The 2020 University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt List

The University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt Organization Committee

13 May 2020
SCAV TEAMS AND THE RULES OF THE HUNT

1. Acquisition of Items. All Items on the List can be obtained and performed legally AND WITHOUT BREAKING SHELTER IN PLACE ORDERS, CDC GUIDELINES, OR TAKING UNNECESSARY TRIPS OUT OF THE HOUSE. All Items on the List should be able to be done by one person with things materials they could reasonably already have inside their house. The Judges take no responsibility for your getting thrown into the clink—be it local clink, state clink, federal clink, moral klink, or Colonel Klink. If you end up there, it is your fault.

2. Fair Play. Sabotage is bad. We don’t like it, and we don’t want it in the Hunt. Sabotaging teams or their Items can lead to immediate disqualification, and we may even lose the hounds of the Administration on you.

3. Contact with Judges. While we don’t want to complain and say that Judges have it so tough, Scav Hunt is always teetering on the edge of sheer chaos, and if we can avoid it, we should. Thus, please only communicate with the Judges if you are going to do it in a professional manner. Generally, just remember that the more people shout, the less will be understood. That seems like it makes sense, no?

4. Props. All props must, always and forever, be mad props.

5. Points. Point totals are final. We ask you to do awesome things and expect awesome things to be done. If you do said awesome things, the Judge will accord to you Full Points, the highest number of points possible for any Item. In rare cases—for example, if we ask for a car and you give us the Batmobile with both George Clooney and Adam West inside—we will consider giving you one special point. Maybe two. As far as point values, well, we use a dartboard, numberwang, and Tibetan numerological methods to determine how much Items are worth, so no complaining that “the lazy eye patch was worth more than the moonbounce made of guns!”

6. Items. Be aware that doing Items nude when it’s not explicitly asked for will not get you more points. Nor will involving alcohol in Items that don’t clearly call for alcohol. The same goes for alcohol’s redheaded, stepchild cousins, sex and drugs. Please note that few Items explicitly call for nudity, alcohol, or either of the aforementioned redheaded variants. Lastly, we don’t like to harm large mammals that can make sad eyes at us, so please treat any non-humans involved in your Items with extreme care.

7. Preliminary Events. The deadlines for the submission of Items and performances are final as stated on the List or as announced by the Judges at the Captains’ Breakfast, which happens at 9:00 a.m. CDT at a Zoom link which will be announced on the Captains’ listhost. It is the Captains’ responsibility to make sure that they submit these in a timely manner. Items that do not have a discrete time/place stated on the List are not preliminary and therefore must occur at Judgment. Upon request, we may, at our discretion, come to see an Item through a virtual meeting at a prior time and medium alternative to Judgment. Consider this a privilege, and use your “Come See Our Items” requests sparingly.

8. For all items conducted via Zoom, links to the meeting will be given out at Captains’ Breakfast and on the Captains’ listhost.

9. Due to the circumstances of quarantine, Judgment Day shall function in the following fashion: the deadline for submitting Items for Judgment (unless otherwise specified in an Item’s text) is 12:00 p.m. CDT on Sunday, May 17th, 2020. The primary method for submitting Items will be to attach them in an email sent to the following email address:

SCAV_40.2iaw3rewy03zgf81@u.box.com

This will upload the email’s attachments to a UChicago Box owned by the Judges. Items file names should also be in the following format:

item###_TeamAffiliation.ext

“Team Affiliation” in this case refers to the Team that the submitter is associated with (e.g. Snell-Hitchcock, GASH, Jannotta). In the case of alumni teams, please use your Team Name instead, as to prevent confusion between submissions for alumni teams. Scavvies should also cc scav404@gmail.com to their submission emails in case UChicago Box submission does not work for some reason. Because they will also be sent to this email address, please address the subject line of the email in the following format to make it easier for us to find your Item:

Item ###: Team Affiliation

Please be aware that some email addresses do not work for encrypted file uploading through emails, although Gmail has been shown to work in the past. Item submissions with multiple files (e.g. multiple pictures of an Item, different components of a single Item) should be compressed together into a ZIP or RAR file that is named using the above format. Video Items and similarly large files can also be uploaded as YouTube videos or Google Drive links or other link types as long as the appropriate permissions are accounted for such that the Judges will be able to view the Item. In this case, please email scav404@gmail.com using the above format for subject line with a link to the Item.

