I am shocked that there are so many victims of sexual abuse. It is obvious to me that these brothers or sisters have broken the law but I believe that overall Jehovah's Witnesses do not tolerate sex offenders but I can see how through being disfellowshipped and being reinstated (trust) that it could happen again if the person isn't reported to the police. Something does have to be done. There are so many new ones coming in and who really KNOWS them and what they do. The kingdom hall is open to the public and with that you get "surprises". Once a person goes commits a crime such as raping, fondling another, he or she should not be permitted to have authority through privileges to have a 2nd chance without proof of intense counseling through a sexual offender program and even then should not Ever be left alone to promote God's word without compliment by 2 others. I feel for all of you who are and were abused. May you find your own peace and love yourself. LochessEZ@aol.com

I admire and applaud courageous demonstrations of honor and integrity, such as this Website, which is doing a valuable service in making the truth known about the Watchtower Society, and the associated religion who have appropriated the name "Jehovah's Witnesses" (a term that I find very difficult to write these days without enclosing it in quotes). There are many kinds of victims of the Watchtower Society. I was involved with the Witnesses for over 30 years, and feel that the harm done to me, my family, and our interests through that association was immeasurable. Perhaps there were some benefits as well, although on balance, if I could relive those years I would choose to have been free of the mental and spiritual shackles placed on me by the organization. I have been encouraged to tell my personal story, and it will likely appear elsewhere online in the future.

There is nothing on your website that I had not already suspected. One real obvious huge error the watchtower society has made is all the talks, all the articles and there has been no instruction to the "sheep" about how to detect a pedophile, all the signs of a distressed child, and what to do and what a parent can expect from the watchtower or the elders in terms of support, what appropriate questions to expect and what inappropriate questions to not answer. The Society has kept this secret, the policy and procedure is secret. This leaves is open for the elder's to abuse this policy, do what they want - and no one knows better.

My other observation is that the articles about the Catholic Church and "their pedophiles" printed in the Awake 1990 gives the illusion that this problem does not exist in WTS.

I have heard first hand three different "child abuse" stories. Two were elders - one was molesting his own daughter when she was a child and then his granddaughter - he died long before anything was revealed. The other elder molested a newly baptized sister's little boy - never went to the police, man was never disfellowshipped. This elder is now dead. The other was a young sister, 3 kids and found out her "brother" husband was molesting their children - she got the two witness routing even though 2 of the 3 children were old enough to speak out - they had not been molested together. Her husband not only was not disfellowshipped but took up with another young sister with a child. The sister with the three children lost custody of her children; not one witness from her congregation would help her.

These stories have been in the back of my head for awhile now and what I have observed at my local Kingdom Hall. I would never go to them with a problem or concern. When I first got here, I told a brother who I thought was an elder that my husband had "raped me" and that I was distraught, very out of it angry - he had the typical response and asked if I was giving my husband his due. Anyway, I realized right there that this is nowhere for me to get any help spiritually.

You web site is a validation of what I already knew and it does make me heartsick to realize that this organization may not - probably not- have Jehovah's backing or Holy spirit. And I really don't know what to do.

I completely appreciate the courage of everyone who has contributed to the web site.

I am CEM and my e-mail address is cematlake@hotmail.com Thank you again for your intelligence, your integrity and your love for the truth.

I am not, nor would I ever consider being a JW. Frighteningly, my daughter is studying with them, and I fear for my grand daughter. So I am not here to ostracize them... but after reading so many comments about the validity of the "attacks" on these little lambs, I have to make some comments. First of all, it is only those of you who have NOT been raped or molested, that can question the honesty or sincerity of those who have shared their horrific experiences of violation! I was molested at age 5 by an uncle, someone who violated many young girls, and who was able to get away with it until his OWN 2 daughters went to the police 15 years ago, when they were teenagers! He denied it until my sisters and I agreed to appear in court to testify against him... I am 50 years old... think of all the young girls he was able to violate in all those years, and I personally know of several. This man only got 10 years in prison, because he was only held accountable for his own 2 daughters. I was also raped by my step brother when I was 16, who had also molested me for several years before he raped me. This is a GLOBAL problem! So those of you who question the validity of the words spoken out by these "silent lambs", it isn't just JW girls who were violated... we are ALL silent lambs. I know the personal horror, and I know the fear that the perpetrator instills in you to keep you "silent." It isn't because we don't want to tell, it isn't because we enjoyed our experience. It is because of the terrifying consequences that these evil men threaten you with to keep you from telling their "dirty little secret", not to mention that they also tell you that nobody will believe you anyway! Unless you have lived with the fear, unless you have lived with the torment, unless you have lived with the psychological scars that will never really heal, no matter how much therapy, you have no right to question whether or not these lambs are telling the truth. Only each little lamb knows the depth of their story, the incomprehensible horror, the nightmares, and the true hatred they feel. And without God Almighty in your life, that hatred eats away at you, like a cancer. We each have a story to tell, whether it be a JW victim, or the victim of a family, "friend" or stranger, and it is about time these stories are being told! I praise God in Heaven for this site, and that HE gave Bill the courage to leave the organization and fight for the rights of all the little lambs in the world! And I will say, until you have walked in OUR shoes, been where WE have been, seen what WE have seen, felt what WE have felt, you have no right to question the validity of OUR stories. Let's hear it for the little lambs... let us ROAR!!!

yes, there is one JW Awake magazine on child victims of sex molesters requesting that these victims to forgive and forget then keep on working for JW. This made me so sick that these JW bastards thought it was nothing to be sexually molested while being a child. It is a shame that these JW elders usually protect these molesters.

I myself was a victim of physical, verbal & sexual abuse and when I went to the elders and to went to my mother and father and nothing was done to any of my abusers. This is sad because I've been the one who has suffered all these years and still to this day it still isn't viewed as a bad thing. Sad because my brother was one of my abusers and he feels he did nothing wrong because he said "that was before he was in the truth". He was old enough to know better and I do hope that people do come forward because believe you me the years of hiding and holding all this in will take a toll on your body and mind. Jehovah will not leave you behind because you are trying to do what is right. My abuse happened in the 70's and to this day I wish they would be held accountable for what they did. I've heard its been too long; I need to let it go; You have your life now and they have theirs don't mess it up for them, etc. I could go on with many more and I know you get the jest. I don't know if this will help anyone. This is part my story. A sad OH teenager that's on the road to to being a thriving adult.

Good web site. I am a USA Anglican and began dating a JEW living in Mexico City. The more I get to know about the Jew's the greater my concern for my (girl) friend. In searching sites concerning Cults I found "Silent Lambs". The girl I'm dating has been so incredibly brainwashed that even though I've completed a 4 year course in the church for the diaconate and another 4 year course from the U. of the South at Sweeney, TN, for the priest hood and general ministry..... I'm finding myself ill prepared to deal with this woman's distorted beliefs and perceptions. I am currently ordering some research books from Amazon.com but would also welcome feed back from anyone interested in giving it. Sincerely . . . . Kent kentnyce@msn.com

I was robbed of the memory of my molester. Although my family figured out who it was, they didn't tell me till after he'd died. Now I can't close the chapter and am in great conflict. What if he's resurrected and I'm killed off at Armageddon because I can't handle the crap he left and am a huge marijuana user. I died at 6 years of age, I really don't want to die again! I'm studying still, finally came back into the truth after 8 years and it's helping a little. However, this policy of two witnesses and they can't even be different incidents, ridiculous. I asked the sister I'm studying with about this and she said that the policies have changed now and the brothers have learnt from the past. That does not help all the silent lambs who were and still are persecuted for being a survivor. What would the elders prefer? Us to shrivel up, discontinue to function and die, so that their problems fixed. Who cares about the image. We're imperfect, there will always be a scandal. But not like this, it should have never been like this. The children are the future. And the futures looking bleak. Most of us are pretty screwed up. Especially my generation. I'm 24, feel like 84. Ok, I'm done rambling. I just hope anyone reading this can reach out and rely on Jehovah, someone who won't fail you, he is not an imperfect human after all. And I cling to the hope that he's going to wipe out every tear from my eye. Ah, the relief! Thanx for listening. Ramona.

I do believe that child abuse and molestation occurs and that thought makes me absolutely sick to my stomach but how could anyone (except Catholics) protect these molesters? I think everyone needs a good education about molestation. Jehovah's Witnesses are the most docile people in the world. I do not believe they knowingly protect child molesters. They share the American way of "innocent until proven guilty in a court of law".

Having been raised a JW & having seen firsthand that it is a precedent, not an anomaly, of the WBTS to cover up child abuse, I salute your bravery & conviction. It is an abomination to allow these people in, especially w/ the recidivism rate of sex offenders being in the 95% range. 95%!!! Even when castrated a treatment too good for these monsters) The rate is 60%, a margin still far too high! If they really wanted to put it in "Jehovah's hands" they would follow the federal Mondale statute of 1974 & turn these animals in. But, they put their own "wisdom" above the welfare of children, making them accessories to the abomination of child molestation, & a society that doesn't protect children is destined to fall, & CANNOT be GOD's organization on earth as they rape & allow to be raped, their own children.

Your web site is propaganda at its worst. How would you feel if people put an advertisement in your local newspaper: "Have your children been molested by William Bowen?" That is what you are doing when you suggest placing ads that state "Is a pedophile knocking at your door?" It is merely innuendo, designed to associate Jehovah's Witnesses with the worst and most despicable elements of society.

If the situation in the JW organization is really the way you describe it, then why are you advertising it to pedophiles everywhere? All they have to do now, according to your web page, is start attending meetings at the Kingdom Hall or go to a convention of Jehovah's Witnesses. Pedophiles everywhere will be thanking you for the brilliant tip-off! Hope you're proud of yourself!

It's obvious that either you are not very intelligent or your web site is a blatant attempt to persecute and harass the members of the Jehovah's Witness faith.

If you were really concerned about the children, your web site would be devoted to helping children throughout the country who are at risk of sexual molestation, not just to a minority that amounts to less than half of one percent of the population.

Don't forget, God knows the truth, and no amount of clever wording or insinuation will deceive him.

I have some comments to make as to the last entry. First of all, Bill is NOT trying to advertise to Pedophiles that the organization is where they need to head to. What Bill IS trying to do is to EXPOSE the organization AND the pedophiles, further enabling all of us to protect innocent victims and giving survivors a place to come to... for friendship, for understanding, for support... something the organization should be doing, and IF they have, they have done it rather poorly. Bill SHOULD be proud of himself... for taking the BIG step towards helping survivors and potential victim... to come forward, to tell their story, to help the healing process to finally begin! What Bill did took great courage, not to mention great faith in God. IF he still belonged to the organization, I believe he would be and probably was an exemplary Elder, one of the few, obviously. And it is my firm belief that what he is doing will be rewarded in Heaven. We will all get our rewards, whether good or bad, at Jesus' second coming, visibly. NOT invisibly as the organization so cunningly teaches those poor little sheep who have no conception of what the TRUTH really is. And I believe that Bill will get a wonderful crown for speaking out and protecting Gods little sheep! But I have to hand it to you, you are right in your last statement... God knows the truth, and no amount of clever wording or insinuations will deceive Him. The bible clearly tells us that the TRUTH shall set us free. And that "by their works, you will know them." The organization is caught, and have done much to protect their financial empire... recently breaking off into 4 separate organizations... they can run, but they cannot hide. No mountain in the world is big enough or deep enough for them to hide. God knows our hears and our minds. winrock2@aol.com

"This case is simply about making Jehovah's Witnesses understand they have the same rules as everyone else."

About time, use this to force across the board changes, allow blood transfusions, organ transplants, holidays, in vitro fertilization, and the conformity to the usual things like a singular ordained minister, divorce, etc. They can probably maintain the prohibition on cigarettes since that's just PC now anyway. Creating a legal precedent should mean an end to many other things within these closed societies and make them more mainstream in accordance with modern societal opinions of what's acceptable and what's not. Perhaps you can soon sue for libel and slander if disfellowshipped for a reason not illegal in the state it happens in.

But also, if you or others feel trapped by your past and your faith cannot bring you through it, perhaps it's time to look for an alternative belief system.

Of course this sort of institutional condoning-through-silence or blame-the-victim isn't acceptable, not for the WTS, the LDS church, or the Roman Catholics, all (considering this site) who have been accused of this sort of backwards thinking. Just be sure the end result and ramifications are what you intend, or you can probably get money from some Protestant ministries to help with the legal bills if the goal's to get rid of the WTS. Some churches have legal funds and spend as much time in courts as anything else.

I love your website! And I want to help your cause. I live in an apartment complex that "Witnesses" leave literature in the laundry rooms. There are about 20 sets of washers and dryers in this place! Anyway if you would like I would be glad to leave some of YOUR literature in the very same place that they are leaving THERE'S.

But please let me tell you my story. I grew up attending, and only merely attending, a Mormon church with my mother and sisters, so I can sympathize with you. Both are religious cults of a very similar nature. And as I am not impressed with religion at all because I am an Atheist, the Jehovah Witnesses are of particular interest to me because my mother was one before she joined the Mormons. Of course, the Catholics are having similar problems with covering up their own molestatations (religious groups have been responsible for it for years) and its high time someone try and stop them! So if you would like me to help in this way I would be happy to. If you need some other assistance, let me know and I'll see what I can do. Mike Thomas.

PS I'm going to see if I can find the equivalent of your site vis-a-vis Mormons.

The covering up of domestic violent and sexual assault issues of adult "Witnesses" are by far even more numerous that I am aware of, self included. Be patient for more info from me. It takes time to come out in the open. We need to balance loyalties and many of the victims that I know are still in need of encouragement to do so. I'm from the New England area, USA and I'm sure the victims that I am having personal dealings with have not addressed such yet through your website or any other. I do know though that they have all tried to reach out to the authorities in their congregations, often with negative results.

There are child molesters (and its subsequent cover-up) in all walks of life, INCLUDING ex-Jehovah's Witnesses (JW), atheists, Catholics, Baptists, Mormons, carpenters, CEOs, Presidents, garbage collectors, business people, etc. Child molestation and its cover-up (as well as many other things) OBVIOUSLY are wrong, regardless of one's walk of life. It is just as wrong for an ex-JW to molest a child as it is for a JW. It would appear that the problem we are trying to solve here is not religious in nature.

It seems to me that the problem we are try to solve is really the reporting of child molestation early on and punishment of the perp, etc. Perhaps an awareness program like ones done on drunk driving (you know, innocent people being killed by a drunk driver--another horrible crime) could be done on TV and a school awareness program could be done like the "no drugs" one. There are many positive ways to get the information out to those being affected. It appears that an obscure web site on the 'Net is not the most effective way to get the message out. It serves its purpose, but if you really want to help people, seems like you would want to help as many as possible. Of course, putting an awareness program together will require a greater investment of time and money than a producing a web site does.

As mentioned above, the nature of the crime (inflicted on children who are too young to know where to turn) will never allow for a perfect solution in this "system of things" (eeewwww, JW phraseology, ohmigod, boo, hiss). Bottom line: this is just more proof that imperfect man cannot effectively rule himself and nobody can prevent CHILD MOLESTATION OR OTHER CRIMES from happening, no matter what walk of life.

I wonder if there's an ex-Baptist (etc) child molester web-site out there--doubt it, just an ex-JW one. Interesting.
For those that are interested in unbiased web sites on pedophiles, go to:

As is pointed out in the unbiased web sites above, pedophiles are commonly MALES (not Jehovah's Witnesses) and ALL pedophiles attempt to cover up their abuse no matter what walk of life they are from. I'm sure some pedophiles are even named Bill (but that doesn't necessary make you a pedophile, Bill, now does it).

Get a grip, and at least present the facts accurately and in an unbiased way--it really detracts from the message and makes your web site appear to be yet another "disgruntled ex-JW" apostate web site.

Some who post on this guest book seem to miss the point of the silentlambs website. This is the first support group for Jehovah's Witness victims of child molestation. That remains the basis of why this website was formed to begin with. If you offer a website for victims within a certain group then it would stand to reason you would also offer a solution to the problem. That is the purpose of the questions on the front page. Ask yourself those questions and wonder if any other religion has the same policy. When you find the answer it helps anyone to see adjustments need to be made within the JW community to better protect children. If I had been a catholic for forty years and I knew the internal dynamics of their molestation problems this would be a support group for Catholics. Instead I am a second generation JW and am trying to help protect the children within. I believe this website will help effect the needed adjustments in their behalf. The hundreds of stories and positive comments tend to drown out those who choose not to believe or try to say hundreds of people just made up these stories to make Jehovah's Witnesses look bad. Reality check, Jehovah's Witnesses make themselves look bad when they ignore crime and allow children to be hurt. They also bring reproach on the name of the God whose name they have taken upon themselves to represent. Instead of being angry with me or what my website says, why is there no anger for those who through the use of WT policy protect pedophiles and silence damaged children. If a little of that anger could go in that direction it would certainly serve a better purpose. I encourage all who read this to call the Watchtower organization and demand their policy be adjusted in the interests of children. Three things should be accomplished: 1. If a jw child is molested the parents have the right to call the police first. 2. No pedophile should ever be allowed responsibility in the congregation. 3. No molesters should be allowed to go in the door to door ministry. Their telephone number is 718-560-5600. Call them as I have and respectfully let them know you know about the problem and wish them to change. The child you protect might be your own.

Dear Silentlambs:

Your statement in #1 goes without saying. First of all, who is going to stop anybody from calling the police about anything. One, (JW or not), can do whatever one wants whenever they want. If my child was being molested by a "brother" or anybody else for that matter, I would call the police and notify the elders, not necessarily in that order. You make it sound like JWs are being prevented from calling the police when that is an UNTRUE statement. Who would prevent them? I don't have elders shackled to me to make sure that I do or don't do whatever, nobody else does either. I would imagine that there are passive, little "doormat" women in every organization, religious or otherwise, who can't make a responsible decision on their own about how to handle their child being molested by a husband or somebody else. You've got women who allow it to happen and they know about it and they don't report it--stupid doormat women who live in fear and are afraid to take the bull by the horns for whatever reason, real or imagined. They exist everywhere, not just within one religion. If a crime is being committed, why wouldn't the person go directly to police regarding the crime and go to the elders for spiritual help in coping with the atrocity. Elders are not police. Victims and their parents are free to seek help from police or therapists and should not blame the church if they choose not to do so. What MORON would not report abuse of THEIR CHILD to the police. If anyone thinks that the ELDERS are police, they are wrong, they are spiritual counselors and they have many other spiritual responsibilities as well! Parents are encouraged to do whatever they need to do to protect their child. They haven't committed a sin by turning in a Jehovah's Witness to the authorities.

#2 is obvious. Yes, no practicing pedophile, homosexual, murderer, liar, spouse abuser, drunk, adulterer, etc. should be allowed privileges in a religious organization. That should be the case in ALL religions who uphold God's word! But is it? I doubt it. I would imagine that ALL religions have secret sinners of this sort in positions of responsibility--probably up to and including the "reverend". Is it right--NO! Does it happen? Probably. Will there ever be a way, in this system of things, to prevent it from happening--NO!!! Only God's kingdom can do away with all of the imperfections of this system of things. Think about it, what were God's chosen people doing, while Moses was on the mountain taking down the commandments from God? Look it up in the Bible if you don't know. If God's chosen people had serious problems when they reported directly to Jehovah, what makes you think that JWs or any other religion would not have problems. It's called living in the last days, 2 Tim 3:1-5. It's an imperfect world and there's no way to fix everything without God's kingdom, especially when you have perverts like Satan running around like a lion seeking to devour someone.

Do JW elders ever screw up? Of course, once in a while, in a small minority cases, elders screw up. Who ever said elders are perfect all the time. They are no more perfect that you are, Bill. Obviously, they are striving to set a good example but are they all-knowing, making right decisions at all times? Not possible. I don't know anybody who can claim that, not even you, Bill. I'm sure you've made some bad decisions in your life that in hindsight you regret. We all have.

You state that no molesters should be allowed to go in the door to door ministry. To my knowledge, privileges such as going door-to-door, etc., would be removed from such ones. All of the "body of elder" letters you posted on your site attest to this fact.

Not only that, but as everyone knows, JWs go door to door with at least one other person, nobody goes to the door alone. And how is somebody going to molest a child on a doorstep anyway?

As far as the elders in a religious organization reporting something told to them in confidence, I believe the Supreme Court ruled on this:

"The mere fact that one individual knows that a third party is or could be dangerous to others does not make that individual responsible for controlling the third party," the Supreme Judicial Court ruled. "There is no duty to announce to people that 'John Brown' is a child abuser. " If the court had ruled otherwise, it "would basically discourage people from going to their ministers and getting help. " If people could not count on confidentiality when they go and confess to a Catholic priest, there's going be quite a chilling effect on religion.

ALL victims need help, Bill, not that you will ever be able to do that all by yourself. Unfortunately, you come across as having a vendetta against JWs, instead of coming across as wanting to help children.

Wait a minute, that's it, I get it now--under the guise of wanting to help children, you really do have a vendetta against Jehovah's Witnesses. And what better forum than the Internet to exhibit your wares, where this kind of propaganda thrives. The press loves nothing more than to report something bad about Jehovah's Witnesses--you obviously used this to your advantage.

Information can be slanted any which way to suit the one delivering the information--the media does it all the time. Smart ones do their research, however, to find out if what they are being told is REALLY true. The truth is out there but certainly not with silentlambs. This is a classic example of a disgruntled JW slanting the truth because he has a bone to pick supposedly about JWs covering up child molestation. (Isn't a Catholic child molester just as bad? Of course, we are all VERY familiar with the child molestation cover up by the Catholic church, among other things. ) http://www.courttv.com/news/2002/0124/priest_ap.html http://www.courttv.com/trials/geoghan/background_ctv.html

So you had a bad experience, big deal. Injustice prevails. Is injustice pleasant--no! Does it exist--obviously! Has everyone experienced it in one form or another--yes! The questions is: Are you a victim or a survivor? I consider myself to be a survivor. Since I have survived I have chosen not dwell on the injustice forever. What purpose does that serve--it only feeds self-pity and wanting pity from others--there's more to life than that. Of course, I realize that there are a few people who thrive on wallowing in self-pity for the attention is garners. For me personally, I simply look forward to the day when all injustices will be done away with.

I don't know who you are. . . you didn't bother to leave a name. . . you must be so proud. . . you must be a JW, and if you are, you really shouldn't be visiting an 'apostate' website anyway! You know, you hit the nail right on the head with your statement: Information can be slanted any which way to suit the one delivering the message. . . you should know. . . the JW's are PRO'S at it! And you are right. . . the smart ones do their research, which Bill did, obviously. . . having been in the organization 43 years, and an elder. . . he certainly has some insight. . . and insight into the secrecy and deliberate cover-ups that have been taking place for many years. This is why he chose to speak out and protect the innocent. Don’t you think its about time somebody did? He was an elder in good standing. He had nothing to be disgruntled about, except the lack of protection for young children. You see, he has an "insiders" view, which you don’t. So you are only speaking from opinion, NOT fact. And again, “the smart ones do their research, to find out if what they are being told is really true”. . . again, the sad fact that you are unaware of or refuse to see is that JW’s are NOT allowed to read anything written by an apostate. Well if you did your research, you would find that most all the EX JW’s who have found the courage to “jump ship” and write about the lies the watchtower tells their brainwashed followers, you would see for yourself, through research, all apostates CAN’T be wrong. Do yourself a favor, pick up "Crisis of Conscience" by Ray Franz . . . you want to search the truth . . . go to someone who was in the SECRET governing body of the organization. See physical proof of what goes on behind closed doors! Until you have been there, until you have been a victim, and maybe you have, then deep down you know the truth, you just choose to see if from a very narrow minded side. Bill has a lot of support, and I am sure he doesn't need me to jump to his defense, he seems to hold his own there. But he is to be admired, respected, appreciated and loved for what he is doing. And I know that he had to search his heart and soul to make the choice he did to help support and protect the children. And I know that he is doing this with God as his Heavenly Father and advisor . . . and what better place to get advice and encouragement than from the Father, Himself. With God as his biggest supporter, he can do nothing but succeed in his endeavor in helping the little lambs. . . let's hear it for Bill, let's hear it for the lambs! winrock2@aol.com

The "two witnesses" principle is biblical. The Elders and Governing Body cannot pick and choose which principles to apply and which ones to skip. The principle also protects those who are accused but are innocent. The same thing goes on in courtrooms. I don't think they or courts can rightly be accused of protecting child molesters if there are not enough witnesses or evidence - even if the person IS guilty. Courtroom judges often know a person is guilty as sin but sometimes by law cannot find that person legally guilty due to the lack of witnesses and/or evidence. The same is true using biblical law and the elders are bound to it.

The "two witnesses" principle is Jehovah's principle and is there for very good reason. Courts also demand evidence that is more than one person's word against the other - oftentimes before a hearing is ever held.

However, I don't believe the "two witnesses" need to witness the same event - just the same behavior. For example, if I were a repentant adulterer, I may not be disfellowshipped the first time, but what if I did it again? Would it make a difference if I argued that the new case should be considered without reference to the first just because it was with a different woman? Ludicrous! In fact, the second adultery is proof that the person wasn't truly repentant after the first time and the person will almost assuredly be DF'd because of the added proof ("witness").

Also, I believe that evidence can be the second "witness." Admittedly, evidence is hard to come by years after the fact. But if the event just happened then by all means report it to the police and get a medical exam to gather that evidence. A crime has occurred!

Although individual elders may sometimes ask that the police not get involved (in single "witness" cases) due to their own desire "to protect Jehovah’s name," I don't believe that is the official policy in cases where gross sin has allegedly occurred that also breaks the law of the land (Murder, Rape, Sexual Abuse against Children, and other crimes against society. ) The fact is that if these crimes took place then Jehovah’s name has already been reproached - reporting it to the civil authorities does not add more reproach but will eventually have the opposite effect.
My wife was sexually abused as a child and I see the tremendous suffering that she endures and how it has even affected my life and our children's lives as a result. If anyone reading this or their family has suffered similarly then my heart goes out to you - I can understand some of your feelings. It is evil and those doing it should and in fact will be punished for it as Jeremiah 30:11 says "to the proper degree." Jehovah doesn't need "two witnesses" since he knows all things. The bible says at Malachi 3:5 that Jehovah will be become a "speedy witness... against those swearing falsely." This applies to the child abuser as well as anyone wrongly covering up for the abuser.

I am not an elder nor do I think that is relevant. Right is right and exposing the truth can only be a good thing. However, let us make sure we really do speak truth. The Bible says 'God's word is truth though every man be found a liar.' So He is the final authority. I can trust that He'll resolve all issues and set all matters straight. I hope you can too. Of course, that does not rule out doing what we can to resolve issues on our own.

Little do the general public know of the sacrifice and courage it takes to stand alone for what you know is right. Stand alone, that sums it up because those loyal to this cult will turn on you even though they know you are right. It disrupts the faith, the dream and casts a nagging doubt on the earthly god (the Organization) they look up to for salvation into the "new world". I am done with it! Good work, you have my support.

I have a real problem with these people always wanting NOT to bring reproach upon YHWH. What do they think they are doing by letting these young ones suffer for years, in some cases hating YHWH for allowing one of His supposed leaders to hurt them. And what do they think they are doing when the truth finally comes out? Can't they even begin to comprehend that YHWH would be more upset at what is taking place and nobody is doing anything about it? I am really tired of hearing or reading about the reproach upon YHWH! HE knows what is going on, as do the accused. And YHWY says that our sins will find us out. So please, stop trying to hide what is going on, using the excuse that it will bring reproach upon YHWH, you aren't bringing reproach upon Him. You are bringing reproach upon a "dirty" organization that makes a false claim that they are HIS organization. If it were HIS organization, he would never have allowed this to go on. He would have separated the sheep from the goats. But Satan has a lot of power, and that power is used exclusively in the Watchtower Cult.

1. Report matter to the police first. What does the Watchtower say? Note the 97 WT on direction for reporting what is bad:

w97 8/15 26-30 Why Report What Is Bad? Appreciating the Value of Reproof Among Jehovah’s people, however, there is a different attitude toward reproof. Godly men and women deeply appreciate the arrangement Jehovah has made to help erring ones inside the Christian congregation. They recognize such discipline as an expression of his loving-kindness. —Hebrews 12:6-11.

What is that arrangement? Is it going to the police when a crime is committed?

In our day too, Jehovah’s servants can become involved in serious wrongdoing, even those who have been faithful for many years. Recognizing that the elders can assist, most take the initiative to approach them for help. (James 5:13-16) But sometimes a wrongdoer may try to cover up his sin, as did King David. What should we do if we come to know about serious wrongdoing in the congregation?

Whose Responsibility Is It?

When elders learn about serious wrongdoing, they approach the individual involved to give needed help and correction. It is the elders’ responsibility to judge such ones inside the Christian congregation. Keeping a close watch on its spiritual condition, they assist and admonish anyone who is taking an unwise or wrong step. —1 Corinthians 5:12, 13; 2 Timothy 4:2; 1 Peter 5:1, 2.

But what if you are not an elder and you come to know about some serious wrongdoing on the part of another Christian? Guidelines are found in the Law that Jehovah gave to the nation of Israel. The Law stated that if a person was a witness to apostate acts, sedition, murder, or certain other serious crimes, it was his responsibility to report it and to testify to what he knew. Leviticus 5:1 states: “Now in case a soul sins in that he has heard public cursing and he is a witness or he has seen it or has come to know of it, if he does not report it, then he must answer for his error.”—Compare Deuteronomy 13:6-8; Esther 6:2; Proverbs 29:24.

Though not under the Mosaic Law, Christians today can be guided by the principles behind it. (Psalm 19:7, 8) So if you learn about the serious wrongdoing of a fellow Christian, what should you do?

Handling the Matter First of all, it is important that there is valid reason to believe that serious wrongdoing has really occurred. “Do not become a witness against your fellowman without grounds,” stated the wise man. “Then you would have to be foolish with your lips.”—Proverbs 24:28.

You may decide to go directly to the elders. It is not wrong to do so. Usually, however, the most loving course is to approach the person involved. Perhaps the facts are not as they appear to be. Or perhaps the situation is already being handled by the elders. Calmly discuss the matter with the person. If there remains reason to believe that a serious wrong has been committed, encourage him or her to approach the elders for help, and explain the wisdom of doing so. Do not talk to others about the matter, for that would be gossip. If the person does not report to the elders within a reasonable period of time, then you should. One or two elders will then discuss the matter with the accused. The elders need to “search and investigate and inquire thoroughly” to see if wrongdoing has been done. If it has, they will handle the case according to Scriptural guidelines. —Deuteronomy 13:12-14.
Who investigates the crime first? THE ELDERS! Yet still no mention of going to the police. Then if there are only one witness what do you have to do? Report it to police then? See Below.

At least two witnesses are required to establish a charge of wrongdoing. (John 8:17; Hebrews 10:28) If the person denies the charge and your testimony is the only one, the matter will be left in Jehovah’s hands. (1 Timothy 5:19, 24, 25) This is done in the knowledge that all things are “openly exposed” to Jehovah and that if the person is guilty, eventually his sins will “catch up” with him. —Hebrews 4:13; Numbers 32:23.

There you have it the basis of discouraging victims to go to the police. They are clearly instructed to leave it in Jehovah’s hands. That means do nothing. Can you warn any other parents whose children may be in harms way? See Below.

But suppose the person does deny the charge and you are the only witness against him. Could you now be open to a countercharge of slander? No, not unless you have gossiped to those not involved in the matter. It is not slanderous to report conditions affecting a congregation to those having authority and responsibility to oversee and correct matters. It is, in fact, in line with our desire always to do what is correct and loyal. —Compare Luke 1:74, 75.

So if you gossip and tell others about your child being molested you could be charged with slander and expelled from the congregation. What is the reason why? See Below.

Maintaining Holiness in the Congregation One reason for reporting wrongdoing is that it works to preserve the cleanness of the congregation. Jehovah is a clean God, a holy God. He requires all those who worship him to be spiritually and morally clean. His inspired Word admonishes: “As obedient children, quit being fashioned according to the desires you formerly had in your ignorance, but, in accord with the Holy One who called you, do you also become holy yourselves in all your conduct, because it is written: ‘You must be holy, because I am holy. ’” (1 Peter 1:14-16) Individuals who practice uncleanness or wrongdoing can bring defilement and Jehovah’s disfavor upon an entire congregation unless action is taken to correct or remove them. —Compare Joshua, chapter 7.

The congregation does their own dirty laundry and keeps outsiders uninformed. This is the basis of how the congregation operates. Jehovah’s Witnesses are NOT free to go to the police. They are required to OBEY the direction of the elders. If they do not they are disfellowshipped. Thus Watchtower Policy requires a child molestation victim to go to the ELDERS FIRST and this is the error of WT policy.

2. A pedophile should never hold a position of responsibility within the congregation.

The 1-1-97 Watchtower seemed to indicate this would be the policy for Jehovah’s Witnesses, yet in just three short months a letter was sent (along with more to follow) to Bodies of Elders that changed that policy. The 97 letter stated:

“It may be possible that some who were guilty of child molestation were or are now serving as elders, ministerial servants, or regular or special pioneers. Others may have been guilty of child molestation before they were baptized. The bodies of elders should not query individuals. ”

This statement made provision for pedophile to continue to serve. That was further collaborated by the 6-1-01 letter to Bodies of Elders in England which states:

“There is one exception to the above direction: The elders may have written to the branch office and given full details about a former child abuser who is currently serving as an elder or ministerial servant. In such a case, if the branch office has decided that he can be appointed or continue serving in a position of trust because the sin occurred many years ago and because he has lived an exemplary life since then, his name should not appear on the List, nor is it necessary to pass on information about the brother’s past sin if he moves to another congregation unless contrary instructions have been given by the branch. “
Child Molesters are clearly given positions of responsibility within the congregation at the direction of WT Policy. Time passing should be no factor for a pedophile.

Is this WT policy? Please note the 1-1-97 Watchtower which initially established molester policy. What would a child molester who is newly released from prison be required to do to show his repentance? See Below.

w97 1/1 29 Let Us Abhor What Is Wicked “Depending on the law of the land where he lives, the molester may well have to serve a prison term or face other sanctions from the State…” If he seems to be repentant, he will be encouraged to make spiritual progress, share in the field service. . “

A newly released child molester is required by WT Policy to call at the homes of the unknowing public. THAT IS WT POLICY!

This information shows without doubt something is terribly wrong in this matter. This “Policy” presents a danger to children within the organization as well as those who are met in the door to door work. If the Governing Body really wishes to be a “faithful slave” they should move at ONCE to correct this mistake and protect the children.

I'm interested in joining the JW. But also, I can assure you, i would kill anyone with my bare hands who abuses my child.
tweet74836@hotmail.com These comments have touched the core of my heart. I too have been sexually abused though not in the org. at the time the abuse happened. And it is true people will hardly believe a child's story and claim that they are lying. My grandchildren were abused and I believed them. It was convincing others of it that proved a problem. What is it about people who will not listen to a child's plea in a desperate situation such as this. I thank God there is a site like this to help people release the stress and anxiety by talking it out. I could share my story but this site is reserved for those in the org. God bless all you out there who found a way out and are making lives for yourself and your children. You are the courageous in your actions to deal with such a delicate subject.

The following is an email I tried to send to Melisa above, it appears she used a fake address. I will leave this up a few days as a response, if she gives correct information I will leave it up.

I noted your post on the silentlambs guestbook and wish to make a few comments about what you have stated,

You wrote,

MY MOTHER IS A JEHOVAH WITNESS.

I am glad your mother is a JW and we mean in no way to make her feel bad about being one. It also appears you are a JW also, as you will note we have many posters who are JW's and I talk to them on a weekly basis. I to am a JW in good standing and of course fault in no way any teachings of the organization on the sl website. The problem is a policy that hurts children. I served as an elder for many years and was also unaware until I had to deal with a local case involving a child that was being molested.

You wrote,

THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH THEM. IT SEEMS AS IF YOU TARGET THEM FOR PUBLICITY. THE STORIES DO NOT SEEM TRUE.

Do you recall the scripture in Proverbs that says, "he that is replying to a matter before he hears it is foolishness on the part of he who speaks," or words to that effect. How did you at the age of 17 become an expert on JW policy when it comes to child molestation? I have been in the organization for 43 years and you may want to listen before you start calling victims of molestation liars. You may not wish to face this but the stories are true. I have verified many with local police reports and the few who were actually reported did go to jail. Were those people just making it up also? In answer to the second part of your statement, yes I am targeting JW's for this issue because they have a far worse problem than most religions in this area. How do I come to that conclusion? Read the website instead of just posting in the guestbook. If you educate yourself about this issue I believe you will come to far different conclusions, rather than judgmental observations.

You wrote,

Your statement shows the extent of your ignorance on this matter. Jehovah has never approved of his people committing rape of a child. It is a crime that breaks the laws of every country around the world. Just as murder is a crime, you cannot simply blame it on imperfection. The elders DO cover up things like this to not bring reproach on the organization. In the meantime the pedophile gets to have access to more children. In many cases JW pedophiles are able to molest multiple children without being found out as the elders keep the information confidential. You will not know if a child molester is in your own Kingdom Hall as it is WT policy to keep this confidential. The counsel elder's use according to wt policy is to require two witnesses to the act of child molestation. How often does a child molester obtain an observer to watch his deviancy? 99% of child molesters will lie when confronted, can you see how they can get away with it? Read the WT articles on my website where it plainly states if you have only one witness you leave it in Jehovah's hands. Would you be willing to do this if it was your child?

You wrote,
WHAT ABOUT ALL OF THE CATHOLIC PRIESTS MOLESTING BOYS????? YOU ARE NOT TARGETING THEM. YOU ARE SATANS TOOLS TO TURN PEOPLE AWAY FROM THIS ORGINIZATION.

I am not a Catholic, I am a JW second generation. I do not know Catholic doctrine and how Catholic policy works regarding child molestation. I was an elder close to 20 years and could be considered an expert on JW's. I know what the elder book says and all the Body of Elders say on the topic of child molestation. Do you? Read my website and find out much of this information. I have personally spoken to close to 1000 JW victims of molestation. Have you? I do not believe that many people would seek me out just to lie and make the society look bad. Read the court documents on my website. Are the police and judges all lying just to make JW's look bad? Regarding the Catholic church they only hide pedophile priests, JW's on the other hand hide any publisher who molests a child by wt policy. It is a far worse scenario within the JW organization. Can you face the truth?

You wrote,

You are unbaptized and admit to committing fornication and speak of the benefit of forgiveness and God's mercy, yet you call child molestation victims liars and revile those who are trying to help other victims learn how to help themselves? Do you recall the scripture about removing the rafter in your own eye before removing the straw from someone else's? How do you develop such ability to judge the lives of others when you have yet to make your dedication to Jehovah? You say you know the elders will not force matter to be confidential yet how do you know that? Have you read the 1989 letter to all bodies of elders on confidentiality? Yet you make a judgment call on something you have not even researched. Who is the judgmental one here? I agree God can even forgive child molesters, but He will never forgive those who lie about it or those who allow them to not be reported to the police. When the pedophile molests another child those who kept quiet are blood guilty for not doing what was necessary to protect children.

MY NAME IS MELISSA. MY EMAIL IS DIMPLES_L@HOTMAIL.COM

You wrote,

IM DISCUSTED WITH YOUR JUDGEMENTS. SUPPORT GROUPS ARE OK BUT NOT TO TARGET CERTAIN PEOPLE. THAT IS PARTIALISM. HOW DO YOU EXPECT TO HELP SOME ONE WHEN YOUR HURTING PEOPLE LIKE ME WHO KNOW THE TRUTH??? IM NOT SAYING ITS IMPOSSIBLE FOR TRAGEDIES LIKE THIS BUT GOD WILL PUT AN END TO IT AND IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR GOD TO LIE

I am disgusted with your immature judgments without reviewing the evidence. Support groups do just that, do you know how many support groups there are for Catholics, Mormons and other religious groups? Hundreds. Again educate yourself before you make insipid comments that make you appear to be the judgmental one. If the truth hurts you, then maybe you are believing a lie. How do you know this is not God's way to put an end to this? Does not God motivate faithful men to stand up for what is right? I have helped hundreds of people who are hurting from the affects child molestation has had on their lives, yet you say I hurt you for telling the truth. If I am telling a lie then why am I not disfellowshipped? Why doesn't the society sue me for slander? Why am I still a brother? When you find the answers to these questions you will be in a far better position to decide whether my website hurts you are helps you to find the truth about how wt policy hurts children. Not only will you be better informed but you might be better able to protect your child from being molested. Please think about that and try to educate yourself on this, someday it might be very important. I am including below the three basic requirements that must be adjusted with regard to wt policy. Read them and see if you agree. Also keep in mid any time you post in ALL CAPS it means you are screaming. I do not believe that was your intention. Think about what I have written, educate yourself on this matter, then make an better decision on which side you want to come down on this issue.

1. Report matter to the police first.

What does the Watchtower say? Note the 97 WT on direction for reporting what is bad:

w97 8/15 26-30 Why Report What Is Bad? Appreciating the Value of Reproof Among Jehovah’s people, however, there is a different attitude toward reproof. Godly men and women deeply appreciate the arrangement Jehovah has made to help erring ones inside the Christian congregation. They recognize such discipline as an expression of his loving-kindness. -Hebrews 12:6-11.

What is that arrangement? Is it going to the police when a crime is committed?

In our day too, Jehovah’s servants can become involved in serious wrongdoing, even those who have been faithful for many years. Recognizing that the elders can assist, most take the initiative to approach them for help. (James 5:13-16) But sometimes a wrongdoer may try to cover up his sin, as did King David. What should we do if we come to know about serious wrongdoing in the congregation?

Whose Responsibility Is It?

When elders learn about serious wrongdoing, they approach the individual involved to give needed help and correction. It is the elders’ responsibility to judge such ones inside the Christian congregation. Keeping a close watch on its spiritual condition, they assist and admonish anyone who is taking an unwise or wrong step. -1 Corinthians 5:12, 13; 2 Timothy 4:2; 1 Peter 5:1, 2.

But what if you are not an elder and you come to know about some serious wrongdoing on the part of another Christian? Guidelines are found in the Law that Jehovah gave to the nation of Israel. The Law stated that if a person was a witness to apostate acts, sedition, murder, or certain other serious crimes, it was his responsibility to report it and to testify to what he knew. Leviticus 5:1 states: "Now in case a soul sins in that he has heard public cursing and he is a witness or he has seen it or has come to know of it, if he does not report it, then he must answer for his error." -Compare Deuteronomy 13:6-8; Esther 6:2; Proverbs 29:24.

Though not under the Mosaic Law, Christians today can be guided by the principles behind it. (Psalm 19:7, 8) So if you learn about the serious wrongdoing of a fellow Christian, what should you do?

Where are we given the right here to call the police? Not one word offered. So who do you go to? See below.

Handling the Matter First of all, it is important that there is valid reason to believe that serious wrongdoing has really occurred. "Do not become a witness against your fellowman without grounds," stated the wise man. "Then you would have to be foolish with your lips." -Proverbs 24:28.

You may decide to go directly to the elders. It is not wrong to do so. Usually, however, the most loving course is to approach the person involved. Perhaps the facts are not as they appear to be. Or perhaps the situation is already being handled by the elders. Calmly discuss the matter with the person. If there remains reason to believe that a serious wrong has been committed, encourage him or her to approach the elders for help, and explain the wisdom of doing so. Do not talk to others about the matter, for that would be gossip. If the person does not report to the elders within a reasonable period of time, then you should. One or two elders will then discuss the matter with the accused. The elders need to "search and investigate and inquire thoroughly" to see if wrong has been done. If it has, they will handle the case according to Scriptural guidelines. -Deuteronomy 13:12-14.

Who investigates the crime first? THE ELDERS! Yet still no mention of going to the police. Then if there are only one witness what do you have to do? Report it to police then? See Below.
At least two witnesses are required to establish a charge of wrongdoing. (John 8:17; Hebrews 10:28) If the person denies the charge and your testimony is the only one, the matter will be left in Jehovah's hands. (1 Timothy 5:19, 24, 25) This is done in the knowledge that all things are "openly exposed" to Jehovah and that if the person is guilty, eventually his sins will "catch up" with him. -Hebrews 4:13; Numbers 32:23.

There you have it the basis of discouraging victims to go to the police. They are clearly instructed to leave it in Jehovah's hands. That means do nothing. Can you warn any other parents whose children may be in harms way? See Below.

But suppose the person does deny the charge and you are the only witness against him. Could you now be open to a countercharge of slander? No, not unless you have gossiped to those not involved in the matter. It is not slanderous to report conditions affecting a congregation to those having authority and responsibility to oversee and correct matters. It is, in fact, in line with our desire always to do what is correct and loyal. -Compare Luke 1:74, 75.

So if you gossip and tell others about your child being molested you could be charged with slander and expelled from the congregation. What is the reason why? See Below.

Maintaining Holiness in the Congregation One reason for reporting wrongdoing is that it works to preserve the cleanness of the congregation. Jehovah is a clean God, a holy God. He requires all those who worship him to be spiritually and morally clean. His inspired Word admonishes: "As obedient children, quit being fashioned according to the desires you formerly had in your ignorance, but, in accord with the Holy One who called you, do you also become holy yourselves in all your conduct, because it is written: 'You must be holy, because I am holy.' " (1 Peter 1:14-16) Individuals who practice uncleanness or wrongdoing can bring defilement and Jehovah's disfavor upon an entire congregation unless action is taken to correct or remove them. -Compare Joshua, chapter 7.

The congregation does their own dirty laundry and keeps outsiders uninformed. This is the basis of how the congregation operates. Jehovah's Witnesses are NOT free to go to the police. They are required to OBEY the direction of the elders. If they do not they are disfellowshipped. Thus Watchtower Policy requires a child molestation victim to go to the ELDERS FIRST and this is the error of WT policy.

The 1-1-97 Watchtower seemed to indicate this would be the policy for Jehovah's Witnesses, yet in just three short months a letter was sent (along with more to follow) to Bodies of Elders that changed that policy. The 97 letter stated:

"It may be possible that some who were guilty of child molestation were or are now serving as elders, ministerial servants, or regular or special pioneers. Others may have been guilty of child molestation before they were baptized. The bodies of elders should not query individuals."

This statement made provision for pedophile to continue to serve. That was further collaborated by the 6-1-01 letter to Bodies of Elders in England which states:

"There is one exception to the above direction: The elders may have written to the branch office and given full details about a former child abuser who is currently serving as an elder or ministerial servant. In such a case, if the branch office has decided that he can be appointed or continue serving in a position of trust because the sin occurred many years ago and because he has lived an exemplary life since then, his name should not appear on the List, nor is it necessary to pass on information about the brother's past sin if he moves to another congregation unless contrary instructions have been given by the branch."

Child Molesters are clearly given positions of responsibility within the congregation at the direction of WT Policy. Time passing should be no factor for a pedophile.

Is this WT policy? Please note the 1-1-97 Watchtower which initially established molester policy. What would a child molester who is newly released from prison be required to do to show his repentance? See Below.

w97 1/1 29 Let Us Abhor What Is Wicked "Depending on the law of the land where he lives, the molester may well have to serve a prison term or face other sanctions from the State. 'If he seems to be repentant, he will be encouraged to make spiritual progress, share in the field service. . "

A newly released child molester is required by WT Policy to call at the homes of the unknowing public. THAT IS WT POLICY!

This information shows without doubt something is terribly wrong in this matter. This "Policy" presents a danger to children within the organization as well as those who are met in the door to door work. If the Governing Body really wishes to be a "faithful slave" they should move ONCE to correct this mistake and protect the children.

Interesting web site. I think ALL religious organizations, as well as other non-religious organizations have to deal with the problem of child molestation. But why have you singled out just the Jehovah's Witnesses? Many other faith-based groups are struggling with issues just as serious. A search of the internet for links to your site reveals that MOST OF THEM are from sites opposed to Jehovah's Witnesses beliefs in general. Surely that tells us something. You are more concerned with JW-bashing than protecting children! Don't get me wrong, I hate child molesters as much as anyone else, including you, but if you wanted to you could work alongside the JW's to fight the problem, instead of attacking their church.

I have read almost all of the "victims" entries. They are all (painfully) the same. All of them have the same general idea of an elder or member of the JWs molesting a child in the congregation. I am disgusted. On a happier note. I love this web-site. we (as victims of molesters) now have a voice. Thank you!

I had no idea the problem was worldwide. They have ruined my son's life. Keep up the good work. Don't stop until they are exposed. Margaret Benson, Bolton, England. mbenson50@tinyworld.co.uk
If you examine carefully what David said: "Do I not hate those who are intensely hating you, O Jehovah, and do I not feel a loathing for those revolting against you? With a complete hatred I do hate them. They have become to me real enemies. " (Psalm 139:21, 22 Distorted JW translation) It is clearly evident that he is personally appealing to God for consideration on, what he thought, the good deeds. Remember, before he was making this prayer, he committed a terrible crime against humanity of killing a man in order to steal his wife. So, God punished him. Psalm 139:21, 22 is just David's personal plea to appease God. Psalm 139:21, 22 should not be considered as holy, guiding faith, basis for shunning practices or hatred against non-JW or what they called infidels. JW is abusing Psalm 139:21, 22 in order to justify their crimes against humanity.

brainwashed people will never recognize the truth behind the truth. loyal to the ideology that something which must not be cant be they defend the acting of the WTS as being heroes. in spite of this more and more recognize by internet the history shaping and fact hiding WTS, a society which is far away from god like Pluto from the son. cold, icy and always claiming for their ideology. I guess that they will have a righteous trial whenever god will come to judge the earth ya know~ I was raised a witness, and "mellissa" seems to be misdirected! At 17, you say "your mom is a witness". . . ? and you are not baptized. . . . even if your not baptized. . . . you would still refer to yourself as "one" unless-you either weren't at all involved with JW's (in which case you wouldn't be here in the first place) or you are someone "pretending" to be a 17year old child of a witness in an attempt to make a stamen of some kind. Although. . your inability to spell words correctly does indicate that you are a female JW. It seems that the amount of anger you have is a bit much for the age you say, which makes me wonder if you are the wife or daughter of one of those "hands on" kinda brothers. ?hmm? I want to ask you this also. . . Why the curiosity with this JW web site for individuals whom have suffered in silence as victims of a federal crime? Is it ok (in your 17 yr old opinion) with Jah to commit federal crimes? Against children? How do you think he feels about you bashing his children who are in pain and using this space to heal? What is it that gives you the idea that it is okay to lie in the name of God, as you seem to be in defense of, by giving a false email address? What exactly is your heart condition right now? It sounds to me like you need to spend a bit more time searching the web for sites where you yourself can find a site to manage your own issues with anger, and people who want life to be unscarred for children. Maybe if you knew this kind of protection in your "real" life, you would be able to appreciate this. Oh, and also "Mellissa". . . .

My mom is also still a JW, and I discovered that I too had a lot of anger in my life. I discovered that the anger I had was due to my mom not protecting me from my abuser. I was more angry at her than anyone else! But as a JW mom... she was too busy planning for her "talk", or "going over sundays meeting". Being "prepared" was the solution for her life in a perfect world, all the while not realizing the goings on in the world we actually live in! Hello!

Have you ever heard the phrase "you better check yourself before you wreck yourself"?

As if! y2kym

I AM COMMENTING IN CAPITOLS TO THE FOLLOWING EMAIL POSTED AT: REMOTE USER: DATE 30 JAN 2002 TIME: 16:37:11 IN THE GUESTBOOK. Your statement in #1 goes without saying. First of all, who is going to stop anybody from calling the police about anything UNFORTUNATELY MANY TIMES ITS THE PERSON WHOSE DOING THE ABUSING. One, (JW or not), can do whatever one wants whenever they want. LOOK IF YOUR A CHILD AND YOU WANT TO CALL THE POLICE CAUSE YOUR PARENTS WONT OR TELL THE ADULT YOU NEED HELP AND YOU FIND OUT THE ELDERS, PARENTS, OR THE ADULTS DONT WANT TO GET INVOLVED. ... HELLO. If my child was being molested by a "brother" or anybody else for that matter, I would call the police and notify the elders, not necessarily in that order. WHAT IF YOUR TOLD YOUR NOT ALLOWED TO AND IF YOU DO YOUR GOING TO BE PUNISHED EVEN MORE. ... HUH. ... WHAT THEN. You make it sound like JWs are being prevented from calling the police when that is an UNTRUE statement. ... WRONG IT DOES HAPPEN AND UNLESS YOU'VE BEEN IN THAT SITUATION YOU REALLY DONT KNOW. I'VE BEEN AND I WASNT ALLOWED TO CALL. ... WELL. ... UNLESS I WANTED TO GET ABUSED AGAIN, OR TOLD YOU WILL BE THE ONE IN TROUBLE BY THE ELDERS BECAUSE ITS THEIR JOB TO TAKE CARE OF THIS AND WHEN NOTHING IS DONE THEY SAY "JUST WAIT ON JEHOVAH." I SAID THAT HOW MANY TIMES WHILE I WAS BEING ABUSED. COULD JEHOVAH BE ANSWERING THE MANY PRAYERS NOW. HMMM. Who would prevent them? I don't have elders shackled to me to make sure that I do or don't do whatever, nobody else does either. IM GLAD YOU HAVE HAD THAT EXPERIENCE. I AND MANY OTHERS DIDNT. I would imagine that there are passive, little "doormat" women in every organization, religious or otherwise, who can't make a responsible decision on their own about how to handle their child being molested by a husband or somebody else. ARE YOU A STUPID MORON. YOU IMAGINE! WHO ARE YOU TO EVEN SUGGES THAT. OK WHAT ABOUT THE WIFE WHO IS ALSO BEING ABUSED BY THE HUSBAND AND HAS THREATENED HER? HUH? WHAT IF THAT "PASSIVE LITTLE DORMAT" IS AN ELDERS WIFE? WHAT IF SHE'S BEING ABUSED ALSO? You've got women who allow it to happen and they know about it and they don't report it SOUNDS LIKE YOUR TALKING FROM EXPERIENCE. --stupid doormat women. IS THAT ANGER I READ? who live in fear and are afraid to take the bull by the horns for whatever reason, real or imagined. HOW CAN YOU BE SO JUDGEMENTAL? MAYBE YOU HAVE SOMETHING TO HIDE SINCE YOUR PUTTING OUT THESE TYPES OF COMMENTS. HMMM . . . FEAR OF MORE ABUSE MAYBE. and go to the elders for spiritual help in coping with the atrocity. OK, WHAT WOULD YOU SAY TO SOMEONE WHO HAS COME TO YOU SAYING THEY HAVE TRIED GOING TO THE ELDERS AND THEY WERE TOLD NOT TO GO TO THE POLICE. ARE YOU GOING TO JUDGE THEM FOR DOING WHAT THEY CAN TO GET HELP; THE ONLY WAY THEY KNOW HOW AND NOTHING IS BEING DONE. Elders are not police. REALLY, WELL TELL THAT TO THE MANY MANY PEOPLE WHO WROTE IN THOSE TYPES OF STORES, OR ARE ALL THOSE MANY MANY PEOPLE LYING. ARE THEY STUPID DOORMAT PEOPLE THEN? Victims and their parents are free to seek help from police or therapists. WRONG, MANY ARE TOLD NTO TO GO TO ANY THERAPIST AND IF YOU DO. DO NOT SPEAK ABOUT THE ELDERS, ORGANIZATION OR ABOUT ANYTHING BAD OR NEGATIVE AND IF THEY DO THEY HAVE REPERCUSSIONS. THAT YOU ARE BRINGING REPROACH ON GOD, ORGANIZATION,ELDERS AND THE PERSON WHO ABUSED YOU. IT DOESNT MATTER THAT YOU PUT UP WITH YEARS OF FEAR, ANGER, BEING TOLD WE SHOULD HAVE STOPPED IT, OR THINKING JEHOVAH DOESNT LOVE YOU. HOW CAN YOU NOT FEEL THAT WAY WHEN IT IS DRAINED INTO YOU ALL THE TIME. and should not blame the church if they choose not to do so. What MORON would not report abuse of THEIR CHILD to the police THE MORON WHOSE ABUSING THEIR CHILD. If anyone thinks that the ELDERS are police, they are wrong, they are spiritual counselors and they have many other spiritual responsibilities as well!YOUR RIGHT THEIR HUMAN AND IMPERFECT JUST LIKE EVERYONE ELSE. THEY DO ALOT FOR THE CONGREGATION AND MAKE MANY SACRIFICES. HOW CAN THEY BE SPIRITUAL COUNSELORS WHEN THEY ARE AIDING AND LETTING THE PERPETRATOR LIVE THEIR LIFE AND THE ABUSED CHILD/CHILDREN STOP LIVING THEIRS. HOW CAN ANYONE ON THE COMMITTEE BE SPIRITUAL COUNSELORS WHEN THEY KNOW OF A SITUATION AND DONT GET INVOLVED. I WILL NOT ACCEPT THE EXCUSE THAT THE ELDERS WERENT ON THAT JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OR ON THE GROUP THAT MAY BE LOOKING INTO THIS MATTER. Parents are encouraged to do whatever they need to do to protect their child. YES, AND WITH PARENTS ITS NOT AN OPTION OF WHETHER TO PROTECT OR NOT. THEY ARE THE CAREGIVERS AND ITS THEIR RESPONSIBILITY TO SEE THAT THEIR CHILD IS TAKEN CARE OF AND IS SAFE. THE CHILD IS NOT BEING PROTECTED WHEN THE PARENTS ARE BEING ENCOURAGED TO LET THE MATTER REST BECAUSE THE ELDERS WILL HANDLE IT. THE POOR CHILD IN THE MEANTIME IS STILL GETTING REPEATEDLY ABUSED. IS THAT BEING PROTECTIVE? They haven't committed a sin by turning in a Jehovah's Witness to the authorities. OH, REALLY, WHAT ABOUT ALL THOSE WHOSE BEEN COUNSELED FOR BRINGING IT ALL UP. WHAT ABOUT SOME OF THOSE LETTERS FROM THE WATCHTOWER SOCIETY STATING THAT THEY DONT HAVE TO, KEEPING IT QUIET SO THAT SO & SO WONT GET HURT BUT THE CHILD IS FOREVER SCARRED. I KNOW THERE ARE MANY MANY ELDERS, MINISTERIAL SERVANTS, PEOPLE AT THE SOCIETY ARE VERY GOOD PEOPLE AND WOULDNT PUT UP WITH THIS. FOR YOU TO MAKE THE COMMENT THAT HAVE LIKE "PASSIVE LITTLE DOORMAT. " I DO HOPE YOU ARE NOT AN ELDER BECAUSE THIS IS IMMATURE THINKING. YOU ARE THE MORON FOR BEING JUDGEMENTAL. I CAN'T HELP BUT WONDER WHAT IS IT THAT YOUR ANGRY ABOUT. MAYBE YOUR SOMEONE WHOSE HANDLED THESE CASES AND THIS HAS BEEN YOUR EXPERIENCE. IF THATS THE CASE THEN USE DISCERNMENT AND LET PEOPLE KNOW OF YOUR EXPERIENCE, STRENGTH AND HOPE. THAT'S NOT WHAT YOU'VE DONE HERE. I'VE HAD THE BAD EXPERIENCES AND READING THIS HAS ANGERED ME, AND AS I'M READING THIS I'M THINKING MAYBE YOUR ONE OF THE SECRET SINNERS. HIDING SOMETHING OR WAS VICTIM. OH, I CANT DO THAT BECAUSE THEN I WOULD BE JUDGING YOU AND THATS NOT SHOWING YOU THE BENEFIT OF THE DOUBT. COULD YOU TRY TO SHOW SOME UNDERSTANDING FOR THE ONE BEING HURT.

#2 is obvious. Yes, no practicing pedophile, homosexual, murderer, liar, spouse abuser, drunk, adulterer, etc. should be allowed privileges in a religious organization. THEN WHAT ABOUT THE ELDERS WHO LET THESE TYPES OF PEOPLE HAVE PRIVILEGED. That should be the case in ALL religions who uphold God's word! But is it? I doubt it. I would imagine that ALL religions have secret sinners of this sort in positions of responsibility--probably up to and including the "reverend". Is it right--NO! Does it happen? Probably. Will there ever be a way in this system of things, to prevent it from happening--NO!!! WRONG!! THERE CAN BE PREVENTION TO KEEP IT FROM HAPPENING AS MUCH. GOD'S KINGDOM IS THE ANSWER FOR ALOT OF THINGS. WHAT IF THIS IS GOD'S WAY OF CLEANING HOUSE. WHAT IF THIS IS GOD'S WAY OF PREVENTING THIS AND SHOWING A BETTER WAY TO HELP THE INNOCENT ONES. GOD CARES FOR THE CHILDREN AND GOD USES THEM IN MANY EXAMPLES. JUST CONSIDER "WHAT IF. " Only God's kingdom can do away with all of the imperfections of this system of things. WERE NOT TALKING ABOUT DOING AWAY WITH THIS, HOWEVER WE ARE TALKING RIGHT NOW ABOUT HOW TO HELP. WERE NOT TALKING ABOUT DOING AWAY WITH THIS, MAKE THINGS BETTER NOW. Think about it, what were God's chosen people doing, while Moses was on the mountain taking down the commandments from God? WHAT! WHAT HAS THAT GOT TO DO WITH CHILDREN
BEING HURT LIKE THEY ARE. I LOOKED THAT UP AND CANNOT FIND WHERE CHILDREN BEING ABUSED IN SUCH A WAY THAT IT RUINS THEIR LIFE. WE ARE NOT IN MOSES DAY. Look it up in the Bible if you don't know. If God's chosen people had serious problems when they reported directly to Jehovah, what makes you think that JWs or any other religion would not have problems. OK, YOU WANT TO STRETCH THIS WAY OUT OF PROPORTION YOU GO AHEAD. CHILDREN ARE A GIFT AN INHERITANCE. YES JWS ARE NOT THE ONLY RELIGION HAVING THIS DELIMMA AND JUST LIKE OTHER RELIGIONS ITS BEING BROUGHT TO PEOPLES ATTENTION. It's called living in the last days, 2 Tim 3:1-5. It's an imperfect world and there's no way to fix everything without God's kingdom, especially when you have perverts like Satan running around like a lion seeking to devour someone. THIS IS AN IMPERFECT WORLD AND WHILE WE ARE HERE WE CAN DO WHAT WE CAN TO SAFEGUARD GOD'S GIFTS TO US... THE CHILDREN. I HOPE THAT YOU CAN START TO TRY TO SEE IT FROM SOMEONES SIDE WHOSE HAD THESE THINGS HAPPEN. THERE ARE MANY EXPERIENCES ON THE SITE THAT TELL YOU THEIR SIDE. IS IT WRONG FOR THEM TO GET HELP? NO! THEY ARE LIVING EXAMPLES THAT THEY ARE TRYING TO DO WHAT THE ELDERS TELL THEM TO DO EVEN WHEN THEY GET HURT, SHUNNED AND NO MATTER WHAT SEEMS TO HAPPEN TO THEM THEY STILL LOVE JEHovah. MANY ARE WAITING FOR GOD TO TAKE CARE OF THIS. THE TIME HAS COME TO WHERE THEY GET ACKNOWLEDGED FOR BEING STRONG WHEN THEY SHOULD HAVE NEVER BEEN PUT IN THAT SITUATION.

Do JW elders ever screw up? Of course, once in a while, in a small minority cases, elders screw up. Who ever said elders are perfect all the time. You were by some of your comments. They are no more perfect that you are, Bill. BILL IS TRYING TO HELP AND ITS SAD THAT YOU CANNOT SEE THAT. BILL CAN SLEEP AT NIGHT. BILL IS MORE OF A WITNESS FOR DOING WHAT IS RIGHT AND YOUR PUTTING HIM DOWN FOR THAT. FROM WHAT I'VE READ ALL HE'S DONE WAS SHOW FACTS ON THINGS. Obviously, they are striving to set a good example but are they all-knowing, making right decisions at all times? NOT POSSIBLE. THEY ARE IN A SITUATION WHERE THEY ARE ABOVE THE REST OF US AND ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FLOCK, SO YES, THEY NEED TO BE HELD MORE RESPONSIBLE. THEY ARE SUPPOSE TO BE EXAMPLES. DONT GET ME WRONG THERE ARE MANY WHO ARE GREAT EXAMPLES. ITS SAD THAT IT JUST TAKES A FEW TO RUIN THE REPUTATION OF MANY. I don't know anybody who can claim that, not even you, Bill. I'm sure you've made some bad decisions in your life that in hindsight you regret. We all have. BILL ISN'T SAYING HE'S PERFECT. HE'S WAS GIVEN CHOICES AND HE CHOSE TO DO THE RIGHT THING AND FOR THAT HE'S GOTTEN PUNISHED. I PRAY THAT HE GETS BLESSED IN MANY WAYS BECAUSE OF THE ONES HE'S HELPED. I PRAY FOR YOU. I PRAY THAT THIS MAY NEVER HAPPEN TO YOU OR ANYONE YOU KNOW BECAUSE IF YOU HAVENT BEEN IN THESE TYPES OF SITUATIONS YOU REALLY DONT KNOW. RIGHT NOW YOUR SPEAKING OUT OF IGNORANCE, OR ARE YOU? FROM WHAT I'VE READ THERE IS ANGER. MAYBE SOMETHINGS HAPPENED TO YOU AND YOUR BEING TRIGGERED AND THIS IS THE ONLY WAY YOU KNOW HOW TO REPOND. mAYBE YOU'VE BEEN AN ELDER WHOSE BEEN APPROACHED AND WAS TOLD CERTAIN THINGS TO DO. WHATEVER IT MAY BE WITH YOU PLEASE HAVE SOME COMPASSION FOR THE LITTLE GUY.

You state that no molesters should be allowed to go in the door to door ministry. To my knowledge, privileges such as going door-to-door, etc., would be removed from such ones. All of the "body of elder" letters you posted on your site attest to this fact. SOME LETTERS ATTEST TO KEEPING SILENT AN I KNOW FROM EXPERIENCE OF PEOPLE GOING TO DOOR-TO-DOOR, HAVING PRIVILEGED, ETC. I'M GLAD TO KNOW THAT FROM YOUR KNOWLEDGE ITS BEING DONE THAT WAY. GOOD. WHAT ABOUT OTHER PEOPLES KNOWLEDGE?

Not only that, but as everyone knows, JWs go door to door with at least one other person, nobody goes to the door alone. REALLY! DO YOU GO OUT EVERYDAY? ALL DAY LONG? YOU REALLY DONT KNOW DO YOU? PEOPLE DO GO OUT ALONE. DO YOU LIKE MAKING STUFF UP? And how is somebody going to molest a child on a doorstep anyway? ARE YOU THAT IGNORANT? NO, MAYBE JUST NIEVE. SOME PERPETRATORS TAKE THEIR TIMES TO PLAN THESE THINGS. WHAT IF A BIBLE STUDY IS STARTED AND THAT PERSON GOES THERE EVERY WEEK GETTING TO KNOW THE FAMILY AS WELL AS STUDING THE BIBLE. MOST GAIN THE CHILDS TRUST IN SOME WAY FIRST. A STRANGER CAN PUT THE FEAR OF GOD INTO A CHILD SO YES, THINGS LIKE THAT CAN HAPPEN.

As far as the elders in a religious organization reporting something told to them in confidence, I believe the Supreme Court ruled on this. WHAT ABOUT THE MORAL SPIRITUAL SUPREME COURT? YOUR TALKING THIRD PARTY. WHAT ABOUT THE FIRST OR SECOND PARTY? WHAT ABOUT THE PROTECTING THE INNOCENT CHILD? I COULD BE WRONG BUT HASNT THERE ALSO BEEN CASES WHEN IT COMES TO CHILDREN BEING HURT LIKE THAT THEY NEED TO REPORT IT. I'M TALKING ANY RELIGION. WHAT RULING IS THIS? WHERE DID THAT RULING COME FROM? ANYBODY CAN WRITE SOMETHING DOWN. WHAT SUPREME COURT? WHAT CITY, STATE BECUASE EACH STATE IS DIFFERENT. THE MERE FACT controlling the third party,” the Supreme Judicial Court ruled. "There is no duty to announce to people that 'John Brown' is a child abuser." If the court had ruled otherwise, it "would basically discourage people from going to their ministers and getting help." If people could not count on confidentiality when they go and confess to a Catholic priest, there's going be quite a chilling effect on religion. HM. THEN WHY WOULD IT BE PUBLIC RECORD WHEN A CHILD ABUSER MOVES INTO AN AREA AND THE AUTHORITIES GO DOOR-TO-DOOR TO LET PEOPLE KNOW. HELLO, THERE IS A CHILLING EFFECT ON RELIGION OR YOU WOULDNT BE HEARING ABOUT IT MUCH MORE NOW THAN BEFORE.

ALL victims need help, REALLY, EVEN THE ONES YOU CALL "PASSIVE... DOORMAT, ETC? Bill, not that you will ever be able to do that all by yourself. wHY SHOULD HE WHEN HE HAS PEOPLE WHO WANT TO HELP HIM. NEVER GOT THE IMPRESSION BILL WAS WANTING TO DO THAT, OR IS THAT WHAT YOU WANT PEOPLE TO THINK. Unfortunately, you come across as having a vendetta against JWs, instead of coming across as wanting to help children. OH. YOUR COMING OFF AS REALLY CLOSED MINDED. BILL HAS HELPED SO MANY PEOPLE AND ITS SAD THAT YOU DONT SEE THAT. THAT WILL BE ANOTHER THING I WILL PRAY FOR YOU. THERE ISNT VENDETTAS. I'VE NOT HEARD HIM PUT DOWN THE ORGANIZATION. I'VE HEARD HIS FRUSTRATION AND WANTING POLICIES TO CHANGE. HE'S BEEN SAD THAT CHILDREN HAVE BEEN HURT. HE HAS COURAGE TO LOOK AT THIS IN A WIDER SCOPE. I'VE BEEN GOING TO MEETINGS FOR QUITE SOME TIME AND I'VE SEEN ELDERS LETTERS AND THE ONES THATS BEEN POSTED ARE AMAZINGLY HAVE THE SAME LOGO, ARTWORK, SIGNATURE, ETC. I LET THE FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES. WHEN THINGS HAVE BEEN POSTED OR SENT TO THE WTBT SOCIETY THERE HAS BEEN AN AREA TO WHERE ITS BEEN CERTIFIED AS BEING TRUE. Wait a minute, that's it, I get it now--under the guise of wanting to help children, you really do have a vendetta against Jehovah's Witnesses. ARE YOU... NO WAIT A MINUTE... THATS IT... IT DOESNT MATTER WHAT SOMEONE TELLS YOU. YOUR LOOKING AT THIS VERY NARROWMINDED. HOW HAVE YOU HELPED OR CONTRIBUTED TO HELP. YOU CANT COUNT YOUR FLAPPING YOUR TRAP ABOUT WHAT YOU ASSUME AS HELPING. And what better forum than the Internet to exhibit your wares, where this kind of propaganda thrives. The press loves nothing more than to report something bad about Jehovah's Witnesses--you obviously used this to your advantage. THE INTERNET IS A VERY USEFUL WAY TO HELP PEOPLE. HOW MANY STORIES ARE ON THERE THAT THIS IS THE FIRST TIME A VICTIM HAS BEEN ABLE TO SAY SOMETHING. MANY TIMES THATS JUST THE FIRST STEP TOWARD HEALING. HOW IS THIS TO HIS ADVANTAGE. HE'S NOT GETTING MONEY ON THIS. HE'S NOT BEING PAID FOR THE MASSIVE AMOUNT OF TIME HE SPENDS EVERY DAY HELPING SOMEONE THAT DIDNT KNOW HOW TO SPEAK UP BEFORE. HE DOESNT HAVE TO DO THIS, HE WANTS TO HELP AND HOW DARE YOU INCINUATE THAT HE'S DOING THIS TO HIS ADVANTAGE. LOOK AT THE RESOURCES, THE LINKS TO HELP PEOPLE. A VENDETTA? NO, A VENDETTA IS WHERE YOU WANT TO HURT SOMEONE IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER. YOU SOUND LIKE YOU HAVE A VENDETTA TOWARD HIM, OR ARE YOU JEALOUS? HE IS USING HIS TIME WISELY AND GETTING A BETTER MESSAGE ACROSS OF HOW HE WANTS TO HELP NOT HURT. HE'S LETTING THE FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES. DO YOU KNOW WHAT ITS LIKE TO KEEP SOMETHING LIKE THIS BOTTLED UP? BEING ABLE TO PUT SOMETHING DOWN ANONYMOUSLY THEY GET TO TAKE THAT BIG HEAVY WEIGHT OFF THEIR CHEST EVEN IF ITS JUST FOR A LITTLE BIT.

Information can be slanted any which way to suit the one delivering the information. Hmmm... WHAT MESSAGE ARE YOU SLANTING TOWARD? --the media does it all the time. Smart ones do their research. THEN I GUESS BILL IS A GENIUS BECAUSE I'VE LOOKED UP INFO AND DID BACKGROUND CHECKS AND HAVENT FOUND ANYTHING THATS BEEN A LIE. however, to find out if what they are being told is REALLY true. BEEN THERE AND DONE THAT AND LOTS OF IT IS REALLY TRUE, OR WOULD YOU YOU BE CALLING SOMEONE WHO HAS BEEN HURT IN THAT WAY A LIAR, I'M NOT A LIAR. The truth is out there but certainly not with silentlambs. SAD THAT YOU ARE CALLING MANY PEOPLE LIARS. WHAT ADVANTAGE WOULD IT BE FOR MOST OF US TO PUT SOMETHING DOWN THAT HURTS THEM DEEPLY INSIDE. US, "SILENTLAMBS" HAVE LIVED WITH THIS HORROR OUR WHOLE LIFETIME. WHAT ABOUT US? DONT WE DESERVE TO BE HEARD? DONT WE DESERVE JEHOVAH'S HELP? DONT WE DESERVE TO HEAL AND MOVE PAST BEING A SURVIVOR? I BELIEVE THAT JEHOVAH IS HELPING AND NOW THIS IS MAJOR CLEANING TIME. YOU KNOW WHAT COMES AROUND GOES AROUND. IT'S OUR TIME NOW. ITS OUR TIME TO BE ACKNOWLEDGED. ITS OUR TIME TO PUT CLOSURE ON THIS AND LIVE LIFE AND BE HAPPY. JEHOVAH WANTS HIS PEOPLE TO BE HAPPY. This is a classic example of a disgruntled JW slanting the truth because he has a bone to pick supposedly about JWs covering up child molestation. SUPPOSEDLY! NOW THATS SAD THAT YOU DONT SEE WHERE YOUR THINKING IS WAY OUT THERE. I GUESS THOSE COURT HEARINGS AND COURT DOCUMENTS DON'T MEAN ANYTHING. SO ARE THOSE MANY MANY GUT WRENCHING STORIES ARE BEING MADE UP? (Isn't a Catholic child molester just as bad? ANY MOLESTER IS JUST AS BAD. THE INFO THAT I'VE READ HASN'T BEEN SHOWING PREFERENCE. THE LINKS ON THE SITE AREN'T JUST FOR JW'S. ITS FOR ANYONE WHOSE BEEN A VICTIM OR SILENTLAMB. Of course, we are all very familiar with the child molestation cover up by the Catholic church, among other things. HM... YOU SOUND LIKE YOU DIDN'T LIKE IT WHEN THE CATHOLICS COVERED UP THINGS AND ITS DIFFERENT WHEN ITS JW'S. SO DID YOU EMAIL THEM AND REMEMBER THEM LIKE YOU HAVE THIS WEBSITE. DOUBT IT.

So you had a bad experience, big deal. CAN YOU SLEEP AT NIGHT WITH YOUR DYSFUNCTIONAL THINKING? ONE BAD EXPERIENCE FOR A CHILD IS ONE TO MANY. FROM WHAT HAS BEEN NOTED ON THIS SITE ITS TOO MANY INSTANCES OF INJUSTICES TO IGNORE ANYMORE. Injustice prevails. Is injustice pleasant-- no! Does it exist--obviously! Has everyone experienced it in one form or another--yes! The questions is: Are you a victim or a survivor? I CONSIDER ANYONE WHOSE WROTE WHAT THEY HAVE ON THIS SITE A SURVIVOR. YES A SURVIVOR THAT STILL HAS MANY ISSUES. Since I have survived I have chosen not dwell on the injustice forever. GOOD FOR YOU. ARE YOU DWELLING ON RESENTMENT AND ANGER THEN? What purpose does that serve--it only feeds self-pity and wanting pity from others--there's more to life than that. YES, THERE IS AND THIS SITE HAS SHOWN THAT. Of course, I realize that there are a few people who thrive on wallowing in self-pity for the attention is garners. YOU SOUND LIKE ONE OF THEM. For me personally, I simply look forward to the day when all injustices will be done away with: GOOD FOR YOU. WHAT CAN YOU DO TO HELP? YOU SAY YOUR A SURVIVOR SO YOU WOULD WANT YOUR EXPERIENCE STRENGTH AND HOPE FOR SOMEONE ELSE. AFTER READING THIS WOULDN'T WANT YOUR EXPERIENCE BECAUSE I'M SEEING WHERE ITS BITTERED YOU. WHAT ARE YOU AFRAID OF? I GO WITH THE WINNERS AND BILL AND HIS MANY HELPERS HAS HELPED DO JUST THAT. I KNOW THAT JEHovah WILL BLESS PEOPLE WHO HELP OTHER PEOPLE. THINK ABOUT IT. WAIT A MINUTE, BEFORE YOU DO THAT TAKE OFF THOSE HORSE BLINDERS FIRST. BEFORE YOU GIVE YOUR ASSUMING OPINIONS TAKE THAT RAFTER OUT OF YOUR EYE FIRST BECAUSE ITS BLINDING YOU. YOU REMEMBER ABOUT THE 100 SHEEP AND ONE WAS LOST. WHAT IF SOMEONE'S COMMENTS OR ENCOURAGEMENT HELPS JUST ONE OF THOSE SHEEP THATS BEEN SHUT UP FOR A LONG TIME. LOOK AT JESUS HE LOOKED VERY HARD TO SAVE THAT ONE LITTLE LOST GUY. THIS SITE IS HELPING ALOT OF THOSE LITTLE LOST ONES AND WANT TO BE FOUND AND BE LOVED AS MUCH AS THE OTHER 99. WAS IT BY CHOICE THAT THE LITTLE ONE WAS LOST. WE DONT KNOW. WE DO KNOW THAT IT WAS VERY IMPORTANT FOR THAT ONE TO BE FOUND. ITS BEEN TAUGHT THAT THE ELDERS SHEPARD THE FLOCK, SO WHAT EXAMPLE IS BEING SET WHEN THAT LITTLE SHEEP IS LEFT THERE AND DIDNT HAVE TO BE. GOD IS THE ONLY ONE WHO CAN JUDGE SOMEONE'S ACTIONS AND I KNOW THAT WHEN GOD HEARS MY NAME HE WILL HAVE A BIG SMILE. I WILL PRAY FOR ALL THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN AFFECTED AS EITHER A VICTIM, SURVIVOR, THE ONE WHO HURT THE CHILD/ CHILDREN, AND THE ONES THAT WERE IN A POSITION TO HELP AND FOR WHATEVER REASON DIDNT. I PRAY THAT PEACE WILL BE THERE. I HOPE THAT WHOEVER READS THIS AND HAS FELT LIKE THE PERSON WHO COMMENTED IN BLACK REGULAR PRINT OR WHOSE FEELINGS/THINKINGS OF THE COMMENTS IN ALL CAPITOLS HAS HELPED IN ANY WAY. THE DATELINE SHOW IS ABOUT ALL OF THIS AND WILL HAVE A RIPPLE EFFECT AND IS GOING TO BE WIDESPREAD AND GOOD WILL COME OUT OF THIS. I DO BELIEVE YOU REAP WHAT YOU SOW AND MAYBE JUSTICE WILL PREVAIL THOSE WHO'VE BEEN HURT. DO NOT BELIEVE THIS SITE IS JUST PICKING ON JW'S BECAUSE THERE ARE MANY COMMENTS THATS BEEN FROM NON-JW'S. IT JUST SO HAPPENS THAT RIGHT NOW ALOW OF JW'S ARE AFFECTED. THIS IS A WORLDWIDE DELIMMA AND THIS IS JUST ONE POSITIVE STEP TO SET SOME WRONGS. CHILDREN ARE SO PRECIOUS AND THEY NEED TO BE CHILDREN AND BE IN A SAFE ENVIRONMENT. LETS TREAT OUR GIFTS THE WAY GOD WOULD WANT THEM TO BE AND THAT IS LOVED UNCONDITIONALLY. I WANT TO PERSONALLY ACKNOWLEDGE MY THANKS TO ALL THOSE WHO'VE COME FORWARD AND BEEN BRAVE, AND ALL THOSE WHO ARE GIVING OF THEIR TIME IN SOME WAY TO HELP. MANY WILL NEVER BE ACKNOWLEDGED. ONE OF THE THINGS THIS SITE HAS ACCOMPLISHED IS GIVING KNOWLEDGE ON HOW TO IMPROVE HOW CERTAIN THINGS ARE DONE. YOU KNOW THE SAYING; "KNOWLEDGE IS POWER". THANK YOU FOR READING THIS AND KEEP ANYONE WHOSE BEEN HURT IN YOUR PRAYERS.

the email I responded to was the one posted at Remote User: Date: 30 Jan 2002 Time: 16:37:11 and i responded in capitol letters and now i'm reading that when you type in capital letters that you are yelling. That was not my intention. Capital letters was the only way i could distinguish between their and my comments. When you respond it doesn't give you a choice of font or color so this was my only option. There were a few places that i wanted to yell. I am very thankful for this site and i check it many times to see what other people's comments are and to get updates. I am glad that Bill mentioned that he was in good standing and he wasn't disfellowshipped or reproved. NOW maybe some of the people will stop badgering him about that. thank you

This is a wonderful website! As an abuse survivor myself, it is truly heartwarming to learn that not only am I not alone, but there IS something that IS being done to make others, especially the media, aware of this problem in the witness organization. It's time they learned that these lambs have TEETH! Jeanette Gibson

It is all true the JWs are an evil organization that hides its wrongs behind a veil of religious piety. I have had a child abused while a JW and went through exactly the same process as has been shown on this site. John Law Nambour Australia

Not bad. I've been away for a lot of years and didn't have to put up with any of that crap. But I knew families that did. This web site puts the issue in perspective and was the first time I thought of the problem as endemic.

Just read everyone's letters for January. A thought: if a brother who had molested children and now did not and was truly repentant would you not think that he would be humble enough not to impose on the congregation by expecting everyone to forgive him let alone give him "position"? Would he not be in fear of bringing reproach upon Jehovah by going door to door? Would you not think that he would sit in the back like the "dog" that he is and not expect anything??? But be gracious enough to be able to sit in a Kingdom Hall and grateful- that out of love no brother or sister would kill him??? Any brother who has sexually molested a child and is not ashamed of the support he gets from the elders and isn't ashamed of the shunning of the victim by the elders is not - I repeat is not a repentant brother.

Another subject: My children were threaten with me being murdered in front of them and then they themselves being murdered if they told - they were 2, 3 and 4 years old- This was in 1970 or so when "I" didn't know that things like this happened, I didn't know what to do and thought it was my fault for not protecting my children and I was not able to speak about it openly for 15 years or so. I told all members of my family, since all had minor children in the home. NOT ONE PERSON BELIEVED ME and they are today still sympathetic to the molester (my brother) and never ever have they shown concern or compassion for my babies. I have cut off my whole family over this issue. To not be a hypocrite, I had to cut myself off from the witnesses for the way they do business with pedophiles. I can't treat my family one way and the witnesses another. I will not be friends with or associate with anyone who treats a pedophile with sympathy and the victim of the same pedophile with indifference or contempt.

True this happens everywhere - so why go anywhere??? I don't have to go to a Kingdom Hall if it is the same as every place else and I don't want friends who can't think. I went to the kingdom hall because I thought it was different.

Lots of thoughts. This "two witness" thing is a "mantra" - Jehovah never ever meant it to be used as a thoughtless excuse to "burn children" - Jehovah said "meek" not stupid. Jehovah's witnesses should be outstanding not ordinary and that is where Bill's heartache is and everyone who shares on this site. When there is no difference between a Catholic or a witness except doctrine, a real witness of the real God Jehovah takes it to heart. Can't get saved on doctrine. At least I don't think so.

You guys take care. CEM

I would just like you to know that i also was a J W for 15years. I was disfellowshipped 10 yrs ago for wanting to divorce my husband. the excuse they made was that i wanted to celebrate christmas with my children. I have since then not agreed with any of there polices. I would like to say that i read your article and am glad they are being shown for what sort of people they really are. they tried to stop my mother from speaking to me, but she choose to ignore them. and now she has also seen your article and is going to disassociate herself from them. I WOULD LIKE TO SAY THANK YOU VERY MUCH FROM THE BOTTOM OF MY HEART. AS NOW SHE HAS SEEN THEM IN A DIFFERENT LIGHT. THANK YOU DAWN

I'd like to invite you to visit my friend and I's site, Beware The Wounded Tiger. It's about childhood sexual abuse and features a forum there for survivor's to submit their poems and/or survivor stories so they may help others and have a place to vent. I never thought that I would see the day that someone would take a stand against what happens on the inside of this organization. I was raised within this strange world and was abused as well with nothing being done about it. The use of an outside professional psychiatric therapist is highly shunned. I have overcome my past through years of strong analysis of the situation.

I am glad that you are doing this. So I guess it isn't true that Jehovah will protect them through all!

Your website is wonderful -- it gives voices to those who were silenced by the WT. It is refreshing to see a site such as this. As a victim of childhood sexual abuse (I'm not/never been a JW), I weep for those innocents and I pray that the WT is destroyed without a trace -- without even a memory of their existence. They have other foul double-standard policies -- but this is by far the most heinous. The JW's who are current members, may never see the truth and leave -- but I hope that this issue gets enough publicity to prevent their ranks from increasing. Ugghhh! It makes me white-hot-mad when I read about their arrogance in protecting the organization and throwing their children to the wolves. Ok -- I'm venting. :) Keep on keeping on -- never give up -- this is a fight worth fighting for!

Have you heard of or know anything about a elder named William Vernon who was sent to jail for molesting children in the London Kentucky congregation about 10 years ago? I heard that when he got out of jail he moved to a different state. Just wondering if he got his elder privileges back yet in his new congregation?

You are doing the victims of the Watchtower policy a great service by keeping this important website. My heart bleeds for those innocent children.

If it were not for sites like this, we Canadians would be totally in the dark about such issues about Jehovah's Witnesses. No news media is permitted to write anything at all of negative nature about Jehovah's Witnesses here in Canada. Since I have made this statement many times, Jehovah's Witnesses wanted to "prove" me wrong by recently allowing a small article to be published here on the internet (global.com) about a JW girl getting a blood transfusion against Watchtower policy. But they still NEVER report anything about cases of pedophiles in the congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses, whether it be from other countries or Canada. This whole big country called Canada is totally silent when it comes to exposing Jehovah's Witnesses for wrongdoing. Other religions yes. . . . but Jehovah's Witnesses NEVER.

I have been in therapy now for several months because I finally could no longer deal with my anger about the molestation of my children by their father, his endless ability victimize me over and over again all at the orchestration of the "Christian" congregation. . . Then his welcome home party by the "Congregation" when he came home from prison (yes, I did prosecute him for five accounts of rape. . . I thought teaching infants to give him oral sex was not permissible)Then his full privileges in the congregation, then NEVER a dime of child support for his six children and a religion who found no fault with that. . . Then a new husband who so completely brainwashed supported all "elder" decisions even when unscriptural. . . the story is endless and not finished yet. I am looking for other sisters who have endured such things. I am not an apostate. But if you speak out against the sexual misconduct of "the brothers" you instantly are an apostate. They don't want anyone to know. The first thing they do is tell you never to talk about it. Are they just in denial or is this a really wicked scheme to keep everyone in control so they can perpetuate their wicked behavior? If anyone has anything to share with me I really need to know. . . I think I really am losing it. Jan e-mail janinehamilton@msn.com

If you are one of Jehovah's Witnesses, why do you perpetuate a site that insults each and every one of the Witnesses to their very core? I see so much venom being spewed on this website and I don't mean from victims. This seems to be a website for Witness bashing. Why do you tolerate such conduct if you believe Witness dogma?

What is an apostate?

My grandfather, a ministerial servant ("elder" back then) was a child rapist. I was molested and then raped from infancy through 10 years. One of his daughters was molested and raped through 16 years. Another cousin, and countless neighborhood children, were also his victims. he threatened to kill me if I ever told.

My father regularly beat me to discipline me - while in his underwear where his erection was visible, and he would often be so excited that he'd ejaculate at the end. He was a ministerial servant and later an elder.

No one did anything about this. It was considered normal.

My husband and I are studying 5 months now. I believe what they teach. I can sort of relate about rape. i was ,a long time ago. your right about the 2 witnesses thing. nobody else knows most of the time about the rape except you and the rapist. do they really have this policy enforced on the issue of child abuse? I know that scripture, but i cant imagine they would use it to apply to this issue. I have learned a lot of the bible from them, I am afraid not to become one of them ,because of what the bible says about those who do not obey Christ. About going door to door,Etc. do you still tell others about the kingdom?! thought they handled things perfectly on matters because every answer comes from the bible. there must be an exception on the matter of abuse. Then again there are rare occurrences of children lying. What is the bibles policy on child abuse? Please write me back at wwwGEOANDMISH@msn. com

I'd like to address a few of the last couple of posts. First, the person who say this is a site for witness bashing & asks what is an apostate. If you look in the book "Aid to bible understanding" it says that an apostate is "one who stands apart" that's all. Next, if you are looking for a site devoted to "witness bashing" there are hundreds of them far better suited to the task. If you will read it again, especially the pamphlet, you'll notice this site does not address the dogma or teachings of the witnesses. IT ONLY ADDRESSES THAT CHILDREN ARE BEING HORRIBLY RAPED & NOT A DAMN THING IS BEING DONE ABOUT IT BY THE WBTS!!!!! The thing that makes me so angry is that no one wants to face this & argue about doctrine, or say it doesn't happen that often, or it'll just go away. Your children are being raped over & over( I was in the wbts for 22 yrs, & I alone have talked to at least 20 kids who've had this happen, myself & my brother included, w/ not one molester ever having been reported) Stop arguing about who is a witness & who isn't, & ask your kids if any one has done this. take it to the elders & see what happens. As for the letter from the people who've been studying. You can go door to door yourself, you don't need a publishing companies OK to do it. Also, at least in the old testament, if you wanna know what was done to sex offenders, if you've read the bible at all, they had a great solution for these people who, even today, even with god's help, have a 95% re-offense rate. They killed them. End of story

A certain person, like yourself (Via the internet) complained that sisters were allowed to teach in the congregation and not kept in subjection. You seem to be saying the opposite. Jesus said that our forgiveness takes place by GOD ON CONDITION that we forgive other, (since all fall short of God's glory!) 'The Lord's Prayer'-Matt 6:14. How do you interpret a threat or warning? i.e., if one says that to go around telling others something that does not carry enough evidence to prove the point in question will make them subject to accusations of slander. If such a persons had en ought evidence, then why not go strait to the police? I have heard the Organization state that no one should protect someone who is breaking the Law! The problem might be a local one.

"The plaintiff's counsel seeks to strip a church of the sanctity and complete confidentiality of the confession..." - Paul D. Polidoro

First time I've seen the WBTS use the term "confession" - brought up in the faith, I never saw anyone going to confession.

What gets me even more is the caveat that the WBTS must have "proper evidence" to take any action, or support any victim - that "proper evidence" being two witnesses. With molest, this is virtually never happens.

No one believed me when I told. I had no witnesses. I was molested my entire childhood.

Mish: I doubt God created man, gave us guidelines via the bible, AND included an elaborate game of 'clue' where some chosen few men could decipher a timeline and lead us all to salvation. You can stop stressing and get on with your life. You learned a useful lesson about those who want to control your personal decisions. Consider yourself enriched and move on with your lives.

Welcome to the fold of those that have decided to apply reason to their personal morality decisions.

It is absurd to think that God created mankind, wrote the bible for us all, but also included a game of 'timeline clue' that only a chosen few could interpret and lead us all to salvation.

You have taken an important step. You can use the lessons learned for the rest of your life.

Your web site is not only biased but presents as facts, lies. No doubt there are ones who have suffered abuse, even within the organization. Man is imperfect, this is no secret. Thus the Bible gives clear guidelines as to how to deal properly with such situations. In my 30 years as one of Jehovah's witnesses I have known of only 2 instances of child molestation. One in my own family. But, as is the standard course of action, the individuals were disfellowshipped, revealed to the proper secular authorities, and the families were given all the love and support possible, including the understanding that if therapy was desired and needed that certainly that was within the individuals right to acquire. In other words, whatever was necessary to protect and help the victim. No one was shunned, no threats made, that is ridiculous. The abusers were in no way "protected". As is noted even on your web site that it is indeed a very rare event for this type of abuse to happen among Jehovah's Witnesses, but as a result of sinful tendencies it does happen, and as has been published within the pages of the Watchtower, it is to be handled in a way which will best help the victim. If an offender later repents and turns their life around (only God can read hearts), then in time that one may be reinstated, but is never again allowed to hold a position of responsibility in the congregation. Is this not fair? Does this not look out for the interests of the flock? Certainly it does. So, again, let me say that while your intentions may be good, you seem to have provided a forum for the disgruntled and perhaps the dishonest? Anyone who has had therapy knows that the biggest part of healing to try and forgive, or at the very least come to terms with the situation, and then move on in a productive way. Spending vast amounts of time and energy in the persecution of a people who are known as a group for their unsurpassed love and consideration of others is very unfair. There is no cover up going on and never has been, and to present that view as fact is to do what you accuse the Witnesses of doing, covering up TRUTH, and lying to people. Shame on you. You are like those predatory therapists who brainwash their patients into believing they have been molested when indeed they haven't. Remember the Salem witch trials? This tactic is nothing new, people such as yourself will malign anyone to hide the real truth won't you? Again shame on you for misleading people.

I am from California. I'll refrain from using my name for obvious reasons. I was sexually abused by my uncle who while not a witness, used my knowledge of watchtower policy to keep me silent and submit to his advances. He used God's name and said that Jehovah demanded that children listen to and obey their elders and even referred to stories from the Bible Stories Book put out by the society. He said that I would be disfellowshipped if anyone found out but that he wouldn't be punished since he was not a witness. Years later I finally came forward (I was 21 when I came forward) but my parents were clueless as to how to help me. They basically said "Read what the Watchtower has said on the matter, pray to Jehovah - put it in his hands, and forget about it. When I continued to have problems including sexual compulsiveness years later they became exasperated with me accusing me of "milking it" and blaming everything on my abuse. Local elders cautioned me against going to any kind of therapy saying "all we need is in the Bible. " They later blamed my failing attendance and service time on my "worldly philosophy. " Later a close friend of mine - a sister - confided in me that a ministerial servant abused her on several occasions when she was 11. She reported it at the time and the pedophile was removed as a servant but she was never told what was done. As far as she knew the crime went unpunished. Years later she asked her father about it (an elder) and he told her that he was deleted as a servant, but that he repented and was now a servant again. When she protested that she didn't feel like he did enough, her father took it personal and said "so I'm not a good father?" switching her attention to him and his hurt so she felt guilty about feeling hurt herself. 10 years after the abuse, the pedophile showed up at her house with her father's blessing to ask her on a date! She was mortified. Through all of this she is totally faithful to the organization. I asked her if she realized that child molesters NEVER do it just once since it is an orientation. She said Jehovah will take care of any children that are hurt from here on out, so she saw no need to report him to the authorities. Recently I was dating a sister that confided in me that she was seduced at the age of 17 by her foster father. The elders felt no need to report statutory rape charges since she was so close to eighteen. Both she and the

Hi! I agree there is a major problem with child molesting in the congregations. I know what I have seen. I also know a lot of good persons who do not agree with the present situation. I am an active witness, publisher and my extended family support me. I do not take my children to the kingdom hall as one with my experience I have found, one can't protect children in the presence of the predators. If we see it happening at the hall we report it to the authorities (e.g., police, CAS etc.) We have written letters the the Watchtower. In my experience your information is very accurate. I appreciate your honesty and courage. Victims need a voice. Thank you! DJB tango_sheba@hotmail.com

I always grew up thinking my horror story of abuse from my step father who was the Presiding Overseer at the time was a tragic but rare thing indeed. Now I realize that my sisters and I are just a few among hundreds who were forced to carry this burden with no help from the congregation. I have been a baptized witness for over 25 years along with most of my family. Although I got disfellowshipped for one year, I came back due to another tragedy for the sake of my family. As soon as I was reinstated, my husband and I never went to another meeting, nor do we plan to again. I only wish my family that's still so very afraid would understand. We've been forced to form new friendships and I must say aside from missing our families (we're bad association), we're doing quiet well.

There is a need for information of the like you have here, for many men (and women) have molested or been molested by others (whether familiar or not) and the only way for this to be dealt with is 1) to have the subject aired 2) to help the victims (and the abusers) to come to know the One True God who doesn't hold to this kind of thing. He loves all (including the perpetrator) but will judge such a one. It is for the government to take action for such behavior, for the Bible says so. My sympathy for those who are suffering such turmoil. May God bless them. J W

To the person above who said they got reinstated for their family's sake: If you don't go to the meetings, and if you still don't get to see your families, then why did you get reinstated in the first place? Seems like a waste of time to me if you don't get to see your families even after getting reinstated. That's just ridiculous. Those people who cover up the sins of others are the true bad associations. If you ask me, I think most of the people in the organization should be punished for what they're doing to protect rapists and molesters instead of the victims.

It is all well and good to say that the issue should be aired. You can claim to be supportive of the victims. But the problem is systemic.

Elders tell victims that they are at least partly to blame because they were within screaming distance and didn't. Victims get reproved for reaching out for support or reporting the perpetrator. It happens every day.

The fact that the society believes that the ‘two witness’ rule applies to a 10-year-old boy that just got poked by a ministerial servant should tell you that you have a mess on your hands.

Apply some logic here and try to step back from the blind faith in a group that claims to be directly inspired by God. You could be next.

Although I have not been one of your "Lambs", I find myself incredibly drawn to this website and always end up in tears as I read of the horrors that have been perpetrated upon so MANY "sheep" in the Watchtower Society.

I have been posting to newspapers, letters to the editor, city forums, and any discussion boards directed toward the "general" public, to try and get "the word" out to educate folks to the fact that the smiling people at their doors may also be "relocated" pedophiles, who are "stopping by" to start a "home bible study" with anyone in the household that may seem eager to do so.

I've met with outright deletions (troublemaker-troll) to complete apathy, even in view of the problems being faced in MA with their priests who have molested so many boys, and hidden for years under the same type of "loyalty to the cause" that the Watchtower Society has enjoyed until recently.

I find it extremely frustrating, but I also know that even if ONE person across the nation reads my posts and scoffs at the basis-in-truth it holds, when the "Dateline" show airs, a little "bell" may go off, reminding that reader of the "Lambs" website, and the pain within.
My heart goes out to all of the "Lambs" who live each day, struggling to get on with their lives while dealing with the absolute horrors inflicted upon them, and the ultimate frustrations that follow while the WBTS races to cover up these atrocities for the sole purpose of "keeping their public image above reproach".

It makes me sick. It should make everyone sick. I'm ashamed to have been part of this wretched organization for almost 30 years.

My heartfelt love is extended to all of the victims of sexual abuse at the hand of these unchristian perverts, and their supporters, and,

My heartfelt love is also extended to those who discovered that the WBTS was not what they were led to believe that it was, and chose to leave the unfruitful worship of a publishing empire.

Hugs,

Annie

My heart hurts for all the victims posted on this board, I will pray for them. I am sorry that these things happen. There are a lot of false believers with Jehovah Witness’s that hurt the innocent. I know that I had a guy with my area that claimed he was a witness and that he knew all this stuff about the bible. But I never did like the guy. He was disgusting to me. He too went to bethel, they kicked him out a year later and disfellowshipped him for loose conduct with an underage girl. But weather they reported it is anyone’s guess. If there is anyone that is having problems with abuse. Please inform them that they must go through the Local Authorities! I am a Jehovah’s Witness myself. I completely understand that Jehovah’s Witnesses are not equipped to handle problems of this magnitude. We can only show people the bible. Please do not go to the elders if you are abused or know of some that is abused.
Jehovah Witnesses would prefer not to be involved in these matters for which consulting the local authorities would be involved. The elders of the Congregations of Jehovah Witnesses try to take care of the congregations as best they can, but the best that any man can do is not good enough to satisfy the world conditions we live in. If a person has committed a serious crime it is better to get a lawyer and personally confess to the authorities then go through the elders, which is exactly what the elders will tell the individual to do. Individuals with problems of this nature cannot be cured. The must get close physiological help.

Righteousness will soon prevail. Please hang in there.

members on the committee of elders from my original congregation, and they kept denying my request. Finally heard

For all of you who keep writing, "What about the catholic church?!? They molest kids! Well, there's a few differences I can see right now 1) They're trying to do something about it, better late than never. 2) Yelling about the catholics is something the witnesses have always done, & doing it right now is just a stupid trick to try & avoid looking at your own rampant problem. 3) THE CATHOLICS DON'T SEND CHILD MOLESTERS TO YOUR DAMN FRONT DOOR!!!! THE WITNESSES REQUIRE IT! IF YOU DON'T PUT YOUR TIME IN , YOU ARE CONSIDERED BAD ASSOCIATION. 4)They don't pull in every random person they can find w/ said proselytizing. Also, it is NOT a legal option to ignore reporting a child molester in ANY state due to the federal Mondale act of 1974. To the person who wrote on march 5th that he has only heard of this happening twice, this site is bad, blah, blah, blah. . . . I knew of several instances by the time I was 17, in several congregations! Only one molester was prosecuted. To all of you clowns w/ your head in the air, "Jehovah will take care of it, etc. . You misunderstand my point, I'm not sucking up to the catholics, I was merely pointing out that whenever the witnesses need a scapegoat the catholics or the jews are usually it, & that they need to "remove the rafter from their own eye first" Don't believe me on the Scapegoating of jews by the jw's? It's more subtle than the Catholic baiting, but, look at their books. In the "live forever" book, for example, all the pharisee's look like your stereotypical hook nosed Hitlerian"dirty jew" while Jesus & all the apostles, jews as well, look VERY western european. Racist b. s. But, I don't want to give any impression that I hold one org. religion above another, it's all that dogmatic b. s. that they use to ignore their own problems that really makes me angry, because it's just a lame excuse.

DK, That was one the most insightful things I have read on the topic. I remember back when my mother dragged us into that mess that she once remarked how she 'never saw so many sickly people in her life'. It seemed that every family had something. I always attributed it to the 'we are so far from God's perfection' sentiment that they foist on us - or perhaps on the fact that the Presiding Overseer had a business manufacturing vitamins. But I do think it has something to do with the 'skipping meetings.' But I would add that it has at least as much to do with the amount of attention that one gets when illness gets in the way of the Watchtower meeting attendance. It is curious how you drew this opinion from multiple KHzs. Did you associate with numerous congregations over a long period?
DK, about the list of those who constantly scam people and rob them of their lives, instead of putting just the WTBS on the list, why don't you just put religion in general? I mean come on, Catholics and all those priests molesting those poor kids, Christians and all the collection plates which you have to put money in, basically religion itself is a scam. I don't like pointing out just certain parts of religion, though, mostly because they all suck, not just the JWs and their sick child abuse policy.

DK: I know the types of families you speak of. That was always one thing that rankled me a bit in my JW days: the touch of nobility attached to certain families, whether they be multi-generational or they have a member that is of the anointed. Our congregation had one such family. I guess most did. I remember when Donnie - a 3- or 4-generation (I forget) was made a ministerial servant at the age of 18, one week before he went off to Bethel. He claimed at least one anointed family member. Of course we were supposed to ooooh and aaah at the mention of such glorious pedigree.

The saddest thing about the whole situation, was that there was a fairly large group of boys in my age group, eight out of a congregation of about 100, and that they got all caught up in the "look I'm sooo holy" attitude. They couldn't wait to show how their conscience wouldn't let them do this, or work there, or associate with that brother who is too worldly. When we were all in our late teens and should have been having fun and looking forward to getting our lives going, the rest of them eschewed further education and commitment to establishing a successful life. I would love to know how they are doing and if they still feel right about avoiding dependant thought. - CFS

You mention the WT 1/97 article concerning child molestation. I read that article and it makes plain the policy concerning any who have been guilty of this terrible sin. You omitted this in your former posts. It states on page 29 “For the protection of our children, a man known to have been a child molester, does not qualify for a position of responsibility in the congregation. Moreover, he can not be a pioneer, or serve in any other special, full time service. " We have a responsibility to protect our children. If a man truly repents he can still render worship to God. Jehovah is the judge of each and everyone of us. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. This would mean that we all individually will be judged about how we lived our lives Jehovah will make no mistake on who he lets live when Armageddon arrives. We all will answer, one on one. This magazine went out to over 20 million readers. I am sure mistakes have been made but organizationally. Jehovah is using his namesake persons to go into that "New System" Are you in that protective Ark? Are you giving up on Jehovah's organization just because of some incidents of mishandling? The policy is firm and fast. That could be why Dateline is not airing the program. The policy has been shown to them if it went out to 20 million readers. I know for sure that some who have done this have been turned into the authorities. That is everyone's freedom, I have no idea why it was not done in each case. It is possible that individuals tell untruths about what has happened. Who do you believe if you have not witnessed the sin? Here again, in the end Jehovah will punish those who deny wrongdoing or cover up their sin. How about never getting to live again. That's God's punishment.

Then I read a news article on the watchtower observer about a 16 yr. old jw who also killed his whole family! The cover ups have to stop, Most mass murderers have been abused as kids. I'm so angry at an organization that this always happens in. . . . These morons like the one above that want to talk about other religions need to get off their smug asses & look at their OWN damn problems.

What an eye opener! I am a disfellowshipped Jehovah's Witness. And a former victim of child molestation by by step father who is still a current member of the congregation. It's amazing to see SO many others who feel their situation was handled incorrectly by the elders of the congregation.

To the person above who referred to the 1-97 WT as the basis of WT Policy, it appears you do not have your facts straight. Please review the quote from the 6-1-01 letter to all Bodies of Elders in England, there I think you will find a large contradiction in what you were led to believe. It is my hope you will take the "brotherly" course and apologize for providing misinformation due to your lack of research and being misinformed.

"There is one exception to the above direction: The elders may have written to the branch office and given full details about a former child abuser who is currently serving as an elder or ministerial servant. In such a case, if the branch office has decided that he can be appointed or continue serving in a position of trust because the sin occurred many years ago and because he has lived an exemplary life since then, his name should not appear on the List, nor is it necessary to pass on information about the brother’s past sin if he moves to another congregation unless contrary instructions have been given by the branch. If therefore, such an appointed man moves to another congregation a letter confirming the move should be sent, addressed to the Society's Legal Department."

I rest my case your honor. . . .

Hi Bill,

Thank you for calling me today. It was such a pleasure talking with you again. It makes me feel better to know others, with similar experiences, are out there.

I enjoy reading your website. It's developed very nicely since you first put it up.

I must apologize for not sending you a copy of Wolves Among Sheep. I sent one to Barbara and Rosalie, and now that you've reminded me, I'll send another one to you, free of charge.

However, from now on, I'll have to start charging a small fee for doing that. For the cost of the of book, packaging and post, the total amount should come to about $12.50 US. That's not a bad price for a book nowadays, don't you think?

Kindest regards,

I'm sure more details will arise on the Bryant and Longo cases regarding their association with the witnesses. The similarities are sure to pique the public interest enough to bring on the media big time.

Let's say this: We've seen plenty of people get DFed and we all know people with particularly hard financial situations. But they don't usually kill their families and themselves - even witnesses get it. BUT, can you imagine the isolation of a family that is (1) having tough financial times, (2) has already pushed away all 'worldly' family and friends, AND, (3) is now being shunned at the hall as they try to take their punishment and get back in good standing. Going through that with your family as you try to do what is right - absolutely horrible.

I am a father and even all the above wouldn't cause me to take out my family. But it would tear a person up inside. A mentally unbalanced person may have been pushed over the edge here by these factors.

Boy, am I glad I ran into this site. I associate with JW's and they seem like nice people on the inside, but after seeing this website, I plan to do more research. If any of those people even thinks about laying their filthy hands on my child, I would kill them first, then kill the elders who are letting this happen. Finally, I would dub the entire organization a bunch of hypocrites. If they really think honesty is the best policy, then they shouldn't be covering these things up. I think this child abuse policy is a disgrace to God and to the victims, and they should bring an end to it immediately if not sooner.
Comments:

DK, I agree with you about. Look at the depression running rampant in the congregations. An all the unhappy marriages. Take an honest look at the KH is it truly God's Paradise on earth Far from it. Backbiting, slander, gossip, cliques. And the elder's are nothing but slaves for the Watchtower cult, They just can't think for them self. I hope the new world will come soon.

The Jews were ONCE a chosen people. JW's were once a chosen people, probably prior to creating an overbearing CLERGY class (ELDERS). Does anyone remember how we used to mock Christendom for having an abusive clergy class? How about when the emphasis was on quality rather than quantity?

Having just read Melissa post from February. . . I cannot believe you have such ignorance! I was abused by my TWO brothers, from the age of about 5 or 6 years old. . . .

How can elders ask a child who is 11 or 12 if they had an orgasm during the rape or abuse???? Did you enjoy it? What were you thinking when this was happening? Nothing happens to anyone who abuses children in the congregations. It is swept under the carpet. You, the victim, is made to be blamed. The police are not involved, parents ignore it and do not talk about it. So what happens to the victim? They are left totally screwed up for life.
Sexual abuse is NOT A CHOICE, it is forced upon you and you carry the baggage around forever. I am 40 now. I still have the bad feelings. I cannot settle in any relationship. I still have nightmares. YOU do not know what it is like. IT IS COVERED UP.

We NEED this site. We need exposure. There is no excuse ever. IF an adult JW commits fornication and it becomes known, it usually ends up in disfellowshipping. If you abuse a child, carry on, - it is ok!

Do not knock things that you know nothing about. Protect your own child. Do not stay involved with this organization.

To anyone else, you need to look deeper than superficial coverings of an organization. Instead of listening to a cult organization, start believing those who have left and who have seen it for what it really is.

Sonny: the JWs never were a chosen people. They grew out of a 1800’s movement that figured that god left clues in the bible for some chosen few leaders to decipher and lead us all to salvation. One of the more outspoken ‘Millenites’ split off and started his own religion. Do you really intend to ignore that fact that their founder stood on the Brooklyn Bridge in 1914 fully expecting that he would get raptured up. Picture it, all dressed up like a clown in a white robe just as confidant as could be in his bible deciphering. Sounds like the height of apostasy. How Charles ‘Bozo’ Russell decided that the one and only literal part of Rev 7: and 14: was the actual number 144, 000 defies explanation.

It is and always has been an organization set up by men, ruled by men, and designed to take advantage of any fool willing to let them make all their life decisions for them.

This hierarchical, ‘We have all your answers’ attitude teaches people to avoid help and is the exact problem that this site is here for. The problems have been there since the beginning, are everywhere and they are permanent.

The only answer is to stay out and offer support to this inside and willing to listen.

Hello,

My name is Michelle, I was born and raised a JW, my father was an elder. (Talk about no childhood) I have been disfellowshipped for 14 years (Thank God). Within my 14 years out of the organization, I have just recently began to open my heart to God. This has been an extremely painful process. I was not sexually abused, but, I was spiritually abused, in my eyes. I am forever grateful for this website. Someone finally telling the real TRUTH!

Please, everyone who reads this site and this guest book... "Always remember the Children". . . they are our reasons for everything!

I suffered endless and unforgettable pain within this organization as a child, I still suffer with many things as an adult.
A loving and true God would NEVER teach these things to anyone, especially children.
God's love is UNCONDITIONAL . . . . God reads hearts not religious affiliations. Remember, God created spirituality, not religion . . . there is a huge difference!

"The True Path"

When I was young "they" taught me Of an "outside world", so cold. I was scared, so full of fear, Of the Armageddon "they" foretold.

I often felt so guilty. I felt so all alone. Until one day an Angel came, And the true path to Him was shown

The Angel told me God was love, Not anger, guilt and fear. I felt so confused at first, For this is not what "they" told me to hear.

They taught me to fear my God above, And they warned me "they" were watching, "Don't listen to anything the "world" may say, For it's really Satan talking. "

So, with much fear I told the Angel What the "brothers" had been teaching. He smiled at me and said, "My child, It's false words which they are preaching."

"I will light the path for you, I will show you the true way, You have a good heart, my child, No matter what the "brothers" say.

So, I wearily took the Angel's hand, It felt warm and full of love, Very slowly He led me towards the path That had been lit from up above.

The path, with all it's beauty, Just took my breath away, So full of love and light and joy I began to Thank God and pray.

"Through Jesus' love, I thank you, Lord, For all that you've given to me, And for showing me the "true" path to You, Forever grateful I will be".

I now walk this path, hand in hand, With fellow "Believers in His Spirit" Through God's Love and Light we live our lives, But, NOW WE NO LONGER FEAR IT!

I visited this web site some time ago. I shared this info with a JW couple, they absolutely do not believe any of it. It's also very sad that many of the victims still remain JW, just as the Catholic victims. I'm a Christian and I try to use this information to help people see that these people do not know the Jesus of the Bible. May the unpleasant truth be exposed that the glorious truth of salvation be revealed. Patrice Leach

I am surprised to see how many holy rollers spend time on this site. It is easy enough to understand some few JWs taking the risk of reading apostate writings in order to defend their blind commitment - or even 'cover over a multitude of sins' by saving us. But how can someone who did their time swimming upstream thru the oppressive JW organization still feel so compelled to spew this baloney? I cannot say just how impossible it would be to get me involved in any religious organization. It would be equally just as hard to picture myself blathering about 'god this...'. Aren't you sick of that crap too? These tight societies of like-believers are the reason for a site like this.

Though I was never molested during the time that I attended meetings as a youth, I am unfortunately not shocked by this organization's handling of the ones that were! It would be traumatic enough to endure such abuse, then to be treated in such a callous way when you come forward is inexcusable on the part of so-called Christians! But this cult is known for "hushing" anyone up that may cause embarrassment, therefore making it more difficult to suck new recruits in! My sister is a Witness who is still blinded by "the truth" and all I hear from her is how HORRIBLE the Catholic Church is with the priests that continue to molest without being stopped!! What is sad is that even if she were allowed to view this site, which JW's are not, the organization would SOMEHOW pull the wool of these innocent "silent lambs" right over her eyes to the truth of it !!! I pray that Dateline airs and confronts this issue on national television so that it may help stop the abuse of even one precious child and put unsuspecting ones on their guard.

Hey T, are you actually serious when you say JWs are not allowed to visit this site? That's just not possible. Anybody can come across a site like this in a number of ways without even knowing it, including JWs. I think all JWs should see this site so they know what is going on in their organization, especially because most of them just don't know. I have friends who are JWs, and when I told them about this site, one didn't believe me and the other told me it was probably from an apostate. Now that's just ridiculous, because an apostate could never come across any of those letters to the elders. I really think my friends and all the other JWs need to see this site for their own good.

To the person responding to 'T': You are obviously from the outside. You don't grasp just how controlled these people are. They are not allowed to visit this site - and for the most part, they won't. If they cam across it by accident, they would likely leave the instant they realized it's nature.

You should see how paranoid these people are as they remain vigilant in the lookout for apostates among themselves. Those are the ones they really fear. We (outsiders) would likely categorize the apostates as folks with a modicum of free will - nothing more. But the JWs (your friends included) would turn in their best friend to the elders if that friend disagreed with the smallest direction from the Watchtower.

Don't let your JW friends kid you - they are trying to sound reasonable. But they aren't. They believe the crap they are told. Or they wouldn't be able to stand the constant harassment from the rest.

For a year now, i've thought about going back to the kingdom hall. But ever since my dad died certain things have been holding me back. i've always believed in the spirit world but rejected so much when i was attending. I've never been baptized, never thought i should. So the last person i was studying with, i shunned her away because she was moving only to get married to a really cute, Whatever. Ever since i was 11 years old, i believed in native american beliefs. Some how they started to come back to me in the last couple of years. Like a picture of a native american ghost. Whom, many JW's would think is a demon. Yeah right, the only demon is you. You see when i lived with my dad, i was studying all that crap, and i was really depressed. I didn't know why. Until now, it was not only because of the religion but it was cuz' of my father. Of what he left behind. At my dads funeral, i had written a poem but the elder only took one sentence in it. And started to talk about paradise on earth. The only paradise i've found is with in myself. After giving birth to two kids, ( Not to mention, i'm not married), i've found peace within myself and i can walk away without regret of that fact.

I am writing to respond to the comment March 6/02 directed at DJB (that is me). You said in your comment "You are an active witness that won't bring your kids to the hall because you can't protect them. Then the next comment was quote I fear for your kids for the insanity that may run in your family. "
I take exception to this remark. You do not know my family and it was not my family that molested my kids it was the SEX OFFENDERS I married. They don't have it tattooed on their foreheads. It is their behaviour that identifies them and the sad part is that is usually to the victim.

I was able to continue practicing my religion because I have the support of my family especially my father/mother and my grandparents and Aunt/Uncle. We closed ranks. I do not walk anywhere alone (my father and/or mother accompany me).

I also got a restraining order on my ex-husband that included (thanks to his big mouth) if the judicial committee meet with me to discuss the situation it would cost my ex-husband $500. 00. This was how the judge applied the restraining order. He afforded me freedom to practice my religion and not be harassed by my ex-husband or anyone he might send.

My X has tampered with my car many times resulted in my skidding off the road the once. Another time an elder who was seen molesting was reported to the police and on three separate occasions he cut in front of my car. Twice on the highway when I was going 90km an hour. The once he had to turn so sharp after cutting me off that he almost up set his car. My dad had an elder approach him and tell my dad that we were making too big a deal out this. "He said all boys do this when they are young why that what he done"(his words). Some of the people who have tried to assist us have ended up in head on collisions. The one accident claimed the life of my X's doctor he had kept him in the hospital until I could move out. My son had to be moved to another school because he was being assaulted in the bathroom. We had arranged a meeting with the Director of Education and requested my son be transferred before we could meet with him again he also was in a head on collision.

I presently am on Children Mental Health Residential Management Committee for Youth in Crisis. I am the community representative for the district and I also volunteer drive to take these young people back and forth to the residence. I also volunteer for a police activated group that offers support to victims in crisis. Being closely involved with police groups and programs offers some protection.

I know we can never get back what we lost but at least we are fighting back. . .

PS. I have also read the book "Wolves among Sheep. " I applaud the authors specking out.

Hi SILENT LAMBS. SEARCHIN 50 @AOL. COM.
Hi again, Many Witnesses I know, as we call ourselves here, have a lot of trouble believing this happening in there congregation or area. We are told not to go on Web sites like this and some view this as persecution of their faith. It is called apostate. We are forbidden to question their decisions and if we do we are labeled apostate.

Consider the following situation and yes there is a big cover up in my area. This has just happened. My X remarried with the blessing of the elders even thou he was the one to be unfaithful (apparently confessed). No action was publicly taken until I complained (except to announce that he was repentant with regards to situation in the summer)he is now BEATING his third wife. She comes to the meeting with bruises on her face. Actually in the last 2 weeks as one buries heals she gets another on her face. We asked the elders about this.

I am the second wife and I know how dangerous he is. His 16 year daughter was living with us when I broke up with him. She moved with me and later I flew her east back to her mother. She told my teenagers that her father was molesting her but she would not tell the police. The sad thing is that he is now free to abuse someone else.

He is now doing it to his third wife. She walks like she is in trance, like a Zombie. Being his former wife I have seen his extreme violence and the rages he goes into. I only lasted six months with him. He was threatening to kill us at the time. I believe if she stays he will eventually kill her. What should I do? The elders are supporting him completely. . . She is going to end up DEAD. . . The only good thing about this situation is she has no kids. Others have told me there is nothing I can do. . . Can I report it to the police? We live in Canada. One elder phoned me and wants to talk to me about the situation this afternoon.

There is something really wrong with these people who would allow this to continue. I know not all members are bad/criminal persons. Some are very sincere. Some of these elders are very corrupt and/or criminal in behaviour. These corrupt persons must be removed from among Jehovah's Witnesses and turned over to the proper authorities to handle them.

I believe, Bill Bowen, you are on the right track. How can we protect ourselves when we do not know? Silence only protects the abuser. Victim must keep talking until someone listens. I have written in the Guestbook before.

DJB tango_sheba@hotmail.com

P. S. I hope some who read this (who are Witnesses) and will reconsider their position of DENIAL. These ones need to ask themselves this. . . Prov. 21:13 "Why have you stopped up your ears to the complaining cry of the lowly one?" Ps 94:16 asks another very timely question quote "Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? Who will take his stand for me against the practicers of hurtfulness?" These questions are begging for answers!!!!
Comments:

To the comment on "22 Mar 2002" in response to the person responding to 'T' (which is me), I AM from the outside, and I'm glad, too. I don't want anyone to control my way of thinking except me. I DO know just how controlling that organization is, though, and that's also why I'm glad I'm not a real part of it. I cherish my freedom. In fact, I'd rather be an apostate than someone who's been brainwashed. If they did come across this site by accident, then most of them probably WOULD leave it, but then there would be some who would stumble across this site and possibly be curious about it and see it anyway.

The JWs probably WOULD turn in their best friend for disagreeing with the smallest direction from the Watchtower. That's one reason why they suck (although I don't hate them), and I tell my JW friends that all the time.

Also, I haven't been fooled. That's why I'm doing research on the organization and question my friends about their beliefs every chance I get to. If they didn't believe the crap they were told, then they either would've left the organization or never would've joined it in the first place. It's too bad they DO believe it, and that's why I feel kinda sorry for them. Sucks to be them.

I really think that if you all are still a part of this organization that you all are sicker than your perpetrators. What kind of parent are you to allow some manic to molest your child without doing everything in your powers to get them convicted. If you see the elders are not coming to your defense then you need to do something to be sure that your child is safe. What kind of sick organization is this that would allow these things to happen to children it seems to me that the only thing that you people care about is walking up and down the street going door to door to make money for this wicked organization. Being molested has lasting and detrimental affects on children and when they go into adulthood they're totally screwed up. This sick organization is opening up the door for child molesters, homosexuals, child abusers and such like kinds to have a safe haven, all you have to do is become a JW and you can literally get away with murder. There is no truth in this CULT, you all are just a bunch of poor souls that have been brainwashed and if you don't allow God to help you will be eternally lost. You all need to pray that God lead you into the right direction, you don't need an elder to go to God you can go to God for yourself. Lastly, parent, God has trusted you with a precious gift and you have given up what you are suppose to love and protect to the elders to decide what is right for your child, do you honestly think that we serve an uncaring God, WAKE UP!

you were a weak ass for joining and a bigger one now you need to tip toe you scared way to a new brain. They don't want you to play anymore so get over it. Your obsessed. Ask god why he asked abraham to commit child abuse. Who would leave two children alone with a molester? Lets see oh that's the story of the garden and lets see god sent his son here for a little sm session is that the best a creator can come up with? Boo! did I scare you?

I agree with the one above, vic toms of abuse are messed up. I was raped at 14 by my step father, the abuse continued, he said he would kill my grandmother if I told she died 2 years later so then i told my mother she divorced him, i ran away, was a slut for a while totally screwed up, sill am but now married 11 years still screwed up, i feel like such a looser.

Hi again, I have noticed that some who write to the guestbook are uninformed about sexual abuse and do not understand the dynamics of abuse. Some go so far to blame everybody but the pedophile (criminal).

The blame for pedophilia needs to be put on the shoulders of the pedophile. This example illustrates this. A store is robbed. The police or the public don’t say you are the on the wrong corner or painted the wrong colour it is your fault your robbed and then do nothing. The thief is always to blame for robbing the store. The crime of pedophilia (sexual abuse and wife battering) are the only crimes that some blame on the victim by asking what did you do or stating the child behaved provocatively. One must remember with the crime of robbery or pedophilia it would not have taken place if the criminal himself hadn't been a thief or a pedophile.

One must remember the blame belongs with the one doing the crime. The crime is about them (criminal) not the victim. When the police profile a crime scene, the way the crime is committed tells about the type person the criminal is. Many criminals have been caught this way. Victims are often chosen randomly because they happen to be accessible to the predator(criminal). It is not because their is something flawed with the victim. The crime is about the criminal.

The background does not determine what a person becomes the individual choices. So a terrible childhood is no excuse. It may have introduced them to the behaviour but it is still their choice. When an individual crosses that line and becomes an abuser they have no one to blame but themselves and should have to pay the consequences of their choice in behaviour. IF THEY CAN DO THE CRIME THEY CAN DO THE TIME. . . DJB

THE JEHOVAH’S WITNESS RELIGION IS CHILD ABUSE ITSELF. I USED TO CALL IT THE X RATED RELIGION, DUE TO THE DEVASTATING EFFECTS IT HAS ON CHILDREN. - former jw
I would like to make a comment on the person who called the JW's a X RATED religion. I don't think its far to say its a x rated religion. Most have VERY high morals. The elders just need more training in how to handle theses kinds of cases. It is sad put not uncommon for people to not want to face what is going on. Thank you again for this site!

To the person who posted this from the WT article on child abuse. . . . . . . . . . where does it say REPORT THESE PEOPLE TO THE AUTHORITIES?????? I must have just overlooked that part. Who cares if the pedophile cannot hold any positions in the org? Imagine the abused child having to sit in the same meetings with his or her abuser. . . . . . . . . . . wait, let's call this what it really is. . . child RAPE. . . . . imagine being the child who was raped and having to sit there week after week with the person who raped you? Why should these people not be prosecuted? And, why is the first thing most JWs say when this is brought up in discussion. . . . well, look at what goes on in Christendom? PEDOPHILIA IS AN EVIL SIN AND CRIME NO MATTER WHO OR WHERE IT OCCURS. ann <ticatoo@cableone.net>

" For the protection of our children, a man known to have been a child molester, does not qualify for a position of responsibility in the congregation. Moreover, he can not be a pioneer, or serve in any other special, full time service. "

I came here tonight because I didn't know what else to do or where else to go. I've been here before, but not lately. I've been reading for hours now, and at least I could quit crying finally. I had actually "hoped" I would make it out of my housebound "prison" (disabled physically and emotionally, too) and actually make it to the Memorial tonight. (I am a DF'd JW always hoping to find my way back because I believe the Bible truths I learned there; and am also a person who was raped and molested numerous times as a kid --not by JW's, though).

Then I watched Oprah today and it was about the Catholic Church's ongoing sex abuse "scandal" which is nothing new to me. I was raised a Catholic. Our "pervert uncle" who had been in the seminary, molested all the kids in our "big Catholic family" and cousins, too.

None of this is "new" to me so why did I end up crying my guts out again during the Oprah show? Because the pain never leaves you; because the realization of how screwed up you are because of the sex abuse never leaves you; because of the heartache that the WT is not "perfect" after all - that their big "scandal" is NEXT to be exposed. . . and even though I stand WITH ALL sex abuse victims, it nevertheless rips my guts out that the place where I learned such beautiful Bible truths is the same place which has also crushed abused spirits even further by trying to keep it a secret, etc. (just like the Catholic Church has done -- which, btw, taught me NO Bible Truth AT ALL even with eight years of Catholic school as a kid - not even God's name).

NOTHING is MORE DAMAGING to an abuse victim than someone telling them to "not tell" or "not talk about it," etc. Victims/survivors MUST be ENCOURAGED to TALK about it!!! When our (non-JW) "family scandal" blew wide open in 1992, my father told me to "not talk to anybody about it" and then blamed it on my mother ("Your mother doesn't want you talking about it...!") and I despised him for that. And that's what the rapists and molesters do, too - they insist on silence. . . Mine told me, with his fist on my pubic bone, that if I "told," he would "fix it so I never could have babies." What did I know as a fat little 11 year old kid? You DO lie there, paralyzed, again and again, as many times as the molester wants you, like a sheep being led to slaughter, terrified to speak, sometimes whimpering, but mostly you "zone out" - stare out the window or focus on some other object in the room; and, yes, if young enough or traumatized enough, your memories may be repressed; and years later when you are ready to rip the world apart and scream it on the housetops, you are again told to keep it a secret. NOT!!!

My guts can't take it. The pain never goes away. Not even at my age, almost 50 years old you would think it would go away. . . it doesn't.

And sadly, oh so VERY sadly, when I read here of what JW victims/survivors have been through, I can actually believe it (the elders, etc. trying to keep it under wraps) because I know, from being a JW in the past, that keeping the reputation of the congregation pristine is of utmost importance. So, yes, I can see how elders and others in authority can succumb to that even where children are concerned.

Slander be damned! If I was back in the congregation, and I heard anything about a brother (or anybody) being a molester, I would NOT be able to keep my mouth shut. I would tell everybody!!!!

So where does that leave us, here on the outside, DF'd, but want to "belong" again yet with heart and gut wrenching over these things? I want to trust the JW's/WT/Bible & literature like I used to, but I wonder how I will ever make my way back, physically speaking, and emotionally, too.

I know perverts are everywhere, so why be surprised they are in the JWs also? I don't know... it just hurts, that's all.

This was the only place I knew to come tonight. . . An outcast/black-sheep twice-over (the abuse was not my fault, but my DF'ing was).

Also, I know it's true about going to shrinks, etc. not being well-advised by the society, etc., though I think they have become more open to the idea in recent years, realizing they are not equipped to handle the scars from such things. But back when I was a JW, I went to a "brother/psychologist" because I "felt crazy" but had no idea WHY (I hadn't put the pieces together yet.) I was hysterically upset at that doctor visit, and instead of using his so-called "psychological wisdom" to try and understand what might be happening, he started SCREAMING at me. Needless to say, I continued on years longer "knowing" that I (that's a CAPITAL "I") was 'bad and crazy'. . . Years later a workmate who was friends with this psych. "brother's" JW-friends told me that he was bad-mouthing me all those years prior, telling his JW friends to stay away from me because I was "crazy." (Isn't there something about doctor-patient confidentiality? Or does that not apply to JW "psychologists"?) Ugh. . . Even so, I don't blame the JW's as a whole. It's individuals who screw up, no matter what their "status."

I can't go on living like this, so isolated. I know it is not healthy, and it is not right. Many many times I visualize myself calling and having a chat with elders and I wouldn't even know where to begin. I read here somewhere on this site tonight about elders not being trained to counsel or care for persons with depression and/or emotional problems. And that's what I always felt (but had never seen it in writing), which makes for even more hesitation of ever approaching them.

For any who may not have a clue: The "peculiar ways" in which sex abuse symptoms manifest themselves... (who would understand unless they had been educated in these things or experienced them themselves?) Here are some specific examples (in my case):
ANSWERING (WITH MICROPHONE) AT WT STUDY and/or SERVICE MTG: I could NEVER raise my hand and answer at the "big" meetings. If I did raise my hand, and then all attention turned toward me to hear my answer when the brother would bring the microphone over -- I felt like all eyes were ON me and I was NAKED and EXPOSED. I never could overcome that feeling, and I did TRY answering but after awhile gave up. It was too painful.

BEING LOOKED AT or STARED AT: If anyone "stared" at me I would freak out and get SO ANGRY, sometimes even screaming at them: "WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING AT?" and I didn't even know WHY I was acting that way (back then I didn't know why - NOW I understand completely since I have read a lot of books on this sex-abuse subject since being DF'd). I even did this freaking out in the K. Hall parking lot one time. A brother from another congregation made it known to a friend that he was interested in me. So he started coming to our congregation. And he would stand around the back of the hall and "stare" at me from across the room, etc. This happened week after week. As I was leaving a meeting one Sunday afternoon, he began following me out to the parking lot, and I could sense he was walking behind me, and I completely freaked out --I swirled around to face him, walking backwards to get away from him, all the while screaming at him over and over: WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM ME?? GET AWAY FROM ME!!! (It was all that "staring" and "lurking" he had been doing for weeks -- I just couldn't take it anymore. ) Yet even then I did not understand my actions. I just hated myself all the more. (PS: I was in my 30's during this time. I don't want anyone to think I or this brother were teenagers. )

CIRCULAR SEATING at Book Studies: Another area of great gut-wrenching-stress and difficulty as regards meetings were the small "confined" book studies in people's homes. I never could stomach it, but I didn't know WHY during those years. Everyone would sit around in a circle, which meant there were others across the room "looking at you. " I couldn't STAND to be "looked at" -- even if the others were not really looking at ME, it FELT LIKE they WERE. I spent YEARS with my head down in these "circular" settings at book studies with my guts wrenched, not able to even look up or hold my head up, counting the minutes until it was over and I could "FLEE" out of there to "get some space, "and get away from the "eyes. " Fortunately, whenever I had any "control" over the set-up of the room (like at a sister's house who was a friend of mine), I would always set the chairs up in auditorium-style, in ROWS rather than circular, so you sat one behind the other, rather than in a circle looking across. (People have no idea what we go through to avoid the torment of being "looked at" or "seen, " etc.) Finally, I got "smart" and only went to book studies at the K. Hall -- guaranteed not to have circular-seating and with lots of room to "breathe" since the small book study group in the large hall made it feel much more "free and spacious" than at people's homes; and not the same larger "crowd" as the "big meetings" on Sunday or Thursday night.

This same gut-wrenching stress and anger would swell in other/similar circumstances, like at work. So many many years of living that way, yet I never understood WHY I had those feelings. (Yes, I always KNEW I had been raped and molested, but I had never added 2+2. . . I had not yet connected those feelings with their abuse-origin). At work often times I had to have my desk in an "open area" where the clients would be sitting in the waiting room. I could barely function when my back was to them, as I "felt" their "eyes" on the "backside" of me. The internal stress would build up to the point I would swing around in my secretary chair and holler at these "innocent" people waiting in the waiting room, accusing them of "staring at me."

Even my best friends during my JW years used to say: The wife/friend: "You are SO angry. . . " The husband/friend: "You are like a diamond in the rough. . . " I really HATED IT that I was an angry person, but had no idea WHY at the time.

A PRISONER IN YOUR OWN BODY: Not being able to "move about freely" is another symptom. In my younger "worldly days" when I would go out to the clubs and bars, I could NOT "walk about freely" like other people would. Oh, how I LONGED to be able to get up and just "walk around!" To FREELY "move about"! I had to find a chair, barstool or table, and immediately sit down and never move. "Moving about" felt like being naked and exposed, yet "having" to stay seated also felt like being trapped. Later when I got the truth, it was the same at the K. Halls - I would literally "CLING" to the book counter once inside the building -- that was my "position of safety" -- and I would not move from there until I would run and get a seat. And Never Ever would I ever get up DURING a meeting and walk down the aisle and be "exposed" (even if I really NEEDED to go to the ladies' room, I would Not Go -- the journey was too painful -- the "exposure" of being UP when everyone else was seated, etc.)

I read somewhere on this site tonight someone wrote (I think on Battered Lambs) that the psychological stress of so many years took its toll on her body. This is so true. When you walk your entire life with your shoulders "scrunched up with tension" because you feel "eyes" staring at you from behind, it definitely does ruin your physical health.

HATING YOUR NAME: Most people love their names and their identities. I always despised my name -- I could never say my name out-loud. This can be a real problem in life! If you ask me my name, I will say my first name only. If you insist on knowing my last name, I will say it separately, but I will NEVER say my two names together. Torture in the gut -- why??? I had NO earthly IDEA. All I knew is I could NOT Say it out-loud. I've even hung up on people who call and innocently ask, "Who am I speaking to?" And when in a "PTSD state" I cannot even get the words out at all, together or separately. So I hang up. -- This "name mystery" was finally solved (as were many of the above "mysteries") when I read in the book, "Incest and It's Aftereffects in Women" that many sex abuse survivors HATE THEIR NAMES. -- (Wonder why?) -- It doesn't remove the pain, but it sure helps to UNDERSTAND WHY I'd had those "name" feelings all these years.

So how did I ever manage to go out in service? Oddly enough, that was easier: Out with only two or three and at the door it was "one on one" -- you and the householder -- not near as "scary" as being "exposed" in a confined-group setting. But if it was during a PTSD* spell, then I would just not go out. ("Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, which yes, since my years away from the truth, I have been df'd with that among other things).

How about assemblies and conventions? I did truly love them!! They were my favorite, actually. Since they were VERY BIG groups, you are able to "get lost in the crowd," which was okay by me. You are not expected to be answering any questions into a microphone or anything like that, and you are not sitting in a "circle." Whew! However, I did always do my best to get a seat down on the front floor area near the stage where there was "breathing room," and OUT of those "confining" coliseum seats where everybody is packed together like sardines. (BTW, most all words capitalized are not meant as "screaming" but for emphasis.)

Other Symptoms: If you're more of a night owl, one "survivor" told me years ago that her therapist said most all sex abuse occurs between 10 pm and 2 or 3 am, so "survivors" tend to be "night owls" -- staying awake is "safer" than going to sleep at a "normal" hour. Suicide attempts by young teenage girls is a good sign they have been abused. (I tried twice as a teenager, but "back then" nobody even asked. . .)

It wasn't until 1991, one year after being DF'd that I began reading books on sex abuse and "connecting all the dots." Not having enough $ for "real professionals," I found myself at counseling centers "sponsored by" other churches, since they would only charge like $10. And I always felt very guilty going to those counselors due to their "religious-connections," so I only went a few times. I have also been to "secular" psychologists and psychiatrists, and I must say they are no help either. Some of them are actually quite cold and heartless. So where does the help lie? I still think having Jehovah on your side makes everything much more bearable.

As "Dr. Phil" would say: "Some things cannot be cured. They can only be managed."

Also learning that "this too shall pass" (the PTSD episodes) helps a little, knowing if I/we can just "hang on" until it passes. . . until we are all made "perfect" in God's Kingdom -- IF we even make it there. . .

Years later my Mom finally read the sex abuse books I had bought in 1991, or at least she tried. She said it was "too depressing." Well, no joke, Mom. Try LIVING IT! -- And my father finally cut off all contact with his "pervert" brother (our uncle), but he never even told us that he did this -- which would have been very nice to know he wanted to stand up for us, but no. . . I learned it from one of my siblings. (BTW, I twice confronted this uncle over the phone back in '92-93, he lives in another state. Nobody else would do it. He had no remorse whatsoever, says he did nothing wrong even though he admitted to the abuse of all the kids; he said he "didn't mess with the girls much;" and that all he did to me and my older sister was "walk in on us when we were undressing." (spit nails!) The second time I called him six months later, he was extremely nasty and mean. In the first conversation he promised to get books and learn about the aftereffects of abuse -- which was all baloney/lies. His "true" personality came out in the second conversation - vile, hateful, nasty.

So how have we and others coped with similar symptoms? As stated above, we creatively try to find ways: *Avoid circular-seating arrangements at all costs. "Work at night in the office when nobody is around. "If you must work in the daytime, make sure your desk is not "out in the open. " *Change your name. "Never go "for a stroll or a walk"alone like "normal" people do. (It helps if somebody is walking with you. ) *Avoid microphones. "Let the answering machine answer when you literally "cannot talk" (in PTSD-mode). *Do your shopping at night. . do most everything you can do at night. Somehow it feels better than "being seen" in the daylight. . and the benefit is the grocery store is quiet and empty, no long wait at the checkout lines, and the streets have no traffic, etc. etc. *Pray for menopause if your PTSD symptoms erupt around your menstrual cycle, which was/is the case with me (a therapist told me she felt I was reliving the abuse with every cycle since it was my abuser who "taught me" about "periods" in the first place. ) Thankfully, they come farther and farther apart now as menopause approaches, though recently went thru the near-coma-like fetal-position trauma again after having no cycle for five months. It was like being dragged down to "hell" once again. I can't take it much longer. I am holding on for the day they come no more.

(If anyone has ever had EMDR therapy I would like to know if it helped. I can find no one locally who is trained in this. EMDR stands for: Eye Movement Desensitization Reprocessing for PTSD. It makes a lot of sense to me. )

To the owners: Sorry for this length. I completely understand if it cannot be posted especially since I am not now a JW nor was my abuser a JW. However, if you feel any part of it would be helpful to anybody in any way, please feel free to use whatever part. -- Like I said, I came to this site tonight after seeing the Catholic Church story on Oprah because it was so upsetting again. . . . knowing the Dateline show about the WT is around the corner. . . . I don't know how to express the painful feelings about all of it. . . . Maybe it's how Jesus might have felt knowing in advance that Peter would betray him even though Peter had been a "good friend" but also knowing Peter was going to have to be "exposed" and "suffer" for his weaknesses. . . . just maybe that's one way to describe the feeling. Like, we know it has to happen, but at the same time we "wish" these things could never have happened in the first place. . .

There is so much PAIN EVERYWHERE. . . it's like feeling the pain of the entire world all at once. . . . (I hear menopause can do that to women. . . )

(BTW, NO THANKS to any of the sarcastic, angry XJW-hater-types, who no doubt will rejoice at my lamenting. If I was brainwashed during my 11 years as a JW, then it was the best thing that happened to me, because it was the first time in my life that I quit crying incessantly. I already stumbled into one of those JW-haters online groups for about a month last fall before I couldn't stomach their hatred any longer. The group itself and they were disgusting. They are so vile and ugly in their speech (I see too many similar comments in the March listings on this site). I have NO DESIRE to align myself with "those" types of exJWs. And I do not write this with any "rejoicing" over how "horrible" the WT/BTS or any individual JW might be, as those kinds of exJWs seem to relish in it. I feel more like the prophets who were brokenhearted over the destruction of their beloved city and people, even though they knew in advance it was coming and for good reason. . . )

But for those who speak with such a despicable tone and rejoice at the demise of the WT, et al., all I can think is Jesus' words: "Who of you (us) has no sin? let them cast the first stone. . . " and also the scripture (in Proverbs or Ecclesiastes, I think) warning us not to be rejoicing over the calamity of our fellow man (even if they "deserve it").

Thank you for this site and for providing an outlet for expression of thoughts and conflicted feelings on these heartbreaking issues.

Respectfully submitted/PTSD

Remote User: Date: 18 Feb. 2002 Time: 23:41:19 Comments This tragic subject is one that is known all too well to me. We must all keep speaking out and bringing it out into the light. Monsters thrive in darkness. I'd like to invite you to visit my friend and I's site, Beware The Wounded Tiger. It's about childhood sexual abuse and features a forum there for survivor's to submit their poems and/or survivor stories so they may help others and have a place to vent. We are moving on March 1st to a permanent site, but for now you can find us still at http://members.aol.com/spookydesigns/angelmz/main.htm
Hey DJB: I am even more in fear for the insanity that may run in your family. You should be offended. To have any JW connections after what you claim to have been thru, makes zero sense. Laws abound to protect your kids. I doubt you cannot get away from this clown ex-husband. You have no magic tractor beam to bring you to the KH where you find the source of this mess. But you go anyway. And, I don't give a rats ass about what boards you sit on - it only sounds like you embrace the emotional churning. Do you kids a favor and get them a cleaner growing environment.

PTSD, Thank you for your story. I agree it does no good to bash on the JW'S. There is Good and Bad in all religions. There just needs to be a reform in the way this type of problem is handled. I know there is going to be a change from everyone speaking out.

Dear sir,

I just read your response to JR Brown.

The three things you listed need changing. #1 on your list is oversimplified. You are saying that every time a person is accused that it IS a molestation? What if the accusation is false, have you know concern for the individuals good name? The Bible has good reason for its stand on witnesses.

Secondly, in #2 and #3, you used present tense for the word "molest" which should be changed to fit our beliefs. Using present tense makes it sound like JW let people who are currently practicing molestation have privileges, and go door to door. Not so. If someone is practicing it then they are kicked out. However if you change your wording to past tense, implying repentance, we do believe in repentance. If a person repents, like Mary Magdalene, should they be forgiven? Do you believe in repentance?

I kindly request your changing those things. I hope that was not intentional to give people the wrong idea.

Dear PTSD I feel for you and can empathize I would like to visit with you. I just wrote a long email and needless to say erased it. So I will say I've been there done that. I would like to be a witness but I don't like being put lower than a Pedophile. I'm DF at the present, I feel like I don't belong in the world or in the truth. I would like to say one thing. These monsters are not curable, I don't know of one instance where they came in and said I've done these bad things and I want help. Not in the Catholic Church or the JW's they were caught and forced to admit their wrongdoings. Thanks for listening. Joan jgibson@hamburg. heartland. net

Dear brother or sister "Name withheld,

It appears you are trying to misdirect those who may read the "response to JR Brown" on the home page of this website. I noticed you started you comment by saying, "Dear sir, "

Am I not a fellow brother? Should you not address me as such?

You wrote, The three things you listed need changing. #1 on your list is oversimplified. You are saying that every time a person is accused that it IS a molestation? What if the accusation is false, have you know concern for the individuals good name? The Bible has good reason for its stand on witnesses.

My response, It has been proven by experts in the field of child molestation that 96% of accusations are true. Within the organization few are ever substantiated due to the fact most are never reported to the police for proper investigation and within the congregation when a pedophile denies the charge, which 99% will do, elders use the litmus of "two eye witnesses" to establish the charge. This of course seldom if ever happens and as a result many child molesters operate freely within the organization. The problem is actually created by WT policy which requires the above. If brothers simply reported the crime to police or encouraged parents to do the same there would be no basis for point #1. Thus I continue to stand by the comments made therein.

you wrote, Secondly, in #2 and #3, you used present tense for the word "molest" which should be changed to fit our beliefs. Using present tense makes it sound like JW let people who are currently practicing molestation have privileges, and go door to door. Not so. If someone is practicing it then they are kicked out.

My response, You are sadly mistaken and are grossly misinformed of actual WT policy. I would suggest you educate yourself further before you come forward with such misinformation. A pedophile who denies the accusation without the collaboration of "two eye witnesses" is free to operate within the congregation. He can be an elder, pioneer, or even a member of the governing body. I have had reports numerous of JW elders who have molested numerous children and continue to serve. One report came to me three nights ago of a PO on the east coast who raped an 8 year old boy, would you believe he gave the memorial talk? "Present tense" is a very real description of the problem that exists within the organization.

You wrote, However if you change your wording to past tense, implying repentance, we do believe in repentance. If a person repents, like Mary Magdalene, should they be forgiven? Do you believe in repentance?

My response, All persons have the right for forgiveness, on the other hand "repentant" child molesters do not have the right to call door to door in the field ministry nor to ever have any privileges in the congregation. WT policy says otherwise. Do you support WT policy in this regard? Even people outside the organization see this as a major problem, why do you seem to miss this?

You wrote, I kindly request your changing those things. I hope that was not intentional to give people the wrong idea.

My response, It is my hope your post was not intentional to misdirect readers on this issue. My response to JR Brown stands as written, which include my opinion he is a bald face liar that should be kicked out of bethel. Do you agree with with that? If so I suggest with all due haste you follow through and let bethel know your support of this action. As I remain a "witness in good standing" I encourage all who may read this to do the same regarding Brother Brown's removal from bethel.

To the person who wrote on March 5. The one who has been a witness for 30 years and has only witnessed two incidents of molestation. You have some serious problems. Do you actually think that you know of everything that goes on in your congregation? It sounds like you think you have had a perfect life in the "organization. " If so, then what are you doing coming to websites like this? Isn't that forbidden by the elders? Shame on you brother Jojoba.
You are seeking the company of apostates. When I was a witness we were forbidden to read anything of this nature.
Shame on you. I was born into the "organization" and was in it for 33 years, I know a lot about it. I've actually learned more about this "organization" since I've been out of it. Imagine that. You mentioned that "only god can read hearts. " Then tell me, if only god can read hearts, what business do the elders have playing god with people? You say that the people who have written in on this website are being dishonest and lying with their stories. Man, I think you better retract that statement. Isn't that slander? Can't you get disfellowshipped for slander? Or maybe you are a man and you're not worried about being disfellowshipped because your "cult" that you're in is the "good ole boys club" where men are perfect? You can get disfellowshipped for slander just in case you didn't know. Or can you just get disfellowshipped for slandering people that are JW's? Man, that's real loving and caring, as you say all the people in your cult are. Either way, you have slandered a lot of people. I happen to have a court transcript, brother Jojoba, of my ex-stepfather admitting to a judge that he did molest me and that he did in fact tell the elders and they did nothing about it except read him a few scriptures, slap his hand, and send him on his way. They didn't even tell my mother.
When my mother found out, she divorced him. And guess what brother Jojoba? He became an elder a year later and married a woman with five daughters. So don't tell me that people on this website lie. You're just too brainwashed to see past your nose. I remember the watchtower that told people that going to a therapist is not a good idea and the elders should be all that we need. So, what would you know about going to therapy? Sure, there will be people that make up stories and lie. Hmm, just like in your cult. But the majority of people on this website have no reason to.
They simply want children to stop being hurt. If you think that there is no cover up and there never has been, you need to do some investigating of your own. But I doubt any elders will tell you anything, they are scared, and with good reason. Oh, and you said that people who have been molested should get therapy and move on in a productive way. You are so good at giving advice, you should be a therapist. I have moved on by the way. I have a wonderful husband who is in graduate school who will be a Professor of History in three years, I am also going to college to become a teacher, something that was denied me when I was a Jojoba. (If you can't figure out the Jojoba thing, it's what I call JW's) Oh, by the way, what would you know about the Salem witch trials? Is that a case study that elders learn from or something? I just didn't think that you were allowed to learn of such things. So, in closing brother Jojoba, please don't accuse this website of misleading people, it's not likely that any of these people were forced to come here. You are the one that is being misled.

RESPONSE to March 29 - 14:13:12 writing to DJB and comments unsigned.

You take exception to my writing and my defending myself against your unsupported comments. Those who have been there identify with those who have been there. You do not identify with me and I do not identify with you. Your comments reminded me of all the harassing letters my X wrote me. It is what you try to imply by your comments, how you take things out of context in my comments and twist things. I know my X has a computer, reads all the books on abuse of women(self-help). At the shelter he was called a "barracuda" by one of the counselors. It goes without saying that with this being a public guestbook, anyone can access this site including my X. I am viewing these comments in this light. Beyond these comments today I will not replying anymore to this persons criticism. . . DJB

PS. It is said "we have laws to protect kids". It is only in the use of these laws that kids are protected. When individuals (Organizations) try to prevent this by threatening, isolating or by their policy and procedures in handling matters. The law becomes ineffective in protecting the kids. Laws are very important. Education is needed around the issue of abuse. That is why I believe this web site is so important. It educates the public as to what is really going on.

I've been studying for a long time now. It's confusing to know who is right and who is wrong. All I know is that I want to do right by God. I'm not shocked by your website. No organization is without horrible humans! I've checked out ex-JW website to determine what the heck is the truth. Does anyone really know.
There are so many different opinions on this site. My question is like the message before mine. How do you tell what is "TRUTH" One of the things I loved about the Truth was that everyone was in agreement and everything that was taught was in unison. That the truths of the bible were so easily understood. I have found that witness's are no different than anyone else. Example: We were going to a meeting at a home and we had a flat tire. The presiding overseer happened to pass by, he talked to us and said sorry I've got to get to meeting. A few minutes later a lowly publisher came by and stopped and helped us. A large congregation in Texas had many wealthy publishers. This was another time we had car trouble, it wouldn't start. Not one person would offer to help a stranger stopped and helped us. I thought that these people put Jehovah first in their lives, I guess it's as long as it doesn't interfere with what they are doing at the moment. We also have been victimized by a pedophile, he was an active publisher and well liked by everyone. It was many years ago but I lost my children's love for many years, they blamed me for his actions I should have know. His hands were slapped but since he was repentant he was only put on public reproof. A year or so later my daughter was at our house we had gone on vacation and my husband came home 1st he climbed into bed with her, she went out the other side and left my house, she never came back. (I never bothered to say anything what good would it have done?). So I get to have 2 guilt's, one as a mother and one as a wife what could I have done to prevent this? I got a divorce but that was like closing the barn door after the horse was out. I have never been able to shake the past and regain self esteem. To shorten this, why the difference in how sisters are treated as opposed to brothers. The brothers say they have Holy Spirit. How does that work? Joan Hey, DJB - Insane and whiny. I don't believe the idea of this site is to placate the need for attention and direction some people seem to be asking for. Feel sorry for yourself all you want - but unless you take the first step and get away from those clowns, that's all you'll accomplish.

Take a third-person view for a moment - what would think about someone that goes for religious services to a place where such pain and danger await?

Responding to Joan: JWs AREN'T much different from anyone else, except that they're able to cover up their mistakes in such an inconspicuous way and then make excuses when some people find out about what they're doing. By the way, having to get to a meeting is not a good excuse for the presiding overseer to not help you with your flat tire. There's definitely something wrong with that. After all, I think it was the Feb 1 WT that said that Christians should be willing and happy to serve their brothers; meaning NO MATTER WHAT, even if they have to get to a meeting. I'm sure there's no harm done in being a LITTLE late.

About the difference in treatment of sisters and brothers, that's probably because of the double-standard set by the apostle Paul, saying that women should just keep silent and let the men do the work (I forget exactly where it was that he said that).

I don't know. I've been studying for such a long time. I'm not sure if this is the right way! I've been on a lot of websites and can tell you from my old faith (catholic) that the mental damage... of the JW's - Many who have written are still in the "truth". How can this be. Who really knows who is right!!!! Am I getting into a cult! I will say (and this is silly). I hate the fact that my nice pants suits are not proper for the kingdom hall.

After seeing how people dress at the mainline churches I don't have a problem dressing in dresses. Men in suits. There is a time and place for everything. While living in the north I was out in Service and almost froze to death. People were saying "are you nuts"? for being in a dress. That was it for me, I was with pioneer sisters and for that cold spell we all wore pant suit's or long skirts with long underwear underneath and people were much more receptive. I never had a more fulfilling time in my life than when I was in service. I think reasonableness is the key. About 30 years ago the sisters were wearing colored nylons and the brothers went nuts. From the stage they strongly discouraged wearing them, then had a talk on gossip and gave very strong admonition about it and pointed directly to our congregation. So I went home half laughing, half sad. The congregation did need the talk on gossiping, but the other is a strictly personal decision and I felt the brothers were way out of line. It's been like that forever. The shepherds are trying to keep the sheep in the fold but sheep have to be led not beat. I do not believe that they are a cult in anyway, Jim Jones was a cult. From what I've read on these sites there seems to be a point that people reach that they no longer tolerate the crime. For the most part crimes against the young are by relatives or close friends. They in no way have anything to do with doctrines. As you all have said it is the elders duty to move quickly and remove the criminals and see to it that they are punished by the law. It would seem to me if they were as quick to act over this as they were over the stockings, people would sit up and take notice that this is a people that truly love god. I'm sorry that just came out.

Those elders or publishers who could not stop to help another person in need live in fear of non-performance of their Kingdom Hall duties and are more worried about appearance than Love of God. To not stop to help ANYONE in need is a loveless act.

Sects or Cults are abusive spiritual systems that take the focus away from God and the Gospel and place it on themselves. The unity many of these abusive spiritual systems feel are only the frills of the control system put in place to keep the organization under the control of those who organized it. The Jehovah's Witness's use shunning to keep the membership in place, and even though not called the same, Mormons use the term, "a branch broken from the tree" to illustrate a lost person who is to be shunned.

Their are hundreds of thousands of spiritual systems in the world today. No doubt, wrongful deeds take place within the confines of all of them to a certain degree. In obeying the "laws of the Land" God commands us to report this wrong and take measures to protect children, Principals, school teachers, lawyers, counselors, and Pastors must report abuse. To not do so is to ignore a moral imperative as well as the law of the land. To do that is to be disobedient to God's command to obey the laws of the land.

Those who think they have gotten away with molest, murder, manipulation, and other things, should remember that what you do in darkness, God will bring to light and you will face judgment day.
I am a disfellowshipped exjw. I have been trying to learn all I can about sexual abuse in the organization since I knew of a case in my hall and tried to report it but was told to keep quiet. I recently helped an exjw in her case by sending a deposition for her court case. Her father is an elder and raped her for several years. I attend support groups occasionally and we try to help others just coming out. If anyone has any info to share with me where I may help someone else, even if it isn’t about sexual abuse, I would greatly appreciate it. Thank you. Shirley Jackson E-mail at jppjckspn2@juno.com

So Dateline will air when?

This is RIDICOLOUS!!! If you truly were ASSOCIATED with Jehovah's Witnesses... the opposite is true. It is the ONLY religious organization that I know of that in fact address wrong doing and expels habitual wrongdoers and fully supports their punishment by the "authorities". I am married to a now American citizen originally from Lebanon) Muslim who has regularly beaten me, verbally abused me and generally mistreated me. My daughters have been victims of incest by VARIOUS members of the Islamic family. I have gone to the religious leaders and the community in general and talk about hush ups... the complete burying of facts and harm... and NO ONE IS EVER EVEN CONFRONTED OR CORRECTED!!!!! Don't pervert the facts... you are in fact "EVIL SLAVE"

Well, lady, get ready for more of the same! I'm sorry, but you've jumped out of the frying pan & into the fire. It stands to reason that you would join another repressive religion that also puts women in a subordinate role like... some muslim sects, as having been a victim of abuse, it is what you are comfortable with, & trying to relive, so that you can somehow fix your situation. Unfortunately, it is also the victims of abuse that are most likely to allow their children to be abused for the same reason, & if your daughters are buying into your victim behavior, will also be prime targets for the molesters in the kingdom hall. You are obviously a new witness, & don't want to believe this site, as you have found something you believe you can belong to. But, it's obvious to me that somewhere in your head, you DO believe it, otherwise you wouldn't sound so hurt & angry. As for the evil slave comment, there are so many sites out there that are strictly about jw bashing that do a FAR better job than this one. This one addresses the FACT that the jw's cover up child molesting as a universal precedent so as not to "bring reproach on the organization". It happened to me, my brother, & several friends in several cong. There are going to be abusers in all walks of life, but none more so than in an org. that haphazardly takes in and in fact pursues anyone they can get in, & hides the facts. You are still showing signs of victim behavior by the defensive tone of your letter. Please get outside counseling right away, if not for your sake, the sake of your children. avishai@hotmail.com write if you want, I want to help.

