Early education and child care will be affordable for families

Children will have high-quality early education and care

Students will be better prepared to start school

Families will have more money for other needs

Parents can join or reenter the workforce

Providers will be paid for providing high-quality care

Providers can afford to hire and retain the staff they need

Business can retain and attract new employees

Providers will have a new, stable source of funding

Early education and child care will be more accessible

Educators will have a new, stable source of funding

Children will have high-quality early education and care

Kids will have comprehensive wraparound services

Educators will have significantly better pay and benefits

Educators will have more professional development opportunities

Racial and gender equity in the workplace will be advanced

Business can retain and attract new employees

Early education and child care will be more accessible

Our entire economy will be stronger!!

Children will have higher educational attainment and life earnings

Educators will have significantly better pay and benefits

If we achieve the Common Start Vision...

For more information, visit www.commonstartma.org