If a Judge is unable to access an Item, and a reasonable effort has been made to contact the responsible Scavvie or Captain to address the issue of inaccessibility, then the Item will be considered un-submitted.

We also encourage Scavvies to notify their Captains when their Items have been submitted so that Captains may be used as a point of reference for Judges to inquire about missing Items.

10. Rules. Ain’t no rule says a roller coaster can’t be a Judge.

11. Prizes. The prizes are simple, because there are no prizes. Depending on how much of the Scav budget the Judge Cabal hasn’t spent on Choles for our holes, you may be eligible for a free-food bacchanal or other in-kind prize. Offer void where prohibited. Check local laws.

12. Decisions. All decisions of the Judges are final. Final.

Items

1. A copy of the 2020 University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt List, emailed to SCAV_40.2iaw3rewy03zgf81@u.box.com. [1 point]

2. Hello sisters! Sister Charli has made a new TikTok dance for all those under the habit that’ll make Pope Francis pop his pussy. And it’s to everyone’s favorite genre of song: Gregorian chant! [@pussypoppinpontif3x points]

3. The original conceit of Epcot Center was education, where each pavilion would focus on a different topic to teach children. But lately, they’ve kind of lost sight of this. Bring Epcot back to its roots by designing a new pavilion based around the most important topic for the modern child: communism. In Sketchup, Planet Coaster, or a similar 3D-building simulator platform, your pavilion must include a name, concept art, layout of the building, one restaurant, and one ride that features an iconic new character (think Figment, Buzzy, etc). [28.85 points. If you include Disney IP, we will give you negative points]

4. Comic-book cover for the crossover adventure “Rick and Mork and Mindy and Morty.” [One and one and one and one point. funniest shit i’ve ever seen]

5. Hanna-Barbera created hundreds and hundreds of characters, but you know who we never got to meet? Create a pitch bible for Hanna-Barbera’s “Hanna-Barbera,” where we meet the illustrious Hanna and Barbera themselves in their own animation style. [13 points]

6. One month ago, the great prophet Shiz Honey Iced T reminded us in a YouTube comment that for roughly 3 minutes every day, Christopher Walken performs his dance from “Weapon of Choice” to appease the elder gods and keep humanity alive and safe for another day. Well, it looks like the elder gods aren’t very happy with humanity. Create a shot for shot remake of Fatboy Slim’s “Weapon of Choice” music video with as much accuracy as possible, but all from the safety of your own home, only using things from home. Walk without rhythm, and it won’t attract the worm. [15 points]

7. Monica and the 10 other women found out Lou Bega was eleven-timing them. Unfortunately, the live video of their confrontation was lost, so it’s a good thing you’re an expert at making a machinima on The Sims. [Mambo No. 7 points]

8. McGruff the Crime Dog is back, and he’s got a new single about how vaping will kill you. Must include the beautiful tunes of his raspy voice and a boppin’ background track. [Nico10 points]

9. It seems Gen Zers don’t find art that hip anymore. they only look at their phones and say, “Ok, Boomer.” So, you’ve got to get them interested in art again by creating a masterful piece using only the pen and Bitmoji stickers on Snapchat to be submitted for the Snapsterpiece Gallery. Your piece should tell a story, à la Renaissance paintings, with an abundance of color, texture, and figures. Like any good artist, you must start from an empty canvas, and you cannot cut and paste from any previous art, or else you will be disqualified from the show. [10 points]

10. A Miller Litemotif. [SEVEN POINTS]

11. TBA. [λ points]

12. MACLUNKEY! Explain (with intricately detailed, lore-based evidence). [H4n shot first points]
13. We dream of when we’re allowed to go to the beach again. Better start prepping for those spontaneous trips to the lakefront by creating a shirt that, when a single stray string is pulled, unravels the whole thing in an embarrassing foray... save for a convenient, tasteful bikini shape. [80.085/4 points]