To the women who posted two above mine. . . . Am I taking it right to say you are saying all these stories are lies? If someone in the Muslim faith were to ask the leaders of your husbands faith would they not "lie" since they have done nothing to punish these men in a since covering up? I truly was associated w/the JW and came from a very strong family of them and I know what the bible says will happen to these people and to ones who lie. If, as you say, I am the "Evil Slave" because I post the truths in my story then thank you. However, I also know the jw truths enough to know that you should not even be associating with us, not even to say a greeting or to speak to the Evil Slave - since we are labeled even more horrible that disfellowshipped ones, so does that make you spiritually weak in their eyes?? or does it make you someone who is smart enough to actually start questioning the way things are done enough to start searching for the "truth" even though it is against there teachings and ways?

OK I've read everybody's comments. I still have the same question. What is Truth? I know that JW's have the facts correct The flood, history of the Jews and that there is a strand running through the whole Bible leading to Christ and his fulfillment at Armageddon. I believe this is true with all my heart, why are these atrocities allowed? The Bible speaks of wolves in sheep's clothing,I was led to believe they were those who led people out of the truth such as the people on this web site that are questioning the elders authority. I say that questioning is not a bad thing. That is how I learned of the Bible in the 1st place. Now I need the wisdom to discern the truth. Joan

Last year on May 1 there was a post that stated that there is a ring of pedophiles operating within the Watchtower organization and that they are grooming children for sex with big name officials of the Watchtower. I was one of those children between 1959-1962.

I was forced into a car with 3 JW males. Two were teenagers older and much bigger than I - M. W. and M. D. The driver was a high profile JW - T. J. I was held at gunpoint.

The terror I felt was unbelievable. I had no way out. The lives of my brothers were threatened. There was nothing I could do except disappear somewhere down inside. You can't hold this kind of trauma and double bind in your conscious mind. Satanism was involved.

I am sorry that I cannot write more at this moment as my emotions are overwhelming me.

Please, I beg those of you who were hurt like me. It's time to "shout from the housetops what was done in secret." This is what Jehovah God wants us to do and He promises to back us up.

We remember how the scriptures were used to silence us. That's not why He had them written!

I am dying with cancer now. I have nothing else to lose. I will tell the secrets. I refuse to be shut up again! Please join my voice in a very loud shout!!!

Hi I am back again. Some persons really can't understand why someone would want to remain in a religion that has this problem/criminal behaviour being practiced.

I view it like the examples I have heard about, of some inter city neighborhoods fighting to get back there neighborhood from drug dealers and criminal element. When everyone works together whole neighborhoods have been cleaned up and they have got their neighborhood back.

For justice to be done it must be seen to be done. Winning these court cases go a long way in educating the public that these crimes will not be tolerated. DJB
I sent an e-mail to Dateline... I pray they air the story.

When I first started going to the kingdom hall, I thought the people in there were almost perfect, they really have a way of showing an outward appearance of righteousness. Then I saw prejudice, class distinctions, phoniness, a judgmental attitude, etc. Besides all the work they have to do is overwhelming to new people, ones raised in it I guess is the norm, they are like the Taliban, I'm glad I quit my study, they can call me whatever they want to. I'm done.

Joan, Truth is something that no one knows exactly what it is, but here's my version of what it is, if you're willing enough to listen.

Truth, according to the Bible, is what should set you free from evil. It appears to me, however, that if this is the case, then the JWs obviously don't have the truth. All the organization does is bind you to them, not set you free.

This version may or may not be right, but like I said before, no one has the exact answer.
HAVING been abused 7 ways to sundown both LINDA and LISA when something loving happens it is a little hard to verbalize but I have been touched emotionally very deeply THE necklaces are sooo pretty RANDY I LOVE U !!!! PERSONALLY I AM GONA were mine to bed !!
the same interests and my mom thought that since my dad did not go to the hall it would be good for me to have a sort of "big brother". I remember the day so clearly it was like it just happened. "Bob" came over to see me and my dad answered the door. Bob asks if I was home and my dad says "yes but I was not available at the time". Bob then tells my dad for me to phone him when I got the chance. (I was hiding around the kitchen entrance and could hear everything but did not make my presence known. My dad had seen him come up the driveway and told me not to talk to this guy and that I was to stay quiet and out of sight. My dad then tells him,( these are his exact that I will ever forget, "Bob,I am gonna tell you something that you may not want to hear,but you are to have NO contact with my family. This means my wife and the boy. Truth is Bob,I don't trust you and I think you are hiding something. I could be wrong but my first responsibility is to my family and if this means hurting your feelings then that's too bad" Bob just stood there and stammered a bit and said something about just trying to be a friend to me and helping me along and if there was something he did to offend my dad blah blah blah. My dad says (and to quote him) "No,I just don't trust you and if you want me to be completely honest I don't like you either. This is my right as a husband and father and that's the way it is". Then to drive the nail home he tells Bob,"let there be no mistake,you are not to have ANY CONTACT with my family,don't even say hello to them because from this day forward they are forbidden to have contact with you"Bob turns around and leaves. My dad who is a kind a gentle soul then calls me in the living room. He is just shaking and red faced. I have NEVER to this day seen him that way. He then tells me " If you listen to only one thing in your life that I tell you its this,you are not to have anything to do with Bob anymore!!!. My dad is a very soft spoken person and for him to talk this way I knew not to question what he said. He then puts his arms around me a gives me a big hug,and says " I may be doing the wrong thing here but my gut tells me I'm right" About 2 weeks later the woman who was studying with my mom calls her up and tells her she wants to talk. It seems that Bob was babysitting the woman's little girl and when he left the little girl told her "her private spot hurt". The woman did not put 2 and 2 together until Bob came over to the woman's house a couple of days later. The little girl saw Bob in the doorway and immediately started crying. Like a light bulb coming on it hit her,she made an excuse about being busy and Bob left. The little girl told my mom and her mother what Bob had done and in true JW fashion my mom told the elders. Because of the 2 witness rule NOTHING was done and it got left on the back burner. Bob eventually left the "truth" ( I now call it "the lie" was not heard from again until about 5 years later when he was brought up on child abuse charges by the police. It seems he made friends with a woman and her young daughter at another church and was caught molesting the little girl. It was the priest who thought something was up and turned him in after an investigation. My mother saw his name in the paper and phoned the police to offer some background on him. The police then talked to the elders and made it known to them that THEY could be held legally responsible in a civil court if the second little girls family wanted to sue. He was sentenced to jail for awhile and he has not been heard from since.

Hi, I really enjoyed your website very much. I am not a JW and never have been. I am a born again Christian who loves God with all her heart,believes Jesus is the only way to Heaven and trusts the Holy Spirit to lead me into all truth. I have 2 family members that are JW's. My brother in law and now his wife(my sister)are JW's. The one thing I noticed about my bro-in-law is his anger against "born again"Christians" and his prideful spirit. Hi again. Your sources of the 23,720 pedophiles on file at Legal Department appears to me to be accurate from the standpoint that there is 2 witnesses to every incident, adults and not young offenders, possible convicted persons, and last but not least WHEN THE ELDERS ARE WILLING TO INVESTIGATE AND IF THEY ARE WILLING TO PHONE LEGAL DEPARTMENT. Here they get around that by not investigating. My dad suggested the real number be multiplied by 4 for the actual number.

In Canada we have to go through the local branch. We are forbidden to write or communicate with NY. My Uncle said there was a letter for the elders to that effect. For these reasons I believe the number you have is for the US only.

The elders locally do not investigate even if there is a complaint. The two witness rule applies only if they are two Jehovah's Witnesses. A non-witness would not be accepted. Also a women's testimony they would not accept unless she was make a confession or was supporting what her husband says.

The local elders here only take the word of the offender, if he confesses and then it is private reproof (so they say). We have gone to them with a list of persons they can talk to but they do not go to them.

In the local congregation I am in now, from the people we have personal knowledge of 1/4 of the congregation are practicing pedophiles. Of this number there is possibly 3 or 4 that are convicted. I also figured the number is 1/2 of the congregation who cover up and/or support these people. This what I know from my personal experience and what my dad and I have seen and been told. The average attendance for our kingdom hall is between 80 and 90.

The number that the legal department has is the tip of the iceburg. My dad feels from is experience the number of pedophiles in the organization is much higher then in the general population and higher than the Catholic church.

The reason I believe is that we are commanded to go to the elders first then they decide who is lying and what is to be done. You are lying if the pedophile denies it (no matter how many witnesses).

They ask if you are going to the police and if we say yes. We are threatened and told they are watching our attitude. In my case they are going to assign a brother to watch us all the time now because my X broke the restraining order and I went to the police. We have been ordered in the past not to go to the police. Back 5 years ago I had privileges taken away and restrictions placed on me because I was going to the police and applied for and received a restraining order. I told the elders that I felt like Job and with the three false comforters. The one elder told me "well then suffer."

10 years ago I was raped by a non-witness man (rather violent) and I fought back. I was put on public reproof and my husband who I was estranged from at the time was granted a scripture divorce. I had restrictions placed on me for 2 years and when another brother was interested in me they warned him about me. This was never reported to the police. I had witnesses who heard the event. I found out later that it was a set up it was deliberate by a couple of witnesses.

The Pedophile community has a very strong lobby in the Jehovah's Witnesses community unfortunately. I remained a victim until I had gotten a restraining order and was willing to use it. My advice don't wait to go to the police seek protection right away. DJB tango_sheba@hotmail.com

From Norway. . . . Having read this, I will just mention a case from this country, when a convicted pedophile wanted to come back to his congregation. Off course the elders had to accept him, but they gave him this instruction - he had to sit in the front of the Kingdom Hall, he had to attend the day -time bookstudy-(there where no children there. What can the elders do, if a convicted person wants to come back - he has served his sentence - they have to accept him, whether we like it or not. sailer66@hotmail. com

It is true that the congregation needs to try to accept and support a repentant sinner - even sinners of the worst kind. It is not the elders’ job to further punishment of the sinner. But that doesn’t mean that they need to pretend that the sinner never sinned. To the contrary, it only makes sense that any organization’s leaders work for the safety of those in that organization - especially the children.

I am interested in how the congregation in - Norway was it? - handled the problem. I might feel reassured if I was sure I knew of all such pedophiles in a Hall - and I knew that others were on the lookout also. But that is the first I've heard of that method.

But I'll say this: Being a victim, or worse - parent of a victim, would be a completely different matter. There is no way on this planet that I would let any such support overcome my commitment to get the law on this person - after I had had a chance to 'discuss' it with him in private.

But of course, that is why they pick on the weak and trusting.

To the boy whose father protected him from 'Bob': Its nice to have some strength on your side isn't it? To have a Dad ready to stand up and make these decisions and enforce them is what being a leader in the family is all about. My Dad was at least as protective - and ready to act. He never became a witness. Or to put it another way: he never became one of those overly socialized automatons ready to sacrifice all, including his children, for the organization.

It is brutally sad that such a person just moves on to a more vulnerable target.

Just the same, I keep a close look on things - just in case it is my turn to stand up for my kids.

DJB: I'll try to be nice - promise. Do you have any idea what you do to your credibility when you claim that 1/4 of YOUR congregation are practicing pedophiles? Out of 80 to 90, that means 20+. It must get lonely up there in the Canadian winters. Seriously though, this site has people with real problems or interests, and when they see a message with content as outlandish as that, they can only deduce that this site is populated by folks with a severely skewed view of things.
If you really believe what you say, then you need more than you can find on this site. I suspect that you need more attention than any one congregation of 80 to 90 can provide.

Just one more time - I gotta know - why is it you go to worship in the den of an abusive ex-husband and 20+ practicing pedophiles? You haven't answered that yet. You can't believe that Jehovah wants you endure such.

- Buster (grew up in a Massachusetts Cong. with just one convicted pedophile)

Hi again, The area I live in is said to be the pedophile capital of Ontario and this isn't just with Jehovah's Witnesses. One of the investigating officers said there is a ring of pedophiles that stretches out into the community. My daughter who is not a practicing witness was out with a group of friends to a local bar (one being an officer who investigates sexual abuse) he pointed out to her that 1/2 of the persons in the bar he had arrested at some point for sexual abuse (he recognized them). They were sex offenders. My daughter told him what I always say and he agreed.

People may say the high numbers are insane and victims are whiny but if they do they are in denial. This one reason for its rapid spread and pedophiles with so many victims. People are in denial and refuse to believe the victims.

If they think the victim is lying, or did some thing to deserved it, then they feel safe thinking it can't happen to them (false sense of security).

There are many reasons that someone would not recognize the pedophile. Many police officers have specialized training. When a persons experience is narrow it can mean they have an inaccurate picture of what's really going on.

Just because someone doesn't believe it is happening doesn't change what's really going on. Pedophiles are masters at manipulation. "You can fool everyone some of the time but you can't fool everyone all the time. " A good expression to remember when in doubt. DJB

P. S A sign reads 5% make it happen; 5% watch it happen; 80% ask what happened? With regard to the situation with pedophilia it needs to be asked where do we fit in? Another expression "The Truth is stranger than fiction. "

I like the Silentlambs website. There are so many people who have been adversely affected by experiences and abuses with Jehovah's Witnesses and/or by the poor treatment they have endured with that organization's decisions and teachings. I abandoned that organization about 15 years ago. For a number of years after, I stilled subscribed to their abusive nature, and carried much of their poisonous rhetoric with me. I did believe that I was no longer loved by God, and that I would surely be destroyed at the so-called end of this system of things. However, it was through research, effort, and websites such as this (and www.freeminds.org) that I finally found true piece of mind and clarity. I often liken the abuses one suffers with the JW cult, be it sexual or otherwise, to the layers of an onion. It can truly take years to "peel back the layers" and uncover deeply rooted damage inflicted on one's psyche, self esteem, and consequent outlook on life itself. And that's if one can even realize that the damage exists! What I am trying to say is that not everyone has the same tools, or coping skills to deal with the horrible abuses they have endured. It will likely take years to work their way through the layers of abuse. This site is a good tool to support such ones as they develop these tools. So, I hope other visitors to this site will not be too critical of the so-called "whiney" comments left here by certain visitors. We are all seeking a certain level of support or answers, otherwise, we would not be visiting such a site as this.

Most members especially elders of an abusive cult who are pedophiles can easily, or at least for quite some time, can away with their crimes. This is it works. Because they (and also every member does) know for sure that whatever they say cannot be doubted, contradicted and questioned. Whatever comes out of their mouths should be passed around the members. So pedophiles simply spread gossips and rum ours about other faithful, unsuspecting and vulnerable members of committing such crimes. As simple as that. Most testimonies of disfellowshipped members can attest to this problem within JW. Some of them tells stories of being falsely accused of molestation and pedophilia. The real pedophiles are just laughing and made everyone believes they are one of the 144,000 heavenly elites. They can easily dodge the arms of the law. Justice is blindfolded. Anyway, there's no roasting hell to worry. Souls die and that's all. "Let's drink today for tomorrow we will die" attitude is evident among the offending members. By denying the doctrine of the existence of hell has created problems JW cannot handle.

To the Silentlambs crew: keep up the good work. Let justice prevail! Expose the wolves among the sheep.

I knew there were others like our family. I just didn't realize how many. My ex-husband molested my oldest son when he was 11. I went to the elders of course as that is what I had always been taught to do when a problem occurred. This was in the early 80's and the area I lived in sexual abuse was not talked about. The "elders" slapped his hand. He was privately reproved. I was encouraged to forgive him. I was not encouraged to seek outside help for my son. I sent him to live with his father to protect him from further abuse. Well a few years later he molested my youngest son when he was 10. Same scenario. Since divorce was not an option at that time I did my best to keep my son from EVER being alone with him. My ex was again reproved and again it was never suggested we seek help. I was so afraid of losing my kids to the state I stayed silent. My boys are now 31 and 24. The oldest one turned to drugs and is an addict. The youngest one has tried many times to commit suicide. Obviously I am no longer an active JW and have no desire to be. There is no way I can be part of an organization that condones child abuse with it's silence. MP

MP: The story you tell is sad. I have a hunch you would say that you stayed with the hubby, and in the truth, because you were told to. I cannot imagine how it must be to have to look your younger son in the face. At that age, all he had was you to protect him - and you didn't.

Anything can happen a first time, but the older son must struggle with the fact that you left him exposed to the pedophile, even after you knew. The fact that your husband abused you first son is his fault. The fact that the husband didn't get reported to the police after the first time is the fault of the elders, the society's policies, and you. The fact that your second son got it too is your fault. How about taking a bit of responsibility here.

Hi again, MP-You did the best you could with the knowledge and the tools you had at the time. I was married and divorced twice in the organization and both men in good standing(even thou I found out later both pedophiles).

We are taught in the congregation by some of the elders that pedophilia is like any other sin and should be forgiven and forgiven repeatedly. My question is how many times must they sin against our children before the elders realize they are unrepentant? The woman that stays is viewed by some as making the more righteous decision even if there is only a promise of change on the offenders part. If you leave you are often marked and not assisted or accused of being apostate. Being isolated can push some to consider the option of staying seriously. It really makes you question your own judgment and position on this especially when you stand relatively alone. Consider this next experience.

A friend of mine forgave her husband for molesting her child after 7 years of marriage(elders told her to forgive him). She stayed until six years later she caught him again and this time they had 2 children together. With her efforts he went away for 5 years and when he got out he was not allowed to be around children ordered by the court I believe. The congregation also had to pay for the counseling, her choice($75. 00 per hour) for her daughters. The court ordered congregation to pay this cost. Both this sister and her friend told me this.

I left both, to protect my children. I didn't forgive their father(with 8 years) or their stepfather(with almost 6 months). All people sided with these men except my family. All three of my children are very protective of me and I of them. My oldest kept telling me at the time it was much better not living with her daddy. She defends growing up in a single parent family when it is put down. We are really good friends and she is now 20. Standing with my kids was well worth it. DJB

I am so glad this site exists. I find it, for the most part, a very comforting place. The stories from sex-abuse survivors and those involved with them are a good thing to read/know (not "good" that it happened though). I share their experiences and feelings. I guess it's the harsh-mouthed insults by the "org haters" that are somewhat upsetting, but that's to be expected, I guess. I'm not totally convinced JW's are a cult or sect, etc. no matter what the cult-haters say. I DO hope, however, that the "org" will correct itself ASAP and make a universal plea for all congs/elders, etc. everywhere to do the right thing. If they don't, then the people themselves, or the law, or the Dateline show WILL force them to.

And I also feel that anyone who posts their own story, that others should not condemn them or what they share.

Sorry to hear about the cancer that "P" has. I hope someday he will feel strong enough to be able to tell his story.

For the "sister" who finally wore pants out in service in the cold winters... back in the late 70's when living in the Rockies (winters were 9 months long), the cong there had no problem with the sisters wearing pants out in service in the winter, or even to the meetings in the winters, for that matter. It was a really good cong. I bet they would never put up with the pedophiles.

This scripture comes to mind as I write this, about the long pants, pedophiles, etc.: "Let your REASONABLENESS become known to ALL men." (Philippians 4:5a)

The story about the colored-stockings was funny. :) Thanks for lightening things up a wee bit. Personally, I think the legs of women who choose not to shave them to be more yucky to look at than colored stockings! ;) (I am female, so I can say that.)

The info from the Canadian JW - wow! I do not doubt that certain areas can be "havens" for a pedophile population. It is well known that San Francisco, San Diego, and Key West are chosen by gay populations, so why could not other cities/areas be "chosen" by the pedophiles?
The guy who had the father that told "Bob" to disappear. . . Man oh man. I wish I had a father like that! He was wise indeed, and paid attention to his "gut" - something many have not learned to do. ALWAYS pay attention to your first gut instinct, no matter what the situation!

Several decades back I don't think people were as aware of this problem, but these days there is no excuse whatsoever to be "in the dark" about what to look for or what to do. Many many educational shows about child molestation have been on the TV for the past 10+ years, plus newspaper and magazine articles about what to look for, etc.

Agree 100% with those who write that pedophiles are MASTERS of manipulation and deception; and also that pedophiles do NOT CHANGE.

Best wishes to all. . .

From the My Story section of this website, under Instinct, silent lambs wrote this. . . and I thought it was a very well written and beautiful (sad but true) description:

"So yes, there is a grief, a loss, a sadness, that is to be found in the eyes of those who suffer, the fear in the eyes of those who are afraid to fight, the coldness in the eyes of those who do not care, the ignorance in the eyes of those who do not understand, the pain in the eyes of those whose instinct forces them to fight to the death those who would harm their own."

In the "My Thoughts" section, silent lambs wrote about the $951 million the WT has annually (this is not the first place I have seen that, btw). I was just wondering, then, what is the $$ used for? I never saw any CO's or DO's riding around in Cadillacs or anything like that. So I wonder what is all the $$ used for? I know they say they still need $$ for all the needed K. Halls to be built and things like that. -- This is a sincere question: Do they ever say they are saving the money to rebuild after armageddon or something? (But at that time, there would be no need for $$ at all, so that doesn't make sense either.) -- I'm just curious if any members have any insight on what all that $$ is used for.

Curious.

I am inquiring to the 5/2002 article on silence. Is this true? Why would they use the Solomon scripture for something referred to or associated with the abuses going on? Can you scan in the whole article? I am very upset to read the little that I did. When a friend of mine was reading this she just shook her head and said a few choice words. She said reading that made her sick. She asked "Isn't that bringing reproach upon your God's name?" A God of love wouldn't say something like that. How are people who say they are JW's speak up for an organization that quotes scriptures like that. It was brought to my attention that just maybe this is God's way of cleaning out the organization. The 5/2002 pg 27 isn't bringing honor to God. These people who are suppose to be writing the articles say they get divine inspiration from God, they are a chosen people, they have "the truth". No this does not seem so. I hope dateline gets this article. God says to rejoice, be happy and the article is basically saying the opposite, or that's what the impression seems to be.

Hi, Someone wanted to know if there was an elder that had ever been charged? The answer is YES!! That was after being removed before and made an elder a second time. Friends told me all the children had been molested by the time he was caught. The congregation had 25 publishers was in northern Ontario.

Bill Bowen, shame on YOU misapplying scriptures! That's apostasy! 2 Peter 3:3-7 has to do with what? A non-existent Dateline show? To borrow a phrase from you, DUH! This from a man who constantly blathers how misinformed and uneducated persons are? It's very easy to say "sources say." Sources say you are an apostate.

I wonder if your web-site will be including pedophiles from the other religious groups, especially as those far outnumber those of Jehovah's Witnesses (see http://hector3000. future. easyspace. com/pedo. htm ). -Heinz hector3001@aol. com

I had to download all the letters onto disc. . . and after more than 3 hours, I had to come back on-line and ask, first of all, if anything is being done, lawfully, to enforce the law on the WTB&T Society?

And after the knots in my tummy subsided and I'd dried my tears. . . I asked myself what did I feel. . . ? The truth is finally. . . FREE. . . Our Lord was right, "The TRUTH will set you free". . . and to all my brothers and sisters who have been through similar stuff, I want to thank them for their courage in speaking out. . . We have heard so many times over the years, of the tremendous courage of the brothers and sisters who have had to face persecution from Satan and his Demons, in the guise of "THE WORLD". . . when all the time, many of us were being tortured and raped by our own. . . "Family". . . (I use the word lightly. . . )Our 'Tribe' is made up of those who we grow up with and who shape our future. . . I am afraid I learned a long time ago, that to survive at all, I had to remove myself from the mind games and control. . . my fleshly family continue to "worry that I'll die at Armageddon", and they see my newfound happiness as delusional. . . but that's okay, they are comfortable with their fears, it's what they're used to. . . I mean who would they be if they didn't have the title JW's'. . . ? I pray to Jehovah every day. . . more than I ever used to be able to because I could never look Him in the face. . . but now I know that He is with me every step of the way and I can feel His LOVE because the barrier of fear has gone and there is nothing in the way of His wonderful guiding light. . . I've begun writing a book. . . "How To Survive Religion with Your Faith In Tact". . . if anyone wants to help, then please send me your thoughts, I promise to 'quote', whilst respecting your privacy. . . but I don't want it to be a bashing book. . . I want it to be positive and uplifting. . . to show all the broken hearted that there is hope and you can survive and you don't have to worry about dishonoring Jehovah or His Name because. . . He is very "NOT HAPPY". . . with all of this cover-up and He ALWAYS allows the TRUTH to come out in the end. . . So let's DO SOMETHING. . . let's speak out. . . don't be afraid dear ones. . . "If Jehovah is with us, who will be against us. . . ?"

I send you all my love from England and pray that you all can find some peace very soon and find new strength in the fact that this very brave and kind brother has taken these amazing steps to help us all.

O. k, I hope hector3000 is talking about the other religions total having more molesters, not percentage. This problem will happen in any religion. It's whether they report it or not, & send pedophiles to your front door. I really wish these "blind" people would stop bitching about other religions. What would they say to the catholics if the catholics or mormons started pointing fingers, saying "What about the j. w's?" They would claim the old saw of "They're persecuting us!" Please. Look at yourself first. Also, once again, please stop this "Bill's an apostate!"crap, it's just another way of trying to avoid the real issues at hand & call names. Bill could be Big Bird for all I know or care. It's the issues he so bravely presents that matters. So, to all the jw's w/ too much time on your hands, get up, turn the computer off, & go research this for yourself, or go out in service or something, I'm sure you have far better thing to do than play god, & judge people. Oh, wait I forgot, that's what you guys do.

For those that would like to do bit of reading on the subject, you gotta get 'Crisis of Conscience' by Raymond Franz - the ousted Governing Body member. It gets deeply into the difficulty one faces when trying to make judgments in the face of dogmatic, dictatorial thought control. It doesn't deal directly with child abuse, but it does speak to the intense control that the Society maintains over individuals - from the Branch offices on down to the individual publishers. It gives insight into how such control is not tied directly to any scriptural direction - just prior-issued dogma. It shows how Witnesses that want to stand up and defend children in their organization are making a decision between their honest belief and blind adherence to man-issued edicts. Best book I've read in a long time.

After reading so many of the letters on this site it became after awhile very easy to spot the 'current' JW's. What truly sickened me was not just the letters of the victims but the letter of one current JW who suggested that "perhaps" these people had lied in their accusations!!!!Claiming that how could we possibly know otherwise unless we were there. This I find rather ironic because the same standard should also apply to the letter writer. Apparently it does not. . . . unless of course he was there. Of all the cover-up stories I have read from JW's on child abuse this accusation was by far the sickest. To close their letter with "shame on you". . . was the only ring of truth in that entire cover-up and condone letter.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I am looking forward to the Dateline episode on this subject. I have emailed them also. I am appalled that there is so much coverage on the Catholics and not much at all on the JW's. This only strengthens my view that the Devil is behind them and is making sure they appear to be the Light. When in fact they are walking in darkness. By their fruits you will know them- There's is certainly rotten fruit, now it has even become worse and is completely decayed full of worms and maggots. I was really surprised to know that in your respective congregations, cases of abuse are not being dealt justly. I felt so lonely when I read some of your reports. I did not know that proven molesters are not punished according to bible principles. I am 21 years old and currently serving as a regular pioneer and ministerial servant. I cannot think of elders, ministerial servants, circuit overseers, and even anointed ones doing such monstrous acts. To tell you the truth, I did not get enough sleep last night thinking about the cases you presented. As a ministerial servant, I have many little friends, both girls and boys. Sisters in the congregation told me that I am acting like a good father to them. I give them presents to make them happy even there's no occasion. Their sweet smiles make me very happy too. I had even sworn to myself years ago that I will do my best to protect them and to make sure that they are always safe. I love them and I can see that they also love me. It will be very painful for me if somebody harms them. Every moment, I pray to Jehovah to protect them and always keep them away from people with bad motives for them. However, I am thankful to have elders, servants and circuit overseers who are trustworthy. Last year, our C. O. reported that a brother has been proven guilty of raping a 12-year old girl in another congregation. He was disfellowshipped and later put in jail. I hated the man but I also pitied him for in my country (Philippines), a convicted rapist suffers the punishment of death. We had forgiven him for what he has done but he must suffer the result of his wrongdoing. King David himself was forgiven by Jehovah after he committed adultery and murder but God did not saved him from the result of his sins. He is 65 years old and holds a great privilege in his congregation. In another case, a brother in another congregation was proven guilty of molesting a child in his congregation. He did not rape the child, he just molested her. He was not disfellowshipped but our elders warned us not to let the children “Get Close to Him”. Unlike in the first case, the matter was not brought to the police. The elders just made some restrictions for him to follow if he wants to stay inside the organization. I am so lonely that such cases in your congregations were not solved fairly for both parties. However, I don't think that leaving the organization is the “wisest way to solve problems like this”. There are so many persons in the organization that has “outstanding moral character”. I believe that we must not leave the organization just because “some members did not show love for all”. I can see that the organization is seeking ways to prevent bringing reproach on “Jehovah's Name” which can be very hard to understand at times. It's true that elders sometimes show “favoritism”. But rebelling against the organization is not the way to correct the situation. Ecclesiastes 3:7 says that: “There's a time to keep quiet and a time to speak”. This thing implies that we could make suggestions for the good of the organization. It is right to ask questions on decisions that are made which we do not understand. The organization in the “whole” is kind, only those who do not have the “truth in their hearts” ruin it. We must remember the ancient nation of Israel and the early Christian Congregation. There are individuals who questioned the authority of Moses and Aaron. They claimed that Jehovah had also spoken to them and therefore have the authority like Moses too. They even questioned why Moses was permitted to have a non-Israelite wife. It is just right to ask questions but in a kind manner. But the contrary happened. They rebelled against Moses and kept insisting that he is abusing his authority. Jehovah annihilated the rebellious men. It is obvious that Jehovah seemed unfair to let Moses have a non-Israelite wife while they were not allowed to stay with foreign wives. Jehovah has reasons for this beyond human understanding. The early Christian Congregation made some mistakes too but it would be unwise for anyone of them to leave the truth. Those who acted as “super fine apostles” and later became apostates did not receive the “crown of life”. It's true that we often don’t feel comforted by hearing words such as: “Let Jehovah solve these problems in his due time”. But learning how to wait put our faith to the test. Matthew 24:13 says “But he that has endured to the end is the one that will be saved”. But this doesn't mean that we must not act. Let us do our best to save our children that will continue the “good work” that we had started. If some elders do not want to cooperate, we can still do some actions. We must just be sure that what we are doing is according to bible principles and according to the will of Jehovah God. If some elders threatened you to be disfellowshipped without proper biblical reasons, you could ask help to other elders in your circuit. I know that there are still many elders who are considerate and have balanced views in many deep things. A true elder must be proven to be “ruling as princes for justice itself. And each one must prove to be like a hiding place from the wind and a place of concealment from the rainstorm, like streams of water in a waterless country, like the shadow of a heavy crag in an exhausted land” (Isaiah 32:1-2). I do believe that Jehovah will help the governing body in making right and just decisions on heavy cases especially inside the organization. Proverbs 4:18 has been already proven to be true. It reads: “But the path of the righteous ones is like the bright light that is getting lighter and lighter until the day is firmly established”. This thing implies that the organization will be having clearer understanding about bible principles. So, let us not lose hope and at the same time do our best for the good of the members of our congregations. Never! Never! Never leave the truth! Leaving the truth will certainly bring calamity on our lives. I am telling you this quote from Colossians 1:9,10: “That is also why, we, from the day we heard of it, have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the accurate knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual comprehension, in order to walk worthily of Jehovah to the end of fully pleasing him as you go on bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the accurate knowledge of God. "Let us just see each other personally in the "Kingdom of God"! May Jehovah God through his son Jesus Christ bless us and guide us to the promised "New Earth of righteousness"! Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I was really surprised to know that in your respective congregations, cases of abuse are not being dealt justly. I felt so lonely when I read some of your reports. I did not know that proven molesters are not punished according to bible principles. I am 21 years old and currently serving as a regular pioneer and ministerial servant. I cannot think of elders, ministerial servants, circuit overseers, and even anointed ones doing such monstrous acts. To tell you the truth, I did not get enough sleep last night thinking about the cases you presented. As a ministerial servant, I have many little friends, both girls and boys. Sisters in the congregation told me that I am acting like a good father to them. I give them presents to make them happy even there's no occasion. Their sweet smiles make me very happy too. I had even sworn to myself years ago that I will do my best to protect them and to make sure that they are always safe. I love them and I can see that they also love me. It will be very painful for me if somebody harms them. Every moment, I pray to Jehovah to protect them and always keep them away from people with bad motives for them. However, I am thankful to have elders, servants and circuit overseers who are trustworthy. Last year, our C. O. reported that a brother has been proven guilty of raping a 12-year old girl in another congregation. He was disfellowshipped and later put in jail. I hated the man but I also pitied him for in my country ( Philippines), a convicted rapist suffers the punishment of death. We had forgiven him for what he has done but he must suffer the result of his wrongdoing. King David himself was forgiven by Jehovah after he committed adultery and murder but God did not saved him from the result of his sins. He is 65 years old and holds a great privilege in his congregation. In another case, a brother in another congregation was proven guilty of molesting a child in his congregation. He did not rape the child, he just molested her. He was not disfellowshipped but our elders warned us not to let the children “Get Close to Him”. Unlike in the first case, the matter was not brought to the police. The elders just made some restrictions for him to follow if he wants to stay inside the organization. I am so lonely that such cases in your congregations were not solved fairly for both parties. However, I don't think that leaving the organization is the "wisest way to solve problems like this". There are so many persons in the organization that has “outstanding moral character”. I believe that we must not leave the organization just because “some members did not show love for all”. I can see that the organization is seeking ways to prevent bringing reproach on “Jehovah’s Name” which can be very hard to understand at times. It's true that elders sometimes show “ favoritism”. But rebelling against the organization is not the way to correct the situation. Ecclesiastes 3:7 says that: “ There's a time to keep quiet and a time to speak”. This thing implies that we could make suggestions for the good of the organization. It is right to ask questions on decisions that are made which we do not understand. The organization in the “whole” is kind, only those who do not have the “truth in their hearts” ruin it. We must remember the ancient nation of Israel and the early Christian Congregation. There are individuals who questioned the authority of Moses and Aaron. They claimed that Jehovah had also spoken to them and therefore have the authority like Moses too. They even questioned why Moses was permitted to have a non-Israelite wife. It is just right to ask questions but in a kind manner. But the contrary happened. They rebelled against Moses and kept insisting that he is abusing his authority. Jehovah annihilated the rebellious men. It is obvious that Jehovah seemed unfair to let Moses have a non-Israelite wife while they were not allowed to stay with foreign wives. Jehovah has reasons for this beyond human understanding. The early Christian Congregation made some mistakes too but it would be unwise for anyone of them to leave the truth. Those who acted as “super fine apostles” and later became apostates did not receive the “crown of life”. It's true that we often don't feel comforted by hearing words such as: “ Let Jehovah solve these problems in his due time”. But learning how to wait put our faith to the test. Matthew 24:13 says “ But he that has endured to the end is the one that will be saved”. But this doesn't mean that we must not act. Let us do our best to save our children that will continue the “good work” that we had started. If some elders do not want to cooperate, we can still do some actions. We must just be sure that what we are doing is according to bible principles and according to the will of Jehovah God. If some elders threatened you to be disfellowshipped without proper biblical reasons, you could ask help to other elders in your circuit. I know that there are still many elders who are considerate and have balanced views in many deep things. A true elder must be proven to be “ ruling as princes for justice itself. And each one must prove to be like a hiding place from the wind and a place of concealment from the rainstorm, like streams of water in a waterless country, like the shadow of a heavy crag in an exhausted land” ( Isaiah 32: 1-2). OK Philipino boy: Take a moment, pull your head out of your butt, try to make a point without reciting claptrap dogma that's been foisted on you and you seem to accept. All that typing just looks like a blur to those that know that your logic ends up with people accepting that 'these things happen' and it is up to another entity to make it right.

You know of a molester that was not reported to the police. That fact makes you utterly repugnant and immediately obliterates any value to whatever you might otherwise say. Let me say it again: You know of a child molester in another Congregation that was never reported - and YOU have done nothing. YOU are personally responsible for the next time this fiend attacks another child. Perhaps you don't mind so much since the molester is a known entity in that hall - that the next victim will likely not be a Witness. Is that it? Is it less of a crime if he does it to a non-Witness? Do non-Witness children somehow deserve less protection?

It must be nice to be a Pioneer and be so thoroughly cloaked in your self-righteousness. It relieves you from having to rely on a conscience.

This Philipino boy whose real name is Regino Estabilo is trying to re-convert those who had left the abusive cult JW. He even made a damning statement on Lightbearer's guestbook. He quoted: "It's true that the organization made some misinterpretations of the Bible. " What a shame! Okay Regino, if you know very well that the JW is twisting the words of God, why waste time trying to re-convert ex-JW?

Chosen ones? Are you telling us that your organization is the chosen ones? JW is a cult. They deliberately misinterpreted the Bible. They are not, never been and never will be the chose ones.
In this part, you're clearly lying and you just made up this story: "In another case, a brother in another congregation was proven guilty of molesting a child in his congregation. He did not rape the child, he just molested her. He was not disfellowshipped but our elders warned us not to let the children "Get Close to Him". Unlike in the first case, the matter was not brought to the police. The elders just made some restrictions for him to follow if he wants to stay inside the organization. " What kind of statement is this: "He did not rape the child, he just molested her. "

What watchtower publication did you copy and modeled your writing? From the way you write, I could tell that you've heard so much from Evangelical, Pesticostal and born again Christians.

Sorry, I don't send email to any "hotmail. com" address because I don't want to get spammed.

Enjoy your lurkings on anti-JW sites!

Hey Filipino Boy!

You keep saying to "never leave the truth". Just one question: WHAT IS THE TRUTH? The organization is just making the Bible's principles as well as their own policies more confusing. Don't know what I mean? Check out this site:

http://www.jesus-witnesses.com/scream.html

After seeing this for myself, I don't know how women can possibly stay in the organization.

Oh, and about JWs being "God's chosen", then check out this page:

http://www.jesus-witnesses.com/jwviews.html

Those people are definitely NOT "God's chosen"! THEY AND YOU are the ones who need to FIND the truth, because I know that organization sure doesn't have it! You have some nerve to tell ex-JWs to come back to your so-called truth.

To the person who thinks I'm a racist, you've gotta stop jumping to conclusions. Just because I address someone based on their nationality doesn't mean I'm a racist. I know I'm not going heaven; I'm going to hell, and you know what? I DON'T CARE! Besides, how do you know YOU'RE going to heaven? I mean judging me as a racist when you don't even know me? Doesn't the Bible say, "Judge not, lest you be judged" or something of the sort?

Maybe I don't believe what the JWs do, but I do believe in God, Satan, Jesus, heaven, hell, Armageddon, and all the other basics. I don't believe 144,000 are going to heaven and the rest of us are stuck on Earth. I don't believe God's name is Jehovah (they just twisted the real name into something else). I don't like to get technical when it comes to my beliefs.

If I get destroyed, so what? Sure beats burning in hell forever and ever. Saves me a lotta pain. If not, well then let's just say I'll have a lotta company when I get there. You'd probably be that company; you and everyone else who wants to try and condemn me, including myself. Oh well, I don't care. Have a nice day and a miserable destruction of your own (I'll probably be right next to you suffering, but I'll be too happy at your misery to care. )

Hi again, The person who wrote from the Philippines received a lot of strong reaction. My question is are you former Witnesses? You sound like you are not. He is here at this site for the same reason I am. The pedophile activity he is aware of makes him realize we could be all telling the truth and it is scary. The name calling is just too far. Yes he needs to realize the situation is as bad as we say it is. Yes there is some sincere persons who want to put an end to it but GOOD INTENTIONS ARE NOT ENOUGH. Thinking it is handled fairly doesn't make it fair. The sentence they give their victims lasts for a life time. Should the sentence given to the pedophile be any less?

One article I read interviewed a doctor who worked with sex offenders for 20 years and found in her experience they do not change. They just get better at not getting caught. In my personal experience I have not seen them change (22 years of experience).

The person who wants to know where the hot bed of pedophile activity is...

Right now it would identify who I am and that would put my life in danger and I would end up DEAD. Then I would be another silent Lamb. As it is they tamper with my car and have threatened my kids. Also my kids have some of their father's family in Thunder Bay and Kakabeka Falls and Dryden. You probably have met my X if you still go to the hall or one of his brothers. One of them has been involved in the activity too and is a Ministerial Servant.

This site allows me to tell what is happening. At least you are on the alert and watching.

It go far beyond the boundaries of Canada or the USA. Some have written here from Denmark, Philippines, and Britain etc. DJB

Hello, I found this amazing website quite by accident. I actually was looking for information on how to contact some Jehovah Witness officials to report a pervert I serve on a board with. He is quite a nasty person who has been successfully sued for sexual harassment and is vile in his speech. He is using the religious organization to spend time with young girls he says he is "mentoring." One of them is an abused child (and it seems his type homes in on those vulnerable ones). His employees complain that he spends time on the Internet porn sites. I have suspected the preacher (or whatever the Witnesses have -- I am not sure if they are a religion or what)allows this as he is a wealthy member. Now I see this is condoned by the group. What do I do now? I can't prove anything, but it sickens me to see a middle-aged man driving around with little girls all the time. His (childless) wife encourages it. She said not long ago that they couldn't do so-and-such because he wanted to "play with the children" that afternoon. And his mother told me that he "gives such lovely sex talks to the children at church." He likes that sex talk, alright. Any suggestions from anyone? Thank you, Cathy D. (cathydo@bellsouth.net)

Abusers do exist in the JW my daughter was abused by a JW in the Gawler cong. in Adelaide South Australia and he is still there doing his thing lawman1@dingoblue.net.au

DJB, As I mentioned before I live in Thunder Bay Ontario and you said that if you gave anymore information about yourself you would wind up dead. The problem I have with that is I have read all of your posts on this site and it seems to me that anyone who even remotely knows you and your history would have been able to figure out who you are already. I am not a witness anymore but still have lots of family and friends who are and I still keep in contact with a few of them. I left the truth because I could not live within the parameters of the "Truth", and I have a hard time believing God has chosen only 1 group of people. (especially a religion that was started by drunk!) I have a lot of resentment towards the society and never miss an opportunity to let others know what they are all about. In all my years as a witness however, I can't believe the numbers you claim. If we are to believe what you say then almost 30% are abusers! Seems a little high to me.

Cathy D. : You don't have a prayer with the elders unless you can prove something. They will cite scripture to you and tell you that you need to provide two eye witnesses. As you have found, the wife will be no help. This guy may have already been thru some issues with his elders, and if so his wife was 'admonished' to forgive him and continue in her submissive and wifely ways. Of course it is possible that this guy just has a creepy attitude and that he has no history and is no danger. I generally believe in the 'gut feel', so long as it is somewhat tempered by the knowledge that you have no proof. So please proceed carefully, that way you can maintain the moral high ground - you'll need it if you are wrong. But above all, do proceed. These predators will be looking for the weakest prey. You've seen that. If he has the sense that he is being watched closely, he will react by either getting more surreptitious (a sure sign) or backing out and going somewhere else. But be wary, these folks can be amazingly cunning. They get quite experienced at hiding.

Take a look at the letter from Bob - earlier in this log.

To the Fellow from Thunder Bay, I am not the type of person to say what people want to hear. You may feel the numbers I gave for the congregation I am in presently are high 1/4 but I can name names. I have been in other congregations and some of them to my knowledge did not have as many pedophiles in comparison to here. Some are more, some are less.

Yes your family members should be worried about their children because from my experience they are at RISK!! I have lived and had family members live all over Northern Ontario.

One sister here had her husband convicted and it was printed in the local paper. He tried to run her son over with his car, the teenage son testified in court against his stepfather. They were forced to move.

You must realize that raising kids in single parent family puts all in a very vulnerable position. The social position in society is at the bottom. People do things and say things that they would not if had some standing in the community. I know what I have seen and I can't change that.

In bible times when Israel had become apostate one could identify this by the way they treated the orphans and the widows (not everyone was mistreated). I think it is the same today. Hard times are felt first by the most vulnerable members of society. . . DJB

PS I really think that the health of a society can be determined by how it treats the women and children. . .

Hi DJB, Thunder Bay here again. Let me get this straight, you say that Northern Ontario is rife with pedophiles and that the Kingdom hall is just a haven for such people. And yet you still continue to go? You say you are a champion for children's rights and serve on board to help children and that the only way to stop this horrible crime is to expose it, and then give vague details about what you know. This incident that happened is which the stepson was almost run over by his stepfather when did this happen? This sounds vaguely familiar but I think this incident happened about 10 years ago. I'm sure you have some knowledge about child abuse but all the cloak and dagger stuff lends no credibility to your posts. Do I believe you? yes I do, but I don't think you are as close to the situation as you would like others to believe. Have you gone to the authorities and reported all the "names" that you have 1st hand knowledge about? I went to the hall all my life and was very close to many witnesses in Thunder Bay and except for the "Bob" incident and a few other "brothers" who were just plain odd, I have never heard of the the amount of abuse you claim. I'm sure it happens and I'm even more sure the WTS has a problem in this regard but I don't think the numbers are more than the national average. Make no mistake, I'm not defending the WTS in anyway whatsoever. But I don't think spouting off armchair statistics and relying on homespun rhetoric adds anything constructive to the problem.
Thank you so much for this web site. I was molested by a "brother" at age eleven. Same story nothing was done by elders. I was disfellowshipped at age 17 for having sex with boyfriend and yet the child molester was still in good standing. I'm 36 now and I'm still dealing with it. Laura Conrad at Conradrl@aol.com

Fellow from Thunder Bay,

First off you can forget about your condensing attitude I have only lived here for 7 years(present congregation).

The CAS and the police officers were told at the time that the incidents happened as I said before. My dad also reported incidents to the CAS as well. We also live in very small place not at all as big as Thunder Bay. How many congregations do you have there?

You can believe what you want. The Bob incident was prevented and you were not abused. I am happy for you but not everyone is so lucky.

I never pretended to be at the hub of things. All I know is what I have seen and what my family knows. For all I know it could be a lot worse. Some people want details because they want to judge whether it is true or not. It comes down to the fact that they were not there when the incident occurred. Whether they judge it to be true or not doesn't change anything.

Let me describe my X husband (kids father). He was someone who was very generous and hospitable (if someone needed help he was the first one there) to those outside the family. If a car was broken down along side the road he would stop and help the person. He was very friendly and engaging person. As my daughters say at least he was good looking. He was very religious but he was also a SEX OFFENDER. As the old expression goes "you don't know someone until you live with them". There was a side that only the family and the one neighbor saw. I soon learned he had a dark side. He was a hypocrite and a very good one!!

My point is I could name places and names and you still would not believe me. I know if you meet him you would probably like him. I did and married him. Who is to say you are not being fooled by someone like my X right now in Thunder Bay. Remember the old expression "truth is stranger than fiction. "

If this makes you feel better I live about 15 hour drive from Thunder Bay. Northern Ontario is a big place.

A short note on relatives. My X brother in-law and wife; my X sister in-law and husband live there also. I divorced their brother about 12 years ago. They hate my guts!! It is passionately with the exception of my X father in-law who is not a witness(not an offender)!!! But remember this, his family who were witnesses covered for him.
If you lived here I would probably warn you . . . but I feel I have warned you by making you aware of the situation. What you do with the information is your choice!!!

P. S. Being forewarned is to be forearmed. Also an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure . . .

To the owner of this site:

I am Regino Estabillo and had just read some of your comments about the things that I had written on your guest book. I really didn't expect that you misunderstood many things that I had written. I just want to explain some of them in a clearer way. First, the phrase “He didn't rape her, he just molested her”, means, no sexual intercourse had occur. Molestation means “touching a person's private parts that makes him or her irritated”. Do tell me if I'm right. I admit that I made a mistake in using this phrase, it is obvious that I lack knowledge about the words that I had used. However, I had made some readings and found out that the definition of rape is broad. I learned that a person could rape “without sexual intercourse”, according to my Uncle's law book. But I want to tell you that I never lied in my statements. I really felt hurt when you said that I was lying. I've been in different religions before I became one of Jehovah's Witnesses. I never found a religion like them that bases all their teachings in the bible. I am really convinced that they have the truth even though they make mistakes. Why, I know many religions that had made many mistakes more than the witnesses. The witnesses are serious in studying the bible. They really want to learn the truth about God's purpose and his real commands for men. Most follow the bible principles even it would cost them their lives. Is it shameful to say that the witnesses “made some mistakes in understanding the bible”? Tell me, do you think there's a perfect religion that will never commit such mistakes? If it is true, why Apostle Paul wrote at 1 Corinthians 13: 12 this: " For now we see through a dim glass obscurely; but then we shall see face to face. Now I know partially, but then I shall know fully, even as also I have fully known "? He admitted that the first Christian Congregation lacked understanding about God's purposes. This only implies that they are prone to commit misunderstandings about God's word. But it never meant that they are false Christians. The holy spirit kept guiding them to understand God's word accurately. But proverbs 4:18 implies that God's truth will not be known to them in the “ twinkling of an eye”, making them impossible to commit any mistakes in understanding God's word. Example, Jesus' apostles thought that God's Kingdom will be restored in earthly Jerusalem, but they were wrong! Jesus corrected them. When Jesus returned to heaven, he promised his apostles that he'll guide them by the holy spirit. He said at Matthew 28:19-20: " Go therefore and make disciples of people of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the son and of the holy spirit, teaching them to observe all the things that I had commanded you. AND LOOK! I AM WITH YOU ALL THE DAYS UNTIL THE CONCLUSION OF THE SYSTEM OF THINGS". As you can see, Jesus is guiding his disciples until now by the holy spirit. I've never seen a religion like Jehovah's Witnesses that has been successfully preaching God's Word in the all inhabited earth. They are the only one who fulfilled the prophecy at Matthew 24:14 that reads: " And this good news of the kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations; and then the end will come". They do not exalt one race above another and they refuse to participate in wars even by doing it they will loose their lives. I've never seen people with such strong convictions. Jehovah's Witnesses is a theocratic organization governed by Jehovah God. It is not a cult like many say. A cult has a leader that forwards his own thinking. The governing body doesn't want to teach their own opinions. To tell you the truth, I'm a person that is hard to convince. I don't believe a thing till I had proven it myself. And I'm telling you, that God is guiding them like how he guided the faithful members of the nation of Israel to the promised land. I can see and feel it. No religion in history has been so effective in making people change their lives throughout the world. You had written that I am like saying, that " non-witness children deserves less protection". I'm sorry if I gave you that impression. I never meant it to be understood that way. I just want you to know that we were obliged to "protect the whole congregation". We also care for non-witness members of the society and this is the reason why we preach God's word. We want evil persons to change their ways of thinking. In the congregation, the elders make guidelines based on bible principles on “how to solve difficult cases”. The organization doesn't want to be cruel to anybody. It tries to solve any problems using bible principles. If a problem could be solved in a kind manner, they will. Of course, we cannot judge things if we do not know "what really happened". Many things must be considered before making a decision. Of course, the organization is prone for mistakes that it may repent later. However, I believe that God will continually guide them until they will understand bible principles fully. I beg your pardon if I'm using your site in convincing people to return in the organization. I just want them to give the organization another chance. I'm sure that they will find out that Jehovah's Witnesses are not bad. I've proven that almighty Jehovah God is with them.

Sir, This site is a healing ground. How would you feel if someone raped you and then asked you to return to that place it happened to "give it a chance"? Trust me, you obviously have never experienced this before. As for the jw's... anyone can take any scripture and make it sound like they want it to. Has it ever dawned on you that you don't study the bible? You study books written by men to "help" you understand the bible. You need to read Ray Franz book, though I realize you probably won't. Yes, the jw's have some very good points, but some points are not enough. I pray one day you will see the real light... just my opinion as you gave yours. Jennifer

Hey Philippino Boy: You are way too caught up in it. And it doesn't make a lot of sense to talk to you - you are brainwashed. "By their fruits you will know them" - false prophets and shepherds treating god's people with rules, stricture, and rough treatment - about as unchristian as you can get.

But for those that have reopened their minds, take a look at the 'this could only apply to us' attitude and how all things can be justified with this mind set. False prophesy justified by saying that first century christians didn't know everything either. Child abuse tolerated because Jehovah will make it right later. The conscience-free self-righteousness and justification is stomach turning. We should all read this guy's letter carefully - I feel it is representative of the JW attitude.

I saw at JahChristian site that Bill Bowen is not disfellowship and He has stated is a JW in good standing, while I deeply respect the work that Bill is doing my question is - in light of the proofs that the Watchtower is not "the True Religion" (as they Claim) why does Bill want to be a JW in Good Standing? I would want of HER before Judgment is rendered to this Cult. As You maybe Guilty by association.

To: Regino Estabillo,

I feel you may have the impression that I have responded to your posts. To date I have not. I feel if a person wants a response they should email me personally. On occasion when a person does something truly outrageous I may offer a brief comment or in order to explain a misunderstanding something longer. This guestbook allows many to express their thoughts and it displays many different viewpoints, often through the interaction of opinions a better balance comes to bear. When I do respond to a post I always sign it as "silentlambs", so I hope you can better understand how the guest book works.

I hope I am not Guilty. . . .

Kidding aside, the reason I defend my status as a JW is the fact that WT was using the false allegation of df to turn people away from considering the information. I want all the educate and review this material, including JW's who may find the website. I have conversations with several JW's who need support. If I am df Wt will use that as a basis to move against them and df them also. I prefer to remain neutral to be able to help all victims of molestation at the direction of wt policy.

This is so confusing - the guy running this web site is a JW in good standing? This is one organization that won't change from the inside. There have been times when it improved, but it popped quickly back to the ruthless, man-rules-based autocracy within a few years. Normally, I would think it somewhat reasonable to try to stay connected to people that may be willing to accept help, but no this group. But there is no room in this group for anyone that doesn't abide by every word issued by the WT. It must feel horribly hypocritical.

Those of sincere belief, yet also of a christian mind set that abhors the WT jackbooted tactics and teachings, must realize that you needn't be a JW automaton to follow Christ. You can feel that god has a people, while also realizing that these ain't them.

If you stay in to help those on the way out, you are a bigger man than I. But the lying to family and friends must be brutally painful.

If you stay because you think you can effect change from the inside - good luck. No one is as blind as those that refuse to see.

Hi again, The Catholic church has been in the news again. Apparently the Pope has taken a stand on pedophilia and issued a statement. The court cases are forcing the church to publicly acknowledge and maybe deal with this issue. This is excellent!! It has taken such courage for the victims to come forward and the lawyers working hard to obtain convictions. It is having an impact. But of course I realize this is only a beginning a first step.

I saw an interesting interview with the host of "American's Most Wanted". It came to light that he is Catholic. When asked about the situation on the "View" he denounced the pedophile priests. His life work is helping expose and find criminals. Yet I do not hear anyone suggest, that for him to do his work he must quit his religion.

My question is why then some individuals expecting me to quit my religion to effect change when those in other religions are not. It is like throwing out the baby with the bath water. These criminals need to be exposed and not allowed to hide behind religion. I think it is reasonable to remove the criminal.
Also consider this, if an employee was robbing and stealing from your business would you walk away and let the thief remain or would not the reasonable thing be, to fire the thief and have the police come in to have him charged and/or dealt with?

To effect change one needs to be in good standing otherwise you have no voice with anyone in the organization (JW). DJB

P. S. A word of caution in all this. There are many examples where individuals followed corrupt men under the name of religion (cults) and died. The examples of Jones town, solar temple, etc are especially painful. Somewhere along the line we must distinguish the difference between an whole organization that is corrupt (for criminal purpose) and an organization not because of design but its policies and procedures creating the environment and/or haven for criminals (pedophiles).

The Witnesses DO NOT have the truth, no matter how you look at it. They have a large set of basic beliefs (that all must agree to adhere to the 'present understanding' thereof), many of which do not hold up to even simple scrutiny. 144,000? Please. 1914? Just get a Witness to explain that one to you. For you JWs out there, decide for yourself how well you understand the derivation of that date - none will be able to substantiate it. It is absurd.

On a more subjective note, there is no large group I know of that requires such ritualistic adherence and treats even the slightest individual opinion with such savagery. Yes I said savagery - that's what I call the man-made rules that separate close family members, or kick out long-standing elderly because they questioned/doubted any of a myriad of small man-made rules.

- and by the way, apropos to the web site, they have a horrible track record of dealing with child molesters inside the congregation, both legally and morally.

Thank you for your moral integrity and moral strength. I'm sorry for the way you have been treated by the organization and witnesses in your area. I stepped down as an Elder because of the Governing Body's refusal to accept repressed memories in judicial cases regardless of how many victims with repressed memories come forward. My daughter, sister, brother, and myself were molested by my mother (a witness) and we all repressed it. Someone not in our family said he was molested by my mother. I became aware of other cases of witness pedophiles being protected by the elders and headquarters. My family was treated badly because we wouldn't keep our mouths shut about my mother. I was horrified, disoriented, and felt helpless to do anything. I walked away from the org. Your website has given me some peace. I'm proud of those who are taking the elders and society to court. I hope they come through it OK. The Governing Body's present stand makes me think of John 11:48-if the people believe the Romans will come and take away our place. " Larry Sommer

Thank you very much for this website. It has given me hope that perhaps good is stronger than evil. I suppose I am a silent lamb today. I don't like to admit it, but I am tired of being hurt so badly by so many, so often. I expected my parents to hurt, but I never expected it from the Witnesses. I was a fool. Perhaps I still am. I would like to submit my story, but that will have to wait for another day. Just writing this much has been difficult enough for me. You sir, are a good man. In some ways you remind me of the prophet Jeremiah, for truth, real truth, is certainly a fire in your belly and you are indeed preaching to a stiff necked and arrogant group of people. Oftentimes the phrase "You're in my prayers" is trite and not sincere, but I know of one small and silent (currently) lamb who really does mean it.

I have a few additional comments on why it is most appropriate that Jehovah's witnesses have referred to as the "Pedophile's Paradise. " Beyond the issues that have been laid out so eloquently in this Guest Book and website by others, such as the WTBTS's duplicitious"theocratic" standards, the megalomaniac"shepherding" of bodies of elders (who serve abusive hidden agendas, both of the Society, as well as themselves), the brainwashed condition of absolutism and the most stringent linear thinking (or should I say... not being allowed to do your own thinking), the fear of being labeled"apostate", of losing contact with family members (both actual relatives and those that one has been conditioned to believe are their only real family and support system... despite how dysfunctional it is), the the Orwellian DOUBLESPEAK (such as WE don't have an oppressive clergy/laity distinction like THEY do... now do what I say 'cause I was appointed by holy spirit, and I have the power to call... you an apostate if you disagree with me), the same style of emotional and spiritual browbeating and victimizing that abusive perpetrators perform is actually part of Watchtower lessons (what's the difference between "If you don't do as I say, or if you tell, Jehovah will kill your children, puppy, you", or "If you tell, Jehovah will kill your children, puppy, you... and we will make your life a living sheol until he does"?), and other systemic problems ads infinitum. There are also the FACT that the systemic dividing of families (the whole 'Jesus brings a sword to divide you from unbelieving relatives' thing) leaves JW children ESPECIALLY vulnerable to being exploited at home by non-JW family members, or by "weak" JW family members, or by "strong" JW family members who find some reason to skip a meeting or the Field Ministry every time they get an urge to stay home with one of the kids. I would not hesitate to say also that, due to the very nature of the proselytizing and conversion work (oh right, not supposed to use THOSE words...), a disproportionate number of severely dysfunctional families are brought in. Most of them actually believing that simply following the Truth as outlined in the literature will make them have a happy family life in this "Spiritual Paradise" (how did I ever come to believe THAT for so many years????) And that all they have to do is put Kingdom interests first, and be a good, theocratic husband/wife/child and it will come to pass... if it doesn't it is something YOU are doing wrong... not being a good enough JW, family member, etc... after all "murderers have come into the Truth, repented and become regular Pioneers based on the good witness provided by family members who put up with ritual abuse"). There is also the fact that anyone who would actually DARE to report... even if only to the body of elders... that someone is a child abuser... (particularly if that perpetrator comes from one of those multigenerational JW families... particularly if a low-income person reports a high-income person [don't tell me there are not those distinctions...], particularly if a person of color reports a white person... [don't you DARE try to tell me there are not those distinctions],... not only is it inevitable that the perpetrator will remain in "good standing", but direct or indirect charges will be aimed at the whistle blower. The infamous "back room" will become there second home as they continually sleep=deprived and harangued, brow beaten into confessing some "crime" against theocratic order. Any pretext will do... and don't believe it will stop at the first browbeaten confession. Everything can and will be used against you. What did you MEAN by that comment at the book study? Why are you wearing THAT kind of clothes? And even (though worded differently) why are you following directives of Society, instead of What I say? Are you an apostate? I was appointed by holy spirit! We can disfellowship you for not admitting that my perspective is right." This is likely to be thrown at you more than ANY scriptures or even quotes from the literature. And as far as letting perpetrators of child abuse go due to "lack of two or three witnesses?" Please! All the judicial committee has to do is REFUSE to interview witnesses to the abuse. And do they ACTUALLY have to produce even one witness if they want to take judicial action against a whistle blower? HELL NO! They can act with impunity. I dare ANYONE to dispute that. Anyone with any experience on a committee or on the other side knows that is a fact. And any elder who disagrees is browbeaten into complying with the lies of the rest for the sake of "UNITY." I've seen elders secretly apologize to individuals and families for having to toe the line in that matter because they "had no choice." OK this was a longer diatribe than I intended. I have shut up for too long. This web-site has given me the courage to speak the truth. it has amazed me for years that an organization that claims to be the "Truth" cares so little about actual truth. Thank you Bill Bowen, for being an honorable man. For being brave enough to spearhead this call for change. Thank you for breaking free of the brainwashed paradigm and showing others it can be done. I know the sacrifice it has cost you with your family, and I know the type of passive aggressive potshots that are hurled at you despite your standing in the congregation. And I know too well one of the congregations in which you served. I don't see it any longer as the exception... but the rule.
Hi, avishai here again. #1 It's my belief that the only reason Bill is still a jw is to remain as effective as possible, much like those who choose to become "inactive" rather than disassociate themselves to be able to still talk w/ there families. And we all know of those examples. And, now, I feel a bit hypocritical after bitching about dogma & how the important thing is catching molesters, not arguing about dogma, but, I think it's time to throw my hat in the ring, dogmatically speaking, as there are those who won't believe that anything is going wrong if the religion is right. It's very, very easy to quickly disprove jw doctrine. Since it's inception, the religion has been based on the year 1914, & it was calculated from the supposed year of the conquest of israel 607 b.c.e. This calculation is based on the assumptions that the gregorian calendar is exact & correct. It is NOT. It may be inaccurate w/ a variable of up to 15 years! And, that's beyond the fact that most scholars give a different date for the fall of israel being 587 b.c.e. Which could put "1914" anywhere from 1896 to 1934. There is no accurate way to calculate this, unless perhaps a hebrew calendar is used, & probably not then! Then, also, w/ this in mind, think of all the times they say something is going to happen, i.e. 1975. They have called themselves god's prophet in the past, now changed to the more ambiguous"gods channel of information on earth" WHICH MEANS EXACTLY THE SAME THING! According to deuteronomy 18:19, once you call yourself a prophet, you cannot take it back! Also, when "god's channel of information" does a 180 degree turn in doctrine, they call it new light! The old testament "channels of info" didn't change their prophecies, they were very explicit, not vague, & NEVER did 180 degree turns on their prophecies, they couldn't as per deuteronomy, or they would be KILLED! Said chapters & verse to follow. Once you are aware of these facts, there is no way to rationalize them away! & if you do, you are just as guilty as the false prophets, as you are required to take these lies door to door. Sorry, for getting all dogmatic, the children are what really matters, remember that above all else, god won't fix it later, because almost everyone is too lazy to try themselves. 18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. Acts 3.23

20 But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 when a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

I've read most of the guestbook messages here and I'd like to reply to those people who are defending the JW's. I was raised as one of Jehovah's Witnesses and suffered sexual abuse for 5 years from a couple that seemed to be spiritually strong. Everyone in their congregation loved them. But for 5 years of my life they molested me. Any form of abuse stays with the victim throughout their lives. Even if a JW claims to be repentant they should have charges filed against them. They should not, for any reason, be let free among the congregation to ruin another child. The couple that stole 5 years of my life were put on private reproof. They admitted to everything I had said they did and all they got was private reproof. That makes it so hard for me to trust the congregation now. I was also told that I shouldn't press charges against them because it might "bring reproach upon Jehovah's organization". So they got away with it for now. But Jehovah will take care of them in the proper way, whatever His will is. I am just afraid for the children who have no idea these predators are in their congregation. Over 27,000 cases have been reported. So I think protecting the organization is not the issue here. Protecting the children should be more important.

There is a pretty important point that seems to get by a lot of people: It is horribly self-centered to think that a pedophile is dealt with if he is identified and the children of the congregation are protected. That is not nearly enough. It is the height of apostasy to assert that Jehovah will deal with the individual and until then he won't have a position of responsibility. How disgusting it is to posit that the external authorities should not be called to protect the org.'s name. The world has other children that don't go to your Kingdom Hall. We are obligated to protect them too, whenever we can. A christian attitude would impel everyone to see that the molester is dealt with! Shame on anyone that knows of an offender and yet participates in the hush-hush tactics of the Watchtower Society.

in reviewing some of my previous posts, i would like to apologize to the group for the style of typing i sometimes use. i find it hard to understand my own writing. i often type without punctuation, and make up for it by hitting the space bar several times, in lieu of periods or commas. now i see that for some reason, the final form in the guest book compresses all those spaces, and it all runs together. will try to be clearer in the future. although i may still eschew capital letters from time to time. ;-)

You obviously have a problem with the JW's. Unfortunately children in ALL religious background have been harmed, not just JW's. Look at the courts in Australia, the Catholic religion has a few more problems don't you think? But soon all the wrong that men have done will be corrected. You really have a chip on your shoulder don't you? What you hate about child molesters is so true, they destroy lives, but just because a person calls himself a title, doesn't make the lot that way. Open up your eyes.

This is a message for Bill Bowen:

Hi Bill, you do not know me, I am an active JW and I have been following your work very closely.

You're doing an outstanding job, keep at it.

You are one man against all the odds. I deplore the covering up of child abuse and the shunning policy practiced against victims, it is unscriptural.

I simply cannot believe that the Society is trying to form a judicial committee against you.
I would go on the presumption Bill that your judicial committee has ALREADY made the decision to disfellowship you, they are just doing it by the book. You will then be known as a disgruntled X-JW not as an active witness, which will make a huge difference to how people see your cause for changing the child abuse policy.

What is even more low is that the Society sends letters to the families that appear on Dateline who have been victims of child abuse ordering them to a judicial committee. Haven't the victims suffered enough?

Child abuse is a crime, it should not be covered over or dismissed.

I find that the Society is more interested in preserving their 'image' of Jehovah, rather than living up to 'their' dedication to Jehovah and doing what's right. Image counts for everything, people it seems, don't.

if it is true that a judicial committee is being formed against bill bowen, i can assure u that MINDS ARE ALREADY MADE UP! never saw a committee that didn't. especially one that was formed as part of the cover up of child abuse. i was so brainwashed that i felt i was in the wrong for my attitude when i was harassed by committee for trying to protect and expose the abuse of my children. it has taken years to undo the spiritual/emotional/psychological RAPE that is done by elders, congregations, the "faithful and discreet slave", the WTS, etc. interesting that they use the same comfort/threat/wear your only family and support/u will be killed if u don't do as we say type of techniques in grooming their converts, as abuse perpetrators use against their victims. my family will NEVER go back to such filth and depravity as we experienced as JWs! and it has cost us dearly, in losing the few relatives who are still part of this borg collective. as far as losing the fellowship of those who perpetrated or covered up the crimes against my family, tried blaming the victims, (including my children), protected the perps, and spread the vilest slander about my family INCLUDING my children as a smokescreen, refused to take judicial action against one of the perps when it was established in a court of law that the perp perjured and committed false testimony against my family, tried to make my brainwashed psyche feel so guilty about my attitude in all this, that i actually ASKED to be disfellowshipped, so as to receive the 'loving, scourging discipline of jehovah that he gives to those he accepts as his sons ' so that i might actually re establish my 'dying faith' and adjust my un-theocratic-like attitude......as far as my fellowship with these kind of sc um...... including the elder who personally apologized, saying he had no choice but to go along with the lies 'for the sake of unity with the committee, elders and truth'....as far as our loss of fellowship with these 'christians'...... good riddance and "%$%^ u all! had i seen even one 'brother' with the moral fortitude and integrity of the one running silentlams, i would have stayed, and my family would not have received the hatred of the one running silentlams. i am ashamed that i continued to take them to meetings, assemblies and conventions after i asked to be disfellowshipped. i am ashamed that i had the goal of being reinstated into such a depraved organization. and no, my healthy aversion to these lying abusers that call themselves witnesses of jehovah did not come about from reading this web-site, or any other writings against the organization. i scrupulously avoided ANY association with anyone/thing that questioned jws for years. i avoided associating with any EX-jws for years. i came to my attitude by having my sanity restored. if there were more like the founder of silentlams, who actually stand up for TRUTH and what witnesses claim to be and teach, i would still be defending them, as i did for the first decade after i left. if this work can prevent or help even ONE silentlamb heal of being raped, intimidated, threatened and feeling guilty about it, then everything that they have done has been worth it. if they have the audacity to df bowen, it only goes to show them for what they are. never seen a rapist that didn't try to discredit their victims and their defenders. if bowen is anything like i was, sincere in believing jw s have the truth, he probably will have little to do with people like me until he heals too. their trying to df him is just ANOTHER FORM OF RAPE.

I was molested by a male pioneer many years older than I. This was when I was merely 13. He went on to serve where the need was great and was appointed an elder in many diverse places in California. He had a problem which was never uncovered because I never said a thing. Now my best girlfriend, we are both 55+ years old, reveals that she ALSO was molested by him at the same time. He had "sisters" chasing him in an attempt to get married for decades. I decline to add my name in hopes of protecting my elderly mother who is still very strong in the organization. I have left some 4 years ago now with a total loss of belief or trust.

It is crystal clear from reading the news excerpts that pedophiles are allowed to circulate. All the abuser has to do is say 'I'm sorry' and is deemed repentant. Or better yet, the abuser denies it all, and the abused is left not only with the enduring hell, but the reality that it is the abuser who will get protection. I experienced this first hand. If you get therapy for what you've gone through, the elders 'watch' your every move. Getting therapy is frowned on - you are considered spiritually weak for seeking 'wordly' help. This site blows their hypocrisy to smithereens and I highly encourage those looking into this 'religion' to look close enough to see the whites of their lies. Those who share their stories here - I applaud you.

The experiences reported here concern mainly elders and ministerial servants as the perpetrators, and it would seem that these ones were ALREADY PRACTISING their vile crimes against children BEFORE being 'appointed' by holy spirit.

Even when these ones are found out, some of them simply move to another congregation, only to perform well again and be 're-appointed' by holy spirit to their former position.

My question is this:

Is it true or not true that ministerial servants, elders and other higher ranking servants are APPOINTED by holy spirit?

As one scripture says, 'My thoughts are not their thoughts, for my ways are higher than their ways'

I cannot understand how anyone could be appointed by holy spirit and still be practicing child abuse.

The Society feels that if the whole issue of child abuse in the organization is 'well known', then this will undermine the whole authority structure of the elders and the Society in general.

Appointment by holy spirit could be seen as a means to control people, and if this is blown away, then control over witnesses is greatly undermined.

I am a former JW. My ex-husband was, at the time of our divorce, an elder. Then, due to the divorce he was removed (an elder, after all, has to have his family under control and he'd lost his control!), but just a year later was an elder again.

He never sexually abused any child, nor did he physically abuse me. My children, however, endured incredible abuse and they have mental, emotional as well as physical scars. When I brought this to the other elders' attention, they always said the children must have deserved it. No child deserves to be burned with a candle flame.

We must keep in mind that these elders are not trained in dealing with family problems, only in bible teachings. And yet this is no excuse.

As a child growing up, I experienced sexual abuse both from a "brother" in the congregation as well as from my stepfather, who never was baptized but was an accepted member of the congregation.

One of the issues I'd like to bring up is one that is also totally ignored within the society. That's alcoholism. I learned to drink at social gatherings, early in my marriage. It took me years to recover. Almost all of our "friends" drank to intoxication. And most of our friends were elders.

Another issue is how children are treated. I wish I had gotten away earlier from the society. Learning to treat each child individually, with love and respect, is something I learned "in the world."

Then there is the issue on how women are treated. The psychological battering I endured from my ex-husband for 18 years almost killed me. It took years of counseling for me to even learn that I could say "no" to a man.

As a last note I want to add that my ex-husband, refuses to take any responsibility in raising our children, except for taking them to "meetings." Otherwise, financially and in handling parental issues, I am on my own. Yet he is an elder, counseling other families ... However, I am glad to be free of him and the society.
I do miss the nice people in the congregation. I miss my family who has to shun me. I miss the sisterhood.

In about two years, look for my upcoming book, entitled: After the Fall -- A book of hope for those who have been excommunicated, expelled or disfellowshipped from a religious organization.

Thank you for the good work you are doing.

I think this is a good "awareness" site and I am totally all for helping the silent lambs. But I have never heard of any thing of this sort...It is against the JW's religion to have pre-marital sex so I find this hard to believe that it is an ongoing problem...it's obviously not big enough to make the news--look at the Catholic's. They protected their priests and still there will be people out their who report it to the proper authority's. I think that people are consistently looking for the bad in everything...why don't we look at the good for a change? This world isn't that horrible. Thanks--CD

All right, for the guy that said It can't be that bad, look at the catholics, look at the good for once. SCREW YOU,PAL!!! The catholics are MUCH larger religion, that is why they get more!!! And, tell me, where is the good in letting children get raped over & over & over again? WHERE? It's complacent jerks like you that allow these ATROCITIES to occur. You are & all of your ilk are blood guilty!! Guilty of child molestation by proxy if not by fact. I hope Bill sues the wtbs for discrimination, in that he was following a federal law when he reported this evil bastard! I hope they & every other churches that cover this up are sued so bad by all the victims that they are no longer able to function! THAT would truly be paradise, a new order. God doesn't protect child molesters, you do!!!!

To the person who suggests we look at the good in things, tell me.. What is the "good" in this situation? Certainly you can see how the lives that have been forever altered, and the innocence ripped away from these victims/survivors is so very much worse and outweighs any of the "good" things that you may say this religion has done for people. Shame on you for such an insensitive comment in a place where people are trying to heal. Amy at aorchid21@hotmail.com

Hi again, To the person who said look at the good. This isn't a matter of where we focus our attention. The bible says that a man who does not look after his own(family)is "worse than a man without faith." A pedophile does not look after his own obviously!!! What good?

The Older men in bible times were commanded to keep the congregation clean. Why are they not? How many times must they repeatedly sin against our children before they realize that they are unrepentant? The King of Israel Saul was told when he begged God forgiveness "to obey is better that a sacrifice." Even in the bible there are examples where there was an end of forgiveness on Gods part. There had to be works befitting repentance. He certainly never suggested the Kings behaviour to be ignored or suggest we look for the Good. DJB

Dear Silentlambs,

Just a quick note to say 'Thank You' for all your hard work, perseverance and courage. Speaking out against a ruthless, powerful and selfish cult like the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society is a daunting task - particularly when one considers the mountain of ill-gotten wealth they have at their disposal. Rest assured, your sacrifice is sincerely appreciated by many - especially by those who have been directly victimized by this sick cult.

Looking forward to the airing of the Dateline show...

Sincerely,

Phil Trozzi (X-JW and proud of it) email: scot@mnsi.net

Dear Bill, I sent the letter you sent to the yahoo mailing list, and the letters from the elders who are wanting to disfellowship you to the local newspaper here. I pray the publish a story on this. I am so sorry this is happening to you and all those good people who work with you.

All of us ex-witnesses who have have been booted out by this self-righteous organization know all too well what you are going through.
How brave are all those who are publishing the truth though about the WTS. May the God of all mercy and love be with you through this trial.

I have been studying, but in researching the organization for myself I have come to this conclusion: Jehovah's Witness a more concerned about the "Letter of the Law" (Scribes & Pharisees views) vs the "Spirit of the Law" (Jesus Christ's views) They're more interested in protecting their image than caring for their flock. My heart goes out to all the victims. I'm behind the Silent Lambs 100%

Hello - my name is Pamela (Williams) Montgomery. I work for Northwestern Academy in Pennsylvania. The facility is a juvenile detention/rehab center and I have been doing research for information and happened upon your site. I am looking for worksheets or brochures that can be given to juvenile male victims of sexual abuse for our clinical office. The odd thing about your site is - I grew up in Calvert City, Kentucky, and my family is still there, so it was a surprise to see your address. Any help you can give would be appreciated.

Hi, I was raised as a "witness" and was abused by a member of my family who was not a witness. The traditions and beliefs of the witnesses do not protect the innocent children from sexual predators. At the time I was a girl (30 years ago) it was unheard of to seek "professional" help for emotional problems, Jehovah will take care of. I wonder if that attitude still pervades today. I am so glad your site it here for those who may need it. You will be blessed.

True Some of JW members do not imitate Jesus closely as they should but that does not take away the fact the organization preaches the truth and encourages all to remain in the truth, to apply it fully. Everyone is responsible for their actions. I love being a JW. Jehovah is teaching us for our benefit, it is up to each one of us to heed the counsel. I find hard to believe these malicious acts are going on in the congregations where parents are encouraged to train their own children in the truth. I also find hard to believe that elders would tolerate an active pedophile among us and not encourage victims to report it to proper authority. I am not serving anyone but Jehovah. I like what I am learning I am going to support the good and reject the bad. You do the same instead of wasting your time trying to destroy Jehovah’s organization on earth. You will never win. Study the book of Isaiah and find out that Jehovah always protects his people (The righteous ones of course).

To the one that loves being a JW: You sound fairly new to the org. All you will need is one run-in with a judicial committee to find out how far they have strayed from a christian attitude. Self-righteous men doing what an even more self-righteous organization tells them. The men leading the congregations are a self-selected group where those that wouldn't treat other christians with such cruelty are weeded out. You do yourself a disservice when you think that the congregation elders would not allow such a one to carry on in a congregation. If a Circuit Overseer decides that it would be best for the Society to keep the matter quiet, the elders will bow their heads like the the overly-indoctrinated robots they have become. "Shhh...Jehovah will take care of it due time - and don't go to the worldly authorities." Sorry chief, it happens every day.

Unless you are the type that enjoys relinquishing all conscientious decisions to someone else, you'll get your chance. Just remember how you were going to 'support the good and reject the bad' while they sit you down and force you to swear allegiance to the Society and reaffirm your acceptance of some absurd doctrine. See how you stand as you decide whether the 'truth sets you free' or you should just go along with something you don't believe just so you can stay in an organization. If it hasn't happened yet, then you haven't been having frank discussions with fellow members. How constraining is that? For starters, why don't you tell some of your closest fellows that you've been on this site.

- Buster

This is avishai, & here is a msg. to the one who loves being a jw. You refer to the "righteous ones". Your letter is very naive & sad. First, refute my argument of May 1 about 1914, & then you can tell me about how Jehovah protects the righteous. Then, I want you to find a child who has been molested & had it covered up or even been reproved at as young of an age as 11 for "fornication w/ someone who is of age, & tell them how they have been "protected" by Jehovah & his org. Or, maybe you can tell this child that they weren't protected because they aren't"righteous" as they are forced to be cordial to someone who has raped them and stolen their innocence. Trust me, You can find someone this has happened to, it won't be hard, THEN come back & tell me that you love being a jw, that Jehovah protects the righteous. Then, & only then, will you have a right to come on here & spout off about things you obviously know nothing about. Then you can call Bill an apostate. You, know, there have always been "Gods people" Who have been called apostates for saying the right thing, who have been jeered, shunned & tortured for saying the right thing. Look at Jeremiah! And it's self-righteous people , just like you, who were persecuting them, not listening. RAPING CHILDREN IS WRONG! THAT IS ALL THIS SITE IS SAYING! Go sit in your tower, idiot! You are helping satan do his work, sitting there blindly calling names! You know better! PHARISEE!!

Hi again, Response for May 8 2002 Time:20:44:03

You are happy you are a witness. Nice to hear. Hope you do not have any children. They will be at RISK. I am an ACTIVE WITNESS and from my experience it the TRUTH what you read here. I do not agree with what is going on. I will tell you it is happening and to reject what everyone is saying here is very dangerous for your children. Consider it you have a lot to lose.

Think! The apostles even talked about the super fine apostles, false brothers in the early Christian congregation. Who are we to think it can't happen today? Romans 15:4 tell us "For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope". We are to learn from what happened to them so we don't repeat the same mistakes.

In 1 Cor 5:1 tells of a situation that existed in the early Christian congregation. It reads "Actually fornication is reported among you and such fornication as is not even among the nations...V.2 ...rather not mourn, in order that the man that committed this deed should be taken away from your midst? Considering this scripture why are they allowing these pedophiles in midst attending meetings? These scriptures were written aforetime for our instruction... and supersede any man made rules or policies. DJB

Hi, i will just say, i support your action against the organization. cause we can not allowed this thing to go on. I’m 23 years old, i got Disfellowshipped at the age of 21, i will fight for the right that every people can have their own beliefs, and not being “let to die” this way of shutting people out is a sick way of showing they don’t respect human beings. people can believe what they want...but not practicing this way of shutting people out, i’m not a believer of any other religions now, but jesus never turned away from anyone. young people struggle after getting Disfellowshipped, they have no place to go, we can not let the government keep on letting jw. doing this. thanks. jat-m@online.no from norway:)

I found this site interesting, sad and disturbing. I am an active witness who worships God. Since He hasn’t abused anyone I won’t leave Him. However, I can understand the great anger that injustice generates. An abused child needs to be protected and the guilty one needs to be punished and this should be PUBLIC knowledge in order to protect others. And this leads to the hub of the problem - the Organization is not able to ‘punish’ anyone, they are only able to remove wrongdoers who are unrepentant. Neither do they want to bring God’s name into reproach by going public. However, reporting ALL accusations to the authorities, whether there is a legal responsibility to do so or not, is the only way to go. Let the ‘superior authorities’ investigate and take all appropriate action and let the congregations support them. Otherwise people will make wild unfounded accusations like many posted here that sexual abuse is ‘rampant’ in the Organization, which it certainly is not, or take the opposite defensive view that it isn’t a problem at all which is both untrue and hurtful to those who have become victims. The Organization is in decline in many countries around the world. Arrogance and self-righteousness is commonplace, especially amongst those ‘taking the lead’. This is simply what 2 Tim 3:1-5 says will happen INSIDE the congregation. It’s not going to improve. In fact, the Society is yet to wake up to the realization that there IS a problem and that there may be not as much ‘food at the appropriate time’ as they would like to think. There were similar problems in the first century too - the first apostles thought too much of themselves as well. That’s the way it is. However, I worship Jehovah and no man and that’s why I have no problem being in the Truth. Sure, it’s far from perfect and genuine silentlambs deserve better. I hope and pray that they will see justice soon.

My name is Ben - I'm 24 years old and was raised in the JW denomination in my early years of life. I excommunicated myself when I turned 18 years old because I felt this religion wasn't for me due to some unfavorable experiences I've had with members of JW's. I never got baptized with this JW denomination so I guess I could say I never was really a JW, although I was raised in it since I was 5 years old until I was 18. With the news of Catholic bishops molesting children - I find it hypocritical of JW's to criticize them and tear them down when they themselves got serious problems of their own. If any former JW's would like to talk to me please email me at my address posted below. I might take a while to respond but please bare with me - any and all contacts to me would be greatly appreciated.

It is truly sad if you think in Jehovah's perfect Justice that he is worried about His reputation if you expose a child molester or murderer in the ranks of a "spiritual organization". It is exactly the opposite, you would be cleaning house, so it's time to take "off" the "Excuses" hat and take a "Stand for what is right". I remember a banner in a room once, it said "Stand up for what is right, even if your standing alone."

When your standing before Jehovah giving reason for your life, will you be able to face up to what you have done. Imagine, "Well uh, Lord, I am a follower, and I was following the "HERD" instinct. I just could not seem to think for myself."

People, your writing your "RESUME" for heaven "right this very minute". What you do now on this earth will be revealed when you stand before God. Will you say, Father, I let one of your innocent babies go to slaughter to protect the precious reputation of a "organization" who is afraid of the TRUTH itself. Beware, there is a difference between wheat and chaff and light and heat.

This site is not 'Garbage', but I wonder if all the anti-JW talk has become the main issue, rather than considering the plight of those who have been abused. As for silentlambs, I hope your understanding of the facts is higher than your knowledge of how to spell God's name which is indeed Jehovah is many languages. The writer's first language need not have been English, and Hebrew is the definitive spelling, not English. As for your saying about yourself 'I must have hit rock bottom', time will tell! Remember the account of the man who thought the Ark of the Covenant was falling and grabbed hold of it to steady it. God struck him down dead because he wasn't allowed to touch it under any circumstances. He had shown a lack of faith in God who could have protected the Ark if needed by a myriad of angels. The point? The Organization is not perfect, it may be failing in some way, but Jehovah can put it right anytime he so chooses. Many cases have not been dealt with properly, and not just in this subject either. But if you trust in God you'll let him sort it. If you don't trust he'll act appropriately then you condemn yourself by your lack of faith, just like the man who tried to steady the Ark of the Covenant.

William (Bill?); thank you so much for the posts that you have been sent out regularly by email to those of us on your email list. It is very encouraging to hear that CNN and the NY Times are finally taking notice of this problem! I just wanted to let you know that I am so sorry for what the WT organization is about to put you through. I really agree with what you said in one of your emails that THEY are the ones causing divisions, by not addressing this molestation issue and allowing more victims to be hurt. You and other Witnesses who are trying to bring this out into the open to get their policy changed are the ones who are showing TRUE christian love for all of the silent lambs who have no one to speak for them in the JW organization. You are right this sight is not "garbage" but to make a point. Wasn't the man who grabbed the ark of the covenant trying to get glory for himself not just thinking of the ark? I really wouldn't liken Bill to a man seeking self glory when he is just trying to protect innocent people and is one of the first to stand up against this religion so publicly.

Mark Newman... Pocahontas, Arkansas

Being raised a witness for the first 18 years of my life, I have seen both the sexual and physical abuse firsthand being covered up.

At the age of 13, my sister Shelli Newman, was abused by a brother in good standing in our congregation. The only action taken at that time was to ask the brother to relocate, by the elders of the congregation and my parents were told to be silent concerning this unjust deed.

The Brother that had abused my sister was staying with our family due to the separation between his wife and himself. He had a young daughter and I now find myself questioning the reasons for their separation. Was he abusing his own daughter as well?

Respectfully, Mark Newman suzimark@pokeynet.com

Mark Newman... Pocahontas, Arkansas

Being raised a witness for the first 18 years of my life, I have seen both the sexual and physical abuse firsthand being covered up.

At the age of 13, my sister Shelli Newman, was abused by a brother in good standing in our congregation. The only action taken at that time was to ask the brother to relocate, by the elders of the congregation and my parents were told to be silent concerning this unjust deed.

The Brother that had abused my sister was staying with our family due to the separation between his wife and himself. He had a young daughter and I now find myself questioning the reasons for their separation. Was he abusing his own daughter as well?

I myself was not abused, but I have a dear friend who was raped while she was passed out drunk. (He got her drunk.) She confronted him and he just shrugged it off like it was nothing. She was a virgin before this happened. She reported it to the elders and NOTHING was done to him. While he remained in good standing with the congregation, she bore the shame and guilt of the rape. She has since rejected the organization and its teachings. I have become a Christian and pray that she will one day know freedom in Christ.

I am doing a splendid work. I am an XJW and an X-elder. I am involved in a support group in Sweden and I we are running a homepage (we have had more than 60,000 visitors). We have add some information we have got from Silentlambs. I know that many JW have been chocked when they have been informed about the Watchtowers policy

I thank God for the courage you have been given to speak out about this. I am an adult survivor of child molestation and incest. May god be with you always. You can rest assured, although a church may turn their back on you, GOD never will.

i think that this whole thing concerning the sexual molestation/fondling charges of the WTBTS is insane...how could spiritually "mature" brothers and sisters who claim to follow their God, "Jehovah" as they say He is called--and no one else--allow this to happen to SO MANY PEOPLE??! What's worse is that these recent allegations (Bowen/Pandello/Rodriguez cases) are only the tip of the iceberg--just think of how many more "sheep in the flock" are tragically still trapped within the clutches of the cruel deceiving front of God's one-and-only so-called "truth" organization...I was once an "interested one" attending meetings at the local Kingdom Hall, reading WT and Awake mags, recently about to begin attending conventions and assemblies, BUT NO MORE. I have always secretly doubted the doctrine of Jehovah's Witnesses, not b/c of what "opposers" told me necessarily, but really b/c a lot of the "rules" that God's true servants had to follow and obey really didn't seem supported by the Bible Scriptures. The verses that were quoted or cited to explain a certain practice or social behavior (i.e., not celebrating birthdays, assoc. only w/fellow believers, not taking part of the Memorial emblems unless you were "anointed") seemed to me to be taken almost completely out of context...but when I asked my Bible study or an experienced member, I was told to "wait on Jehovah" for new light explaining it or to wait for further notice after the person "looked the answer up", etc. I kept getting the feeling that they (JWs) just wanted me to stop asking so many doctrinal questions, accept it, and progress to baptism...I felt that many individuals felt that I was a trouble-maker and soon after I voiced my doubts to a "friend", she told others in the congregation and then I think that I was "marked"--people started to look at me with disdain maybe so far as hatred even. But the other JWS never made me feel comfortable from the beginning. When I first started to study and come to the Sunday meetings, in retrospect, I remember a LOT of TENSION in the air, no one would look directly at me and smile or say hello unless I murmured a greeting first. It changed a bit only as I came more often...? Even the JWs I went with acted somewhat funny, cold and aloof when we got to the Hall..Well sorry for the kinda long story...I hope the Dateline story proves that the Witness religion and practices (not necessarily the individual Witness) is a dupe. They are not what many many people think they are cracked up to be--God's true servants of "light". I don't get why they don't like questions, is it just cuz the answers are too painful for them to confront (meaning that they are wrong in what they believe, or perspectives need to be changed) or is it b/c of the strictness of the elders and GB that keep them in line...why CAN'T a person GENUINELY interested in learning about God and Jesus ask as many questions as they want about a religion and its doctrines that claims to have the TRUTH, the whole TRUTH, and NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH.....! Isn't that what God would want humans to do to find what is "good in his eyes"....God help us all!!

p.s. same person as above...i really want to say that i will pray for all of those suffering from WT "policy" and sexual harassment molestation...this needs to stop! stories i'm reading are HORRIBLE! innocent lives are being destroyed because 13 or so men in Brooklyn will not open their aging eyes and minds and SEE THE REAL "LIGHT"! God Bless to all of you...He will not forsake you...He will guide and protect you, and be assured...He does not like the ugly...they will <bold>pay</bold> in the end sooner or later.

Good morning. I would like to share a story with you. My name is Samantha and I was Jehovah's Witness but decided that it wasn't for me as I wish to enjoy my freedom to party and have good time. I never agreed with monogamy.

When I was 12, I was molested by someone who was studying the Bible with the Witnesses. I had enough common sense to inform my parents and they in turn had enough common sense to contact the authorities before involving the elders as they are not licensed to practice law. Evidently, you dumb ass motherfuckers have not a lick of fucking sense and have put all your faith in "man" and not the bible. Even though I am a sinner, I don't lack common sense as you. May God be with you, you are from your father the DEVIL.

to all the current JWs spending their time on this site and writing in the theocratic-speak that some of us have finally broken free of......PLEASE GO COUNT YOUR TIME SOMEWHERE ELSE......how dare you come where families that have been raped and brainwashed about it finally have the courage to talk about it and preach your brainwashing tactics to us again? shame on you....the only thing you have done is remind me that i am finally FREED BY THE TRUTH....if you find spiritual strength in jw teachings, more power to you....if you wanna herd runaway BORG members back into mindless subservience to those who raped them....then you are as bad as the rapists.....surely, if you wanna follow men who demand completer obedience to them instead of the god they tell you they are serving, then COUNT YOUR TIME IN WAYS APPROVED BY THAT "THEOCRATIC ORGANIZATION"

Funny thing, the Bible does say what you do in secret will be brought to light. This is God's policy. So for those who have been covering up child abuse and all other crimes and using "religion" to hide behind, "watch out" this looks like an "enlightening time" for you.

thought this site was about victims of abuse that have been unjustly treated. I guess many have their own agenda. To all who are Jehovah's Witnesses: this site has descended from publicizing a real problem into a forum for apostates, nutters and the ignorant spouting nonsense. This is the shame of it since it does nothing to help those who are genuine 'silent lambs'. On one thing we may all agree - that this is clearly no place for Jehovah's people, though we may differ on the reasons.

To the one who responded to my saying that 'jw s should count their time elsewhere instead of getting on this list, and telling sexual abuse victims that they are liars and apostates for exposing the crimes against them ...... to the one who responded to that by saying, calling me an apostate or nutter, who is getting away from the purpose of this site......was i that unclear? several members of several generations of my family have literally been raped by jw sin good standing, who will never be called "apostate" or even "sinner". children in my family have been accused of being the sinners, while abusers and pedophiles remained in good standing. after all these years, my family finds a safe place to say that, and we are "apostates and nutters"? you have never seen a post from me on an "apostate" site. but your counting time on this site by telling us we didn't "wait on jehovah" is not only insulting abuse victims further than they have been (by trying to report it to the elders).......but is not even in line with the directives of the society. you are not following the direction of the "faithful and discreet slave" by witnessing on this site....so who is the apostate? you have no idea what my family or others like ours, who tell our stories on this site have gone through....you assume that we are just spouting nonsense. yet you claim to understand that this is a real problem......perhaps you have been or are in our shoes, but just continuing to defend the brothers, as we were all taught to do....perhaps not....but don t preach spiritual paradise to rape victims....whether we are still in the truth or not, we know better. and i will never respond to you again. for all I know you are one of the jw s in good standing that have raped members of my family....or one that was involved with the many cover ups... maybe not but you sound like them.

Hi again, I agree this site is for victims of child abuse but the person who was a victim and thinks all victims have gotten df and/or quit being Jehovah's Witnesses think again!!! I am an active Witness.

I also thought this web site was to let the public know what is really happening. Apart of this public are those who are Jehovah's Witnesses. I think this is excellent that some are coming to this site to see what is going on. The important thing is they are being warned. To convince them you must talk Theocratically and with respect. Talk the language they understand.

I hate to say this but you would never be listened to with all your anger and swearing. Yet I feel that it is all JUSTIFIED!!! This just isn't the way to get people to believe you. I do because I have been there and know how a victim of rape feels but yet we all don't react the same way. You must respect that we each have a right to react in our own way not everyone wants to go out and party and throw monogamy out. You have a right to your choices and I have a right to mine. I treat you with respect and I expect you to do the same.

We all want the children to be protected. I want to add the middle ground that May 09,2002 time 08:38:44 talks about isn't middle ground. I want to say THE ABUSE IS AS BAD AS WE SAY IT IS. I personally have seen it.

My dad also has seen it. My Uncle and Aunt know about it and my grandparents did also. I know I am telling the truth and treating my relatives with respect did gain me their support to varying degrees.

My dad gave me the web site address and encouraged me to come here. I had never heard about it before,(My dad has been in Bethel and translated literature from English to French,Served as Special Pioneers assigned to different places, Elder until he resigned due to poor health). With his experience he says that the situation in the congregations is worse than the Catholic Church. The numbers Bill gives my dad feels could be multiplied by four for a more accurate picture of the number of pedophiles in the congregation.

i appreciate and respect this site because it is NOT LIMITED to helping jws who are still in the truth. neither is it limited to helping ex jw s. it is dedicated to helping the victims. whether active ones believe it or not, many ex jw s would never had left, but have been df ed on some pretext, for trying to do, or say something about being a victim. i used to think it was only a couple of congregations, and have been proven wrong repeatedly. this web-site has proved it wrong repeatedly. expressing anger over violation, and then further betrayal by the comforting princes who are were trusted to shepard the flock is a perfectly legitimate channel of dealing with such grief. yet active, inactive, disassociated and disfellowshipped witnesses have all been vilified as slanderers, and told that even if their experience of being molested and raped is true, that they should ignore it, forgive their rapists, who have generally lied to committees, and continue to tell people to get out of babylon the great, because they are full of religious hypocrites and sexual perverts. what convinced me to come into the truth was an awake article about 1970 entitled"frances state tv takes a look at the catholic church." it was an expose of some of the same type of abuses in the church that this website has been exposing in the organization. it, and my further theocratic education convinced me that jehovah s witnesses had NO SUCH PROBLEM. how can i gently say that was proven to be a lie? it is because of believing that lie, that i was stupid enough to think my spouse would do such thing to my children. not someone who had been a regular pioneer! not someone who was considered a shining example in the congregation! an adult who makes the child out to be the liar, and then turns the tables on the whistleblower....and judicial committees who know the truth and use theocratic language (and yes...believe it or not...CUSSING...)to beat down those that would protect the children....elders who use the same to beat down other elders who try to take a stand of integrity....all of this is NOT made up for if one of the elders comes back later with tears and apologizes...saying "i had no choice...when you are in this position, you will understand".... that is why when many of us see those that say we are liars, and then try to use the same language to put us in our place that was used before, it is re-living the past over again. it is especially true now that the society is intent on getting those who are telling the truth about the truth on dateline out of the organization. i used to sincerely witness to others about the atrocities committed by the catholic church that they only covered up. i will never say such a thing again. at least now they are finally...if too late... honest about their problem and doing something about it. how can anyone say the truth is honest about their pedophile problem? how can anyone say they have protected the children? how can anyone say that they are not covering over the problem? at least i have never heard of the catholic church excommunicating whistle blowers, the way the organization wants to disfellowship whistle blowers. the way they have done in the past...the way they are trying to do to bowen, anderson and the others RIGHT NOW! so, it is far more than insulting, when people are counting their time in here...it is a further violation. being told we are lying, exaggerating, or slandering...and then being told to just forget about it...to get back to meetings...(you assume people who tell the truth aren't there? ...shame on you again!) ...well you individuals saying such things are just a microcosm of what is going on in jehovah's visible earthly organization. and i would like to suggest that, instead on coming on this site and being job's comforters...accusing the innocent victims...that you keep your comments to the meetings, and in the door-to-door work......that is unless you are the sexual molesters (did i mention how many of you sound JUST like them when you use theocratic language to battle the truth?) in which case i wish you would stay out of neighborhoods, and out of the meetings...away from innocent children. the experience of thousands...including many who will NEVER talk about it on line, is that the true victims and their families, and their whistle blowers are the ones, if not outright drummed out, are slowly driven out by such in-justice, un-loving, un-wise abusers of power. do you assume i am one that left? maybe. maybe not....everything that has been said by me could well have been said by anyone in or out of the organization. and has been. the fact is if you want to continue to give me a choice of whether i love jw doctrine or my children more...guess which one i will choose? and for that will i be smitten by his angels at armageddon? we will see.

to the ones who can see the elder's side about 2 or more witnesses...........

since when is that the real issue?

the elders of TWO congregations REFUSED to hear the testimony of any witness that would say my daughter had been abused

don t allow the witnesses to speak....put a gag order on them......don t even allow the child to tell their story EASY!

just get someone to trump up some charges
then when they dare challenge the committee to produce witnesses or evidence..... just say "you can be disfellowshipped for lying if you don t confess!"
and for good measure you can add....
"the only evidence needed is that elders, who were appointed by holy spirit, feel YOU are the liar! do you dare speak against us and let yourself be disfellowshipped for APOSTASY? are you going to sin against the holy spirit?"
please...
don try to tell ANY member of my family that elders hands are tied... they have more power and authority than ANY clergyman i have EVER seen don t even try to tell my family members who are still in the truth who are elders pioneers ministerial servants or bethelites that is the case
they all know better too
they have just learned to keep their mouths shut
so they don t get some of the same medicine

Hey, "Can See the Elders' Side": All things in due time? Are you kidding? We're not talking about a slap on the cheek, or some sort of insult. We are talking about some slimy, self-righteous Ministerial Servant grabbing some kid, perhaps while on an upbuilding visit to some vulnerable single sister, and doing stuff that should get them executed. If it was your kid, would you really tell your family, including your vulnerable child, that we just need to wait for Jehovah to bring it to light? If you could look at your innocent child and say something like that to him/her, then you are every bit as disgusting as any of the rest that would cover up the abuse of our most vulnerable. How would you feel if the family ahead of you in the pedophile's path had made that same decision. Don't you think you may have decided that Jehovah perhaps was trying to enlighten through that prior family? ...and thereby spare your son/daughter from that creep's ham hands? Wouldn't you put blame on those that had covered up before? If it were your kid, you wouldn't set on the comfy perch you are on and crow that the elders had no choice. If you are a responsible parent, or any kind of christian at all, you would demand that the perpetrator be reported to the authorities, that all children in the congregation be protected, as well as those children outside of the congregation. I feel sorry for any children around you that you could help but don't. I don't think anyone with reason would believe that anyone that would allow these things to go on deserves life everlasting on a paradise earth.

A little reason, and less robot-like obedience to a Society is in order here. "See the elder's side," indeed.

Hi again, I have heard about the Judicial committees set up. This site must be influencing some of the witnesses to rethink their positions and some must be writing the society protesting...

I think that the scripture in Ps. 94: 21 says it all "They make sharp attacks on the soul of the righteous one and pronounce wicked even the blood of the innocent one." Isn't this what they are doing it?

Both my X's go from door to door. One of them has all these calls on single women with children or some older who maybe widowed. He offers to work for them and get them good deals. He is very pushy and doesn't take no for answer. He was on probation for assault at the time (he was calling on all these women) which I didn't know about at the time.

This is to the person who doesn't have the guts to sign their name (May 12, 2002 time 08:51:35) How can you call someone a liar and say they are slandering when you were not even there? Where do you get off judging the accounts told by the victims here? You judge us in the way Jesus would not even judge Satan. He left it to God saying may "Jehovah rebuke you." Do you want to be judged the way you judge us? You are doing what Jesus would not!!!

Quote: "Wishing you believed in hell because you would tell us to go there." The bible commands to love your enemy and pray for those persecuting you...You really don't sound very Christian in light of these scriptural thoughts. Sounds like you would be one of the persecutors (Pedophiles)!!! The identifying mark of a true Christian would be their love. So where is your love? DJB

JWs are the biggest hypocrites in the world. They say they follow the example of Christ, yet they have the nerve to protect the pedophiles and not the victims. Does that sound like something Jesus would do? Definitely not. Also, do they follow his example by hating everyone else? Well he did say to "love your enemies," didn't he?

I am currently an active Jehovah's Witness. As a parent of two small children, my heart truly goes out to any children who suffer at the hands of an abuser. In the only case of abuse that I am personally familiar with in the congregation, the abuser was removed from his position of authority, the civil authorities were notified, and the abuser ended up going to prison.

While reading the posts on this site, I have read a lot of stories about people who are unhappy with the way they feel problems have been handled. While not discounting these stories, there are usually at least two sides to every story. Even when problems are not handled in the best way, we always have to remember that the organization is made up of imperfect humans, so we cannot expect perfection from them. Just because someone has been appointed by holy spirit does not mean they will not make mistakes. As with any injustice I see in this old system, I firmly believe that Jehovah, the Just God, sees what is happening and will make each person answer for his actions.

Hi again, To clarify a previous comment I made about using theocratic talk and respect to forward this in the public eye. I was referring to winning over the sincere witnesses not the corrupt elders who swear, jump up and down waving there arms and fists at us and yelling. Reviling us with their name calling. Threatening us...these we would probably never convince anyways as they are the problem.

The two witness rule does not always mean the witnesses are two people, it could also apply to a situation when a parent finds evidence of abuse such a bruises on a child. Then the other witness is the child when they described what happened. This equal two. A witness could be the evidence found...

The man who wrote in about repressed memories not being excepted as evidence. My father believes in repressed memories because he was in car accident and he remembered nothing after the accident, then later in dreams (as nightmares) the memories started to return and flash backs during the day. He was sixty at the time. His thought was an event can be so traumatic that we will repress it until a later time when we are able to handle it. So when my daughter decided to talk he believed her and encouraged me to do likewise...DJB

Hi everyone, My name is Blank lol as we all know if we go public we get disfellowshipped.
I live in Canada, My daughter was repeatedly molested by a brother in our congregation she was 14 he was 27 years old. I found out about this and went a little crazy and well lets say he forget me for a long time.
But the whole situation was all about me and my beating him up the elders never got involved with checking on our family or assisting my daughter through this difficult time.
I have wanted to leave the Organization since this happened but have not been sure what to do.
I am pleased only with the fact that we are not alone and this site is available.
I believe every story I have read and I know of so many others from my 21 years of being around the TRUTH?? I hope the Watchtower is happy , but I becoming more and more convinced they are not being blessed by Jehovah while there sneaky ways continue.
Thank-you Michael From Ottawa, Canada.

Hi everyone, I will just say this my 14 year old daughter was molested by a 27 year old brother and I beat him up over it. Now I am the bad guy.

Oh well I learned a lot about the Organization over it, people privately told me how it was about time someone did something about all this kind of stuff happening and it is always kept hush hush, I for one don't think how I handled it was right.

But I will say this Jehovah's Witness have 2 rule books 1 THE bible and 2 The watchtower set of rules.

I have moved on from the incident but the mishandling of it all and the discouragement WE ALL RECEIVED from the local elder body left a very bad taste in our mouths.

Michael From Ottawa, Canada.

I have chosen not to identify myself as I have not made up my mind if I am staying or going, but wanted everyone who reads this to know WE ARE NOT ALONE and I thank all involved for being this brave.

Hi everyone, I will just say this my 14 year old daughter was molested by a 27 year old brother and I beat him up over it. Now I am the bad guy.

Oh well I learned a lot about the Organization over it, people privately told me how it was about time someone did something about all this kind of stuff happening and it is always kept hush hush, I for one don't think how I handled it was right.

But I will say this Jehovah's Witness have 2 rule books 1 THE bible and 2 The watchtower set of rules.

I have moved on from the incident but the mishandling of it all and the discouragement WE ALL RECEIVED from the local elder body left a very bad taste in our mouths.

Michael From Ottawa, Canada.

I have chosen not to identify myself as I have not made up my mind if I am staying or going, but wanted everyone who reads this to know WE ARE NOT ALONE and I thank all involved for being this brave.

Thank-you for finally losing the fear that the organization can place upon it's people and speak out for what is truly scriptural. The truth will set you free, and now you have the chance to express it. I'm sure that as we go along we will find more "secrets" that the organization likes to keep, do not be afraid if they disfellowship you, you are fighting for what is right not only for God's children, but there are more than just Jehovah's Witnesses that live on this earth that have God's truth and can be your true friends. I encourage all people to continue to "seek and you will find, knock and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9,10. After many years as a dedicated servant to the Jehovah's Witnesses, I watched as my best girlfriend was molested by her uncle, also a Witness, he, to this day, has still gotten away with it, and also saw the anguish my own sister went through with our own uncle, and then have an abusive husband who managed to get her disfellowshipped so she would stay silent to other sisters who may encounter him after the divorce. Still, I have managed to find true peace and happiness in a Christian faith, it is out there....seek....knock....pray. Love to all my brothers and sisters, Cindy, email, Gelfin18@aol.com

This website is giving a bad name to all witnesses all over the earth. This is clearly an isolated incident, of which imperfect humans are trying to make sense out of this crazy world and they did, without a doubt make a big error in judgment. But you know as well as I do that witnesses are not crooked, so it is wrong of you to even try to compare them to the Catholic Church and all their problems. A faithful follower of Jehovah

I read of William Bowen's resignation as a church elder in protest of the way the church treated the sex abuse victims---way to go, Mr. Bowen! Thank you for having the courage to do what is right rather than what was easiest.

Hello, my name is Kristie Metcalf, and my ex-husband, his mother and sister are all JW's. My ex was molested as a child, and in turn molested his sister. His mother was so ashamed that she never even tried to get her children help to deal with their troubles. The family lives in denial to this day. Your site is so informative and helpful to me, knowing what they were going through. Please pray for them, Dustin, Katrina, and Loni Metcalf. God Bless you and keep you!

Hi, Michael, avishai here. I hope you beat the hell outa that guy, like any other good father. My dad was an elder & as the visiting speaker for the sunday public talk, saw that a lady who grew up w/ him was beaten black & blue by her husband, took him out during the intermission (it was the early 70's) beat him up, & took her back home to her family.
You did the right thing. THE MORAL thing as a father, because that's the only kind of justice he'll get from his congregation. Let me guess, did the elders ask what "her part in all this" was? Did they try to pin any blame on her? Betcha ten bucks they did. As for the other person that said this site was giving witnesses a bad name, take some personal responsibility. WITNESSES are giving witnesses a bad name, get over your persecution complex, nobody here cares about that, they just want kids to stop being molested. And as for witnesses not being crooks, I can name several. A close relative of mine, for one, an elder, who went to prison for 10 years for being a crook, besides all of the pyramid scams that go on, (amway, etc.) Pull your head out, pal! Read the bible, lot's of people in "Jehovah's org." were crooks. How about Gehazi? Achan, Korah, dathan & abiram? Eli, the high priest. Even king David. Judas? The pharisees? remember, they were part of Gods org, until Jesus died, according to your theology. THINK FOR YOURSELF! WAKE UP!! How you treat the least of your congregation is how you will be judged. And to arrogantly sit in your tower & pass judgment is gonna get you in a lot of trouble! Another thing, since all of you are considered ministers if you put in time, ALL OF YOU ARE REQUIRED TO REPORT CHILD MOLESTING AS PER THE 1974 FEDERAL MONDALE LAW!!!!! ALL PUBLISHERS, NOT JUST ELDERS!!!! avishai@hotmail.com

YOU ARE A SICK INDIVIDUAL, JW'S ARE A FORCE FOR GOOD AND ARE THE ONLY PEOPLE I KNOW THAT STAND UP FOR TRUTH THE BEST THEY CAN. NEXT YOU'LL BE ATTACKING THEM ON THE BLOOD ISSUE OR THEIR NUETRALITY STAND, BUT OFFERING NOTHING BETTER, JUST HATRED AND CRITISM ABOUT THE FAITHFUL SLAVE. YOU'LL ONLY loose, YOU'RE FIGHTING THE WRONG PERSON.

No, they stand up for child molesters, & then df anyone who speaks up about it. So do you, if you are a publisher & hear about a child molester. A force for good? At least the catholics feed hundreds of thousand of people. Where is the jw mother thersa? Oh, I forgot, you only give people "spiritual food & healing". Jesus said to also do it for real. Name ONE jw nobel prize nomine & I might shut up. JUST KIDDING!!HAHAHAHAHAHAHAH! No, this site is not about the blood issue, it's about little children being fucked, in every way possible, & having no one to help them. Fucked in the anus, vagina, & orally. Fucked spiritually. Fucked over & over & over again, because no one will turn the FUCKERS in. So, jw babies keep getting fucked by big strong men & women. I'm not going to apologize for the ugly language, because what is happening is far uglier & I'm tired of these euphemisms like "molested". If you want to judge me for bad language, go right ahead.Fuck you!

These people who are crying about JW's being given a bad name are just being selfish. You obviously don't care about the rest of a child's life being destroyed because of some ass the elders protected just to save themselves and the organization embarrassment. You obviously haven't been through it yourself nor have you had a child you loved been through it. And you are obviously so blinded and brainwashed by the org. that you think this is all just fine because "the society says so." IT IS WRONG AND ABSOLUTELY DISGUSTING THAT YOU PROTECT AND DON'T REPORT THESE PEOPLE TO THE AUTHORITIES!! CHILDREN DONT DESERVE THIS!! PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN - NOT THOSE ASSHOLES!!

I don't believe that involving the police or the District attorney is the answer. They are the problem.

Let the families handle that.

Not the congregations.

Why is this even a religious issue after all?

Congregation members should not be alone with others not their family members.

If they are than that is trouble waiting to happen.

And this end up being a credibility contest.

My that was interesting reading for today. It certainly was a wide range of vocabulary. We get the point. Yes it is true, one could think that if it was just an isolated incident one could question it. I don't even have to relate our story because bits and pieces of it have been related just in the current guest book. Jehovah doesn't need us to proclaim his name, he said the rocks could speak. He also doesn't need his name protected. For that matter this isn't about him this is about injustice and innocent children. As parents we are responsible for them that is a god given job. We have been hindered in many cases by the elders themselves, in my case my children were scolded and told they were at fault. Think about it!!!!!!! Just wanted to say hello. jgibson@hamburg.heartland.net

Well, I wish we could leave it up to families, but then a lot of child molesters would be dead. Fine. But then a lot of parents would be in jail, compounding the problem. These are not problems simplistically solved by just the family w/out the d.a, etc. Plus, then if they don't take care of it, the molester just runs around & does it again. What then, oh wise one?
This site is for JW's who have witnessed some form of abuse and were asked to 'cover it up' by the society right? And it is the intent of silentlambs to correct the organization personally by telling everyone that they should protest the way the organization handles things so he can continue to be one of JW's?

First of all, what would you like to happen to all the molesters or JW's that have abused another person? Would you like for them to be imprisoned? Given the death penalty? Regardless, if you ever believed that Jehovah will judge everyone at armageddon, why would you want to judge everyone before armageddon? Whoever you are and however much you know about a situation, the one thing you do not know is what's in the accused person's heart. If they honestly are sorry for what they did, why would you want to be the judge that determines how that person will spend the rest of their life? I'm not taking sides, but far be it for me to condemn anyone or even ask other people to condemn them for any mistakes they made.

What if someone accused you of raping someone and you know you didn't do it? If that person told their friend to lie for them and say they saw you raping them, would you want to go to jail or be put to death for a crime you know you didn't commit? It is very easy to accuse anyone of anything at any time. And it is not the job of the elders in the congregation to judge for themselves who should be punished for any of them.

When you join an organization, you accept a certain set of laws and regulations. Although they may not be perfect, you ACCEPT them. If you decide not to accept them, then you leave that organization and go elsewhere. If you don't believe that JW's are not the organization backed by God, then go to another one that you believe is. However, if you do believe that JW's are backed by God, and you publicly criticize that organization, then your are publicly criticizing the same God that you believe in, whether you would like to admit it or not. I'll tell you what though, if you believe there is a 'perfect' religious organization out there, I sure would like to know the name of it. I would also like to know how perfect it really is.

This is an imperfect world with imperfect people. Not everything we believe to be right is what's actually right in God's eyes. No matter how much we believe that we are right about something, if Jehovah God tells us through his organization that we are wrong, then obviously we are wrong. There's no if and's or but's about it. When you're wrong, you're wrong.

Thank you for being here. I just learned about you. I have sent an email to the editor. Oh that you were around when I was a young girl perhaps I would not have had to endure all those years, in silence.

It is ridiculous that people are saying that 5, 10, 18, 20 years ago a priest molested them. That is as bad as the blacks stating that their relatives were slaves so they should be compensated.
Get over it and move on. Many blacks have. They are not imprisoned slaves, while some choose to be. So why are some who have been touched, or fondled 10 or 20 years ago still imprisoned. It's not necessary.

They are not battered or abused, those are events that happened long ago.

Sure many may not like that being said. They want revenge, they want someone to pay. Making the molester pay is not enough now we got this idiot Bowen, making innocent people (JW's) pay.

If someone was abused, revenge is not the answer. That person can be healed through Christ. (someone whom Bowen has left).

Maybe the reason some of us are making such a big deal about the abuse that happened when we were younger is so that more innocent children do not have to endure the same horrible things we did at the hands of the SAME PEOPLE! Many of us are healed and are trying to make sure that someone else doesn't have to go through the same healing process that took us so long to get through. HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT OF THAT?!? Mr. Bowen is trying to protect more children not tell them to get on w/their lives and forget about it. What about you, would you be willing to become the object of rejection to try and protect innocent lives? I think not. JP

To the Jackass that is saying to "just get over it". Slavery happened almost 150 yr. ago. not 10 or 20. Are you black? Have you ever been molested? If not, then SHUT THE FUCK UP!!!!! i cried

i cried for my sister ... raped by a temporary (auxiliary) pioneer, who was a close friend of my brother (now a bethel elder) .... she was only trying to come into the truth like her big brothers ... trying to attend meetings ... go in the field ... to study ... trying to ONLY associate with jehovah s people , instead of those "evil worldly people....bad associations"

i cried for my sister again .... along with my littlest brother ... because when the two of them stopped studying and coming to meetings ...and my brother and i .....we were too busy with our new "family" spending all our spare time going to meetings... studies... door to door ... assemblies ... and conventions...we were too busy doing god s work to notice or worry that our step father used the older siblings being away to take advantage of those two children

i cried for both my EXes ....raised in the truth....molested by their fathers repeatedly....honoring their parents...the inner turmoil they had ....which finally took it s toll on them...tearing them apart

i cried that i was stupid enough to try to salvage that marriage .... believing everything that the naysayers in this guestbook also so ardently believe...that jehovah s earthly representatives...guided by holy spirit could and would fix it....i cried that i furthered my children's pain trying to make them "wait on jehovah" too...i cried that i got in trouble for getting my daughter away from her abuser and considered it "discipline from jehovah"

i cried when i remember how the elders treated me and my children for wanting them to take action against a second generation child abuser who remained in good standing....and i cried when i thought of all the slander they perpetrated against my family for finally putting a child s welfare above that of not rocking the theocratic boat...and i cried that i believed i was developing a "bad attitude" like they said....and followed the bible s advise to "call upon the older men" to help restore my waning faith and spiritual sickness....the same ones who didn t give a shit about my children...and further proved it by refusing to make shepherding calls on either me or my kids....i cried that i furthered the pain of my children by continuing to take them to meetings, etc. when i just needed to take them away.....i cried in shame for my part of co-dependence in this theocratic family

and i cried for you people, who continue to harangue the truth-tellers....knowing exactly how you feel....because i used to feel the same way...and i wonder how many of you might actually be victims yourselves ....or have family that are...and realize that you are saying the same things that the abusers are?...the same thing that the leadership(in the congregations and the headquarters) are saying?

i cried because i know that my family and i will not be able to be there....with our own candles

i would like to ask for volunteers to burn special candles for each victim in my family...since we cannot attend at this time

it would mean a lot
To the person who is concerned that telling the truth about the Truth, is making a bad name for "witnesses all over the earth."

I remember being taught that Jehovah's Witnesses who committed shameful acts, and tried to cover them over, were the ones who brought reproach on God's Divine Name.

That is the "Truth," as I was taught by the literature of the "faithful and discreet slave class."

That would apply to JW child molesters...and to elders...and to judicial committees...and to representatives in the Brooklyn headquarters, who cover them up, and tell victims and their families to shut up.

THAT is what I was taught and raised to believe.

Has it changed?

Does this NEW LIGHT teach us that actually we are no longer to get rid of sexual deviants, but protect them, that reproaching Jehovah's Name, by doing so IS NO LONGER THE ISSUE? Does the spiritual "food at the right time" now teach us to punish the rape victims who tell, because the reputation of JWs must be protected by LIES? The Divine Name of the Witnesses?

Oh I see, after reviewing the history of the fact that this has been the case since Charles Taze Russell to this modern time, the faithful slave class now understands with the Light 'that gets brighter and brighter until the perfect day' that we must tolerate and exonerate all JW pedophiles. "Meat in due season" teaches us that we should follow the example of Job's false comforters. It is our holy duty to squash those who dare speak the truth about what is our Theocratic responsibility to hide. Don't let the world know that JWs are the secret abiding place of these unclean and hated things. WE must lie, so as to protect the reputation, and the vast holdings of the Society from Satan's agents, who would uncover our pedophiles and press criminal charges, or worse....SUE!

Gee, does this mean I am an apostate for not keeping up with this NEW LIGHT, for being blinded by the OLD LIGHT I was originally taught?

Or does this mean that people like you and Brown are the apostates for doing the opposite of what we used to be taught?

Or does this mean that we really haven't discerned the difference between Light and darkness, all these years?

Just food for thought.........

i used to preach that priests defiling children was proof that they were part of the false religious harlot babylon the great

as the catholic church cleans up their mess and publicly tries to rectify their sins

it is the same time that it is coming to light that the witnesses have an even more abhorrent record

it is the same time that the witnesses are spending tremendous time, energy and resources to silence abuse victims

it is the same time that victims families are being disfellowshipped for not helping with the lies

i have never heard of a choirboy excommunicated for revealing he was molested by a pedophile priest

now i hang my head in shame

shame that i have taught so many people that they could be free of such things by becoming a part of "jehovah s only true organization"

i wish i could undo all of that witnessing

i wish i could tell them all the truth

the truth of what my family has experienced the truth of what countless families have experienced

shame on me

the racist witness who says that pedophiles victims are not "abused" and that the pedophiles are being healed by christ who Bowen (and i assume those of his ilk) have left presumably by speaking in behalf of the little ones christ said not to hinder that person shows not only his true colors

but the true colors of the faithful ones who protect rapists and punish rape victims in the organization

he speaks to this issue more eloquently than any of us could thank you brother racist and rape enabler for shedding light on your virtues and those of the true followers of jah and christ that you have remained faithful to

All the congregations that you have experienced that have all had problems with pedophilia... How many congregations would that be approximately? What kind of territory would that cover? the midwest? southern california? New England? Or every congregation in the US?

for me, personally, i know of twenty something cases in about eleven congregations in four states....that i have personal knowledge of....they include new england, west coast, the south and the midwest....there huge numbers that are coming forth from witnesses and former witnesses allover the u s a, canada, norway, britain, australia and other countries.....WHAT IS YOUR POINT? is there a need to minimize these crimes by trying to prove they didn t happen in all fifty states? the heartfelt experiences shared by those in this guestbook are only the tip of the iceberg....the society is even trying to DF a woman who has personal knowledge of the vast extent of this problem across the country, because of her work for many years in the world headquarters, at bethel.....i remember all the assembly talks we had during the 70s because scores of elders and their wives were DFed for wife swapping ....the society didn t try to cover over these things that they considered problems.... and they were far fewer than the cases of pedophilia...not rallying for wife swapping here....but if i were asked which i would rather the congregations be protected from.....it would be child rape....why has the society had their historically had their nose in every aspect of a married couples bedroom for years...but continued to turn a blind eye to this horrendous sex crime? why don t they spend their energy cleaning up this ugly mess...instead of trying to hide it?

Alright now to those incomps who have made ignorant comments to the following effects (earlier posts)

1. The Catholics have admitted to their mistakes and are trying to do something about it. Yeah it only took a couple millennia! Have you people ever heard of the "Reformation?" Well that's a misnomer...nothing was reformed...rather a whole new, and more tolerant, host of religions were created, all because for centuries upon centuries the Church had refused to admit to or Reform anything. The council of Constance, along with solving the Great schism, did 3 other things. 1, Burned alive John Hus, 2, would have burned alive Wycliffe except HE WAS already DEAD, and 3, imported 3000 prostitutes for its 500 delegates. Priests before the Reformation openly had concubines and prostitutes. After the Reformation, those who still could not take their vows seriously had to do so in secret, which they have been. As part of the counter-reformation, behold that piece of history we all know and love, the Inquisition. yeah, now in the 20th century, the church is having grand councils about this big problem of pedophilia...forget what other forms of vow breaking are going on.

Final note. I believe pedophiles should be drug behind a dog sled team over the Alaskan frontier allowed to slowly freeze to death after breaking many bones in their body. That's an emotional response. But, it not being my place to judge, I will let Jehovah do it. That DOESN'T absolve us of responsibility to tolerate no uncleanness. That is something that will be resolved, as all other things have been resolved in my chosen religion. If the organization had taken the other route from the beginning, this silent lambs site would probably be about those falsely accused of pedophilia. (sp?) But, at least, when it comes to comparing Witnesses to Catholics, get real! Look at history before you say ignorant things.

The Bible says to obey the "Laws of the Land" as long as they don't conflict with the Laws of God. It means that God who is allowing the governments to "Stand" presently wants us to report a crime when it happens. To cover over a crime of this nature is "against" the Laws of the Land and is immoral.

It is very simple the WTBTS has covered itself in egg and their is no way out of this.

Remember God did say what is carried on in "secret" will be "revealed". It won't help the WT to try to scare its members into NOT seeing Dateline either. What happened to the "admonition" in the Bible to "test" everything against the "scriptures"?

I guess for the WTBTS that means "listen very carefully to what we say, not what we do". Good grief, when is the merry go round going to stop. Wake up world. Satan is tugging on your blindfold.
Hi again, There was an article in the Toronto Star about WTS setting up Judicial Committees. Apparently from what I heard they were made up of 8 elders. This is to give the impression that they will give a more righteous judgment and impression of fairness. Is what they are doing right? Is it justice for the victims? Who are the victims here the children or the pedophiles? Consider this...

They have been told long before they ever meet with any of the victims/supporters what to render as their verdict. So I ask where is the justice in this? Can one imagine if it was done like this in a court of Law? Can one imagine rendering a verdict before hearing the evidence? This used to be called "Kangaroo Court". It is rigged when the outcome is decided ahead of time. Who are they kidding? Does the means justify the end?

The victims deserve JUSTICE. To call what the victims are doing, by specking out, "revenge". This is a way to make them appear as thou they are the ones who are the problem. The PSALMS says it is wicked for someone to pronounce the innocent as wicked and pronounce the wicked as being righteous.

Jesus talked about the religious leaders of his day and the corruption. This Jesus did while the Jews were still the people Jehovah was using. This did not change until his death. He said the religious leaders were "white washed graves that outwardly appear beautiful but inside are full of dead men's bones". Jesus condemned their hypocrisy.

The bible tells use it was "written aforetime for our instruction..." We are to learn from these examples. Jesus set a model for us to follow his steps closely. That is why they were written for us.

They always talk about how the elders must keep the congregations"clean and unified". Let me ask who is causing the divisions? Is it the victims? Who started this sorry mess? Isn't it the Pedophiles the ones making the congregations unclean? Let us never forget it is their behaviour that is at issue. Isn't this an issue because the elders fell down on their job by not keeping the congregation clean? Why are the victims blamed for the disunity when theirs is only a reaction to already bad situation that they didn't create or start? If a certain amount of disunity is a result shouldn't we put the blame where it really belongs? On the PEDOPHILES and those who cover up for them? Why shot the messenger? Why disfellowship those who expose these pedophiles for what they are? Will silencing them make the congregation any cleaner in Jehovah's eyes? The scriptures say to "remove the wicked man from among yourselves."

The scriptures promise "what is secret will not remain hidden." Maybe this is the time for it to come out?

to the one that doesn't like comparisons of the catholic church and jw's

since i made a number of those posts...i would like to clarify a few things

first of all...i am well aware of both the historical and the contemporary atrocities committed by the church...including those you mentioned

secondly...i would no more make excuses for those than i would the atrocities committed by either religion

third point....i was trained as a jw to point out that we had no such problem with child molesting...that was a problem of catholic clergymen .... i used the literature which exposed such truths about the church to promote an organization that was a "spiritual paradise" free of such worldly taint fourth point....i taught lies....and brought people into an organization in which they were ultimately abused

and the comparisons were simply on the issues of what has been historically done by both religious organizations on the subject of this guestbook....along with the irony that the church is now doing what the society has always claimed to do...and the society is now doing what it has always pointed out the church is doing...along with taking it a step further and df ing the ones taking a stand for the children

I never read anywhere in any of JW's books, magazines, brochures, or tracts of any statements, whether directly or indirectly, that the JW organization is perfect. In fact, if my memory serves me correctly, I remember reading somewhere that their organization where they admitted that there are many from within that do not have God's spirit, and that just being one of JW's will not guarantee that they will receive everlasting life. No matter what you were 'raised up to believe', if you don't have God's spirit, you will not understand how it works and thus you will question everything that you believe is wrong.

The person that posted the message about us not being the judges of other people was right. Even if we did report every single incident of every single wrongdoing that a person does (including molestation) we would never come close to bringing an end to the problems. And if you are a part of an organization that preaches that Jehovah is the only one who can bring about the ultimate justice and get rid of all mankind's problems, then why would you take it upon yourself to try to get rid of who, in your minds, are bad people. If you ever really believed in your religion, then why would you want to get rid of mankind's problems yourself instead of waiting on your God? I understand you may be getting impatient, since no one knows how long it will be until the end of this system of things, but a part of what JW's are all about is being patient. If you don't have the patience to wait on your God to bring justice to this world, then you obviously don't have what it takes to be one of JW's and however many years you spent as one were obviously wasted.
I agree, no matter how bad it is, we should all remember that we all sin. There is no such thing as a small sin or a big sin, the fact of the matter is they are all sins.

If you teach people not to hate others because of their sin, but to hate the sin itself, then you are becoming a hypocrite by hating the people who are molesting these children.

I may sound like some sort of molester supporter, but I really am not. I hate the whole idea of it, but I don't hate the people that do it. You never know what situation the person may have been in to commit such an act, just as you never know the situation a person that committed fornication or adultery may have been in.

If you want to throw a person in prison for molestation, then why not throw a person in prison for adultery or fornication? It is all having sex with a person that you are not supposed to according to the Bible. The only difference is age.

I just want to close by saying that I'm sorry for anyone who had to go through molestation of any sort. It is unfortunate that in this imperfect world, we must face many sins committed against us as well as our own sins.

I would like the creator of this site to respond to the following question, if possible. Do you honestly believe that what the religion teaches is accurate according to the bible? (Notice that I used the word "teaches" and not "the way they handle certain situations") And if you do believe that what they teach is true, then why would you allow people to come on to this site and tell everyone that what they teach is wrong?
DOUBLE WOW!

Now we are enlightened that fornication and adultery between consenting adults is just as bad as forcing yourself upon a child.

How silly we have been to vilify JW rapists, after all they're only imperfect!

Let's all go back to saying these things are only bad if other religions do them!

It's OK to admit that first century Christians were messed up....but if we publicly say the same thing about our own religious leaders, we are naughty!

I'm gonna go to confession...oops I mean a Judicial Committee, and beg them to reprove me for the bad attitude I've had about protecting children, instead of their reputations.

Thank you for setting me straight!

"why not throw adulterers and fornicators in jail, if you wanna throw molesters in jail? It's all the same to jehovah. the only difference is age"

if it IS all the same to jehovah...

then why don't committees treat them all the same?

why disfellowship adulterers and fornicators....but rarely do that to those that rape children?

why does the society cover up this double standard?

why do youths and their families that report child abusers get harassed and disfellowshipped?

tell me why?

tell my offspring why

re: SL Guest Book post 16 May 2002 @ 23:22:02

Please, please, PLEASE do not respond to the question posed to you at the end. It is a trick! I am well aware that you could handle yourself well. I have seen this type of set up before. I would not be surprised if this was sent by a member of your Judicial Committee, or by Brown or another representative at headquarters. As the Dateline episode AND your Committee meeting approaches, this is exactly the type of bait typically used to shift the focus away from the issue of child molesting and cover ups, and label you an apostate. I can guarantee that no matter what your answer, it will be twisted around. Leave it alone, please. The post will likely be printed and brought up to you at your meeting anyway. Or asked directly.

As for the one who sent this question, and the way you couched it. How dare you bring up what some people post on this site to use against him? What control does he have of that? Surely, if there was any control, he could prevent those who attack the ones who come forward with the TRUTH. Why does he not block those who use the Name of God to browbeat and mock those who share how criminals have infiltrated the organization and run amok, aided and abetted by elders and by the policies of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society. Every kind of post is placed here, Victims and their families who are looking for a safe haven to express themselves are not protected from harassment of those doctrine-thumping apostates, anymore than they are protected from the likes of you. (no such thing as a big or small sin...they are all the same'...indeed! What about a "sin against the holy spirit"? What about "grievous sins"? What about sins that have "massed clear up to heaven"? The organization has NEVER taught that all sins are the same, except when minimizing it's own wrongs. If you have a new teaching, then who is to say YOU are not an apostate. Who is to say YOU are not sinning against the holy spirit by protecting liars and endeavoring to entrap and silence truth tellers that would champion the very issues and spiritual "widows and orphans" we are charged by God's Word to champion and protect?) If he can't block the ridiculers who come and mock those in pain, using Jehovah's Name (isn't THAT a "worthless way" to use it?), how can he block others, who ALSO come in with their own agendas? How about we apply the teaching from the old Kingdom Ministry? The one that said we as JWs might not want to discriminate? The one that said a JW milkman should not refuse to deliver milk to a house of ill repute, and should not be vilified for that? The Silent Lambs site, FOR THE RECORD, has NO links to apostate sites, and has NOTHING posted by the founder that supports, or alludes to the apostate materials. FOR THE RECORD the Governing Body has an extensive library of books, including all the apostate material some have quoted from in this Guest Book, and they are the only ones allowed to read them. Come to think of it, I would not be surprised if one of them, or one of their charges posted that material, and followed up by having another post the follow up "I see someone has read...". TO ALL YOU READERS WHO CARE ABOUT THE TRUTH, do not fall for this type of post that tugs at your sense of loyalty to the organization. If you are loyal to it, then STAND UP FOR KEEPING IT CLEAR of rapists! Don't participate in hiding the sins.

1 Corinthians

5:11 "But now I have written unto you NOT TO KEEP COMPANY, if ANY MAN that is called a brother be a FORNICATOR, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat."

5:12 "For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?"
5:13 "But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person."

6:2 "Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and IF THE WORLD SHALL BE JUDGED BY YOU, ARE YE UNWORTHY TO JUDGE THE SMALLEST MATTERS?"

6:3 "Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?"

6:4 "If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church."

6:5 "I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, NOT ONE THAT SHALL BE ABLE TO JUDGE BETWEEN HIS BRETHREN?"

6:6 "But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers."

6:7 "Now therefore there is utterly a FAULT AMONG YOU, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?"

6:8 "Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren."

6:10 "Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, SHALL INHERIT THE KINGDOM OF GOD."

6:11 "And SUCH WERE SOME OF YOU: BUY YE ARE WASHED, but ye are SANCTIFIED, but ye are JUSTIFIED in the name of the Lord Jesus, AND by the Spirit of our God."

I'm no bible expert or anything, but it appears to me that sex "between consenting adults" (fornication and adultery), as well as abuse among men are all very serious sins for God to say that none of them will inherit his kingdom.

If people believe JW's try to cover up child rape because they do not dismember them, or disfellowship them (whatever), or lock them up and throw them in a pit somewhere, then they are sadly mistaken. There are many steps to disfellowshipping a person. For one, the sin has to be proven. One or two people may not be enough to support a story of a sin, especially of one that is as serious as rape. If the crime (sin) is confessed or is proven, then that person has the opportunity to prove that he is truly sorry for what he did. If the JW's believe that person really is sorry, then it is not within their authority to disfellowship the person. It's not like they know that a person raped a child but just sit back and not do anything about it. They take the same exact steps with fornicators, adulterers, idolaters, and every other serious wrongdoing. It disturbs me how blind you people really are.

I have been a witness for nearly thirty years; I was never disfellowshipped, reproved, or inactive. This organization has been my life. So you might find it surprising that this is a heartfelt thank you. Bill, thank you for having the integrity and courage to develop SilentLambs.com In our congregation the elders allowed a newly released from prison, registered sex offender to return the little victim’s congregation. They diligently protected the pedophile’s identity and did zero to support the child or her family or to warn other parents. Our repeated inquiries into the matter gained us a visit to the back room of the hall and an admonition to be quiet. I found the elders refusal to do the upright thing extremely odd so I decided to do some research on the Internet. I found SilentLambs and in a few hours understood the reality of the situation. I cannot imagine the years I might have wasted trying to understand what had happened if not for SilentLambs. I would have questioned— Was the problem with my attitude? Were the elder’s not following WBTS policy? Was the current Circuit Overseer the problem? But never would I have realized that the horrible circumstances that had shocked me so thoroughly were simply business as usual to WBTS. Yes, unfortunately, the policy on cover-up, blame the victim, etc comes down from the top, from Brooklyn. Thank you Bill for saving me many lost years. No wonder WBTS wants you stopped after all there are a lot of me’s in the organization and we are their best.

To the myopic one above that believes in the JW judicial system: I actually agree that it is not within the org’s purview to disfellowship a truly repentant one. It is not to the JWs to forever kick out a wrongdoer. But the story doesn’t NEED to end there. Just because someone is repentant doesn’t mean that they should be allowed within the congregation without those at risk being told about the child molester among them. Just because he cried to the elders and promised not to do it again doesn’t mean that authorities should not be contacted and the issue dealt with criminally. Just because an abuser may not do it again, doesn’t mean that the cong.’s children are safe or, just as importantly, non-JW children within reach of the offender are safe. Even the most effective control within the cong. doesn’t yet address JW’s obligation to protect the vulnerable outside the organization.

This issue is not whether the society kicks someone out. The issue is what they will or will not do to protect children in an out of the organization. Will they take steps to see that they are not providing a haven for pedophiles from scrutiny - in the cong. and outside.

I am continually stunned by the lack of concern for the ‘worldly’ kids. Consider if (assuming you’re not such an overly indoctrinated JW automaton for a moment): your neighbor was a witness, and the local elders had reason to believe the neighbor was a pedophile, did nothing, and your child was a victim.

My husband and me were JWs for 40 years.. Left for good by choice.. Our children.. all grown and married left the WTBTS by choice as well. After coming to this site, I am so thankful that we no longer associate with the WT organization. I am so disgusted with all that they represent.. How insensitive they are just to protect their own hide.
My heart cries for all the victims of abuse who are still suffering the hurts caused by those perverts within the Society.. as well as Society in general.

I hope that the DateLine program airs soon.. May it open wide the eyes of many Witnesses.. so they too may see the hypocrisy of the WTBTS Organization. Sincerely, Maria

"Remote User: Date: 16 May 2002 Time: 00:32:15 Comments This site is for JW's who have witnessed some form of abuse and were asked to 'cover it up' by the society right? And it is the intent of silentlambs to correct the organization personally by telling everyone that they should protest the way the organization handles things so he can continue to be one of JW's?

First of all, what would you like to happen to all the molesters or JW's that have abused another person? Would you like for them to be imprisoned? Given the death penalty? Regardless, if you ever believed that Jehovah will judge everyone at armageddon, why would you want to judge everyone before armageddon? Whoever you are and however much you know about a situation, the one thing you do not know is what's in the accused person's heart. If they honestly are sorry for what they did, why would you want to be the judge that determines how that person will spend the rest of their life? I'm not taking sides, but far be it for me to condemn anyone or even ask other people to condemn them for any mistakes they made.

What if someone accused you of raping someone and you know you didn't do it? If that person told their friend to lie for them and say they saw you raping them, would you want to go to jail or be put to death for a crime you know you didn't commit? It is very easy to accuse anyone of anything at any time. And it is not the job of the elders in the congregation to judge for themselves who should be punished for any of them.

When you join an organization, you accept a certain set of laws and regulations. Although they may not be perfect, you ACCEPT them. If you decide not to accept them, then you leave that organization and go elsewhere. If you don't believe that JW's are not the organization backed by God, then go to another one that you believe is. However, if you do believe that JW's are backed by God, and you publicly criticize that organization, then your are publicly criticizing the same God that you believe in, whether you would like to admit it or not. I'll tell you what though, if you believe there is a 'perfect' religious organization out there, I sure would like to know the name of it. I would also like to know how perfect it really is.

This is an imperfect world with imperfect people. Not everything we believe to be right is what's actually right in God's eyes. No matter how much we believe that we are right about something, if Jehovah God tells us through his organization that we are wrong, then obviously we are wrong. There's no if and's or but's about it. When you're wrong, you're wrong."

I said:

Losers like you make me want to scream. Your ignorance outshines any logical sense you have.

That's not the point. The children cannot protect themselves. It's up to their parents and all others that suspect, or know of allegations of abuse, to report it to the proper authorities. But the elders are not the police, you say, how can they judge? Right. Let the police do their job in protecting Society from these crazed perverts! There are laws that protect children; and soon there will be laws in all fifty states that require Clergy of ANY denomination, if they hear of sexual abuse, to report it to the authorities. And if the JWs, or any other religious leaders, for that matter, do not report it, then they should be held for the same criminal liabilities as the perpetrator!

Nuff said.

I say:

You don't feel any hesitance in reporting any wrongdoing on the part of your brother or sister to the elders, now why would reporting a suspicion of child sexual abuse, as a good citizen of the US and your community, be a problem for you? Even anonymously.

Another point you bring up is that you say the JW's are full of imperfect men. However, the Governing Body's claim to be the "faithful and discreet" slave here on Earth, and to be God's channel of communication to the Witnesses, it would seem to me that God is Perfect, and all communications from him to his "channel" would therefore be perfect, concise, and comprehensive. That clearly debunks your argument.

You said if you reported every incident of molestation, you would not come close to bringing an end to the problems. Nope, but you'd be one step closer to bringing an end to the to potential victims of a molesters. Your apathetic excuse is not justified.

You're a mindless robot, just like the other JW's, who can't think, even nominally, for themselves.

like jws don t already know what it says

nice twist...not using the new world translation

wish the congregation actually would judge the child abusers

but then again the way some who consider themselves more faithful rant on this list....maybe it s not even considered fornication

after all when i came into the truth PORNEIA fornication did not apply to anything except premarital sex the watchtower said that homosexual acts were not considered fornication OR adultery and you could not disfellowship your spouse on those grounds

the jw brother who wrote to the society and educated them on that got disfellowshipped for divorcing his wife for a lesbian affair and for going ahead of the organization

shortly thereafter new light revealed he was right

but we were told this story repeatedly as an example never to go ahead of the faithful slave

he was not offered reinstatement and we all were taught to consider him an apostate
so we went along with each new light shed on the biblical words translated as fornication adultery and fornication

cuz it is what is practiced

it is the fruits

maybe we should all go along with this new light that raping children is none of the congregations business to take care of

except to cover it over and punish the "apostates" who are going ahead of the faithful slave by saying it is wrong

PS historically the judicial committees simply refuse to listen to the two witnesses of child abuse even when they are available

it is not unusual to allow and perpetrate slander that maybe the victims or their protective family members are the real abusers

and we used to be taught that 1 corinthians five applied to civil lawsuits but not criminal charges

so is this application to disobey caesar's law to protect the child molesters some more new light?

I receive all your mailings and have been following what is going on with interest and great sorrow, I am not a JW, and never have been. I am just a Christian follower of Jesus, a sinner forgiven.

That does not mean that I will hit out at JW's as I am well aware that Jesus holds no bars to who He loves and who He died for.

I simply want you to burn a candle for all the silent lambs in Great Britain.

This issue needs to be exposed to the people of Great Britain as I believe not many have heard of what is going on. I have attempted to inform the media of what is happening but because this particular issue does not appear to be a major one in this country they do not pursue it.

I have also spoken to JW's who absolutely deny any wrong doings and appear to be completely unaware of anything untoward happening within the Watchtower.

It is perfectly clear to me that the JWs, just like the Mormons, the Baha'i, the SDA, Oneness Pentecostals, Boston Movement, and some other "lost" so called "orthodox" churches are NOT God's "ONLY TRUE CHURCH". In fact, these groups are either full blown cults or cultishly behaved. I will describe in a nutshell what a CULT is for those who are gasping. A CULT is a man or group of men who stray from the TRUE Gospel of Christ and draw attention to themselves away from the focus on God.

Never in my whole life have I ever seen a group of people scrambling to cover their iniquities as I have seen the WTBTS who are trying to quickly silence the viewing of Dateline by "scaring" those who they have brainwashed into not seeing the truth. For so many years the WTBTS has preached "THE TRUTH SHOULD BE ABLE TO STAND UP TO A TEST" then out of the other side of their mouths they preach "DO NOT READ, NO DO NOT EVEN PICK UP ANYTHING WE HAVE NOT PRINTED"

In addition using the "SHUNNING" which is taken out of context and used as a horrible abusive tool to "Control" the membership. WTBTS don't think for a minute this will be over with just the Molestation issues. Slander, Libel, False Prophecies, Worship of the TRUE GOD, and others will be future issues for sure. Yes all in God's due time but, for now what has been done in Secret is now being brought to LIGHT, God's light, be prepared to reap what you have sewn.

I stumbled upon this site by accident, but after taking a look at some of the things you people are saying, it appears to me that you have all been overtaken by your emotions and you are trying to do everything in your powers to basically destroy all child molesters. What I mean by that is if you are or were one of JW's, then you're supposed to forgive everyone just as Christ forgave all of you. If a child molester is punished for his actions and tries to go back into his former religion, it wouldn't be loving or showing forgiveness to tell everyone in the world that the person is a child molester. Of course, it is something that everyone feels they should know, but how would you feel if someone told everyone else all the wrongdoing you have done in your life? You wouldn't like it, would you? In fact, you would probably tell that person that they are not showing love by respecting your private life. Child molestation is grouped in the same category as idolatry, fornication, etc. in the bible. So if you want to tell everyone if a person has committed the sin of child molestation, then shouldn't you also tell everyone if a person has committed idolatry or fornication?

P.S. - If you want to "Protect Our Children", then why don't you lock them all up in the cage somewhere? There are child molesters, rapists, murderers, etc. all around us. There's no getting around it. But we've lived our entire lives adapting to living along with them. Every religious organization is like another neighborhood. If we can live along with them in our neighborhood without knowing, then why can't we live along with them in our religious organizations without knowing? I, along with many other people, would rather not know the sins a person committed in the past. If people like you broadcast these sins of others to people like us who do not want to hear it, don't you think that will cause a division among your own people?

Hey Cult definition person, I don't see how reporting a child molester to the police has anything to do with directing attention to God.

And please tell me when the JW's have ever drawn attention for themselves away from God. (other than this website, which is directing all attention to JW's and no attention to God.)

Look at the facts everyone. The Jehovah's Witness organization is NOT interested in protecting it's members. It is only interested in protecting it's reputation. And assets. And it has,is and will continue to hurt it's members to do so.

JWs say "don't judge us if we harbor pedophiles." BUT they also say,"We have the right to judge any who say the slightest negative thing about us. Even if it is the truth, we have the God-given right to call them liars. THEY have to be stopped. God doesn't love them. Only the ones WE choose to protect. And how dare you judge us for doing so?"

Don't believe it?

I want everyone on this site to tell me exactly what punishment should an idolater should receive.

Then I would like to know what punishment an adulterer should receive.

And, finally, I would like to know what punishment a child molester should receive.

First, tell me the punishment you would use if you were capable of doing it, then tell me what punishment the government would use, and then tell me what punishment the Bible says you should use. Please, do not leave out any details.

'why not jail idolaters or fornicators if you wanna jail child molesters?'
some of us are interested in protecting children
...apparently YOU like the rest of your organization do not...
'consenting adults having sex can get us just as killed at armageddon as easily as child molesting'
...gee and for a minute there i thought you were maintaining integrity out of love for god.....but you re just scared of the threat of death ....not unlike jw child rape victims threatened with death by jw pedophiles if they tell...and ultimately threatened with disfellowshipping AND being killed by god and having his eyeballs plucked out by ravens...such threats coming from bodies of elders ...who wanna protect pedophiles as much as you apparently do ....if one listens to your words
is the threat of death from jehovah's angels the only thing preventing YOU from committing a sex crime? seems to be the ONLY thing important to you
our kids certainly are not

Looking at some of the inane reasoning, or lack thereof, of those responding to an intellectual argument about double standards on sexual issues within the JW organization....reminds me of how we always said there wouldn't be so many Catholic priests molesting kids, if they weren't so sexually repressed by having their sex lives unnaturally proscribed. Perhaps if your elders didn't get their rocks off asking how close married couples came to committing the "sin" of oral sex, or interrogating teenagers about details of their masturbation.... then.... perhaps there would not be so many sexually repressed JWs who decide that secret defilement of children is their only safe outlet. Ironically, it seems to be the only sexual action PROTECTED by elders...and the likes of J.R. Brown. Just a thought...

if you had true faith in a religion, then NOTHING could destroy that faith.

obviously, this religion, like many others, is full of hypocrites and liars. people are people, and they will continue to act like the rest of humanity.

being a JW doesn't make you a good person, and not being a JW doesn't make you a bad person.

this scandal's exposure is just proving what i have believed for the past few years since i stopped associating with JWs... that they are just another group of people who think they are 'above' everyone else... even the law... and common decency and respect for their fellow humans.

Now, as the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society is about to be exposed on Dateline, right as they scramble to silence honest JW whistle blowers,just as they have silence child abuse victims...

Now...

they decide it is time to publish a bunch of articles trying to front like they really care about such issues!

"Food at the proper time"?

"Meat in due season"?

I used to think it was spiritual food for us.

This is nothing more than ass-covering propaganda.

Hi again, Response to May 16, 2002...So nice of you to clarify that you are not a molester supporter...You know I wouldnt have known since you are arguing for the side of the PEDOPHILES... You suggest mockingly...If we throw a person in prison for molestation why not throw in prison for fornication or adultery...FIRST adultery is between two consenting adults(you disfellowship for this) and is not against the law but CHILD MOLESTATION IS AGAINST THE LAW and involves a minor and an adult. BIG difference!! A child cant consent...

MY QUESTION FOR YOU IS, WHICH ONE OF YOU FROM THE WTS, WROTE IN THIS COMMENT? You were hoping Bill would answer your trick question...You are trying desperately to find something...one thing...a hint...so you can disfellowship Bill for apostasy. His site has become a real thorn in your side...

A letter written 6 years ago to you WARNED the governing body about what is happening now...all the law suits...It gave the example of Achan in Israel and how when he finally confessed it was too late and he was put to death anyway.. NO FORGIVENESS... It suggested how you should be following this example in handling Pedophiles and to go public about who they are...but you did not listen to this letter...

Now what it said in this letter was warning to you(WTS) and you(WTS) did not listen. What it said is now coming TRUE!! Look at all the lawsuits!!

Response to May 16, 2002 00:32:15 stated "you do not know what's in the heart" and "imperfect...". All this talk about imperfection is just away to minimize the issue. Give the abuse an excuse...The issue isn't about imperfection it is about criminal behaviour...it is about keeping the congregation CLEAN from these practicers who repeatedly sin against our children... The Scriptures admonish "Remove the wicked man from among yourselves". Does this scripture sound like WAITING on Jehovah? The bible commands that the congregation take decisive action!! Why is the WTS not following what we are scripturally admonished?

We "can't read hearts" but the scriptures says "it can help discern thoughts and intentions of the heart". It tells us that for forgiveness to happen "one must have works befitting repentance". By a person actions it tells us a lot about the type of person someone is. For example... What makes a thief a thief? It is his actions. What makes a pedophile a pedophile? It is his actions. WE DO NOT NEED TO BE A MIND READER.

Quote "when we join an organization we accept it's laws and regulations..." The Jewish Religious Leaders of Jesus day made many rules and regulations for the people. Jesus said they put heavy burdens on the people and they made the word of God invalid because of their tradition. So too today we joined because we believed they were following the bible NOT MAN MADE RULES and REGULATIONS... Because of these man made rules and policies it makes it impossible to protect our children and remain as one of Jehovah's Witnesses because of the threat of Df if we act on our children's behalf!! Yet the bible tells us if "we do not look after our own we are worse than those without faith." Do we follow man or God? The answer is obvious! PROTECT THE CHILDREN That is what this web site is doing!! DJB

Dear Brother Bowen,

For 20 years I have been one of Jehovah Witnesses.

I am SADLY personally aware of the wicked events your web site chronicles.
However, though any child being abused is a disgusting thing, it isn't "the disgusting thing that causes desolation" as spoken through Daniel the prophet. Matthew 24:15,16.

That is/has been in place and the time of the end has begun.

(People reading this, you may have my resignation papers on request) If you take the time to consider my Resignation letter, (forgive any spelling or grammar errors please) you will see the foretold destruction of all wicked ungodly men is 2008.

That might seem an impossible thing to accept, I say don't accept it immediately, or deny it immediately, but check what is being said to you.

Jehovah's witnesses were the true religion in the 20th Century, of that I have no doubt whatsoever, but a disgusting thing which causes the downfall of the entire organization was put in place by the organization, a number of years ago.

I beg you please read my letter, as I have yours, I have followed your case, and believe the Great God Jehovah will bless your efforts for justice.

The organization will fall, because it failed to realize it was being inspected by Christ.

Your website clearly shows, that it is men, not God, who is running the Watchtower now, but sadly most of the sheep like ones, are unaware of the truths you are bringing to public attention.

I wish you well in all of your endeavours, and I add that even if you choose not to read the letters I enclose, I appreciate I am dealing with a MAN, of impeachable integrity.

When I read of the seemingly limitless accounts of disgraceful abuse that has gone on behind closed doors, it reminds me of the account of Ezekiel, looking through a hole in the wall, and seeing all the wicked and perverse things going on inside Jerusalem, but Jehovah dealt with them then, just as HE WILL deal with these accounts.

My thoughts and prayers, be with you, and the little ones who have suffered, and are suffering, and one day will never suffer again.

May the True God Jehovah, through Christ, aid you at this time, and forever.

Your Brother forever. In THE LORDS WITNESSES! Ian Matthews Skelmersdale England. 01695 556756 Feel free to email me. To reach our helpdesk and talk to Gordon Ritchie, email helpdesk@lordswitnesses.com.

If you take the time, you will see that Nisan 14, 2008, is an absolute date, for Armageddon, and the 607-1914 isn't the only account of a 7 times, time period, 2,520 years.

You have one from being evicted from a promised land to going back into one. 3993 BCE to 1473 BCE (Adam kicked out-Israelites go back in).

Links that show the disgusting thing that causes true desolation to JW's.

I wish all Lambs, silent or vocal,a happy and prosperous life, free from the abuse you have all suffered, and we through you.
Since no one answered the three questions posted earlier, I am assuming no one can validate their beliefs from the state and/or the bible. Who said JW's thought they were above the law? I never heard the organization tell them they were above the law? Do their actions suggest it? Well, to be above the law would suggest that you break the law without expecting to be punished by the state or country you live in. Now, correct me if I'm wrong, but what law in what state says that it is illegal to not report a child molestation? The society isn't breaking the law by not reporting these cases.

Some of the people in here continue to say that child molestation is worse than adultery and fornication. What scripture in the bible states this? How can you back up your statements by quoting partial scriptures that almost appear to validate your responses? I don't care if adultery is sex between "two consenting adults". I am very well aware of what adultery is. The point was that it is WRONG. And it is in the SAME CATEGORY of SINS as molestation, or abuse of men, however you want to phrase it.

As for the person that asked if ALL I cared about was death by Jehovah and his angels (I forgot the words exactly). To answer your question, YES, that is ALL I care about. That is the very meaning of our existence on earth. We all, ultimately, will face judgment at armageddon. THAT, is what we all should be trying to do, make sure we are judged favorably when the end comes. Everything that goes on before then DOESN'T MATTER, as far as things that happen around you, as long as you yourself do all you can to live in accordance with the bible.

Since none of you feel that adultery and fornication are just as bad as molestation according to the bible, then what about homosexuality? Ahh, now there's something that will raise a lot of controversy. Is it wrong? Is it right? Is it worse than fornication? Is it not as bad as molestation? A homosexual would say that God is "a god of love" according to the bible. Does that make it right? A heterosexual would say that homosexuals will be destroyed at armageddon. Who's right? Who's wrong? Trying to prove for or against homosexuality is just like you trying to prove for or against reporting sex abuse cases. Some people hate the practice, some people love the practice, many people just do not care.

If your way of thinking is only backed up by a minority of the whole, then what makes you right? Obviously, the entire association of JW's do not agree with your thinking. Not even a majority of the association of JW's agree with your thinking, including myself. So why should we have to put up with such nonsense when we have a more important work to do?

Armageddon can be here tomorrow. If it comes, what good will all this work you're doing to change the JW's organization? Will you tell Jehovah that you took a break from doing what he commanded you to do so you can protect your children? How will you validate such a response? By trying to reason with him by using man-made laws and regulations about what is right and what is wrong? Or by telling him that molestation is worse than fornication, adultery, and homosexuality, and therefore should be punished more severely? Think about your answer.

Nevertheless, you are missing the point. I don't think anyone here is trying to develop any relative ranking of various types of sins. Any discussion on that point would be irrelevant. Please try step back a bit and get your mind around the idea that you need to protect the children - both inside and outside the congregation. Any logic that starts with your bible quotes and ends up with an organization that shouldn't report child molesters is absurdly casuistical.
Any logic that puts the reputation of the organization above the children in that organization is the apex of unchristian attitude. You would have to purposely be blind in order to miss that point. That is why outsiders refer to the the JWs as a brainwashed cult.

