NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COUNTY ADMINISTRATORS BYLAWS

Bylaws of the National Association of County Administrators as amended during the annual membership meetings of July 23, 1995, in Fulton County, Georgia, and July 18, 1999, in St. County, Missouri. Also amended during the July 2003, July 2011, July 2013, and July 2018 annual membership meetings.

ARTICLE I – NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1. Name

This association shall be known as the National Association of County Administrators, Inc., which shall be a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware.

Section 2. Purpose

The purpose of this association shall be to encourage professional excellence and to improve the management of county government. The purpose of this association will be achieved through the following:

- Sharing knowledge, information, and experience among the members of the association.

- Assisting counties with the establishment or improvement of effective county administration in the United States.

- Encouraging continued professional development of county administrators.

- Developing and maintaining a professional association with the International City/County Management Association (ICMA) in order to assist the National Association of County Administrators (NACA) and ICMA to achieve their general goals and objectives.

- Assisting the National Association of Counties (NACo) on matters having an impact on county government.
ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Corporate Members

A) Corporate Member. A county administrator, who is defined as that individual and/or their assistant(s) and staff, regardless of official title, who is directly responsible to the governing body or elected chief executive and whose official duties are primarily devoted to general management or administration of county activities may become a corporate member of the Association upon written application to the Secretary-Treasurer and approval of the Regional Vice President for the applicant’s region, and payment of any applicable dues.

B) Corporate Member in Transition. Any corporate member who is in transition, which is defined as not being employed as a county administrator as described in subsection A of this section, shall retain their status as corporate members for the remainder of the period for which their dues have been paid or until they have accepted employment with another unit of government in a capacity which would not qualify them for corporate membership in NACA, whichever occurs first. Members in transition may renew their corporate membership for one additional year and dues shall be waived until such time as they are reemployed in a membership qualifying position. During the additional year, they shall retain the rights and privileges of corporate membership so long as they have not accepted employment which would not qualify them for corporate membership in NACA. (Amended in 2011)

Section 2. Associate Members

Any person, not eligible to be a corporate member, having a professional interest in the objectives and programs of this Association may become an associate member, upon written application to the Secretary-Treasurer and approval of the Regional Vice President from the applicant’s region and payment of any applicable dues.
Section 3. Honorary Members

Any person, who has rendered distinguished service to the cause of better county government, shall be eligible for honorary membership. Election to honorary membership shall be made by the Board of Directors of the Association. Past Presidents of the Association shall be granted honorary membership when no longer eligible for corporate membership.

Section 4. State Associations (Block Membership)

State associations, among whose members are individuals who would qualify for membership in NACA, shall qualify for block membership in NACA when a mutually agreed upon portion of the state association members join NACA as corporate, associate, or honorary members, as appropriate. State associations shall be eligible for a dues discount from the National Association of County Administrators when block membership is verified. Block membership eligibility for participation and the calculation of dues shall be based solely upon those members of the association who qualify for corporate or associate membership in NACA, as described in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article, and whose block membership acceptance is agreed upon by the NACA Regional Vice President, within whose region the state association operates, the Executive Committee of NACA, and the state association. (Amended in 2018)

Section 5. Affiliate Members

Any organization or individual having an interest in the objectives and programs of this Association may become an affiliate member, upon written application to the Secretary-Treasurer and approval by the President after finding that the applicant’s interests will support the purposes of NACA.

Section 6. Retired Members

Any corporate member of NACA or a county government professional who has retired and wishes to remain affiliated with the NACA. Membership of this type shall require a written verification of retirement sent to the Secretary-Treasurer, the approval of the Regional Vice President for the applicant’s region, and payment of any applicable dues. If a retired member returns to full-time work, this type of membership and corresponding dues will convert to the appropriate type of membership until the member re-retires, at which time the retired member status will be reinstated. (Added as an amendment in 2018)

Section 7. Student Members

Any individual enrolled in a full-time or part-time education program who is not eligible to be a corporate member may become a student member upon the approval of the Regional Vice President from the applicant’s region and payment of any applicable dues. (Added as an amendment in 2018)

ARTICLE III – OFFICES AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Voting Rights and Office Holding

The privilege of voting is limited to corporate members, defined in Article II, Section 1, and only corporate members shall be eligible to hold office in the Association.

Section 2. Officers

The officers of the Association shall be a President, President-Elect, Secretary-Treasurer and a Regional Vice President for each region. The President-Elect shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association held in odd-numbered years for a two-year term and automatically succeed as President at the second annual meeting after election. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association held in odd-numbered years for a two-year term. The Regional Vice Presidents shall be elected by the membership at the annual meeting of the association in each even-numbered year for a two-year term. (Amended in 2003)

Section 3. At-Large Directors

There shall be an At-Large Director elected from each region. The At-Large Directors shall be elected by the membership at the annual meeting of the Association in each odd-numbered year for a two-year term. (Amended in 2018)
Section 4. NACo Board Representative

The NACo Board Representative shall be elected at the annual meeting held in odd-numbered years for a two-year term. (Amended in 2003)

Section 5. Board of Directors

There shall be a Board of Directors consisting of the President, President-Elect, Regional Vice Presidents, the Secretary-Treasurer, the ICMA Liaison Director, the At-Large Directors, the NACo Board Representative, and the most recent Past President. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum. The Board of Directors:

- Shall have general control and supervision of the business of the Association.
- Shall be empowered to decide upon all questions which may arise during the interval between meetings of the membership for the Association, except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws.
- Shall be responsible for developing and recommending revisions to rules and Bylaws subject to approval of the members.
- Shall approve the annual work plan and budget as developed and submitted by the President.
- May determine the apportionment of geographic regions at any regular meeting.

Section 6. Nominations

Nominations for the elected officers and At-Large Directors of this Association shall be made by a nomination committee chaired by the Past President and composed of three members of the Association appointed by the President.
