The Precepts of the Catholic Faith
Five of Seven Part Series

You can read about the first four precepts on our website www.holyredeemervan.org under 'pastor columns'

Greetings in Christ Our Lord.

This week we continue our series on the Precepts of the Catholic Church: “pre” meaning “before”, and “cept” meaning “life” – before there can be full life in God, these seven laws must be observed. Failure to live them out would constitute a mortal sin: when one has knowledge of them, and acts without undue coercion to disregard them. “The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor”. Catechism #2041. This week we continue working our way through them by exploring the fifth precept. They are listed here again as a reminder.

The Precepts of the Catholic Church

1. To attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and resting from servile works.
2. To observe the days of abstinence and fasting.
3. To confess our sins to a priest, at least once a year.
4. To receive Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist at least once a year during Easter Season.
5. To contribute to the support of the Church (tithing & volunteering).
6. To obey the laws of the Church concerning Matrimony.
7. To participate in the Church's mission of Evangelization of Souls.

There is no Jesus without the Catholic Church, and hence, there is no salvation without the Catholic Church. Let me explain. Jesus Christ, God, founded only one Church and that Church is the Catholic (Greek for ‘universal’) Church. Before the Catholic Church, God made a covenant with the chosen people, now called Jews. If you belong to a religion other than Judaism or Catholicism, then God is not your founder. Jesus is the Messiah of the Jews and Gentiles, with his revelation a new covenant of salvation was created through the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. Everything we know about Jesus Christ, the Holy Trinity, the Communion of saints, heaven, purgatory, and hell comes from the Catholic Church. It was the Catholic Church that wrote the New Testament and decided what books and letters would go into the Bible. It has been the Catholic Church passing on the same faith and sacraments for 2,000 years going back to our first Pope, Peter (pope is Greek for ‘leader’). It is through the font of baptism and the seven sacraments that the doors of heaven are opened for us and God’s grace can reach us in life saving ways. It is through the Catholic Church on earth (militant), in purgatory (suffering), and in heaven (triumphant) that we are united to God and saved for eternal life. If you’re going to heaven, then you will become a member of the Catholic Church either in this life, or in the life to come.

The truth of Jesus Christ, as well as his entire mission of salvation, would have disappeared 1900 years ago without an organization that was and still is divinely inspired and protected. That organization, the Catholic Church, has to be supported with her member’s time, talent, and treasure or she will fail to achieve what the Lord has set out for her to achieve: the glorification of God and the sanctification of souls. In order for the Church to proclaim the gospel, administer sacraments, teach the faith, and perform the works of mercy; you and I have to volunteer our time, talent, and treasure.

We gain more by giving than we do in receiving. Others have a great need for us to share our faith through our time, talent, and treasure to the Church, and we have an equally great need to share it. Please volunteer in whatever ways you can, and incrementally move toward tithing 10% of your income to the Church: 5% to the parish, and the other 5% to other Catholic charities. God and souls are counting on us.

Next Week : The sixth precept

May Our Lord Jesus Christ Eternally Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

New Vancouver Chapel Not in Union with the Pope

July 2021 - The Archdiocese of Seattle has learned that on August 1, 2021 Our Lady of Fatima Chapel of the Society of Saint Pius X will relocate from Portland to Vancouver, Washington. The Society of Saint Pius X (SSPX), formed in 1970 by Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre, is a priestly fraternity no longer in union with the Pope. Although Pope Benedict XVI lifted the excommunication against Archbishop Lefebvre, the society has no canonical status. Therefore, some sacraments celebrated by these priests are valid but unlawful; other sacraments, particularly marriage, are invalid because of a lack of jurisdiction. Catholics are often drawn to SSPX communities because they celebrate Mass using the Latin Missal of Pope Saint Pius V, which was in use for four centuries until the new missal of Pope Saint Paul VI replaced it not long after the Second Vatican Council.

According to the Code of Canon Law Catholics are obliged to maintain communion with the Catholic Church [Canon 209,1]. Some Christian ecclesial communities are not in full communion with the Catholic Church. Since the time of its inception the SSPX has not recognized the authority of the Successor of Peter, the Bishop of Rome.

On July 7, 2007, Pope Benedict XVI, by his motu proprio, Summorum Pontificum, approved the use of the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Missal. Catholic priests are thereby permitted to celebrate Mass according to the Missal of Pope Saint Pius V and revised in 1962 by Pope Saint John XXIII for their benefit and that of Catholics who continue “to be attached with such love and affection to the earlier liturgical forms.” Continuing the efforts of Pope Saint John Paul II, Pope Benedict issued Summorum Pontificum with the aim of helping the Society of Saint Pius X “to recover full unity with the Successor of Peter” [Letter of Pope Benedict XVI to the Bishops on the occasion of the publication of Summorum Pontificum]. This unity has not yet been attained.

Catholics are, therefore, urged not to participate in the worship and Sacraments celebrated at the SSPX chapel in Vancouver. The Priestly Fraternity of Saint Peter (FSSP) was established in 1988 to provide pastoral care to Catholics by celebrating the Extraordinary Form of the Mass and the Sacraments. Since the nearest parish staffed by priests of the Fraternity is in Tacoma, Catholics in the Greater Vancouver area who prefer the Latin Mass may wish to attend Mass celebrated according to the Extraordinary Form at one of the following archdiocesan parishes in the city of Portland:

- Holy Rosary Parish, 375 NE Clackamas Street, Portland, OR 97232
- St. Agatha Parish, 7983 SE 15th Street, Portland, OR 97202
- St. Birgitta Parish, 11820 NW St. Helens Road, Portland, OR 97231
- St. Stanislaus Parish, 3916 N Interstate Avenue, Portland, OR 97227
- St. Stephen Parish, 1112 SE 41st Avenue, Portland, OR 97214

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Peace of Christ be with each of you.

Today Pope Francis has appointed me bishop of Reno, Nevada. These past four years in Western Washington have been such a blessed experience. Thank you for your welcome and reception of me as an auxiliary bishop in Western Washington.

Please pray for me and the Church in Reno during this transition and beyond. I also ask that you join me in offering a prayer of gratitude to our Lord for the blessings he has bestowed upon all of us. Lastly, please join me in praying for our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and our apostolic nuncio, Archbishop Christophe Pierre, that the Lord will bless them with wisdom, health and encouragement in their ministries. I am particularly grateful to our Holy Father for this appointment.

I also want to thank Archbishop Paul D. Etienne and Archbishop J. Peter Sartain for the outstanding mentorship they provided during my ministry here in the Archdiocese of Seattle. I learned so much from each of them and look forward to continuing their mentorship as I now assume the responsibilities of an ordinary in another diocese. I also want to thank Bishop Elizondo for his fraternal guidance and congenial accompaniment through the many challenges of these past four years.

Most of all, I hope to continue the bonds of spiritual friendship that have been forged in such a short time. These past four years have been a blessing for me as I hope they have been for you as well. I will be leaving the Archdiocese of Seattle in early September to prepare for the installation Mass in Reno, which is scheduled for 2 p.m. on Friday, September 24.

Please know that I will continue to pray for you, and I ask your continued prayers for me. With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,