OK, a few responses to the ones above. Most of this dogmatic stuff is just a red herring to avoid looking at the real problem. The witnesses are more likely to kick out “adulterers” & “fornicators” than child molesters. Forgiveness is not the issue, nor is a “Jehovah’s late night top ten list” ranking of sins. Adultery & fornication obviously have no connection w/ child molesting, & don’t have the same recidivism rate. We can forgive, but we know through research that 95% of child molesters re-offend. There was a man in the Albany OR congregation who admitted to molesting over 50 kids. His name was Don Seargent. And as soon as he got out of prison for this, he was back on the street, sometimes alone, knocking on doors. That’s 50, count ’em, 50 that he admitted to! This problem does not go away w/ God’s help. That is why he lovingly provided the Israelites w/ stoning as a “committee option”. These people who come on here w/ these silly argument are either irretreivably stupid (possible) or, more likely, talking to themselves out loud, more than to the rest of the people on this board, to try & find any way to rationalize their congregation allowing children to be raped as a basic policy. Also, possibly to bait the rest of us who have our eyes open into silly debates so we aren’t fighting w/ who we really should. I take printouts of the flyer on this site & put them in laundromats, right next to their literature!! Use their own tactics against them! If you’ve been abused & had it covered up, sue them! Go out door to door w/ the flyers in their territory , right after they place, go to that door & give ‘em your own presentation. If you were a JW, at least you have been trained to give an effective spiel! I love all of you, avishai

I was a JW all my life, as far as I can remember, I was baptized in 1959, served as regular pioneer most of the 60’s and 70’s was an elder in 1974-76, and then my wife had an affair and was disfellowshipped, To make a long story short, I soon left the organization after 1976 and I no longer believed that only JW’s had the true faith and this was not the only organization God was using. I was branded as an apostate and disfellowshipped, It has always bothered me how they can disfellowship someone who has already disassociated oneself. any way I would like to hear from anyone out there who would like to correspond. I would like a support group, of a sort, after having spent 30 years of my life devoting it to the organization.

If you see a truck bearing down on your child, you take immediate and decisive action to prevent harm to your child! You do NOT wait on Jehovah! It is our responsibility to protect the children now! Pedophiles should be treated the same as a truck driver who deliberately mows down innocent children. Those who support pedophiles share the crime. Neither Jehovah nor Christ requires us to forgive one who treats us in the vile manner of a sexual molester. ps I don't care about doctrinal issues etc. I want the children in our congregations to be safe. Andrew: Exactly! I'm an ex-JW that feels that any god would roll his omniscient eyes at anyone's suggestion that he hasn't made it clear that we must all protect children from molesters. How absurd it is for any individual to stand by when they could have done something.

"Wait on Jehovah?!" - can you imagine trying to explain on your judgment day that you thought the child should put up with the abuse, that other children should not have been protected? Because the elders, or the Society said so?

I don't think there is a lot of gray area here. It is clear that children should be sheltered from abusers - and I mean children in and out of the JW coven. (I know you're still a witness, but I couldn't resist.) Those that harbor child abusers and make it more difficult to protect children bear an awful responsibility. They don't see because of their blinding self-righteousness. Self-righteousness is a particularly horrible sin, because it is untended by a conscience.

I am 49 now, when I was twenty I drove down a freeway and glanced at a nearby golf course. I saw a boy riding down the edge of the outside fence collecting golf balls. I then saw a man drive up in a purple pontiac bonneville and get out and knock the kid off the bike and drag him down a hill.

I looked all around me horrified by what I saw, I wondered who else witnessed what I was seeing. I saw no one. Out of fear for the child I drove immediately to the area where the boy was dragged to. I got out of my car, I went over the side of the hill, what I saw made me sick of heart and fearful for the child. The man had the boys pants down and was about to sodomize the boy. When the man saw me he told the boy to tell me "tell the man everything is OK". I yelled at the man in the boldest voice I could muster, "No everything is NOT ok, let the boy up NOW! The man did exactly as I told him to do.

I can hardly believe I am even talking about this again I am crying remembering this day. The boy got up pulled up his pants and got on his bike, I stood fast while I watched both the boy leaving and the man who was laughing pulling up his pants.
Once I saw the boy was far away and free of this perpetrator, I walked up the hill backwards and the man laughed over the whole thing. Just so you know, this boy is OK, and today lives a normal life. What I did, was out of "fear" for the child. And a great "distaste" for what is wrong. I also felt that the child would die if I did nothing.

What I did, I did immediately and without even worrying about "what would happen if I was over taken by the molester". It was not important, only the child who was in danger was important at that time. I am no hero, I am a Christian, and I did what I would HOPE that any true God fearing person would do.

It is a horrible shame that anyone would think of "reputation" over "safety of a child". It is "unheard" of. It is "unChristian". It is a violation of following the "Laws of God" as well as the "Laws of the Land".

I have read many of these posts today. Yes I believe, no, I know Jehovah would not wait to deal with this. That is what a "God given conscience in men is meant for, to do what is right in the presence of men, and before our God".

I pray for the safety of every single child globally, in every home, church, circumstance that God uses this time to bring to light "every single instance" of abuse against all innocent children. If this is your prayer, then register today an Amen in this guest book.

May God bless each and every family and protect that institution and its children. Amen

Skelmersdale: So you have a new date for Armageddon? 2008 is it? Have you learned nothing from the more than a century's date predictions? The bible is not a grand game of clue for some chosen few to decipher and tell the rest of us. If you feel you've done your research, take a look at "The Gentile Times Reconsidered." Or a more recent "Signs of the Last Days" (same author - ex-witness that was DF'ed for failing to ignore what he knew was true). Whatever your calculations, they are wrought with rationalizations, and assumptions that you cannot back up. The fact that you refer to the 2520 year factor tells me that you are likely working with the same basic calculations created by the Millerites in the mid-1800's. Does it bother you at all that that very same calculation has been used to predict Armageddon at least a dozen times since 1878?

You do yourself an injustice by approaching the bible as a multi-thousand-page jigsaw puzzle and failing to see it as clear but general guidance for we humans to lead our lives.
To the idiotic, robot that freely admits he is protecting and championing JW PEDOPHILIA solely out of fear that Jehovah will kill him if he doesn't--------your posts continue to prove our points more eloquently than we ever could.

By the way------both the Bible and your literature teach you will also be punished for being A LIAR, and for helping to hide the "gross sins" that are going on------so I guess you are bound to be 'bird fodder' after all------your worse fears come true-------- and if you really did give a shit about how the bible says to raise. protect and defend your/our children and the value they have in the eyes of god and hisson....then just look in the index in the back of your own bible ....and look up every verse dealing with "child" or "children" .....but that would go against your programming wouldn't it?

Hello all- I am an ex JW (inactive for over 10 years) and had the same thing happen to me as a child as many others have had happen. I know firsthand the anger it brings about and the helpless feeling of trying to fight these people. I also know the loneliness that goes along with being an ex JW because as a witness you are not to have friends who are unbelievers and when you are raised as a witness as I was, and then leave, you lose all of the witness "friends". It is very hard to start friendships as an adult after being a witness- close friendships anyway. Anyone who is interested in conversing with me- feel free to write me any time at bbdoty@msn.com I look forward to hearing from anyone. B Doty in central Illinois

Hi again, Response to May 19, 2002 time 13:23:25 You miss quote my comments and then refute your misunderstanding as thou I stated what you claim... The partial scriptures quoted DO VALIDATE my comments. Read the context...

You think this is nonsense and have more important work to do? Just remember Ephs. 4: 17 tells us "On this account cease becoming unreasonable but go on perceiving what the will of Jehovah is." Hypocrisy would never be an acceptable way to worship God even if you preached from door to door...

You assume too much in your comments about me. I presented information/situations and outcomes that happens to most who try to protect their children in this organization. I am an active witness and yes I work at protecting my children!! We obey the the laws of the land unless it conflicts with Gods laws as the bible commands. So you see your little conversation with God as you outlined at the end of your comments would not happen.

Buster the children who are not witnesses I have on occasion warned the parents...all children deserve to be protected... DJB

Hi again, Just wanted to add... the first of my comments in response to May 19 time 13:23:23 were NOT directed at Buster!! As I do not know who wrote these comments. But the last line where I used his web site name is... Thought I should clarify this...DJB

Hi again, Sorry Bill, Br. Bowen, you're doing a wonderful job here...and all those helping you! It's really just the tip of the iceberg showing now...wait and see...once it's out in the open there will be many, many others speaking out against pedophiles and their kind! Jehovah's heart must be breaking over and over every time an abuser is allowed to hide behind the cloak of "no confession" or "not enough witnesses" to what he's done! The children must be protected first and foremost! The children's needs must come before the concern of reproach on the organization! Is it more reproach to allow such abuses to continue hidden than it is to bring them out in the open so you can stop the abuses? And I'm all for forgiveness when it's deserved...but even Jehovah had times he did not forgive! So I will go on and continue to do whatever I can to protect my children and any other children from these abusers! In the end I know and have faith that Jehovah will see what I have done and commend rather than condemn those actions!

P.S. If anyone in KY wants to light a candle for my family (9 of us hurt by one) and/or my sisters here (19 more in our congregation - all not abused by the same, but by others) in our small midwest congregation...just say so here...I'll be checking more often since the Dateline show is so close now.

To all of the active, earnest Jehovah's Witnesses, on this site, who are choosing not to give up their faith, but will NOT stand by and let your religion be used as an excuse to rape and molest children...to all of you who express your faith intelligently, and yet honestly and candidly acknowledge the serious issues at hand here, without trying to cover them up, or defect from them by loopy, irrational, dogmatic, preaching... I COMMEND YOU AND HAVE DEEP RESPECT FOR YOU! If there were more like you....more elders like you around ...many of us would not have been left with no rational choice but to leave the organization.

To the rest of you active JWs, who can't even carry on a logical conversation without adding your dogmatic verbal, and emotional abuse to the physical, sexual and emotional abuse already heaped upon innocent children....there are far too many of you in there to make up for those few whose minds and hearts are not retarded.

any negative comments I have made about JWs and their organization are aimed at the latter...

the former have earned my respect....

Thank you for showing me there are at least a handful, who actually believe in truth, and not use the word as Orwellian Doublespeak.

To the vast majority who think and speak like some, who post on this web-site, I hope Dateline reads some of your posts on the air to show the world the low depths most JWs will stoop to to silence victims and their supporters. And the type of convoluted thinking patterns such dogmatism produces. You are the best witnesses of the truth of what is going on.

hey scripture quoters, who think going door to door is proof that child abusers and rapists are REAL christians..

didn't the apostle paul say it didn't matter if he traveled the world proselytizing, but did not have love, that he was nothing?

what kinda' love do you have for children in your own congregations that are being ritually abused and raped?
OOHHH that's right...you said we should not judge their imperfect rapists you are only allowed to judge people like us who actually love children, huh?

Good Morning What ratio would anyone like to give me as to the repent pedophiles on record. After it happened to our family I did a lot of research, at the time 3 out of 5 girls and 2 out of 5 boys are molested before they reach 18. That was several years ago. What would be an appropriate punishment for one. Since there is no burning hell, perhaps a tattoo across their forehead. What is the difference between this sin and any other? You obviously haven't held a child in your arms that has lost their innocence. You haven't had a grown daughter go from man to man because she is sentenced to eternal hell because she can't recover no matter what you do, she has no self esteem and seems doomed to repeat her actions to the detriment of herself and all those she loves. What's this? This site's guestbook deemed inappropriate? When I came here last Friday, it was totally accessible. Looks like people are going just a little too far in expressing their feelings toward this site and others, too. You people have gotta stop putting in this guestbook inappropriate comments, especially the cursing. It's not necessary.

why did you LIE about the awake! articles?

why do elders, the WTS, judicial committees LIE to cover up for child molesters, and THREATEN victims and their families if they don't also LIE (cover up the truth)?

why has the catholic church, who has "been caught with it's hand in the cookie jar" for longer than my half century of life JUST now doing something?

i dunno

BUT why have we been exposing the catholic church as obviously a part of "babylon the great" for both having such problems and covering them up ....and now when JWs are caught with "hand in cookie jar" LIE to cover up the SAME sins....and do worse? at least the church has NEVER excommunicated altar boys for reporting, or suing, or filing charges against pedophile priests! or for others standing up for the catholic children against the church's cover ups. (please don't go off on a rant about john hess....we are NOT talking about all those other subjects)

tell me why

catholics getting caught with their hand in the cookie jar (like they always have) and finally putting cookies back....paying for the ones eaten....admitting they stole cookies....and trying to prevent themselves from stealing cookies again

is better than

JWs getting caught with their hand in the cookie jar and crushing the rest of the cookies, keeping their hand IN the cookie jar and LYING that it is even in the cookie jar, threatening to get the ones who catch and/or tattle in the trouble they should get...and "beating on his brothers" to make sure JWs can keep their hands in the cookie jar

yup

that s the TRUTH

can you please...if you chose to respond .... please answer with the TRUTH?

or will you side with your pedophile brothers, and talk about how wonderful it is that jehovah's organization blesses his people by trying to force rape victims to support rapists in their congregations?

shame on you

I know the elders broke all their own rules in an effort to disfellowship me when I chose to divorce my mentally ill husband. We hadn't been at meetings in over 3 years. We did attend the memorial during those 3 years. I told the brothers they were not welcome in any of our personal life matters, they told me they had to be since we were still in good standing. Basically their belief was that since we weren't disfellowshipped, we were in good standing, even though we hadn't attended meetings or field service or other functions other than the memorial in 3 years, and I had to be dealt with. Can you imagine trying to kick someone out of a religion they technically are not even in? By their rules, I was completely inactive. They even tried to get my 9 year old daughter that I had sole custody of, to spy on me and report back to them, in an effort to "deal with me".... she stood up to those men and told them no way..she is 18 now and wants nothing to do with organized religion, especially that one. Who could blame her? If they would break their own rules when it came to lil ol me, and I was a "nobody", nowhere doing nothing...you can bet your last dime they would on something as huge as child abuse. I walked away, and I'm free, and have never looked back...

To "CS", and anyone in similar conditions.

Don't give up, I never got the support I needed myself, and that never left me.

Everyone who found out, thought for sure my mom would stand behind me, but she's the one person who's made more excuses for him, and for herself for staying with him. She still keeps all this as secret as she can making up lies about why I left even to this day to friends and anyone that knew us. Aside from me not having the support etc. good God! what a way to live...

Please keep fighting, telling the truth is not slander, but if you're worried, why not inform child protective services with what you know? Let them investigate it for themselves. If your daughter feels she can/wants to, let her talk to child protective services herself too. "Both" of you are victims, and both of you have the right to be heard, to at least try to prevent this from happening again.
You may be told by some "brothers" and "sisters" that it would reflect badly on Jehovah's name to tell anyone (especially "outsiders") but the truth is, keeping silent about what you know is what reflects badly on God's name.

No matter how much people try to cover things like this up, the truth always comes out in the end, to everybody, not just witnesses.

How can covering up crimes like these, that are also crimes in the eyes of God, ever reflect more positive on God's name than telling the truth, openly?

Ask yourself, in all honesty "who is it your silence protects"? and go by your own answer.

Imagine sitting in one room with Jehovah and talking about your daughter, what do you yourself think God'd want you to do? Sit by and watch a crime be repeated??

As an ex-wife this can't be easy for you, it must be just about impossible to talk to the new wife who doesn't know and you may be afraid she might not believe you, but try imagining yourself in her shoes? What would you want yourself to do if it was her who was the ex wife who's daughter was abused?

All children are also God's children, and it is up to us to protect those children as good as we can.

No one should blame him/herself for not recognizing something like abuse in time, but once you know you're in a different position with the ability to open other people's eyes so history doesn't have to repeat itself.

It may just change that little girls' life for the better.

It is what I wish someone would have done for me..

I think you're a very courageous woman.

I am sure you must have many doubts about yourself etc. but I hope you can heal too as well as your daughter. It's underestimated how many people are victimized by something like this.

May you find the strength to do what you feel in your heart is right, and act by that, it's that part of us that is God's voice in each of us. Good luck, you're not alone.

NOTE TO THE WEBMASTERS OF THIS PAGE: have you considered setting up a (moderated?) message board? IMO it might do a lot of good.. Thanks.

Buster,

I completely understand your sentiments towards Shirley. Anger expressed when children continue to be violated is understandable.

I would like to suggest that perhaps it would be better aimed at the congregation, elders and organization that abused both Shirley and her child.

families are often "complicit" in the crimes of the abusers out of an overwhelming sense of powerlessness...often from brainwashing techniques adeptly employed by the abuser that keeps the rest of the family psychologically "in check."

Older siblings are often known to "sacrifice" themselves to the family pedophile, because they honestly believe that is the only avenue they have to protect their family.

Spouses, are often the targets of psychological, emotional, verbal, spiritual, physical and abuse themselves. It is not unusual that they fear even more atrocities upon their children if they do anything more than placate the abuser. The crimes are that much more heinous, because they deplete the victims (the entire family, not just the molested) of any sense of humanity, esteem power and ability to do anything different than to fall into their prescribed roles.

This is often reinforced with the threat of DEATH and/or TORTURE. Like all TERRORISTS, the abusers know that the greatest threat is not against the one you are threatening, but against other innocents that the victims love.

"You tell and I will KILL your mother, siblings, pets...in front of your eyes!" "You try to report me and I will make sure our children never talk again!"

Now back to the religious family...

Do you have any idea what a brainwashed cult victim, conditioned to accept horrors upon pain of DEATH goes through when threatened with disfellowshipping? They are not just being threatened with a spiritual death, and separation from the ONLY FAMILY AND FRIENDS they have been allowed to have ... they are being THREATENED WITH DEATH FROM GOD AT ARMEGEDDON, something they believe so earnestly, they have been knocking on the doors of strangers to warn them about. And PLEASE NOTE that this threat of DEATH extends to their unbaptized CHILDREN, who they have been taught fall under their "mark" of protection from the avenging angels who will KILL their children if they are disfellowshipped. These threats are very real to the families. They are propagated in Watchtower literature, and uttered in threatening tones from Judicial Committees, who squash victims and their families with the SAME psychological weapons used by their abusers. Then they are reminded to be like the followers of Christ who proclaimed "Where else can we go?"

Under threat of horrific deaths, where their remains will be eaten by birds, because their Heavenly Father finds them too disgusting for burial and resurrection. I think the religious family's guilt is exponentially greater than the abusers they protect.

That is the TRUTH of the Watchtower Society's teachings and end product.

And that is the TRUTH of what the families of abuse victims are terrorized by.

I know, Buster and Shirley, because I have been in Shirley's shoes.

The mother of my children was already disfellowshipped. I had it drilled into my head and heart that the only way my children would not be killed, was for me to remain faithful to my Theocratic Family, no matter what.

To keep me from taking action against the vile step-parent who terrorized my daughter, I was warned by elders repeatedly that I would be disfellowshipped for "sinning against the holy spirit," for "apostasy" if I continued to pursue charges against the abuser EVEN within the congregation.

For protecting my children, choosing them over the family terrorist, I did lose all privileges in the congregation. and was continually harassed and warned, threatened! The abuser remained in good standing.

And in my case there WERE MORE THAN THE REQUIRED NUMBER OF WITNESSES.... the committees involved simply REFUSED to hear them. Including my children.

There are no words, in any language, to describe the internal war that devastates one's soul, trying to do the right thing, when being told and threatened that it is the wrong thing.

Buster, I empathize with your sentiments, only because I have felt them about myself. And I guarantee Shirley has felt them about herself.

My suggestion to Buster, is that your anger and vilification are misplaced. They should be aimed at the rapists, and the religious family that protects them with terrorist style threats.

I have considered for myself, the drastic action that you suggested to Shirley.

Shirley, the ones who don't deserve to live are the ones that kept you and your children under their Christian jackboots. Shirley, you are to be commended for the efforts you made, and the support you gave to your child through each stage of finally breaking free of your nightmare.

I consider you my sister, not through any "organizational brotherhood", but because I know exactly what you and your children have gone through to get to where you are today.

May you and your real family find peace.

see.....when the truth comes out.....honest-hearted people refer to jehovah's witnesses as a "fucking cult".....don't you think it would have brought less reproach on the organization (and god's name ...as we were originally taught....or is

and to those of you more horrified that someone used a word that elitist, caste-minded religious leaders once arbitrarily defined as "vulgar, of the common people, the laity...instead of the "holy" latin language that their educated clergy used .... to those of you more horrified that an individual uses words that "babylon the great" decided were beneath them=====than being horrified that the christian witnesses of jehovah and his earthly organization have members that actually perform and coerce that word on innocent children...and instead of being horrified that the governing body and the elder shepherds of the congregations are aiding and abetting such criminal sins....to those of you more horrified and side-tracked by a four=letter word than by JW pedophiles and their theocratic defense...

you are the fruit of this organization and it's teachings

you make the case against your "truth" better than the victims YOU vilify

Hello I've been reading everybody's comments and all of a sudden I realized something. I did warn people about my ex-husband. He called me and told me that he was considering marrying one of my oldest friends. I called her and asked her if she had lost her mind, regardless of the molesting, she of all people should have known him. I told her everything and guess what she said? OH! he has changed he wouldn't do that to my children. I sat there looking at the phone in disbelief. Three years later they were divorced, a brother came into a large sum of money and she went after him and dumped my ex. The story goes on but I'm not going to waste your time or mine about it. Just the point that sometimes people don't listen no matter what you do. I am amazed at people. jgibson

DJB: I sense your sincerity. But I put to you that it is just as likely that your sympathies and empathies are misplaced. Somewhere on the guilt continuum, not as far to one side as the direct perpetrators, and not as far to the other side as the direct victim, lie the enablers. Those that knew about the crime and did nothing. Those enablers that further emboldened the perpetrator by letting the perp. know that even if they were known, nothing would be done. The perp. knows that the enabler will do nothing about past violations, knows that the enabler will do nothing to stop further violations. I'll admit that the enablers have a bit of victim in them. But they have more than a bit of perpetrator too.

i didn't sign my missive to you

i am still choosing anonymity on this site....for the sake of my family

you assumed i was DJB .....you guessed wrong

i stand by what i said

i understand your feelings

don't think you fully appreciate the struggle many enablers have had to go through to break free of their brainwashing ... and take a stand in the process

it would be easier to stand by while tied up and gagged

which is why the guilt i STILL feel for trying to fix the problem instead of telling the woman who abused my daughter, and the elders to fk off ,and immediately reporting them all to the authorities....that guilt does not equal the animosity i feel towards those betrayers

you continue to underestimate the depth of control that this abusive cult wields over its membership

the control of their minds...their bodies...their souls

you continue to underestimate how very REAL the threat of death to their children for non-compliance is perhaps you have never been there

perhaps you have, and choose to deal with your grief in this way

i don't condemn you for your attitude... won't judge it... i have no love for those that choose to be enablers either...just know that not all choose to be so if you were convinced that the rapist would kill all of your children, if you went outside the family with this information .....think about how carefully you would act until you were convinced you could save your children without killing them?

don't expect to convince you...i am out of the converting business.....just ask that someone of your obvious intelligence and empathy...give some consideration what i and others here have shared

your suggestion that you would kill yourself if in the family's shoes brought back echoes of the same words being used against me by elders...ironically they would have liked to get the thorn out of their side because i wanted them to take action...and your agenda is the opposite ... but i have put aside the painful flashback of their abusive browbeating and mind control to deal with you as an individual and a human being .... i actually relate to you better than i ever will to them
I think that it is safe to say at this point that most JW's worship the Watchtower Society and place it's image in the same light as that of God himself. However, even that standard means nothing because they obviously don't even care about God's standards anymore. "The superior authority" is "God's minister" and I hope they all get what they deserve, whether they are doing good or doing bad. - Romans 13:1-4

The real enablers in these sad stories are the elders and the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses.

And those who CONTINUE to be blinded by them, knowing the truth, yet denying it, so they can keep the respect of the former.

Neither Shirley or Anonymous fit those categories. They tried, and were silenced by elder threats only temporarily.

You have to believe you have choices before you can make them.

I think a web site like this has the potential to be dangerous. How can anyone validate the stories published here?

I don't question that child molestation exists. It exists in every culture, every society, every religious categorization.

If someone is a child molester then they are NOT a Jehovah's Witnesses. Regardless of what or what not, the elders or headquarters do.

A Jehovah's Witness would not commit such a gross lack of moral act, nor would they commit what is considered a criminal offense.

I think this is just as true for any other organized religion.

Child molesters are not Jehovah's Witnesses, they are not Roman Catholics. They are child molesters

Lest we forget this in our hunt to blame.

To the victims, nothing ever removes our memory of the events. I was also molested but not by anyone from a regular religion. They actually didn't believe in God.

Hence my point of relinquishing the reference's to religion, and focus on the child molesters.
As far as those in positions of responsibility, two simple reasons.

Jehovah’s Witnesses, over simply everything, they love black and white characterizations. Second, most elders and the like, are never trained to respond to these types of situations. No more then the priests of other religions.

To those parents who held excommunication higher then the emotional care of their children.

Damn you! Common sense people! Common sense!

We all are accountable for our life, no one else. To use the copout that the organization controls us is the excuse of the ignorant.

We all have choices to make. You just made bad ones!

Hi again, The person who does not get it about the control an organization can have you forget about Jonestown and solar temple and David Koresh etc. Those that followed these men believed in what they were doing. They were absolutely controlled by these men to the point they were willing to lay down their lives for these men who lead them.

Those in Jonestown when they realized it would cost them their lives, it was too late to save it. About 800 hundred murders. Apparently if I have the facts straight their leader was caught molesting children even before they left the states for South America...

Those that are controlled by wicked men ultimately paid the highest price for their allegiance. They lost their lives.

The Watchtower Society pretends to the world that these men have changed. All one has to think where this will lead certainly not to life. History proves that...

Just a thought...

Perhaps the ones that want to silence the family members and victims who tell their stories, are plants from the Watchtower Society, feigning sympathy, while being quite effective in trying to shut up those that tell their stories.

"Damn you!" 'I couldn't live if I were you.'

Nice. Sounds fishy to me. Shame them. Use the guilt they feel for living in fear of their children's lives to push them over the edge. Perhaps they are Elders from some of those committees. Sound like them anyway.

Some who are reporting on this site (including the actual youths who were molested), are exposing that they have, in fact, been threatened with murder from Jehovah if they told. Some apparently feel this is the only safe place to do so.

"Common sense people!"

How like both the elders in the stories, and like the history of the governing body at the Watchtower Society. Say things, then deny everything and put it off on the ones who followed you when they ask you to account for it.
"Quit your good job and pioneer!" "Armageddon's going to be here by October 1975!... and we are hinting it could be 1974!" "Treat molesters like brothers, because we said so! And if you don't, it's not just you that will be killed...your children will be destroyed! If you really had any love in your hearts for them, why would you subject them to that? Shame on you!"

"What do you mean you were told to quit your job/prepare for 1975/don't tell the cops, because your children would die? WE never said such a thing! Shame on you again! Common sense! You must have jumped ahead of the organization! We are innocent! I couldn't live with myself if I gave such advice, so much for followed it! Let's print more Awake! magazines that show we would never do such a thing! Who can we blame/disfellowship for this?"

Then again maybe these individuals are not trying to BUST up Silent Lambs and silence the whistle blowers. Maybe they are well meaning individuals who really have no idea what it means to be a Brainwashed Witness in a Cult Organization. Perhaps they have no idea that when an elder threatens to have your children killed by excommunicating you, that you really believe it.

Food for the discussion mill, I guess...

Misguided. I read the awake on battered women and see no where that its condoning violence I read it from your website here and it says that sometimes in cases of abuse a women should go to the authorities. You simply lied....so how can anything else you are saying be completely honest? I feel sorry for you too. So much of your time and energy into revealing the imperfections of others. I don't remember reading in the bible that men are with out sin. Wouldn't that include Jehovah's Witnesses too? Aren't those men supposedly responsible for hiding things just men after all.

to the one who starts off by saying we are "misguided" and goes into saying we "simply lied"
you base your allegation on the reading of one propaganda journal that tries to put the right spin on their organization...to put it in the best light

i see

by the rules set down by your own governing body...you could be disfellowshipped for making such an accusation, if the facts proved otherwise

of course what they preach IS NOT what they practice

so you don't have to worry about that the victims and their advocates are the REAL ones such punishment are aimed at

don't believe it?

OR ARE YOU, LIKE JUDICIAL COMMITTEES, LIKE THE GOVERNING BODY, REFUSING TO LISTEN TO THE MOUTHS OF TWO, THREE OR MORE WITNESSES....THEN SAYING THERE'S NO PROOF WITHOUT THEM?

For those of you who read the articles on children's issues and rape were you aware that they also had women writing these issues, no way you say, yes way. At this time I am sure they have done their best to silence her, this is her payment for the wonderful articles she wrote trying to help the sisters and the children. A brother of course had to look over the articles and they agreed on the scriptures that should be used he then put his name on it okaying it to be used. In this capacity and by doing research for them is how she came across all the cases of child abuse, every case that has been reported is in their files. When they get subpoenaed want to take odds at file dumping. I can't help believe that Jehovah's will, will take place because he will see to it that these files will not be destroyed. I don't know why he has allowed these atrocities to go on but please people lets not throw the baby out with the bath water. Remember Jehovah helped his people out of Egypt by a great miracle and 10 plagues and almost immediately they were whining and wanted to go back, who are you kidding!!!!!! He is in a no win situation here. JG

Hi again, Just a thought about evidence. Both my father and myself have witnessed children being molested at our hall, in the front entrance, in the main auditorium, second school and convicted sex offenders following small children out to the bathrooms or hanging around children unsupervised etc.

But we have reported it and one child was put in protective custody but the victim would not talk. So nothing could be done even thou we saw what happened... (One was an elder in a couple of incidents and three teenage boys in another incident and on it goes etc).

One teenager was put in foster care because she did not want to go to the kingdom hall. The kingdom hall is known in our community as a very dangerous place for children. The police warned us...

I had my X confess to me about molesting his sister along with his brother and cousin (she was 8 years old) and how many times after trying to rape her and how his mother caught them.

I could not use this in court until my own daughter decided to talk (I even had found bruises around her privates, she showed me). I moved to protect her even before we could take it to court. My X sister-in-law still has not talked. I would be a witness for her if she choose to talk.

Laws have changed around wife assault so the police can lay charges without the victims consent or testimony. These changes should happen for children as well.

So someone can know beyond a doubt that an individual is a pedophile but not be able to do anything about it (except report it) unless the victim talked... DJB

Imagine an organization so powerful, yet worried about the almighty bottom line. They say the "Love" of money is the root of all evil. Well in this case a "spiritual system" which is designed to deliver "watchtowers and awakes" door to door. Think of it. An all volunteer staff, from manufacturing, publishing, distribution door to door, the watchtower, awake, and other articles are delivered by these blind faithful mislead sheep.

The cost of manufacture of a watchtower, lets see, I believe its about 2.5 cents. Hmmm most publishers already donate about 25 cents per issue distributed so that is already ten times what it costs to make it. Then while out in the field you collect "contributions" to the "world wide work" and give that as well. WOW, looks to me like if the WTBTS can't smother this "molest" issue the "apple cart of profit" will be upset and all the money made for this "PUBLICATION COMPANY will turn sour.

That's right folks, its nothing more than a "company for profit, under the guise of a "spiritual institution". God help you if you belong to this organization, and know of anything wrong and have not spoken up. You have failed your fiduciary responsibility to humanity.

This website must have been difficult to produce, but they jw organization must make reforms. Their past sins have piled high into the heavens. There is no excuse for permitting such acts to go unreported to police and local authorities. The jw's are MORE CONCERNED ABOUT PROTECTING THEIR OWN REPUTATIONS THAN THE LIVES OF INNOCENT CHILDREN. That is the sad bottom line. They are not the true religion anymore than I am Moses. To the jw's, the governing body, and all associated with it: "Goodbye and good riddance"

Dear Bill,

God Bless you as you seek to protect our helpless lambs. May God give you strength and wisdom and the courage of your convictions. The time has come for changes to be made in the policies of the Watchtower Society. Thank you for your loving concern. Fight the fine fight, brother...

am telling all i know to watch dateline to all those that said we should tolerate abusers cuz the bible says to "wait on jehovah"......
been waiting on something like this for years

if jw s get their lying, 'theocratic warfare' asses kicked....it might be enough to make some of us believe in jehovah again!

To the person who wrote:..................

You obviously have a problem with the JW's. Unfortunately children in ALL religious background have been harmed, not just JW's. Look at the courts in Australia, the Catholic religion has a few more problems don't you think? But soon all the wrong that men have done will be corrected. You really have a chip on your shoulder don't you? What you hate about child molesters is so true , they destroy lives, but just because a person calls himself a title, doesn't make the lot that way. Open up your eyes........................

The fact that child abuse doesn't ONLY happen in J/W circles makes it no less a problem within the organization.

Keeping something like sexual abuse a secret within an organization, fosters the behavior.

Of course, not every Jehovah's Witness is a child molester, but by systematically hiding the abuse that DOES happen, both from the people within the organization and from the outside world (like the law), you encourage abuse. The important part isn't that they are Jehovah's Witnesses, the important part is the covering up of out right crimes, especially if that is imbedded in the religion itself.
So maybe the Catholics have the same problem (it's by no means worse there than it is by Jehovah's Witnesses) but I wasn't a Catholic child, I was a Jehovah's Witness, and the person who abused me is still a servant within a Jehovah's Witness congregation even though he went to prison for what he did to me (he went to a different congregation).

You just never heard about me because that is exactly what elders etc. are instructed to do with things like abuse, hide it, preferably from the police etc. too.

As a side note, as far as I know other Catholic priests (that didn't molest children) don't tell victims NOT to go to the police...

You're right, not everyone within the "flock" of Jehovah's Witness would survive Armageddon, and I'd like to add to that that not everyone in the "world" would find themselves out of God's grace either for the very same reason.

I still believe in God, I actually had to take a really hard look at my beliefs and open my eyes to more than I realized I had them closed to, it's the organization of "Jehovah's Witnesses" I don't belong to.

That is because I feel the only "pure" church is the one inside ourselves, the same as I feel that saying a rosary is not what was meant by prayer, nor a confession in a confessional on sunday morning the same as actually asking God for forgiveness.

Sure saying a rosary can be a true and very much meant prayer, a confession on sunday morning to the preacher may actually help you be forgiven for mistakes you really do regret, and maybe you will find some measure of truth in a congregation but if you don't find this within yourself than the congregation, the rosary and the confession etc. aren't going to change that one bit. It all means nothing without finding that within yourself first and we could debate how much they actually add after you do find that within yourself..

For me, knowing organized religion has such potential for harm I prefer to not belong to any organized religion and yes, I let my own heart guide me.

All my life I've been taught that the heart is prone to sin. That I put myself in danger by following what it tells me.. but you know what, I's come to believe that it is my heart that protects me from doing harm other than the honest mistakes we all make (which is the very definition of sin no?).

Belief, just because it is so easy to explain away with reason, has everything to do with the heart.

That goes for Jehovah's Witness beliefs as well.

So often you hope to explain what you believe with scientific "proof" so maybe you can convince other people you really do have the "truth" and then when you really do open your eyes you find one by one that what you believed to be "the Truth" is actually not so absolute, or maybe even not that true, at all and it's easy to loose faith until you realize that not being able to prove what you believe is not a weakness, it just means that you should be more open minded towards what other people believe, especially if it's different from what you believe.

Open my eyes? I gladly do that, I'm sure I am still closed minded about some things.. but what about you opening your own?

reply to the person who asked: how do you know what people write here is true?

Good question, there may be a couple of people who just make up a bunch of crap but it's good to remember that all this isn't written by one single person.

I know what I say is true because I am sitting here behind my comp and I know what happened to me.

To "prove" to you sitting behind your own computer screen what happened to me, I'd have to give up not just my name, but also things like police reports etc.

Imagine being in my shoes, would you do that? This is very real and very VERY personal. I don't want to give personal stuff like that online, not just for me but also not because of my family, just like you don't know me, I have absolutely no idea who you are. Heaven knows there are plenty people online that I hope never get my name and address etc.

You have every right to doubt my story and everything that I say, it's a good thing to use your head when you read something, but I hope you're as critical towards other things you read/hear about etc as you are about what you read here.

To the person who is a Jehovah's Witness but feels abuse should be public.. Exactly. I can only speak for myself here but in itself it's not what you believe I have a problem with, it's the organization (and this particular policy). I am sure some people here are still hurting so much that it's hard to not reject the whole thing. For me things have mostly calmed down, I am not a Jehovah's Witness myself but I wanted to say "Thank you" all the same and I really do hope Jehovah's Witnesses will change for the better in this, aside from my personal convictions and beliefs. Thanks :)

To the person who wishes that the current JW's go somewhere else: hmm I prefer they do read this, and write if they like, because at least they are doing more than reading the watchtower and the awake. Who knows maybe what they read here makes a difference. You and I will probably never find out but if it does some good maybe someone can be spared the hurt we had to go through. These things take time. my best wishes to you

Hello:

I am so glad I found this site, even though it is so disturbing and painful. Remarkably, just last week I was talking to my ex husband about sexual abuse and child molestation and mentioned that I was certain it went on in all religions, and that Jehovah's Witnesses were no exception. And then I found this site. I never dreamed that this terrible scourge could be so wide spread and prevalent. I am horrified. I have my own history of sexual abuse, but it was not by a Witness. I am currently disfellowshipped. It is truly amazing that I am considered evil by the congregation and yet these men are permitted to remain part of the congregation in good standing.

Again, I am so so sorry these terrible things have happened to you beautiful, caring people.

It has been many years....but, if I still have, and can find the letter from the Society telling me to put my spouse above my children. I will send it to Silent lambs for publication on their web-site. It basically said that I owed more to my spouse than to my children, because I made a vow to my spouse, and should make no promises to my children. Wedding vows were to take precedence over looking out for my children's welfare. Perhaps by mentioning that, I've finally given enough information on this site for WT HQ profilers to finally figure out who I am .... but I no longer care. They will never have such control over my life again!

I used to attend the meetings as a JW in England, and a sister in Caterham Congregation (still attending) went to the Elders and told of the years of "sexual abuse" her father (a Min servant) subjected her to for years, He denied everything and was never reported to the police, and he and his wife moved to another congregation, where he still is a Min servant.I know of many others the same as this, its disgusting.

If all of these statements are true, then the organization certainly needs to be addressed as a whole on our Christian standards and the legal standards when it comes to these terrible issues. But those of you who are baptized brothers and sisters: "BE AWARE OF THAT YOU DO NOT FALL INTO APOSTASY!" The last days are upon us and we need to be careful that we do not contribute to a division between us and loose sight of our primary goal as ministers of Jehovah. These elders and violators should not be excused from there actions but we do need to remember that parents and responsible adults as well have a responsibility to report any offender to the secular authorities as needed this is not a decision that as elder or the society should make anyway. Just like you wouldn't hide a kidnapper, murder, or drugs from the authorities, so why would you keep quit about a child molester no matter what anyone said.

So the WTBTS says that the victims of these crimes are bringing reproach on the Society because of their actions (coming forward with the truth about child sexual abuse)???? Uh, no. The perpetrators and the officials of the Society have brought reproach on themselves by their callous actions. And what is this, to be on the Governing Body one needs a college degree? Jesus doesn't have a college degree. Neither, for that matter, does Jehovah.

I would say this is unbelievable beyond words, but it isn't. I believe everything I've read here. So now what do I do? I am asking that honestly. I don't know what to do. I don't want to be complicit, that's for sure.

I don't have a TV, so I can't watch the show tonight. But I have no doubt that I will read about it first thing tomorrow on many web sites.
your apologist site is a joke

the whistle blowers and this site are NOT claiming jws are the only ones with this problem AS YOU FALSELY CLAIM
.... that is a ludicrous red herring

this site...dateline....the silent lambs who are coming forth… are simply saying that JEHovah S WitnesseS Are AS CULPABLE AS THE CHURCHES THEY POINT FINGERS AT ...... in some ways WORSE ... because they use methods of punishing victims that have not been seen elsewhere ... their methods mirror those of the pedophiles

puh leze

it was news in the sixties ...it was news in the seventies ... it was common knowledge in the decades prior

the awake that first told me jw s were different was about 1970 ...quoting the news media about the catholic priests

your presenting lies about the reports of the same crimes amongst jw s and the subsequent cover up policy of the watchtower society ... they are not mere hyperbole to make your points ...they are a smear campaign against the innocents that are exposing the truth about "the truth"

To those witnesses that try to take a moderate attitude, those warning of apostasy: Does it ever bother you that ...

... you are in an organization that so separates itself that it covers up child abuse, and thereby encourages it?

... you are in an organization that has predicted the end of this system at least eight times, has obviously been wrong each time, and yet doesn't see that they are a false prophet?

... you are in an organization that ruthlessly separates families because of disparate religious beliefs?

... you are in an organization that takes the printed word of men in Brooklyn over the bible?

Does it ever bother you ... even a little?

I just read the comments (May 24) by the person who worked in a residential treatment center for children. I suffered the same things he/she wrote about which happened to the Jehovah's Witness children in their care. I was raped by the district servant in Southern California in 1960. I was held at gunpoint. He is involved in the ring of pedophiles who groom children for sex with the big names in the organization and elsewhere. Ritual abuse was involved, too.

Please do not add comments to the end of my post. Thank you.

I was a former Jehovah's Witness, and I left due to the fact that I was pressured at a young age to get baptized, and as I got older, I realized that this wasn't the path that should be dictated for my life. I'm watching Dateline NBC right now, and I'm so thankful that you and your organization is helping these people. I certainly don't wish any harm against the organization, but I'm glad that these issues were brought to light, and I wanted to express my moral support.

i just watched dateline. Bill-bless you for all you have done. I know this will cost you a lot in the long run( from your fellow jw's) and you have sacrificed so much already. I know that GOD has watched you in your endeavors to bring righteousness to an ungodly situation. He loves you, as many of us do. Thank you for being a true "brother" a lover of what is right and GODLY.... I have been "out " of jw land a long while, but have most all of my family still in. As a christian, i am taken with a grain of salt as it were, not shunned by my sisters, but treated as an outsider. Any comments i make are treated as an 'apostate" would be, so I am familiar with pain and shunning. I cannot love GOD( Jehovah) and my Bible understanding is nil because of of my NOT being a JW. ..This is what they think. Bill, keep fighting. We are behind you 100%. Hi I am 28 years old and am a Jehovah's Witness. I very upset with the possibility of this occurring in my organization. I feel strongly for witness who had to go through such a ordeal and DO NOT condone these practices if true. I feel that if these Elders are to blame they should be disfellowshipped right away!! But I do not turn from the whole of the organization for I know that even though there are faults and these are BIG FAULTS and should not be hidden, I also know the teachings are truth and to turn away from Jehovah because of the horrid dealings of a few is not right either. Jehovah will make sure those who have committed such crimes will be punished he would not stand by and allow it. Don't punish your faith because of these men. Because in the end the only one you will have to prove you loyalty to is Jehovah. I hope you all find peace and I support your decision to come forward.--Dnayel Theresa Kennedy

Hi, my name is Robbyn and I was a JW for many years and I was disfellowship in 1985 and have never returned.... I felt betrayed the gentleman that I was engaged to is still a witness, however I confessed in front of the elders of us have sex while engaged and he denied it..... I confessed in front of the elders and they disfellowshipped me and didn't disfellowship him... HE LIED...

I have been bitter and hurt ever sense and I have gone through a lot in my life since that day..

Now i can say that I am in recovery 10yrs clean, married to a wonderful man and have children...

I am so glad that I watched Dateline tonight and that young woman that was on I am so glad that she got the justice she deserved so she can put closure on that tragedy in her life.... I would love to communicate with her. I could identify with some of her feelings... God had me watch Dateline for a reason and I am glad I did.

Your doing a wonderful job and I am an advocate for Child abuse in all forms.....

It sad to hear and see such but the bible declares in the last days they will turn from the truth, and the spirit speaks they will depart from the faith giving heed to seducing spirits and the doctrines of devils 1 tim 4:1. We also must realize what the bible says will and must be fulfilled yet be not discouragement for God is not slack concerning his WORD.

1 SAMUEL 3:12-14 GIVES US ACCOUNT THAT GOD WILL JUDGE THE ELDERS "IN THAT DAY I WILL PERFORM AGAINST ELI ALL THINGS WHICH I HAVE SPOKEN CONCERNING HIS HOUSE: WHI I BEGIN, I WILL ALSO MAKE END. FOR I HAVE TOLD HIM THAT I WILL JUDGE HIS HOUSE( THE CHURCH)EVER FOR THE INIQUITY WHICH HE KNOWETH; BECAUSE HIS SONS (THE MINISTERS) MADE THEMSELVES VILE, AND HE RESTRAINED (DID NOTHING) THEM NOT. AMD THEREFORE I HAVE SWORN UNTO THE HOUSE OF ELI, THAT THE INIQUITY OF ELI'S HOUSE SHALL NOT BE PURGE WITH SCRIFICE NOR OFFERING FOREVER. THIS IS NOT SACRIFICE FOR SIN OF COMMISSION (HEB 10:26). I just saw the Dateline report all I can saw is Amen. Time will not allow for me to tell of every abuse I know done to me and friends, only to have the victim punished and the abuser repented. I know of a man that abused his own daughter for 14 years and the elders knew and chose to blame the wife for not pleasing her husband causing him to go after his own child. Only when the daughter went to therapy for something else did it come out and the police were called by the therapist. What happened? Well he was reproved and she was shunned. He got to stay in his house, she was forced to leave. But would any of her brothers and sisters take her in, no and the one who did was counseled against it, but I let her stay.
To those of you who think you are alone, you aren't. I was a pioneer, wife of a ministerial servant (who cheated on me all of our marriage with the elders' knowledge), and I was shunned, so you are in good company.

Finding this website and watching the piece on Dateline NBC (May 28, 2002) sent shivers up my spine. You see, someone close to me was abused by JW's for what seems like all her life. First by her father physically, and sexually, then by a husband mentally (both men have been elders in their local kingdom halls). Her father's abuse went unnoticed for years and was often masked as strict discipline. Threats of disfellowship kept her quiet many years after. Unknowing of normal male adult behavior, she married an all too similar character of a husband. A dominating JW man who kept her down with cruel mental and one count of physical abuse. After having enough, she went to church elders who told her to give him more and more chances. Still, threats of disfellowship and years of brainwashing keeping her down, she continued to keep the marriage/abuse going only if only for her daughter and Jehovah. As a woman she was emotionally dead. At the end of her rope, she knelt, crying on the bathroom floor, contemplating suicide. Miraculously, she chose life over the church and resigned from the witnesses, sought mental therapy, divorced her husband, and carried on with her life. She is now an outcast in the eyes of her former friends and "jailers". Her father now shuns her and acts as the disappointed one, and her husband only speaks to her on matters regarding the children. However, she has never felt more free.

As a sister, I write you this not to bash the church. I write to show the power, the protection, and the hypocrisy that the church is harboring. I'm concerned about the present but mostly the future, our women and children...we should all be concerned.

Thank you for having Dateline do the story. It was very enlightening. It makes me ill to know that this kind of misconduct is going on. I myself am not a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses. I must say though that my heart and prayers go out to the young women that have suffered. I am also appalled after hearing the ones who spoke to Dateline are being disfellowshipped. That is absolutely ridiculous. Thank you again for exposing this problem to the world.

Hi I watched the Dateline special tonight 05/28/02. While I have not suffered sexual abuse in the manner described I and my wife have been shunned by members of the congregation when I decided to develop a free mind and use it. The societies teachings have fostered a no negative tolerance level in many aspects. I expect the society will be exposed for many unscriptural practices which its inner order at Bethel is involved in. Misappropriation of funds, involvement with the U.N., subliminal art, false prophecies, connection and involvement with other inner orders, sexual handlers etc. Thank you Victoria Joy tiggereyes@hotmail.com It is such a relief to know that I am not the only one that was silenced. That their was nothing wrong with me or with the memory of the horrifying events that led me to become an unbeliever. That however their was something wrong with the abuser and with the system that kept this a secret. Knowing that I am not the only one and that I can be heard, well that helps a great deal. Thank you for stepping up to the plate and putting yourself out on the line for us. This for me is a huge relief. Thank you I was a battered lamb, battered by my own father. It is a pity that the organization kept all this under wrap because if they hadn't me and my father would of gotten the help that we needed, and maybe know we would be in speaking terms. I am so glad that a forum like this exists. Thank you Bill and thank you all that are coming forward with your stories. We will always have each other for support.

Hello I am In Va and have JW as family. I am not getting into the religious part of it myself to agree or disagree but in my eyes being abused or battered is not Gods will and he would not want people to hide the facts. The people should come forward and tell the police or a lawyer or someone but I truly feel then things will be taken care of these people are walking around hurt and never can heal if there is not something done to the abuser or attacker. People comment that the JW way is right but they are usually not the ones the abuse or battering was struck upon. I hate for anyone to be hurt and I feel that people should pay for what they do. I myself have been in JW before but it was not for me and I could not agree with them and because I am female and was head strong they don't get along with me anyway. I praise any and all of the victims that have stepped forward and I hope more do step forward. God does not want people hiding these facts. SOrry if i seem confusing I do babble like that but i wanted to express my opinion and i felt this was the place to write it....Thank you for reading it...PJ from VA (email addy every1luvspj73)

My father was Presiding Overseer of our local congregation and happened to be in on a judicial meeting with a local pedophile who confessed to molesting children many years ago. This man was not only involved in incestuous relationships with his own children, but also over the course of some years with molesting children not related to him. I grew up in the congregation with this pedophile who was never known to be a "strong" christian. He would attend congregation meetings well at times then slack off in attendance at other times. Within the last 3 years some of this pedophile's victims (now young adults) brought charges against him to the authorities and a court case ensued. During this period the pedophile campaigned and was able to get my father (then Presiding Overseer of our congregation) removed as an elder because my father would not support or promote this pedophile...instead my father was attempting to protect our congregation and our children from the influence of this self-confessed child molester. This pedophile garnered favor with the majority of elders, the Circuit Overseer of the time, and a large array of JW's in the region who fiercely backed him as a "persecuted" christian!!!! It was totally appalling and unbelievable to me. My father a good, moral man who would never do anything to hurt a child was written off as an "unloving, unforgiving, bad" person while this child molester became Ministerial Servant and his popularity within the organization grew and grew! (During the trial preparation he was asked to "resign" as Ministerial Servant.) As the court proceedings progressed JW's (including elder's from my congregation) went to support this child molester, testifying on his behalf! This pedophile finally pled guilty to the charges against him and was sentenced to prison time. I thought perhaps this would wake some of these gullible ones from their coma but instead their support persisted throughout his prison experience! This pedophile had made passes at me as a child. Thanks to my protective parents I was never harmed by this child molester. How many other unsuspecting children were molested? I don't know. What I do know is that some JW's think that simply being a baptized JW means you are a "good" person who would never commit such a heinous crime. They unfortunately disregard the fact that being a JW does not make us perfect persons in a perfect society free from the effects of sin and personal weaknesses. This is NOT a JW teaching, in fact the bible teaches us the opposite, but instead the belief of some low intelligence members. How sad for their children! How sad to be so naive and thus be open bait for criminals like child molesters. Criminals are often charming.....just like the pedophile I mentioned. He is obviously charming (charming could also be defined as "clever liar" which is what this particular man is) or would not have been able to gather his large army of supporters within the JW organization. I am still a JW and I fully believe the Bible but I also believe that Jehovah granted us a precious gift, our BRAIN!!!! I do believe that the imperfect elders in our organization in most instances have tried to do their best before Jehovah (my father as a prime example... his only "crime" is doing Jehovah's will and protecting his congregation from harm) and in the interests of the perpetrator, victims, and the congregation with Bible counsel as their guide. It is my hope, however, that JW's will open their eyes to the TRUTH that all imperfect JW's are not "good" people. Some, in fact, are pedophiles. Guard and protect your children. Educate your children. In due time Jehovah will fix all the injuries of the victims and provide a world where none of us have to fear for our children's safety. Until then it is OUR responsibility as parents to safeguard our children. May Jehovah continue to bless your efforts to do that and may he grant you peace to cope if you have had the misfortune of having this terrible crime touch your life.

I saw you on Dateline tonight and can identify even though I never went to the elders at the Kingdom Hall I attended about any abuse they lied to me and disfellowshipped me after saying they wouldn't because I married a "Worldly Man"...the ridicule and disgust I received from the elders and the members there still live with me to this day!

Hi again, Dateline was excellent!!!! It takes such courage to stand up for "Truth".
The only thing that the organization is tough on is victims of sexual abuse. This show I believe is just a window into what is happening all over the country...

My daughter at first refused to watch it,"about Jehovah's Witnesses forget it" but came in part way though and just froze in place said "I will have to watch it later" as I was taping it.

She has just told her boyfriend she was raped and just told me she was also...

Thank you for showing the world what is REALLY happening! DJB

I am not, nor have I ever been JW. I am a Christian, and a child advocate. I saw Dateline tonight and have been browsing your site and reading the posts here. God Bless you, silentlambs, and may all who seek justice and closure be rewarded.

I PULLED UP THIS WEB SIT, BECAUSE I SEEN DATELINE ABOUT THE YOUNG GIRL THAT WAS RAPED. I THINK YOU NEED TO LOOK INTO A SITUATION 2YRS BACK. A BROTHER BY THE NAME OF BRENT GALLATA HAD SEX WITH TWO MINOR GIRLS IN THE HALL, AT THE TIME THE GIRLS WERE 15 & 16. THE BROTHERS THAT WERE HANDLING THIS SITUATION WERE RONALD MENZIER SR. & PRESLY MIDDLETON. I THINK, I KNOW FOR SURE RONALD WAS IN CHARGE OF THE MATTER. ANYWAY BRENT WAS DISFELLOWSHIPPED AND SO WAS ONE OF THE GIRLS (MOSELL IBARANDO) THE OTHER GIRL (JODI BINDER) WAS NOT BAPTIZED. FROM WHAT I UNDERSTAND FROM MOSELL, BROTHER MEINZER TOLD HERE TO KEEP IT QUIET NO NEED TO GET POLICE INVOLED & SHE SHOULD NOT HAVE BE ALONE WITH THAT BROTHER ANYONE SO IT'S YOUR FAULT IT HAPPEN, BRENT I KNOW FOR A FACT WAS AT LEAST 25+ AT THE TIME. SO AS ALWAYS WHEN THE ELDERS DO NOT DO WHAT THEY'RE SUPPOSED TO DO & PROTECT THE YOUNG GIRLS, ONCE "AGAIN" NEITHER OF THE GIRLS GO TO HALL OR THERE FAMILYS. AND WE ARE TALKING ABOUT GOOD FAMILYS THAT HAVE BEEN SERVING JEHOVAH FOR 15+ YRS EACH, AND WE LOST THEM BECAUSE AN ELDERS TOOK MATTERS IN HIS OWN HAND & JEHOVAH'S. AND BECAUSE OF THAT BOTH FAMILYS STOP SERVING THAT A TOTAL OF 13+ MEMBERS. THATS NOT RIGHT-!!! BUT WHEN YOU TALK OR ASKED BROTHER ROANLD HE SAYS WELL I GUESS THEY WERE NOT TRUE WITNESS. HE KNOW HE SHOULD NOT BE HURTING JEHOVAH'S SHEEP LIKE THAT. PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS ONE OF THOSE "GOOD OLD BOY" . I FEEL THIS HALL IS FALLING BY THE WAYSIDE, BECAUSE THESE ELDERS DO & SAY WHAT THEY WANT WHEN THEY WANT. WE HAVE LOST SO MANY GOOD FAMILY OVER THE YEARS, SOME STOP GOING OR MOVED TO ANOTHER HALL BECAUSE THEY KNEW THAT HALLS ARE NOT RUN LIKE THIS. THE HALL IN QUESTION IS BRISTOL CONG. OF BRISTOL PA, 19007 ROANLD IS THE PO OF THE HALL, BE CAREFULL -!!!!! I CANNOT GIVE MY INFO, BECAUSE I DO WANT NOTHING BAD TO HAPPEN TO ME IN THE HALL, BELIEVE ME IT WILL. PS. AT ONE POINT IN MY LIFE YOU COULD NOT GET TO GO TO ANTHOR HALL WHEN JACK KASNER WAS PO, BUT NOW ITS NOT THE SAME-!!!!

WITH TEARS & CHRISTIAN LOVE....please help-!!!!!
I just saw the dateline special, I don't even have words to explain how I felt. I am thirty-six and was raised in the truth until I was disfellowshipped in 1991. I was molested by my father from age 10 to 18 and then I married to get out of the house. To make a very long story short I could relate to the girl in the story except it was my father. I had no idea that there were others in the truth that had lost everything and every way of life that we had ever known. To top it all off we didn't do anything. I don't think that is what God had intended the congregation to be like. Thank You for the TV story. Sincerely,

Mrs. Lonnie Newbraugh dnlzoo@aol.com

I would like some info on your organization. What is your religious connection and who is the founder of this site. Are you know or have ever been one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

I was raised from childhood as a witness. My mother was Catholic and my father Lutheran. We started to attend meetings when I was four. As I was an only child, I did what my parents wanted. I lived at home until 21 and then moved away. When I moved back and pioneered for 2 years, I was in good standing. I had always been some ashamed of being a witness and wanted to be "normal" like all the other kids in school. As I became older, and my friends were marrying and having children. My parents were very strict with me and they kept me from dating even witnesses. I am now 53 and have no children. I have been married twice, my first husband died ten years ago, and my current husband has a brother who was also a witness for a while. His wife and two daughters left him and all three married out of their race witnesses. Back to my story. After 911 events this year I was at my mother's eating lunch. She is 80 and not in the best of health. I stop for lunch from work to check on her. She asked me one day if I would ever consider coming back to be a witness. (A real sore subject between us) I told her no, and she told me not to come to visit her anymore. I tried to reason with her that she could believe as she wanted to, but I had the right to as an adult to my own views and life. She has stuck to this no visiting pretty much. It occurred to me that witnesses preaching about armageddon is just like the religious groups that advocate death to all who are not of their beliefs. I truly believe that this theory should be aired in public. They think that the only perfect world will be when all people who are not witnesses are dead. I do not want to hurt my mother. Please think about publishing info on this subject. Witnesses think that anyone that is supporting the country is bad, but do they realize how horrible it sounds to kill all the people in the world who are not witnesses. I have a lot more issues, but I may write more later it is just good to know that some are realizing how much mind control there is involved in this sect. I will just sign - a happy former witness. my email is mikedonna@wccta.net
It's high time this problem has been brought to light! I pray for the victims as well as for the blind, trusting members who are kept in total ignorance simply doing as they are told, never thinking for themselves or even daring to question anything they feel may not be right. I myself was born a Jehovah's Witness, my father more dedicated than words can ever say. I dared to divorce my husband, who was drinking, abusive and fornicating with other women. His father was a congregation elder, in the days when there was really only one "Head" elder, and his uncle was a full-time minister working at the Bethel in Georgetown Ontario. (very respectable). Eventually my husband was disfellowshipped but instead of my ordeal being over, it just began. I was followed, watched, accused of anything and everything, you don't leave the son of an overseer and come away un-scathed! The one minister who actually seemed to want to help me, began to stalk me in a sexual way. Everywhere I went, he was there, he got into my apt. building at all hours begging me to run away with him, many times I had a wrestling match with him begging him to leave me alone. He was a close friend of my ex-father-in-law and also an elder! Finally, quite by accident I found another separated woman, (single mom), who was also being stalked by this elder and told me that she was by far not the only one! Months later I was approached by a group of elders who asked me if I knew anything about elder "X" and if he was bothering me in any way. I bit my tongue, but eventually I cleared my conscience and told them of my dilemma. What a mistake! I was accused of seducing him, luring this man who was more than 20 years older than me and had 6 children some older than me, into "wanting" me... "having me"... "running off with me", I was disgusted!!! I was harassed over the phone, even my 1 year old daughter's safety was threatened. I had really had enough! I did call the police, but had no proof, called Bell Telephone, had my number changed to private 3 times, didn't stop them. To my surprise 12 other women finally came forward with complaints against elder "X". Finally I was left alone. Really alone. My dear father hated what was being done to me, but pleaded with me not to loose faith, Jehovah would right things. It would have killed my father if I stopped attending meetings, they would have won. They couldn't disfellowship me... they had nothing. My faith in the organization was crushed, I had no more respect for them. I stopped giving talks, and stopped the ministry work, for the most part I only went to Sunday meetings, conventions and Memorial. Years later, my father, for all of his faith was kept "down" as far as praying at meetings, giving talks, reading at Watchtower meetings, later even going out in service. They looked at him as old and feeble minded, because he challenged them when elders would make statements that were Biblically incorrect. For all of his faith, hard work, building Kingdom Halls, etc., and many monitory donations, they accused him at the age of 84 of coming "on" to a pioneer in her 30's. If you knew my Dad, you would have known that this was simply not possible, not even from a physical point of view. He would not really discuss much with me, since they did tell him to keep this confidential, but after receiving a phone call one evening DEMANDING him to come to the Kingdom Hall immediately! He became so wound up that later that nigh he had a severe stoke that totally disabled him. They had no proof that he ever did anything to this woman other than very normal, kind acts, the same he would show any sister in the congregation. He denied everything, but instead of believing him they believed a girl who suffered from delusions, her twin sister had more than one mental breakdown, her two brothers had emotional problems as well! At this point I really didn't care anymore about the organization, I told the elder involved what I thought of him and his henchmen, and never looked back. My father is 90 now and living (if you can call it that) in a home. No one really comes to see him that I know of, but his faith in God is still strong, and I pray nightly that Jehovah protect him, keep him pain free, and let him die mercifully, peacefully. A lot of my life was wasted, because of the organization, but that's another story, ones got to wonder just how many more people are out there with similar or worse tales. Child abuse... women alone, vulnerable, not being able to re-marry if they are divorced, taking the elders advice always looking up to them, wide open to the predator! Too bad a few will ruin it for the whole! I do think that thousands of believers are good and decent people, only wanting to find solace and security in the Bible, it's teachings and ultimately have a relationship with God. It's really sad, but after more than 20 years I've finally vented... Thank you for that... Keep up the good work... God bless you! Edith errlaid@sympatico.ca

I'm sure the jw's have heard this said before. but this religion is a cult. i am not here to bash; that would get me nowhere. any religion that changes the HOLEY BIBLE is considered a cult. they have disregarded Galatians 1:6-9, which states that if a different gospel is ever preached (new world translation), then who ever is preaching it shall be accursed. mormons do the same thing instead of going to each door and handing out tracts written by some guy, work on the love that is missing within the church, then once you have love, together look at what your church is teaching others. you will see what i mean by labeling you as a cult. i believe that God has taken this awesome step to allow a bad name to be put on the jw's (thanks Dateline). he wants his people back from satan's power. please consider what i have said. I will pray for the jw's, and the silent lambs. in Christian love, steven

I am from Canada I moved to the states when I married my husband. While in Canada I was harassed by a male cong/member sexually. He was drunk and called thru out the night. I told the elders but they did nothing. This same man was accused of molesting his own child. The cong wrongfully lent him their support. He wasn't disfellowshipped for this terrible act. I hope this cult is exposed!

wonderful show on dateline, now someone should check into all the property watchtower is acquiring in New York, near the farm, they recently purchased a huge farm tax free, turned around and sold it to a developer for millions plus, made a profit, and had several multi-million dollar homes built for the higher ups in brooklyn. They expanded their orchards and are selling the food for a profit. What? I don't understand what is going on here either. Keep up the good work.

I doubt if my husband would want this info to become public, but after watching Dateline tonight (5/28/02), I had to say something. When we married, my husband was a Bethelite of 5 years. When he first went to Bethel, during his first year at age 19, he was approached by an older "brother" who wanted to have sexual encounters with him. Of course, my husband, being 19 at the time, was extremely offended and embarrassed, and didn't say anything to anyone at the time, but to even think this could happen, is so repulsive. I can only imagine how much is going on “behind closed doors.” We disassociated ourselves from the organization in May of 1991 due to doctrinal differences, and have no regrets. It has been a very difficult journey over the past ten years trying to “fit in” with normal society, but we have adapted. We feel for, and pray for anyone who has gone through such horrible things in the JW organization. We're glad to be free!

Ok and you know all this information from?????? Clearly the person that is playing the "victim" is just a person who wants attention. Look at the catholic church. They're full of crap. They're hypocrites because the ministers have even molested children. You cannot make comments without the facts. At least Jehovah's Witnesses are decent and humble people unlike you bastards who have nothing to do but to critize religions that you don't even know deeply. Look at yourself first.

This is really interesting but not surprising. I recall when I was about 10-11 years old a classmates oldest sister was pregnant by her father. They were Witnesses’. They use to tell people she had a stomach virus. This was in the 1970’s.

Your are so correct in getting and offering people help when dealing with this type of mistrust.

I also remember a teen ager being disfellowshipped because she was raped. That was double trauma for her. Her friends not speaking to her and being raped.

You are doing the right thing. Exposing the wrong and getting people help.

Many years ago, I was a witness. I watched the dateline program tonight, then found your website. I just read some of the experiences others have had. I am so filled up right now! With gratitude to find that these horrible things are being brought out to the light, and with painful memories of similar experiences that I had. At a later time, I will tell my story on your site and I am so thankful that there is a forum for us now!
Let me see what the Watchtower has done for me: 1. Broke up my marriage 2. Spouse did not talk to my mother. Lost her chance when she died. 3. Never had the family together in one picture. (Someone was always in bad standing) 4. Broke up with good friendships with people who cared more about me than the "conditional friends"

I have read many of these stories and find them VERY sad and dis-heartening. I have been inactive for 5 years and recently elders have been stopping by. I was the victim of abuse not at the hands of a witness, but this makes me very frightened for my three daughters. They always say they don't want to go back to the hall (they remember going) they say life was horrible and I was mean and hit them a lot. I now realize that was true. A.L. 5leslies@bellsouth.net

LOVE YOU SILENT LAMBS KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK LOVE YOU LOVE YOU LOVE YOU AND GOD BLESS!
I was a Jehovah’s Witness for several years. I was a teenager in high school who had a crush on an older guy that was a JW. He wasn't able to date me because I was “worldly”. So he convinced me to start a bible study with a sister in his congregation. I did this because I was 16 and very vulnerable and had strong feelings for him. At that time I would have done anything to win his affections. Over a period of about 2 years I studied with the JW's, attended meetings and participated in the witness work. My mother was a Christian but never forced us to go to church growing up, nor did she go. It was easy for me to fall in to believing all of the wonderful things the JW's told me, about everlasting life and what the future would hold for me as a witness. My family did try to stop me from becoming a JW, but eventually they realized that I wasn't going to give up. I was baptized after 2 years of studying, and secretly dating the guy we'll call him "K". At that point it was ok for us to slowly start dating publicly. Because now I was a "sister" part of the congregation. "K" and I got married when I was 18, fresh out of school and very naive. He didn't want me to go to college, because in the "new system" college would be of no benefit to me. I think that deep down, he was also scared that I would see the light and realize what a mistake I had made. We were married for about a year and the problems started. He was controlling, he was the man, the head of the house, and I had no say in anything. I couldn't do anything with out his permission, but he could come and go as he pleased. I started to see things in our congregation that were not handled the way they should have been. I had never really believed in my heart that this was the truth, but I guess when everyone around you tells you that you just go with it. We were fighting all the time, my attendance to the meetings slowed down. Mostly because of all the hypocrisy I saw around me. They preached about how the JWs are different because they are Jehovah's people. I found they were no different. I just found that they hid it a little better. After 1 1/2 years of marriage and living in a small town, we decided to move to the city to experience more in life. We joined the new congregation thinking it would be refreshing and it was for a while, but eventually I saw the hypocrisy there too. Mostly because of all the hypocrisy I saw around me. They preached about how the JW organization, you are not allowed to have your own thoughts; they tell you what you should think. They get into your married sex life, they tell you how to do it or how not to do it. I told him some things had to change for our marriage to work, and even suggested marriage counseling. He refused to go. After several months of me trying and him being the same overbearing husband, I left him. It was very hard, but I had completely fallen out of love with this man. He was not the sweet person I once knew, he was a controlling, verbally abusive man, who didn't want me to be anything but his slave. When I left him I left with nothing. I think I had $100 to my name. My family wound up helping me get on my feet, they were a blessing from God. During our split and divorce, I got to see what a dirty player he really was. He wouldn't agree to split our belongings that we had acquired during our marriage, such as furniture. His parents own a furniture store and had given us most everything in our apartment. He told me if I took him to court and got a lawyer that his parents (who are JW's) and he would make up fake invoices that were not paid for the furniture and I would have to pay. At the time, I just wanted out. Oh did I forget to mention the vasectomy that he had before we were married. He did this because he didn't want to have kids in the world we live in now, but the in the "new system" he wanted children, and that Jehovah would restore his ability to have them at that time. During our divorce he told me one day that if he got remarried he would have the vasectomy reversed so he could have children. That was just a dagger in my heart. He really showed me his so called Christian ways. I am so happy know that I have left that organization, cult, sect, whatever you want to call it. Don't get me wrong, I do think there are a lot of good witnesses out there who truly do want to teach God's word. But don't for one second think this religion is different than any other, they are not.

I have since remarried, to a wonderful man. I think God definitely sent him to me, or me to him. We were married 8 months ago. I am rebuilding my life after all I went through at such a young age. I learned many things from my experience, but the most important is that you shouldn't have to change for someone to love you. If they don't love you for who you are, then it's not you they really love.

Tonight I saw the Dateline NBC story about child molestation. I just want to commend you all for coming out about it. I think you are very strong admirable people to confront an organization that has covered up this horrible crime for so long. I pray for you all and hope that you have found peace in your life and hopefully still want to serve God.

Even though I was not molested, I still feel that I have something in common with you all. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Good luck to you all. SP

To 22:42:18 Nice of the brothers to tell you that. Maybe you will remember those words when the same Elder cuts up the Local Priest. I doubt it though. Hypocrites you are full of lies and slander. What you don't know or understand you make out to be demeaning. Shame on you. You have so much untruthfully information. And you twist what people say. Name is not necessary and neither is your sick twisted thoughts. The bible says everything is open and naked to the eye of God and nothing you say or do as well as any other person, does not go unseen by Jehovah God. Jehovah see's all good and bad things. No one can hide. Those who are speaking lies and untruth will not go unpunished from bringing slander on Jehovah's name. Jehovah will handle all matters real soon.

I am currently studying with the Witness'. I found your story interesting and informative. I wholeheartedly agree with your concerns about the children. I hope the Brothers get the message and make the changes it needs to make to protect the children. However, I have been associated with a number of religions and I must say that the teachings of the Jehovah's Witness' have by far been more effective in developing my spiritual awareness and discernment. With that said....."Let the truth be heard"....It can only help!

" Ok and you know all this information from?????? Clearly the person that is playing the "victim" is just a person who wants attention. Look at the catholic church. They're full of crap. They're hypocrites because the ministers have even molested children. You cannot make comments without the facts. At least Jehovah's Witnesses are decent and humble people unlike you bastards who have nothing to do but to criticize religions that you don't even know deeply. Look at youself first."
Hmmmm nice "Christian" attitude, isn't it? The owner of this site is not claiming that "All" JW are evil human beings. It's the policy that needs changing. Without this change more jw children will fall victim to molestation. My child was one of those who was molested, but you don't see me calling JW's Bs do you?

The Society was created and established by the Scottish Right. Take note of these things: Millennial Dawn Charles Russell compare to Alister Crowley's Golden Dawn,a sexually abusive monster The true definition for the name Jehovah is in direct relation not to a god/God but rather the 4 directions,North,South,East and West. The Hebrew spelling & name YA WEH/Jehovah/Tetragrammaton is used in Tetragrammaton Black Magic calling the 4 directions to the circle,and in Enochian Magic. Pyramids & Prophets? In addition, Sexual handlers are prevalent in Organized groups, aside sexual abusers. The question is why does the society choose not to acknowledge outside involvement? Its all about image! The scriptures are used time & again by these theocratic spinners as an excuse to shut off the outside world and create a monitored control environment which stretches into all aspects of a brother or sisters life(member), mentally, spiritually, emotionally and so forth. This is a tactical form of mind control often exhibited & used by the illuminati. Sexual handlers usually maintain a close relationship with there victims and monitor them often. Sexual handlers are individuals which work as gatherers for inner orders which operate within control conscious organizations, we cannot rule out this action within the society. While most of these abusers are doing it for selfish gain and as a crime of dominance. The question remains. Why does the society maintain such strict control over judicial action administered to these types of people? Organizations such as this often maintain judicial control over such actions so as to conceal even deeper handler issues. If a handler is accused the judicial committee can halt further progress in his/her exposure. Handlers differ from the typical abuser in that the handler calls the flock,gathering an individual & then beating down their spirit with abuse/ritual abuse/sex slaves and the occult. While many of us when witnesses would not agree with this it does open up the possibilities. The allegations of sub art starting back in the 70's was immediately suppressed. Search thru original hard copies not bound volumes of all society literature with images. Use a magnifying lens look for skull & bones images clearly printed as well as others. The unofficial excuse I heard from a circuit overseer was that the artist were performing dark magic & were expelled. While this seemed more like silly talk the art was visibly clear. It maybe something deeper than that. When an organization pounds & pummels the human psyche into subjection and then punishes its members when they question teachings, principles and policies this should immediately send up a red flag. What benefit does this offer? If some cases prove to be handler associated then the society can coverup its connection to the Scottish right & the illuminati by administering justice isolated from the legal justice system. If such an Unholy unity were to exist and it was exposed it would explain why the society chooses to prefer to administer its own justice, and why the society has made so many blunders in the past in its policies,false prophecies, and unholy unity with the U.N. among other things. This organization oppresses many of its followers without them even knowing it. You become a prisoner of your own mind! For shame all you fools who continue to live a lie associated with such an organization! My heart goes out to all of those sexually abused victims. I feel sorry for all of those who have chosen to remain members of the LIE and have failed to truly AWAKE N ! I hope that all of those who have been abused sue the society. It is a BILLION DOLLAR INDUSTRY A YEAR !!! They have lots of MONEY as none of that goes to maintenance of individual Kingdom Halls or Assembly Halls. You Brothers know that the society will make loans, but signs off from all obligations and responsibilities connected to all Halls. A lot of donations are given yearly & the individual congregations must care for there own utilities & such aside from contributions made for literature, expenses and such at Bethel. There are only approx 3500 employees or slaves as I call them working for crumbs which fall from the table. Not to mention land donations given to the society which they sell for additional monies. So where does all of this money go? You do the math, get out there & check for yourself (on line). Foreign congregations in France have to pay there own taxes, the society does not pay for this themselves(brooklyn bethel co). Is this a bank or a religion? Missionaries don't cost a whole hell of a lot to bring home with there meager possessions. So where is it all going. Well they MAY tell you they are saving it for when the Sovereign Nation of America decides its no longer a Nonprofit organization & charges them taxes. It has been alleged that it is a money laundering system for the illuminati? Who knows. But it is food for thought. bye for now.
I can't believe after leaving JWs 4 years ago and struggling with all the confusion, wondering where to turn...that here you are.

I am a victim/court advocate and have been working with victims of domestic violence, child abuse and sexual assault for the past 5 years. I am also a former victim of domestic violence who was not told that it was okay to leave the marriage. Instead it was reinforced that Jehovah hates a divorcing and that the only grounds was for adultery.

I wish that I knew there was help out there for people like me...thank you for providing help to victims and please let me know if I can be of any help. Kathy Jacoby (formerly Atkins) katjacoby@yahoo.com

It's one-sided you have lost focus...if all is true let Jehovah do the judging. You are not turning on the Organization...it's Jehovah holy spirit you have turned against. Your dedication was made to Jehovah not to men or an Organization.

i admire everyone here so much. i am such a coward that i cannot come forward with my story. i hate myself for it but i just cant. you all are much stronger than i will ever be.

I watched Prime Time on May 28 and was very interested in the topic. I too have a history of sexual abuse, although not to the extreme as this girl on the program. I was exposed to sexuality I guess you could say when I was about 5 years old by my grandfather who also was supposedly one of the "Anointed" of Jehovah's Witnesses. I was very cautious when around my grandfather because I was afraid of his behavior. I have suffered mental breakdowns and have had a difficult time all through my life. I can't attribute all my problems to his behavior, but I'm sure he affected me to some degree. I forgive him, but am very sorry I had to witness his behavior at such a young age. I was not yet old enough to be exposed to such behavior, never mind by a trusted relative. It was very confusing and caused me great harm. I guess I didn't have enough faith in the organization to carry me through to the end, but I was with them... for about 30 years. I finally left after my last breakdown. I am not signing my name because I don't feel I could deal with going public.

I don't give a crap about your theology or doctrine. You live in your own box, but that box resides in MY world.

If you want to stand up for your organization and it's policy of handling internal problems, then you also ACCEPT the accountability.

This isn't about "oh Gee, everyone makes mistakes" bullshit. This about the law of the world you live in. If someone is a pedophile, then the community should be made aware of it. Even the ones who reside in the box of the Watchtower Society.

Remember: We the community DON'T ask you to come to our doors. You barge right in to our privacy as you see fit. If there is a pedophile knocking at MY door, you bet your ass I want to know about it. But since your system of handling things pretty much adds up to "covering it up", the community has a RIGHT to know who is knocking at our door.

"People make mistakes" my ass. If they make a mistake that breaks the law, then they should be held accountable for their actions.

You Jehovah Witnesses don't live by yourselves in this world, the rest of us reside in it too. So if you fuck up, then take responsibility for your actions and quit your bitching.

I watched the Dateline segment and was very intrigued because my cousin is a Witness. I, on the other hand, am not. But I believe that any society that is that closed is just looking for trouble of one sort or another. So, it looks like the Catholic Priests have a little company on their way to hell.

I have this to say for all those that think what the society teaches is truth. What do you judge that by? Do you use Society literature to do your research only? What is the Society afraid of? If it is the truth then why do they reject your use of secular literature to prove otherwise? If it was the truth there would need to worry about losing paying members. The real truth is its a lie. They are afraid of you going out and growing a mind!

To any brothers reading this:

Do not fight Jehovah by keeping any sins of the Organization secret. The organization is not perfect and imperfect men may want to keep their sins covered over.

Bring the sins into the light, and maybe Jehovah’s blessing may return.

Its time to be like Daniel and stand firm.

Christian Greetings, greg osbourne

It is very saddening to me, to see that the devil is also using you to slow down the sacrificing work that the Jehovah Witnesses are doing all over the world to spread the good word. I am not a JW, but I am happily married to one. They are good people, but just humans like everybody, but in my eyes they are the closest to what a perfect human being should be. Unfortunately the devil can use the media, and people like you, deservedly called apostate, to discredit these people of God. I am not saying they don't make mistakes, they do, and they are like everybody else, humans, but try to be better than anybody else. In this congregation there were two cases of suspicious child abuse, the elders were told, and they were put in jail. I don't know if they are still, but it was not overlooked by the organization. I know they are very strict with any wrong doings in the organization, and they keep it very clean in following the teachings of the Bible as close as possible. Apostates as the name itself indicates, become unfaithful to his previous beliefs, but as a traitor he or she dedicate themselves to work against their previous belief without any concrete reason or goal, a good allied of the devil. As I said before, I am not a JW unfortunately, I am still too busy working and I am not humble enough yet to enter this wonderful organization of wonderful people. I wish you people well, I do hope that your purpose is to help abused people, specially children, regardless of religious beliefs, and not just pinpoint to the Jehovah's Witnesses Organization, since they are probably the cleanest and have more principles than any other religious organization. Jehovah Witnesses don't go around and bring out all the crimes and awful things people of other religions do everyday, and in larger scale than will ever happen or ever had happen in this Organization dedicated to spread God's word to the entire world. May Jehovah God have mercy on you if you try to damage his true organization of true believers of the bible, but still just human beings who fight against temptations, abuses, discrimination, evilness, jealousy, and the devil himself. But Jehovah God is at the front of it, so they will prevail.

I wrote a section in your comments about occult sexual handlers. While I refrained from writing the deeper aspects associated with this I will refer to the comments in your guestbook written by DXXX. This is the classic profile of involvement with sexual handlers the occult, Satanism, and the Montauk Project run by the illuminati. The victim will have had most of there memories stripped. But Time will expose them. BEWARE!!! There are many levels to this. It won't be long the LYRAN illuminati will do what ever is necessary to coverup details. I express great caution to anyone having children. Do your research folks!!! This is a BBBIIIggg problem!!!!

I saw the Dateline show. I was not surprised. The JWs are just like the Catholics and many other Xtian denominations -- a dysfunctional old boys club that hates women and abuses and scars women and children for life. I don't know why people are surprised, it's a common pattern in many but not all Xtian denominations. I am no longer a Xtian -- too many crazy making rules and cruel people acting under the guise of "Xtian love". I go to the Unitarian church, which is not Xtian, and they don't throw out sinners. I think Xtianity is socially and culturally sanctioned emotional and mental abuse. I joined a conservative Baptist church and waited for the miracles to happen. I got the full dunk baptism and prayed hard and read my bible and believed. Nothing changed for me, I was still broke and depressed and no body in my church would help me get a job. I decided that if god works through his people on earth, that god didn't care whether I starved to death or not, because nobody in my church or any other church I went to, would help me get a job. They loved to sit up and criticize my situation, but the right to criticize a person, to me carries with it the obligation to help a person change their life, if they want to. I wanted to change my unemployed situation and got no help.

Their hellfire and brimstone sermons made me suicidal, I figured I might as well kill myself since they loved to invoke that grumpy old testament god that kills people for no reason at all. Because of original sin, Christianity cannot be positive. It is not logical either. Original sin is unearned guilt and shame (see books by John Bradshaw). Most people have enough problems with their self esteem without hearing what kind of worthless pieces of crap they are, in church on Sunday. I voted with my feet and left. After a church member called me up and told me I had no right to charge for some typing I was doing for a minister, I tried to slash my wrists and committed myself to the county mental hospital on suicide watch. The hospital was a joke. It didn't help at all.

People who are Xtians who say they are right all the time, they know exactly what is right for 6 billion people, and who is going to hell and who is going to heaven, and who is a real Xtian and who isn't, are sadly deluded and mistaken. Lots of other religions think they are the one true religion, and I can't see any evidence to tell me what religion, if any, is the true religion. I am truly sorry for all the abused people in the JW church. It is sad that there is so much misplaced faith in church leaders, who are human like everyone else, and fallible. Anytime you place all your faith in a particular philosophy or a certain person or minister to solve your problems and make life good, you will be certainly disappointed, as all humans are imperfect.

It is so sad that the victims have found out the hard way who their friends are, that will stand by them in their time of trial, and it is not the leaders. Relying on yourself and your friends instead of some big sky daddy is a tough lesson to learn. I learned it the hard way too.
To not celebrate your birthday, the day you arrived on earth, to love and be loved, to be the unique and special YOU that we each are......that is very sad.

To not celebrate Xmas, to not enjoy the holiday, the decorations, the singing, etc........that is very sad as well.

I don't know if there is a heaven or a hell and I don't know who is going there, if there is one, after we die. You know what? I believe we should be kind and helpful to other people while we are here on earth, because this is the only reality that we know for sure. We should feed the hungry and minister to the sick, as Jesus and other great leaders taught, while we are here on earth.

When you let someone else think for you, and dictate your morality, you give up your power to them. These abused people were taken advantage of by church leaders for their own selfish ends. They need to think for themselves and realize that grievous harm, even serious crimes, are committed in the name of church authority. And that is wrong by ANY moral standard.

What do I believe? I quote the beliefs of Lin Yutang, Chinese philosopher and ex-Xtian: "All I know is that if God loves me half as much as my mother does, he will not send me to hell."

Hi, avishai here again. #1 It's my belief that the only reason Bill is still a jw is to remain as effective as possible, much like those who choose to become "inactive" rather than disassociate themselves to be able to still talk w/ there families. And we all know of those examples. And, now, I feel a bit hypocritical after bitching about dogma & how the important thing is catching molesters, not arguing about dogma, but, I think it's time to throw my hat in the ring, dogmatically speaking, as there are those who won't believe that anything is going wrong if the religion is right. It's very, very easy to quickly disprove jw doctrine. Since it's inception, the religion has been based on the year 1914, & it was calculated from the supposed year of the conquest of israel 607 b.c.e. This calculation is based on the assumptions that the gregorian calendar is exact & correct. It is NOT. It may be inaccurate w/ a variable of up to 15 years! And, that's beyond the fact that most scholars give a different date for the fall of israel being 587 b.c.e. Which could put "1914" anywhere from 1896 to 1934. There is no accurate way to calculate this, unless perhaps a hebrew calendar is used, & probably not then! Then, also, w/ this in mind, think of all the times they say something is going to happen, i.e 1975. They have called themselves god's prophet in the past, now changed to the more ambiguos "gods channel of information on earth" WHICH MEANS EXACTLY THE SAME THING! According to deuteronomy 18:19, once you are aware of these facts, there is no way to rationalize them away! & if you do, you are just as guilty as the false prophets, as you are required to take these lies door to door. Sorry, for getting all dogmatic, the children are what really matters, remember that above all else, god won't fix it later, because almost everyone is too lazy to try themselves. 18 I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.
19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. Acts 3.23

20 But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 when a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him. avishai@hotmail.com

Dear P, I emplore you to seek help for the Cancer. Cancer need not kill in this day and age. I realize allopathic (General MDs) will sell you surgery, radiation or poison for Cancer, but there is a "Natural Hygiene" method for treating Cancer. Many just accept Cancer as a death sentence. Cancer is the "last" stage of several levels of toxic damage done to the body and it may be able to be turned around completely. Get a book by "Harvey Diamond" called "Fit for Life-A New Beginning. Once read you will understand and not fear this any more. ServeWPassion@aol.com

I've read most of the guestbook messages here and I'd like to reply to those people who are defending the JW's. I was raised as one of Jehovah's Witnesses and suffered sexual abuse for 5 years from a couple that seemed to be spiritually strong. Everyone in their congregation loved them. But for 5 years of my life they molested me. Any form of abuse stays with the victim throughout their lives. Even if a JW claims to be repentant they should have charges filed against them. They should not, for any reason, be let free among the congregation to ruin another child. The couple that stole 5 years of my life were put on private reproof. They admitted to everything I had said they did and all they got was private reproof. That makes it so hard for me to trust the congregation now. I was also told that I shouldn't press charges against them because it might "bring reproach upon Jehovah's organization". So they got away with it for now. But Jehovah will take care of them in the proper way, whatever His will is. I am just afraid for the children who have no idea these predators are in their congregation. Over 27,000 cases have been reported. So I think protecting the organization is not the issue here. Protecting the children should be more important.

I think that it is great that you have created this site for those of us who have been silent lambs for so long and now feel the need to speak out! Keep up the work, I greatly support you!!

- Vanessa

The Catholics have admitted to their mistakes and are trying to do something about it, so why can't JWs do the same?

There is a pretty important point that seems to get by a lot of people: It is horribly self-centered to think that a pedophile is dealt with if he is identified and the children of the congregation are protected. That is not nearly enough. It is the height of apostacy to assert that Jehovah will deal with the individual and until then he won't have a position of responsibility. How disgusting it is to posit that the external authorities should not be called to protect the org.'s name. The world has other children that don't go to your Kingdom Hall. We are obligated to protect them too, whenever we can. A christian attitude would impel everyone to see that the molester is dealt with! Shame on anyone that knows of an offender and yet participates in the hush-hush tactics of the Watchtower Society.

i don't have any faith that jw's will ever be as candid about their problem as the catholics have finally done we were brainwashed too well i don't recall when 'not doing anything that would bring reproach on jehovah's name' and 'covering a multitude of sins with love' became 'don't tell what jw's really do or it will reproach the organization' and 'cover up a multitude of horrific crimes with theocratic deception' but at some point all of us were conditioned to that point in reviewing some of my previous posts, i would like to apologize to the group for the style of typing i sometimes use. i find it hard to understand my own writing. i often type without punctuation, and make up for it by hitting the space bar several times, in lieu of periods or commas. now i see that for some reason, the final form in the guest book compresses all those spaces, and it all runs together. will try to be clearer in the future. although i may still eschew capital letters from time to time. ;-)

You obviously have a problem with the JW's. Unfortunatly children in ALL religious background have been harmed, not just JW's. Look at the courts in Australia, the Catholic religion has a few more problems dont you think? But soon all the wrong that men have done will be corrected. You really have a chip on your shoulder dont you? What you hate about child molesters is so true, they destroy lifes, but just because a person calls himself a title, doesnt make the lot that way. Open up your eyes.

This is a message for Bill Bowen:

Hi Bill, you do not know me, I am an active JW and I have been following your work very closely.

You're doing an outstanding job, keep at it.

You are one man against all the odds. I deplore the covering up of child abuse and the shunning policy practiced against victims, it is unscriptual.

I simply cannot believe that the Society is trying to form a judicial committee against you.

I would go on the presumption Bill that your judicial committee has ALREADY made the decision to disfellowship you, they are just doing it by the book. You will then be known as a disgruntled X-JW not as an active witness, which will make a huge difference to how people see your cause for changing the child abuse policy.
What is even more low is that the Society sends letters to the families that appear on dateline who have been victims of child abuse ordering them to a judicial committee. Haven't the victims suffered enough?

Child abuse is a crime, it should not be covered over or dismissed.

I find that the Society is more interested in preserving their 'image' of Jehovah, rather than living up to 'their' dedication to Jehovah and doing what's right. Image counts for everything, people it seems, don't.

if it is true that a judicial committee is being formed against bill bowen, i can assure u that MINDS ARE ALREADY MADE UP! never saw a committee that didn t. especially one that was formed as part of the cover up of child abuse. i was so brainwashed that i felt i was in the wrong for my attitude when i was harrassed by committee for trying to protect and expose the abuse of my children, it has taken years to undo the spiritual/emotional/psychological RAPE that is done by elders, congregations, the "faithful and discreet slave", the WTS, etc. interesting that they use the same comfort/threat/we ur only family and support/u will be killed if u don t do as we say type of techniques in grooming their converts, as abuse perpetrators use against their victims. my family will NEVER go back to such filth and depravity as we experienced as JWs! and it has cost us dearly.in losing the few relatives who are still part of this borg collective. as far as losing the fellowship of those who perpetrated or covered up the crimes against my family, tried blaming the victims, (including my children), protected the perps, and spread the vilest slander about my family INCLUDING my children as a smokescreen, refused to take judicial action against one of the perps when it was established in a court of law that the perp perjured and committed false testimony against my family, for those who actually made my brainwashed psyche feel so guilty about my attitude in all this, that i actually ASKED to be disfellowshipped,so as to receive the 'loving, scourging discipline of jehovah that he gives to those he accepts as his sons ' so that i might actually re establish my 'dying faith'and adjust my un-theocratic-like attitude....as far as my fellowship with these kind of scum.....including the elder who personally apologized, saying he had no choice but to go along with the lies 'for the sake of unity with the committee, elders and truth'....as far as our loss of fellowship with these 'christians' ...... good riddance and '"%$# u all! had i seen even one 'brother' with the moral fortitude and integrity of the one running silentlambs, i would have stayed, and my family would not have heaved as much as it has. i am ashamed about my diligence in raising my beautiful children in this dangerous teaching. i am ashamed that i continued to take them to meetings, assemblies and conventions after i asked to be disfellowhipped. i am ashamed that i had the goal of being reinstated into such a depraved organization. and no, my healthy aversion to these lying abusers that call themselves witnesses of jehovah did not come about from reading this web-site, or any other writings against the organization. i scrupulously avoided ANY association with anyone/thing that questioned jws for years. i avoided associating with any EX-jws for years. i came to my attitude by having my sanity restored. if there were more like the founder of silent lambs, who actually stand up for TRUTH and what witnesses claim to be and teach, i would still be defending them, as i did for the first decade after i left. if this work can prevent or help even ONE silentlamb heal of being raped, intimidated, threatened and feeling guilty about it, then everything that they have done has been worth it. if they have the audacity to df bowen, it only goes to show them for what they are. never seen a rapist that didn t try to discredit their victims and their defenders. if bowen is anything like i was, sincere in believing jw s have the truth, he probably will have little to do with people like me until he heals too. their trying to df him is just ANOTHER FORM OF RAPE.
by the way, my family and i are eagerly awating the dateline report. when is it scheduled to be aired? i e mailed dateline and asked, but don't want to take the chance that they will air it before they get a chance to respond.

I was molested by a male pioneer many years older than I. This was when I was merely 13. He went on to serve where the need was great and was appointed an elder in many diverse places in California. He had a problem which was never uncovered because I never said a thing. Now my best girlfriend, we are both 55+ years old, reveals that she ALSO was molested by him at the same time. He had "sisters" chasing him in an attempt to get married for decades. I decline to add my name in hopes of protecting my elderly mother who is still very strong in the organization. I have left some 4 years ago now with a total loss of belief or trust.

It is crystal clear from reading the news exerpts that pedophiles are allowed to circulate. All the abuser has to do is say 'I'm sorry' and is deemed repentent. Or better yet, the abuser denies it all, and the abused is left not only with the enduring hell, but the reality that it is the abuser who will get protection. I experienced this first hand. If you get therapy for what you've gone through, the elders 'watch' your every move. Getting therapy is frowned on - you are considered spiritually weak for seeking 'wordly' help. This site blows their hypocrisy to smitherines and I highly encourage those looking into this 'religion' to look close enough to see the whites of their lies. Those who share their stories here - I applaud you.

The experiences reported here concern mainly elders and ministerial servants as the perpetrators, and it wold seem that these ones were ALREADY PRACTISING their vile crimes against children BEFORE being 'appointed' by holy spirit.
Even when these ones are found out, some of them simply move to another congregation, only to perform well again and be 're-appointed' by holy spirit to their former position.

My question is this:

Is it true or not true that ministerial servants, elders and other higher ranking servants are APPOINTED by holy spirit?

As one scripture says, 'My thoughts are not their thoughts, for my ways are higher than their ways'

I cannot understand how anyone could be appointed by holy spirit and still be practising child abuse.

The Society feels that if the whole issue of child abuse in the organisation is 'well known', then this will undermine the whole authority structure of the elders and the Society in general.

Appointment by holy spirit could be seen as a means to control people, and if this is blown away, then control over witnesses is greatly undermined.

I am a former JW. My ex-husband was, at the time of our divorce, an elder. Then, due to the divorce he was removed (an elder, after all, has to have his family under control and he'd lost his control!), but just a year later was an elder again.

He never sexually abused any child, nor did he physically abuse me. My children, however, endured incredible abuse and they have mental, emotional as well as physical scars. When I brought this to the other elders' attention, they always said the children must have deserved it. No child deserves to be burned with a candle flame.

We must keep in mind that these elders are not trained in dealing with family problems, only in bible teachings. And yet this is no excuse.

As a child growing up, I experienced sexual abuse both from a "brother" in the congregation as well as from my stepfather, who never was baptised but was an accepted member of the congregation.

One of the issues I'd like to bring up is one that is also totally ignored within the society. That's alcoholism. I learned to drink at social gatherings, early in my marriage. It took me years to recover. Almost all of our "friends" drank to intoxication. And most of our friends were elders.

Another issue is how children are treated. I wish I had gotten away earlier from the society. Learning to treat each child individually, with love and respect, is something I learned "in the world."
Then there is the issue on how women are treated. The psychological battering I endured from my ex-husband for 18 years almost killed me. It took years of counseling for me to even learn that I could say "no" to a man.

As a last note I want to add that my ex-husband, refuses to take any responsibility in raising our children, except for taking them to "meetings." Otherwise, financially and in handling parental issues, I am on my own. Yet he is an elder, counseling other families ... However, I am glad to be free of him and the society.

I do miss the nice people in the congregation. I miss my family who has to shunn me. I miss the sisterhood.

In about two years, look for my upcoming book, entitled: After the Fall -- A book of hope for those who have been excommunicated, expelled or disfellowshiped from a religious organization.

Thank you for the good work you are doing.

I think this is a good "awareness" site and I am totally all for helping the silentlams. But I have never heard of any thing of this sort...It is against the JW's religion to have pre-marital sex so I find this hard to believe that it is an ongoing problem...its obviously not big enough to make the news--look at the Catholic's. They protected their priests and still there will be people out their who report it to the proper authority's. I think that people are consistantly looking for the bad in everything...why dont we look at the good for a change? This world isnt that horrible. Thanks--CD

All right, for the guy that said It can't be that bad, look at the catholics, look at the good for once. SCREW YOU,PAL!!!
The catholics are MUCH larger religion, that is why they get more!!! And, tell me, where is the good in letting children get raped over & over & over again? WHERE? It's complacent jerks like you that allow these ATROCITIES to occur.
You are & all of your ilk are bloodguilty!!! Guilty of child molestation by proxy if not by fact. I hope Bill sues the wlbs for discrimination, in that he was following a federal law when he reported this evil bastard! I hope they & every other churches that cover this up are sued so bad by all the victims that they are no longer able to function! THAT would truly be paradise, a new order. God does'n't protect child molseters, you do!!!!

To the person who suggests we look at the good in things, tell me. What is the "good" in this situation? Certainly you can see how the lives that have been forever altered, and the innocence ripped away from these victims/survivors is so very much worse and outweighs any of the "good" things that you may say this religion has done for people. Shame on you for such an insensitive comment in a place where people are trying to heal. Amy at aorchid21@hotmail.com

Excellent site. Unfortunately, there are way too many sisters (and brothers) emotionally messed up, not only because of the abuse that they sustained, but seeing the abuser literally get away with murder.

Hi again, To the person who said look at the good. This isn't a matter of where we focus our attention. The bible says that a man who does not look after his own(family)is "worse than a man without faith." A petophile does not look after his own obviously!!! What good?

The Older men in bible times were commanded to keep the congregation clean. Why are they not? How many times must they repeatedly sin against our children before they realize that they are unrepentant? The King of Isreal Saul was told when he begged God forgiveness "to obey is better that a sacrifice." Even in the bible there are examples where there was an end of forgiveness on Gods part. There had to be works befitting repentance. He certainly never suggested the Kings behaviour to be ignored or suggest we look for the Good. DJB
Dear Silentlambs,

Just a quick note to say 'Thank You' for all your hard work, perseverance and courage. Speaking out against a ruthless, powerful and selfish cult like the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society is a daunting task - particularly when one considers the mountain of ill-gotten wealth they have at their disposal. Rest assured, your sacrifice is sincerely appreciated by many - especially by those who have been directly victimized by this sick cult.

Looking forward to the airing of the Dateline show...

Sincerely,

Phil Trozzi (X-JW and proud of it) email: scot@mnsi.net

Dear Bill, I sent the letter you sent to the yahoo mailing list, and the letters from the elders who are wanting to disfellowship you to the local newspaper here. I pray the publish a story on this. I am so sorry this is happening to you and all those good people who work with you.

All of us ex-witnesses who have have been booted out by this self-righteous organization know all too well what you are going through.

How brave are all those who are publishing the truth though about the WTS. May the God of all mercy and love be with you through this trial.

Sincerely,

Balsam Balsam51@hotmail.com May 8th 2002

I have been studying, but in researching the organization for myself I have come to this conclusion: Jehovah's Witness a more concerned about the "Letter of the Law" (Scribes & Pharisees views) vs the "Spirit of the Law" (Jesus Christ's views) They're more interested in protecting their image than caring for their flock. My heart goes out to all the victims. I'm behind the Silent Lambs 100%

To the one that loves being a JW: You sound fairly new to the org. All you will need is one run-in with a judicial committee to find out how far they have strayed from a christian attitude. Self-righteous men doing what an even more self-righteous organization tells them. The men leading the congregations are a self-selected group where those that wouldn't treat other christians with such cruelty are weeded out. You do yourself a disservice when you think that the congregation elders would not allow such a one to carry on in a congregation. If a Circuit Overseer decides that it would be best for the Society to keep the matter quiet, the elders will bow their heads like the the overly-indoctrinated robots they have become. "Shhh...Jehovah will take care of it due time - and don't go to the worldly authorities." Sorry chief, it happens every day.

Unless you are the type that enjoys relinquishing all conscientious decisions to someone else, you'll get your chance. Just remember how you were going to 'support the good and reject the bad' while they sit you down and force you to swear allegiance to the Society and reaffirm your acceptance of some absurd doctrine. See how you stand as you decide whether the 'truth sets you free' or you should just go along with something you don't believe just so you can stay in an organization. If it hasn't happened yet, then you haven't been having frank discussions with fellow members. How constraining is that? For starters, why don't you tell some of your closest fellows that you've been on this site.

This is avishai, & here is a msg. to the one who loves being a jw. You refer to the "righteous ones". Your letter is very naive & sad. First, refute my argument of May 1 about 1914, & then you can tell me about how Jehovah protects the righteous. Then, I want you to find a child who has been molested & had it covered up or even been reproved at as young of an age as 11 for "fornication w/ someone who is of age, & tell them how they have been "protected" by Jehovah & his org. Or, maybe you can tell this child that they were'nt protected because they are'nt "righteous" as they are forced to be cordial to someone who has raped them and stolen their innocence. Trust me, You can find someone this has happened to, it won't be hard, THEN come back & tell me that you love being a jw, that Jehovah protects the righteous. Then, & only then, will you have a right to come on here & spout off about things you obviously know nothing about. Then you can call Bill an apostate. You, know, there have always been "Gods people" Who have been called apostates for saying the right thing, who have been jeered, shunned & tortured for saying the right thing. Look at Jeremiah! And it's self-righteous people , just like you, who were persecuting them, not listening. RAPING CHILDREN IS WRONG! THAT IS ALL THIS SITE IS SAYING! Go sit in your tower, idiot! You are helping satan do his work, sitting there blindly calling names! You know better! PHARISEE!!

Hi again, Response for May 8 2002 Time:20:44:03
You are happy you are a witness. Nice to hear. Hope you do not have any children. They will be at RISK. I am an ACTIVE WITNESS and from my experience it the TRUTH what you read here. I do not agree with what is going on. I will tell you it is happening and to reject what everyone is saying here is very dangerous for your children. Consider it you have a lot to lose.

Think! The apostles even talked about the super fine apostles, false brothers in the early Christian congretation. Who are we to think it can't happen today? Romans 15:4 tell us "For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope". We are to learn from what happened to them so we don't repeat the same mistakes.

In 1 Cor 5:1 tells of a situation that existed in the early Christian congretation. It reads "Actually fornication is reported among you and such fornication as is not even among the nations...V.2 ...rather not mourn, in order that the man that committed this deed should be taken away from your midst? Considering this scripture why are they allowing these pedophiles in midst attending meetings? These scriptures were written aforetime for our instruction... and supersede any man made rules or policies. DJB

Hi, i will just say, i support your action against the organization. cause we can not allowed this thing to go on. I`m 23 years old, i got Disfellowshipped at the age of 21, i will fight for the right that every people can have their own belives, and not being "let to die" this way of shutting people out is a sick way of showing they don`t respect human beings. people can belive what they want...but not practise this way of shutting people out, i`m not a beliver of any other religions now, but jesus never turned away from anyone. young people struggle after getting Disfellowshipped, they have no place to go, we can not let the goverment keep on letting jw. doing this. thanks. jat-m@online.no from norway:)

I found this site interesting, sad and disturbing. I am an active witness who worships God. Since He hasn’t abused anyone I won’t leave Him. However, I can understand the great anger that injustice generates. An abused child needs to be protected and the guilty one needs to be punished and this should be PUBLIC knowledge in order to protect others. And this leads to the hub of the problem - the Organization is not able to ‘punish’ anyone, they are only able to remove wrongdoers who are unrepentant. Neither do they want to bring God’s name into reproach by going public. However, reporting ALL accusations to the authorities, whether there is a legal responsibility to do so or not, is the only way to go. Let the ‘superior authorities’ investigate and take all appropriate action and let the congregations support them. Otherwise people will make wild unfounded accusations like many posted here that sexual abuse is ‘rampant’ in the Organization, which it certainly is not, or take the opposite defensive view that it isn’t a problem at all which is both untrue and hurtful to those who have become victims. The Organization is in decline in many countries around the world. Arrogance and self-righteousness is commonplace, especially amongst those ‘taking the lead’. This is simply what 2 Tim 3:1-5 says will happen INSIDE the congregation. It’s not going to improve. In fact, the Society is yet to wake up to the realization that there IS a problem and that there may be not as much ‘food at the appropriate time’ as they would like to think. There were similar problems in the first century too - the first apostles thought too much of themselves as well. That’s the way it is. However, I worship Jehovah and no man and that’s why I have no problem being in the Truth. Sure, it’s far from perfect and genuine silentlambs deserve better. I hope and pray that they will see justice soon.

My name is Ben - I am 24 years old and was raised in the JW denomination in my early years of life. I excommunicated myself when I turned 18 years old because I felt this religion wasnt for me due to some unfavorable experiences I’ve had with members of JW’s. I never got baptized with this JW denomination so I guess I could say I never was really a JW, although I was raised in it since I was 5 years old until I was 18. With the news of Catholic bishops molesting children - I find it hypocritical of JW’s to criticize them and tear them down when they themselves got serious problems of their own. If any former JW’s would like to talk to me please email me at my address posted below. I might take a while to respond but please bare with me - any and all contacts to me would be greatly appreciated.

It is truly sad if you think in Jehovah's perfect Justice that he is worried about His reputation if you expose a child molester or murderer in the ranks of a "spiritual organization". It is exactly the opposite, you would be cleaning house, so it's time to take "off" the "Excuses" hat and take a "Stand for what is right". I remember a banner in a room once, it said "Stand up for what is right, even if your standing alone."
When your standing before Jehovah giving reason for your life, will you be able to face up to what you have done. Imagine, "Well uh, Lord, I am a follower, and I was following the "HERD" instinct. I just could not seem to think for myself."
People, your writing your "RESUME" for heaven "right this very minute". What you do now on this earth will be revealed when you stand before God. Will you say, Father, I let one of your innocent babies go to slaughter to protect the precious reputation of a "organization" who is afraid of the TRUTH itself. Beware, there is a difference between wheat and chaff and light and heat.

You should be ashamed of yourself. The good thing is Jehovah will take care of this whole situation. Your like an apostate in disguise. What am I doing looking on here? I'm disfellowshipped and you've just given me strength in who is the true GOD. Jehovah, Almighty. Obedience is at a loss. Things happen for a reason. You obviously failed the test. This site is not 'Garbage', but I wonder if all the anti-JW talk has become the main issue, rather than considering the plight of those who have been abused. As for silentlams, I hope your understanding of the facts is higher than your knowledge of how to spell God's name which is indeed Jehovah is many languages. The writer's first language need not have been English, and Hebrew is the definitive spelling, not English. As for your saying about yourself 'I must have hit rock bottom', time will tell! Remember the account of the man who thought the Ark of the Covenant was falling and grabbed hold of it to steady it. God struck him down dead because he wasn't allowed to touch it under any circumstances. He had shown a lack of faith in God who could have protected the Ark if needed by a myriad of angels. The point? The Organization is not perfect, it may be failing in some way, but Jehovah can put it right anytime he so chooses. Many cases have not been dealt with properly, and not just in this subject either. But if you trust in God you'll let him sort it. If you don't trust he'll act appropriately then you condemn yourself by your lack of faith, just like the man who tried to steady the Ark of the Covenant.

I feel so overwhelmed with all diffent emotions! Some are of empathy for those who have sufferd molestation. Others bring back all the torment hic i suffered as a divorced woman in "the Truth". No, i wasn't physically molested or abused, but as one woman said, sometimes mental and emotional abuse is worse, and that i did experience. I pray for us all, that God will heal our terrible physical and psychic wounds. I ask for blessings upon those of you who have had the courage to speak out in the defense of the helpless. William (Bill?): thank you so much for the posts that you have been sent out regularly by email to those of us on your email list. It is very encouraging to hear that CNN and the NYTimes are finally taking notice of this problem! I just wanted to let you know that I am so sorry for what the WT organization is about to put you through. I really agree with what you said in one of your emails that THEY are the ones causing divisions, by not addressing this molestation issue and allowing more victims to be hurt. You and other Witnesses who are trying to bring this out into the open to get their policy changed are the ones who are showing TRUE christian love for all of the silent lambs who have no one to speak for them in the JW organization. You are right this sight is not “garbage” but to make a point. Wasn't the man who grabbed the ark of the covenant trying to get glory for himself not just thinking of the ark? I really wouldn't liken Bill to a man seeking self glory when he is just trying to protect innocent people and is one of the first to stand up against this religion so publicly.

Mark Newman... Pocahontas, Arkansas

Being raised a witness for the first 18 years of my life, I have seen both the sexual and physical abuse firsthand being covered up.

At the age of 13, my sister Shelli Newman, was abused by a brother in good standing in our congregation. The only action taken at that time was to ask the brother to relocate, by the elders of the congregation and my parents were told to be silent concerning this unjust deed.

The Brother that had abused my sister was staying with our family due to the separation between his wife and himself. He had a young daughter and I now find myself questioning the reasons for their separation. Was he abusing his own daughter as well?

I myself was not abused, but I have a dear friend who was raped while she was passed out drunk. (He got her drunk.) She confronted him and he just shrugged it off like it was nothing. She was a virgin before this happened. She reported it to the elders and NOTHING was done to him. While he remained in good standing with the congregation, she bore the shame and guilt of the rape. She has since rejected the organization and its teachings. I have become a Christian and pray that she will one day know freedom in Christ.

i think that this whole thing concerning the sexual molestation/fondling charges of the WTBTS is insane...how could spiritually "mature" brothers and sisters who claim to follow their God, "Jehovah" as they say He is called--and no one else--allow this to happen to SO MANY PEOPLE??! What's worse is that these recent allegations (Bowen/Pandelo/Rodriguez cases) are only the tip of the iceberg--just think of how many more "sheep in the flock" are tragically still trapped within the clutches of the cruel deceiving front of God's one-and-only so-called "truth" organization...I was once an "interested one" attending meetings at the local Kingdom Hall, reading WT and Awake mags, recently about to begin attending conventions and assemblies, BUT NO MORE. I have always secretly doubted the doctrine of Jehovah's Witnesses, not b/c of what "opposers" told me necessarily, but really b/c a lot of the "rules" that God's true servants had to follow and obey really didn't seem supported by the Bible Scriptures. The verses that were quoted or cited to explain a certain practice or social behavior (i.e., not celebrating birthdays, assoc. only w/fellow believers, not taking part of the Memorial emblems unless you were "anointed") seemed to me to be taken almost completely out of context...but when I asked my Bible study or an experienced member, I was told to "wait on Jehovah" for new light explaining it or to wait for further notice after the person "looked the answer up", etc. I kept getting the feeling that they (JWs) just wanted me to stop asking so many doctrinal questions, accept it, and progress to baptism...I felt that many individuals felt that I was a trouble-maker and soon after I voiced my doubts to a "friend", she told others in the congregation and then I think that I was "marked"--people started to look at me with disdain maybe so far as hatred even. But the other JWS never made me feel comfortable from the beginning, when I first started to study and come to the Sunday meetings. In retrospect, I remember a LOT of TENSION in teh air, no one would look directly at me and smile or say hello unless I murmured a greeting first. It changed a bit only as I came more often...? Even the JWs I went with acted somewhat funny, cold and aloof when we got to the Hall...Well sorry for the kinda long story...I hope the Dateline story proves that the Witness religion and practices (not necessarily the individual Witness) is a dupe. They are not what many many people think they are cracked up to be--God's true servants of "light"... I don't get why they don't like questions, is it just cuz the answers are too painful for them to confront (meaning that they are wrong in what they believe, or perspectives need to be changed) or is it b/c of the strictness of the elders and GB that keep them in line...why CAN'T a person GENUINELY interested in learning about God and Jesus ask as many questions as they want about a religion and its doctrines that claims to have teh TRUTH, the whole TRUTH, and NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH.....! Isn't that what God would want humans to do to find what is "good in his eyes"....God help us all!!

p.s. same person as above...i really want to say that i will pray for all of those suffering from WT "policy" and sexual harassment molestation...this needs to stop! stories i'm reading are HORRIBLE! innocent lives are being destroyed because 13 or so men in Brooklyn will not open their aging eyes and minds and SEE THE REAL "LIGHT"! God Bless to all of you...He will not forsake you...He will guide and protect you, and be assured...He does not like the ugly...they will <bold>pay</bold> in the end sooner or later.
Good morning. I would like to share a story with you. My name is Samantha and I was Jehovah's Witness but decided that it wasn't for me as I wish to enjoy my freedom to party and have good time. I never agreed with monogamy.

When I was 12, I was molested by someone who was studying the Bible with the Witnesses. I had enough common sense to inform my parents and they in turn had enough common sense to contact the authorities before involving the elders as they are not licensed to practice law. Evidently, you dumb ass motherfuckers have not a lick of fucking sense and have put all your faith in "man" and not the bible. Even though I am a sinner, I don't lack common sense as you. May God be with you, you are from your father the DEVIL.

to all the current JWs spending their time on this site and writing in the theocratic-speak that some of us have finally broken free of......PLEASE GO COUNT YOUR TIME SOMEWHERE ELSE......how dare you come where families that have been raped and brainwashed about it finally have the courage to talk about it and preach your brainwashing tactics to us again? shame on you....the only thing you have done is remind me that i am finally FREED BY THE TRUTH.....if you find spiritual strength in jw teachings, more power to you....if you wanna herd runaway BORG members back into mindless subservience to those who raped them....then you are as bad as the rapists.....surely, if you wanna follow men who demand completer obedience to them instead of the god they tell you they are serving, then COUNT YOUR TIME IN WAYS APPROVED BY THAT "THEOCRATIC ORGANIZATION"

Funny thing, the Bible does say what you do in secret will be brought to light. This is God's policy. So for those who have been covering up child abuse and all other crimes and using "religion" to hide behind, "watch out" this looks like an "enlightening time" for you.

To the one who wrote the following and all who agree with it: "to all the current JWs spending their time on this site and writing in the theocratic-speak that some of us have finally broken free of......PLEASE GO COUNT YOUR TIME SOMEWHERE ELSE.....how dare you come where families that have been raped and brainwashed about it finally have the courage to talk about it and preach your brainwashing tactics to us again? shame on you...." Strange, I thought this site was about victims of abuse that have been unjustly treated. I guess many have their own agenda. To all who are Jehovah's Witnesses: this site has descended from publicising a real problem into a forum for apostates, nutters and the ignorant spouting nonsense. This is the shame of it since it does nothing to help those who are genuine 'silent lambs'. On one thing we may all agree - that this is clearly no place for Jehovah's people, though we may differ on the reasons.

To the one who responded to my saying that 'jws should count their time elsewhere instead of getting on this list, and telling sexual abuse victims that they are liars and apostates for exposing the crimes against them ...... to the one who responded to that by saying, calling me an apostate or nutter, who is getting away fromthe purpose of this site......was i that unclear? several members of several generations of my family have literally been raped by jw sin good standing, who will never be called "apostate" or even "sinner". children in my family have been accused of being the sinners, while abusers and pedophiles remained in good standing. after all these years, my family finds a safe place to say that, and we are "apostates and nutters"? you have never seen a post from me on an "apostate" site. but your counting time on this site by telling us we didn't "wait on jehovah" is not only insulting abuse victims further than they have been (by trying to report it to the elders)...but is not even in line with the directives of the society. you are not following the direction of the "faithful and discreet slave" by witnessingon this site....so who is the apostate? you have no idea what my family or others like ours, who tell our stories on this site have gone through....you assume that we are just spouting nonsense. yet you claim to understand that this is a realo problem......perhaps you have been or are in our shoes, but just continuing to defend the brothers, as we were all taught to do....perhaps not....but don t preach spiritual paradise to rape victims.....whether we are still in the truth or not, we know better. and i will never respond to you again. for all i know you are one of the jws in good standing that have raped members of my family...or one that was involved with the many cover ups... maybe not but you sound like them

I am not a JW. I am simply a Christian... a follower of christ and I just have to say... GOOD FOR YOU! It takes a very brave person to go against the tide especially of their religion. But you are wise to do the right thing. may God bless you in your service here. Love a Mom of four

Hi again, I agree this site is for victims of child abuse but the person who was a victim and thinks all victims have gotten df and/or quit being Jehovah's Witnesses think again!!! I am an active Witness.

I also thought this web site was to let the public know what is really happening. Apart of this public are those who are Jehovah's Witnesses. I think this is excellent that some are coming to this site to see what is going on. The important thing is they are being warned. To convince them you must talk theocraticly and with respect. Talk the language they understand.

I hate to say this but you would never be listened to with all your anger and swearing. Yet I feel that it is all JUSTIFIED!!! This just isn't the way to get people to believe you. I do because I have been there and know how a victim of rape feels but yet we all don't react the same way. You must respect that we each have a right to react in our own way not everyone wants to go out and party and throw monogamy out. You have a right to your choices and I have a right to mine. I treat you with respect and I expect you to do the same.

We all want the children to be protected. I want to add the middle ground that May 09,2002 time 08:38:44 talks about isn't middle ground. I want to say THE ABUSE IS AS BAD AS WE SAY IT IS. I personally have seen it.

My dad also has seen it. My Uncle and Aunt know about it and my grandparents did also. I know I am telling the truth and treating my relatives with respect did gain me their support to varying degrees.

My dad gave me the web site address and encouraged me to come here. I had never heard about it before.(My dad has been in Bethel and translated literature from English to French,Served as Special Pioneers assigned to different places, Elder until he resigned due to poor health). With his experience he says that the situation in the congregations is worse than the Catholic Church. The numbers Bill gives my dad feels could be multiplied by four for a more accurate picture of the number of pedophiles in the congregation.

The congregation I am in is especially bad...More than just me says this. We have GENUINE SILENT LAMBS here. It is just as bad as WE say it is...DJB

i appreciate and respect this site because it is NOT LIMITED to helping jws who are still in the truth. neither is it limited to helping ex jws. it is dedicated to helping the victims. whether active ones believe it or not, many ex jws would never had left, but have been df ed on some pretext, for trying to do, or say something about being a victim. i used to think it was only a couple ov congregations, and have been proven wrong repeatedly. this web-site has proved it wrong repeatedly. expressing anger over violation, and then further betrayal by the comforting princes who are were trusted to shepherd the flock is a perfectly legitamate channel of dealing with such grief. yet active, inactive, disassociated and disfellowshipped witnesses have all been vilified as slanderers, and told that even if their experience of being molested and raped is true, that they should ignore it, forgive their rapists, who have generally lied to committees, and continue to tell people to get out of babylon the great, because they are full of religious hypocrites and sexual perverts. what convinced me to come into the truth was an awake article about 1970 entitled "frances state tv takes a look at the catholic church." it was an expose of some of the same type of abuses in the church that this website has been exposing in the organization. it, and my further theocratic education convinced me that jehovah's witnesses had NO SUCH PROBLEM. how can i gently say that was proven to be a lie? it is because of believing that lie, that i was stupid enough to think my spouse would do such thing to my children. not someone who had been a regular pioneer! not someone who was considered a shining example in the congregation! an adult who makes the child out to be the liar, and then turns the tables on the whistleblower....and judicial committees who know the truth and use theocratic language (and yes...believe it or not...CUSSING...)to beat down those that would protect the children....elders who use the same to beat down other elders who try to take a stand of integrity....all of this is NOT made up for if one of the elders comes back later with tears and apologizes...saying "i had no choice...when you are in this position, you will understand".... that is why when many of us see those that say we are liars, and then try to use the same language to put us in our place that was used before, it is re-living the past over again. it is especially true now that the society is intent on getting those who are telling the truth about the truth on dateline out of the organization. i used to sincerely witness to others about the atrocities committed by the catholic church that they only covered up. i will never say such a thing again. at leqast now they are finally...if too late... honest about their problem and doing something about it. how can anyone say the truth is honest about their pedophile problem? how can anyone say they have protected the children? how can anyone say that they are not covering over the problem? at least i have never heard of the catholic church excommunicating whistleblowers, the way the organization wants to disfellowship whistleblowers. the way they have done in the past...the way they are trying to do to bowen, anderson and the others RIGHT NOW! so, it is far more than insulting, when people are counting their time in here...it is a further violation. being told we are lying, exaggerating, or slandering...and then being told to just forget about it...to get back to meetings...(you assume people who tell the truth aren t there? ...shame on you again!) ...well you individuals saying such things are just a microcosm of what is going on in jehovah's visible earthly organization. and i would like to suggest that, instead on coming on this site and being job s comforters...accusing the innocent victims...that you keep your comments to the meetings, and in the door-to-door work.....that is unless you are the sexual molestors (did i mention how many of you sound JUST like them when you use theocratic language to battle the truth??) in which case i wish you would stay out of neighborhoods, and out of the meetings...away from innocent children. the experience of thousands...including many who will NEVER talk about it on line, is that the true victims and their families, and their whistleblowers are the ones , if not outright drummed out, are slowly driven out by such in-justice, un-loving, un-wise abusers of power. do you assume i am one that left? maybe. maybe not....everything that has been said by me could well have been said by anyone in or out of the organization. and has been. the fact is if you want to continue to give me a choice of whether i love jw doctrine or my children more...guess which one i will choose? and for that will i be smitten by his angels at armegeddon? we will see.

I CAN SEE THR ELDERS SIDE. IF THERES NOT TWO WITNESSES TO THE FACT THERE SCRIPTURAL HANDS ARE TIED.I CANT REALIZE HOW SOMEONE CAN BE SO VICTOMISED BY SOMEONE WITH THE PRIVILEGE OF SHEPHERDING OF JEOHVAH'S PEOPLE. JUST AS IT SAYS ALL THINGS COME TO LIGHT IN DUE TIME. HAVE COURAGE .FRANK_PAR@MSN.COM to the ones who can see the elder’s side about 2 or more witnesses

since when is that the real issue?

the elders of TWO congregations REFUSED to hear the testimony of any witness that would say my daughter had been abused

wanna cover it up?

don’t allow the witnesses to speak... put a gag order on them...... don’t even allow the child to tell their story EASY!

then when they dare challenge the committe to produce witnesses or evidence.....

just say "you can be disfellowshipped for lying if you don’t confess!"

and for good measure you can add....

"the only evidence needed is that elders, who were appointed by holy spirit, feel YOU are the liar! do you dare speak against us and let yourself be disfellowshipped for APOSTASY? are you going to sin against the holy spirit?"

please...

don’t try to tell ANY member of my family that elders hands are tied...

they have more power and authority than ANY clergyman i have EVER seen don’t even try to tell my family members who are still in the truth who are elders pioneerts ministerial servants or bethelites that is the case

they all know better too

they have just learned to keep their mouths shut

so they don’t get some of the same medicine
Does anyone have news of the status of the committee decisions with silentlambs founders?

Hey, "Can See the Elders' Side": All things in due time? Are you kidding? We're not talking about a slap on the cheek, or some sort of insult. We are talking about some slimy, self-righteous Ministerial Servant grabbing some kid, perhaps while on an upbuilding visit to some vulnerable single sister, and doing stuff that should get them executed. If it was your kid, would you really tell your family, including your vulnerable child, that we just need to wait for Jehovah to bring it to light? If you could look at your innocent child and say something like that to him/her, then you are every bit as disgusting as any of the rest that would cover up the abuse of our most vulnerable. How would you feel if the family ahead of you in the pedophile's path had made that same decision. Don't you think you may have decided that Jehovah perhaps was trying to enlighten through that prior family? ...and thereby spare your son/daughter from that creep's ham hands? Wouldn't you put blame on those that had covered up before? If it were your kid, you wouldn't set on the comfy perch you are on and crow that the elders had no choice. If you are a responsible parent, or any kind of christian at all, you would demand that the perpetrator be reported to the authorities, that all children in the congregation be protected, as well as those children outside of the congregation. I feel sorry for any children around you that you could help but don't. I don't think anyone with reason would believe that anyone that would allow these things to go on deserves life everlasting on a paradise earth.

Hi again, I have heard about the Judicial(sp) committees set up. This site must be influencing some of the witnesses to rethink their positions and some must be writing the society protesting...

I think that the scripture in Ps. 94: 21 says it all "They make sharp attacks on the soul of the righteous one and pronounce wicked even the blood of the innocent one." Isn't this what they are doing it?
Both my X's go from door to door. One of them has all these calls on single women with children or some older who maybe widowed. He offers to work for them and get them good deals. He is very pushy and doesn't take no for answer. He was on probation for assault at the time (he was calling on all these women) which I didn't know about at the time.

This is to the person who doesn't have the guts to sign their name (May 12, 2002 time 08:51:35) How can you call someone a liar and say they are slandering when you were not even there? Where do you get off judging the accounts told by the victims here? You judge us in the way Jesus would not even judge Satan. He left it to God saying may "Jehovah rebuke you." Do you want to be judged the way you judge us? You are doing what Jesus would not!!!

Quote: "Wishing you believed in hell because you would tell us to go there." The bible commands to love your enemy and pray for those persecuting you...You really don't sound very Christian in light of these scriptural thoughts. Sounds like you would be one of the persecutors (Pedophiles)!!! The identifying mark of a true Christian would be their love. So where is your love? DJB

JWs are the biggest hypocrites in the world. They say they follow the example of Christ, yet they have the nerve to protect the pedophiles and not the victims. Does that sound like something Jesus would do? Definitely not. Also, do they follow his example by hating everyone else? Well he did say to "love your enemies," didn't he?

I am currently an active Jehovah's Witness. As a parent of two small children, my heart truly goes out to any children who suffer at the hands of an abuser. In the only case of abuse that I am personally familiar with in the congregation, the abuser was removed from his position of authority, the civil authorities were notified, and the abuser ended up going to prison.

While reading the posts on this site, I have read a lot of stories about people who are unhappy with the way they feel problems have been handled. While not discounting these stories, there are usually at least two sides to every story. Even when problems are not handled in the best way, we always have to remember that the organization is made up of imperfect humans, so we cannot expect perfection from them. Just because someone has been appointed by holy spirit does not mean they will not make mistakes. As with any injustice I see in this old system, I firmly believe that Jehovah, the Just God, sees what is happening and will make each person answer for his actions.

Hi again, To clarify a previous comment I made about using theocratic talk and respect to forward this in the public eye. I was referring to winning over the sincere witnesses not the corrupt elders who swear, jump up and down waving their arms and fists at us and yelling. Reviling us with their name calling. Threatening us...these we would probably never convince anyways as they are the problem.
The two witness rule does not always mean the witnesses are two people, it could also apply to a situation when a parent finds evidence of abuse such as bruises on a child. Then the other witness is the child when they described what happened. This equal two. A witness could be the evidence found...

The man who wrote in about repressed memories not being excepted as evidence. My father believes in repressed memories because he was in car accident and he remembered nothing after the accident, then later in dreams (as nightmares) the memories started to return and flash backs during the day. He was sixty at the time. His thought was an event can be so traumatic that we will repress it until a later time when we are able to handle it. So when my daughter decided to talk he believed her and encouraged me to do likewise...DJB

Hi everyone, My name is Blank lol as we all know if we go public we get disfellowshipped.

I live in Canada, My daughter was repeatedly molested by a brother in our congregation she was 14 he was 27 years old. I found out about this and went a little crazy and well lets say he forget me for a long time.

But the whole situation was all about me and my beating him up the elders never got involved with checking on our family or assisting my daughter through this difficult time.

I have wanted to leave the Organization since this happened but have not been sure what to do.

I am pleased only with the fact that we are not alone and this site is available.

I believe every story I have read and I know of so many others from my 21 years of being around the TRUTH?? I hope the Watchtower is happy, but I becoming more and more convinced they are not being blessed by Jehovah while there sneaky ways continue.

Thank-you Michael From Ottawa, Canada.
Hi everyone, I will just say this my 14 year old daughter was molested by a 27 year old brother and I beat him up over it. Now I am the bad guy.

Oh well I learned a lot about the organization over it, people privately told me how it was about time someone did something about all this kind of stuff happening and it is always kept hush hush, I for one don't think how I handled it was right.

But I will say this Jehovah's Witnesses have 2 rule books 1 THE Bible and 2 The watchtower set of rules.

I have moved on from the incident but the mishandling of it all and the discouragement WE ALL RECEIVED from the local elder body left a very bad taste in our mouths.

Michael From Ottawa, Canada.

I have chosen not to identify myself as I have not made up my mind if I am staying or going, but wanted everyone who reads this to know WE ARE NOT ALONE and I thank all involved for being this brave.

Thank-you for finally losing the fear that the organization can place upon it's people and speak out for what is truly scriptural. The truth will set you free, and now you have the chance to express it. I'm sure that as we go along we will find more "secrets" that the organization likes to keep, do not be afraid if they disfellowship you, you are fighting for what is right not only for God's children, but there are more than just Jehovah's Witnesses that live on this earth that have God's truth and can be your true friends. I encourage all people to continue to "seek and you will find, knock and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9,10. After many years as a dedicated servant to the Jehovah's Witnesses, I watched as my best girlfriend was molested by her uncle, also a Witness, he, to this day, has still gotten away with it, and also saw the anguish my own sister went through with our own uncle, and then have an abusive husband who managed to get her disfellowshipped so she would stay silent to other sisters who may encounter him after the divorce. Still, I have managed to find true peace and happiness in a Christian faith, it is out there....seek....knock....pray. Love to all my brothers and sisters, Cindy, email, Gelfin18@aol.com

Mr. Bill Bowen you are a brave man. I was so moved by your web site, I can relate to this web site - 15 years ago I resigned too, but it wasn't till I read this site that I truly understand why I did. I believe in Jehovah God and I believe in the Bible. I do not believe in MAN. I have been associated with JWs for most of my life. I truly hope you put those pieces of scum out of people's homes! How scary to think that people who can never be cured of this mental problem are acting as leaders. In MD we have a web site now that we can look these people up on the internet living in our neighborhoods, they have to register with the State, and their pictures are there too. I also think making everyone who knocks on a door for religious reasons get a PERMIT. That issue is up before the Supreme Court. The article was in the Legal Times and hopefully this will be a tool to keep these liars out of our communities and out of our homes and away from honest people! This is another web site I found by accident, you may already know of this group. http://www.freeminds.org check them out. And thanks again for letting all of us know about this horrible crime and giving validation to us JW'xs -- CW in Maryland

Eric Henri, of Ottawa, Ontario is A Jehovah Witness and a Pediphile he remains in good standing in the local congregation however the local authorities now have his name as such. Eric associates with the Casselman Congregation, In Casselman, Ontario just outside of Ottawa, Canada. He has been dealt with by the local congregations however once again they have failed to see the importance of bringing this to the attention of others who may be affected.

This is wonderful. We must protect our children, not pedifilers! I was a Witness for 16 years and personally know of a case of pedifile. It started me thinking hard when I was told if I talked about what I knew to anyone, I'd be disfellowshipped! I am no longer a Witness. Thanks to my loving husband's help and my own good sence. Many Blessings to you all. Connie Parent cparent@centurytel.net

This website is giving a bad name to all witnesses all over the earth. This is clearly an isolated incident, of which imperfect humans are trying to make sense out of this crazy world and they did, without a doubt make a big error in judgement. But you know as well as I do that witnesses are not crooked, so it is wrong of you to even try to compare them to the Catholic Church and all their problems. A faithful follower of Jehovah

I read of William Bowen's resignation as a church elder in protest of the way the church treated the sex abuse victims---way to go, Mr. Bowen! Thank you for having the courage to do what is right rather than what was easiest.

Hello, my name is Kristie Metcalf, and my ex-husband, his mother and sister are all JW's. My ex was molested as a child, and in turn molested his sister. His mother was so ashamed that she never even tried to get her children help to deal with their troubles. The family lives in denial to this day. Your site is so informative and helpful to me, knowing what they were going through. Please pray for them, Dustin, Katrina, and Loni Metcalf. God Bless you and keep you!
Hi, Michael, avishai here. I hope you beat the hell outa that guy, like any other good father. My dad was an elder & as the visiting speaker for the sunday public talk, saw that a lady who grew up w/ him was beaten black & blue by her husband, took him out during the intermission (it was the early 70's) beat him up, & took her back home to her family. You did the right thing. THE MORAL thing as a father, because that's the only kind of justice he'll get from his congregation. Lemme guess, did the elders ask what "her part in all this" was? Did they try to pin any blame on her? Betcha ten bucks they did. As for the other person that said this site was giving witnesses a bad name, take some personal responsibility. WITNESSES are giving witnesses a bad name, get over your persecution complex, nobody here cares about that, they just want kids to stop being molested. And as for witnesses not being crooks, I can name several. A close relative of mine, for one, an elder, who went to prison for 10 years for being a crook, besides all of the pyramid scams that go on,(amway, etc.) Pull your head out, pal! Read the bible, lot's of people in "Jehovah's org." were crooks. How about Gehazi? Achan, Korah, dathan & abiram? Eli, the high priest. Even king David. Judas? The pharisees? remember, they were part of Gods org. until Jesus died, according to your theology. THINK FOR YOURSELF!! WAKE UP!! How you treat the least of your congregation is how you will be judged. And to arrogantly sit in your tower & pass judgement is gonna get you in a lot of trouble! Another thing, since all of you are considered ministers if you put in time, ALL OF YOU ARE REQUIRED TO REPORT CHILD MOLESTING AS PER THE 1974 FEDERAL MONDALE LAW!!!!!! ALL PUBLISHERS, NOT JUST ELDERS!!!! avishai@hotmail.com

YOU ARE A SICK INDIVIDUAL, jw's ARE A FORCE FOR GOOD AND ARE THE ONLY PEOPLE I KNOW THAT STAND UP FOR TRUTH THE BEST THEY CAN. NEXT YOU'LL BE ATTACKING THEM ON THE BLOOD ISSUE OR THEIR NUETRALITY STAND, BUT OFFERING NOTHING BETTER, JUST HATRED AND CRITISM ABOUT THE FAITHFUL SLAVE. YOU'LL ONLY LOSE, YOU'RE FIGHTING THE WRONG PERSON.

No, they stand up for child molesters, & then df anyone who speaks up about it. So do you, if you are a publisher & hear about a child molester. A force for good? At least the catholics feed hundreds of thousand of people. Where is the jw mother theresa? Oh, I forgot, you only give people "spiritual food & healing". Jesus said to also do it for real. Name ONE jw nobel prize nominee & I might shutup. JUST KIDDING!!!HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAH! No, this site is not about the blood issue, it's about little children being fucked, in every way possible, & having no one to help them. Fucked in the anus, vagina, & orally. Fucked spiritually. Fucked over & over & over again, because no one will turn the FUCKERS in. So, jw babies keep getting fucked by big strong men & women. I'm not going to apologize for the ugly language, because what is happening is far uglier & I'm tired of these euphemisms like "molested". If you want to judge me for Bad language, go right ahead.Fuck you!

These people who are crying about JW's being given a bad name are just being selfish. You obviously don't care about the rest of a child's life being destroyed because of some ass the elders protected just to save themselves and the organization embarrassment. You obviously haven't been through it yourself nor have you had a child you loved been through it. And you are obviously so blinded and brainwashed by the org. that you think this is all just fine because "the society says so." IT IS WRONG AND ABSOLUTELY DISGUSTING THAT YOU PROTECT AND DON'T REPORT THESE PEOPLE TO THE AUTHORITIES!! CHILDREN DON'T DESERVE THIS!! PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN - NOT THOSE ASSHOLES!!

I don't believe that involving the police or the District attorney's is the answer. They are the problem.

Let the families handle that.

Not the congregation's

Why is this even a religious issue after all?

Congregation members should not be alone with others not their family members.

If they are then that is trouble waiting to happen.

And this end up being a credibility contest.

My that was interesting reading for today. It certainly was a wide range of vocabulary. We get the point. Yes it is true, one could think that if it was just an isolated incident one could question it. I don't even have to relate our story because bits and pieces of it have been related just in the current guest book. Jehovah doesn't need us to proclaim his name, he said the rocks could speak. He also doesn't need his name protected. For that matter this isn't about him this is about injustice and innocent children. As parents we are responsible for them that is a god given job. We have been hindered in many cases by the elders themselves, in my case my children were scolded and told they were at fault. Think about it!!!!! Just wanted to say hello. jgibson@hamburg.heartland.net

Well, I wish we could leave it up to families, but then a lot of child molesters would be dead. Fine. But then a lot of parents would be in jail, compounding the problem. These are not problems simplistically solved by just the family w/out the d.a, etc. Plus, then if they don't take care of it, the molester just runs around & does it again. What then, oh wise one?

This site is for JW's who have witnessed some form of abuse and were asked to 'cover it up' by the society right? And it is the intent of silentlams to correct the organization personally by telling everyone that they should protest the way the organization handles things so he can continue to be one of JW's?

First of all, what would you like to happen to all the molesters or JW's that have abused another person? Would you like for them to be imprisoned? Given the death penalty? Regardless, if you ever believed that Jehovah will judge everyone at armageddon, why would you want to judge everyone before armageddon? Whoever you are and however much you know about a situation, the one thing you do not know is what's in the accused person's heart. If they honestly are sorry for what they did, why would you want to be the judge that determines how that person will spend the rest of their life? I'm not taking sides, but far be it for me to condemn anyone or even ask other people to condemn them for any mistakes they made.

What if someone accused you of raping someone and you know you didn't do it? If that person told their friend to lie for them and say they saw you raping them, would you want to go to jail or be put to death for a crime you know you didn't commit? It is very easy to accuse anyone of anything at any time. And it is not the job of the elders in the congregation to judge for themselves who should be punished for any of them.

When you join an organization, you accept a certain set of laws and regulations. Although they may not be perfect, you ACCEPT them. If you decide not to accept them, then you leave that organization and go elsewhere. If you don't believe that JW's are not the organization backed by God, then go to another one that you believe is. However, if you do believe that JW's are backed by God, and you publicly criticize that organization, then your are publicly criticizing the same God that you believe in, whether you would like to admit it or not. I'll tell you what though, if you believe there is a 'perfect' religious organization out there, I sure would like to know the name of it. I would also like to know how perfect it really is.

This is an imperfect world with imperfect people. Not everything we believe to be right is what's actually right in God's eyes. No matter how much we believe that we are right about something, if Jehovah God tells us through his organization that we are wrong, then obviously we are wrong. There's no if and's or but's about it. When you're wrong, you're wrong.

It is ridiculous that people are saying that 5, 10, 18, 20 years ago a priest molested them. That is as bad as the blacks stating that their relatives were slaves so they should be compensated.

Get over it and move on. Many blacks have. They are not imprisoned slaves, while some choose to be. So why are some who have been touched, or fondled 10 or 20 years ago still imprisoned. It's not necessary.

They are not battered or abused, those are events that happened long ago.

Sure many may not like that being said. They want revenge, they want someone to pay. Making the molester pay is not enough now we got this idiot Bowen, making innocent people (JW's) pay.

If someone was abused, revenge is not the answer. That person can be healed through Christ. (someone whom Bowen has left).

Maybe the reason some of us are making such a big deal about the abuse that happened when we were younger is so that more innocent children do not have to endure the same horrible things we did at the hands of the SAME PEOPLE! Many of us are healed and are trying to make sure that someone else doesn't have to go through the same healing process that took us so long to get through. HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT OF THAT?!? Mr. Bowen is trying to protect more children not tell them to get on with their lives and forget about it. What about you, would you be willing to become the object of rejection to try and protect innocent lives? I think not. JP

i read that on the night of bowen s judicial committee there will be a candlelight vigil in the town for all who wish to see an end to innocent young abuse victims being threatened with disfellowshipping if they tell i cried for my sister ... raped by a temporary (auxillary) pioneer, who was a close friend of my brother (now a bethel elder) .... she was only trying to come into the truth like her big brothers .... trying to attend meetings .... go in the field ... to study .... trying to ONLY associate with jehovah s people , instead of those "evil worldly people....bad associations"

i cried for my sister again .... along with my littlest brother ... because when the two of them stopped studying and coming to meetings ...and my brother and i .....we were too busy with our new "family" spending all our spare time going to meetings... studies... door to door ... assemblies ... and conventions...we were too busy doing god s work to notice or worry that our step father used the older siblings being away to take advantage of those two children

i cried for both my EXes ....raised in the truth....molested by their fathers repeatedly....honoring their parents...the inner turmoil they had ...which finally took it s toll on them...tearing them apart

i cried for my daughter ... horribly abused by her stepmother...with me at first to blinded by the "truth" to see it...until it was too late

i cried that i was stupid enough to try to salvage that marriage .... believing everything that the naysayers in this guestbook also so ardently believe...that jehovahs earthly representatives...guided by holy spirit could and would fix it....i cried that i furthered my childrens pain trying to make them "wait on jehovah" too...i cried that i got in trouble trying to make my daughter away from her abuser and considered it "discipline from jehovah"

i cried when i remember how the elders treated me and my children for wanting them to take action against a second generation child abuser who remained in good standing....and i cried when i thought of all the slander they perpetrated against my family for finally putting a child s welfare above that of not rocking the theocratic boat...and i cried that i believed i was developing a "bad attitude" like they said....and followed the bible s advise to "call upon the older men" to help restore my waning faith and spiritual sickness....the same ones who didn t give a shit about my children...and further proved it by refusing to make sheparding calls on either me or my kids....i cried that i furthered the pain of my children by continuing to take them to meetings, etc. when i just needed to take them away......i cried in shame for my part of co-dependence in this theocratic family

and i cried in empathy for other families who have taken a stand for the children....who put actual truth above saying we are "in the truth"...and are now being administered "jehovah s loving discipline" by being disfellowhipped

and i cried for you people, who continue to harangue the truth-tellers....knowing exactly how you feel....because i used to feel the same way...and i wonder how many of you might actually be victims yourselves ...or have family that are...and realize that you are saying the same things that the abusers are?...the same thing that the leadership(in the congregations and the headquarters) are saying?
i cried because i know that my family and i will not be able to be there....with our own candles

i would like to ask for volunteers to burn special candles for each victim in my family...since we cannot attend at this time

it would mean a lot

To the person who is concerned that telling the truth about the Truth, is making a bad name for “witnesses all over the earth.”

I remember being taught that Jehovah’s Witnesses who committed shameful acts, and tried to cover them over, were the ones who brought reproach on God’s Divine Name.

That is the “Truth,” as I was taught by the literature of the “faithful and discreet slave class.”

That would apply to JW child molesters…and to elders…and to judicial committees…and to representatives in the Brooklyn headquarters, who cover them up, and tell victims and their families to shut up.

THAT is what I was taught and raised to believe.

Has it changed?

Does this NEW LIGHT teach us that actually we are no longer to get rid of sexual deviants, but protect them, that reproaching Jehovah’s Name, by doing so IS NO LONGER THE ISSUE? Does the spiritual “food at the right time” now teach us to punish the rape victims who tell, because the reputation of JWs must be protected by LIES? The Divine Name of the Witnesses?

Oh I see, after reviewing the history of the fact that this has been the case since Charles Taze Russell to this modern time, the faithful slave class now understands with the Light ‘that gets brighter and brighter until the perfect day’ that we must tolerate and exonerate all JW pedophiles. "Meat in due season” teaches us that we should follow the example of Job’s false comforters. It is our holy duty to squash those who dare speak the truth about what is our Theocratic responsibility to hide. Don’t let the world know that JWs are the secret abiding place of these unclean and hated things. WE must lie, so as to protect the reputation, and the vast holdings of the Society from Satan’s agents, who would uncover our pedophiles and press criminal charges, or worse….SUE!

Gee, does this mean I am an apostate for not keeping up with this NEW LIGHT, for being blinded by the OLD LIGHT I was originally taught?

Or does this mean that people like you and Brown are the apostates for doing the opposite of what we used to be taught?

Or does this mean that we really haven’t discerned the difference between Light and darkness, all these years?
Just food for thought........

i used to preach that priests defiling children was proof that they were part of the false religious harlot babylon the great

as the catholic church cleans up their mess and publically tries to rectify their sins

it is the same time that it is coming to light that the witnesses have an even more abhorent record

it is the same time that the witnesses are spending tremendous time, energy and resources to silence abuse victims

it is the same time that victims families are being disfellowhipped for not helping with the lies

i have never heard of a choirboy excommunicated for revealing he was molested by a pedophile priest

now i hang my head in shame

shame that i have taught so many people that they could be free of such things by becoming a part of "jehovah s only true organization"

i wish i could undo all of that witnessing

i wish i could tell them all the truth

the truth of what my family has experienced

the truth of what countless families have experienced

shame on me

but the true colors of the faithful ones who protect rapists and punish rape victims in the organization

he speaks to this issue more eloquently than any of us could

for me, personally, i know of twenty something cases in about eleven congregations in four states....that i have personal knowledge of....they include new england, west coast, the south and the midwest....there huge numbers that are coming forth from witnesses and former witnesses allover the usa, canada, norway,britain,australia and other countries.....WHAT IS YOUR POINT? is there a need to minimize these crimes by trying to prove they didn t happen in all fifty states? the heartfelt experiences shared by thosein this guestbook are only the tip of the iceberg....the society is even trying to DF a woman who has personal knowledge of the vast extent of this problem across the country,because of her work formany years in the world headquarters, at bethel.....i remember allthe assembly talks we had during the 70s because scores of elders and their wives were DFed for wife swapping ....the society didn t try to cover over these things that they considered problems.... and they were far fewer than the cases of pedophilia...not rallying for wife swapping here....but if i were asked which i would rather the congregations be protected from.....it would be child rape....why has the society had their historically had their nose in every aspect of a married couples bedroom for years...but continued to turn a blind eye to this horrendous sex crime? why don t they spend their energy cleaning up this ugly mess...instead of trying to hide it?

Alright now to those incomps who have made ignorant comments to the following effects (earlier posts)

1. The Catholics have admitted to their mistakes and are trying to do something about it. Yeah it only took a couple millenniums! Have you people ever heard of the “Reformation?” Well thats a misnomer...nothing was reformed...rather a whole new, and more tolerant, host of religions were created, all because for centuries upon centuries the Church had refused to admit to or Reform anything. The council of Constance, along with solving the Great schism, did 3 other things. 1, Burned alive John Hus, 2, would have burned alive Wycliffe except HE WAS ALREADY DEAD, and 3, imported 3000 prostitutes for its 500 delegates. Priests before the Reformation openly had concubines and prostitutes. After the Reformation, those who still could not take their vows seriously had to do so in secret, which they have been. As part of the counter-reformation, behold that piece of history we all know and love, the Inquisition. yeah, now in the 20th century, the church is having grand councils about this big problem of pedophilia...forget what other forms of vow breaking are going on.

2. “i don t have any faith that jw s will ever be as candid about their problem as the catholics have finally done” - Finally is right pal! I believe my first response is sufficient.

Final note. I believe pedophiles should be drug behind a dog sled team over the Alaskan frontier allowed to slowly freeze to death after breaking many bones in their body. Thats an emotional response. But, it not being my place to judge, I will let Jehovah do it. That DOESN'T absolve us of responsibility to tolerate no uncleanness. That is something that will be resolved, as all other things have been resolved in my chosen religion. If the organization had taken the other route from the beginning, this silent lambs site would probably be about those falsely accused of pedophilia. (sp?) But, at least, when it comes to comparing Witnesses to Catholics, get real! Look at history before you say ignorant things.

The Bible says to obey the "Laws of the Land" as long as they don't conflict with the Laws of God. It means that God who is allowing the governments to "Stand" presently wants us to report a crime when it happens. To cover over a crime of this nature is "against" the Laws of the Land and is immoral.

It is very simple the WTBTS has covered itself in egg and their is no way out of this.
Remember God did say what is carried on in "secret" will be "revealed". It won't help the WT to try to scare its members into NOT seeing Dateline either. What happened to the "admonition" in the Bible to "test" everything against the "scriptures"?

I guess for the WTBTS that means "listen very carefully to what we say, not what we do". Good grief, when is the merry go round going to stop. Wake up world. Satan is tugging on your blindfold.

Hi again, There was an article in the Toronto Star about WTS setting up Judicial Committees. Apparently from what I heard they were made up of 8 elders. This is to give the impression that they will give a more righteous judgement and impression of fairness. Is what they are doing right? Is it justice for the victims? Who are the victims here the children or the pedophiles? Consider this...

They have been told long before they ever meet with any of the victims/supporters what to render as their verdict. So I ask where is the justice in this? Can one imagine if it was done like this in a court of Law? Can one imagine rendering a verdict before hearing the evidence? This used to be called "Kangeroo Court". It is rigged when the outcome is decided ahead of time. Who are they kidding? Does the means justify the end?

The victims deserve JUSTICE. To call what the victims are doing, by specking out, "revenge". This is a way to make them appear as thou they are the ones who are the problem. The PSALMS says it is wicked for someone to pronounce the innocent as wicked and pronounce the wicked as being righteous.

Jesus talked about the religious leaders of his day and the corruption. This Jesus did while the Jews were still the people Jehovah was using. This did not change until his death. He said the religious leaders were "white washed graves that outwardly appear beautiful but inside are full of dead mens bones". Jesus condemned their hypocrisy.

The bible tells use it was "written aforetime for our instruction..." We are to learn from these examples. Jesus set a model for us to follow his steps closely. That is why they were written for us.

They always talk about how the elders must keep the congretations "clean and unified". Let me ask who is causing the divisions? Is it the victims? Who started this sorry mess? Isn't it the Pedophiles the ones making the congretations unclean? Let us never forget it is their behaviour that is at issue. Isn't this an issue because the elders fell down on their job by not keeping the congretation clean? Why are the victims blamed for the disunity when theirs is only a reaction to already bad situation that they didn't create or start? If a certain amount of disunity is a result shouldn't we put the blame where it really belongs? On the PEDOPHILES and those who cover up for them? Why shot the messager? Why disfellowship those who expose these pedophiles for what they are? Will silencing them make the congretation any cleaner in Jehovah's eyes? The scriptures say to "remove the wicked man from among yourselves."

The scriptures promise "what is secret will not remain hidden." Maybe this is the time for it to come out?

to the one that doesn't like comparisons of the catholic church and jw's

since i made a number of those posts...i would like to clarify a few things

first of all...i am well aware of both the historical and the contemporary atrocities committed by the church...including those you mentioned

secondly...i would no more make excuses for those than i would the atrocities committed by either religion

third point....i was trained as a jw to point out that we had no such problem with child molesting...that was a problem of catholic clergymen .... i used the literature which exposed such truths about the church to promote an organization that was a "spiritual paradise" free of such worldly taint

fourth point....i taught lies....and brought people into an organization in which they were ultimately abused

the comparison had to do with carrying what i was taught to its full conclusion

and the comparisons were simply on the issues of what has been historically done by both religious organizations on the subject of this guestbook....along with the irony that the church is now doing what the society has always claimed to do...and the society is now doing what it has always pointed out the church is doing...along with taking it a step further and df ing the ones taking a stand for the children

I never read anywhere in any any of JW's books, magazines, brotures, or tracts of any statements, whether directly or indirectly, that the JW organization is perfect. In fact, if my memory serves me correctly, I remember reading somewhere that their organization where they admitted that there are many from within that do not have God's spirit, and that just being one of JW's will not guarantee that they will recieve everlasting life. No matter what you were 'raised up to believe', if you don't have God's spirit, you will not understand how it works and thus you will question everything that you believe is wrong.

The person that posted the message about us not being the judges of other people was right. Even if we did report every single incident of every single wrongdoing that a person does (including molestation) we would never come close to bringing an end to the problems. And if you are a part of an organization that preaches that Jehovah is the only one who can bring about the ultimate justice and get rid of all mankind's problems, then why would you take it upon yourself to try to get rid of who, in your minds, are bad people. If you ever really believed in your religion, then why would you want to get rid of mankind's problems yourself instead of waiting on your God? I understand you may be getting impatient, since no one knows how long it will be until the end of this system of things, but a part of what JW's are all about is being patient. If you don't have the patience to wait on your God to bring justice to this world, then you obviously don't have what it takes to be one of JW's and however many years you spent as one were obviously wasted.

I agree, no matter how bad it is, we should all remember that we all sin. There is no such thing as a small sin or a big sin, the fact of the matter is they are all sins.

If you teach people not to hate others because of their sin, but to hate the sin itself, then you are becoming a hypocrite by hating the people who are molesting these children.

I may sound like some sort of molester supporter, but I really am not. I hate the whole idea of it, but I don't hate the people that do it. You never know what situation the person may have been in to commit such an act, just as you never know the situation a person that committed fornication or adultery may have been in.

If you want to throw a person in prison for molestation, then why not throw a person in prison for adultery or fornication? It is all having sex with a person that you are not supposed to according to the Bible. The only difference is age.

I just want to close by saying that I'm sorry for anyone who had to go through molestation of any sort. It is unfortunate that in this imperfect world, we must face many sins committed against us as well as our own sins.

I would like the creator of this site to respond to the following question, if possible. Do you honestly believe that what the religion teaches is accurate according to the bible? (Notice that I used the word "teaches" and not "the way they handle certain situations") And if you do believe that what they teach is true, then why would you allow people to come on to this site and tell everyone that what they teach is wrong?
Thought we didn't believe in double standards?

We can point out these imperfections in all other religions, and call it wickedness, and point out that Jehovah doesn't like it.

We are not allowed to say it's wrong for bus to do the same thing.

Now tell me again how we are not religious hypocrites?

Now we are enlightened that fornication and adultery between consenting adults is just as bad as forcing yourself upon a child.

How silly we have been to vilify JW rapists, after all they're only imperfect!

Let's all go back to saying these things are only bad if other religions do them!

It's OK to admit that first century Christians were messed up....but if we publicly say the same thing about our own religious leaders, we are naughty!

I'm gonna go to confession...oops I mean a Judicial Committee, and beg them to reprove me for the bad attitude I've had about protecting children, instead of their reputations.

Thank you for setting me straight!

" why not throw adulterers and fornicators in jail, if you wanna throw molesters in jail? It's all the same to jehovah. the only difference is age"

do you hear yourself?

let's try this....

if it IS all the same to jehovah...

then why don t committees treat them all the same?

why disfellowship adulterers and fornicators....but rarely do that to those that rape children?

why does the society cover up this double standard?

why do youths and their families that report child abusers get harrassed and disfellowshipped?

tell me why?

tell my offspring why

you may be counting your time for this....but your words are driving people away from the organization

To Bill Bowen,

re: SL Guest Book post 16 May 2002 @ 23:22:02

Please, please, PLEASE do not respond to the question posed to you at the end. It is a trick! I am well aware that you could handle yourself well. I have seen this type of set up before. I would not be surprised if this was sent by a member of your Judicial Committee, or by Brown or another representative at headquarters. As the Dateline episode AND your Committee meeting approaches, this is exactly the type of bait typically used to shift the focus away from the issue of child molesting and cover ups, and label you an apostate. I can guarantee that no matter what your answer, it will be twisted around. Leave it alone, please. The post will likely be printed and brought up to you at your meeting anyway. Or asked directly.

As for the one who sent this question, and the way you couched it. How dare you bring up what some people post on this site to use against him? What control does he have of that? Surely, if there was any control, he could prevent those who attack the ones who come forward with the TRUTH. Why does he not block those who use the Name of God to browbeat and mock those who share how criminals have infiltrated the organization and run amok, aided and abetted by elders and by the policies of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society. Every kind of post is placed here, Victims and their families who are looking for a safe haven to express themselves are not protected from harrassment of those doctrine-thumping apostates, anymore than they are protected from the likes of you. ("no such thing as a big or small sin...they are all the same"...INDEED! What about a "sin against the holy spirit"? What about "grievous sins"? What about sins that have "massed clear up to heaven"? The organization has NEVER taught that all sins are the same, except when minimizing it's own wrongs. If you have a new teaching, then who is to say YOU are not an apostate. Who is to say YOU are not sinning against the holy spirit by protecting liars and endeavoring to entrap and silence truth tellers that would champion the very issues and spiritual "widows and orphans" we are charged by God's Word to champion and protect?) If he can't block the ridiculers who come and mock those in pain, using Jehovah's Name (isn't THAT a "worthless way" to use it?), how can he block others, who ALSO come in with their own agendas? How about we apply the teaching from the old Kingdom Ministry? The one that said we as JWs might not want to discriminate? The one that said a JW milkman should not refuse to deliver milk to a house of ill repute, and should not be vilified for that? The Silent Lambs site, FOR THE RECORD, has NO links to apostate sites, and has NOTHING posted by the founder that supports, or alludes to the apostate materials. FOR THE RECORD the Governing Body has an extensive library of books, including all the apostate material some have quoted from in this Guest Book, and they are the only ones allowed to read them. Come to think of it, I would not be surprised if one of them, or one of their charges posted that material, and followed up by having another post the follow up "I see someone has read...". TO ALL YOU READERS WHO CARE ABOUT THE TRUTH, do not fall for this type of post that tugs at your sense of loyalty to the organization. If you are loyal to it, then STAND UP FOR KEEPING IT CLEAR of rapists! Don't participate in hiding the sins.

1 Corinthians

5:11 "But now I have written unto you NOT TO KEEP COMPANY, if ANY MAN that is called a brother be a FORNICATOR, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat."

5:12 "For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?"

6:2 "Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and IF THE WORLD SHALL BE JUDGED BY YOU, ARE YE UNWORTHY TO JUDGE THE SMALLEST MATTERS?"

6:3 "Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?"

6:5 "I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, NOT ONE THAT SHALL BE ABLE TO JUDGE BETWEEN HIS BRETHREN?"

6:6 "But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers."

