Openhouse Senior Pride: It’s Not Just about June

Dear Community,

It is incredible to think about it being just over a month since we celebrated Pride. This was indeed a special year for Pride as together we marked the 50th anniversary of Stonewell and took Openhouse Pride to a whole new level. We held the largest Openhouse LGBTQ Senior Prom to date and watched in awe as the Openhouse Dance Troupe inspired all of us with their “Don’t Stop Me Now” performance. We grew our annual transgender intergenerational brunch and saw the impact that a senior/youth planning committee had in building a community event for all ages. We were honored to party with the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence right here at 55 Laguna. We claimed our place for the second year in a row as leaders of the Pride parade (contingent #5!) and when our chants of “Still Here! Still Queer! Seniors Are the Reason You’re Here!” reached the Grandstand crowd and judges, we were awarded as a top contingent on the spot. From there, we headed to the main-stage, where I had the incredible honor of sharing the stage with Openhouse Community Members. Special thanks to Andrea Horne, Charlotte Lumpkins, Donna Personna, and Duff Axom who shared their personal stories and inspired us all with who they are.

As the days have passed, and the megaphones and rainbow hats have been put away for next year, I find myself aware of the ways our community can forget the lessons and true meaning of Pride- especially when it comes to knowing our seniors- the leaders of the LGBTQ movement. As we said on stage, it’s easy to post on Facebook or share emails about Stonewall, while walking right by or forgetting the people who were actually there (or were here, fighting at Compton’s and marching in the streets). We know that pride isn’t a once of year activity and we know that our community is missing an opportunity if they aren’t seeking the wisdom, resilience, lessons and love from LGBTQ seniors. There isn’t a day that I don’t feel lucky to learn from you or that I’m not aware of how fortunate I am to learn from those who paved the road for me.

So here is to another successful June and, more importantly, to pride all year long.

Best,
Karyn

P.S. Speaking of opportunities to share and learn, please join me in August for another round of bi-annual Town Halls!

Housing Workshops at Openhouse

Need help understanding how to apply for affordable senior housing in San Francisco? Openhouse is here to help! Join us for an hour-long presentation at Openhouse where we cover the basics you need to know as you look for housing. We will decode the process of applying and suggest next steps.

Workshops are held at Openhouse, Bob Ross LGBT Senior Center, 65 Laguna St. on:

- Friday, August 9, 2PM
- Tuesday, August 27, 11AM

To register, contact Jessi Lawrence at (415) 231-5870 or jlawrence@openhouse-sf.org

4th Friday Health & Wellness: “Understanding Medicare”
Friday, August 23, 3-4:30PM, 55 Laguna Community Room. No need to RSVP.

Join Openhouse and HICAP (the Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program) for a free presentation that will provide an overview on Medicare and HICAP services, help participants understand their options, and will include information on Medicare fraud and scams.

HICAP helps people with Medicare, their families, and caregivers understand health insurance benefits, options, and rights. They offer free, unbiased, one-on-one assistance from health insurance counselors registered by the California Department of Aging. Their services are free and they have different counseling sites around San Francisco.

Our presenters will be Ray Jones, Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP) Advocate and Charito Aquino, Community Outreach Coordinator.

Openhouse says thank you and goodbye to Tajinder Virdee, our Resource and Referral Navigator.

The Openhouse Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) Drop-in Hours are on pause as we work to hire for this role.

For more information on the position, please see page 11.

New to yoga? Haven’t done it in a while? You’re invited! This is a class for you to explore, no matter where you’re coming from, and work towards your own goals for practice. This weekly class focuses on increasing flexibility, balance and strength and is designed to be enjoyed by beginners and those with experience. The instructor offers a slow flow for all bodies, connecting breath and movement in a grounding, nourishing, and life-giving practice.

Instructor, Jay Tzvia Helfand, is a facilitator, educator and graduate student in Somatic psychotherapy. They have been teaching yoga and somatics for queer, trans and disabled communities for the last 6 years. Jay also organizes with the White Noise Collective, gardens, reads poems, and goes on walks in the woods.

