21.0 ERROR ON SSILA ABSTRACT FORM

There was an unfortunate error on the Abstract Submittal Form for the January meeting. The directions for preparing the SHORT ABSTRACT (inside the black-lined box) are incorrect in one crucial paragraph: "The third sentence reads: "If proportional spacing is used, type must be smaller than 12 point." In accidently dropping a notation that seems to encourage exact what ILSA and SSILA are trying to avoid, i.e., abstracts in unreadably small print. The sentence was supposed to read: "...type must NOT be smaller than 12 point.""