6:7 "Now therefore there is utterly a FAULT AMONG YOU, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?"

6:8 "Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren."

6:10 "Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, SHALL INHERIT THE KINGDOM OF GOD."
6:11 "And SUCH WERE SOME OF YOU: BUY YE ARE WASHED, but ye are SANCTIFIED, but ye are JUSTIFIED in the name of the Lord Jesus, AND by the Spirit of our God."

I'm no bible expert or anything, but it appears to me that sex "between consenting adults" (fornication and adultery), as well as abuse among men are all very serious sins for God to say that none of them will inherit his kingdom.

If people believe JW's try to cover up child rape because they do not dismember them, or disfellowship them (whatever), or lock them up and throw them in a pit somewhere, then they are sadly mistaken. There are many steps to disfellowshipping a person. For one, the sin has to be proven. One or two people may not be enough to support a story of a sin, especially of one that is as serious as rape. If the crime (sin) is confessed or is proven, then that person has the opportunity to prove that he is truly sorry for what he did. If the JW's believe that person really is sorry, then it is not within their authority to disfellowship the person. It's not like they know that a person raped a child but just sit back and not do anything about it. They take the same exact steps with fornicators, adulterers, idolaters, and every other serious wrongdoing. It disturbs me how blind you people really are.

I have been a witness for nearly thirty years; I was never disfellowshipped, reproved, or inactive. This organization has been my life. So you might find it surprising that this is a heartfelt thank you. Bill, thank you for having the integrity and courage to develop Silentlambs.com In our congregation the elders allowed a newly released from prison, registered sex offender to return the little victim’s congregation. They diligently protected the pedophile’s identity and did zero to support the child or her family or to warn other parents. Our repeated inquiries into the matter gained us a visit to the back room of the hall and an admonition to be quiet. I found the elders refusal to do the upright thing extremely odd so I decided to do some research on the Internet. I found Silentlambs and in a few hours understood the reality of the situation. I cannot imagine the years I might have wasted trying to understand what had happened if not for Silentlambs. I would have questioned—Was the problem with my attitude? Were the elder’s not following WBTS policy? Was the current Circuit Overseer the problem? But never would I have realized that the horrible circumstances that had shocked me so thoroughly were simply business as usual to WBTS. Yes, unfortunately, the policy on cover-up, blame the victim, etc comes down from the top, from Brooklyn. Thank you Bill for saving me many lost years. No wonder WBTS wants you stopped after all there are a lot of me’s in the organization and we are their best.

To the myopic one above that believes in the JW judicial system: I actually agree that it is not within the org's purview to disfellowship a truly repentant one. It is not to the JWs to forever kick out a wrongdoer. But the story doesn't NEED to end there. Just because someone is repentant doesn't mean that they should be allowed within the congregation without those at risk being told about the child molester among them. Just because he cried to the elders and promised not to do it again doesn't mean that authorities should not be contacted and the issue dealt with criminally. Just because an abuser may not do it again, doesn't mean that the cong.'s children are safe or, just as importantly, non-JW children within reach of the offender are safe. Even the most effective control within the cong. doesn't yet address JW's obligation to protect the vulnerable outside the organisation.

This issue is not whether the society kicks someone out. The issue is what they will or will not do to protect children in an out of the organisation. Will they take steps to see that they are not providing a haven for pedophiles from scrutiny - in the cong. and outside.

I am contiually stunned by the lack of concern for the 'worldly' kids. Consider if (assuming you're not such an overly indictnated JW automaton for a moment): your neigbor was a witness, and the local elders had reason to believe the neighbor was a pedophile, did nothing, and your child was a victim.

Look at the courts in Australia, the Catholic religion has a few more problems dont you think? But soon all the wrong that men have done will be corrected. You really have a chip on your shoulder dont you? What you hate about child molesters is so true , they destroy lifes, but just because a person calls himself a title, doesnt make the lot that way. Open up your eyes."

I respond:

Just because children of all religious faiths are being molested, doesn't make it right for JW children to be molested, does it? Does the wrongs of the multitude justify the wrong of one?

My comments; Go to Mr.Bill Bowen&the SilentLambs.Iknow Gods spirit,will be with all of you. Thanks for having the courage,strenght& ability to follow through,with this most difficult matter.This is a wonderful site,to vent a small portion of some of the anger and hurt, we all suffer sometimes. May the LAMBS be SILENT no longer.Thank you MR.BOWEN,for being our Shephard. May the GRACE of GOD be with you.My candle will be black & burning very VERY BRIGHT;;;;;;; WARM CHRISTIAN LOVE FROM Searchin@aol.com
My husband and me were JWs for 40 years.. Left for good by choice..Our children..all grown and married left the WTBTS by choice as well. After coming to this site, I am so thankful that we no longer associate with the WT organization. I am so disgusted with all that they represent.. How insensitive they are just to protect their own hide. My heart cries for all the victims of abuse who are still suffering the hurts caused by those perverts within the Society..as well as Society in general.

I hope that the DateLine program airs soon..May it open wide the eyes of many Witnesses..so they too may see the hypocrisy of the WTBTS Organization. Sincerely, Maria "Remote User: Date: 16 May 2002 Time: 00:32:15 Comments This site is for JW's who have witnessed some form of abuse and were asked to 'cover it up' by the society right? And it is the intent of silentlamb to correct the organization personally by telling everyone that they should protest the way the organization handles things so he can continue to be one of JW's?"

First of all, what would you like to happen to all the molesters or JW's that have abused another person? Would you like for them to be imprisoned? Given the death penalty? Regardless, if you ever believed that Jehovah will judge everyone at armageddon, why would you want to judge everyone before armageddon? Whoever you are and however much you know about a situation, the one thing you do not know is what's in the accused person's heart. If they honestly are sorry for what they did, why would you want to be the judge that determines how that person will spend the rest of their life? I'm not taking sides, but far be it for me to condemn anyone or even ask other people to condemn them for any mistakes they made.

What if someone accused you of raping someone and you know you didn't do it? If that person told their friend to lie for them and say they saw you raping them, would you want to go to jail or be put to death for a crime you know you didn't commit? It is very easy to accuse anyone of anything at any time. And it is not the job of the elders in the congregation to judge for themselves who should be punished for any of them.

When you join an organization, you accept a certain set of laws and regulations. Although they may not be perfect, you ACCEPT them. If you decide not to accept them, then you leave that organization and go elsewhere. If you don't believe that JW's are not the organization backed by God, then go to another one that you believe is. However, if you do believe that JW's are backed by God, and you publicly criticize that organization, then your are publicly criticizing the same God that you believe in, whether you would like to admit it or not. I'll tell you what though, if you believe there is a 'perfect' religious organization out there, I sure would like to know the name of it. I would also like to know how perfect it really is.

This is an imperfect world with imperfect people. Not everything we believe to be right is what's actually right in God's eyes. No matter how much we believe that we are right about something, if Jehovah God tells us through his organization that we are wrong, then obviously we are wrong. There's no if and's or but's about it. When you're wrong, you're wrong."

I said:

Losers like you make me want to scream. Your ignorance outshines any logical sense you have.
That's not the point. The children cannot protect themselves. It's up to their parents and all others that suspect, or know of allegations of abuse, to report it to the proper authorities. But the elders are not the police, you say, how can they judge? Right. Let the police do their job in protecting Society from these crazed perverts! There are laws that protect children; and soon there will be laws in "all" fifty states that require Clergy of ANY denomination, if they hear of sexual abuse, to report it to the authorities. And if the JWs, or any other religious leaders, for that matter, do not report it, then they should be held for the same criminal liabilities as the perpetrator!

Nuff said.

If you don't have the patience to wait on your God to bring justice to this world, then you obviously don't have what it takes to be one of JW's and however many years you spent as one were obviously wasted."

I say:

You don't feel any hesitance in reporting any wrongdoing on the part of your brother or sister to the elders, now why would reporting a suspicion of child sexual abuse, as a good citizen of the US and your community, be a problem for you? Even anonymously.

Another point you bring up is that you say the JW's are full of imperfect men. However, the Governing Body's claim to be the "faithful and discreet" slave here on Earth, and to be God's channel of communication to the Witnesses, it would seem to me that God is Perfect, and all communications from him to his "channel" would therefore be perfect, concise, and comprehensive. That clearly debunks your argument.

You said if you reported every incident of molestation, you would not come close to bringing an end to the problems. Nope, but you'd be one step closer to bringing an end to the to potential victims of a molesters. Your apathetic excuse is not justified.

You're a mindless robot, just like the other JW's, who can't think, even nominally, for themselves.

wow

like jws don't already know what it says

nice twist...not using the new world translation

but then again the way some who consider themselves more faithful rant on this list....maybe it's not even considered fornication

after all when i came into the truth PORNEIA fornication did not apply to anything except premarital sex the watchtower said that homosexual acts were not considered fornication OR adultery and you could not disfellowship your spouse on those grounds

the jw brother who wrote to the society and educated them on that got disfellowshipped for divorcing his wife for a lesbian affair and for going ahead of the organization

shortly thereafter new light revealed he was right

but we were told this story repeatedly as an example never to go ahead of the faithful slave

he was not offered reinstatement and we all were taught to consider him an apostate

so we went along with each new light shed on the biblical words translated as fornication adultery and fornication

cuz it is what is practiced

it is the fruits

maybe we should all go along with this new light that raping children is none of the congregations business to take care of

except to cover it over and punish the "apostates" who are going ahead of the faithful slave by saying it is wrong

PS historically the judicialcommittees simply refuse to listen to the two to witnesses of child abuse even when they are available

it is not unusual to allow and perpetrate slander that maybe the victims or their protective family members are the real abusers

that is one of the ways to discredit the whistleblowers passive/aggressively

and we used to be taught that 1 Corinthians five applied to civil lawsuits but not criminal charges

it also has never been used to keep a person from petitioning for divorce and testifying against their unfaithful spouses
so is this application to disobey ceasar s law to protect the child molesters some more new light?

I receive all your mailings and have been following what is going on with interest and great sorrow, I am not a J.W, and never have been. I am just a Christian follower of Jesus, a sinner forgiven.

That does not mean that I will hit out at J.W's as I am well aware that Jesus holds no bars to who He loves and who He died for.

I simply want you to burn a candle for all the silent lambs in Great Britain.

This issue needs to be exposed to the people of Great Britain as I believe not many have heard of what is going on. I have attempted to inform the media of what is happening but because this particular issue does not appear to be a major one in this country they do not pursue it.
I have also spoken to J.W's who absolutely deny any wrong doings and appear to be completely unaware of anything untoward happening within the Watchtower.

It is perfectly clear to me that the JWs, just like the Mormons, the Bahaia, the SDA, Oneness Pentacostals, Boston Movement, and some other "lost" so called "orthodox" churches are NOT God's "ONLY TRUE CHURCH". In fact, these groups are either full blown cults or cultishly behaived. I will describe in a nutshell what a CULT is for those who are gasping. A CULT is a man or group of men who stray from the TRUE Gospel of Christ and draw attention to themselves away from the focus on God.

Never in my whole life have I ever seen a group of people scrambling to cover their iniquities as I have seen the WTBTS who are trying to quickly silence the viewing of Dateline by "scaring" those who they have brainwashed into not seeing the truth. For so many years the WTBTS has preached "THE TRUTH SHOULD BE ABLE TO STAND UP TO A TEST" then out of the other side of their mouths they preach "DO NOT READ, NO DO NOT EVEN PICK UP ANYTHING WE HAVE NOT PRINTED"

In addition using the "SHUNNING" which is taken out of context and used as a horrible abusive tool to "Control" the membership. WTBTS don't think for a minute this will be over with just the Molestation issues. Slander, Libel, False Prophecies, Worship of the TRUE GOD, and others will be future issues for sure. Yes all in God's due time but, for now what has been done in Secret is now being brought to LIGHT, God's light, be prepared to reap what you have sewn.

I stumbled upon this site by accident, but after taking a look at some of the things you people are saying, it appears to me that you have all been overtaken by your emotions and you are trying to do everything in your powers to basically destroy all child molesters. What I mean by that is if you are or were one of JW's, then you're supposed to forgive everyone just as Christ forgave all of you. If a child molester is punished for his actions and tries to go back into his former religion, it wouldn't be loving or showing forgiveness to tell everyone in the world that the person is a child molester. Of course, it is something that everyone feels they should know, but how would you feel if someone told everyone else all the wrongdoing you have done in your life? You wouldn't like it, would you? In fact, you would probably tell that person that they are not showing love by respecting your private life. Child molestation is grouped in the same category as idolotry, fornication, etc. in the bible. So if you want to tell everyone if a person has committed the sin of child molestation, then shouldn't you also tell everyone if a person has committed idolotry or fornication?

P.S. - If you want to "Protect Our Children", then why don't you lock them all up in the cage somewhere? There are child molesters, rapists, murderers, etc. all around us. There's no getting around it. But we've lived our entire lives adapting to living along with them. Every religious organization is like another neighborhood. If we can live along with them in our neighborhood without knowing, then why can't we live along with them in our religious organizations without knowing? I, along with many other people, would rather not know the sins a person committed in the past. If people like you broadcast these sins of others to people like us who do not want to hear it, don't you think that will cause a division among your own people?

Hey Cult definition person, I don't see how reporting a child molester to the police has anything to do with directing attention to God.

And please tell me when the JW's have ever drawn attention for themselves away from God. (other than this website, which is directing all attention to JW's and no attention to God.)
Look at the facts everyone. The Jehovah's Witness organization is NOT interested in protecting its members. It is only interested in protecting its reputation. And assets. And it has, is and will continue to hurt its members to do so.

JWs say "don't judge us if we harbor pedophiles." BUT they also say, "We have the right to judge any who say the slightest negative thing about us. Even if it is the truth, we have the God-given right to call them liars. THEY have to be stopped. God doesn't love them. Only the ones WE choose to protect. And how dare you judge us for doing so?"

Don't believe it?

Go back and re-read the rantings of all those who are counting their time on this site.

I want everyone on this site to tell me exactly what punishment should an idoloter should receive.

Then I would like to know what punishment an adulterer should receive.

And, finally, I would like to know what punishment a child molester should receive.

First, tell me the punishment you would use if you were capable of doing it, then tell me what punishment the government would use, and then tell me what punishment the Bible says you should use. Please, do not leave out any details.
Good Luck in fighting the Watchtower. You certainly have my support. Katie dudeiamkatie@aol.com

QUESTION:
How can a JW adulterer/fornicator convince the Judicial Committee of elders NOT to disfellowship him?

ANSWER:
Tell them it was ONLY a minor.

QUESTION:
How can a child molester gain the protection of his religious leaders, have a multi-billion dollar, international corporation expend assets, energies, time, and propaganda to shield him AND be defended by countless mindless Bible-thumping enablers?

ANSWER:
Be a Jehovah's Witness

Who the heck says I was the one saying all the bad words? e-mail me, darnit, & allow me to respond! avishai@hotmail.com
'why not jail idolators or fornicators if you wanna jail child molestors?'

some of us are interested in protecting children

...apparently YOU like the rest of your organization do not...

'consenting adults having sex can get us just as killed at armageddon as easily as child molesting'

...gee and for a minute there i thought you were maintaining integrity out of love for god.....but you're just scared of the threat of death ....not unlike jw child rape victims threatened with death by jw pedophiles if they tell...and ultimately threatened with disfellowshipping AND being killed by god and having his eyeballs plucked out by ravens...such threats coming from bodies of elders ...who wanna protect pedophiles as much as you apparently do ....if one listens to your words

is the threat of death from jehovah sangels the only thing preventing YOU from committing a sex crime? seems to be the ONLY thing important to you

our kids certainly are not

Looking at some of the inane reasoning, or lack thereof, of those responding to an intellectual argument about double standards on sexual issues within the JW organization.... reminds me of how we always said there wouldn't be so many Catholic priests molesting kids, if they weren't so sexually repressed by having their sex lives unnaturally proscribed. Perhaps if your elders didn't get their rocks off asking how close married couples came to committing the "sin" of oral sex, or interrogating teenagers about details of their masturbation.... then.... perhaps there would not be so many sexually repressed JWs who decide that secret defilement of children is their only safe outlet. Ironically, it seems to be the only sexual action PROTECTED by elders... and the likes of J.R. Brown. Just a thought...

if you had true faith in a religion, then NOTHING could destroy that faith.

obviously, this religion, like many others, is full of hypocrites and liars. people are people, and they will continue to act like the rest of humanity.

being a JW doesn't make you a good person, and not being a JW doesn't make you a bad person.

this scandal's exposure is just proving what i have believed for the past few years since i stopped associating with JWs... that they are just another group of people who think they are 'above' everyone else... even the law... and common decency and respect for their fellow humans.
Now, as the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society is about to be exposed on Dateline, right as they scramble to silence honest JW whistleblowers, just as they have silenced child abuse victims...

Now...

they decide it is time to publish a bunch of articles trying to front like they really care about such issues!

“Food at the proper time”?

“Meat in due season”?

I used to think it was spiritual food for us.

This is nothing more than ass-covering propaganda.

Hi again, Response to May 16, 2002... So nice of you to clarify that you are not a molester supporter... You know I wouldn't have known since you are arguing for the side of the PEDOPHILES... You suggest mockingly... If we throw a person in prison for molestation why not throw in prison for fornication or adultery... FIRST adultery is between two consenting adults (you disfellowship for this) and is not against the law but CHILD MOLESTATION IS AGAINST THE LAW and involves a minor and an adult. BIG difference!! A child can't consent...

MY QUESTION FOR YOU IS, WHICH ONE OF YOU FROM THE WTS, WROTE IN THIS COMMENT? You were hoping Bill would answer your trick question...You are trying desperately to find something... one thing... a hint... so you can disfellowship Bill for apostasy. His site has become a real thorn in your side...

A letter written 6 years ago to you WARNED the governing body about what is happening now... all the law suits... It gave the example of Achan in Israel and how when he finally confessed it was too late and he was put to death anyways... NO FORGIVENESS... It suggested how you should be following this example in handling Pedophiles and to go public about who they are... but you did not listen to this letter...

Now what it said in this letter was warning to you (WTS) and you (WTS) did not listen. What it said is now coming TRUE!! Look at all the lawsuits!!

Response to May 16, 2002 00:32:15 stated “you do not know what's in the heart” and “imperfect...”. All this talk about imperfection is just away to minimize the issue. Give the abuse an excuse... The issue isn't about imperfection it is about criminal behaviour... it is about keeping the congregation CLEAN from these practitioners who repeatedly sin against our children... The Scriptures admonish “Remove the wicked man from among yourselves”. Does this scripture sound like WAITING on Jehovah? The bible commands that the congregation take decisive action!! Why is the WTS not following what we are scripturally admonished?
We "can't read hearts" but the scriptures says "it can help discern thoughts and intentions of the heart". It tells us that for forgiveness to happen "one must have works befitting repentance". By a person actions it tells us a lot about the type of person someone is. For example... What makes a thief a thief? It is his actions. What makes a pedophile a pedophile? It is his actions. WE DO NOT NEED TO BE A MIND READER.

Quote "when we join an organization we accept it's laws and regulations..." The Jewish Religious Leaders of Jesus day made many rules and regulations for the people. Jesus said they put heavy burdens on the people and they made the word of God invalid because of their tradition. So too today we joined because we believed they were following the bible NOT MAN MADE RULES and REGULATIONS... Because of these man made rules and policies it makes it impossible to protect our children and remain as one of Jehovah's Witnesses because of the threat of Df if we act on our childrens behalf!! Yet the bible tells us if "we do not look after our own we are worse than those without faith." Do we follow man or God? The answer is obvious! PROTECT THE CHILDREN That is what this web site is doing!! DJB

Dear Brother Bowen,

For 20 years I have been one of Jehovah Witnesses.

I am SADLY personally aware of the wicked events your web site chronicles.

However, though any child being abused is a disgusting thing, it isn't "the disgusting thing that causes desolation" as spoken through Daniel the prophet. Matthew 24:15,16.

That is/has been in place and the time of the end has begun.

(People reading this, you may have my resignation papers on request) If you take the time to consider my Resignation letter, (forgive any spelling or grammar errors please) you will see the foretold destruction of all wicked ungodly men is 2008.

That might seem an impossible thing to accept, I say don't accept it immediately, or deny it immediately, but check what is being said to you.

Jehovah's witnesses were the true religion in the 20th Century, of that I have no doubt whatsoever, but a disgusting thing which causes the downfall of the entire organisation was put in place by the organisation, a number of years ago.

I beg you please read my letter, as I have yours, I have followed your case, and believe the Great God Jehovah will bless your efforts for justice.

The organisation will fall, because it failed to realise it was being inspected by Christ.

Your website clearly shows, that it is men, not God, who is running the Watchtower now, but sadly most of the sheep like ones, are unaware of the truths you are bringing to public attention.

I wish you well in all of your endeavours, and I add that even if you choose not to read the letters I enclose, I appreciate I am dealing with a MAN, of impeachable integrity.
When I read of the seemingly limitless accounts of disgraceful abuse that has gone on behind closed doors, it reminds me of the account of Ezekiel, looking through a hole in the wall, and seeing all the wicked and perverse things going on inside Jerusalem, but Jehovah dealt with them then, just as HE WILL deal with these accounts.

My thoughts and prayers, be with you, and the little ones who have suffered, and are suffering, and one day will never suffer again.

May the True God Jehovah, through Christ, aid you at this time, and forever.

Your Brother forever. In THE LORDS WITNESSES! Ian Matthews Skelmersdale England. 01695 556756 Feel free to email me. To reach our helpdesk and talk to Gordon Ritchie, email helpdesk@lordswitnesses.com.

If you take the time, you will see that Nisan 14, 2008, is an absolute date, for Armageddon, and the 607-1914 isn't the only account of a 7 times, time period, 2,520 years.

You have one from being evicted from a promised land to going back into one. 3993 BCE to 1473 BCE (Adam kicked out-Israelites go back in).

Links that show the disgusting thing that causes true desolation to JW's.

I wish all Lambs, silent or vocal, a happy and prosperous life, free from the abuse you have all suffered, and we through you.

Since no one answered the three questions posted earlier, I am assuming no one can validate their beliefs from the state and/or the bible. Who said JW's thought they were above the law? I never heard the organization tell them they were above the law? Do their actions suggest it? Well, to be above the law would suggest that you break the law without expecting to be punished by the state or country you live in. Now, correct me if I'm wrong, but what law in what state says that it is illegal to not report a child molestation? The society isn't breaking the law by not reporting these cases.

Some of the people in here continue to say that child molestation is worse than adultery and fornication. What scripture in the bible states this? How can you back up your statements by quoting partial scriptures that almost appear to validate your responses? I don't care if adultery is sex between "two consenting adults". I am very well aware of what adultery is. The point was that it is WRONG. And it is in the SAME CATEGORY of SINS as molestation, or abuse of men, however you want to phrase it.

As for the person that asked if ALL I cared about was death by Jehovah and his angels (I forgot the words exactly). To answer your question, YES, that is ALL I care about. That is the very meaning of our existence on earth. We all, ultimately, will face judgement at armageddon. THAT, is what we all should be trying to do, make sure we are judged favorably when the end comes. Everything that goes on before then DOESN'T MATTER, as far as things that happen around you, as long as you yourself do all you can to live in accordance with the bible.

Since none of you feel that adultery and fornication are just as bad as molestation according to the bible, then what about homosexuality? Ahh, now there's something that will raise a lot of controversy. Is it wrong? Is it right? Is it worse than fornication? Is it not as bad as molestation? A homosexual would say that God is "a god of love" according to the bible. Does that make it right? A heterosexual would say that homosexuals will be destroyed at armageddon. Who's right? Who's wrong? Trying to prove for or against homosexuality is just like you trying to prove for or against reporting sex abuse cases. Some people hate the practice, some people love the practice, many people just do not care.

If your way of thinking is only backed up by a minority of the whole, then what makes you right? Obviously, the entire association of JW's do not agree with your thinking. Not even a majority of the association of JW's agree with your thinking, including myself. So why should we have to put up with such nonsense when we have a more important work to do?

Armageddon can be here tomorrow. If it comes, what good will all this work you're doing to change the JW's organization? Will you tell Jehovah that you took a break from doing what he commanded you to do so you can protect your children? How will you validate such a response? By trying to reason with him by using man-made laws and regulations about what is right and what is wrong? Or by telling him that molestation is worse than fornication, adultery, and homosexuality, and therefore should be punished more severely? Think about your answer.

To the one looking for an answer to 3 questions: You may find it easier to elicit a response if you put some form of signature on your postings.

Nevertheless, you are missing the point. I don't think anyone here is trying to develop any relative ranking of various types of sins. Any discussion on that point would be irrelevant. Please try step back a bit and get your mind around the idea that you need to protect the children - both inside and outside the congregation. Any logic that starts with your bible quotes and ends up with an organization that shouldn't report child molesters is absurdly casuistical.

Any logic that puts the reputation of the organization above the children in that organization is the apex of unchristian attitude. You would have to purposely be blind in order to miss that point. That is why outsiders refer to the the JWs as a brainwashed cult.

O.k, a few responses to the ones above. Most of this dogmatic stuff is just a red herring to avoid looking at the real problem. The witnesses are more likely to kick out "adulterers" & "fornicators" than child molesters. Forgiveness is not the issue, nor is a "Jehovah's late night top ten list" ranking of sins. Adultery & fornication obviously have no connection w/ child molesting, & don't have the same recidivism rate. We can forgive, but we know through research that 95% of child molesters re-offend. There was a man in the Albany OR congregation who admitted to molesting over 50 kids. His name was Don Seargent. And as soon as he got out of prison for this, he was back on the street, sometimes alone, knocking on doors. Thats 50, count 'em, 50 that he admitted to! This problem does not go away w/ God's help. That is why he lovingly provided the Israelites w/ stoning as a "comitee option". These people who come on here w/ these silly argument are either irretreivably stupid (possible) or, more likely, talking to themselves out loud, more than to the rest of the people on this board, to try & find any way to rationalize their congregation allowing children to be raped as a basic policy. Also, possibly to bait the rest of us who have our eyes open into silly debates so we aren't fighting w/ who we really should. I take printouts of the flyer on this site & put them in laundromats, right next to their literature!! Use their own tactics against them! If you've been abused & had it covered up, sue them! Go out door to door w/ the flyers in their territory , right after they place, go to that door & give 'em your own presentation. If you were a j.w, at least you have been trained to give an effective spiel! I love all of you, avishai
I was a JW all my life, as far as I can remember, I was baptized in 1959, served as reg. pioneer most of the 60’s and 70’s was an elder in 1974-76, and then my wife had an affair and was disfellowshipped. To make a long story short, I soon left the organization after 1976 and I no longer believed that only JW’s had the true faith and this was not the only organization God was using. I was branded as an apostate and disfellowshipped. It has always bothered me how they can disfellowship someone who has already disassociated oneself. any way I would like to hear from anyone out there who would like to correspond. I would like a support group, of a sort, after having spent 30 years of my life devoting it to the organization.

I just wrote, but forgot to leave my name Alvin D Cochran, email me at cochran@surfsouth.com

If you see a truck bearing down on your child, you take immediate and decisive action to prevent harm to your child! You do NOT wait on Jehovah! It is our responsibility to protect the children now! Pedophiles should be treated the same as a truck driver who deliberately mows down innocent children. Those who support pedophiles share the crime. Neither Jehovah nor Christ requires us to forgive one who treats us in the vile manner of a sexual molester. ps I don’t care about doctrinal issues etc. I want the children in our congregations to be safe. (At present, from what I have seen/experienced they are not) I am silent no more! Andrew

Andrew: Exactly! I'm an ex-JW that feels that any god would roll his omniscient eyes at anyone's suggestion that he hasn't made it clear that we must all protect children from molesters. How absurd it is for any individual to stand by when they could have done something.

"Wait on Jehovah?!" - can you imagine trying to explain on your judgement day that you thought the child should put up with the abuse, that other children should not have been protected? Because the elders, or the Society said so?

I don't think there is a lot of grey area here. It is clear that children should be sheltered from abusers - and I mean children in and out of the JW coven. (I know you're still a witness, but I couldn't resist.) Those that harbor child abusers and make it more difficult to protect children bear an awful responsibility. They don't see because of their blinding self-righteousness. Self-righteousness is a particularly horrible sin, because it is unintended by a conscience.

I am 49 now, when I was twenty I drove down a freeway and glanced at a nearby golf course. I saw a boy riding down the edge of the outside fence collecting golf balls. I then saw a man drive up in a purple pontiac bonneville and get out and knock the kid off the bike and drag him down a hill.

I looked all around me horrified by what I saw, I wondered who else witnessed what I was seeing. I saw no one. Out of fear for the child I drove immediately to the area where the boy was dragged to. I got out of my car, I went over the side of the hill, what I saw made me sick of heart and fearful for the child. The man had the boys pants down and was about to sodomise the boy. When the man saw me he told the boy to tell me "tell the man everything is OK". I yelled at the man in the boldest voice I could muster, "No everything is NOT ok, let the boy up NOW! The man did exactly as I told him to do.

I can hardly believe I am even talking about this again I am crying remembering this day. The boy got up pulled up his pants and got on his bike, I stood fast while I watched both the boy leaving and the man who was laughing pulling up his pants.

Once I saw the boy was far away and free of this perpetrator, I walked up the hill backwards and the man laughed over the whole thing. Just so you know, this boy is OK, and today lives a normal life. What I did, was out of "fear" for the child. And a great "distaste" for what is wrong. I also felt that the child would die if I did nothing.

What I did, I did immediately and without even worrying about "what would happen if I was over taken by the molester". It was not important, only the child who was in danger was important at that time. I am no hero, I am a Christian, and I did what I would HOPE that any true God fearing person would do.

It is a horrible shame that anyone would think of "reputation" over "safety of a child". It is "unheard" of. It is "unChristian". It is a violation of following the "Laws of God" as well as the "Laws of the Land".

I have read many of these posts today. Yes I believe, no, I know Jehovah would not wait to deal with this. That is what a "God given conscience in men is meant for, to do what is right in the presence of men, and before our God".

I pray for the safety of every single child globally, in every home, church, circumstance that God uses this time to bring to light "every single instance" of abuse against all innocent children. If this is your prayer, then register today an Amen in this guest book.

May God bless each and every family and protect that institution and its children. Amen

Skelsmersdale: So you have a new date for Armageddon? 2008 is it? Have you learned nothing from the more than a century's date predictions? The bible is not a grand game of clue for some chosen few to decipher and tell the rest of us. If you feel you've done your research, take a look at "The Gentile Times Reconsidered." Or a more recent "Signs of the Last Days" (same author - ex-witness that was DF'ed for failing to ignore what he knew was true). Whatever your calculations, they are wrought with rationalizations, and assumptions that you cannot back up. The fact that you refer to the 2520 year factor tells me that you are likely working with the same basic calculations created by the Millerites in the mid-1800's. Does it bother you at all that that very same calculation has been used to predict Armageddon at least a dozen times since 1878?

You do yourself an injustice by approaching the bible as a multi-thousand-page jigsaw puzzle and failing to see it as clear but general guidance for we humans to lead our lives.

By the way-----both the Bible and your literature teach you will also be punished for being A LIAR, and for helping to hide the "gross sins" that are going on------so I guess you are bound to be 'bird fodder' after all------your worse fears come true--------

ney mr. "i only do what the watchtower says, cuz god will kill me, NOT because i give a shit about the people i preach to....ESPECIALLY their children'

THANK YOU for reminding my family..... and showing the world why we should NEVER go back to your CULT....

THANK YOU for continuing to bear witness to the world the kind of convoluted, obsessive thinking that the watchtower brainwashing program produces and if you really did give a shit about how the bible says to raise, protect and defend your/our children and the value they have in nthe eyes of god and hisson....then just look in the index in the back of your own bible ....and look up every verse dealing with "child" or "children" .....but that would go against your programming wouldn't it?

Hello all- I am an ex JW (inactive for over 10 years) and had the same thing happen to me as a child as many others have had happen. I know firsthand the anger it brings about and the helpless feeling of trying to fight these people. I also know the loneliness that goes along with being an ex JW because as a witness you are not to have friends who are unbelievers and when you are raised as a witness as I was, and then leave, you lose all of the witness "friends". It is very hard to start friendships as an adult after being a witness- close friendships anyway. Anyone who is interested in conversing with me- feel free to write me any time at bbdoty@msn.com I look forward to hearing from anyone. B Doty in central Illinois

Hi again, Response to May 19,2002 time 13:23:25 You miss quote my comments and then refute your misunderstanding as thou I stated what you claim... The partial scriptures quoted DO VALIDATE my comments. Read the context...

You think this is nonsense and have more important work to do? Just remember Ephs. 4: 17 tells us "On this account cease becoming unreasonable but go on preceiving what the will of Jehovah is." Hyprocrisy would never be acceptable way to worship God even if you preached from door to door...

You assume too much in your comments about me. I presented information/situations and outcomes that happens to most who try to protect their children in this organization. I am an active witness and yes I work at protecting my children!! We obey the the laws of the land unless it conflicts with Gods laws as the bible commands. So you see your little conversation with God as you outlined at the end of your comments would not happen.

All I can do is cry! Sorry Bill, Br. Bowen, you're doing a wonderful job here...and all those helping you! It's really just the tip of the iceberg showing now...wait and see...once it's out in the open there will be many, many others speaking out against pedophiles and their kind! Jehovah's heart must be breaking over and over every time an abuser is allowed to hide behind the cloak of "no confession" or "not enough witnesses" to what he's done! The children must be protected first and foremost! The children's needs must come before the concern of reproach on the organization! Is it more reproach to allow such abuses to continue hidden than it is to bring them out in the open so you can stop the abuses? And I'm all for forgiveness when it's deserved...but even Jehovah had times he did not forgive! So I will go on and continue to do whatever I can to protect my children and any other children from these abusers! In the end I know and have faith that Jehovah will see what I have done and commend rather than condemn those actions!

P.S. If anyone in KY wants to light a candle for my family (9 of us hurt by one) and/or my sisters here (19 more in our congregation - all not abused by the same, but by others) in our small midwest congregation...just say so here...I'll be checking more often since the Dateline show is so close now.

To all of the active, earnest Jehovah’s Witnesses, on this site, who are choosing not to give up their faith, but will NOT stand by and let your religion be used as an excuse to rape and molest children...to all of you who express your faith intelligently, and yet honestly and candidly acknowledge the serious issues at hand here, without trying to cover them up, or defect from them by loopy, irrational, dogmatic, preaching... I COMMEND YOU AND HAVE DEEP RESPECT FOR YOU! If there were more like you....more elders like you around ...many of us would not have been left with no rational choice but to leave the organization.

To the rest of you active JWs, who can't even carry on a logical conversation without adding your dogmatic verbal, and emotional abuse to the physical, sexual and emotional abuse already heaped upon innocent children....there are far too many of you in there to make up for those few whose minds and hearts are not retarded.

For the record...

any negative comments I have made about JWs and their organization are aimed at the latter...the former have earned my respect....

Thank you for showing me there are at least a handful, who actually believe in truth, and not use the word as Orwellian Doublespeak.

To the vast majority who think and speak like some, who post on this web-site, I hope Dateline reads some of your posts on the air to show the world the low depths most JWs will stoop to to silence victims and their supporters. And the type of convoluted thinking patterns such dogmatism produces. You are the best witnesses of the truth of what is going on.

hey scripture quoters, who think going door to door is proof that child abusers and rapists are REAL christians...

didn't the apostle paul say it didn't matter if he traveled the world proselytizing, but did not have love, that he was nothing?

what kinda' love do you have for children in your own congregations that are being ritually abused and raped?

OOHHH that's right...you said we should not judge their imperfect rapists

Good Morning What ratio would anyone like to give me as to the repent pedophiles on record. After it happened to our family I did a lot of research, at the time 3 out of 5 girls and 2 out of 5 boys are molested before they reach 18. That was several years ago. What would be an appropriate punishment for one. Since there is no burning hell, perhaps a tattoo across their forehead. What is the difference between this sin and any other? You obviously haven't held a child in your arms that has lost their innocence. You haven't had a grown daughter go from man to man because she is sentenced to eternal hell because she can't recover no matter what you do, she has no self esteem and seems doomed to repeat her actions to the detriment of herself and all those she loves. What's this? This site's guestbook deemed inappropriate? When I came here last Friday, it was totally accessible. Looks like people are going just a little too far in expressing their feelings toward this site and others, too. You people have gotta stop putting in this guestbook inappropriate comments, especially the cursing. It's not necessary.

why did you LIE about the awake! articles?

that aside...

why do elders, the WTS, judicial committees LIE to cover up bfor child molestors, and THREATEN victims and their families if they don't also LIE (cover up the truth)?

why has the catholic church, who has "been caught with it's hand in the cookie jar" for longer than my half century of life JUST now doing something?

i dunno

BUT why have we been exposing the catholic church as obviously a part of "babylon the great" for both having such problems and covering them up ....and now when JWs are caught with "hand in cookie jar" LIE to cover up the SAME sins....and do worse? at least the church has NEVER excommunicated altar boys for reporting, or suing, or filing charges against pedophile priests! or for others standing up for the catholic children against the church's cover ups. (please don't go off on a rant about john hess....we are NOT talking about all those other subjects)

tell me why

catholics getting caught with their hand in the cookie jar (like they always have) and finally putting cookies back....paying for the ones eaten....admitting they stole cookies....and trying to prevent themselves from stealing cookies again

is better than

JWs getting caught with their hand in the cookie jar and crushing the rest of the cookies, keeping their hand IN the cookie jar and LYING that its even in the cookie jar, threatening to get the ones who catch and/or tattle in the trouble they should get...and "beating on his brothers" to make sure JWs can keep their hands in the cookie jar

yup

that s the TRUTH

can you please...if you chose to respond .... please answer with the TRUTH?

or will you side with your pedophile brothers, and talk about how wonderful it is that jehovah's organization blesses his people by trying to force rape victims to support rapists in their congregations?

do you really believe that LIE to be the TRUTH?

shame on you

I know the elders broke all their own rules in an effort to disfellowship me when I chose to divorce my mentally ill husband. We hadn’t been at meetings in over 3 years. We did attend the memorial during those 3 years. I told the brothers they were not welcome in any of our personal life matters, they told me they had to be since we were still in good standing. Basically their belief was that since we weren’t disfellowshipped, we were in good standing, even though we hadn’t attended meetings or field service or other functions other than the memorial in 3 years, and I had to be dealt with. Can you imagine trying to kick someone out of a religion they technically are not even in? By their rules, I was completely inactive. They even tried to get my 9 year old daughter that I had sole custody of, to spy on me and report back to them, in an effort to "deal with me"... she stood up to those men and told them no way...she is 18 now and wants nothing to do with organized religion, especially that one. Who could blame her? If they would break their own rules when it came to lil ol me, and I was a "nobody", nowhere doing nothing...you can bet your last dime they would on something as huge as child abuse. I walked away, and I'm free, and have never looked back...

To "CS", and anyone in similar conditions...

Don't give up, I never got the support I needed myself, and that never left me.

Everyone who found out, thought for sure my mom would stand behind me, but she's the one person who's made more excuses for him, and for herself for staying with him. She still keeps all this as secret as she can making up lies about why I left even to this day to friends and anyone that knew us. Aside from me not having the support etc. good God! what a way to live...

Please keep fighting, telling the truth is not slander, but if you're worried, why not inform child protective services with what you know? Let them investigate it for themselves. If your daughter feels she can/wants to, let her talk to child protective services herself too. "Both" of you are victims, and both of you have the right to be heared, to at least try to prevent this from happening again.

You may be told by some "brothers" and "sisters" that it would reflect badly on Jehovah's name to tell anyone (especially "outsiders") but the truth is, keeping silent about what you know is what reflects badly on God's name.

No matter how much people try to cover thigs like this up, the truth always comes out in the end, to everybody, not just witnesses.
How can covering up crimes like these, that are also crimes in the eyes of God, ever reflect more positive on God's name than telling the truth, openly?

Ask yourself, in all honesty "who is it your silence protects"? and go by your own answer.

Imagine sitting in one room with Jehovah and talking about your daughter, what do you yourself think God'd want you to do? Sit by and watch a crime be repeated??

As an ex-wife this can't be easy for you, it must be just about impossible to talk to the new wife who doesn't know and you may be afraid she might not believe you, but try imaging yourself in her shoes? What would you want yourself to do if it was her who was the ex wife who's daughter was abused?

All children are also God's children, and it is up to us to protect those children as good as we can.

Noone should blame him/herself for not recognizing something like abuse in time, but once you know you're in a different position with the ability to open other people's eyes so history doesn't have to repeat itself.

It may just change that little girls' life for the better.

It is what I wish someone would have done for me..

I think you're a very courageous woman.

I am sure you must have many doubts about yourself etc. but I hope you can heal too as well as your daughter. It's underestimated how many people are victimized by something like this.

May you find the strenght to do what you feel in your heart is right, and act by that, it's that part of us that is God's voice in each of us. Good luck, you're not alone.

NOTE TO THE WEBMASTERS OF THIS PAGE: have you considered setting up a (moderated?) messageboard? IMO it might do a lot of good.. Thanks.

Buster,

I completely understand your sentiments towards Shirley. Anger expressed when children continue to be violated is understandable.

I would like to suggest that perhaps it would be better aimed at the congregation, elders and organization that abused both Shirley and her child.

By way of analogy...

minus the religous organization aspect....

i accidentally hit the "submit" button, before finishing....

.....sorry....

families are often "complicit" in the crimes of the abusers out of an overwhelming sense of powerlessness...often from brainwashing techniques adeptly employed by the abuser that keeps the rest of the family psychologically "in check."

Older siblings are often known to "sacrifice" themselves to the family pedophile, because they honestly believe that is the only avenue they have to protect their family.

Spouses, are often the targets of psychological, emotional, verbal, spiritual, physical and abuse themselves. It is not unusual that they fear even more atrocities upon their children if they do anything more than placate the abuser. The crimes are that much more heinous, because they deplete the victims (the entire family, not just the molested) of any sense of humanity, esteem power and ability to do anything different than to fall into their prescribed roles.

This is often reinforced with the threat of DEATH and/or TORTURE. Like all TERRORISTS, the abusers know that the greatest threat is not against the one you are threatening, but against other innocents that the victims love.

"You tell and I will KILL your mother, siblings, pets...in front of your eyes!" "You try to report me and I will make sure our children never talk again!"

Now back to the religious family...

Do you have any idea what a brainwashed cult victim, conditioned to accept horrors upon pain of DEATH goes through when threatened with disfellowshipping? They are not just being threatened with a spiritual death, and separation from the ONLY FAMILY AND FRIENDS they have been allowed to have ... they are being THREATENED WITH DEATH FROM GOD AT ARMEGEDDON, something they believe so earnestly, they have been knocking on the doors of strangers to warn them about. And PLEASE NOTE that this threat of DEATH extends to their unbaptised CHILDREN, who they have been taught fall under their “mark” of protection from the avenging angels who will KILL their children if they are disfellowshipped. These threats are very real to the families. They are propogated in Watchtower literature, and uttered in threatening tones from Judicial Committees, who squash victims and their families with the SAME psychological weapons used by their abusers. Then they are reminded to be like the followers of Christ who proclaimed “Where else can we go?”
Under threat of horrific deaths, where their remains will be eaten by birds, because their Heavenly Father finds them too disgusting for burial and resurrection. I think the religious family's guilt is exponentially greater than the abusers they protect.

That is the TRUTH of the Watchtower Society's teachings and end product.

And that is the TRUTH of what the families of abuse victims are terrorized by.

I know, Buster and Shirley, because I have been in Shirley's shoes.

The mother of my children was already disfellowshipped. I had it drilled into my head and heart that the only way my children would not be killed, was for me to remain faithful to my Theocratic Family, no matter what.

To keep me from taking action against the vile step-parent who terrorized my daughter, I was warned by elders repeatedly that I would be disfellowshipped for "sinning against the holy spirit," for "apostasy" if I continued to pursue charges against the abuser EVEN within the congregation.

For protecting my children, choosing them over the family terrorist, I did lose all privileges in the congregation. and was continually harrassed and warned, threatened! The abuser remained in good standing.

And in my case there WERE MORE THAN THE REQUIRED NUMBER OF WITNESSES.... the committees involved simply REFUSED to hear them. Including my children.

There are no words, in any language, to describe the internal war that devastates one's soul, trying to do the right thing, when being told and threatened that it is the wrong thing.

Buster, I empathize with your sentiments, only because I have felt them about myself. And I guarantee Shirley has felt them about herself.

My suggestion to Buster, is that your anger and vilification are misplaced. They should be aimed at the rapists, and the religious family that protects them with terrorist style threats.

I have considered for myself, the drastic action that you suggested to Shirley.

Shirley, the ones who don't deserve to live are the ones that kept you and your children under their Christian jackboots. Shirley, you are to be commended for those efforts you made, and the support you gave to your child through each stage of finally breaking free of your nightmare.

I consider you my sister, not through any "organizational brotherhood", but because I know exactly what you and your children have gone through to get to where you are today.

May you and your real family find peace.

see....when the truth comes out.....honest-hearted people refer to jehovah's witnesses as a "fucking cult".....don't you think it would have brought less reproach on the organization (and god's name ...as we were originally taught.....or is that "old light"?)to clean up the mess...instead of covering it over....and continue to defend them, as some of you literature quoters are wont to do?
and to those of you more horrified that someone used a word that elitist, caste-minded religious leaders once arbitrarily defined as "vulgar, of the common people, the laity...instead of the "holy" latin language that their educated clergy used .... to those of you more horrified that an individual uses words that "babylon the great" decided were beneath them====than being horrified that the christian witnesses of jehovah and his earthly organization have members that actually perform and coerce that word on innocent children...and instead of being horrified that the governing body and the elder shepards of the congregations are aiding and abetting such criminal sins....to those of you more horrified and side-tracked by a four=letter word than by JW pedophiles and their theocratic defense...

you make the case against your "truth" better than the victims YOU vile

Hello I've been reading everybody's comments and all of a sudden I realized something. I did warn people about my ex-husband. He called me and told me that he was considering marrying one of my oldest friends. I called her and asked her if she had lost her mind, regardless of the molesting, she of all people should have known him. I told her everything and guess what she said? OH! he has changed he wouldn't do that to my children. I sat there looking at the phone in disbelief. Three years later they were divorced, a brother came into a large sum of money and she went after him and dumped my ex. The story goes on but I'm not going to waste your time or mine about it. Just the point that sometimes people don't listen no matter what you do. I am amazed at people. jgibson

DJB: I sense your sincerity. But I put to you that it is just as likely that your sympathies and empathies are misplaced. Somewhere on the guilt continuum, not as far to one side as the direct perpetrators, and not as far to the other side as the direct victim, lie the enablers. Those that knew about the crime and did nothing. Those enablers that further emboldened the perpetrator by letting the perp. know that even if they were known, nothing would be done. The perp. knows that the enabler will do nothing about past violations, knows that the enabler will do nothing to stop further violations. I'll admit that the enablers have a bit of victim in them. But they have more than a bit of perpetrator too.

i didn't sign my missive to you

i am still choosing anonymity on this site... for the sake of my family

you assumed i was DJB ..... you guessed wrong

i stand by what i said

i understand your feelings

don't think you fully appreciate the struggle many enablers have had to go through to break free of their brainwashing... and take a stand in the process

it would be easier to stand by while tied up and gagged

which is why the guilt i STILL feel for trying to fix the problem instead of telling the woman who abused my daughter, and the elders to fk off, and immediately reporting them all to the authorities.... that guilt does not equal the animosity i feel towards those betrayers

you continue to underestimate the depth of control that this abusive cult wields over its membership

the control of their minds... their bodies... their souls

you continue to underestimate how very REAL the threat of death to their children for non-compliance is

perhaps you have never been there

perhaps you have, and choose to deal with your grief in this way

i don't condemn you for your attitude... won't judge it... i have no love for those that choose to be enablers either... just know that not all choose to be so if you were convinced that the rapist would kill all of your children, if you went outside the family with this information..... think about how carefully you would act until you were convinced you could save your children without killing them?

don't expect to convince you... i am out of the converting business..... just ask that someone of your obvious intelligence and empathy... give some consideration what i and others here have shared

one final note

your suggestion that you would kill yourself if in the family's shoes brought back echoes of the same words neing used against me by elders... ironically they would have liked to get the thorn out of their side because i wanted them to take action... and your agenda is the opposite... but i have put aside the painful flashback of their abusive browbeating and mind control to deal with you as an individual and a human being.... i actually relate to you better than i ever will to them

I think that it is safe to say at this point that most JW's worship the Watchtower Society and place it's image in the same light as that of God himself. However, even that standard means nothing because they obviously don't even care about God's standards anymore. "The superior authority" is "God's minister" and I hope they all get what they deserve, whether they are doing good or doing bad. - Romans 13:1-4

The real enablers in these sad stories are the elders and the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses.

And those who CONTINUE to be blinded by them, knowing the truth, yet denying it, so they can keep the respect of the former.

Neither Shirley or Anonymous fit those categories. They tried, and were silenced by elder threats only temporarily.

You have to believe you have choices before you can make them.

I think a web site like this has the potential to be dangerous. How can anyone validate the stories published here?

I don't question that child molestation exists. It exists in every culture, every society, every religious categorization.

If someone is a child molestor then they are NOT a Jehovah's Witnesses. Regardless of what or what not, the elders or headquarters do.

A Jehovah's Witness would not commit such a gross lack of moral act, nor would they commit what is considered a criminal offense.

I think this is just as true for any other organized religion.

Child molesters are not Jehovah's Witnesses, they are not Roman Catholics. They are child molesters.

Lest we forget this in our hunt to blame.

To the victims, nothing ever removes our memory of the events. I was also molested but not by anyone from a regular religion. They actually didn't believe in God.

Hence my point of relinquishing the reference's to religion, and focus on the child molesters.

As far as those in postions of responsibility, two simple reasons.

Jehovah's Witnesses, over simply everything, they love black and white characterizations. Second, most elders and the like, are never trained to respond to these types of situations. No more then the priests of other religions.
To those parents who held excommunication higher than the emotional care of their children.

Damn you! Common sense people! Common sense!

We all are accountable for our life, no one else. To use the copout that the organization controls us is the excuse of the ignorant.

We all have choices to make. You just made bad ones!

Hi again, The person who does not get it about the control an organization can have you forget about Jonestown and solar temple and David Koresh etc. Those that followed these men believed in what they were doing. They were absolutely controlled by these men to the point they were willing to lay down their lives for these men who lead them.

Those in Jonestown when they realized it would cost them their lives, it was too late to save it. About 800 hundred murders. Apparently if I have the facts straight their leader was caught molesting children even before they left the states for South America...

Those that are controlled by wicked men ultimately paid the highest price for their allegiance. They lost their lives.

The Watchtower Society pretends to the world that these men have changed. All one has to think where this will lead certainly not to life. History proves that...

Just a thought...

Perhaps the ones that want to silence the family members and victims who tell their stories, are plants from the Watchtower Society, feigning sympathy, while being quite effective in trying to shut up those that tell their stories.

"Damn you!" 'I couldn't live if I were you.'

Nice. Sounds fishy to me. Shame them. Use the guilt they feel for living in fear of their children's lives to push them over the edge. Perhaps they are Elders from some of those committees. Sound like them anyway.

Some who are reporting on this site (including the actual youths who were molested), are exposing that they have, in fact, been threatened with murder from Jehovah if they told. Some apparently feel this is the only safe place to do so.

"Common sense people!"

How like both the elders in the stories, and like the history of the governing body at the Watchtower Society. Say things, then deny everything and put it off on the ones who followed you when they ask you to account for it.

"Quit your good job and pioneer!" "Armageddon's going to be here by October 1975!.... and we are hinting it could be 1974!" "Treat molesters like brothers, because we said so! And if you don't, it's not just you that will be killed...your children will be destroyed! If you really had any love in your hearts for them, why would you subject them to that? Shame on you!"
"What do you mean you were told to quit your job/prepare for 1975/don't tell the cops, because your children would die? WE never said such a thing! Shame on you again! Common sense! You must have jumped ahead of the organization! We are innocent! I couldn't live with myself if I gave such advice, so much for followed it! Let's print more Awake! magazines that show we would never do such a thing! Who can we blame/disfellowship for this?"

Then again maybe these individuals are not trying to BUST up Silent Lambs and silence the whistleblowers. Maybe they are well meaning individuals who really have no idea what it means to be a Brainwashed Witness in a Cult Organization. Perhaps they have no idea that when an elder threatens to have your children killed by excommunicating you, that you really believe it.

Food for the discussion mill, I guess...

Misguided. I read the awake on battered women and see no where that its condoning vilonce I read it from your website here and it says that sometimes in cases of abuse a women should go to the authorities. You simply lied....so how can anything else you are saying be completely honest? I feel sorry for you too. So much of your time and energy into revealing the imperfections of others. I don't remember reading in the bible that men are with out sin. Wouldn't that include Jehovahs Witnesses too? Aren't those men supposedly responsible for hiding things just men after all.

to the one who starts off by saying we are "misguided" and goes into saying we "simply lied"
you base your allegation on the reading of one propaganda journal that tries to put the right spin on their organization...to put it in the best light

i see

guess what?

by the rules set down by your own governing body...you could be disfellowshipped for making such an accusation, if the facts proved otherwise

of course what they preach IS NOT what they practice

so you don't have to worry about that

the victims and their advocates are the REAL ones such punishment are aimed at

don't believe it?

then watch dateline this tuesday night!

OR ARE YOU, LIKE JUDICIAL COMMITTEES, LIKE THE GOVERNING BODY, REFUSING TO LISTEN TO THE MOUTHS OF TWO, THREE OR MORE WITNESSES....THEN SAYING THERE'S NO PROOF WITHOUT THEM?

if not....watch dateline....read the newspapers.... listen to the ones who have poured out their hearts in this guestbook

For those of you who read the articles on childrens issues and rape were you aware that they also had women writing these issues, no way you say, yes way. At this time I am sure they have done their best to silence her, this is her payment for the wonderful articles she wrote trying to help the sisters and the children. A brother of course had to look over the articles and they agreed on the scriptures that should be used he then put his name on it oking it to be used. In this capacity and by doing research for them is how she came across all the cases of child abuse, every case that has been reported is in their files. When they get supina'd want to take odds at file dumping. I can't help believe that Jehovah's will, will take place because he will see to it that these files will not be destroyed. I don't know why he has allowed these atrocities to go on but please people lets not throw the baby out with the bath water. Remember Jehovah helped his people out of Egypt by a great miracle and 10 plagues and almost immediately they were whining and wanted to go back, who are you kidding!!!!! He is in a no win situation here. JG
Hi again, Just a thought about evidence. Both my father and myself have witnessed children being molested at our hall, in the front entrance, in the main auditorium, second school and convicted sex offenders following small children out to the bathrooms or hanging around children unsupervised etc.

But we have reported it and one child was put in protective custody but the victim would not talk. So nothing could be done even thou we saw what happened... (One was an elder in a couple of incidents and three teenage boys in another incident and on it goes etc).

One teenager was put in foster care because she did not want to go to the kingdom hall. The kingdom hall is known in our community as a very dangerous place for children. The police warned us...

I had my X confess to me about molesting his sister along with his brother and cousin (she was 8 years old) and how many times after trying to rape her and how his mother caught them.

I could not use this in court until my own daughter decided to talk (I even had found bruises around her privates, she showed me). I moved to protect her even before we could take it to court. My X sister-in-law still has not talked. I would be a witness for her if she choose to talk.

Laws have changed around wife assault so the police can lay charges without the victims consent or testimony. These changes should happen for children as well.

So someone can know beyond a doubt that an individual is a pedophile but not be able to do anything about it (except report it) unless the victim talked...DJB

Hi progress is in the making!!!! Just wait till tomorrow's Dateline broadcast then we will all see the active force of GODS HOLY SPIRIT IN ACTION! I personally cannot wait what a blessing this will be .HE is always there for those broken in spirit May we all say a prayer tomorrow, for the show to go on. MANY BLESSINGS TO YOU MR.BOWEN & TO SILENTLAMBS EVERYWHERE MY LOVE TO YOU ALL Searchin50 @ aol.com

Imagine a organization so powerful, yet worried about the almighty bottom line. They say the "Love" of money is the root of all evil. Well in this case a "spiritual system" which is designed to deliver "watchtowers and awakes" door to door. Think of it. An all volunteer staff, from manufacturing, publishing, distribution door to door, the watchtower, awake, and other articles are delivered by these blind faithful mislead sheep.
The cost of manufacture of a watchtower, lets see, I believe its about 2.5 cents. Hmmm most publishers already donate about 25 cents per issue distributed so that is already ten times what it costs to make it. Then while out in the field you collect "contributions" to the "world wide work" and give that as well. WOW, looks to me like if the WTBTS can't smother this "molesit" issue the "apple cart of profit" will be upset and all the money made for this "P U B L I S H I N G C O M P A N Y will turn sour.

That's right folks, its nothing more than a "company for profit, under the guise of a "spiritual institution". God help you if you belong to this organization, and know of anything wrong and have not spoken up. You have failed your fediuciary responsability to humanity.

This website must have been difficult to produce, but they jw organization must make reforms. Their past sins have piled high into the heavens. There is no excuse for permitting such acts to go unreported to police and local authorities. The jw's are MORE CONCERNED ABOUT PROTECTING THEIR OWN REPUTATIONS THAN THE LIVES OF INNOCENT CHILDREN. That is the sad bottom line. They are not the true religion anymore than I am Moses. To the jw's, the governing body, and all associated with it: "Goodbye and good riddence"

Dear Bill,

God Bless you as you seek to protect our helpless lambs. May God give you strength and wisdom and the courage of your convictions. The time has come for changes to be made in the policies of the Watchtower Society. Thank you for your loving concern. Fight the fine fight, brother...

To the person who wrote:..................

You obviously have a problem with the JW's. Unfortunatly children in ALL religious background have been harmed, not just JW's. Look at the courts in Australia, the Catholic religion has a few more problems dont you think? But soon all the wrong that men have done will be corrected. You really have a chip on your shoulder dont you? What you hate about child molesters is so true , they destroy lifes, but just because a person calls himself a title, doesnt make the lot that way. Open up your eyes......................

The fact that child abuse doesn't ONLY happen in J/W circles makes it no less a problem within the organization.

Keeping something like sexual abuse a secret within an organization, fosters the behavior.

Of course, not every Jehovah's Witness is a child molester, but by systematically hiding the abuse that DOES happen, both from the people within the organization and from the outside world (like the law), you encourage abuse. The important part isn't that they are Jehovah's Witnesses, the important part is the covering up of out right crimes, especially if that is imbedded in the religion itself.

So maybe the Catholics have the same problem (it's by no means worse there than it is by Jehovah's Witnesses) but I wasn't a Catholic child, I was a Jehovah's Witness, and the person who abused me is still a servant within a Jehovah's Witness congregation even though he went to prison for what he did to me (he went to a different congregation).
You just never heared about me because that is exactly what elders etc. are instructed to do with things like abuse, hide it, preferably from the police etc. too.

As a side note, as far as I know other Catholic priests (that didn't molest children) don't tell victims NOT to go to the police...

You're right, not everyone within the "flock" of Jehovah's Witness would survive Armaggedon, and I'd like to add to that that not everyone in the "world" would find themselves out of God's grace either for the very same reason.

I still believe in God, I actually had to take a really hard look at my beliefs and open my eyes to more than I realized I had them closed to, it's the organization of "Jehovah's Witnesses" I don't belong to.

That is because I feel the only "pure" church is the one inside ourselves, the same as I feel that saying a rosary is not what was meant by prayer, nor a confession in a confessional on sunday morning the same as actually asking God for forgiveness.

Sure saying a rosary can be a true and very much meant prayer, a confession on sunday morning to the preacher may actually help you be forgiven for mistakes you really do regret, and maybe you will find some measure of truth in a congregation but if you don't find this within yourself than the congregation, the rosary and the confession etc. aren't going to change that one bit. It all means nothing without finding that within yourself first and we could debate how much they actually add after you do find that within yourself..

For me, knowing organized religion has such potential for harm I prefer to not belong to any organized religion and yes, I let my own heart guide me.

All my life I've been taught that the heart is prone to sin. That I put myself in danger by following what it tells me.. but you know what, I's come to believe that it is my heart that protects me from doing harm other than the honest mistakes we all make (which is the very defenition of sin no?).

Belief, just because it is so easy to explain away with reason, has everything to do with the heart.

That goes for Jehovah's Witness beliefs aswell.

So often you hope to explain what you believe with scientific "proof" so maybe you can convince other people you really do have the "truth" and then when you really do open your eyes you find one by one that what you believed to be "the Truth" is actually not so absolute, or maybe even not that true, at all and it's easy to loose faith untill you realize that not being able to prove what you believe is not a weakness, it just means that you should be more openminded towards what other people believe, especially if it's different from what you believe.

Open my eyes? I gladly do that, I'm sure I am still closedminded about some things.. but what about you opening your own?

Just my mind to yours...

reply to the person who asked: how do you know what people write here is true?

Good question, there may be a couple of people who just make up a bunch of crap but it's good to remember that all this isn't written by one single person.
I know what I say is true because I am sitting here behind my comp and I know what happened to me.

To "prove" to you sitting behind your own computer screen what happened to me, I'd have to give up not just my name, but also things like police reports etc.

Imagine being in my shoes, would you do that? This is very real and very VERY personal. I don't want to give personal stuff like that online, not just for me but also not because of my family, just like you don't know me, I have absolutely no idea who you are. Heaven knows there are plenty people online that I hope never get my name and adres etc.

You have every right to doubt my story and everything that I say, it's a good thing to use your head when you read something, but I hope you're as critical towards other things you read/hear about etc as you are about what you read here.

Bottomline, all I can say is that I know my story is the truth and though you can't be sure, maybe your own common sense can somewhat guide you. Such is life online ;)

To the person who is a Jehovah's Witness but feels abuse should be public.. Exactly. I can only speak for myself here but in itself it's not what you believe I have a problem with, it's the organization (and this particular policy). I am sure some people here are still hurting so much that it's hard to not reject the whole thing. For me things have mostly calmed down, I am not a Jehovah's Witness myself but I wanted to say "Thank you" all the same and I really do hope Jehovah's Witnesses will change for the better in this, aside from my personal convictions and beliefs. Thanks :)

To the person who wishes that the current JW-es go somewhere else: hmm I prefer they do read this, and write if they like, because at least they are doing more than reading the watchtower and the awake. Who knows maybe what they read here makes a difference. You and I will probably never find out but if it does some good maybe someone can be spared the hurt we had to go through. These things take time. my best wishes to you

Hello:

I am so glad I found this site, even though it is so disturbing and painful. Remarkably, just last week I was talking to my exhusband about sexual abuse and child molestation and mentioned that I was certain it went on in all religions, and that Jehovah's Witnesses were no exception. And then I found this site. I never dreamed that this terrible scourge could be so wide spread and prevalent. I am horrified. I have my own history of sexual abuse, but it was not by a Witness. I am currently disfellowshipped. It is truly amazing that I am considered evil by the congregation and yet these men are permitted to remain part of the congregation in good standing.

Again, I am so so sorry these terrible things have happened to you beautiful, caring people.

It has been many years...but, if I still have, and can find the letter from the Society telling me to put my spouse above my children. I will send it to Silent lambs for publication on their web-site. It basically said that I owed more to my spouse than to my children, because I made a vow to my spouse, and should make no promises to my children. Wedding vows were to take precedence over looking out dor my children's welfare. Perhaps by mentioning that, I've finally given enough information on this site for WT HQ profilers to finally figure out who I am .... but I no longer care. They will never have such control over my life again!

I used to attend the meetings as a JW in England, and a sister in Caterham Congregation (still attending) went to the Elders and told of the years of "sexual abuse" her father (a Min servant) subjected her to for years, He denied everything and was never reported to the police, and he and his wife moved to another congregation, where he still is a Min servant.I know of many others the same as this, its disgusting.

If all of these statements are true, then the organization certainly needs to be addressed as a whole on our Christian standards and the legal standards when it comes to these terrible issues. But those of you who are baptized brothers and sisters: "BE AWARE OF THAT YOU DO NOT FALL INTO APOSTASY!" The last days are upon us and we need to be careful that we do not contribute to a division between us and loose sight of our primary goal as ministers of Jehovah. These elders and violaters should not be excused from there actions but we do need to remember that parents and responsible adults as well have a responsibility to report any offender to the secular auth. as needed this is not a decision that as elder or the society should make anyway. Just like you wouldn't hide a kidnapper, murder, or drugs from the authorities, so why would you keep quit about a child molester no matter what anyone said.

So the WTBTS says that the victims of these crimes are bringing reproach on the Society because of their actions (coming forward with the truth about child sexual abuse)???? Uh, no. The perpetrators and the officials of the Society have brought reproach on themselves by their callous actions. And what is this, to be on the Governing Body one needs a college degree? Jesus doesn't have a college degree. Neither, for that matter, does Jehovah.

I would say this is unbelievable beyond words, but it isn't. I believe everything I've read here. So now what do I do? I am asking that honestly. I don't know what to do. I don't want to be complicit, that's for sure.

I don't have a TV, so I can't watch the show tonight. But I have no doubt that I will read about it first thing tomorrow on many web sites.

the whistleblowers and this site are NOT claiming jws are the only ones with this problem AS YOU FALSELY CLAIM .... that is a ludicrous red herring

cite site...dateline....the silent lambs who are coming forth.... are simply saying that JEHOVAH S WITNESSES ARE AS CULPABLE AS THE CHURCHES THEY POINT FINGERS AT ..... in some ways WORSE ... because they use methods of punishing victims that have not been seen elsewhere ... their methods mirror those of the pedophiles

'no one knew about catholic clergy molestations until the 1980s' ???????

it was news in the sixties ...it was news in the seventies ... it was common knowledge in the decadades prior

the awake that first told me jw s were different was about 1970 ...quoting the news media about the catholic priests

your presenting lies about the reports of the same crimes amongst jw s and the subsequent cover up policy of the watchtower society ... they are not mere hyperbole to make your points ...they are a smear campaign against the innocents that are exposing the truth about "the truth"

To those witnesses that try to take a moderate attitude, those warning of apostacy: Does it ever bother you that ...

... you are in an organization that so separates itself that it covers up child abuse, and thereby encourages it?

... you are in an organization that has predicted the end of this system at least eight times, has obviously been wrong each time, and yet doesn't see that they are a false prophet?

... you are in an organization that ruthlessly separates families because of disparate religious beliefs?

... you are in an organization that takes the printed word of men in Brooklyn over the bible?

Does it ever bother you ... even a little?

I just read the comments (May 24) by the person who worked in a residential treatment center for children. I suffered the same things he/she wrote about which happened to the Jehovah's Witness children in their care. I was raped by the district servant in Southern California in 1960. I was held at gunpoint. He is involved in the ring of pedophiles who groom children for sex with the big names in the organization and elsewhere. Ritual abuse was involved, too.

Please do not add comments to the end of my post. Thank you.

I was a former Jehovah's Witness, and I left due to the fact that I was pressured at a young age to get baptized, and as I got older, I realized that this wasn't the path that should be dictated for my life. I'm watching Dateline NBC right now, and I'm so thankful that you and your organization is helping these people. I certainly don't wish any harm against the organization, but I'm glad that these issues were brought to light, and I wanted to express my moral support.

i just watched dateline. Bill-bless you for all you have done. I know this will cost you alot in the long run( from your fellow jw's) and you have sacrificed so much already. I know that GOD has watched you in your endeavors to bring righteousness to an ungodly situation. He loves you, as many of us do. Thank you for being a true "brother" a lover of what is right and GODLY.... I have been "out " of jw land a long while, but have most all of my family still in. As a christian, i am taken with a grain of salt as it were, not shunned by my sisters, but treated as an outsider. Any comments i make are treated as an 'apostate" would be, so I am familiar with pain and shunning. I cannot love GOD(Jehovah) and my Bible understanding is nil because of of my NOT being a JW...This is what they think. Bill, keep fighting. We are behind you 100%. Hi I am 28 years old and am a Jehovah's Witness. I very upset with the possibility of this occurring in my organization. I feel strongly for witness who had to go through such a ordeal and DO NOT condone theses practices if true. I feel that if these Elders are to blame they should be disfellowshiped right away!! But I do not turn from the whole of the organization for I know that even though there are faults and these are BIG FAULTS and should not be hidden, I also know the teachings are truth and to turn away from Jehovah because of the horrid dealings of a few is not right either. Jehovah will make sure thoses who have committed such crimes will be punished he would not stand by and allow it. Don't punish your faith because of these men. Because in the end the only one you will have to prove you loyalty to is Jehovah. I hope you all find peace and I support your desison to come forward.--Dnayel Theresa Kennedy

Hi, my name is Robbyn and I was a JW for many years and I was disfellowship in 1985 and have never returned.... I felt betrayed the gentleman that I was engaged to is still a witness, however I confessed in front of the elders of us have sex while engaged and he denied it..... I confessed in front of the elders and they disfellowshiped me and didn't disfellowship him... HE LIED...

I have been bitter and hurt ever sense and I have gone through a lot in my life since that day..

Now i can say that I am in recovery 10yrs clean, married to a wonderful man and have children...

I am so glad that I watched Dateline tonight and that young woman that was on I am so glad that she got the justice she deserved so she can put closure on that tragedy in her life.... I would love to communicate with her. I could identify with some of her feelings... God had me watch Dateline for a reason and I am glad I did.

Your doing a wonderful job and I am an advocate for Child abuse in all forms.....

May God bless you all who were willing to come forward with your stories. You have done a good thing.

It sad to hear and see such but the bible declares in the last days they will turn from the truth. and the spirit speaks they will depart from the faith giving heed to seducing spirits and the doctrines of devils 1 tim 4.1. We also must realize what the bible says will and must be fulfilled yet be not discourage for God is not slack concerning his WORD.

1 SAMUEL 3:12-14 GIVES US ACCOUNT THAT GOD WILL JUDGE THE ELDERS "IN THAT DAY I WILL PERFORM AGAINST ELI ALL THINGS WHICH I HAVE SPOKEN CONCERNING HIS HOUSE: WHI I BEGIN, I WILL ALSO MAKE END. FOR I HAVE TOLD HIM THAT I WILL JUDGE HIS HOUSE{THE CHURCH}EVER FOR THE INIQUITY WHICH HE KNOWETH, BECAUSE HIS SONS {THE MINISTERS} MADE THEMSELVES VILE, AND HE RESTRAINED (DID NOTHING) THEM NOT. AMD THEREFORE I HAVE SWORN UNTO THE HOUSE OF ELI, THAT THE INIQUITY OF ELI'S HOUSE SHALL NOT BE PURGE WITH SCRIFICE NOR OFFERING FOREVER. THIS IS NOT SACRIFICE FOR SIN OF COMMISSION {HEB 10:26}. BE ENCOURGED AND KEEP YOUR HEARTS SOUND AND YOUR EYES OPEN FOR GOD HIS STILL IN HIS HOLY TEMPLE AND SITTING ON HIS THRONE.

FOR THE LOVE OF CHRIST BISHOP C. SIMMONS. PH,D

I saw the Dateline show just now and I wanted to thank all who spoke out on the show. Hopefully, things will change within the organization and the victims will be supported and encouraged to press charges.

I just saw the Dateline report all I can saw is Amen. Time will not allow for me to tell of every abuse I know done to me and friends, only to have the victim punished and the abuser repented. I know of a man that abused his own daughter for 14 years and the elders knew and chose to blame the wife for not pleasing her husband causing him to go after his own child. Only when the daughter went to therapy for something else did it come out and the police were called by the therapist. What happened? Well he was reproved and she was shunned. He got to stay in his house, she was forced to leave. But would any of her brothers and sisters take her in, no and the one who did was counseled against it, but I let her stay.

To those of you who think you are alone, you aren't I was a pioneer, wife of a ministerial servent(who cheated on me all of our marriage with the elders knowledge), and I was shunned, so you are in good company.
Finding this website and watching the piece on Dateline NBC (May 28, 2002) sent shivers up my spine. You see, someone close to me was abused by JW's for what seems like all her life. First by her father physically, and sexually, then by a husband mentally (both men have been elders in their local kingdom halls). Her father's abuse went unnoticed for years and was often masked as strict discipline. Threats of disfellowship kept her quiet many years after. Unknowing of normal male adult behavior, she married an all too similar character of a husband. A dominating JW man who kept her down with cruel mental and one count of physical abuse. After having enough, she went to church elders who told her to give him more and more chances. Still, threats of disfellowship and years of brainwashing keeping her down, she continued to keep the marriage/abuse going only if only for her daughter and Jehovah. As a woman she was emotionally dead. At the end of her rope, she knelt, crying on the bathroom floor, contemplating suicide. Miraculously, she chose life over the church and resigned from the witnesses, sought mental therapy, divorced her husband, and carried on with her life. She is now an outcast in the eyes of her former friends and "jailers". Her father now shuns her and acts as the disappointed one, and her husband only speaks to her on matters regarding the children. However, she has never felt more free.

As a sister, I write you this not to bash the church. I write to show the power, the protection, and the hippocracy that the church is harboring. I'm concerned about the present but mostly the future, our women and children...we should all be concerned.

I think this room is runned by SATAN!

My ex-wife is a Jehovah's Witness. We have One Child and I am afraid something might happen to him. I really like your page I think it contains important info about people we live around.

Thank you for having Dateline do the story. It was very enlightening. It makes me ill to know that this kind of misconduct is going on. I myself am not a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses. I must say though that my heart and prayers go out to the young women that have suffered. I am also aploed after hearing the ones who spoke to Dateline are being disfellowshiped. That is absolutely ridiculous. Thank you again for exposing this problem to the world.

Hi I watched the Dateline special tonight 05/28/02. While I have not suffered sexual abuse in the manner described I and my wife have been shunned by members of the congregation when I decided to develop a free mind and use it. The societies teachings have fostered a no negative tolerance level in many aspects. I expect the society will be exposed for many unscriptual practices which its inner order at Bethel is involved in. Missappropriation of funds, involvement with the U.N., subliminal art, false prophecies, connection and involvement with other inner orders, sexual handlers etc. Thank you

Victoria Joy tiggereyes@hotmail.com It is such a relief to know that I am not the only one that was silenced. That their was nothing wrong with me or with the memory of the horrifying events that led me to become an unbeliever. That however their was something wrong with the abuser and with the system that kept this a secret. Knowing that I am not the only one and that I can be heard, well that helps a great deal. Thank you for stepping up to the plate and putting yourself out on teh line for us. This for me is a huge relief. Thank you I was a battered lamb, battered by my own father. It is a pity that the organization kept all this under wrap because if they hadn't me and my father would of gotten the help that we needed, and maybe know we would be in speaking terms. I am so glad that a forum like this exists. Thank you Bill and thank you all that are coming foward with your stories. We will always have eachother for support.

Hello I am In Va and have JW as family. I am not getting into the religious part of it myself to agree or disagree but in my eyes being abused or battered is not Gods will and he would not want people to hide the facts. The people should come forward and tell the police or a lawyer or someone but l truley feel then things will be takin care of these people are walking around hurt and never can heal if there is not something done to the abuser or attacker. People comment that the JW way is right but they are usually not the ones the abuse or battering was struck upon. I hate for anyone to be hurt and I feel that people should pay for what they do. I myself have been in JW before but it was not for me and I could nto agree with them and because I am female and was head strong they dont get along with me anyway. I praise any and all of the victims that have stepped forward and I hope more do step forward. God does not want people hiding these facts. SOry if i seem confusing I do babble like that but i wanted to express my opinion and i felt this was the place to write it....Thank you for reading it...PJ from VA (email addy every1luvspj73)

My father was Presiding Overseer of our local congregation and happened to be in on a judicial meeting with a local pedophile who confessed to molesting children many years ago. This man was not only involved in incestuous relationships with his own children, but also over the course of some years with molesting children not related to him. I grew up in the congregation with this pedophile who was never known to be a "strong" christian. He would attend congregation meetings well at times then slack off in attendance at other times. Within the last 3 years some of this pedophile's victims (now young adults) brought charges against him to the authorities and a court case ensued. During this period the pedophile campaigned and was able to get my father (then Presiding Overseer of our congregation) removed as an elder because my father would not support or promote this pedophile...instead my father was attempting to protect our congregation and our children from the influence of this self-confessed child molester. This pedophile garnered favor with the majority of elders, the Circuit Overseer of the time, and a large array of JW's in the region who fiercely backed him as a "persecuted" christian!!! It was totally appalling and unbelievable to me. My father a good, moral man who would never do anything to hurt a child was written off as an "unloving, unforgiving, bad" person while this child molester became Ministerial Servant and his popularity within the organization grew and grew! (During the trial preparation he was asked to "resign" as Ministerial Servant.) As the court proceedings progressed JW's (including elder's from my congregation) went to support this child molester, testifying on his behalf! This pedophile finally pled guilty to the charges against him and was sentenced to prison time. I thought perhaps this would wake some of these gullible ones from their coma but instead their support persisted throughout his prison experience! This pedophile had made passes at me as a child. Thanks to my protective parents I was never harmed by this child molester. How many other unsuspecting children were molested? I don't know. What I do know is that some JW's think that simply being a baptized JW means you are a "good" person who would never commit such a heinous crime. They unfortunately disregard the fact that being a JW does not make us perfect persons in a perfect society free from the effects of sin and personal weaknesses. This is NOT a JW teaching, in fact the bible teaches us the opposite, but instead the belief of some low intelligence members. How sad for their children! How sad to be so naive and thus be open bait for criminals like child molesters. Criminals are often charming.....just like the pedophile I mentioned. He is obviously charming (charming could also be defined as "clever liar" which is what this particular man is) or would not have been able to gather his large army of supporters within the JW organization. I am still a JW and I fully believe the Bible but I also believe that Jehovah granted us a precious gift, our BRAIN!!!!!! I do believe that the imperfect elders in our organization in most instances have tried to do their best before Jehovah (my father as a prime example... his only "crime" is doing Jehovah's will and protecting his congregation from harm) and in the interests of the perpetrator, victims, and the congregation with Bible counsel as their guide. It is my hope, however, that JW's will open their eyes to the TRUTH that all imperfect JW's are not "good" people. Some, in fact, are pedophiles. Guard and protect your children. Educate your children. In due time Jehovah will fix all the injuries of the victims and provide a world where none of us have to fear for our children's safety. Until then it is OUR responsibility as parents to safeguard our children. May Jehovah continue to bless your efforts to do that and may he grant you peace to cope if you have had the misfortune of having this terrible crime touch your life.

I saw you on Dateline tonight and can identify even though I never went to the elders at the Kingdom Hall I attended about any abuse they lied to me and disfellowshipped me after saying they wouldn't because I married a "Worldly Man"...the ridicule and disgust I recieved from the elders and the members there still live with me to this day!

Hi again, Dateline was excellant!!! It takes such courage to stand up for "Truth".

The only thing that the organization is tough on is victims of sexual abuse. This show I believe is just a window into what is happening all over the country...

My daughter at first refused to watch it, "about Jehovah's Witnesses forget it" but came in part way though and just froze in place said "I will have to watch it later" as I was taping it.

She has just told her boyfriend she was raped and just told me she was also...

Thank you for showing the world what is REALLY happening! DJB

I PULLED UP THIS WEB SIT, BECAUSE I SEEN DATELINE ABOUT THE YOUNG GIRL THAT WAS RAPED. I THINK YOU NEED TO LOOK INTO A SITUATION 2YRS BACK. A BROTHER BY THE NAME OF BRENT GALLATA HAD SEXY WITH TWO MINERS GIRLS IN THE HALL, AT THE TIME THE GIRLS WERE 15 & 16. THE BROTHERS THAT WERE HANDLING THIS SITUATION WAS RONALD MENZIER SR. & PRESLY MIDDLETON. I THINK, I KNOW FOR SURE RONALD WAS IN CHARGE OF THE MATTER. ANYWAY BRENT WAS DISFELLOWSHIPED AND SO WAS ON OF THE GIRLS (MOSELL IBARANDO) THEE OTHER GIRL (JODI BINDER) WAS NOT BAPTIZED. FROM WHAT I UNDERSTAND FROM MOSELL, BROTHER MEINZER TOLD HERE TO KEEP IT QUIET NO NEED TO GET POLICE INVOLED & SHE SHOULD NOT HAVE BE ALONE WITH THAT BROTHER ANYONE SO IT'S YOUR FAULT IT HAPPEN, BRENT I KNOW FOR A FACT WAS AT LEAST 25+ AT THE TIME. SO AS ALWAYS WHEN THE ELDERS DO NOT DO WHAT THERE SOPOSED TO DO & PROTECT THE YOUNG GIRLS, ONCE "AGAIN" EITHER OF THE GIRLS GO TO HALL OR THERE FAMILYS. AND WE ARE TALKING ABOUT GOOD FAMILYS THAT HAVE BEEN SERVING JEHOVAH FOR 15+ YRS EACH, AND WE LOST THEM BECAUSE AN ELDER TOKE MATTERS IN HIS OWN HAND & JEHOVAH'S. AND BECUASE OF THAT BOTH FAMILYS STOP SERVING THAT A TOTAL OF 13+ MEMBERS. THATS NOT RIGHT-!!! BUT WHEN YOU TALK OR ASKED BROTHER ROANLD HE SAYS WELL I GUESS THEY WERE NOT TRUE WITNESS. HE KNOW HE SHOULD NOT BE HURTING JEHOVAH'S SHEEP LIKE THAT. PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS ONE OF THOSES "GOOD OLD BOY". I FEEL THIS HALL IS FALLING BY THE WASTE SIDE, BECUASE THESE ELDERS DO & SAY WHAT THEY WHEN THEY WANT. WE HAVE LOST SO MANY GOOD FAMILY OVER THE YEARS, SOME STOP GOING OR MOVED TO ANOTHOR HALL BECUASE THEY KNEW THAT HALLS ARE NOT RUN LIKE THIS. THE

I just saw the dateline special, I don't even have words to explain how I felt. I am thirty-six and was raised in the truth until I was disfellowshipped in 1991. I was molested by my father from age 10 to 18 and then I married to get out of the house. To make a very long story short I could relate to the girl in the story except it was my father. I had no idea that there were others in the truth that had lost everything and every way of life that we had ever known. To top it all off we didn't do anything. I don't think that is what God had intended the congregation to be like. Thank You for the TV story. Sincerely,
Mrs. Lonnie Newbraugh dnlzoo@aol.com

I was raised from childhood as a witness. My mother was Catholic and my father Lutheran. We started to attend meetings when I was four. As I was an only child, I did what my parents wanted. I lived at home until 21 and then moved away. When I moved back and pioneered for 2 years, I was in good standing. I had always been some ashamed of being a witness and wanted to be "normal" like all the other kids in schoo. As I became older, and my friends were marrying and having children. My parents were very strict with me and they kept me from dating even witnesses. I am now 53 and have no children. I have been married twice, my first husband died ten years ago, and my current husband has a brother who was also a witness for a while. His wife and two daughters left him and all three married out of their race witnesses. Back to my story. After 911 events this year I was at my mother's eating lunch. She is 80 and not in the best of health. I stop for lunch from work to check on her. She asked me one day is I would every consider coming back to be a witness. (A real sore subject between us) I told her no, and she told me not to come to visit her anymore. I tried to reason with her that she could believe as she wanted to, but I had the right to as an adult to my own views and life. She has stuck to this no visiting pretty much. It occured to me that witnesses preaching about armageddon is just like the religious groups that advocate death to all who are not of their beliefs. I truly believe that this theory should be aired in public. They think that the only perfect world will be when all people who are not witnesses are dead. I do not want to hurt my mother. Please think about publishing info on this subject. Witnesses think that anyone that is supporting the country is bad, but do they realize how horrible it sounds to kill all the people in the world who are not witnesses. I have a lot more issues, but I may write more later it is just good to know that some are realizing how much mind control there is involved in this sect. I will just sign - a happy former witness. my email is mikedonna@wccta.net

It's high time this problem has been brought to light! I pray for the victims as well as for the blind, trusting members who are kept in total ignorance simply doing as they are told, never thinking for themselves or even daring to question anything they feel may not be right. I myself was born a Jehovah's Whitness, my father more dedicated than words can ever say. I dared to divorce my husband, who was drinking, abusive and fornicking with other women. His father was a congregation elder, in the days when there was really only one "Head" elder, and his uncle was a full-time minister working at the Bethal in Georgetown Ontario,(very respectable). Eventually my husband was disfellowshipped instead of my ordeal being over, it just began. I was followed, watched, accused of anything and everything, you don't leave the son of an overseer and come away un-scathed! The one minister who actually seemed to want to help me, began to stalk me in a sexual way. Everywhere I went, he was there, he got into my apt. building at all hours begging me to run away with him, many times I had a wrestling match with him begging him to leave me alone. He was a close friend of my ex-father-in-law and also an elder! Finally, quite by accident I found another separated woman, (single mom), who was also being stalked by this elder and told me that she was by far not the only one! Months later I was approached by a group of elders who asked me if I knew anything about elder "X" and if he was bothering me in any way. I bit my tongue, but eventually I cleared my conscience and told them of my dilemma. What a mistake! I was accused of seducing him, luring this man who was more than 20 years older than me and had 6 children some older than me, into "wanting" me..."having me"..."running off with me", I was disgusted!!! I was harrassed over the phone, even my 1 year old daughter's safety was threatened. I had really had enough! I did call the police, but had no proof, called Bell Telephone, had my number changed to private 3 times, didn't stop them. To my surprise 12 other women finally came forward with complaints against elder "X". Finally I was left alone. Really alone. My dear father hated what was being done to me, but pleaded with me not to loose faith, Jehovah would right things. It would have killed my father if I stopped attending meetings, they would have won. They couldn't disfellowship me...they had nothing. My faith in the organization was crushed, I had no more respect for them. I stopped giving talks, and stopped the ministry work, for the most part I only went to Sunday meetings, conventions and Memorial. Years later, my father, for all of his faith was kept "down" as far as praying at meetings, giving talks, reading at Watchtower meetings, later even going out in service. They looked at him as old and feeble minded, because he challenged them when elders would make statements that were Biblically incorrect. For all of his faith, hard work, building Kingdom Halls, etc., and many monitory donations, they accused him at the age of 84 of coming "on" to a pioneer in her 30's. If you knew my Dad, you would have known that this was simply not possible.,not even from a pysical point of view. He would not really discuss much with me, since they did tell him to keep this confidential, but after receiving a phone call one evening DEMANDING him to come to the Kingdom Hall immediatly! He became so wound up that later that nigh he had a severe stoke that totally disabled him. They had no proof that he ever did anything to this woman other than very normal, kind acts, the same he would show any sister in the congregation. He denied everything, but instead of belieaving him they beleaved a girl who suffered from delusions, her twin sister had more than one mental breakdown, her two brothers had emotional problems as well! At this point I really didn't care anymore about the organization, I told the elder involved what I thought of him and his hench men, and never looked back. My father is 90 now and living (if you can call it that) in a home. No one really comes to see him that I know of, but his faith in God is still strong, and I pray nightly that Jehovah protect him, keep him pain free, and let him die mercyfulty, peacefully. Alot of my life was wasted, because of the organization, but that's another story, ones got to wonder just how many more people are out there with similar or worse tales. Child abuse..women alone, vunerable, not being able to re-marry if they are divorced, taking the elders advice always looking up to them, wide open to the predator! Too bad a few will ruin it for the whole! I do think that thousands of beleavers are good and decent people, only wanting to find solace and security in the Bible, it's teachings and ultimatly have a relationship with God. It's really sad, but after more than 20 years I've finally vented...Thank you for that...Keep up the good work.. God bless you! Edith errlaid@sympatico.ca work on the love that is missing within the church, then once you have love, together look at what your church is teaching others. you will see what i mean by labeling you as a cult. i believe that God has taken this awesome step to allow a bad name to be put on the jw's (thanks Dateline). he wants his people back from satan's power. please consider what i have said. I will pray for the jw's, and the silent lambs. in Christian love, steven

I am from Canada I moved to the states when I married my husband. While in Canada I was harrassed by a male cong/member sexually. He was drunk and called thru out the night. I told the elders but they did nothing. This same man was accused of molesting his own child. The cong wrongfully lent him there support. He wasn't disfellowshipped for this terrible act. I hope this cult is exposed!

wonderful show on dateline, now someone should check into all the property watchtower is acquiring in New York, near the farm, they recently purchased a huge farm tax free, turned around and sold it to a developer for millions plus, made a profit, and had several multi-million dollar homes built for the higher ups in brooklyn. They expanded their orchards and are selling the food for a profit. What? I don't understand what is going on here either. Keep up the good work.

I doubt if my husband would want this info to become public, but after watching Dateline tonight (5/28/02), I had to say something. When we married, my husband was a Bethelite of 5 years. When he first went to Bethel, during his first year at age 19, he was approached by an older "brother" who wanted to have sexual encounters with him. Of course, my husband, being 19 at the time, was extremely offended and embarrassed, and didn't say anything to anyone at the time, but to even think this could happen, is so repulsive. I can only imagine how much is going on "behind closed doors." We disassociated ourselves from the organization in May of 1991 due to doctrinal differences, and have no regrets. It has been a very difficult journey over the past ten years trying to "fit in" with normal society, but we have adapted. We feel for, and pray for anyone who has gone through such horrible things in the JW organization. We're glad to be free!

Ok and you know all this information from?????? Clearly the person that is playing the "victim" is just a person who wants attention. Look at the catholic church. They're full of crap. They're hypocrites because the ministers have even molested children. You cannot make comments without the facts. At least Jhova's Witnesses are decent and humble people unlike you bastards who have nothing to do but to criticize religions that you don't even know deeply. Look at youself first.

YOU HAVE GIVEN A VOICE TO THE INNOCENT.

This is really interesting but not surprising. I recall when I was about 10-11 years old a classmates oldest sister was pregnant by her father. They were Witnesses'. They use to tell people she had a stomach virus. This was in the 1970's.

Your are so correct in getting and offering people help when dealing with this type of mistrust.
I also remember a teen ager being disfellowshiped because she was raped. That was double trauma for her. Her friends not speaking to her and being raped.

You are doing the right thing. Exposing the wrong and getting people help.

Let me see what the Watchtower has done for me: 1. Broke up my marriage 2. Spouse did not talk to df mother. Lost her chance when she died. 3. Never had the family together in one picture.(Someone was always in bad standing) 4. Broke up with good friendships with people who cared more about me than the "conditional friends"

I have read many of these stories and find them VERY sad and dis-heartening. I have been inactive for 5 years and recently elders have been stopping by. I was the victim of abuse not at the hands of a witness, but this makes me very frightened for my three daughters. They always say they don't want to go back to the hall (they remember going) they say life was horrible and I was mean and hit them a lot. I now realize that was true. A.L. 5leslies@bellsouth.net

I was a Jehovah's Witness for several years. I was a teenager in high school who had a crush on an older guy that was a JW. He wasn't able to date me because I was "worldly". So he convinced me to start a bible study with a sister in his congregation. I did this because I was 16 and very vulnerable and had strong feelings for him. At that time I would have done anything to win his affections. Over a period of about 2 years I studied with the JW's, attended meetings and participated in the witness work. My mother was a Christian but never forced us to go to church growing up, nor did she go. It was easy for me to fall in to believing all of the wonderful things the JW's told me, about everlasting life and what the future would hold for me as a witness. My family did try to stop me from becoming a JW, but eventually they realized that I wasn't going to give up. I was baptized after 2 years of studying, and secretly dating the guy we'll call him "K". At that point it was ok for us to slowly start dating publicly. Because now I was a "sister" part of the congregation. "K" and I got married when I was 18, fresh out of school and very naive. He didn't want me to go to college because in the "new system" college would be of no benefit to me. I think that deep down, he was also scared that I would see the light and realize what a mistake I had made. We were married for about a year and the problems started. He was controlling, he was the man, the head of the house, and I had no say in anything. I couldn't do anything with out his permission, but he could come and go as he pleased. I started to see things in our congregation that were not handled the way they should have been. I had never really believed in my heart that this was the truth, but I guess when everyone around you tells you that you just go with it. We were fighting all the time, my attendance to the meetings slowed down. Mostly because of all the hypocrisy I saw around me. They preached about how the JW's are different because they are Jehovah's people. I found they were no different. I just found that they hid it a little better. After 1 1/2 years of marriage and living in a small town, we decided to move to the city to experience more in life. We joined the new congregation thinking it would be refreshing and it was for a while, but eventually I saw the hypocrisy there too. After about a year I stopped going to meetings and other activities. I was able to see something that was in my heart all along, that this is not what I believed. My husband made it very hard for me, I lost any love for him that I ever had because of the way he treated me. With no respect at all, because I was a woman. He never wanted me to grow as a person; he wanted to keep me trapped in this cage where he could mold me into the perfect, maid, wife, and slave. I am a person with thoughts of my own. In the JW organization, you are not allowed to have your own thoughts; they tell you what you should think. They get into your married sex life, they tell you how to do it or how not to do it. I told him some things had to change for our marriage to work, and even suggested marriage counseling. He refused to go. After several months of me trying and him being the same overbearing husband, I left him. It was very hard, but I had completely fallen out of love with this man. He was not the sweet person I once knew, he was a controlling, verbally abusive man, who didn't want me to be anything but his slave. When I left him I left with nothing. I think I had $100 to my name. My family wound up helping me get on my feet, they were a blessing from God. During our split and divorce, I got to see what a dirty player he really was. He wouldn't agree to split our belongings that we had acquired during our marriage, such as furniture. His parents own a furniture store and had given us most everything in our apartment. He told me if I took him to court and got a lawyer that his parents (who are JW's) and he would make up fake invoices that were not paid for the furniture and I would have to pay. At the time, I just wanted out. Oh did I forget to mention the vasectomy that he had before we were married. He did this because he didn't want to have kids in the world we live in now, but the in the "new system" he wanted children, and that Jehovah would restore his ability to have them at that time. During our divorce he told me one day that if he got remarried he would have the vasectomy reversed so he could have children. That was just a dagger in my heart. He really showed me his so called Christian ways. I am so happy know that I have left that organization, cult, sect, whatever you want to call it. Don't get me wrong, I do think there are a lot of good witnesses out there who truly do want to teach God's word. But don't for one second think this religion is different than any other, they are not.

I have since remarried, to a wonderful man. I think God definitely sent him to me, or me to him. We were married 8 months ago. I am rebuilding my life after all I went through at such a young age. I learned many things from my experience, but the most important is that you shouldn't have to change for someone to love you. If they don't love you for who you are, then it's not you they really love.

Tonight I saw the Dateline NBC story about child molestation. I just want to commend you all for coming out about it. I think you are very strong admirable people to confront an organization that has covered up this horrible crime for so long. I pray for you all and hope that you have found peace in your life and hopefully still want to serve God.

Even though I was not molested, I still feel that I have something in common with you all. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Good luck to you all! SP

HELLO I HAVE GROWN UP IN THE FAITH OF JEHOVAHS WITNESSE AND I'M NOW AN UNBAPTIZED PUBLISHER. I JUST WANT TO SAY THAT I REALLY DO NOT BELIEVE ANY OF THIS. IT IS PROBABLY TRUE BECAUSE WE KNOW THAT WE ARE NOT IMPERFECT. THE BROTHERS ALWAYS TELL US NOT TO TRY AND FIND FAULT WITH ANYONE IN THE CONGREGATION BECAUSE WE ARE ALL IMPERFECT. EVERYONE MAKES MISTAKES!

I would guess that "the light just got a little brighter" for the Watchtower again. The Truth is nothing more than a work in progress.

Hi Bill-

Excellent job with Dateline. Erica's story was especially moving. God bless you and all you have done for these people Bill. I know you have sacrificed much and you will probably sacrifice even more for this noble cause. My prayers are with you.

you are full of lies and slander. What you don't know or understand you make out to be demeaning. Shame on you. You have so much untruthfully information. And you twist what people say. Name is not necessary and neither is your sick twisted thoughts. The bible says everything is open and naked to the eye of God and nothing you say or do as well as any other person, does not go unseen by Jehovah God. Jehovah see's all good and bad things. No one can hide. Those who are speaking lies and untruth will not go unpunished from bringing slander on Jehovah's name. Jehovah will handle all matters real soon.

I am currently studying with the Witness'. I found your story interesting and informative. I wholeheartedly agree with your concerns about the children. I hope the Brothers get the message and make the changes it needs to make to protect the children. However, I have been associated with a number of religions and I must say that the teachings of the Jehovah's Witness' have by far been more effective in developing my spiritual awareness and discernment. With that said....."Let the truth be heard"....It can only help !

" Ok and you know all this information from?????? Clearly the person that is playing the "victim" is just a person who wants attention. Look at the catholic church. They're full of crap. They're hipocrites because the ministers have even molested children. You cannot make comments without the facts. At least Jhova's Witnesses are decent and humble people unlike you bastards who have nothing to do but to critize religions that you don't even know deeply. Look at youself first."

Hmmm nice "Christian" attitude, isn't it? The owner of this site is not claiming that "All" JW are evil human beings. It's the policy that needs changing. Without this change more jw children will fall victom to molestation. My child was one of those who was molested, but you don't see me calling JW's Bs do you?

The Society was created and established by the Scottish Right. Take note of these things; Millenial Dawn Charles Russell compare to Alister Crowley's Golden Dawn,a sexually abusive monster The true defenition for the name Jehovah is in direct relation not to a god/God but rather the 4 directions,North,South,East and West. The Hebrew spelling & name YA WEH/Jehovah/Tetragramaton is used in Tetragramatation Black Magic calling the 4 directions to the circle,and in Enochian Magic. Pyramids & Prophets? In addition, Sexual handlers are prevalent in Organized groups, aside sexual abusers. The question is why does the society choose not to acknowledge outside involvement? Its all about image! The scriptures are used time & again by these theocratic spinsters as an excuse to shut off the outside world and create a monitored control environment which stretches into all aspects of a brother or sisters life(member), mentally, spiritually, emotionally and so forth. This is a tactical form of mind control often exhibited & used by the illuminati. Sexual handlers usually maintain a close relationship with there victims and moniter them often. Sexual handlers are individuals which work as gatherers for inner orders which operate within control conscious organizations, we cannot rule out this action within the society. While most of these abusers are doing it for selfish gain and as a crime of dominance. The question remains. Why does the society maintain such strict control over judicial action administered to these types of people? Organizations such as this often maintain judicial control over such actions so as to conceal even deeper handler issues. If a handler is accused the judicial committee can halt further progress in his/her exposure. Handlers differ from the typical abuser in that the handler culls the flock, gathering an individual & then beating down their spirit with abuse/ritual abuse/sex slaves and the occult. While many of us when wittenesses would not agree with this it does open up the possibilities. The allegations of sub art starting back in the 70's was immeadiately suppressed. Search thru original hard copies not bound volumes of all society literature with images. Use a magnafying lens look for skull & bones images clearly printed as well as others.
The unofficial excuse I heard from a circuit overseer was that the artist were performing dark magic & were expelled.
While this seemed more like silly talk the art was visibly clear. It maybe something deeper than that. When an organization pounds & pummels the human psyche into subjection and then punishes its members when they question teachings, principles and policies this should immeadiately send up a red flag. What benefit does this offer?
If some cases prove to be handler associated then the society can coverup its connection to the Scottish right & the illuminati by administering justice isolated from the legal justice system. If such an Unholy unity were to exist and it was exposed it would explain why the society chooses to prefer to administer its own justice, and why the society has made so many blunders in the past in its policies,false prophecies, and unholy unity with the U.N.among other things.
This organization oppresses many of its followers without them even knowing it. You become a prisoner of your own mind! For shame all you fools who continue to live a lie associated with such an organization! My heart goes out to all of those sexually abused victims. I feel sorry for all of those who have chosen to remain members of the LIE and have failed to truly AWAKE N ! I hope that all of those who have been abused sue the society. It is a BILLION DOLLAR INDUSTRY A YEAR !!! They have lots of MONEY as none of that goes to maintanance of individual Kingdom Halls or Assembly Halls. You Brothers know that the society will make loans, but signs off from all obligations and responsibilities connected to all Halls. A lot of donations are given yearly & the individual congregations must care for there own utilities & such aside from contributions made for literature, expenses and such at Bethel. There are only approx 3500 employees or slaves as I call them working for crumbs which fall from the table. Not to mention land donations given to the society which they sell for additional monies. So where does all of this money go? You do the math, get out there & check for yourself (on line). Foriegn congregations in France have to pay there own taxes, the society does not pay for this themselves(brooklyn bethel co). Is this a bank or a religion?
Missionaries don't cost a whole hell of a lot to bring home with there meager possesions. So where is it all going. Well they MAY tell you they are saving it for when the Sovereign Nation of America decides its no longer a Nonprofit organization & charges them taxes. It has been allledged that it is a money laundering system for the illuminati? Who knows. But it is food for thought. bye for now.

I can't believe after leaving J.W.'s 4 years ago and struggling with all the confusion, wondering where to turn...that here you are.

I am a victim/court advocate and have been working with victims of domestic violence, child abuse and sexual assault for the past 5 years. I am also a former victim of domestic violence who was not told that it was okay to leave the marriage. Instead it was reinforced that Jehovah hates a divorcing and that the only grounds was for adultry.

I wish that I knew there was help out there for people like me...thank you for providing help to victims and please let me know if I can be of any help. Kathy Jacoby (formerly Atkins) katjacyby@yahoo.com

It's one-sided you have lost focus...if all is true let Jehovah do the judging. You are not turning on the Organization...it's Jehovah holy spirit you have turned against. Your dedication was made to Jehovah not to men or an Organization.
I have spoken out and nothing has happened. I relied on Jehovah to take care of matters and he his doing just that.

I watched Prime Time on May 28 and was very interested in the topic. I too have a history of sexual abuse, although not to the extreme as this girl on the program. I was exposed to sexuality I guess you could say when I was about 5 years old by my grandfather who also was supposedly one of the "Annointed" of Jehovah's Witnesses. I was very cautious when around my grandfather because I was afraid of his behavior. I have suffered mental breakdowns and have had a difficult time all through my life. I can't attribute all my problems to his behavior, but I'm sure he affected me to some degree. I forgive him, but am very sorry I had to witness his behavior at such a young age. I was not yet old enough to be exposed to such behavior, never mind by a trusted relative. It was very confusing and caused me great harm. I guess I didn't have enough faith in the organization to carry me through to the end, but I was with them for about 30 years. I finally left after my last breakdown. I am not signing my name because I don't feel I could deal with going public.

To all the Jehovah Witnesses and Jehovah Witnesses apologists who bash what this site stands for:

I dont give acrap about your theology or doctrine. You live in your own box, but that box resides in MY world.

If you want to stand up for your organization and it's policy of handeling internal problems, then you also ACCEPT the accountability.

This isn't about "oh Gee, everyone makes mistakes" bullshit. This about the law of the world you live in. If someone is a pedophile, then the community should be made aware of it. Even the ones who reside in the box of the Watchtower Society.

Remember: We the community DON'T ask you to come to our doors. You barge right in to our privacy as you see fit. If there is a pedophile knocking at MY door, you bet your ass I want to know about it. But since your system of handeling things pretty much adds up to "covering it up", the community has a RIGHT to know who is knocking at our door.
"People make mistakes" my ass. If they make a mistake that breaks the law, then they should be held accountable for their actions.

You Jehovah Witnesses don't live by yourselves in this world, the rest of us reside in it too. So if you fuck up, then take responsibility for your actions and quit your bitching.

I watched the Dateline segment and was very intrigued because my cousin is a Witness. I, on the other hand, am not. But I believe that any society that is that closed is just looking for trouble of one sort or another. So, it looks like the Catholic Priests have a little company on their way to hell.

I have this to say for all those that think what the society teaches is truth. What do you judge that by? Do you use Society literature to do your research only? What is the Society afraid of? If it is the truth then why do they reject your use of secular literature to prove otherwise? If it was the truth there would need to worry about losing paying members. The real truth is its a lie. They are afraid of you going out and growing a mind!

To any brothers reading this:

Do not fight Jehovah by keepings any sins of the Organisation secret. The organisation is not perfect and imperfect men may want to keep their sins covered over.

Bring the sins into the light, and maybe Jehovahs blessing may return.

Its time to be like Daniel and stand firm.

Christian Greetings, greg osbourne
It is very saddening to me, to see that the devil is also using you to slow down the sacrificing work that the Jehovah Witnesses are doing all over the world to spread the good word. I am not a JW, but I am happily married to one. They are good people, but just humans like everybody, but in my eyes they are the closest to what a perfect human being should be. Unfortunately the devil can use the media, and people like you, deservedly called apostate, to discredit these people of God. I am not saying they dont make mistakes, they do, and they are like everybody else, humans, but try to be better than anybody else. In this congregation there were two cases of suspicious child abuse, the elders were told, and they were put in jail. I don't know if they are still, but it was not overlooked by the organization. I know they are very strict with any wrong doings in the organization, and they keep it very clean in following the teachings of the Bible as close as possible. Apostates as the name itself indicates, become unfaithful to his previous beliefs, but as a traitor he or she dedicate themselves to work against their previous belief without any concrete reason or goal, a good allied of the devil. As I said before, I am not a JW unfortunately, I am still too busy working and I am not humble enough yet to enter this wonderful organization of wonderful people. I wish you people well. I do hope that your purpose is to help abused people, specially children, regardless of religious beliefs, and not just pinpoint to the Jehovah's Witnesses Organization, since they are probably the cleanest and have more principles than any other religious organization. Jehovah Witnesses don't go around and bring out all the crimes and awful things people of other religions do everyday, and in larger scale than will ever happen or ever had happen in this Organization dedicated to spread God's word to the entire world. May Jehova God have mercy on you if you try to damage his true organization of true believers of the bible, but still just human beings who fight against temptations, abuses, discrimination, evilness, jealousy, and the devil himself. But Jehovah God is at the front of it, so they will prevail.

I wrote a section in your comments about occult sexual handlers. While I refrained from writing the deeper aspects associated with this I will refer to the comments in your guestbook written by DXXX. This is the classic profile of involvement with sexual handlers the occult, Satanism, and the Montauk Project run by the illuminati. The victim will have had most of there memories stripped. But Time will expose them. BEWARE!!! There are many levels to this. It won't be long the LYRAN illuminati will do what ever is nesasary to coverup details. I express great caution to anyone having children. Do your research folks!!! This is a BBBIIIGGG problem!!!!

Saw the Dateline show. I was not surprised. The JW's are just like the Catholics and many other Xtian denominations -- a dysfunctional old boys club that hates women and abuses and scars women and children for life. I don't know why people are surprised, it's a common pattern in many but not all Xtian denominations. I am no longer a Xtian -- too many crazy making rules and cruel people acting under the guise of "Xtian love". I go to the Unitarian church, which is not Xtian, and they don't throw out sinners. I think Xtianity is socially and culturally sanctioned emotional and mental abuse. I joined a conservative Baptist church and waited for the miracles to happen. I got the full dunk baptism and prayed hard and read my bible and believed. Nothing changed for me, I was still broke and depressed and nobody in my church would help me get a job. I decided that if god works through his people on earth, that god didn't care whether I starved to death or not, because nobody in my church or any other church I went to, would help me get a job. They loved to sit up and criticize my situation, but the right to criticize a person, to me carries with it the obligation to help a person change their life, if they want to. I wanted to change my unemployed situation and got no help.

Their hellfire and brimstone sermons made me suicidal, I figured I might as well kill myself since they loved to invoke that grumpy old testament god that kills people for no reason at all. Because of original sin, Christianity cannot be positive. It is not logical either. Original sin is unearned guilt and shame (see books by John Bradshaw). Most people have enough problems with their self esteem without hearing what kind of worthless pieces of crap they are, in church on Sunday. I voted with my feet and left. After a church member called me up and told me I had no right to charge for some typing I was doing for a minister, I tried to slash my wrists and committed myself to the county mental hospital on suicide watch. The hospital was a joke. It didn't help at all.

People who are Xtians who say they are right all the time, they know exactly what is right for 6 billion people, and who is going to hell and who is going to heaven, and who is a real Xtian and who isn't, are sadly deluded and mistaken. Lots of other religions think they are the one true religion, and I can't see any evidence to tell me what religion, if any, is the true religion. I am truly sorry for all the abused people in the JW church. It is sad that there is so much misplaced faith in church leaders, who are human like everyone else, and fallible. Anytime you place all your faith in a particular philosophy or a certain person or minister to solve your problems and make life good, you will be certainly disappointed, as all humans are imperfect.

It is so sad that the victims have found out the hard way who their friends are, that will stand by them in their time of trial, and it is not the leaders. Relying on yourself and your friends instead of some big sky daddy is a tough lesson to learn. I learned it the hard way too.

To not celebrate your birthday, the day you arrived on earth, to love and be loved, to be the unique and special YOU that we each are.......that is very sad.

To not celebrate Xmas, to not enjoy the holiday, the decorations, the singing, etc........that is very sad as well.

I don't know if there is a heaven or a hell and I don't know who is going there, if there is one, after we die. You know what? I believe we should be kind and helpful to other people while we are here on earth, because this is the only reality that we know for sure. We should feed the hungry and minister to the sick, as Jesus and other great leaders taught, while we are here on earth.

When you let someone else think for you, and dictate your morality, you give up your power to them. These abused people were taken advantage of by church leaders for their own selfish ends. They need to think for themselves and realize that grievous harm, even serious crimes, are committed in the name of church authority. And that is wrong by ANY moral standard.

What do I believe? I quote the beliefs of Lin Yutang, Chinese philosopher and ex-Xtian: "All I know is that if God loves me half as much as my mother does, he will not send me to hell."

To the person who wrote from Canada, Edmonton Alberta. There are Pedophiles in the congregations in Canada. I am an active Witness and so are my parents. The policies of the Watchtower allow pedophiles to operate with relative freedom.

The victim is blamed and expected to act. The victim is usually a CHILD and the pedophile is usually an ADULT. Now isn't this a little unfair. How can a child stand up to the cunning, manipulation, threatening, and the sheer size of a adult predator...It is a little out of the child's league don't you think!! Some people are so unreasonable. The weaker are always dominated by the stronger especially in the case of pedophilia.

Hitler was responsible for what happened in Germany but one must always remember he could not have done all those terrible things if he didn’t have people who carried out his wicked orders to the death of 6 million Jews and countless others.

After the war some on trial used the excuse they were following orders. Can the elders use this excuse that they were just following orders? These men who followed orders of Hitler still went to prison and were found guilty.

Unbelievable as it was, there were people who lived near the concentration camps, working their farms, who had no idea what was happening until the Americans came in and the war was over. So today there will be people, who will not have a clue what is going on under their very noses...

Just because someone claims nothing is going on doesn't make it so. Old expression "5% make it happen; 5% watch it happen; and 80% ask what happened."

A persons denial may make them feel safe. It just like the disease AIDS. At first the person does not know they have it. They feel fine. They look fine but this doesn't change how deadly the disease is.

So to with some adults, they may look around and think everything is fine in the congregations but think again. The Pedophile usually identifies himself only to his victims(the children)who are their sexual preference, not the adult. Those who have trouble believing this should think you can't tell someone has AIDS just by looking at them so to with the Pedophile...

Denial will not keep the children safe but facing reality will...DJB

P.S. For the record Dateline was good for our family as it helped the doubting Thomas's to realize what I have been saying for past 6 years is exactly what is happening...

P.S.S About that "Gay" bit. Those who have no answer will often resort to name calling, making accusations to deflect the attention off themselves. They want, obviously, to redirect the attention off the REAL issues. THAT IS THE PROTECTION OF THE CHILDREN.

Bill Bowen keep up the good work and efforts with this web site. Barbara Anderson your (research)evidence shows how deep the problem runs in the organization. Thank for your courage in coming forward and speaking up. Both your efforts to expose this to the public/brothers is so appreciated. Thanks with all my heart!!! Jehovah will not forget your work and the love you showed.

AD responds 23 May 2002: That is exactly what I would do - keep my children away from him! But it is not possible - not only does he get frequent overnight visitations with his children, but I've learned now that some other children in the congregation and some of those that are studies attending meetings have spent time over there when my children are there and even shared in overnights with him too! And I am constantly reminded NOT to speak out about what he has done to us!

To Lollylou and AD ....

"Only persons truly responsible for injustice prefer silence and seek to impose it"

Our silence has only compounded the problem over the years. We gave up our conscience to the dictates of men rather than listen to the dictates of Almighty God.

John 3 19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. 21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God."

Matthew 10 26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

Luke 12 1 ....... Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. 3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

If all of you who are keeping silent in your congregation were to speak out all at the same time, what can they do? I guarantee that almost the whole congregation is affected and all want to speak out. Only Satan and his lackeys loves this silence!

SPEAK OUT! BE SILENT NO MORE!!!!!!

I haven't talked about this for over twenty years. I never let my children be around him, but I have to admit I didn't dare sympathize with the girls for fear of reproof from the elders. This is a crime. Thank you again for your bravery! I am sure you will be blessed for all your efforts in behalf of our children! lollylou2@excite.com

AD responds 23 May 2002: That is exactly what I would do - keep my children away from him! But it is not possible - not only does he get frequent overnight visitations with his children, but I've learned now that some other children in the congregation and some of those that are studies attending meetings have spent time over there when my children are there and even shared in overnights with him too! And I am constantly reminded NOT to speak out about what he has done to us!

To Lollylou and AD ....

"Only persons truly responsible for injustice prefer silence and seek to impose it"

Our silence has only compounded the problem over the years. We gave up our conscience to the dictates of men rather than listen to the dictates of Almighty God.

John 3 19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. 21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God."

Matthew 10 26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

Luke 12 1 ....... Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. 3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

If all of you who are keeping silent in your congregation were to speak out all at the same time, what can they do? I guarantee that almost the whole congregation is affected and all want to speak out. Only Satan and his lackeys loves this silence!

SPEAK OUT! BE SILENT NO MORE!!!!!!!

What is going on here in the JW camp is "Obstruction of Justice." You could call it "Obstruction of Conscience." But to say that implies that the Witnesses active Jehovah's Witnesses have one. Anyone ever see the movie "The Stoning?" I recommend it.

You JW people want so badly to have a "Theocratic War" with the entire Human Race...All of Civilization...All of Mankind...YOU GOT IT! You shits have a war.
I listen here and it is just like everywhere else. When it comes to Jehovah's Witnesses their God is my Devil!!! Why? Look at their very words. They speak for themselves. I need to provide no other proof. I will not wait to see you attack one more victim. Next time you come to my house plan on me leaving with you. Dateline video, this site's stories, your own literature, Franz, "Releasing the Bonds," and the spirit of Christ. They are coming to. I will go door to door with you. No more will I allow you to lie and play dumb about your own "Wolfish" devil ways. I will let people make up their own minds. Just like you. I however will give them all the facts. Including the ways of a propagandist. If your material can still hold any credibility I will truly be amazed.

Anyone else with me?

The Watchtower and its dominion are dependent on shame and silence. You Witnesses created your enemy here. Your enemy is you!

I am an active JW - and both a victim of abuse and a parent of abused children - our abuser was my husband and their bio. father and IS still a member of our congregation in good standing.

I'm in search of a private email group for persons with similar situations. I do not want a group where those not wanting to continue serving Jehovah will be as well. I really just want a loving, spiritually-minded, sympathetic/empathic group where victims can discuss their situations freely and find support in dealing/coping with ongoing related issues.

If you know of such a group OR If you are interested in such a group as well PLEASE CONTACT me at mymomspace@hotmail.com

I was raised as a Jehovah's Witness and I am currently married to a baptized-disfellowshipped - re-instated Witness. I am not baptized. We have two children. I know quite a lot of witnesses and non-witnesses. I was a little surprised by the Dateline story. However, I do feel that it is probably true. Among the witnesses there is a false sense of security, as though none of them could do any wrong. I had thought that if anything inappropriate had taken place that the witnesses would have gone to the authorities. I see that is not the case. I also believe that they are more concerned with their "image" than any particular member. If they have admitted molesters going door-to-door, what else is going on in the organization ?? What Jehovah's Witnesses governing body should have done was gotten ahead of this thing - reported the abusers - counseled the victims and prevented anything like this from ever happening again. They should not have buried the problem. People would have been extremely proud and impressed and thought much more of them had they handled the situation the way they should have. They would have brought pride and honor to Jehovah's name. Instead they brought shame and scandal. They should be ashamed of themselves. I am certain that Jehovah is disappointed with them. They said let Jehovah handle it. WELL I GUESS NOW HE IS!!!!! It seems as though he is using Bowen to get the word out so that the abuse can stop. Try not to let their attitude discourage your efforts. I am sure it is difficult for you. But your cause is just and I am certain that all decent people appreciate your efforts. Don't let the self-righteous hypocrites wear you down. Let the innocent children motivate you every day. May Jehovah God bless you for your efforts. Wishing you and your family the best. Here is the poem..someone requested that was seen on Dateline (on Bills computer) "BED OF TEARS"

She sits upon a bed of tears
All alone and full of fears
She can not comprehend
Why the boo boos do not mend
So she stares upon the wall
And in her childish prayer does call
I want my daddy to come here to protect me from my fear
But to daddy I can not call for he is the meanest of them all
He whispered he loved me and said not to tell
But when he touched me I wanted to yell
He hurt me bad and made me cry
He said he loved me, so I don't know why
Can you hear me Jesus, are you awake?
I don't want to bother you, but my daddy I hate
Please forgive me for being bad
I make my daddy mad
He told me if I don't be good While by my bedside he stood
I'm afraid he will love me no more
He said be good, like the times before
But Jesus it hurts when he loves me at night
I want to tell Mommy, but then they will fight
I want to go away to be with you
But I have to know, do you hate me too?

Dedicated to my daughter Michele Sandstrom ~~~by Jean Kraus copyrighted 2001

In response to the 'brother' who said:

"The following is a post dealing with Dateline and Pedophilia in the organization made by a brother on a JW discussion board. I thought it was very good: The safety of the children should come first. Elders are instructed that upon hearing an allegation of child abuse that they are to contact the Society's Legal Department. I'm sorry but that tells me right off where the priorities are. ""

Pfffffffffffffffffff..., finally a 'brother' with common sense, one that doest want to be fooled anymore by the WT Society. Hats off!!!!

But there is one thing that I don't agree with you: "The world hates us anyway and thinks very little of us." The world doest hate you, it's like you said yourself "they watch us go about our business trying to fool them into thinking we are better than them"!! That's the whole issue!

Why on earth would anyone want to belong to an organization so far away from what Jesus tried to teach people?? It is just mind-boggling that such a dictatorial so-called religion, with such juvenile rules & regulations could gain so many followers. Boy, oh Boy, if Christ ever did come back to earth and found out about the Watchtower organization, and what a mockery it has made of true spiritual meaning He would be flabbergasted, and probably nail himself back on the cross. If a person cannot find some sort of spiritual meaning in life without joining such a transparently phony CULT, then these people are truly to be pitied. The TRUTH, they call it !! Such arrogance !!! The "truth" is, that it is a scam, operated by a bunch of old men who live very well off the money donated by a multitude of true 'slaves' .... slaves who have been brainwashed to believe that everything the Watchtower tells them has to be accepted as the FINAL answer. How very, very sad, and what a depressing commentary on our human frailties. God help us all, is all I can say, and if He will, the first thing He should do is expose this arrogant Cult for what it is.

TO ALL SILENTLAMBS: My name is Jean Kraus and I am an inactive witness from the Fresh Pond Road Congregation in Queens NY. I am also the mother and sister of incest survivors, still suffering from the aftereffects of the abuse. So many times I wanted to come forward and put my name on this web site, but for fear of being called an apostate by the Society I didn't. Now I realize, that no one but God can judge me, and I know that He does not look down on me with angry for supporting victims and survivors of abuse. I have been a child advocate since 1992. When the girls molester wasn't disfellowshipped, I questioned the elders, I was told their abuser (my husband at the time and a Ministerial Servant)was not a wicked person , but he was weak and I was not to question the outcome of the hearing. The healing of the girls and our family would have been so much easier if our feelings were validated and if he was disfellowshipped. One elder knew he was a con artist, for he told me this after the judicial meeting. The feelings that enveloped me were devastating, I wanted to die. My daughter told me she would lay in bed and think of ways to kill herself. My sister suffered physically from the stress of the abuse. The rest of my family was in shock, and my sons left the Org. When the abuse was first told to me , I tried to have my husband arrested, but the girls were over eighteen when they told me, so the authorities told me they had to report it not me. Another let down. They were too scared and ashamed.I needed the elders to support me by reporting the abuse, but was told they were not mandated to report abuse in NY, so they didnt.In fact, the elders never even spoke to my daughter about the abuse and never even comforted her,she told me she is very hurt by this still to this day and feels betrayed that someone who was a close friend of hers would defend the sexual abuse policy, he is an elder. When I tried to warn other families in our hall of my husband (ex), I was warned to keep silent otherwise I would be marked, and I was causing division in the hall and if I did not listen to the elder's counsel I would be disfellowshipped. Another let down. I couldn't believe that the molester wasn't DF'd but I would be, it was then that even though I still went to meetings and gave talks and went preaching, my heart was acheing for justice, but was told I had to wait on Jehovah. I believed that and I still do, and I know that the time has come and He has answered our prayers with all this exposure coming out and our wait is over. I do not hate any witness and never did and I am not turning back on Jehovah, I am just trying to heal by telling the truth, which God knows I am. And I want to tell all the victims that you are survivors now and as a mother I want to tell you that I love all of you and I believe you and I am so sorry for the horrible crimes committed against you. I want to validate your feelings and offer you support and to tell you that as a volunteer for Silentlambs I am here for you and I am fighting to change the Statute of Limitations for sexual abuse. And to all those who posted such negative replies to Bill Bowen and the Silentlambs, remember this, do as Jesus did and have compassion for all people and do not judge harshly, for you will be judged also by your heart condition....Thanks Bill for being the elder me and my daughter have always been looking for...

I have read for the first time many of the posts in the Guestbook made since Dateline aired. It is the first opportunity I have had due to being inundated with email that I have been trying to answer. At the moment we have several JW pedophiles that are having charges press against them in different parts of the country. Also over 40 pedophile surveys have been turned in with numerous stories of abuse that will be going up shortly on the “abused lambs” page. As I read the posts made so far I was struck by to pain and sadness so many have as a result of WT Policy. WE BELIEVE YOU! Here you will never be doubted, your story will never be questioned, we will support you in anyway possible to heal and report those who hurt you. That is the purpose of silentlambs.

There are areas some have asked about and I would like to provide some brief answers. First, legal action, if you wish to pursue legal action please be careful who you talk to. There are those who would take advantage. I have asked the Webmaster to take all legal advertisements off the website as I do not know who these people are and they have made no effort to contact me. I do not trust them. If you feel you would like to do something in that direction email me and I will be glad to put you with someone who is very credible. info@silentlambs.org

Second, a few have asked about donations. If you read the “gift to sl” you will note all donations go to the assistance of victims. I take no salary and devote hundreds of hours as a donation of my time and effort. Our funding is very limited and as a result we are limited as to what we can do, so if anyone's heart moves them to assist, the more we get the more we can do for survivors. I just looked at the sl account we have $2,143.25 in the bank and to date since Dateline aired I have received a total of $50 in donations from one kind person. The hotline phone bill this month will be close to $400 along with website expenses. When things get tight I have certain ones I can call who are generous to help keep things going, for their help I am very grateful. Perhaps this will help some to see why I have the donate button at the top of the page.

Third, you will note there are a variety of posts that appear on the Guestbook. I try to allow most to remain as it gives the viewer the full picture of how survivors are affected. The anger, sorrow, sense of loss, bitterness, sadness, to name a few are so clearly presented, it needs to come out, you will not be silenced here. I also allow those who bitterly defend WT Policy as it helps the viewer to see how blinded a few are to the reality presented by this website. To this day I marvel how some can walk over all this evidence and call survivors liars. Understand many who read their posts marvel and understand why this problem continues in the organization, it is a living testament. So please do not be offended, this is a rough Guestbook born from atrocities committed against children.

Fourth, many have asked where I stand with regard to belief and teachings of the organization. I remain neutral on any expressions about doctrine. Silentlambs is a support group for all JW victims of abuse. This group ranges in those who have been DF’d, da, inactive, regular, pioneer, etc.. Who do we have the right to turn our backs on? All were hurt as children and are trying to find the path healing. At silentlambs we practice a don't ask don't tell rule whenever we gather or assist one another. That is we come together as survivors and your status is a non issue, you will always have the support of silentlambs. Our message is about healing and getting better, being the best person you can be, giving back to others and learning to never be a silent lamb.

As always when the Watchtower is exposed as it really is with good documentation and facts we have the loyal WT apologists JW's crawling out of the woodwork to deliver some of their usual pathetic one or two liners, like these:

"Those of you bashing witnesses, Pathetic ignorant fools, only looking to release your anger on people who try to lead clean lives, I am not a JW but I have respect for them, how can you possibly base your opinion on them for a few sick individuals. I don't see anyone attacking the Catholics for condemning "sinners" to hell and forcing collection plates. These are people. You are no better than the hatred spewing Nazis that terrorized the Jews or the KKK, that's right you prejudiced hypocrites!"

"Looks like an APOSTATE website to me. How could you do something like this??? It's so sad to see someone do this...."

"You are probably a Catholic that is spearheading these untruths to take the heat off of the terrible problems confronting your church. Soon the Catholic church will answer to God for their conduct. (for the one that is behind this site ) this system is about to end and sad to say you will go down with it..."

These comments are great though, because they show perfectly well the complete lack of empathy and compassion with the victims of the abuse that exist among the rank and file JW's. Here we can see the true face of what they call "Christian Love" in action as practiced by JW's.

It demonstrates the true attitude of loyal devout Jehovah's Witnesses and the cadaver discipline among the rank and file. No matter what kind of horrible abuse you are subjected to in the hands of elders and fellow JW's, you have to take it. Don't rock the boat! Don't do anything to bring shame on Jehovah. What a despicable and sick cult Jehovah's Witnesses are.

So thank you folks! Keep posting these one liners to spew you insane hatred for truth and decency. It reveals your true nature and attitudes.

This one is so typical of a JW who have absolutely no arguments against the well documented material about the horrible conditions within the WT organization and then have to deliver the ultimate last pathetic, impotent and helpless line with the universal and usual threat, my God will kill you because you just exposed us for the creeps we are:

(for the one that is behind this site) this system is about to end and sad to say you will go down with it............"

Norm, you are so right!! There is no use in calling each other names, as J.W.'s are so brainwashed they don't even know it (and the few that do know it, are so scared to lose their so called friends that they wont even admit it to themselves!!) and the rest of the world will never understand why these people let themselves be so brainwashed and fooled by WT. So we all, like Bill Bowen, would better put all our energy in protecting and saving our kids from these criminals, no matter their religion!!

Hi I would like to thank Bill Bowen for opening this web site. It is time that the silent ones stand up and speak out for them selves. God will honor your love that you have for the thousands of abused victims. It is time for the Watchtower to step back and see that they need to change a lot of rules in their organization. They need to realize that people need LOVE, and with that comes FREEDOM of speech. I pray for all of the victims that have been silenced for MANY of yrs! The ones that have chosen to be in an organization like the Jehovah's Witness,need to realize that when we obey and honor God that we honor our Government also, the Bible commands that we pray for our leaders of our country, not to turn against them in any way. It is Gods will that this information be revealed about the Watchtower Society. The shunning that takes place in the Society is also another sin that God has no part of. I pray that God would manifest him self in such a way that the organization would have no doubt as to WHO God truly is! May the Lord keep a hedge of protection around each person that has been abused by this organization. Satan destroys and desires to sift us like wheat. In Jesus name we have the power to over come the enemy who is trying to destroy innocent people. Thank you for this web site, and many blessings and love to all of the ones who are suffering in so many ways. God Bless Sharon Rid595@cs.com

Anyone who know one of Jehovah's Witnesses or has been to the Kingdom Hall should know that what is said in this website are lies. They things said are lies or twisted around to sound like what they are not. It makes me sick to read what you are writing. You make it sound as if any time someone makes a mistake they are disfellowshipped, which is no true. If you do something really bad and do not turn from that way then you can be disfellowshipped. Jehovah's Witnesses follow what the bible says and take the bible very serious.

I encourage any who have questions to ask one of Jehovah's Witnesses to explain what their beliefs are and do not listen to these lies on this website.
Child molestation is a horrible thing and none of Jehovah's Witnesses would protect or condone any child molester.

To the person who wrote that you are pointing out negative things about JW's. I have been a JW for over 30 yrs. FYI: THE ELDERS ONLY REPORT ABUSE IF IT IS REQUIRED BY LAW (16 STATES)...OR ANY OTHER CRIME FOR THAT MATTER. THE BROTHER ON DATELINE WHO IS IN PRISON (MANUEL) WAS DF'D FOR 6 MO. MOST ARE NOT DF'D AND IF THE ABUSER OR FAMILY SAY ANYTHING TO ANYONE ELSE...WARNING OTHER PUBLISHERS TO PROTECT THEIR KIDS, ETC. THEY ARE PUBLICLY REPROVED OR DF'D. JW'S DO NOT WANT TO BELIEVE THAT THIS IS GOING ON AND THEY REALLY BELIEVE THAT ABUSERS ARE REMOVED.....USUALLY THEY ARE NOT. WE NEED TO WAKE UP AND PROTECT OUR CHILDREN.

OK Bill I got the message and my PayPals are on the way. You will see me every month. Sooner if need be.

For anyone looking to follow me here is a tip. The donation site on the main page is much easier to use than the one on the Guestbook. The Guestbook link is so small it is hard to use. And even a $5 dollar donation does matter. Regardless of the theocracy of the people involved my love is to the children; Any children ours or yours. For any person who can't understand why Bill created this site know this. Witnesses, if this is a crime against God to you, then that crime is we love your kids. You may think this misguided. I tell you what, if these are the end times, on that day you people who did nothing, You say why you did nothing. Those who are there for the protection children, You say why you did this.

Let God judge.

Peace and love to you Brother Bill. Glory to Jehovah God for this site.

I know here I stand.

Jehovah's Witnesses are like any other humans. They are not perfect so some do really bad things. That does no mean that Jehovah's Witnesses as a whole are bad. They try to lead clean lives. I would not want to be around any Witnesses who has molested a child but if they do repent then they will be able to still be one of Jehovah's Witnesses. I am very sorry for any who have been molested, whether they are a Witness or not. The Catholics had to all go to New York and decide what to do about this problem. Jehovah's Witnesses have always knew what their stand on the matter is. If there is more than one person making a claim then the elders can do something about it.
otherwise they can’t (it says in the bible to have two or three witnesses). If a elder told a family they would be disfellowshipped for reporting it to the police then he was wrong. The family has the right to do that. The reason the elders don’t report it to the police is because it usually can be handled in the congregation. If not the family can report it. In most states it is not the law to report it or the elders would even if there was only one witness, because that would be the law. Jehovah’s Witnesses have put out many articles on how to protect our children from child molesting. We hate the sin of child molesting and would never condone it at all. The elders can not read hearts so if the child molesters seems repentant sometimes he/she is allowed to remain in the congregation. If he/she goes to any door the have to be with someone that is not ever been child molester. I believe on the Dateline show it showed a man that had been a child molester at a door, but there was also another person with him. You can not condemn all of Jehovah's Witnesses for what a group of witnesses did (which is a horrible thing). Jehovah's Witnesses as a whole try to lead good clean lives. Even though some witnesses that have molested are allowed to stay in the congregation the elders inform all the members of the congregation of who he/she is and what they did. If that person moved the new congregation would inform the new congregation of what he/she has done and the elders would tell the members of the congregation. The organization does not in any way protect that person from jail of any action by the courts or police. Any child molester can not serve as an elder or in any position in the congregation of responsibility. Many things on this website are twisted around and many things are lies. For one example, people are not disfellowshipped for about anything they do, they are disfellowshipped for doing something really bad and not being repented. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTION PLEASE GO TO ONE OF JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES AND ASK THEM THE QUESTION SO THEY CAN EXPLAIN. Don’t trust people that hate the witnesses or who claim to be a witness but to not act like they are (but telling how bad we are a twisting the truth).

To those who are victims, your second witness comes in the form of "forensic" science which our civil authorities use diligently. While each state may not have a Law for "shepherds" to have to report a crime. Does not God have one which says to "obey the Laws of the land". Exactly, we are to "obey CIVIL laws for reporting crimes. It is not only law, it is humane, it is a Godly act to help another in need.

Now while the WT wants to protect its own gluteus maximus. You will stand before Jehovah and have to tell Him why you didn’t act to help an innocent and lowly one. Just like the admonition in 2 Tim 2:15 "Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, handling accurately the word of truth”.

I doest matter if you are a Jehovah Witness, or a Mormon, or a Catholic, or a Baptist or not even in a church. Everyone deserves the right to choose what is done to them in their life. These are moral things the thread of what righteousness is made of.

May God bring you all Peace, Love and Joy

Yes, God's law does say to obey the law of the land but only 16 states say that you have to report the crime. If the law says to report the molesting then the elders do, no matter how many witnesses there are even one.

I guess I am not done. Remember the "naughty one" who keeps on transforming himself as an angel of light? The one who would fool even the very elect if it were not for God bringing this to an end?

I see all kinds of personalities posting here. Victims first of all. Then second the ones who belong to the organization that have not had this bad experience who are adamantly defending their faith. And then third I see everyone else who lives outside the "protected Bubble" of the WT Society showing cause for the ignorance and blindness in the world. Well pull up your boot straps, this blindness exists in every faith and in every walk. God is cleaning house and "NO ONE" is going to remain hidden. What the perpetrator does in secret will come to light not just in the Catholic faith, or the Jehovah's Witness's but all walks will get this shake down.

For those of you who have not had to live this horror. And since you don't know. I will share this well known metaphor "It is better to remain quiet and thought a fool than to open your mouth and remove all doubt". YOU have NOT walked a mile in their shoes and DO NOT have the right to judge those who say they are victims. How dare you.

I agree with you that you should not judge any one who says he/she is a victim. If someone was to do that then they are wrong. I have heard stories of have other people turn their back to ones how say they are victims (from this website) but if that's true then those people, as I said, are wrong. We don't know if these ones saying they are victims are or are not. I hope if they are victims that they can find help, and if they are not victims then they will be exposed.

Most of the comments are just wonderful!

Congratulations of the airing of Dateline - it has definitely opened up a lot of comments in the guest book. Many more people finding this "safe" place.

Regarding divisions: The WTS have been doing the dividing for a ignoble cause. Love does not divide. Truth does not divide on itself. Liars cannot handle the truth. They have already primed the congregations for the "cleaning" out - to clean out what is clean, beneficial, what is good and what will be left??? Dirt and dirt-bags. The WTS has proved that they are not noble, not just, not honest in their dealings and control is better if it divides. WTS is divisive, is ignoble and hates what is good, beneficial, clean - one hell of an organization. They alienate, ignore, neglect the innocent in behalf of "not causing division."

It is Better to cause division for what is noble than to cause division for what is evil and wicked. It is not better to ignore, neglect what in reality divides so that there is an illusion of no division. Nothing is as complicated as it looks. Pedophiles are criminals and any toleration, support, over-looking of this is just plain common sense wrong and if it causes a division let that division be for what is Noble. It is better than standing by and WATCHing.

Bill and all of you who had the courage to stand up and be noble are not to be "commended" for doing what is just being a slave to God as you should be. Then you would be big fat "egos" like the rest of them. You are better than that!

Pedophiles love the WTS and the brothers & sisters tolerance of them. And that is the only love they have right now. If they had the love of God, or LOVE for God and his righteousness this site would be full of remorse, repair, and words of humility from the WTS, the pedophiles, all those who support the pedophiles and have shunned the innocent victims and caused so much DIVISION.

To my knowledge not one JW Pedophile has wrote to the victims on this web site with remorse for the division HE CAUSED, between a victim and her conscience, between members of the congregation and their conscience. Let alone make restitution voluntarily. A truly remorseful, "godly" pedophile would have turned himself into the police - need I say more?? And would have stopped the division he caused.

Who is running this one hell of an organization???

I do not have to love my neighbor anymore than what the ten commands dictate to me. This embracing, protecting, this sympathy and "compassion" is phoney worldly love and is in direct opposition to Jehovah's principals of love in conjunction with the fruit of the spirit. Love is responsible not an excuse to be irresponsible, or to demand irresponsibility. Crazy-making and confusion. Chaos - yes it is chaos. Organized chaos and confusion. On the surface organized to hide the chaos and confusion lying LIES beneath the surface.

Bill projects a real Christian love that requires sacrifice and fearlessness of faith. This has helped me to believe that there are noble men and women and now I don't feel so "divided spiritually" or "divided off" like an Alien in the chaos. The example of love and faith on this site is encouraging to seekers of real Christian love and what is means to have real faith in God.

If a person loves the WTS or their brother more than God - of what use are they?? If they show more love for a pedophile than the innocent how are they any different, and how are they reflecting the love of God but as a hypocrite. Fear of man is not faith in Jehovah or the love of God but only the fear of man. Fake love is the fear of man, real love knows and puts their trust in Jehovah to show them the right action to take and trust that Jehovah will back them up when they do it. What bigger test than to take the organization that alienated the innocent in the name of Jehovah and exercise faith in Jehovah by doing what is RIGHT? Fake love fears the truth and does nothing to right a wrong. For the love of God you cannot do wrong & get away with it.

IT WAS THE IGNOBLE ACTS OF WTS, THE ELDERS WHO DID NOTHING, AND THE SHEEP WHO STAND BY AND WATCH THAT HAVE CAUSED THE DIVISION IN THE CONGREGATIONS. Not Bill, Not the innocent who want justice, not the ones who would not stand for it and stood up to it.

Amen

The WTS (Watch Tower Society) follows what the bible says to do. I am sorry if you think this should have been handled differently than the bible (God's word) says to handle it. The WTS have and are trying the best that they can to make sure these kind of things don't happen. The WTS has never offered money to anyone to keep them quiet, etc. The WTS is headed by humans so mistakes can be made. But the society as a whole follows what the bible says.

To all of you who have posted above, ponder this:

This is why I am not a organizational Witness. You creatures do not even comprehend the concept of taking responsibility for your actions. As long as your "Elders" don't decide to have an issue with your conduct you don't care.

To entertain your 1Tim 5:19 defense shows how willfully stupid you all are. That is exactly what disgusts me about you creatures!

If it were adult males in your self-indulgent delusional world that were being hunted, preyed upon, and violated you would have an entirely different outlook on this. Sadly pathetic, and archaic as it is, women and children are nothing more that chattel in your organization. (I will not even give it a Capital anymore.) JW's your behavior and your values are disgustingly vile. They are an abomination to our Lord and true Christians and around the World.

PLEASE people I am begging you in the name of Christ and the one who sent him. Put down your Man Made Literature and pick up the Bible. You are being misled. YOU HAVE MINDS USE THEM!

I encourage you all to visit the Watch Tower's website. The address is www.watchtower.org . You are now visiting a website that doesn't agree with and is against Jehovah's Witnesses so make sure you hear both sides. The Watch Tower website doesn't have is much material on the subject of whether or not they are covering up child molester.
But they do have information on it. They have all the different articles they have put out for years telling about child molesters: How to watch for them, and how Jehovah's Witnesses feel about them. Please give both side a chance and give as much attention to finding out about were Jehovah's Witnesses stand as you do about what they do wrong. This is the letter the Watch Tower Society sent to Dateline: http://www.jw-

I like the site and hope it helps all
I partly agree with the man or woman that wrote (a few up) to put down man made literature and pick up the bible. We all should look in the bible for the answer to everything in life. But the literature that comes from Jehovah's Witnesses comes from the bible. The literature is just a bible aid to discuss bible topic and then the literature gives you the scriptures were all the information is found. I encourage all to ask Jehovah's Witnesses about any of their beliefs and where they are found in the bible. If you do this in a respectful way any Witness will be happy to answer your questions. You can also visit www.watchtower.org which will explain some of our beliefs.

When is this information going to get into the general media. The makes the Catholic Church priesthood look like "kids" play.

When is this information going to get into the general media. This makes the Catholic Church priesthood look like "kids" play.

A truly remorseful, "godly" pedophile would have turned himself into the police - need I say more?? And would have stopped the division he caused.

This is a really good point. I never thought of that. I should have. I remember one sister who, before she was baptized, had many affairs with other men. Upon the "suggestion" of the elders, she told her husband and asked him to forgive her. She told me it had been a requirement for her to be baptized. (I suppose I should have "turned myself in" too, but I have to admit I am rather glad I never opened -my- mouth about what I did before I started studying! I'd still be apologizing! To everyone! I was pretty bad.)

You are so right. If an abuser is really sincere, he will -want- to go to the elders, he will -want- to turn himself in to the police; he will -want- to write a simple NON SELF SERVING apology to the victim and her family, and then stay the hell away from them - for good. There are probably other things a molester can do to show his sincere sorrow, but I think much of that depends on what the victim (or should I say survivor?) desires. At no point should the molester force his apology on the victim. Never. At no point should the molester rationalize his behavior. Hey, my father was molested repeatedly when he was a child; I can understand -why- he might have done the same to me, but that doesn't mean he should have. He was an extremely intelligent man and most certainly knew that what he had done was unspeakable. A four year old innocent girl. No wonder I'm crazy. How do you ever really get over something like that? None of my family believes me, either. I'm just the sick one, the pathetic one, the trouble maker. (All non-Witnesses, by the way.)

I kind of changed gears here, I'm sorry. I just am so stupid; it never dawned on me that a sincerely repentant molester would willingly pay the price for his crimes - whatever that price might be.

For one example, people are not disfellowshipped for about anything they do, they are disfellowshipped for doing something really bad and not being repented

This is simply not true. I know of many sincerely repentant Witnesses who got the ax anyway, and I hate to say it, but it was almost always a woman. A single woman. I think the only person lower in the congregation than a single woman who has no family in the truth is an abuse victim crying for help. No one has the courage to deal with them.
And that's right?????

And why on earth should a victim and her family be "repentant" for doing what they have a moral obligation to do before God and their fellow citizens by reporting a case of abuse? That's a SIN? Uh......I don't think so. You're heart is in the right place but you need to rethink that statement.

I was sexually assaulted by a servant who was appointed by the Holy Spirit of JW's while I was a child. Later The Holy Spirit of JW's promoted him to be Presiding Overseer (PO). Later in a phone call to a Governing Body member, Bro. Jackson told me to write down on Selective Service papers that my PO had baptized me, which was a big Fib. I refused!
My mother on her death bed said she couldn't do anything about the molester back then, as she needed his mother as a friend.

The last time I went to a Kingdom Hall was for Mom's funeral service, she got preached as a zealous witness with a hope of earthly resurrection. Rev.21:8 "But as for the cowards and those without faith... will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulphur. This means the second death."

Thank you Kevin - Finally a letter of remorse. Read my comments for June 1st - asking for where are the letters of remorse. Had not read your letter before I wrote mine.

You may get letters of rage - this will be good for you and the person who writes them. Better people are enraged with you then to be tolerant and "love you for who you are" if you know what I mean.

For me it showed "them" meaning them as in WTS, them as in standing by and doing nothing, them meaning the pedophiles who con the suckers who tolerate them etc....as to what is the "right" thing to do when you do something this destructive to another human being - even if you are imperfect.

You put egg on the face of it. This is good.
Being imperfect is no excuse for doing what is unquestionable wrong and no excuse for acceptance of doing horrible and terrible acts upon a child. And being imperfect is no excuse for not having sincere remorse and showing it. You know it, I know it.

You know that, now why is it the pedophiles in congregation don't know it, or the WTS, or the Elders????

Anyway you set an example of "the letter" I was looking for and maybe these JW's that visit this site calling Bill gay, an apostate, everyone a bunch of whiners, liars etc...would kindly ask themselves why there is only one letter of remorse from a pedophile and an ex-JW at that. I know the answer.

Only a liar is afraid of the truth. That is why they lie. You are not afraid of the ugly truth even if it is about you, even if you are hated for telling the truth about your ugly deeds - you are cleaner than a person who supports & tolerates this or does it and never comes to remorse.

Bill, thank you very much for the hard work past, present and future. It's by no means over. This organization by its own testimony in the '39 Salvation book claimed that holy spirit wasn't necessary now the Organization had been identified (1918). Whatever good Russell did has long gone. The wts is bound for its own Armageddon and there will be a lot of work for you to do, they are masters of the half-truth. I don't know what the best way of organizing is but I would assume that would require some serious money.

As for the JW molestation rate of 23,720 cases (another report I heard was 2 cases in each congregation on average) this is just the tip of the iceberg.

I'd like to throw my hat in the ring. Dunno what I can do. The cases of the two JW sisters that has haunted me for years still haunts me. I emailed one to see if she wants to sue. I could help her with that but my guess is there will be too much pain for her and her family to go through. She went through enough the first time.

Thank you for all your hard work.

Peace

Bro. Bowen:

I'm not sure if you are aware of this but this past week the society announced to all congregations during the service meeting the organization's position on child molestation. It was very succinct and to the point. You can find this information at http://www.jw-media.org/releases/default.htm?content=bg_molestation.htm.

It is apparent to me that you have started your organization in hopes of exposing a flaw. With the above mentioned release I think that your efforts have seen some results although I know you are in no way looking for self gratification. The brothers including the governing body are not perfect as you know. They are all working as shepherds surrounded by a dark world; Satan's world. At times what may be viewed as impropriety or a lack of concern is simply the fruition of this wicked system of things.

I am not so audacious so as to say that these efforts of yours have been Jehovah's direction, however there has been light shed on this matter that appears to be a change in thinking from years past. Does this mean then that Jehovah's organization is imperfect? No, certainly not. It simply means that human imperfection has crept into Jehovah's perfect arrangement. Sometimes our brothers get caught up in trying not to make a mistake or rushing into something without Jehovah's direction, that we loose sight of the spiritual common sense that Jehovah has helped us cultivate with spiritual maturity.

With all this said even if there is some serious wrongdoing, remember 2 Corinthians 11: 12-15.

“Now what I am doing I will still do, that I may cut off the pretext from those who are wanting a pretext for being found equal to us in the office of which they boast. For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. And no wonder, for Satan himself keeps transforming himself into an angel of light. It is therefore nothing great if his ministers also keep transforming themselves into ministers of righteousness. But their end shall be according to their works.”

That's right ‘there end shall be according to their works.’ Jehovah will take care of those that have been in fact covering over matters or have been ‘deceitful workers.’

In reading your letter to the governing body two of the three mandates you proposed have now been acted upon. The third being restriction from the door to door activity would be contrary to the scriptural commandment found at Matthew 28:19-20.

“Go therefore and make disciples of people of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the holy spirit, teaching them to observe all the things I have commanded YOU. And, look! I am with YOU all the days until the conclusion of the system of things.”
Asking anyone that is in good standing regardless of their past to not share in the preaching work would be contrary to this commandment. Furthermore, adopting such a policy would exclude any person that has committed a serious wrong from the preaching work. In God's eye a sin is a sin. As you know fornicators, adulterers and so on will not inherit God's kingdom. This of course includes those abusing children.

Although it sickens me greatly to think that human imperfection has marred Jehovah's Organization, I will not let this weaken my faith nor should you. There simply is nothing else out there. If being a Jehovah's Witness does not lead down the narrow path that few are finding then it simply does not exist!

My point to all this is that things are not perfect, mistakes are certainly made but at some point we as human beings can sometimes become addicted to tragedy and chaos. Why do you think there are so many television programs that focus on human tragedy? Don't become addicted to the buzz around stirring the pot. I say this not to cover or sweep serious issues under the rug, but rather to say that the issue has finally been addressed. Elders are now instructed to report to the authorities any behavior of this nature and to use any two separate accusations as being two witnesses in fulfillment of the instructions given in Matthew.

Isaiah 55:8-9

“For the thoughts of YOU people are not my thoughts, nor are my ways YOUR ways,” is the utterance of Jehovah. “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than YOUR ways, and my thoughts than YOUR thoughts.”

Jehovah does know what is best for us. We must not lose sight of this. This wicked system and its god will continue to try to thwart us from gaining salvation. Times such as these truly do remind us that these are the “last days.” In your some 40 plus years of service I am sure that you know this. Don't let the mistakes of men rob you of your goal as well as that of your family.

Sincerely,

Your brother

Here, in San Jose, CA, the Mercury news featured an article about a disfellowshipped JW women who chose to see her daughter (raised in the JW faith and left, at age eighteen) and wrote a book about her experiences. Subsequently, I wrote the journalist, R.Scheinin, that Ms Wilson's--disfellowshipping--experiences, though factually valid, were not earth shaking (despite the fact her husband reported her). Rather, rampant alcoholism, adultery, fornication (both hetero and homosexual), and pedophilia/pederasty were the true shocking and scandalous skeletons. It was pointed out that all this immorality is "swept under the rug" in order to appear before the world as "without spot" "free of sinners", which is, of course, a patent lie (no organized religion is free from the spot of sin). The following week Dateline's story broke (5/28/02). My heart aches for these poor children and their parents, who, like it as not, are emotionally scarred for the duration of their natural lives. There is no valid excuse for these developments. Organizationally, it is far too easy for these uneducated, inexperienced, empathically dead elders to practice the one simple rule that would release them from all potential scandal: "When in doubt--through them out!" What dumb founds me is why this practice is ignored, allow the matter to compound, violate "Caesar's law", and employ the excuse the Catholic Church uses with regard the sacrosanct confessional; which to my knowledge and decades of association, the Watchtower has categorically denied and refused to acknowledge the act of repentance as one and the same thing. Now they are? I say the following knowing full well how difficult it would be for some to follow, but the sole means to get the international Watchtower to acknowledge the heinous conspiracy and cover up is to put as many of these 23 thousand, and counting, cases into Superior and Federal Courts across the land--and make it very public (this is what caused the Catholic Church to flinch, finally). There is one thing the Watchtower HQ fears, with deep dread, is publicity and loosing face before the world of on-lookers. The Bible, both Old and New Testaments, is emphatically clear--the truth must always come to light (remember the reasons for the Prophets and Jesus Christ). In order for the truth to prevail, it must be brought before Caesar's rule(s) of criminal law. Contrary to what the Watchtower spokesmen stated, pedophilia/pederasty are not modern day social problems, they have been with the human race since Adam commenced inseminating both Eve and many of his own daughters (remember where Canaan got his wife, after slaying Able), and set the paternal example for his subsequent sons.

Thank you for the courageous website and personal courage. Please keep up the work of forwarding the truth, so many others may be set free (John 8:23); or a least on guard for their children's safety!

Sincerely submitted,

R. Peterson

Of course no group of people are without spots. But as a whole Jehovah's Witnesses try to maintain a clean life that follows the bible (god's word). Many people are disfellowshipped each year for what they do wrong that is why the organization can stay clean. We are all humans so we all do make mistakes.

A part of this that also makes this issue especially bad is that these pedophiles know that the congregation won't turn them and won't advise the child's parents to turn them in. So basically they can do what ever they want & if the child can come forward & speak up they know that they still are going to get away with it. In our hall a number of years back an elders son threatened another elders daughter that if she said anything about him raping her that he would ruin her fathers reputation in the hall. So not only was he abusing her physically he was also holding her hostage until she finally couldn't hold it in anymore. Basically the victims family just changed congregations so they didn't have to continue to look at the guy as he came in & commented away at every meeting. The witnesses need to WAKE UP and realize that what has been going on is not acceptable to Jehovah and it is now being dealt with even if it makes you feel uncomfortable because it's being done publicly. Victims need to speak out - they can't continue to be held hostage by these MONSTERS! and PLEASE LEAVE ANY JUDGING TO JEHOVAH! Could it be that you just don't know all of the facts and besides name calling and abusive speech will not impress anybody and just reflects on your heart condition.

In response to:

How? By opening this book full of pre-chewed answers????
Hi again,

Mistakes...Imperfection...We are NOT talking about this! We are talking about Criminal Behavior!!!! The watchtower web site...Yes I have been there. I read all the information they had posted!!

The facts speak for themselves!! So many refuse to consider what we are saying I want to say YOU ARE IN DENIAL.
What we hate is the behavior (pedophilia) and the cover up. As a TRUE Witness of Jehovah I am telling the truth.

If I even started to tell the things I have seen beyond what I have submitted here you probably scream that I was a liar...You must realize I am not the only witness to what is going on where I live...but you probably still scream I was twisting things...Just because you (some JW) call us liars doesn't make it so.

Regardless what you think the facts speak for themselves. THERE ARE PEDOPHILES IN THE CONGREGATIONS.
In Proverbs 22:3 gives very timely advice " Shrewd is the one that has seen the calamity and proceeds to conceal himself but the inexperienced have passed along and must suffer the penalty." Do you (JW's) want to suffer the penalty? Do not refuse to consider what we are saying here!!

Listen to Proverbs 21:13 " As for anyone stopping up his ear from the complaining cry of the lowly one he himself also will call and not be answered." The organization and most JW's are stopping up their ears to us. Doing this caries chilling consequences for not listening to the lowly ones...when they call Jehovah will not answer them!!! Do you (JW's) want this? DJB

A Silent Lamb Speaks:

While I've made comments in the Guestbook here in the past - this one will be different...it's personal!

Earlier today I finished my personal preparation for Sunday's (tomorrow's) WT lesson. It's been a challenging study - not because the content is deep and maybe difficult to fully understand but because I KNOW this material so intimately! It has always been my belief that Jehovah does find ways to make the truth of his words in the Bible known to all those looking for that truth. So I find it to be a bit of his divine guidance in the timing of some recent events. For me, this WT article fits right in there with Dateline's 5/28th show and the purpose behind this silentlambs website. But it's my tears that bring me to posting at this site now - when it's 3AM here and my meeting's just six hours from now! Sleep is not finding me tonight.

THIS is my life now. Sleep is often hard to get. If it's not the emotions from all I've survived, it might be the nightmares that still come in my sleep, or it's often the pain that wracks my body constantly... regardless the cause, I have found that writing about it helps me to get some rest.

I've been divorced now for almost 3 years. I used to think getting the divorce would help give me some closure to the awful events that preceded it. I don't think that way anymore. There's a lot of things I don't do anymore. I don't sew all of my own clothes nor my children's clothing anymore, just like I don't write with my hands much either now, or knead fresh made bread dough, or do all the crafts I loved or even manage all those little round the house fixit jobs that I used to do. My hands no longer work like they are supposed to - taken from me by my abuser (now my ex-husband).
And for those now thinking "how's she writing this then?" I have an adapted computer...literally a godsend! I love working with my hands, especially writing...the loss of that ability has been severely traumatic. I used to go for walks with my kids - can't do that now either. For now a cane helps me with the few steps I take in one time, and docs warn me it will only get worse as many old injuries are showing signs of degenerative arthritis. I used to love going lots of places and doing lots of things all the time - now it's a challenge just to get myself dressed, to care for my family, to do most of the simplest everyday sorts of things! But all of that pales in comparison to the feelings that hit me when one of my kids excitedly runs up to me and gives me a great big bear hug (forgetting how much it will hurt me) and I fight the urge to cry out in pain and struggle to replace it with something close to my former mom hugs - I don't quite get there, but we know I'm trying.

But I've sidetracked a bit... I was talking about Sunday's WT study article: "Guide Your Steps By Godly Principles"

Paragraph 2 - God finds delight in intelligent creatures who choose to obey him. (Proverbs 27:11) Instead of programming us to submit blindly as mindless robots, Jehovah endowed us with free will so that we can make informed decisions to do what it right. -Hebrews 5:14

I said just about the same thing during my presentation to the elders in explaining why I'd decided I could not forgive my husband nor allow him back in our home, even if they did not find him guilty of any wrongdoing.

Paragraph 5 - (in part) (referring to several of the principles God provides us in the Bible: loving God with our whole hearts, souls and minds; the Golden Rule; etc) As to everyday aspects of our life, the apostle Paul says: "Whether you are eating or drinking or doing anything else, do all things for God's glory." (1 Corinthians 10:31)

Another point I'd mentioned as I tried to explain how bad our daily home was.

Paragraph 7 - Time and again, "the word of our God" encourages us to think and act on the basis of principles. (just the first sentence, there's more)

This point of acting on the basis of principles was something I vainly repeated, especially when struggling to understand why the elders could not take the words of not just me (being only one witness), but also those of my several children who had each witnessed many other abusive acts, as a means to prove that my husband was the one lying (not me and all the kids as he was telling them).

Paragraph 10 - You have probably seen people who are inclined to obey laws grudgingly, out of fear of a penalty. Respect for principles precludes such as attitude. The very nature of principles moves those governed by them to respond from the heart. (just the beginning sense.) then gives example of Joseph refusing the advances of Potiphar's wife and how Joseph acted on principle because there was not yet a written law against adultery... We can see from his response that such principles powerfully affected him: "How could I commit this great badness and actually sin against God?" - Genesis 39:9

Used as but one example that one doesn't not need a scripture written saying that a certain sex-related act with a child is wrong. But still it was in vain.

Paragraph 11 (in part) - Guided by Bible principles, we will not look for loopholes in God's laws; nor will we imitate those who try to see how far they can go without actually breaking a certain law.

Yet this IS what my husband always was doing...and still does! But informing the elders of this had no effect either.