14. You could’ve sworn you did a traditional diagonal scoring pattern... but... no. No, there’s no denying it, it’s a quarantine miracle: that’s Jesus’s face atop your sourdough boule. [14 yeasty points]

15. Scrubs, Friends, or Frasier AMV. Must be made in Windows Movie Maker v6.0 or older. Must be set to appropriate music to truly reflect these angsty, pent-up feelings. [Version 6.0 points]

16. A dichotomous key to properly identify all the socks in your sock drawer. The more detailed the key, the more varieties of sock, the cornier the made-up binomial nomenclature, the better. [A pair of 2 points (it’s 4 points)]

17. Hearkening back to such classics as Stardoll™, Kisekae Set Systems, and the countless Flash games found in the cracks of the internet, it’s your turn to make that paperdoll game you’ve always dreamed of. Complete with paint splatters, powertools, eyebags—all the accessories to show off your Scavvie Style! Game must have a minimum of 4 different options for hair, tops, bottoms, shoes, and other optional add-ons. [22.8767 points]

18. Mad Max: Fergie Road, Mad Max: Furby Road, Mad Max: McFlurry Road. For years, we’ve demanded these prized cuts to be released from the confines of Hollywood. Now, amongst a certain feline-anus-filled controversy, they released the trailer that combines all three! [5 furious points]

19. Your old childhood stuffed animals have been waiting for you to come back home and play with them. But alas, you leave them cold. Alone. Neglected. This is why you must channel your inner Sarah McLachlan to create an announcement video for the ASPCSA. [In the arms of an 4ngle points]

20. It’s time to answer the question that has been smouldering in the back of our minds for so many years: “What Classic Scav Item Am I?” Of course, a random three-question BuzzFeed-style quiz isn’t good enough, which is why you’ll collect data on the perceived traits of classic Scav Items, and use a correlative test to determine the similarities between the test-taker and the Items in question. Finally, the truth will be known! [19.87 commemorative points]

21. This Item can be found on our website. [10 points]

22. You like jazz, ya hot rats? “Zappafy” a 30-60 second excerpt of a Jerry Seinfeld bit with an instrument of your choice. [15 points]

23. Although the cancellation of the Kentucky Derby originally got us down, we at the Judgeship realized that we can be the horses we want to see (and bet on) in this world. At 8 p.m. CDT on Saturday, the First Annual Jackbox Triathlon Derby (FAJTD) will take place, in which real Judges play three real games of Jackbox on Twitch (@uchicagoscav), for YOUR team’s real points. Choose your Champion Judges at https://forms.gle/T4NcVH4QsC1YtpVC8 by 8 p.m. CDT on Saturday to enter. One Champion for each game that will be played. Your chosen Champions need not be different or the same for each game. Let the races begin! [3 points for participation + 5 points per 1st-place result, 3 points per 2nd-place result, 2 points per 3rd-place result]
24. Make a pterodactyl out of whatever you have lying around. [9 points]

25. We know how much you like clowns, so we made you this Zoom background. Now you can laugh yourself to distance learning! [1 point]

26. The Great Scav-in-Absentia Mixmaster Challenge! We provide daily themes, you mix a three-track (no longer than 15-minute) block in Spotify, due by 3 p.m. CDT. Daily mixes from each team, when combined, should work as one big end-Hunt megamix, with the best mixes taking home 9, 6, and 3 bonus points for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place, respectively. [10 points for four days of participation]

27. WLCotWSVotSAWW, the world’s largest collection of the world’s smallest versions of the seven ancient wonders of the world! [versions must be no larger than those in the existing WLCotWSVotWLT, 4 points per wonder]

28. They may have used them as diamond mules and later tried to murder them, but with the passing of time, the Chipmunks kind of miss the Eurotrash villains they encountered back in The Chipmunk Adventure. Have your team’s Chipmunks/Chipettes/Chipxs get them on the line for a long-awaited reunion, and find out what they’ve been up to lately. Spoiled dog in activewear and pool float Bloody Mary required. [4.5 AAAALVIIIION points]

29. Photos of your Chipxs in front of the following sites from previous Scav Road Trips: the Albanese Candy Factory, the Mars Cheese Palace, the Palace, the Golden Spider Monk, GOVERNMENT IS LYING TO YOU, “it big and dirty,” and as many goddamn henges as you can. [Actual photos worth dick; photoshopped jpegs=new hotness. 0.1 Simon points per jpeg, max 5 Simon points]

