

INCLUSIVE LEADERSHIP →

- Community leadership structures integrate representative and democratic processes
- Community members equipped with leadership skills
- Representative leadership is emergent
- Decision making at the community level is shared
- Leaders are transparent and accountable

SOCIAL COHESION →

- Community linkages are strengthened and demonstrated
- Social capital is leveraged and expanded
- Open communication exists in homes and communities
- Community and families have shared vision of progress
- Networks of collaboration are built and functional

GENDER EQUITY →

- Communities support women's progress towards equity
- Women equipped with life skills and community development tools
- Women use their voice
- Equitable household decision making exists
- Women are seen as valuable and equal members of society

RESILIENCY →

- Communities have the ability to respond to external shocks
- Community strongly connected to existing institutions and resources
- Proactive planning and mobilization meets priority needs
- Community members demonstrate a capacity to aspire
- Wellbeing improves