Paragraph 12 - Mature Christians recognize that a key to following godly principles is wanting to know how Jehovah feels about a matter. "O you lovers of Jehovah," exhorts the psalmist, "hate what is bad." (Psalms 97:10) Listing some of the things that God would classify as bad, Proverbs 6:16-19 says: "There are six things that Jehovah does hate; yes, seven things are detestable to his soul: lofty eyes, a false tongue, and hands that are shedding innocent blood, a heart fabricating hurtful schemes, feet that are in a hurry to run to badness, a false witness that launches forth lies, and anyone sending forth contentions among brothers." When a desire to reflect how Jehovah feels on such fundamentals governs our lives, living in accord with principles becomes a consistent practice. -Jeremiah 22:16

Five of these things I bore witness to that my husband was not just doing this now and then but practicing these things daily!!! My kids could also tell you of some of these things as they had each experienced many of his lies! The lies they were hurt most by and the ones that shocked them the most were those he told to the elders.
Paragraph 15 - (boy does this one make the tears fall) This example (refer to p.14 above about Jesus' Sermon on the Mount) illustrates that we should never lose sight of the intent and spirit of Jehovah's principles. We should certainly not try to earn God's favor through moral formalism. Jesus exposed the fallacy of such an attitude by pointing to God's mercy and love. (Matthew 12:7; Luke 6:1-11) Following Bible principles, we will avoid trying to live (or demand others to live) by an extensive and rigid set of dos and don'ts that go beyond the teachings of the Bible. We will be more concerned about principles of love and obedience toward God than about the outside appearance of worship. (Luke 11:42)

Did you catch that last sentence? I sure did! We WILL be more concerned about principles than about the outside appearance!!!!!! So why do the elders right away when told of abuses going on want to make sure we do nothing to bring reproach on God's name or on the organization...that WE...the ones reporting to them that we are the victims of such abuse...that we would be the one's bringing such reproach if we choose to go to the police or the child protection people or whatever other authorities with this information??? WE didn't DO ANYTHING to shame Jehovah or his organization!!! ohh, the tears just won't stop now...it's a good thing I don't have to see a keyboard to write this! LOL But there's more!

Paragraph 16 (in part) - What underlies the Christian stand on those issues? (idolatry, immorality, misuse of blood) God deserves our exclusive devotion; we should be faithful to our mate; and Jehovah is the Life-Giver. (Genesis 2:24; Exodus 20:5; Psalm 36:9)

Is one being faithful to their mate if they are considering if he could make another female have an orgasm? Are you being unfaithful to your wife if you are seeking sexual pleasure from your daughters? What sort of person wonders if his infant daughter is capable of orgasms? (I stopped asking him to change diapers after that comment!!) My personal study of the Bible tells me that all of the above would stand up as violations of the principles related to being faithful to one's mate and/or not committing adultery. But I'm told I'm not scripturally free to remarry.

Paragraph 18 - Letting our life be guided by Bible principles leads to a superior way of life, which in itself may attract others to the way of God. Most important, our life course honors Jehovah. We realize that Jehovah is really a loving God who wants the best for us. When we make decisions in accord with Bible principles and see how Jehovah blesses us, we come to feel even closer to him. Yes, we further develop a loving relationship with our heavenly Father.

I am now making a decision that I believe to be in accord with Bible principles. My birth given name is Andrea Anderson. I withhold my married surname as a protection for my children still. One has totally left the truth...says she will never step foot in the Kingdom Hall because of what her father has done to her and how the elders handled it. Another is desperately seeking acceptance in worldly relationships...and being hurt by them as well...she really worries me. Another strives to be an overachiever now...as tho she must make up something lacking somewhere. They all suffer nightmares related to acts of their dad. They've been in counseling...some for years now...diagnoses of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, General Anxiety Disorder, very low self-esteem, obsessive/compulsive disorders, self-injurious behaviors and the list goes on. These are the ones that no longer have to see him!!! The younger children suffer worse!

My kids and I have found some wonderful counselors that while they are not Jehovah's Witnesses themselves, they do understand issues of faith and abuse together. They appreciate our views on many things and often will ask for our literature relating to a specific matter so they can better understand how best to help us.

I've written to the brothers in NY myself concerning this matter...several times even. Our CO got involved with these matters. And even tho the elders here and our CO then told me they did indeed believe me, there was NOTHING they could do because my husband was denying it all and even trying to turn some of the situations around to be something I'd insisted on rather than him being the one forcing it on me! To many of those particular incidents the only ones that know what really happened are me, him and Jehovah. I'd stifle my screams in pillows, and fight to keep things quiet enough so the kids were not awakened in their sleep. That was in vain too as I have since learned that some of them did hear sounds that worried and concerned them coming from our bedroom - but they are too afraid of their father to try to come in or even knock! (and the tears fall faster) But they also told me that they did discover that making one of their littler siblings cry (waking the baby, or something) did sometimes stop whatever was going on in our room if it made me come out to tend to the crying child. (they were smart kids LOL)
I know Jehovah does not want these things to go on anymore in secret...that is why Bill has been able to avoid being disfellowshipped and managed to get this information made public. (not to discount the work of all the others - they've done a great job! and I'm sure they will all be blessed by Jehovah)

Thanks in part to some of the comments here from other victims...and to Kevin(?), the man who was a pedophile and is now getting treatment and knows he cannot be around children if he's to avoid hurting them again; I've been able to determine what I think has been a hidden issue for me in all this. My ex has yet to admit to anything, or apologize to any of us (tho he once told me on the phone that he'd apologize, he would, he'd apologize for anything and everything he ever did to hurt me or the kids...just tell him what it was he had done!!!) ACK!! What it was he had done?!?!?!?! After countless meetings with the elders, numerous visits at the counselors' and far too many court related encounters - he claims to have no clue what he's done to us!!!! More recently he suggested that he'd be willing to admit to anything - except child molesting - and beg our forgiveness so we could become a whole family again. Does that count? I don't think so!! My attorney once asked for a list of specific acts or incidents of abuse during our years together. When she inquired when I'd have that finished, I told her I already had ten pages, single-spaced, written on my computer and hadn't even hit the halfway mark! She suggested I just list the most traumatic events then; even that was over two pages long!

But he's still in good standing and I'm forbidden to warn anyone else of the danger he presents to others...or risk being disfellowshipped for causing divisions in the congregation or for slandering this good brother's name! What happened to acting on Bible principles? Where's the righteousness in aiding and abetting an abusive pedophile, sexual pervert, and out and out liar who claims to be one of Jehovah's witnesses?

I'm the one permanently disabled, wracked with physical pain, tormented by emotional pain, unable to work to support myself or my children, and completely unable to speak freely of what I'm dealing with to those I see as my only family. (while he goes about freely as tho he's done nothing but be injured himself by a wife throwing him out of the house!) If I am to speak of what I've survived it must be online or with those not in the truth. I need more than that to completely heal from all of this. I need to do everything possible to prevent him from gaining any future victims. I need to feel accepted by my spiritual family for making the right decision when I chose to force this man from our home. I would also like retribution paid to me and my kids by those who hurt us - but I'll manage without that one. It just seems appropriate tho. Like a couple others have said here; IF a person accused of doing these awful things to children REALLY was repentant about what he'd done then he would VOLUNTEER to repay the victim for everything he'd caused because of his selfish perverted act(s)! He'd come forward and accept his punishment. He would keep himself away from children. And he'd even agree to never contact the ones he'd hurt if that's what they wanted or needed in order to heal from the damage he caused them. That is what a TRUE Christian would do. Without this, I feel violated over and over, every time I go the hall, every time I run into someone from the congregation somewhere else - I feel the degradation and the pain of everything my husband did to me...and to my children...all over again because of the way it was handled by the elders and the brothers in NY. I feel shamed for what I allowed my husband to do! I feel guilty for bringing it out to the brothers that I thought would help us. I feel guilty because I reported it to the police, because I sought a protection order against a "brother in good standing", because I took steps to stop the abuse, to stop the violence, and to protect myself and my children! What have I done wrong? NOTHING! I've followed Bible principles! If I can't talk about it ALL then the badness festers inside me and literally makes me ill because I know it's so wrong to keep it in. Even Jehovah tells us to put away all badness (how can I if there is no closure to the abuses we suffer?) To heal I must get it out...all of it...I've been praying for this and I sincerely feel that it is Jehovah's time for cleaning house regarding these matters! I must now pray for the strength to get through this and stand strong and be silent no more!

And now that I'm rather cried out (thanks ever so much to those of you taking the time to read all this) and feeling like I need a nap, I'll end this personal post and get some rest before the meeting in just a few hours. :)
get a VHS copy. I have been reading the experiences posted on your web site, there is unquestionably a common thread that runs through all of these experiences. Although I never have heard of any sexual abuse while I was a Witness, I did witness and complained about mental and physical abuse that was happening right in front of everybody's eyes in the Kingdom Hall. I saw children being smacked on the side of the head for falling asleep at evening meetings, dragged to the back of the Hall and hearing the child being beaten repeatedly. They were openly being victimized with nobody to help them because you are not to interfere with a parent disciplining his or her children. Don't get me wrong, there were times when I saw children that were clearly out of control and needed to be removed from the main hall so as to not be a disturbance. You could sense though, that the parents in these abusive cases seemed to get off of humiliating and smacking their children around, made a person wonder what happened when they got home. Although many would brag on how well behaved these children were, as time progressed almost without exception these same kids by the time they reached their 20's never stepped back in a Kingdom Hall again, any question why? I disassociated myself from the organization earlier this year after being a JW for 28 years, 25 of them as an active Witness. I feel that it is a shame that a place that claims to be a refuge and should be, ends up being a memory of harsh treatment and ignorance. Even though a person has never seen or heard of sexual abuse to children in the organization, doesn't mean that it doesn't happen, the chemistry is definitely there!

To the one who signed “Your Brother” and posted the Watchtower's new molestation policy to let us know everything is now fixed, it's over and back to business as usual.

I have some questions:

Many of us had to deal with not just the elders, not just the circuit overseers, but also the Watchtower Society up close and personal on the sexual abuse issue. We got a glimpse behind the veneer and found it to be a very ugly experience.

It is like finding a very dirty kitchen at your favorite restaurant; you are going to be very leery of eating there again. Hearing that they finally got around to washing one pan will not make you feel much better.

So I have some questions:

1) What about the VICTIMS? Will the society have any consideration for the broken humanity they have left in the wake of their past mistakes? Will victims and their families, friends and supporters be left disfellowshipped, disassociated, inactive and still under the threat of silence? In what way will the congregations now act like the “good neighbor” of the Samaritan story?

2) If there are not two witnesses and the accused denies the charges to the elders and the victim wishes to report to the police will the society continue to use the accusation of slander to silence victims? This has not been addressed directly by the society. It is “your absolute right” is not the same, as you will continue to receive our support.

3) Will the pedophiles being repentant include agreeing to never contact the ones he'd hurt if that were what they wanted or needed in order to heal from the damage he caused them? (These words are those of Andrea in the story just above) Or will they continue to see him every week if they have the courage to go to the Kingdom Hall?

4) Will the victims and their families continue to hear talks on “Forgiveness” directed at them? Will they be allowed the dignity of human beings in deciding when and if they chose to forgive?

5) Will the victims have the right to discuss their terrible suffering with the friends in the hall? Will talks be given on the evils of coercing victims into silence and will each member understand their complicity in this crime of silence?
6) What about the elders who lacked “spiritual common sense” and ethics in so many of these cases and yet accused others of having that problem? Will those same mouths continue to deliver talks and give counsel? It does make a difference to the spiritual health of the congregation for... out of the hearts abundance the mouth speaks.

7) And if you expect me to get on with my life and forgive those involved in this ugly cover up I need a personal apology. I need to see acts of repentance from the elders, the Circuit Overseer and the Watchtower Society. I have read the Insight book on Repentance and Forgiveness and I believe this request is valid.

The restaurant is full everyone is eating their meal, many don't know and many others don't want to know that the kitchen is filthy. The kitchen staff is trying to silence us. They blame us for getting a glimpse inside that mess. Why don't they just clean the kitchen?

I was sexually molested by my mothers brother when I was 7. "HOMER YOUNG." He molested myself, my sister, and 2 female cousins. It was a hush hush operation and he was put on the plane shortly after the discovery. We were all members of the JW congregation in Fairbanks Alaska. Today I am 49 and I can't believe the way I am treated by my own family. When I realized what had happened, even my sister Pam told me that I would make anything up. She's too dumb to realize the truth. I don't speak to my family. I'm the black sheep because I stand up for myself. My so-called uncle was never prosecuted, just tucked away in California. He now has a wife, and children. I wonder if he has abused them as well? Alaska to all bragging about the real way wts and Jaws handle disfellowshipping....

the stories here...at the mouths of a MULTITUDE of witnesses....are about what is PRACTICED as opposed to what is PREACHED

i was threatened with disfellowshipping if I even reported the truth about the cover ups to another elder outside the committee....and the same for reporting to authorities

i used to think like you until I was SHOWN differently...repeatedly they would not listen to the several witnesses that were offered they "didn't have to" they were "appointed by holy spirit" and the threats of disfellowshipping were on the phoney grounds of "lying" and "apostasy" for not submitting to the infallibility of the committee one knew the truth by what was reported to him by my daughter

he was silenced

another came to me in tears ...apologizing....cuz he knew the truth of the matter ...even without my daughter's testimony....he said he had to act and speak in unity with the committee or he would no longer be an elder....he was threatened too telling us further lies...and quoting the society when you do it ...does nothing to restore our faith in you and your lying organization

So please/relieved to see your website. I write from England and have encountered similar. Including a lack of understanding and help for domestic violence - to my great harm and my children. Regarding the child sexual abuse, its the same in England. Perpetrators are left to roam. One even frequently and openly posed as a policeman in uniform and whilst on the ministry tried to abuse a child pretending to be from the police. I have read the BERRY case, it is outrageous. I too have left WT, I could not cope any longer with the lack of support and especially great lack of spiritual support. Even the Catholic Church are addressing this problem. WT ought to hand their heads in shame especially ANYONE that is in a congregation and making the conscious decision to ignore this. Where is your humanity and compassion for vulnerable children and where on earth is your sense of justice and also the protection of children. We are ALL responsible, individually in LAW and not only that but to GOD. Surely this must cross your mind. These matters have to be reported, as unpleasant as it might be for the individual, its nothing in comparison to what the child victims are suffering. Children are the future, if YOU don't tell, they will when they are older. Don't delay, report it TODAY. FROM, heilprakterin@blueyonder.co.uk 2nd JUNE 2002.
I was very touched by your stand and decision to share your story. I was also horrified by what you went through. Even though I was abused physically as a child in my home and sexually abused by my uncle (still a JW w/ wife and a daughter) I can not imagine what you or your daughters went through. I was shocked to read you are still an active JW. I was disfellowshipped at 15 - I'm now 26 and couldn't find it in my heart or conscience to return. Please don't think that I'm saying you are wrong for staying a JW, I was just surprised. I remember enjoying the association with some in the cong. At times I run into those I've known since I was 4 or 5 and act as if they have seen a ghost. It hurts but I made a decision to stay DF'd and expect the reaction. Enough about me - You made mention of court and lawyers. Did you sue your ex? Or was he brought up on charges of any abuse - you or your children? If so what was the outcome? Is it still pending? I wasn't silent when my abuse happened, because my father caught it in the act. God only knows how far or how long it would have been before it stopped. But still nothing was done. In reference to it being hard for you to sleep - I can relate. Just the flash of his face in my dreams makes me not want, or not able to sleep. I told my mother that I don't blame her because she was being the "submissive wife." It took many years to come to that decision. I applaud you in removing such a horrible person from you and your children's lives!!!!!! I hope you will heal emotionally, and hope the same for your children!!!! I wish you well and Jehovah will see your heart and I hope he brings you peace.

With true love,

Jesika Thoman

This article was printed in 1999 October in a college news letter called New Thinkers Newsletter from a former college student who is a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses Organization. This letter was verified with a phone discussion. Names and dates where deleted purposely to avoid legal action against New Thinkers Newsletter. The girl named J. was afraid of being shunned if this secret came out about her hall.

 I remember not long ago in my hall , there was an incident that shocked everyone and no one said anything . It is my belief and still is, that everyone was afraid to speak up in fear of reprisals. A young man in the south area of Sacramento was found molesting young boys that he was in care of. The parent were very upset and went to the Elders of our hall to complain. It was a horrible scandal that literally shook everyone's pillars. I personally thought he was going to prison for his actions. The young mans parents begged the Elders not to turn him into the police and the young man cried and begged also. With pleading tears the Elders said they would see into the matter. To my knowledge the children's parent was about to inform the police but the Elders told her that it was unscriptural to call the law and that is was a matter for the hall to deal with not outside authorities. They gave the scripture about how it is wrong to sue one another in the same faith. Basically, I think they wanted to hush the matter so that reproach wouldn't fall on their congregation. The young man received a demotion and a public reproving. I was shocked. We are suppose to be in subjection to God's laws and to man's law. This was clearly breaking man's law not reporting the matter to the authorities. It was quietly put aside. One of the Elders in our hall gave a talk to the congregation about gossip and subtle threats about discussing things that were of a judicial matter. Fear instilled in the hearts kept everyone silent. This was the most horrible thing I have heard in years. The children's parent was dismayed at the whole situation and I asked why she didn't do it anyway and call the police, she said she was afraid of being accused of not obeying Gods words and being called an apostate. So the police were never called and the children will have to live with this ugly memory forever. The Elders swept it under the carpet and no one spoke openly about it again. Six months later M.S. the young man was given back his former position as a ministerial servant and declared he was repentant. This is why I wrote this letter to tell everyone, and to make things worse I just found out that the Organization will send him to New York as a Bethelite. I am sick to my stomach that he is being rewarded for his actions. J. of south Sacramento ***
This letter was published and distributed to the police and to all colleges campuses in northern California beside watch groups like Silentlambs. Good luck Bill. New Thinkers Newsletter 2002

Watchtower Society you wrote "No single witness should rise up against a man respecting any error or any sin .... At the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses the matter SHOULD (not must) stand good." (Deu 19:15) They says Matthew 18:16 supports their idea that "should" means always must, but it says "But if he does not listen, take along with you one or two more, in order that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every matter MAY be established."

Watchtower fanatics, since when do SHOULD and MAY equal MUST? Does not the Bible say there is a time and place for everything? Don't Christ and the apostles say principles like mercy and love outweigh your Pharisaic, pedophile love of laws and rules: Matthew 12:7! Stop trying to hide behind the Bible, hypocrites.

(Anyone who wants to can use what I say above freely at will.)

I was asked what has the JW establishment done to not earn respect. (It is so hard to hold back the digs.)

The Watchtower affiliate is given by the Watchtower multi-million, (Billion?) dollar printing press material that allows the faithful slave to think on a predetermined topic with a predetermined outcome. They misuse the Bible.

The Watchtower is selling salvation. Salvation is not for sell. It can not be bought. It can not be given. And most important... The Watchtower can not take salvation away! They misuse the free gift of God.

The Watchtower encourages and demands members to lie in order to achieve the ends of the Watchtower.

The Watchtower encourages and demands members to commit violence (Distortion of facts) and emotional distress on not just the ones that are labeled disfellowshipped but also their entire family. (That is so cruel.)

The Watchtower has infected its members to isolate themselves from the outside. Thus living in a bubble they are not able to function outside the inner circle sometimes for years.
You allow Rapists to escape atonement for their crime. Through your actions they escape justice.

You violate the ethics of love, trust, honor, promise, faith, justice, nobility, self, community, independence, freedom, loyalty, and piss me off.

You are the very definition of ignoble.

Someone said: "Remote User: Date: 18 May 2002 Time: 14:45:16 Comments I stumbled upon this site by accident, but after taking a look at some of the things you people are saying, it appears to me that you have all been overtaken by your emotions and you are trying to do everything in your powers to basically destroy all child molesters. What I mean by that is if you are or were one of JW's, then you're supposed to forgive everyone just as Christ forgave all of you. If a child molester is punished for his actions and tries to go back into his former religion, it wouldn't be loving or showing forgiveness to tell everyone in the world that the person is a child molester. Of course, it is something that everyone feels they should know, but how would you feel if someone told everyone else all the wrongdoing you have done in your life? You wouldn't like it, would you? In fact, you would probably tell that person that they are not showing love by respecting your private life. Child molestation is grouped in the same category as idolatry, fornication, etc. in the bible. So if you want to tell everyone if a person has committed the sin of child molestation, then shouldn't you also tell everyone if a person has committed idolatry or fornication?"

I say:

Being forgiven doesn't mean not being held accountable.

I was raised a Witness, It was all I knew. I married a Witness & pioneered. When it came time to find a day care for my daughter for my part time work, of course I chose a sister, because I could not trust a worldly person. In 1989 when my daughter was 4 years old, after going to this sister's house for 1-1/2 years, I found that she was being abused. Come to find out that there were a total of 5 children in the same congregation (Chicago suburb) who were being abused by the same "group" of witnesses. It was satanic ritual abuse. Horrific crimes. Stuff you only see in horror movies. These perpetrators had been my friends. I had known them my whole life. I could not believe it myself... at first. But we had 5 kids ages 4 - 8 all saying the same things happened to them. I had 5 witnesses, and the elders did nothing. I had so many elder meetings, each one a bigger disappointment than the one before. They kept telling me that "these things do not happen in Jehovah's organization", "children lie"; "we must watch pornographic movies"; "the therapists are brainwashing the children". I finally realized after about a year that they were not going to do a thing to these people. I stopped going to meetings, and so did the other parents of the abused children. We were looked down upon when we were still going to meetings. People would stare at us and gossip about us. We heard gossip that the elders were spreading about us. Now, the perpetrators, 13 years later are all in good standing in the congregation. It makes my sick to think that they are still abusing kids. I know they haven't stopped. When the elders were sitting in my living room 13 years ago I told them it would be their kids next that would be the victims. That was a terrible thing to say, but how true? About 2 years ago I ran into one of those elders who had moved to Georgia. He walked up to me and all he said was that what happened to my daughter happened to his daughter in Georgia, then he walked away. It's sad that they could have prevented it but their pride and blinded eyes got in their way. I am no longer a witness. I chose to believe that these ignorant men, who allow this to go on, cannot have the truth. My daughter still sees her therapist. She was screwed up for a long time because of what they did to her. But now she is a wonderful strong young woman. I am very proud of her. I believe that something good always comes from bad, and her strength has come from their heinous crimes. The witnesses will get what is going to them. I've been waiting 13 years for that Dateline report, and all that is still yet to come. Bravo to Bill Bowen for having the strength and courage to stand up to these men and fight for what is right. KBT Chicago, IL

I've just been reading some of the posts here on the website condemning the website, Bill Bowen and all of us victims. How ignorant these people are. Ignorant because they do not know what kind of an organization that they are involved in. We are not picking on the organization because of a few sick people who abuse kids. We realize that every religion has a few bad seeds. It is the society's lack of enforcing what they preach that we are protesting. They write pretty letters, make pretty comments about their tough stand on sexual abuse. But get elders in a room, faced with the evidence and they do just the opposite of their words. Get New York on the phone and report to them directly, and you get the same run around. Who are the hypocrites here? Us...for standing up for ourselves and our children, or the "brothers" for saying one thing and doing another? Do not dare to throw stones at us, you have no idea what we have been through, and evidently you are still too ignorant to investigate and find out. Keep going to your meetings, have babies, leave them with other fellow brothers and by all means have a good time.

As I read the comments from whom I assume are JW's I am trying so hard to come to grips with just how different we truly are. You will never be able to get into my head. To get me to transfer (slide) (shift) this subject. Forgiving is not for you elders to give. To a rape victim the real crime is the humiliation. You elders add to that humiliation. It is not the elders right to decide punishment. It is not elders right to be the law. The power that you give to these men the elders, They are obviously totalitarians. That is so sad for you. That you would be willing to be their subjects. It is sad.

The only good thing that I can say that any JW has commented on is that it is not the law to stop the crime. It should be the law in all 50 States. It should be mandatory that rape be reported. I will do what I can to make it the Law.

I have not read where one JW, or the congregations, or the WT has said that it is sorry. Maybe I missed it, I hope so.
I have never heard a JW ever say they are sorry. Ever, for anything.

But, here I am saying that I am sorry. I am so very sorry to every victim that has been effected by these people and their wicked vision of the Bible. I am not a JW I did not hurt you or anyone. But I am a Man and a Father. I have a 3 month old baby girl. I would give my life to protect her. I would never, never put anything above protecting her. I will never abandon her. I would never blame her. I love her. I love her as my little angel. I wish you had a Father like me. Maybe I could not of stopped it from happening. But I know I would have been on your side. I know that my little girl will never be in the position of an elder telling her to forget it happened. That is so very sick. It is sadistic. I wish I could say more. I wish I could take your pain away. I have cried with you.

When I was 4 years old I started getting abused by my parents best friend who was a witness and the time it went on until I was 11. He was later disfellowshipped. During that time period I was also abused by another young brother a babysitter, our neighbor another brother and at times Elder, and finally my uncle who has been an elder too. I was disfellowshipped ten years ago and have since confronted two of my abusers who cried and said how sorry they were. Well I find myself wanting to go back but cannot. I cannot allow myself to go to the meetings and assemblies and see those brothers who are in good standing still, they were only put on private reproof and had their privileges taken away, and pretend to be okay with this. If they only knew how much damage they truly did.

In response to all that have been abused we know how easy is is for the Witnesses to cast stones. What happened to 'A little leaven ferments the whole loaf'. I shudder to think how "safe" I felt even though I knew many other things weren't right. To think that they feel a molester can repent sickens me, a pedophile is good at words that is how he gains the trust of a child. I have come to believe after over 18 years in the "truth"(what a laugh)most would cut off their nose to spite their face. They are just not willing to see anything, so busy are they grasping and clawing for paradise when they wouldn't know paradise if they woke up there tomorrow. I have seen family after family neglect their own children while busy going door to door to "save" others. All I know is my husband and I put our children FIRST and we were thought of as obstinate "not willing to follow Jehovah's direction" Well all I can say is my children LOVE me because I put them and my husband first in my life and ran screaming from an organization that tried to convince me I was wrong.

We are happy that some one is finally doing something. Erik Larsen
I was born a 3rd generation JW. When I was 10-11 1/2, I was molested repeatedly by a member of my congregation.

Some time after it happened, I went to my congregation's elders and informed them of it. They, in turn, asked the molester if there was any validity to my accusation, which he (surprisingly!) denied. The elders then came back and told me (at 13 years old, mind you) that I had misunderstood the whole incident. I was encouraged to forgive the person for the misunderstanding, and warned to be careful of what I said because I could suffer repercussions for being slanderous. I was told that to report this matter to the authorities would bring reproach on Jehovah's name. I later found out that several girls in my Kingdom Hall had been molested by this same person. Many of those girls had gone to the elders and told them of it. Many times these girls were told that the molester denied it, and that it was probably just a misunderstanding. My best friend was also molested by the same person in the same congregation. She went to the same elders and informed them of what had happened. They told her she had misunderstood the molester's intentions, and that the matter should be dealt with inside the organization. None of us saw any punishment come to our pedophile, spiritually, or legally. Some of you are Witnesses, some of you are not. I am not, but that is really neither here nor there. I believe this issue is one that has dramatically affected all of the survivors of this problem, Witness or not, and I am hoping that we can all come together in the common interest of preventing this from happening to more children. I am looking to hear from anyone who has had an experience similar to mine, or anyone who knows of an experience similar to mine. I am not looking to change anyone's religious beliefs, and I am not looking to change mine. I have a deep concern for all of you who have endured this problem in your own life and I am sure that if you can survive being abused, and then being doubly betrayed by being forced to watch your pedophile go unpunished (as are many of the cases) that you have the wherewithal to make your own decisions concerning your spirituality. Please respect my decisions as well. These people have committed CRIMES against us. They CAN be held accountable. Whether or not you feel compelled to respond to me, everyone who has suffered as a child, particularly in an instance like mine, you are in my thoughts and prayers. Consider me a sister. Heidi

And what it the authority of their "explanation?"These people, no matter what they will tell you at the door...use only their own translation of the Bible, called the New World Translation. They have made up their own Bible to reflect their twisted beliefs. This can be verified easily by comparing most any verse referring to the Deity of Christ. I would not expect to receive any kind of TRUTH from anyone quoting scripture from this so-called Bible. God Bless you Bill and God bless the victims.

What REALLY frightens me is that although JW's claim that they and their God-directed organization via the "faithful and discreet slave" of Matthew 24:45-47 are truly Jehovah's servants of righteousness they can say bullst like this: Headquarters Receptionist: (On phone) Good afternoon, Legal Department.
LARSON: (Voiceover) Bowen calls seeking advice how to handle a suspected molestation case involving a young girl and her father. Instead of being told to report it to the police, Bowen is told to confront the suspected abuser.

(New York City; Bowen talking on phone)

Headquarters #2: (On phone) You just ask him again, `Now is there anything to this?' If he says `No,' then I would walk away from it.

Mr. BOWEN: (On phone) Yep.

Headquarters #2: (On phone) Leave it for Jehovah. He'll bring it out.

Mr. BOWEN: (On phone) Yep.

Headquarters #2: (On phone) But don't get yourself in a jam. WHAT KIND OF "GODLY" ANSWER IS THAT??? AND MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL, WHAT WOULD JEHovah Himself THINK OF HIS oh-so-special SERVANTS THEN?! JEHovah (not the WT who thinks they take the place of Jehovah) would understand that if a child abuser MIGHT be present in his house of worship that SOMETHING a decisive action needs to be taken, not just to say aloud "wait on Jehovah" and then to ask the creep whether he did it, duh, of course he would say "no" RESOUNDINGLY!!!!! (and another point, WHY IN HECK WOULD A CHILD MOLESTER CONFESS to his deeds, when that could only mean "curtains" for him/her??????) (sarcastic tone): Brother(Elder)Tattletale walks up to Brother Guilty As Sin after the "uplifting and refreshing" Watchtower study at the Kingdom Hall. He whispers: "You know Brother, there has been accusations circling the congregation that have come to the attention of the elders. Accusations of um, how can I put it, a SEXUAL nature, loose conduct...it has been brought to our attention that while out in the field you were with the younger sisters and on a certain occasion, you inappropriately "touched" the girl. Is this true, Brother?" Brother Guilty As Sin: "Gee come to think of it, Brother Tattletale, I DID rape Sister Innocent-5-Year Old and she did try to scream and protest. I think her brother saw us but can't be sure....well I will soon repent to Jehovah and the congregation should now be allowed to hear of my sticky situation (no pun intended!) and I will gladly resign from my special position as Microphone Handler and Watchtower Study conductor....I thank you graciously for exposing me and telling all the brothers about it. Surely Jehovah will understand and because of wonderful brothers like yourself, we will now be blessed with His mercifulness."

Come on! Now no child molester, no matter how much they want to save the now-fragile "face" (reputationally speaking) of the Watchtower will confess if approached with a question like that of guilt or innocence. So, like the all-knowing Bethel brothers say: just ask whether they did it, if not, leave it alone to fester and make more brothers and sisters suffer, don't get YOURSELF caught up in it, and just sit back and pray, wait on God. Let child molesters go undeterred and just trust what he says, after all, they're in the only REAL "brotherhood" watched over by God....

Um, Jehovah's Witnesses believe THIS is the way of Jesus and His Father and that they possess the only TRUE religion?????????? Give me an Alev and a BREAK!!!! I want to pose a question to you using a quote from the movie A Few Good Men. the movie title represents what real followers of God, NOT YOU AND YOUR TWISTED and UNSCRIPTURAL POLICY, are and not to forget the silentlambs of JW policy. If you can answer: I, along with all other people with inquiring minds want to know, the TRUTH? Can YOU handle the TRUTH? Do YOU even WANT to ACKNOWLEDGE the "TRUTH" that you teach --which is mostly half-truths and outright lies all twisted nicely to make them deceiving to millions of ears--is NOT (NO MATTER WHAT YOU SAY) by any chance Jehovah's DEFINITION of TRUTH? CAN YOU HANDLE IT? Me, and countless others all have our eyes and ears ON YOU. as the saying goes-->"Believe it please, please believe it."
It is the people who do not know what these JW people's true nature that are in danger. Tell others! Tell them to look here. If they want to ask a JW that is OK. But they should read up on mind control first. They need an understanding of propaganda in all its dirty little forms. If the WT path is still what they want then that is what they will have. However they deserve all the facts. I don't need to ask but how many JW sites are willing to show both or all sides? From other Church's views? How much JW literature shows the other sides? I already know none. I have been told if I will not go to JW meetings then I have no right to talk. But will they go to any other Church? No they will not. Do they go to the Catholic's for information. No they do not. But they will attack them here and everywhere. I want to believe that there are good God feeling people in the JW camp. But the ones that I have had in my life love their WT as a god. They pay “Jehovah” lip service but their actions show what is in their hearts. I know that hurts but it is true.

(I am not defending the Catholics, just used them to make a point.)

I hope the media will keep up on this!

Evidence of a person's mind being controlled is that their answers or replies are exactly the same for every opposition presented, contradiction revealed or problem to solve. The ability to critically think, and use this process of thinking is disabled so that the mind can be controlled. I call it being remote controlled and the person is "remote" in real emotion, compassion and just plain common sense; remote as in can't be reached. Remote controlled just like the TV. WTS has the remote control.

The JW interchangeably use Jehovah/WTS - they do not distinguish Jehovah as being separate from the WTS. After reading "Crisis of Conscience" and how the "governing body" decides the fate of people with cruelty, injustice and manipulation I became so ashamed how I had been deceived to trust them.

You have to read the book to understand how deep the deception really is and the untrustworthiness of their decisions. It is a crime of murder what they did to the brothers in Africa while they accommodated the brothers in Mexico for the same exact "issue." Tragic and a crime. Jim Jones-ish.

I am grateful to Jehovah, not the WTS, for the Truth. WTS may be a rock crying out only. I am grateful that someone knocked on my door - but the way I have been treated, lied about, gossiped, uncared for by them has been a stumble to say the least. Not to mention the lack of love towards others. Lack of love? How about hatefulness.

I pray for God's Kingdom to come to end this misery. I keep the 10 commandments and I leave it in God's hands my fate, your fate at Armageddon. No body knows when it will come or who will be saved.

Hi again,

Response to June 2,02 time 21:18:35. Forgiveness for imperfections is what the bible recommends but what about more serious behaviors? The example of King Saul shows that Jehovah does not extend forgiveness forever. He told King Saul "to obey is better than a sacrifice." THERE HAD TO BE "WORKS BEFITTING REPENTANCE".
All you think about is how the offender feels and how he would not want what he did known. Everything you say if about the offender. You forget who really is the victim here. THE CHILD!!! The pedophile's reputation was wrecked the moment he sexually abused a child. It was his behavior that started it not the victim. THE PEDOPHILE SHOULD HAVE THOUGHT ABOUT THE CONSEQUENCES BEFORE HE DID THE CRIME!!! The bible tells us to "let no one suffer as a thief."

Your comments tell a lot where your sympathies lie. Are you an offender? In my experience this is a good starting place, to identify those that are pedophiles(by who they defend;where their sympathies lie, etc!!)DJB

dear "this site sees (sic) to be inspired by demons"

THANK YOU

the abusive step mother of my daughter told everyone the same thing about her some of the elders parroted her the others let the slander go unchecked...while threatening to take judicial action if i, or the children of my household took action against the terrorist abuse for the naive JWs who deny such things happen look at the words of your brothers/sisters in this Guestbook!

if there are any demons involved....it is those who destroy the lives of children and defend it by such hatefulness

THANK YOU for showing your true colors

When reading this website my exclamation was "Oh my God!!" I thought I was one of few that experienced physical abuse at the hands of a spouse and was actually disfellowshipped for being a victim. I thought it was only a few congregations here in North East Ohio that had a problem with elders not listening to victims. My ex-husband remains a member in good standing after having moved to Pierre, SD. I see now this problem of abusers, be it physical, sexual, or verbal, being protected within the religion is nationwide if not worldwide. All of us victims need to speak out to help prevent detestation in the lives of future victims. Kit Nix kit@kitty.org

You people are so bad. Continue to fight Judas.

This website and those behind it are not the answer.

They claim that the problem is that the Elders and other Witnesses do not report complaints to the police.

But the police are part of Satan's element. They are motivated by job performance reviews and politics, the same with prosecutors. They don't care.

Not to mention the fact that police, prosecutors, judges and juries do more to trample the constitution and violate our rights than the El Quida have done.

The police are not the answer.

The answer is simple. Consider the situation with the Catholics. Why are priests even around children. They shouldn't be.

If the complaints are about Witnesses? Why is anyone not the parent around a child.

So people, stop complaining and don't let your children be around anyone but the parents.

This site is ridiculous because Bowen complains that the Society wants the elders to confront the accused. But Bowen thinks the answer is to call the police.

What will the police do? Question the accused and the accuser. And then arrest and file charges against the accused and then have a trial. At trial the accuser will accuse the accused. The jury will believe the accuser and the person will get convicted.

I call that injustice.

I see that the WT is considering some changes to policy. (Minor changes) If at a minimum all changes do not take place then:

"Social reform is the desperate decision to remove the corns of a person dying of cancer."

Karl Kraus

"A Pharisee is a man who prays publicly and preys privately."

Don Marquis
"I sit on a man's back, choking him and making him carry me, and yet I assure myself and others that I am very sorry for him and wish to lighten his load by all possible means-except by getting off his back."

Leo Tolstoy

"How many crimes merely because their authors could not admit being wrong!"

Albert Camus

"The Multitude of Offenders is their Protection."

Tomas Fuller

"It is the same thing to do a thing as not to prohibit it when it is your power."

Old Latin Proverb

To all of us

"What we all need to do is return to the Bible afresh-not going to it to prove a point, but seeing what it says as the Holy Spirit opens our eyes."

Billy Gram

"Freedom of speech and freedom of action is useless without freedom to think."

Bergen Evans

Now I will go the Book for that is what some will only look to for direction.

Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for what ever a man sows, that also shall he reap.

Galatians 6:7 (In this life OR the next)

"Woe to those who call evil good and good evil."

To those who say that they have been physically or sexually abuse: How is that a congregational issue?

It's not. If you want to report it to the police, do that

But this is not a congregational issue.

What can the elders do about anything? Disfellowship someone? That can't do anything. It's not their place.

I too was abused "in the Hall" as were many, and contrary to many's belief, I have mentioned it prior to the "scandal on dateline". I pray something good comes from all of this, like some little lambs are spared from the horrid abuse that is allowed to go on in the congregations nationwide... Thanks for listening, K

if you have even read a fraction of the reports of all who suffered physical, sexual and emotional abuse from pedophiles, along emotional and spiritual abuse from elders and the society .... tell me how THEY are not the ones from the 'devil's world' ... 'wolves in sheep's covering' .... even WT teachings are to respect cops ... now you point out their wrongs JUST to deflect from the atrocities committed by JWs in god's name? if we have a right to point out wrongs done by the police.....why do you think we don't have the right to do the same to JWs who hold themselves up to a higher standard?

What do I think about this site.

To Bill:

I am confused as too what is meant by neutrality with the WT doctrine and/or policy. Is there a difference? I thought that their doctrine was policy and policy is their doctrine. Am I wrong? I hope I don't appear to goat you. Maybe it doesn't matter. I don't see the middle ground.

To a JW Elder:

You asked me to go to your site to see your side. Is your side not what has been posted here? Do the sites you ask me to go to have an area for feedback? The Dateline JW link had information. What I got from that is the JW stance is-This is an age old problem. The Romans did it, and infanticide. And something about 4000 years ago where I trailed off. It said nothing about your way of handling this issue. There was nothing said by victims of rape. There was no apology for anyone acting on your authority that covered up or committed rape. I looked for a feedback area and it said you do not do direct feedback. If I want a "Bible-study" or someone to call on me to fill out an application. Did I not get it right? What is different now? I am skeptic because so much of your dogma is one sided. That would be not so bad but every other faith is ravaged for every mistake they have ever made while you dismiss everything ever done by you as a non issue. Am I wrong?

To people who think they are wasting breath. (You mean your fingertips:)

I am listening. Your comments and thoughts matter to me. I am working hard to find some meaningful positive comments about JW's (Obviously I am not one) but I don't have them yet.

Comment private you want. I will try to not cast a bad light who does not deserve it.

I am a former Jehovah's witness. My father is an elder and my mother is active. I now realize being raise in the organization how hush hush things are being kept for a long time I thought I was in a perfect organization and no one could tell me different. It was hard for me accept the real truth and it took me years to desensitize myself. I still find myself defending something I don't believe in it not really my fault. You want to believe a perfect organization exist. But the real truth is what lies behind closed doors.

The most ignorant people on earth, are Jehovah Witness teenagers. I like to chew them up and spit them out. A cowardly lot. They like to post false accusations (Mr. Bowen being gay) and hate(calling people apostates), but don't leave an e-mail address. Cowards who dismiss the sensitive nature of the issue of pedophilia. Cowards who post their drivel in "hit and run" fashion, only to persecute the victims and survivors of pedophilia.

That's why they sit at home with no life and bash sites like these. It's because of their ignorance. I laugh. Laugh at them when I read their "waste of space" posts. What losers.

If these are adults making these posts, all the worse. They are much more delicious to chew up and spit out.

People of a "small mind"...People who are cowards. I don't know whether to pity them, or continue to laugh at their examples of low intelligence.

These kids can't even "flame" properly. No wonder they just sit in their school rooms in silence, as the class waits for their heads to spin in 360 degree circles.

Come to me, you little ignorant fools, so that you may learn what the "real world" is like. I'll be waiting.

The result of the airing of the Dateline program has been very positive. Dateline program will no doubt air again in reruns and may get further coverage soon.

There have been many mixed emotions as a result of this program. I have received about 700 emails that range from around 100 who are angry and insulted Jehovah's Witnesses who think I am an apostate or a tool of Satan, some that have threatened me personally, to the majority who are very appreciative of the program. It is interesting to note of all emails received only two speak of child molestation matters being handled properly. I have over three hundred new stories of absolute atrocities committed against children in various congregations. I also have had around forty new pedophile survey's filled out with at least 12 abuse survivors starting the process of filing charges against their JW molesters. There have been around 250 telephone calls from concerned Jehovah's Witnesses across the country.

It is interesting when silentlambs hits WT with strong evidence a wave of virus emails are sent to the editor of silentlambs. Well it appears we must have hit the truth pretty good as we have received close to 300 in the last four days.

The recent letter read to all congregations to circumvent the Dateline airing has angered many abuse survivors in the organization. They express it is a whitewash of old policy, once again leaving the victims in harm's way. A sister in California commented, “How dare they arrogantly ignore the protection of children and pat themselves on the back for doing nothing.” One brother in Florida finished his student talk and stated, “I will never set foot in a Kingdom Hall again till the Governing Body changes their policy to protect children.” He then walked out. In another congregation in Tennessee, as the letter was being read an elder of over 40 years took his Kingdom Hall keys off the ring and walked back to give them to the PO. After the meeting when asked why, the elder stated, “I can no longer serve or support the policy on molestation stated in that letter.” Several individuals have expressed the desire to pursue the injustice committed against them by the way the home office handled their abuse by going to the courts and filing legal action as a result blatant disregard for victims offered in the letter read to all Jehovah's Witnesses in the USA.

As Circuit Overseers make their rounds they are instructing elders if they do not follow instructions to the letter if lawsuits are filed local elders will be on their own. This comes as a further menacing threat to brothers whose conscience might move them to report suspected abuse in non-reporting States, but are then threatened into silence by WT Legal.

Several letters are being written to home office to require the Service Department to remove several men currently serving as elders or ministerial servants who survivors say molested them. If Service and Legal Departments fail to act the survivors say are going public with matters.

In the telephone calls made since Dateline there have been reports of children being molested at Kingdoms Halls, in the door to door work of Jehovah's Witnesses, at conventions, building projects, and even at the home office in Brooklyn New York. Time and again abuse survivors were threatened with disfellowshipping if they spoke out to anyone on the matter.

Personally, the judicial committee tried to set up a meeting with a 24 hour notice. I was able to notify them in writing to postpone the meeting at a set future date. That date was rejected and they tried to move the meeting to the middle of the week to make it more difficult for my witnesses to be able to testify in my behalf. I am currently requesting a more agreeable date to those who are traveling.
I was not aware you would display my comments. I am now receiving innumerable letters from people. Please remove my comments from you site. Thanks.

Comments in a Guest Book are always displayed! Didn't you know that? That's one of the nicest thing of a Guestbook!!;-)

The waiting on Jehovah is over. He waited and waited for the "governing body" to boldly take the bull by the horns with outrage against this violent act upon children and be absolutely open about absolutely no tolerance for pedophiles within JEHOVAH'S CONGREGATIONS. The silentlambs waited and waited on Jehovah and Jehovah was patient with the WTS and waited for them to do something. The prayers of many many people I am certain have been answered.

Jehovah used his spirit to move these people into action. WTS and anyone who proclaims to be a witness of Jehovah and NOW can't accept the action that Jehovah has taken through the innocent and the outrage of their supporters might be in good standing with the WTS but that does not mean Jehovah finds them a "good" witness or good for anything.

To shun a moral obligation out of fear of being shunned is immoral. To shun a moral obligation out of fear is immoral. To shun a moral obligation for Jehovah's sake is apostasy! And to do this as an obligation to Jehovah is absolutely outrageous. A Broken spirit is better than sacrifice the children to save face. Anyone should know that.

"The fact is that as many people that you can claim to have been abused, as many people have been falsely accused."

This is all the more reason to turn the matter over to trained professionals in the authorities, not to dressed up janitors and window washers.

Someone else asked why go to the elders at all? In JayDubdum, all are encouraged to turn to the elders for most anything. Subjection to them is mandated and they are expected to intercede and handle matters properly. Not everything can be settled and handled by reading a few scriptures. That is why God set up Superior Authorities. Yes, even the Watchtower teaches that God set them up. So, why does the Watchtower circumvent those authorities?
To the witness or person who decided to become a false witness. (falsifying who you are) Think about what it was like for Jesus as the Pharisees tried so desperately, pathetically, to discredit him.

That rush you get when you lie. One day you will regret it. What Bill has created here is very noble. He is protecting our children, even people like myself who are not WT. He is an answer to my prayers. Literally. I have been praying for the Jehovah's Witnesses. That they are shown what they look like in a mirror.

Do any of you know what an "Authority Personality" is? The post that stated the irrational behavior of JW teens. That person described what one is like in the making.

Food for thought...

If people will lie for you they will lie about you.

With the JW's it has been my experience that no point of view is of any substance accept theirs. Even if you have proof of what ever the issue is, even if you have witnesses. If you are DF'd or a family member of one, or an outsider, or it is not in the favor of the Congregation then your testimony is not even given a second of thought. You are told to get over it, or blown off. In the old Soviet world there were two types of information one was bourgeois propaganda that equaled lies. It came from the likes of VOA (Voice of America) or a dissident to the Communist party. (I.e. anything not from the communist party) If you were found a dissident you were done for. So people kept their mouth shut and their eyes closed. Many people suffered. The other was communist propaganda that was anything that benefited the communist cause, or was in the communist favor because it favored socialism. A communist lie was even better than a bourgeois truth because anything that the other side said or did had to be a lie.

It is my experience that the WT and the Elders that try to gavel the law have become wayward totalitarians in nature and practice. I would love to see the sheep realize that they are the power. The WT is powerless without the control that the sheep surrender to it. I pray that one-day the sheep become less afraid of the outside world. It's not so scary outside. It is not always evil if you do not look for everything bad. Look for the bad and you will find it. Look for the good in all things and it changes your life. You become free. Free from bias. Free from fear. Free from being a cynic, which is person whose spirit is a prisoner in his or her own mind.

In a word....Peace finds you.

Maybe that is a pipedream. But it is my pipedream.
I have noticed that there is no site for people that are the survivors of people who were never JW but married one that was or became Disfellowshipped. As an outsider there really is no greater pain than watching someone you love more than anything in the world be stomped into dust by the very people who claim to be so loving. We are the true objective observers.

I am deeply moved by your excellent coverage and compassion in pursuing this matter. As an ex-JW, disfellowshipped for what they called "rebellion" in disagreeing with their doctrines, I can recognize the truth in what is presented here. I am now 65. My grandfather, who claimed to be of the remnant, also sexually abused his daughter, but at that time, over 60 years ago nothing was told. My cousin just recently told me that her mother had confessed this before she died several years ago.

My daughter was abused by one of the members of the watchtower she started to speak out when she turned about 10 years old. I got out of the organization because I wasn't happy there no more. They kept silent about many things and didn't let me know till it was too late. I found out that this so call brother abused many other kids, but because he was a witness no one took action. epubill@msn.com

I am so grateful that I never really became interested in the Org. It's such a shame how they can turn good people into bad ones, such as the person above as well as so many others. They turn innocent people into Satan's servants so well that most people don't even know what's happening to them 'til it's too late.

When I was ten I was molested by my brother-in-law, a ministerial servant in the congregation. This went on for three years until my sister asked me point blank if he was doing some thing to me. In no time at all a committee was formed and he admitted to the abuse and was removed from all privileges. I remember him asking me if my parents would put him in jail. My mother and my father, presiding overseer/elder since he was 20, never mentioned one word to me about what happened and the subject was forbidden to be mentioned. I have since left the organization after realizing that their "mark of true Christianity is true love" is so far from the truth and for other various reasons. I have moved on though. Although the molestation is a sick and disgusting memory, what hurts me the most is that my parents did not stand up for me - they have never even said that they are sorry it happened and to this day refuse to even believe it happened, even though the molester admitted to it and has had other situations occur in the congregations elsewhere! Note: He has NEVER been charged with the legal system and I can guarantee this is going to continue on. I'd like to know what the statute of limitations are in cases like this with a minor and if I can get my congregation records.

Thanks for including the dateline show on your website because I missed it and was very interested to see how it went. Cristine
I am a former elder who had been removed from that privilege some years ago when my wife was having problems as a result of her emotional abuse at the hands of her father who was an elder at the time she was growing up. I am currently serving again as a Ministerial Servant in good standing. When I was an elder I sat in on my wife's judicial meetings (as is required) and served on many judicial committees, several of which dealt with abuse victims/survivor's. I say in all sincerity how deeply I feel for all such ones when I read their stories. It pains me greatly to see this evil in the Christian congregation. Let me state, again in all sincerity, that neither my wife nor any of the others I dealt with were told to 'keep quiet.' Indeed, we were encouraged to report my father-in-law to his congregation elders for judicial review. As elders, we often discussed how abused ones needed help because we knew that they were scarred emotionally and spiritually and that these horrid memories will "always" resurface in terms of promiscuity, violence (to self or others), drug use or in the perpetuation of these behaviors on the next generation. And we knew and discussed this 10 years ago!

The body of elders I served with at that time made every effort to listen compassionately and non-"judgmentally" as people told their stories. We "never" assumed they were lying! Indeed, one of the points Jaws like to make with people is 'does this have the ring of Truth?" And every one of the sufferers told stories that had the ring of Truth. Yes, if there was no other evidence or second witness or confession, as elders we could do nothing more except keep sealed records on file of what happened. In a number of cases the perpetrator committed the same crime again and because this was the second incident of the same type of sin, we could disfellowship an unrepentant wrongdoer. According to Watchtower Society guidelines it does "not" have to be two witnesses to the same event. At the very least, if the perpetrator continued to deny the second set of allegations, we could disfellowship them as an unrepentant liar.

If State laws require reporting, conscientious elders report to the authorities. Because most elders are not current on local law as well as for other reasons, elders are to report abuse to the Watchtower's Legal Department for review and advice. Please keep in mind that only 16 states require this. Other states require that we do "not" report, citing "ecclesiastical privilege."

It also pains me to read how many long-time witnesses have engaged the services of attorneys when dealing with either their local congregations or with the Watchtower Society's headquarters. They have forgotten the scripture at 1 Corinthians 6:7 which says "Really, then, it means altogether a defeat for YOU that YOU are having lawsuits with one another. Why do YOU not rather let yourselves be wronged?" This is God's Word speaking to us. Yes, what happened to many at the hands of supposed Witnesses is an unspeakable crime – against God and humanity, but loyal Jaws endeavor to follow scripture in "all" things, even when it is painful to do so.

Keep in mind also that Jehovah does allow tests of loyalty at the hands of Satan in order to 'sift us.' To the victims/survivors: Jehovah is not to blame and will certainly comfort all in need. But we must maintain our loyalty! To the rest of us: Don't be swept overboard by any sensationalizing of events. Let us not lose our faith because of news reports or by what we may read online from disgruntled former believers.

Gadol: I'm sure you consider yourself compassionate and reasonable, but I find myself shaking my head. You had reports of a child abuser in your midst, those reports had the 'ring of truth', then you sealed them up and did nothing more. You cite Society rules. Predictably, it happened again and aha! now you can do something. So, just how guilty do you feel about those 'second' cases? What could you have done to protect those other innocent children? How many children outside of the organization were victimized when you could have helped? Did your self-righteousness make it unnecessary to even consider that you may be misapplying the two-witness rule? Is it even possible that you could do something to protect other children even if you don't have multiple witnesses? Is your self-righteousness enough to ward off the pangs of guilt? You're the problem.

Gadol: By the way, citing ecclesiastical privilege is just another way of saying that 'I don't because the Society says so.' A spiritually mature individual would not find himself falling on such man-made rules. A person that tried to grasp what Christianity is all about would feel a compulsion to protect others. Such a person would do all in his or her capacity to stop the atrocities from happening to another child - inside or outside the congregation. Failure to act to protect children is the most acute example of just how spiritually hobbled the society keeps you people.

Buster: Thanks for your comments. To clarify my previous post, when we had proof, we acted. No coverups. No intimidating of witnesses. The “Second Witness” principle is from the scriptures and it is a good rule. I was close to a family that was having problems with its oldest daughter. She accused her father of abusing her. A week later she recanted, saying she was just angry with her father and wanted to get back at him for his discipline. What if we had jumped the gun based on her ONE claim and reported and/or disfellowshipped him?

Also to clarify: It is a number of states laws that tell US that we cannot report abuse because of “Ecclesiastical Privilege.” THEY (the states in question) tell us in effect ‘we consider you clergy and, therefore, you HAVE to keep quiet.’ Those elders may wish to report, but certain states WON'T LET THEM.

I hope that helps clear things up.

In light of all I have read on this sight I find it incredible the comments that are made. This is not a positive remark...We need to be mindful that the Jehovah Witnesses do what they are told by the Watchtower Society. It is clear to them that the WTS has a direct link to God Almighty and not to listen to any apostate that may come their way. Including all of these comments on this page. We need to be mindful that they are slaves not only to their God but more, the Watchtower Society. We need to be mindful that JW's obviously do not look into the history behind their religion because it is clear that even their own founder, Charles Taze Russell, lied...not just to his followers, but in courts of law that has been recorded. He knew nothing of Greek or translations, but instead was not satisfied with his former religion ~Seventh Day Adventist~ and created an new one~ in which he created a new God and a new translation. Since then many new leaders have come their way, and now they denounce some of the things the leaders before them had said...even their own founder. They would rather his name never be brought up again...and if Russell were alive today, they probably would have disfellowshipped him. Unfortunate that the followers do not take the time to look into the background of their founders, it is only eternal life we're talking about ~ forever and ever. This is not about what religion is molesting what child, it happens all over, even to the unbelievers. What this is about is sin, plain and simple. Jesus Christ died for us all, his blood cleansed our sin and those who believe in Him as Savior will have eternal life. Don't fool yourselves, look into history, learn a little bit of Greek on your own and most of all pray for all the people who struggle with any sin - as great as molesting their own grandchild to lying about "miracle wheat". :) And praise Our Lord for his grace and mercy and love.

Gadol: You’re saying that if you were in a non-required reporting state and you - a person with a detailed understanding of the situation - called the police or a child welfare agency, that they would 1/ determine if you were clergy and then 2/ tell you to go away? Do you expect people to swallow that? It sounds to me like the Society is probably pulling some statement out of context and passing it along to elders as justification for keeping silent.

The two-witness rule does have its place. Yes, there are false accusations. All that needs to be balanced against protecting the rest of the congregation and the even worldly children. That is where a professional, non-religious agency like Child Services can look into a problem, cross-reference reports, and get that other ‘witness’ that is not available to you. All you see, and can deal directly with, is the microcosm of people at the hall. You are pulling up short on your responsibility as a Christian if you look at the issue so myopically and put it aside.

I think this website is very informational. Thank you for telling the truth. I am one of Jehovah's witnesses and this scares me to death to think this is going on. thank you. I am unable to leave any personal information, for reasons you are well aware of. I feel that I have lost my way. While I do believe that God has an organized way of dealing with us I am certain that Witnesses are not the only humans worthy of salvation. While I know that power corrupts I am saddened to know that grown men and women not only abdicate use of their own conscience and intellect, but are encouraged to do so by the JW. I am no longer attending meetings. I hope the organization can be cleaned up. THANK YOU, for being brave.

I am shocked and saddened. I really hope that measures are taken to effectively deal with rapists and molesters within the religion. I commend the people that were strong enough to go against the norm and voice their concerns and incidents. Jehovah says to protect the innocent; I know that the right thing will be done. For not to believe this will crumble the moral foundations I was raised with.

Hi. I have been raised as one of Jehovah's witnesses and my mother was the driving force for our family to be in the Truth. My father was opposed for years and being college-educated, debated many points of the Watchtower doctrine. I was baptized at 14, and faithfully followed the Truth the way I experienced it, a very separate and free, way of life where I felt content for so many years in spite of misgivings I may have had here and there. (not joining sports, missing my prom, not going to college, not having a social life) However, every now and then, I would see fellow sisters, teenage, who seemed to be going through something much darker than I was going through. I later found out that they had been through sexual abuse by their fathers, who were elders, and as far as I could see, they had absolutely no recourse in the situation. This bothered me and yet I felt that it was what other people go through in the world and have to find ways to cope. I didn't see it yet as pertinent to the congregation dynamics even though I was shocked and disgusted. I guess that in my young mind I felt their powerlessness and took it on as a hopeless trap for them and me.

However, later, when I had serious doubts about why a person should not go to college, after having four delightful children of my own with a husband I have loved dearly through thick and thin, I decided to go to college and my husband absolutely agreed to back me up. (Of course, he wasn't elder material even though he had been a baptized brother and an understanding voice in the Hall since day 1)

I went to Wellesley College, found intelligent, brainy women who would listen to all of this, and I found myself in the field of genetics. I am so moved by your efforts to work to change the policy which could destroy the credibility of the good work that the brothers do. There are so many brave-hearted and well-intentioned ones in the organization who do not understand the dilemma of The Silent Lambs.

Keep up the good work and know that you are reaching people who have either been through all this themselves or have suffered the pain of seeing...and not being able to speak out.

Why must we believe this is the truth because they want us to believe it. I was born into this religion and I have still to learn why this religion is any different from the others. God loves us all and it does not matter what religion you are in. The bible does not mention a specific religion by name. An organization that controls your life, An organization that is against bringing these sick human garbage waste to justice because of it's name is not a religion it is a cult. Yes I said it the Witness' are one of the biggest Cults I have ever had to deal with. They are the wolves in Sheep's clothing. Say to yourselves is this an organization I want to belong to. They are always criticizing the Catholic religion. But in my eyes they are just as bad or even worst. None of you are at fault the disgusting millionaire owners, because it is like a business, are the ones that are at fault. Who are you to tell me I am not anointed when you allow men to molest children and you do nothing about it. I have never been so disgusted with this religion the way I am right now.

Hello my name is JoAnne, I was raised a JW for 30 years. My stepfather fit this description. When I was 30 I decided I was a hypocrite(sp?)To remain a JW, I saw too many good people in the world, and could not see them all dying at Armageddon. I am now 50 years old, when I was 40 my real dad passed away, not the one who raised us. ( I read on the back of my senior picture I gave him, among other things, it said ( I said I was sorry he would die at Armageddon(sp?))SICK I was a pioneer for 4 years when I got out of high school, was I brain washed or what, as I read your front cover I could hardly breath. getting together with ex Jehovah’s witness, was the only way I got over the hump of the guilt when you get out. I was disfellowshipped. I respect my mother and other JW, it takes a lot to stay in and they have good intentions from the heart, they do not know anything else, I can be phoned at 360-789-1211 JoAnne, I am hear for any ex JW, that want reassurance it is okay, to get out... I live in Olympia, Wa. if their is a meeting near my area of ex JW I would like to know about it, also I have a sister in Federal Way, WA. she is ex JW, also ( we have stories......if you know what I mean, )Take Care, JoAnne

I am Webmaster of the San Francisco chapter of "A Common Bond", the international support network for gay & lesbian current and former Jehovah's Witnesses. While "A Common Bond" fully endorses the mission of "Silentlambs", I would like to state for the record that our two support networks are not affiliated in any way. Earlier today, our web site began to receive quite a number of "hits" from this site, and I traced it to a posting made by an individual stating that Bill Bowen was associated with our support network. He is not, and I want to personally offer my apologies to Mr Bowen for any misunderstandings that may have arisen from the posting of an individual with an obvious agenda of attempting to damage Mr Bowen's reputation.

After the airing of Dateline's expose' last week, the number of visits to our website has almost tripled. Surely, a number of visitors to our site are active Jehovah's Witnesses who have been exposed to the teachings of the Watchtower Society equating pedophilia with homosexuality. To that end, I felt it necessary to add an essay to our site explaining the difference between gays and pedophiles so that those visiting our site would not be misled into believing that any of our membership advocates pedophilia in any form. The essay has been posted at:
http://www.gayxjw.org/ped.html

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Mr Bowen on his extraordinary courage and human kindness in offering a refuge to those victims of abuse. Thank you for a job well done! Kind Regards.... JIM MOON Webmaster -

Funny how Jehovah cleans his organization, and the "dirt" find a place to hang out.

It's disgusting what's going on in here. I feel terrible for those that have genuinely been hurt, as opposed to those "silentlambs" who drop in to this website for their supposed research and airing of their hatred. People - take a breath, slow down, and think about what would really help abuse victims. THEY NEED LOVE. Jehovah can provide that love.

This site is the LAST place abuse victims should visit. When I see a post like "I now have the courage to say my whole family was abused by witnesses" my first inclination is to think that Bill Bowen himself is posting that message to keep the water boiling. How can a whole family be abused and now have the "courage" to say it anonymously on a website? Have you contacted the police? Did you go to the elders?

What utter confusion. In my past an elder attempted to molest me, and an elders son actually did molest me. I have started to cry almost daily at these repressed memories surfacing. However, how can I blast an organization that has kept me clean morally, helped me with ALL of the serious issues I have encountered in this demonic world, blessed me with a wonderful woman for a wife, and now with two beautiful children that pray with me at night to the ALMIGHTY Jehovah?

The next sentence I direct to those who were truly abused - pray to Jehovah. Stop coming here for a while and think about forgiveness, yes forgiveness, to the abusers, the elders that may have mishandled your case, and to the organization that is working hard to provide spiritual guidance to a congregation of witnesses who undoubtedly love you. Your next step should be professional help, and spiritual help, and if you feel the elders in your hall have mishandled your case, ESCALATE. Contact the Society or the circuit overseer. You will be very surprised at the love and dedication to your physical, mental and spiritual well being these shepherds will show you.
To Bill Bowen - I'm not quite sure that you can turn around from the damage that you have already done, but only Jehovah can read a person's heart. I commend that you want to help abuse victims, but it looks like you want to victimize innocent bystanders like me and about 6 million other witnesses. You seem like a smart man, spend your time setting up a non-biased organization that helps abuse victims across the board. There are victims in many other religions and institutions here on earth.

No - I will not sign my email, because I can guarantee you that I will receive a deluge of hate mail. I've seen enough of it here.

To my fellow witnesses perusing this site - You have made the same mistake I have made. Curiosity got the better of me, and for what? Now I am heartsick seeing the amount of hate that is festering here.

To all - Times are changing fast. Let's all make a change for the better.

P.S. I saw the Dateline show, and I am not impressed at all with Dateline. I have been both outside and inside the organization, and I can tell you they were not objective at all. They did not speak to anyone who has good things to say about the JW's, no one who was molested but can say they were treated the way they were supposed to, and did not highlight the fact that JW's do not pay hush money, do not shuffle elders around, and write many, many articles on child abuse.

I will never view another Dateline story without wondering how far they have gone for good ratings.

They have forgotten the scripture at 1 Corinthians 6:7 which says “Really, then, it means altogether a defeat for YOU that YOU are having lawsuits with one another. Why do YOU not rather let yourselves be wronged?” This is God's Word speaking to us. Yes, what happened to many at the hands of supposed Witnesses is an unspeakable crime – against God and humanity, but loyal Jaws endeavor to follow scripture in all things, even when it is painful to do so.

ARE YOU A MOTHER FUCKING PSYCHO???????? SHOULD I HAVE JUST MY FATHER MOLEST ME? YOU TWISTED THE SCRIPTURES AGAIN YOU IGNORANT BASTARD I AM SO GLAD I AM AWAY FROM YOU FALSE TEACHING ASSHOLES

SUE THE JW'S SUE THEM ALL IF THEY DON'T WANNA DO ANYTHING ABOUT OUR CHILDREN AND STOP MOLESTATION WE WILL WE WILL SUE YOUR ASSES SEE YOU IN COURT BASTARDS

In response to Kandy:

"""It seems to me with homosexuality, it is lust after the same sex, just as heterosexuals lust after one another before marriage. But with Ped's it is with young children."""

Right, and that makes it a crime!!!!!!!!!!
"Does anyone think that they will find a Pedophilia "gene" like some people say there is a Homosexual "gene" ""

Even if they do, so what? That still makes pedophilia a crime!! Same as with kleptomania! Although then nobody is physically or mentally abused!

""would pedophilia be okay then, because there is a gene that makes them that way....""

NEVER!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Even if it's in the genes!!

And with whom adults have sex with that's their business, genes or not!

My Father became a JW when I was 17. He pretty much forced our family into it. My Dad is very controlling. I made the mistake of getting baptized. I have been disfellowshipped since I was 24. I hate what this cult does to families. It ruined my relationship with my parents. I refuse to be a part of something that is based on guilt and fear and hypocrisy. I am 45 now and within the last 5 yrs. we have a somewhat of a relationship. Only because the Watchtower people said he could.

To the irate Witness that sent my wife a computer virus. Would that "the organization" purge pedophiles from their flocks as easily as we have purged the virus. Why do you have to take the scrutiny of obvious deficiencies in the organization personally? No one is attacking the basic belief that you have, only the hypocrical and illegal actions of the leadership. If ALL Witnesses behaved in accordance with the "love God and love your neighbor" instruction of Jesus, then I would probably still be an active member. Right is right and wrong is wrong. You said it Chris:

"Why do you have to take the scrutiny of obvious deficiencies in the organization personally? ""

Perhaps because they are so brainwashed they can't look/think straight??? This is typically cult behavior, although they all deny it!

I'm one of Jehovah's witnesses and this has gotten crazy out of control. I am very glad this website is here. I no longer attend the meetings because I found myself being a hypocrite. I thought the Catholics were doing very sinful things I even expressed my feelings with other witnesses and they believed the things about the Catholics but not about our religion. I believe we all are becoming hypocrites, shame on all religions that put their faith in their cong instead of our grand Creator Jehovah and his son Jesus Christ. I want to say I'm sorry for being a hypocrite and also very sorry for the victims..... I will no longer stand up for anyone who will keep these secrets. I was abused as a child and people knew about the abuse and never reported. these were not witnesses at the time these were friends of the family of all different religions. I ask who will protect the children if we don't. these children do not trust anyone and if they do have courage to come for help then I beg everyone and anyone to Help them!!! This is Jehovah's way of letting it out through the child's own cry for help.

I have just read your site, and I'm appalled at what has been going on in the congregations, and the coverup, that has been done, and suggested to be done, by the Society. I could barely function at hearing these things. I'm more appalled that individuals, that have come forward, about these matters, are possibly going to be disfellowshipped.
How terrible, they have done nothing! No one should take away their friends and family, for something like this. It's terrible! I don't know what else to say. Jehovah is surely bringing to light, the hidden sins of many. I just hope they don't disfellowship these people. It's an awful state to be in, with no one to talk to, and having no friends.
Courage is a possession of only a few. You have demonstrated you have this quality by your outspokenness and willingness to expose a gross wrong. What I find interesting is that many still look to the Watchtower Society as though they are a religious authority. For no one can have authority over you unless you allow it. Further, would Jesus be the head of an organization that fosters an environment that allows pedophiles to exist and continue to torture innocent victims with abuse and threaten them with alienation from God if they try to right the wrong?! Would He not vomit such an organization out of his mouth? It is hard to tell the JW from the Catholic in action and organization. Rev. 21.8; John 8.31-47 Turn to the Lord and not to man made religious societies and enjoy the freedom that only He can give. 2 Cor. 3.16, 17 May God bless the courage you show. John Partridge Lawrence

When my mother first started to study with the witnesses & started "changing" her life - I remember her burning other religious books in the backyard and I remember her returning some stained glass windows that she had stolen from some people. I was raised pretty much as a feral child up to that point & stole everything & anything from anyone that wasn't tied down. When my mother started to notice & care about this & found out that I had stolen from the person she was studying with I remember having to repay the person not just what I had stolen but double the amount based on a Bible principle. I'm getting to my point but rather slowly-LOL. If you steal/Rape from a child or any anyone for that matter - How can a person ever repay that? They can't restore the child's innocence and their feeling of trust & the feeling of being truly safe again. It's by not only fessing up to the elders & to stop continuing to do those things but they should have to apologize to the victims & their families and then serve the time in jail for their crime - However much time that would be - That wouldn't "fix" the damage but it would validate the victims trauma and help them to start healing sooner. What I fear is that some elders apart from the society don't view this as a crime - they may just be viewing it as any other weakness of the flesh & if the person says their sorry or denies it well that's the end of that. THIS IS A CRIME!!! not something that kids should have to endure at the hands of people they should be able to trust and are told to trust. Someone made the comment awhile back totally berating the girl on the Dateline program who had disfigured herself with the tatoos saying that obviously she never really had a relationship with Jehovah in the first place if she could do that to herself (AND YOU CAN READ HEARTS?). That comment made me mad because - for one - How do you know what you would do if you were a victim of a horrible crime against your body & couldn't speak out about it? I am almost 200 lbs over weight - is that any better than tattooing myself. I do it for the same reason - so that I can be unattractive and I can feel safer because I was molested, attacked & raped as a child. Not everyone deals with traumatic violence against their bodies in the same way and no one can judge someone else for the way they display their anguish and pain.PLEASE LEAVE THE READING OF HEARTS TO JEHOVAH'S - the fact that some of us have not killed ourselves as a way of dealing with the abuse is a testament to the fact that Jehovah helped us to survive in the first place. Jesus never would have turn anyone away with contempt especially if someone has been abused by someone claiming to serve his God. Where is your compassion? I've had to deal for many years with a mother who is mentally ill(won't admit that she has a problem) & has been abusive to us kids--but because she was/is a more active servant in the congregation she is held with higher regard & is believed more than we are - even though my younger brother killed himself (Hello?-the biggest cry for help) So I know what it's like to not be believed & to have people side with the abuser because of their "sheep like" standing. Please don't be quick to judge those when you don't know the whole story!

Power, power and more power, is what the Jehovah's Witness organization has over its "sheep". This power is what keeps its members from speaking out, doubting policies, and in any way disagreeing with its policies.

I would like to thank you for this web-site, from the bottom of my heart. I will submit my story to you as soon as I can prepare it. I was a victim of cruelty for the first 13 years of my life, being physically and sexually abused by my stepfather, whose name will be disclosed in my official letter as he was finally charged by the Supreme court of these crimes (after 13 years).

But it is not only him I blame, but the elders and entire organization Jehovah's Witnesses, who kept this matter a "secret", never alerting the authorities of at least the physical abuse that was often performed at social functions, never inquiring about why me and my siblings were always bruised from head to toe, why we flinched at his every move. But questioning the policies is not allowed within the organization; there is no room for self expression or asking "why", this would be considered blasphemy, the only unforgivable sin. Upon submission of "my story" I will then be considered an apostate, but if that's the worst that can happen to me for exposing this cult-like organization and hopefully helping other victims, then it is well worth it. God is the only one who can judge me. I will visit your web-site often, because up until yesterday, I thought that me and my sister were the only ones brave enough to discuss the discrepancies and hypocrisies and wide-spread physical and sexual abuse within the organization. As stated earlier, I will submit an actual letter stating my case, so other "lambs" can feel comfort in knowing they are not the only ones who have suffered, and to varying degrees are likely still suffering from these injustices. I am now 30 years old and am considered inactive (I stopped attending meetings about 7 years ago), but the doubts were present as a child, which makes me wonder how in the world can these "adults" continue to follow such an organization? I guess they just continue to keep their "eyes on the prize".

Hello everyone, I think everyone on this site should take a few moments and purchase candles from our brave friend Bill.

How do we go about doing ?? I will try to make it clear and perhaps we will all be able to help support our dear bro Bill in his time of need.

Michael in Canada

I was raised a JW and am currently inactive at the age of 23. I plan to NEVER return. I know 2 women very close to me who were abused by there JW stepfather. Both women are no longer active and still healing after 20 years. The offenders still belong to the congregation. All though they were disfellowshipped at the time, no further action was taken by the society. I feel for every victim who did not get the support that was so needed. Please believe that a Loving God like Jehovah would not allow his "true organization" to be run this way. I also feel for the millions of Witness that are blinded to the actual truth. This is not Gods Organization.
I just read from you saying that you will write your story about your stepfathers abuse. I am so happy with tears in my eyes that you are going to tell your story. Have faith in Jehovah he will never leave you for speaking the truth. The truth is what we are taught being a Jehovah's witness right? so why are you going to be an apostate? I have sent in my letter saying I will no longer attend the meetings. I have set my eye on the prize!! Jehovah has let everything be known. He will continue to let things known! Babylon the great is falling. Ours along with many more! True Christians will only be led by Jehovah and his son. I will be waiting for many more of you to take courage and stand up for the TRUTH!!!!!!! Thank you for all the support Jehovah's witnesses and ex-witnesses..

Margaret Silvia: I wish Witnesses could hear themselves talk. To suggest that 'Jehovah is bringing these things to light' via those that are gaining exposure to the media is to also suppose that Jehovah was waiting. It supposes that Jehovah was allowing elders in His organization to abuse, or allow to be abused, innocent children. That fatalistic attitude is exactly the core of the problem! Witnesses use that attitude to justify standing by and allowing this savagery to be perpetrated on young children.

I would like to hear from one active Witness that is willing to re-examine Witness 'current understanding' (aka: self-interested justification) against the major themes of the New Testament. Please don't quote individual verses out of context - that is an endless cycle and ignores the overriding principles of Christianity. We ALL need to care for and protect those that need it - and that applies in largest measure to children.

The biggest issue Witnesses face is that an honest assessment of their dogma will shatter their blinders-on, we-are-the-truth self image.

- Buster

Dear Mr. Bowen,

God Bless you for what you are doing. Keep your chin up and your fists raised against the injustices going on in the Kingdom Halls.

To whom it may concern, I am in need of anyone who can help my family. My husband was molested as a child, his siblings (who I might add does not want to go against her father), and years later asked me to consent to having intercourse, bondage, etc. My husband never spoke of this abuse until 5 years ago which is when he had tried to commit suicide, and finally told me. About a year later my child tried to stab a fellow student at school with a pencil because a child tried to put play handcuffs on him. Nothing could have ever prepared me for what I saw when I got the call to come to the school immediately. My son who was 8 at the time was in a ball on the floor rocking, screaming he's going to kill you and my daddy. Police came, we have done the counseling for years, We took him to care house where they interviewed him, found his allegations to be true, And still we have no resolve. My husbands sister has 3 or more children, and knowingly takes them over there all the time. Some Mother! But I guess when your own mother tolerates this you learn to sweep it under the rug. Well I nor my husband is going to sweep this under the rug. Repressed memory is hard to prove they tell my husband. But what if you were raised in this religion to do nothing and just fear the next time you are left alone with him. He blocked it out because he knew no other life. We thought that after that sickening phone call we were lucky because at least our children weren't being abused. How wrong were we. He had already abused our eldest son. Thank god our other son was only 5 weeks old and was never left alone with him. A cousin has come forward and also endured the same abuse, (bondage/fondling etc.) and yet were still sitting in the same place. So this man and wife are allowed to go on acting as if they are Jehovah's witnesses, they are the perfect parents, and have a normal life. While my son is still afraid of everyone and everything. My husband cries a lot because he is reliving the pain he blocked out through his son. Please Help !!!!! Any info is welcome. Thank-You For listening. . . . Peg And Don J

P.S. They still attend the Kingdom Hall In Roseville Mi. Please to all be aware!

Horace and Pamela J. I Will sleep at night someday when you are punished for what you have done. Remember when you belittled my family because we weren't Jehovah's Witnesses, Thank God I never was. And thank god, I was raised in a safe loving environment, the way it should be. And a note to Pam and Sandy, Stop living in denial, and I will pray that you can live with yourselves, for putting the precious lives of children in danger. (A mother is supposed to protect her young always!) but then again you are "no" mother!

This is my letter to the governing body. I hope for all concerned that enough letters are sent and something will be done. My e-mail is lmatheny@emtecae.com I would not mind if any lovers of Jehovah contact me. June 5, 2002

Governing Body Watchtower 25 Columbia Heights Brooklyn, NY 11201

Dear Brothers,

I am not articulate; so please forgive the way I put things. I was baptized July 9, 1965 in San Diego, California. I am convinced that what I learned many years ago was and is the truth. Many things along the way have had to be clarified and refined, but that is O.K. I don't expect the Faithful Slave to be any more perfect than I am. Now there is a great storm upon Jehovah's people. He is allowing it for a reason. Wolves among the flock are harming some of his precious children. This storm will not pass until you, the Governing Body, repent and turn around and make amends for the pain and suffering caused by the crying children. While you sit on your hands or stick your head in the sand, we on the front lines must answer the humiliating accusations of an angry public who already doesn't like us. But I will endure humiliation as Jehovah disciplines you. There will be many that will not. You will answer to Jehovah for that also. It seems so simple. Apologize in the media and the Watchtower magazine for the pain and suffering that has been caused by ignorant and arrogant elders. Open the files no matter how old. Turn over the names to the authorities. They are Jehovah's ministers to avenge the countless victims. The only ones that will be angry, will be the guilty or perhaps the ones who helped hide the malicious crime. Romans 13:3,4 is so plain. Those in the congregation who commit crimes against both God and Caesar have no one to blame but themselves. I had to go back to 1966 to find those verses discussed in the book "Life Everlasting – In Freedom of the Son's of God" page 206. I do take exception of the phrase "outside the congregation". I really don't think that qualifier applies. The book says, "Even the congregation with which he has associated has no right to protect him from receiving any deserved punishment at the hands of the Law or 'authority.' Thus even toward the members of the 'congregation of God' the 'authority' of the land can act as 'God's minister, an avenger to express wrath upon the one practicing what is bad.'"
The superior authorities have laws set up for the public order. The book "True Peace and Security How Can You Find It" (1986) page 132-136 is enlightening. Page 132 says "The laws put into force by them are not to be disregarded."
And " in large measure, secular laws work for good. They help maintain order and assure a measure of protection for people and their property." Page 134 says, " At times a person may feel that he can ignore authority and do what he pleases because he is not likely to get caught and punished." This happens time and again when Elders try to play Policeman. They are ill equipped and untrained in criminal justice procedures. That is the responsibility of Jehovah's ministers, the superior authority, to avenge punishment on criminals. To circumvent that arrangement, to go ahead of Jehovah's provision and handle matters of a criminal nature "in-house" is to be guilty of taking a stand "against the arrangement of God". By protecting the criminal from punishment and silencing the victims The WBTS has made itself an accomplice to the crime. Eli did not commit the atrocities but he knew about what his sons had done and did not take steps to rid Jehovah's house of the disgusting filth. Is this any different? I am sure that about now you think I am parroting what others have said without any personal knowledge to base it on. My story is not nearly as bad as some I have read. I have been tormented by old memories lately since the Dateline piece aired. I had carefully packed the memories away, buried under other old memories, hidden in the back of the closet of my mind. Now every day it seems that another memory from that box is unwrapped and open to be freshly examined. The mind is amazing. Memories 20 and 30 years old can bring back feelings and emotions as intense as if it happened yesterday.
The old memories have been reactivated by the knowledge that my experience was not isolated. Worse things have happened, thousands of times, to other trusting Christians under the supposed watchful care of spiritual shepherds.
When I realized that it was more than the Riverview, Florida congregation that had this type of corruption I was heart sick (no, I was just plain sick). I was determined to continue attending meetings. Jesus attended meetings at the temple and synagogue even though he knew it was full of vipers. I moved my family to another town away from the Riverview congregation. I convinced myself that Jehovah would take care of them. But how could He? I was effectively silenced. He didn't have my help. He didn't have the help of anyone else in that congregation. Every one there was cooperating with the status quo. What did I expect Jehovah to do? Send a bolt of lightning to disintegrate the kingdom hall? At that time I was too weak to stand up against the body of elders. I could barely crawl to another kingdom hall. I now attend a fine loving congregation. It has problems but not like some. I wish that the elders had of told me about the pedophile in this congregation, instead a member of his family did. But at least I can be careful about allowing my granddaughters to be alone with him. He is a fine man and progressing in Bible knowledge, but he has a problem. If I wanted to hire a security guard for a wine store I would certainly want to know if the applicant was a recovering alcoholic. Similarly I feel I need to know if a pedophile is in my congregation since I have "at risk " children. I feel compelled to speak out now and add my voice to the hundreds, perhaps thousands, who cry out for justice. The heartless, secret judicial system must end. Judicial matters belong in the city gates or at least before the entire congregation. Not hidden away in a tiny room where victims of abuse feel victimized again. There has to be a better way. Search the Scriptures until you find the answer. I have confidence that you are the faithful shepherd. This storm will continue until you satisfy Jehovah's sense of justice. We are counting on you. Please do not let us down.

Sincerely with heartfelt love, Your Sister’ xxxxxxxxx Bayshore Congregation, Tampa, Florida

Peg and Don,

Sorry, I have no advice to offer. But I want to say that I have been reading posts on this site for a while now and yours was the most moving I've read. I feel such extreme anguish and wish there was something I could do.

I am a JW in NYC. I have no stories and only now of few. In my 21 yrs as a witness their are various things that I must admit I do not agree with. But when looking deep into the religion and its word one must admit that it is refreshing. Nothing and no one I perfect. But to turn ones back on Jehovah is definitely not the way to reconcile any issue. When dealing with men (which this sight is doing) you have to keep in my mind the true purpose. I question whether the person of the "Silent Lambs" is to show the mis handling by the congregation or to destroy the Christian brotherhood. I am a baptized sister and I do not disagree with exposing wrong doing. In the same sense I do feel their is another way to work these types of situations out without bringing it to such a level. At this point it is hard to say I approve and am OK with the fact that I even looked here. One must realize that Jehovah is in your heart and you must achieve salvation for yourself. I am not sure if this is the way to go about that though. Regardless, I hope that the all of the "Silent Lambs" and the header of the organization do not give up their faith in Jehovah. Whatever has been done to you was by men. Jehovah will deal with them in due time. Do not let MEN dictate your salvation.

Skeptical: Again, I gotta point it out, if you could hear yourself speak you would be embarrassed. 'Whatever was done to you was done by men', are you kidding? It is that fatalistic attitude that allows you to sit back and let it happen. If Jehovah has a preferred Org. on Earth, then he would certainly expect that all it's members would do their best to root out child abusers. Yes, God expects you to do what you can. You should be ashamed of yourself for having the idea that you should wait.

Also, it is time again to point out that you and other Witnesses continue to equate attacking evil practices in the organization as the same as turning one's back on God. It isn't. In fact, railing against child abuse and those that tolerate it is a very Christian avocation.

Hey girl, this is your aunt, Lin. I'm happy to see you are on here. I know you are in a lot of pain due to what my younger brother did to you many years ago. But, of course, it seems almost like yesterday, right? Believe me, I understand that. Boy do I understand that. I hope that being on Silentlams will be of some comfort to you, especially to let you see you are definitely not alone. It tears my heart out to know how my brother hurt you, and how it swept under the carpet even amongst our family. I didn't become aware until many years later, when your mom told me after your parents divorced. To know my own brother molested you, and I had a pedophile for a brother, rips me apart. Thinking of him having been in our house with my two little daughters, ugh........

Then my own son was anally raped by John Milenger (Palatine, IL Cong) multiple times and threatened if he told. John has since died, lucky dog! Death was too easy for him, he deserved much more.......and I would have been only too happy to assist in bringing it all on him. All the difficulties and heartaches and struggles I've had with Andre. Here he was raped himself, only to keep it to himself for so many years, subsequently molest his littlest sister and has been in jail for four years now because of it. My son, a victim and also perpetrator, suffers but John is just.......dead, no pain no suffering.

Please call your sister or your mom and ask them for my email address, since there's been problems with people here sending viruses.

Your aunt Lin

 consider Jehovah's Witnesses. I feel that no matter what religion you're in NO ONE, NOT NO ONE should rely on no person to control your thoughts as to what procedure to take in regard to child molestation.(If that has happened,Oh Boy!) If a crime has been committed against any family member. No matter what anyone says, one should take the matter to the authorities and not to mere men because you are the only one that can give account of the incident and parents should take responsibility for their own children and not look for the pastor to do it.

Now if these pastors. I forgot, elders state that you will be put out for doing so. GO TO THE AUTHORITIES TO GET THE PROOF NEEDED,DNA/Lie Detector tests etc. Then hopefully, these church people will see that you have the proof to show that these people are actually guilty and maybe they will believe and take action then. If not, still go on and take the next legal step. Don't be afraid of mere men!

It seems like one would not have to take these extreme measures to prove a crime, but there have been cases on talk shows where people have been accused of child molestation, the one accused was put in jail and had to serve time. On down the line it was proven that the person was not guilty of the crime after all, in some cases, because the child admitted that they falsely accused the person years after they have been put in prison. Now this person have a criminal scar because of the lie this child has told. There have been those such cases that have taken place too, you know.

So I guess those few cases put people in situations sometimes where they don't know what to do in the matter as to children reporting abuse. But, once it is found out, some sympathy should be given toward the abused.

No matter how we worship God, me must not downgrade one religion over another even though they might worship God in their so called way. "Do not return evil for evil!" I don't think that is "What Jesus Would Do!"
Downgrading people in this Jehovah Witness religion will just drive them away and not draw them to Jesus. I don't think Jesus would like that.

I've got a question, what if someone murdered another person and there was only one witness to that murder, would the witness as a JW go to the elders first, and would they contact the legal department of the WT Society Headquarters to handle this case? Would that witness be threatened with disfellowshipping if he reported this crime to the police? Whether it is rape or murder it is still a crime, no religion can make a determination as to whether it should be reported or not. Any religion that feels that it is above the law (which Jehovah has put in the hearts of men) is in the wrong! I know how intimidating the Organization and the Congregations of JW's can be when it comes to an individual to think on his own. Dare to think for yourselves and if a crime is committed, call the authorities. Nobody has the right to violate another and no religion should spiritually rape the victim for reporting the crime.

I am a victim of sexual molestation at the hands of my father, and elder in the congregation. The cover up of molestations dates far back! They made me feel like I had to repent when I told! Jaws are nothing but a sick cult. The public needs to be informed as much as possible! JaneBarsoom@msn.com

I accept your challenge, i.e.: I would like to hear from one active Witness that is willing to re-examine Witness 'current understanding' (aka: self-interested justification) against the major themes of the New Testament.

I guess you can call me an active witness, although only until the end of this month.

Imagine a country called “Christianity”. This country has many strange laws but we are only going to consider one. We will examine. …Does anyone of YOU that has a case against the other dare to go to court before unrighteous men, and not before the holy ones? 1 Cor 6:1

In Christianity this scripture is used to stifle ANY taking of brothers to court for any injustice whether small or grievous.

Let's us use our imaginations and a little reasoning and common sense to see the outcome for the country of “Christianity.”
Any Predator could apply for citizenship and as long as he ONLY preyed on his fellow citizens he would be safe from prosecution.

Predators would be totally safe in Christianity, because its leaders are able to simply forgive him for any crime. Justice for victims is rarely practiced in this country. However if worse came to worse and the predator were convicted, he would only be asked to leave Christianity. There is no other penalty. He could always repent and return. Immigration statistics for Christianity show predators always return because conditions are harsh in other nations for their type.

But surely a predator who had cultivated the ability to “court” and then rape a little child would seldom be deported from Christianity. He would also be an expert at outsmarting the silly leaders of this country.

And that's just one type of criminal protected in Christianity. We would also coddle child and wife beaters, essentially just any type of evil at all would be tolerated based on the 1 Cor 6:1 law.

Christianity would soon become blight to the nations around it for it would be filled with every type of manipulating criminal, and who knows when they would cross the border.

Christianity wouldn't be a very nice place for decent people who actually tried to apply the scriptures as explained to them by their leaders. They would be victimized, silenced and destroyed. But they would of course be thrown out of Christianity if they weren't willing to allow this to happen.

The only justice former members of Christianity would be found in other countries.

Christianity would allow someone like Clement Pandello (who admitted to molesting little girls for 40 yrs) and Mr. Fitzwater (who the WBTS knew had molested 17 children) full citizenship.

Who else would benefit from the law of 1 Cor 6:1 in Christianity?

Any cooperation that is willing to hide injustice to protect its reputation rather than caring for suffering members.

Any organization determined to never be forced to pay out money in lawsuits regardless of its deeds.

All the Bible Commentators I found on the Internet explain 1 Cor 6:1 as pertaining to small or even trivial matters. The types of matters settled by mediation today.

So did Watchtower 7/1 1961 p.415 (probably other places too).....The synagogue was the place where all minor cases involving Jews were heard and disposed of; and so also the apostle Paul argues that Christians should let the mature ones in the congregation judge matters rather than go to worldly courts to settle differences between themselves.

In Christianity Jehovah God would have great reproach heaped on his name and the many, many tears shed on his altar.

Thank you Bill Bowen, Barbara Anderson, Date Line and all others involved for your courage, commitment and hard work in bringing this terrible thing into the open. Certainly many children and adults who have been hurt in the past will be encouraged and find help through what you have accomplished, and much more pain and destruction of young lives will be averted. You have also further exposed the Watchtower Society in yet more of their hurtful dictates, which will help many more sincere Witnesses to know that Jehovah's will is not accomplished through the Watchtower. May God bless you all and many, many more through your efforts. My Sincere Thanks, Ted Brown P.S. My 17 year old son who has been raised by my wife as a witness saw the program on tape. I hope to persuade my wife to see it as well. My e-mail address is tedwardbrown@hotmail.com the watchtower society USED to apply the scripture about not taking your brothers to court to civil suits .... NOW I see it being applied to protecting child molesters ... did Paul REALLY mean to allow your children to be molested when he said 'why not let yourself be wronged?' ... if this is the new light teaching from the organization ... then I guess I AM an apostate ... or would I be one if I went back to the organization that is promoting such UNchristian attitudes? after all ... when I was dedicated and baptized it was in line with the old teaching of protecting our children ... even though what was practiced was far afield from what was preached ... so to all you FAITHFUL ones ... do I betray my children ... my "inheritance from Jehovah's" and go back to their abusers? ... will going back to the lying, corruption and cover up make me LESS APOSTATE? or will it make me MORE? do I humbly ask for forgiveness from the elders who added their own abuse to my children? ... will that make me a better Christian? a better Jehovah's's witness? ... many of you are saying just that ...,

I was raised in the White Rock congregation here in Dallas, Texas. I started studying, before my parents, when I was 9 and I honestly, truly believed everything I was taught at the Hall. It was all I had. That changed when as an adult, I was forced to deal with my abusive childhood. That was 14 years ago. Interestingly, no one in that cold and gossipy congregation had any problem believing my family was not only dysfunctional, but incestuous. It's amazing, but the cruel and harsh attitude the elders, as well as the rest of that congregation expressed toward myself and my wife sometimes feels as fresh as if it happened yesterday. One elder told me that a child can hurt a parent more than a parent hurt a child. I guess he's never been sodomized. Another was very proud of the fact that he and his wife were regular pioneers and their 2 small daughters were auxiliary pioneers. When they were interviewed on stage, and asked what they did for fun, one of the girls said, "We go out in service." Some fun. My heart went out to them then, as it does now. This elder told me that Jehovah was far too busy to be interested in my "petty little problem." Someone very wise and kind once said, "You will know my followers because they have love among themselves."

My father was, and still is a ministerial servant. He, and the rest of my family of origin are still held up as paragons of virtue. I, my wife and children, are not. I'm glad now that I had my name legally changed. It was a dirty name given to me by dirty people who now live in a whitewashed grave They are surrounded by a hypocritical and hollow people who lost something very precious somewhere along the way. And yet, after reading through this site, what happened to me is not even on the radar screen compared to the hideous things this religion has done to others.

I don't care what the Bible says, I don't care what scriptures are used and twisted, what has happened is wrong. It was wrong then. It is wrong now. It is eternally wrong! I cannot and will not believe in any god who approves of hiding or protecting a rapist, a pedophile, while shunning, blackballing or in any other way punishing the victim of the crime. Nor can I believe in any god who approves of disfellowshipping (spiritually killing) anyone who stands up to say "Enough! This must stop!" Forget biblical love, whatever happened to common human decency? Realize and believe this: not EVERY man, woman or child who screams, "Rape!" is lying. Some of us, just wish we were.

Peace

Clergy "privilege" is for those who confess their sins - did you say someone confessed they were a pedophile ? Or are you saying if a child accuses someone of being a pedophile the pedophile is protected by the state??? You are mixed up.

The law applies to a person who CONFESSES to his clergy that he committed a crime.

TO THE FOLKS THAT RECEIVE THE VIRUS - can you help us identify it so that people won't stop leaving their email addresses? These people would like us to not communicate.

TO "STOP SPREADING LIES. YOU ARE WORSE THAN APOSTATES" - I say to you : stop spreading hatefulness, you are hurting Jehovah's spirit. Really you are.

There are worse things than being called apostate by a jerk such as being so closed off from own thinking that you can't comprehend the truth of what is being said.

We are not offended that you are so offended - you are pitiful. You are making an ass of yourself. Does it not say in the bible that we are to look at all sides of the matter before responding??? Or do you really believe there is only one side to the story and the other side is a lie???? Stop making a fool of yourself. Read Proverbs, say your prayers and go to bed like a good little boy. Or maybe you are a pedophile afraid that you are loosing control of your resource ?? MMMMMM.....maybe that is what you are:

COMMON BOND: That was very good of Common Bond to clear up the matter of their link to this site. I'm sure we all believed that "William Bowen" was endorsing Common Bond in his "spare time." Another tactic to "DIVIDE PEOPLE AND CAUSE DIVISION" and not trust anyone but the WTS. How stupid.

GOOD IDEA ABOUT THE CANDLES. Bill: maybe you could raise money by having ads on the site? Or a ad sponsor section for us to view.

I downloaded the letter from United Nations - feel like nailing it to the KH door. I have not authenticated but I will.

The stories are heartbreaking. Truly heartbreaking. Amen

The WT Org are still shouting about the end of this wicked system, But I for one think it will be the end of their evil Org and all the lies and deceits that go along with it. The web had opened up a whole new ball game, people aren't as dumb as they use to be, and the info on the net and this site will certainly make a few think twice about getting involved. What I find most amazing is these people who profess to be lovers of God can commit these acts to another human being, in a lot of cases their own flesh and blood. If it truly was Gods organization on earth, don't you think that God would have got all the prophecies right first time, like he did to Moses, noah, ect. they didn't have to wait for NEW light..LOL..and don't you think he would enlighten the 144,000 left here on earth at this present time of what was going on with child/wife abuse within the borg, like he did to lot in Sodom and Gomorrah..Strange don't you think?? How naive can we be to be taken in with such a load of trash. If anyone would like to chat, or need someone to talk to please don't hesitate to look our community up on the msn.chat room listings worldwide web..JehovahWitnessRecovery..chatroom, for XJWs and friends..with Christian love Pinkcloud..ps. wonderful job you are doing, keep up the good fight

I've been reading the stories and they are interesting. It is hard to get over years of pain. A friend of mine had me to look at this site. I've been doing research in regards to both sides. I did a brief survey with several Jehovah's Witnesses that I know about the issue. I did a survey with several Jehovah's Witnesses that I know about the issue. I did a brief survey with several Jehovah's Witnesses that I know about the issue. A good many of them watched the Dateline program. Which goes to show that some of these witnesses believe in some teachings of the Watchtower but at the same time they do have a mind of their own in that if their leaders dictate that they should not do this or that in regards to what television programs to watch and other things, they have enough sense to make up their own minds and not be guided by men.

I'm shocked about that since people say that it is a cult.

I did a survey and asked them did they think that the policy needed to be changed?

With the group that was willing to take the survey stated and felt that if that happened in their family, they would take responsibility and report it to the police on their own. They stated that the policy that Bill want to put into effect is claimed to be followed by the Watchtower Society. The problem is that the elders in these congregations are not following it. The Watchtower makes the rules, but if the people that are put in these positions are not following it, then you have a problem.

(I guess that is why Bill is having a problem proving his point. The Watchtower feels that the policy he is talking about is in effect already. So what is there to change? Think about it.)

The ones I interviewed think the policy should be: The elders that do not follow the guidelines regarding child abuse, will be deleted of all responsibilities.

The ones that I interviewed don't care if an elder tell them don't go to the police. If their child has been abused by someone in the congregation family member or not, they are going to the police.

I went over again some of the issues in the Dateline program and they feel that if you have a list of 23,000 molesters and if the Watchtower did not turn in that information to the police, you have the obligation to turn it in to the police.
The last questions I asked was Did they feel that the Watchtower was "God's Prophet on Earth?" The answer was: The Watchtower is only a legal agency that Jehovah's Witnesses use if some look at it as a God, then they are in error.

and I asked about the 1975 issue it was interesting to note that not all witnesses thought that 1975 was the end of the world. That was not taught everywhere. They admitted that(some) taught that, but they never believed it. How interesting.

So, from my research I came to the conclusion that there are different beliefs among the Jehovah's Witnesses. Since the organization change their rules so much. For instance, the one that left in 1975 might believe one thing, the one in 2002 believe another. Some that quote information from the 1940's that Jehovah Witnesses believed, is altogether new in 2002.

So next year we don't know what they might believe. Many of you are just going by what happened during the time period you were in there. My heart goes out to you anyway. I just wanted to past my information on to you anyway. I'm writing it for the summer semester.

TO CHRISTOPHER SCOTT.........

Wow, someone I actually knew at one time!!! Chris, I vaguely recall hearing rumors about your family, and "claims of abuse". But that's all I remember, since I always tried to stay away from gossip. It wouldn't surprise me in the least if you my own father, Mel Thoman, was very involved in your case in some form since he was and still is an elder there. And, it wouldn't surprise me in the least if my own father weren't the elder who said your situation was a "petty problem". It sounds much like him, unfortunately.

I'm glad to see you are still happily married and with children. I'm so sorry you went through all you experienced, my own family has been affected personally as well. My own son, while we living in Palatine, Illinois was anally raped many times (by John Milenger) and he was only in the second grade. My son, now twenty years old, is soon to be released from juvenile jail after serving four out of twenty years for molesting my youngest daughter. My son served his time, but John Milenger simply died of heart failure many years ago, which in my opinion is too easy a death for someone who ruined my little boy and caused him to eventually molest his own little sister.

My heart goes out to you Christopher, and my thoughts are with you and your wife and children.

Linda Thoman DF'd in '95 Thank God!!!!!

To Margaret Silvia: I use to attend the Stoughton Kingdom Hall. I left because of abuse that went unreported. Those people who have been abused will have to live with that for the rest of their lives. That organization and congregation foster an environment where molestation flourishes in secrecy. Please open your eyes to what is going on in that congregation as well as in the organization.
I just feel that if you were really sincere in what you were doing you would not be asking for money, especially the Visa Mastercard button that does not disappear. I don’t expect anyone to read this because obviously you won’t post it.

College Student,

Here are some quotes from Watchtower magazines and various publications by the WTBTS:

The men of Sodom will be resurrected (WT, 7-1879, 7-8).

The men of Sodom will not be resurrected (WT, 6-1-1952, 338).

The men of Sodom will be resurrected (WT 8-1-1965, 479).

The men of Sodom will not be resurrected (WT 6-1-1988, 31).

The men of Sodom will be resurrected (Live Forever, early ed., 179).

The men of Sodom will not be resurrected (Live Forever, later ed., 179).

The men of Sodom will be resurrected (Insight on the Scriptures, Vol. 2, 985).

The men of Sodom will not be resurrected (Revelation: Its Grand Climax at Hand! 273).

This is but one example of the editors of the publications changing dogma. Which is it? Are the men of Sodom and Gomorrah going to be resurrected or not? They cannot decide on that.

Not that they should. Who are they to judge a group of people almost 7000 years ago?

Regarding 1975. I was there. I can find many Watchtower and Awake magazine articles that reference the year 1975. The society only back tracked when nothing happened in 1975. People sold businesses and property, quit jobs, dropped out of school and spent money in a frenzy because Armageddon was coming in the fall of 1975. They even gave us the time of year.

Just like they did with 1914, 1918 and 1925.

There is soooo much documentation on these failed prophecies that it is laughable.
The argument that they are men and will have failings is a weak argument. They are telling people that they are the “faithful and discreet slave” and what they say is inspired.

>>>Is not the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society the one and only channel which the Lord has used in dispensing his truth continually since the beginning of the harvest period?>>>

Watchtower 1919 April 1 p.6414

A group of imperfect men who get so many dates wrong, cannot be God's only channel in dispensing his truth.

Do some research and discover the history of the Jehovah's Witnesses. You will be surprised by what you find.

When I heard about the Dateline program and started visiting this website, I told myself that I would let someone else fight the battle this time. My darling husband Christopher and I fought his battle 14 years ago and have a box full of letters to and from the Society, notes from meetings with elders, transcripts of conversations with relatives and elders, etc. All fruitless. It was like beating our heads against a concrete wall. My father, a well-respected older man of the Anointed class, supported my husband and, as a consequence, never again was given a part on a circuit or district convention. And once my husband stopped going to meetings, it was as though I was invisible. I actually had an elder ask me brightly, on my first visit to our new Kingdom Hall, "And who do you belong to?" Yes, I still go to meetings because I don't know of any other organization that teaches the Bible the way I believe to be true.

I STRONGLY disapprove of how the Society's current policies treat (or, rather, don't treat) the subject of child abuse, and I cannot keep silent. It would be so simple for the elders, when told by a victim of their abuse, to say "do you want to go to the police or shall I do it for you?" -- end of problem. And how hard would it be to show love to a battered little lamb? If a sheep is lost, does the shepherd wait for the sheep to call HIM before going to find it? Because of all the rules that the elders are told to follow, it has made them, for the most part -- there are still some very loving brothers who are trying hard and I think we're hearing from a lot of them in this website -- afraid to express an emotion other than censorship.

I hope that this outcry will reach the hearts of the honest-hearted brothers out there. I remember Br. Henschel from my childhood, when he was Zone Servant for the Caribbean, and I always had the impression of a very earnest, truthful person who wanted to do the right thing. I hope he still is.

Jesika, my dear little lamb, I remember you so well. It tore my heart out back in White Rock when you were on the platform with your sister, very dispiritedly talking about how all you did was go out in service. No fun, no normal childhood activities. And then to find out about all of the abuse -- sweetie, I firmly believe with all my heart that you have a special place in Jehovah's heart, as you do in mine. E-mail me if you like -- I'd love to hear from you and I would NEVER treat you like a ghost. Linda, I remember you too, and I am truly sorry that you have gone through so much with your family. We have an 8-year-old daughter and a 6-year-old son and the thought of anything happening to them makes us both rather homicidal. I can only imagine the pain you've been through.

Lots of love to all on this website, Christina Scott (formerly Presley; Bibbee before that) cscott@mckoolsmith.com

Hi, my name is Jesika Thoman, I'm the oldest daughter of Michael Thoman. I remember as a child going over to your house. For some reason what sticks out is playing where is Carmen San Diego on the computer. I didn't have any memories of you or your wife until I saw your name (the one before you changed it). My aunt has already told you about her run in with sexual abuse, and how she believes our family was probably involved in saying some harsh things to you (my grandfather Mel and maybe even my dad). The irony is that Mel's youngest son (Mike is the oldest of 6 children) molested me when I was 4. My family even now (most of the Thoman's) still refuse to address the issue since it was "so long ago". I was disfellowshipped when I turned 15, I'm 26 now and I have an 8yr old son. My younger sister Charice is 24 inactive and has a 3yr old son. My parents are divorced and they are both remarried. My mom Vilma is no longer attending meetings and has married a "worldly" man. I'm glad you are still married, I remember your wife was really nice and we enjoyed being around her. I bet she is a great mom!!!! Are you still in the Dallas area? I'm glad you didn't listen to what the elders told you, they were wrong. It's nice to see that you have moved on with your life. With love-

Jesika Thoman--WHITE ROCK CONG. DALLAS, TX

I would like to add that anyone on this site should look into Meghan's Law. This law was enacted in California. Go to google.com and type in Meghan's Law. You will find it. Research it.

I would like to see addressed, by a practicing witness, why "lay clergy" are allowed to do family counseling?

The elders are uneducated and untrained in issues of family and counseling. Why are elders and the society getting involved in this? These molestation charges are criminal. I do not know of any JW who is a police officer.

If you are a practicing JW, please address this.

I was raised in the truth and am third generation. I know the rules and background.

God does not dole out money from heaven. Bill is one man. This site is not for entertainment or just to bash JW's or ex-JW's. Bill with in reason has allowed each of us to decide our own conduct. Some people have shown restraint, others have been rageful. I have had feeling on both sides of that fence. This site has a bigger purpose than the WT. It is here to serve violated children. This site can if used correctly break the cycle of abuse. In child molestation the victim often later becomes the abuser. The same id true for physically abused children. If a boy sees his Father hit his mother then he often later hits his wife and his own children. Any male helpless to protect his mother from his Father's dark side will understand. Women who see their mother dominated mentally and physically often seeks males that are all to willing to provide that kind of lifestyle. It seems that the Jehovah's Witnesses breeds "Authority Personalities." That is sad. It is true that they by far not the only group that does. All patriarch societies do it to some extent. If I could only allow these people to see the Bible in "True" light instead of "new" light they would stop. Pathetically they (Meaning most people) still wish to use the Bible to justify their actions and beliefs. Thus the need to constant change views.

I hope soon that we can all speak freely without being targeted by individuals or organizations who fear people who are only speaking honestly.

I do not know what is sicker rapists or you turning your back on Jehovah God, and to make things even worst you are asking for donations!!!! You should know better that being a true Witness does not mean being perfect.It sadness me that you are doing this publicly to damage this beautiful organization and God's name

I hope you reconsider before is to late!

My friend is going to be mad with me for using her computer so much. But, she is the one that showed me this website. Whoever gave the list of documentation on the Watchtower, thanks for the help. I might use it in my paper. I have so much to work with.

It is unique as to how they change their teachings. The reason might be due to who was the President at the time and how they felt things should be operated, from what I read. Or the reason could lie on the person/persons that wrote these subjects. Who knows, there might have been different people that wrote these subjects and they were writing as to how they thought it should go. or The real ugly reason could be to confuse the ones that left. If you try to bring out a point that the Watchtower said, lets say in 1919,1950,1975 I can go on and on. They can say with ease "We don't believe that anymore!" "Look at what we believe now!" so the information that you are using to prove your point is useless. The information might be what they believed then, but they don't believe it now. Someone told me that they are not mailing Watchtowers no more, maybe the reason is that if the outsiders don't know what is going on inside, all the outsiders can do is rely on old information which is out of date.

All of what I'm saying is just my theory. It is something to think about.
Thanks again for your info whoever you are. When I get my degree. I'm working hard to finish school. I might write a book on Human Behavior dealing with mind control as to how far can one be influenced or let themselves be influenced. I haven't figured out the title yet. I'm thinking about doing that but I'm not making any promises. I'll be glad when my computer get fixed.

Post from JW-media.org Jehovah's Witnesses and Child Protection

Child abuse is abhorrent to us. This is in harmony with the principle recorded at Romans 12:9. Even one abused child is one too many. For decades The Watchtower and Awake! have featured articles to educate both Witnesses and the public regarding the importance and the need to protect children from child abuse. Among others, there was the article "Let Us Abhor What Is Wicked!" published in the January 1, 1997, issue of The Watchtower; "Help for the Victims of Incest" in the October 1, 1983, Watchtower, "Your Child Is in Danger!", "How Can We Protect Our Children?", and "Prevention in the Home", all in the October 8, 1993, Awake!, as well as "Child Molesting—Every Mother's Nightmare," in the January 22, 1985, Awake!

When any one of Jehovah's Witnesses is accused of an act of child abuse, the local congregation elders are expected to investigate. Two elders meet separately with the accused and the accuser to see what each says on the matter. If the accused denies the charge, the two elders may arrange for him and the victim to restate their position in each other's presence, with elders also there. If during that meeting the accused still denies the charges and there are no others who can substantiate them, the elders cannot take action within the congregation at that time. Why not? As a Bible-based organization, we must adhere to what the Scriptures say, namely, "No single witness should rise up against a man respecting any error or any sin . . . At the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses the matter should stand good." (Deuteronomy 19:15) Jesus reaffirmed this principle as recorded at Matthew 18:15-17. However, if two persons are witnesses to separate incidents of the same kind of wrongdoing, their testimony may be deemed sufficient to take action.

However, even if the elders cannot take congregational action, they are expected to report the allegation to the branch office of Jehovah's Witnesses in their country, if local privacy laws permit. In addition to making a report to the branch office, the elders may be required by law to report even uncorroborated or unsubstantiated allegations to the authorities. If so, we expect the elders to comply. Additionally, the victim may wish to report the matter to the authorities, and it is his or her absolute right to do so.

If, when confronted, the accused confesses that he is guilty of child abuse, the elders take appropriate congregational action. If he is not repentant, he will not be permitted to remain a member of the congregation. Even if he is repentant—is cut to the heart and is thus resolutely determined to avoid such conduct in the future—what was stated in the January 1, 1997, issue of The Watchtower applies. The article said: "For the protection of our children, a man known to have been a child molester does not qualify for a responsible position in the congregation. Moreover, he cannot be a pioneer [full-time missionary of Jehovah's Witnesses] or serve in any other special, full-time service." He would not qualify Scripturally. (1 Timothy 3:2, 7-10) We take such action because we are concerned with maintaining Bible standards and protecting our children. Everyone in our organization is expected to meet the same requirements, namely, to be clean physically, mentally, morally, and spiritually.—2 Corinthians 7:1; Ephesians 4:17-19; 1 Thessalonians 2:4.

In a few instances, individuals guilty of an act of child abuse have been appointed to positions within the congregation if their conduct has been otherwise exemplary for decades. All the factors are considered carefully. Suppose, for example, that a long time ago a 16-year-old boy had sexual relations with a consenting 15-year-old girl. Depending upon the U.S. jurisdiction where he lived when this happened, elders may have been required to report this as an incident of child abuse. Let us say that 20 years have passed. The child abuse reporting law may have changed; the man may have even married the girl! Both have been living exemplary lives and they are respected. In such a rare case, the man could possibly be appointed to a responsible position within the congregation.

Our procedures have been refined over time. Over the years, as we have noted areas where our policies could be strengthened, we have followed through. We are continuing to refine them. We do not believe that our system is perfect. No human organization is perfect. But we do believe that we have a strong, Bible-based policy on child abuse. Anyone in a responsible position who is guilty of child abuse would be removed from his responsibilities without hesitation. We certainly would not knowingly allow him to serve elsewhere, either because he moved or through a transfer.

The Bible teaches that individuals can repent of their sins and "turn to God by doing works that befit repentance," and we accept what the Bible says. (Acts 26:20) Still, the safety of our children is of the utmost importance. We take it very seriously.

Some of my in laws are JW's and I have been concerned about their contact with my children. They are only 3 and 5 with another on the way. I am very disturbed by the information about the watchtower/witnesses and the aggressive recruiting they do.

Do you know who the enemies of Christ were? It was not the sinners. They loved him. It was the Religious establishment. They feared him because he threatened their power, their control over people.

You can make accusations that going against the doctrine of the WT as equal to going against God himself. You will have my pity for doing so. I understand that is what you have been programmed to do. You ask me to turn back before it is too late. I however found the Loving Father a long time ago maybe I should say HE found me. I don't need you for a guide. Thanks for the offer but I am not buying crazy today.

Here is a challenge for you Make friends with Jesus Christ today.

And yes, if the Government will not protect our children and the church is unwilling to do it then the duty falls on us as individuals to do it. That is the way it always has been and the way that it will always be. Supporting Silentlambs is a way that our voices unite and were there is unity there is Christ. Where there is only uniformity there exists evil and fear.

I was a JW for 15 years, my husband abused me, cheated on me even putting a gun to my head twice, also threatening our children's lives. The Elders discouraged highly not to go outside the church for help, yet they themselves were not capable of helping. I spent many years crying myself to sleep. I'm now out and remarried to a very loving man. Deanne Skola Dee4Robb@aol.com

I just found out about this site through the latest newscast of stories of Jaws who were abused on Dateline. I was totally outraged, but not surprised. I have a close friend who was abused by an elder in our hall when we were young. And she now is just starting to deal with her past.

I am so happy that this site exists and want to help as much as possible. I am an inactive JW, because of many reasons such as this one. I wish all of the victims the best. And hope that by coming out and speaking about your past that you are on the road to recovery.

Sincerely, Your fellow friend

So if a JW confesses to an elder that he is molesting children and repents, then he is off the hook. No counseling, no treatment of any sort not even a slap on the hand...and what about the child? It seems like all the people I have read about that were abused pretty much were the victim in more ways that one. There is forgiveness in repentance, but that is why Jesus Christ had to die, because we are sinners and fall short time after time.

I wonder if one of these elders who holds to "keeping it in the church walls" sort of thing had a JW brother come to him and ask for forgiveness because he had been molesting that particular elders daughter!!!!! It's not so easy to hold to the rules when it's your own.

COLLEGE STUDENT: Keep up your study on the deceitful ways of the JW's - a great book is "REASONING FROM THE SCRIPTURES WITH THE JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES BY RON RHODES" Excellent commentary and proof of twisting scripture even in their own new world translation. Excellent teachings that leads us back to the Greek words and how the Watchtower continually changes scripture to fit the society today.

It is so important to check into the history of where the religion you rely on for eternal salvation had derived from. Check into the founder of the JW's Charles Taze Russell. That is really something! From what I understand, the JW's would rather he just didn't even exist...they are ashamed of their own founder and their first real "link" to god. (Gimme a break)

In Christ's loving name...

To the one who keeps on bashing the proprietor of this site. Take a moment to reflect on your behavior. Know that God knows its you that is doing it and you can't hide from God. We already know its you and not Mr Bowen doing this. He has already stated he is not affiliated with ANY other site so shame on you for your childish ways, the only one your hurting is yourself.

Hello, I cant say my name because of a civil suit which I started against the society 4 years ago. At that time there was so internet support like I see you have here today. This web site was like a miracle to me. I too thought I was alone. My father abused me from the time I was 13. I too went to the elders and was told to keep it quiet. Even the bethel sent letters to my congregation to keep me quiet. It was a big issue at the time. I have suffered a lot from it. All of my family and relatives are JW’s, so it has been a hard few years. My lawsuit goes to trial in a few months. I have passed on this web page to my lawyer here in Canada, so that he will get a better idea of the society's stance on abuse. Thank-you to all of you who have left your stories. If this all works out well for me I will be able to go public with it soon. I want them to pay, just as I have paid with my life. needs_lots

TO LINDA THOMAN:

Thank you for your postings and your kind words. I am truly sorry for what happened to your son. I've read it several times now and it hurts each time. I think I remember him, and I'm sorry now I didn't get to know you guys a little better. I spoke with Jesika this afternoon, and I told her to please pass my phone number and email on to you. I would like to hear from you, if you want. Either way, I hope things are going well for you now.

It's funny. All that anger and bitterness I had toward White Rock is slipping away. All I can think about now is what a waste. I feel such sadness for victims and survivors here. All those lives changed, all that heartache and for what?

Someone wrote: "Remote User: Date: 03 Jun 2002 Time: 10:25:27 Comments The answer is simple. Consider the situation with the Catholics. Why are priests even around children. They shouldn't be.

If the complaints are about Witnesses? Why is anyone not the parent around a child.

So people, stop complaining and don't let your children be around anyone but the parents."

Unfortunately, in the majority of cases it is the parents, or close relatives, which are the abusers. Not a good answer.

Hi again,

Some wrote in about the preaching and how all servants of Jehovah are to preach. There are many ways to preach with out being sent out door to door. LETTER WRITING; PHONE CALLS ETC. I get very tired of hearing how the society protects children when they don't. These people who write this should have the be children in our congregations for a year. Then we will see if they still spout the same message...That I doubt. A change of heart will be in order.

It is the same with going to the meetings. We are expected to be there even thou the pedophiles who molested our children still attend and sit across from them. I ask how is this protecting the children? A lot of victims and their families have to listen on the phone to hear the meetings. Really these so call changed pedophiles should be the ones to listen on the phone since it is their behavior that has caused the problem!! Maybe if the access to the children at the kingdom halls was taken away we might see how many are really repentant. I think a lot would not bother and look else where.

If these pedophiles had to make a public confess in front of the entire congregation I don't think a lot would stick around. To practice their perversion they need to be anonymous and keep it secret. A list of these pedophiles should be kept where publishers have access so the know who they are. I would go along way to protect the children!

The secrecy allows them to operate in relative freedom. This web site is breaking the silence around this issue. Thanks again. Its been needed for so long!!! DJB

DOES ANYONE KNOW FOR SURE THE TIME AND DAY OF THE MSNBC DATELINE RE-BROADCAST? ALSO..IN RESPONSE TO THE JW'S WHO THINK THE SOCIETY HAS CHANGED THEIR POLICY OF REPORTING ABUSE. THE CONG. LETTER SAYS "IN STATES WHERE IT IS REQUIRED TO REPORT, THE ELDERS REPORT IT." DOES THIS MEAN THAT IN THOSE 16 STATES THE ABUSER IS A CRIMINAL BUT IN THE OTHER 34 STATES HE IS NOT?? IS SEXUAL ABUSE OF CHILDREN AN ACT OF IMMORALITY? IF YOU ANSWERED YES, THEN DOES THIS MEAN THAT JW MOLESTERS ARE IMMORAL IN THOSE 16 STATES BUT NOT IN THE OTHER 34?? DO WE HAVE A MORAL OBLIGATION TO REPORT A NEIGHBOR OR RELATIVE WHO IS BEATING AND PHYSICALLY ABUSING A CHILD??...EVEN IF IT IS NOT LEGALLY REQUIRED OR DO WE SIT BACK AND WAIT FOR THE CHILD TO DIE???? DON'T WE HAVE A MORAL OBLIGATION TO PROTECT THE CHILDREN IN THE KH?? THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT ERIKA IN OTHELLO! THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT MOLESTING!! THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT COVERING IT UP!! THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT NOT DISCIPLINING THE ABUSER!! IT IS ABOUT SHUNNING THE VICTIM AND THE VICTIMS FAMILY AND SUPPORTING THE MOLESTER!! IT IS ABOUT HUNDREDS OF VICTIMS WHO HAVE BEEN WROGENDED OVER YEARS. ALL OF THE ABOVE ARE WRONG, WICKED, DESPICABLE ACTS AND SHOULD NOT BE TOLERATED BY ELDERS, CO'S, CONGREGATIONS, THE GOVERNING BODY OR INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE CONG. NOW WHEN I GO THE KH I WILL BE WONDERING WHO HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN ABUSE ISSUES, I WILL WONDER WHICH ELDERS COVERED IT UP, I WILL WONDER WHICH PERSON HAS BEEN ABUSED BY SOMEONE HIM OR HER TRUSTED IN THE ORGANIZATION. WHAT A SAD TIME FOR JEHOVAH'S PEOPLE AND FOR THOSE WHO CAN NOT OPEN THEIR EYES LONG ENOUGH TO SEE THE TRUTH IN THESE STORIES. YES WE ARE ALL IMPERFECT BUT THESE ARE NOT MISTAKES WE ARE TALKING ABOUT....THESE ARE CRIMINAL ACTS. IN MANY CASES A PRACTICE OF CRIMINALITY. WHAT IS MORE CRIMINAL AND IMMORAL.....THE ABUSER OR THOSE WHO COVER IT UP, ALLOWING THE ABUSER TO CONTINUE ABUSING AND SHUNNING THE
ABUSED. NOT ONLY ARE JEHOVAH'S PEOPLE (THE ONES WITH OPENED EYES) SADDENED...BUT HOW SADDENED MUST JEHOVAH'S BE...WHO CREATED ALL THINGS. JAZBUG55@AOL.COM

DOES ANYONE KNOW FOR SURE THE TIME AND DAY OF THE MSNBC DATELINE RE-BROADCAST? ALSO..IN RESPONSE TO THE JW'S WHO THINK THE SOCIETY HAS CHANGED THEIR POLICY OF REPORTING ABUSE. THE CONG. LETTER SAYS "IN STATES WHERE IT IS REQUIRED TO REPORT, THE ELDERS REPORT IT." DOES THIS MEAN THAT IN THOSE 16 STATES THE ABUSER IS A CRIMINAL BUT IN THE OTHER 34 STATES HE IS NOT?? IS SEXUAL ABUSE OF CHILDREN AN ACT OF IMMORALITY? IF YOU ANSWERED YES, THEN DOES THIS MEAN THAT JW MOLESTERS ARE IMMORAL IN THOSE 16 STATES BUT NOT IN THE OTHER 34?? DO WE HAVE A MORAL OBLIGATION TO REPORT A NEIGHBOR OR RELATIVE WHO IS BEATING AND PHYSICALLY ABUSING A CHILD?....EVEN IF IT IS NOT LEGALLY REQUIRED ? OR DO WE SIT BACK AND WAIT FOR THE CHILD TO DIE???? DON'T WE HAVE A MORAL OBLIGATION TO PROTECT THE CHILDREN IN THE KH??? THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT ERIKA IN OTHELLO! THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT MOLESTING!! THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT COVERING IT UP!! THIS ISN'T JUST ABOUT NOT DISCIPLINING THE ABUSER!! IT IS ABOUT SHUNNING THE VICTIM AND THE VICTIMS FAMILY AND SUPPORTING THE MOLESTER!!!! IT IS ABOUT HUNDREDS OF VICTIMS WHO HAVE BEEN WRONGED OVER MANY YEARS. ALL OF THE ABOVE ARE WRONG, WICKED, DESPICABLE ACTS AND SHOULD NOT BE TOLERATED BY ELDERS, CO'S, CONGREGATIONS, THE GOVERNING BODY OR INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE CONG. NOW WHEN I GO THE KH I WILL BE WONDERING WHO HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN ABUSE ISSUES, I WILL WONDER WHICH ELDERS COVERED IT UP, I WILL WONDER WHICH PERSON HAS BEEN ABUSED BY SOMEONE HIM OR HER TRUSTED IN THE ORGANIZATION. WHAT A SAD TIME FOR JEHOVAH'S PEOPLE AND FOR THOSE WHO CAN NOT OPEN THEIR EYES LONG ENOUGH TO SEE THE TRUTH IN THESE STORIES. YES WE ARE ALL IMPERFECT BUT THESE ARE NOT MISTAKES WE ARE TALKING ABOUT.... THESE ARE CRIMINAL ACTS, IN MANY CASES A PRACTICE OF CRIMINALITY. WHAT IS MORE CRIMINAL AND IMMORAL.....THE ABUSER OR THOSE WHO COVER IT UP, ALLOWING THE ABUSER TO CONTINUE ABUSING AND SHUNNING THE ABUSED. NOT ONLY ARE JEHOVAH'S PEOPLE (THE ONES WITH OPENED EYES) SADDENED...BUT HOW SADDENED MUST JEHOVAH'S BE...WHO CREATED ALL THINGS. JAZBUG55@AOL.COM

Just visited the web site escapefromwatchtower.com

Escapefromwatchtower can be offensive - a book is advertised there that says Jesus smoked dope! I am sure...anyway it challenges everything from the bible, paradise, go ahead and put up a tree etc...it was overwhelming and commercial to me.

Personally for me , the bible is my life saver, God is my father and protector and the 10 commandments are so simple - this has been my refuge from the WTS & KH. I am not interested in giving these things up then I would really have no place to go.

I have found great comfort in the silentlambs. Just reading the process that everyone is going through and how you are coping is a comfort to me. The expressions on this site are from the heart. I like it here even though I am cut to the heart.
Silentlambs is a quiet safe place to come to even though the lambs are screaming. There is nothing here to distract, interject our thoughts except for the few jerks. There is a lot of sweet compassion, outrage at the injustices -pure unrighteousness. Anyway I trust it here and find it a safe place to share without anyone pushing an agenda.

Thank you Bill for this "quiet" safe place for the lambs to scream. I am not a surfer of the web, don't have the time for that. This is the only place I come. I am Ashamed of how I let them manipulate me and spiritually abuse me and the nasty habits I picked up there at the KH.

I was very distraught last October?? prayed silently for Jehovah's direction and to clear up a matter of being aware that is was not safe at the KH and I was believing that I was going to lose God's favor. I was scared and alone. By mere chance or in answer to my prayer I found Silentlambs. I called Bill and he spent much time with me on the phone, recommended I read Cults and Mind Control. Talking with Bill made me feel sane again and not as scared of what I sensed about the lack of safety. Anyway, Jehovah does answer prayers and He exists separate from the KH & WTS and so do I!

Because of Bill, the silentlambs who scream, the couple of books recommended I am doing much much better since last October.

And the Silent Lambs will scream, until something is done. It's about time this country, the world, the media, parents, religious leaders, and the everyday rank and file hear these screams. No more pushing it under the rug because of reproach, embarrassment, etc. Why do the JW's think they are better than the Catholics in that their injustices should be hidden? It's not about religion, or these other things. It's about the truth of light.

Jehovah has felt the pain of the children, and finally feels the time is right to cleanse every organization of its filth.

These injustices shall no more be suffered in the shadows with agonizing silence, but shall be brought into the vindicating and freeing light of truth. All of the perpetrators of these great tragedies shall slink back into the darkness and retreat to more hospitable places than organized religion.

Unfortunately for some, if not most, of the survivors, Caesar's law is not encompassing enough to catch the perpetrators. Statutes of limitations will be brought in defense. However, this can be changed. I urge everyone, if living in states that do not require reporting of this abhorrent, sinful, and disgusting acts, to write your congressional leaders and demand that laws be changed. I also urge everyone to write these same leaders and demand that statutes of limitations be extended to 10 years after the abuse is reported.

The JW's say we should leave it all up to Jehovah, that when his time is right, he will demand an accounting. I am sure Jehovah would tell us to try to protect who we can now.

HI there,

How come we do not see the witnesses on Newspapers or Magazines like the Catholics. It is about time they get exposed or getting sued. I did not hear any thing since May 28, 2002 after the Dateline coverage. We/I want to see them admit their mistakes in front of millions of people around the world. Come on guys help us here. Mr. Bowen, go after them as soon as possible. You got the proofs from many witnesses and I do not understand why do we have to wait till they get exposed. Let's get them and stop the hurting at the same time find justice from North America to Asia who knows in Antarctica too. My best advice is, let's expose them like the Catholics did? why wait? They are saying it is trial and tribulation of the world but look what a mess they have to clean up! Please Mr.Bown do not wait too long because it is fresh news now before it becomes outdated tomorrow becomes outdated.

Sincerely yours, Brandy braun_brandy@hotmail.com

I have a website with a few free issues of The Post-Traumatic Gazette which some of your readers might find helpful. Here's a quote from my issue on PTSD and Spirituality: "...true repentance ("To make a change for the better as a result of remorse or contrition for one's sins.") is not just words, particularly not just the words, "I'm sorry. I'll never do it again." Repentance is also paying for therapy for the abused person and getting therapy or whatever it takes so the offense is never repeated. Religious leaders who encourage hitting children, especially breaking their spirit and demanding instant obedience, are also spiritually abusing their congregations. They participate in the creation of a new generation of victims, traumatized numb people who can't tell when they are hurting others." I also think it is spiritual abuse to say only we have the truth. If God created everything, God also created all the different religions and spiritual paths, so everyone can find what they need. It is human beings who say this is the only way (i.e. give me your money and faith and kids), this is easier to see when you look at another religion than at one's own. To those who have not read the letters from the society on this page, take the time to read the advice from them on a confessed murderer and a known pedophile. They act as if smoking pot was more of a problem than the confession of unsolved murders and heaven forbid it cause his wife or him any problem. Again no regard for the families seeking justice in the cases. I am sick, actually nauseated, that I could have EVER associated with such an evil organization. I WILL NEVER TRUST any organized religion ever. I will putter in my flowers and take delight in the wonders of nature created by God, I will laugh with innocent children and I will avoid the machinations of those who seek power of those same children, namely the society and those weak disgusting men that Lord that they are in touch with Jehovah's will. Well obviously they are on the receiving end of some direction. Did they ever stop to think that they are more in league with Satan? Reminds me of the religious leaders that burned innocents with their bibles hmmm To think I thought they were a moral, respectful influence once LOL Now I understand why I was so shocked when a PIONEER SISTER asked me if I thought my fiance could take care of me sexually. I was stunned, since we had a chaste courtship a few kisses until the honeymoon, I was stunned. Now I realize she wasn't alone in her weird depraved thinking.... To all Silentlambs my heart and tears go out to you, may they be the first to crumble not you.

An Open Letter To My Parents:

Mom and Dad, June 6, 2002

For many reasons, I feel compelled to write and express a few things to you.

First of all, I'm engaged. No date has been set. You both will surely be relieved to know he's white. I remember only too well comments made by mom about Alicia's interest in marrying a black man, as if there's something strange or weird about it. Like, "Why can't she find a nice white brother?" And to think the society is always saying it's a "world-wide-brotherhood". I guess it's possible, just don't try to marry my son or daughter, right?

Dad, I remember when I was very young being "daddy's little girl", sitting on your lap in your recliner. I remember when Andre was very little, being my sweet little baby boy. Until John Milenger ruined my second-grader, by many times over sodomizing my little boy in the elders private office at the KH of a "world-wide brotherhood". Then, threatening him if he spoke out. He kept quiet for so many years, suffering in silence. I know what it means to keep quiet for many years, but my fear of speaking out is gone forever. I'm not afraid of the threat to be disfellowshipped, as it means nothing to me. I celebrated the night it was announced years ago. I've never been more free and happy than I am now.

I remember vividly how safe and secure I felt being daddy's little girl. But that day ended very abruptly and emotionally devastated me the day I told you and mom what Mike Earhardt did to me. My life changed that day, my security being daddy's little girl ended and my self-esteem was severely damaged. I remember vividly running home, with Keith in tow, running into the house and immediately telling you what Mike had done. I even had my torn shirt to show you. But, before I could even get the whole story out, you yelled at me for making up such a horrible story and that I had really just been playing outside on my way home from school and tore my shirt and how I was trying to blame it on someone else. I was then sent to my room, with one swift kick on the butt while climbing the stairs. You never again brought up the subject with me after that. I know you asked Keith about it, but big deal. He was three years younger than I was, and he wasn't the one who had a grown man on top of him pulling on his shirt resulting in it being torn. Keith wasn't the one Mike was saying, "You know you want it, you know you want it". As usual, it was swept under the rug, never to be brought up again. At least, not by you.
I find it very ironic that several years later, you were willing to go to court because some stranger tried to lure me and a little friend of mine into his car, and we ran when we thought we saw him pull a gun. But wait, he wasn't a Witness so that makes all the difference, right? But, we appeared in court, but we left within minutes after someone in court spoke to you privately. Here I was the reason why we were there, but I was never told why we were leaving court, and what was said to you. I was simply told in the car to hush up. Never to be brought up ever again. You must have been thrilled, another case swept under the rug, and no one would ever have to know.

It taught me something...It taught me that when bad, even very bad, things happen to me I shouldn't tell anyone. What good would it do? For me, telling meant I got in trouble, not the person who hurt me. For Andre, telling meant he wasn't loved by God, which is what John told him as well as telling Andre that “this is how Jehovah wants us to show love for each other”. And you should be proud, Andre and I were both “very good little witnesses” “cause we both kept our mouths shut and didn’t tell anyone, not one single solitary soul. But, my little baby girl Heather suffered for Andre's silence. Andre's silence wasn't broken until he was safe and secure behind prison bars for hurting Heather. Andre goes to jail for hurting Heather; John Milenger simply dies of heart problems; Keith.........Oh yeah, he got off scott-free, didn't he Dad? He hurts Jesika, Mike actually walks in on it, and mums the word, right? Pathetic. Jesika is made to suffer in silence, so everyone else can carry on “normally” and no one is embarrassed. She lives her life “acting out” and no one seems to care about Why? But rather, let's disfellowship Jesika for comparatively minor things, but not look at the real cause of her behavior. Let's just disfellowship her and no one will ever be the wiser. You would say something like, "Just get over it". Look a victim in the eyes, and try to explain to them why secrecy, silence and denial are more important than that child's pain and self-worth and safety. Or, like Scott Presley years ago being told that "Jehovah is too busy to be bothered by such petty problems". I guess you elders have never been sodomized yourselves.

I hold you and every other elder, in every congregation, responsible for what happened to me, my children, my niece Jesika and many, many, many more victims that are now just beginning to speak out and not being silenced any longer. And to know that you had entertained the thought of going into a business adventure with Mike Earhardt back in the 80's, ripped my soul apart. I used to, I repeat used to be daddy's little girl, but you took that away from me by believing Mike Earhardt over your own little girl.

Elders have been aware of pedophiles in congregations for many years, and have failed to warn parents, and my children and I have the emotional scars to show for it. You elders have held us children out as "little carrots" to bait pedophiles. I view elders as robots for the headquarters in New York. Programming every word and thought of elders, ministerial servants, down to the general audience, threatening with disfellowshipping anyone who dare speak out against secrets, lies, and victimizing policies. Simpleton robots programmed to ensure continued financial donations. You should be proud, Dad. I was a good little girl and kept my dirty little secret so no one would be embarrassed. I did such a good job that I never told a single, solitary soul when my own brother, Mike, touched me. I won't keep quiet anymore. Mike was apparently a little too interested in his Biology/Health class in school and wanted to see for himself. He had our other brothers there to see too, except for Steve, who was the look-out. Looking for you or mom to come home. I remember thinking it seemed kind of funny that even though mom walked into Steve/Mike's room, finding all of us in there, and finding me in their closet buttoning and zipping my pants, that she never asked me one thing about it. Not one single thing.

I somehow learned from both Mike's that there must be something pretty interesting and important inside my pants for boys/men to want to see or touch it. I was so very young, but it didn't take me long to find out just what that was. One of my other brothers taught me. You and mom were so worried about me getting to the dating age, worried that I'd sleep with some boy, or with Javier. You were many, many years too late.

I'm so happy that Dateline and Bill Bowen are making it easier for us victims to speak out. No, they are helping us scream out what we've kept bottled up tight for way too long. No one will ever again shut me up. I've tried for many years to figure out how you, or any other elder, can blindly accept and fulfill every single rule coming from NY, when so many of us have suffered because of it. Then, I start to wonder.....Why is it that I know about my mother's childhood, but I know absolutely nothing about my father's childhood? When I mentioned many, many years ago having a desire to ask you about it, I was told under no uncertain terms not to. Is it possible that my father is so hard, unyielding, quick to anger and a belt, because of some horrible, perhaps dirty little secret he's kept swallowed inside of him since his childhood? I don't know. But I will not keep quiet any longer about the rampant abuse of children amongst the organization. I applaud every victim who stands and demands to be heard.

Brandy,

I have mailed letters to Newspapers, and TV News groups all over the West coast. Do the same. Don't bother wasting time with writing the (WT). They have their heads so far up their butts I don't know how they breath. Don't ask why have they not ran stories? TELL THE NEWSPAPERS TO DO STORIES. Look at the Editorials. Write a story if you are a victim. Write a story if you are outraged. Take out a "Silentlambs" ad in your newspaper. That could be done for the cost of a latte or two per week. Most people don't know what goes on in the JW's. Most people just think that they are weird. Rape and Crisis clinics need to be aware of this cults desire to stop the reporting of crime, or getting any type of help. If you get help from the outside you are not depended on the creepy eldereroids for programming.

Don't ask; Why has something not been done? YOU DO SOMETHING! You do it. Take control of your life. You are responsible for it.

Hello All!

My name is Charice Thoman. My sister Jesika, my aunt Linda, and good friends Christopher and Christina Scott, have all posted here in the last few days....and now it is time for me to speak out too.

I was raised in the White Rock congregation in Dallas, Tx. And might I say a cheery 'right on!!!' to Christopher Scott! It was/is a ~VERY~ gossipy Hall! I grew up knowing my sister had been molested by my uncle. I also grew up knowing that this kind of behavior was not only tolerated, but excused by family and the elders. It was only a matter of time before I had to experience it for myself. At the age of about 5 or 6 I was molested by a brother, a family friend, from the same hall I grew up in. About 10 years later around the age of 16 I was sexually assaulted by a ministerial servant/regular pioneer from the Spring Valley Congregation in Richardson, Tx., in his family's house where I was to spend the night with his sister. When I took that case to the brothers, I had not 1, not 2, but 5 'witnesses' to 'testify' on my behalf in the elder's meeting. None of my witnesses were allowed in the meeting. The very next week he was back on the stage presenting prayer for all in attendance, all I could do was hold back my tears, and say nothing.

I have found so much peace in NOT being a JW!!! Stay strong..... Thank you for listening.... puertogerm@yahoo.com please feel free to write!!

Visited a site on Post Trauma Stress Syndrome - excellent and informative. Email address is patiencepress.com is the email address. She has four articles that can be printed for free. I left Patience information on how to contact Bill-hope they share info.

The sexual abuse causes Post Trauma Stress Syndrome absolutely does - that is the biggest symptom that destroys our lives. The anxiety, nightmares, hyper-vigilance, flashbacks are Post Trauma Stress.

To Charice,

I'm proud of you girl! Stand up and be heard. Don't ever let anyone silence you again. I've just posted my story of being an abused wife on the other board, Battered Lambs. I will never again be silenced! Thank you Bill for all your hard work, and your efforts to help all of us victims of abuse. I will help get the word out as much as I can. I have your Banner on my own personal web site, and have received many comments on it already on my message board. God bless you Bill!

Fortunately he was caught Ex-teacher arrested for trying to 'buy' children

MEMPHIS — Daniel Pond, a former music teacher at Poplar Grove School in Franklin, is being detained by federal authorities in Memphis on charges of crossing a state line to engage in sex with a minor younger than 12.

Pond was arrested by special agents of the FBI last Wednesday in Greenwood, Miss. He is accused of attempting to pay $200 to take custody of two children, ages 5 and 7, for several days. He also is charged with possession and interstate transportation of child pornography — specifically computer images depicting minors engaged in "sexually explicit conduct."

Child molestation Note: I am not used to this board yet so if this is in the wrong forum, please move it and let me know. Thanks.

In view of the recent publicity given to child molestation, this can be a time to review with ourselves and our children things to help lessen the possibility of our children becoming victims to this. Unfortunately and realistically no parent can give their children complete and guaranteed protection but we can lessen the possibility.

I know we have all talked with our children about not letting others touch their private areas, and I started when my children were very young but old enough to understand and I did it in a non dramatic, ordinary way. I also let them know to come to me with anything that happens that is uncomfortable to them. Children can sense inappropriateness and I assured them I would always believe them. I tend to be very natural in speaking with my children any way (just the way I am) so I thought that would help them in coming to me with any uncomfortable feelings and issues. (in fact my son would come to me and plainly speak about issues involving his genitals as he was growing up, even before he would go to his father)

I used a book to help at times, it was a book on self appreciation and acknowledgement entitled, "Just because I am" (I forgot the title and had to ask a kid ), all of my kids can remember me reading it to them and discussing it with them countless times.

Or a Bible story can be an avenue into such a discussion. Perhaps Dinah.

And I did the "stand at the men's bathroom" thing in theaters when my son had to use the facilities, checking on him verbally. This was easier for my kids because they always saw their mom as "different" (read odd and embarrassing [to them] and our norm too) anyway.

We practiced words and phrases to use if someone took them against their will.

I was not trying to scare my children but I am cautious and practical, very practical, and realistic. It was just a normal part of our lives to discuss this at times.

They knew they always had a right to say no to an adult when it did not feel right. We had no alternative names for their body parts, just the proper names. Tattling was not a bad thing but the proper thing. We did the "what if" scenarios.

And to be truthful, I was prepared to handle the worst if it happened. Still am, with Jah's help. I might get queasy at the sight of blood but my kids knew that I would rise to the occasion of a severe problem or crisis and not fall apart.

I look forward to hearing advice, counsel, and experiences (only if you want to share) on this matter. In view of the nature of this discussion, please use discretion in your posts.

Hopefully, this will be strengthening and encouraging.

agape, gwen

Sounds a lot like how my parents raised us. I know some people frown on that kind of thing, but I think it's foolish to deprive your children of information that is a protection to them.

I also don't like those cute little stories parents tell their kids to explain conception. My mom tried that with my brother and he ended up going to school the next day and informing some other kid that if you wanted to have a baby you had to begin with planting beans. "shakes head" No no...I'm sure I can find some better way to explain things than that!

Hi Sisters:

I think you are taking the best and wisest course. The balance between frightening your children and forearming them is a very fine delicate line.

But I want to say that pedophiles are very clever and spend large substantial time in gaining trust. And unfortunately the vast majority of molesters are someone you know and trust. But your being prepared for the worst is preparation, I don't see that being prepared would make it an actuality. Also in the case of Dinah as sad as it was, isn't usually the way it will happen in modern society.

Keeping your children mindful that you can and will advocate for them is the best comfort they will ever know even if they think you are strange or weird. One of the best lines of attacks from pedophiles and from the larger society is that somehow the child, particularly if it is female somehow brought it on themselves. And yes I hear this even from the friends. And they always bring up Dinah.

Notify Security officer of this post Post #3

I'd like to remind people who take that attitude that rape, pedophilia, molestation, etc., are crimes. Being unwise, or being in the wrong place at the wrong time, is not.

Warning! I have an attitude and I know how to use it.

I really wish people would really honestly see that harm is done with statements like that. Intentional or not.

Ironically yesterday I had to intercept my prepuberty granddaughter from running into the kitchen with nothing but a towel on to tell my daughter something when my daughter 42 year old boyfriend was in there with her. I took her in the room and explain to her that it was inappropriate and that the boyfriend is not family and even if he was blood related that modesty still has to prevail. That too many times it is the "boyfriend" or others who we thought we could trust that we hear later on molested, raped or killed a young girl. Since this child is approaching twelve that this has to cease.
Later I had to tell my daughter what had happened. They didn't see my granddaughter doing this as I intercepted so fast they didn't have time to turn around. And this "boyfriend" is shady at best.

The pinheads at jwzone.org discussing homosexuality Here's an interest excerpt: Red Shirt Justme

From: Somewhere, East Coast, USA

Posts: 3

For some witness it varies. I know some who were caught or confess, and repented. By if they weren't careful, they repeated the same trend that got them into trouble the first time. When you are reproved, you feel withdrawn, because now an unbaptized publishers has more privileges than you do. But some say it's a way of focusing on communicating with Jehovah. As for me, once in a while, I experience a spiritual lapse, and I find myself hunting down "prey" instead of teaching them the Bible. Then I feel guilty because though I may pray for help, I know I still want to continue doing what is bad. It is a sad, emotional trauma that never ends. Those who practice masturbation are the number one risk of developing a gay lifestyle or attitude. When you find someone else who is looking for the things you are, and the condition are so that you think you won't get caught, chances are your love for pleasure outweighs the fear of Jehovah wiping you off the face of the earth. It's like smoking, drinking, or procrastinating, it's hard to stop.

I, for one, am glad that the Faithful and Discreet Slave does not claim either infallibility or divine inspiration. Although having a fixed doctrine would lend a sense of security, that sense of security would be false if that fixed doctrine was anything less than ab initio* perfect and complete.

I'd rather adjust my thinking from time to time than forfeit my eternal life in order to cling to erroneous doctrine.

We in the United States, Canada, England and even France have faced relatively little oppression. While I certainly am not eager for more, I am reconciled that such oppression is necessary for Jehovah's prophecies to be fulfilled. So go ahead, Dateline, do your part in fulfilling the prophecies. Bring oppression and "mischief by decree" upon us ... and destruction upon yourself. Your unrepentant falsehoods and evasions will not go un-noticed by Jehovah ... nor will they go unrewarded. That is also part of the prophecies.

I, too, have been disfellowshipped for telling the truth. It is nice to see someone doing something to try to help the abused ones. My heart goes out to those who thought they had the truth only to find that JEHOVAH'S words "there is no one doing good", applies even to the Governing Body. Floyd Thomas fhill@adelphia.net

The precise point is that WTS "claims" it is a clean organization(by deception)and by disfellowshipping the wrong people and the dirty dogs get to stay in "good standing." This is deceptive and people think they are either safe or going crazy in the KH. Does it take perfection to do what is right? Does Jehovah test us with evil???? Where does it say that? Satan won this test with all the ones who support a pedophile that gets "caught and acts repentant" and disfellowships the person who is traumatized for being traumatized. Jehovah does not test with evil. This is wickedness. And it is wicked to tell people to "wait on Jehovah" when you could do something.
You are slandering God if you think that He will go along with all this BS...WTS has twisted the scriptures, twisted your thinking into sticking up for pedophiles that get caught and repent. WHERE ARE THE LETTERS OF REPENTANCE FROM THESE SICKOS. THEIR DOLLARS SHOULD BE POURING IN TO SILENTLAMBS TO PAY THE COST OF THIS SITE.>>> AND TO HELP THE PERSONS WHOSE LIVES HAVE BEEN DESTROYED BY THESE CRIMES COMMITTED AGAINST CHILDREN. A REPENTANT PERP SHOULD NOT EXPECT OR DEMAND FORGIVENESS, or a position of "good standing". This is the arrogance of an unrepentant "animal."

What God does a JW serve that would expect anything less? As long as the society disfellowships for speaking out against a pedophile and lets the pedophile "do the pedophile lie syndrome" they are misleading everyone, causing division and leading those who listen to destruction.

Moral obligation to your neighbor and obligation to God cannot be twisted to mean to save the "organization" and expect anyone to believe that it is backed by Jehovah's spirit. That is blasphemy and bringing reproach upon Jehovah's name. They have twisted Jehovah into a Liberal Thinker who is blinded from the truth of this situation. A God everyone is waiting for to do something and when he does do it Jaws say it is coming from Satan. Very interesting....What is it exactly that you thought Jehovah was going to do when he saw you were doing nothing????
Keep it secret and hidden at the cost of more ruined lives under the pretext of saving a creep and a coward "brother"?? That is the god you serve and worship. Y My God Jehovah got tired of waiting for the WTS and listening to them say "wait on Jehovah" while they "waited on the pedophile and served the children for lunch." Obviously you don't know Jehovah like I do, or Bill or the many many voices on this site.

To stay in good standing I would think a lover of God would not want "fellowship" with anyone who Waits on the pedophile hand and foot and says they are waiting on Jehovah. This is total disrespect, total subjection to what is wicked, and total misrepresentation of my God whose name is Jehovah.

I have been disfellowshipped for 22 years and my heart goes out to those have been shunned by Witnesses and counseled by elders who know nothing of psychology or the human mind. These people are not trained professionals and the Bible can't cure everything.

I am one of the lucky ones. I found out that there is life outside of a Kingdom Hall. That you can have good, nurturing relationships and friendships with people who are not Witnesses. And that you can still live your life in God, follow the commandments and be a good, decent person without being a Witness. After all the hurt and torment that they put me through, after being shunned by my mother, sister, and brother, who were my essence - I went on to live a prosperous good life with a wonderful CATHOLIC husband and 3 beautiful children.

My message is don't despair. Keep walking in the lord and all good things will come. There is a life after being a Witness.

The one who calls on Jehovah will be saved.
Cannot call on the WTS to save you. There is nobody home that cares.

The lambs on this site have called on Jehovah to reveal and expose, to heal, to bring justice. Jehovah is a mighty God exacting justice for His People. Jesus loves the lowly ones not the Low Life.

The WTS has been called a "cult" enough times that they should have educated themselves away from any resemblance of cult like activity. JW's are as "cultish" as the moonies if you read "Cult & Mind Control" by a man who was a moonie. He makes no mention of Jaws. Read and compare. I did and it was unbelievably the same routine. You will hardly see a difference.

The WTS has been aware of the pedophile problem all along and they should have educated themselves about it. They were obviously aware that the few articles were of no benefit to the tune of 23,740 files. They knew. Their choice to do nothing is not God's will.

The WTS knowingly and willingly put the Malawi brothers in "critical times hard to deal with" while the governing body played the part of having no natural affection, having a form of godly devotion but proving false to it. The WTS knowingly slaughter their own lambs and gave the slain lambs top coverage in the yearbook. They create the tragic "news" and then report the tragic news. And they have the nerve, absolutely shamelessness to say Bill is wrong to bring this "issue" to the media. It is the height of wickedness that they do this. How many people know the truth behind the Malawi tragedy???? I'll never tell. Secrets. This should come under investigation. Scared to say this. No one should have this much power to control.

The WTS knowingly deceived Jaws about the U.N and began writing articles that showed all the good of the UN is doing and paid tribute to Jehovah's Kingdom in the last paragraph. I remember reading this articles and wondering 'what the heck is going on" and thought I must have a bad attitude that is being corrected.

Jehovah controls no one - not even the WTS. They are doing it of their own free will.

WTS had a choice to call on Jehovah just like the rest of us. Jehovah did not tell them to cover up, lie, have secrets, or to be excused as imperfect to do what they damn well please.

Spiritually dead men cannot give you everlasting life just because they say they are looking out for your spiritual welfare. Sounds tricky, smells of trickery, looks tricky, must be a trick. Who does tricks, turns tricks??? Animals and whores.

Who is being entertained by all this Jehovah or Satan. It is the responsibility of the WTS to do what is right. They won't and that is their choice not Jehovah's will.

It is very very difficult to separate WTS from Jehovah. They planned it that way. It is the epitome of control. There would be no discussion if they had acted with nobleness that reflected Jehovah's spirit and yet it is still difficult to separate the two. Know what I mean???? The mind has difficulty separating the two. Why is that? Why would anyone want to do this to our minds? Does God want us to feel like we are ripped into two? Even the constitution with its amendments protects us against the tyranny of government-right to bear arms, free to speak against the government without fear of the government stopping us. To bring an injustice to the courts of law does not make a citizen of that country a traitor. The amendments to the constitution protect its citizens against an tyrannical government. Who protects Jehovah's witnesses against WTS - He Himself by revealing secrets that create bondage. Who is the traitor/apostate/unworthy of fellowship with God?? The wrongdoer or the one who has been wronged, silenced/oppressed? It is a no-brainer.

Can anyone tell me when the Dateline will be repeated? Missed it- didn't have cable now I do.

You are so long, and so late. The Witnesses have declared that their Governing Body is spirit guided. We assume this spirit is JEHOVAH'S. We take what you say VERY seriously in that JEHOVAH'S is PERFECT. Ummm... if his organization is Spirit-Guided, EVERYTHING they do is perfect, right? Why do people keep claiming that his organization is nothing but imperfect men? If they were spirit guided, why wouldn't they be PERFECT? Why would the light have to keep getting brighter and brighter? The light of the truth is PERFECT, right? The Truth is the Truth is the truth.

You should know better that being a true Witness does not mean being perfect. It sadness me that you are doing this publicly to damage this beautiful organization and God's name. I hope you reconsider before it is to late!

I apparently am one of numerous people who have been used by the JW organization. I have come to this site to seek support from other victims and I have unfortunately found a lot of current JW's supporting the molesters. It really blows my mind to think any reasonable person could come here and read the thousands of testimonies and still support the offender. It just reinforces my feeling that JW's attract weak minded people to manipulate, control and support the organization. It is not only a pity that adults get sucked into this but innocent children are forced to belong. Hopefully they will grow to be strong, open-minded adults that see beyond the smoke screen as I have been fortunate enough to do. Although this site was intended for victims, JW's still find that they need to come here. If you don't believe it why come here to support the liars? I think we are to loud to be ignored and your curiosity has been peaked. Could Jehovah's ever loving organization be flawed?

To the person who posted the below comment: Come on, now. Please use your brains. Are you thinking Bill Bowen is sitting back raking in money to stuff in his pockets for his own personal use? Obviously you have not read this entire site. Any money donated is used to help victims and/or to further this cause (possibly help pay for expenses to have witnesses at the DF hearings, etc.). So, please, Mr./Ms. Ding Dong, you are not not thinking clearly. Maybe you are just very young. There is nothing wrong about asking for donations. (Does not the WTS and individual congs ask for donations?) Surf the web awhile. Look up all non-profit orgs on the web that were created for the purpose of helping people. They ALL have "donate" buttons on their sites. It's really no big deal, and no reason at all to put some shady/selfish meaning to it. ------ Date: 06 Jun 2002 Time: 10:55:25: I just feel that if you were really sincere in what you were doing you would not be asking for money, especially the Visa Mastercard button that does not disappear. I don't expect anyone to read this because obviously you wont post it

I received this info via email today: Quote: The Watchtower's Media site and email notification have been notifying their readers that they are taking an active part in 'doing everything they can' in the child abuse issue. Obviously the Dateline NBC episode that aired a few days ago had a big effect, and they are anticipating much more. Here is part of their email notification:

"People didn't have the body of knowledge 18 or 20 years ago to say that this is something that will harm your child emotionally, if you don't address it. Parents didn't know the seriousness ... and the long-term effects." --Dr. Gail Bethea-Jackson, LCSW-C, B.C.D., specializing in victimization, children and adolescent issues, and post-traumatic stress disorder. End Quote.

My feeling in response to that, is this: Even if "general worldly knowledge" was lacking 18-20 years ago re: the long term effects of child sex abuse, did not BIBLE-EDUCATED persons ALREADY KNOW there "must" be something bad/unnatural/harmful about it since Jah had written in the Bible his commands against it at Leviticus 18:6, 9, 10, 11, 17, 22, 24-26?

And, even if adults (worldly OR JW) were not aware 18-20 years ago of the effects, this is still no excuse. It sounds like a lame argument to me. If that Doc is a spokesperson for the WTS, why doesn't she say, "WE ARE SORRY THIS HAPPENED, but due to ignorance on the part of many, people were unaware of the effects..." etc. etc. In other words, try APOLOGIZING first.

As a sex abuse survivor (not by Jaws), I am not impressed with that lady-doc's comment. It reminds me of the saying, "Ignorance of the law is No Excuse."
Maybe everyone already "knows" this, but since I have not seen it specifically written, I am saying it here and now:

Here is the order of what you should do when you discover your child as been abused and/or molested:

NUMBER ONE PRIORITY: TAKE THE CHILD TO A DOCTOR IMMEDIATELY, either your family doc or go immediately to the emergency room so they can do a physical examination. (This should go without saying). It doesn't matter if the abuse occurred months prior. They still may be able to see scar tissue, old bruising, etc. Document the abuse with the DOCTORS FIRST.

Step #2: THEN go to the police. (While at the ER, the docs may call the police themselves, or you can request that they do, and it can all be handled in a safe environment like a hospital or doc's office).

Step #3: THEN go or call the Rape Crisis Center in your town or similar counseling agency so that a professional could help the child. If you do Step #1, the medical people will provide contacts for counseling. Rape Crisis Centers are not for grown-ups only, and not for "rape" only. (Side note: Even if you are fully grown and the abuse happened years ago, you can still get counseling at a Rape Crisis Center and/or they will help you get free counseling elsewhere. Been there, done that, so I know.)

Step #4: THEN go to the elders, AFTER all of the above have been done, documented, help for the child sought, etc.

Just my 2 cents because I keep reading everyone says go to the police FIRST, but I say go to the DOCTOR/HOSPITAL FIRST.

Hope this helps. I CARE!

To the person who posted the below comment: Come on, now. Please use your brains. Are you thinking Bill Bowen is sitting back raking in money to stuff in his pockets for his own personal use?"

That's the whole point, J.W.'s cant use their brains like we do, cause they are washed!!!! Otherwise they would realize that all the real- estate that the WTS owns in New York is paid by their donations!!!! But of course when asked, the WTS will give them a nice fitting answer, same story as the library-bullshit-excuse regarding their membership with the U.N. for 10 years!!! It must be terrible to be brainwashed AND stupid as well!!!
subject." Whether they "knew" or "didn't know," is not the point. These sex crimes DID occur, and an international apology (via the WT) would have melted my heart, and I would have "wolfed down" the magazine cover to cover.

I have read where JW's say that this issue of child rape is to test their faith. How barbaric is that?

I know that people have begun to be disfellowshipped for "causing division." Hold your head up high if the elderoids victimize you. They are only doing what they are programmed to do. They can not take away your spirit or your commune with God. Pray outside of the KH and see what happens. You are not alone. Many people here and all over the world support you. God will never leave you. There is life outside of the windowless prison.

As for donating and the sticker shock; Pay Pals is an electronic banking company that you can use your credit card or bank online. You can also donate a lot less than the max. Believe it or not the outside world does all the charity work to help the people who need help. I'm quite sure that the WT whom is so loving and caring with all the money that it has. I know they had an estimated 322 million to a half a billion dollars in assets in the late 1970's. I wonder what they have horded two decades later. They have people working for slave wages and pay no taxes quite a thing they got going on there huh?

