lori Macgreggor about how the WTS changed the bible's wording - she is very factual. You can determine for yourself what it is about/. You do know that a pyramid sits upon the grave of Russell - These are things destestable to Jehovah. Jesus is the way, the life and the truth - not the WTS. He is our Master. For 18 years I was certain that the WTS was the truth. And now I am certain that they lie. If Jehovah has an "organization" I am certain that it would not be one that lied or had anything remotely connected to spiritism & the occults. Most JWs are good people and they are deceived by the deceiver. October 25, 2002

Comment: Well nice to see a few comments i've always excepted constructive criticism. If the faithful and discreet slave or the Governing Body on the earth does not represent God then who does? As far as removing garbage that's a little bit judgmental. I've met some of the governing body they are very meek and humble people and are not power hungry . There is not one person who controls the WTS. While i understand the anger some victims may have its the criminal that done that despicable thing to you that should be punished not the WTS. Again i have an open mind like the Bereans in Jesus day i "carefully consider what is being said" to see if it is just so. I certainly would not want to be part of an organization that condones or covers up child molesting. We all are accountable to Jehovah God and regardless of whether we are the faithful and discreet slave or the great crowd we will be held accountable for our actions. 2Pet3:9 Regards Josh October 25, 2002

Comment: Comment: the mole I must admit that I do not believe I am an apostate nor do I bow to false gods but I can claim that even the jews killed their prophets. I admit I'm far from being a prophet but the example is the same, that is, i will be ridiculed for making a stand. I do not believe christ is a god it goes against the psalms 83:18

October 25, 2002

Comment: Comment: *the mole I must admit that I do not believe I am an apostate nor do I bow to false gods but I can claim that even the jews killed their prophets. I admit I'm far from being a prophet but the example is the same, that is, i will be ridiculed for making a stand. I do not believe christ is a god it goes against the psalms 83:18

October 25, 2002
and other scriptures. I simply want people to know that molestation does exist in the kingdom halls along with other abuses that men would rather ignore and sweep under the so-called carpet of faith. There are many thinking witnesses who are repelled by such blatant expressions of blind faith. Yet, most are still willing to conform, even to take judicial action against anyone who expresses doubts to the society's interpretations. Why? I try in my own mind and heart to understand the feelings of all these persons, including those on the governing body. Based on my own experience among those in my hall, I believe that they are, in effect, the captives of a concept. The concept of a mental image they have of the organization and the world around them, that is to be set apart or different, a feeling of being superior, god's people. The concept controls them, moves them, or restrains them. I do not believe that many of them would take the position they now take if they thought only in the terms of god, christ, or the holy book and NOT THE ORGANIZATION, they would have more of a feeling of brotherhood to all fellow humans. Their thoughts have been radically altered and their viewpoint mutated because of the controlling force of this concept. I too catch myself thinking of why I became a M.S. in my hall, and I'm still wondering why I am so afraid to lose my family if I leave tomorrow, its the concept of control which entraps me. It is not a sin to doubt them; it is a fundamental right, so we are not mislead by men and an organization created by men. . . the mole*

October 25, 2002

Comment: Josh: Of course it is the perpetrators that did the despicable thing. They need to be held accountable. But it is the perpetuation that is the issue for the GB. The society's structure that perpetuates it. I want to tell you something, with every ounce of sincerity I have. I left a cong. at about the time an MS was DF'd for molesting his daughter - a close friend of my sister's, sister of a friend of mine. Over the years, the friends I grew up with became the elders and M.S's in that hall. If ever there was a group that I KNOW would not tolerate that crap - it would be those guys. AND they are in a Hall where it happened before. I just found out TODAY that one of my former best friends - one that brought himself into the 'Truth' as a young teenager - has a young daughter that was molested AT THAT SAME Hall. With all my former friends that I know would never tolerate such a thing, they tolerated it. 'Joe' couldn't get the elders or the CO to do anything. So he just moved to another Hall. You are right in the middle of it. You don't hear about it because of the control the Society has. Yes they are quite guilty. - Buster (a little heart sick today)

October 25, 2002

Comment: josh ; how can you come here and LIE IN THE NAME OF GOD FOR THE WT???? who was the people who told penny's mom not to go to the police???? it was the elders that the wt says that are appointed by the holy spirit ??? so in essence you are saying the holy spirit is directing the gb and elders to hush up child molestation to keep jehovah's name clean. . . you make me cry. . . with such a line of CRAp!!!!!!! it's the gb that's makes the jw's look bad with all their 125 years of bull crap!!!! jehovah never did a nothing in 607 b. c. get your bible and history CORRECT. . . IN JEREMIAH IT CLEARLY SAYS THAT NATIONS WILL GIVE SERVITUDE TO BABYLON FOR 70 YEARS. . . THAT STARTED IN 609 B. C. WHEN BABYLON TOOK OVER THE ASSERIANS 5 YEARS LATER THEY BEAT THE JEWS. . AND ALL OTHER KINGDOMS IN THE AREA. . BUT THE COUNTRY WAS NOT DESTROYED FOR AND OTHER 18 YEARS. . . THAT TOOK PLACE IN 586-7 BC. . YOU DON'T NEED TO BE A MATH PROFESSER TO SHOW THAT THE BIBLE AND HISTORY SHOW THAT THE WT IS WRONG. . . IT'S SIMPLE DAYS STUDY IN THE LIBRARY WITH HISTORY AND THE BIBLE. . IT ALL FITS PERFECTLY. . WITHOUT TWISTING THE BIBLE!!!!!!!! proper spiritual food at the proper time?????ho ho ho. . . the fds HO_HO_HO_ no jw can back that up. . it is all a lie!!!!! jesus choose the wt in 1919????ho-ho-ho- who all here from the teachings of the wt from that time ????? how jesus choose the wt. . . if at all jesus conferred that the wt was the EVIL SLAVE!!!! AND THEY HAVE ALWAYS BEEN . . . . the wt conventions of the 20's were the pouring out of the 7 bowls in the book of Revelations. . . ho-ho-ho- how stupid do you think we are here. . . . do your homework on the wt . . . you will see it's all a LIE!!!!!! wishful thinking. . . not a bit of truth to it. . just more wt bull!!! josh you keep defending the wt. . . but you really know next to nothing about them. . . one day you will be in for a rude awakening. . . better hope it's not to late. . . may you be blessed with the holy sprit. . . your friend . . john

October 25, 2002

Comment: josh ; is that THE verse to show that there is two classes of christians???? boy are you lost. . there is only one hope. . boy do you need to read the gospel. . it was written for all . . not a few people in bklyn. . if that was the case the n. t. would have never been published. . . i'm praying for you. . . john