Clearing House: Drop-in Clutter Support Group
Openhouse and the Mental Health Association of San Francisco welcome you to a support group for all LGBTQ community members age 55+ who “struggle with stuff.” The group is a non-judgmental, confidential, and supportive space where you can share your struggles and strategies with other LGBTQ folks.
Every 1st & 3rd Wednesdays 12:30-2PM
Bob Ross LGBT Senior Center, 65 Laguna St.

Drop-In Meditation
Mondays, 11AM – 12PM, Bob Ross LGBT Senior Center, 65 Laguna St.
Come find some space in the chaos and learn some tools to get along skillfully and with awareness in this complex world.
Instructors David Lewis and Kathy Barr invite all levels of practitioners--as well as those who are just interested in seeing what meditation is all about--to join us!
Questions? Contact Ariel at (415) 503-4180

LGBTQ Chat Group in collaboration with Well-Connected.
This telephone-based group is held from 1 - 2PM on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of the month. Community members can participate via phone or computer from the comfort of their own homes. The chat is open to all LGBTQ seniors interested in connecting and building community over the phone. We create an inclusive and supportive space to share our stories and perspectives!
The group is facilitated by Ariel Mellinger, ASW.
For more information or to register, please call Senior Center Without Walls toll-free at 877.797.7299.

Staying Connected to Services In the Life: A Discussion Group for LGBTQ People of Color
RSVP for location and time details
We’ll be back next month with this discussion group in partnership with Steppingstone for LGBTQ people of color. Prejudice, bias, and bureaucracy make government systems almost impossible to cope with every day--it’s a struggle. Join us every 2nd and 4th Monday as we learn together how to get what we want from community resources, support services and government benefits.
This group will be facilitated by Myles Dixon, who has a Masters in Health Systems Administration and has both personal and professional experience working with health-related community organizations.

Home-Delivered Groceries Program Comes to 55 Laguna Residents

Mercy Housing and Openhouse are partnering with the SF-Marin Food Bank to bring home-delivered groceries to 55 Laguna residents! The first batch of fresh foods went out to enrolled residents on July 15th.

The Home-Delivered Grocery program was launched by the SF-Marin Food Bank in 2014 as a way to support better health, reduce isolation, and increase self-sufficiency for seniors and adults with disabilities who have difficulty getting groceries. For Openhouse and Mercy Housing, hosting the program at 55 Laguna means greater food security for participants, as well as an opportunity to connect with residents and volunteers.

The launch of the Home-Delivered Grocery program is the first phase of the partnership between Openhouse, Mercy Housing, and the SF-Marin Food Bank. All three organizations are excited to fine-tune the program for residents at 55 Laguna. At this time, this program is only available to 55 Laguna residents. Over time, Openhouse and Mercy Housing hope to see the program expanded to include 95 Laguna residents, Openhouse’s Friendly Visitor Program, and perhaps even to all eligible community members. If you are not a 55 Laguna resident, you can contact the SF-Marin Food Bank to see if you qualify to receive home-delivered groceries from a different location.

To contact the SF-Marin Food Bank, please contact Jillian Tse, Program Coordinator of Home-Delivered Groceries at 415-282-1900, ext. 369.

Openhouse is Hiring for our Aging and Disability Resource Center!

Openhouse is seeking a dynamic, compassionate people-person to take the lead in connecting our community to the resources they need. Key responsibilities for this role include providing current information and referrals on housing and social services available at Openhouse and in the community; providing additional assistance such as contacting agencies, completing forms, advocating for the individual with service providers, confirming and escorting individuals to appointments, and conferring with service providers to ensure individual needs are met; and working with volunteers to update and maintain our monthly housing opportunities list for San Francisco and surrounding areas. This role also has a significant data entry component.

We are looking for a candidate who can demonstrate significant knowledge of available housing and social services for seniors and adults with disabilities, strong motivation to be of service to LGBTQ elders and adults with disabilities. The ideal candidate takes a community-centered approach to service delivery based in cultural humility and willingness to engage the community in difficult conversations about intersecting identities.

The position is currently full time with full benefits.

The full job description with instructions on how to apply is available online: openhouse-sf.org/about/employment-2/