And as for the question of light. If you have a lamp and it is on. You then turn on a second lamp there is brighter light. You may even turn on a third lamp. But if you turn off the first light then it is not brighter. You have just traded light. The light of Christ is everlasting. What was true 2000 years ago is just as true today. The light of God was as true for Moses as it is today. It is not new, old, or brighter. The founder of the movement currently called the Watchtower and Bible Tract Society warned against religion that constantly changes its dogma. That is why no one is to look at past Watchtower material. It was all a lie. If it all was a lie before despite being so called inspired could the Society be lying now? Is it a lie if you believe it? Surely someone somewhere in the organization knows the way right? For the same reason the Governing body fears anyone who reads the Bible without so called bible aids. If you get out from under their constant pressure and mind control you experience a freedom to express yourself the way God intended. You can have loyalty to God instead of loyalty to religion.

College Student wrote: "Someone told me that they are not mailing Watchtowers no more, maybe the reason is that if the outsiders don't know what is going on inside, all the outsiders can do is rely on old information which is out of date."

My comment: You know how they say we should always pay attention to our first gut reaction/instinct? Well, what College Student wrote above was exactly the very first thought that came to my mind when a few months ago the mags began arriving with red print across the wrapper saying there would be no more subscription service via mail once my current subscription ended.

My first thought was they/WTS wants to keep the "outsiders" from getting any more info so they cannot post the info on the web. I thought, "Maybe WTS feels the 'apostates' won't bother going into a KH to get a copy of the mag."
Then my second (‘Oh My Goodness!’) thought was, "Jah is closing in and tightening the reins... If you are not 'inside the ark' then bad news for me, because Armageddon must be VERY CLOSE for the subscription service to be coming to an end..."

Two extremes in my thinking, I know...

So I asked about the subs ending to some XJWs who still have family going to mtgs. and they said the Jaws were told at mtgs. that it had something to do with saving money and/or the WTS could not afford to send mags via mail anymore. Somehow I didn't quite buy that as a true reason.

What IS the "official reason" straight from HQ, if anybody knows?

Thanks.

I was a VERY faithful JW throughout the 1980's, and there was a brother in the cong that shared our hall, and he was a police officer. The word was he knew how the WTS felt about Jaws carrying guns, but he was okay with being a policeman. Also, I “think” (if I remember correctly), the word was the elders had basically given up trying to convince him otherwise. I do remember thinking, though, to myself, "He can't be a very 'strong' brother and be a police officer." (typical JW thinking on my part at the time).

Fortunately, I was provided a more "balanced viewpoint" by an older sister who had been raised in the truth. She used to say, "Jah needs people in ALL occupations so they can witness to the other policemen.." etc. etc.

Two posters wrote: #1: So people, stop complaining and don't let your children be around anyone but the parents.
#2: Unfortunately, in the majority of cases it is the parents, or close relatives, which are the abusers. Not a good answer.---

I have to agree with #2. It was our "bachelor" (Catholic) uncle, who everybody loved (he always came with presents and gifts in abundance). We used to ask our Mom as little kids, "If dad dies, will you marry JT?" Yet during those years, all 8 kids were sent off to the uncle's home regularly, two at a time, for little vacations and sleep-overs. Child #1 and 2 always went to uncle's house together; then Child #3 and 4 always went together; then Child #5 and 6 always went together; and then Child #7 and 8 always went together. So at any one time, only 2 at a time thought "they were the only ones." JT played "mind games" by stating things like, "You cannot come into the room and play cards with us unless you are willing to take off your clothes first." (This from my sister's account, stating, as a 4, 5 & 6 year old, the last thing she wanted was to be "left out" of the "fun card game." So she would bang on the bedroom door begging to be let in where my uncle and brother already were, and would willingly take off her clothes so as not to be "left out.")
This is perversion at its CRUELEST, not only screwing with little minds but also little bodies.

BTW, this pervert is an old old man now, late 70's. He lives in Athens, GA, and his name is Joseph Thomas Meyer a/k/a "Jay" or "J.T." I reported him to the Sex Crimes Unit at the Athens Police back in '92, as he most likely is still up to his old tricks with other young ones. Beware if you live in that area.

And re: the two original posts: The BEST thing to do is EDUCATE your kids, and as one mother already wrote, make SURE the kids KNOW and FEEL you WILL stick up for them if they tell. This cannot be emphasized strongly enough. NEVER "HUSH" or DOUBT A CHILD!

Someone wrote: "There is life outside of the windowless prison."

:) Chuckle. That "windowless prison" comment made me laugh. It's been over a decade since I was an active JW, and I can't remember the explanations of why KH's did not have windows...? To keep out the traffic noises? To help prevent vandalism? Does anyone remember what the explanation was?

BTW, there is (or was) a beautiful KH WITH WINDOWS in the San Jose area of Jax., FL, which I visited many years ago. I remember thinking how utterly nice and pleasant it was to sit inside that Hall and see sunshine, grass and trees outside. And the windows had lovely white sheer curtains. A very nice memory now that I think of it. Thanks for reminding me of it with your "windowless prison" comment. ;)

More thoughts on "windowless" K.H.'s:

Sunshine/windows takes the hard edge off of fluorescent lights which are unhealthy.

Windows make a room feel more "homey."

Anything beats the dark & gloomy atmosphere due to "stained glass windows" like I grew up seeing in the catholic church.

Windows/scenery outside is distracting to concentration?

Barely remembering other reasons, real or imagined by myself, for their not being windows: That when Armageddon strikes and we were all going to enter into our "interior rooms" (KH's), it would be "safer" if there were no windows; and/or no windows would prevent us from seeing the slaughter going on outside by the Angel of Death.

Dear Silent Lambs:

I am submitting this info to help parents "spot" possible sex abuse in their children, teens, etc. before years go by. When my Mom finally read this book, she said she remembered one of my brothers refusing to swim in a bathing suit, but rather he insisted on being fully clothed, which she thought was odd at the time. And my other brother was lighting fires from his adolescence, rage issues, stealing, etc. My oldest brother still sucked his thumb in high school. And me? Well, I entered my pubescence with rage and suicide attempts. How nice!

Parents, it's not just hormones making your kids act crazy! WAKE UP!!!!

Warning: This could be painful reading for abuse survivors (it's been 10 years since I last read this, and I can't believe the shock I am feeling once again at how TRUE this is.)

-------

--Incest Survivors Aftereffects Checklist--

Do you find many characteristics of yourself on this list? If so, you could be a survivor of incest.* (*The term "incest" as used in this book is not confined to molestation/rape by a blood relative only, but by any friend or "trusted" individual.)

1. Fear of being alone in the dark, of sleeping alone; nightmares, night terrors (especially of pursuit, threat, entrapment).

2. Swallowing and gagging sensitivity; repugnance to water on one's face when bathing or swimming (suffocation feelings).

3. Alienation from the body--not at home in own body; failure to heed body signals or take care of one's body; poor body image, manipulating body size to avoid sexual attention.

4. Gastrointestinal problems; gynecological disorders (including spontaneous vaginal infections); headaches; arthritis or joint pain.
5. Wearing a lot of clothing, even in summer; baggy clothes; failure to remove clothing even when appropriate to do so (while swimming, bathing, sleeping); extreme requirement for privacy when using bathroom.

6. Eating disorders, drug or alcohol abuse (or total abstinence); other addictions; compulsive behaviors.

7. Self-destructiveness; skin carving; self-abuse.

8. Phobias.

9. Need to be invisible, perfect, or perfectly bad.

10. Suicidal thoughts, attempts, obsession (including "passive suicide").

11. Depression (sometimes paralyzing); seemingly baseless crying.

12. Anger issues, inability to recognize, own, or express anger; fear of actual or imagined rage; constant anger; intense hostility toward entire gender or ethnic group of the perpetrator.

13. Splitting (depersonalization); going into shock, shutdown in crisis; a stressful situation always is a crisis; psychic numbing; physical pain or numbness associated with a particular memory, emotion (e.g., anger), or situation (e.g., sex).

14. Rigid control of one's thought process; humorlessness or extreme solemnity.

15. Childhood hiding, hanging on, cowering in corners (security-seeking behaviors); adult nervousness over being watched or surprised; feeling watched; startle response.

16. Trust issue, inability to trust (trust is not safe); total trust; trusting indiscriminately.

17. High risk taking ("daring the fates"); inability to take risks.

18. Boundary issues; control, power, territoriality issues; fear of losing control; obsessive/compulsive behaviors (attempts to control things that don't matter, just to control something).

19. Guilt, shame; low self-esteem, feeling worthless; high appreciation of small favors by others.

20. Pattern of being a victim (victimizing oneself after being victimized by others), especially sexually; no sense of own power or right to set limits or say no; pattern of relationships with much older persons (onset in adolescence).

21. Feeling demand to "produce and be loved;" instinctively knowing and doing what the other person needs or wants; relationships mean big tradeoffs (love was taken, not given).

22. Abandonment issues.

23. Blocking out some period of early years (especially 1-12), or a specific person or place.

24. Feeling of carrying an awful secret; urge to tell, fear of its being revealed; certainty that no one will listen; being generally secretive; feeling "marked" (the "scarlet letter").

25. Feeling crazy; feeling different; feeling oneself to be unreal and everyone else to be real, or vice versa; creating fantasy worlds, relationships, or identities (especially for women: imagining or wishing self to be male, i.e., not a victim).

26. Denial: no awareness at all; repression of memories; pretending; minimizing ("it wasn't that bad"); having dreams or memories ("maybe it's my imagination"); strong, deep, "inappropriate" negative reactions to a person, place, or event; "sensory flashes" (a light, a place, a physical feeling) without a sense of their meaning; remembering the surroundings but not the event.

27. Sexual issues; sex feels "dirty;" aversion to being touched, especially in gynecological exam; strong aversion to (or need for) particular sex acts; feeling betrayed by one's body; trouble integrating sexuality and emotionality; confusion or overlapping of affection, sex, dominance, aggression, and violence; having to pursue power in sexual arena which is actually sexual acting out (self-abuse and manipulation, especially among women; abuse of others, especially among men); compulsively "seductive" or compulsively asexual; must be sexual aggressor or cannot be; impersonal, "promiscuous" sex with strangers concurrent with inability to have sex in intimate relationship (conflict between sex and caring); prostitute, stripper, "sex symbol," porn actress; sexual acting out to meet anger or revenge needs; "sexaholism" avoidance; shutdown; crying after orgasm; all pursuit feels like violation; sexualizing of meaningful relationships; erotic response to abuse or anger; sexual fantasies of dominance or rape (Note: Homosexuality is not an aftereffect).

28. Pattern of ambivalent or intensely conflictive relationships (intimacy is a problem; also focus shifted from incest issues).

30. Desire to change one's name (to disassociate from the perpetrator or to take control through self-labeling).

31. Limited tolerance for happiness; active withdrawal from happiness, reluctance to trust happiness ("ice-thin").

32. Aversion to making noise (including during sex, crying, laughing, or other body functions); verbal hyper vigilance (careful monitoring of one's words); quiet-voiced, especially when needing to be heard.

33. Stealing (adults); stealing and starting fires (children).

34. Multiple personality.

From page xxii, xxiii: "Incest is possibly the most crippling experience that a child can endure. It is a violation of body, boundaries, and trust. Unless identified and dealt with, the emotional and behavioral aftereffects can stay with the victim. The very defenses that initially protect the incest survivor later lock these problems into place, interfering with adult functioning and preventing healing or change. -- ...The incest survivor may appear to be -- and may actually be, in many ways -- successful, talented, appealing, even happy. Yet underneath, she may feel as if she were rotting. She may see herself as crazy or unreal. The confusing behaviors and feelings that she endures could make sense if she knew (and understood) her incest past. Instead she feels trapped, confused, irrational, sick and weak. This is Post-Incest Syndrome..."

From page xxiv: "The Incest Survivors Aftereffects Checklist ... We must view each aftereffect as a survival tactic rather than as a problem to be overcome... Most incest survivors... find that of the 34 categories of emotional/behavioral items, more that 25 apply to their lives."

Well, I would like to type out the entire book for every one of those jerks/ignoramus-types who visit this site and don't have a "clue." Everyone who has ever been abused should read this book, and so should their mates and partners and families. Elders should be made to read this book, if they want to have a "clue" as to how to "assist" abuse survivors! Every MAN, JW or whatever religion, who EVER molested/raped anybody should be FORCED TO READ THIS BOOK. Judges should make it REQUIRED reading for the perverts they sentence. Elders should MAKE "suspected" or "confessed" abusers in the congregations READ THIS BOOK. If the alleged-abuser refuses to "confess," after reading this book he should definitely have a change of heart, or he is a TOTAL ANIMAL. Elders should lock the "alleged-abuser" in the "back room" at the KH until he has read this book.

Two other books that were helpful: "The Right to Innocence," by Beverly Engel, MFCC; and "Homecoming: Reclaiming and Championing Your Inner Child," by John Bradshaw (who also wrote other books: "Toxic Shame," "Healing the Shame that Binds You," etc.). For any males who have been abused, I heard back in those days of my researching/reading about this subject, that there was a book called "Abused Boys," by Mick Hunter (I believe). I wanted to get that book but never did, as I understand the aftereffects for men is a little different. Maybe if Christopher Scott knows of any books, he would be willing to share the titles. (And, BTW Chris, I am SO PROUD OF YOU for CHANGING YOUR NAME! I have wanted to do that for years and years.)

I still don't have the "guts" to sign my real name (sorry), but I am in awe of, and am so proud of those of you who do. Such brave souls you are!

Good Morning to All. PS: BTW, I could claim at least one (usually more) items in each of 28 paragraphs out of the 34 categories on the checklist. How's that for a sad sack of potatoes!

The below individual was a JW when I knew him and his wife (same cong as them for 10 years, through 1990 when I was DF'd). He was a ministerial servant (maybe still is for all I know). I read of his arrest in early 1994 in the newspaper, and cried my guts out. I do not know "who" it is he sexually battered, whether it was someone in or outside of the congregation, or maybe one of his 2 daughters (?). He is still in the local phone book, same address.

This is being supplied so those in "denial" about Jaws and sex abuse will "wake up." This info from the Florida Dept. of Law Enforcement Website, i.e., public knowledge. ---- Sex Offender:

Re:--Incest Survivors Aftereffects Checklist--

#27. Sexual Issues…. prostitute, stripper,

I have often wondered how nice girls from good two parent families could grow up to be dancers in Stripper Clubs and Prostitutes.

In the Plano TX area I know three young women all raised in the congregation between the ages of 27-22 that currently make their living in that manner. I also know of a number more in that age group who are extremely promiscuous.

Isn't it a shame to raise your daughters so carefully train them so well and have this result?
Why have these young women's lives been ruined?

What secret is buried here?

To JULIA!!!

I am Linda Thoman. Steve is my brother. The second oldest. Delane is his wife. They live in Mt. Pleasant TX, the last I heard.

Who are you? How do you know the Thoman's? If you read my story I posted about my childhood, you know the "Thoman Empire" history. It ain't pretty. Memories of our father beating my youngest brother, Keith, to the point where Keith literally passed out on the couch, while the rest of us were made to sit on chairs and watch. We, including my mother, sat there and watched him beat my little brother. Keith was only in elementary school at the time. We sat there watching, then when we counted over forty lashes, we all started to cry and beg my dad to stop. He told us to keep quiet or we would be next.

To VIEWER- Thank you.....I think. My post was my true history. I won't keep quiet ever again.

To Bill and the other Courageous men & women on this site.

God give us men! A time like this demands

Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands;

Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men who the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor—men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue,
And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking!
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog,
In public duty and in private thinking:
For while the rabble, with their little deeds,
Mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps,
Wrong rules the land, and waiting Justice sleeps.

It's important to understand the mentality of the JW's so as to work around them. Here are some excerpts from their writings, which explains why they hid things. It is for the purpose of not hindering their "ministry". Who can argue with God's people?

As a soldier of Christ he is in theocratic warfare and he must exercise added caution when dealing with God's foes. Thus the Scriptures show that for the purpose of protecting the interest of God's cause, it is proper to hide the truth from God's enemies. --The Watchtower, June 1, 1960, page 352.

So, in time of spiritual warfare it is proper to misdirect the enemy by hiding the truth. --The Watchtower May 1, 1957, page 285-286.

At all times they must be very careful not to divulge any information to the enemy that he could use to hamper the preaching work. --The Watchtower, May 1, 1957, page 285-286.

While malicious lying is definitely condemned in the Bible, this does not mean that a person is under obligation to divulge truthful information to people who are not entitled to it. --Aid to Bible Understanding, 1971, page 1061.

Excellent Post Award! Here it is again on top. I guess I am not done. Remember the "naughty one" who keeps on transforming himself as an angel of light? The one who would fool even the very elect if it were not for God bringing this to an end?

I see all kinds of personalities posting here. Victims first of all. Then second the ones who belong to the organization that have not had this bad experience who are adamantly defending their faith. And then third I see everyone else who lives outside the "protected Bubble" of the WT Society showing cause for the ignorance and blindness in the world. Well pull up your boot straps, this blindness exists in every faith and in every walk. God is cleaning house and "NO ONE" is going to remain hidden. What the perpetrator does in secret will come to light not just in the Catholic faith, or the Jehovah's Witness's but all walks will get this shake down.

For those of you who have not had to live this horror. And since you don't know. I will share this well known metaphor "It is better to remain quiet and thought a fool than to open your mouth and remove all doubt". YOU have NOT walked a mile in their shoes and DO NOT have the right to judge those who say they are victims. How dare you.

I am a former elder who had been removed from that privilege some years ago when my wife was having problems as a result of her emotional abuse at the hands of her father who was an elder at the time she was growing up. I am currently serving again as a Ministerial Servant in good standing. When I was an elder I sat in on my wife's judicial meetings (as is required) and served on many judicial committees, several of which dealt with abuse victims/survivor's. I say in all sincerity how deeply I feel for all such ones when I read their stories. It pains me greatly to see this evil in the Christian congregation. Let me state, again in all sincerity, that neither my wife nor any of the others I dealt with were told to 'keep quiet.' Indeed, we were encouraged to report my father-in-law to his congregation elders for judicial review. As elders, we often discussed how abused ones needed help because we knew that they were scarred emotionally and spiritually and that these horrid memories will always resurface in terms of promiscuity, violence (to self or others), drug use or in the perpetuation of these behaviors on the next generation. And we knew and discussed this 10 years ago!

The body of elders I served with at that time made every effort to listen compassionately and non-"judgmentally" as people told their stories. We "never" assumed they were lying! Indeed, one of the points Jaws like to make with people is 'does this have the ring of Truth?" And every one of the sufferers told stories that had the ring of Truth. Yes, if there was no other evidence or second witness or confession, as elders we could do nothing more except keep sealed records on file of what happened. In a number of cases the perpetrator committed the same crime again and because this was the second incident of the same type of sin, we could disfellowship an unrepentant wrongdoer. According to Watchtower Society guidelines it does "not" have to be two witnesses to the same event. At the very least, if the perpetrator continued to deny the second set of allegations, we could disfellowship them as an unrepentant liar.

If State laws require reporting, conscientious elders report to the authorities. Because most elders are not current on local law as well as for other reasons, elders are to report abuse to the Watchtower's Legal Department for review and advice. Please keep in mind that only 16 states require this. Other states require that we do not report, citing "ecclesiastical privilege."

It also pains me to read how many long-time witnesses have engaged the services of attorneys when dealing with either their local congregations or with the Watchtower Society's headquarters. They have forgotten the scripture at 1 Corinthians 6:7 which says "Really, then, it means altogether a defeat for YOU that YOU are having lawsuits with one another. Why do YOU not rather let yourselves be wronged?" This is God's Word speaking to us. Yes, what happened to many at the hands of supposed Witnesses is an unspeakable crime – against God and humanity, but loyal Jaws endeavor to follow scripture in all things, even when it is painful to do so.

Keep in mind also that Jehovah does allow tests of loyalty at the hands of Satan in order to 'sift us.' To the victims/survivors: Jehovah is not to blame and will certainly comfort all in need. But we must maintain our loyalty! To the rest of us: Don't be swept overboard by any sensationalizing of events. Let us not lose our faith because of news reports or by what we may read online from disgruntled former believers.

Gadol: I'm sure you consider yourself compassionate and reasonable, but I find myself shaking my head. You had reports of a child abuser in your midst, those reports had the 'ring of truth', then you sealed them up and did nothing more. You cite Society rules. Predictably, it happened again and aha! now you can do something. So, just how guilty do you feel about those 'second' cases? What could you have done to protect those other innocent children? How many children outside of the organization were victimized when you could have helped? Did your self-righteousness make it unnecessary to even consider that you may be misapplying the two-witness rule? Is it even possible that you could do something to protect other children even if you don't have multiple witnesses? Is your self-righteousness enough to ward off the pangs of guilt? You're the problem.

I just feel that if you were really sincere in what you were doing you would not be asking for money, especially the Visa Mastercard button that does not disappear. I don't expect anyone to read this because obviously you won't post it.

Yea, it got posted and I'm reposting here with a comment. There is no law that says we can't help our fellow man out. As a matter of fact individuals can give up to 10gs tax free gift. You don't have to be a 501 non-profit. As I see it there is no request for money. Just a button as an option. Some where on this page I saw Bowmen's own comment about donations and it seemed real reasonable to me. Now the JC's standing in the middle of the road with a bucket is a nuisance. A little button is not a collection plate in your face. Um, OK.

Another post from April moved up as it has a really good idea.

I am truly impressed with the way your site is developing. There is excellent information here - very informative as well as inspiring. I would urge all to write their state legislators to inform them of the cover-ups - they are the men/woman who have the ultimate power to enact laws to enforce the mandatory reporting of such cases. Thanks. I'll definitely be returning to the site frequently to see updates. ZaZuWitts@webtv.net

Good question Todd from April 2001 post. We don't want to slander people just because we're angry at some filthy pedophiles, right. It seems best to report to the proper secular authorities what one knows. When you put your stories here it may boomerang if you can't prove it. Folks don't get yourselves in a jam.

hello, Bill,

i believe in and strongly support what you are doing since making yourself known on H2O back in December.

one question though. on your "pinpoint_a_pedophile" page, you state:

"The purpose of the Survey is to offer a place where you can post information concerning accused, alleged, or convicted pedophiles."

aren't you putting potentially innocent, although "accused" pedophiles at risk?

just curious. todd tajones@prodigy.net

I have been a Witness for almost 30 years. I have witnessed and experienced many horrors inside the organization. I truly believe Jehovah will take care of the problems because he has in the past. He is now taking care of the wrong policy of pedophilia. I have written a letter in protest and it appears below. I urge everyone to write letters in protest. In the past, Jehovah’s people wrote letters in protest to totalitarian governments persecuting our brothers. Now is the time to write to the Organization who are persecuting our brothers in our midst.

June 8, 2002

Governing Body 25 Columbia Heights Brooklyn, NY 11201-2483

Dear Brothers:

I saw the Dateline program. An apology is in order. The TRUTH must be told. Follow the steps for repentance and Jehovah will bless us. Without a doubt, Jehovah is disciplining us.

Silent Lambs are not apostates. How can people who protect children from molestation be apostates? Silent Lambs are friends of the afflicted and oppressed molested ones.
Please do not try to cover up anymore. Make an honest confession and come clean. The world is watching. I cannot preach until this mess is cleared up. Nor can I give any more money to an organization that promotes pedophilia.

I am ashamed to be called a Jehovah's Witness. I am ashamed to take the good news to my neighbors. I share guilt by association. Although I have not committed the crimes, I feel a sense of community responsibility, as should all of you, in promoting the crimes.

Identify the brother who set this policy in motion. Who was the man that first stood up and established this policy? This policy was not created in a vacuum, nor did it appear out of thin air. A man was responsible for this policy. Who was that man? Jehovah will reveal the guilty party just as he revealed Achan.

Do not delay! Take immediate steps to right the wrongs. If you fail to act, or make excuses, or persecute Silent Lambs, we will share the same fate as the Catholic Church.

I am disillusioned and bewildered. I will wait for directions from the "slave." Please be quick!

To "U":

We are waiting for restitution from the "repentant" pedophiles now that they are "caught" to donate money to a "cause" they caused - I wouldn't exactly call a restitution a donation would you? This would be a token of an act of repentance befitting a Christian and one who calls himself one of Jehovah's witnesses - don't you think???

We are waiting and so is Jehovah but we ain't holding our breath!

The word you is not spelled "u" - are you lazy and ignorant too?

We have not heard one word out of you befitting of a witness to Jehovah or Christ. Why is that?? What are you so angry about? You are obviously not a Christian with Christ like love. We have heard nothing but pure ridicule with no "facts" - just name calling and SLANDER. What are you so angry about??? Who hurt you? You defend the WTS in a very ignorant, undignified, unintellectual and unspiritual manner which leads me to believe that you are just a heckler and probably go to many different sites just to do your thing. What's with you?

You have impressed no one here as a lover of God.

Thank you for the information on Dateline Weekend Edition - 3:00 A.M - ET. SET THE ALARM...

The "meditation" site was beautiful thank you for that. Has anyone gone to patiencepress.com ???? some very powerful material there to help you identify what is going on with yourselves and to bring some clarity and understanding to help you cope and give guidance to your families or close ones that want to help. Love to you all.
I can't help but wonder SOME MORE why WTS did not do some RESEARCH and get it out to us. There is tons of information out there on PTS, Child abuse etc. the articles they wrote skim the surface and were shallow. Pray and wait on Jehovah. No mention of the many resources so readily available FREE.

Yes wouldn't that have been something! A Watchtower Magazine cover to cover addressing this atrocity and gain some trust back. Even the Catholic Church has been openly discussing their coverup and assisting in removing the priests - even if it is hind sight and good PR it is better than "disfellowshipping" the innocent- not Good PR or Godly.

Nobody knows why the WTS has stopped mailing the magazines. Geezzzz...what another secret to wait on Jehovah to reveal?

Mind your own business even if it is your business you are trying to mind. Don't ask questions. Follow. Something new to speculate about and get your mind off this stuff, something to talk or not talk about depending on how spiritually minded you are and submissive. Another test of your faith as if there isn't enough of that everyday.

I have not re-newed my subscription or return to the KH after I read "Crisis of Conscience" - Read it to find out why. My gut level reaction was that I did not want any, I mean any association connected between me and the WTS. That it could be dangerous.

That is how seriously, deeply they have wronged the brothers and sisters around the world. They are scary and it is scary how I entrusted my spirituality to them. Never again. They are not trustworthy of guiding me spiritually.

Very glad to have been directed to your web site. At the moment I cannot recall the chapter and verse, but I know that in one of the gospels, Jesus said that anyone who corrupts a child should rather tie a millstone round his neck and fling himself into the sea. That passage should be the ideal counter to molesters and protectors of the JWs as well as of any portion of Christ's Church.

To the people or the organization that decides to throw around BS accusations and the word "apostate." As you use the word wanton it looses its shock factor. I don't care if you write it. It does not have any value to most of us here. The WTS and its members have hurt most of us so deeply your words have little value. I however don't like games so I tell you what. Every time someone drops the word "apostate" without any real accusation and substance, or slanders someone that I respect on this site I will be sure to donate an amount higher than I would have otherwise. Criticize someone for caring about abuse then you have just made a donation to this site. Make an ass of yourself because you don't like what this site stands for. You just donated to this site. If you want no money to come in well I will send money so too bad, but if you want to help be sure to keep up the sophic attitude. Your donation will be appreciated.

Have a nice day!
I came from (what people who knew my parents) would be considered good two parent family, and that I had a "great up bringing". Well, I was a stripper for 6yrs and very promiscuous even before I was a stripper. In the yrs of being in that field(waiting tables,bartending,dancing,etc) I can tell you that almost every girl I talked to had been sexually abused or abused in some form, if not- they were putting themselves through school, or supporting children as well as themselves with no outside help. There are always the ones(which is very rare) that do it for attention or for shock value. For the most part I saw mostly pain or the numbing of the pain(drinking, drugs, sex ,etc). I am out of that environment now, but I would not change the lessons I have learned by being there. You really never know why people dance or have sex casually, but sometimes-most of the time the person doing it doesn't know why either.

I know that this comment is for the Silentlams site but the JW's state to look at their side with links so I did. And I don't know what has changed. Its not their stance. If they are changing at all why are they DFing people? "Division?"
Well, I would sure back up as they give their arguments on the stance of rape and abuse victims in the name of God...

I looked at the FQA section. IS THAT REALLY HOW THEY THINK THAT THEY ACT???
They do not shun family that is Disfellowshipped? Lie It is your own family who is the cruelest. I have cut mine off. I have disavowed them. I will not accept calls nor let them in my house. I was very public in my family about it and have so much support. I recommend it to anyone in the situation of being shunned for any reason. Let them go! Be hostile if necessary. Cut them out of your life and treat them like the cancer that they truly are. You will be happier without them. I know they are just brainwashed. But you can not save them. Save yourself!

(Back to the JW official link)

They think they are kind,(not) good(not) mild(not) REASONABLE???(give me a break) They are right and the world is wrong...They could never comprehend the thought that the world is right and they are wrong...Reasonable...(((PLEASE!!)))

They need to be caught on tape. That is the only thing that will show the world the true nature of these jerks!

Man...Piss me off!

I just saw the whole Dateline News re-air segment on JW pedophiles and it was fantastic. I saw it once already but I just had to record it this time. I am happy that I heard what happened and I hope that all Witnesses will begin to open their eyes and see the real TRUTH !!!

Thanks, Larry.

John 11:45-48 - I can't think of a more fitting scripture. No wonder you were qualified to be an elder! (I mean that in the best sense).

Have you left the religion?

Has anyone been to Gracetoyou - John MacArthur??? He has very good essays on his site. If you read his writings and apply them to the WTS it is easy to look at the disgrace of it all. He is very very clear about what it means to forgive and under what conditions. All scripture backed of course. I do not agree with his "hell" doctrine but otherwise he is very succinct(spelling is bad) and does not mince his words.

Trouble with WTS - they are speaking to and of the lambs - never of themselves. The lambs have been so brainwashed with the fear of apostasy to NOT question the WTS behavior - that the lambs have turned on themselves and each other. They are devouring each other. Husband beats wife, wife beats children or stands by & watches husband beat children, children act out or hide in fear- what is the difference. Same pattern. Same result.

Any brother or sister who stands for Jehovah won't stand for this no matter who the WTS say they are. To divide is to conquer - to keep the brothers/sister at each other, is a triangulation of relationship being created by the WTS (and God is out of the picture entirely.) Keep the masses too busy with injustices with each other, burdened, and emotionally upset so they haven't the time to question who is creating this the conflict.

The "spiritual" ones are calling the rest names and labeling. The lifting up of the ego spirit by labeling the rest unspiritual, imperfect only applies to the spiritual and the rest are damned. To show how spiritual one is by labeling another unspiritual is arrogant, - I have done it myself. It is saying "I am self-righteous" without saying it I judge you as not spiritual based on what I perceive as spiritual is a big piece of wood in my eye. Constantly being told that you cannot trust the heart and confusing the heart with what is right while the common sense and decency is being beat out of you, shamed out of you. Being constantly told you have no where else to go...being told to go along with anything or else....being confused all the time about what is right and wrong, refining and constantly refining is no way to have a relationship with Jehovah, no way to have relationship with each other or yourself.

Pat answers, one-liners are a put-off to put you off, whether it is scripture or not. Pat answers are devoid of care about a solution to a problem. It is to put up with and cover up over.

When you are afraid to speak up, or leave a situation because you have no where else to go - it is the same position that a molested child would be in, or a battered wife would find herself in - JWs are being abused, oppressed being battered into believing that they have no other place to go and so they must wait on the Father, they must tolerate the abuse, they must or they will lose their life. When will Daddy come home and rescue us??

Can you imagine Jesus saying you have no where else to go to an oppressed, battered, molested, raped or otherwise misused human being?? The scriptures do not back this and how dare anyone apply the scriptures to such battered ones or to Jesus putting this meaning to his words.

For What it's Worth and it seems to be a lot here is a post moved up from May 2001

As a lifelong, fourth generation Jehovah's Witness, I have no direct, personal knowledge of any incident of child molestation with the organization. However, I personally have been given warnings on two separate occasions by two different elders. In one instance, my wife's brother, an elder who had sat on many judicial committees and appeals committees, advised my wife and me never to trust ANYONE, even a witness in good standing or a witness family member, to EVER be alone with either of our two small children. On another occasion, my brother, who is an elder, learned that our teenage daughter was spending the night with a witness friend of hers whose grandparents lived in the same home. He informed my wife and me that the friend's grandfather, himself a longtime elder, was a pedophile. If not for the previous advice and the fact that this comment came from my own fleshly brother whom I trust completely, I would have been doubtful of the information. File this entry under "For What It's Worth," please.

Another top of the line post from the past, May 2001 It has been noticed that some recent post are going of topic. Let focus people. If you have another pet peeve with the JW's go start a website on that yourself.

I was shocked and horrified to read of the Society's view towards child molestation. I was raised a Jehovah's Witness, but left the congregation when I was fifteen. Although my story differs somewhat, it is yet another example of how the congregation's elders have abused their power. My sister was raped when she was twenty-four by a man she did not know. The man had come along with my sister's best-friend and her husband to try to find employment in our city. My sister was not comfortable with this man staying at her apartment as he was worldly and she did not know him. She let him stay to watch a movie and then he was going to go stay at a hotel. She felt safe doing this because she was not going to be left alone with him as her best-friend and husband would be there. She also did not want to convey an unfriendly attitude towards him. He had shown some interest in the truth and she did not want to portray the congregation as unsympathetic to a potential study who had traveled quite a distance. Unfortunately, her best-friend and husband decided to go to bed before the movie ended, but my sister didn't think much of it because the movie was almost done. After he was sure everyone in the apartment had gone to sleep he decided to make his move. My sister spurned his advances emphatically and told him to leave. That's when he decided he was going to have her whether she liked it or not. In other words, he raped her. After it happened, my sister told my father who told her that she must tell the elders about what happened. He thought that they may be able to provide her with spiritual counseling to help her through the aftermath instead of her seeking outside worldly professional help. To make a long story short, they disfellowshipped her. Their reason was that she was guilty of "loose conduct that lead to fornication." They said she should have never had him in her home in first place and then this wouldn't have happened. They also said that because she only told him "NO!" repeatedly and did not scream that she was not emphatic enough and he must have thought she was enjoying it. I lost all faith and respect for the truth the day she was disfellowshipped. I will never step foot in another kingdom hall.

I think what you are doing with this website is very courageous of you. I can only imagine how it felt to finally realize how many young children were hurt because of the society's egotistical beliefs. It's bad enough when children are victimized in the first place, but to then have it happen again at the hands of people who claim to be compassionate and caring is beyond low. Please keep up your efforts, if you can tip off just one parent before it happens to their child you've accomplished your goal. I will leave my e-mail address with you and if there is anything I can do to help, I would be honored to try. I know there is no "heaven" but if there were I'm sure God would have already reserved you your spot. Take care and best of luck in the future.

Good Idea:

Someone said they're married to a JW and just wish the person would read this website. The thing to do I have found is to summarize the main points of the information along with its sources in a brief letter which you then mail to the spouse. Being human they will read it 95% of the time even though the Watchtower heads have forbidden it countless times. If you verbally try to get the person to look at such information they will usually resist because they are under threat of disfellowshipment etc. But the letter in the mail route is highly effective.

From June 2001 a very insightful post:

The more I talk to former JWs, the more I realize how pervasive rape & incest are within in the organization. Even though most JWs are good natured people, the totalitarianism, misogyny, and isolation of the group as a whole makes it fertile ground for sexual abuse of all types. Thank you for making this information public.

WTS is organized by the PR department and the legal department, in the spirit of image and protecting themselves legally. Not organized by Jehovah's spirit at all. Backed by legal and PR not Jehovah's Holy spirit.

It has been spiritual warfare against the lambs by the very people who are protecting the image and finding legal loop holes to do it.

Every story told is heartbreaking to me. I don't know you, can't see your face, or observe your pain at a meeting or say "Hi sister" and yet people who are your "friends" are not heartbroken for you and they break your spirit as well, "watch" you suffer, cause you to suffer some more and expect you to pray and get over it all backed & directed by the PR and legal department in the spirit of image & "legalistic" loop holes. Pat the pedophile on the back with a false show of "christian " love backed by ??????? while abandoning and betraying a child. YUCK. Backed by yuck, in the spirit of yuck.

WTS knows they are not backed by Jehovah's spirit. How can they not know it? A liar knows when they lie - they do it with full knowledge. There is no such thing as one lie. The lie is to change the perception of reality for you not them. To manipulate, to control, to make you doubt what you know, to implant a thought or idea in your mind. They know they don't have Jehovah's spirit and they don't want you to know it. Jehovah hates a liar. Satan is the father of the lie. Who can get you to deny this???? Who is getting you to deny this? The meek not the liars, not the ones who harm the meek, but the meek will inherit the earth.

I follow Jesus backed by Jehovah. Not an "organization" backed by good PR or a legal department "designed" to look good but isn't.

I saw a very sweet sister - yesterday. When she first became one of Jehovah's witnesses her son was molested, probably raped by an "Elder" - that son went on to molest another one of her children when he was older. I don't know the details. But she shared with me when I first met her what a "spiritual crisis" this was for her and how divided she is between the son who was molested by the elder, and same son became a pedophile from this experience and the other child touched by this son. A mother torn between two children all caused by an "elder." Elder remained in good standing, he died, whole congregation is spiritually zapped. Very inappropriate behavior, sexual innuendos jokes, talk, dress and body language. Big reason I was not safe there.

I gave her a big hug - but I was afraid to tell her about silentlambs. Suggestion about mailing a letter sounds good.

In addition, daughter who was molested by the son, rebelled against the JWS, went on to have a horrible life drugs, men etc.. which ended in a car accident 8 months or so ago. She died disfellowshipped - can you imagine????? the pain and emotional upset that this mother is going through - all for Jehovah???? or for the WTS? I wanted to tell her about this web site. There is a dad too - and he was very close to this daughter and he is baptized too.

Sister expressed to me while telling me the story - that she was being put through a trial to test her faith by these events. What she fails to realized that Jehovah would never expect her to put up with this - put her children in danger, have them harmed and destroyed for the privilege of her having accurate knowledge. Tear her family apart and see if she remains faithful to the "discreet slave" - that tore her family apart. What kind of cruelty is this? How dare anyone say that Jehovah's spirit backs this.

"The only way to defeat an enemy is to deny it battle."

If the JW's will not or can not change their ways.

Silentlambs is here to help.

Jehovah's Witnesses believe they are in a war.
In war the children are always the first to suffer.

I am glad that this site and all the work of dedicated silentlambs is here to care for the walking wounded.

I am so glad to find this site, my very best friend for life went through a terrible ordeal, when her now ex husband molested her daughter from a previous marriage we are no longer witnesses, but all these stories are real, I know I lived it with her, can you believe it. When the pervert was finally arrested it was Jehovah witnesses who bailed him out, my friend was disfellowshipped; I was disfellowshipped because I chose to go to a mental hospital so I could deal with the sexual abuse I dealt with as a child; I was told Jehovah should be our only help, I told them they were unqualified to deal with it, then I seen the writing on the wall, so I lied told them I had been smoking weed, and the kicked me out; I will try to get my friend to post her story you wont believe it. To all who think of JWs are sexual perverts:

Most JWs are very meek and honest hearted ones. They just try to do the right thing. (1Cor.6:1-7) Do you remember the scripture where Jesus says that in order to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, you have to be like a child? I guess in a way they are like one. I think it is the leaders, who are threatening the congregations, also have the problems. Apparently throughout the history they have been like this. How sad! Maybe Jehovah left them long time ago. Maybe that's why they have to change so many times to get it right like blinds searching for treasure.

Well, I guess the Catholic Church isn't alone in this matter. This will make things in the door to door preaching more interesting for my wife who is one of Jehovah's Witnesses. I was too about twenty years ago, before being disfellowshipped for alcoholism. It seems that the Congregation isn't equipped to really help it's members in every way possible. All they did for me is throw me out. As it turned out I've been sober for almost twenty years now. I guess in that respect the disfellowshipping worked. I never did go back, but my wife hasn't given up on me. Too bad they choose to isolate themselves. There sure are a lot of good people out here in the world. I heard of a shocking child abuse case in Naugatuck Ct. My wife used to attend that congregation and is friends with this ten year boys mom. Dad would force the boy to have sex with him. It did all came out and the police were contacted. Dad did do jail time for approx. eight years. Has anyone ever mentioned that there are other forms of child abuse going on at these congregation meetings? My wife tells me about it and it makes me crazy! I think there are way too many spankings and beatings given to young children, sometimes they're under one year of age. All because they can't sit still and be quiet for two hours! COME ON! Now I also know that there has been counsel from the platform about this. So who's job is it to make sure the counsel is followed?

This is a shocking subject that should not be concealed. How dare they even call themselves Christian, while allowing these things to happen in their congregations. No wonder they also have one of the worlds highest suicide rates! This site is doing an excellent job. Well done to all concerned.

I too used to be one of Jehovah's Witnesses. I was a victim of incest as a child and I believe that along with other emotional issues caused me to turn to "religion", specifically the Witnesses to be my family. I believe that, that is the type of person that is so desperate to belong that finds themselves amongst the Witnesses. There sadly was an incident involving my child and another child that was never reported and I have problems with it to this day even though it happened many years ago. While I don't agree completely with everything in the statement I read at your website, I do believe and understand enough to agree with your assessment of the situation. Sadly I feel any that do voice an opinion such as mind will be labeled as an "apostate", this term is banded about far to often when someone out of clear conscience leaves the organization. This took a lot of courage. Bravo for supporting the victims and survivors of the JW organization.

Sincerely,
If a pedophile is smart he will stick to one child so that there will never be “two witnesses” to accuse him. Very good. There has to be a better way than that. There are scores of stories that belie the fact of the "two witness" theory.

It is against the law to endanger a child, it is morally wrong to endanger a child, and it is spiritually dark to silence the lambs or keep them in the "dark."

An elder from the congregation I was attending had a study with a pedophile who was going out in service. This brother let this "guy" come to his home, be around his children and wife. Fin anally, the wife put a stop to it. But here is a brother sooo naive that he would bring a "study" who is a pedophile into his home around his daughters.

Thank god for "gossip" ---that is the only way I would have known about this. It is misplaced loyalty. This brother "thinks" that being loyal to Jehovah requires being disloyal to his own family. This brother showed christian love to the wrong person.

The problem for me was how could I trust an Elder that uses such poor judgement?. If an Elder brings someone to his home, I would assume that the guest is okay and safe. Then maybe I would invite this person to my home or befriend him. This is the same congregation that had a Ped-brother for years and certainly destroyed the life of more than one.

The "study" finally stopped studying, end of issue. Thank god.

The WTS has more than enough information about how pedophiles operate to educate the congregations from the platform and put pedophiles on warning that we know how they operate. Especially because the "friends" stick so close to each other and trust each other so much and are encouraged to branch out. They are deceived as to how clean the congregations are and have to resort to Gossip to protect each other.

Everyone is entitled to know. Everyone has children, nieces & nephews or grandchildren - very few don't. I disowned my own brother, who "entertains" the other brother who sexually assaulted my children. My brother has never ever shown any concern for what happen to my kids - but only concern for the pedophile brother. And he isn't even a witness and yet he shows the same kind of love to a pedophile that the witnesses do.
I believe that if God want's to say something that is important He mentions it more than once in his Word. I would respectfully ask that all J.W's read Matt.19. 13-15. Mark 10. 13-16. Luke 18. 15-17.

Please don't try to interpret it, just read it and hear what Jesus, the Word of Jehovah God actually said about children. Also, note the compassion that Jesus showed for children, let's try a little bit of that too. It doesn't matter who you are or where your religious affiliations lay. Children are special gifts to us all and deserve our protection. Please do not let the strict rulings within the Society allow us to fail these little ones.

The Constitution of the United States GUARANTEES you (and everyone else) the right to say ANYTHING to ANYONE.

Outside of the obvious (like yelling 'Fire!' in a crowded movie theater), no one has a legal right to stop you.

Now you know why.

When someone wants to eradicate your Constitutional rights, you must pause and ask why.

Likely they are up to no good.

ANSWERS TO SOME QUESTIONS

To answer the question on why magazine subscriptions have stopped...it purely was a matter of cost. There is no charge for literature and all done on a donation basis and the cost was too high. WT's and Awakes are still available to everyone through the Kingdom Halls and door to door, if so desired. BTW....The Kingdom Hall I grew up in had windows. The current one I'm in does not. My Dads KH in Georgia has windows.

For those of you bashing the organization. Several points: We are not isolated, ignorant, brainwashed people. I go to work everyday where I manage a large group of people of all faiths. I've got a brain and am allowed to think. If my child was sexually abused, I would go to the elders and to the police to stop the abuser. The elders would not threaten me with disfellowshipping. There are some knuckleheads in the WT organization, just like in any other organization who have not treated problems correctly and have truly mishandled some problems. For the most part, elders within these congregations are hard working, honest people, trying to worship God and do the right thing. This organization will make mistakes because it is not perfect. We are warned to watch our association, even in the Kingdom Hall. Personally, my husband and I watch our children and our association inside and outside the organization. Please, there are many good people out there and when I read the ridiculous comments some of you are making in ignorance it tells me that you are merely here to 'Witness bash'. Bill's reason for being here is for the
I just wanted to take this occasion to point out a particular verse or two in the book of Ezekiel that could be possibly be viewed as very pertinent to your cause in exposing Child Abuse in the organization of Jehovah's Witnesses.

What if in BIBLE PROPHECY, Jehovah God pinpoints this particularly unique and regrettable "situation" you are dealing with for Avid Bible Students today, and the resulting aftermath of it, when exposed to the world?

Could it be possible?

Ezekiel 36:3 says,

"Therefore prophesy, and you must say, This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said: For the reason, even for the reason that there has been a lying desolate and a snapping at you from all sides, in order for you to become a possession to the remaining ones of the nations and you [Israel] CONTINUE TO BE TALKED ABOUT WITH THE TONGUE AND THERE IS A BAD REPORT AMONG PEOPLE,"

What is this "Bad Report" that is circulating among people of the world about modern-day "Israel" [Jehovah's Witnesses] in these "last days"?

THE "BAD REPORT" -- WHAT IS IT?

Ezekiel 36:13, 14 says,

"This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah has said, "For the reason that there are those saying to you: "A DEVOURER OF HUMANKIND is what you [Israel] yourself are, and [a land] BEREAVING YOUR NATIONS OF CHILDREN is what you have become,"

...let's just pause here.

a) Child molestation & abuse = "BEREAVING YOUR NATIONS OF CHILDREN."

Clear-cut point. Also,

b) Vicious Disfellowshipment of responsible Adults who try to help and correct the problem, makes Israel "A DEVOURER OF HUMANKIND."

Another clear-cut point.

Could it be, possibly, this is what the prophet envisioned for our day? Really, it is something to think about, isn't it?
Now, let's continue reading,

"...therefore humankind you will no more DEVOUR, and your nations YOU [ISRAEL] WILL NO MORE BEREAVE OF CHILDREN," is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

Jehovah God says this reproachful conduct by His People Israel, will Stop! But how?

How will Jehovah God himself bring a halt to this "bereavement of children" of "your nations," nations belonging to "Israel" -- their own "children."

Answer: Ezekiel 36:12 which says,

"And UPON YOU [ISRAEL] I [JEHOVAH] WILL CAUSE HUMANKIND TO WALK, even my people Israel, and they must take possession of you, and you must become a hereditary possession to them, and YOU WILL NOT BEREAVE THEM AGAIN OF ANY MORE CHILDREN."

JEHOVAH GOD causes "humankind" of this earth, the world in general, to literally take vengeance on God's People Israel [Jehovah's Witnesses] and "WALK" all over Israel. Simply put, "Israel" [Jehovah's Witnesses] are caught, exposed, captured, hemmed up in a world-wide "siege" by the world in general, all by Jehovah God's help, direction and permission! -- See Zechariah 12:1-3.

In other words, with God's permission, the "nations" of this world will stomp "Israel" [Jehovah's Witnesses] into the ground and make a PUBLIC SPECTACLE of them, for carrying on this heinous activity and covering it up. "Humankind" will "take possession" of Israel, make them a "hereditary possession to themselves."

And since Jehovah God Himself has authorized it, ordained this, the child molestation will certainly STOP among Jehovah's Witnesses. The "bereavement of children," as Jehovah has said, will finally stop once it is exposed to the world. And all the "nations" belonging to "Israel," Jehovah's Witnesses, will be free of "bereavement of children" before our God Jehovah. Because God has seen their wickedness that they have practiced, and He will bring a halt to it, by the means He has outlined in His Word.

This DIRECT ACTION OF GOD thus, becomes the very beginning of Jehovah's direct intervention and administering of the much prophesied Great Divine Discipline upon His Own Name People, clearly demonstrating to the world that "judgment" does indeed "start with the House of God." -- Please consider Jeremiah 25:29; 1 Peter 4:17; Isaiah 30:26; Jeremiah 23:19, 20; 30:23, 24; Micah 4:6, 7; Daniel 7:25; 12:7; Revelation 11:2, 3; 13:5-7.

I'd say that is something to ponder, wouldn't you?

Thanks for your ear in listening to the above and for the good job you are doing in exposing this particular wicked situation that exists among Jehovah's Witnesses as a nation.

There can be no doubt but that the existence of this troubling situation among Jehovah's Witnesses proves that Jehovah is forced to REMOVE any reproach or actions that tend to "profane His Name" in any way. Bible prophecy shows He will remedy the situation by chasing his people to "the wilderness of the peoples" and "purging" of the JW Organization of its "revolters" and "transgressors" before Him. After which, He will restore His people and "pour out His spirit" upon them, as a repentant people. -- See Ezekiel 20:9, 14, 22, 44; 35-39; 39:21-29; Compare also Revelation 12:1, 6, 14 for similarities in message.

Because of unrepentantly practicing sin before God on the part of the Jehovah Witnesses as a nation, Jehovah will be forced to "SANCTIFY HIMSELF". This means he will "hold himself holy" or "treat himself sacred" or holy, and His Great Name as such, by taking necessary steps to protect His Great Name because of the bad conduct of the people, as shown at Ezekiel 39:27. (See footnote on this verse in large print New World Translation Ref. Bible)

If you are in a divorce situation with a Jehovah Witness and the custody of children at stake, You need to go to this link before you go to court.

http://www.freeminds.org/psych/whylie.htm

If you plan to go to court and take on a Jehovah's Witness or the "Organization" they worship you need to prepare yourself for what you are up against. This sophic propaganda machine has a legion of legal and layman warriors waiting to crush anyone who stands in their way.

In response to Beth:

>Several points: We are not isolated,

Yes you are! You see everybody as an enemy!! You even cant be friends with 'apostates'!!

>ignorant, brainwashed people.

Yes you are! Responses to this site prove it!

>I go to work everyday where I manage a large group >of people of all faiths.

So?? Doesn't prove you not brainwashed!!

>I've got a brain and am allowed to think.
Well, that's your standard answer, but when you do use it, like f.i. Bill, you get DF!!!!! So much for being allowed to use your brains!!!!!! So why don't you all use it then to convince the WTS to change their policy in order to protect innocent children!! Cause when you really would use your brains you have to agree that no predator will allow two witnesses during his malicious deeds!

>If my child was sexually abused, I would go to the >elders and to the police to stop the abuser.

Oh yeah? And what if they tell you to shut up, like they did to so many people, or threaten you with DF???

> The elders would not threaten me with >disfellowshipping.

How do you know for sure?? What makes you so special to think that it won't happen to you but it did happen to thousands of other people??

> There are some knuckleheads in the WT >organization, just like in any other organization >who have not treated problems correctly and have >truly mishandled some problems.

So, do something about it!! At least the Catholic Church is, so why not the WTS? They are still in the denial phase!!!! And instead of helping the people who came forward with it, they DF them??????

> For the most part, elders within these >congregations are hard working, honest people, >trying to worship God and do the right thing.

Apparently a lot of them are not!!!

> This organization will make mistakes because it is >not perfect.

So admit it... by putting an excuse on the cover of the next Awake, instead of denying everything!

> and when I read the ridiculous comments some of >you are making in ignorance

Ignorance?? You must be out of your mind?? You are the one who is ignorant, they all had those terrible experiences, you obviously didn't!!

> to get real information on JW's please go to an >accurate source. jw-media.org and watchtower.org

Accurate source?????? You mean a source that only boost his own ego?? LOL If this source was 'accurate' then it should have let all their docile sheep know a long time ago what was going on re. child-abuse!! Most people didn't find out until the Dateline program????

> If you've been abused, get the help you >need...there is nothing wrong with getting >professional help.

Right, that's what they all did, as they were told to do, trying to get help within their organizations and obviously most of them were told to shut up and send packing, and elders just aren't professional enough to help these people, they are merely volunteers with NO special training so how on earth can they judge things like this???

How could I ever end up SUPPORTING

THEN, I thought about the lawsuits against the WT. It sickened me to think that my money went to defend the WT against victims of their varied abuses when they tried to exact justice from the WT for their misdeeds against them.

NOW, victims like myself are suing the WT. Did I want to be paying for the WT to defend my perp or any other in a court of law??!!??!! You better believe that I DIDN'T!!!

How could I ever end up SUPPORTING the man who raped me!!!??!!...while I scraped by or went without!!!!???

So, GOOD-BYE, NO MORE CONTRIBUTIONS TO WTBTS from my meager earnings!!!

Yes, I told, but nobody listened! Yes, he is "KNOWN" to the elders to whom I spoke about it. But, I don't have two witnesses...yet!

Even if I did they have already let me know in the 1995 WT "COMFORT (caps added) for Those With a Stricken Spirit" that it won't do me any good because they won't do anything about it. You see, I have had amnesia due to the horrific nature of the abuse and my "recovered memories" aren't considered valid by those who make the policies.

What a twist! First, in the October 8, 1991 Awake! they gave me "permission" to remember the abuse. Then in the 1995 WT above they took away the good impact that my memories would have had.

I CRIED SO HARD WHEN I REALIZED JUST WHAT THEY HAD DONE TO ME AND THOUSANDS OF VICTIMS!!! HE STILL GETS TO HIDE!!! These animals are being shielded, protected and even cared for by the WT in every way possible! Doesn't it make you wonder if any of the policy-makers are pedophiles?

I agree with the person who said that she has a brain and is a JW. To talk about modern day "self-censorship" as brainwashing does not mean that JW's are lobotomized. It seems that the average JW is very intelligent in literature (Biblical) and most have a respectable grasp on the concept of philosophy. (Rhetoric, and Sophic.) It is sad that so many JW's think that anyone who disagrees publicly with them is "bashing them." Some of the above comments are over the top and "bashing." All of them however are not. Some people are hurt, others angry and betrayed by the very people that they love and trust. Other's like me become "frustrated" with the blind loyalty. Educated people will change their view if evidence shows that the ideology they believe in is flawed. Propagandists will not. Indoctrination should never be considered education. It is not. The main issue with the JW official sites is that there is no forum for comment or review. (Censure) They only show their side to every issue. (Stack the deck.) They dismiss anything that does not show the WTS's favor.

I question Rodney Stark as a credible source for WT justification. "The worst place to get information about a group is from a person who has left the group." Mr. Stark claims in his work on religious growth and JW's that "disfellowshipping is rare and that most members "defect" from the Organization." They then become angry. He then dismisses anyone who has any negative comments about JW's who was a former member. He ridicules "cult analysis," and "exit counseling." (But I don't know how that applies to religious growth.) He says that the Jehovah's Witnesses were never really associated with Russell, and that Rutherford is now called the true founder of the organization "Jehovah's Witnesses." Anyone who has not been a member should not comment on them. And as we have seen anyone inside the club who speaks out causes division and is either disfellowshipped or through coercion "defects" and is now untrustworthy.
I agree with Mr. Stark so much that much of the "Jehovah's Witnesses" deeds are ignored. (Good and Bad) I agree that it is wrong that Academia does not recognize them, and their accomplishments, and their faults. When I want to write about them in college it is hard to find sources of scholarly worthiness. I am glad to find Mr. Stark's academic work. He does however seem to quote himself or his own work to justify his position often.

Does anyone know where Mr. Stark is currently working? I would like to contact him. Is he a JW? Does he work for The Watchtower. Did the Watchtower pay him for his comments on the Organization? I am asking because in order to write about a controversial organization you need to know the background of the cited authors. I.e. is he affiliated with the organization. Was he paid, or does he have an axe to grind?

I stopped making contributions to the WT Society when I realized that my hard-earned money was going to support my molester at one of the Society's facilities!...How so?

I was paying for HIS medical expenses, HIS dental expenses, HIS insurance, HIS transportation, the roof over HIS head, HIS food, HIS clothing, HIS utilities, HIS laundry, HIS tailoring, HIS recreation facilities......in short, whatever HE needed!

How could I ever end up SUPPORTING the man who raped me!!!...while I scraped by or went without!!!

Then, I thought about the lawsuits against the WT. It sickened me to think that my money went to help defend the WT against the victims of their varied abuses when they took the WT to court in order to get justice.

Now, victims like myself are suing the WT. Did I want to be paying for the WT to defend my perp or any other in a court of law? You better believe that I didn't!!!

So, GOOD-BYE, NO MORE CONTRIBUTIONS TO WTBTS from my meager earnings!!!

For those who are wonder, yes, I told, but nobody seemed to care! Yes, he is "KNOWN" to the elders to whom I spoke about it. But, I don't have two witnesses...yet.

Even if I did the Society already let me know in the 1995 WT "COMFORT (caps added) for Those With a Stricken Spirit" that it won't do me any good because they won't do anything about it. You see, I have had amnesia due to the horrific nature of the abuse and my "recovered memories" are considered, by those who make the policies, as "dubious", not to be trusted as reliable and not valid enough for them to take action on.

What a twist! First, in the October 8, 1991 Awake they gave me "permission" to remember the abuse. What a relief from the pressure the elders put me under for remembering! Then in the 1995 WT above they took away everything they had given me in the 1991 Awake and with that they took away my rights as his victim to see him brought to justice. Instead, they proceeded to put him in a place "out of reach." (See NWT Reference Bible Ps. 91:14, I think, footnote)

To keep me quiet he had threatened to disfellowship me and he threatened to kill someone I loved. Besides that, because of his position in the organization he said, "nobody will ever believe a little tramp like you". Now that I am allowed to remember what he did to me, he can't be prosecuted in the JW judicial forum! He's safe. I get the shaft from JWs.

I CRIED SO HARD WHEN I REALIZED JUST WHAT THEY HAD DONE TO ME AND THOUSANDS OF VICTIMS!!! HE STILL GETS TO HIDE!!! These animals are being shielded, protected and even cared for by the WT in every way possible!
Doesn't it make you wonder if any of the policy-makers are child molesters!

Yes, I am outraged! What they have done is outrageous!

To the person who picked apart my post, boy, you are very angry, I'm sorry. Anger sometimes doesn't help us see situations clearly. Whatever your personal situation is and if JW's have hurt you in the past, all I can say is I hope you find peace ....I am one of the "23,000 and counting people" that you first see when you load the page. I am far from ready to tell my story. Also, my daughter was almost abused by a male babysitter. Not ready to tell that story either, but, to say how stupid I was not to realize what was happening. So, after that, I can count how many times on one hand we've left our two children with babysitters. So, I think I have a right to post here. Just a comment on EGO - - - every religion has it. Every religion believes that they are worshiping God the way that He wants them to. We all need to cultivate a personal relationship with God and if I believe that being a JW is the way to do it...so be it. Another comment....I have made peace with what has happened to me. However, I've been left with an anxiety disorder that I believe is a direct result of what happened to me as a child. Beth

I was married to a man who's immediate family are Jehovah's Witnesses (my ex-husband chose to not become one himself when he reached adulthood). I remember my ex-sisters-in-law, ex-mother-in-law and ex-father-in-law talking badly of a woman who was molested by her father and went to the elders for help. The elders did nothing until she went to the police and filed charges, thus bringing the scandal out into the open in their small suburban town. The woman's father eventually was disfellowshipped because of the publicity BUT only because of it.

The poor woman was ostracized for wanting justice for herself and the desire to prevent her father from hurting another a child. No one in the congregation ever provided her support and kindness for the ordeal she went through. What ever happened to Christian kindness the bible speaks of?
The Watchtower Society and Jehovah's Witnesses have to learn that they are not above the secular laws established by governments and that they are not better than other so-called “worldly” religious organizations. What they are currently doing is exactly the same as what the Catholic Church has done. Maybe even worse since the Catholic Church is now trying to amend their past mistakes, prevent future children from being hurt, and compensate the past victims of pedophile priests.

When I briefly studied w/my ex-mother-in-law she constantly made a point of telling me that the JW organization was different from other religions because they made a point of correcting their mistakes and that JWs weren't hypocrites like those in other religions. Now a light as emerged and the "truth" of Jehovah's Witnesses and The Watchtower Society is coming out for all to see.

This Website is appalling and you know as well as I do that Jehovah will deal with those elders if they in fact were involved in a cover up and he will deal with you as a disgraceful apostate. Time will tell. You have made it clear to me that this system of things is truly soon coming to an end and I was molested when I was very young and my father wanted to indeed have this man arrested and I, yes I decided that Jehovah would deal with this man and that trial would be painful for me the elders in the congregation suggested that we go to the police as well and my father didn't want to see me suffer and we left the matter alone and Jehovah was my strong hold I even had a child from this situation. A few years later I was disfellowshipped for fornication but before that the counsel that I had been given before discipline was administered I did not heed. I have been disfellowshipped twice and I just learn the hard way. But I still have faith in my God and it is such a pity that you have let Satan swallow your heart in his anger.

To the woman who had a child by the molester: You are the epitome of victimization. You remain a JW after going through that whole mess, while you wait for God to exact his retribution. You blame yourself for not taking discipline. I hope everyone read that post - is this a cult or what?

For the sake of your child, I hope you get the gumption to start thinking for yourself - or else your child will be the most likely to suffer the same fate.

I am just appalled by what I am reading. Raised as a JW, I spent countless horrible nights sad and depressed because of the state of my family. An overbearing, controlling and cruel mother and a spineless, laid-back timid "elder" father. What truth there is to these letters, reports from children being raised in a religion where image seems to be EVERYTHING. Where outside help, counseling or therapy is out of the question. Where activities are strictly monitored, advanced education is discouraged, even organized sports or school plays are banned.

I can't tell you how much rage I continue to have against my mother, even now at the age of 33. I remember every single belittling, cold and calculating thing she said to me to make me feel inferior, not worthy of Jehovah's love, not worthy of being an "elder's" daughter. But just as long as everything looked good from the outside looking in. As long as we were the perfect little family at the meeting and the assemblies. I want to vomit to think how many kids are feeling terrible today?

Plenty, I am sure.

I read about your work exposing sexual predators from within, and protected by, JW's in this morning's Melbourne 'Age' (Victoria, Australia). It gave this website address, so if there's anything like that happening here (I'm not a JW, so I don't know), hopefully more victims can get the support they need and will maybe be brave enough to go to the police and/or speak out. Good on you for taking this step - you are one courageous man!

to 'GOKUU' -- Why on earth would you, or any half-sane person want to be associated with any religious group thatadvertize itself as the "TRUTH" -- such arrogance is hard to believe. It becomes clear, the more I read about the Witnesses, that they have become fixated on the word 'Jehovah' ... they hardly ever mention Jesus, or GOD ... it just a constant barrage of Jehovah .. Jehovah .. Jehovah .. over and over again. It's an ages old trick of the mind-control people; brainwash the gullible and fill their brains with catch-words and outrageous promises of never-ending life in paradise..take their money and live splendidly while controlling their movements and thinking. It seems to be impossible for the people who believe in that religious dictatorship, the Watchtower gang, to understand that true spirituality has nothing to do with organized religion (any organized religion) If Jesus ever does return to this earth (highly bloody unlikely) but if he did, and saw what the Watch Tower thieves have done to the true meaning of spirituality, he would probably nail himself back up on the stake, and give up for good. No, no, folks, it ain't gonna happen .. you're not going to paradise .. you're there now .. you just can't see it because your masters in Brooklyn have successfully blinded you to the fact with double talk and have robbed you of true spirituality .. you wouldn't belong to that organization if you had a chance to understand that cults like the JW's have nothing to do with true respect for humanity. Take a break.. read what the thinkers of the world have to say about fake, selfish religious businesses. Forget the catch words: Apostate .. disfellowshipped .. goats .. they have no real meaning .. they're part of the whole brainwashing thing. Go out and become a 'born again' person . Forget about the masters of deception who have all followed the advice of another great con-man, Ron L. Hubbard, the inventor of the Christian Scientists, who once said "If you want to make a million dollars, start a religion" Good luck, once you start reading the stuff the Watch Tower doesn't want you to read.. search for the real 'Truth' and when you find it, you'll wonder why you had anything to do with the Watch Tower con-men. Again, Best of Luck .. keep searching.

The real problem I find with Jehovah's Witnesses is that they used to be so nice. I remember going to meetings and people used to be genuinely happy to see me. I was at a meeting this past Sunday and during the Watchtower study one of the Elders made this comment."If we come late or we are NOT prepared for the meetings like not having our magazine (Watchtower) with us why do we even bother coming to meeting at all" I had just asked him for a extra magazine for my son who does not go anymore then 2 minutes later he makes this comment.

WHERE IS THE LOVE THAT USED TO BE SO EVIDENT??

It seems Jehovah's Witnesses have become like all other RELIGIONS (SELF RIGHTEOUS).

I do not need 1 hand to count how many friends I have or trust for that matter, I still go only cause all you wackos out there who go back to all the PAGAN doctrines i.e trinity etc, have really got no where else to go.

Basically it most be we are in the very end of this system. I hope I can hang in but the people have become real SELF RIGHTEOUS.

The Jehovah's Witnesses' Official Website (www.watchtower.org) has many interesting articles on child abuse posted right now. I believe their side of this issue should be considered. Besides, over the years they have published many articles dealing with the subject of child abuse, with suggestions on how to prevent child abuse and encouraging victims to report it to responsible adults and bring it out into the open. (Even articles detailing how to report these incidents to the police.) And also articles to help former victims to begin their healing process and to encourage them to "draw close to Jehovah" because this personal relationship is a source of great strength and healing while we are living in these "critical times hard to deal with". Sorry, they don't!! And I know what I'm talking about!

Indeed, you are absolutely right, but if you tell them, they will tell you that you are a liar and that people get paid by the Pope to write bad things about J.G.!!! Can you believe this?? And this was an educated person who told me!!!!!

"I question Rodney Stark as a credible source for WT justification. "The worst place to get information about a group is from a person who has left the group.""

Right again, especially because these ex J.W. were never allowed to speak out!!! And even if only half of what they say is true, it's still far TOO much horror!!!

"Mr. Stark claims in his work on religious growth and JW's that "disfellowshipping is rare and that most members "defect" from the Organization."

Indeed, that's why THEY want me to believe as well, how come that everybody is telling otherwise! But you see what happened to Bill Bowen and Barbara Anderson?
"Anyone who has not been a member should not comment on them."

Why do they comment on the rest of the world then? Why are we all apostates/enemies then?? "I am glad to find Mr. Stark's academic work. He does however seem to quote himself or his own work to justify his position often." Typically cult behaviour!!

Deborah, you wrote: "Besides, over the years they have published many articles dealing with the subject of child abuse, with suggestions on how to prevent child abuse and encouraging victims to report it to responsible adults and bring it out into the open"

It's great to write about those things, but it is MUCH MUCH better if you live up to it and take the action you promised, when necessary!!! And apparently they don't!!!
I am a fan of Rodney Stark and have read several of his books including his book on the growth of Christianity after Christ and his book on the history of religion in America.

When I heard he was being presented as an educated defender of JW's - especially at this time - I was a little shocked, to say the least.

For the person who asked, Mr. (Dr.?) Stark is a sociologist with an interest in religion.

He was sometimes referred to as 'the village atheist walking around with a computer' as he is fascinated with religion from a sociological point of view and has studied it intensely and brilliantly.

As I read his book on the growth of Christianity, I had the pronounced feeling that, 'this person is in the process of conversion' and his work did a lot to bolster my own my faith. I smiled that that was probably unintentional on his part.

I later read something that he in fact WAS experiencing some lights of faith turning on in his life. I was SO happy for him.

Tho meaning to, I haven't followed him as much as I've wanted to.

Recently, I saw that his picture was posted by the WTS on their page that they created to defend themselves and I'm wondering.......'what's that about?'

I've not encountered anything else since. It sounds like some of you have.

Can you tell me where?

I'm REAL curious to know what's going on here and what exactly is his involvement in this 'defense'.

Rodney Stark is, in my opinion, a brilliant man (and scholar) and an engaging writer.

Please tell me where I can get a better idea of what his current relationship is with WT public relations.

Thanks

I can't imagine WHY it is not public knowledge that Jehovah's witnesses have a high rate of mental illness, a high rate of suicide and a high rate of criminal sexual behavior (even a high rate of pedophilia dating back to the 1960's).

Growing up as a child of JW's, it sure would have changed my life if someone had pointed me in a direction that helped me to realize that the people who were raising me had some severe psychiatric problems. (Lord knows, the WTS would have been a useless source of enlightenment on that topic!)

In any event, you can find more at:
Pass it on.....

you may be helping some child who is currently suffering. They won't be children forever you know.

This may help them to develop a more healthy life for themselves as they mature.

Hi, just read the latest comments resulting from airing of Dateline. About 90% pro and about 10% against. Noticed an interesting thing about the JWs who are denying that molestation exists: They cannot spell correctly, their grammar is abominable, their use of the English language is limited, and their thought processes are not orderly. Could this be an indication that the JWs who do not wish to help "un-silence" the victims are lacking in fundamental intelligence? Of course we know they lack compassion/love, but in my opinion they are also lacking in even an average degree of intelligence. Faye B.

My heart goes out to you and others like you (us). I have found much helpful info in these texts:

'Understanding the Borderline Mother' by Lawson

'Children of the Self-Absorbed' (and any and all books on Narcissism)

'The New Personality Profile; Why You Think, Work, Love and Act the Way You Do' by Oldham.

The road is long, but as in spring, the time is inspiring, hopeful and even fun when it is growing brighter every day.

My best to you.

Cant you??? To my humble opinion, that's because you have to get those figures from the WTS itself!!!!!!And they will NEVER let you now what's going on within the organization!! If they cover up all the child abuse cases, do you really think they want the world to know what's going on?? There would be nothing left of their so-called 'good' image!!

Good point.

We, however, do not need their permission to talk. Or even, to speak out.

As the Bible says, what is hidden shall be revealed.

Or as Lincoln said, 'You can fool some of the people all the time and all of the people some of the time. But you can't fool all of the people all of the time.'

(I'm not sure if this is an accurate figure, but I read recently that there are about as many ex-JW's as there are current JW's. I'm not sure what to make of that - I just thought it was interesting.)

You have a right to speak. Don't imagine that it doesn't matter.

I, too, was a victim in which my former husband and father of my five grown children molested my daughter. She has suffered so much from the hands of this animal, that her life won't ever be the same. He was also an elder in the Madera Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. The damage this man caused to our family will never be repaired! I sincerely pray with all my heart, that this site will help people see the "true" light and get out of that cult which destroyed my family back in 1981, after being in the organization for 15 years. Thank God I am finally free from this horrible Cult. Gloria Scroggins.

We don't, however, need their permission to speak.
As the Bible says, 'what is hidden shall be revealed'.

Or as Lincoln said, 'You can fool some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time. But you can't fool all of the people all of the time.'

Do not imagine that your voice does not matter.

"As the Bible says, what is hidden shall be revealed."

Well, what I don't understand then, if the J.W.'s live so strictly to Bible rules, then there would be no use in hiding things like child-abuse, membership of the U.N. and god only knows what more there is to hide!!!

Most religions conduct themselves with a common set of ethics. Jehovah's Witnesses don't. They believe that because they are favored by their god the rules of common religious ethics don't apply to them. All of their problems stem from that. It is that simple. It gives way to horrible ways of life and raising children. They like corporal punishment. With the very young in particular. They are obsessed with "respect for elders." They have no issues with beating that respect out of a child. They have no issues with saying that their god does not love them if they don't submit to "elders". They have no issues with using coercion to keep people in line with guilt, shame, or shunning to force their VERSION of reality on others. Jehovah's Witnesses will wait on their god to fix their lives and their mistakes an the things that they should take care of themselves. It is their own hell. It reasons to think that most of them would rather rule in hell than serve in heaven. It is sad.

They have an archaic version of god, I.e. "Jehovah." That version of an angry philanthropist was fired as the common belief in a Monotheistic version of God a long time ago; And rightly so. We don't need that baloney any more. The only one's who do need that angry god are the one's who wish to have absolute control and power over people.

One thing is that NO Jehovah's Witness has ever or will ever get their wish. Jesus is not coming to kill all of us. (If he did I doubt he has ever seen an MX missile.) He came in the name of love. He left in the name of love. his return has already come. It is in you. It is all around you. It is not in a name, a religion, an organization, or a building. It is in you.  (Right Now.) Christ was the first Christian. He was also the last.

Ask Yourself:

"Is my motive for acting a desire to merely to appear good for the sake of gain or pleasure? Am I saying one thing while intending to do another? If so, I am guilty of hypocrisy."

For those people who can't handle this... BITE ME!
For those people who can't handle this... BITE ME!"

Are you sure? Being bitten about 6.000.000 times??:-)))

Great comments. Lots of good critical thinking going on.

Read my bible this morning about the "she-ass and Balaam and the angel in the road. Balaam was headlong against Jehovah. Bill is the messenger as so many on this site are...she asses being beaten for speaking the truth And not worshipping anyone but God or finding salvation in anyone but Jesus.

Another thought: 2 witnesses is the law, Jesus fulfilled the law and told Christians to be in fear of the government & their laws - obey them. The 10 comments are summed up with Love God and your neighbor. The "apostasy" is in N.Y. - not on this web site. The "society" is opposing Jehovah by using the 2 witnesses as LAW, disfellowshipping people who speak out against what is wrong, involving themselves in PR with the UN, deciding the fate of the Malawi brothers and calling anyone who exposes the truth apostates. Where is the healthy teaching?? Pray for God's Kingdom or the WTS Kingdom.

Saw a sister who has suffered, her children have suffered due to molestation in congregation - I posted about this before. I asked her if she saw Dateline - oh boy...she said she would never ever watch - they are apostates etc...I mentioned the UN she knew nothing about it. I asked her why the subscriptions were being hand delivered. AT first she said she didn't know and then she said it was so that a better "witness" would be given, people don't know what they are reading etc...This is a different answer than the price of postage. Then she said she would be glad to come and visit with me, bring two elders to discuss my concerns. I told her no.

All the self-doubt creeps in and so I read my bible. And I come to this site and read the posts. The posts were excellent today.

RE: JW Bashing - it is nothing compared to what a child and a parent go through. I compare the WTS to a Golden Calf, the children are being thrown in the fire as sacrifice. I have not heard one person bash Jehovah or Jesus - not one. I cannot worship, idolize the WTS because they are not perfect to say the least.

AGREE: One way "communication" is not communication - Official site has no e-mail and has only given the same "pat answer" to the problem and no solution except the same "pat answer." That is not communication - but orders from headquarters.

Almost forgot - sister above I spoke about told me that I had better be careful because the demons might harass me - because I was reading "apostate" web sites, or watching Dateline. I know she meant well. I also know I am dirt to her if I say one bad thing about the WTS, no matter how much I love Jehovah or want to walk like Jesus.

To Faye B who commented about many persons’ poor use of grammar and said that their grammar was “abominable”.

The word is “abominable”. :-) It means loathsome or horrible as in the “abominable snowman” (Yeti).

I cringe too seeing such ignoble usage of the English language, but rather than focusing on this minor failing (on the part of both sides I might add) why don’t we all resolve to just listen to each other a little more open-mindedly.

Howdy Folks!

this is from my notes on the District Convention...(not entirely off topic here)

The Drama dealing with the subject of Jeremiah departed from the recent format of "Contemporary setting-Ancient Setting/Lesson-Back to Contemporary Application" and instead was entirely set in the biblical setting with the follow-up talk serving as the crux of application.

The Drama was meant to encourage everyone to "Be Like Jeremiah" but it was like the tip of one’s nose: so obvious that most did not even see the irony.

You see the Drama depicted how the older men (i.e. elders) of Jeremiah’s city belittled him, how Jehovah’s anointed and the official leadership (the king and anointed priests) persecuted him, but how he continued to endure in pursuing his belief in righteousness and the truth, despite incurring the wrath and hatred of the vast majority of the people of Judah.

But if we transpose this analogy to our day accurately then we see that those in the Organization who are most "like Jeremiah" would be those persons speaking out for reform in the Organization and who are willing to challenge the older men (i.e. elders) in pursuit of their godly conscience and training, despite how the King (read GB) and the anointed priests and elders may persecute him.

While not the first but among these "Jeremiah’s", could we not count Brother Bowen as one whose passion and righteous desire on the issues he is championing to be like a "fire within his bosom that he could no longer hold within"?

I don’t know if anyone in the entire convention center felt the way that I did or saw things like this but in my opinion it has to be one of the most ironic dramas ever presented when we consider the timing.

....one of the biggest applauses went to a statement from the platform: "....and no matter what they say in the media or the Internet, we know the truth!" (in reference to the present controversy).....

Finally to address a point that some have brought up in their comments here....

It was mentioned that the cessation of the subscription arrangement for magazines was because the goal has always been to start bible studies not merely place literature. Thus persons were encouraged to have "magazine routes" with the idea of turning these into return visits and eventually bible studies. (Nothing was mentioned that there is probably significant administrative and postage savings with the new arrangement).

take care.

The magazine subscription should be paid for by the subscriber. To be pressured to have a bible study is not a good idea. Also, to subscribe, and give an address should be private information not to be given to anyone!!!! An invitation is always on the back of magazine to be contacted for a free home bible study. Many people may cancel subscription and miss an article that would “turn the light on” down the road for them due to a crisis or situation etc.. Like some feed back on this.

The Christian food was to be given freely, not on a condition of some string attached. I would personally rather pay than give my home address to anyone only to have them show up uninvited, at any time. This is an intrusion of my privacy, on my time and energy.

Subscriptions will go down. Just watch. Or nobody is home anyway, out working and the sisters will just leave them at the door, paid with their gasoline and time to deliver the "goods."

Not very well thought out from the perspective and view point of the subscriber or the sisters.

I am glad to see this all come out! I too was a victim of wife abuse - and instead of disfellowshipping my husband (who was living with another woman for months - two witnesses didn't see him sleep with her!) - I filed for divorce and my ex was also abusive to our 7 year old daughter at the time - he would perform sex relations with his pioneer girlfriend in front of my young daughter - the elders just covered it and told him to keep a chaperone handy! they would take the word of my young daughter! Thank God the justice system had a strong Judge that filed abuse charges on him and ordered a protective order as well as a restraining order on him due to his threats and abuse.
The Judge I remember made this comment to the elders that were there to testify that he was a good Brother! "Christian to me is another word for Criminal - and the man before me is a Criminal!" Needless to say, I was disfellowshipped for speaking out and filing for divorce - and I have never been happier! My heart and prayers goes out to all the victims and people hurt by the sick minded criminals that commit this horrible offenses! God will truly deal with each of them in due time...as God says "Our Children are gifts from him"

I visit the web page almost every day. I am waiting for the notice to appear before the elders. I know that soon they will be told to readjust my thinking. I will not back down from my letter to the WTS. I will not be silent anymore. I refuse to share in the sins of the false shepherds. It will be hard on my family, but no harder than it was years ago when I was raked over the coals by the elder body. I still consider myself a faithful servant of Jehovah. No one will ever take that from me. I do not need the approval of the WTS. I need the approval of the almighty creator of the universe. I feel that I have been left out of the loop. What is this about the WTS and the U.N.? And what is the story about what happened in Malawi? I know what the official story was. What is the unofficial story? Somebody e-mail me the answer please. lmatheny@emtecae.com or lj_sunshine@yahoo.com

I have been keeping tabs each day on the Guest Book and have given my thoughts many times. I do have a couple of questions (we have not attended since 1995, the elders thought we didn't attend enough. Didn't seem to matter my husband was in a horrible car accident had ruptured two disks and herniated three. Why couldn't he sit through meeting LOL IDIOTS..).well my questions are 1.What's the UN connection? I thought it was the evil that started in 1914? LOL 2.What information does anyone have on the Cabool Missouri and Kansas City congregations? Please e-mail me at SheilaLMadonia@aol.com

We should consider organizing our letters or E-mails to authorities. This site is a nice fireside chat for us not suing the WT or putting a sicko where he belongs...(Jail) United it seems we could be a powerful force for change. I recommend sending one of the silentlambs "get the word out" ideas to every church body in whatever town you are in. Send one to every local school board and Department of Social Service in your State. Heck in your town. Put one on every pin up board in every public building you see. We need to bombard news agencies with letters. We need to unite if we want to make any difference at all. We need to organize letters to State Governor's to make reporting mandatory. Otherwise really...Besides bitching....What are we doing? It is so nice to know I am not alone in my experience with the JW's...It is so nice to know that I was not going crazy. They were trying to drive me crazy. Thank you for this site for that. But I mean is this as good as it is going to get? Let's picket Bethel.... Make the news happen.... Lets organize.... Or what are we doing?

In case anyone is interested in recovery resources, I can provide a couple. The best book for male sexual abuse/incest victims to read is "Victims No Longer" by Mike Lew. What I liked about it was Dr. Lew asked survivors how they traveled their road to recovery. What worked and why. He also wrote another book entitled, "Leaping Upon the Mountains". Personally I preferred "Victims No Longer" but either book is extremely helpful.

However, the single best resource for any victim of abuse and/or incest is from Dr. Renee Fredrickson. She has a great many lectures that she has recorded on to cassette tape. They are outstanding! I have been to some her seminars when she has come to Dallas and she is a kind and knowledgable therapist. Although it's been a few years since I've ordered any of her tapes, I believe anyone still can. Her address is Fredrickson & Associates, 821 Raymond Avenue, Suite 300, St. Paul, MN 55114. I don't believe she has a website, although I haven't really looked.

Re: Malawi - read "Crisis of Conscience" by Raymond Franz. Brother Franz participated in the "governing body" meetings that decided the fate of these brothers and sisters and children. This is a tragedy and an outrage, the story to me is neck in neck with the lack of moral judgement used by the "governing body" with the pedophiles.

I too check the postings everyday, twice a day. Something has shifted. The letters are much much more thought provoking- I didn't mind the yelling either what a harmless way to express sincere righteous rage. But seems like many witnesses,& ex-witnesses are wanting to be sure they are worshipping Jehovah and not the WTS and are supporting silentlamsbs with intelligence and compassion and true Christian love. And just plain common sense and decency.

By the way, you can be disfellowshipped for reading works by Raymond Franz. There is nothing apostate in the book. Brother Franz - was the one who wrote much of the 2 green books, Insight Books. In his research at BETHEL, he began to find many discrepancies between WTS doctrine and the true meaning of Christianity.

His crisis of conscience didn't really begin until he became a "member" of the governing body and had to participated in decisions that he couldn't back with christian scripture or christian conscience. His book does not slander, blame or bash. It is written with sorrow and compassion grief and with shame as well as intelligence.

I have a question: what does LOL mean?? I know what SOL means. Tell me please.!

About babies, parenting, protecting: I live in a rural area. Yesterday I saw three Mother Turkeys herding their 23 + chicks, a mother deer and her new fawn and the Mother Skunk brought her 3 babies to dine on the cat's food last night. It is the most natural thing in the world to care for our children, defend them, protect them from harm - there is a scripture in Proverbs about a bear and her cubs. How can anyone possibly believe that Jehovah ,our loving creator would punish you for protecting your children and when failing to do so would punish you and your child?

The lack of natural affection the WTS and Elders, and congregational members have shown is not a fruit of the spirit. I can accurately say this.

Love to all. Amen.

I think most elders are just following what WTS’s order. Remember the time (about 10 years ago) when the WTS was strongly opposing college education? Someone told me today that they probably were afraid of the members thinking and researching too much. Maybe. This old tactic - ignore whatever you hear against the WTS - might worked in 60s and 70s. But they should know better.

Hi! It's great work, that you are doing! So much courage. Helping children is more important than anything else. It's a shame for Jehovah's Witnesses, that'S going on there. I know Jehovah's Witnesses from two countries: Russia (there I used to live) and Germany (there I am living now). In both countries there are the same problems as in USA. Jehovah's Witnesses needs a reform. Urgently...

Hey everybody, in fact I read a news article about this site, which seemed to be researched well and founded on facts. After reading most of your guest book entries and some of the "stories", I have to admit, that IMO most of you guys act like being in a daily talk show on some American TV network.

I don't want to play down with child molesting - which is really one of the worst things in the world - but some comments seem to be either fake or arisen from a psycho's mind.

If molested, head on to the next police station and report it and don't post it in guestbooks ...

Any comments appreciated.

One nice thing about the 'pedophile paradise'.

At least all the pedophiles will be in one place and the world will be safer for the rest of us.

I know this sounds cruel, but how else can one react rationally to the absurd response of the WT at this time?

Watch out, Jehovah's witnesses: "Watch out for false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are voracious wolves. You will recognize them by their fruit. Grapes are not gathered2 from thorns or figs from thistles, are they? In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit. A good tree is not able to bear bad fruit, nor a bad tree to bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. So then, you will recognize them by their fruit." (Matthew 7:15-20)

No offense to any truly upright males out there, but men are basically nothing but "horny dogs" (pardon my language), but it's true. It's true. It's a biological fact, horny is all they think about, no matter what/where they are.

The difference in worldly guys and JW guys: Worldly guys outwardly show it (their unrelenting "horniness"). JW guys try to "hide" it.

Please take care. Don't feel too bad, I'm not married either (old maid just about!) Had a few LTR's, and was proposed to 3 times, but they all got cold feet. I would give myself away too freely (desperate to be loved). NEVER AGAIN. I'm with you. FINALLY, I basically feel free of the desire to have "a man," and I thank Jah every day for that! They are basically selfish pigs anyway. Hold on! If therapy doesn't help, maybe menopause will. It's working for me (but I could do w/o the sweats!) - -Hug from afar. Sign Me: I Can Relate.

I went to the Dist. Convention last weekend. After a lot of thoughts and tears, I was trying and beginning to understand the WTS's viewpoint even though I didn't and couldn't agree until I heard the Dis. overseer saying, "Don't listen to any negative sayings, and don't talk to anyone about it. If it bothers your conscience, there is something wrong with your conscience." Then I knew...this is totally wrong!!!!!

Also strange that he mentioned about conscience....since I told a ex-elder about my conscience that has been bothering me all this time regarding inviting anyone to this WT organization. I don't think they ( the WTS ) realize the scale of this problem. I guess it's not as big as Catholic's since it's still quiet. Bill Bowen told me that there is going to be a case against the WTS in every 6 months. Anyone knows when the first civil suit is going to be settled or finalized? I'm curious how much money this organization is going to lose in each case.

Here is some comic relieve. Those JW's at jwzone.org are just soo darn funny. Sample:

What are some funny or ironic things you've experienced in service?

Here are two that will get us started!!
I recently got a new territory and was checking for houses that have requested we not call on them. Found one in a section where the lots are huge and a lot of people have animals. The one house we weren't supposed to call at had an animal too - A GOAT!!! How ironic is that!!!

We've all been offering the Watchtower on Christmas Customs are they Christian. Well - can anyone say that 10 times quickly!!! I didn't think so! I was at the door and said "Christian customs - are they Christmas!!!" Just way to much of a tongue twister! !!!

OK - your turn to share!! Anyone..... Anyone......

Enjoy the whole thread:

I am from Denver Colorado. I am 20 years old. I watched the story on Dateline. I'm not sure how much is true, but I was very upset. In fact I've been upset since that night. Mostly because I could relate. I was molested by two young brothers (Larry Rietz & Tim Rietz, now going by the name of Eric Chisolm) for a total of three years. I was only 3 years old. I didn't get the courage to say anything until I was 6. When I did my parents were very supportive. We of course went to our elders. We were warned of "slander" and not to report it. We did. I remember like it was yesterday sitting, being video taped while I, at six years of age explain to the police man what was done to me. The boys were arrested for one night. But they were both minors. They were never baptized servants at the time. Our family moved away for ten years. When we moved back here, we got news that one brother was now married, and serving as a pioneer in Bethel. Everywhere that I went when I introduced myself, everyone knew me, because these two brothers were my uncles. They were well-known pioneers, well liked. I finally started telling people what they were when they had recognition in my name. We wrote the society and sent the police reports. He was sent home from Bethel. His father begin to start problems ,saying our family was "slandering" them. We tried to contact his wife, same response. A year later two girls came forward about the same brothers. Not to mention we see him around all the time. Shortly after that we finally got through to his wife. She allowed us to send her police documents of her husband. Then her younger sister came forward. She was devastated. She left this man, but was told she is doing so unscripturally. I have taken this matter to my new congregation, right after the dateline show. They have been very supportive, and because of the amount of girls to come forward, they have to act. The original congregation we were in I'm hearing is now being removed and all of the elders as well. (just a rumor?)When I talk to all the young sisters that were my friends at that age, they all confess it happened to them as well, by the same men! That is now over 8 girls! After 14 years I'm wondering is it worth it? Will our statue of limitations prevent us from further justice? Will these men think of us as much as we are forced each day to think of him and how much he hurt us? Will these men continue hiding and denying. I have fought for the past 14 years with problems stemming from the abuse. I have been in years of therapy trying to understand that "SEX" is a good thing. That when I am married in April that when my husband wants to have sex with me, I don't have to feel like it's dirty, and I'm doing something wrong. They only thought I have to sustain me and help me cope is that they CAN NOT hide from GOD! No matter how much imperfect elders may react, or how much we may hurt, in the end it will all be 'in justice'. May God be with me, and all who have been through this. May he offer you the strength and will to continue fighting for you and that of your offspring. I still continue to love Jehovah with all my heart. But know this; I will NEVER 'keep quiet' nor let anyone be allowed to go on serving Jehovah and

To the JW who wrote to Bill Bowen on June 18: The people who came to you with a charge of child molestation while you were an elder were very fortunate. I could send you hundreds of emails from hundreds of families and/or victims who went to their elders (including ME) and were systematically ignored and warned, no, THREATENED, not to speak of the incident for fear they may face charges of slander or gossip. Indeed, many of the victims of this epidemic HAVE been excommunicated for speaking out against their abuser in spite of their elders' threats, and also for recognizing that the elders way of (not) handling this is NOT in accordance with Jehovah's wishes. In my congregation, several little girls came to the elders with reports of the SAME person molesting them, and they told them the same thing they told me: "You misunderstood what happened. It's important that you not speak to others of this because without anyone who can verify that this happened, you could face charges of slander or gossip." Don't pretend that you are comparing apples to apples when you use the analogy of someone making a false accusation out of spite or anger as opposed to genuine victims who sought out spiritual help from those who were supposed to be keeping "Jehovah's organization" free from immoral, criminal, disgusting acts like those committed by the very people that they are protecting. And don't be blind - they ARE protecting them. Intentionally. I KNOW they are protecting pedophiles because they are not only telling the victims that they can't punish the abuser because there weren't any eyewitnesses, they are telling these victims that it DIDN'T EVEN HAPPEN. They are lying! Is there any room in the WTS's interpretations of the scriptures for lying? To a victim? To a 12 year old girl who has just been molested? As regards your comment that anyone can accuse anyone of child molestation and therefore cast doubt upon the accused, whether guilty or innocent, I don't think anyone is saying that the first time someone is accused they should be marked with a scarlet letter for the whole world to see, despite what evidence indicates. But even the society's literature says that two or more witnesses, even if the incidents are on separate occasions and nobody besides the victims saw what happened, could be considered testimony enough to find someone guilty of an accusation. But shouldn't elders, who are supposedly "anointed by God's Holy Spirit" be able to determine through prayer what action should be taken against someone accused? If not, what is the purpose of God's anointing people with His holy spirit? If not to help guide and protect the flock, then what? Not to mention the fact that the Bible instructs us to obey Caesar's laws unless they conflict with God's. Regardless of whether or not YOU or any elders THINK that brother who may or may not be molesting children doesn't need his reputation sullied, the elders have an obligation to the state, and more importantly, to God to report this POSSIBLE or SUSPECTED abuse. I have seen with my own eyes elders, presiding overseers, circuit overseers, Bethelites, etc. have knowledge of this person molesting children and what have they done? Not only have they taken great pains to make sure that this person is not prosecuted or even reported for his crimes, they have made sure by lying to and threatening victims that nobody knows about what's going on. My advice to you, Brother, is to open your heart and pray to your creator to lead you to the truth. The truth about this issue and the truth in general. If you are sure of what you're involved in, where is the harm in that? As to your comment"Are Jehovah's witnesses bad immoral and corrupt people? As I see it we try to live by Bible standards and admittedly do not do it perfectly, but Jehovah doesn't expect us to be perfect." As I see it, you CLAIM to live by Bible standards. And you can hide behind the sin we've all inherited from Adam, but Jehovah WILL hold us accountable for what we do that we KNOW is wrong. AND FOR PROTECTING THOSE THAT DO.

Posts for 14,15, 16, 17 and 18th are missing!
The ugly posts have appeared again...and almost everything else in between has disappeared. Webmaster has been notified. It is amazing what people will do to hide the truth isn't it? It is against the law to come into a web site and mess with it. So if it is your first time here please understand this is not a true picture of the site. We have had days of posts - fabulous posts- erased by someone. Posts with tons of information to get the word out and some very insightful comments. Too bad.

To all witnesses: I never thought I was in a right wing group, I still don't believe that I am. However, some of the statements are true. I too have had some questions about being a Jehovah's Witness. I was born into the situation and known no other. I have never known any other religion and my parents kept me very isolated from others who were considered worldly (pagans). I believe that we do good, but the attitude by most people is apathy so it has been a struggle for us. It is true most in our group believe everything that is written in our Watchtower Magazine, but that goes for any Religion who publishes anything. I have seen the wrongs; however, this is by no means an expose of my congregation nor of the others I know of personally. I remember the 1975 period when my parents didn't believe that the world was going to end and my father disfellowshipping. I also remember the 1980-83 shake up of our Society which is still very vivid in my mind. Yet my mom wanted to return to our kingdom hall anyway because all her family are members of the Jehovah's Witnesses; nevertheless, it took years for her to get excepted back into our religion, and my father, he rather not have anything to do with the religion or any other religion as far as he is concerned. I will admit that I am a baptized member of the Organization of Jehovah's Witnesses and I will tell my experience and the truth of what I seen. This is in no way meant to hurt all those I love by writing this response . There are couple of incidents I will mention but I will keep the names hidden so as too refrain from harming the innocent. Here is one more that has to be mentioned. Awhile back in West Sacramento, there is a so called Brother of the faith who committed statutory rape. The mother was very upset and intended phone the police but again she was told to show forgiveness and love. I was told they also gave the same scripture about Christians suing one another. She threatened to do it anyway's but was told not too. She said to all of us that she was told by the Elders that if she did, she would be rebelling against gods authority. The law was broken we said, but she said if she did phone the police she would get in trouble. These examples are true to the best of knowledge and it grieves me very much. Now I see why Brother Franz said in his book " It is Christ we should focus on, not some human organization, that our attention and interest should focus, for carefully concealed in him are all are treasures". He may be disfellowshipped but he has made an impact on all Jehovah's Witnesses. His book has passed through many of our hands but he is correct in saying that " drastic actions taken toward those person accused of apostasy were unjustified and repugnant". I can not reject my faith and do say that the previous letter was nothing more than bashing my religion. But I know of those who knew Brother Franz and they discussed all those issues I have just written about. I have heard the he is a very kind and a loving man who does love god. We all need martyrs for what is right and if Ray Franz is right he will be remembered for ever like the others in our past who loved truth. My dad wants nothing to do with my religion and said he doesn't really care to return. As I briefly mentioned before he was disfellowshipped in 1976 when I was very little. He worked over 40 hours a week and didn't have time to go door to door. I remember the Elders of our old hall talking to him constantly about the need for field service. My dad said he would lose his job or his house if he did what they suggested. He was dumfounded at their comments and it was backed up with the reasoning that the world would end soon. I remember so many who lost there jobs because of this kind of thinking. Many were kicked out for apostasy for not obeying these men. My dad says now, where are these fools who told me to quit, the world didn't end in 1976, only there control over him did. He was disfellowshipped in 1976 for not being reasonable and not being humble. I heard the way they spoke to my dad and it was like a quiet serpent with soft words and a superior attitude, like they knew gods thoughts. My mom cried for days because she knew they had already intended to remove my dad. He stood up for his rights and appealed their decision. To no avail it was announced a week before my birthday that he was disfellowshipped. Our world changed at that moment for us. My dad is very successful in his job and now has one. Through this you have created the torment of incomprehension, and the mutilation of the created world of thought, the essence and law of which is diversity. How can you be true to your nature when you attempt to make one (your personal thoughts of God) out of many? I tell you this, what you do to the Angels, Christ and most of all Jehovah himself, that which evil what you preach will befall you also." This scripture says it all and so I will quote it from our Organization own Bible. 1 Corinthians 4:3-5, "Now to me it is a very trivial matter that I should be examined by you or by a human tribunal. Even I do not examine myself; yet this does not prove me righteous, but he that examine me is Jehovah. Hence do not judge anything before the due time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring the secret things of darkness to light and make the counsels of the hearts manifest, and then each one will have his praise come to him from God." Will the Witness' follow the written word from their own source or will they have an excuse similar to those Puritans who burned witches for Gods sake? We must resist with all our might the conspiracy to limit and narrow our perception, masquerading tendentious religious dogma as absolute truths. Witnesses want to really know the truth then how come the Organization doesn't admit that its way of conducting the congregation is similar to that of Valentinian Gnosticism in the first century. Congregation members give talks (preach) to the laity, the women also go on stage, not directly preaching to the audience but to another on the stage (podium), same thing. Preaching from door to door to other Christians declaring the imperfections of their faith that they alone have the good news of salvation, and their ideas of the struggle of light and darkness found only in the Jehovah's Witness' doctrine, etc, etc, etc. Can they really believe the rest of the world doesn't see this? This is why they and the Mormons seek the dregs of life to fill their seats not as Christ did for salvation but for the need of power and money. They are like public braggarts boasting of their enrollment not of those poor they saved from disaster or distress. The many that love and give freely of themselves now have to regulate whom they act with. During the concluding session of the same assembly in July one of the last speakers insisted on avoiding bad association and the weak; however, isn't this contrary to scripture also? In John 7:24 states these actions clearly by saying, "Stop judging from the outward appearance, but judge with righteous judgment." My question to the Society is how can you have a double standard? If Jesus said to go for the lost sheep and leave behind the other ninety-nine, then where does one draw the line on who is weak? If the weak are in need of help but shunned are the Elders no better than the men Christ himself condemned as evil serpents and so Christ sat with prostitutes and beggars. Will the Elders wash my feet as Christ our leader did? Is there such a humble man in our Organization? Each person in our Kingdom Halls is so preoccupied with making a good appearance they have lost the truth on why the first century congregation formed. If anyone has noticed while attending our meetings many of the members are no more than empty shells, regurgitating the same useless babble so not is different. Image is not everything it's the wholeness one can exert with love and kindness is the fine works spoken of in Galatians 5:22-3; therefore, its not a showy display but helping the poor and weak in which the grace of God blesses people. I will keep attending and reporting. Stay on the watch, you may also be next to be questioned about your inner feelings and standing in the congregation. Beware to all of you. Sincerely, The Mole through Christ, so all peoples of the world must conform to the ideas of the Jehovah's Witness' that salvation must come through their organization. There is NO scripture in the Bible that declared salvation through an organization, it says though it's through Christ alone. Are they to make us believe they alone have this power? Why would a God of love and peace destroy the innocent along with the evil? The Jehovah's Witness' proclaim they have covered the world with their worldwide teaching and that those who didn't listen will be destroyed, the Mormons are declaring the same message, which is correct? Also are we showing true love and a good example to others around them who are looking for the rule truth about God and his Son? Another thing is that they have an excuse for every crime they commit and act of abhorred brutality they do, the cover ups would reach the sky but will they admit it; but no, it is all good because Jehovah god will only forgive them and no one else. Beware all; they have started their witch-hunt to look for apostates within their own organization. It looks like they are ready to atrophied as a group of people. Not only do they have enemies on the outside but also on the inside. Many faithful members are now ready to dig in and wait for the fight as I am doing now. Any person in any congregation can now accuse someone of a wrongdoing and remain hidden while the cost to defend one self is enormous to the accused. Does this sound familiar in our Christian past? So now we wait for the new inquisition and burning at the stake just like before when the Pope said all those questioning their authority is to be sought out and purged for their sins. Along with others who are still members, including me are watching with a careful eye; we are waiting for the head hunt to begin and see how their book-burning club seeks out betrayers in their own ranks. One fact is the Elders will come to your home telling you they are there for encouragement while the whole time they are searching through your house and judging you with their soft words as they question ones on irrelevant subjects. The congregation meetings soon after the district assemblies began to create lectures of apostate teachings and those who speak out against the Organization. Here is one talk that I took notes on that shocked not only me but those who are the old members as well. I quote, "Let anyone who has an opinion or voice not in harmony with the Society and the Anointed be removed. We should all sing in chorus like the angles in heaven... Those who believe they are individuals be reminded they are rebelling against God." My question is what God or God's are they talking about? If Jehovah created us to be individuals with free will than whom are they talking about, or is it they believe God was in error in the Holy Scriptures? The stunning destroying families will be the horrid crime that would even offend Christ himself. If one cannot question the authority system that our hierarchy has created than we as people are no more than thoughtless robots in a Nazi regime. For a group of people supposedly to obey the scriptures they don't seem too follow to closely. In Jude verse 22 say's "Continue showing mercy to those who have doubts". Do you think they do this simple act of mercy? It's a good question they should not only ask themselves but as whole group. I have this comment directed to the President of the Jehovah's Witness' Organization and that is, "you have substituted the oneness of God for the diversity which cannot be resolved into one. Through this you have created the torment of incomprehension, and the mutilation of the created world of thought, the essence and law of which is diversity. How can you be true to your nature when you attempt to make one (your personal thoughts of God) out of many? I tell you this, what you do to the Angels, Christ and most of all Jehovah himself, that which evil what you preach will befall you also." This scripture says it all and so I will quote it from our Organization own Bible. 1 Corinthians 4:3-5, "Now to me it is a very trivial matter that I should be examined by you or by a human tribunal. Even I do not examine myself. For I am not conscious of anything against myself; yet this does not prove me righteous, but he that examine me is Jehovah. Hence do not judge anything before the due time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring the secret things of darkness to light and make the counsels of the hearts manifest, and then each one will have his praise come to him from God." This letter was sent on behalf of many brothers and sister gathering in our home afraid to speak out on what we have seen and endured. To the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses; As members of the Jehovah's Witness' organization we feel that unity in the place of rightness is found in all religions. We will do all that we can to preach that we only adhere to the bible and not to imperfect men. The "Organization" is not always directed by God or Christ, but by selfish desire. We now have a great following who seek truth and wish the dissolution of the Governing Body. We the collective of Witness' continue to meet for pure truth. We are free to speak and to think without the pollution of false doctrine. Our numbers are growing secretly and proportionately throughout the US and Mexico. Soon we will start for the path of truth too Jehovah and his beloved son Jesus. Unless the Governing Body's viewpoints change, all of you will just have too face the fact that we no longer see the Society as the absolute truth in governing Jehovah's thoughts and love for his people. Just as Israel split into two separate nations, so we see our organization also. We shall soon declare our independence and secede from the Watchtower and Tract Society and FORM our own nation to serve Jehovah and his son Christ. All of you have been found guilty and listed as Inquisitors of Evil. We pray to Jehovah that you shall turn away from bad and do what is good in the eyes of the Lord. Repent for your wicked acts Brothers that you will find peace with yourselves. Your Resignations are expected promptly. Jehovah's Theocratic State of Free People:

Mr. Brown, I want to thank you for being brave, especially having been an elder, and for having the courage to doubt the policies and confront the organization. I am one 4 siblings who were abused by my step-father, a ministerial servant at times, for 13 years. My sister and I have left the congregation and are considered in-active, but have not yet been disfellowshipped, probably because we haven't voiced our "true" feelings about several different policies we disagree with. But surprisingly enough, my oldest brother is a Presiding Overseer in the Novato, CA congregation. My mother, also beaten for 13 years is still a pioneer in the Santa Rosa, CA congregation and is "defined" by her beliefs in the organization. It saddens me deeply that the society made my mother CHOSE to remain married to this monster for so long because divorce is not allowed. Even more so, as I raise my new baby, it deeply hurts me that she would chose a religion (a cult in my eyes) over the safety and welfare of her children. There are many teachings I still agree with and believe, although throughout the years they are becoming few and far between, but the biggest problem is that we are all imperfect and the organization is imperfect as well, but the amount of power given to theses imperfect men is too much and destroys many lives in the process. My name is Geana Smalls and I am a victim, not an apostate. email: geanaz@aol.com

MOLE: Thank you. And thank you to the brothers & sisters who asked for the resignation of the governing body.
Getting rid of the conscience? sister with Brother in Novato and the sister in New Mexico I would like to email you both but there is a little fear right now, lots of posts missing, people have received viruses and I need to set up a separate email address just for here. I would like to propose a registration and a screening of each post before it appears* Those of us that have the money to support someone doing this or a fund just for this purpose????*so that OUR posts don't disappear. There are too many people in the organization who are sincerely caring that are just starting to come here. Is it possible for us to share the job????from our own computers?Anything to stop the interruption of the communication. Just some ideas. \:\:\:\:\ There is no other site like this, not to say there are not really good sites, but something happens here that doesn't happen anywhere else. There are no petty gripes, all intelligent deep thoughts from really caring people who really love Jehovah God. From On My Soap Box

I find it very suspect that so many posting suddenly vanished. It was the material that was deleted. Was it intentional? It seems classic witness ways to me. I don't need to lie about the M.O. of the witnesses in my personal life. What they have done even without physical violence is beyond my experience with any other sect, ideology, or religion. Mainly because the hate, apathy, and cruelty is so intense and unnecessary. I admit freely that many witnesses have suffered unjustly for their way of life. Witnesses are growing when most movements are not. But, to move ahead in quantity at any price and disregarding the quality of the individuals in the group is dangerous for a movement. Any attempt to change the witness train is a large giant to take on. I wish you success. (luck suggests random chance.)

This religion spends too much time advertising how it is right on every subject. No wonder they are willing to cover up, and force people to shut up. I was reading some of the arrogant comments from the earlier Watchtowers, and it is my feeling that with time this organization will learn humility the hard way. Growth is slowing, false expectations are becoming well known, and this latest scandal may show the governing board that it is time to think about what you saying instead of always saying what it thinks.

Greetings... I'm no computer wiz, but I would guess it was some sort of system crash as to why the posts from June 14,15,16,17 disappeared. I'm sure there are backup copies somewhere and they will be re-posted by the Webmaster (hoping 'cuz I sure can't remember everything I may have posted). I'm sure once things are figured out, the Webmaster and/or Bill will let us know. Hang in there troops! An SL (silent lambs) Cheerleader!
Who is Bob Stumberger? I don't see a post by that name, so what does this post mean? "good going Bob Stumberger"? SL Cheerleader

We're so used to the 'sneakiness' of JWs, no wonder we suspect the worst! In any event, here's another link worth visiting: antijehovahswitness.com (try .org if that doesn't work - I always mix up those two - sorry) Scroll down to 'What are JWs Afraid Of?' It's excellent (tho he does get a little carried away at the end - he must really be missing his friends)

Hello Everyone: I heard at one of the forums that Bill Bowen is on vacation, and that most probably the posts disappearing was some sort of technical glitch; and that most web companies do have backup copies. So in due time maybe all the lost posts will be able to be restored. Everyone be patient! Loving regards, SL Cheerleader

I have read where people claim to have received viruses, (Those who leave there Email addresses). My question is what virus is being sent? Who sent it? What detects it? Norton? Has anyone who was sent a virus pursued the authorities over it? Or is this just another JW scare tactic? I have no doubt that JW gestapo and Elders are monitoring this site, (Hi guys:) bite me) but they aren't the kind of virus I mean. I think that we should update our computers with the best antivirus software today and, look up ways to combat the virus sending crapaloids. (Unless they are a "urban-legend.) JB

Hello. I'm a reporter for a regional newspaper in the Southeast. I'm researching this story. I appreciate the emotions on both sides of this issue, but I need hard facts for my article. The Dateline, Newsweek, and AP stories and the home page here all relate the same three documented cases yet the splash screen references 23,000+ occurrences?
Can someone point me to more documented legal cases related to this subject? Please respond via this forum. Thank you.

About missing posts - tho I don't have time to check for sure - it could be that some have had to request removal in cases where is has become dangerous, even life-threatening, to keep a post identifying certain persons/situations. This has been one of my concerns. No, my name cannot be revealed. My ex has too much money, and too many avenues of choices to do harm. Until I can move safely away - and remain hidden from him - it is no longer safe for me to comment openly about my abusive situation. While there may have indeed been a computer glitch causing numerous posts to disappear - there are other reasons too. Those that do not believe these things are happening with Jehovah's Witnesses - well, I just don't know what else to say - IT IS! IT HAS BEEN! I'VE BEEN FIGHTING TO BE HEARD AND PROTECTED (me & my children) FOR OVER A DECADE! My ex is still in good standing, as am I. Still denies what he does (even tho the police know it's him - he's extremely devious, dangerously so in their words) and so the elders cannot do anything about it to help me or our kids. I'm doing all that I can, but I don't have the financial resources he does - and never will. My only hope (short of a financial miracle) is to do what is needed to survive until the youngest child is old enough in the court's eyes to have the court honor the child's request to not be forced to see this abusive biological parent. That won't be soon enough - for any of us. To maintain my sanity I must believe that Jehovah will remember me and all my children on his day of judgement, regardless of how often, if at all, any of us get to meetings or out in service and so forth. We still love Jehovah and will do our best to do his will so as to reap the rewards of a peaceful, eternal life free of all these abusive memories. Without that there would be no reason to go on living. a silent lamb... still

To The Mole, it will only be a matter of time before the elders will be knocking at my door for I have voiced my opinion as to my feelings about the Dateline story. My question to you is this, what do I need to know before they come? How do you continue to go to "the meetings"? I can't attend because I feel guilt by association and I won't have that on my conscience! The scripture at Revelation 18:4 that says "And I heard another voice out of heaven say: "Get out of her, my people if you do not want to share with her in her sins, and if you do not want to receive part of her plagues. That scripture keeps ringing in my head, there must be a reason! To those who have been victimized, I'm truly sorry for the pain that you have endured! As a baptized witness of Jehovah for many years, I had no idea this sort of thing was going on and now that I do, I hang my head in shame! Signed: Someone in Texas

To all posting their stories: It takes great courage to post your pain and anguish on this site. I commend all of you or shall I say all of us. I was raised as a JW, and did the whole nine yards, serving where the need was great, pioneered, baptized etc etc. etc...but you know what I was never happy. Deep in my heart of hearts and soul I felt that this god named Jehovah was the type of god that I did not like, because of terrible things that I knew was happening in my congregation, plus being a victim of physical abuse from my mom, who was a witness for over 25 years. For years I blamed my mom for the abuse, but now that I am in my late 30's , and my mom has passed away. I have come to the realization that she was a victim as well. She was a single woman with a child, and those of you who may have noticed, a single woman with a child is a target in the JW organization. For years there have been "brothers" sniffing after my mom like she was some dog in heat. Fortunately my mom was having none of that. I guess she felt that the only person, that has the "right" to abuse her child would be her. To make a long story short, to all the survivors, don't place the blame on your parents completely, for they are victims as well. There is a time and place for everything. Now is the time to heal. I am no longer a JW and haven't been for over 10 years. A good book for all to read and meditate on "The Language of Letting Go." by Melody Beattie If anyone would like to write mslayd@mail.com May the Higher Power bless all the children, the little ones and the adult children too.

I WAS READY FOR THIS!!!!!!!! I made sure to copy my letter to newsweek just in case!!! Here it is:I was one of Jehovah's Witnesses since birth. I was sexually abused by my uncle when I was 4 yrs old. My grandfather was one of the "higher ups" in the religion. He not only did not report it, but didn't even tell anyone in the congregation to have an inside investigation. The worst part about it is my own father caught him in the act-there was no need for the inside investigation. I had a witness to the act. I know of many others who have similar stories. The Catholics have taken some steps to change- the Watchtower Society took steps to prepare themselves and their millions of followers before the Dateline expose' even aired. They have been told what to say and how to respond to any questions or accusations of the topic. They will all say the same thing if you asked someone, even if they didn't know each other and it would be the same from state to state. The policy they go by is based on a two witness rule. If you don't have one then the situation is treated as if it never existed. My sister had 5 WITNESSES!!!!!!! Since he denied it-it was dismissed-never reported. Some of her witnesses were also assaulted by the same guy. Another witness was told by the perp what he had done and that witness (another guy) came forward- to no avail. I know if you took some time to investigate this you what you would find would not only be shocking but would make anyone sick to their stomach!!!! If you need more info or stories you can find whatever you need at silentlambs.com I know of many people who will go on TV or release a statement, myself included, to see this come out in much more detail. I doubt anyone from the Watchtower Society will talk to you or anyone, but their literature would be enough. I was what you call disfellowshipped, which is excommunicated at the age of 15. That means no one including your own family will have anything to do with you. Not even a hello if they saw you on the street. The ones who spoke out on Dateline suffered this same judgement. They are the judge, jury, and executioner. Let me know if I can offer you any further assistance. Thank you for your time, Jesika Thoman- Dallas, Tx WE ALL need to have a voice to make the WTS listen, and if they don't they will show the world who they really are-the two faced, self-indulged people who will sacrifice(sp?) the innocence of children to uphold their image to the world and they do it in GOD'S NAME!!!!!!!!!!! Please everyone write whoever you can. How many Catholics did it take to get heard? I'm sure it was more than a couple!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Bryan alleges that he was sexually abused during several of his adolescent years by Larry Baker, an adult member of his church. He has obtained a judgment against Baker, but his complaint against the church and its elders was dismissed by the Superior Court (Cumberland County, Calkins, J.) for failure to state a claim. He appeals from the judgment dismissing the claims against the church defendants. We affirm the judgment.

BACKGROUND

Because this matter was presented to the Superior Court on the church's motion to dismiss, we take the material allegations of the complaint as admitted. See McAfee v. Cole, 637 A.2d 463, 465 (Me. 1994). The following facts were alleged in Bryan's complaint:

1. The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society is a New York-based nonprofit corporation, better known as the Jehovah's Witnesses. It is a religious organization. When the events at issue occurred, Robert Wells, Pat LaBreck, and Bryan's stepfather were "elders" and members of the "judicial body" of the Augusta congregation of the church, Larry Baker was an adult member of the church, and Bryan R. and his family were members of the congregation.

2. At some time in the past, also while Larry Baker was an adult member of the church, he molested a minor member of the congregation identified as "John Doe." The elders of the Augusta congregation knew that Baker had molested John Doe. Wells, LaBreck, and Bryan's stepfather, in their roles as the judicial body of the Augusta congregation, decided on the following response to Baker's actions: (1) they demoted Baker from "ministerial servant" to "baptized entry level member"; (2) they "privately rebuked" Baker; and (3) they temporarily "forbade Baker from having any contact with minor members" of the church. The defendants did not alert the members of the church to Baker's misdeeds.

5. Eventually, Baker was allowed by the defendants to resume activities as an ordinary member of the church. Bryan alleges that Baker was able to earn his trust and confidence because the church placed Baker in a position of leadership and respect. Bryan was molested by Baker from 1989 through 1992 while Bryan was a teenager and lived next door to Baker. He alleges that his stepfather, who was aware of Baker's history, nonetheless allowed Baker to spend time alone with Bryan at his home. As a result of Baker's repeated sexual abuse, Bryan suffered significant emotional harm necessitating psychiatric hospitalization.

6. Bryan filed this action against Baker, the church, and its elders to recover damages for the injuries he suffered as a result of Baker's assaults on him. In count I of his complaint, he alleged that each of the defendants breached a fiduciary duty owed to him as a member of the congregation; in counts II and III, he alleged that the defendants were liable to him for negligent infliction of emotional distress and intentional infliction of emotional distress. Count IV contained Bryan's claim against Baker for battery; and in count V, Bryan alleged that his stepfather was individually liable for negligence. The stepfather was later dismissed from the action pursuant to a joint motion filed by the parties, whereby resolving count V. The Watchtower Society, Robert Wells, and Pat LaBreck filed a motion to dismiss each of the claims against them. After a hearing, the Superior Court granted the motion, concluding that Bryan had failed to state a claim, relying on Swanson v. Roman Catholic Bishop of Portland, 1997 ME 63, 692 A.2d 441. Bryan's appeal from that judgment was remanded for lack of finality because the claims against Larry Baker had not yet been adjudicated. The Superior Court, based on a stipulation of the parties, entered judgment against Baker. After the entry of judgment against Baker, Bryan appealed from the court's judgment dismissing the claims against the church defendants. Bryan did not appeal the judgment against him.

II. DISCUSSION

A. Standard of Review and Claims Asserted

In reviewing the trial court's dismissal of a complaint, we "examine the complaint in the light most favorable to the plaintiff to determine whether it sets forth elements of a cause of action or alleges facts that would entitle the plaintiff to relief" pursuant to a valid cause of action. McAfee, 637 A.2d at 465, quoted in Hamilton v. Greenleaf, 677 A.2d 525, 527 (Me. 1996).

"The legal sufficiency of a complaint challenged pursuant to M.R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) is a question of law." Hamilton, 677 A.2d at 527. Before examining the claims asserted by Bryan, it is instructive to address those claims that he does not assert. He does not allege that Baker was an agent or employee of the church. Nor does he claim that Baker occupied any clerical position such as priest, minister, or pastor. Cf. Swanson, 1997 ME 63, 13, 692 A.2d at 445.(2) Moreover, the complaint does not allege that the church affirmatively placed Baker in a position of control and supervision of children, such as a Sunday school teacher or youth coordinator, or that the church knowingly placed Baker in a position where he could sexually abuse children within a church setting. Rather, Bryan alleges that Baker was "able to earn [Bryan's] trust and confidence" because of his position of power and authority in the church.(3) These allegations place Baker in a relationship to Bryan that was not different in quality from any other member in good standing of the church. [10] The crux of Bryan's claim is that the church, because of an alleged special relationship with its members, has a duty to protect its members from each other, at least when the church and its agents are aware of a potential danger posed by a member. Because the church elders knew of Baker's propensity to abuse children, Bryan argues that they had an independent duty to protect him from Baker.(4) He addresses that duty through three separate counts. We address each count in turn. B. Breach of Fiduciary Duty [11] Bryan bases his first theory of liability on an alleged duty on the part of the church to protect him from the actions of dangerous third parties. Whether a defendant owes a duty of care to a plaintiff is a matter of law for the court. See McPherson v. McPherson, 1998 ME 141, 8, 712 A.2d 1043, 1045; Fish v. Paul, 574 A.2d 1365, 1366 (Me. 1990). In determining whether a duty exists, we must ascertain whether the alleged wrongdoer is "under any obligation for the benefit of the particular plaintiff." Trusiani v. Cumberland & York Distribs., Inc., 538 A.2d 258, 261 (Me. 1988) (quoting W. Page Keeton et al., Prosser and Keeton on the Law of Torts § 53, at 356 (5th ed. 1984)). [12] There does not exist a general obligation to protect others from harm not created by the actor. "The fact that the actor realizes or should realize that action on his part is necessary for another's aid or protection does not of itself impose upon him a duty to take such action," Restatement (Second) of Torts § 314 (1965). In other words, the mere fact that one individual knows that a third party is or could be dangerous does not make that individual responsible for controlling the third party or protecting others from the danger.(5) [13] Indeed, at early common law, inaction or nonfeasance was seldom actionable. As commentators have noted, "[l]iability for nonfeasance was . . . slow to receive recognition in the law." Keeton, supra, § 56, at 373. Over decades, however, courts have come to recognize a duty on the part of certain groups to protect others from harm caused by third parties. "Certain relationships are protective by nature, requiring the defendant to guard his charge against harm from others." Id. § 56, at 383. [6] Nonetheless, "in the absence of the requisite relationship, there generally is no duty to protect others against harm from third persons." Id. § 56, at 385. [14] Even with the emergence of expanded liability for nonfeasance, that principle has remained clear-in instances of "nonfeasance rather than misfeasance, and absent a special relationship, the law imposes no duty to act affirmatively to protect someone from danger unless the dangerous situation was created by the defendant." Jackson v. Tedd-Lait Post No. 75, 1999 ME 26, 8, 723 A.2d 1220, 1221. Only when there is a "special relationship," may the actor be found to have a common law duty to prevent harm to another caused by a third party.(7) There is simply "no duty so to control the conduct of a third person as to prevent him from causing physical harm to another unless . . . a special relation exists between the actor and the other which gives to the other a right to protection." Restatement (Second) of Torts § 315(b) (1965). [8] Therefore, in order to determine whether the church owed Bryan a duty of care to protect him from other members of the church, we must determine whether a special relationship, reviewable by the secular courts, exists between a church and its members in this context. Bryan asserts that such a relationship does exist, and he refers to it as a "fiduciary" relationship. "One standing in a fiduciary relation with another is subject to liability to the other for harm resulting from a breach of duty imposed by the relation." Id. § 874. He bases the alleged fiduciary relationship on the "substantial trust and confidence" he placed in the church, and alleges that the church breached its fiduciary duty to him when it failed to warn him about Baker and failed to exert some type of control over Baker's actions. [16] Thus, we are presented with two questions: first, whether we would recognize a cause of action against a voluntary social or religious organization for breach of a fiduciary duty to protect the organization's members from each other. Put another way, we must determine whether a voluntary organization such as a church has a special relationship with its members that gives rise to a duty to protect those members from a class of third parties-other members of the organization. Second, we are asked to determine whether such a cause of action could be maintained against a church in light of the free exercise protections contained in the First Amendment. [17] On the facts alleged in the complaint, we conclude that Bryan has failed to plead a fiduciary relationship with sufficient particularity, and we decline to recognize a general common law duty on the part of an organization such as a church to protect its members from each other. Accordingly, we do not reach the constitutional issue. [18] We begin by addressing the identification of a fiduciary relationship. Bryan has not provided any support for his assertion that a religious organization has a fiduciary relationship with its members that requires it generally to protect those members from other members of the church who may present a danger. Nor have we ever found a fiduciary relationship to exist in the circumstances presented here. We recognize, as have many courts, that it is often difficult to articulate exactly what proof is required to establish the existence of a fiduciary relationship in particular circumstances.(9) A fiduciary relationship has been described as "something approximating business agency, professional relationship, or family tie impelling or inducing the trusting party to relax the care and vigilance ordinarily exercised." L.C. v. R.P., 563 N.W.2d 799, 801-02 (N.D. 1997) (internal quotation and alterations omitted). [19] We have described the salient elements of a fiduciary relationship as: (1) "the actual placing of trust and confidence in the actor by the other," and (2) "a great disparity of position and influence between the parties" at issue. Morris v. Resolution Trust Corp., 622 A.2d 708, 712 (Me. 1993). A fiduciary relationship has been found to exist in several categories of relationship, including business partners, see Rosenthal v. Rosenthal, 543 A.2d 348, 352 (Me. 1988), families engaged in financial transactions, see Estate of Campbell, 1997 ME 212, 9, 704 A.2d 329, 331-32, and corporate relationships, see Moore v. Maine Indus. Servs., Inc., 645 A.2d 626, 628 (Me. 1994); Webber v. Webber Oil Co., 495 A.2d 1215, 1224-25 (Me. 1985). [20] We have noted, however, that a "general allegation of a confidential relationship is not a sufficient basis for establishing the existence of one." Ruebsamen v. Maddocks, 340 A.2d 31, 35 (Me. 1975). As with any duty, its existence must be informed by "the hand of history, our ideals of morals and justice, the convenience of administration of the rule, and our social ideas as to where the loss should fall." Trusiani, 538 A.2d at 261. Although a fiduciary duty may be based on "moral, social, domestic, or] merely personal [duties],"

The removal of the necessity for a plaintiff to allege an underlying tort or physical impact did not create a new breach of that duty of care by the defendant. See Devine v. Roche Biomed. Labs., Inc., 637 A.2d 441, 447 (Me. 1994). The facts alleged by Bryan as constituting a fiduciary relationship simply reiterate the basic elements of a fiduciary relationship. Recitation of those basic elements cannot substitute for an articulation in the complaint of the specific facts of a particular relationship. The allegation that Bryan placed "substantial trust and confidence" in the elders of the church and trusted them "to protect him and guide him" does not set forth the factual foundations for a special responsibility on the part of the church. Such vague and nonspecific allegations are wholly insufficient to make out a claim of a special relationship between the organization and its members. [23] Finally, the complaint does not allege that there were aspects of Bryan's relationship with the church that were distinct from those of its relationships with any other members, adult or child, of the church. The creation of an amorphous common law duty on the part of a church or other voluntary organization requiring it to protect its members from each other would give rise to "both unlimited liability and liability out of all proportion to culpability." Cameron v. Pepin, 610 A.2d 279, 283 (Me. 1992); see also Jackson, 1999 ME 26, 8, 723 A.2d at 1221 (finding no special relationship between the American Legion and a "regular customer" except as created by the Maine Liquor Liability Act, 28-A M.R.S.A. §§ 2501-2520 (1988 & Supp. 1998)); Hughes v. Beta Upsilon Bldg. Ass'n, 619 A.2d 525, 527 (Me. 1993) (finding no duty to prevent spectator from injuring himself during fraternity activities). [24] Accordingly, accepting the facts as alleged in the complaint, the Superior Court did not err in dismissing that portion of the complaint which depended upon the imposition of a generalized fiduciary duty on the part of the church to protect members of its congregation from other members. C. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress [25] Bryan next claims that the defendants may be responsible for intentionally inflicting emotional distress upon him. If allowed to proceed, Bryan would be required to demonstrate that the church's conduct was "so extreme and outrageous as to exceed all possible bounds of decency and must be regarded as atrocious [and] utterly intolerable in a civilized community." See Finn v. Lipman, 526 A.2d 1380, 1382 (Me. 1987). In addition, he would be required to demonstrate that the church, through this specific conduct, intentionally or recklessly inflicted emotional distress, or was certain or substantially certain that emotional distress would result. See id.; see also Davis v. Curnier, 1997 ME 199, 5, 704 A.2d 1207, 1209; Colford v. Chubb Life Ins. Co., 687 A.2d 609, 616-17 (Me. 1996). [26] In support of his claim, Bryan alleges that the church knew of Baker's propensity to harm children, that it failed to announce Baker's misdeeds to the congregation, that, through its agents, it devised a plan to address his transgressions, and that this plan was "woefully inadequate" to protect against future harm of minors, including minor members of the church. Bryan asserts that the church's failure to excommunicate Baker, its failure to shun him, and its eventual decision to allow Baker to return a position of leadership and respect within the church constituted acts that were sufficiently extreme and outrageous that they exceeded all possible bounds of decency. [27] We do not lightly dismiss the harm caused by the sexual abuse of children, nor do we misapprehend the enormity of that harm if inflicted in the context of religious activities. [11] On these facts, however, we conclude that the effort to hold the church responsible, in addition to the wrongdoer himself, would require direct inquiry into the religious sanctions, discipline, and terms of redemption or forgiveness that were available within the church in the context of this claim, an inquiry that would require secular investigation of matters that are almost entirely ecclesiastical in nature. [12] [28] State courts may not interfere in matters concerning religious doctrine or organization. See Swanson v. Roman Catholic Bishop of Portland, 1997 ME 63, 7, 692 A.2d 444, 445. A religious organization's decisions and actions when providing advice, counsel, or religious discipline to its members will be based on the particular religious beliefs of the organization, and thus, like the decisions and actions with respect to the organization's government, cannot by themselves form the basis for secular liability. See id. 12, 692 A.2d at 445 (quoting Pritzlaff v. Archdiocese of Milwaukee, 533 N.W.2d 780, 790 (Wis. 1995) and Schmidt v. Bishop, 779 F. Supp. 321, 332 (S.D.N.Y. 1991)). Allowing a secular court or jury to determine whether a church and its clergy have sufficiently disciplined, sanctioned, or counseled a church member would insert the State into church matters in a fashion wholly forbidden by the Free Exercise Clause of the First Amendment. [29] The Superior Court did not err in dismissing that portion of Bryan's complaint asserting a claim of intentional infliction of emotional distress against the church and its elders. D. Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress [30] Although it is no longer necessary for a plaintiff to plead or prove the existence of a separate tort in order to assert a claim for negligent infliction of emotional distress, a plaintiff must nonetheless demonstrate that the defendant owed him a duty of care and must prove the breach of that duty of care by the defendant. See Devine v. Roche Biomed. Labs., Inc., 637 A.2d 441, 447 (Me. 1994). The removal of the necessity for a plaintiff to allege an underlying tort or physical impact did not create a new cause of action, but simply removed the barriers that prevented plaintiffs from proceeding with claims already recognized in Maine, when the only damage suffered was to the psyche. See id. [31] In examining the scope of this tort, we have declined to apply a pure foreseeability analysis to determine when a duty arises. See Cameron v. Pepin, 610 A.2d 279, 284 (Me. 1992). Only where a particular duty based upon the unique relationship of the parties has been established may a defendant be held responsible, absent some other wrongdoing, for harming the emotional well-being of another. See, e.g., Bolton v. Caine, 564 A.2d 615, 618 (Me. 1989) (holding that a physician-patient relationship gives rise to a duty to avoid emotional harm from failure to provide critical information to patient); Gammon v. Osteopathic Hosp. of Me., 534 A.2d 1282, 1285 (Me. 1987) (holding that a hospital's relationship to the family of deceased gives rise to a duty to avoid emotional harm from handling of remains); Rowe v. Bennett, 514 A.2d 802, 806-07 (Me. 1986) (holding that the unique nature of psychotherapist-patient relationship gives rise to a duty of care to the patient). [32] We have never recognized a relationship between churches and their members of the type that would give rise to a duty to avoid psychic injury to those members, and we could not do so without inquiring into the ecclesiastical relationship whose components are not within the purview of the secular courts. See Swanson, 1997 ME 63, 7, 692 A.2d at 443. The court did not err in dismissing Bryan's claim of negligent infliction of emotional distress. The entry is: Judgment affirmed. Thompson & Bowie P O Box 4630 Portland, ME 04112 (for additional church defendants) M. Michaela Murphy, Esq. Daviau Jabar & Batten 1 Center Street Waterville, ME 04901 (for Baker) FOOTNOTES

1. Bryan alleges that among the options available to the defendants upon discovering Baker's misdeeds were: (1) "kick[ing] him out" of the Watchtower Society; (2) publicly rebuking him for his actions; (3) requiring him to undergo "professional evaluation for sexual impulse control"; (4) and requiring him to undergo "professional treatment for sexual impulse control." Bryan alleges that the defendants took none of these steps. 2. Because Baker is not alleged to have been an employee or agent of the church, we are not called upon to determine whether the "balancing of interests" we referenced in Swanson may require a different result when a child, rather than an adult, is injured by an agent of the church. Swanson, 1997 ME 63, 13, 692 A.2d at 445. 3. He also argues that the church allowed Baker to lead "Field Ministry Excursions" which included Bryan, thereby implying that by cloaking Baker with power and respect, the church negligently allowed Baker to gain Bryan's trust. 4. Had the clergy members of the church learned of Baker's assault on Joe Doe more recently, they would have had a statutory duty to report that information to the Department of Human Services and to the appropriate district attorney's office, unless the information was obtained during confidential communications. See 22 M.R.S.A. §4011(1)(D) (Supp. 1998). Bryan did not raise this issue before the Superior Court, and the amendment adding clergy to the list of mandated reporters was not enacted until long after the facts alleged in the complaint took place. See P.L. 1997, ch. 251, § 1 (effective Sept. 19, 1997) (adding "clergy members" to the list of those responsible for reporting child abuse). 5. In limited circumstances, courts have recognized that an actor may have a duty to warn third parties of the dangerous propensities of another when the actor has a special relationship with the dangerous person and the person threatened is a specific, foreseeable, and identifiable victim of the dangerous person's threats. See, e.g., Tarasoff v. Regents of Univ. of Cal., 551 P.2d 334, 345 (Cal. 1976); Thompson v. County of Alameda, 614 P.2d 728, 734-35 (Cal. 1980) (declining to extend holding in Tarasoff when neither a special relationship existed nor had a specific individual been threatened); Brenneman v. State, 256 Cal. Rptr. 363, 367 (following Thompson in holding that "public employees and entities have no affirmative duty to warn of the release of an inmate with a violent history who has made nonspecific threats of harm directed at nonspecific victims"); Leonard v. Latrobe Area Hospital, 625 A.2d 1228, 1232 (Pa. 1993) (following Thompson, finding "no common law rule that imposes a duty on a psychologist or psychiatrist to warn a non-patient of a patient's dangerous propensities"). But see, e.g., Perreira v. State, 768 P.2d 1198, 1201 (Co. 1989) (holding that psychiatrist has duty to third parties to exercise due care in treatment and release of committed patients). 6. Among those who have been held in certain circumstances to have a duty of care to protect others from harm by third parties are: innkeepers and proprietors of similar establishments, see Brewer v. Roosevelt, 295 A.2d 647, 651 (Me. 1972); Schultz v. Gould Academy, 332 A.2d 368, 371 (Me. 1975); Tenney v. Atlantic Assocs., 594 N.W.2d 11, 17 (Iowa 1999); jailers, see Harrison v. Ohio Dep't of Rehabilitation & Correction, 695 N.E.2d 1248, 1253 (Ohio Ct. Cl. 1997); and schools, see Hill v. Stafford Unified Sch. Dist., 952 P.2d 754, 756 (Ariz. Ct. App. 1997). 7. We do not address herein duties created by statute. See, e.g., Davis v. Monroe County Bd. of Educ., 119 S. Ct. 1661, 1666 (1999) (recognizing a statutorily imposed duty on the part of schools to protect children from abuse by other children or adults). 8. Accord Gragg v. Wichita State Univ., 934 P.2d 121, 128 (Kan. 1997) (holding that corporate sponsors of fireworks on a university campus had no duty to control conduct of third party); Hoff v. Vacaville Unified Sch. Dist., 968 P.2d 522, 527-29 (Cal. 1998) (holding that a school had no duty to protect pedestrian from student); cf. J.E.J. v. Tri-County Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Inc., 692 A.2d 582, 584-85 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1997) (holding that an organization had no duty to warn of potential danger from sexual abuse of one of its volunteers where injured child was not associated with organization's programs). 9. The term "fiduciary" is "one of the most ill-defined, if not altogether misleading terms in our law." Martinelli v. Bridgeport Roman Catholic Diocesan Corp., 10 F. Supp. 2d 138, 149 (D. Conn. 1998) (internal quotation omitted). One court offered the following explanation: Some of the indicia of a fiduciary relationship include the acting of one person for another; the having and exercising of influence over one person by another; the inequality of the parties; and the dependence of one person on another. Fiduciary duty arises, for example, between attorneys and clients, guardians and wards, and principals and agents. Doe v. Hartz, 52 F. Supp. 2d 1027, 1059 (N.D. Iowa 1999) (internal quotations omitted). {10}. Relationships "will not give rise to a confidential relation . . . unless there is evidence of superior intellect or will on the part of the one or the other, or of trust reposed or confidence abused." Ruebsamen, 340 A.2d at 35 (emphasis added). {11}. Bryan does not allege that Baker molested him during any of the church's activities. {12}. The amicus provides multiple examples of differing principles applied in various religions to determine whether and under what circumstances a church can or should discipline its members and what methods of discipline, counseling, and spiritual guidance are available.

TO THE REPORTER!!!!!!! If you want any info on any stories you need to leave an e-mail address if you want any kind of response. Many here are afraid to leave any names or info. because of the JW's. This is something many people are afraid of-like who are you and who are you reporting for????????? Prove It!!! To most of us you could be someone from the WTS. We won't tell you anything unless we know who you are and have a web site to prove it!!!!!!!!!

Dear Friends: I think everyone needs to chill out a little re: this paranoia idea about the WTS reading this site. So what if they are reading? What can they do to you? Anyone who posted their address knew in advance this is a PUBLIC site. The ones who post their address really do not care who sees it, from what I have read. ------ If you feel you have given too much detail about yourself by telling your story, even so... Unless someone else who knows you in your cong (if you are a current JW) visits this site and can tell from the story that it is YOU particularly... well, how likely is that? ------- I really think everybody is Over-Reacting. Think of it This Way: It could very well be pro-WTS persons who are posting those "warning" messages trying to make you FEEL PARANOID exactly for the purpose of trying to SCARE YOU so YOU WILL STOP POSTING YOUR STORIES! Ever think of it that way? ------- Also, I read from two very-experienced website owners this: (1) If someone was "really" hacking into this site, they would have done A LOT more damage than wipe out a few day's of posts. (2) They would have changed wording to posts to make everyone look bad, rather than just wipe out a few days' of posts. (3) It is completely illegal to mess with a website, and neither of them felt the WTS would do such a thing; tho one felt WTS "supporters" may be willing to do such "dirty deeds". (4) That due to the fact that it was posts from RECENT DAYS that disappeared, that likely means a glitch or crash in the site's server/system/etc. ---------- So, my humble opinion is that everyone should just RELAX. I'm sure all will be fine once the site owner and Webmaster take a look at whatever the problem was. ------- SL Cheerleader

Grand Jury Investigating Boston Cardinal June 19, 2002 08:55 AM ET BOSTON (Reuters) - The leader of the Roman Catholic archdiocese at the center of a child sex abuse scandal may face criminal charges for his handling of priests accused of raping and molesting children, Boston newspapers reported on Wednesday. Massachusetts Attorney General Tom Reilly has convened a grand jury to decide whether there is enough evidence to charge Boston Cardinal Bernard Law and other high-ranking archdiocese officials for their handling of priests accused of sexually abusing children, The Boston Globe and The Boston Herald

PS: To the reporter: I agree with Jesika: It's rather odd that a professional person, like yourself, would not leave an email addy and/or your credentials if you were serious, and really wanted more info. ---- Also, have you tried writing the owner of this site, as I'm sure he would have specifics. ---- Or, don't reporters already know how to get info? You could go "undercover" by becoming a JW, get admitted to Bethel, and then raid the offices late at night to get the 23,000+ names... Just a thought. ---- There must be legitimate ways, but I'm no attorney so I just don't know. I'm sure the "Sunshine Law" does not apply to religious orgs, does it? ------- SL Cheerleader

One last thought on the Missing Posts: About a week ago when I visited the Guestbook, only half of them for June loaded in (from about June 1 through 8). I tried several times, but same thing kept happening. I had zapped an email to site owner, and he wrote he passed the info onto the Webmaster. (I thought maybe the site was merely "updating itself" or whatever). My point is: MAYBE it was on the verge of "crashing" last week. Maybe that was a "symptom" that the system had a flaw, but it didn't totally crash out until yesterday, taking with it a few prior days' worth of posts. - ---- My other reason for thinking there may be a problem with the system is because, previously, when you would double-space in your post, it WOULD show double-spacing once it printed on the Guestbook page. But now it does NOT show double-spacing, but it runs everything together into one big paragraph. --- Due to those two reasons, I think it was a weakness in the system that finally went "kaput;" and NOT any WTS spies or anybody else messing with the SL website. ---- Just my 2-cents. Thanks. SL Cheerleader

If there are any SL Advocates out there with Website Knowledge, maybe you could offer to help Bill Bowen with the upkeep of this site? He has lots on his plate to deal with besides this site (like actually assisting individual lambs with their cases, etc., not to mention supporting himself and his family, work, etc.) I would gladly volunteer if I knew how to "run a website." The best I can do is offer to help with any typing that needs to be done on behalf of SL. And I'm serious with that offer. Kind regards/ Willing Typist.

Hey All------I found this quite interesting, and revealing-----How the WTS says that lying is OK! Check this out!!!  Insight, Volume 2 pp.244-5 Lie  LIE The opposite of truth. Lying generally involves saying something false to a person who is entitled to know the truth and doing so with the intent to deceive or to injure him or another person. A lie need not always be verbal. It can also be expressed in action, that is, a person may be living a lie. [...] Especially serious have been the religious lies, as they have endangered the future life of persons deceived by them. Said Jesus Christ: "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you traverse sea and dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes one you make him a subject for Gehenna twice as much so as yourselves." (Mt 23:15) The exchange of God's truth for "the lie," the falsehood of idolatry, can cause a person to become a practitioner of what is degrading and vile.-Ro 1:24-32. [...] While malicious lying is definitely condemned in the Bible, this does not mean that a person is under obligation to divulge truthful information to people who are not entitled to it. [Emphasis Added]  Watchtower 1976 July 15 pp.447-8 Questions from Readers  • From time to time letters are received asking whether a certain circumstance would justify making an exception to the Christian's obligation to tell the truth. In reply to these the following is given: God's Word commands: "Speak truth each of you with his neighbor." (Eph. 4:25) This command, however, does not mean that we should tell everyone who asks us all he wants to know. We must tell the truth to one who is entitled to know, but if one is not so entitled we may be evasive ... As a soldier of Christ he is in theocratic warfare and he must exercise added caution when dealing with God's foes. Thus the Scriptures show that for the purpose of protecting the interests of God's cause, it is proper to hide the truth from God's enemies. [Emphasis Added]  Watchtower 1957 May 1 pp.285-286 Use Theocratic War Strategy  A WITNESS of Jehovah was going from house to house in Eastern Germany when she met a violent opposer. Knowing at once what to expect she changed her red blouse for a green one in the very next hallway. No sooner had she appeared on the street than a Communist officer asked her if she had seen a woman with a red blouse. No, she replied, and went on her way. Did she tell a lie? No, she did not. She was not a liar. Rather, she was using theocratic war strategy, hiding the truth by action and word for the sake of the ministry. In this she had good Scriptural precedent. Did not Rahab hide the Israelite spies by both action and word? Did not Abraham, Isaac, David and others likewise hide the truth at times when faced with a hostile enemy? They certainly did, and never do we read a word of censure for their doing so. Rather, we read of their being termed exemplary servants of Jehovah. Their actions were in line with Jesus' wise counsel: "Look! I am sending you forth as sheep amidst wolves; therefore prove yourselves cautious as serpents and yet innocent as doves."-Matt. 10:16, NW. Perhaps some will wonder as to where the line is to be drawn between use of theocratic war strategy in hiding the truth and the telling of lies. First of all, let it be noted that whenever one takes an oath to tell the truth he is obligated to do so. By dedicating himself to do God's will each Christian has taken a vow or made an oath to do God's will and to be faithful to him. To this oath he certainly must be true. Likewise, when a Christian is placed on a witness stand he is obligated to speak the truth if he speaks at all. At times he may prefer to refuse to speak and suffer the consequences rather than betray his brothers or the interests of God's work. And, of course, there is no occasion for use of war strategy when dealing with our Christian brothers. In dealing with them we tell the truth or tactfully remind them that what they seek to know does not concern them. Lies are untruths told for selfish reasons and which work injury to others. Satan told a lie to Eve that worked great harm to her and all the human race. Ananias and Sapphira told lies for selfish reasons. But hiding the truth, which he is not entitled to know, from an enemy does not harm him, especially when he would use such information to harm others who are innocent. A great work is being done by the witnesses even in lands where their activity is banned. The only way they can fulfill the command to preach the good news of God's kingdom is by use of theocratic war strategy. By underground methods the literature is brought into the country and distributed. Would it make sense to hide this literature by one's actions and then reveal its whereabouts by one's words when queried? Of course not! So in time of spiritual warfare it is proper to misdirect the enemy by hiding the truth. It is done unselfishly; it does not harm anyone; on the contrary, it does much good. Today God's servants are engaged in a warfare, a spiritual, theocratic warfare, a warfare ordered by God against wicked spirit forces and against false teachings. God's servants are sent forth as sheep among wolves and therefore need to exercise the extreme caution of serpents so as to protect properly the interests of God's kingdom committed to them. At all times they must be very careful not to divulge any information to the enemy that he could use to hamper the preaching work. Watchtower 1956 Feb 1 p.88-89 Cautious as Serpents Among Wolves 45 We dare not lie against God's Word, adding to it or taking away from it, reading into it what it does not say and denying, passing over or explaining away what it does truthfully say. "Every word of God is tried: . . . Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." (Prov. 30:5, 6, AS) We may not tell untruths in his name, for that puts God in the light of a liar. "Let God be found true, though every man be found a liar." (Rom. 3:4, NW) In Jeremiah's day the false prophets prophesied lies in Jehovah's name and lied against his purpose, foretelling in his name what he had not foretold. Therefore Jehovah was against them. He executed judgment against them at Jerusalem's destruction in 607 B.C. (Jer. 23:25; 27:15) Religious liars like them today cannot escape a like judgment but will meet a like end at Armageddon. 46 Never swear falsely in Jehovah's name. Jehovah declares that at his temple he will be a "swift witness against . . . the false swearers." (Mal. 3:5, AS) Never take an oath in his name and then tell lies as a sworn witness. Rahab of Jericho was under no oath in Jehovah's name to tell the facts to the king's officers and hence was not a false swearer or a false witness. "A faithful witness will not lie; but a false witness uttereth lies." (Prov. 14:5, AS) A faithful witness does not love a false oath. So he tells the truth as he swore to do. What he does speak will be the truth. If he speaks at all he will tell the truth. To the extent that he chooses to talk he will state the truth. If for conscientious reasons he refuses to tell everything he will be willing to suffer the consequences if he be judged deserving of a penalty. He refuses to tell everything, not to escape punishment, but facing punishment for conscientious reasons. Even Jesus kept silent before Pilate, refusing to answer though knowing Pilate's power. John 19:8-11. [Emphasis Added] Reference Bible Revelation 22:15  Outside are the dogs and those who practice spiritism and the fornicators and the murderers and the idolaters and everyone liking and carrying on a lie.' WAY TO GO!!! to the Massachusetts Attorney General Tom Reilly who has convened a grand jury to decide whether there is enough evidence to charge Boston Cardinal Bernard Law and other high-ranking archdiocese officials for their handling of priests accused of sexually abusing children, The Boston Globe and The Boston Herald http://www.reuters.com/news_article.jhtml;jsessionid=XC4D5RZLAW1F0CRBAE0CFEYKEEATGIWD?type=topnews &StoryID=1108312 ---------------------------- See, the "higher ups" who engaged in the coverup just might get their tails pinned to the wall. I sure hope so! Sleazy dogs & cowards there were/are! And it makes me think of the scripture about the "handwriting on the wall"! If there is 23,000+ names of molesters at WTS-HQ (and I DO BELIEVE THERE ARE), I bet the WT lawyers have the paper-shredding machines going full blast.

Good judgement call on the REPORTER* I thought the same thing. I e-mailed Dianne Feinstein -thank you for the address to www.citizen.org, it was easy. Also, Newsweek, I emailed them, thanking them for article and to view silentlambs for the "rest of the story " I too would be willing to give some time to help maintain the site.I am trying to remember what I wrote: something about the ones moaning and groaning over the detestable things(us) and how the WTS disfellowships/calls them apostate- WTS acts like someone is complaining for the sake of complaining and that this is not the heart wrenching, spirit sucking, child destroying, outrageously wrong way to handle this atrocity. this might be a little out of line but one of the other things I wrote is that I wanted to put up the American Flag, since the WTS was an NGO member of the UN, promoting the UN ( I remember reading the articles & wondering what was going on) in protest of the hypocrisy and for the Malawi brother/sisters who have really suffered too.Of course I wrote it more eloquently and passionate the first time!love from Soap Box

IS THERE ANYONE IN DALLAS!!!!!!!!!!! I have contacted many around the country who are willing to meet and to talk about anything having to do with the situation at hand. I am thrilled to talk to anyone who is willing, but my question is-is there anyone in the Dallas area excluding my family members who have posted????????????? I am just curious.
If so please leave an email address. I would leave mine but I am not using my own computer and any viruses would affect the person's computer I am using. Thanks Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

As far as I can tell, whoever started this website has some issues. I can really sympathize with your plights, having experienced these things personally. However, it seems like your reaching. Holding hands out and grabbing at any and every little thing that negatively shines on the JWs. Half of the articles you've post don't have any substantial evidence whatsoever. Just vague allusions. AND isn't there the teaching that Jehovah will expel anyone who is not a true servant of Him. It seems that He has, from the articles you've posted. And He seems to have redeemed people who are innocent. I feel saddened that you people have forgotten these basic teachings of this faith. Maybe you never really understood them. Which would obviously lead us to the glaring fact that you ARE NOT members anymore proving that Jehovah has taken care of his flock. Those of you who are still in the faith, are doing better than most of these people. Or, could it just be that your exacting your own revenge and are doing the exact same thing to other children. The whole thing makes me ill. Which is why I adamantly urge you all to step aside the narrow teachings of any faith. And truly embrace the divine by simply realizing that you cannot possibly see the whole picture EVER, and thereby give rise to your own natural and human powers. Study other religions and faiths, experiment with ecstasy and other drugs, astral project yourself, and review former lives. Do this, and you certainly will find god in some form. :)

I have already added a portion of my story and find it appalling that some have the guts to come to this website and make crude comments about the participants. WHO ARE YOU? Are you JW's? If so, WHY ARE YOU HERE? Having some doubts? If so, be glad that there is a way to feel "at ease" with proclaiming them; don't bash us for feeling the way we do. And for the ignorant person who thinks we're all making this up: LEAVE! You're not welcome here. If you're not a JW or a former one, who are you to cast any sort of judgement on us. Have you walked a minute in our shoes. I doubt it and I pray to whatever God is up there or down here that you never do! These are people who have been beaten, abused, neglected beyond comprehension and have finally found a place to express themselves and relay their stories. I gave only a tid-bit of my story, but if I were to go into details, you would think I were lying because it's just that horrific! A question to someone who's held some rank (elder, ministerial servant, governing body (I'm sure even some of them frequent here :0), I would like to know if my "publisher" number is still being counted in the statistics, although I have been inactive for several years. My sister and I wonder if/how we can strike our names from the record without disassociating ourselves. I think that if all "inactive" ones were stricken from the record, the annual "stats" would be much lower than they are, although they are quickly diminishing, especially in affluent countries. I was originally afraid to post my name for fear of some elder knocking on my door telling my I'm an apostate, but that word means nothing to me (just like all the other words my "spell check doesn't recognize). If that's what you want to call someone who's finally figured out that I can THINK my way through life rather than having every decision made for me, than so be it. I am not here to "bash" the organization, just join those who realize it's imperfect and therefore, those who run it should not be given the extreme power they have. I'm just your typical 30 something, raised in the truth, who finally decided that I can think for myself. And so far, I'm doing okay. Yes, thanks again for the reply email. To anyone who wants to "talk" feel free to email me directly. To the guy who asked about the sister who has a brother in Novato, that's me, please write me. I was bold enough to post my name and email address, so I'm pretty safe (until an elder knocks on my door) which will probably mean that soon my entire family, with the exception of my sister will no longer love me, but then again, if it's that easy to pull your love away, did they ever REALLY love me to begin with? To all those who are here who have doubts, it's okay. Doubts are normal, it's the way we decide what is right from wrong. You don't have to be one of the "abused" to feel doubts. I doubt my phone bill and indepthly research the car I buy, why not research what will decide the eventuality of my life? geanaz@aol.com

Jehovah Witnesses are far removed from Christianity, It is not only the pedophilia that they are guilty of. Wherever you look you find them irresponsible narrow minded prejudiced irrational mostly uneducated people unqualified and unfair practicing broad spectrum injustice and hate in and outside their congregations. Someone said on this page that she was disfellowshipped for something of a very minor nature! I was DF'd for no fault of mine at all. I was an exemplary witness ! The chairman of the judicial committee whispered in my ear that my wife wants me out of the congregation . They want to put me outside for a year and after that they would reinstate me.I said to him that I would never do that! Ask Doug if that is not true. This organization of Jehovah's witnesses is truly a Satanic Cult as anybody who investigates this matter will tell you. They have destroyed my family mercilessly and brought me personally to the point of suicide with skill that only the Lord was able to save me from it. I lost my wife and 4 children 6 years ago also my house and possession. I will be 60 now without pension proper job or any kind of security and alone! Do not misunderstand please. There is no single syllable in my comment that is untrue or e exaggerated. I leave all that at the foot of the Cross. I do not hate Jeh. Witnesses and I forgive them individually. But the Watchtower Society is pure evil. They mislead over 6 million people leading them to death my wife and my children are among them! And yes I know of pedophilia and sex abuse in this area among JW's. Please pray for all these unfortunate people. Romanko

I understand some of you may have a problem with the view that there is an active concern directed to this site from the organization. But this site poses the greatest threat to the moral authority of the WT society to date. When I tell you that it is being investigated - I mean it is being investigated. Not er... I think it may be.... And how do I continue inside the organization? Simple - I love my brothers and sisters and I am of good standing.

I'm feeling that it is shameful to have been raised in a JW household. It's like having parents who were Nazis or members of the KKK. Arrogant, selfish, ruthless, ignorant and strange. What can you say about a religion that COACHES people in lying? Even lying in a court of law? How can it be legal to raise a child in an atmosphere of psychological abuse?

response to the educated witness and the mole: There are those of us who cry out for Justice and fairness to congregation and to the society we ask, Is there such a thing as Christian Freedom? I believe that there is. Many of us in our own religious circles are being suppressed not to think and to feel. The human need of expression and love to one another is being dictated to only love those in our own religious environment but only those who publicly display themselves as righteous. This alone causes the division we know in America and else where throughout the world Germany and Ireland. This must stop, but it cannot unless we ourselves put a stop to it. We can never be like everybody everywhere all the time but at the same time we need such divisions; on the other hand, our religion supposedly preaches love but approves the actions of shunning and abuse because one is not part of their organization or part of their click. As a member of the Jehovah's Witness Organization I see this problem within our group. In the last two weeks I have been told that we must avoid those who are not of our faith and to also avoid any one who questions the Organizations policies. Yes, it is true. We are being told by the leaders of each congregation to follow this direction so not to be against God's word. I have spoken to many of my associates and peers about this matter and we are all dumbfounded that our own organization has subjected us to follow the same rules and guidelines the Pharisees had done in Christ time. I read a book recently and it brought some facts I wanted to share with others. It was written by Bernard McGinn. In his book titled the Coming of the Antichrist he explained in his chapter of Heretics how religions then and now are still similar. "He said, "rhetoric was used internally, to identify certain Christians as apocalyptic enemies because of their heretical beliefs..." These traditions offer unusually strong resources for group solidarity and action against threats, imagined or real. This is as true as we approach the year 2000 as it was at the turn of the first millennium... Those who use [this] language and its equivalents [use it] only as a weapon to smear opponents. Our group must stop frightening their congregations of the coming end and creating their own means of getting them to obey what ever whim they have that week. A talk came out at Cow Palace this last weekend on June 16th 2002 from the Organization, and I quote, All Christians should be careful not to add to the burdens of others by taking it upon themselves to impose their own ideas in matters of personal choice and decision of the Elders regarding judicial matters should be counseled and regarded weak brothers and sisters.....Others tend to turn the Society's suggestions and guidelines into rules....Some have carried this mature counsel to extremes. If this can be told to 10,000 in attendance and written for us for counsel then obviously there is a problem of those who are doing this within the organization. It stands to reason this is so or it would have not been told to us after the NBC display. I think these scriptures apply to all: Ephesians 2:8-10, 2Corinthians 3:6, Romans 7:6, John 7:24. One last point that should be brought out is the issue of disfellowshipping. It is unscriptural and against the true teaching of our Holy God. The New Jerusalem Bible, NIV, and the Oxford Bible and others give the correct interpretation of the Holy Bible without the slighted version we are forced to except as the true Bible. Isaiah 58:7 says, "you should not deny your own kin". Yet, the Organization will follow Matthew 18:15-17 and back it up with its own literature. The Elders handbook "Pay Attention to Yourselves and to All the Flock" quotes all internal doctrine to support this crime of the personality. The vague interpretation is as solid as truth as far as the other members are concerned and will say anything to defend this injury. Shunning was condemned as part of the old order by Christ himself; Furthermore, the Elders assume a position to be judges by claiming to purify the congregation. Sadducees and Pharisees way of thinking is supported in are new way of thinking or the new light as they call it. The Elders handbook says convincing the wrongdoer and convincing the wrongdoing of his errors can bring him back to repentance. This is the facts and all should know the truth about the true order of things in this organization. I remember not long ago a Circuit Overseer came to my apartment to see how I was doing. He didn't say anything until the other Elder of my congregation was finished talking to me about my health. The C.O. told me to look up a scripture with him and so I obliged him. We looked up 2 Corinthians 1:21 and after we read this scripture he asked me what I thought of it. I told him that this is a major belief in our religion. He looked at it and said this was his way to see if I was apostate and to see if I believed the anointed where leading us. I could have disputed this because there is no evidence of it and also those who lead our Organization are not even of the anointed only 2% of the body claim this. After the visit ended I was shocked. One Elder Dan Soria didn't come to encourage me it was a witch hunt and he alone sought for me to be removed. Ever since then I sit at my kingdom hall not with joy in my heart but with disdain at the hypocrisy. Thanks for the past letters, now I know I am not alone. skeptic in Placerville

We make no apology for the pedophile in the isles with the microphone! we make no apology for the converted pervert who is covert.......we make no apology for our stand on a man without two witnesses...we make no apology for doing the twist and it goes like this and most of all we make no apology for the little lambs that are taken by this sham. to the sweet man that lost his family, I don't know how that happened but your faith in God/Jah is what sustains you and the rest of us too. better to be considered a "worldly" than live in that world. Jehovah knows who his lambs are and no one can change that, not with words, rules, silence, hours, or position or organization. The governing body should be washing the feet of Jesus -not washing over their own sins.

