How to structure the story?

The first paragraph should cover the 5 W's: who, what, where, when and why. We want to know about the artist and what makes their work unique.

The second paragraph should include insights and background information about the artist, work, or subject in question.

The third paragraph should further elaborate on the essence of the piece, followed by the closing statement.

Please note: this is simply a suggested structure

A group curating new forms of art and design and expanding culture to new audiences. Our mission is to stretch, fade and define the concept of tomorrow's gallery.
