Pride is All around Us
A message from Kathleen, Openhouse Executive Director

June is filled with celebrations including Juneteenth. On June 19, 1865 freedom was proclaimed from the brutal institution of slavery for all enslaved people in Texas, the last state to enslave black people. This year Openhouse, led by Ephraim Getahun, will be holding a wellness event for African American community members in recognition and celebration of this National Holiday. Come for food and some pampering!

It is also PRIDE month. I remember the first PRIDE event I went to—in the late 1980s. I was in a small town in Virginia, and PRIDE was indoors in a small abandoned machine shop. We were all afraid to be out and, even more, to be seen. There was no parade or signage outside the machine shop, you had to know someone to get the address, and people came from miles around to be in community—even if that meant hanging out in a dusty old shop with our sign-in sheets and PRIDE paraphernalia on rickety old card tables borrowed from a Unitarian Church more than 20 miles away.

This year, our theme is Love is AGELESS and we will be OUT and PROUD--from the Trans Intergen Brunch to marching in the Parade, speaking on the Main Stage, and holding our first PRIDE celebration party at 75 Laguna. While much has changed since my first PRIDE, there are still attacks on our community--from the attack on women that seeks to strip away bodily sovereignty to over 200 legislative attacks on LGBTQ+ people, especially trans youth, across the country. Many of our rights are directly tied to the Roe vs. Wade decision, and the long-term impact of overturning Roe could be devastating for our community.

AND, our community is vibrant and strong. While we have challenging times ahead, we also know how to come together as a community and extend love and grace to one another. Let’s celebrate our community with the most amazing PRIDE month ever!

Peace and see you this month,
Kathleen

In honor of Pride, we asked you to tell us about a time you witnessed joy, celebration, or solidarity in the LGBTQ Community.

From Community Member Lynn Jordan:

“Pride since Stonewall has been (and is) the action and reaction of claiming our civil rights and...our liberation [by] standing up and standing out. You cannot be held down when you are about your rising. We continue to claim our pride when:

- We reject wearing the labels that speak of hate, bigotry, and intolerance.
- We dance in the light of a rainbow of colors that is a CELEBRATION OF BEING OUR AUTHENTIC SELVES
- We are our resistance, our resilience, and our unyielding to a narrative of oppression
- We are claiming our power to speak and live our truths into the creation stories of being our change.”

This session will specifically engage questions about how awareness of our mortality influences our choices about love and friendship with self and others.