To all who post mssgs in this forum: If you say anything remotely contrary to what some JW's believe, watch out -- you are likely to receive "viruses" in your email. Last month I told my story, gave me real name, email address, and challenged any JW to disprove my story -- so far, I've received several responses in this forum criticizing me, some phone threats, and three "viruses" on my computer. Still don't regret telling my story and would do it again. At this point I believe all silentlambs are on the offensive and JWs are now on the defensive. For whatever that info/opinion is worth, F.B.

Did anyone send an email to Primetime and 20/20 at ABCNews.com?

SO, IS THE BRYAN R. v. WATCHTOWER BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETY OF NEW YORK, INC CASE MENTIONED ON THIS WEBSITE? ANYONE? AND IF NOT, WHY NOT?????????????? Bryan Rees obtained a judgment against Larry Baker, who pleaded guilty to sexually abusing Rees, but he also sought to sue three elders of the Augusta church as well as the denomination's legal corporation. In a unanimous ruling, the Maine Supreme Judicial Court upheld a lower court's dismissal of the claims against the church leaders and the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc. MAINE SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT Reporter of Decisions Decision: 1999 ME 144 Docket: Cum-98-531 Argued: May 4, 1999 Decided: October 18, 1999

I have an idea for a quote from the WTS! How about,"We make no apologies."

To FB: You should call the authorities in your area - you know that threats, viruses, etc...are against the law. It could be pedophiles or it could be JWs.

Watch the news last night - legislature is passing laws that will make it a felony to know of child sexual abuse and not report it. And it will be mandatory to report if you have knowledge of sexual child abuse. This is a result of the Catholic Church being exposed. So letters and comments to the Senators/Congressmen is going to be very important. Soap Box

FYI RE EMAIL TAMPERING: Please go to xjw.com. First post from Morloc dated 6/17 states that his email address is being used to send virus to others and threatening messages. So...it silentlambs is not the only target. He also explains how to detect, how to protect yourself from such messages etc...not that I understand. But he welcomes anyone to contact him about this.

To Geana "I am a victim, not an apostate" Beautiful!!! To those who fear a virus. I have posted a few times, left my addy, no virus only thoughtful responses from dear people. Although I do have the newest virus scan available. My son was told to tell me that the elders want to speak to me. I can only guess it is about that letter I wrote to the WTS.
Hebrews 12:5-11 shows, to bring about a much needed quality, namely "righteousness". Jesus showed, in the last "Israel" of God. These words show us, as a parental figure, the God of "Israel" chooses to discipline his "sons", as just one example of how the prophetic scriptures give us a tremendous glimpse of the future, as it affects modern-day Himself", in the event Israel fails to do so, and carry out her sworn responsibility. So if she fails in doing this, God necessary action. In fact, Ezekiel 39:27 says, Jehovah has obligated himself in such cases. Jehovah must "Sanctify (See Ezekiel 20:9, 14, 22, 44.). So because of the reproach brought upon God's Name by Israel, God takes this very namesake" and not for the sakes of Israel itself. This point is constantly repeated within the 20th chapter of Ezekiel. Ezekiel 20th chapter, we cannot escape the real reason for God taking this action against Israel. It is for his own "ordeal" for Israel of modern times. (Jeremiah 46:28) So no matter how we look at the prophetic words of Hebrews 12:5-11 shows, to bring about a much needed quality, namely "righteousness". Jesus showed, in the last days, "Israel" would be in much need of this quality by saying during that time, "Israel" would have to go through a "re-creation" [Greek: palingenesis, "regeneration"; "rebirth"] period. (Matthew 19:28 see footnote lg prt NWT Ref. Bib.) And no question the long hidden "child abuse" problem as well as the secret 10-year "United Nations-NGO/GB" affair all give "convincing evidence" of the compelling need of "righteousness", on the part of modern-day "Israel". Also the practice of shunning as "apostates" those who object to promulgating the unproven, false teaching/dogma of 1914 shows a blatant disregard for "truth" and a sordid "rejoicing in unrighteousness" upon the part of wicked "Israel" of Bible prophecy. (1 Corinthians 13:6) [See link below on the error of "1914" teaching.] Jesus foretold Israel's disobedience by saying "And when that one arrives he will give the world [Israel] convincing evidence concerning sin and concerning righteousness and concerning judgment...because they are not exercising faith in me." (John 16:8, 9) These words of Jesus have proven quite true for us today. This is because, Jehovah's Witnesses, with all of her unrighteousness, continues to "fit the bill" of the prophetic description given of her centuries ago, as modern day "Israel" of Bible prophecy. We have the "convincing evidence" of her guilt right before us, just as the "God of the inspired utterances of the prophets" said centuries ago. Europe ...here they come!!!!!!! About 45min ago - on short notice -, German TV magazine KONTRASTE (http://www.kontraste.de broadcasted a very well researched report on child abuse within the JW community. The report was only 10-15min long, but it was German prime time - the very first topic after the most watched daily news magazine. KONTRASTE (Contrasts) is very reputable TV magazine. Two victims were interviewed and a JW spokesman. Also Stephan E. It is true that many people have taken on the WTS and failed. I can't think of an organization more skilled at the manipulation of governmental constitutions. Look at what the WTS has done in the art of "bible manipulation." (Kudos for deception) In the US our sense of freedom of expression by the 1st amendment is often blind to freedom from expression. It is unfortunate. But the belief is that evil deception in the end is always self-defeating. I believe that the WTS is already dead, but I think that it will take 20 years to bury it. Its legacy in history will be one of the most powerful Arius styled sect movements of all time. For many of the people telling their stories I want you to know I believe you. I have seen the worst that the witnesses have to offer in my own family. For years I have shown them love and in return they have given me hardness of the heart. They did this only because my wife left the sect when she turned 18. I know that to them this is love. It is not however Christ styled love. No witness can experience this because that is not the ideology of the WTS. Witnesses only know how to give conditional love. This means, "I will love you if you are baptized," or, "I will love you if you submit to the will of the WTS." Any individual will is crushed with masterful crafted skill. This was never The Way. It is the other side of what true religion is about. This type of sameness is "uniformity." Unity is when the "one mind" is E pluribus unum; We enjoy and embrace our differences with in the group. That is how we grow. This is about the victims of the Watchtower. It is their doctrine and the way that the dogma is implemented that binds the members. (They all are willing victims) There is specific doctrine that must be dispelled in order for the individual to be free and in control of how they respond to their life's events. Then the dogma (that fear they have of the elders) has no power over them. Remember this it does not matter what we know. It only matters what we can prove. That means that preparation is necessary. You must gather evidence. The physical abuse is easy to prove. It should be done at the time of the assault. If you wait then it is your word against theirs. Remember these same people who lied for you in the past will now lie about you. Make no mistake witnesses love no one not even themselves. They will turn on anyone inside or outside the organization with one order from whoever is in authority. It does not matter what the charges are (if they even know). Tape your DF hearings. This is already happening and you can read them all over the net. There are many ways to fight back against the witnesses in your family and your life. They love to harass and stalk individuals. This is sick and illegal in most states. They are your enemy if they suspect you of anything. (True or not) It does not matter if you have no interest in the issues that the Watchtower has with someone. If you are associated, married or related to them in any way you are a target. (That is my story.) If someone in your life or family goes against the Watchtower you will pay for it, and vice versa. (Remember you are doing the witnesses in your family a favor if you do.) Yes they will hurt in the short term but long term you might free them. Even if not it saves you a lot of pain. As my father in law (who is associated) says "We hurt you and your children because it is one way to get at our daughter." You can not sue or have them arrested for harassment unless you make it perfectly clear that you want no association with the individual. It can't be a blanket like "all JW's" it has to be with an individual. Because the Watchtower specifically uses family to inflict emotional pain on the disfellowshipped you have to look at leaving the Watchtower as a divorce. That is what it is, not the divorce from God, not even faith, but the end of a bad relationship. Looking at it that way has helped me to let go of the anger for vengeance that these cowardly people in my own family inflicted on me to try an hurt my wife. (The best revenge is to lead a happy, successful life.)…. (I could never forgive them, nor can I forget; I can only let it go.) These issues alone will not win this war, these crimes are but symptoms in the bigger illness. The battles to be won are inside you and in the protection of your family. As I said it is a divorce, and if the relationship with these people is bad for you then it is bad for your children. The legal system shies away from religious custody battles this is the big advantage of the Watchtower. (Which is strange because in their history the organization hates children.) Maybe it is because children tie people to families. The Watchtower exploits this. To try and keep individuals bound to the Watchtower. Or as an example as to what will happen to others who try to leave the sect. We will need stand strong with you, and you strong enough to bring legal action against your own families. Even have them arrested. It is painful beyond words but it is the Witnesses choice. You can not make them love or understand why you will not submit to the Watchtower's control. It is like an addict high on crack and you are trying to tell them how they are destroying their life and everyone around them. The "kingdom halls" are where they go to shoot up, to get high. Only by taping their behavior and showing it to the outside world will people begin to see just how evil this sect and it's behavior is. Not all drunkards are skid row bums. Not all idolaters have a visible golden cow they worship in plain site. Not all addictive agents come with government warning labels. Not all those organizations that claim to be religions have noble intentions, nor do they have its member's best interests in mind. When a person is an addict if they don't want help then you can't help them. However, you do not have to be their victim, nor be exploited or hurt by them. You are not responsible for their behavior, they are. What they do is because of their addiction. You don't have to hate them; they are not in control of what they do. They however are responsible for what they do and must be held accountable.

to land on your system. About 3 or 4 months ago I received an email from some ex-JW friends (or so I thought) and traced it back to a library where they did research ... as it turned out, the library was two states away from where they were at the time, because they were out traveling. The librarian did not send the email either, and it appears that someone hacked my friends system, sent an email that appeared to come from them, and sourced back to the library. Sooo ... I had my friends switch to my hotmail account to prevent future problems. RECOMMENDATIONS: Hotmail is a routing service and automatically screens for viruses: It cannot penetrate your system unless you download something sent to your Hotmail account. I recommend that your email account used for online chats and posting forums be a Hotmail account. When you subscribe to Hotmail, you can use fictitious information so that if a hacker breaks into Hotmail, they cannot learn who you are. While fictitious, you do need real information. For example: I use some name like Joe Smith in Florida, or Alaska, etc with a correct zip code for Florida, or Alaska or whatever State I use. If you attempt a false Zip code, Hotmail will reject the account. Internet Security / Firewall / Antivirus: Norton, by Symantec is the best in my opinion, although there are other great systems that are very good. I STRONGLY recommend having BOTH the Firewall and Anti-Virus. The Firewall also stops Hackers dead in their tracks so that the odds of planting a Virus or Trojan into your system in the first place are greatly reduced. Norton Firewall also allows tracing of the hacker so you can report them to their employer and/or ISP. Anti-Virus alone is good, but can lag behind new viruses, and your system could get corrupted before Norton or whatever Anti-Virus program you have can fix it. On average there are 50 NEW Viruses developed each week by people with nothing better to do than mess with their fellow human. Poison Pill: I do not know of any commercial grade software available that allows you to send a Poison Pill back to the hacker's system ... but I am working on my own version. Essentially, the type of Poison Pill I hope to have will secretly slip back to the Hacker, and totally destroy their entire PC system with no traces. I mean erase everything on their hard drive, and render it inoperable. If it works well, I might market it. Hackers will devise ways around such a thing ... but the presence of Poison Pills may reduce the level of Hacker Traffic on the Net, which is at an all time high right now. Don't over-react: When I first saw the email from my friends, and my system screened out the virus, I called them to let them know they sent a virus ... fortunately we are on close terms and we all laughed about what happened ... but it could have been easy to assume they were screwing with me, and if I had over-reacted, I could have lost their friendship by shooting off my mouth. Don't assume that the Watchtower is out to get us ... there could be weird renegade JWs hacking us ... maybe even a weird Bethelite or two ... but I doubt that the GB is directing anything of the sort ... they are bad religious leaders, but I can't imagine them being that desperate so as to hunt down ex-JWs on the net and cause that much trouble. If I am proven wrong, I guess I will have to eat what I am saying ... but generally, Hackers could be anyone, and not necessarily some specific person from a specific group. Sharing Information: Any additional comments will be greatly appreciated ... I think it is good that we discuss Internet issues at times, because this helps us share what we know and find ways to have a more secure experience. We have some really good experts on line, and I hope that they can give some additional insights and things we can do to protect our systems.

A lot of time and attention is going into monitoring what you say how you say it - expressions - and where your emails/links/cookies are coming from and going to. I think the advice to get a firewall and any package that will cover your tracks would be useful - also be aware of giving out any personal specifics, however vague they might be. The witch hunt has begun...but I am glad that it has come to this. Of course I salute all of those who are standing up publicly. Your courage is what sustains me.

Mole: You don't have to compromise to not celebrate holidays - many 'worldly' people who happen to be spiritual don't celebrate halloween, they see it for what it is and JW are not the only ones who don't celebrate certain holidays. As head of household, regardless of what you are, you can say "no" to your children with a Christian Conscience. What your children are getting at the KH is not spiritual food, but a twist of scriptures that will not help them to be spiritual, follow in the footsteps of Jesus or be able to reason, question and come to their own conclusions based of God's word - so it does not matter if they are protected from Halloween, they still need to be protected from the wolves and be out of the wolves den. A lie is a lie is a lie no matter who tells it. What they get from the kingdom hall will damage their perceptive powers - that is what lies do. Why do you think Satan is called the Father of the Lie and a manslayer????????? The lies will kill us if we believe them.....the minute you doubt yourself you can almost be guaranteed that a lie is at the bottom of it. * I am a Girl from California.Soap Box!

Mole and Soap Box...I too do not observe days like halloween. I don't like what it represents secularly...Extortion. It does not even get to the point of spiritual matters. I don't like it. The Watchtower seems to suggest that if you leave the kingdom halls protection you will suddenly grow horns or a mystical bullseye is painted on you for the big day. Its a lie. It does not happen. Its not much different than if you were locked in a dungeon and convinced that there was no life outside the dark room you lived in. There is incredible spiritual and secular life out of the dungeon but you miss out on it. In the Asian wars 30+ years ago we tried to immunize the Asian children from polio. The elders (tribal) decided we were trying to put demons in the kids so they ordered the arm injected to be cut off to let the demons escape. That's graphic and I am not saying that it is literally equal to the WTS. My point is that often when people are trying to help you in ways that you don't understand "don't cut your arm off." I don't want to infect you with demons or make anyone do anything they don't want to. But, I would like to give you all the facts so YOU can make informed choices for you and your family. That is why so many of these sites that seem to be anti-jw. These are people who are like someone who knows the building is on fire but the people inside are scared to come outside. I don't know enough about the JW to pass any blame on them as a "unit". I was raised Catholic, and NEVER had a problem there (nor knew of any), but there obviously IS a problem with some of the priests. I do believe that bringing to light people who have wronged others in such a way (regardless of race or religion) is an admirable thing. NO child should be made to feel “dirty” at the hands of an adult, nor should they be made to feel it is their fault. The perpetrators of these crimes should, however, be held accountable. That goes for the “rich guy” in the fancy suburb as much as it goes for the “redneck” in the backwoods. It’s a scary world we bring our children up in. Mine have ALWAYS been told that NOBODY that you don’t know has any business touching you at all, and NOBODY even if you know them has any business touching you “anywhere your bathing suit would cover”, family or otherwise. They have been told if anything remotely like that should happen, it is NOT their fault, and to let us know so that we can protect them. As a parent, I guarantee...someone harms my child in such a way, they would do good to pray in any way they knew how to that the law caught up with them before I did. ~Disgusted in Ohio~

CLASS ACTION GOOD IDEA...! Here is a quote from The Post Traumatic Gazette by Patience "It takes time to get better. Getting better is a slow process. The physiological arousal which many trauma survivors live in makes it difficult for survivors to take in the kind of information needed to heal. This is part of the brain chemistry of survivors. IT IS NOT RESISTANCE. People can talk about changing but all survivors see is their lips moving. The words and concepts make no sense. This is because they are taking in survival information: who's in the room, where are they sitting, where is the door, how are they reacting to me?......Safety first" *hard to work, think, have relationship, take care of myself if I am constantly worried about my safety !*******

You sillies the e-mail DPINGO is from the U.N. I got one too because I had e-mailed the DPI section of the U.N. asking about the involvement of the WTS with them as an NGO. They have been swamped with inquiries. What I got was a copy of the e-mail response that is being sent to everyone. Don't let paranoia take away your freedom to speak out. love you guys. Hey everyone, sorry about the goof on the link to the German information. I had found it, read it in English, and had no idea the link I provided would bring you to the German translation. Oooops! I'm glad someone was able to provide the link for the English translation! I think it's wonderful that so many have been posting messages. Of course, along with personal stories, we have to deal with Looney-Toons posting garbage and slamming us for speaking out. But, I do not and will not let it get to me. I also am happy to see "in-good-standing" witnesses, including elders/ministerial servants, posting messages as well. I find myself laughing a little about it because just visiting this site or others along the same lines can get you booted out of the K.H. So, Hats Off to those of you in higher positions in the congregations who are opening their eyes and feeling our pain, and wanting to do something about the horrible things that have happened to so many of us. I don't know what's worse------Being disfellowshipped and considered DEAD by my own family, or being a part of a family that molests children (including myself)and sweeps it all under the rug. I was disfellowshipped at my request in '95 and couldn't be more free and happy. Jesika, my dear niece, hang in there. I know your dad, my brother (ugh) hasn't been there at all for you through any of this. Hang in there girl....there are a lot of us out here to support you, encourage and strengthen you. From the Mole: Sorry about the balls thing just was an expression. To soapbox I would enjoy an intellectual conversation with you but I'm of afraid of giving my email address out right now. I too live in California. It seem since I began viewing this site last week you have been on here quite a bit, you must be a regular. Just to let all of you know my congregation has now been discussing things about apostates and talks from the elders about seeking them out. I used to be a ministerial servant for years but stepped down because it took away my time with my son. I'm only 35 but my son will only be a kid once, since I'm alone raising him I thought it would be better to back away from the responsibilities I had in the hall. I have seen and heard a lot of stuff that probably would shock all of you but it seems many have spoke up and I congratulate all of you for speaking up. It was about time. It has been three years now and the elders keep hounding me to do more but it is like they don't understand that my son is more important the showing numbers for field service. anyway my is boring. ................The mole

FROM SOAP BOX TO MOLE & ALL: lately I have been on here a lot. You are wise not to leave your email. The best resource is God, your faith in Him...period. You are doing what is right by being a father first - doubt this???? remember I said self-doubt usually means someone is lying to you??? Don't be afraid to visit the other sites, you can read letter after letter that will remove your self-doubts. * Silently pray to Jehovah and he will answer you loud and clear I know "Crisis of Conscience" by Franz is "banned" but this book is so incredible and it is not hateful. Brother Franz is a true Christian. Reading his book gave me my conscience back fully.*This is your journey, your relationship with God and you have the responsibility of a son that God put into your care. This is between you and God, and it is not anyone else's business. Busy body elders sound like a "nagging wife" to me. What does your son think of all this???? That would be important to ask him. *I have to find what is meaningful in everything I do. My work, my relationships with people, my relationship with God, how I live and what I do with my time & energy has to be meaningful.I also have to define that for myself and trust that I have integrity, possibly more than the average person to do this in a responsible christian way. I have stopped listening to people, I listen to God only; it is hard to hear God when too many people are telling you what to do!!!! *You can order "Crisis of Conscience" by email at Amazon.com - ask them to deliver it in a "brown paper wrapper"....!!!!I guarantee you will not put the book down. One of these days soon I will create a new email address for me at hotmail and post it. I wonder where everyone is these days...it has been quiet here.

The mole.........Hi soapbox, thank you for your comments. I have searched and read other sites and I own Rays books, in fact I have been in communication with him. He has been very ill and has not written me lately. When I stepped down I wrote to Ray and since then we have corresponded. I own various books on topics everyone has discussed plus literature from the Society in fact I own the Divine Plan of Ages series. When I seen NBC that night I knew I had to speak up and tell what I have seen in the Kingdom Halls. I am a fourth generation Witnesses and wont abandon my people but I will be a voice for the public to hear and to educate everyone what is going on since I am in very good standing with the Hall. I even own several Elders Handbooks and Pioneer books that is banded to the public and members of the Kingdom Hall. It bothers me on what I have seen and the ignorance that is rewarded. I agree with Theodore J. and Placerville because I too was forced to be silent at one time for an issue that sickened me, this is why I really stepped down but my son was a major factor to finally get things in true perspective. This is why I am the Mole

I think it was Soap Box who said it's been quiet around here lately... I think the fact that all those days of posts got lost sort of knocked the wind out of some.... only temporarily I'm sure. It was sad to lose so many posts, during the time that so much great stuff was happening, and so many people were posting. ---- It was just one of those things, progress was being made moving to a larger server/bandwidth or whatever, but it still is sad we lost so many posts. -- ---- I tried to find a Newsweek last night at the store, but they had like 8 copies of the June 17th issue, but NONE of the June 24th issue... Oh well. -- But there may be more coverage in the July Newsweek issue, from what I read previously.... Around Sunday or Monday, we should visit the Newsweek website again to check and see... ---- Hey, Mole, thanks for your story. It's comforting to hear from those still on the inside (sounds like a prison term... On the Inside... sorry. Don't mean for it to sound that way!) ---- Can you tell us more stories, Mole? I always wondered what it's like to be one of the "men" in the congs who get first-hand-info that the rest of us never heard.... ---- For the other "brother" in Lido.... No offense but I wasn't convinced you were a real brother. You used the term "circular reasoning," and that is a much-used-phase used on the anti-JW or XJW sites. Also you kept referring to "our religion," and I don't remember talking like that when I was a JW. Just my 2-cents.... ---- I just wouldn't want to think that XJW's are "pretending" to still be JWs, for the purpose of making what they say seem to have more credibility to those who may still be JWs. That would be a dirty tactic, and I would hope the XJWs don't act like that. I mean, if you're x, just say so. ---- Hey, that was pretty funny about DPI-NGO, and everyone panicking about the emails from DPINGO! ;) Too funny. Glad "sillies" cleared that up for us! :) ---- SL Cheerleader (JW for 11 years, DF'd but not completely on the side of the XJW's either. I'd like to hear more about these JWs-working-for-reform groups, JWs who still are JWs but just broke away from the org... but that's a whole 'nother subject than this site.) --- Later kids.

DOES THE FBI HAVE A FILE ON YOU?? -------- Be prepared for a real surprise at this site... an attorney I know gave me this site, I thought you might find it useful. You can check to see if the FBI has ever had a file on you. I was shocked to see that there was a file on me. Do not use your social security number, if you don't want them to know it was you who was checking. Just check your state and put in your name. If a match is found they will ask for a year of birth to narrow the search. You will get the case number, date of investigation and any photos on file. It's a free site, but is expected to be closed due to a federal court order. http://www.policeguide.com/cgi-bin/criminal-search

Someone mentioned ordering Ray Franz' book at Amazon. Just so happens I got this below email today, that if you order $49 worth of stuff at Amazon, you get free shipping. This is a real email from Amazon. And I have no vested interested in Amazon, just sharing FYI... Cheerleader. ----- From: Jeff Bezos <jeffb@amazon.com> Date: 20 Jun 2002 20:05:13 -0700 Subject: Important test at Amazon.com ----------- We're doing an important test at Amazon.com that we wanted you to know about. It may be the most important experiment we've done to date. --- Starting today, as a long-term test, you can get Free Super Saver Shipping on orders over $49. Previously, only orders over $99 qualified. --- This past January, we launched everyday, 365-days-a-year, Free Super Saver Shipping on orders over $99, and it's been successful. --- Customers have adopted it in large numbers (it takes 3-5 days longer than our standard shipping, but it's free), and it's proven economically sustainable for us as well. --- Reducing the ordering hurdle to $49 makes it much easier for customers to get free shipping--more people will qualify and qualify more often. It will also be very expensive for us. That's why we're first doing it as a long-term test. We expect to run this test for 3-6 months. We'll be looking to see if our current customers order more from us and whether we attract a greater number of new customers since it's so easy to qualify for free shipping. The hope is we'll generate enough new business to offset the cost. --- At the conclusion of the test, we'll let you know whether or not we'll be able to make the new $49 hurdle permanent. In the meantime, for the next 3-6 months or so, please enjoy Free Super Saver Shipping on orders over $49. (We've also recently reduced product prices on many books, bestselling CDs, bestselling DVDs, - electronics, and tools.) Whether this particular test works or not, you can count on us to be relentless in finding ways to lower prices and provide more value. --- Thanks for your continuing support as a customer. -- Sincerely, Jeff Bezos, Founder & CEO, Amazon.com --- PS: To learn more about Free Super Saver Shipping, go to http://www.amazon.com/supersavershipping

To "the Mole", I find it a bit hypocritical of you to continue to live a "double life". I did it for years and finally decided to see what's it out like out in the "world". Let me tell you, it's amazing once you leave, you feel free. I don't mean free to go out and do horrible things, but free to think and get some education and better yourself and find out who you REALLY are, because you are never "yourself" at the hall - NEVER! My mother is still a pioneer and I see an immediate change in her when the "friends" stop by. It bothers me that she says "being a JW is what defines me, it's what I am". Are we defined by NOTHING else but a religion? What about our personality, intelligence, hobbies, thoughts (other than religious). I think this is what upsets me the most is that once you're in, that's all you are is a JW. You are then classified as publisher, in-active, pioneer, regular pioneer, regular auxiliary pioneer, presiding overseer, district overseer. There is SO much more to the human soul than that. This is why they never argue or doubt any policy, no matter what the cost, because that IS WHO THEY ARE. It's sad, but to the MOLE, the "world" is a lot more difficult than the organization, you actually have to THINK FOR YOURSELF!! G

The mole checking for soapbox and I seen a response .......... Double standards is not the theme I would use. I want reformation of my organization not to leave it. I speak out because secrecy causes more harm. Just as Ray Franz would not have left unless told to do so, so the same is with me. I want to correct the abuses I have seen and I would have stood along side the young lady on NBC instead of threatening those who wanted change and justice. It is things like that make any religion accountable for horror's that are hushed. Another thing is that I agree with the Lodi brother there is circular reasoning, even I who is well educated in the Organization cannot explain why, it just suddenly appears in a 1920's text, then goes on about Moses and other coming back from the resurrection.I also have seen men raised to a level of being near angelic status which is wrong. But the Mormons do this also and so does the Catholics but to be a true faith and a honest religion we must forego this attitude and be true to Christ's teachings. Organizational dogma has created this quagmire where that, there is no proof only the imaginations to burden its members with. No scripture will say there is another group after Pentecost 33ce is supposed to have been of the Anointed, the scripture used is bent to making us agree with dogma or being accused of being a non-believer. It is things like that the educated in our organization are scratching there heads about because either we believe it or leave, nothing else.............The MOLE

Hi there, I'm a little mystified by the JWs who kind of want to be x and kind of want to continue in some other form......what is it that you want to keep and what to get rid of? To get rid of....child abuse and pedophilia, yes of course. Anything else? And to keep.....do you still want to keep the notion that ONLY this group of people please and have a relationship with God? Do you still want to keep out of ALL politics and 'worldly activities'? Surely now you see some value in journalism...and law? And police?........I'm just curious. Would you keep 'shunning'? The belief in an earthly reward? The New World Translation? What is it you want to keep? Or, perhaps another way to say it.....why would you try to 'reform' this religion instead of abandoning it for another? Is there a really good reason? Is there a reason besides just familiarity?

Brother JS of Lodi: How do you see that you are serving God???? I am surprised that you identified your congregation - nobody does that here! All this religion "talk" - does not address how you feel about pedophiles being slapped on the hand and children and their parents being shunned, nor do you bring to the floor any redeeming value to attending the KH other than it is "family & friends"- basically all going along to get along so you do not get disfellowshipped. mmmmmmmmmmm......not much food for thought. What's up??? Personally, I have been developing my integrity, my love for Jehovah and what it really means to be a Christian in character, word and deed. Personally, I have decided my reputation is important and I do not associate with people who are harmful, harming, offending, offenders - what Carl Sagan or Islam has to do with how we worship God our Creator, the Almighty I missed. If you are a brother, your ideas are lofty but do not address the issue of Christian Love as taught by Jesus and how that relates to what the WTS does/does not do with a problem that is so devastating that it ruins peoples lives....I must say it is kind of fun to be able to speak up and out to a "brother" in a frank and honest way. We are warned to stay away from what is unclean...it is no joke. We get contaminated - rubs off on us, gets into our thinking and corrupts us. Brother, I don't mean to be mean, but you are corrupted. SOAP BOX

Mystified asked what we would like to see changed in the WTS org... Speaking for myself only (a JW for 11 years and DF'd for 12 now), I would like to see no coverup of pedophiles, of course, &/or, ideally, no pervs altogether; no accusations of slander if you notify all your JW friends about the perv; no DFing of whistle blowers; an open apology from the WTS for all past mistakes, acknowledgement of coverups, etc. and a promise to change; an open apology and reproof, etc. of any and all perverts and elders who participated in coverups or gave really crappy advice to hurting brothers and sisters; I would like to see the word "ORGANIZATION" permanently deleted from the WTS vocabulary, and instead use "Jehovah's congregation" or "worldwide brotherhood" etc.; I would like to see the acronym FDS changed because, to be quite honest folks, it reminds me of an old commercial for Feminine Deodorant Spray (hey, what can I say? That's what I think every time I see FDS). I would like for the conventions and assemblies and public talks to be on TV (hey, they used radio in the old days, why not TV?): I think when a DF person is ready, they already know in their own heart between them and Jehovah that they have repented LONG BEFORE they ever try to go back to the KH, so I think that should be enough "punishment" and no further "jumping through hoops" or sitting in the back of the hall, or the friends not being able to talk to them is enough already, since if a DF'd person finally makes it back, they need all the help they can get to regain strength; I would like to see open dialog and discussion about all the changes and an explanation to the friends of who made the decisions/changes and why; I think everyone who has ever been DF'd for anything that later was changed by the WTS, that person should be invited back with an apology (even if they choose not to accept it, at least offer it)... I think the WTS should have a "Sunshine Law," i.e., completely open all files and info to the brothers (what is there to keep secret from your brothers)? I think the WTS should quit fighting/fretting about apostates (they, or should I say we, are hysterically funny people!) and just let everybody talk to everybody, i.e., Love throws FEAR OUTSIDE! does it not? Do I plan to read all of the books, Brother Ray's books? Yes. Do I agree with all the really hateful XJWs? I can understand if they were hurt and angry, but do I want to end up hateful like that? No. Would I ever go to another church? Can't see it happening. Already was a Catholic, so definitely would not go back to that... I had the world BEFORE being a JW, and I had the world AFTER being a JW, and life was so much better being a JW (speaking for myself ONLY). I know there's lots more changes I'd like to see, but I'm getting tired... Somebody else take over and list the things we'd like to see changed, OK? --- As far as what do I LIKE about JWs and why would I want to be one again? There were LOTS of great things about being a JW. I was one of those who did not have a bad experience, but left for other non-doctrinal reasons. The best friends I ever had were JWs, full of laughter, truth, honesty and loyalty. I never had a problem with the JW friends. I LOVED learning the truth about Xmas, Easter, bdays, etc., and I never missed them one second, nor would I want that to change. Holidays (it's GREAT to be FREE of them, IMHO) were/are such a SMALL issue, anyway in comparison to the BIG picture of the truth of Jah's purposes for the earth, his original purpose for mankind, the resurrection of the dead, the truth about Jesus' ransom sacrifice, the truth about the condition of the dead/ heaven/hell/trinity/soul, etc. I loved the peace and contentment I had as a JW, slept like a baby every night. I LOVED the assemblies and conventions, what a thrill, they were the highlight! And, guess what? I even liked the SONGS, and I liked going door to door! (I wasn't wild about ongoing home-Bible studies, though). I LOVED knowing all the people in the Bible, I used to know them like they were my best friends: Abraham, Daniel, Isaiah (Here I am, Send me!), Peter, Jonah (one of my favorite guys who messed up big time), etc. etc. (the great crowd of witnesses). I even loved the pic of the Watchtower (On the watchtower, O Jehovah I am standing by day and night...). I LOVED knowing how to find scriptures lickety-split (I'm Sooooo rusty now). I liked "belonging" and having a "purpose" and goals of serving Jah and sharing the Kingdom good news about Jesus as our King who will bring all of Jah's promises to reality. I liked that I never even FELT THE URGE to use a curse word while a JW (it was like Jah just took it all out of my head and it never came back). (Same w/smoking). There were lots of good things about the JW's as a group. My "worldly friends and family" over the years have always said I should go back because I was happier then, they say. Worldly employers, when I WAS a JW used to say, "I think the Lord is blessing me so I can keep YOU in a job..." (their business increased, etc.) and stuff like that. I liked having little blessings just appear out of the blue, life went more smoothly, not all of the little aggravations like now -- it was like Jah kept them at a distance. That, to me, was holy spirit in operation/a blessing. And I always loved the name of the group, Jehovah's Witnesses... So, Mr. Mole, I say stay there, and do what you can from within to change things. And I'll do what I can, keep writing letters to Newsweek, etc. to get things exposed here on the outside. Hope this helps to answer Mystified's questions. -- And yes, I AM a SilentLambs cheerleader, 'cuz I was a sex abuse victim, too, though not by JW's, but I know all about it, inside and out, though, naturally, I cannot know what it would be like to be abused by a brother and silenced by elders. I hope you guys will allow me to still hang out here. Good wishes to all & good night.

Your friend, SLC (PS: I hope the WTS IS reading this so they will know how I feel about it.)

Guys: This is a serious question. I am Not being critical. But if Bill, Ray, and many others who held high positions got slammed, how can anyone within the organization make a change???? And if one prophecy was wrong - which all were, how can this be Jehovah's "work"?????? I want to understand. I was not baptized by WTS, but I believed that the WTS was moved by Jehovah's holy spirit - I really did. But because of my problems with PTS, not feeling safe at the KH & with the witnesses (because I was being lied to and many other things) and how this triggers a whole series of symptoms for me including horrible anxiety and depression I could not "progress" in the truth even though I was more truthful, more spiritual and had more integrity than most and studied hard. I took studying very very seriously and love Jehovah very much. I could tell you very discouraging stories of how I was treated. I progressed in my Christianity with integrity to Jehovah but it did not fit the standard. Anyway I really want to know how you can make changes without being disfellowshipped, if you can share that without compromising what you are doing. Soap Box

One last thought before I go to bed - it is late. But consider what it really means to worship Jehovah. Once off the merry-go-round of ideas, ideology, right/wrong, dogma, lies, controversy there is still worship of Jehovah God -and a relationship with him takes time and there is only so much time in a day and it can be spent 'thinking' and sorting or worshipping. * I do not want my relationship with God on the back burner not to prove a point, make a dollar, do mind twists, investigate or challenge anyone. I keep it simple, 10 commands, one God and His loving Son Jesus - what does Satan want???? Confusion, chaos and he does it with lies, manipulations. I have a thing about lies - you lie to me once and that is it. I have a thing about pedophiles and people who support them - I do not tolerate it in my life. Did and it isn't good, goes nowhere. The energy that a lie takes from me can be better spent worshipping the God of Truth. One lie sucks the energy out a human...believe me. Too many lies you die. That is why the bible is called the sword, able to divide the bones from the marrow - it is the ONLY DEFENSE WE HAVE AGAINST LIES. That's it folks...goodnight. Love to all Soap Box

Soap Box... I can relate to your PTS... ditto here... though it comes and goes, so not always bad. Used to be worse. I guess it depends on whatever is happening, circumstances, emotions, hormones. etc. --- As for how to make change w/o getting DF'd... since I already am DF'd I cannot really answer that in a true sense, but I guess like Bill Bowen is doing... so far not DF'd that I know of... having to fight it, yes, but still not DF'd... yet. -- There are leaders and followers. I do not consider myself a leader, so I will just support the leader-types, such as this site/Bill. And if your issue is the blood issue, there is an org for reform on that, too. -- If you are a JW who is "in good standing." I would say keep on as is and also keep connected out here/cyberspace to the leaders for change who still love Jah and maybe can effect changes. For all we know, there are CO/DOs/elders etc. all over who are working to effect change. I see posts now and then by some of these men, so I know they are out there. When Paul saw Peter making big bad mistakes, he didn't just walk away, he spoke up and they even had a big disagreement. Of course, Jah himself WILL make the adjustments, BUT if you read the 8/1/02 WT article about "Earnest Effort--When Is It Blessed by Jah," why can we not feel Jah will bless OUR efforts if we ask in faith for his guidance for change for the better? and then take DECISIVE ACTION as the article says? Even something as simple as writing letters is taking decisive action rather than feeling like "it's no use." It quoted the scriptures about Jacob and Rachel fighting to receive the blessings they wanted, great scriptures: Rachel said: "With strenuous wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister. I have also come off winner!" (Genesis 30:1-8 and 35:24). And Jacob's experience: "LET ME GO, for the dawn has ascended," the angel said. But Jacob replied, "I am NOT going to let you go UNTIL YOU FIRST BLESS ME." (Genesis 32:26-28). We could liken ourselves to Jacob who would not let go of the angel (org) until the angel agreed to bless him (org listen to the requests of sincerely concerned lovers of Jah). The article also stressed how Jah HEARS THE OUTCRIES of the hurting ones. Does he not hear ours and ALL OF THE ABUSED & BATTERED LAMBS who have written their stories here? --- The article said, "Why did Jehovah bless the physical and emotional efforts of Jacob and Rachel? They kept Jehovah's WILL in FOCUS, and cherished their (spiritual) heritage. They PRAYED EARNESTLY for his blessing in THEIR LIVES, and TOOK POSITIVE ACTION in HARMONY with God's WILL, and their own petitions (to God)."

Then it said, "Like Jacob and Rachel, many today can TESTIFY that DILIGENT EFFORT is required to receive Jehovah's blessing. Their efforts are often accompanied with TEARS, DISCOURAGEMENT and FRUSTRATION."

So even tho this article may have been directed to such things as congregational activities, etc., WHO IS TO REALLY SAY IT CANNOT BE APPLIED IN SITUATIONS LIKE SILENT LAMBS, etc.? Really, WHO IS TO SAY? If the PRINCIPLES in the article/scriptures are TRUE, then could not they apply HERE ALSO? --- And more from the article: "No matter how difficult your circumstances or how limited you may feel, do NOT give in to the 'sin that easily entangles us' - lack of faith. CONTINUE to contend UNTIL you receive a blessing. Exercise PATIENCE... Like the farmer who sows in the spring and waits for the harvest, PATIENTLY LOOK for Jehovah's blessing on YOUR spiritual activity, no matter how limited you may feel your activity is..." (Is not standing up for little ones, abused ones, a spiritual ministry of the highest degree? It is a ministry in itself, is it not?) -- continuing with the article: "Stand firm, and REMAIN in the ranks of the CONTENDERS." --- The last sentence/scripture I LOVE: "Those sowing seed with tears will reap even with a joyful cry." (Psalms 126:5) -- SL Cheerleader

I'm word less, my emotions are overwhelming. I'm very not thrilled with the out comes of all the situations that these children have been exposed to God bless them. I applaud the victims and you for your courage to step out and expose JW and these very sick, ill God less people. Easterlandy@yahoo.com Soap Box, I liked what you wrote about LIES. Agree, one lie is one too many. I was thinking just now about bro Ray Franz... it was like Joseph whose brothers sold him out. Sorta similar. And even Moses was exiled, yet still Jah was with him. So whose to say Jah cannot raise up change, even drastically, Maybe all the GB would end up bowing down to Ray Franz (as an example) like Joseph's brothers ended up doing with him. We just don't know what Jah can do to set things straight, with sincere men taking DECISIVE ACTION ALONG WITH FERVENT PRAYER FOR JAH'S BLESSING & DIRECTION. Even if it looks like they have been abandoned by the larger crowd (like the Israelites and/or Joseph's brothers and family), Jah was still with them and turned things around, even many years later... Jesus said, Have faith the size of a mustard seed, and we can move the mountains... Well, moving the ORG (to change) from the outside, would indeed be like moving a mountain... With God ALL THINGS are possible... -- Good night myself, it's later than late... ;) SLC

THANKS TO THE TRUE GOD, OUR CREATOR AND WILLIAM BOWEN the scriptures ("not to take your brother to court.") will not be be mis-applied to an abused or battered lamb by an elder. Since this scripture is only dealing with CIVIL and not criminal acts. No elder can use it to silence a victim any longer or use it to imply that we or they have no legal recourse in serious abuse matters as they relate to our children.

the MOLE.....hi soapbox the last comment was not direct at you. I felt the need to respond to someone who chimed in on our discussion. Did I miss something,..lies? I read your response but didn't grasp the meaning, sorry.....leaving now , I missed my Saturday assembly two weeks ago. going today to get more info that I will inform all of you of anything that needs to be addressed..all of you out there. keep questioning everything, this is what this site is for. I accept any and all challenges, I believe out of choice. I have studied many other christian religions and faiths and would rather stay with what I have. Better to have some truth then go to a Pentecost church and dance around screaming or try to believe out right bible untruths. I might as well try to fix what I have....the mole

There is no such thing as one lie. Once it starts it is built upon, covered up, hidden with more lies. The source of lies is not God: Truth vs Lies - Good vs evil. We lie to ourselves, culture lies to us, family lies to us, media lies to us - the only source of truth is God's word. Lies separate us from our perception of reality - a lie intends to change or make you doubt your perception of reality. Once our perception of reality is damaged, the core of being is damaged and then it is easy to be controlled with a false reality. Our perception of reality - is our sixth sense, common sense and keeps the other 5 senses from taking over. A liar will appeal to our 5 senses and emotions, not our common sense. Our perception of reality is what keeps us safe from harm - sometimes it feels good to be harmed. Check it out, test it - seriously. *Our perceptive powers are sharpened by God's word so that we don't believe a lie. Amen - Soap Box

Soapbox, (Good Handle), Mole, (Whom are you working for as a double agent?:) Cool handle though, wish I had thought of it...Jesika (You are still cool:) Linda, Jesika's Aunt right? Thanks for your comments they help me to keep things in a better perspective..I guess I need a handle to so that I do not get mixed with the dummies who are trying to cause division here.. How about SEQUIA? I think that this site is the best forum for these issues. Using (abusing) loyally to enforce (allow) evil or criminal actions and intentions is unacceptable in any form of a society. I have commented several times that this site is also about battered lambs. The physical abuse is one way that the WT and its cronies keep as they call it "control of the flock." People need bootstraps to pull themselves up. They need hope and something to believe in. Themselves would be enough but with support people inside and outside the WT can heal quicker. For people who can not live under the control of the WT or the KH or the elders or the members or what ever...You don't have to face the world alone. It is not your enemy. In fact as hard as it is to accept the world really does not give any of us much thought. We on the other hand think about the world every day. (Sorry I Think I am Off Track Here:)...Why do people have to face Judicial committees alone? I think that for this issue "division" as called by the WT should be warn as a badge of honor to anyone who is condemned by it. Movies are often talked about here (Soapbox I just rented K-Pak and have been going fishing every morning for a week to help keep my mind clear...Are you spying on me or just a mind reader???LOL...)Anyway remember Robin hood and Braveheart...I like happy endings. In Robin Hood the "dissed" save the condemned just before execution. In braveheart they just watched William be torn apart as the godly people tried to break his spirit. I am wondering if anyone has considered supporting people who are DFed for BS reasons, having a (cheerleading) group or something at the KH at the time of the hearing. It bothers me that a young man committed suicide after being DFed (as was said on this site.) It also bothers me that Barbra was DFed for doing what was just and right. I don't think that these people should stand alone. I know that if I hear of DF hearings close enough to where I live I will be offering support. I also recommend the movie 28 days. The WTS is like opium. That is what the "spiritual food is...a drug. In the 50's how many women's shelters were there? It was a private issue. How many men's shelters are there today? It is a hidden issue that men are abused by their wives at the same rate as women and the same rate for child abuse by the mother's hands applies. (proof can be supplied if needed.) My point is that for JW's most are just not willing to deal with these issues. Things will not change until people INSIDE say no more. The problem is to say NO MORE means to be put outside. I want to be there for those who can. Maybe someday to stand up for your God given right to not be beaten raped and abused inside the WT will be observed. That however is not the time that we live in. I hope that this will plant this seed in at least 2 people that read it. "I am no longer a victim. I take control and responsibility for my own actions; What I do to others and what I allow others to do to me. I no longer excuse the conduct of other people who cause harm to myself or someone else nor will I protect them because I am ordered to. They must atone for their actions in this world and the next just as I do. I will not lie for someone else nor will I accept another's lie as the truth. I have the right to be happy and free from pain, both physical and mental if I choose to. I admit that the power I posses "my spirit" was given to me, is mine, and can never be taken from me by force or intimidation. It can only be surrendered by my permission." I hope that as these 2 people read this creed that they tell 2 people about all they have read and learned here, and in turn they tell 2 people................Sequia

Amen to you Sequia - is that your name or "handle"?? It means sequence of events?? An event or circumstance following something. Did you catch any fish???? I have not seen Braveheart but will. 28 days was excellent too.
 I made a suggestion (in the Bermuda triangle of lost posts) that every JW should fly the flag in acknowledgement of the lie about the UN, and the promoting of the UN in the AWAKE. You are correct about the whole congregation being present for hearings - the secretness is part of the problem - accountability in the presence of others is healthy, prevents injustice. I like tell 2 people who will tell 2 people, I think most of us have told a lot of people. TO SLCHEERLEADER: I have been very blessed by Jehovah always -God is directly involved in the revealing of lies to me, an ability to cut through to find truth, keeping me safe, roof over my head and sane. I totally trust Jehovah -that is a blessing. * I was scared when I first started to realize that the Truth as presented, by whom it was presented was against a backdrop of lies - I thought I was going to be condemned by God for even knowing such a thing! Too bizarre in my thinking. I come to a place where "doctrine" doesn't interest me, does not have my best interest either. That to know God is important, to attempt to walk in the truth, the light and the way of Jesus is enough to think about and do without any fancy stuff added to it. I have never liked Xmas or holidays, politics, never wanted to go to heaven but wanted to live on earth, and the not taking of blood in most circumstances is a wise decision but none of this in or out gave me a relationship with God or made me a Christian*RE: LAW 1 Tim 1:8 says that the Law is fine provided one handles it lawfully - the law is for persons lawless and unruly, ungodly - I TAKE THAT TO MEAN A PEDOPHILE, and ANY ONE WHO LIES ABOUT THE LAW OR PRACTICES IT UNLAWFULLY>>>>>>>>>>>Amen Soap Box!*******

I live by a lake in California - and from my place I have a panoramic view of the lake, gorgeous and this is a blessing from Jehovah that I appreciate beyond words - the Indians call it a "soul view." I live on a very very steep hill - driving up only see sky, clouds if there are some and the hills and someone called it the "road to heaven" but going down is "hell" especially in the rain...

Serchin50 - last post above yours is mine...about pedophiles, the law and the lawless etc....I didn't just get off my soap box after I "signed off".... I signed off in the before I was finished. It is just before me talking about where I live.... and after me calling the liars lawless.....you will find Amen Soap Box. You probably thought I was saying Amen to Soap Box. This not having paragraphs does make it harder to read. Anything that has to do with the WTS and how it effects people that cannot speak out is related to this site. I have not forgotten the victims by any means...and sometimes it is okay to lighten up. I have left many posts that I have not signed - about post traumatic stress, about mind control, my own experiences - please. I have Written emails, I was the one who suggested the FBI, I suggested Dr. Laura, and have taken it upon myself to ask the witnesses I know what they thought about the Dateline show. I have suggested other sites for ones who are troubled and need help. I have been generous without taking credit long before I started signing -sometimes I put nothing, sometimes Amen - I only starting with Soap Box about a week ago and I have been here for months. ALSO I HAVE LEARN TO STAND UP FOR MYSELFIf you have had the opportunity to try the "chat" you would know there is no communication, too slow to say anything meaningful. The Thorman's chat all the time to each other- we love it. We love them. They are open, we are open to them and that is what this is about. Who are you??? I will look for your posts. Amen "from" Soap Box...off my

I question your questions "searchin50" and your motives with the comments about other's who take credit/responsibility for their posts. Few hear don't care about the people in the trenches. I do more than post here.
Everything suggested I have done, and more. I am encouraged by Mole and Soapbox. It is funny how every time a good dialog starts, the flaming or scare-tactics fly. Reminds me when I had to deal with elderoids IRL and WT folk in my home. Anytime things started going my way hear comes the mind games. It SO reminds me of when I was in high school. The clicks, afraid to take responsibility for actions, wondering which is more important doing what is right (and often lawful) or doing what my peers pressured me to do. (I had to be cool.) The fear of classmates not liking you.
The world would end if you lost your friends. Maybe that's the point hide in the WT so that you can live in almost adult-land......Sequia.............."Their redemption began when they ceased to tolerate their slavery."///-Abraham

Hi I am back again, Some persons really can't understand why someone would want to remain in a religion that has this problem/criminal behavior being practiced. I view it like the examples I have heard about of some inter city neighborhoods fighting to get back there neighborhoods from drug dealers and criminal element. When everyone works together whole neighborhoods have been cleaned up and they got their neighborhoods back. For justice to be done it must be seen to be done. Winning these court cases goes a long way in educating the public that these crimes will not be tolerated...DJB Previously posted but thought I had heard enough of the insults about staying and being anonymous here...I live my religion and follow bible standards. Just because I don't identify myself doesn't make me living a double life or a hypocrite. The TRUE HYPOCRITE IS THE PEDOPHILE AND THOSE WHO COVER FOR THEM AND MAKE GOD'S MERCY AN EXCUSE FOR PRACTICING WRONGDOING!!!! I think the MOLE is like thousand others (as the Canadian Elder wrote) and myself from Canada...DJB

DJB- I am not slamming you here. This is a honest question. When in WTS history was the whole clean? When was there not twisting of the scripture? Have you ever read the actual literature from the past? Do you know the truth of the WT? If not then how can you say you want to restore that which has always been broken. Do you know what is broken? If you have and choose to ignore it then how can fix or restore that which will not be admitted to?

Hi again, Resubmitting comments from June 13, 2002 Witnesses can't be police officers because they can't carry guns. Did anyone see the latest article sucking up to the police in the magazines? Did anyone from Canada get an e-mail from CBC or a phone call? I received and e-mail because I put my e-mail address in at first. I would like to know if anyone else did? Micheal from Ottawa Canada should put in his e-mail. Sounds like you would have experiences to tell. DJB P.S. I know someone received a phone call from someone who said they were from CBC. They were not able to confirm if they were for real... P.S.S. The witch hunt is on...I have received (e-mail) quite a few lately where I would have to identify myself...to respond but hotmail is great for keeping ones self anonymous because I don't use my e-mail on my server...I don't respond P.S.S. I have checked it out here and for now it is not safe for me to reveal my identity or where I live. A counselor I confided in told me we would be the best persons to bring out the situation here in Canada but where would not be able to remain where we are and be forced to move. A friend of mine when she went public here (Canada) had to move and change her name and start over in a new community...She is scared they will find her...Canada does not punish it's sex offenders here very much. eg. (Maple leaf gardens incident...65 victims...received 2 years...Sick isn't it.)

I do not subscribe to calling anyone staying as a hypocrite or calling them names. SOME PEOPLE ARE JUST RUDE! I question but don't judge. * In a ghetto situation, the law, the police assist. If the police are corrupt, and in cahoots with the druggies - what can a neighborhood do even if they unite????? I am asking an honest question, with wanting an honest thoughtful reply. * We have countries in this situation - Columbia Central America - so corrupt they have the day-time police that collect money for "infractions" and a separate night time "police" - to collect money and intimidate the honest people while the drug lords are protected.&&&&&&&&&&Most people anywhere are just trying to get through the day.*Feed their families, stay safe, out of the way and find a little time to commune with God. Most people if they had the choice to leave a country that oppresses they do with great risk to life. Most people who have a choice leave their unsafe neighborhoods & countries do and the ones who don't are to be admired if they take it upon themselves to make change that is beneficial to all. Martin Luther King was murdered for trying to make change and so were many others. But USA does have some noble people, noble laws and noble intention. The blacks had to march, demonstrate, participate in the law making process, they risked their lives for change and some lost their lives for it. I pray for God's Kingdom to come - man rules man to his injury and for me it is best to stay out of the way.*All religions came out of another religion as a protest some noble some not.I am asking you to share your thoughts, same with the Mole - only if you can-as to how you can influence change. How many people in your congregation watched Dateline? How many can discuss it?*what was done to the Malawis is being done in another way here.*I notice that you (DJB) had not posted in awhile. Everyone's input is important.

to searchin 50,,,don't be to narrow, this sight is dealing with symptoms that caused a tragedy we as members new about for years. it is a fact the watchtower is looking and reading this sight and if change is supposed to happened it will begin with the little things. I think mole is on the right track and being a fellow witness I understand his position. just like a government that is bad you work from the inside out not from the outside in. it will cause them to unite against a common enemy and that would be bad and make things worse. abuse is bad and that is not in dispute but if you are a publisher you understand the subtle things such as those brothers believing they had the power and the right to do what they did and mole is in the position to not agree with it who has more power?... because if enough don't want to participate and question things it alerts them to make changes. disfellowshipping keeps the house in order for serious offenders such as molesters and other human trash, but when it is abused like when it started in the early 80's it time for a change. they cant disfellowship everyone inside or they would have no one to preach to. this is why I right in because I'm being harassed for speaking up and if there are enough of us, change will come. I think those given power like the elder who harasses me, those ones are being viewed as the enemy of gods word and many under just that one elder I mentioned have sought his removal but nothing has happened yet but the day will come when those of his like will be cast aside like the weeds from the wheat............Placerville

In response to: "I live my religion and follow bible standards." "How can you follow bible standards when they are twisted to suit this cult??? Do you know that your bible is very different from the ±600,000,000 other bibles used??
Doesn't that make you wonder??? Whole texts have just been twisted or taken out of context to suit their doctrines?? And if one of those standards make your kids plain outlaws how can you still follow those standards??
Do me a favor, buy a 'normal' bible and put it next to yours and start reading!!!You will be very surprised, at the

I am of faith, 1st hand faith. I am not however of the WT. Above I asked searching50 an honest question. The reply was that giving opinions is not a good idea. That is not true. "50" I value your input...Even If I don't agree with you thank you for coming here. Look at some past posts, some people are unkind...Even people of your WT clan can get quite heated to say the least. Keep giving your say. You might have comments that change points of view or help someone. Anyway, glad you are here and I hope that you ponder what is said here, I do. It will be you that has the most influence in your life. It has always been that way... Signed Sequia/!!!!/Mole...Sequent-That which follows as a consequence...Sequoia-A genus of a very large North American coniferous tree that grows up to 300' and a diameter of 35'. Combined = Sequia- Seeds planted as a consequence of actions that is growing into a forest of giant majestic trees. The point is that I actually would love to see "50's" dream of overhauling organized religious faith to be truthful and just. I however have learned that I am real and not religious. God can use people who are real. Real to themselves and others. I am a person who will not lie for you or against you; Period! I am also pragmatic and lying to myself or pretending to be something that I am not is counter-productive. Therefore organizations like the WT have little use for me, and that suits me just fine.

I have forgotten about the Canadians. There are past posts that indicate a HUGH problem up there, not just in the KH but also in the general public. This is where you would think the WTS would spend some time & money going to COURT, TO CHANGE THE SYSTEM and be adamant about keeping the congregation clean.Like to hear more information about the Canadian laws and why it is a bigger problem in Canada.*I was 26 years old when I found out that my babies had been sexually abused by my youngest brother. He threaten to murder me in front of them and then kill them if they told -they were 2,3,&4. I was scared that he was going to kill us. To me if someone could do something so horrible as touch a child, threaten them with death - I could not trust that he would not follow through on his threat.I never went to the police, too scared!!! Have we heard much from the victims in Canada????????  If I were a brother/sister in Canada, I wouldn't leave either - because I would want to protect as many as I could from this happening. In other words, I would not abandon my children,grandchildren or anyone else's children to be alone with this problem.And once you are DFed you have literally no say - can't talk.*I don't go to the KH....but when I can I do mention my thoughts on the DATELINE story. I do this so that when someone is hurting from all this, they might know they can come to me.*The WTS does not care or they would have done something; to abandon people you love to this organization would be wrong.Would like to hear more from Canada even if they have to go through Placerville and Placerville can relate stories.*******

TO SEQUIA: You think like me...the way I was able to get to truth about anything and everything is to untwist it. A lie is twisted, so I un-twist it. If it isn't a lie it cannot be untwisted. Also, I looked deeply at the meaning of words. Truth has been of ultimate importance to my being human and lies have dehumanized me. Too much intrigue and there is certainly falsehood. I worship a clean God, being a Christian is simple; I don't know what I would have done without God's word to cut through the lies. Truth is simplicity and lies are complicated. Doctrine/dogma is yuck. It has been a remarkable experience once I got started with un-twisting the lies...and I can truthfully say that the truth set me free. An expression "I don't dance for a dollar" - I don't. I don't lie for anyone or to anyone and I don't accept lies. I am not very popular. Lies dehumanize and that is the exact opposite to being made in the image of God. I owe this to Jehovah and myself. My life was horrible dancing to the tune of one lie after another, trying to twist my thinking, my values, my very human-beingsness to the tune of the lies. I was not successful in the "twist" - I was misused, abused, used, depressed, oppressed, ridiculed, abandoned, betrayed, - started with mom & dad, took off from there to husband, doctors, culture (60's), friends that weren't friends, to "religion" that was not spiritual, therapists who could not heal themselves let alone me. This left me with no one but God and myself to deal with life. It is as if God pushed me onto his narrow path, kept pushing me and holding me there so I would not fall off. The narrow path is just me and God, only his words, his way. I live on the road to heaven with a soul view. It was a gift from God. To believe a lie takes the "life" out of us.Soap Box

Well it's me Searchin50 again, I just wanted to make myself clear. The only question I asked was, this a private chat? & I'm sorry for that. I made no motive, toward anybody's creditability regarding what they posted. Someone asked about, my past...well here is a small portion of it. I was baptized in 1958... I was special pioneer for a few years, always a beyond, regular publisher 40 50 hrs per month in 1972 was disfellowshipped for taking court ordered "BLOOD TRANSFUSION.... I could raise my hand too wipe my tears. I was told I should of called the ELDERS in between my moments of reality. needless to say, I remained DFed for 20yrs. I got myself reinstated, so I could attend my daughters wedding have not been back since.........There has been no questions asked. I will never be a part of that brainwashing, mind control bunch again. I always told them their was 2 things the good lord gave < 1 a mouth > 2 < guts enough too use it >. The mole..............hello, to report from Saturday's session from the San francisco assembly. Has anyone heard the days program? how about what was not on the program? Brother Vaughn long time c.o gave a talk not listed or noted in the program regarding false talk and rumors, I quote, "if brothers are aware of incidents that bring reproach on the congregation and Jehovah's name should be counseled and taken into consideration for public reproof or disfellowshippment. The community must understand our commitment to wholesome truth in name of Jehovah who will bring to an end the wickedness that plagues mankind".........I thought it was weird he never said anything about calling the police or cooperating with those in the community? He went to say, "those in our congregations who say false things, gossip, and stand against the Truth have been influenced by Apostate teaching in News and other sources such as the internet. Beware my brothers and sister Satan means to mislead you and snatch you away..." He sounded as if the hunt began if anyone speaks up. That was my impression of the talk. He read several scriptures to back up his brief 5 min talk. I would quote all the scriptures but all of you who are members have an idea which ones they are. Hey Placerville the hounds have been sent out for you. ........THE MOLE

TO SEARCHIN50- sorry for my "mouthing off" - about the chat thing etc.....so you know first hand the games, lack of love, and lack of spiritual care. The natural love and affection is nil at best. Where is this brotherhood of love?????????????????????? The world will know you by the love you have among you....I just cannot believe that Jehovah is any part of this organization of such hatefulness....sorry. If you do not love your brother/sister and say you love God etc.......and as The Mole reported they are out to get anyone who speaks up against injustices.>>>>> This has to be grieving Jehovah...Soap Box

Hi, I have been reading all these, and I'm very sad at what is happening. I'm recently disassociating myself from the kingdom hall and people they wont leave me alone. They say that I don't love Jehovah any more. I feel so sad because they are already judging me for not agreeing with the w.t.s. I love Jehovah very much and these people use to be my friends. Now they say I will regret my decision. I'm so scared that I'm so brainwashed that I won't be able to live a normal life. Like what do I believe now? Is the bible even true? What about holidays? What about the one true religion? What about paradise? Heaven? How do we know what is right? I'm so scared that I will let Jehovah down.
The people from the K.H are really making me feel guilty. Some have already shunned me extremely. I seem to live a more moral life than the ones sunning me.. Any Help out there? From: little lost one.....

http://jwzone.org Enter the Daily Text for Sunday, June 23 God is not unrighteous so as to forget your work and the love you showed for his name.-- Heb. 6:10. Saturday, June 22 | Monday, June 24 Some may be discouraged because they feel that after many years of faithful service, they may not live to see "the great and fear-inspiring day of Jehovah." (Joel 2:30, 31) Still, they can be encouraged when they look at the positive aspect. Peter counseled: "Consider the patience of our Lord as salvation." (2 Pet. 3:15) Jehovah's patience has allowed millions of additional right hearted ones to learn the truth. Is that not wonderful? A waiting attitude helps us not to be discouraged when opposition, sickness, advancing age, or other problems hinder us in Kingdom service. Jehovah expects us to serve him wholeheartedly. (Rom. 12:1) However, neither he nor his Son demands more than we can reasonably offer. (Ps. 72:13) Thus, we are encouraged to do what we can, patiently waiting until circumstances change--either in this system of things or in that which is to come. w 9/1/00 8, 9a Excerpt from "Examining the Scriptures Daily 2002". © 2001 Watchtower Bible & Tract Society of PA

Hi, Its me again. I am getting into some different sites people that use to be witnesses and now their born again Christians which is fine but I don’t understand how one can go from thinking Jesus is not God to He is God? Who has proof that he is Jehovah God. That's one thing that I learned that I truly believe is true; that Jesus is not God he is God’s son. anyone have a view on this? Little lost one

Hi again, In past posts different ones have written in asking what is truth? What is the definition in the Dictionary? Think about what we see? My car is either green or is not. It can’t be both. The sun is shining right now in my back yard or it isn’t. It can’t be both. My point is we can read the bible and following the rules in the languages it is written it says one thing. Truth can’t be both it is one or the other. In a court of law witnesses are to be truthful. There is one way or truth. Not everything is truth. I have read and studied the bible and I also have a collection of translations and para phrased versions also in different languages. My question is to June 23 02 time 01:23:18 where is your proof that I am twisting the scriptures? Prove to me where my bible is different from the others? I say watch what you say offer proof. All the accusations say nothing to me. Normal bible? Start reading? See surprises? I believe you are projecting what you do or don’t do on me. Present your proof and let me respond!!!!!!!! Question from June 22 02 time 20:47:26 was I quote "Have you read actual literature from the Past?" I have a personal library where I have books dating back to the 1930’s and bound volumes dating back to the 1950’s and everything since. So you see I have read and compared older with newer. If I don’t have it my parents do and I can go there!!!!!!Then you ask quote "If you have and choose to ignore it then how can fix or restore that which will not be admitted to?" I will say of late that the policies and procedures are not based on all scriptures or on previous polices or procedures discussed in past publications of the WTS. I will give you two examples for starters. True Peace and Security from What source? published in 1973 page 28 paragraph 17, 20-24 made it very clear the standards the religious leaders(including JW elders)in morality and how to handle practitioners of sin were to be treated. Also in 1962 Watchtower November 15 issue page 693 paragraphs 9 to 10. You can see here originally the WTS had a very strong stand on criminal behavior and its view of the role of the governments and the position the congregations were to take. Of recent years this stand has not remained as stated in these two examples. You should if you can look it up and read it for yourself. We need to return to this strong stand as it is harmony with the bible and this is my view. As to how to fix the situation today and how to get back to this I do not have all the answers..................You accuse me that I have and choose to ignore what is happening. This you can't say as you do know me or any of the steps I have taken to change things here. Your judging me in this with out any information. Only Jehovah can judge me on what I have done or not done. You do not have any personal knowledge of my actions around the protection of children........................................DJB........................

................................................... P.S By being here in the position I am for now I can accomplish more then if I was disfellowshipped or murdered............

To little lost one: "I'm so scared that I'm so brainwashed that I wont be able to live a normal life. Well dear.... Just look at all the people in the world (except those 6 million J.W.'s) who live a normal live!! We manage, and so will you!! "like what do I believe now?" That's up to you, why the hurry?? Just give it time and keep your eyes and ears open!! "What about holidays?" Celebrate them if you like, you wont die from it!:-) But you don't have to, you know, plenty of people who don't celebrate certain holidays. Nothing is a must, you're free to do what you like, what about that?? "How do we know what is right?" You'll never know for sure, but just do what you feel is right!! "The people from the K.H are really making me feel guilty. Well, just their way of showing that you made your own decision and wont be brainwashed any longer!! "Some have already shunned me extremely" Well, then you immediately know who your friends are!!! Friends respect each other little one, no matter if they believe other things or another God!! Take care, you'll do fine!

I know I should be talking about the child abuse issues but I'm confused about a lot of things that the JW teach. So sorry if I'm of track a bit I just need encouragement on how to live a normal life outside the WTS and still believing some of their teachings. Is there anyone out there that has left the KH and still believes their teachings? or at least some of their teachings? We are losing our family members because we don't submit to the WTS. Yet I still love Jehovah and they say I'm an apostate. I need to talk with someone that is in the same situation as me. I feel so sorry for all the shunned, no one knows how it feels unless you were a witness and its happened to you. They treat you like a germ. Yet I'm not so different then they are. I just don't worship the WTS... L.L.O

I am so sorry for what happened to so many innocent people, especially the children. Oh my God! How can these elders even consider themselves as shepherds of the Most High? They are not footstep followers of Jesus Christ; there is nothing in the bible that says he was a pedophile, molester, liar, or sneak... so who do these 'elders' think they're fooling? Jehovah is not blind to what they are doing. I have to constantly remind myself that Jehovah's organization is Holy, but some of the men who run it ARE NOT! These are imperfect men who have set themselves above God's Law and Caesar's law. THEY. NOT US HAVE BROUGHT REPROACH ON JEHOVAH'S NAME. My heartfelt prayers to all the VICTIMS.....STAY STRONG

Hi Mole: Thanks for the report on the assembly. It is sad and silly to assume everything the "news media" says is a lie. Yes, maybe some news outlets embellish their reports, but the "investigative reporters" (such as Dateline), I feel take their time in doing stories. Hey, I just had a brand new thought: We should get Geraldo on this! He was my first love when it comes to "investigative reporters." (I think he retired, though...?? If not, let's write Geraldo! I'll look for a website.) -- Anyway, back to The Mole: Is it OK if we share your summary of the assembly? Thanks Mole. BTW, I like your name, too, and wish I'd thought of it also, like the other person said. :) --- DJB: You are doing FINE just as you are! I agree with the ones who want to stay in and do what they can. I mean, how many Catholics fled from THEIR church because of the pedophiles? And not to mention the numerous unbiblical doctrines they've been teaching for 1,700+ years????? So why does everybody assume JWs should immediately exit their church? I say bug off to that. - ---- To Little Lost One: You sound either very young, or very new in the JWs... There are ALL Degrees of XJWs, from those who believe everything still except some of the WT policies; to those who now don't believe ANYTHING, including the Bible, God, etc. So, keep your own beliefs and what you have learned. Don't be easily swayed by whatever you read, not let it get you down. You know what you know. You believe what you believe. No need to fret about all the opposing opinions on the net. I know Jesus is the Son. I know Jah is the Father. I know there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous, and that those in the memorial tombs will come out. I know the "dead know nothing at all." I know the lake that burns with fire and sulphur means the second death. I know the wicked will be torn away from the earth, but the righteous will remain in it, etc. etc. In other words, I've seen the scriptures with my own eyes, and have believed with my own heart (and I have six OTHER Bible versions other than the NWT), and nobody can shake the faith I have in those scriptures. Yes, I am DF'd, and I read the stuff online but it doesn't make me fret from what I know to be true. Many of the XJWs still believe the truths we believe, so hopefully you will find some like that. If you don't like the "tone" of a website or group, just move on to the next until you feel comfortable. OK? Take care Lil' One. --- And to whoever posted the Daily Text... thanks. (short term memory loss... I already forgot what it said). :( ----- Luv-2-all. SLC

Followup re: Geraldo Search: I don't get cable TV, but from what I could gather, Geraldo works for Fox News. He hosts a show at Fox called: War Zone with Geraldo Rivera: <http://www.foxnews.com/warzone/index.html> • E-mail your comments to: <warzone@foxnews.com> ------------------------------- Other Fox News email addresses: For FoxNews.com comments write to foxnewsonline@foxnews.com; For Fox News Channel comments write to comments@foxnews.com ------------------------------- There was a big piece at the religioustolerance.org site about all the shows Geraldo did over the years on satanic child abuse and repressed memories. The religioustolerance.org website said it was all exaggerated and sensationalized without evidence. So years later it says Geraldo apologized for causing innocent persons to be jailed. Hmmm... Well, I think I'll zap him a note anyway. Later gang. SLC

MY TWO CENTS: Jesus was the truth...he did away with the law...because one only has to look at what is happening now. The Gospel is very clear about the preaching of the Good News of God's Kingdom...period. Not preach doctrine/dogma. A Christian loves God and his neighbor if he does not, he isn't a Christian. It is nothing fancy, doesn't require so much knowledge other than the essentials. We follow Jesus's footsteps, he healed, he loved, he gave comfort, he stood up for what was not righteous and most certainly did hate hypocrites and what they did to the people.This is just my two cents, and not a commentary on what any one believes or should or does.If something confuses you, manipulates you away from what is righteous, causes chaos, harm and dehumanizes it is a lie. If it leaves out the essentials, if it is not responsible to all, if it is a secret, or partial, shames you without just cause, ridicules, or puts you off (as in need an answer/solution) it is a lie or deception.The only truth I know is that there is one God and his Son, he grieves and he has promised us His Kingdom. Other than that who knows and of what real importance is it to know anything else??????? I don't need to know the details to follow Jesus, Love Jehovah and keep the commandments, and preach God's Kingdom.  If Bill had not left, this site would not exist. He is living proof of courage, integrity and generosity. The brothers who stay better be taking good care of protecting the children. Well maybe this is 50 cents worth of my opinion. THE MEN/BROTHERS NEED TO TAKE THEIR FAMILIES BACK. A man should have more say than the WTS as to how a man's family worships, what they listen to and believe; brothers can't leave because they might not be able to take their wives and children with them. WTS has no affection for you or your families - this is a truth. I think they should start calling the AWAKE - ASLEEP! Hypnotic effect. If it dehumanizes it is a lie. That is the only way to know what is truth or a lie and deception. There is no such thing as one lie. Truth is clean, up front, straightforward, simple and easy to understand.

DJB- I don't need to nor do I want to know you personally. I know the Watchtower policy. They have made it very clear. If you are with them you are against me. I could show you proof of JW lies all day long. You choose to see and hear what you want. That is your right. Frankly, I don't care. I will help those who want my help. If you don't that's fine. Hello everyone. ....sorry I've not been on for a few days. I've been out of town. I've forgotten now who asked but......Yes, I'm Jesika's aunt, Linda Thoman. I understand to a point many people's fear about putting their real names on here, since many are in fear of being DF'd. Personally, I celebrated the night it was announced. TO Lost Little One....I've been DF'd since '95, and I couldn't be more happy and free than I am now. Yes, it was difficult to have my family consider me DEAD from that day forward. But, with everything I've been through in my life I'm not sure the loss was that great. Not only was I molested as a young girl (My posts from June 5-7th are my true stories), but I was also married for fifteen years to an abusive Witness man. All my attempts at getting help, from elders and family, were without results. Unless you consider getting knocked around some more right after the Elders left 'cause he was so mad. My ex-husband never held a "high" position, but he was a Witness nevertheless. An abusive childhood, and an abusive marriage all within the JW religion was more than anyone should ever have to take. I am now engaged to a "worldly" man, and I couldn't be happier. I have REAL friends now; not the kind of "friends" who are only your friend when you are at the K.H. I found myself incredibly lonely when I was a witness. When I got my divorce in '93 and moved to Dallas, I brought with me my six, Yes, six children. Here I was a single Witness....mother of six, and no one called to see how we were; no one stopped by to see if we needed anything; No one invited us over for their get-to-gethers. All I ever got was comments from elders that I wasn't turning in enough field service time, and why wasn't I at the meetings more often? I had a tremendous amount of anger and resentment built up over time due to the abuse in my childhood, but what really influenced me to leave the Org was how abusive men in the congregation get a lot of lip service from the Elders, IDLE threats of getting DF'd etc, and nothing ever was done. Not once! No Public Reproof, no nothing. I have no opinion really of people here leaving or staying in the Org because they feel they "could do better from within", but I can only speak for myself when I say I'm glad I left and I wish I had... the courage to do it sooner than I did. When I left and wrote my letter to the Elders telling them I no longer wanted to be considered a witness, I felt a tremendous amount of relief lift off of my shoulders that day. But, those of you who have taken the time to read my posts from June 5th-7th, I will tell you that posting the “Open Letter To My Parents” lifted all the heavy weight and sorrow off of my shoulders. I will also say that I mailed that exact letter to my parents. I have received no response whatsoever, but I didn't really expect one, except maybe for the letter to be returned to me unopened, but it hasn’t. I order Raymond Franz updated book and it should be here any day now. I've read his others, and it made me cry. Reading about Malawi vs Mexico brothers, broke my heart more than I can say. If any of you have not yet read his books, I strongly recommend them, they will blow your mind. There are actual documents/letters/proof etc contained in these books that cannot be denied. I will continue to use my real name rather than a handle. Putting my real name gives me a real sense of power and strength over my past. Mole, Searchin50, Lost Little One, Sequoa (sp?) Talk to you all soon. Linda Thoman (NOT ThoRman...LOL)

To: "Frankly, I don't care..."-- Why are you picking on DJB, and then not even saying who you are? Anonymous insults are sooooo cowardly. --- Those associated with this site are doing just fine. Let each do what he can, when and where he can, whether in or out of their congs; and let the others keep their snotty, self-righteous opinions to themselves. Do not judge our choices, and we will not judge you. Your comment was just sooo childish. So, to Frankly, [sic] I say: "Frankly, Frankly, we don't give a darn" whether you want to get to know us or not. ------ Signed: Rhett Butler, and by this time tomorrow I hope the likes of you (who have nothing positive to contribute) are completely Gone With The Wind. The mole............i spoke to a friend at the assembly and ask his thoughts just to see if I'm really off base, to kind of balance my judgement. He simply said he never heard of anything in his area of this sort of problem pedophiles and was shocked. I told him about NBC and he said he didn't see it. He said others had talked about it but no serious discussion arose. I asked him his opinion and he said, "it may have been an isolated incident but from what I heard those brothers, even after confession, let that man go door to door and it was viewed on TV. What a horrible thing. It didn't do any favors for us and to it was not apostates. I don't know what to think but I'm going to see the video later, another brother and sister taped it........." MY opinion is that it was an eye opener for everyone and those who don't care for a lot of things has now got ammo to resist. This brother was a former elder who stepped down because his son got into some legal trouble. He has been disgruntled over this political issue he thought was not to be in our Organization. They wont let him be an elder anymore because the presiding overseer admitted to a lot of brothers in service he personally didn't like the man. This was told me in confidence with I was a ministerial servant at the time by another elder while we going door to door. Since then it stuck in my mind and that is why I asked Mike and Yolanda their views because it was politics that prevents them from going back to his position. His wife had a stronger opinion of the issue. They moved to another hall since...........To the person who said from the inside out, your write. I will be a thorn or tear the house down.......the mole

Matthew 18: 1-8 In that hour the disciples came near to Jesus and said: "Who really is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?" So, calling a young child to him, he set it in their midst and said: "Truly I say to you, Unless you turn around and become as young children, you will by no means enter into the kingdom of the heavens. Therefore, whoever will humble himself like this young child is the one that is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens; and whoever receives one such young child on the basis of my name receives me [also]. BUT WHOEVER STUMBLES ONE OF THESE LITTLE ONES WHO PUT FAITH IN ME, IT IS MORE BENEFICIAL FOR HIM TO HAVE HUNG AROUND HIS NECK A MILLSTONE SUCH AS IS TURNED BY AN ASS TO BE SUNK IN THE WIDE, OPEN SEA. I honestly don't know what else to say. BLM
Mole...anyway. Whatever, I am mixed up. I think a lot about you guys pro and con to be honest. I had a real reaction to Lodi - the first time I read it - negative. I think I was reacting to no mention of the pedophiles, the Malawis, tonight when I re-read it seemed to me more futile, heart broken, exhausted, just waiting and preparing for the inevitable.

After reading your letter again tonight "the Mole", I don't how I could have gotten you mixed up with the Halloween ALL CAP POST (check it out)- or how I could have forgotten the other post on the 18th. I was talking to two different Moles!!! I guess I have too much on my mind and I don't concentrate well.

If the Halloween post is yours I apologize - but I hardly can believe you can't handle what to do about holidays, after I re-read your deep letter you posted before that one. I am probably making no sense at all.Okay, back to you brothers that are staying as long as they will have you. My true "opinion" is that this organization has been corrupt since day one. I know you have read everything I have read and probably more. I think you are hoping against hope. It is like myself, I was so loyal to my mother even though she abused me terribly. I forgave her day in and day out always hoping that she would stop drinking. I would talk to her, try to reason with her and when she was hung over no matter how horrible she had treated me the night before, I would coddle her the next day. I loved her with my whole heart. I was loyal to her. She died from the alcohol at 48 years of age. I could not stop her, change her, make her love me, or do what was right. I stayed until I was 16 years old. I took care and protected by siblings when she was out of control. I could take care of my siblings for days without a parent around at the age of nine and I often did. My father watched and ignored, didn't protect, too busy working. He knew.But he didn't know any better. Neither of them did. When I told my father some "truths" I had to leave and my mother got to stay. *You are all in that same position. Families, organizations are run by the most powerful/sickest member, they have no integrity so there is nothing too low to stoop to, to get their way.*I am serious when I say that the men have to take their families back. And it is lonely to be courageous. I know The Mole is 35, the guys from Lodi & Placerville I don't know. But as you get older and older, and you see that no matter how much injustice there is, there is more. I don't think you are cowards, although I admit I think you are at times, but I just think you are hoping against all hope. The brothers in Canada - it is very serious up there and to me it is wicked that the WTS does not lend them a hand.*The WTS sends their best legal to try and stop a damn blood transfusion, but cannot lend a hand to stop out of control pedophilia*The Canadian Brothers have to stay, have to because it is too dangerous to leave.*I would like to know that if anyone comes to any of you for help, you will help them.The WTS is out of control and has been for a very long time, if not since the beginning. I don't assume I know anything about what you may "feel" or really think, but people are all pretty much alike.  There are so few real noble men, and I pray that you remain noble in your integrity and not let one lamb be harmed if you can help it. *We need more men like Bill outside, so when they find you out I pray that you will help Bill help the ones who have been so destroyed by all of this. It isn't just the pedophilia, it is everything that supports this system of deceit, shunning, calling honest ones apostate, using fear and secret back room meetings to get their way. It is not Christian. * In many ways my mother destroyed me, but my father watched and did nothing to stop it and he is guilty too.I am now still looking for the noble men to stop it. Bill is trying and he has made a dent; he needs real help. Organized help. The Malawis, the Canadians are your brothers/sisters in Christian faith being persecuted by the very people who are "supposed" to protect themPlease save the lambs, and not the WTS. God's message won't change, never has and never will regardless of the WTS being or not being. *My wish would be that every single brother and sister would say no more shunning, no more silence, not one more "study" not until you have a clean KH to bring them to. Go on strike. I know that this is impossible because Jehovah got mixed in with the WTS. And I know you know the two don't mix... but most of us had to go through a lot to come to that conclusion. My hope is that you will not watch and do nothing given the opportunity to help. Be Noble, have integrity. Was it SLCHeerleader who said there should be a reach out for the DFed? This is a wonderful idea! I am for what is right, doing what is right. I have to go...and I go on and on. Soap Box the presentations are far too much for young minds or sensitive (or sensitized) people. Especially in our culture.----
But don't blame the holiday. ---- Our present 'comfy' lifestyles make it hard to imagine people being frightened by darkness and a possible lack of food but comfort doesn't always last forever.---- Halloween is a gift. It has a purpose.
And its purpose is not evil.---- JWs are so twisted, I don't know if they could even see this. ---- But I hope others will

Given the treatment of women and children in the WTS, I can't help but to wonder if the whole blood thing is not really symbolic of a deep-seated fear of women. Take a moment to think about that before you dismiss it too quickly.
Women and blood.....are related.

To the user that posted 24 Jun 2002 @ 01:18:41 You mentioned something about looking for the article that was posted at Newsweek. I'm not sure if this is the one you're talking about (or even if it was already posted up above...there's too much for me to read) but this was posted at MSNBC in conjunction with Newsweek. It's in the June 24, 2002 Newsweek print magazine. Here's the URL: http://www.msnbc.com/news/767800.asp?cp1=1>
Someone at jw.com had it scanned and online but not sure if it's still there or been removed.

The MOLE>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>> Early in Genesis we have an intimate enemy, not one that is far removed nor a stranger but a close associate of god. Here we can cast blame for all evilness that is inspired by a serpent, a demon that can influence the human family to do things that in opposition to the divine creator: so very different from other legends in the past. The flood account would be a good example; Men driven by their lust and greed are explained off by the existence of a spiritual unseen being who tempted Eve and cast men into disfavor with god. Stories of Satan and fallen angels proliferated in these troubled times, especially when men began to murder. Chapter six verse 5 says, "The badness of man was abundant in the earth and every inclination of the thought of their hearts was bad all the time." The sons of god introduced and excelled the abundance of badness and now we can blame them for our ills for bringing more debauchery into human existence. I believe the writer in early Genesis suggests this aims at the priest of ancient times who fallen from gods grace to what was bad thus drawing men into impurity, so they fell from a heavenly position in gods arrangements, similar too today's modern religions. I believe the arrangement of two governing forces of good and evil was to separate the Jewish people from the rest of the world; to reject the social, economic, and religious teaching of others who lived in their surrounding world. Israel gets its identity suddenly when god reveals himself to Abram ordering him to leave his homeland, his family, and his ancestral gods, and promising him, in exchange for exclusive loyalty, a new heritage, with a new identity. We can see the figure Satan emerged late in Jewish tradition close to the final books of the Greek script as a hostile power not from without but from the source and representation of conflict from within. The stories of Homer tell of gods who no better than man do the same evils, so in a sense they are comparable to the same level as human nature. The gods of old may have faded away, but the Jewish tradition still holds power for one reason alone, modern Christianity's usurpation of power to hold the people in ignorance. If Genesis can prove it is the best all time source of information without science then Christian fundamentalism can manipulate our thoughts and lives by obtuse facts of evidence from old myth, then we as people have no need for science. The creation account at the least gives an impression that our god is very jealous and has no room for any other type of worship. So as an example, we too should not worship any man's organization or give praise to it, it to would be a form of idol worship, even if told by religious leaders they represent him. The myths of Genesis can not being taken as absolute truth. It had its place then in the dawn of mankind's thinking; the thought of one god seemed the best unifying idea to get families of the same origins to worship unitedly under a deity with a single theme. We must keep everything in perspective along with science and religious doctrine. Genesis is by far very important to all mankind because of the influence it has done to our western culture. But it is my education and personal feeling that our organization has tapped into this fear of scaring and demonizing its opponents to keep those in subjection in their ranks. The evil of keeping secrets and letting horrid people, whether men or women to remain not in faith but in associate because they are friends of congregation leaders is wrong and now has caught the public eye. Each subject may have a slightly different view but the same object we stare at may have 360° degrees to see it also, but still be bad. The JW organization has infuriated its members except those so brainwashed they can't see the light of day being like parrots just babbling what they where trained to do, being stuck in a cave imagining and telling tales of fact of each shadow they have seen not knowing what it really looks like and so they write magazines and books making us believe what they have seen is of fact. I the mole wrote everything I labeled so far and I will question and I will observe to tell everyone the evil and the good. We must shout brothers and sisters in one voice for reformation or split away and create a more solid based truth. We must stand with Ray Franz and not be afraid to speak up, so I remain not so out spoken as Placerville or theodore j. and brother of Lodi but enough to be a mosquito to make a giant move to slap me.................

Thank You (7 June 2002) "Praise the Lord, all you nations! Extol him, all you peoples! For great is his steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever. Praise the Lord! " - Psalm 117 That's it. That's the whole Psalm. It says it all. There is no greater prayer than "Thank You, God." Thank You for everything - for what seems to me to be good, and for what seems to me to be bad; for what feels like pain as well as for what seems like pleasantness; for all my dreams, even the ones that have been broken or lost. To: Editor of Silentlambs, My mom used to tell me that Jehovah used 'man' to accomplish his will. Seems to me that Jehovah is using you and the others that are trying to stop the abuse within the organization to accomplish his will. I know that right now the majority of the witness's are being told and fully believe that what you are trying to accomplish is Satins way of turning true believers into apostates. If I'm not mistaken, an apostate originally meant a wicked sinner against GOD. Not a man trying to save little children from present and future danger! My mom also used to tell me that if you find one thing wrong with a doctrine that you know it's not the TRUE doctrine. I have lived by that. I always believed that what the witness's teach is the truth and nothing but. BUT if they are teaching that one should ignore a child's cry for help then that is the ONE thing wrong with their doctrine. If they are really telling sisters and brothers of Jesus that suffering in silence is walking in the footsteps of Jesus then that is another ONE thing wrong. Did Jesus "keep silent" when he saw the sellers, buyers, and the moneychangers in the temple of his father? Mark 11:15 Are you to remain silent when you have seen worse? When you have knowledge of even worse? Respectfully, BLM

LINDA T: I had posted a story about a woman whose son was molested by a brother (elder?) and then son went on to molest his sister, the sister just recently died in a car accident; she had been disfellowship for years. This mothers heart has been torn in two...between her son, what was done to him and then what the son had done to her daughter. I saw this sister recently, asked her about Dateline - and she said she would have never watched..apostate material etc...and that Jehovah works things out. She also invited herself to my home to discuss it and said she would be "glad" to bring an elder with her. I said no thanks! IT IS THE ONES THAT DON'T SEE THAT ARE IN THE GREATEST DANGER. This woman's life and her children's lives have been ravaged by this elder, and this sister is loyal to the WTS.* This woman is so brainwashed, she cannot say "NO MORE" OR "ENOUGH" - she has been so dehumanized she cannot respond normally to an outrageously wrong situationYou are a very strong person Linda, my thoughts were with you today. Just wanted you to know that your post yesterday is not easy to forget and will not be forgotten by me. soapbox

Lies corrupt by dehumanization. To be dehumanized prevents a person from responding with outrage to what is outrageously wrong. A lie can make you a "god" or a slave to the liar, either way they have dehumanized you. We were made in the image of God - most people have allowed themselves to be made in the image of a lie and they have to keep lying to themselves to keep up the image. I know, I have been there and done that. *soapbox aka Claudine Escoffon

Any site that allows JWs to find healing, especially those who have endured a JW childhood - is a gift from the Divine. What a wonderful thing the Internet is. I never became a JW, none of my family are either - but I know some. If John, Judy, Kenny, Chuck, Sharon, of B.C., Canada, are reading this - now I understand a little more the kind of pain you've lived with all your lives, as intelligent people who couldn't accept this lying garbage - yet all your lives tried to find some way to be loved by that cold walking zombie of a mother. Susan and Jimmy decided to stay on the side their bread was buttered; please mama and become one of the borg. I have more respect for the others. Someone mentioned a class action suit - a good idea provided the emotionally and spiritually and physically abused children can find the strength to do it. I loathe and detest Jehovah's Witnesses. Hi everyone: I woke up with a major thought!!!! The witness's teach that they are to abide by mans' law AS LONG AS it doesn't go against GODS will. Since the elders are instructed by the watchtower legal department to report child abuse in the states that have the 'mans law', then that means, at the very least the legal department are saying that by reporting child abuse it is not going against GODS will. So, if in the states that have the mans' law it's not going against the will of GOD, how could it not be the will of GOD that they report it in the states that don't require by mans' law that they do so????????? Does that make any sense?? blm

Working at a grocery store I checked an I.D. for a guy that was buying liquor. His I.D. stated that he was "UNDER 21" and he looked me in the eye and said he would get his mother down to the store to proved he was over 21.THE POINT is that this guy thought he could make me doubt what I saw with my own two eyes WITH A LIE and THAT HIS WORDS HAD SOME POWER over me and what I knew to be true.After my husband raped me he said it was "just" sex I didn't like. THE POINT is he tried to change my experience with A LIE (words) as if HE HAD SOME POWER TO MAKE ME DOUBT MY OWN EXPERIENCE.You cannot argue with a liar, or reason with them, they just keep lying and try to make you doubt what you know to be true. You cannot state the truth to a liar, without a rebuttal of lies. They will exhaust you.*Liars try to change your reality so they can do with you what they want - they are little gods. They want their way with you. They will destroy you if they can before they will stop lying.*They are not welcomed in my private life, on my property and I avoid them as much as possible. Subject: A message from Jay Walker (Amazing)
I saw this posting from Jay Walker and thought this would be something of interest here. The State of California is now considering legislation to make it easier, in fact very easy, for a victim of pedophilia to sue the Church (Catholic Church is main target of legislation) for significant monetary damages - perhaps shifting the burden of proof somewhat to the perpetrators (Priests) and their religious organizations who knew of these child molesters and shifted them around to different parishes. The Watchtower religion will also be significantly affected as the legislation is generic enough to include ALL religious organizations. What else will be of concern to the Watchtower religion? The State of California will totally and absolutely abolish ALL statute of limitations rules in cases of victims of molestations - meaning, that both Criminal and Civil actions can be taken, AND, former Jehovah's Witness Elders who served as Elders in the State of California (somewhere in its 158,000 square miles, and 58 counties) will immediately, upon to passage of this legislation and signature of the Governor of California, contact the District Attorneys in the locations where molestation victims are known to have lived, and provide to them the details of who the molesters are, the victims, the Elders who sat in on Judicial Committees, etc. A whole lot of Jehovah's Witnesses will have to be willing to commit felony perjury by lying to the authorities and the Court to protect the Watchtower religion ... therefore, I expect at least one JW victim in California will step forth and be helped by whatever material facts former JW Elders can provide ... including sworn testimony and affidavits, depositions, etc. The Watchtower Society and its local Congregation Elders are going to be facing some tough decisions ... lie, or tell the truth ... protect the organization or protect victims. Former JW Elders from California: The time is finally here. Let's do this. Let's go to the authorities in the State of California IF this legislation passes ... and let's tell all we know for the sake of JW victims of molestation. I know of four JW molesters, including their Judicial Committees and victims ... so, it is time to step forth. Former JWs in the other 49 States: Maybe this is time to help your legislators to sponsor similar legislation as California so that ex-JW Elders everywhere can step forth and help the victims of the past and present, and maybe help prevent victims in the future!!! It will be interesting to see if the Watchtower Society sponsors Lobbyists directly or indirectly to quash such legislation ... so this is one to watch CLOSELY !!!Do our words have real meaning? Will our great words and praising efforts like NBC Dateline turn into real action? I believe it will ... and I have to believe that the Watchtower Society and its leaders truly do have something to worry about.

Hello! Your page is very interesting and helpful for the victims and all brothers and sisters. Well, I'd like to say, that I wish everybody of the brothers and sisters will realize that we have big problems with this topic, because the organization do not help the victims. I live in Germany and I'm a victim, too. But I never know that there are so many children in USA, who were misused. I knew some of them but the problem is here that nobody tells it or can tell about this topic because the persons have no aid from our organization. But I really believe that Jehovah's will help to clear up this problem, too. I wish you the best Bye

FYI - France is adamant in attempting to protect its citizens from cults which attempt to take their money or manipulate them or create psychological stress or illness or prevent their children from growing up healthy enough to be able to make their own decisions about religion - and life ---a few years ago, they handed JW's a bill for $50,000,000 because they were not accepting that they were a religion. Sadly, it was overturned in the last couple years (for some reason, someone proved in court - Jw's for sure - that they technically met the definition of 'religion' at the time). I hope they change the law! Still, it is VERY MUCH worth reading about......the proposals are lengthy, but fascinating. It's nice to see a government looking out for its kids. Go to ask.com type in 'mental manipulation' The cases will pop up.

I walked away from the org in 1996. I know a best friend who was sexually abused by her father and his friends and the elders blamed. Sexual abuse in JW is of interest to me. However, I am also interested in other forms of abuse that goes on in JW...mainly religious and emotional abuse. For example though I believe in the renewed earth to come and know the earth will be cleansed....I am strongly against the way the org uses Armageddon as a fear tactic. to gain and maintained members and control them from questioning their power and also what about the profound issue of sexism in JW? Also, what of all the org's NON-Biblically backed man-made rules like formal rigid dress codes from the 1950's? Forbidding men from wearing beards? These are some of the issues that greatly interests me. Why is there not a more Progressive or liberal answer or branch to JW? Write to me, if you like at: The Earth Eden Project P.O. I like to hear both sides of the story before having an opinion. So far, the allegations of Child Abuse against the WTS have been dismissed, and I believe, the (2) remaining Child Abuse Cases are still pending. I will wait to see the outcome, and then base my opinion on the facts and evidence. Thanks for your response.

Hi, I am not on the XJW's side, but I understand where they are coming from. My problem being my grandmother and grandfather has been JW since their childhood. Special Pioneers, Missionaries, then helped open Bethel in Mexico, then special servant and translator in Dallas for Spanish speaking congregations, then congregation servant in English, finally elder, and host to many overseers, visiting brothers, etc. His sister and her husband died faithful in Bethel, NY. I believe that there is truth in their teachings. Although, thanks to my grandparents and their daughter my mom, since I was a child, I have always questioned right and wrong, and I have always believed that even if you are not a JW currently that you can still be a good person, and being JW doesn't make you a good person. My biggest problem is that I was molested by my father and at 15 –16 I was physically and sexually abused by a ‘brother’ who also was a regular pioneer. He convinced me that we were engaged and took advantage of his ability to twist the scriptures. The elders were of no help, only harm. But I understand the mole… I have been a mole for years, yet not intentionally, I do know JW is closer to Truth than many others, although I know, it is Jehovah's job to tell me I am wrong, or correct others, not mine! I am see that the angels will pull the weeds and throw them into the fire. God told Abraham if there was (sorry can't find a bible and I am not sure if it is one, or two) good person, he would not destroy Sodom and Gomorrah, but there wasn't… I also know to be ‘cautious and serpents, yet innocent as doves', and I am currently 'inactive'. I Homeschool my 3 children, and have taught them to think for themselves. So even when we attend meetings they are free to question and come to their own conscientious conclusion. I am always on guard, because I refuse to be blinded and have my children endanger, but there is NO where that is completely safe. We have a mini-farm, despite a lot of frowns from congregation members, who don't think my children and the earth and... animals that Jehovah has entrusted to me is a service dedicated to Jehovah. But I know in my heart it is my service and it seems it will be my children's. I don't get on here often, I do not have a home computer, so I have to use public access ones, so if you would like to reply personally and feel safe do so to sandimylife@hotmail.com Tears

Hi again, I agree about the liars. They reframe the experience to make themselves appear as though they did nothing or they project what they did on to the victim. (eg. "Look what you made me do!!"). The bible states liars will not inherit God's Kingdom. The last time I looked in the NWT it said the same thing as the NWT I have................................................................. The first time I heard about Pedophiles being in other places than where I live was when my cousin downloaded a newspaper article about what was happening with Bryan Rees. It was the beginning for us that PEDOPHILIA was not just a local issue. My dad was moved to write 2 letters to the society about their position on this case (the pedophile). He warned if they did not change their ways of handling matters they would have more lawsuits. These letters were possibly written 6 years ago. EVERYTHING THE LETTER WARNED IS NOW COMING TRUE BECAUSE THEY DID NOT LISTEN AND ACT FOR VICTIMS................................................................. This a letter I wrote thou I was never able to mail it because it was too dangerous if it was traced to me. It was after this that my focus changed in that I realized I was taking stand for more than just my children and myself. It was much bigger then we were here. We had felt we were the only ones. So my dad mailed his letters in the states for our protection................. Monday May 25, 1998.................................................................I have just finished reading about the court case of Bryan Rees concerning Larry Baker. I have inclosed a copy from the Portland Press Herald I obtained off the net. Is this true you are defending yourselves (society) because of the decision of three elders in Augusta Congregation basically by not protecting the children from sexual abuse by know pedophiles. I am appalled to think this type of man could become an elder again.................................................I have heard it said by the elders how the congregation is described in Isaiah 32 as a "hiding place from the wind and a place of concealment from the rainstorm, like streams of water in a waterless country..." One elder said how blessed to be safe and protected in being a part of this organization quoting the verse above. Does this way of handling things make the congregation a safe "hiding place"? Do children have the right to be protected from sexual abuse or do the rights of pedophiles to be one of Jehovah's Witnesses supersede that of the child? How can parents protect their children as you have instructed in the magazines when we are not given the tools (names of abusers, forbidden access to hall etc.) to do so? What does the bible say as to who's rights should be protected?................................................................. Must we eternally forgive these pedophiles repeatedly when they keep sinning against our children even thou they beg and cry for forgiveness? I think of King Saul who repeatedly sinned against Jehovah also trying to kill David who was to be the next King. Did Jehovah repeatedly forgive Saul who was the King as long as he offered up sacrifices begging for Jehovah's help and forgiveness? What does the bible tell us? It says "to obey is better than a sacrifice." Jehovah did not eternally forgive. So why are we allowing these pedophiles to remain in the congregations even as elders?................................................................. Does Bryan Rees have a right to expect justice? Can we expect that the elder and the Society will be humble enough to admit their mistakes? How can you say "they'll have to base their decisions not on what the bible tell them but on what they think a Jury would require of them"? May we never forget what is stated in Psalms 82:2,3 " How long will you keep on judging with injustice and showing partiality to the wicked themselves? Be judges for the lowly one and the fatherless boy. To the afflicted one and the one of little means DO JUSTICE." Why have you stopped up your ears to the cry of the lowly ones? Why are you trying to prevent Bryan Rees from getting justice? Shouldn't you do justice for the fatherless boy as the bible says? In this matter it is clear how Jehovah feels. Who's side are you on? What we do is like doing it to Jesus. Children are an inheritance from Jehovah. May we treat them this way!.................................................. David Gregory suggested "the case probably falls under the principal of avoiding interference with religious beliefs..." Are you going to use this as a defense? If you do doesn't it imply sexual abuse of children; no protection of children from pedophiles is apart of our beliefs? May this never be so. But remember actions speak louder than words. Stop fighting Bryan Rees in court and settle with him. These men owe him because they were in a position to protect him and they did not. The most important reason to do this is THE BIBLE TELLS US TO PROTECT THE CHILDREN AND DO JUSTICE................................................................. May we never lose Jehovah's blessing because of how we treat these lowly ones and the fatherless boys. Faithfully serving Jehovah. ALL THE CHILDREN ARE IN MY PRAYERS and may they be in yours and (also pray to work in harmony with request in our prayers) As you aren't right now.........From a Victim............Please give us a Voice.................DJB

The mole:.......those who are interested the conventions are being held at the cow palace in San francisco for the rest of the month ...Fri, sat and sun...this coming weekend I believe it is for modesto and most central area...mine was two weeks back for Sacramento, and the week before that was shingle springs and tahoe. I think some other congregation such as dixon and davis are supposed to attend this weekend. I will try and dig up the watchtower for exact dates but I think through it away. they usually come out around dec or Jan for assemblies scheduled in July for northern and central calif dates and times. I know that we have a special assembly in Yuba city that was announced last week in our hall. I forgot to write it down but a simple phone call and get the date for our halls that are supposed to attend, I do know it is august. they probably want to deal with this issue of people now talking about the NBC thing, it has been a topic under everyone's breath in my hall.....the mole

I hear talk about “truths.” (And who has it) Could someone please explain how these are not assumptions? Facts are even only what we can prove and even that can be manipulated. This all comes down to “moral clarity.” An issue of “Right and Wrong.” The Abuse must stop. That required a judgment. The WT. refuses to admit to that it has a major problem so it will require force to end this conflict. (Force is not = to aggression) This is not a spiritual matter. I am not willing to and it is not necessary to judge anyone’s soul here. it is actions and inaction's that are in question. That is ultimately what will come to bear on the WTS. -Sequia

Hello to the German visitor. So sorry to hear you were abused too, and that the German JWs are still hush-hush on the subject. We are with you in spirit, and we care. Yesterday, the German TV magazine KONTRASTE (http://www.kontraste.de) broadcasted a very well researched report on child abuse within the JW community. The report was only 10-15min long, but it was German prime time - the very first topic after the most watched daily news magazine. KONTRASTE (Contrasts) is a very reputable TV magazine. Two victims were interviewed and a JW spokesman. Also Stephan E. Wolf, Webmaster of http://www.xzj-infolink.de was interviewed and Sect-Expert of the Protestant Churches in Germany, Andreas Fincke (http://www.ekd.de/ezw The report quoted directly from the book "Pay Attention to Yourselves and to All the Flock".... DJB……. Larry Baker got what he deserved. I am not judging him, but he clearly broke the law........Unfortunately, I do not agree with your statements. Why should the WTS pay Brain? I read the case documents over and over. They broke no laws. Have you read the case document? I posted the case information a few days ago, you should read it. The document clearly states all the facts about Bryan's allegations and the facts. Oh, and the Courts would inquire into a religions sanctions, discipline and terms of forgiveness only if they were dangerous......... Like the Catholic Church Scandal, the Courts are stepping in because of the danger and harm it has caused its members. Well, here are some of the quotes from the case document........................................... (11) . Bryan does not allege that Baker molested him during any of the church's activities........................ He does not allege that Baker was an agent or employee of the church. Nor does he claim that Baker occupied any clerical position such as priest, minister, or pastor. Cf. Swanson, 1997 ME 63, 13, 692 A.2d at 445.(2) Moreover, the complaint does not allege that the church affirmatively placed Baker in a position of control and supervision of children, such as a Sunday school teacher or youth coordinator, or that the church knowingly placed Baker in a position where he could sexually abuse children within a church setting. The law imposes no duty to act affirmatively to protect someone from danger unless the dangerous situation was created by the defendant. we decline to recognize a general common law duty on the part of an organization such as a church to protect its members from each other. The allegation that Bryan placed "substantial trust and confidence" in the elders of the church and trusted them "to protect him and guide him" does not set forth the factual foundations for a special responsibility on the part of the church. Such vague and nonspecific allegations are wholly insufficient to make out a claim of a special relationship between the organization and its members.

Revelations, the book of prophesies or profit? This ambiguous book written by apostle John late in the 96th year after Jesus death was a vision of the destruction of man and his life style. Did the prophecy already occur or is it still for our lifetime? Much can be said and interpreted in any fashion to fit any or all circumstances then and now. This book is vital in keeping the membership for all Christian organization full and with high expectations of the future. I believe that this book maintains control over all the members of Jehovah's Witnesses Organization since the founding of Russell's church. I can imagine in my mind all the descriptions of monsters, beast, and Angels that are described in revelation. Such vivid descriptions scare even I. John says that this revelation came by Christ to him from angels and then was presented to him. This inspiring prophecy surely is from a divine origin when it came to John and so we must all believe. We have many organizations that believe that they know all what each meaning is and parable in every chapter in Revelations. The Jehovah's Witnesses believe it will be a happy climax into a new world order and bring about a grand Theocracy in which all men will be Governed. I find after reading Revelations, that much of the prophecies describes more or less repentance before all these things written take place. I myself have fears and if I were a member of any Christian Organization, I too must repent or be destroyed. Satan takes on a dramatic role in this book, along with his cohorts from heaven. The book Revelation does effect everyone profoundly, even those of others faiths. It seems that all religions have something about the doom of mankind. This particular book in the bible gives the feeling that we glimpsed into the heavenly realm and the transcended glory of God. This book also gives the feeling that we are to be moved in some way to appreciate Gods and Jesus holiness in the Heavenly realm. A Mormon told me that this book is meant to avoid the evils of the world and to watch for Christ's rapture. I can see how one would interpret this in that way. Revelation does set standards for any those who are Christians should adhere too. Will all these wonderful prophecies be fulfilled in our lifetime or are the Jehovah's Witness Organization false prophets? Christian groups wait with expectation of this coming event. I was told not to ignore the counsel written in the book of Revelation or I would be unrighteous. I see that I or we obey all what is written, we too can be saved when Christ returns. Carl Olof describes in his book The Sign of the Last Days: "that books that feed off the prophecies of revelation often stimulate expectations often enjoy great popularity". So to be truly Christian, the faith in divine inspiration is crucial and is a way to acceptance to god and Christ and therefore is necessary for any one to gain salvation. I find that to be a believer we must be stirred up and exited about coming events because we may be living in the last days as described in Revelation. However, is there truth in believing what TV evangelizers predict about our modern times? We have existed throughout history having wars and famine. What is truly being described in Revelations? We live as we have always lived. I sincerely think that Paul was intoxicated or had a bad dream or a nightmare. I believe at the time of the writing of Revelations the congregations needed a future of or just fade like others before with any religious movement previously like Gnosticism did in the 1200's. As time passed many did not see Jesus return and those that did die, died with out knowing if they missed the opportunity to see Christ return. The writer or writers new that they couldn't let Christ fade away, so they gave Christ a sense of being forever, in a future were one couldn't interpret clearly the book of revelations and or know exactly the day or the hour of his return. Even modern day religions know this and use all the chapters to fit their needs, especially the JW Organization. It would be better to read Nostradamus because his writing is no clearer than Revelations. I heard people have more faith in Nostradamus than the book of Revelations, but the fact remains, they are both vague and have very little meaning to the future. Blind faith in what is to come will be the downfall of all religions in our future mostly the doom seers who keep telling us that the destruction of mankind is upon us. Why is it when I read Revelations I do not get the same answer as do these other religious preachers? I was told by a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses that I have very little faith and I don't have as much Holy Spirit as they do. I asked how does one know how much Holy Spirit one can have, either you have some or none I said. Is there a degree of Holy Spirit one must have to interpret the scriptures? No answer. I believe this to be true for all religions. In Conclusion, I would rather see humanity rid them of this mental pestilence. My research has lead me to believe that religion has done more harm than good. Revelation is nothing more than a tool to keep people who want to believe in something in control, so as not to question their religious authority in the hierarchy of their religious ranks. Revelations was nothing more than a prank to keep unity among the early religious congregations because of all the early opposition. If Paul did write Revelation it because he had foresight enough to realize that the early seven congregations would eventually split without some sort of hope, so to keep the unity and advance the cause of Christ peace keeping efforts he wrote the book of Revelations off a dream that scared him; however, our modern times has brought about cults and splinter Christian religions that use this information to scare, beguile and mesmerize the weak minded into believing what they say is true causing the issue of neglect and abuse we see on TV from the Roman Church and the JW Organization plus others. Clear headed reading from the beginning of the Bible to the end one can see the story being told about human thought and history for the last several thousands years. Don't be afraid to read for yourself but ignorance is your enemy………………….Theodore J.

Regardless of the secular law, courts and judgements, whether they find you guilty or not, Jehovah will judge us all as to whether are deeds were righteous. Moral law is above the secular law. It is immoral to have knowledge or the ways and means to prevent harm, damage to property let alone another human and not do it.!! In old Jewish law - they were to protect even an enemies property, so therefore as Christians it is morally wrong although maybe not against the secular laws, to ignore, neglect, not protect your "brother in Christian love" - good grief! It sounds like to me it is finding the loop hole in the law or the "loops" in WTS doctrine that is more important than moral responsibility, or a clean conscience before God. Do you honestly believe that if the secular courts do not find a person's guilt and the WTS says you are guiltless, that Jehovah will also find you without guilt???? Better have a good lawyer when Jesus comes to judge!Am I missing something here????There is only one side to the "story", one view and that is Jehovah's. Claudine

I was a JW my whole life. I was never abused as a child, but as a teenager was raped by a JW who is still in good standing and I am disfellowshipped. I lost most of my family and friends. It shattered everything I believed since I was a child. I really feel for anyone who has been through such a traumatizing experience. Not only being raped, but being called a liar, losing your life and having the person who hurt you walk around like nothing had happened. Thank you for trying to change something, or at least having a place where people who have been hurt can see that they are not the only ones.

The Bible is the greatest peace of work in man's history. There is no book like it on the planet. Everyone on this planet has at least some idea of the bible and the old Jewish culture. The influence the Bible has exerted and shaped the entire western world, as we know it. This piece of literature is timeless and I think it will always be around for all time. I think the Bible is good because all individuals need guidelines, especially now in our modern times. If human beings do not have some guidelines and barriers in which to exercise their free will, there would be a breakdown of all moral fiber; on the other hand is the Bible a good example? The many examples of genocide, rape, pillaging and murder are a constant theme in the old texts. I do not believe that religionist groups who pronounce themselves as experts are true by trying to explain away the evilness in the early scripture, but I do believe that the Bible holds truth for all persons to set standards by and examples of human nature. We have seen since early times when human beings have put aside the fundamentals of the Bible and have brought upon themselves much grief. I feel that the basic attribute of the bible is the socialization of peoples. Those who call themselves true Christians would only adhere to some of the qualities of the Bible there would little or no crime, hunger and homeless individuals. Why is there so much grief then? We live in a supposedly Christian environment, yet there is sadness of such great magnitude? The Bible is nothing more than a piece of literature because if it were truly of a holy divine origin then these so called Christian moralist would fail to exist. Why? The word of God would serve as unity not the division we have today with so many factions or splinter groups calling themselves Christian. The Bible gives stories entertain and give messages of family and tribal unity not hidden messages to be delved in with a microscope attitude. It is my personal belief that the Bible has a significant place in all human history and not a religious spectacle. Jewish history as nation and people give an idea about our ancient human way of life and let us know how we have evolved these passed thousand years. Without this human record of war and love mankind would have no measuring stick on how we then and how we are now still the same and nothing has changed. Many aspects of humanity have not changed and I think will never change. War will always exist as well as greed and all the other sins. We will always desire to reach such high goals we have dream of but will never attain them. We as human beings have innate qualities that we fear and hate, but must live with. The Bible describes these with clarity and with a rich history on how the human dealt with their similar problems. We today deal with lust, envy, greed etc., on a day-to-day basis and it is very bothering when you go to a congregation you are there to free you mind from such thing but when the halls try to hide crimes the pollution left outside now is on the inside. I do understand why so many religionist take the best of stories and twist these beautiful stories to a sick and twisted meaning that has no relevance or significance, it's only to promote their own religion. I find it sad. I believe that within my life time, the people will rise and begin to strip these organizations down and find the corruptness I believe that they exert such a the Jehovah’s Witness Organizations attitude to oppression and pedophiles. If we can appreciate the wholesomeness of the Bible, only then we can enjoy life. The life it gives, gives celebration to humanity, and can always be enjoyed for all ages and for all people as a great piece of literature not to divide Christianity. It took me six months to read the Bible the first time I picked it up; after I started I couldn’t put it down. I do believe also those individuals who claim to be even remotely educated and has not read the Bible are ignorant and deserve not to be a graduate from any college in the western hemisphere. The rules of war have not changed only the way we kill each other in mass devastation. We cannot change what we as people are, we can only evolve in bettering what we can manipulate within ourselves. The human animal will never change, but only what we can control within ourselves or the benefit of others we can change. I believe this is what makes us different from the animals that live alongside us on this planet. We do want change but have no idea on how to put aside the human animal that lives within all of us for the last thousands of years. The recorded history of the Bible reminds us that we have roots and have always done what we have done no matter what efforts we tried to overcome them. We as people can be grounded knowing that are problems are the same as centuries past. Nothing new under the sun, this is so wise and so old, but so new. How much more must we suffer today because we have all these bright ideas about human nature that run contrary to what really is from social workers and others of their like. Human nature is like Mother Nature, in that no one can predict or control it. Our prisons continue to grow, our lives are more or less controlled by the Government, and we must use these examples against our modern New World Order. We the people will not tolerate oppression and will fight no matter the cost. Freedom to be men is fading to a non-existent way of life. No longer can a man walk to the forest, to search for god or himself. We now have to answer to someone or something. I cry in that my heritage is already gone. The earth, our mother, no longer is the people's world to explore. The Bible reminds us to always remember our past and look to our future. As the Jews looked to their posterity so should we, and I feel that if we are to survive as a species, we should look to the bible, not guidance in spiritual matters, but in matters that are of the Human Concern. Men should understand the Human Question, not to control, but to understand and manipulate the goals where we need to go. The greatest book, the Bible, is forever. I do reject Christianity not out of rebelliousness, but for the reason that Christ Jesus wisdom and Jehovah's omnipotent power of thought has been given to vipers of our modern era, cults and fundamentalist. The Bible is put together and collected for only one reason, to help the early church control its followers and subvert true love of god, for power over others. The writings contained in the Bible were written for the posterity of Jews only, not a record of worship for us to follow, by those defiled people. However, this chronology gives all human beings a sense of history if they have none to reflect upon or to create one of one own imagination. We need the Bible, not for Christianity, but for the basis of knowing human wisdom and human nature only. So keep bickering all of you, until God comes things like the Catholics and Jehovah’s Witnesses policies and attitude to us will continue to plague us like leprosy, letting a pedophile knock on the door, how disgusting. ....Tahoe Park Congregation Member

Good Book: by Thompson/Trauma & Childhood/it is about childhood sexual abuse, repetitive abuse and the life long effects on a person - it is a text book for therapists - not a pop psychology book. Very serious reading and very informative - it saved my life. TO DJB - can you share with us why your life and others are threaten???? Is there anything down here we could do to help you??? ANOTHER QUESTION: is there anyway to print the POSTS individually? I am having a hard time remembering what people say, which people say it and by my posts you must tell I am pretty mixed up sometimes...and then I can't remember what I post!!!! Is there a way to print our own comments? Any suggestions on how to keep it cohesive for me??? Some of the posts are so deep and I would like to re-read and study them -especially from the brothers. I am so grateful that I never got baptized by the witnesses; I really believe that Jehovah was looking out for me. It is like joining a "club" you can't get out of and it has nothing whatsoever to do with God. God is my Father and has always been with me and always will be. There is no way I could have handled it.*ANOTHER QUESTION: HOW DO YOU GO DOOR TO DOOR and invite people into the nest of "vipers?" I knew I was in trouble when I acknowledged to myself that I could not invite those I love to the KH. I also don't like the way I became - I have a lot of shame about this, and need to make amends. ONE MORE QUESTION: How is it going with the hand delivered magazines???? Just curious. Love to all from C.E.

Extraordinary recent posts.....I also love Gavin DeBecker and recommend any of his books highly, especially for confused JW's.....Also this one...."Protecting Your Child from Sexual Predators" by Leigh Baker....I think Dr. Baker ought to hear about what's going on in the WTS....great news about the march! Hope to hear more about it in the upcoming future.... The farm sounds wonderful. It's unfortunate that the only people you've found to get close to are the disloyal JW's. God works in mysterious ways. You may have friends there. But stay open to other possibilities, too. God - and we - stand with you. I will keep you in my prayers that you will find assurance that your work is Godly and your prayers are heard.

I have never been silent. Thus for decades I have been intentionally and personally lied to and misled by numerous elders in numerous congregations in numerous cities and states. The most pressing concern of mine since the elders forced me to run from my children's rapist since I was counseled that Jehovah Required me to submit to my husband's "killing me" as proof of my "integrity to Jehovah", is the terroristic power the "Society" can and always has tapped into that exists illegally within America's society under the guise of appropriate non-religious factions with real Life destroying power against any individual targeted. I tried to reveal what (little) I actually did know, that apostates who were Anti-American Seditionists were hiding inside even Bethel. I tried to reveal this to the FBI and had every avenue blocked physically in real terrifying ways. The bottom line is Each and Every Elder is, by "The Society" required to Know their policies And God's Word. Jesus never made a loophole for anyone to speak contrary words with the expertise of deception and to get away with contradicting The Truth found in the Bible itself. Each person is responsible for their own Faith, their own beliefs and their own knowledge and submission to whomever they choose to invest their own personal human will. So, Elders Know what is right and wrong and Choose to enforce what Is Wrong, willingly and with conscious aforethought, or they are fools and are lying about their ability to be an Elder anyway. Jehovah began this. Jesus is not only the "Author", he is also the "Finisher" assigned by Jehovah God and equipped with His own Angels. The Elders are liable to Know that Jehovah's Angels are guarding each and every one of Jehovah's "Little One's", no matter what age, child, adult or senior. Elders know that it is Jesus' angels who are the ones who will expose the evil men "within", but they are playing with fire when they fool themselves as they are fooling themselves with lies no different from Satan's lies to Adam. I am here where I am in every way because of the very will of Jehovah. These "men" may have a different view, but they are blind men following blind Evil men. I know how to be "silent" and how to "speak", because it Is Jehovah who orders my steps. But know this, this reality is not because No One has had the courage or the Morality and Faith to Speak Up. It is because you only see the tip of the Mountain, where the Monster hides, so the estimation of what it will take to cut its head off and actually throw that mountain into the depths of the sea, is beyond human comprehension. At least until Jehovah give that information to whomever He has preordained to Use His Sword to Do His Bidding. When Jehovah destroys IT, it will never rise again, with any "resurrected head". There are Myriads of Brothers who stand Daily before Jehovah's throne with the only job of caring and Truly Divinely protecting "the children" just as Jesus said. There are Myriads of Brothers who are doing exactly what Jehovah says is their job, at this time, who are more than ready to pick up their own little slingshot and load it with Jehovah perfectly prepared "stone" and rush Faithfully in the Name of Jehovah God to bring this monster to its knees. But there is only One with the Sword that Jehovah will release to strike the everlasting "death blow"....with It's Own Sword, do you think? I don't think... I obey. That is what we all do, whether we are in this long even to personally recognize Jehovah's great and loving Hand upon each of Us, Making us Stand, Making Us Do His Will, according to His Time and His Wisdom. CONFIDENT PATIENCE

Regarding the Baker case....I think the problem lies in some of the definitions....For instance, the defendant cannot be said to have NOT been an 'agent or employee of the WTS' as JWs know that ALL preaching JWs (in the field service or on the podium) are 'agents and employees' of the WTS. Even those unpaid..... Also, ALL baptized JWs are 'ministers'.....ESPECIALLY when we are talking about 'elders'. Clever the way the WTS gets everyone to do their work for free and then claims no legal accountability...... I think it would make sense to look again at 'child dangerment' and/or 'harboring a criminal'. Those, and the ones I have just mentioned, are some legal definitions that really need to be looked over carefully.... Either they have to be explored again (by a very intelligent attorney) as a legal defense, OR, if they do not avail themselves to that....the public needs to be made aware of the holes in the laws that provide dreadful opportunities for pedophiles and those who would allow them and the laws need to be rewritten.............MEANWHILE (as these things take time), is there a place somewhere to get a bumper sticker that expresses our concerns and sentiments about JWs????

About the 17,000 free copies of the Watchtower....it seemed odd to me, too but I don't think I saved it....anyway, can't find it at the moment. I'm sorry for that. It was a small part of a bigger article about the recent Supreme Court ruling.....Justice Stevens was quoted in the article regarding the free Watchtowers sent to the Supreme Court. He sort of chuckled and said, "It was a hell of a good read, too"..... I thought that, too, was a rather strange comment. (I might add that I happen to know Justice Stevens, intimately, but peripherally as I was very close to someone who was very close to him for quite a lengthy time). I guess he was just being condescendingly 'cute'...'humorous' (sorry, Justice Stevens, that's a judgement call) in acknowledging and almost politely thanking them for sending such a ridiculous amount of material. It's nice that he sees their air-headedness. It's too bad that he's apparently unfamiliar with the tragic damage they do. Children do not have a choice.

Hi everyone, This is from Woman-Awake. Copied and pasted for your reading.----------- Hi Everyone, The new July 1 TIME magazine with the front cover words, "The Bible & The Apocalypse - Why more Americans are reading and talking about the END OF THE WORLD" is a very good article. For any of our friends who are concerned about the JW version of Armageddon and being destroyed because of leaving the WT Society (a publishing company with a free labor source and a history of false prophecies), this is a must read if you want to know what the rest of the world thinks of Armageddon which Time magazine defines as being "The final battle between Christ and the Antichrist. Christ's victory over the forces of evil ushers in his 1,000 year reign." What happens to Israel? Is she still God's chosen people? Will those who bless Israel be blessed? While this article will not answer all your questions, it will give you much food for thought and perhaps spur a more intense study of non-JW beliefs. If you study Revelation without the WT publications, you will be amazed at what you learn and you can put the false WT teachings out of your life forever. When we leave the WT Society, we are FREE to get an education about the Bible or not. Each one makes his/her own decision about reading material. If this kind of Bible talk upsets you, please stop now. Do not read the paragraph below because I don't want to upset anyone. Don't complain if you read what I write. I am giving you fair warning that it discusses "the end." Since leaving the Witnesses, I have read and learned more about the book of Revelation than anyone could ever learn as a JW. There is so much that I would like to quote to you from the TIME magazine, but I could not possibly find the time to type it all this morning. It discusses the series of "end time" books written by Lehaye and Jenkins. The newest book is called "The Remnant" and if you want to know what other Christians teach/believe about the remnant, this book will help. Even though these books are written in fiction-style, they are non-fiction in that they adhere to Christian teachings from the Bible. It is such a relief to read them and not be told that you "must believe" this and this is "from God's theocratic organization" because you must realize that no one knows for sure the day or hour or exact time or way that God will work out his prophetic plan for man and the earth until he does it, but he did give us the "signs" and the "Revelation." In 1970, I read Hal Lindsey's non-fiction book, "The Late Great Planet Earth," that was the best-seller of its decade. Many things that he wrote about have happened. He does not claim to be a prophet. He is a Christian who studies Revelation and writes. For example, he wrote about the European United States. In 1970 people said it would never happen. We thought the world would never allow Germany to become a global power again. Today it is the core of the EU, the powerful European Union of States with its own EU currency and talk of having one united EU military which will combine the military of 10 or more countries into one large European military unit. Anti-Semitism is rising in the EU. Given Germany's history, is that not scary? Is the EU one of the beasts of Revelation? I remember the Witnesses teaching that the UN is the Antichrist and the "abomination of desolation." They called the Anglo-Americans (America and England) the last world empire. They are so wrong! No one else in their right mind has ever called America and England the world empire! Where do they get this fantasy from? The UN is not the all-powerful evil force that the WT paints. I remember learning at the JW book studies about 1950 that the League of Nations (1920 to 1946) was slain (canceled) and was resurrected (League of Nations assets were transferred to the new UN) as the United Nations where Revelation talks about the Antichrist being slain and coming back to life and then demands to be worshiped. The WT said that the whole world does the bidding of the UN. The world is looking to the UN for "peace and security" IN PLACE OF GOD. What crap! It is pure fantasy and not supported by the Bible unless you twist the scriptures like the WT Society does in their twisted publications. I must stop now. LOL! I'm getting riled at the WT false teachings. Hope this was of interest to those of you who read the whole thing.----------Linda Thoman (Copied and pasted from woman-awake)

Can you tell us how he and his wife have been doing?

I think the authors name is Carol or Linda Thompson, title could be Childhood Trauma or Trauma in Childhood. The one copy I bought - I will warn you - caused so much grief to come up in me that I threw the book away. I bought it at a large bookstore/probably had to order it - don't remember. It may take me some time...too far from a real bookstore...but I will ask at a bookstore for it and relate accurate information as to title and author's name. ********
Any good therapist who treats PTS should have it in their library. I personally don't recommend "therapy" for post trauma stress, peer counseling is good, understanding it yourself is more powerful and ultimately the "cure." That is why this book saved my life. It is a very long process and really never ends. CE

Joseph Chilton Pearce had some thought-provoking statements from an interview several years ago that, IMHO, apply to this crisis. He said, "If we look at any system and find that it has an error within it, we can address the error and consider the possibilities of correction. But, if the entire system from beginning to end is one whole, integrated, total error, then there is nothing that can be done. There is nothing, zero." Is the WTS at this point? I believe we all, individually, need to decide. What do you feel in your heart and head(I'll share my viewpoints in a later post)? Mr. Pearce continues, "We can't change institutions. And, we can't give the public an answer to a question they are not asking. People simply aren't asking the questions that everyone is rushing around with answers for." I find this to be the case of the congregation I attend. There was an initial "interest" in the Dateline program, but the CO visit happened to correspond with its airing. The noise of a potential problem was quickly hushed and now, the standard rhetoric has been firmly re-established. So, bottom line is, what do you all want done? Bill, what do you want done? I'm sure we all want the abuse to stop, but that's not going to happen, at least for now. We all want to abusers exposed (do we???)and punished. Or, do we want the WTS to go the way of Babylon the Great, only sooner. Action is the healer of wounds and it is painfully obvious there are deep wounds here. So, the next steps? Let's talk...dronj Claudine....... You are right, Jehovah will judge us all as to whether are deeds were righteous.......... However, I don't see your point about moral responsibility...............From what I have read, over and over, the WTS followed all the Secular and Bible laws and , did nothing morally wrong............... Larry Baker did something wrong, that's why his is in jail........... So are you saying that we all , including our Court system, government officials etc, lack moral responsibility ....... ?????? So is your problem with everybody's lack of moral responsibility or just the WTS ????????? Well, this is what I mean by "only one side to the story"........This website, unfortunately, sees only one side of the story 99% of the time. I have to say, I am very disappointed, I expected more...........Well, Sorry, I can't say I agree with you. But thanks for your comments.......................Take care.

I have spent much time studying the Watchtower org. and the Jehovah's Witness people. I have read just about everything about them (Pro and Con) and have also read much of what they write about other religions. It is my opinion that the evidence for (Non Jehovah's witness) Evangelical Christian teachings is overwhelming. There is a freedom that comes with this. I do not feel threatened by the Organization or intimidated by them. Churches must do a better job at teaching not only what they believe, but why they believe it. Though the growth rate is slowing for Jehovah's Witness, It would almost come to a stop in my opinion if the bible believing churches did a better job. One who gained accurate knowledge

Tonight on CBS is a movie on abuse at 9pm. All should watch it if you can. It is a cop abusing his wife and being protected by his status and her not being able to achieve protection or justice. My opinion on a few things. #1 the WTS GOVERNMENT made one of its major wrong turns by buying a house for MOSES, ABRAHAM, and ISAIAH in one of the countless no, every false prophesy that this movement has made. I.e. all of this movements prophesy/delusions is false. When they did not come at the "man" predicted time the GOVERNMENT decided "Hem, nice house I think Jehovah wants us (JW leadership) to have it."...And they moved in. They have been having the sheep worship them ever since. It is sad that they GB does not have enough Christian courage to admit that they have no idea what they are doing. #2 Some people who do not post their name might be trying to avoid a skirmish before the decisive battles in this way. If they post their names then the Elders will quickly instruct the members of their families, and others that are JW to harass them target them slander them etc. I'm sure you know the drill. You can not win a fight with a propagandist their goal is not to win but to discredit you. Get you to say just one thing out of line and then say SEE!, SEE!, now ignore everything that this person says. AND, JW's will. Read the book "Slander." JW's can read it because it is not about them. But, it is about how they conduct themselves. "Truth and knowledge are not as important as how you utilize them." Anyone can acquire knowledge, anyone can know the truth. What is important is what you do with it. JW's seem to have a total "need" to BE right...They never stop to consider IF they are right. -Just my thoughts.

To The Mole......I am happy to hear from an earlier post that Ray Franz is still alive, I've been wondering. How is he doing? Are you in personal contact with him? I read his third edition of Crisis of Conscience as well as the one after that, but the name escapes me at the moment. Now, I've just begun reading his fourth edition. It haunts me endlessly how the Malawi brothers were treated so different than the Mexican brothers. I'll never forget the stories of people dying, being persecuted etc, when there was no need. It tore me up inside when I read that. Is there a way to email Ray Franz, or correspond with him in any way? Linda Thoman Linthoman0705@aol.com Interesting points from a talk given in Greensboro, NC by Brooklyn, NY speaker this past weekend:

1. Islam is now larger than Christendom. According to the Mankind Search for God book, the inside map shows the amount of people in major religions. The numbers for the Islamic religion is now much larger. So all this time that we were looking at Christendom to be this large factor, it could very well be the Islamic groups instead. They are so large, and with all that has happened in the past three weeks, the religion has aggravated the King of the South and the Wild Beast. They will be looking for a way to rid themselves of a large group.

2. We were urged to read Ezekiel 38 and 39. The end is rushing up to meet us. The signs are all there. After a disaster, people have all these feelings. When it reaches anger, that is when to watch around us. This is when action is likely to be taken.

3. No neutrality or pacifism will be allowed by governments. They will insist we take a side, and when we don't, they can use this as an excuse to take action against us. We could be termed a ‘dangerous sect.’

We can look for all property owned by the Watchtower Society to be seized. Branches, land, farms, Kingdom Halls. They might use the excuse that they need the land to fund wars or something of that possessions. Money, property, things, will be meaningless to us. Only our heavenly treasures will have value. Some of us may have to find shelter with other Witnesses. 5. We will have no legal rights to speak of. Going to court, the police, etc. Any rights gained by us to date will not exist. 6. The Bible does not tell us how far things will go, only that we will wait on Jehovah to take action.

7. The Kings of the North and South prophesies are coming true. They are very important to us, even though we don't know who the king of the north is yet. He also brought out that we don't understand everything yet, and may not have complete understanding before this all occurs.

8. Gog of Magog is also important. He will be spewing his rage because of the Witnesses of Jehovah. He will do anything he can to destroy us. Daniel 11:45. This will be worse than any war ever fought on earth before. Other scriptures mentioned in connection to these points: Eze 38:10, 13, 16, 22; Isaiah 30:15; Zechariah 14: 12, 13 10. No matter what happens to us during this time, we can take comfort that God is with us. Romans 8:31. There are more with us than are with them. Psalms 56:11, 118:16; 16:8. God will not save each and every one of his witnesses from death, but we have too much value to him for him to let us all be exterminated. 11. Apostates are rampant, (Matthew 24:24) waiting for a time when they can publicly denounce God's people. That doesn't mean they are not active now. They are publishing materials and speaking loudly. But it will get worse. And as Jesus and Paul pointed out, there will be traitors in the congregation. Probably more than we have thought there would be. Because of this we need to be cautious as serpents and gentle as doves. There will be no need for some to know everything, especially the government. 12. Physical signs (Matthew 24:29). These will happen. The celestial signs will occur (i.e. sun darkened, moon not there), and in such a manner as to leave people in no doubt as to who is causing them. These will be in conjunction with his vengeance on those persecuting his people. Zephaniah 1:17, 18. How can they hurt us if they have no eyes to see us? How can they pull a trigger if they have no arms? As Matthew 24 points out, (verses 30-31) there will also be an angelic presence in the heavens- a visible one. He in the heavens, sword drawn, with the angels behind him. THESE SIGNS WILL TAKE PLACE. 13. There will probably be a time when the preaching work will slow drastically. Our main focus may be on keeping alive and enduring. Contributed by Woman-Awake@yahoogroups.com Linda Thoman
The mole.............to all those interested in Ray Franz, I contacted him through Commentary Press and they forwarded my letter then Ray wrote me three years ago. I have save a total 5 letters since. Last letter I received was 8 months ago and it took him at least three or four months for that response and he stated he was in ill health and apologize for taking so long. I have no knowledge of his passing and I'm sure that it would have made news to all. I am hesitant to give out his real address not knowing what creeps might want to harass him. I did mail another letter last week concerning all these issue just to see what his opinion was......................the mole

6/26/02 I am re-writing this to you as I believe it may have been lost before I submitted it. My first transmission was as follows: 6/26/02 I was able to view the MSNBC program regarding William Bowen and found it informative regarding a very real problem that happens in every religion or belief structure. Child molestation is a hidden crime no one has every wanted to talk about. I would hope that you try your hardest to keep balanced in your view towards Jehovah's Witnesses. Yes, they do have problems within their organization, yes, those problems need to be corrected and hopefully, they will be legally attended to. This is the main reason these problems have been allowed to continue---legally work has to be done to insure that we as Americans have freedom of speech--to preach AND TO REPORT ANY MOLESTATIONS OR WRONGDOING WHETHER OR NOT WE HAPPEN TO BE CHILDREN OR NOT ELDERs! If legally our rights were protected, all peoples would have to conform and that is what is needed, for the protections of our American rights and freedom to grow up without attacks by even our most trusted. I would like to be able to speak to Mr. Bowen regarding this issue and another that he may be aware of already and if possible, could you send him a note regarding this e-mail? If you can, send him the entire e-mail. Thank you, Delores Doyle,(909)882-8232-leave a v/m if I'm not home letting me know what time to phone. My e-mail is USADMDB@Yahoo.com but I prefer to receive a phone call or mail at P.O.Box 683, San Bernardino, Calif.92402-0683

To Little Lost One I don't know if this will help you deal with your new situation but I'll try. I too disassociated myself earlier this year after the elders in our congregation decided to dump on my family one last time. My experience is rather long and involved as is usually the case with individuals that eventually leave the organization. As I am sure is your case, that your decision did not happen overnight, a series of events lead to your decision. In the same way, at least in my case it took some time for me to come to grips with reality, that is something that most JW's can't do because we had been carefully trained to live in a different world. It's kind of like waking up in the middle of a dream, it seemed so real and it takes a while to realize that it was just that, a dream. I struggled with the same things that you are going through right now only I went through it for about 2 years before I disassociated myself. I got to the point that I was experiencing asthma like symptoms and I was experiencing depression. Eventually I had to be medicated for what the Doctor described as Post Traumatic Shock Syndrome. I am doing better and I credit Ray Franz' book Crisis of Conscience to help me see that I wasn't losing my mind and it helped me do a reality check, if you haven't read this book I would most definitely encourage you to do so. Once you realize that Jehovah doesn't disown you just because you no longer can go along with an organization that likes to pass judgment on others that don't agree with them, you will be on the road to recovery. You have my sympathy because I know what you are going through. One last suggestion before I go. Seek professional help (counseling by a Psychiatrist) this may aid you from slipping into depression. This is something that I didn't do but wished that I did, I probably would have fared better. CM from Illinois

I happen to know firsthand that there is at least one more case against the Witnesses that will be filed very soon. I believe that the problem with winning the cases is finding enough people to speak out against the elders. Many suffer the abuse and still continue in that religion, trying so hard to please those that have failed them so miserably. My case will be filed very shortly, and once it has been filed, and I have had a chance to talk to the media, I will be sure and post how it went for everyone here to see. If you would like to help, pray for justice to be found against the organization's heartless policy. If you would like to help with moral support, leave a response with an email addy and I'll let you know how it's going.

If a workman uses a cutting tool that is not sharp or if he does not use it skillfully, he will waste his energy and his work will be shoddy. Likewise, the benefits from time spent studying may vary greatly, depending on our study methods. Excellent practical suggestions for improving the way we study can be found in Study 7 of the Theocratic Ministry School Guidebook. When a craftsman sets about his work, he lays out the tools he will need. Similarly, when we begin a study period, we should select in our personal library the study tools we will need. Remembering that study is work and requires mental effort, it is also good to adopt an appropriate posture. If we wish to stay mentally alert, sitting on a chair at a table or a desk may prove to be more effective than lying in bed or sitting in a cozy armchair. w 10/1/00 15, 16a Excerpt from "Examining the Scriptures Daily 2002". © 2001 Watchtower Bible & Tract Society of PA

Thanks for the convention list. Thanks for the recognition that I spoke. I am not sure where Jehovah leads from here, but I await His guidance He has never failed me before. I am chomping at the bit to get back to the hall and here what is going on though! I feel it is unbelievable all the posts claiming “apostasy”, yet ‘the blind follow the blind so they both fall into the pit’! I know many bothers and sisters DO believe, even if fear is keeping them silent, but at the right time Jehovah himself will ‘gird them up’. Thanks again, Tears

People are leaving the watchtowers "truth" in developed countries, because the organization doesn't have a hold on their information network like they did in the past. Nothing more, nothing less. This exodus has nothing to do with prophecy. Why do you think that Watchtower hates the internet, other than it's own site?

Linda, Thanks for sharing the gist of the special talk. I read a transcript of it a while back. It has some interesting points. Just keep in mind that the speaker was Ciro Aulicino. His name was on the original request to the U.N. for "Suck-up" status. His name stayed on the contact list for NGO's for the whole time until they bailed. Keep an open mind, check your scriptures, be a Berean like in Acts. Love ya, Loris

Thank you for this site. I thought that I was the only one who had been molested by other JW's, and then condemned for it. As if a 3 year old would have asked for such actions! We have been threatened with disfellowshipping and accused of slander and being apostate. All because of what someone else did to a child. I feel that this is an answer to my prayers for help. I finally am able to pray to Jehovah again. Thank you so much.

I was raised a Jehovah's Witness from infancy to adult. I have never seen an organization so corrupt. My sister; a pioneer at the time, was raped by a man with whom she studied with out in service. As a faithful servant of the organization, she was encouraged to approach the elders to cope with her situation. She was then reprimanded by them and was told that she was dressed to provocatively and was then disfellowshipped for being the "causing the situation"! As her sister, although we lived in the same house at the time, I was told not to associate with her. I love my sister dearly and was also removed as a member for remaining to do so! I am proud of our decision to stay away from an organization that brainwashes there members, and I encourage anyone considering to become one to please study into what happens inside this so-called loving organization of God!
THAT IS SO SAD about your sister being raped and then being treated like a sleaze for it. THAT IS SO SICK! WHAT IS WRONG WITH THESE MEN???? Like pioneers really dress "provocatively," yeah, right! The elders treating her like that is like raping her a second time. I think she should write them a letter, even all this time later, and tell them her mind. It's good for the soul to write it out! -- Thanks for sharing. Lv, SLC

From: "silentlambs" <info@silentlambs.org> Date: Wed, 26 Jun 2002 17:48:54 -0500 To: <info@silentlambs.org> Subject: Drama Talk -------------------------- This is a rough draft of the talk follow the Drama at the DC. Do you see any subliminal reference to Dateline? ----------------------- Notes on the Talk - Be Like Jeremiah, Fearlessly Proclaim the Word of Jehovah ------- Since 1919 we have been experiencing times that ancient men of old like Jeremiah could only dream about. We have become a part of something delightful, beautiful, life preserving, yes our being gathered here today shows there exists a spiritual paradise provided by Jehovah. Even though we have these benefits our times are more troublesome and worse than Jeremiah's times. The reason we are persecuted and suffer abuse is that people don't understand our way of true worship (Jer.15:18-19) There are those who would criticize and ridicule Jehovah's people, sometimes it is motivated by outright hatred, in addition, there are financial pressures, families are under attack as well as health problems, all these pressures can cause our love for Jehovah to be worn down. How can we endure and fearlessly proclaim the good news? (Rom 15:4) Our reason for hope has been highlighted by the Bible drama seen today and is part of the things "written beforehand for our instruction". Will we listen to that instruction? Do we really appreciate benefits the spiritual paradise brings us? (Heb 12:2) Whether we look back into the things written beforehand or look ahead into the things prophesied, either way we look we are given the basis to gain hope. We can learn many lessons from the example of Jeremiah a faithful man of old. The problems he faced are similar to problems that are being experienced by us today. Jeremiah was treated without honor he endured a great deal of persecution. It is interesting to note all age groups hated him and joined in the ridicule of this faithful servant of Jehovah. In the drama, elders and little boys joined in persecuting faithful Jeremiah. Today we also have to face that kind of ridicule from those associated with Jehovah's organization. Remember Urijah a companion and fellow prophet with Jeremiah. When the heat was turned up he lost faith and proper focus on pleasing Jehovah. Instead he fled to Egypt and was subsequently returned to be executed for neglecting his assignment. Imagine how Jeremiah must have felt by being betrayed by a fellow servant, how would you be affected if a fellow publisher or elder was to have similar conduct? Another example cited in the program was Baruch. Though being a loyal and faithful man even he lost proper Christian focus at times, even so, by enduring faithfully he made it to the end. (Jer.45:3,5) What about us today? Do we lose our focus at times? Do we feel weary and sigh? Baruch started to try and create a comfort zone for himself. This was the wrong course as he was corrected by Jehovah for his actions. (Jer.45:5) Baruch was reminded not to put trust in men but to keep his faith in Jehovah. Then there was Jeremiah, from early times he was insecure,(Jer.20:9)not a fluent public speaker, how could Jeremiah continue to faithfully follow his commission? (Jer.20:11) We can learn from Jeremiah's example today by relying upon Jehovah as we live in a spiritual paradise in this wicked world. Jehovah's people are facing problems as an organization. In France through malicious propaganda brothers are being persecuted. In other areas there are those who distribute literature to discredit Jehovah. (Jer.15:16) How can we cope with such persecution? We must show ourselves eager as in Jeremiah's day. (2 Tim 1:7-8) It is important to keep a sound mind in troublesome times, do not allow false reasoning to influence our thoughts. Jeremiah was very careful of his associates there is a fine lesson in his example. (Jer.15:17) If Jeremiah was living in the 21st Century what association or trust would he have placed in the media, TV and worldly news sources? He would have had nothing to do with them knowing they were part of Satan's world. Today would it be any different? Our lot is to use the Christian brotherhood as a source that we can rely upon for truth. We know what the TRUTH is, therefore let us make it our resolve not to be associated with or listen to those who criticize us using worldly sources controlled by Satan. Jehovah is stronger than Satan and whatever the media might say they cannot win against us. Let us all endeavor to have Jeremiah's courage as we face these trials some times. We know these trials will not be for long as we look forward to serving for eternity in an earthly paradise in the new system that Jehovah promises in the very near future.

Subject: Pandello letter to appeal committee ----------- We met with the Appeal Committee today at 2:00. We did not stay to subject ourselves to their interrogation. We gave them the following letter. Carl & Barbara Pandello --------------
---- 06/15/02 ------- Ronald Rawls Chairman of Appeal Committee Elders on the Appeal Committee Judicial Committee & Body of Elders of Bradley Beach Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses/English 28 Main Street, Bradley Beach, New Jersey 07720 Watchtower Bible & Tract Society Legal Department Brooklyn, NY 11201-2483 -------------- - To The Elders of the Appeal Committee, and the Body of Elders of the Bradley Beach English Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, -------------- In Response To the Letter of May 28, 2002 from the Chairman of the Appeal Committee, Ronald Rawls, who "encourages" us to be present to explain why we believe the Judicial Committee decision is in error. It is our impression that this has been very well documented and explained in our letter given to the Judicial Committee of May 6, 2002. If you have not availed yourself of the copy of this letter, please do, as it explains in detail all of the reasons why the Body of Elders of Bradley Beach, and the Watchtower Legal Department should not disfellowship us on the grounds of apostasy. Please review the correspondence between the Judicial Committee and the Legal Department with our attorneys, and our requests regarding your accusations.

Our experiences in the past with the Watchtower Headquarters directing elders to lie in depositions and during the painful trial we endured over the sexual molestation of our daughter, and elders testifying in behalf of the Pedophile and for his defense attorney, rather than telling the truth in behalf of all the victims including our daughter, we became stumbled by their conduct. It became a betrayal of trust in our religious shepherds who like the Hierarchy of the Catholic Church, the Watchtower Headquarters has directed elders to cover and hide sexual abuse of children. It was this issue, a betrayal of trust that stumbled us greatly. It caused much pain and suffering for me and my wife and our whole family. We were able to put the abuse behind us but we were not able to emotionally handle the re-victimization by the ones acting corruptly at the direction of Headquarters in the legal arena. Due to the stress which resulted in severe post traumatic stress disorder and treatment for my wife, and life threatening high blood pressure for me, it became an issue of staying away from the source of the stress, the Kingdom Hall. The constant talks from the platform threatening that God was going to kill us if we did not come back. The shunning and letters from close friends, telling us that if we don't come back to the Kingdom Hall meetings we were deserving of death. The threats from elders and congregation members, and those in the Headquarters in Brooklyn for speaking about the issue of child sexual abuse cover ups within the congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses, took such a toll on our emotional and spiritual health, the negative messages, and harassing pictures of God killing children, was so traumatic to us and caused so much pain and suffering that we felt we would die if we went back into a Kingdom Hall. My wife began having panic attacks, and severe anxiety prior to going to the Kingdom Hall. We felt it was detrimental to our health, and also to our youngest daughter's emotional and spiritual health to hear the messages of hate and intolerance spoken by the elders and through Watchtower publications towards "worldly" people, those who are not Jehovah's Witnesses. The pictures in the publications of buildings and landmarks being blown up and destroyed, little children and mothers being killed by God, even puppies being destroyed, as well as all those who are not Jehovah's Witnesses being killed, were nothing more than emotional and spiritual terrorism perpetrated by the leadership to instill fear in families. It is no wonder the welfare of children and the policies to protect the identity of child molesters rather than supporting victims of sexual abuse is so rampant in the Watchtower Society of Jehovah's Witnesses. The current Judicial Committee practices of harassment and entrapment are not meant to "help" us. They are meant to intimidate and threaten. As teenagers, our youth and vulnerability were taken advantage of by the Watchtower Society's pressure and emotional blackmail tactics, and fear instilling coercion to become baptized, or be killed by God. We believed our baptism was a dedication and request for a clear conscience before God, and Christ, not to the Watchtower Legal Corporations, and their ever changing doctrines. Therefore I want to make it perfectly crystal clear, that because my wife has not been attending the Bradley Beach Congregation since 1998, and not reported statistics and hours in the door to door work, nor I for the last several years, and no elder nor Circuit Overseer has attempted to call on us during the last several years, therefore the elders mentioned here have absolutely no authority over me nor my wife, nor do we recognize any claim to authority that you may make in judgment over me and my family. This is a decision we have made due to health related issues, caused by the damaging way the elders have dealt with us over the years regarding the sexual abuse of our daughter, and your efforts to enforce silence, through threats of congregation discipline, and ultimately threats that God himself will kill us if we do not obey the elders direction from Headquarters, Legal Department. This has been well documented over the years by written correspondence, and court documents and statements of various elders and the Service, Legal, and Governing Body at Watchtower Headquarters in Brooklyn. We reject your pharisaical threatening tactics to "beat" us into submission because we have stood up for what is decent and right. We are not willing to meet with you since your previous actions towards us have not displayed pure motives and have not acted in the spirit of what is a normal religious community serving as an encouragement and source of refreshment. Therefore, we have no accountability to you. Under no circumstances are you, or any elder in Bradley Beach Congregation, nor any elder within the Watchtower Corporations, make any mention whatsoever about our status or lack of thereof as a Jehovah's Witness. Absolutely no talk to anyone, period! If it comes to light that any elder from the Bradley Beach Congregation, or any other elder from any congregation, or any elder from the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses (including its legal corporations, the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society of New York, Inc, the Watchtower Bible& Tract Society of Pennsylvania, Inc., The International Bible Students Association., or any others violates this demand, we will take the necessary steps to protect our good name of libel or slander. Do you understand this clearly? We have not spoken to anyone in the Bradley Beach Congregation, nor have they to us, nor do we have any intention to do so. We want to be quietly left alone without the Bradley Beach Congregation elders trying to slander our name. As for you elders if you leave us alone we will leave you alone. Do you understand this? Neither I nor my wife have had a falling a way of our faith, nor the teachings of the Bible, we are not guilty of Apostasy. We find it highly suspicious and that the motives of the elders have been impure, in that since we have not had any dealings with them in years, we are suddenly "invited " to a Judicial hearing the same weeks that the other 2 people who have granted an interview to Dateline exposing Watchtower cover-ups of sexual abuse of children. Although you have stated that the Judicial and Appeal hearings are spiritual in nature, it is evident that this is not the case. The fact that the Legal Dept. has been involved in these procedures, and the language used in these procedures, such as, "allegations", "available evidence" "presenting witnesses on your behalf" "appeal committee" is nothing short of religious, spiritual abuse perpetrated through legalistic, totalitarian, threatening posturing. This was evident when we learned that there was an entire body of elders at our Judicial Committee meeting on May 6, at the Kingdom Hall in Bradley Beach sitting in a circle. My wife and I and our daughter, Corinne dropped off the first letter and left, for as previously stated we do not recognize any authority you may believe you have over us. Again, I repeat, if any mention or announcement is made that even implies anything that tarnishes our good name, we will begin steps, legally towards each individual involved in this procedure, as well as towards the local congregations involved, and also the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society and it's corporations. I would like to remind you of the scripture in Romans 8:38 where it reads "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things now here, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor death, nor any other creation will be able to separate us from God's love that is in Christ Jesus, our Lord. Therefore, the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society and it's various real estate, and legal corporations, who's lawyers have made themselves above the angels and even Christ, himself, as our Mediator, cannot intimidate us through their un-Christian tactics and teachings of intolerance, messages of hate for outsiders, and death to non Witnesses. This is nothing short of the teachings of Bin Laden himself. - In closing, I deny any allegations of apostasy that you have charged us with. Anything you may believe you have been brought about by hearsay and resulting from the previous direction of Headquarters to charge us as well as others who were given letters to meet with their Judicial Committee on charges of apostasy for granting interviews to Dateline and the Associated Press. This is an obvious smear campaign perpetrated by the Legal Department through the local congregations of those of us who have spoken to Dateline about Watchtower's policies of protecting pedophiles, and silencing victims. The recent public statements by J.R. Brown from Headquarters in Brooklyn public relations, slandering our names by announcing statements that imply that we have committed gross sins linked with adultery, fornication, drunkenness, idolatry, and such are lies and libelous, and we demand a public apology. I nor my wife have committed no such acts and we hold responsible any elder who makes a public statement that defames or slanders our good name, or causes pain, and suffering to my family as a result of those lies. Our accusations still stand against Anthony Valenti, the Presiding Overseer of Hackensack East Congregation, who has admitted before a Judicial Committee for purge ring himself in depositions, and in the Courtroom. It sickens me that he has gotten away with this it is apostasy in it's purist form. It is revolting to me and my family that the Congregation in Hawthorne New Jersey where, the Pedophile, Clement Pandelo, our daughter's molesting grandfather who has molested victims all over the Circuit in North Jersey, and who appeared on Dateline, a pedophile going door to door, this congregation has newly appointed as Presiding Overseer, Barry Collova, the Pedophiles nephew, my cousin, who's own mother and sister were molested by Clement Pandelo. An elder who attended the trial of Clement Pandelo, and sat there in his behalf, sneering at my daughter and other victims while supporting the abuser, his uncle. This is proof that Headquarters in Brooklyn appoints elders whose incestuous ties with pedophiles help to protect the identity of sexual predators. Let it also be known that Barry Collova's Father, Ben Collova is also and elder on that Body, and has supported Clement Pandelo, even though he victimized his own wife and daughter. It also repulses me that the Bradley Beach Congregation is hiding sexual molestation, and has not reported it to the authorities, even though legally in the state of New Jersey they are obligated to do this. As long as this organization remains a haven for pedophiles, corruption, hiding behind real estate holdings, and lawyers directing policies to the congregations to protect these holdings. If Christ were here today, those in the Legal Dept. at Headquarters would be chased away along with those supporting the apostate behavior of the elder's who have gone along with them. ---------------------
Sincerely, Carl Pandelo Barbara Pandelo Corinne Pandelo Holloway Brett Pandelo Justin Pandelo

Hi all! I was on the watchtowerobserver site and they have a watchtower issue dated July 1st 2003. Does anyone know if the Date is just wrong or if this is a pretend watchtower - something someone thinks is going to happen? In Acts chapter 5 verse 1-11 it talks about a man and woman selling a possession and SECRETLY keeping back some of the money. When the husband came in he was told (not asked) You shouldn't have done this! He dropped dead. When the wife came in she was asked and lied, she dropped dead! Where were the two or three witnesses then? Just a thought BLM

The above isn't a very good 'thought' as I reflect back on it. sry! I guess I'm searching for answers, wanting to help. I was an abused child also. Not by a JW but I do know what abuse is, it's been my shadow for 33 years!, or more! The disfunction that abuse causes is almost unbearable! So my heart goes out to all of you that, not only were severely abused but the people you trusted with your spiritual life seems to have turned their backs to you! And that's even worse than the physical abuse! To abuse one's flesh is nothing compared to abusing ones spirit! None of you are alone with your suffering! And I am so so sorry!! BLM

What I am wondering is where are the parents? Why are these children alone with the priests to be molested? And why don't the parents teach their children that if someone touches them in certain ways, hit them, smack them, kick them. Since these children are not doing that, parents are not teaching them right. They should be teaching them to get violent when it happens, not report something later to the police.

Having read comments of both victims of abuse as well as those who are interested in providing assistance, it is important to explore all possible options, including the legal system. The dynamics that come into play in abuse cases, without exception, is control and robbing a person of their personal power. While none of us are immune to singular attack, continuous victimization is another matter entirely. I speak from experience so please do not take mistake the intent of anything I state in this posting. Abuse is a societal problem, not a religious one. Therefore, the solutions must come from outside the religious ranks. For any person who wishes to remain in the congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses and who may be attending the same meetings as the abuser, you are not without options. There is no necessity placed upon you to broadcast and to put your acquaintances in the position of taking sides, no, this would discredit or invalidate your efforts. You can petition the legal system for protection. Any minor who has experienced abuse falls under the protection of the legal system. Seek out an attorney and check your options to obtain a restraining order. A restraint would prevent an abuser from being within so many feet of you and from being able to make contact with you. Following your visit with legal counsel, you may have the leverage of then going to the abuser, informing, him/her that you have sought legal advice and that is within your right to take the next step. In response to the question of "where are the parents" while the abuse is going on, in many cases I think the parents are lulled into a false sense of security because of what is taught from the platform and what is printed in the Watchtower. This is something I would like to see changed. We hear from the platform how wonderful things are, how we live in a spiritual paradise surrounded by loving, caring brothers and sisters, but the reality is that we are in a building with a bunch of imperfect people. Some of them are really trying to do what is right, and some of them, like everywhere else, are seeing what they can get away with, and some people are actively evil. My mom, bless her, had a very tough, abusive childhood and she trusted no one. She raised me to be careful of every human being I came in contact with, and I'm trying to raise my children the same way. I know of a sister, however, who was profoundly shocked when I told her that (1) I didn't trust a lot of people, Witness or not, to babysit my kids, and (2) that my father-in-law, who abused my husband when he was a child, was a ministerial servant in good standing. "Jehovah's Witnesses would NEVER do that!" was her incredulous reply. Uh, excuse me, but, yeah, they would! At assemblies we're told to watch our purses because people "with impure motives" (don't you love that phrase?) may be among us.
The Kingdom Hall is no different. I think it's confusing, especially for the children, to hear how wonderful we are and how we should trust our brothers, and then have Mommy say, no, you can't play at so-and-so's house because their mom told me that their dad slammed the 2-year-old against the wall one night because he was mad at their mom, and she's in denial and thinks it was all her fault anyway. Love and peace to all, Christina Scott

I have to break with you. I can't keep coming here; it's too depressing......God's help is all around you. Avail yourself. A break from the WTS is NOT a break with God. My best wishes to you. I will continue to pray for you, and whenever the opportunity presents itself, I will be supporting you. But you are in a cult. And breaking with a cult is HARD to do. There is a point at which I am no longer a help to you and the situation is now becoming hurtful to me. I am at that point. So I am saying 'good-bye'. I will hold you in my prayers. It is now all that I can do. My best to each of you. Get out of the WTS - it is a bad and evil thing. It has hurt you and it will continue to hurt you if you allow it. At some point, you can't help it. But at another point, one has to consider that you are becoming a party to your own injury and that of your children. FLEE! There are lots of places to flee to. Not a single one of them is 'perfect' so always keep your eyes open and keep your head. Perfect is for Christ. You're one of us. Come, and be loved in the love of God.
They demand and fully expect that people 'in the truth' tattle on each other. (No wonder their relationships are shallow and inconsequential) They demand and fully expect that you keep silent on criminal matters or they will kick you out for slander.