October 25, 2002

Comment: Josh, consider doing something for me? Listen to claudine. You know she agrees with about nothing I say but I say here. . . Listen to her. Listen to the tapes. Take her advice. It's wise. It could help you more than you know. Listen to her. Now you once told a story. The flaw is, and question I ask you is why did the father and son worry about what a stranger thought in regard to their donkey? Were they worried about image? I think yes. Unless there is a law about 2 people riding on a ass at once. What do they care?/// Second your last post; you are really saying through the double talk and jargon if the wt is not the boss of me then who is? Who represent God on my behalf? How about you. You be the boss of you. You be the rep for what is good. It does not matter if you accept that challenge or not that is among the brothers, would prove to be the ultimate "DEATH STROKE" of the JW Organization! The "Death Stroke" anybody, knew what this meant. RV Franz and the rest of the Governing Body, knew this Treatise, if it had gotten out rarely if ever done by someone without "catching the ship. . . the disfellowship". So, in 1977 everybody who was correcting RV Franz, in actuality. He was also correcting the "Governing Body" of JWs. A complete no-no. Something having written the "chronology" section in the "Aid Book". Essentially, unknowingly at that time, COJ was actually himself, knew what the words on the paper, meant. But Bethel did. RV Franz knew what it meant. Especially after after sending the Treatise to Bethel. It was his hope (the same as B. B. ) that the "brothers" would see the error of their way and humbly change. That was his sole purpose. That is all Carl wanted. He just the same thing, even after sending the Treatise to Bethel. It was his hope (the same as B. B. ) that the "brothers" would see the error of their way and humbly change. That was his sole purpose. That is all Carl wanted. He just "truths" borne forth in his "research". COJ was just trying to "effect change" in our viewpoint of what we taught as an organization. And that's it. And for those reasons, COJ wanted in the beginning, to STAY WITH THE ORGANIZATION, just like Bill Bowen. Yes, Bill Bowen has said many times, that after all is said and done, after the WTBS corrected their child molestation problems, he simply wanted to stay with the JW Organization. And Carl said the same thing, even after sending the Treatise to Bethel. It was his hope (the same as B. B. ) that the "brothers" would see the error of their way and humbly change. That was his sole purpose. That is all Carl wanted. He just wanted to cause REFORM, REFORM, REFORM, Change. The same as Bill Bowen. The same. But as you recall, after COJ mailed in his Treatise, Albert S. , Lyman S. and Dan. S. (the three "S" brothers) for instance knew exactly what his "findings" meant for the JW Organization, and knew exactly where this new information might lead. Yes, as members of the Governing Body, they knew full well, exactly what Carl's writings meant. But still, I don't think COJ himself, knew what the words on the paper, meant. But Bethel did. RV Franz knew what it meant. Especially after having written the "chronology" section in the "Aid Book". Essentially, unknowingly at that time, COJ was actually correcting RV Franz, in actuality. He was also correcting the "Governing Body" of JWs. A complete no-no. Something rarely if ever done by someone without "catching the ship... the disfellowship". So, in 1977 everybody who was anybody, knew what this meant. RV Franz and the rest of the Governing Body, knew this Treatise, if it had gotten out among the brothers, would prove to be the ultimate "DEATH STROKE" of the JW Organization! The "Death Stroke"
Treatise, is what it would have been called, if this "truth" Treatise should get out. The WTS' "chronology" was wrong, and completely proven so by the lone man, CARL O. JONSSON, from Sweden! And that was a simple fact. Was Jehovah God correcting the entire JW Organization and its Governing Body, by way of this single man, COJ of Sweden? Hmmmmmm. Or, was it just positive proof that God really had nothing to do with JW's Organization, period. A great dilemma for anyone who was exposed and properly understood what COJ had written. If this "Treatise" could find its way to the masses, and they could properly comprehend and realize its importance to JW Doctrine, the Governing Body of JWs and all JWs worldwide, would be finished! It would be the end of the JW's organization visible credibility before others. It would also be a certain "death stroke" for any and all, thinking JWs. Then too, it would be a massive "mess" to try to explain any corrections of the 1914 teaching to the world at large, in field service, if the G. B. opted to make necessary changes in their "chronology" printed in their publications. So what should the "Society" do? Humbly change, accept correction? Or attack the messenger, malign his good name and finally murder him, which? The Governing Body's decision would be, the solution they would predictably choose would be to "get rid" of this lone man, just as they said of Jesus. "Let one man die", for the good of the nation, they presumed. Let's keep the peace among the brotherhood. That would be their reason for doing this terrible thing in Jesus' day. And the same in our day. Let's "kill" COJ! John 11:50 says, "...you do not reason out that it is to your benefit for one man to die in behalf of the people and not for the whole nation to be destroyed. " Kill Jesus and save the nation. Doesn't that make sense? So COJ has to go, but the JW organization will continue. It will continue with all of its lying chronology. But the nation continues. This is how the Governing Body reasons. The Governing Body and the Sanhedrin of Jesus’ day, were and are, the same in this respect. So COJ's influence must be contained. First try to "shut him up", and if that doesn't work, discredit him and finally kill him. That was a Governing Body Decision, WHILE RV Franz was on the Governing Body,  although COJ was not officially disfellowshipped until 1982. Has this fact escaped our notice? You want proof? Case in point, this revealing statement from "The Gentile Times Reconsidered" (1986 edition) by Carl O. Jonsson: "Early in August, 1978, Albert D. Schroeder, a member of the Governing Body, held a meeting in Europe with representatives from European Watchtower branch offices. At that meeting, he told the audience that there was a campaign going on both inside the movement and from outside to have the Society's 607 B. C. E. - 1914 C. E. chronology overthrown. The Society, however, had no intention of abandoning it, he stated. " He said the WTS had no intention of abandoning the "chronology". He spoke what the Governing Body had decided on the matter. He spoke this in 1978, one year after the Treatise of COJ had arrived at Bethel. So they had plenty of time to "study" it. The publications continues: "Three weeks later, on September 2, I was summoned to a hearing before two representatives of the Watchtower Society in Sweden. I was told that they had been COMMISSIONED BY THE SOCIETY'S BRANCH OFFICE to hold such a hearing because "the brothers" at the Brooklyn headquarters [where RV FRANZ lived] were deeply concerned about my treatise. ..." The Governing Body was "deeply concerned about my treatise". What? The same Governing Body that RV Franz was on? You must be kidding! Now, how could such a statement be made, with the Governing Body NOT discussing the matter, I ask? Actually, everybody who was in the know, was talking about the Treatise through out the hallowed halls of Bethel. This was no secret. And this is a year later too, in 1978, after having plenty of time to "investigate" what the brother from Sweden was saying. He continues: ". . .Partly as a result of this meeting, I resigned from my position as an elder in the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, explaining why in a lengthy letter to to my fellow elders. Soon it became widely known among my Witness brothers in different parts of Sweden that I had rejected the chronology of the Society. In the following months I and others who had questioned the Society's chronology began to be condemned privately as well as from the platforms of kingdom halls and at Witness assemblies or conventions. we were publicly defamed and characterized in the most negative terms as "rebellious," "presumptuous," "false prophets," "small prophets who work out their own little chronology," and "heretics. " we were called "dangerous elements in the congregations," "evil slaves," "blasphemers," as well as "immoral, lawless ones. " Privately, some of our Witness brothers, including a number of the Watchtower Society's traveling representatives, also intimated that we were "demon possessed," that we had "drenched the Society with criticism" and that we "should have been disfellowshipped long ago. " These are just a few examples of the widespread defamation which has gone on ever since. . . In a letter to Albert Schroeder, dated December 6, 1978, I described the new turn of events, calling attention to the sad fact that although my treatise had been composed with the greatest thoughtfulness and sent to the Society in all sincerity, I had become the victim of backbiting, vilification and character assassination. . ."--See The Gentile Times Reconsidered (1986) pages 5, 6 Now, all of this happened in 1978, while RV Franz was a powerful member of the Governing Body. So all the while COJ was being barbequed, crucified by the "WTS", for teaching his wicked "little chronology", and the Governing Body on the rampage against him, where for God's sake was RV Franz, I ask you? The facts reveal in August 1978, exactly one year after receiving "The Treatise" from COJ, the Governing Body's "official position" toward what Carl wrote, as revealed by Albert S., was what? Total brutalization! Mindless slander. Smearing his reputation among the brothers. Malicious lying on him. Even though he pleaded, pleaded that what he wrote was in complete "sincerity" to help the JW brothers. Now how are you going to get RV Franz "OFF THE HOOK", on the basis of that situation? You can't. He was ON the Governing Body when all of this was going on. And he knew more than the false "chronology" than anyone else on the Governing Body at that time, since he had given the issues EXTENSIVE RESEARCH before hand. Perhaps, even more than the intellectually DISHONEST, incorrigibly dishonest, Fred Franz, his uncle. So he certainly "knew" the subject quite well. (Some say as early as 1969, RV Franz knew the 607 BCE teaching was false!) So, from my perspective, it doesn't matter if COJ "forgave" Raymond Franz or not for what happened in 1978.
That's not my business. I'm only concerned with the facts. And the facts reveal RV Franz, as a member of the Governing Body of JWs, was a part of this "devastating situation" that permanently branded COJ of being an "apostate" against the Governing Body, and against ALL JWs worldwide. God is the witness, and that history of events cannot be erased by man, or the uninformed, misdirection of those who wish to glorify the ignominy of heartless men. I don't care how much you people (and COJ included) "like" RV Franz, since its not material nor relevant to God and Jesus Christ, from my perspective. Facts say RV Franz was a part of the persecution of COJ, period. And Ray will have to "live with the consequences" of his actions. Perhaps, his writing the 2 books was "his" way of clearing the slate. I don't know. If so, then fine. God is his final judge, not me and certainly not any on this discussion board. But a fact is still a fact. We must not embellish our own unique "history" of events about the "glories of RV Franz", to make our point. We must just "call a spade a spade" and realistically face the facts as they have transpired in the past. Fact: COJ's efforts, and NOT RV Franz's, proved something. COJ, the person, PROVED by his discoveries in his "Treatise" the truth that the Governing Body, and this worldwide organization, was truly not "spirit-motivated", "spirit-directed" at all. His "Treatise" proved the WTS was NOT the F&DS class and that there were no ANOINTED to be found among Jehovah's Witnesses, period. He proved that to me. And he proved it to countless other thinking individuals in numerous congregations of JWs worldwide. COJ's writings PROVED that the Governing Body and 6 million JWs worldwide ARE NOT "spirit-motivated" and they are NOT a "spirit-directed" organization. That's a fact. RV Franz must only admit in his 2 books, that if anything, for those 9 years he was a member of the Governing Body, the only thing he had accomplished ostensibly was to show for the most part, he was a PART of the "problem" in misleading people. He was a part of the problem, and NOT a part of the "solution". He was NOT a part of the "remedy" to correct the problem. His 2 books mainly show all of the "dirt" of the G. B. in running the organization. The pettiness of G. B. members and so on. And even that was "toned down" considerably in both of RV Franz's books. And I think for his sakes, thus understandably so. Whereas, when we look back in the past, we must admit, COJ and Bill Bowen were a part of the "solution" to the problem. Even if JWs are not from God (and I still believe they are for "other" reasons), still these men accomplished much that they can be proud of before God and man. Yes, they helped me and countless others see the JW Organization, at this point and up to this point, is NOT "Spirit-Directed". And I and many others, needed to know this. And with that "knowledge," now, I need to find out why, these people are NOT "spirit-directed". They are either God abandoned, or He never was there in the first place. Either way, I need to know which is the correct answer. But at least I know the "real deal", because of Bill Bowen's work, his bravery, and his courage -- and Carl Jonnson's work, his bravery and courage. I know because of them, I say, Praise Jah for these brothers! These "Jesus-like" men, wanted change, reform. They advocated "adjustment" and were unjustly VILLIFIED FOR IT. But, they stood their ground, against all odds, stood by themselves, and was "murdered", their reputation, their good name taken away, they were martyred like Jesus, for their stance. You can never prove this to be true of the course RV Franz took, as revealed in his 2 books. Ray was an "escape" artist, trying his best to get the heck out of "Dodge City" before the real gun fight began. He was one who had the "knowledge" but did nothing with it. I'm sorry but I have to say it, he was a gutless, coward! So, in my mind when you say the name Raymond V. Franz even with all of his notoriety, you are saying one thing. But when you say COJ and BB, you are saying quite another, from a shall we say, "christian" point of view. From a Godly point of view. Honestly, we have to admit when we look at the facts, there is no difference between the actual "works" of COJ and Bill Bowen. They both discovered flaw in JW organization policy and practice, doctrine. They were both brave men. Loyal to "truth" and "righteousness". And Jesus said we need to "seek first" both of those things. (Matt. 6:33) History reveals Raymond V. Franz discovered serious flaws in the teaching of 1914 too. He discovered there was no historical support at all for the chronology teaching of 607. Still Ray went ahead and violated his conscience (thus the phrase "Crisis of Conscience, the title of his first book", and superciliously wrote the "chronology" section in the "Aid Book", which mislead countless MILLIONS of JWs. That's the part he played in our spiritual growth. He crippled us. In 1971 when he and Reinheart L. and Edward D. finished the "Aid Book", Ray knew the brothers was wrong on their 1914 chronology, maybe as early as 1969. He had the facts then. But that's as far as it went. R. V. Franz heartlessly opted to do as sooooooooooo many JWs do when they see something wrong in the "organization" THAT THEY CAN'T EXPLAIN AWAY for some reason, they just "go along to get along". And that's what RV Franz did, back between the critical years of 1969-1971 when he finally completed his writing and findings of the "chronology" section of the "Aid Book" which misled many millions of innocent people who deserved better. Which meant, anyone from that time forward who opposed this faulty "chronology" would be summarily be invited to "catch the ship. . . the disfellowship". But there is more for RV Franz. Back in August of 1977, six years after the "Aid book" was finished, back when COJ submitted his more extensive, clarifying information, Ray DEFINITELY knew the "chronology" section of the "Aid Book" was wrong by then. Now, all of sudden, RV Franz now has even more evidence, he has now the profound corroborating "evidence" COJ, in written form. And not only that, but RV Franz, by that time, a most prolific writer and outstanding member on the member of the Governing Body, now has the surprising support of both the entire Writing and Service Dept, all who read the "bombshell" treatise of Aug. 1977. The "bombshell", written by COJ, that Ray himself said, "created such a stir" within the hallowed walls of Bethel. Ray had that too to help him make a stand before the Governing Body, back in 1977. Did he do this? No. So then, we must ask: where was RV FRANZ when Albert S. spoke his famous words in 1978 AGAINST COJ? Where was RV FRANZ then? I don't doubt, these events and many others eventually led RV Franz to make his "decision" to leave the G. B. in March of 1980. I realize that. But, it would be close to another 3 years before any "action" on Ray's part. And his unique "solution" to the problem would simply be to quietly, leave Bethel, and quietly, find himself some "employment" where he could take care of HIMSELF and family, and that's it. No step, at even this time, to help the brothers, who are "left in the valley of danger" because of the treachery of the G. B. and family, and that's it. No step, at even this time, to help the brothers, who are "left in the valley of danger" because of the treachery of the G. B. at that time. And He admitted that himself. RV Franz wasn't thinking about helping nobody, while first in Gadsden, Ala. No, and even after that, as he stated in his books, he had NO such intentions at all of revealing the WTS corruption. If the G. B. would have left him alone, that would have been the end of it, and many of us, as the hapless "uniformed" would still be in the JW Organization, CALLING COJ an apostate! So, unforeseen circumstances FORCED RV Franz to write his 2 wonderful books, and thus creating "Commentary Press", the publishing arm of many of the ex-JW books we now read today. Because so far as RV Franz was concerned in 1980, if the WTS and G. B. would have left him alone, he would have KEPT HIS BIG MOUTH SHUT!! Why? Because was still a baptized brother, still well-received and accepted as a "brother in good standing" who could have pioneered if he had wanted to, back in 1980. Remember, the G. B. offered him a "Special Pioneer" position (and his wife, complete with a little "check" you know) while he was among the brotherhood in Alabama. So then, everything that happened to Ray, was forced upon him too. When his "trouble" started came from things that he slipped and said while at Bethel. Also more trouble from eating a meal, with his disassociated "employer", the one who gives Ray money for work. They one who provided Ray with a "trailer" to live in. The one RV Franz was definitely LOYAL to P. Gregerson, in Gadsden, Ala. that's all I see in this man. When we look at the facts, without all of this mythical embellishment of RV Franz's historic, triumphant leadership on the Governing Body between the years of 1971-1980, we do not see a "martyr", like BB or COJ, do we? Remember, if Raymond Franz had been as forthright and straightforward as E. Dunlap when confronted with their "transgressions" against the WTS, then, guess what -- Raymond V. Franz would have been DISFELLOWSHIED WITH EDWARD DUNLAP! They would have caught that ship together. They would have went down together! Why did he stand with his faithful brother (E. Dunlap) and face the "consequences of his actions" and have their dual "executions" together. But the facts reveal he did no such thing, did he? Read his books and see. So, RV Franz, so UNLIKE brave, staunch E. Dunlap, Carl J., Bill B., simply valued staying in the organization of a more greater worth, and HYPOCRITICALLY keeping his "private beliefs" to himself (as many of you do on this discussion board) to be of greater importance, than in true Jesus-like-fashion standing for "principle", standing for "truth" and "righteousness" even if it means EXECUTION. Now many might not like that statement, but it is truth. And I say, all "evidence" found in RV Franz' own testimony of how the events transpired in 1980 at Brooklyn Bethel, all found in his books which eloquently tell the story. Case closed. However, a much different story must be told, when history speaks about Bill Bowen, Edward Dunlap, Barbara Anderson, and Carl Olof Jonsson. They all wanted change. They all invited the Governing Body to "review" their erroneous position and "do good" to their brothers in the faith, did they not? And they all fearlessly stood BEFORE the Governing Body, and advocated change. For that, all four (4) were all disfellowshipped, reputation maligned, and martyred for trying to HELP THE BROTHERS. They were "killed" for the cause of righteousness. Therefore, they were very "Jesus-like" in that they were both willing "martyrs" for the cause of right, in God's eyes. They gave the "fine public declaration" before Jesus and God Almighty. They were WICKEDLY sacrificed for the good of the "nation" as John 11:50 says. -- See also 1 Timothy 6:13. As for RV Franz, at 80 years old, as he reflects upon his "legacy", he must remember, we all make our beds and have to lie in it one day. Inescapably, his "day" has come. He must remember, in good conscience when he accepted the RESPONSIBILITY to become a member of the Governing Body, he knew then he had better be prepared to live with the total consequences of his actions forever more. To be sure for any of us, to become a part of a policy-making body for an organization or group of people of more than 6 million, in which the critical decisions we reach could potentially have such devastating, catastrophic results to these same millions of people worldwide, is no small responsibility before God and man, is no small task to accept. Few will ever, have such a responsibility cast upon them. Few will ever has so much ACCOUNTABILITY before God and man. I will give RV Franz this, in 1980, perhaps he saw it was really time to "leave" Bethel and the Governing Body. I give Ray that. For that was a "good" decision on his part. But, I give Bill Bowen, Carl O. Jonsson, Barbara Anderson, and the recently deceased Edward Dunlap, my award for true christian "bravery", down to their last drop of blood. Amen. bjc

October 25, 2002

Comment: Jayson: Thank you. Today has had its twists. I feel its been a bit if a new look at the situation. Finding out today that a friend's daughter was molested was one thing. I've known victims before - Witness and non-witness. But this is the closest I've ever been to the cover-uppers. My old friends should be in a position to influence the situation - most of them being elders by now. These were the most committed people I ever met - even if they are witnesses. I at least believed that about them. Now I can only imagine what shells of men they are now. Twenty more years of indoctrination and repression resulted in one of most sincere people I've known to be the type that would find that his daughter is molested, and stay in a society that would not allow anything to be done. - And the most he does is change halls? Where are the rest of the guys? We rode dirt bikes together. Drank our first beer on a sleep out at 15 (yes, I threw up). Talked about girls (some lied about how much we knew). The guys I remember would have dived head first into hell to prevent such an injustice. But if they couldn't prevent it, they sure wouldn't have let it go without redress. The WTS did that to them. This is the saddest I've been in a long while. - Buster

October 25, 2002
Comment: We can all click on a link
October 25, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "This is not giving any credit to the magazine's [The Watchtower's] publishers, but is due to the great Author of the Bible with its truths and prophecies, and who now interprets its prophecies. He it is that makes possible the material that is published in the columns of this magazine. . " (WT Apr15 1943 127)
October 25, 2002

Comment: Just a note from the webmaster. . . . . . . . . . Much blocking has taken place and I am prepared to block more. Access denial codes are written now and seem to be working just fine. I do not think I have heard the last from anti john however that too is being worked on. Details are not important. . . . . . . Hope you all have a restful weekend and find peace in your rest. In Him
October 25, 2002

Comment: Pick up chicks? i am not gay or lesbian LOL NOW THATS FUNNY lol Penny
October 25, 2002

Comment: Hey the anti John guy how old are you 12 or 13? your showing your age by the way your acting like some mr macho and u cant catch me type attitude grow up and act like a adult not some punk
October 25, 2002

Comment: is this anti john guy a good guy or bad? cant figure it out lol Penny
October 25, 2002

Comment: ok i figured it out after scrolling back he is the bad guy lol Penny
October 25, 2002

Comment: ok who said that? i didn't remember ip can be traced
October 25, 2002

Comment: your not acting like the good guy cause you sound like some kid that is playing child games why not just leave and leave us alone Penny
Comment: Who is God's representative??? Jesus. Hard to believe but it is "just" Jesus. God sent him so we might know God, to fulfill the laws and free us from the Pharisees. Go to Jesus and ask Him who represents God here on earth. He will answer you"^^^^^^^^^^To mole: the prophecies were from measurements of the pyramids. WTS has not gotten more corrupt, they were corrupt from day one and have been covering up lie upon lie upon lie. Now you know that satan is a liar. And you know that God and Jesus do not lie. So WTS never ever represented God - and while the pedophile issue hits the softness part of our hearts - the heartless one is revealed. Who is the anti-christ??? Who denies Jesus his rightful position? Certainly if they don't give Jesus our Savior His Full Position, certainly these same people don't love anyone except pedophiles and the like. Jesus is the word - the first and the last word. WTS has substituted themselves in as your savior. They rob us of Jesus, the Holy Spirit and our families. My friend john from the bronx always writes freedom in christ. . . . and it has taken me awhile to get what that means. Don't be afraid to listen to the tapes -they will help you. Jesus is calling you out, believe me he is. There is not one thing you can do to save yourself, that Jesus did not already pay for in full price. . . working for the WTS will not save you. The WTS is spiritually disorganized. It is in spiritual chaos. Were the disciples afraid to disagree with Jesus? NO. Were they totally obedient to Jesus. NO. Were they afraid to be themselves? NO. Did Jesus give them a bunch of rules, change the rules, and then change them back? NO Did he free them from the law? YES. Did He die for all. YES. Sit down and have a talk with Jesus. You don't have to believe in a trinity to know that Jesus is your Master. Love, Claudine
October 25, 2002

Comment: Buster - I always have sooo much to say and I cannot think of anything to say that can comfort you. I am sad that you are sad. Love, Claudine
October 25, 2002

Comment: Just a thought about the meek gentlemen at Bethel. \Do you think that one of them would die to save you? While upstairs they sent the brothers and sisters in Malawi to their deaths? And I remember the letters from Bethel to the congregations to pray for the Malawi's - such evil deception. I remember reading in the yearbook with tears in my eyes about the Malawi's -the brothers and sisters might as well been told to drink "Kool-Aid". It was a Jonestown. Josh- are you not seeing any red flags?? We are not lying to you and we want you to do your own research. Don't be afraid of the truth. WTS doesn't even want you reading their old literature because they know they lied. We want you to read everything - even your bible!!!!!!! If we had something to hide or we were lying we wouldn't invite you to read everything you could get your hands on. I know I want to know if I am being lied to or if I believe a lie. We want to be spreaders of the truth and must be sure that we have the truth to spread. I know I do. As far I as KNOW, those meek gentlemen at Bethel would not tell the truth to save you! Another day I will write about The Friends... who tell on each other, spy, and other such friendly things. It is sort of like why the government calls death "casualties"... word games.