30. Brittany was almost eaten by a great white, and she demands revenge. However, given that most large shark species are endangered, and her own poor dive practices are partially to blame for the encounter, she’ll have to be satisfied with one of your Chipxs defeating Jaws for the NES. (emulators OK, must be done live) [7.3 theopoints for completion, 1.9 bonus points for under 10 minute completion, and 8.7 bonus points for under 5 minute completion]

31. In these days of Instagram, it doesn’t matter how it tastes, just how it looks. Show us your most grammable, delicious, delectable cuisine photos in which no item is real food or prefab fake food (i.e. no rubber chickens or toy bacon). Remember it’s faux, not phö. [Remember it’s faux-teen points, not phö-teen points.]

32. We feel like we spend all day wiping down doorknobs; life would be easier if we had a Rube Goldberg machine that would spray disinfectant or wipe our doorknob as its last step, ensuring the hygiene barrier of our home. [33 points]

33. Using any musical instrument that you have available, record yourself playing “Think About Things” at its tempo of 127 bpm and its key of E♭ minor. You are not required to play the melody, although you can; for example, you could play a rhythm guitar part or a bass line, or sing the melody or backup, etc. [Up to three submissions per team, 5 points per submission]
34. Baby, It’s Foucault Outside: your team’s best 1940s vocalists argue/flirt their way into awareness of the genealogy of your concept or institution of choice. Please provide lyrics to accompany your two-minute recording. [11 points + (1.11 + 1.11) bonus points if your track features the legend himself, because 11 looks like a prison]

35. A 60-second promo for the Bass Pro Shops at The Pentachoron. [5.5 points]

36. They tore down AstroWorld to build more apartment space. That’s what it’s going to sound like, like taking an amusement park away from kids. We want it back. We want the building back. That’s why you’re building a thematic ride in RollerCoaster Tycoon that syncs up perfectly with one of the album’s 17 tracks, and submitting a video demo of the ride and song. [You must be 14 points to ride this rollercoaster]

37. The key to a Judge’s heart? Cheap thrills and good vibes. Wake us up inside with a uniquely riveting malware experience in the aesthetic of your choice (cottagecore encouraged). Distributing viruses is illegal, so please submit a screen recording of your program being executed on a virtual machine. [20 points]

38. A challenger approaches! On a newly registered account beginning with “SH20,” find, battle, and defeat SH20 Judge in [Gen 8] OU. [Gen 8 points + 2 points for winning. For best results, ladder up everyday between 1:00-2:00 p.m. CDT]

39. We just love the way that one paid programming girl’s voice sounds, but darn, we can only catch her for 30 minutes at a time...psych! Thanks to your team, we can tune into “lofi hip hop radio - adverts to study/relax to” 24/7, drop into the live chat, and vibe with the real ones who feel the same way we do. [24.7 points]

40. We’ve got a Hunt to run, but Judge Grandma won’t stop calling us about how to open Mozzarella Foxfire! Send us a browser or browser theme that’s perfect for Judge Grandma’s needs, and looks exactly how “Mozzarella Foxfire” makes us feel. [When the moon hits your eye like a big pizza pie that’s an 8 points]

41. BRIXEL ART IS MASSIVE AND INDELICATE. Pixel art is charming and intricate. BRIXEL ART IS A CONCRETE MONOLITH AT 1100 E. 57TH ST. Pixel art is your team’s adorable GIF depiction. Do not skimp on animated springtime cheer or UNBREAKABLE BRUTALIST CHARM. [11.5 points]

42. Tragically, we cannot make handfools of yella crayens in Factorio. But in your very own Episode 1481-inspired video segment, the most soothing voice on your team, backed by a calm, jazzy soundtrack, should completely engage our inner five-year-old for up to 3 minutes as they tell us all about what your team’s factory does make. [It’s a beautiful day in the 7 points-berhood]

