DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT COMPLAINT FORMSO-201 (Rev 06/19)

CONFIDENTIALITY

The Department can only promise limited confidentiality – that the information will be limited to those who “need to know.” An investigator cannot promise complete confidentiality because it may be necessary to disclose information obtained during the investigation in order to complete the investigation and take appropriate action. It is not possible to promise that a complaint can be kept entirely “confidential” for several reasons:

1. If the complaint is of potential violation of law or policy, the Department will need to investigate, and in the process of investigating it is likely that people will know or assume details about the allegations, including the identity of the person who complained. This is true even when the name of the complainant is kept confidential since allegations are often clear enough for people to figure out who complained about what.
2. The individual receiving the complaint will usually have to consult with someone else at the Department about what steps to take and to collect information about whether there have been past complaints involving the same employee, etc. That means the complaint will be discussed with others within the organization.
3. The Department may need to take disciplinary action. Again, while the identity of the person who brought the complaint may in some cases be kept confidential, the complaint itself cannot be.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