October 25, 2002

Comment: Man, Sorry but this ron thompson guy has nothing better to make fun of others, and bash the owner. Pretty pathetic. . Very pathetic. .

October 25, 2002

Comment: Buster- some grow up and some do not. I am simply amazed at how many 50-60 year olds that have not become men and women. Have you heard Paul Blizzard's experiences at Bethel. . he was a bad boy. Very funny stories, wild and crazy guy. My though exactly... be grateful that you were pulled out, got out and didn't end up like them. But. . . it is not over until it is over. This may be an opportunity for you to speak or be a comfort to your old friend?? Or maybe down the road. . . this incident is going to wreak havoc in their lives. . . it doesn't go away, but it gets worse. ^^^^^^^ Now I am becoming a debater of religion. . . oh well. . . lol. I just got so jazzed this week with those tapes of exjw's - I am on "fire"!!!!! Sleep tight. Love Claudine

October 26, 2002

Comment: Well its nice to see a little debate. Ask anyone who has read my post or if you want check them yourself i'm not here to defend the WTS however i'm not here to criticized them either. The faithful slave is given the responsibility of providing us with spiritual food. If it is true that these things have occurred in congregations then those MS o r elders are accountable. Not the WTS. If anyone in Bethel or anywhere else for that matter advised any elders not to go to police then they would be accountable too. Lev5:1 I'm very sure that any true witness of Jehovah God would abhor any such practice and would certainly want to see it fixed up. I Pray for any victims out there that soon justice will be done . a brother the other mentioned that the society may be going through a cleansing process and i really do hope that this evil will be cleansed so that Jehovah's name will be sanctified. So please don't say that the society is covering things up cause i personally know that only 4 weeks ago it was announced that any victims of child molesters could go to police. so how could we be covering anything up. I also know that an incident occurred in our hall well not in the hall but by someone and that person was disfellowshipped when he moved to the neighboring cong however when the elders from the neighboring cong found out the elders in our cong did nothing they were quite surprised. Apparently there excuse was the stories didn't match. so i do know what goes on and i know that these elders will be held accountable. Regards Josh.

October 26, 2002

Comment: Claudine preach it sister i am a born again christian and i have learned what you are speaking of thank you for sharing Penny

October 26, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "It is good to remember there is only one table of the Lord. Ample supply of excellent food is prepared and served there, and , if you know such to be the case, then why go nibbling at the table of those who are opposed to such wise steward of the Master's provisions? You might get spiritual poison, for their food has not been Theocratically tested. Why be concerned with the meager dishes of those outside of God's faithful household when there is so much to digest in the Lord's house? Those who are without are not cooperating with the Watch Tower Bible & Tract Society and therefore cannot help you, for they do not have the Lord's blessing, and you will be dishonoring God the Provider. " (WT Aug1 1950 231). . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Incredible claims are made here. One must be careful with this type of suggestions.

October 26, 2002

Comment: WOW so if i don't follow the watchtower i cannot be Gods kid? THATS ABSURD !!!!!!!!!!!! The watch tower is a controlling society and i pray every eyes involved in this would open So they believe there the only ones going to heaven? wow are they in for a big surprise LOL Penny

October 26, 2002
Comment: WOW so if i don't follow the watchtower i cannot be Gods kid? THATS ABSURD !!!!!!!! The watch tower is a controlling society and i pray everyone's eyes involved in this would open So they believe there the only ones going to heaven? wow are they in for a big surprise LOL Penny
October 26, 2002

Comment: To the idiot mentioning tracing IP's: If your not committing libel or putting vulgar posts on, what have you to worry about??? I think that you want to scare people away from Silent Lambs, you will be caught and personally I hope they hang you by your ummm testicles after the horrible things that you've said. This is our guest book and just as in real life if your not doing anything wrong what have you too fear... umm unless your a JW that is visiting a forbidden site. oooh I think you need to call and confess to the Elders before they find out themselves. Sheila M
October 26, 2002

Comment: Josh :; you keep saying that " the faithful slave has been given the job to give spiritual food at the proper time. . . but that statement can't be backed up. . . it is all fluff. . . all the food the wt has served up through the years has be proven to contain poison!!!! the food they serve was never proper, if it has to be changed because it was found to be tainted. how long have you been a follower of the wt?? so now they got new light 4 weeks ago to tell molested children to go to the police. . sounds like they are trying to cover their asses. . . why does the wt new light always come after the fact, that their old light ran out of time for it to be truth. . . you don't see that. . . . you are bearing false witness in the name of god till you can prove that the wt was chosen by jesus in 1919. . . . you are witnessing presumptuously in the name of god. . . if you know your bible you know what their inspired word of god says about that!!!! let us all see you or any other jw show from what the wt was teaching till 1919 . . . that made jesus choose the wt to be the fds. . . you will never honestly answer this . . . if you do it will be your last day in the clutches of the wt. and the day you came to the lord . . . . your friend ,,John
October 26, 2002

Comment: In the beginning, in the Garden of Eden, there was ONE GOD being worshipped in ONE WAY, TODAY there is still ONE GOD, He still wants to be worshipped in SPIRIT and TRUTH. Not a man made spirit of truth but a God spoken spirit and Truth only found in the bible and understood by the honest at heart.
October 26, 2002

Comment: Josh - the cleansing is people like me or bill or loris, the Andersons or anyone who asks a question, or questions or has one little doubt, or grows a beard, or does anything different. This is why the heavy strict policy of disfellowshipping rules most recently in your Kingdom Ministry. I heard about the cleansing in 1980 - how the "apostates" were cleaned out of Bethel. They took the most spiritually clean and cleaned them out. And those folks risked everything so that YOU might not be deceived today. . . they were df'd, and slandered to protect you from the truth. Use to be I could take a book out of the KH library - at this KH can't do this anymore. 1975 came and went - they beat the brothers/sisters who believed them. No one knows when the end will come EXCEPT THE FATHER, AND WTS proclaims they knew since 1870 something. Jesus is the TRUTH, wts CLAIMS THEY ARE THE TRUTH. If only you could just get the meaning of this every time you say "I am in The Truth" and remember that Jesus is the Truth. Buster just told a story that just happen this last week. . . and the story is the same. Nothing has changed. Jesus is going to clean out the WTS of the clean people by opening their eyes to His Truth. Beg Jesus for the truth and he will not lie. Beg Jehovah for the truth and He will not lie. Beg the Holy Spirit to reveal the truth to you. That is the Father's will and it will be done. Josh - how do you really feel about the pyramid on Russell's grave???? I find that ironic especially since WTS hates the cross idea. Why haven't they removed the pyramid now that the light is brighter??? It is visual evidence of the occult origins for all clean people to recognize. Pray, just pray for truth.
October 26, 2002

Comment: Josh have you taken the time to answer the questions posed at the beginning of this web sight? Will you share with me what you think of them? Are they something that the Elders do or do not do? Yes or no? Does the WTS do these things or not? Yes or no? How does the new policy that you speak of not just fly in the face of Bill's phone call to the WTBS legal department? It seems to me that you only want to see information and facts that support the claim that the wt is god by proxy. And in case you will not look here are the questions. /////Do Jehovah's Witnesses approve, condone, and encourage accused, confessed, and convicted child molesters to call door to door on unknowing potential victims in the witnessing work? Yes or no? Do Judicial Committees require two witnesses to the event of molestation before taking any disciplinary measures? Yes or no? Do elders allow sex offenders complete anonymity when they are discovered? Yes or no? Do they threaten parents of molested children with disfellowship when they to warn other members whose children may be in danger? Yes or no? Does the Service Department remove elders who warn parents of a pedophile member even though the elder is simply attempting to protect the children of the congregation? Yes or no? Does your Kingdom Hall provide significant training on how to direct a molested child to get the help they so desperately need? Yes or no? Or... Does the Watchtower Organization advise you that the best way to help a "troubled" person is to instruct them to endure and wait for God's Kingdom to solve their problems? Yes or no? By the way the last statement above in my faith would be considered "Sloth." -Jayson
October 26, 2002

Comment: Headings from book "Make sure of all things hold fast to what is fine." 1) ENTIRE ORGANIZATION FUNCTIONS THEOCRATICALLY, FROM GOD(Theos)DOWN 2) HEAVENLY ORGANIZATION WORKS CLOSELY WITH EARTHLY, PROVIDING STRONG SUPPORT. If one looks at the predictions that didn't come true, the contradiction of the membership to the United Nations(as a NGO, non government organization) and other embarrassing predicaments, one must truly question the many claims made in the Watchtower publications.
October 26, 2002

Comment: Jayson; you just summed the wt in one word. . . they believe them selves to be a PROXY of god!!!!!!! i will not forget that. . . no noname you talked about adam and eve. . in true worship of god. . . what happened when they ate the bad fruit????? they died. . . right. . . so why should i eat bad fruit from the wt when years before the wt prophecies were proved false , by time . . . i smelled the food was rotten. . . you call following the wt bull . . pleasing to the creator???? you must be joking!!!!! or are you so blind you can't see it. . . you still can't answer my questions. . . this has been going on for months. . . i see right through you . . . try that lie in the fs. . . tell me all about the wt and 1919. . . i'm waiting. . . . . . for you to bare more false witness . . . . what's that verse you will be condemned by your own words?????? freedom in christ to ALL . . . JOHN
October 26, 2002

Comment: Dear John, when Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit they were sentenced to death. But they still knew right from wrong, they made that free will choice when tempted by Satan. All I was getting at was at that time in history, There was only ONE way to worship God. Many men were not present just Man, Woman, Satan and God. This is NOT about a Kingdom Hall (JW) or a Stake Center (Mormon) or a Reading Room (Scientologist) or any temple. It is about the only and only true body of Christ made up of believers who are truly searching for a relationship with God. Who are willing to do the necessary research and see for themselves what Truth is not taking any man's word for it. More to the Truth, there are TRUE believers out there in the world all over the place in little pockets. It is each of OUR OWN responsibility to seek so we can find. Not listen so someone can give up their own exegesis (interpretation) of who and what they feel is God and the way He wants us to worship Him. If you have a heart for the Lord, the Lord will help you with your journey.
October 26, 2002

Comment: Dear Jayson , I'm very happy to answer all your questions. However it would be easier to just read my previous posts. yes you always need to witnesses to have a judicial committee and 2 witnesses don't have to be together as long as they have witnessed similar incidents. As far as going to the police if you read my post i said it was announced that any one who wishes to go to the police about any criminal matter can do so. The WTS does not run our lives we are free to do as we choose it is up to us whether we want to live up to bible standards or not. As far as i know apostates are those people who oppose Jehovah not the WTS. People who lie and deceive people about the truth. As i've stated in previous posts if one policeman /woman is corrupt does it mean that the whole force in corrupt. The society has never covered over wrong doing if it did why does it disfellowship people then? There may be individual cases in congregations where perhaps people have gotten away with wrong doing due to some nepotism but those people will ultimately be held accountable. Jehovah sees everything and he will clear it up in due time. Perhaps our patience is not as enduring as his but rest assured he will act. I personally have seen this happen where i know of MS's or Elders who where perhaps not holding to there position or looking after the flock properly and eventually they either stepped down or were removed it may not of happened straight away but it did happen. What i find interesting is Bill Bowden says that he was told not to go to police now i personally emailed him and told him that it was announced in the cong that any parents or victims may go to the police is they so wish, to date i have received no reply i wonder why? Regards Josh
October 26, 2002

Comment: Josh-I will not speak for Bill. But, I will not waste my time with you again. Thank you for making yourself clear as mud. We need no further discussions. -Jayson
October 26, 2002

Comment: If anyone thinks they have "FREE WILL" in the JW faith, YOU have another thing coming. Just speak out when you KNOW something is NOT kosher, do an unpopular deed in a popular camp, go against the grain of ANY body of elders in any kingdom hall when they are not acting according to the will of God and you will find yourself
"separated, shunned, tattooed, marked, and it will happen so fast it will make your already clouded head spin right off its shoulders. This is from first hand personal experience. Don't make waves unless you are willing to pay the price like I did, in fact as Bill Bowen has with silentlams.

October 26, 2002

Comment: The above poster is correct. When the Watchtower say's "Make sure of all things" it is only doing lip service. They should say instead "Keep your thoughts to yourself on all things. "

October 26, 2002

Comment: Josh, Why don't you take some time to read the entire site. How long have you been a witness???. My husband was his whole life and what you say is so dead wrong. You have no clue read become educated and no I have nothing against Jehovah nor does anyone that regularly posts. Sheila M PS The announcement to go to the police is recent read some old literature or better yet talk to someone that has been abused Comment: Shunning or threatening to shun members because they question appropriate interpretation is abuse. Emotional, Psychological and Spiritual abuse.