43. Everyone loves FiHA Sunday, but lately, all the days of the week have started blending together! What we need now is a glitzed-out thematic website, playing the old battle hymn in a seamless loop, counting in bold, beautiful digits to tell us just how long Mr. West has kept those Fingers in His Ass. [3 points, because 3 looks like a butt]
44. There seems to be a Judge stuck in the source code of the classic pet simulation website Neopets. Fortunately, they are rather easy to contact via their newly made guild, though our research doesn’t indicate whether an account older than theirs can truly access it or if they can escape from the website for long enough to communicate. [3-o points, to be confused with neither Neopoints nor 30 points (this Item is 3 points)]

45. According to current market trends, this item should cost 1,547,350 NP per kilogram. Luckily, we have a kilogram of it up for trade in the Trading Post already. [1.547350 points, not to be confused with 1,547,350 NP]

46. The prize you seek is behind a locked door. [ve o points, not to be confused with Neopoints]

47. TBA. [9 points]

48. And we all say, “Oh, well, I never, was there ever a movie as tragic as Cats from 2019?” And we all say, “Oh, well, I never, could it ever be better if the producers embraced the cat-person designs already popularized in anime (think Tokyo Mew Mew), and could the movie be improved if we redrew this scene from the movie to show them that?” Okay, so maybe the melody falls apart there, but at least you’ve got some source material to rotoscope. [20.19 points]

49. A bowl cut is only as lame as the bowl. Yours will use a fancy bowl with an uneven, artistic rim. [8 points for a before picture, the bowl, and the cut]

50. Did you know Andorra is technically ruled by two princes? Just like that song nobody really likes! Do we even really need to tell you to rewrite “Two Princes” to explain the structure and history of Andorra’s government? [2x2x2 Princely points]

51. Cruel Angel’s thesis can’t be accepted unless it adheres to the university-wide dissertation guidelines. Submit a draft with all front matter and one page of the body. [Evangelion: 2.0 You Can (Not) Graduate Points]

52. Everyone wants an invite to Hyrule’s hottest wedding, but the only people on the guest list are... 120 ancient Sheikah monks. 53. The party don’t start ‘till I walk in. This lack of object permanence will make me the perfect audience for your peekaboo-inspired club track. Wheere’d the bass go? Wheeere’d the bass go?! [Peek-a-two points]

54. Are you there God? It’s me, Molly McBButter. A layout for a dust jacket including summary, blurbs, about the author, and early-YA-style colored pencil cover art. [I can’t believe it’s not 8 points! Because it’s 9 points]

55. Introducing: Hameo, the only website that lets you hire a talking piece of cured pork to help you wish your chinchilla a happy birthday. Your team’s Hameo contributor should develop and maintain a signature persona while responding promptly to Hameo requests throughout the Hunt. [15 tenderpoints]
Coming soon: Pokémon Clark and Lake, set in a poké-fied version of Chicago! Show us a few of the game’s signature Pokémons, including both new species and regional variants on old favorites. For each critter, please provide an illustration, Pokédex entry, and set of four moves. [3 points per Pokémon, max 6 Pokémon]

Dancers have been doing the robot for decades, but lately, technology is more dynamic (and also more Bostonian). It’s time for some new moves, taking inspo from our new overlord Spot. [4-legged points]

When it comes to buttering up VIP visitors, UChicago is way behind our archrival, the University of Valencia. Time to up our game by illustrating any celeb who’s been on campus this year in the style of Vicente López Portaña with Ka Yee Lee introducing them to heavenly personifications of the UofC’s various divisions and professional schools. [Veinte puntos]

The Selfie of Dorian Grey: An AR Instagram effect lens that pairs the user with a portrait of their likeness, which grows increasingly wretched and decrepit over the course of their story. [18.90 points]

Rick Steves’ Wherever You’re Quarantined 2020. Your guidebook should rank your home’s options for dining, sightseeing, and sleeping on Rico’s iconic three-pyramid scale; include notes about the local customs so outsiders can avoid cultural gaffes; and include a diagram and annotations for one walking tour of your house or apartment. [10 points]

Everyone’s animalian interns have been diligently working from home during the pandemic—let’s get everyone together for a brief all-paws meeting on Zoom on Saturday at 11 a.m. CDT. [Δ points max, evaluated on quantity and uniqueness]

