HOLIDAY SAUCE ... PANDEMIC!
A virtual vaudeville from the Curran
Premieres online on December 12, 7PM
Tickets are $10. Purchase your ticket online at bit.ly/3nxAn90

Taylor Mac is back this holiday season with a full serving of virtual vaudeville. This show blends music, film, burlesque and random acts of fabulousness to reframe the songs you love and the holidays you hate.

2020 Ibsen Award winner and MacArthur Fellow Taylor Mac teams up with long-time collaborators, designer Machine Dazzle, Music Director Matt Ray and producers Pomegranate Arts. In Taylor’s world, creativity and imagination are their own spirituality. This holiday season will be bittersweet for so many—Taylor Mac reminds us of the collective power of our chosen families, a message that will be of particular resonance this year when so many have lost so much.

Limited complimentary tickets available for Wednesday, December 23, 3-4PM. To reserve a spot for Openhouse’s complimentary screening of “Holiday Sauce... Pandemic!” , contact Faire at faire@openhousesf.org, (415) 699-2244.

The Openhouse office will be CLOSED
December 25 through January 1
We look forward to seeing you in the new year!
Announcements

Welcome Kevin!
Openhouse’s new Food Support Coordinator

Kevin began volunteering at Openhouse in June of 2020, helping with Pride Bags, and quickly segued over to working in food support. He is focusing on all-things-food for the Openhouse community, particularly the Home Delivered Grocery program sponsored by SF Marin Food Bank. Kevin also connects volunteers with community members who need help buying groceries, picking up medications, and with other errands through our partnership with Mon Ami. He’s looking forward to working with our amazing community!

If you or someone you know has food support needs, contact Kevin at koneal@openhousesf.org or (628) 263-3262.

Let’s keep our community safe!
Those who feel sadness, loneliness, or isolation may experience it more acutely during this time. You are not alone. We are here with you to build a community that looks out for each other. We care about you and want to keep our community safe.

The Lightness Lab
90 minute workshop exploring joyful engagement
Monday, January 25, 1 - 2:30PM

This joy-filled workshop explores the fundamentals of spontaneous play through games and group activities tailored to tickle your funny bone and enliven our community. How can we still engage with one another in a playful and creative way from the comforts of our own homes? What might the value be in creating fellowship around something as deceptively simple as “curiosity”? There are no other prerequisites, so come see what happens in this interactive and fun introductory workshop!

Facilitator Evan Johnson is a 35 year old queer theatre maker, playwright, and drag performer with a passion for community based projects. Most recently, Evan developed the highly successful Zoom-based programs Play in Place! and Out of Frame (for San Francisco Village).

Virtual Dance Aerobics with Donna Personna!
Tuesdays, February 9 through March 16, 1 - 1:30PM

Let’s get moving and grooving. Join us for a fun, safe way to bring movement and joy into our lives. Each 30 minute session will be a series of warm ups, stretches, movements, and great music that carefully takes us through a dance workout that will get our hearts pumping and tap into the dancing queen inside all of us. No experience is necessary and the class can be done seated or standing.

Donna Personna, instructor, is a community member and volunteer at Openhouse. Donna is a drag queen performer and loves dance and all things theater. Her background includes ballet and modern dance. Donna has a certificate of Dance Aerobic Instruction and is looking forward to bringing her experience and energy to the greater Openhouse community.

Friendly Visitor Program during COVID-19

Opportunities to connect socially in person may have changed for now, however, friendships can be cultivated in other ways. We encourage folks to give us a call to learn more about being matched up with Friendly Callers of all ages for social calls. LGBTQ elders have lifetimes of experience, perspective and know-how especially during challenging times.

To learn more, contact Penn at (415) 535-2769 or pweldon@openhousesf.org

Virtual Yoga with Jay!

Fridays, December 4, 11, and 18
11-11:45 AM

Long-time Openhouse Yoga instructor, Jay Helfand, offers a slow flow for all bodies, connecting breath and movement in a grounding, nourishing, and life-giving practice. The movements in this virtual class will be adjusted for the potential limitations of practicing yoga from home. No prior experience with yoga is required and no yoga props needed! Jay has been teaching yoga and somatics for queer, trans, and disabled communities for the last 6 years.

Zoom Help Hour

Tuesdays, December 1, 8, 15, and 22
2 - 3:30PM

With so many of our lives now dependent on Zoom to reach services, activities and our loved ones, Openhouse is focusing on helping folks figure out this technology. Led by Openhouse’s tech support staff and volunteers, this hour and a half every Tuesday is available for any Openhouse community member who is struggling with or even just getting started with Zoom.

In the Life: Supporting LGBTQ POC

Wednesdays, December 2, 9, 16, and 23 11AM-12:30PM

Join us for a discussion group for LGBTQ people of color. Prejudice, bias, and bureaucracy make government systems almost impossible to cope with every day especially during a pandemic; it’s a struggle. Come share your tips, strategies, and support with others. in a confidential and positive environment. We will learn together how to get what we want from community resources, support services, and government benefits.

Myles Dixon, facilitator, is gay-identified, African American and has a Master’s in Health Systems Administration.

Trans Resilience Support Group
Every Monday, 5:30PM

Openhouse and TGIJP present the Trans Resilience Support Group, hosted by Ms. Billie Cooper! Join other transgender and gender non-conforming seniors as they come together to support each other through their individual walks in the trans experience. We welcome all TGNC folks to join – and look forward to building for community, by community.

won’t you celebrate with me
by Lucille Clifton

won’t you celebrate with me
what i have shaped into a kind of life? i had no model.
born in babylon
both nonwhite and woman
what did i see to be except myself?
i made it up
here on this bridge between starshine and clay,
my one hand holding tight
my other hand; come celebrate with me that everyday something has tried to kill me
and has failed.

Halloween: Costumed as a king when I left home, with a few minor adjustments I became a queen. The group of us trick or treaters knocked on the door of the house of the most masculine, best looking teacher on campus. When he opened the door, looking straight at me he asked, “Who is this most beautiful princess?” In an instant, I fell in love!
- K K.

Thanksgiving meal, 2014: At the Cyprian’s church. The person next to me and myself started talking. Nurit and I became close friends since then.
- Nachshon L.

The annual reading of Truman Capote’s “A Christmas Memory” which was held at Theatre Rhinoceros in early December. So very moving in its simplicity.
- Joni D.

Passover, 1956: First night is for family and ritual (YUCK!). The second day, ignoring Mommy’s strict warnings NEVER to go downtown by myself, I, ever the rebel, go there alone to see “The Ten Commandments,” which had just premiered - appropriately. Of course, the spectacle and special effects were fun; the Red Sea business, cool (still); but there were other things I noticed as well: the costumes, their colors, textures, authenticity; the hairstyles (Yul Brynner was WAY ahead of his time); the sets, including multiple sphinxes in a neat row (?); the flagrant “Biblical” overacting (Anne Baxter should have been flogged! ), and, oh yeah ... mmm ... JOHN DEREK AS JOSHUA! In retrospect, these were among the earliest memories of my burgeoning Gay sensibility revealing itself. I was 10! BTW, Mom never learned of my solo “field trip.”