October 27, 2002

Comment: Josh 2 Witnesses? GET REAL MAN!!!!! So anyone molested by a JW has to have 2 people that witnessed this molestation? GOD SAW IT and the person that it happened saw it NOW THERE YOU DAMM 2 WITNESSES. Josh NOT one person in here is against GOD but we are against the WATCHTOWER at least i am because they teach lies and they are a cult that twist bible scriptures to do their own agenda SO STOP protecting a group of people that go door to door and openly lie to people about the word of God JW'S are not the TRUE CHURCH those who have received JESUS as their personal savior are the true church now you can hate me for that statement i don't care but i am a born again christian and spend hrs a day in the bible and EVERYTHING JW'S have told me mainly have been lies because i went and studied it myself. THERE A CONTROLLING AN MANIPULATING bunch of people and use manipulation to wean there way into peoples homes and i for one am sick of them doing this THERE SHOULD BE A LAW against them going door to door and spreading their lies Penny

October 27, 2002

Comment: To Josh. . the WTS can SAY anything but it doesn't mean they have to do it or even that the elders have to do it. They are still saying it is reported "in states where it is required. " As far as parents reporting it, do you know how they are treated if they do report it. NO. . . because no one can talk about it so chances are you don't even know of any cases. I asked an elder in my recent congregation about the Othello case. He wouldn't talk to me about it other than to say, "We have been instructed to call the WTS legal dept. " NOT 'we have been told to call the authorities,' NOT 'we encourage the parents to call the authorities. He then said, "And you know kids lie about that stuff. " Later, I learned he had studied with 3 child molesters from the local prison, brought them into the truth and 2 of them molested again. . . in the cong. Yet, he was still defending the molesters. . . Several years ago, I reported a case of child abuse to the elders. . . a JW father and his 15 yr old daughter. Later, the elders came to my house and told my teenager and me that he denied it so we were not to talk about it, even among ourselves or we could be disciplined for slander and gossip. Now mind you, I was so mind-controlled that it didn't even occur to me to go to the police. . . I am ashamed to admit it but I just said, Well Jehovah will take care of it. When asking an older sister in a 3rd cong. what she thought of the news article about Othello back in Jan. 02, she said, "That girl has just ruined that brothers reputation. " WHAT IN THE WORLD IS WRONG HERE?

October 27, 2002

Comment: OOPS. . . CONTINUIN

October 27, 2002

Comment: OOPS

October 27, 2002

Comment: KIDS DO NOT LIE ABOUT CHILD MOLESTATION sheesh you people i was called a liar for years and then they found out later on that i was telling the truth you know how? RIGHT before my dad died he admitted he molested me all those yrs. SO before you go accusing a child of lying you better have good proof they are because if there not like i wasn't they will be hurt over and over till someone believes them A lot of the lies come from the adult NOT the child Penny

October 27, 2002
Comment: oops again... continuation of letter to Josh... WHY AREN'T JW'S OUTRAGED ABOUT THIS? COULD IT BE MIND-CONTROL? And Josh, I was an active JW for 35 yrs. until this abuse issue. Before then, I would have fought to the end that we were not controlled or brainwashed... and that the WTS was almost infallible... and that they would never tolerate child abuse or spousal abuse. Well I was wrong, now 2/3 of my life has been put into this "false religion" and I have to start over. Believe me, its not easy but I have to be true to Jehovah and to myself. Hopefully you too will see the "truth about the truth." If not, I hope you find peace in your life as a JW. You're going to need all the help you can get. jazbug
October 27, 2002

Comment: More proof as the story above proves that the WTS is disorganized religion. The brothers are under the grips of unholy spirit protecting pedophiles rather than faithful families and their children. Calling themselves The Friends does not make them friends of Jesus or God or you and me. NOW WE HAVE TWO RECENT STORIES IN TWO DAYS ABOUT PEDOPHILES WINNING THE HEARTS OF THE ELDERs... WHILE THE FAMILIES AND CHILDREN ARE DISMISSED, PUT OFF, RIDICULED... ABANDONED. JOSH ARE YOU LISTENING TO THESE STORIES AND TAKING THEM TO HEART? THESE CRIMES ARE HAPPENING TO YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS... your friends, The Friends. We are talking tragedy and no love or spiritual food for those you are suffering. The pedophile gets "fed" while the victims of him can go hungry! WTS will clean out the org by starving out the true lovers of God. Will you be one of them? Hopefully you will. Love, Claudine
October 27, 2002

Comment: Jazzbug - what these elders are doing is convoluted, so sick, so evil and wicked... jw defenders are just that, defending men who are wrong is nothing more than idol worship. Elders have been given the status of "Jesus" and they do not defend Christ or Jehovah but their own reputations... as if God can't see and smell filth. ^^^^^^WTS controls the conscience of people which is the opposite of freedom.
October 27, 2002

Comment: DNA makes a wonderful second witness.
October 27, 2002

Comment: Excellent - DNA as a witness. Now you just have to convince the parents that they will not be bringing reproach on God's name by proving the pedo a pedo and a liar... DNA is too logical, practical, child might not tell while there is evidence. But you are absolutely correct. Once a month on sunday - they need to talk to the whole congregation as to what pedophilia is, how to prevent it from happening, exactly what is to be done if it does happen, how it will be handled, they could even invite someone from the community who is an expert to give the children and the parents the support of the elders and to put a pedophile on notice, that this congregation is educated... and will prevent this from happening with education. Every month once a month until the Kingdom Comes. They should have silentlambs brochures at the DESK, and they should have some sort of program for those who have been molested. WTS does not love the sheep... their food is old, and worn, not nutritious. The can of worms at the congregation in my area would be opened... Anyway if WTS cared they would take care of their sheep with a zero tolerance thru education monthly... some obscure 1993 awake? has not done the job anymore than letters from the governing body to the elders-obviously. Say one thing do another. Teach one thing do another. Call dirty clean, bad good, wrong is right... move to another congregation, keep quiet, don't rock the boat, status quo, or be dismissed and called apostate because you won't contribute an ounce of your loyalty to God to "something" that calls themselves the faithful & discreet slave. Would one rather lay their burden down at the foot of Jesus or be stepped upon by an "organization" whose founder has a pyramid on his grave and says one thing, does another?
October 27, 2002

Comment: NOTICE!!! BRITISH AIRWAYS SPECIAL for flights to London for the Silentlambs UK March on March 29, 2003!  This just rolled in from the New York Times' Travel Deals email/newsletter  New York Times "Deals & Discounts" Travel Email for Sunday 10-27-02  FLEXIBLE FARE  Through midnight tomorrow, British Airways has round-trip fares between Kennedy or Newark Liberty and London for $248, good for travel through March 31. And once the fare is booked, passengers can change their travel dates without penalty. By reserving at www. britishairways.com/fallsale, an extra $10 is taken off the fare. In conjunction with this fare, there are hotel rooms at nine London hotels starting at $34 a night per person, based on double occupancy. From Washington or Baltimore, the fare is $298; from Chicago, $328. And from New York, the round-trip fare to Paris is $320, Zurich and Geneva, $372. Other European cities are available. Fares are good for travel Monday through Wednesday, and higher fares apply Dec. 18 to 23. Other restrictions and fees apply. "-------- The SL-March is set for Saturday, March 29, 2003. To make use of the above deal, we'd have to depart London on Monday, March 31. Could arrive anytime Monday through Wednesday prior to the SL-March, March 24-25-26.  The only "problem" with the above NY Times' deal is the DEADLINE! Must book by Monday night at midnight... i. e., tomorrow night at midnight, 10/28/02.  Later
Gators/SLC!
October 27, 2002

Comment: Hi all been out for a while, keep up the gods work will check in from time to time
October 27, 2002

Comment: It's not propaganda. And if you were not part of the problem you would see that. -Jayson
October 27, 2002

Comment: Oh ya and why don't you take your bigoted words like "apostate" and shove it!
October 27, 2002

Comment: Thank you to the above poster for the Watchtower style scare of the month. Thank you about talking about freedom of thought. That's funny coming from a Watchtower supporter.
October 27, 2002

Comment: Also please remember: The word Apostate means someone who has completely forsaken their religion, faith, political party, or principles. So the dictionary tells us it is not just someone who left the Jehovah's Witness! Get a life people. Half the world's people including Jehovah's Witness are apostate if you left another religion or political party. The Jehovah's Witness try to redefine 'apostate' to mean someone who left only their group. WRONG!!! Give it up Watchtower from using apostate as your dirty little smear word.
October 27, 2002

Comment: It is extremely hard to separate this issue of pedophilia from the(propaganda) of two witnesses that are needed/the peer pressure to shut up and move to another congregation because we LOVE the pedophile and your child LIES. . I am sorry but how can you read Buster's story and jazbug and call our support propaganda?????? The two witness "theory" is the biggest propaganda I ever heard in my life!!! Look up the word propaganda. You work for a "company" that does not pay you. . . you do not work for God but the WTS only. You show no compassion, no intelligence, no love - and I am supposed to believe you have God, represent God, have the spirit of God??? #### I am beginning to think that the WTS and those that support "it" are so arrogant to think they can bring reproach on Jehovah. . . as if you were so important to God that you are capable of doing that. Take care of your babies and protect them- you guys cannot even do that!!! Almighty God is in control. . . not the WTS. I am pissed - sorry. You bring reproach on yourselves as parents and human beings.
October 27, 2002

Comment: You have the freedom to worship anything you want. You have the freedom to go door to door. You have the freedom to believe what you want. . . and now you want the freedom to come here. . . . since we took our freedom and fled from the WTS and came here. Where is your meekness and humble & mild spirit?
October 27, 2002

Comment: Well, can't we consider it a compliment to be apostates of the WTS ??? You know you JW defenders won't take the time, or the risk to verify the things said here. But you will take the time to criticize the truth we tell you. There is a proverb about looking at a situation before you respond. Most of us here use to be where you were. . . we know both sides now. Many people here have done their research, and have had personal experiences to relate to us. The word apostate use to scare the beejees out of me one year ago. . . after doing a little research myself I found that the WTS is apostate and does not teach the true teachings of the Bible. We are afraid for you and your families and your children. And we are not going to call you anything worse than a JW defender or brainwashed, or clone. I know what you mean when you say apostate. . . you mean we are dead. None of us here wish you dead, or would give you up with such contempt. Most here are fighting "for you" because you are serving the wrong master.
October 27, 2002

Comment: It appears we still have a continuing problem here of people using this Guestbook for a forum on doctrine. What a shame. Victims of abuse come here to read others stories so they won't feel they are alone, and to maybe even post their own stories hoping for some compassion and understanding, and maybe even receive some much needed help and love. I am so glad that Bill Bowen is about to change the format of this site, or at least the way the guestbook is run, so maybe the victims will receive the help they truly want and need. There are so many sites available to banter back and forth over doctrine, argue to your hearts content, yet you still choose to do it here. Thank goodness and Thank Bill Bowen for the upcoming changes in this site. If any victims visiting here want someone to talk to, share stories with, or just want to make some friends, email me and let's talk. Linda Thoman
October 27, 2002

Comment: This is primarily a site for abuse victims not protected by the Watchtower Society. No doubt about it. But there are also other problems. There is the abuse of being lied to, cover ups, threatened with destruction if on leaves the so called 'Truth'. In many ways they all help to keep people in bondage (thinking there is no where else to go). Point is this. There is no use trying to change the cover up of abuse in one area, and pretending that all is well with the rest of the Organization. It will not change! And why would it? They have God's blessing on their side. Shunning is an issue here for example. But shunning is an issue in more than one way. Common symptom of many problems.

October 27, 2002

Comment: I personally liked having the anti-john and all the jw's around. . . so all the readers if this site can see the side of the jw's that they don't show you when they come to your door, and try to get you in a study. . . you know how loving the wt is and all the support you will get being a jw?? the jw's are a great help in exposing how the wt will treat you once you find they are only interested in how much time you spend in the fs. . . don't have enough money to pay the rent. . . quit your job, get welfare,say you are disabled and become a full time pioneer. . . don't have money for food?? work less hours on your job, so you qualify for food stamps and you can put more time in the field. . . in the co-op city cong. bronx this is the normal way many sisters get the money to to live. . by crying to the gov't that they can't work. . . but they are out all day pounding the area. they lie to the gov't for financial aid. . . if you can stand on your feet all day pushing wt's then you can get a job. i personally know a couple dozen jw's that operate like this. . . they are hypocrites. cursing the gov't, but bitching if their . . gov't check is a day late. . .

John

October 27, 2002

Comment: I personally liked having the anti-john and all the jw's around. . . so all the readers if this site can see the side of the jw's that they don't show you when they come to your door, and try to get you in a study. . . you know how loving the wt is and all the support you will get being a jw?? the jw's are a great help in exposing how the wt will treat you once you find they are only interested in how much time you spend in the fs. . . don't have enough money to pay the rent. . . quit your job, get welfare,say you are disabled and become a full time pioneer. . . don't have money for food?? work less hours on your job, so you qualify for food stamps and you can put more time in the field. . . in the co-op city cong. bronx this is the normal way many sisters get the money to to live. . by crying to the gov't that they can't work. . . but they are out all day pounding the area. they lie to the gov't for financial aid. . . if you can stand on your feet all day pushing wt's then you can get a job. i personally know a couple dozen jw's that operate like this. . . they are hypocrites. cursing the gov't, but bitching if their . . gov't check is a day late. . .

October 27, 2002

Comment: I want to comment on DNA as evidence: True story that happened less than two years ago. Little girl was raped by teenage boy, girl went immediately to her mother. Police were contacted (PO was contacted later and his comment was: I wish you hadn't called the police) Child was taken to hospital for a rape test, boy was prosecuted and convicted. To the elders it didn't matter what the results of a rape test showed, the boy was innocent because he didn't confess to them! Therefore it was okay, no it was the RIGHT thing to do—to persecute the victim's family. The total support of the congregation was given to the pedophile (after he returned from prison) and to his family. Finally the victim's family was driven from the hall. So much for truth so much for DNA. . . . Something is seriously wrong with people in a congregation who obey elders without conscious. Without compassion for the innocent victims.

October 27, 2002

Comment: It is the doctrine that has caused the problem of cover-up. It is the doctrine of shunning/disfellowshipping that causes families that have been harmed to shut-up and put-up. It is the doctrine that makes people fear leaving and be forever alienated from God and their dear love ones. It is the doctrine that asks them to wait on Jehovah instead of go to the police. I sincerely believe that one cannot do what is right for themselves or others without terrible emotional cost with these doctrines in tact as "truth and reality." When I left I felt so scared that I was condemned by God. . . and without knowing the how and why I came to believe this as true had to be dispelled. I found this here, not at jw. com. I found answers with Ray Franz's book and being able to talk about it. Even, john from the bronx with his freedom in christ had a profound effect on my thinking. It is the doctrine that prevents victims going to the police. I have complained that to discuss doctrine and IGNORE the victims is not what this site is about. But the doctrine has to be dispelled as part of the comfort. I am grateful anti-john and all the support you will get being a jw?? the jw's are a great help in exposing how the wt will treat you once you find they are only interested in how much time you spend in the fs. . . don't have enough money to pay the rent. . . quit your job, get welfare,say you are disabled and become a full time pioneer. . . don't have money for food?? work less hours on your job, so you qualify for food stamps and you can put more time in the field. . . in the co-op city cong. bronx this is the normal way many sisters get the money to to live. . by crying to the gov't that they can't work. . . but they are out all day pounding the area. they lie to the gov't for financial aid. . . if you can stand on your feet all day pushing wt's then you can get a job. i personally know a couple dozen jw's that operate like this. . . they are hypocrites. cursing the gov't, but bitching if their . . gov't check is a day late. . .