YES I E-MAILED OPRAH AND 20/20!!!!!! TO the person who said it's only one-sided at this site- well, maybe it is because some have never been able to TELL THEIR SIDE!!! Or no one believed what they were saying. If you want the other side the internet has many other sites and you don't have to read any of them you don't want to. The people here don't need the other side's opinion or "facts"--- WE LIVED THE OTHER SIDE!!! We are here to let those who are still afraid or still feel they are the only ones- that it is not the case and to not feel afraid because they have done nothing wrong!!!! If you want the other side- go to THEIR web site, I am sure it wouldn't be hard to find!!!!! Thank you Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

I SPOKE TO BILL a couple of days ago, and he said it would be easier to contact local news media. The larger ones get a lot of mail so if the issue isn't a priority it is looked over. We can make it a priority if we get news media all over the country or world saying the same thing!!!! You have people from everywhere telling a similar story, and they don't know each other- will raise some attention!!! We all need to be willing to support each other and get this snowball and turn it into an AVALANCHE!!!!!!! If they want to turn the other cheek- give them no more cheeks to turn!!!!!!! If they won't listen, do like a parent to a child-make them listen. They are ones throwing the tantrum since they didn't get what they wanted--silence!!! It has only just begun and it is up to each and everyone of us who want a change,JW or ex-JW, to see there is a change. We need the spotlight on and not to let it dim in the days that pass. KEEP TALKING!!!!!!!!!!!!!! To anyone that will listen. You know we will listen here--- take it outside!!!!!!! Love Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

I read where the jw's god was called an "asshole." (paraphrased) I see your point but here it is another way. (I think God will understand) To JW's: "Every time you call me of Satan's world, a goat, and every other foul name that you will use in the future...It is hateful. Your goal is to make your children hate and fear me even though they do not know me nor have they ever met me. But hate me they will...Your talk about hating everyone and spreading that emotion of loathing. After which you then cry about being persecuted and how the outside world shows you no respect." Well here it is..."If your god is going to persecute me in this world and the next then I will have to find another GOD!" My hope is that for those who are suffering here because of power hungry fools; that they don't have to sacrifice faith to achieve independence.

What does the term 'borg' mean? Does it stand for something? Is it short for something?

"Borg" is from the US TV series "Star Trek - Next Generation" and is a reference to a race of mechanically enhanced creatures (cyBORGs?) who go about the galaxy "assimilating" other species (forcing them to become "Borg"). They run around in giant cube-shaped space ships telling their victims "We are Borg. You will be assimilated. Resistance is futile." The newly "assimilated" species becomes of one mind with the Borg collective and no longer has any individuality.

Jesika Thoman , I am the person who posted the Bryan case and posted my opinion about this website being "one sided". I have gone on many different websites in the past few months to research, open mindedy, the Child Abuse allegations against the WTS and other Religions. The CATHOLIC ABUSE SCANDAL is what triggered my curiosity..............You said “NEVER BEEN ABLE TO TELL THEIR SIDE” ......Why not? ...... If they had PROOF of a crime, then go to the proper authorities, the POLICE. I would not leave it in the hands of any religious organization to that for me. It is my duty as a parent to protect my child, something these parents were unable to do, especially if they had the EVIDENCE. ................. If the WTS or someone else broke the law, then take them to COURT.....Don't sit around and complain, do something about it............If you have the evidence of any wrong doing, then go to COURT........ Just like all the victims of the CATHOLIC ABUSE SCANDAL. They did not see around, but took them to COURT with the evidence in hand and won...................."WE LIVED THE OTHER SIDE"?????????............
If, YOU are included in the “WE LIVED THE OTHER SIDE”, did you take the evidence and sue them??????? Is the person who abused you in JAIL? We all have seen the EVIDENCE in the CATHOLIC ABUSE SCANDAL and the MONEY involved...... Don't take what I am saying in the wrong why, I just think everyone who keeps posting the abuse stories should find a Lawyer , and sue the WTS , if they did commit a crime. . Its that simple!!!!! .......Well thanks for you response.....Oh, by the way, what RELIGION are you associated with?????IF YOU DON'T MIND ME ASKING ...........Angel31

Angel31 - you're absolutely right, up to a point. But you have much, much to learn about the lying, deceiving, controlling and manipulative ways of the WTS. One thing about Catholics - when caught and exposed, they confess and are appropriately humiliated and reconciled (and pressured) to submit to punishment, to take action and to vow to do better. NOT JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES! Like an anti-social and abusive spouse, their move in the face of their own scandal is to deny, circumvent, distract, counter-attack and ignore. They use every means they can find to gather their manipulated flock around them and to pressure them to contribute their support. Right or wrong. They are unconscionable. If this helps...try to imagine an entire population made up of carbon-copies of Cardinal Law and Jerry Springer. Now YOU, try to fight them. It can be done in a court of law. But don't forget that you can't count on ANYONE you know who knows them to speak the truth. Not family members, not acquaintances, not religious leaders. Law or no law, you're on your own. See? It's not as cut and dried simple as you think.

To Angel31....Your comments might be understandable with most religions, but not with Jehovah's Witnesses. That is a completely different story. By the way, I am Linda Thoman, Jesika's aunt. Being raised as a witness, you are "programmed" almost like a robot that things are NOT discussed, accusations CANNOT be made against another without "two witnesses present", and those that do report to the authorities or continue to discuss their particular problem/abuse, etc are quickly kicked out of the organization. You simply do not understand the depth of the problem within Jehovah's Witnesses. I recommend that you do some research into the religion's practices regarding speaking out. That is why many who post their stories here and on other ex-jw sites do not leave their real names. Being kicked out of the organization is a highly fearful thing for witnesses, as it renders you "DEAD" to everyone you know, including your immediate witness families! Linda Thoman Linthoman0705@aol.com I am NOT in fear.

TO ANGEL 31: Please don't get mad. I am not a silent lamb but I can relate to them because when I was 10, I almost got molested by someone. But my family moved out of the place in time so I didn't have to go through what Jessika or other victims had to and are still going through. Child molesters many times, as I understand, don't leave big obvious physical evidence like brutal rape. My molester started as little as just saying, "You are cute!". Each time he visited, he went more and more. When you say, "evidence", what kind of evidence are you talking about? His fingerprint on the child's body? His semen in and on the child's body? These are THE EVIDENCE, but can the body of elders collect all these? Who is supposed to collect these evidence? The parents? The child? ONLY THE DOCTORS AND NURSES AT THE HOSPITAL CAN!!!! But if you go to the hospital, and they see the evidence of rape or molestation, what do you think they are going to do? Yes, call the police. The policy/ guide line by the Society was not "Go to the hospital first", but "Go to the elder and don't call the police." Can you imagine, Angel 31, seeing your child being psychologically and emotionally so damaged that she/he needs constant assistance for the rest of his/her life, and the molester, just because he said,"sorry", getting away with it, pioneering, promoted to a MS or even Elder, getting married with children, and live happily ever after? I am 33. Even thought I was not told to not tell anyone, I couldn't because of shame and horror....until now. I just told my mom a few weeks ago, and she was shocked. She is still a faithful witness, and said to me that I should forget about it, and that it should be o.k. since the Society changed the policy. SHOULD IT? I DON'T HEAR ANY EVEN APOLOGY FROM THEM TO THE VICTIMS. When I mentioned it to a sister, she said,"Maybe there is nothing to apologize." After all these victims and their outcry? Well, I guess Jehovah has been listening these ones. For your information, I still believe in Jehovah God, and Jesus Christ as the Son and our mediator. No, I'm not belonging to any other church. I am a Jehovah's Witness in my heart.

TO ANGEL 31---Hi it's Jesika again. You made mention of stop complaining and do something about it---- I AM!!!!!!! I have been talking to lawyers and am involved in something that will be in the media very soon. I can not say where right now, but afterwards I will share my experience! I am an ex-JW and I was thrown out 11yrs ago. I have not decided on another religion and have not prayed in yrs because I don't feel I am heard. Maybe because of my many prayers when I was a child and the abuse didn't stop!! I am the one who is doing everything I can to change this-for myself and everyone who has been told not to tell anyone--I will tell everyone!!!! I am not complaining--just relating with the thousands who have gone through the same thing. I have e-mailed at least 4 or 5 different media personalities and will contact my local media on my return ( I will be out of town pursuing this with others). The only way this will change is if we make them take accountability. I doubt we will ever hear the words "we were wrong-or-sorry" but we need to change it cause it is the right thing to do. To make them encourage members to go to the police, instead of taking extreme measures within against you if you do. These are only a few things that need changing!! Just to make sure everyone was listening----I AM DOING SOMETHING ABOUT IT!!!!! Love Jesika

To ANGEL 31--- I forgot to address the comment of the other side I had made. I just wanted to make it clear, I didn't mean the other side being sexually abused, what I meant was being a Jehovah's Witness. I know what their policy is and how I felt-being trapped and having flashbacks or nightmares and being told I was only try to get attention. That is what I meant by I have been on the other side. One can only wonder how the FBI would react if they knew that such files of criminal activity exist, and that the majority of molestation accusations are not reported to the authorities for investigation. Finally, how easily could the American justice system handle prosecution of several thousand Jehovah's Witness pedophiles? These questions, as well as others, will become a factor when the "Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses" is forced to reveal how many of the alleged 23,720 criminals are being protected by Watchtower policies. Very good questions. Have you notified the secular authorities? Pedophiles are domestic terrorists. The removal of pedophiles from the "Christian Congregation of Jehovah’s Witnesses" needs to be addressed in the manner that President Bush is going after the international terrorists. Don't you agree?

To Angel31...this is Linda Thoman again, Jesika's aunt. It is not my intention to sound mean here, but your comments above clearly indicate a tremendous ignorance regarding the subject of Jehovah's Witnesses. Your question to Jesika about what religion she talking about, also shows ignorance on your part regarding the reason for this site. If I may school you for just a minute? Please take some time and look at the home page here on silentlamb. It will become clear to you that this site is (although anyone who has been abused or has an opinion may post on this board) specifically in regards to the Jehovah's Witness Organization. It is clear that you are not knowledgeable about this organization/religion, and your comments to just go to the police etc, causes many of us including myself to sit and shake our heads as we read your comments, since it is obvious you have no idea what you are talking about. It is not a simple case here of running to the police etc, or telling your parents someone has touched you, raped you, molested you, etc. Witnesses are programmed to do exactly as they are told by the higher-ups in New York, known as the Governing Body. In layman's terms, this group of men are the proverbial Judge, Jury and Executioner, ready and willing and virtually ANXIOUS to hand down their sentence. ANYONE who speaks out about being abused is sentenced to DEATH in a sense. No one, and boy do I ever mean NO ONE, will talk to you, not even your own immediately witness family. You are rendered DEAD to everyone you ever knew and felt a kinship with. We learn at a very young age not to ever question anything, not to ever doubt anything, but to do as you are told. Anyone who even hints that they have a slightly differing view of what is taught is immediately targeted for a "judicial hearing" with the congregation big shots. And let me tell ya, if the person doesn't immediately retract everything they said, and say they agree with everything taught to them, they can fully expect the verdict will be to kick them out, "disfellowshipped" is the term witnesses use. Being disfellowshipped=DEAD. Get it? Linda Thoman Linthoman0705@aol.com

6/28/02 Thank you for taking a stand regarding this troubling issue. I was shocked, hurt and embarrassed by the Dateline story... though I laugh at myself for feeling that way. I have been disfellowshipped for 5 years because I stepped away due to feelings of self-doubt and self-worth. I was molested at age 18 by a well known pioneer sister who continues in the pioneer service, bethel expansion work and substitute circuit work with her elder husband to this very day. At age 23 when I brought the info. forward to the elders, I was ostracized and nearly disfellowshipped, placed on restrictions etc. She was not restricted, was not removed as a pioneer and was told that since she said that her prayers had not been hindered and that she was currently holding 12 bible studies, that Jehovah had obviously already forgiven her. I was technically an adult at 18, but brand new in the truth, and very easily manipulated at the time. I have never fully recovered and it wasn't until 5 years ago at age 37 that I stopped blaming myself and understood that I was victimized. I also know of a least 4 other cases throughout the years where I have been close enough to the people involved where I have had to watch young children or young teenagers deal with suffering abuse at the hands of brothers or sisters (most of whom were servants, elders or pioneers) and seen them then be doubly victimized when no action is taken to "remove the wicked man from among" them. I continue to believe the truth, have never been one to speak against it, and I also believe that the society is Jehovah's agent to disburse the truth during our time of the end. BUT the policies regarding child abuse are in serious need of over-haul and the victims need help and support. Again... thank you for your efforts to this end. I have just finished reading a post from a person who said to Bill "do not lose faith in Jehovah's organization because there is nothing else out there". How wrong you are. My salvation does not come from the corporate style structure of the Watchtower society. Mans religion does not equal Gods salvation plan. Those who put trust in man made arrangements will have the same disappointments as an Enron or Worldcom. It is only the blood shed by Jesus Christ that truly brings sinful man into Gods favor. The more I read the Gospels and the book of Acts and the Letters and Revelation, the more I know that I am safe in Gods arms. Put your faith in Him, not some men in New York or Rome.

Dear Penny: It is really important to take care of yourself. I have Post Trauma Stress, and sleep is one of the first signs that I have to cut back fast and keep it real simple. I also become easily startled, bad stuff. I have been thinking of you and hoping that you are okay. There are plenty of people fighting for you, so you can just take care of you. I had a strange experience. I have had disabling, I mean disabled!, anxiety for my whole adult life. Last year because of some pretty awful stuff, I was unable to sleep ONE NIGHT. Immediately I went to emergency and they gave me Ambien - three to four days later the anxiety was gone, gone gone. I only took 5 pills in 4 days, and that is all. I was really really freaked out about something that had happened and I remember making this conscience decision to not let it get to me inside, at who I am. I prayed a lot too. Whatever did it, the anxiety finally stopped. I live a simple life and I don't let anyone near me that does not respect me or I don't feel safe with. I don't apologize for this either. I have to take care of me first. I am also a lot older than you and have many many years of working on this. Rest, rest, and more rest. I mean shut it down rest. Good movies help, time alone helps, a good novel, gardening, doing something that is useful, a good friend who knows first hand what you are going through and have faith in God that he will help you. You cannot think about this all the time. You must find other things to think about - one moment at a time. A good memory or a good hope, keep replacing thoughts if you can, when you can. But mostly rest and keep yourself from anything that will trigger you. Become aware of what your triggers are and then respect them. I know you feel like I do that you have missed out on some real important things in life. I grieved a lot and do all the time. But I have come to realize that there is a lot of hype out there about this and that. And the bottom line is to love God and all his beautiful critters, stars, flowers and even the bugs. He loves you Penny and no one is greater to receive love from than God. God wants you to take care of yourself and get well and you will. He gave you silentlambs and don't forget that. Okay???? Rest. from C.E.

Subject: AP JW molester in the news -------------------------- The Associated Press State & Local Wire -------- June 24, 2002, Monday, BC cycle -------- SECTION: State and Regional -------- HEADLINE: Conviction upheld in child molestation case -------- DATELINE: CONCORD, N.H. -------- The state Supreme Court on Monday refused to throw out a Hollis man's conviction on child molestation charges. -------- Gregory Blackstock was convicted early last year of sexually assaulting a young girl in 1999, while working as a handyman for the girl's uncle and living with her aunt and uncle in East Kingston during the week. -------- He also was convicted in a separate case of molesting the girl's twin cousins. He had befriended the family while attending a Jehovah's Witness church in East Kingston. ---- -------- Blackstock appealed the first conviction, arguing that prosecutors did not prove he had touched the 9-year-old girl's genitals. She testified he put his hand inside her pants and touched her between her legs, in an area prosecutors called her "private parts." -------- He also said the trial judge ruled incorrectly that if he was allowed to ask the girl's aunt whether she was upset with him, the aunt could say why she was upset: Because he had confessed to church elders that he also molested her daughters. -------- Blackstone wanted the aunt's testimony limited to saying that she was upset with him in a matter involving her family, so the jury would not know he was accused of molesting other young girls. -------- The aunt was a key witness in the first trial because Blackstock told her he had touched her niece, although he claimed it was accidental. (YEAH, RIGHT!!! Accidental My Foot!!bg) - -------- The court ruled Monday the jury could reasonably conclude that when the girl testified he touched her private parts between her legs, he touched her genitals. -------- Associate Justice James Duggan also said the trial judge's decision regarding the aunt's testimony was fair. -------- "To permit the defendant to elicit the fact that the aunt was biased against the defendant based on undefined 'bad feelings' could create a false or misleading impression concerning the reasons for the aunt's bias," Duggan wrote in the 4-0 decision. -------- Blackstock is serving five to 10 years in prison in that case, and an additional 10 to 20 years on three counts of sexually assaulting the twin girls. He was convicted of molesting the twins even though a judge ruled his conversations with church elders were confidential and the elders could not be compelled to testify. -------- In an unrelated case, he is accused of sexually assaulting a Hollis girl between 1989 and 1996.

Dear "Age 33", My heart is with you. As soon as I think I am over the worst of all the abuse, and dealing with it, then I read a story like yours, and I just want to SCREAM all over again at the IGNORANCE OF PEOPLE!!! i.e. your mother and the sister you mentioned! (Same thing happened in my family, so please don't feel alone). It just INFURIATES ME what these people say in their ignorance! If you have the guts for it, I would ask your Mom to sit down ONCE A WEEK, and RE-TELL HER EVERY WEEK UNTIL SHE ACKNOWLEDGES & VALIDATES WHAT YOU ARE SAYING. Evidently she (as most Moms) went right into DENIAL when you told her. It makes me sick! -- Yes, our comfort IS IN KNOWING, WITHOUT A DOUBT, that JEHOVAH HEARS US LOUD & CLEAR! Dear Robin Gosney Redding/Anderson Californiam who was victimized at age 18 by a pioneer sister... -- Thank you for sharing your story and we're glad you could find a safe place to unload. That is brave of you to give your name. That is REALLY SOMETHING about the sister, that due to HER hours and amount of Bible studies, SHE was BELIEVED rather than you. It is sickening to the heart. I do NOT understand how anybody can continue on, being a hypocrite like that. I am so glad you finally understand YOU ARE GOOD PEOPLE, NOT YOUR FAULT, JEHOVAH SAW & SEES. You are NOT ALONE. Now that the pedophile issue has become public, what if you went back and told the elders again NOW that you are older, stronger? Have you thought of confronting your abuser? It is a scary thought, but it IS GOOD FOR THE SOUL, when one is ready to handle it, either by phone, write a letter, or in person, whatever. You can say,"I KNOW WHAT YOU DID, JEHOVAH KNOWS, etc." -- Thanks for sharing. I cheer all of you for your strength, endurance, bravery and for KEEPING YOUR FAITH/LOVE OF JAH & HIS SON, JESUS CHRIST, through it all. -- With love, SLC

The post from CE was SO EXCELLENT I have to repost some of her excellent points. These "12 COMMANDMENTS FOR SURVIVORS by CE" we should all post on our walls. I liked these the best: -------- (1) I live a simple life and I don't let anyone near me that does not respect me or I don't feel safe with. (2) I don't apologize for this either. (3) I have to take care of me first. (4) Rest, rest, and more rest. (5) I mean shut it down rest. (6) Good movies help, time alone helps, a good novel, gardening, doing something that is useful, a good friend who knows first hand what you are going through and have faith in God that he will help you. (7) You cannot think about this all the time. You must find other things to think about - one moment at a time. (8) A good memory or a good hope, keep replacing thoughts if you can, when you can. (9) Keep yourself from anything that will trigger you. (10) Become aware of what your triggers are and then respect them. (11) The bottom line is to love God and all his beautiful critters, stars, flowers and even the bugs. (12) God wants you to take care of yourself and get well and you will. ----------- Thank you CE! Love SLC

Dear TEARS: You are very welcome for the convention-list-link. And, my dear, OF COURSE we recognize you. YOU ARE NOT INVISIBLE. Feeling invisible or making ourselves invisible is an aftereffect of abuse. I am so glad you are keeping your faith in Jehovah and His Son. Like you, he has never let me down before either. You write/express yourself in an excelling way. I like the way you write. Yes, I truly hope the brothers and sisters still at the K halls will be "girded up" as you say, and the "code of silence" will fall away like the scales on Paul's eyes... Love, SLC ----------

------------------------ TEARS WROTE: Thanks for the convention list. Thanks for the recognition that I spoke. I am not sure where Jehovah leads from here, but I await His guidance. He has never failed me before. I am chomping at the bit to get back to the hall and here what is going on though! I feel it is unbelievable all the posts claiming "apostasy", yet 'the blind follow the blind so they both fall into the pit'! I know many brothers and sisters DO believe, even if fear is keeping them silent, but at the right time Jehovah himself will 'gird them up'. Thanks again, Tears

Thanks, SLC! Just to make it clear, my molester was NOT a witness. My mom said that since he wasn't a witness, I should forget about it and shouldn't mind about the WTS's policy. I think not.......Age 33. um....maybe I should have a different name than my age up there. I don't want you to remember exactly how old I am. ;-)p

LATEST FROM SILENT LAMBS: And, for the person who posted earlier about "Why doesn't everybody DO something instead of talking?" Well, read this and GET A CLUE! /SLC ---------- From: "silentlambs" <info@silentlambs.org> Date: Sat, 29 Jun 2002 00:33:16 -0500 To: <info@silentlambs.org> Subject: World Wide Work Monies Spent to Protect Pedophiles ------------- World Wide Work Monies Spent to Protect Pedophiles -------------

As many may know in January of this year Erica Rodriguez/Garza filed a lawsuit against Jehovah's Witness headquarters for the gross mishandling of her and her family after reporting the convicted child molester Manuel Beliz. When the initial case was filed it was inadvertently misfiled under the wrong statute for the courts in Washington State. The Jehovah's Witnesses hired local law firms to assist in defending their position against Erica. What is their position? Manuel Beliz is innocent of all charges. In a written statement submitted by Watchtower attorneys, Brother Beliz has declared his innocence by stating, "I am innocent of all false charges" and Watchtower is using his written statement as a basis to call Erica a liar once again. It is interesting to note in the court transcript Brother Beliz confessed to two law officers his molestation of Erica. The presiding overseer of Beliz's congregation, John White, indicated in earlier court testimony that Beliz was disfellowshipped for child molestation. Now Watchtower attorneys wish to use the lies of a confessed child molester to defend their case against Erica? ----------
-In the course of making the adjustment for the filing under the proper statutes, the original filing was dismissed as the new documents were filed. What was the reaction of Watchtower? They requested close to $7,000 in lawyer fees to compensate them for the misfiled case. That means they can provide documentation to the Judge of spending $7,000 in fees to defend Manuel Beliz from being sued by Erica. Where did this money come from to begin with? The donations you send for the “World Wide Work” of Jehovah’s Witnesses. Thousands and thousands of “donated” monies are spent each year to defend Jehovah’s Witness child molesters as the victims not only suffer in silence but are financially drained by the abuse of unlimited “World Wide Work” funds being donated to the Jehovah’s Witness organization. The deep pockets provided by these “funds” are a formidable foe to overcome when an abuse survivor endeavors to seek justice due to the terrible abuse they have suffered at the hands of Watchtower Policy.

--- Will Erica and her attorneys have to actually pay the $7,000 legal bill submitted by Watchtower? The answer is no. Typically no judge would allow such a nasty, mean spirited “fee” to be frivolously applied to a person who is coming forward with such a legitimate lawsuit. It appears once again the “pedophile paradise” comment made on Dateline is still very alive and well within the Jehovah’s Witness community. Pedophiles now have literally millions of dollars in “donated” funds at their disposal if they simply will become a baptized Jehovah’s Witness. Even if they confess to molesting children, the church is more than happy to spend any amount necessary to prevent molestation survivors from being compensated.

The bottom line is that JW’s care more about their OWN salvation than any other person’s. More than their spouse, more than their family, more than their own children. And they have the cold-hearted, ignorant GALL to believe that God does, too.

I would add one more to the list of commandments....JOURNAL.....anxiety can make the same thoughts come up over and over and over. It FEELS like they are ENDLESS. But they are not. Organize things in whatever way you like. But you might want to write down, what - physically - happened. The actual event. Then explore your feelings, how you felt about it, how you feel about it, how you fear or anticipate or wish that you might feel in the future, how you WANT to feel, etc., etc., etc., WHENEVER something comes up, write it down.....It is a very comforting and calming feeling to reach the point where you can now say that EVERYTHING is in these pages. And to realize that tho this event has impacted your life tremendously, it is not ALL that is your life. It is a part of your life. Only one tragic part. Life, even your life, is bigger than that. And now, you are living each day and each moment in a place that is 'beyond' that event. My best to you.

Brother from Tahoe Park: This site is not just about reform of the WTS. This place is for the silentlambs to use this site anyway they want to.  Some people are having trouble just getting through one moment at a time. New stories are coming in everyday,- everyday. This is a place for the lambs to SCREAM with outrage. This is a place of ENCOURAGEMENT to speak out. The main theme also is to let people who thought THEY WERE THE ONLY ONES, to find out they were not. This is the beginning of SANITY.*Without sanity one can do nothing.Your word "blowhard" is rude and insensitive to the needs of the silentlambs. NO ONE CARES WHAT THE WTS THINKS ABOUT THIS SITE. IT IS NOT HERE TO IMPRESS THEM!!why do you want to intimidate people here????????????????? I personally don't want one silent lamb to be "bullied" with intimidation, ESPECIALLY FROM A BROTHER, the lambs have had enough of that.cLAUDINE

My molester/rapist was not a JW either, but since I was a JW myself, I still feel DEEPLY ATTACHED TO THIS CAUSE. Jehovah can use us too, if we let Him. If I may take a guess: Your Mom wants YOU to forget about it SO SHE CAN FORGET ABOUT IT. (It's my guess some Moms don't want to think about it 'cuz it makes them feel too guilty/responsible, etc.). RIGHT ON SISTER CHEERLEADER! from Claudine
Dear CE thanks so much for the encouragement I woke up from a good night of sleep i hope some how we can stay in touch if u want to my email is kingskid2004@juno.com would love to hear from you it helps to have people to talk to sometimes today i am resting and just enjoying life am finding out to God i am someone special that's a good feeling Penny

SCL hey thanks for the encouragement too and sometimes it is nice hearing we are loved especially when u haven't heard it growing up if u wanna stay in touch please feel free too take care Penny

Dear PENNY & ALL SILENTLAMBS;;;;;;; I LOVE ALL OF YOU ;;; You are always in my prayers. I know what it is like to be silenced.When I was WRONGLY DISFELLOWSHIPPED,I did not know that I was going to be DF'd,my family was at the meeting that night, I was at work, my sister called & told me how upset she was!!!!, when they made the announcement.I immediately left work, went home & called the man in charge, & asked him WHY he did this to me?? he did not have the answer. after about an hour & 15 min. he said [ I GUESS YOU HAD A BAD ATTITUDE ] So 20 yrs later, when I got myself REINSTATED I was told never ever to tell my SECRET to anyone not even other ELDERS,or I would be DF'd again BUT THEY WOULD TELL ME [ FIRST ] this time!!!!!!!!!.So you see honey, the TRUTH will set us FREE. JEHOVAH GOD knows we are telling the truth Time enables us, to heal from our sorrow, but we will never forget,It has been a long and lonely road we travel,a terrible injustice has been committed and it will be made known.I was an ADULT and could not deal with it... I can only imagine what it would do to a CHILD. May you all have some of my strength, because all of this, has made me a very STRONG person.Fear of GOD is GOOD, FEAR OF MAN IS VERY VERY DESTRUCTIVE TO THE HEART & SOUL & VERY VERY WRONG!!!! MY LOVE TO EVERY ONE OF YOU. Searchi50@aol.com

DEAR SLC---- Hi,it's Jesika. I thank you for your response. I am trying to do everything I can. There are things I am involved in currently that I can not disclose at this time. I will after the fact. The ones who told me my flashbacks and nightmares were a means of getting attention came from my parents. My mom in inactive and has since then retracted that statement. She now knows it was real. My father is still active (they are divorced now-he had an affair with a married sis. in the same cong. who he is now married to!!!!) To the one time user comment you made about me feeling defensive--I felt I needed to enlighten whoever had posted to me,since they obviously did not understand what this site is about. I will be in touch. Thanks again SLC Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

Hi there is no end to the hurt the WT caused to people and is still causing everywhere. Child molestation sexual abuse etc. is only one aspect of it all though a very tragic one. There are other hurts associated with deception false prophesying (unfulfilled promises) destroyed families. There is absolutely no end to the guilt of WT. I often wonder about the possibility of bringing the WT Society to Court in a type of CLASS SUITE in US and Canada. There are more than adequate number of us that are anxious to support this idea to it's realization. I personably know many just in my area that are praying for that! I also wonder if it would be appropriate to mention those elders that caused us harm by name in our communications. Many would be warned and protected by this simple act! That's what I would like to do but maybe that is illegal. Could someone comment on that please? Rmnk

Regarding the 'Why don't you do something?' comment.....go to watchtowerinformationservice.org. Click on the tab for psychological issues 'Psychological'. Read the paper on Child Custody. (It blows my mind to learn that about HALF of all child custody hearings in the country involve J.W.s).....This it a GREAT paper. WHY is the 'Author Unknown'???????? To the 'do something' person, see how bizarre things get around JWs?????

TO RMNK---- The Class Suit you referred to has been mentioned by others in earlier posts. I have been involved in talking to lawyers about my own case and others close to me. I will be in contact with a lawyer the beginning of this week, so I will ask about the Class Suit and what all it would require to do so. As far as mentioning the names of elders in your communications, I would suggest you contact a lawyer in your area to see what the pros and cons might be. It may vary from state to state, but it would be in your best interest to get all the facts before you proceed. I will post the results of my conversation with the lawyer in regards to the Class Suit. I will probably post on Wed. Thanks Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

Linda T- I would like to comment on what you said. I have dealt with the JW DF’d issues for a very long time. One thing I have learned is that if you are DF’d by the KH bullies; and do not plan to crawl back to those who are still crying "the sky is falling," if they act as if you are dead it is the best thing for you. It is so much worse to try to have a relationship with people or groups that will not respect personal boundaries. It is not the shunning itself that is painful, it is how JW's are forced to implement it (Even if they do not want to.). JW's work to HURT you. My personal experience is they work as a collective to do it. They know that the best way to do that is to hurt those who love you. All dictatorships do this. (By dictatorship I mean any society where individuals have no rights, no constitution, and are a the mercy of a small group of elitists.) You know, "if the JW (WTS) government ever gains true power it would be hell on earth." The way they work is so similar to most of the Islamic world. Study how they (Islamic law) treat the people in that world. Look at how they treat women, children, and anyone who does not submit mind and body to their versions of the deity. Anyway I will get off target if I say too much........People have commented on nightmares. Have any of the dreams been about spiders? Big scary spiders after you and the ones you love…You awake and are convinced they are real and might even scream and rip the covers off your bed?....Anyone?? SLC-The "borg" (Star Trek) represent a very powerful "group society" that is seeking the perfection of sentient life (Perfection according to and meaning them exclusively.). They see "individualism" as irrelevant and have no respect of it what so ever. If any "drone" is separated from the collective it ceases to function. It even goes into withdrawal due to the severing from the "Commonality." If you have been in the hive too long and are separated you are programmed to die rather than live outside the collective. They have a central "Queen-mother" that controls all functions of the borg collective and the drones do whatever she commands without question. Any defection from within or resistance from the outside is crushed with totalitarian idealism and zeal. The greatest threat to the borg is fact that individuals can keep their individuality and work as a collective. A borg collective thinks with a uniform "one mind," individual collectives think with many minds "as one" working in unity. -Sequia//////////P.S. I hope that you all know how much I respect you all for coming here and sharing your thoughts. I did not realize how many survivors of JW mistreatment (criminal and ethical) there are out here. I know that many books have been recommended I am adding one. Steven Hassan "Releasing The Bonds." Give it to families you know of that have people in "The club." It a book that is for everyone, (As JW illnesses affect entire families and not just individuals.)

I don't think it's fair to compare Jehovah's Witnesses with the Catholic Church. You need to remember that the Catholic Church is the result of Constantine's absorption of the last few remaining Christian bishops and pagan leaders who combined Christian and pagan beliefs, honed them to make Christians happy and the Catholic Church began to be formed. From her, the major Orthodox religions sprang forth. All of them respecting each one's "territories" but not much different from the other. These represent the great apostasy that took place after the death of the apostles. Their RECORD is that of violating Jehovah God's laws and principles and teaching false religion and traditions of men. It is my opinion that there are a number who would like to see some of the changes you are trying to effect. The world headquarters needs to become more involved with the "local" matters. Moses and Solomon handled the disputes and matters OF THE PEOPLE. Where would they have ended up in the desert if Moses didn't HANDLE, not wait on Jehovah God to resolve, these disputes? Would Solomon have gained high repute if he didn't WISELY know how to handle the dispute between the two women and one baby? There is much frustration for people who seek resolutions to matters only to find no one is willing to truly listen and make just decisions. Catholic priests are also guilty of having sex with girls and women. Ezekiel's book tells us that Jehovah's organization is going to be suffering the SIDE EFFECTS of what this old system is undergoing in these last days. All I can say is, if THESE are the SIDE EFFECTS, I would HATE to know what is REALLY going on in this old system. We are also living in times when Jehovah God is going to REVEAL EVERYTHING. No one is going to be able to hide ANYTHING. His organization and people are NOT exceptions. If we are not handling matters appropriately Jehovah God will know that we do not respect his arrangement for handling matters and we will not fare well -- at least not those who have disregarded and, thusly, shown gross disrespect for his arrangement. Remember what happened to Korah when they insisted on taking their matters to Jehovah God, himself! It's time, as an organization, we looked at ourselves for what we are -- all grown up with MILLIONS OF LIVES we are responsible for -- and we need to make changes that reflect a greater understanding of what Moses and Solomon stand before us as examples. We need to care about our people and we need to handle matters rather than expecting Jehovah to ultimately take care of everything. When HE does, he will know we DIDN'T and we will not fare well at all. Lest we want fire to rain down on us and the earth to open up and swallow us, we need to give ear to our critics -- especially those who are within our organization. However, since Jehovah God can make the one on the right to stand and the one on the left (and visa versa) to fall, it's comforting to know that HE has the discretion to not destroy all those with SINCERE HEARTS who WANT to do what is right and, at times, are thwarted by those who misrepresent, either willfully or inadvertently, his worship and instructions for HANDLING difficulties and problems among us. I only ask that YOU do not forget what your ORIGINAL MISSION was and you keep working to the end of agreeable changes from headquarters. Remember, you're dealing with PEOPLE. Jehovah God is not a "people" -- HE does not condone wrongdoing from anyone, ESPECIALLY not HIS OWN ORGANIZATION. If they don't listen, stay in the TRUTH but don't stand too close to those who don't listen and make appropriate changes.

These represent the great apostasy that took place after the death of the apostles. Their RECORD is that of violating Jehovah God's laws and principles and teaching false religion and traditions of men. Also, their atrocities over CENTURIES is a matter of HISTORICAL RECORD. Catholic priests are also guilty of having sex with girls and women. It is my opinion that there are a number who would like to see some of the changes you are trying to effect. The world headquarters needs to become more involved with the "local" matters. Moses and Solomon handled the disputes and matters OF THE PEOPLE. Where would they have ended up in the desert if Moses didn't HANDLE, not wait on Jehovah God to resolve, these disputes? Also, because there were so many matters of the people that needed handling, Jehovah God gave Moses, IMMEDIATELY, 70 older men to HELP HIM. This tells ME that Jehovah God EXPECTS AND SUPPORTS helping his people resolve issues effectively by those taking the lead among his people. Would Solomon have gained high repute if he didn't WISELY know how to handle the dispute between the two women and one baby? There is frustration for people who seek resolutions to matters only to find no one is willing to listen and truly make just suggestions for resolutions or decisions in personal matters. That translates to having no one to offer genuine guidance. It seems sort of CHICKEN, don't you think? Ezekiel's book tells us that Jehovah's organization is going to be suffering the SIDE EFFECTS of what this old system is undergoing in these last days. All I can say is, if THESE are the SIDE EFFECTS, I would HATE to know what is REALLY going on in this old system. We are also living in times when Jehovah God is going to REVEAL EVERYTHING. No one is going to be able to hide ANYTHING. His organization and people are NOT exceptions. If we are not handling matters appropriately Jehovah God will know that we do not respect his arrangement for handling matters and we will not fare well -- at least not those who have disregarded and, thusly, shown gross disrespect for his arrangement. Remember what happened to Korah when they insisted on taking their matters to Jehovah God, himself! It's time, as an organization, we looked at ourselves for what we are -- all grown up with MILLIONS OF LIVES we are responsible for -- and we need to make changes that reflect a greater understanding of what Moses and Solomon stand before us as examples. We can't leave our people "in the lurch". We need to care about our people and we need to handle matters rather than expecting Jehovah to ultimately take care of everything. When HE does, he will know we DIDN'T and we will not fare well at all. Lest we want fire to rain down on us and the earth to open up and swallow us, we need to give ear to our critics -- especially those who are within our organization. We need to NAKEDLY EXAMINE why some are not with us anymore. Rather then labeling them as apostates or something else that is derogatory, we need to LISTEN. However, since Jehovah God can make the one on the right to stand and the one on the left (and visa versa) to fall, it's comforting to know that HE has the discretion to not destroy all those with SINCERE HEARTS who WANT to do what is right and, at times, seem to be thwarted by those who misrepresent, either inadvertently or willfully, his worship and instructions for HANDLING difficulties and problems among us. It's not a shame or sin to have problems among us. The shame or sin is NOT HANDLING THEM PROPERLY AND TIMELY. I only ask that YOU do not forget what your ORIGINAL MISSION was and you keep working to the end of agreeable changes from headquarters. Remember, you're dealing with PEOPLE. Jehovah God is not a "people" -- HE does not condone wrongdoing from anyone, ESPECIALLY not HIS OWN ORGANIZATION. If they don't listen, stay in the TRUTH but don't stand too close to those who don't listen and make appropriate changes -- you don't want to get any of that fire rain on you or to fall into the pit of the earth tearing open.

FYI - a small book that should be included in everyone's 'Farewell WTS' gift basket:--------“Stop Being Manipulated” by George H. Green, PhD and Carolyn Cotter, MBA.--------Tell me, am I the only one who finds themselves often manipulated and intimidated in life?------As I see it, I was trained by the best to the fine art of victimization. To Whoever wrote the above comments to me, thank you. In one of my earlier posts I mentioned that I have found the loss of family, friends, etc within the witness organization to not be that much of a loss. I've been reading Ray Franz 4th edition of Crisis of Conscience and still finding myself very moved by the details of the goings on within the headquarters/governing body. Having been raised as a witness, we are taught that love is conditional, whereas the rest of the world says love is supposed to be unconditional. That has been a real tough thing for me personally to overcome. When I hear on occasion through one of my children that my own parents Love me.....I just doesn't cause me to feel anything at all. I guess I'd be honest to say that I've become numb in a sense to those words coming from my "family". Those words just don't mean anything to me anymore. The purpose and goal of disfellowshipping, and the subsequent result of no contact with family is of course to "move people to repentance" and cause the disfellowshipped ones to return to the organization. Well, that simply isn't going to happen, at least not for me. I will never be able to remove from my memory what happened with the Malawi brothers vs the Mexican brothers. I will never be able to get that out of my mind, amongst other things. I have never felt more free than I do now, being out of that robot organization. I have posted this before, but I got engaged last weekend but I will not be sending invitations to any one in my "family", nor will I send announcements of our marriage to them either. They choose to treat me as though I'm dead, so I don't feel any need to inform them of the pure joy and happiness I've been experiencing. I have many friends that I would say qualify as my family now, so good riddance to the Thoman Empire. Linda Thoman Linthoman0705@aol.com

Well, I got my American Flag in protest to the UN deception and especially for the Malawi's! I am not “worshipping” the flag; I am not pledging my allegiance to anyone but God. I think I can TRUST MYSELF enough to put the flag out and still know that Jehovah is God, and His kingdom is real. I think I can TRUST GOD enough to know he would not kill me merely because I put a flag in my yard. It is symbolic of the freedom to make a HARMLESS choice of raising the flag in reply to the HARMFUL decisions the WTS made/and continues to make. It also symbolizes the court of laws in this country to bring to justice (sometimes) those who commit a crime, which is a RIGHT that the WTS has tried to take away from it's "citizens." *I find it terrible that I have to explain, justify even to myself about putting a flag in my yard!*but I did it anyway!==========C.E.
The information I posted is found in the BIBLE. Try reading it sometime. Even if some of the information is from the AWAKE!, it would STILL quote from the BIBLE. However, it's not from the AWAKE!. These are MY words based on READING THE BIBLE every day, stumbling through the parts I don't understand or find difficult to read but I keep reading and understanding does happen. Lots of people have pain from life’s experiences. Most likely ALL people have pain from traveling this road -- living. The BIBLE is NOT impervious to our pain and it teaches us how to live so as to mitigate our pain. It's not the pain that is the challenge -- it's how we handle it. We can use it to effect POSITIVE CHANGES or we can let it eat us up so that we become worse than our offender or offenders. You spend your life being hurt by them and, honestly, they don't spend a nano-second being "bothered" by you. When that happens, THEY WON. No matter what someone or others have done to us, there comes a time when it is no longer "them" -- it becomes us. For every single person, there's a certain time to be hurt and mourn over the thing or things that have been done to us when we were innocent and trusting, however, after that time, we need to put all those things behind us (forget? no, we don't forget), pick ourselves up and move on. We, ultimately, are responsible for our own lives. We can't do ANYTHING about what has happened in the past to us. We can, though, do something about what WILL happen to us from now on. It's the "world's" saying that "today is the first day of the rest of my life". It's OUR CHOICE as to where we'll go from there -- our painful place. What do YOU choose?

Why don't Catholics have a web site where they can truly express their real feelings? Can't take the "heat" from those who would be so nasty to you for telling it the way they really feel?

Hi: Is everyone aware of the new website http://www.meetup.com/ Go to exjws This is a must see !!!!!It's a GOD SEND for me. Hope you enjoy it!!!!! later Searchin50

Re: Catholics have just finished - and are still - dialoguing with ANY Catholics who are interested in being heard on the subject. They have held in person meetings all over the country where anyone can speak and have input. They have taken countless submissions from interested parties, on paper, in person and via the internet.....Further, they are talking about any future decisions about any future wrong doings being assessed by a panel comprised of lay people who include abuse survivors. Any questions? In addition to all of this, their every move is in the daily newspapers across the country and beyond to which you have easy access. Be careful not to assume things you know nothing about. It's a learned Witness trait and it does not serve ANYONE's purpose, including your own.

Enter the Daily Text for Sunday, June 30 Those who are a strong people will glorify you; the town of the tyrannical nations, they will fear you.-- Isa. 25:3. Saturday, June 29 | Monday, July 1 Was Babylon the Great ever forced to acknowledge Jehovah's powerful works? Yes. During the first world war, Jehovah's anointed servants preached under tribulation. In 1918 they went into spiritual captivity when leading brothers among God's people were imprisoned. The organized preaching work virtually ceased. Then, in 1919, Jehovah restored them and reinvigorated them with his spirit, whereupon they set out to fulfill the commission to preach the good news in all the inhabited earth. (Mark 13:10) All of this was prophesied in the book of Revelation, as was the effect upon their opponents. These "became frightened and gave glory to the God of heaven." (Rev. 11:3, 7, 11-13) Not that they all were converted, but they were forced to recognize the powerful work of Jehovah on this occasion, just as Isaiah had foretold. w 3/1/01 16, 17 Excerpt from "Examining the Scriptures Daily 2002". © 2001 WatchTower Bible & Tract Society of PA

On April 20th, at 10:29 someone posted the following: “For those of us who have studied the history of the Watchtower Society - whose founder and first president [Charles Taze Russell?] was a child molester, the strictures of Watchtower policies, written and [?], which serve to shield the Organization (and hence often the perpetrator) at the expense of the victim are not seen as arising from sheer chance or incompetence. There is evidence of design.

[Signed,] Focus - (One who knows the beast) class

WHO WROTE THIS? IS THIS TRUE? IF THIS IS TRUE, IT IS POWERFULLY RELEVANT BUT I CAN'T FIND IT ELSEWHERE. IS THERE REALLY EVIDENCE SOMEWHERE THAT C.T. RUSSELL WAS A PEDOPHILE???????????
"Why Don’t Catholics Have Websites?” They do, but the need to have an anonymous website where one can ‘finally open up’ and ‘speak freely’ is not so dire as it is within the WTS because Catholics ALWAYS have freedom of speech.---We speak openly amongst ourselves, amongst our friends, family, parish, to our priests and others. There is no cover-up (not speaking of any cover-up initiated by the abuser, which is VERY common everywhere). There is no denial (not that everyone is necessarily of one mind, initially. It’s a difficult subject). But people are FREE to talk. It’s one of the GREAT things about being an American. It's only the WTS which tries to inhibit that freedom by manipulation, intimidation and other means. I hope this answers your question. The lack of a 'silentlambs' website for Catholics (and perhaps others????) is because the need is not the same as it is here. We’re not searching futilely for someone to listen, validate, and believe us. And we believe you, too.

Dear All, My heart goes out to the victims of abuse and I commend you for speaking up. Mr. Bowen, thank you for taking such an important stance. I pray God gives you strength and perseverance to help more silentlambs. It is sad some witnesses feel this site is bashing them. Can they not see people are hurting and this website gives them the opportunity to speak without feeling ashamed or under attack? God is using Mr. Bowen I believe. Please pray for healing for these victims. Stop ignoring their cries and viewing this as an attack on your religion. Thank you.

Dear Friends, I have taken the past week and have read all the entries in this Guestbook as of Friday evening. It saddens me greatly to hear of your stories of the abuse. Although I have never been a JW myself, I am married to an active JW. His reactions have been typically the same responses I have seen here, ones of denial and trying to discredit the people and Dateline. I was abused physically, mentally and emotionally as a child and once had a cousin "attempt" to sexually abuse me, I know the fear I had at that one occurrence, I could not imagine living a life full of that fear. You are all in my prayers. Mr. Bowen: You are an exceptional man, with a high moral standard and should be commended for your efforts with this site and with Dateline and the exposing of such a heinous crime as this against our children. You are man to be admired and respected, not looked down on and accused of "causing divisions", this is an outrage what they are trying to do with you. I have followed your story since I first saw a report on this issue over a year ago on CNN. I have waited anxiously for Dateline to air, and watched continuously your website for updates. I was upset at the WTBTS when they stopped, but kind of expected it too. Mr. Bowen, you are doing the right thing, and do not let anyone ever tell you that you are not. I hope to hear updates on Erika and the others soon, would even like to correspond with her if she would like to, you may forward my email address to her if you wish. To the people who have come on this site and used all sorts of profanity and the likes, although we may not know who you are, whether you are JWs or not, there is ONE that does know for certain, and there is no hiding ANYTHING from Him. One day we all have to give an account for our actions. Even you. With Christian Love and respect, Barbara Naftis bnaftis@cs.com

I want to say Thank You! so much for this site. I too have an awful story of abuse during my childhood growing up as a Witness. I'm sad to say one of the responsible ones is an elder in the same cong. today! I am so glad there is finally a place for victims to feel support after having to stay in the "closet" for so many years. If the news media only knew the half of what is and what has gone on for many years it would fill a month's worth of programming. I truly feel that there is an uprising on the way. You can only keep people in the dark and feeding them $%^$ for so long before they revolt. When they do revolt it will be the cleansing that has been needed for 100 years. Then the protectors of the pedophiles can start their own society and leave the true believers to worship in the way that is pure and right. It is wonderful that there is going to be a march on the headquarters in Sept. I would love to be there and join the others with a like story. I have never been a beggar but I think this is worth asking. I was disabled about 10 years ago and only have a small Social Security check every month to exist. I want to be in the march in Sept but don't have any way financially to do it. If there are any others who could help me get to the march I would be eternally grateful. If by some chance I don't have enough to get there I will return every dime back to those who gave. If you can help in any way please contact me. If nothing else meeting others with a like past would pump us both up. I look forward to hearing from any and all. Thank you K Henderson khenderson@lionco.com

Re Your Comment: --- We speak openly amongst ourselves, amongst our friends, family, parish, to our priests and others. --- This, in my opinion, is a very telling statement. You talk among yourselves -- not publicly as this web site does. You're going on the assumption that I don't know Catholics. I've known them in several different states and countries for 50+ years, including one woman who was taken sexual advantage of by her priest when she went to him in mental and emotional distress over her marriage. However, that was in the very early 1970's and I lost contact with her. She confided in me but was terrified about my telling anyone else, so I promised I wouldn't and didn't. From what I saw on a program the Public TV Station, this is an uncommon occurrence within the Catholic Church but, being that it's girls and women and it's the common belief that girls and women "ask for it" (that's what they said on the TV program), there is a lack of the critical attention this heterosexual abuse requires. You're trying to make it look as though Catholics don't have any problems because they speak freely and that just simply is not true. YOU may have an experience or circumstance or group that gives you opportunity to speak freely but that does not mean that it is true for the vast majority of Catholics. There are plenty of people -- of your and other religions -- that wouldn't speak against their religious organization and they, over time, also suffer the mental, emotional and physical difficulties that anyone would suffer for keeping important issues bottled up inside of them. The issues may not be important to anyone else but they are important to that person. I think it's terrible that a person would not have an understanding ear, even if it's an issue only relevant to themselves. I don't need to come to this web site to speak freely. However, the very fact that JWs and former JWs DO talk openly and PUBLICLY is, in itself, commendable -- not shameful. The irony of this is that it leads YOU and others like you to think that there is a very disproportionate problem among JWs that does not exist in any other religion, including Catholics. This, frankly, is just not true. It's also very unrealistic. All the people in this whole world are subject to sin. There are too many influences to encourage gross sin and heinous acts against one another. Many people are guilty of hurting one or more people, including sexual abuse. They even have laws against husbands raping their wives! Who are you trying to kid? JWs, through their publications, are trying to help people to be AWARE of these pitfalls, to help them recognize people and situations and to act appropriately in these situations, even within their own organization. I, personally, do not make excuses for wrongdoing, however, I know that no matter what label one chooses to pin on themselves, there are some things that a "label" won't change - - each person's own, personal internal makeup. The person, herself or himself, has to work on making those changes. The Catholic Church hides even criminals within the walls of their churches and refuses to turn them over to law enforcement authorities. It's called "sanctuary". Priest's will refuse to reveal the identity of those who confess to them of serious crimes because of Priest/Confessor Privilege. Therefore, even when they know they can help a police investigation and even when they're asked by the authorities to help them by giving them the name and location of the criminal, they won't divulge that information. It appears that is true even when an innocent man or woman is in jail and charged with a crime the priest knows was committed by someone else. This is COMMON KNOWLEDGE. So, please, don't get on your self-righteousness bravado and act like everything is so much better in the Catholic Church or any other church. The Catholic Church has had CENTURIES to correct the problems in their church. When the Bible is very clear in what it teaches in the areas of morality, why would it take CENTURIES for the Catholic Church to FINALLY look at the problem? It appears to have taken police investigations, court cases and bad publicity that brought these problems out in the open to the point where the Catholic Church couldn't ignore the problem anymore -- and that's only priests molesting boys. They haven't done anything about the sexual abuse of girls and women yet. We're all a bunch of scum bags (even if we live "good" lives, there isn't one of us that is perfect) in the eyes of the one and only true God and it's ONLY by Christ's ransom sacrifice and his perpetual pleading before his father in the heavens that ANY of us have a chance before the almighty God. Personally, I do not believe that there is ANYONE that has more honest and open dialog than JWs -- even now. Dateline said it 2 times -- JWs are the ONLY religion that has a judicial system in place within its organization. The only thing that has been proved is that the JW's judicial system fails people sometimes the same as man's secular judicial systems do. That's not giving my approval or making an excuse for the failures in the JW or secular judicial systems. However, I'm positive that the JW judicial system will be "cleaned up" a lot better and sooner than the world's secular judicial systems. No, JWs are not repressed. They're, for the most part, very honest people. You don't see anyone trying to shut down this or any other web site by JWs. However, it would be interesting to see what would happen in other religions if people were writing as they do here -- where the WHOLE WORLD that wants to can also be privy to it. Since there really are not any web sites like this one for any other religion where ANYONE can access, there's no way to know what the individual church's reactions would be. Therefore, your arguing ANYTHING in this matter is mute.

DID EVERYONE GET BILL'S E-MAIL????????? He mentioned another suit being filed Tues. and he will be at the press conference. I too will be there. I will give him a hug for everyone!!!!!! I can't say where it will be at this time, I am sure everyone understands why. I love you all--keep talking, we can make a difference!!!!!!!!! Love Jesika Thoman

BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE - OCTOBER 29, 1911 on C. T. Russell's Scandal GIRL KISSED PASTOR AND SAT ON HIS KNEE But Mr. Russell at the Tabernacle: Only Submitted to it to be Kind. MAY HAVE FELT HER PULSE He Sometimes Ministered to the Sick, Locked in Another Girls Room Innocently. (Special to The Eagle) BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE - OCTOBER 29, 1911 Pittsburgh, October 27 - The suit for a separation brought by Martha (sic)F. Russell against Charles Taze Russell, her husband, popularly known as Pastor Russell, who has just entered a libel suit against The Brooklyn Eagle, is remembered here as one of the most sensational court proceedings in the history of Allegheny County. Pastor Russell's Advertising methods had already attracted a good deal of attention to himself, and while many referred to him as "the crank preacher of Allegheny," his unusual lectures and effective publicity methods drew good-sized crowds to his Bible House on Arch Street. When the fact that Pastor Russell's wife was suing him for a separation became public much general interest was aroused and the courtroom was thronged during the proceedings. The testimony which elicited the most comment concerned the relations of Pastor Russell with Rose Ball, a young woman stenographer employed by Pastor Russell in the Bible House on Arch Street. This testimony was given by Mrs. Russell on direct examination on Thursday, April 26, 1906. It was ruled out by the court on the ground that the incidents to which reference was made were said to have occurred on a date which precedes the dates mentioned in Mrs. Russell's bill of complaint. Pastor Russell recurred to the incidents when he went on the stand several days later, and gave his version of what had happened. Rose Ball was not called to the stand, as she left for Australia shortly before the case came to trial. The verbatim record of this testimony taken from the official report of the case on file in the office of the Prothonotary of Allegheny County is as follows: Q. I want you to tell us what your husband did in company with this woman Rose, in your presence and in your home. A. In the first place I considered it--(objected to and witness was not permitted to finish.) Q. Tell us what you saw and what he said was done. A. One evening he spent the evening downstairs and our library and bedroom were next to each other upstairs on the second floor, and I spent the evening downstairs reading, and I went upstairs about 10 o'clock to my room, and I supposed that: he was either in the library or had retired, and when I went up there I found that he was in neither place, and I stepped out in the hall, and I found that he was in his night robe, sitting beside Miss Ball's bed and she was in bed. On other occasions I found him going in there and I found she called him in and said she wasn't well and wanted him in, and I objected to this, and I said that it was highly improper, and I said: "We have people about the house, and what kind of a name will be attached in this house if you do that sort of thing?" and he got angry. Pastor's Wife Tells of His Alleged Nightly Visits Q. You state that you found him doing this at other times. How often after that? A. I found him a number of times; I don't remember how often. Q. In her room? A. Yes, sir. And I found him in the servant girl's room as well. and I found him locked in the servant girl's room. Q. Did he make any explanation why he was in the girl's room? A. No. He did not; he just got angry. Q. What did you say to him about this conduct and what did he say. A. I said to him, "We have a great work on our hands," and I said, "In this work you and I have to walk very circumspectly before the world and if you are going to do things like this, what will happen? Suppose you are all right, don't you suppose people will talk about things like this?" and I said, "I am not satisfied with it," and he said he wasn't going to be ruled by me. But I felt distressed about that. Q. What did Rose do at the Watch Tower. A. She attended to the correspondence. Q. Where was her desk with reference to the desk of Mr. Russell of the Watch Tower Society? A. It wasn't near his; it was in the office. Q. When would he go to the Watch Tower, in the morning? A. I don't remember; he generally went down alone. Q. Who would return with him? A. She came with him in the evening and they came about 11 o'clock and the young men that were in the office -- she was the only girl, and the young men would go home, and he wouldn't allow her to go home with them, and she must wait and always go with him. (Objected to.) Q. I want the mere fact, did this girl Rose go home with your husband? A. Yes, Sir. Q. What year was that? A. In the fall of 1894. (By Mr. Porter, attorney for the plaintiff.) Q. Did you state to your husband at this meeting any endearing terms? A. Yes, sir. Q. What were they? A. I said "She tells me that one evening you came home --" I asked her when did these things occur. I said to him, "She says they occurred down at the office when she stayed down there with him in the evening after the rest had gone, and at home at any time when I wasn't around." Q. Now, about the endearing terms? A. She said one evening when she came home with him, just as she got inside the hall, it was late in the evening, about 11 o'clock, he put his arms around her and kissed her. This was in the vestibule before they entered the hall, and he called her his little wife, but she said "I am not your wife," and he said "I will call you daughter, and a daughter has nearly all the privileges of a wife." Q. What other terms were used? A. Then he said, "I am like a jellyfish. I float around here and there. I touch this one and that one, and if she responds I take her to me, and if not, I float on to others"; and she wrote that out so that I could remember it for sure when I would speak to him about it. And he confessed that he said those things. Q. And the young men came home ahead of them? A. Yes, sir. Q. State to the court and jury what talk, if any, you had with this girl Rose, in regard to her relations with your husband, which you communicated to your husband? This question was objected to and it was changed to read as follows: Q. You are to tell what you stated to your husband that Rose had said and his reply to you. Mrs. Russell Says Girl Told Her of Pastor's Caresses. A. I told him that I had learned something that was very serious and I didn't tell him right away. I let a day elapse until I felt I had control of myself and could talk and then I told him that I had something very serious to tell him about this matter, and he said, "What is it?" and I said, "Rose has told me that you have been intimate with her, that you have been in the habit of hugging and kissing her and having her sit on your knee and fondling each other, and she tells me you bid her under no account to tell me, but she couldn't keep it any longer. She said if I was distressed about it she felt that she would have to come and make a confession to me, and she has done that. (By the court.) Q. What did he say? A. He tried to make light of it at first and I said, "Husband, you can't do that. I know the whole thing. She has told me straight and I know it to be true." Well, he said he was sorry; it was true, but he was sorry. He said he didn't mean any harm. I said, "I don't see how you could do an act like that without meaning harm." Linda Thoman Linthoman0705@aol.com you are concerned about protecting religion, not protecting children. You love the corporation first and the true victims second. I would not be surprised if you took full advantage of broadcasting the Catholic Church scandal (Which is wrong also), but now the shoe is on the other foot. The simple fact is the leaders of the Watchtower are not inspired, and yes like you say when things don’t go to plan, THEY ARE IMPERFECT HUMAN BEINGS. WELL START TREATING THEM LIKE IMPERFECT HUMAN BEINGS and stop buying everything they say as if it was direct from God. FJ

(See? It's not as cut and dried simple as you think ...) Actually, it is. First, I like to say, that I have many friends from different religious backgrounds (Catholics, Baptist, Jewish, Protestant, JW, Muslin etc ...), and I am happy to say that I do not discriminate or hate any on them because of there beliefs....... Next, it is a FACT, that when the Catholics where caught and exposed, they attempted to blame everyone else but themselves.......Just to go the Boston Globe website for the FACTS and EVIDENCE.......Also, it is a FACT, that the Catholic Bishops in Dallas fell short in dealing with their big problem in the pedophile scandal, namely, themselves.....If a Bishop protected a KNOWN CHILD ABUSER and broke the law, he should be in JAIL, ..... So who is still denying and ignoring their own SCANDAL??????Who is being manipulative????????Who has much, much to learn about the Catholics scandal ???????Also, you seem to express a lot of hate and anger when describing the WTS....WHY?????????ANGEL31

The last post is suggesting that the WT society is a loving group just like any other religion. Here is a small example of their love. "They are not to assume the attitude or follow the sinful course of Christendom’s lucre-loving clergy, who abuse and destroy the "sheep", scatter the flock, and even rob and devour widows' houses to satisfy their lustful and greedy appetites." (The Watchtower, 4/15, 1950, p.121) Want more examples of love? Just ask. It's there.

in reference to the posting about pastor Russell: back then women in the work force were called "girls" to lower their status as compared to working men. Although the reference to the girl sitting on his knee and kissing him sounded like a child, not a woman. Have I misread this? Larry ldsommer@hotmail.com

ANGEL31 --- Hi it's Jesika again. I also have a lot of friends from different religions and don't hold any beliefs against them. The Catholics scandal is merely used in reference(at least by me) to what can be done if we are not silent anymore. The anger displayed by many towards the WT is rooted(in my opinion) by hurt and betrayal. What has been taught to many JW's since birth(myself included) is how honest and up front they are. How right they are and how wrong every other religion on earth is. They were there to protect us and to save us from the wicked men of this world. They have forgotten to put God first and what he would want for all his children-- prejudice and abuse are not among them. All I want is for the WT to take responsibility for their own policy and admit it was wrong--or at the least change it and prove they are going to stick by it. No more children in any religion should suffer. I am focused on the JW's's because that was the religion that hurt me. I wish I could stop it everywhere, but I am not God-and I would never try to be. Thanks Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

Linda Thoman,….. As stated on this Website "We'd like to know what you think about our web site. Please leave your comments in this public guest book so we can share your thoughts with other visitors."…… So, Linda, lets see who's comments above clearly indicate a tremendous ignorance regarding my postings specifically in regards to the Jehovah's Witness Organization …… On, Jun 19 2002, I ANSWERED a question POSTED by a REPORTER, along with a question of my own, in regards to the Jehovah's Witness Organization's ABUSE ALLEGATIONS..........Afterwards, some individuals, including JESIKA, posted comments to my question…… So, who is being ignorant?????????? I have done plenty of research on this Religion and many others, with an open mind and without being BIAS... I have all the facts, and much more, so I feel the need to post it when given the opportunity.....Just like YOU and everyone else on this and many other websites .....If you don't agree or like the FACTS, there is not much I can do about it....... OK, here is your first lesson of the day..........................Check out this website www.religiousfreedomwatch.org, some info from that Website....... "Hate propaganda is spread with only one purpose: to instill fear in the uninformed. Those who commit such acts are well aware that, left unchallenged, their lies will propagate and breed further acts of hatred, even violence. Throughout history, men and women of religion have stood against tyranny and fought for the natural right of all individuals to practice their own faiths and beliefs, free from harassment, suppression and persecution."......................OK, now the second lesson of the day......When any one of Jehovah's Witnesses is accused of an act of child abuse, the local congregation elders are expected to investigate. Two elders meet separately with the accused and the accuser to see what each says on the matter. If the accused denies the charge, the two elders may arrange for him and the victim to restate their position in each other's presence, with elders also there. If during that meeting the accused still denies the charges and there are no others who can substantiate them, the elders cannot take action within the congregation at that time. Why not? As a Bible-based organization, we must adhere to what the Scriptures say, namely, "No single witness should rise up against a man respecting any error or any sin ... At the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses the matter should stand good." (Deuteronomy 19:15) Jesus reaffirmed this principle as recorded at Matthew 18:15-17. However, if two persons are witnesses to separate incidents of the same kind of wrongdoing, their testimony may be deemed sufficient to take action......Linda, as you can see , I have done more than my share of RESEARCH.......So for now , I will go by the FACTS and EVIDENCE I have researched......Don't get me wrong, if the Cases Pending find the WTS guilty of breaking the law, my opinions WILL CHANGE .........Thanks for your comments Linda....... ANGEL31
7-1 -- 8:48 Lord help you child. It is impossible for me to reach someone so vehemently ENTRENCHED in denial. Only God can do it. I pray He will.

HEY LARRY --- I think you may have over looked this line in the posting(I had to go back and read it again after reading your post)The testimony which elicited the most comment concerned the relations of Pastor Russell with Rose Ball, a young woman stenographer employed by Pastor Russell in the Bible House on Arch Street. She is refereed to as a young women, plus I wouldn't think they would ship a child to Australia. Even though it wasn't a child it does show he didn't practice what he preached-morally anyways. ANGEL31 --- OK, doing research is great-that I agree with. The two witness thing--I DO NOT!!!! My uncle molested me (Linda's brother) and since he didn't do it to someone else(that I know of) than I am at fault for coming forward against another brother!!!!!!!!!! Nothing in this world would be able to convince me of that!!!! My sister had 5 WITNESSES-- but the elders wouldn't allow them to speak!!! Like I have told others --- If no one witnesses a person that got murdered--is the personfaking being dead?? No the only witness is the victim!!!! My innocence was murdered and since I have no other witness-it is dismissed!!!! THAT'S WRONG!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I don't care how much research you do --- it is still and will always be wrong. Even if the cases against the WT don't go all the way-to the point that you would change your opinion, like the example I stated above--if the murderer wasn't caught, or they didn't have enough evidence, was the crime not still committed and someone is still DEAD!!!!!!! Like my innocence can never be given back!!!! I don't care about anyone's opinion--I know what is right and what is wrong!!!!!!! Jesika Thoman Dallas,Tx

Deuteronomy 19:15 One witness is not enough to convict a man accused of any crime or offense he may have committed. A matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses. — Why does the Watchtower insist that this verse written thousands of years ago must be taken to the letter, yet other verses like Revelation 7:5-8, naming all of the 144,000 tribes of Israel, may be chucked into the rework pile to fit their theology. And all the luminous "New Light" that has showered us for the past 120 years from the society has been wasted on covering up 'prophecies' that never materialized. Certainly common sense should kick in with a little 'new light' where it truly needed like here. It is my opinion however that the real issue is protecting the societies image. After all, they have to protect at all costs the Watchtowers claims to be the Only True Christians on the earth. Here is an example of their boasting: "So where is true religion to be found? In all humility and honesty, we must say that Jehovah's Witnesses form an international community walking along this 'narrow and cramped road." (Watchtower, Dec. 1, 1991.p.8) So the whole world is wrong but them! Puts them in a rather awkward position when things go wrong.

To Angel ...You wrote—"Hate propaganda is spread with only one purpose: to instill fear in the uninformed. Throughout history, men and women of religion have stood against tyranny and fought for the natural right of all individuals to practice their own faiths and beliefs, free from harassment, suppression and persecution." "Hate propaganda? Lies?" What propaganda, what lies? Perhaps there are those who are making hate-filled comments, but I do not carry hate towards any. Lies? What lies? Only the victim and the accused know if lies are being told. The remainder of your comments means absolutely nothing to me, because perps are not going to invite an audience!!! This abuse is a crime! ELDERS SHOULD NOT EVEN GET INVOLVED in these situations, but only to encourage the PROPER authorities be notified and it be handled by the police and not threaten victims and families of victims of disfellowshipping if they speak outside the congregation!!!! Elders/Congregations are NOT the Proper Authorities for these types of things!!! If it was something like the rule against Smoking, fine require two witnesses to make an accusation. Smoking isn't against the Law, but adults having sexual contact with a child/minor IS A CRIME!!! At that time the Elders should back off and allow the police investigations take their course and the guilty party go where they belong, jail. Who made the asinine decision that the Governing Body and the Society is the Judge, Jury and Executioner for everything? Oh yeah, I already know the answer to that one ...I've been reading Ray Franz 4th Edition of Crisis of Conscience! Sorry Angel, that nonsense about needing two witnesses to make an accusation is ridiculous when it involves crimes. Personally, I feel any and all Elders/Ministerial Servants/Governing Body Members, etc who have knowledge/evidence that crimes are taking place and do not provide that information to the proper authorities to handle the matter are almost as guilty of the perp, and should be charged with Withholding Evidence In A Criminal Case or something along those lines. And, I feel that any Elders/Ministerial Servants etc who have knowledge of crimes or past crimes that did not tell the proper authorities and take swift action to protect others from the perp should all be disfellowshipped themselves! Who will protect the "flock" when the friggin "Shepherds" are doing everything to protect the perps and the Societies Image and bank account! ARGH!!!!!! Linda Thoman

"HATE PROPAGANDA IS SPREAD WITH ONLY ONE PURPOSE: TO INSTILL FEAR IN THE UNINFORMED" More Love From The Watchtower: "They [the clergy] have in fact represented the Devil, because it [the Church] is the Devil's organization." (J. F. Rutherford, Life, 1929, p292) "Such was the state of affairs by the time Constantine the Great laid the foundation of the Catholic church in the fourth century A.D., and down through the centuries since then, Christendom's multitudinous sects and cults have continued to hold sheep like persons in their parish fold, where they are plundered, exploited, fleeced and devoured for the pleasure and profit of the false shepherds." (The Watchtower, 4/15,1950,p119)

Question: If a congregation member is found dead(foul play)behind the Kingdom Hall, and there was not two witnesses to the crime, would everyone call it a night and just go home? Of course not. A crime has been committed.
The police would be called in! The two or three witness rule MEANS NOTHING!! Likewise, if a child reports being abused by an adult, and surprise, surprise, no one admitted it, would everyone call it a night and just go home? No,
...I mean Yes. And that is the problem. It is easier to hide the evidence within a helpless victim, and pretend life goes on. This is a crime also! Treat it for what it is. This is not a member found smoking which is not a civil crime. It is a sin in the eyes of the Jehovah's Witness though. So let the elders handle that. But on the dateline show the elder in court did not want to be forced to report crime for fear that no one will confess. That's fine if you want to harbor criminals.
Let your conscience be your guide.

What conscience??? There's an interesting post at Jehovahs-witnesses.com (or something very close to that) - it's about WHY people come back after having been DF'd. Top few reasons (in random order) a) miss their family and would rather fake repentance than continue alone without their family b) like having the society tell them what to do so they don't have to take on the complicated job of thinking through things themselves - they like the black and white of it and the spoon-feeding c) don't have another support system in place d) it's familiar, even if they know it's wrong
e) something' to do

To ANGEL 31: I am very sorry if you are getting so upset, but if you think "hate propaganda" is wrong, what do you think of WTS's view on Christendom? JUST GRAB A WATCHTOWER OR AN AWAKE! MAGAZINE AND SEE WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT "CHRISTENDOM" FUNNY! The word "Christendom" means Christianity according to the Webster Dictionary. Therefore, Jehovah's Witnesses should be "Christendom", too, if we are Christians. But I have to say that I'VE NEVER HEARD THEM (WTS) SAYING MUCH ABOUT BUDDHISTS OR HINDUS ...just a thought to be fair ...

My nephew and six of my nieces were molested by their fathers repeatedly, and the fathers molested each others children. They invoked the name of Jehovah in their actions, telling them that Jehovah told them to do it to punish them, or that Jehovah told them to do it to prepare them for womanhood. Heinous atrocities were perpetrated on the boy child, and yet, no one has represented him. Two girls charged the fathers, but they plea bargained rather than opt for trial, with the stipulation that no other child molestation charges could be brought against them in the state of Florida. The witness posse showed up at the sentencing, and though the children, weeping, tried to tell how their treatment affected them, neither the witnesses nor the father would look at the children as they sobbed out their stories. Mr. Hagens of the sex abuse division of the state attorney's office in Daytona Beach, FL, as well as the detective who gathered the information on one of the men, said it was the most heinous case he had ever seen. The detective found some 750 pages of reports of sexual misconduct (or suspected) on one of the men in the state of Florida. However, the sexual crimes he committed more recently in the state of Alabama far outweigh the gravity of what he did in Florida, but with the Jehovah Witness protection, he was able to keep hidden in what he did. A JW in the child protective service even called him once to warn him that the C.P.S. was on the way to get his children from school, and he was able to go get them before they had a chance to talk to the children. He had repeatedly told the children that if they ever told, he would kill their mother, his estranged wife. These men are out and with the flaunting their freedom, still reminding the children that they are still victims, in that they have never had to repent or recant, and indeed have never admitted what they have done. These children need to feel that someone is on their side. No one besides their mother and two aunts have been their advocates. Would appreciate your help. Susan K. Johnson, okee_dokey@yahoo.com

Hi again, The letter I wrote was my personal opinion but I still feel that the elders should protect it's members from pedophiles who attend the kingdom hall and when they knowingly allow a pedophile to attend the logical consequences is that a child has/is/will be molested or worse ... This is the nature of this type of deviant behavior ... all the quotes of law does not change this FACT ... When elders allow them (Pedophiles)to be in attendance at kingdom hall and/or social gatherings children think they are safe just because they are there ...When their parents and/or others smile and say hello to the offender children assume that person is OK ...By nature children are very trusting ... For pedophiles to get in with our children all they need is access (even just visually "smiling at our child as they go by" possibly) ...Then later they can stop by and offer children a ride home from school as our child walks. The excuse is "Just going by." or give children candy or accidentally go by their school(in another town)to see your child or just molest the child right there at the hall often in sight of others ... How long does that take? These situations have and do exist in the congregation ... When they meet our children at the hall it is assumed they are SAFE ...We are told we are in a spiritual paradise ...as I quoted from Psalms in an earlier post ...If we dare to question this reasoning we have a bad attitude that needs adjusting ...don't not to be overly suspicious of our brothers ....Think about it ...Yes the elders owe our children whether in a court of law/settlement or before Jehovah God. The latter would not be so tolerant ...DJB

I am so pleased that there are organizations like yours that help fill the deep empty void left by the fanatical teachings of a religion that seeks to own God. It is such a sin to have to go through life knowing that your family thinks you are evil because you think for yourself. Why doesn't it sink in that being called a sheep is not a compliment! They're frequent warnings like 'Watch out that you not be lead astray by associating with anyone who opposes them, or questioning doctrine, the Internet is bad association- watch out! really saying don't think for yourself!- let us think for you! and in return, we will call you sheep! What happened to the "Truth Will Set You Free?" Through their arrogance, they dare to set themselves up as the voice of Jehovah. Why can't they see through that? When I asked them if they would carry out some of the evil deeds of the old testament, they invariably say no but they love the one who does kill people, even innocent babies and animals. What is it that they love about their Jehovah? The Mosaic law is evil and filled with sadistic teachings, such as you are to kill your son if he blasphemes by gathering up the city folk and bludgeoning them with stones until they slowly die. Gory animal sacrifices that break every civilized law regarding humane animal treatment. I am a bad person because, even though I am honest to a fault, and donate much time helping people recovering from drugs& alcohol, I am not a JW's so I am of the world= evil. I also smoke which proves my evilness. I have spent 38 yrs alone in this world, with no family, brothers, sisters, mother, because I am not a JW's. I feel the deepest sense of loneliness that comes in a quiet moment, because of that religion. If they only knew the pain they cause for Jehovah. Thank you for your fine work. Jim L.

The Worldwide Christian Community Letter Number One June 2002 --- To All Bodies of Elders of Jehovah's Witnesses --- A seven-page letter from the Branch Office in Patterson, NY (Feb 15th 2002) was sent to "ALL BODIES OF ELDERS IN THE UNITED STATES." However, you will be aware from scripture that "all" older men are implicated. (1 Peter 5:1-4) Therefore, we highlight the pertinent words of the final sentence: "Please be assured of our continual prayers in YOUR behalf as YOU carry out YOUR weighty responsibility to shepherd the flock of God entrusted to YOUR care." --- Why Is the Governing Body Focusing On "Responsibility" At This Time? All Jehovah's Witnesses know that the organization is undergoing intense media scrutiny at present and the "sheep" are being disturbed. What are the facts? We cite just a few: 1) In the USA two multiple murders among Witness families in Oregon have been widely reported. 2) In Scotland, UK, Alison Cousins has courageously spoken of the years of sexual abuse by her Witness father. This was reported in Woman's Own (March 25th 2002) under "Church of Shame." It also exposed a shameful cover-up attempt by local elders. 3) Dateline (American current affairs program) has been seen on both sides of the Atlantic. It focused on the prevalence of child molestation within the organization. Sincere current Witnesses spoke out freely; they contrasted the ideal from the Society's public relations department, with the stark, horrific reality that exists in the congregations! 4) In the UK, the BBC has seen incriminating secret letters from the Society instructing you to keep quiet about Pedophiles in your congregations. You are aware of this directive. Therefore, cliches about "keeping the congregation clean" sound rather hollow when what is unclean is "swept under the carpet." This is causing hitherto loyal supporters to leave in disgust and if they "blow the whistle" they are hastily dispatched from your ranks (Jesus was a "whistle blower." Look what they did to him!) 5) The Guardian of October 2001 (UK newspaper) exposed a glaring act of hypocrisy by the Society. In 1992 they joined the United Nations Organization! Details are obtainable direct from the UNO. The Society has drawn up a standard response. (see Organization book, page 151) 6) In France, the Society owes huge sums in unpaid taxes and penalties. Add that to the escalating legal costs and damages they face around the world, and the total is astronomical! Their charity status is also under threat. But what about YOUR status with God? --- Goodness or Righteousness: Which Will YOU follow? If your child were sick during the night you would promptly do something about it. You wouldn't simply turn over and say, "Jehovah will sort it out!" Or, if you only suspected your house was being burgled, you'd call the police ... and they'd come wouldn't they? Imagine them saying, "Sorry! We can't do anything without at least two eye-witnesses." Yet this exactly illustrates the Society's policy! But what is the policy in YOUR congregation? To simply "follow orders" even when they come from those that you trust, is to actually shirk the responsibility that you have committed yourself to. To illustrate, when the Titanic was sinking some of the stewards tried to stop third class passengers from escaping via the first class area. That's what happens when one thoughtlessly "follows company orders." Precious lives are at stake! You often quote from Matthew 18:16 in support of your "two eye-witnesses" policy. But please read the rest of Jesus' words in that chapter and compare the relative values he puts on "goodness" as opposed to "righteousness". You have repeatedly been taught that the problems Jesus was focusing on were not criminal ones but minor things between brothers. Quite true! So, to place the horrific acts that Pedophiles inflict on their child victims into this category, apart from being a flagrant distortion of scripture, is despicable. It reduces such evil to the commonplace and is tantamount to abusing the child yet again! In kindness and love we urge you: Have goodness as your master and righteousness as your slave. (Please read Ezekiel Ch. 34) For further information see: www.silentlambs.org --- END OF LETTER --- http://www/exjws.net/letter1boe.htm

To Jim L ...I really appreciate your comments, and I understand only too well your sense of loneliness in those quiet moments, as you said. I know what it's like to not have "family", as I was Disfellowshipped from the JW's back in '95 and have had only minute communication with family members. This is only when there has been a death in the family or extended family, or when someone has become seriously ill. I find it ironic that when my daughter was in the hospital last year, suddenly my mother and my sister-in-law appeared in the room. My mother hugged me, as well as my sister in law. My hands remained down, I did not hug back. I felt very strange, uncomfortable to an extreme. For them to appear in crisis moments, and then to totally disappear again until the next crisis or death, etc is so strange to me. I wish they hadn't shown up at the hospital at all, because it made the situation very uncomfortable for everyone around that has knowledge of the way family treats ex-witnesses. It even seems strange to me to refer to them as my "family". I know what family is supposed to be, but since '95 that disappeared in a single announcement of my Disfellowshipment, I have found many times that I have actually forgotten at times that I have family by this name or that name. Suddenly I hear the name brought up, and I have to stop and think about it momentarily ...Oh Yeah, he's my brother, or he's my cousin, etc. As strange and lonely as I felt immediately after the announcement was made about me, time has brought me peace. I have wonderful friends, real friends. It is sad, yes ...that family can own you one day and disown you the next, and treat you as though you are dead ...that is, until there's another crisis then suddenly you're alive again and being hugged!! Jim, I feel for what you said. I really don't know where I got my "strength" or assertiveness, I just know I will never allow myself to feel downtrodden and stomped on and I'm certainly not dead! And Hey! I smoke too ...watch my smoke rings fly! I don't care what my family thinks anymore about me personally or what I do with my life. Whether it is "wrong" for me to smoke or not, it's still my choice and no one has the right to judge me accept God himself. The Witnesses do not hold any power over me anymore. Hang in there Jim! To those of you who claim to be open-minded, AND are current Witnesses ...I feel no Hate towards any of you. If you are open minded as you claim, I highly recommend a thorough reading of Ray Franz new book Crisis of Conscience 4th Edition. He was a member of the Governing Body for nine years, his own uncle was the Vice President under Knorr. Ray Franz wrote this book out of love and a real sense of obligation to tell the truth about what occurred in the Governing Body Sessions and to tell the truth (with documentation as proof) about how doctrine has been decided upon, as well as the "rules" for being a Witness in good standing. Those of you who are NOT familiar with the situation about the Malawi Brothers vs. the Mexican Brothers, in my opinion are doing yourselves a real disservice by not finding out what the Truth is on your own, by your own study. Some say that the book is Apostate. Well, it's not and it was not written that way either. It was written to simply state the facts as they occurred, leaving the reader to decide for themselves what they make of the information. Ray Franz even makes that very statement at the very beginning of the book. He doesn't tell the reader what anyone should believe in or not believe in doctrine wise. He simply states facts as they happened and recorded them. Most people, except for those in that room during those sessions knew UNTIL Ray's book what really goes on in those sessions. Elders aren't told, C.O's aren't told, etc. Those meetings/sessions are very very private. Those sessions/brothers are the ones who decide every single aspect of Witnesses lives. Even what should or should not go on in a Witness couples bedroom. Shouldn't you see the information/evidence for YOURSELVES and you decide for YOURSELF? Don't the Witnesses teach to Be Sure Of All Things? Linda Thoman

I'll be your family, if you'll be mine. Perhaps we can speak of our 'ex' parents (or something else?), since we all seem to have them. Your words resonate with me. I know what you're talking about - I've been there, too. How dare these people call themselves parents.

Susan: you need to write the Watchtower Society and then you need to write CBS, NBC, Oprah, and anyone else you can think of. We are with you in helping. People like you are very important in that the WTS cannot accuse you of being "apostate" or having a hidden agenda. Email addresses are on previous posts for media contact. Please invite the victims to read the posts here - so they know they are not alone or crazy etc ...and maybe they can find the strength to get out. C. E.

Hi again, Response to previous Post, “talking about how BR had no case against the elders to hold them accountable” unsigned ... Larry Baker according to the press release I received was an elder in the past and was removed because he molested a child. This puts the elders in the know about this man. Bryan Rees step-father was an elder who knew ... I do not know the laws in the states and maybe this is permitted by church leaders to know about an abuser and allow him to remain as a member attending the congregation meetings in contact with children. I still say this is wrong. There is sins of omission and sins of commission. This is clearly sins of omission. He suffered because they did nothing. It was so CRUEL of them ... In Canada there is such a thing a Vicarious Liability. The management committee that I serve on could be accountable and sued by victims if say we unknowingly hired someone to work with a child and say that child was molested (especially if the job description was specific and say included for example bathing the child, other close contact with said child etc). We could be held accountable even if we did not know the person was a molester. Even if it was a volunteer situation and child was under our care and the child was molested by another person we arranged or allowed to be around child we could be held accountable ...
The elders should have warned the congregation about the pedophile at the very least but they did not. How can we protect our children when we are not given the tools to do so?? Such as names of abusers, and forbidden access to the kingdom hall. Somehow I see that the greater community has a responsibility here. That greater community for many of Jehovah's Witnesses is the kingdom hall and those who attend. I believe Bryan Rees had a right to hold the elders accountable. It was in their power they could have prevented so much pain and suffering if they had warned and prevented his contact with Larry Baker(as the one elder was his step-father) ... In Canada(Ontario) when dangerous offender who is a child molester moves into a community they will publish the picture of the offender. It will be on the news warning the community. So everyone is on the alert to watch for problems and this to a certain extent protects the community. Some areas are more diligent then others in this regard. Often the offender is forced to move when this happens as no one wants them in their area ... I know of one case where a young woman saw a offenders picture recognized his face as the one who had assaulted her on the way home. She went to the police had him charged and he went back to prison. This action would have prevented many others from becoming victims of this man ... The elders getting off with regards to Bryan Rees is not justice. The laws obviously need to be changed to reflect more concern for the victim what they need as regard compensation to put their lives back together. These road blocks to justice should be removed. Vicarious Liability of the elders here is very clear to me ...DJB

Two more file lawsuits against Jehovah's Witnesses http://krd.realcities.com/ads/media/network/home/popup2.htm

Two file sex abuse suit against Jehovah's Witnesses congregation BY STEPHEN SCOTT Religion Editor

Two women filed a civil suit Tuesday alleging they were sexually abused as young girls by a fellow member of a Jehovah's Witnesses congregation in Annandale, Minn. The women, both now 22 and living in the Twin Cities, say the religion's very tenets make it virtually impossible for victims to come forward, because at least two witnesses are required to corroborate any act of wrongdoing. After these incidents," said the plaintiff's attorney, Jeffrey Anderson of St. Paul, these women went to the elders, and they were told, 'We don't really believe you, because we require two witnesses to this for it to have happened, and if there aren't two, you are giving false testimony.' At issue is Jehovah's Witnesses understanding of the Bible, specifically Deuteronomy 19:15, which says a single witness shall not suffice in convicting a person of a crime or wrongdoing. Although Jehovah's Witnesses do not interpret every passage of the Bible literally, they base their beliefs solely on principles found in the Bible. If the accused denies the charges and there are no others who can substantiate them, the elders cannot take action within the congregation at that time," says the group's official statement called "Jehovah's Witnesses and Child Protection." Both plaintiffs allege that while they were between 10 and 12 years old, they were fondled by a male member of the congregation who was eight years older. Named as defendants are Derek Lindala, 30, of South Haven, Minn., who is alleged to have fondled the girls on separate occasions either in his family home or while on church-related activities; the Annandale congregation; and the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, which is the Jehovah's Witnesses incorporated headquarters ...Source of this information was Woman-Awake@yahoogroups.com OK? Yeeeeeesh! Linda Thoman (Now I have to provide all my sources, eh?) LOL

Linda, When speaking to my mother (she has just started bible studies) regarding Russell, she immediately stated that after Russell died Rutherford had 'communication' that told him that there was still false beliefs within the organization. Then I read recently about how the JWs refer Russell's book as inspired. There is an watchtower article on watchtowerobserver.com that has July 1 2003 as the date and it is talking a lot about Killing apostates. Do you know if that watchtower is just dated wrong on that site or if its a 'future' one some say will come to be???? I need to know this, it will help me and my mom better understand the JW situation. She has not affiliated with them for over a decade and I think that she has missed vital information. Please help! bon Aiding and abetting is a crime and it seems like a "conspiracy" to commit a crime. Do the Elders that allow this to happen get a perverted vicarious pleasure knowing that they allow other men to sexually touch the children in the congregation????  I would not let a pedophile so much as look at a picture of my babies! Let alone attend a meeting with one present.  I remember the look the sister gave me who was studying with me when I said to her that the one thing I could not do was accept a pedophile at the KH , a murderer maybe, a pedophile never. This was long before I knew anything. But she had a look she gave me.  I hung my American Flag today in protest for what the WTS did to the Malawis - a very small token of protest. I am filled with grief. c.e.

I just wanted to let everybody know what I have been working on. Myself and another girl who wishes to remain anonymous at this time filed a suit against the person who molested us as children, the elders who protected and enabled him, and the organization (WTBTS) who directed them to. Read the story on this link.

To ANGEL 31  Sorry, Angel31. Did I offend you? If you see all the capital letters, that's because I couldn't make them bold to emphasize. I hope you are not taking it as I was yelling at you. It was I, Age00, who mentioned the Buddhists and Hindus. They even worship carved images and COWS! (I'm not yelling.)  I guess for me the most problem with the WTS's policy was that they have been (and still are) letting the accused/confessed pedophiles go door to door. If you have an alcoholic friend, would you let him/her go to a bar? I have talked to an elder recently, and he confirmed that "They are still going door to door now". Would you go out door to door with that pedophile brother/sister with your child? And sit with him/her at the Kingdom Hall?  I'm not saying that the person doesn't deserve another chance. I just think if he/she is accused without two or even one witness, it is the child, the alleged victim, who needs to see a psychologist. Trained and professional children's psychologists can see things that we cannot. Besides faking a molestation can't go too far in their eyes ...If one confesses for molesting a child, I think (I strongly believe) that he/she should be isolated and restricted from congregation members and the ministry until he/she gets some help. But I know that it can't be certain that he/she could be cured. But what can we do? We just have to try keep our place as safe as possible, and try to cope with the problems we have until God's kingdom come ...Age00

It seems the way the JW's change their bible to match their beliefs and justify their different beliefs from other religions. Maybe its not molestation if you pound on enough doors and make all of the book studies for a year. Lets face it God is perfect, Man isn't and when Man thinks he is God you have a very scary situation like those lying bastard at the WT Bill in MN
ANOTHER LAW SUIT!!!!!! Well now everyone knows about it so now I can talk about it! I was in Minnesota (still am right now, I'll be in Dallas later today) when the press conference took place yesterday. Her name is Heidi Meyer. She is a very brave and inspirational person. I stayed at her house during my visit and was strengthened by her display on camera and her interviews with the papers. She was very confident and determined to get the message out. There is a link posted above to one of the many papers that covered the story. It was incredible to be able to witness the stand she has taken--TO DO SOMETHING!!!!!! The other girl who is involved in the same suit has proved to all that you can do something without having to disclose who you are, but you can say who the abuser is and can seek legal action for what they have done to you. Bill Bowen was there also and it was a pleasure to be able to sit down and speak with him. He is so driven by telling the truth and protecting the children. He told us some stories of different experiences he has had with the media and with people he has talked to-- he had tears in his eyes as did everyone listening. Anyone who thinks he is in this for profit is DEAD WRONG!!!! His intentions are the purest I have ever seen in my life!!!! Heidi has come forward and so has the women who has chosen to remain a Jane Doe. This needs to happen everywhere--Nation and Worldwide!! People are listening, KEEP TALKING!!!!!!!!! Love Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

For those who have been victimized please tell your experiences and make them known! I talked with an elder yesterday that saw the Dateline story and said "it was one sided". I believe that even elders don't understand the depth of the situation as to how many people who have been hurt! I told him the Dateline story isn't an isolated case that there are many more stories just like them. I told him I couldn't be part of an organization that protected pedophiles and are left to sit next to us in the Kingdom Halls. I asked "How are we suppose to protect our children against pedophiles when you allow them to remain in our presence?" He didn't have an answer! That pretty much answered my prayers! To The Mole who told me to keep asking questions, I did and didn't come out with a warm fuzzy feeling! Keep reporting from within and keep us informed! To Bill Bowen, keep fighting for those who desperately need your help! Someone in Texas

When are there going to be updates on this site? This site seems like it is dying.

OK, first my apologies to all for not seeing the pain nor the action you are taking. Second, here are some steps I am taking and a few ideas for Bill and those editing the website to consider. My Steps: 1) I am sending to all my email contacts (witnesses and others) weekly updates about the happenings reported regarding this matter. (i.e., the court case in MN, UK action, etc.) 2) My son and I are building a quick app to hit against my personal website that will create for you a free email site to use for posting here. Will publish on this site if Bill requests it. 3) I am moving away from the Watchtower organization – as stated before, there is no hope… Thoughts for the website: 1) How about a link to Jeff Anderson, the attorney for the two young women from Minnesota? Not hard to do and it would be a great step in providing the legal, financial, and psychological relief so many who come here need. 2) Also, are there any therapists who can be reached for those who need help? After reviewing credentials (I believe this is a must) again, a link to contact them could be set up. Random thoughts and visualization of Jericho and Rahab. Will expand on later as I see and hear the sound of trumpets and an assembly marching. There is … Dronj

Thank you for your website. I'm relieved to see that my spouse is not alone! He was raised in the JW religion and did not even know his date of birth until he was in court testifying to the repeated sexual abuse he endured from his stepfather ( a JW). He never has fully understood why his mother (another JW) stood by that man. The man was never sentenced either, despite the accounted sexual and physical abuse of my husband, his two brothers and the three daughters that his mother had with the man. I myself, am doing school research for my RN degree and stumbled across your site. Thanks again , Jenni

HI IT'S JESIKA again. It was amazing to be there for the press conference in Minnesota!!!!!!!!! The strength the two women showed was something words can't describe. To DROJI-- Thank you for the apology although I feel it isn't needed, to know someone has seen how deep this problem is and to understand the pain of those of us who have been through the persecution of the WT is good enough for me. TO the LITTLE LOST ONE, you have decided to disassociate yourself from the org, that is not something we are trying to get people to do. If it is a choice you have made for yourself, I just want you to know we ALL support you. I hope the policy will change, and they will admit it was wrong (I'm crossing my fingers). To the person asking about the quotes of ALLEGED--the suit filed in Minnesota was filed yesterday, so until proven guilty—you know the rest. We all need to celebrate the stand so many are beginning to have, no longer to fear the WT and the reason for speaking out is not to lash out in anger, but it is because it is the RIGHT THING TO DO!!!!!!!!!!! Look into the eyes of the children around you and tell yourself to protect them is your reason for coming forward to tell the truth. You can be referred to as Joe or Jane Doe if you want privacy, but you can still take the action that is needed!!!!!!!!!!! CLASS ACTION SUITS --- I promised I would ask the lawyers about this and what it would take to do so. I was told by Jeff Anderson personally in his office that to file such a suit would involve everyone's experience to be the same. For example—when there is a group of people hurt by the same product than all the victims can come together in a class suit. Since the situation here is so many people were abused by different people and it was handled by different elders there are too many differences for it to fall in the Class Action scenario. I will call Jeff or Bill to see if I can post his phone #. He has already been contacted (Jeff) by over 100 JW's and ex-JW's about the matter of abuse. This was before the press conference. I will post his info after I contact him and have his OK. Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

I am the wife of a man who was raised in a family of JW's (they even donated their land to have a hall built). About three years ago it came out that my husband's step-father molested him when he was a child. What even shocked me more was to know that his mother was aware of the molestation and of how it was handled within the congregation. I now have a wonderful spouse who deals with a lot of anger and rage and withdrawal even now because of something that could have been handled years ago. I believe that this is an organization that is a breeding ground for child molesters. Something needs to be done to keep these people from protecting the animals out there who prey on our children!!

Would it be considered a class action law suit against the WTS, since they dictate the "two witnesses", continued to allow pedophiles to "serve" as elders or JW's in good standing. Also, how they kept people from talking calling it slander, so as to isolate victims from reality. The articles written by the WTS about the Catholic Church was a deep deception of hypocrisy giving the "impression" that this situation would never ever exist with the Congregation of Jehovah. The "product" was the "spiritual" food, the direction of the elders and the claim that it was backed with Holy Spirit.  you probably have covered all this with the attorney but just in case you haven't.  I spoke with a sister today, conversation ended with her "fleeing" from me saying she didn't want to hear anymore. Heard the words "imperfect" again and again. She Blames the naive parents. She showed no love for the Malawis - called it just dirt being brought up. Told me the congregation is being blessed by Jehovah because now they have over 100 people there on Sunday. She questioned how I was being "fed" - I told her I have Jehovah and the bible and she said that wasn't enough. The main impression I was left with is that she showed absolutely no compassion, not for the victims of pedophiles (she said they needed to get over it!) and showed no interest at all in my concerns and said I was being picky. She acted as if we were having a conversation about trivial matters, not grave concerns and that I had the attitude problem. She just kept defending the WTS with their imperfection and that Jehovah knows what goes on behind close doors and that it was none of our business. mmmmmm ...Of course she doesn't really know how grave the problems are - she didn't want to hear of it. I was dismissed, I am sure, as a person who Satan has taken over. She was very angry as she walked away.  She is lacking in love for the individual, everything is for the WTS. I did say to her to be careful that she not worshipping an organization. Oh, well, I do not have any tact as we all know. C.E.
Which must have been what some householders had tried to do. The local response? NO MAILBOXES!!! Your letter will just be returned. There is no way to ensure respect for your privacy and property rights. The situation has not improved with time. Since 1967, Watchtower has been sending known and even in some cases criminally convicted child molesters and rapists to peoples doors. In 2002, an episode of the television show "Dateline" showed two child molesters (one a convicted rapist) going door to door. A few years ago, a member of the group known as "Associated Jehovah's Witnesses for Reform on Blood" began a Kingdom Hall mailing campaign, but it had to be stopped because of the many letters returned, most of which were marked as undeliverable because of no mailboxes. There is no doubt that these conflicts can and will erupt into confrontations. In May of 2001, it was reported that a Cleona PA woman won a $600.00 plus judgment against two Witnesses who "drove down a 300 foot lane past 8 no trespassing signs and 3 dog warning signs." On the website http://www.do-not-call.org/ there is related a story A MOTHER of three children became so fed up with Jehovah's Witnesses calling at her home that she interrupted their Sunday service by banging on their church door and offering them free magazines. She is related as saying that it wasn't the religion that she was upset with, but their persistent proselytizing at her door.The posting of a no-trespassing sign will not solve the problem of the Witnesses calling at your door anyway, but in addition some property owners WANT the Girl Scouts and Greenpeace and organizations like this to come to their doors. Should their desire for privacy be an all-or-nothing affair? Is it only the non-Witness public that is not safe from unsolicited visits from Witnesses? Apparently not; consider this statement from the attorney for William H. Bowen, a Jehovah's Witness and former elder of his congregation, in a letter to his former colleagues: "It is also noted that on Friday, May 24, 2002 you contacted my client by telephone, to which you were verbally informed to only contact his attorney for any type of communication. Mr. Bowen has clearly made his request known in a letter written on October 31, 2001, where he stated 1.Any further communication must be in writing and sent to my attorney... Any verbal communication from this point forward will be considered harassment as you have repeatedly disregarded my request for answers in writing.3.I am formally requesting that no Jehovah's Witness elder or member trespass on my property at any time.. In February of 2002 two Jehovah's Witnesses were sent to my clients home. My client respectfully asked them to leave. Then on another occasion George Bandarra who is well familiar with all correspondence as chairman of the judicial committee chose to ignore my clients request by calling him over the telephone on 5-24-02. My client instructed Mr. Bandarra very clearly all communication must go through his attorney. Yet again, Mr. Bandarra and Jeff Stein ignored my clients request by trespassing on his property June 01, 2002. Mr. Bandarra and Mr. Stein approached the property in a covert fashion coming to the back door and pounding quite loudly, thus frightening children in the home. My client again informed Mr. Bandara and Mr. Stein of his request of all communication going through his attorney and shut the door, at which Mr. Bandarra again disregarded my clients request by throwing a letter on a chair in my clients back yard. This now makes three occasions Jehovah's Witnesses have chosen to disregard clear and explicit instructions to not trespass and harass my client. Any further infractions will result in criminal charges being leveled at your lack of respect for my clients wishes ( http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.asp?id=29568&site=3)Or this communication from Barbara Anderson, a Jehovah's Witness, to her elders in Tennessee: "I further request that all communication be conducted with my attorney. The telephone call to me from Larry Seely did not honor previous demands for all communications to go through my attorney only." (http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/forum/thread.asp?id=29637&site=3) The elders response? "We note that you letter said that you prefer to communicate with the committee through your attorney. We fail to see why this is necessary or even needed ...We trust this explains why the involvement of an attorney is unnecessary and why we are communicating with you directly rather than through an attorney". One of the results of this most recent mailing campaign is a large number of letters marked "return to sender" usually as a result of there being no delivery receptacle. This basically brings to a screeching halt almost any attempts by homeowners to be undisturbed by Jehovah's Witnesses. The pulling of the Kingdom Hall mailboxes and the unwillingness of Jehovah's Witnesses to respect the privacy and property rights not only of the non-Witness public but also their own Witness members only exacerbates an already out-of-control situation. The residents of Stratton Ohio recently tried to wrest back some control of door-to-door solicitation, but the Supreme Court held that portions of the statute was too broadly worded and they were struck down. Stratton Ohio has vowed not to give up. The gauntlet has been thrown down; who will pick it up next? Hey Y'all ...I found this on woman-awake, a yahoo group. Linda Thoman

To every Silent Lamb small victory here in Missouri, legislation just passed that Clergy (YES THAT MEANS EVEN THE ELDERS LOL) HAVE to report suspected child abuse YEA!!! Now they at least will be going against Caesar's law LOL My husband has been wanting to post a sign at our ex-congregation that says "Pedophiles Paradise" since her in Missouri it's been too quite about the Dateline show. Maybe this will save some children from the pain if not maybe some elder will have to spend some time in jail for shielding perverts Love ya all Sheila Madonia

To Linda Thoman: Linda I recommended the book (R. Franz) to a JW I'm emailing with and he gave me this answer;
(don't laugh;-) I'm not afraid of reading. I just have read too much bullshit books up to know full of wannabe evidences etc. It's always the same, many of the people that are disfellowshipped because of certain reasons aren't content not to be a Witness anymore. There proud is broken, they are angry like hell. So they start to become opponents, searching faults or mistakes everywhere, picking cases where people acted incorrectly, making a big story out of it. Or, the second well-known way, is that they complain about how much they have suffered from that bad bad organization, what they had to do all the time, as if they would have been slave. Perhaps they want to calm their conscience by doing this or want to prove themselves that it's good that they are now out and not a JW anymore. And concerning the Government Body, openly speaking I care a shit about what they are accused of or not. This Mme Linda Noname states that you should find out yourself what is going on - but by reading someone else's book full of made up "evidences", of somebody who bears grudges against the organization he once belonged to (if it's true what he claims). Funnily these books are not written be people who are standing outside - never having been a witness - perhaps a journalist who gets into the issue without any prejudices. OK, enough written, there are more important things for me to do at the moment.

Thanks for the info on C.T. Russell ...I guess the next step would be to try to find a birth date for Rose Ball...somewhere around the late 1800's or early 1900's. Probably in Allegheny? The records for these kinds of things are usually very exact and obituaries of that time are usually quite detailed ...Thanks again.

TO C.E. --- The Class Action suits have to have many many similarities. Yes you are right about the policy being the same everywhere, the problem is the victims were handled by different people in almost every instance. Jeff Anderson gave me an example of a situation that the Class Action would apply ... If he could find about 150 victims that were abused by the same person- then it would fall under Class Action. Which he said is very unlikely to find that many people abused by the same person. Even if the scenario exists it is unlikely to have all the victims come forth. The comment about them holding high positions is a problem that has to be handled but I think the key is getting enough people to file suit and bring this to the attention of the media and the law. It is even stated in their policy that a know molester can hold a position after decades of not having been accused. You can read it on their web site. I think it is watchtower.org it is on the front page. It is interesting the example they give to explain why they choose to do this. It is a scenario that would never happen. With all the double talk it is most of the time overlooked, so read carefully it is quite sad when you see how ignorant it truly is. I had someone contact me through my aunt Linda Thoman and asked a question regarding the Class suits that I could not answer. I will be getting info on the question and if it does fit under the Class requirements I will post it. Thanks Jesika Thoman Dallas, Tx

I listened to the video and printed the transcript on the Education on Child Abuse Through Publications of Jehovah's Witnesses - speakers are Stark, Infante and Dickey.  these are my thoughts: Dr. Infante says "If there was any organization that was trying to educate their members about issues related to sexual abuse, I certainly do not think that they would be harboring pedophiles. Certainly not knowingly"  this is exactly what I THOUGHT AND THAT IS WHY THIS IS A BETRAYAL BY THE WTS. #2 these articles on child molestation appeared in the AWAKE, not the Watchtower, therefore directed to the general public rather than members of the congregation. #3 If WTS wanted us to know they would have told us, had Sunday Watchtower Studies that reflected this problem within the congregation and be absolutely open as to what to expect in a Judicial committee and the rights of a person in the country that they reside in. #4 Stark, Infante and Dickey were paid and do not have an unbiased opinion nor do they address the fact that there has to be two witnesses to the crime. Stark, Infante and Dickey do not have any interest other than to support the position of the WTS and get paid. from C.E.

More video and transcript: By Dr. Bethea-Jackson who states that although she went to the most prestigious social work schools, they did not teach a course in child abuse. WTS has the word of God in their hand, and knows that God forbids pedophilia and the abuse of children, yet they hide behind the words and education of a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. The video is called The Progressive Understanding of Child Abuse for Society in General and can be viewed on the Watchtower official web site. I guess we need social workers to tell us what is right and what is wrong or at least wait for them to catch up to the ancient book called the Bible. C.E.

C.E.-Thank you for the update on Mr. Stark. I had asked if he was paid or a member in a much earlier post. (And read some of his essays on the net) What he said seems quite biased and would bring into question why the WTS is constantly mocking and putting down everyone, every country, and every other religion but somehow it is exempt from the Stark assessment. It seems very queer to me (his) argument in support of the WTS philosophy. I can not express how much I feel (I know to feel is a four letter word) for the people effected by the issues that are brought up on this site. Am I shocked? No. Angry? Of course! But not at the JW religion or even its members. They have my pity. I have to comment that I was upset when I read that Mr. Bowen stated that his issue was not about WT doctrine it is about breaking the law. But, after a bit I realize just how right he is. It is not about doctrine at all. It is about criminal behavior. (Romans 13) I have never met Bill but he certainly has my respect. As do the people that are willing to confront this issue and make change.-Sequia

Dear sister, I will be glad to put your comments up on the silentlambs website. I encourage you to read carefully the instructions on the “abused lambs” page, if you do you will note that page is reserved for stories of abuse by molestation survivors. Your story does not seem to meet the criteria there. The “poems and thoughts” page is also reserved for offering comforting scriptures, poems, and thoughts to abuse victims. After reading carefully your comments I find it difficult to believe that they could fit in that category. May I suggest you review 1 Cor. 13:1-3 and please meditate on what it has to say, then ask yourself a question, Where is love to be found in my comments to abuse survivors? I will post your comments on the Guestbook along with mine so many others will be able to see how people who refuse to educate themselves think. I would encourage you to study closely the silentlambs website and think about how you could better support survivors of abuse. silentlambs My story is this! I bet this will not even be put on your web site. You have been very much abused by these individuals. Jehovah knows every hair count on your head. Don’t you think he knows what pain you all are going through? Remember, those individuals who did you wrong even though they may hide it, has an accounting with the most high God Jehovah. Where is your faith? Your LOVE for Jehovah? Yes, all of you have been bitterly hurt and even wrongly persecuted from individuals, injustice. But, are you serving Jehovah only DURING the good times or even during the ROUGH times? Remember David in the bible who was persecuted and even chased down by a murder King Saul who was a servant of Jehovah? David didn't give up serving Jehovah and jumping ship in Jehovah's one and only true faith! His love and faith in Jehovah helped him to endure! Why are you letting MEN that are guilty and Jehovah KNOWS who they are, to destroy your love and trust in Jehovah. Jehovah is looking down at this and probably has TEARS because of the pain you all have went through. But to give in to Satan and his perversion of Men, even among God's people, is not worth giving up your Love for Jehovah and saying good bye to him and his True Faith. Many things will happen in the faith, from even our so called brothers will hurt us just like in Germany when so-called brothers turned their backs on there close friends. But look at how the brothers in Germany that were in prison and some even brutally raped. They STILL served Jehovah and kept faithful to the end. They continued in Malawi even when they were mutilated and raped continually. They STILL Stayed with Jehovah and his true faith. I urge you to NOT let your bitterness make Jehovah have more TEARS. It isn't his fault and he will make the needed changes in his organization to protect his loved ones just like he made adjustments in Israel's time and held those people accountable! Its one thing to talk about the problems at hand and yes, YOU WERE HURT by these men, But it is another thing to put down, Jehovah's WHOLE organization because of some SAULS that are out there!! A brother put it to me this way …Picture a Jet going through the sky and taking you to a better place. Say that you were sitting right next to a Brother and he started to abuse you and persecute you and accuse you and hurt you continually. What would you do? Would you say "I can't take this anymore and even the stewards are not doing anything about this individual so I will just give up and jump out the window of the plane!" No, you would not jump out of the plane. What you would probably do is MOVE SEATS and let the pilot and stewards deal with it all so you can continue in your trip. You are at the back of the plane, probably hurt and complaining which is normal, but you wait patiently until you land the plane. Your patients paid off because when you were getting off the plane the Pilot shook your hand and hug you and said we are sorry for all the pain you had to endure while on your journey. As you look you see dozens of police officers taking different people that were on the plane, harassing others off to Jail! Are You not glad that you did not jump off the Jet? Were you not happy to let everyone see the pilot hug you and reward you for your patience which exonerate you for all the ones that maybe didn't believe you? Your endurance through these hard times paid off for you. The moral of the story is just because some So-called brothers are pretending and doing wrong and hurting you. THEY will NOT get by with it and the GREAT PILOT JEHOVAH will remove those false brothers. You paid for your ticket by getting baptized and entered in Jehovah's Jet and put full trust that this IS the plane that will get me to the place I hoped and dreamed of with all my heart, soul and mind and You put trust in your pilot to get you there! Please, hurt one's out there! Don't jump out of the jet and say bad things about the Jet and the pilot and the very loving good people like yourselves that are in the jet too, trying to endure and even crying tears over some others hurting them. The Great pilot can NOT be FOOLED!!!

It hurts others who are very good servants of Jehovah that we are slandered as that ALL JEHOVAH'S servants are bad or that we are a bunch of child molesters. That hurts me to think that all that I have endured that I and MOST of Jehovah's Witnesses are put in the same category as those false brothers. Jehovah, remember, says that he puts all of our tears in a bottle and remembers it! Psalms 56:8 Job felt the same way at JOB 4:1 He was hurt by his so-called comforters. But remember Jehovah provided Job with at least one GOOD COMFORTER? Job continued to endure and he did not ONCE curse Jehovah and his organization. So please don't give up and jump off the jet and slander it. What else is there out there? Continue, do not let these individuals turn and discourage your dedication to Jehovah no matter WHAT persecution comes your way. Persecution is more hurtful if it comes from your very own brother doesn't it. Well don't you think Satan knows what would break your faith. We live in the 2002 now and here in the USA we are not physical persecuted like in the Holocaust because it DIDN'T WORK, so Satan hits us where it really can be confusing and hurtful among our friends and brothers. Don't play his game don't let him win to separate your love for Jehovah! KEEP remembering David and all that he endured and don't forget JOB who not once talked bad or cursed Jehovah and his earthly organization. Keep going to the meetings and go there for one PURPOSE and that is to please Jehovah and not men. sincerely from Those who love Jehovah and are good people in his organization and see your tears and are enduring also, but not giving in to Satan's plots to destroy are love for the whole association of our brothers world wide.

Hello all. It's been a while since I've been able to write, but I've caught up on all of the entries and some are quite inspiring, while others infuriate me! To Jesika and her family: may Jehovah bless you. I truly believe that no one is bound by an organization; we can believe in God without submitting to "cult-like" beliefs. I find it quite moving that you endure such bravery to stand up and fight the evil within the WTS. You WILL make a difference in many peoples lives, especially the children. I only wish other JW's could see the deception within the organization. It took me 20 years, but I finally followed my heart and made the decision to leave. It pains me that by doing this I am essentially "dead" to members of my family, including my own mother, but I refuse to pass this partiality on to my own child. For those of you who have entered comments regarding the "ease" of reporting abuse, you will NEVER UNDERSTAND the difficulty involved in doing this. Even the elders are not aware of what goes on "behind closed doors". My brother, a P.O., is probably not aware of the secrecy, although, as an abused child himself, he should be able to recognize the deception and fight these illegal policies. BUT, he is driven by power. That is what the organization is all about, POWER. That is why we, as victims, don't feel comfortable coming forth and reporting our abuse. The "Fear of Jehovah" is always looming above us. But it's really not the fear of Jehovah because he would never allow this to continue. Rather, it is the fear of losing your family, friends and the only life you know. I have been on "THE OTHER SIDE" both as a JW and a victim of abuse. I speak with "true knowledge" that I personally experienced, rather than research done at a library. You can't compare JW's with Catholics on any level. Even if a Catholic commits an "evil" act, they are not ex-communicated by their family and friends. This is a very important control tactic used by JW's. It is extremely difficult to make the decision to leave all those who "supposedly" love you. I would compare it to "coming out" as a gay to a non-liberal family, but multiply that by 100! The ONLY reason my abuse case was taken to court was because several "worldly" people (neighbors, teachers and other school personnel) reported the extreme abuse they witnessed my step-father inflicting on us. If it weren't for those people, the case would've remained a "secret" for fear of damaging the reputation of the organization. WELL FINALLY THE "TRUTH" IS COMING OUT!!! Good luck to all those forging ahead and making a difference! And thank you all for giving me the courage to come forth and say "I AM NOT AN APOSTATE, I AM A VICTIM!" May this website save just ONE child from the horror I've survived.

Bill, I have just read the passage the "sister" had written. I haven't picked up a bible in a long time, only to cross-reference Ray Franz's book. After reading the passage she wrote I had to see what 1Cor 13:1-3 had to say. You were right on the nose with that one!!!!!!! The only thing these people are concerned about is the slander against the org. Correct me if I am wrong, isn't it slander if it isn't true!!!! They don't see that it will be a bigger problem if the policy doesn't change. It is always wait on Jah. Well, I waited for 22yrs for something to be done, and low and behold it has been exposed in the media and the law suits have only just begun. How else would the policy change? Why can't they see THAT as a sign from Jah. It is only a sign when it is a favorable one!!!!!!! It truly amazes me how blind and unloving they can be, well I expect it but it just makes me shake my head to know at one time I was the same way!!! I am glad to be of my own mind and not a robot anymore!! Love Jesika Thoman, Dallas,Tx

THE "true faith"?? as in religion or as faith in Jehovah? The ones who "walk away" from the WTS aka as "the faith" have true faith in Jehovah. They thankfully are not on a JET, but on earth! They got off the JET safe and are being comforted by Jehovah. They have not abandoned God and His Truth. The Jet was hijacked and has now safely landed and the hijackers will be brought to justice. Jehovah has so many tears for these hurt ones, that He moved someone to do something about it. Jehovah has not abandoned one of these silent lambs and never will. King David was a grown man being pursued by a grown man - he had the capacity to spiritually, emotionally and physically protect himself. You cannot compare the incomprehensible horror of child sexual abuse, and trivialize it by calling it "persecution." That is an excuse to do nothing about it while attending meetings.  JEHOVAH GOD HAS ALREADY HELPED THOSE WHO ARE HURTING. THEY DON'T HAVE TO WAIT ANYMORE. Jehovah already loves the silent lambs and Hates Injustice, here, now, today !No more waiting  The "jet" story is just a story to say that there is no way off or out, which is a lie. Jehovah is the Sovereign of the Universe and HE ALWAYS MAKES A WAY OUT. Jehovah exists without the WTS, not the other way around.  soap box

Thanks SoapBox-the "sister" is wilfully stupid on this issue. I think she is referring to an airplane graveyard though. I don't think that the plane is off the ground nor was it ever. I am not "bitter" at the JW's but comments like that ...Man she just doesn't get it.-Sequia
...leave my children with that man. I then began a plan of action that took six months to get ready. After all those years of prayers, with "answers?" being that I could get a divorce, and no support or help from my father the P.O., I decided that getting a divorce would be best for me and my children, otherwise my parents/family/children would be attending my funeral at the hands of my husband. The entire time I was planning, saving money for a lawyer and moving expenses, I cannot tell you the immense guilt I felt because I was taught I couldn't leave my husband. After I had all the money I would need, I told my husband to get his *&^%^$# out!!! Oh..he cried and begged and pleaded and made those same old pathetic promises he'd never do it again, yadda yadda yadda. But, I didn't feel a twinge of guilt from the moment I told him I was divorcing him.>>>>To people who have the nerve to say we have no faith in God and are only complainers ...walk in our shoes for just one day! Go through the hell each of us has gone through in full scale and see how you would feel!! >>I STILL have faith in God, but my life has brought me to a place where I am totally lost as to what teachings are really the TRUTH and which are not. I constantly think that everyone has their own interpretation of scripture, so many religions today, how am I supposed to muddle through all the mucky muck and figure out whether I should or shouldn't believe in a Trinity, Hellfire, Holidays, etc. I am at a total loss! I have attended different churches, and I still believe in God and have faith in Him. But when sermons teach things different than what Witnesses teach and are in the back of my mind, I feel a real sense of confusion, my thoughts racing like a tornado through my brain. No one can tell me that I don't have faith in God, no one. But my life as a Witness was only one of pain and abuse at the hands of those who claim to care and love you. My reason for speaking out has nothing to do with complaining. Most of us who have been molested, raped, sodomized and other forms of abuse within the Organization have been kept in a mental prison because of Witness rules. If we speak out we're condemned as apostates, which only safeguards the perpetrators of our abuse. If we keep silent, we continue living in our personal Hell which STILL protects the perpetrators. We are damned if we do and damned if we don't. Change must be made within the hierarchy of the organization. Whether what is taught by Witnesses is the Truth or not, is not the basis for victims speaking out, and I no longer have the desire to put forth the energy trying to figure out who teaches the truth or not. I live my life as best I can, doing good towards others, etc and I will answer to the Lord when that day comes. Linda Thoman ...I'm sorry I haven't been here for a few days. Yesterday, July 5th, was my birthday and we had some partying to do!!! LOL Plus for some unknown reason, my browser on my personal computer kept telling me the site was not accessible. I'm posting this on my Fiance's computer.

Linda, VERY WELL SAID!..............:This issue is not matter of who got the right doctrines but of the abused victims ...Even if the Watchtower Society got every doctrine right, if they practice bad deeds, they have to take the responsibility/ punishment just like the ancient Israelites did. THIS IS A MATTER OF MORAL AND BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!To those calling theses victims "apostates", SHOW ME WHERE IN THE BIBLE SAYS THAT IT IS O. K. TO PROTECT THE PEDOPHILES AND THE ABUSERS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!I can't believe the WTS has this much nerve after making all those false prophecies ( 1914, 1925,1975 ) and having destroyed so many lives along the way. I'm not going to go there now because I don't think it is relevant to the Silent Lambs ...They, the WTS, should be humble, honest, and loving. Yes, really loving. Jehovah, out God is THE Loving God. Jesus said that we'll see by their fruits ...Age00

By the way, to those still denying these victims and supporting the WTS's policies, LOOK UP EZEKIEL 3:18 - 21 ...There is another Ezekiel verse saying that it is wrong to say that the wicked is right and the righteous is wicked. Can't remember ...x-p ...Age00

HI, I think this website is wonderful. I'm no longer a witness and I'm thankful I got out. I think all of you are strong and I now know that a loving God would never tell us to hide abuse or make us put our faith in a human org. I love reading all of the comments on this site. I see so many different feelings on what's going on. I'm saddened for the abuse victims. I do hope they change their policy too but even if they do I will never go back!! To little lost one: Your not lost anymore! You have your own mind now so Go girl or boy!! I know that if you had the strength to leave; you will have the strength to find what God really wants from you. I know because I'm a lot like you and I have found a lot of happiness since I left. Good luck and hope to hear from you again. Thanks to Jesica and Linda you both have been helping a lot of lost ones that come to this site and I hope that your lives will be filled with happiness. Great pulling together!! we really need to do that when crap like this is going on in religions ... Talk to you soon! U.R.

Linda - dare I say "Happy Birthday"?? ?? I totally relate about listening to "doctrine", it gives me knots in my stomach. Not interested anymore in hearing about it.  I say that the 10 commandments, having faith in One God and Jesus is plenty to do!  A lot of people are so busy with "doctrine" issues that they haven't the time to be Christian in behavior or develop a relationship with God or learn Faith. Being a Christian is simple and joyful once we get to it. Christianity is retrieving our "common sense" and critical thinking power (perceptive powers) which were taken from us with lies, and confusion. We know Jehovah made us in His Image and Jehovah is not confused nor does he confuse His Sheep.  Am I getting back on my soap box?? Lies dull the perceptive powers and that is why Jehovah hates a liar. The problem in the Garden of Eden began with a LIE AND IN THE END THE TRUTH WILL PREVAIL. Love, C.E.

The Top Ten Ways To Look More Spiritual Than You Really Are
10 - Always hold your chin and keep a serious look on your face at the meetings, and whenever someone comments, nod your head
9 - Offer the friends suggestions on how they could have done better on their talk
8 - Always talk about the time you placed 10 magazines in 15 minutes
7 - Sing louder than everyone else at the meeting
6 - Bring both insight volumes with you to every meeting
5 - Start every comment by saying "In harmony with brother __________'s comment, and make sure you always cover the A and B part"
4 - After the meeting, continue singing the song that was just sung to close the meeting
3 - Wear field service clothes to the congregation picnic
2 - Ask everyone do they think they are working in harmony with God's will
1 - When someone at your job asks you what you're doing for lunch, tell them you're going to apply 1 Corinthians 15:33 Copied to poor choice of red on blue original. Da’ link, http://www.geocities.com/br_burns/number8.html

Re: "Correct Doctrine" - JWs fall HEAVILY into the syndrome of 'can't see the forest for the trees'. They are IMMERSED in the trees, consumed by them, glued to them, reverent of them, and completely blinded by them. And the big picture? They haven't a clue. They don't even recognize that there IS such a thing as a 'big picture'.

To the lost ones ...It is common that XJWs want NOTHING To do with almost any religion. And yet, I think it is obvious, as stated in the very beginning of the Catholic Catechism that, "Man is a religious being'. We even almost all gesture to the exact same place (our hearts) when we speak of God [actually not sure if that's true for JWs, however]. We KNOW, in our hearts, that God is close by. Especially those of us who have suffered ...He's stood VERY CLOSE to us ... I stayed away from ANY religion for 12 years after leaving JWs. Then made the rounds of many, many different churches and denominations. Also explored American Indian faith and other kinds of belief systems within the Unitarian structure ...today I've found 'home' in Catholicism, which, although VERY deeply Christian, is also more cognizant of the godlike spirituality and motivation of people like Buddha or Mohammed or Gandhi or other Christian leaders of MANY denominations. It has let me love God AND my perceptions. I am no longer in the business of trying to talk anyone into any particular faith, and like many XJWs, I am fairly ashamed that I once did - and succeeded, too. But I always keep in mind the scripture that says that, 'Just like a loving parent, just like you, God will not hear you cry for water and give you a stone'. Searching is good. Believe that the mind and heart and powers of perception that God gave you, along with God and the strength of your prayers, will lead you to a place of comfort. A 'right fit'. For man is a religious being. But too, religion IN COMMUNITY is a loving gift from a loving God ...I pray you will find it one day. Don't be discouraged if it takes awhile. (It might or might not). As you are moving toward your spiritual home, so you are moving towards your life. God bless you. You are all in my prayers.

OK, who said that Bill should shut this site down! That he should come back to Jehovah? You must be a witness at the present and should not even be on this site commenting, right? ARE YOU AN APOSTATE? Do you know that your belief is that you shouldn't be here? Do you know that God can see what your doing in secret? What else are you doing that the elders don't know about but Jehovah knows? Just a thought? Maybe if your going to say that your going to live 100 percent the bible, then maybe you should stop being a hypocrite and coming on this site when they (WTS) tells you not to. Doesn't that bother your conscience? Work on yourself before you come here and Judge!!!!

After many years of abuse (while an elder and P.O.) my husband began to threaten to kill me. He made his threats several times. I ran for help to an elder I respected. He was a regular pioneer and a substitute C.O. His reply? At least twice he said, "You have unfounded fears." Another time I tried to run away. He got two elder friends to "talk" to me. I was accused of hurting him because it would cause him to have "nightmares" if he had to live with the fear me leaving him. I tried to run away again. I called another elder for help. He said I couldn't come to their home. A sister in one of the healing professions acted as my advocate to the elders in one congregation. I had plans to run to her house. The day I was prepared to act on them she said I couldn't come there either. At a new congregation, even after he picked me up and threw me (I sustained bruises and a whiplash) the elders still thought I was "too hasty" in filing for a divorce. Hmm 25 years of abuse and I was being "too hasty?" How does that happen? I was also accused of "making him a subject for adultery" by filing for divorce. He already did that and lost his privileges! These are just bits and pieces from several years and several congregations. Jehovah finally rescued me and got me out. What did the elders do then? Help me? NO. They put "unofficial restrictions" on me which lasted 2 years! They said "Jehovah wouldn't do that!" He wouldn't rescue me from this abusive JW man. Finally, after much struggling and agony I was able to leave this oppressive religion. 43 years of my life imprisoned by mental and emotional bonds stronger than any prison bars. How nice to be in the sunshine again! Thank you for this website. You are doing a good work.
I have never lost a debate with a Jehovah Witness with this simple philosophy, "2+2=4." However, they do have my blessing that one day they find that true path that they strive for. For me, I found it long ago. I would gladly share it with anyone who wants but, I ask a Jehovah's Witnesses this question, "If I could show you a true path towards God, one full of peace, love, and grace ...But the price would be that you would have to see that the WatchTower Society is not the "exclusive channel" Would you still be willing to accept it? All have said no. They have my pity. The eight words of a dying religion is "But we have never done it that way." I hope that one day the body of Jehovah's Witnesses see that just because it is not their way does not mean it is not God's way. "Man's ways are not God's ways." The Watchtower has a dream of a few men's "Perfect Paradise." Be careful what you wish for, you might get it.-Sequia

Barbara from Tampa Bay, e-mail me I would like to talk. I live in Tampa. I have my own story to tell about unloving treatment at the hands of Gestapo elders  Loris  lmatheny@emtecae.com what i find so damn annoying and funny is the hypocrisy among more, shall we say, prominent JWs. Take for instance, Serena and Venus Williams, the African-American tennis players. Supposedly they are unbaptized pubs and only associate closely with others like them--JWs. Serena has even publicly thanked Jehovah God in interviews after tennis matches, most recently Saturday, after winning Championships Wimbledon over her sis. How can they be considered devout JWs in good standing if they are taking up so much time practicing for recreation sports and going to games. I don't see the Society punishing THEM with Disfellowshipment or with loss of privileges ...! They even sang the US National Anthem, stood for it, said the pledge of allegiance, and draped themselves in an American flag. WT HQ or the Williams' congregation does nothing ... But if they weren't so famous and RICH, I bet 2 cents that the folks at Bethel would be on their asses faster than you could say Jehosaphat ...amazing, how hypocritical that is. What do you guys think?

Wow, I didn't know about the Williams sisters being JW's, unbaptized or not, it's interesting. Since they're not baptized, the cong can't DF them, so I would imagine they are not thought of as "true" witnesses by the majority in their cong. Probably raised by JW's, and are walking the fence so to speak. Linda Thoman
I remember years ago when I was studying to a JW, I asked the sister who was conducting the study about the Jackson family (at that time Michael Jackson was DF). The sister and the other sister who was present at that time laughed and said, "We don't even consider them as Witnesses" in very sarcastic way ...So maybe the William Sisters are ignored by the cong. and the WTS, or maybe the WTS think they have a bigger fish to fry: the Silent Lambs. :-O

Sorry, I just saw that I missed "be" in the first sentence. It's "when I was studying to "be" a witness".

Serena's one HOT Jehovah's Witness ...wish she was in my cong. damn she is FINE! Can u say total babe? LOL just ramblin' ...sorry

What's up with Michael Jackson? Don Wade on WLS radio this am just (rightfully) RIPPED him for his pedophilia. It's nice to see that 'Stars' are not any longer getting the free ride they recently were in the department of 'sex crimes'. It will be a welcome change. I hope it sticks. Anybody know what's up?

Can an active JW or an Ex-JW PLEASE answer this question? You know all the stuff about "separating people, goats verses sheep in the book of Matthew, right? The new release called "Worship the Only True God", page 179 from the summer District Convention this year says, " After World War I, there was a separating of all who claimed to be Christian into two classes: (1) The clergy of Christendom and their followers, (ALL THOSE IN CHURCHES) who came out in strong support of the League of Nations (now the United Nations) while still holding fast to their national loyalties, and (2) true Christians (JW's ONLY) of that postwar era, who gave their full support to God's Messianic Kingdom, not to the nations of this world. (John 17:16) These proved themselves true servants of God's Kingdom by undertaking the preaching of "this good news of the kingdom" earth wide. (Matthew 24:14) Okay, here is what I don't understand and never have to be honest. If the separating work didn't begin until after World War I, what happens to all those who died before hand? They will be resurrected onto a paradise earth to learn about Jehovah under much better conditions while the rest of us are being judged NOW?? It appears that I'd have a better chance of "making it" had I lived before 1914-1918! Is anyone following my logic? I have thought for a very long time that the separating work isn't happening now. The Watchtower October 15, 1995 on page 22 says "In other words, the parable points to the FUTURE when the son of man will come in his glory." Page 23 says "Understanding the parable of the sheep and the goats in this way indicates that the rendering of judgment on the sheep and the goats is FUTURE. It will take place after "the tribulation" mentioned at Matthew 24:29-30 breaks out and the Son of man "arrives in his glory." Is it loving to expect everyone to come to an accurate knowledge NOW? My heart says no. I'm hoping that Jehovah is a much more loving God then those who demand so much from us now. It's no wonder I live in a state of confusion!

To Someone In Texas ...I completely understand your confusion. Sad to say, confusion will continue and probably increase, as the Witnesses are continually changing what they believe one day after the next. With all the changes, the "New Light" and "New Understanding", one belief/doctrine long held suddenly changes and all followers are supposed to simply accept (without doubt or question) whatever the Society says is the "current understanding". So, don't get yourself worked up into a tizzy over it. I left the Org Officially in '95, and at the time I was attending, the "understanding" was that the sheep and goats were already being separated. I find it extremely comical, I'm sitting here laughing, that the above quote about the JW's being the only group who were keeping themselves far from the U.N.!! LOL, sorry but this to me is hysterical, since it's already been brought out numerous times in previous posts with links for proof that the Watchtower Society was a MEMBER if the U.N. for TEN YEARS, and only last October withdrew their membership when people started questioning them about it. I also have recently learned that the new book you referred to replaces a previous book, and that at least 3 original chapters were removed! Hmm, I wonder what the Society's doctrine/Belief will have changed to now. ??? I wouldn't be the least bit surprised if the Society comes out with a whole new book, with more remarkable "new light". LOL Linda Thoman

Hi Linda, "Worship the Only True God" that was just released, what book did it replace, do you know? I understand what you mean about "new light/new understanding all too well! What's sad is everyone believes whatever the WTS says because it's being directed by Jehovah himself. But then I ask myself, would Jehovah approve of what is going on? The answer is a screaming NOOOOOO! I hope you have found true peace and happiness! Are we sheep or goats? Let's not ask! LOL Someone in Texas

Subject: Spare the rod-spoil the organization --- Well you might say we had a marvelous time in Minnesota. I traveled to ST Paul Minnesota on Monday of this week to meet with Jeff Anderson and discuss upcoming defendants that are coming out to sue Watchtower. On Tuesday I was able to meet Heidi Meyer for the first time. She had contacted me after viewing the Dateline program and was motivated as many others are to stand up and do something about being silenced by her local elders. Heidi reported that her molester may have molested as many as ten young girls. Yet he still remains a JW in good standing and reads for the book study. Along with Heidi is a "Jane Doe" who chose to remain anonymous to the public. Both are 22 years of age and on Tuesday through Jeff Anderson's office filed yet another lawsuit against Watchtower. This will now make officially five young women who are in litigation with the Society over being molested. --- The press conference was held at Mr. Anderson's office. The office occupies the entire floor of a St Paul high rise. We were hoping to have at least two cameras and a newspaper show up for the press conference. As 1:30 pm neared the press just kept coming, we kept having to wait for them to set up more cameras. Finally fifteen minutes late we came into a huge conference room. There were five cameras running, representing a clean sweep of all televised media in the Minneapolis area. Both of the major newspapers were there along with the AP and a few other reporters that I did not know who they were with. We expected the press conference to last 15 minutes, it lasted an hour. The reporters just kept asking questions, you know the kind JR Brown cannot answer unless he hands out his one year old video. It was amazing to see how quickly they were getting it and the look of disdain and shock when they realized what Watchtower Policy had done to these beautiful young ladies. After the Conference the story was up on the internet within thirty minutes. We went out to celebrate and at a local pub got to watch ourselves on television. A few people came up to the table and asked if that was us on TV and we were happy to explain the basis for our faith.....no wait, instead, we talked about JW elders hiding child molesters locally. Everyone gave us atta boys and appreciation for what we were doing. One person there was so moved he bought everyone at our table a round of drinks as a salute. There are no words to describe the look of hope and vindication that was found in the eyes of these young sisters. They were no longer silentlamsb they had taken their power back from those who had robbed it from them. There was also a young sister who came from over 1500 miles away when she heard about the lawsuit being filed. She just wanted to be there for support, she had never met either of these sisters before, she is a survivor of a JW molester. It moved Mr. Anderson so much to see her there..... Well, let's just say you might be learning her name soon in your local paper, but why should we allow Watchtower to know when or where? --- As we sit and talked I mentioned that it appears we spanked Watchtower again. You may recall that as a quote that was made in the Paducah paper when the judicial committee failed to show for their hearing. I went on to say it seems this is getting to be a habit when you consider the events of the last year. Time and again when they maneuver their misinformation moves, it blows up in their faces. It was then Heidi made the comment, "Well you know Bill the bible says, Spare the rod, spoil the organization." What better quote to end this with than that, I think I will go write that on the bathroom wall, "Spare the rod, spoil the organization." --- Below you will see the articles I have been able to find on this, if you find others send them to me and I will put it on the sl list. Please remember to write the reporters and editors of these papers and express appreciation for their efforts. --- Regards, Bill [urls to articles already posted by others] hold a position of authority in the church and cannot perform church work alone.” --- Watchtower Media Website

Statement-Brooklyn, NY—“In a few instances, individuals guilty of an act of child abuse have been appointed to positions within the congregation if their conduct has been otherwise exemplary for decades. All the factors are considered carefully…’Let us say that 20 years have passed…’ the man could possibly be appointed to a responsible position within the congregation.” --- 3. Do you know how many child molesters are in your local Kingdom Hall? If so what are their names? --- Paducah Sun-Paducah, KY 1-28-01—"Moreno of Watchtower Legal, agreed with Bowen’s charge that a congregation would also not be told if a pedophile had joined the flock." --- News Channel 6-Paducah, KY 5-15-02—"Members at Bowen's old Kingdom Hall in Draffenville admit discouraging members from telling just anybody. "The difference between needless gossip, let's say, and withholding information from those who have a right to know is two different things completely," says Jehovah's Witness Bruce Waite." --- Help Jehovah's Witnesses to understand Watchtower Policy by sharing statements their leaders have made to media, encourage them to write home office and demand proper changes be made to protect all children who come in contact with Jehovah's Witnesses.

- On September 27th 2002, we are asking for survivors and supporters of those who have suffered abuse within the
silentlams we care about children, in addition, we wish to let abuse survivors know that are not alone and have our support. This will be a united statement to the Watchtower organization that they must change policy to protect our children. Also, if you can serve as an eye-witness it is another way to take a stand for righteousness in behalf of all silentlams. --- WHO MAY COME? EVERYONE! At silentlams we practice "don't ask don't tell" when we gather for important events. We do not care if you are DF, DA, or what you may personally hold as belief. We ask that all simply support those who were abused as Jehovah's Witnesses without prejudice as to standing in the organization. If you plan to attend please email and let us know how many are in your group to help us to know beforehand how large a group will be there so we may plan accordingly. --- WHERE: The march will start on the west side of Pierpoint Place and Columbia Heights we will then walk about seven blocks to our destination 25 Columbia Heights. --- WHAT WILL WE DO? When we arrive, those who wish as time allows, may make a sixty second statement on how their lives have been affected by abuse within the Jehovah's Witness organization. All are invited to bring a stuffed lamb for each Jehovah's Witness victim of abuse they know to leave as a symbolic gesture of how many have been hurt by Watchtower Policy. --- EYE WITNESSES: If you wish to serve as an eye-witness regarding how the Governing Body has allowed Watchtower Policy to hurt children, you are invited to come forward. Please email your name, address, and telephone to Bill Bowen at info@silentlams.org. Whatever your status regarding the organization you have the right to serve as an eye-witness. Read enclosed letter to the Governing Body for further explanation. Please bring any written documentation such as Watchtower correspondence along with your first hand experience of what happened to you or your family when abuse problems arose. Please be willing to explain how you were hurt by Watchtower Policy. --- TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS: We have obtained discount hotel and rental car discounts if you wish to attend and spend the night. Please email at assistance@silentlams.org and let us know how many in your group are planning to attend and we will provide you with a list of accommodations to choose from and how to make arrangements. You can also arrange air travel through www.travelocity.com <http://www.travelocity.com/> --- TRAVEL FUND: If you wish to assist abuse survivors to attend who are financially unable, we are setting aside a special silentlams travel fund. I am contributing the first $100 to help those who may not be able to afford travel expenses. Your assistance will determine how many we can assist to be there. --- If you need financial assistance to attend, please email as assistance@silentlams.org Please send your name address and telephone as well as a brief description of what assistance you need in order to participate in the silentlams march. --- WHY COME? I think it is best described by poem that was posted on my Guestbook, it goes as follows: --- It's not enough to have a dream unless I'm willing to pursue it ... It's not enough to know what's right unless I'm strong enough to do it ... It's not enough to join a crowd, to be acknowledged and accepted ... I must be true to my ideals, even if I'm left out and rejected ... It's not enough to learn the truth unless I also learn to live it ... It's no enough to reach for love unless I care enough to give it ... --- In conclusion, it is an honor to be associated with those who speak and take a stand for what is right. Your efforts to attend will make a difference. Abuse survivors are the real heroes of silentlams, with hearts like a lion and courage like David, their actions protect children they will never know. Our united efforts will protect children who have yet to be born. --- June 6, 2002 --- Service Committee/Service Department c/o Watchtower 25 Columbia Heights Brooklyn, NY 11201 --- Dear brothers, --- I am writing to address a serious matter involving the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses. The basis of this letter is found in the scriptures at Galatians 2:11-14. In those verses it describes the occasion when Paul confronted Peter for wrongdoing. The humble reaction of Peter not only showed his repentance but his willingness to follow theocratic direction. --- It is interesting to note in a recent letter dated February 7, 2002, this position was reiterated by the head of the Department of Public Information, J. R. Brown. Therein Brother Brown states, "Our Governing Body is willing to resolve differences of opinion within the framework of the congregation and according to Scriptural principles." This is a welcome affirmation of how an organization directed by God's spirit should operate. No one is above God's law, even as Peter who walked with Christ did not consider himself above reproach from a fellow elder when he became involved in wrongdoing. --- Wrongdoing is a serious matter within God's organization. By the directions we are offered, no one is above the directives offered by His organization and anyone who knows of serious wrongdoing and does not report it would in effect, "share in the sin" thus making them subject to a similar judgment for not reporting the matter. To provide the basis for this opinion I refer to the 1985 Watchtower where it makes this statement: ---  w85 11/15 21-2 Do Not Share in the Sins of Others  Elders must also be alert not to protect one another or ministerial servants if one of them has committed a serious sin that could result in disfellowshipping. They should follow the principle outlined by Paul, who wrote: "Never lay your hands hastily upon any man; neither be a sharer in the sins of others; preserve yourself chaste."---1 Timothy 5:22. --- Today I write this letter as a fellow elder and Jehovah's Witness in good standing. Why do I make that statement? In December of the year 2000 I made public my decision to resign as an elder in protest of Watchtower Policy regarding how child molestation was handled in the Christian congregation. While on December 31, of that year the Circuit Overseer informed me that he accepted my resignation, yet to date, no announcement to the congregation has been made in that regard. By protocol within the organization it would appear as a result I remain an elder until that announcement is made. Please refer to the June 28, 1999 letter to All Bodies of Elders where it states: --- [Page-2; June 6, 2002] --- “An announcement of deletion should be made to the congregation after receiving from the Society the returned S-2 form or an S-52 letter indicating that the recommendation has been approved. In such a case, the brother should be informed of his deletion before the announcement is made.” --- So according to this information the deletion does not take effect until the announcement is read to the local congregation and I am informed of it being given, thus it appears that along with being a Jehovah's Witness in good standing I also remain an elder. It is true this is a loophole but you might compare it to the loophole used by Watchtower Legal to avoid reporting child molestation in 33 States. As they use their loophole to protect the image of the organization, I use my loophole to try and protect children. Therefore with the above thoughts in mind I as a Jehovah’s Witness and fellow elder wish to make the following charges against the Governing Body of Jehovah's Witnesses: 1. Apostasy-The Governing body has taken action against the true worship of Jehovah and the established order among his dedicated people (Jer.17:13; 23:15; 28.15,16; 2 Thess. 2: 9,10). They have deliberately spread and stubbornly held to teachings contrary to Bible truth in the establishment of an organizational Policy that hurts children. 2. Loose Conduct-The Governing Body has shown a disregard for theocratic order in their failure to protect the flock. (Gal. 5:19;2 Pet. 2:7; w83 3/15 p.31; w73 9115 pp, 574-6; it-2 p. 264 ) 3. Causing Divisions-The Governing Body has committed deliberate action to disrupt the unity of the congregation and undermined the confidence of the brothers in Jehovah's arrangement by their inaction on matters concerning child abuse and battered women. (Rom. 16:17, 18; Titus 3: 10,11 ) The actions of the Governing Body in establishing Watchtower Policy with regard to how child molestation is handled in the Christian Congregation at the direction of the Service Department, Legal Department, District Overseers, Circuit Overseers, and local elders, has broken God’s law and destroyed the lives of many faithful brothers and sisters. Therefore I formerly request to resolve this matter “within the framework of the congregation and according to Scriptural principles,” by calling for a judicial committee to be convened in Brooklyn, New York on September 27, 2002 of three impartial elders who are spiritual men with no fear for standing up for righteousness. I will bring several hundred eye-witnesses who will provide extensive evidence in the form of written documentation, personal experience, and eye-witness testimony, to accuse the Governing [Page-3; June 6, 2002] Body that by their policy on child molestation they are guilty of racketeering, witness tampering, conduct unbecoming a Christian and crimes against children. It is my hope the judicial committee will be able to find acts of repentance commensurate with their wrongdoing committed against children. If so then Public Reproof will help the organization of Jehovah's Witnesses to know the Governing Body has become truly repentant humble men and will act in the best interests of Jehovah's Witness children. On the other hand if proper works of commensurate repentance cannot be found or if they try to minimize the wrong, the Governing Body should be disfellowshipped and not reinstated until they take responsibility for their actions. The date has been set months in advance to give the Governing Body time to make appropriate arrangements to be present as well as prepare for their defense and also to give the witnesses against them sufficient time to make travel arrangements. It is my optimism the Governing Body much like the Apostle Peter, will humbly address these matters in the best interests of the entire organization so as to bring God's blessing and holy spirit in full flow upon his people. I offer you ten days from the date of this letter to respond in a timely manner, along with this letter goes my warm Christian love. Very truly yours, William H. Bowen on behalf of Silentlambs, inc. PO Box 311 Calvert City, KY 42029 --- cc. Governing Body Greetings Lamb/Ladies/Gents ... thought you would find comfort from this "unofficial poll" taken by an elder from 10 members of his own congregation: the Dateline show. This is "legit info" from a reputable source, i.e., from the friend of this elder, and I was given "permission" to post it to the SL Guestbook. Love, SLC --- Date: 7 Jul 2002 06:22:42 -0000 Subject: An informal poll --- I received this email from a former elder and friend who is still associated with Jehovah's Witnesses. He took this small poll after the Dateline airing from individuals within his congregation. He gave the OK to post his results here. --- Witness response to pedophilia issue --- Dear xxxxxx: --- It was great seeing you at xxxxxxxx. My family all commented very favorably on meeting you. Here is some information on the informal and tiny poll of Witness reactions to the airing of the pedophilia situation in the organization. In total, I had reports from about ten witnesses (mostly sisters) who commented about the problem immediately after it aired, in private discussions, and only one blamed the apostates and only one blamed the local bodies of elders - the rest of the Witnesses felt the problem was due to the society and felt that the policy must change. --- There was virtually no expression that the whole thing was a media ploy to cast the Witnesses in a bad light. I do not have any feedback on how this has affected field service nor any information on how the public is responding to Witnesses in the door to door ministry. The responses included: One sister, with over forty years as an active witness said: "I was sick all night, the policy must be changed, I can't go out in service this morning." --- Another sister, a pioneer, was stunned by the revelation of this problem. She could not believe it how the society could allow such a thing. --- Still another sister, raised in the truth commented that the problem is due to the local bodies of elders, not the society. --- Another sister, who has been around the truth all of her life but is not very active, initially blamed the apostates. She later conceded that something must be done to correct it. (The pedophilia problem.) --- A brother, raised in the truth (and the father of a 4 year old daughter) but inactive and not a strong witness, thought the media overplayed the issue but thought that it is a serious problem. --- A sister who has been a Witness for more than 40 years thought the program was objective and concluded that the societies policy must change. --- An elder, who has served many years, feared that thousands more will be coming out of the woodwork. He thinks it is a serious problem.

I thought everyone would find this very interesting ... a thread from one of the JW forums regarding the "scream/don't scream" issue. Love/SLC --- New Message on Just JW: <http://groups.msn.com/JustJWs> --- SCREAM DON'T SCREAM? --- JW women have a greater need than JW men to stay ever vigilant and attentive of the Watchtower's back and forth rules and regulations which they have the nerve to teach is "new light" from God. Why is this? If a JW woman is raped, she may actually face disfellowshipping from the body of elders who will interrogate her soon after the crime has occurred and will listen with the utmost attention to every little detail. Depending on the "new light" from the Governing Body, if she doesn't scream during a rape, she will be charged by the Elders as an adulteress ... someone who may have actually 'enjoyed' the violent act because of her silence. Yet, this rule has changed back and forth several times. In effect, if a JW woman was raped in 1964 and she didn't scream, she would be disfellowshipped. If another JW woman was raped in 1969 and she didn't scream, she would NOT be disfellowshipped. Therefore, if a JW woman does not want to be branded an adulteress and taken away from her loved ones by the hate crime of disfellowshipping, she had better pay particular close attention to the latest vacillating "NEW LIGHT" from the Governing Body. --- Take a look for yourself at the following list of insane "new light" vacillation. It's enough to make you want to ... --- No. If you don't scream you won't be disfellowshipped. --- Prior to January 15, 1964 <BLINK>YES!</BLINK> SCREAM OR BE DISFELLOWSHIPPED!! --- Watchtower, January 15, 1964, p. 63 No. If you don't scream you won't be disfellowshipped. --- Aid to Bible Understanding, 1969, pp. 601, 1371 <BLINK>YES!</BLINK> SCREAM OR BE DISFELLOWSHIPPED!! --- Awake!, March 8, 1974, p. 14 No. If you don't scream you won't be disfellowshipped. --- Awake, July 8, 1980, pp. 5-6 <BLINK>YES!</BLINK> SCREAM OR BE DISFELLOWSHIPPED!! --- Watchtower, October 15, 1980, p. 7 No. If you don't scream you won't be disfellowshipped. --- Watchtower, March 15, 1983, p. 30 <BLINK>YES!</BLINK> SCREAM OR BE DISFELLOWSHIPPED!! --- Awake!, February 22, 1984 No. If you don't scream you won't be disfellowshipped. --- Awake!, June 8, 1984 (just 3 months later!!!) <BLINK>YES!</BLINK> SCREAM OR BE DISFELLOWSHIPPED!! --- Awake!, May 22, 1986, p. 23 No. If you don't scream you won't be disfellowshipped. --- Awake!, September 22, 1986, Christ in providing the ransom may be used as evidence that she has not been defiled in God's eyes by someone being assaulted. It is the rapist who sinned and needs to be cleansed. However, the love shown by Jehovah and Works-How? “So today, if a sister has been attacked and raped and this has caused her to feel dirty and worthless, said she was sorry for breaking the rule that not longer existed. That's the way it works. --- Later on this article woman had been DF'd, say the week before for not screaming, she would still be DF'd until she came forward and powered, lofty scriptural reasoning went out of the door with that article. Of course you must understand that if any threat and is active, not passive. --- It seems that after all that time they finally decided that it was possible for a want because of the perceived power held over her by another person. When a woman is forced to submit to a rapist Thus, a rape victim is not guilty of fornication. Like an incest victim, she may be forced to submit to an act she doesn't want whatsoever, against a person's will. It is the rapist's use of force against an unwilling victim that makes him a rapist. Therefore, a rape victim is not guilty of fornication. Like an incest victim, she may be forced to submit to an act she doesn't want because of the perceived power held over her by another person. When a woman is forced to submit to a rapist out of terror or disorientation, it does not mean that she consents to the act. Consent is based on choice without threat and is active, not passive. --- It seems that after all that time they finally decided that it was possible for a woman to be raped and not be guilty of fornication for not risking her life in an effort to resist. All that former high-powered, lofty scriptural reasoning went out of the door with that article. Of course you must understand that if any woman had been DF'd, say the week before for not screaming, she would still be DF'd until she came forward and said she was sorry for breaking the rule that not longer existed. That's the way it works. --- Later on this article appeared which at the very least suggests that the no scream, rule is still in place: w95 4/1 20 Incite to Love And Fine Works-How? "So today, if a sister has been attacked and raped and this has caused her to feel dirty and worthless, would it be appropriate to stress her need of the ransom to cleanse her of that sin? Certainly not. She did not sin in being assaulted. It is the rapist who sinned and needs to be cleansed. However, the love shown by Jehovah and Christ in providing the ransom may be used as evidence that she has not been defiled in God's eyes by someone else's sin but that she is precious to Jehovah and remains in his love. "Compare Mark 7:18-23; 1 John 4:16." --- As of now, the no scream, rule is still in effect. However note this article in the more recent w98 12/15 p. 25 and tell me if this doesn't make your skin crawl as you anticipate a possible switch once more!' ---  There are, of course, limits to cooperation. Jehovah's servants do not cooperate in any way that violates God's law. For example, a Christian would not willingly submit to rape." --- My question is: When is willful submission rape? Does not the very term itself scream out that it is not done with the victim's permission? --- END OF QUOTED POSTS from JustJws.

Did I read on here in an earlier post that someone asked about the new book release missing some chapters? -- Well, if I did read that here, I saw this comment at another forum tonight. Someone wrote: "It seems that the new United In Worship book is missing three important chapters that were in the previous book: The chapter on blood; The chapter on identifying the 144,000; and one more, but I can't remember what it is. These were all very important chapters dealing with key doctrinal issues. Why do you think they were eliminated?" --- END OF QUOTED POST.

HI, I have found a translation of the bible that I think may be a 'good thing'. I few weeks ago a man came up to me and asked me "May I show you just one small difference in the bibles printed today?" He proceeded to show me how Matthew 24:36 reads But as to that day and that hour, no one knows, neither the angels of Heaven, except My Father only. (Notice is says day and hour) further down in Matthew 24:42 Watch, then, for you do not know in what hour your Lord comes. (Notice it says you do not know in what hour) MOST BIBLES HAVE REPLACED THIS HOUR FOR DAY changing the verse to 'you do not know in what day your Lord comes. He explained in detail why this is an important change. I know that later in Matthew it says day nor hour BUT WHY CHANGE Matthew 24:32? just one word difference, why? This man who I did not know said to me that it is the evil one doing it to confuse the children. It may not be important to anyone but It may be. This following link, I found a bible that can be read online or even downloaded that seems 'a good thing' I honestly haven't read it through, I just thought those interested in a translation that may be a 'good thing' might want to check it out. www.litvonline.com If not, sorry to have bothered you all! RE: the poll: I just got 8/15/02 Watchtower. It has "To Whom Should You Be Loyal?" on the cover, and some of the inside articles it has are "A World With Distorted Views on Loyalty", "To Whom Should You Be Loyal?", "I Set The Pattern For You (with partially quoted Heb.5:12)", "Follow Me Continually", "How Can Thinking Ability Safeguard You?", "Would You Maintain Your Integrity?": Something tells me that many JWs might be refusing to follow them blindly. It's a different time and generation than 1975, you know ...Age00

To Someone in TX regarding the separating work after WWI: I read an article that was similar to that. It was not too long ago. I can't remember the exact title, but it was talking about heavenly calling vs. earthly calling. I think the article said that the earthly calling (the great crowd) began after 1918. So I asked a brother who was a former elder and a faithful JW for many decades (I was pre-studying the article with his family), "If I was a JW back in 1917, would I have a heavenly calling or at least have a better chance to be in heaven?" He said that the article meant "more concentration on the great crowd." ...Hmm ...I'd better look at it again because I'm sure that it didn't say either "emphasizing" or "concentrating" on the great crowd, the earthly calling ...Age00

It seems that the lambs are roaring right along. I hope to make it to N.Y. in September. I don't get out of Tampa too often. Bill's letter to the GB was profound!!! Breathtaking!!! Both Claudine and BJC e-mailed me to tell me that Newsweek July 8 had published my comment. I bought it yesterday and sure enough there I was on page 16 with my foot in my mouth. They edited my comment and changed it somewhat. I have never referred to a JW as being a member. But the general idea was the same. I showed a co-worker the article because I was disturbed. I shared some of the conflict that has been going on inside of me since the Dateline piece aired. His solution was for the Silentlambs group to form a new church and leave the old one alone. But it isn't about that. It is about the children and battered women still within the organization. It is about the thousands who have been damaged and cry out for justice. Pressure must continue on the WTS until they listen and relent. If I have to suffer the wrath of my local elders for speaking out and voicing my opinion then so be it. I may become DF'd but as a sister said to me in an e-mail, Even if this is not a battle we can win; we can choose the battlefield we die on. I choose this battlefield and I choose to fight with honor for the sake of the children. I was unable to stand up for myself and my children twenty years ago. Today I can stand and fight for others in similar situations today. They don't have to be alone anymore. Love ya'll Loris

Hi my name is "manirus". I am a 35 year old male who from NS Canada who suffered from sexual and various other forms of ritual abuse. Because of this I have DID or as formerly known Multiple Personality Disorder. I was not abuse at the hands of JW's, however, when I went to a body of elders for support and shepherding they attempted to disfellowship me as one they felt was demonized. Strange part is they had never seen me do anything that would be considered strange ... I guess my point is when you go and expose the shameful things that have been done to you ... you need support and understanding ... you need a willingness on the elders part to educate themselves about your situation. Now in my case there was no one accused who was a JW but knowing how they reacted to the knowledge of my condition I know they would have covered it up had there been someone accused of such. I was expendable because they thought that I was too time consuming. I had to move away from that congregation but when I tried to get the Society to deal with the elder for slander and gossip and abuse of power ... it was covered up and swept under the carpet. I even had 6 or more witnesses to the slander and such but still nothing was done. They were more concerned about congregation Public Relations than the truth. I now am in an other congregation but things are not much different with these new elders as they do not like to shepherd ... I am basically now just keeping to myself ... very rarely go to the hall. I applaud the efforts that this site is making in exposing such abuse of power and corruption on the part of brothers who do not do things properly. Any comments can be sent to manirus@hotmail.com. thanks Manirus (Many R Us :) )

Back at you in Texas, thanks for telling me about the "Worship the Only True God" being replaced by "United in Worship of the Only True God". Goodness, I should have figured that one out on my own. DUH, on my part! Someone mentioned that there are three chapters that the new book doesn't have, they are right! Three chapters that are NOT in the new "Worship the Only True God" but IS in the "United in Worship of the Only True God" is as follows ...Chapter 14..I Make a Covenant With You for a Kingdom. Chapter 19..What the Mosaic Law Means to You. Chapter 20..Life and Blood-Do you Treat Them as Sacred? It's interesting to see that both books have the same number of pages. So my question would be this, is the same information in the new book as the old book, but just scrambled? I can't imagine THOSE topics not being in a "Study Book". I'll have to read to find out. Someone mentioned awhile back about the Watchtower and Awake magazines not being able to get them as a subscription. That simply isn't true, I receive ours in the mail. Bill, I hope the peaceful march in New York, is a huge success! Keep us informed! Someone in Texas

Hey Jessika. You go girl! If there was anyone to represent the silentlambs other than Bill, you would be the one I am proud that you did. Hey is there an address to write to Oprah and such. I would like to write and give support. To Linda!! Happy Birthday !! It's great being able to celebrate your birthday again ain't it!! So Once again Happy Birthday or as I usually say Happy New Year because you're birthday is a new year at least in my opinion. Take care mslaydj aka Jean D. Jones

Thank you Jean for the birthday wish! It was a wonderful birthday this year! Of course, they all seem to be coming faster and faster every year! LOL About the new book that's come out with missing chapters ...I've read somewhere that there is a good possibility that the Society is planning a new release on Blood, I just wish I could remember where I read that. I look up information on so many sites, I have forgotten where I saw it. Anyway ...I can't help but wonder what the fallout would be when witnesses who've refused blood for their children or themselves suddenly start being told the "new understanding" is that it's all a matter of conscience! I vaguely recall hearing that a few years ago an "adjustment" was done regarding the Blood issue, and that the Society only put a very small and brief comment in the Questions From Readers thingy ...very sneaky I say. Like, who really reads that? LOL Not me, not me!!! LOL I find it rather telling that a book is released that is obviously REPLACING another book, and ...there are chapters missing ...hmm. Funny how the Insight Book replaced the Aid Book too, huh? Linda Thoman Linthoman0705@aol.com

I agree with the comment to 'start a new religion' and go from there ...give the current lambs something to run TO when they can't get anything out of the WTS ...The WTS may implode anyway. Lord knows, they deserve to ...'If you always do what you always did, you'll always get what you always got'. A big sign of a lack of emotional intelligence is to keep trying the same thing, over and over and over, even when you can SEE that it just ain't workin'. Sometimes you just gotta strike a new path. God bless Bill and all the lambs.

One big, big problem I have ...social workers and others in their field have known FOR YEARS that Jehovah's Witnesses had a BIG problem with child abuse and sexual abuse ...When asked recently, 'how could they let this go on?', the response was, 'You just can't interfere with someone's religion. People have religious freedom in this country and the freedom to raise their kids any way they want to.' ...No, they don't. There are laws to protect against some crimes against children. There ought to be laws to protect against the rest. Shame on the decades of social workers and others who have kept quiet on this topic. I'd like to know what their response is. Why? I'd like them to tell me why.