The people of Andersonville probably maybe miss the SL in Stockholm, just as most of us miss the CTA. Time to give ourselves a welcoming video for the CTA similar to SL’s ’90s advertisement for when we get to return to our favorite transit system of the Midwest! [Nio poäng]

‘Gone Scavving.’ It’s a sign we used to see on HQ windows and classroom doors for years. It’s a sign that means we’ve locked up and headed off to do something we love. A little sign that says so much. About our need to fill our lungs with fresh Scav. To stretch. To laugh. To simply get out and Scav. Though we’re staying indoors there’s no reason why we can’t produce one of these Pure Michigan videos to let the community know of ye olde Scavven pastime. [5.5 points]

Did you know there was a medieval belief that bear cubs were born as formless lumps that needed to be licked into bear shape by their mother? Did you also know that the Judges hold the exact same belief about house pets? At 1 p.m. CDT on Saturday have your mama bear log on and be prepared to shape their house pet out of nothing but their tongues and formless lumps of mashed potatoes. [Pot-8-Os points]

Jadakiss? Well, that’s a name that could NEVER leave your lips at the family dinner table. But while your lips must remain sealed, you can still Kiss Tha Game Goodbye through your Ryan Kelly-rendering of Mr. Phillips. [15 points]

Read. My. Lips. No, really, We can’t get our mic to unmute on Zoom and we really need to share some hot goss with your teams. At 6 p.m. CDT on Thursday send your lip reading champion to participate in our silent spilling of tea. [2 points for each correctly guessed piece of hot goss]

Bring out your inner Mary and Paul by recreating a recognizable lineup of up to a full season of GBBO’s pâtisserie, with one challenge per episode. While Scav 404 does not explicitly endorse the act of geophagy, your earthly delights should entice our taste buds and remind of us a time when WE COULD EASILY FIND FLOUR AND EGGS ARGH. [3 points per episode, max 30 points]

72. ______ Fuck chinstrap beards. We want a headstrap beard. Nothing more, nothing less. [12 points]

73. ______ Why should the ornithologists and floriculturists have all the fun? Render your favorite cnidarian or poriferan in the style of Maude White. [30 points]

And to help us bone up on the local skele-tongue, you’ve put together a small but lovingly crafted phrasebook, complete with anatomically correct drawings showing the many ways skeletons sign and clatter their bones to get their [18 points] across.

76. ______ Richard Garfield originally created Magic: The Gathering as a way to kill time in between Dungeons & Dragons sessions, but since that game has taken off, we need an RPG that can be begun and finished in the time it takes to sideboard a deck! Develop a micro-RPG that can take us from character creation through a satisfying and emotionally cathartic resolution in no more than 5 minutes. [You rolled a nat 20 points]

Create a Folding@home team to solve some of those wily ‘rona proteins and help scientists find a cure. Get a-foldin’ with your personal computers only, and the team with the most work units accumulated wins. Send your Folding@home team name and number to scavfolds@gmail.com by 12 p.m. CDT Thursday to compete. [θ points]

Photoshop or MS Paint is encouraged, and either your own sourdough starter or stock photos of a starter with proper citing will suffice. [8 points]

Item 85
pokemon-go. No, DEFINITELY not Pokémon Go. pokemon-go: your programming language that is just a crappy wrapper for Go, where all the keywords are now Pokémon. It should be at least able to execute your equivalent of `go run /grave.ts1`, but we wouldn’t object if it had more functionality. [8 points]

Item 86
Do what the Pennsylvania Supreme Court was TOO COWARDLY to do, and redistrict the state so that all 18 of its congressional districts are as close to having a partisan lean of zero as possible. Your districts must be contiguous and have near-equal population, but anything beyond that is fair game. Please use Districtr, an online redistricting tool, and send a link to the Judge. [30 - Σ_{i=1}^{18} \text{partisan lean}_i]^2 points]

Item 87
Just because it’s a Virtual Hunt doesn’t mean we can’t have Hyde Park trivia Items, which you can find on our website. Kindly note that all of the answers can and must be obtained without setting foot outside of your home. In fact, they have been specifically written so that they are easier to solve on the Internet than on the streets. [1.5 points per item]