October 27, 2002

Comment: I am sorry to hear this story -about this little girl. . JOSH>>>>ARE YOU READING THIS???? Here we have a brave little girl, smart enough to go to her mommy. We have a smart and loving mother who does all that the law recommends and the FRIENDS are her ENEMY. Now we have three stories in 3 days that support the pedophile and alienate the victims. A sister who is punished for doing the right thing, had proof, went to court and the guy went to jail. . . and she is punished by her brothers & sisters -THE FRIENDS. Probably that Elder, that congregation didn't read 10/93AWake? Or forgot? But the love of God should be in their hearts and it isn't. I know I wouldn't want these people as my friends. *TO THE PERSON WHO WROTE THIS STORY- I hope that your friend will call Bill. How good to know there are parents who pursue justice and protect their children regardless of the "peer" pressure to not do so. ****

October 27, 2002
Comment: I believe that love is stronger than doctrine. It was my own silence about the mental abuse that I went through, mine. I could have stopped it by just saying NO MORE! But I did not know how to do that, I felt that I was alone. I felt that I would pay some kind of price like "they" won't like me any more. (HA they never did. ) Now I see that I chose to imprison myself. And now I am free by my own choice. No more shakels and it feels good. That is the spirit of this site. YOU CAN LIVE AGAIN! God lives in "you" not in Brooklyn. Or any other organization. They only exist in your head. // You are not alone. You were wronged. We accept you as you are. And WTBS BUTT OUT! (And some here will sue you. And some here have put, and will put more bad guys in jail (yeppie)!///The org does "do" the questions that I posed by cronies and it is PATHETIC!!!//Funny that one will talk of "slander" and lawsuits and then use inflaming words towards 80% of the people's comments. (Huh isn't that cute. ) I have grown to enjoy talking to many people here. I am lucky to have found the Silentlambs. It is an honor and pleasure. ///"John" speaks of Philippians 4:14 by freedom. I have the coffee mug. FREEDOM THROUGH (and in) CHRIST. You just keep doing what you do people. Thank you for it. -Jayson
October 27, 2002

Comment: Occasionally I listen to Skip from Santa Cruz. Living on the Edge Home Page is the site address. He is doing four tapes on Hypocrisy. He is not heavy duty, but he is biblically correct and the first tape gives simple examples. Jesus hates hypocrites and no one can disagree with that! The definition from dictionary: a person who pretends to have moral, or religious beliefs, principles, etc. he does not actually possess. One who pretends to be what he is not. These last stories have made me heartsick and I pray that the victims will flee to freedom and know that the yoke of Jesus is light. Wts is a 3rd world religion . . . 3rd world mentality and turns people into fearful to even think, be informed or treated with the respect and dignity that every child of God deserves.
October 27, 2002

Comment: freedom in christ; gal5:1-7 2:4-5 3: gal 1 their is only one hope we are all sons of abraham gal 3 : all to end no man is my superior.; 1 pet 2 1pet 5 mt 20:25-28 mt 23 2 cor 11: 20-21 etc.
October 27, 2002

Comment: I would be curious if anyone has had success in giving a brochure to a JW? If so which one? I have been thinking of writing up my own, tying in the pedophilia with the lack of freedom in Christ. Anyway, just wondered what works. I am not DF'd because I was never baptized, not sure if I have been marked. I do know some hurting witnesses who know I am kind and they are not the "in" crowd. I want a reputation with the witnesses in my area that if they are ever in trouble they know they can come to me for straight answers and spiritual support. Any suggestions? The congregation I attended was entrenched in cover up of sexual molestation that happen years ago. Last year 2001, they had a pedophile who was a study, who went out in service. . . . I only heard that thru "gossip" - one night they announced the study was to be treated as someone of the world. No reason given. I see the witnesses from time to time and would like something to give them that will make them think and not be threatened or afraid to read it. I have confronted the sisters when I have seen them with the UN, pedophile/witnesses, and the Malawi's but they ran from me. . . or invited the Elders to come talk to me. . . . LOL. I need a softer approach and that is a challenge for a straight-shooter like me. Love, claudine
October 27, 2002

Comment: Read the scriptures above - Mat 23:2 states in Jesus' own words: The scribes and the Pharisees have seated themselves in the seat of Moses. *The WTS have seated themselves in the seat of Moses! There are 39 verses that follow with nothing good to say about those seated in the seat of Moses! October 27, 2002

Comment: I feel this is too horrible for words, I have been trying to fight pedophiles for only a few short yrs, mostly due to my daughter who was raped and sodomized at the very young age of 2 yrs old. and I do the best I am able to do, in her name and for all children, but to read about any so called christian org that allows this makes me want to literally scream!!!! and I have tears now in my eyes, this is soo soo sick, I have a 13 yr old daughter, and may GOD help the man / woman who ever ever tries to hurt her!!!! these people need to be put in prison till death, or to get the death penalty, in which I am truly in favor of. GOD does not want any child of his to be abused. please!! e mail me @ anti_childporn@yahoo. com peace, anti
October 28, 2002

Comment: i feel so good; i just blasted hillary clinton. . i emailed her 2 months ago and have not received a reply. . . so she got what she had coming. . hope my words make her feel bad and she makes laws against child molesters. like the wt in new york. . . if she does nothing then she is what i thought of her all the time . in it all for her self. . and i told her that. . . john
October 28, 2002
Comment: Thank you Jazbug for being more gentle to Josh than I was. Please forgive me Josh for being blunt. I too spent 37 years as an active witness believing that the Watchtower Society was almost infallible. This abuse issue began my awakening from the mind controlled stupor. The abuse cases that I was personally aware of I thought were isolated instances of an individual "sick" congregation. I too was wrong. I too have invested 2/3 of my life into this "false religion" and I too have to start over. I was forced to make a choice. I had to agree to stop speaking with anyone about these abuse issues as well as any mention of the U. N. fiasco or else face disfellowshipping. I am an extremely quiet and shy person. It is not like I was picketing the Kingdom Hall. I talked about it to my immediate family and two other sisters in my congregation. But there I was, being ordered by the elders to shut up or else! I told them, "So much for freedom of speech." I could not bear to have the announcement at the KH to be "Sister Loris M has been disfellowshipped for conduct unbecoming of a Christian." So I finally refused to meet with the elders again for the third time over this issue. I told them I would never come back to the KH. To me being disassociated is better than being branded immoral, etc. At least the people at the hall would know that my leaving is a religious issue not a moral one. At least I could control that. Anyway Josh, don't let angry people like me drive you away. You are welcome here and we need all the positive people we can get to help the damaged lambs regain a trust in humanity. Stay in the congregation as long as you can to be a positive influence in whatever small way you can. If someday you choose to leave, the outside is an amazingly friendly place where you can find people who sincerely love Jah and his dear son Jesus. Love Ya'll, Loris

October 28, 2002

Comment: man this person sounds like a 12 yr old kid and not some adult most MATURE adults do not act like this person Penny

October 28, 2002

Comment: Greetings guestbook friends, we are working to make this a more comfortable place to submit your thoughts. Thank you for your patience.................. webmaster

October 28, 2002

Comment: penny I'm not 12 you are

October 28, 2002

Comment: WISDOM FROM THE WATCHTOWER "They had preached that in an early time God would overthrow "Christendom". Many had emphasized the year 1925... " (WT Feb 15 1938 54) Please notice that back in 1938 the Organization tried to distance itself with words like 'Many' even though it was them. Some things never change.

October 28, 2002

Comment: if your not 12 why u acting it? i am 38 bye the way Penny

December 2002 Guestbook

December 21, 2002

Comment: This is a test to see if the guest book is working... but I also wanted to welcome all new comers and hope you find healing here. Love to all, Jesika Thoman, Dallas,TX

December 21, 2002

Comment: Hi everyone i hope, lots of new thinks will happens in the new year, for the Silentlambs case. Happy new year from Denmark.

December 22, 2002

Comment: I will be spending Xmas alone... so if anyone has a hard time on Xmas, I will be checking the posts here and responding. I don't want anyone to get too lonely, not a good thing. I am on west coast time and may help out at the senior center if they are serving dinner - other than that I will be here if you need some company. Love, Claudine

December 22, 2002
Comment: Where's the Video/Media Link?
December 22, 2002

Comment: I was going to be baptize this summer. I too suffered at the hands of men. Not JWs but was raped at the of five. I don't think I'll be studying anymore. Thank you. Joy.
December 23, 2002

Comment: Hello, I appreciate all the work that Silent Lambs has done to expose the WT and help all those who have suffered abuse. For those interested I have a Christian apologetics ministry called Prove All Things. It is at: http://proveallthings. 8m. com It offers answers and information concerning Jesus Christ and the Christian faith. Those who are studying with JWs, or thinking of studying with them can call us anytime (all calls confidential).
(937)832 - 3971
December 23, 2002

Comment: Thank you for your hard work and dedication! Thank you for using our voices to speak out, and being our eyes and ears. Christy
December 23, 2002

Comment: I was sexually abused by my father and brother who were JW's I contacted my fathers congregation about his sins. I did not include a return address as I knew just how horrible his denial would be and how I would be treated by the JW's
December 23, 2002

Comment: Hello and welcome to all the new posters here. Your comments are very important, and no longer being silent is very powerful in healing. Welcome to Silentlambs. You are amongst friends here, and those who have experienced much the same.
December 24, 2002

Comment: Haven't been around lately, so I'm shocked to see RJ still hanging around and causing trouble! /SLC
December 25, 2002

Comment: some one please look up the New York daily news 12 - 24 - 02 about the brooklyn school teacher. who would not let her students hang up holiday drawings. . . seems she got axed>>> hope she looses her job. . . i thought the WT teaches respect for other peoples beliefs. . . funny how the facts come out how the WT truly teaches no tolerance of others. . . i see a civil rights case here!!!! happy it was in the newspapers, radio, and TV. here in New York . . . so millions now living today "TM" got to see how JWs really are mental terrorists. . . I'll be waiting with glee for the court case on this one. . . hi RJ, happy to see you are still searching for the "truth". . . John
December 26, 2002

Comment: very interesting site. i am a former JW and have always had issues with "policy". this particular one (not reporting abuse) demonstrates how devalued women and children are in the organization. people should be informed of this in order to make intelligent decisions. thanks.
December 26, 2002

Comment: TO FORMER JW: also, shows the lack of love that is applied to the law. In other words, law without love.

Exactly, the reason Jesus said there was no law against love. Two witnesses applied without love has resulted in pedophiles having the "advantage" of the law and the victims not being loved. Good that you are gone from these people.
Love, Claudine
December 26, 2002

Comment: It seems like there should be more emphasis in religions that pedophilia is a sickness - - it is an illness, for which there is no cure. It is so important that this is taken into consideration when dealing with pedophiles. If people have a compulsion for a certain behavior, they can't just say they are sorry, that they are repentant, that it will never happen again, because it is an incurable illness. Also, perpetrators blame the children for being molested. ???

A counselor told me that a child can be totally naked in front of a man, and there is no excuse for touching that child. I mean, we are talking about CHILDREN here. A child is never responsible for his or her being molested. Never. This is all just so frustrating. I admire all of you who continue to fight this issue legally, taking it to courts and so on. The more power to you. You have so much courage and determination. Hang in there! If there are other issues besides pedophilia that people would like to address in the Jehovah's Witness religion, where is a really good place to go? I have no desire to be inflammatory, to start any debates or conflicts. It's just that there are some things that I saw one way when I became a Witness, but, now, as a former Witness, I see these things so differently in retrospect. I need to bounce some things off people and get some feedback. I would appreciate other people's input very much. Karen
December 26, 2002

Comment: Karen: I don't think your questions or comments would be inflammatory. Try us here first. When I first came here I thought I was alone in my thinking and Silentlamb cured me of this. We all see and thought we were alone, sinful, disloyal, felt guilty about what we saw or that we were flawed in our thinking. Tell us why you left. I would like to share also that I do not hate JW's... I believe they are deceived, just as I was at one time and I am commanded to love everyone by showing the love of Christ that He shows me. But first I had to be angry and work that out. But there is nothing wrong with discussing or commenting about what is wrong with the WTS. It isn't even wrong to be angry and express it here. This is the place to not be a silent lamb anymore. There is nothing you can say, that has not be said here, or that the rest of us hasn't thought or felt I assure you! Love, Claudine
December 26, 2002

Comment: Thank you, Claudine. You asked me why I left. I don't think that when I left there was really any specific CONCRETE reason for leaving. It was based on uncomfortable, unhappy feelings I was experiencing as a Jehovah's Witness. Also, at the time I was a pretty mixed up person. I didn't know at the time that I had an anxiety disorder, which is something I've had all my life. It's just that it's only in recent years that this disorder has been recognized (I was diagnosed about ten or eleven years ago). So, I had a mental disorder and didn't know it. I knew something was wrong, but I didn't know what it was. Maybe part of the problem was inside myself. I just stopped being happy as a Witness. I didn't like being in the Kingdom Hall. Out of fairness, I think it is important that I acknowledge that at least part of the problem was in my having a mental illness. Not all of it. I remember how certain things struck me as not right when I was a Witness. Certain comments or attitudes. Another thing is looking back now I feel irritated about the pre - baptism questioning. In the Bible if someone wanted to be baptized, that person simply stated that. There weren't a series of questions asked of that person to make sure they were 'ready' for baptism. It was a heart thing, a spiritual thing, not a matter of having the right answers for a bunch of questions. Also, if it is true that the Watchtower and Bible Tract Society makes 900 and something million dollars a year profit, it seems fishy that all these people are taking a vow of poverty when they go to work at Bethel. Someone told me that in the Catholic Church that's how it is when people enter convents or monasteries. Well, if the 'governing body' is doing so well financially, while all the workers have so little, it makes me think of a queen bee, who gets fatter and fatter, while all the worker bees just work like crazy - - fattening her up. It almost strikes me as a racket. Does that sound slanderous? Because I can't help wondering what is going on behind the scenes; I can't help the impression I get based on what I have heard about the 'Society'. The information I have learned is limited, but I still can't help wondering about things. There are other issues, too, but I guess I'll stop here for now. Thanks again, Claudine, for your response. Take care, all. Karen
December 26, 2002

Comment: Someone said that pedophilia is an incurable sickness. I appreciate the comments of this person, but I have to respectfully disagree on that particular point. I would say that a person who molests children IS indeed "sick", but saying that this kind of activity is incurable is almost like saying that the pedophile is not to blame (but the disease). It sounds similar to someone who says that Alcoholism is a disease. No one is born a pedophile. No one is born an alcoholic. There are many complicated factors which can contribute to deviant behavior. The same is true concerning why someone would become a member of the WTBTS and remain trapped in that organization for 50 years or more. Pedophilia is wrong, it is sinful and there is hope and recovery from this morally repugnant lifestyle. Another example which is often voiced is that people are born homosexual. This is not the case. There are many who were once homosexual, who have been set free from their sin by Jesus Christ. It is not an easy process, but people have found forgiveness and freedom from such, and I am sure the same is possible for pedophiles. If it was just seen as an incurable disease then I would see this as devaluing the victims of abuse. I certainly do not mean to be disrespectful, but I felt that I should offer my two cents. David Race P. O. Box 340773 Beavercreek, Ohio 45434 - 0773 (937)832 - 3971 chalkman15@cs. com http://proveallthings. 8m. com
December 27, 2002

Comment: Hi Karen: I have post - traumatic Stress - the biggie of all anxiety disorders. I didn't know what was wrong with me either until I was 50 years old!!! I "left" the JW's because I didn't feel "safe" there, that was Oct 2001. Then after I left, I found out why I didn't feel safe there. Not because of the anxiety, but because lies, deception, mistrust causes me to be unsafe... which is not tolerable for a person who has Post Trauma Stress. Praise God!!! People with anxiety disorder can detect lies and deception, unsafe environments more keenly then the average person. This is a blessing I have come to appreciate and value. Have you read Crisis of Conscience? And have you heard of patiencepress. com? Patience has a web site that I think is excellent. Thanks for sharing a bit of your story, you are not alone!! Love, Claudine
December 27, 2002
Comment: HI KAREN!!!!!!! I noticed you wanted a place to discuss things about the JW's. A great place to do that is at - - - http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/default.asp?site=3 I am a member there and have made many friends. Most are ex - JWs but some are still JW's and we discuss EVERYTHING!!!!!!! Nice to see everyone again. . .

Jesika Thoman
December 27, 2002

Comment: So now that 'a generation' does not mean 70 or 80 years, how will this affect the 1914 teaching? Every year that passes makes 1914 seem less important than the year before without a finishing line. Just remember folks that without a vision the people perish. The Watchtowers 1914 vision is becoming less and less important.

December 27, 2002

Comment: I am a Christian and have been horrified by what I have read on your web - site. My daughter has recently been drawn into being a Jehovah Witness. Please can you tell you what I can do to change her mind about these evil people. Your comments would be very much appreciated.

December 28, 2002

Comment: the WT is still pushing the generation idea. . . now they are saying the end will come in the life time of the last of the so called anointed left alive. . . there was a WT i think 8 2001 were the WT was saying in the generation of the anointed from 1935 till death would be the end. . . they went into all the old talk about 70 years etc. . . a hard look at this mag will bring you to 2005 for 70 yrs or 2015 for 80 yrs. . . they are still printing that millions living today will never die. . . WT 1 - 1 - 97 p 11 etc. so if a child was born today and lived , till 100 years old . . . the world would end in his life time. . . . just read new WT's and if you know what to look for , you will find all kinds of crapola. . . freedom in Christ. . . . John
December 28, 2002

Comment: To I am a Christian whose daughter is involved with the Witnesses: Prayer will help. Pray hard. If you can get her to read a book on Cults. . . I forget the name of the book, so someone else here might remember. There is a book called Crisis of Conscience - it is a Must Read. Also, JWinfoline. com and Tower to truth are both web sites of XJWs who are Christians, do not hate Jehovah's Witness and have a very loving ministry. There are tapes you can listen to and get helpful information. Maybe you can print some of the stories from Silentlams for her to read. OPPOSITION is one of the first things that she will be taught to expect. Show her the love of Christ, don't argue with her. Let her know you will "respect" her decision but that you need her to be informed first. She is already being taught that everything other than the Watchtower Society and their publication is from Satan's world. Never underestimate that power of the Holy Spirit in helping you in reaching your daughter. The JW's don't have that powerful force from God. God Bless, Claudine
December 28, 2002

Comment: Hallo everybody out there! I hope 2003 will bring healing for all those who need it,and everything good for all of us. Hoe great to see another person from Denmark,I thought I was the only one!
December 28, 2002

Comment: the mole i just got familiar with the last site and now its changed again. . . i was hoping to update everyone here. . . i have visited the other sites and most i have found are focused on slander. i wish to present the facts about my religion and why many are dropping our as inactive. the growth numbers presented are not accurate in any way. for every 5 they recruit there are three leaving. but they don't tell how many actually are inactive and gave up there faith in the organization and began to worship god instead. they want us to worship the organization and not Jehovah, making us believe they have the word of god whereas reality proves they have lied to us. . . mole
December 28, 2002

Comment: Thanks for getting rid of the new format and going back to the guest book. I said earlier that it would kill the discussion and it did(in my opinion). Thanks again
December 28, 2002

Comment: HI MOLE: You've got that right!!!!! Regarding the worship of WTS vs God! You sound good! Love, Claudine
December 28, 2002

Comment: JOHN FROM THE BRONX: Can you imagine how depressed the older JWs are who have been thru how many "certain dates" the end will come? I have heard many JW's put down the ones who sold their homes in 1974 to do more work in the door to door before the end was certain to come in Oct 1975. . . not exactly loving is it?
My heart goes out to the JWs who believed all of this and acted upon it with faithfulness only to be sneered at when 1975 came and went. Love, Claudine
December 28, 2002

Comment: It is more homey here without all the forums and hoopla. Kind of straight forward and simple like us. Love you guys! December 28, 2002

Comment: Hi. Thanks for this website. I read that some of the previous postings were destroyed by someone for the Watchtower Society and am not surprised. The organization is in a definite Armageddon frame of mind because of the post 911 talk of war in Iraq and their child molestation shame. Keep up the good work. I bet some people wanted to start Silentlambs chapters but the Watchtowerite sabotaged those too. Keep after them, Bill and Friends.
December 29, 2002

Comment: Hi Soapbox, mole, Jesika,etc. I'm happy the old guest book is back. and lambs roar is not bad either... but this is better because it's easy for all and , the rapid help abused ones can get on one guest book... the girls are very informative and the guys make the trolls but their foot into their mouths. I'll be the first to say we should not overly respond to the trolls and let them condemn themselves with their own words... happy to see all are well. thanks Bill now lets get back to work at hand. John
December 29, 2002

Comment: TO WHO WE DON'T THINK WE KNOW WHO YOU ARE: Long news articles should be posted in the Press Section. Maybe the problem was too many were using this like it was a forum and not a Guestbook. Most people who post here are not "forum groupies" and are only interested in one topic: sexually abused. Most who come here are looking for help and answers, not a lot of discussion. I had no idea that one had to get a whole new format to remove the crude and the rude. I had no idea that one needed a "forum" to protect the sexually abused from further abuse. If people are happy with silentlambs this way what is it to you? Lambsroar to dedicated to the "forum groupie" not the sexually abused. So you think the sexually abused now should be shamed because they are not computer savvy and prefer a Guestbook? And you believe they should be grateful to you? What is the matter with you? Why is it lots of XJWs are so bossy, want to shame people, and thinks they are owed a "special" place and everything has to be their way? You shame yourself by coming here,laying a guilt trip on the sexually abused who happen to like Silentlambs. that isn't very "cheerful." There is a difference between the plain sexually abused and a forum groupie. You need to get a life outside of cyber space. Bad energy is what you just shared here and not very inviting. Let it go.
December 29, 2002

Comment: One more post. Someone said the Watchtower Society "was growing" and that is untrue because the statistic is a lie. What is true is they are below the 0 growth mark overall worldwide but the Sunday after the 9 - 11 terrorist attack a lot of inactive JWs came (most not back since) and the Watchtower Society therefore got to count that month as a peak and claimed it for the overall worldwide statistic. Even though growth is good in Brazil and pretty good in Mexico, the true statistic would be more like -.5 to - 1% for the year worldwide. Right now elders are told to go back to inactive JWs including if they have been non - attending for up to 30 years. This is a desperate effort to boost up the statistics for the next year. Brooklyn also hopes that when war breaks out some of the inactives will pour into the halls then too. But true growth simply isn't there. The policies hiding pedophilia and sending convicted pedophiles back out preaching at doors all over the communities, the secret 10 year formal membership in the U. N. as a Non - Government Organization, and the like have severely demoralized elders and rank - and - file. I believe when the Circuit Overseers do their next pass through the circuits there will be some heads to roll, that more harshness and a down spiraling will continue. Brooklyn could even falsify the stats.

December 29, 2002

Comment: Mole: I want to share with you something that has changed me dramatically. When I was going to the Kingdom Hall I was always downhearted and joy eluded me. For one year since I left I have struggled with asking Jesus into my heart. When I fin anally got down on my knees and asked the downheartedness left and the joy slowly, but surely came into my life. I was so afraid to ask for Jesus to come into my life that it took one year to do it!! Other people notice the difference in me and I do too. I am never alone now. I can go anywhere and I have the love of Christ. There is a scripture and a chapter in the bible that says to ask Jesus into our hearts. . . JOHN FROM THE BRONX WHAT IS THE SCRIPTURE???? Anyway, Mole you are loved very much. Oh, also, once I asked for Jesus to come into my heart, the scriptures opened up in the most incredible way. Try it when you are ready. There is something so wrong with the WTS that they made us afraid of asking Jesus into our hearts and lives. You will be spiritually fed beyond what you could possibly imagine and have a personal relationship with God. . . and will scratch your head. . . and say why was I afraid of this? Love, Claudine

December 29, 2002

Comment: hi Soapbox; i think mole has his mind on straight. . . i will give you a few verses about putting Christ into your heart. . Eph. 3:14 - 21 gal chapter 4 - 5. etc, etc etc, as i looked this up in my study bible i realized i need a stronger pair of glasses or the lord to correct my eye sight. . LOL but there was 2 full pages of verse references to letting the lord into your heart. . . some thing the WT does not teach in the right terms. ask to MOLE as I'm sure he he knows the bible better than I. . one thing i can say for sure. . . there is nothing the WT or any other church can give me, that's eternal life. it only comes from the lord and no one else. . . freedom in Christ. . . John Help me to understand all these charges you make of me of complaining? The only comment I made was the night that it announced the new forum. And I said it would kill it. And it did. Period. I did not post on the new forum. Anyway with the reception you gave me, this will be my last comment on any Silent Lambs forum or guest book.

December 30, 2002

Comment: I think it is so important to be kind to one another on the Guest Book. When people start second guessing other people and speaking for them, it only leads to friction and hostility. None of us are mind readers. We can't speak for where other people are coming from. We can't say what they are thinking or feeling. It seems so important that people speak only for their own thoughts and feelings. It seems so important to give one another the benefit of a doubt. This should be a site of patience and compassion, not a place for derision or meanness. Mockery and unkindness can only destroy this site, make it crumble to its foundation. Silentlambs has a good foundation, one that has been and can be very, very beneficial if the guest book is not abused. Abusiveness of any kind is not constructive, and abusiveness of one another through the guest book can only erode the wonderful haven silentlambs has become to so many people. Instead of all the negative criticism there should be compassion and an effort to understand and support one another. Please, let's not turn this into a hate mongering place, to which people will stop turning if people start bringing it down. This is a good thing here, and we should be supporting and respecting those who took the time and made the effort to establish silentlambs in the first place. They are working hard and have put themselves on the line to help others. Please, don't let this turn into a boxing ring for hostility. We're all in this together. Take care, be good to yourselves and each other. Okay? I didn't know we were boxing, just thought it was a civil discussion. Adult - like even. These things need to be addressed, and I think this person should elaborate on these accusations. If they're true, then we need to know. If they're not, then we can surely go on. I for one and very curious as to how Bill has re - victimized the abuse victims. It's important for me to know. I am an abuse victim, and as I hope it's untrue, I surely have the right to know.

December 30, 2002

Comment:

I am not on a mailing list, what happened?

" At this point I had no one to run the forums but for a temporary time frame according to the impression I was given and I also was going to have to find a new webmaster. I also began thinking about what the forms had accomplished in the six weeks of operation and after reviewing the currency that little was being accomplished in a positive direction. I reviewed this information with key persons I had worked with since day one in silentlambs. Everyone had the same consensus, the forums needed to go. So on Friday 13 I emailed Matt and informed him of the decision and after that put up the announcement on the silentlambs forum. I gave everyone till Sunday at midnight to copy anything they might wish to keep from what was on the forum. Shortly thereafter I received an email from Matt stating he was not going to allow me to terminate the forum. My email response was the silentlambs forum was going to be terminated that was a final decision. Once again I was told that was not going to happen, in effect the silentlambs forum was being hijacked. It was at this point I was forced to make the concession that if Matt wanted to continue there had to be a non connection to “silentlambs”. If he wanted to set up his own forum there was not much I could do about that.

if this is true isn't matt in the wrong not bill?

December 30, 2002

Comment: If people like it here, and if something has been accomplished for the sexually abused here and thru Bill's commitment and hard work this is a Good Thing. If others what to go somewhere else and they get better support and someone else is more committed than Bill (which I doubt) then let them go there. Bill is not a liar. That I know. Let's show a little class and let it drop.

December 30, 2002

Comment: To David Race, thank you for your comments on pedophilia not being an incurable illness. You were the second person to tell me that recently. Now I am confused. I have been told that it is incurable and then to be told that it is treatable (if the person wants help), that it is curable really has me stumped. I would like to know more about pedophilia and what are the chances of recovery, what is the success rate for recovery, and so on. However, whether it is curable or not, treatable or not, it does not diminish the victimization of people molested by pedophiles at all. It is a serious crime that has very deep, long term effects on the victims, and I think the pedophiles should be put into mental hospitals where their illness can be treated and dealt with by the appropriate people, professionals trained to know how to help them and at the same time protect others from being victimized. Thanks again for your input. I appreciate the feedback. Karen

December 30, 2002

Comment: you know what?

I'm against no - one here, not Bill, not anyone. I'm just trying to find answers that's all. I don't think we need to just drop anything and I don't think that's the only way to show class. I spent many years as a Jehovah, and over those years things came up that made me question my faith. back then I let things drop, I tried to stop worrying about these things. where did it get me? nowhere that's where. I will no longer allow things to just be dropped to appease anyone. if bill is doing wrong things then we need to know. this is not the kingdom hall and bill is not an elder anymore, so i don't have to drop this. I'm confused about this issue and I want answers, and I don't need anyone telling me when I've had my fill, not you or anyone else. if your that interested I will let you know when I'm satisfied.

thank you.
BR>
December 30, 2002

Comment:
wow
what happened to the site today, it's been down all day.

December 31, 2002

Comment: Where I live we were without power for 24 hours . . . maybe the site was down for the same reason. Regarding letting it drop. Bill stated in his email what happened. I believe him. If you are a victim and are really concerned it would be better to contact Bill direct and ask him what happened. His email was very direct as to what happened. We should not be discussing Bill or anyone else here. No Bill is not an elder, he is a man who sacrificed his position as an elder to take a stand for what was wrong. Bill has earned my respect. Call Bill and then call Matt and get the truth. It is pointless to speculate/ talk/discuss/gossip. If what Bill has accomplished doesn't say enough about who he is, then nothing will. What is it exactly that has you shaken? Silentlambs.org is here, was down for 3 days and that was explained in the email to all of us. If you don't trust Bill to tell the truth about what happened, there is no one you can trust to tell you the truth. I suggest you contact Bill for what you need rather than speculate especially if you are an abuse victim. Since Bill is not an Elder, you can freely approach him without the fear of being "disfellowshipped." THIS SITE IS NOT ABOUT "HOW TO RUN A FORUM" BUT IS ABOUT THE SEXUALLY ABUSED GETTING JUSTICE, SUPPORT, INFORMATION, AND BEING HEARD ABOUT THEIR SEXUAL ABUSE. Bill has an 800# just for this purpose.

December 31, 2002

Comment: Karen: I saw a program about a hospital in California for the criminally insane. They have been taking the sexual offenders after they serve their sentences in regular prisons because they don't know what else to do with them. They get 90 days of treatment. The facility does not considered them "sick" and they try to change their behavior responses with therapy, teaching them empathy and giving them medication. We have a society that treats our lack of moral judgment as illness once it crosses over the line into harming others. We have become the land of no right or wrong. So they call "wrong" an illness. If we do something wrong, we can claim illness instead of responsibility. I think also that some pedophile/sex offenders have other mental problems that are illnesses and it all gets lumped together. I know I don't have the stomach to deal with sex offenders or trying to understand them. I have had to cut off some of my family over this issue. My loyalty, love, understanding and support goes to the victims - that is all the energy I have. My guess: if our laws gave life sentences to sex offenders, we would find that a lot of them would cure/stop themselves!!!!

Love, Claudine

December 31, 2002

Comment: Still here for you Bill. What's this I hear about a Lamb March for 2003

December 31, 2002

Comment: From: "silentlambs" Date: Tue, 31 Dec 2002 23:09:03 - 0600 To: Subject: Las Vegas Press Conference

If you can participate in a Press Conference in Las Vegas on January 9, 2003 please contact me ASAP. We would like to have abuse survivors present as part of the interview. If you do not want to talk that is fine but your support would be appreciated. Regards, bill

December 31, 2002

Comment: KIM, the attorney, is looking for RESEARCHERS... if you can help, please contact her directly: - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - Kimblee Norris at kdnorris@airmail.net wrote on 12/30/02 4:15 PM I need some help on a nationwide newspaper research project, looking for perps from JW congregations. Know anyone with expertise in this realm? kdn December 31, 2002

Comment: From: "silentlambs" info@silentlambs.org Date: Wed, 1 Jan 2003 08:18:28 - 0600 Subject: Press Release

- Distribute Freely - - - - - - - - - - - - PRESS RELEASE - - - - - - - - - - - - Tuesday, January 1, 2003 - - - - - - Contact: William H. Bowen: KY 270 - 527 - 5350, cell 270 - 559 - 7791 silentlambs.org - - - - - - Heidi Meyer: MN 763 - 360 - 2680 - - - - - - Sex Scandal in Jehovah's Witnesses Gains Worldwide Attention - - - - American Support Group Founder Featured On TV Shows In Six Countries - - - - While sexual abuse by Catholic clergy dominates American headlines, television programs in six countries are exposing the problem of molestation by Jehovah's Witnesses. - - - - A Kentucky man who founded a support group for men and women victimized by Jehovah's Witness leaders is featured in recent TV shows in Denmark, Germany, England and Australia, and will appear in a Canadian documentary later in January. - - - - Former Jehovah's Witness elder, William H. Bowen, started "silentlambs" - - www. silentlambs.org, a support group for victims of child abuse who were molested as or by Jehovah's Witnesses - - spoke out on 5 - 28 - 02 on the USA's NBC's Dateline program about how children are being harmed by Watchtower policy. - - - - Heidi Meyer, 22, of St. Paul, MN, who was featured on CNN's Connie Chung Tonight on August 14, 2002, has filed a lawsuit against her local Jehovah's Witnesses congregation and the World Headquarters of the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society located in Brooklyn, NY, for being silenced by elders when she came forward to report being molested by a fellow congregation member. "I was told I would be disfellowshipped if I told anyone. " She says, "The Governing Body are hurting abuse survivors and refusing to change policy, thus leaving children in danger. " - - - - The Australian program Sunday aired an hour long documentary in September 2002 that highlighted one case in which over 40 little boys were molested by a Jehovah's Witnesses member. In November the Denmark program Dags/Dato featured a case in which a father murdered a baby that resulted from the rape of his 12 year old daughter. The primary network in Slovenia had a documentary about Jehovah's Witnesses and child abuse in August. The German program ContraSte did an interview with two abuse survivors and the German network WDR will soon feature an hour long documentary which will feature an interview with a seventeen year old girl commenting on the problem who was molested by her father who was a Jehovah's Witness elder. - - - - Later this month, the Canadian CBC Program 5th Estate will air an hour long documentary which will include an interview with Bowen and a recent court case involving church elders' mishandling child abuse allegations. - - - - The BBC Panorama program has aired in over Comment: This story ran on page B1 of the Boston Globe on 1/1/2003. - - - - Suit charges church cover up - - - - Jehovah's Witness group is blamed in abuse of girl - - - - By Kathleen Burge, Globe Staff, 1/1/2003 - - - - A 14 - year - old Dorchester girl and her parents are suing the Jehovah's Witnesses, arguing that the religious group covered up the girl's sexual abuse by a Bible study leader and discouraged her parents from reporting the abuse to police or prosecutors. - - - - The girl, allegedly molested in her house by the son of a church elder from the Columbus Park Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Dorchester, was so traumatized by the abuse that she has spent most of the past three years involuntarily committed to local psychiatric hospitals, the lawsuit alleges. Her mother says that while church leaders coddled her daughter's abuser, they socially ostracized her for notifying law enforcement authorities and pressuring criminal charges, according to court papers. - - - - The lawsuit, filed last week in Suffolk Superior Court, highlights a sexual abuse scandal that has begun to envelop a religious group other than the Catholic Church: Jehovah's Witnesses, who claim 1 million followers in the United States and 6 million worldwide. - - - - Those who have filed lawsuits against the church - calling themselves "silent lambs," because they say the church has discouraged them from getting help - argue that doctrine requiring alleged sexual abuse victims to produce witnesses to their molestation breeds an environment that favors abusers and allows abuse to thrive. They also charge that the church's policy of investigating complaints on its own, and discouraging reports to authorities, is illegal. - - - - Officials at the Columbus Park Congregation could not be reached yesterday. At the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York Inc., also a defendant in the Suffolk lawsuit, an employee in the media center yesterday referred inquiries to the church's Web site, where church officials speak in general terms about their policy on child abuse. - - - - The church's third priority, after protecting victims and seeking help for perpetrators, is seeing that secular authorities are informed about the accusation, says Philip Brumley, general counsel for Jehovah's Witnesses, in a Web site video. A spokesman at the New York office did not return phone calls yesterday afternoon. - - - - The group was also named in a 2001 lawsuit in New Hampshire Superior Court involving two half - sisters who accused a man - the father of one, the stepfather of the other - of sexually abusing them as children in the 1980s. The man, now serving a 56 - year sentence for sexual abuse, was a member of the Wilton (N. H. ) Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. - - - - Although the women's mother repeatedly voiced suspicion of sexual abuse to church elders, they told her to keep it within the church, the lawsuit charges. The women charge that New Hampshire state law required the church leaders to report the abuse to authorities. - - - - The Suffolk lawsuit outlines similar charges that church elders in Dorchester tried to keep quiet allegiations of sexual abuse. The suit alleges that William Broadard, an elder in the Columbus Park Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, appointed his son as a "pioneer" in the church, even though he knew his son was a threat to children. - - - - The suit alleges that Ronald Broadard had a history of sexually and physically abusing children. - - - - Ronald Broadard went to the girl's home in Dorchester, specifically asking to "talk about God with the kids," according to the lawsuit. When the girl's parents agreed, he began meeting with the girl in their home in 1998, when she was about 10. But while he was visiting her from 1998 to 2000, they charge, he was molesting her. The girl's parents alerted authorities in the fall of 2000. The Globe's policy is not to name alleged victims of sexual abuse unless they agree to be identified. - - - - Even though Massachusetts did not then require clergy to report suspected child abuse - a law was passed last year after the Catholic priest sexual abuse scandal erupted - the girl's family argues that the church leaders were "guidance or family counselors," who were required to report potential child abuse. - - - - The girl's parents did not learn about the abuse until their daughter's therapist told them the girl had been trying to kill herself. The girl, who had always done well in school, started having trouble. "She became suicidal and started acting out and no longer was the angelic, well - behaved child that she used to be," said Stephen M. Born, the family's lawyer. - - - - In October 2000, Broadard was arrested and charged with two counts of indecent assault and battery on a child and one count of assault and battery. But the charges were dismissed the following year. The lawsuit alleges the charges were dropped because Broadard was found incompetent to stand trial. Suffolk County prosecutors could not ascertain yesterday afternoon why the charges were dropped. - - - - Meanwhile, according to the lawsuit, the local Jehovah's Witnesses elders, including Broadard's father, decided only to "reprove" him. He kept his title and responsibilities within the church, the lawsuit charges. - - - - And when the girl's mother told church leaders about the abuse, they told her she should not talk about it. The church elders told her they would handle the matter and urged her to "pray more about the situation," the lawsuit charges. - - - - The girl was committed to psychiatric institutions after she was diagnosed with severe post - traumatic stress disorder resulting from the abuse, Born said. "This is almost like a fresh wound," he said. "The effect of it, the trauma, has been dramatic. " - - - - Kathleen Burge can be reached at kburge@globe.com. - - - - © Copyright 2002 Globe Newspaper Company. January 1, 2003
Comment: when i was a child i was molested by a Jehovah Witness married man with children. . . the elders did nothing about it. . . as a matter of fact. . . they told me to get used to the idea that men would want me because i was so beautiful. . . i was 13 years old! Today, I am 41, married, with children of my own,.i escaped this mind controlling organization when i was in my 20's. . . the best thing i ever did for my life. . . I saved myself. . . today, when i die, I can truly say, "I am free, the truth has set me free."
January 1, 2003

Comment: Dear "The truth has set you free" thanks for posting. It really helps victims to know that they are not alone in their experience. Brave Girl! THANK YOU.  JOHN WALSH has a show on daytime TV and I have emailed him with information about Silentlams. Might get some attention if others did the same. Please note that there is a disclaimer and should be read before you email him. I just gave him the web site addy Bill's name and the 800 number to talk with Bill. I would not advise victims to write their stories because after you read the disclaimer you will understand they can use your story & name without any permission. NBC/John Walsh can read them here. I also voted Bill Bowen as a "Neighborhood Hero" something they have the their web site. The more of us that contact John Walsh the more likely he will take notice. Thanks, Claudine
January 1, 2003

Comment: Hi, Claudine, I appreciate your comments, too, about pedophiles and victims. You are so right, that the victims need support. All the support they can get! I am so glad Bill Bowen started silientlams, that he is doing all he can to help victims. I really respect and admire him for this! He really seems to have gotten "the ball rolling"! It's exciting seeing all the media attention that is being drawn because of him and others, not just in the United States, but worldwide. It has taken so much courage for these people and for victims to speak up and put themselves on the line as they have in the face of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society and other Jehovah's Witnesses. In time Jehovah's Witnesses everywhere can come to see how they have been misled. Also, I'm so happy about your contacting John Walsh! What a great idea! I want to thank you for telling me about the site Patience has set up on PTSD. I looked it over and was very impressed. There is so much information there! I haven't read 'Crisis of Conscience' yet, but I would like to. Thanks again. Karen
January 1, 2003

Comment: Hi, Claudine, I wanted to let you know that I followed your excellent example and advice and sent comments to John Walsh. I appreciate the lead you took in this! I have to admit that I was very nervous when I sent him that e - mail. Thump, thump my heart went, partly because I am not personally a victim of sexual abuse by a Jehovah's Witness and probably partly because of my annoying anxiety disorder. I take 80 milligrams a day of Paxil, which really helps take a big edge off my disorder. Three cheers for Paxil! Three cheers for you contacting John Walsh and for encouraging others to do the same! Thanks. Karen
January 1, 2003

Comment: Well, I am glad that this is back to the Guestbook. I understand why the "forums" took place. I did not support that way. Truly I have no bitterness towards "Jehovah Witnesses" any more than I do the "Iraqi" people. But their leaderships are cruel. I know that they know of no other possible way to live. I know that they think that I am evil itself. Life outside of the collective is worse than to live with rapists, adulterers, and even a life of violence. Am I saying that every "Jehovah Witness" is one of these three things? No, not necessarily. What I am saying is that enduring one (or all) of these three things is a price worth a living in the so called "Hive mind." And, I am here saying the that ideology that the "Headquarters" tells those of you that "I" (Jay) worship "Satan" that he has my back. "It" (Satan) has my back. . . ? Well, I doubt that. Evil has little use for me. And so do the Jehovah Witness like people. I refuse to hurt people with malice intent. I refuse to do evil. I refuse to call "control" love. I refuse to be controlled. And it is love that if we ever meet you will receive. A love that you may not understand in the beginning. I have hope that one day "love" as opposed to lust will empower all people. All you have to do to even begin to understand me is stop destroying yourself or others. Do not hurt people. Not with words or actions. (Sometimes this is really hard) I am not calling for pacifism; Not at all. Evil must be opposed sometimes with force. Justice must be what we seek. (Which is to restore faith in the community) My ways might not be yours and that is OK. But know this... . . I pray that those of you who come here and have been a victim of the horrid crimes that have been described here again, and again, and again. I pray that one day you are a person who loves without conditions. I know that these are things that cannot be repaired. But it is the veil of secrecy that allows it to go on. All one has to do is say no I will not be silent or controlled. Period. Jesus did; and so can you. - Jay
January 1, 2003

Comment: Karen: I am glad you found Patience helpful. . . I felt kind of scared about posting with John Walsh too! The disclaimer was "exploitative" and one of the two biggest triggers for PTS is being exploited and betrayed. I took Paxil 10 milligrams a day and it was too much. I got really thin, didn't even crave chocolate!!! But I also caught myself angry one day, with no feelings of empathy or even a "touch" of wanting to relate to the other person. . . just mean and ugly. So I weaned myself off. But miraculously after a particularly horrible week full of crisis. . . the anxiety disappeared for the first time in my life. I occasionally use a oil of essence, that makes me giddy but relaxed. I have valium for emergency. Anyway, I like your positive enthusiasm. *CLAUDINE
January 2, 2003

Comment: thank you for your website. i have also emailed you because i need help.
January 2, 2003

Comment: mole an interview i conducted on an unsuspecting witness who came to my home. . . . . . . . . . Visitor, "brother you have been infrequent to the meeting and been ignoring your duties?" . . . response, "i have seen so much and i have been told to overlook such things because they are the work of Satan. These things are happening I'm our own hall I'm just not sure right now." . . . . . . Brother, " don't worry about such things for Jehovah in his own due time will correct this." . . . response, "so you are telling me that wrongfully disallowing someone and the rumors of cover ups are to be ignored?" . . . . visitor, "yes. these things are foretold and your faith to Jehovah should be of your one and only concern." . . response, "I'm confused? are we not supposed to keep the congregation clean?" . . visitor, " yes, but we must not lose focus and the discreet slave class knows what to do but you should keep up the preaching work and forget the rest of what you heard because these things are meant to be." . . . . THIS IS THE BEST EXAMPLE OF WHAT AND HOW THOSE IN THE ORGANIZATION THINK AND PROCESS INFORMATION. THIS SHOULD ANSWER WHY PEOPLE ARE RAPED AND INJURED IN OUR HALL AND THIS CAME FROM A CIRCUIT OVERSEER DOING A SHEPHERDING CALL TO ME. SOME CALL IT BRAINWASHING OR OTHERS MAY SAY THIS PERSON HAS BEEN FULLY INDOCTRINATED IN THE GRAND LIE AND FALSE REPRESENTATION OF MY GOD JEHOVAH. THEY USE MY GODS NAME IN VAIN AND IGNORE HIS SON CHRIST. . . the mole*
January 2, 2003

Comment: Dear Mole: If you want to email me at realsimple@mchsi.com - if you want to talk. I can tell you are rightfully outraged. John from the Bronx is really good to talk to - he has helped me sooo much. We have had bible studies on the phone. I can't give his email out without his permission. Email me for some support - okay??? It is wonderful that you see the truth and what you say about how the name of Jehovah is being used worthless and his precious son being ignored. Your visitor is a "company" man. I am and I hope you are too, thanking God for loving you so much. Love, Claudine/soapbox PS: don't like the name soapbox anymore so I don't use it. Don't want to be on my soapbox anymore!
January 2, 2003

Comment: NEW LIGHT: part of my healing process has been to stop explaining myself. Stop explaining why. I have post trauma stress, or why I say no to something that is so obvious as to why I say no. The minute I start explaining my energy is drained because I am on the defense. BILL wrote us two emails "explaining" what happened and I realize to ask him to explain anymore is to put him on the defense, drain him of his energy. He explained it already. So I retract my statement to contact Bill with your doubts. "Us" includes me, who have been abused, who have issues. who have to learn to trust our own instincts, assess a situation on our own, think for ourselves and have some way that works to measure a situation to keep us safe. I know what Bill has done and accomplished, so I don't doubt his intentions, or focus, or priorities. I don't know Matt, he appeared out of no where and he has not been there for two plus years for the silentlambs. I don't ask others to "explain" to me anymore, just as I don't explain to them. If someone lies to me, then they are out. If someone questions my integrity, they are out. I can read people and trust myself to read them correctly. . . took 55 years to do this. If someone does not have the insight to read me correctly, I don't take it personally but unless my actions are questionable I don't explain. It took a lot of work to learn to do this. I am sorry that I said to contact Bill. He already explained. If you don't trust yourself to judge for yourself. . . that is a place to start. JW. com has Rev's side, and you can read it. Learn to trust your thinking. Make it work, think hard. I know that you can do it!!!!! If you make the wrong "judgment" so what???? We learn from past mistakes. Don't give your power away by explaining or asking others to explain. . . . that is a WTS thing but it is a life thing too. Use your own thought process, pray for truth to be revealed to you and it will. I do know what it is like to trust absolutely nothing and no one. I know the loneliness & fear of trusting no one. I am so sorry if I was rude and thoughtless about your fears. I had a friend Rip and he told me something many years ago, that I didn't understand: he said that once I learn to trust myself, trusting others won't be an issue. Took me 20 years or more to understand what he said. I would add that trusting God comes first, then from there we trust ourselves. I am explaining this to you because I was wrong. Love, Claudine
January 2, 2003
Comment: From: "silentlambs" info@silentlambs.org Date: Thu, 2 Jan 2003 22:00:31 - 0600 To: info@silentlambs.org Subject: Las Vegas - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - Just a brief update, we have at least six person who have expressed interest in attending the press conference. It will be a great encouragement to the abuse survivors who are part of the lawsuit. We are thinking of having lunch together after the 10:30 press conference on Thursday the 9th. We will have a press release going out on the 7th with all the details. We look forward to delivering a few "lambs" to the local kingdom halls. Along with a new surprise. For any that can it will be a good opportunity to get to know and encourage fellow silent lambs. We hope you can make it! Viva Las Vegas! bill - - - - - - - - - - - - - Wow, just reading that makes me wish I could hop on a plane and be there with those guys for the press conference and lamb deliveries! Hope all you folks in the Las Vegas area will be able to attend! /SLC

January 2, 2003

Comment: SLC: You misconstrued what I said, and took the point I was making out of context. You need to read my post again, the whole thing and get the jest of what I was saying. I am much more concerned in how I disappoint myself than how I have disappointed you. I have disappointed people who are really dear to me. . . your disappointment isn't important to me. I don't mean to be rude, but really why would you be so important to me that I would care if I disappointed you? *Claudine**

January 2, 2003

Comment: can someone tell me what BTW means. . . please? For a long time I thought it was someone's "handle" LOL. . . starting to realize that it means something. A code?

January 3, 2003

Comment: To whoever asked about BTW. . . it means By The Way. . . And another good one is FWIW (For What It's Worth). And another one is OTOH (On the Other Hand), etc.:) /SLC

January 3, 2003

Comment: Hello everybody! It's nice to see you all again, Claudine, Jay, Jesika, etc. Welcome to Karen! Welcome to all the newbies posting their comments. Linda Thoman Linthoman@hotmail. com

January 3, 2003

Comment: New Lamb: not just possible probable. You might want to write your story in the Abused Lambs Section or call Bill so he can document "another lambs". . . but you are not silent!!! And that is the goal. Keep us informed. Remember that however you are treated you are not alone. Most here have been thru it.

January 3, 2003

Comment: Re: 'Mole's' post about his discussion with his "visitor". I have been trying to understand the reasoning this Witness presented to 'Mole'. The mind set the Jehovah's Witnesses have been pulled into seems bizarre. The "logic" with which they are being manipulated seems (to me) so convoluted, I just can't get it. I can't get it straight. It seems (to me) that the Jehovah's Witnesses have been so indoctrinated that they can't see straight. Are they being taught that the congregation must be kept clean, and on the other hand JW's must wait on Jehovah? Wait a minute -- the congregation being kept clean part is kicking out the victims, and the waiting on Jehovah part is keeping in the perpetrators? Have I got it straight? If I was a Jehovah's Witness right now I don't think I would know if I was coming or going, what is up or what is down. As a former Witness I feel so relieved to be out of the whole thing. Those poor people. I am so glad silentlambs is here for them. Karen

January 3, 2003

Comment: thank you for you're encouragement. i am new lamb and i sign . . uk. . . because i am British. i probably will put my story down in writing. i believe in happy endings, so i am waiting for the police to do there work!!! It is a anxious time for me cause i live in the same towm as this person and go to the same meetings!! but not for long as i am sick and tired of it all now. I just want to be at peace with myself and my little family. Thank you once again. i now know i am not alone!!!!. . . uk. . .

January 3, 2003

Comment: In order to break the power of Satan in your life, you must put on the "armor of God" including the "belt of Truth".

January 3, 2003

Comment: Victims of LELAND ELWYN DAVIES from Boulder, COLORADO - ???. If you have information concerning victims of Leland Elwyn Davies, a convicted sexual offender from Boulder, Colorado, please contact Kim.

January 3, 2003
January 4, 2003

Comment: Karen: this is what I think, for what it is worth. We know that God hates a liar and that Satan is the Father of the Lie. Jesus is the Truth etc. . . the bible speaks about our perceptive powers. So truth sets us free and lies keep us in bondage to living a lie. There is no such thing as one lie. Lie upon lie until a person has no perceptive power left. That is what I believe happens to JWs. . . also they are lovers of the law and not lovers of God or people. Their perceptive powers are totally damaged, and this is root of their convoluted thinking. They lack love for their brothers and sisters, and the people in the world. Anyone who would not protect children from pedophiles and uses scripture to back it up. . . lacks the love of God and the love of neighbor. It is about as dark as it gets!!!! I can't believe I was ever involved in this either. . . boy am I ashamed. *Claudine

January 4, 2003

Comment: I want to thank you and this website for helping me come to terms with the abuse i suffered as a child, and realizing finally i was not to blame for it. I never could have imagined there were thousands more that had to grow up feeling the way i did, and not receive the help that we truly deserve. Thank you, and God bless all of you.

January 4, 2003

Comment: Claudine, it does seem like people's perceptive powers often dwindle away after they become Jehovah's Witnesses! I think that many of them are very loving people, it's just that they have been so misguided. I really believe my sister, for instance, truly loves and cares about people (I caught her looking at me with a little smile on her face and a lot of love in her eyes, though she won't talk to me and doesn't want me to talk to her), she is just so conscientiously steeped in the religion that she is totally hooked into whatever is taught by it and unquestioningly accepts those teachings, because she is in "The Truth". There are so many beautiful, kind, and caring people heartbreakingly caught up in that snare. Satan must get a 'hoot' out of seeing victims being disfellowshipped and offenders being coddled (so to speak). What a lark this must be for him! I can just picture him gleefully rubbing his hands together and grinning and laughing away over this whole mess. Everybody hang in there. Karen

January 4, 2003

Comment: "Claudine, it does seem like people's perceptive powers often dwindle away after they become Jehovah's Witnesses! I think that many of them are very loving people, it's just that they have been so misguided. *

Karen, I know of an entire congregation that is just like this. The most loving people you could ever imagine. It's small, only about 30 - 40 publishers, but real good people. They're all 'refugees' from the east coast congregations. It's a shame that they're so blinded.

January 4, 2003

Comment: Karen and Poster re:30 - 40 Loving JWs: Think about this: Satan is really getting a hoot out of the ones who STAY! Someone disfellowshipped has something going for them. . . they can see & didn't go along to get along. When I stopped going to meetings, I was scared thinking I was really offending God. A Witness said to me: Satan doesn't want you at the meetings. A neighbor said: Jesus doesn't want you at the meetings!!!!!!! I wasn't quite convinced but I did laugh a warm laugh and never did I return to the meetings. Satan loves what the WTS does to families. . . a sister who can't speak to you, warm people isolated and believing lies, partaking in the disfellowshipping by shunning those they love. . . good people turned ugly. It doesn't make the angel's sing that is for sure. I have found that the XJWs that find Christ are absolutely the finest Christians I have ever met - so far this is true. Not sure why this is so, but I can't think of one who isn't intelligent, has extreme integrity and very loving. I am glad you are here Karen and the other poster who cares. *Claudine*UK: Have you emailed Bill Bowen? Be a good idea. He can put you in touch with those who have filed law suits. He might have someone in the UK for you to work with. You have to judge for yourself if a lawsuit is worth the emotional expense. I went to court once, wasn't prepared and it wiped me out. But you sound very upbeat!! And not depressed, so it might be a great validation and maybe some $$$. I would ask a lot of questions about the process of a lawsuit, court and then decide. I have been extremely emotionally fragile with PTS so that is where I am coming from. I don't think on my feet. . . . I get slaughtered by people. Whatever you do, there is not one of us who won't support you. One more thing, there is a difference between the criminal prosecution and a civil suit. Read the transcripts of the court cases we have here on SL. They will make you sick. . . but there is victory too. Love, Claudine

January 4, 2003

Comment: Claudine, I agree there, but Satan certainly doesn't care for the good hearted people in the organization. Remember, the NT says that in the end God reads the heart, so I believe those good hearted people (like my parents) will be saved. The only thing is, and this I worry about sometimes, if there's any questions or doubts in their minds, and they don't investigate. . . . . well chances are, God will hold that against them. Of course that is only a guess, and only God knows these things. But I wonder. . . . is the 'truth' harder on those that are kind? Within the organization, is Satan working hard on them? I never was one of the true believers, so I wouldn't have a clue myself.

RevMalk

January 5, 2003

Comment: Hi Rev: That is true, thank God that it is He that can read the hearts! I have a real hard time with thinking people who are sweet won't meet God's approval and yet the Bible says clearly the road is narrow, and that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. But we know that the robber next to Jesus on the cross will be in Paradise!!! I heard so much destruction of the "wicked" from the WTS for 18 years, that I do not have a sound scriptural thought on the subject. But we do know that people humiliating themselves, being humiliated, rather than being humble is exactly what Satan wants. Jesus even on the cross said "they know not what they do." And He was much upset with the ones who lead people away from God, rather than the ones who were lead away. *You can see how my thoughts have not come to some dogmatic conclusion. I have a lot of love for the JWs and know they are deceived by the WTS. Every Christian should be equipped to witness to a JW when they knock at our doors. I tell people to just show the love of Christ; it hurts to see people oppressed and living a lie and worshipping some "thing" like the WTS. God is grieving for them. *Claudine*****

January 5, 2003

Comment: I have been reading the quest book for this month, and enjoying the discussion. I'm one of those "forum groupies". I did want to comment about about "mole" visit and what mole was told. Having been a JW my entire life, I know that most of them know nothing about any of this. They are told not to listen to any negative talk or media about JW. I would turn off a TV show, i never for ONE moment would have believed any negative accusation about JW. And this was in spite of the fact i had been abused myself terribly. I had to get so depressed that i could no longer function, and seek therapy. And it took 2 years before i would listen to my therapist. Every time he would say something I'd say"but the elders say, the WT says". Finally my eyes opened and i was able to get some help from the therapy. Even then did not think to leave the Org. Finally one day, one of my abuser's name was mentioned on stage by a CO, essentially giving this person a good reference. I think that was it. i could barely contain myself. I left and have seldom been back. I was very outspoken with the elders about this, so no one has called on us in years. it has made me very bitter. This has destroyed my life and reputation in my area. I'll never have any respect from JW in this area. I'm still in therapy, and trying to put this behind me, b/c hate and bitterness can kill u. literally. BTW, I'm not DF/Da. I'm very grateful to Bill for having the courage to bring all this abuse out in the open. If Bill never did another thing, it would be more than anyone else has done. Who knew when he started this HOW MANY people would come forward?Wow, all these people and how to help! I personally enjoy some of the other forums on the net for XJW - although i really still do not consider myself one. I don't think Silent Lambs has to be everything to everyone. First and foremost it is for abuse survivors . All the discussion boards in the world will not help if we can't get the media/lawyers involved. I am waiting for SL to get a spot on Oprah or Dr. Phil. For all i have said, i still believe Jehovah takes care of things in time. How do we know this is not His hand in exposing the corruption in the Org? Just a few thoughts.

Comment: O LORD, Make me an instrument of Your Peace Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is discord, unity; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is error, truth; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is sadness, joy; Where there is darkness, light. O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled, as to console; To be understood, as to understand; To be loved, as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; It is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen Attributed to St. Francis of Assisi "If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other."
- Mother Teresa