Happy Lunar New Year and Black History Month!

This is the Year of the Rabbit, a symbol of longevity, peace and prosperity. We will celebrate the new year with a special luncheon; look in the newsletter to RSVP.

February is also Black History Month, and this year the theme is Resistance. In acknowledgment of the theme, historians at the Association for the Study of African American Life and History write powerfully that, “African Americans have resisted historic and ongoing oppression, in all forms, especially the racial terrorism of lynching, racial pogroms, and police killings since our arrival upon these shores. These efforts have been to advocate for a dignified self-determined life in a just democratic society in the United States and beyond the United States political jurisdiction.”

As we enter the month of February, my hope is that we both honor those who were part of resistance movements in the past and continue to support and uphold resistance against racism, hatred and violence.

In peace,

Kathleen M. Sullivan, Ph.D.
Executive Director

Dr. Aronson Talks Feet
Wednesday, February 8
1PM - 2:30PM via Zoom

Are your feet wider? Longer? Just, well...different? The answer is almost certainly yes. By middle age, most of us have walked an amount equivalent to walking around planet earth three times. That’s a lot of wear and tear. And feet, like other body parts, often change or develop diseases with age. Plus there's the old song: the foot bone’s connected to the leg bone, the leg bone’s connected to the hip bone, etc. So sometimes feet hurt because of problems elsewhere, and vice versa. Come learn about your aging feet and how to keep them feeling and functioning their best!

RSVP at rsvp@openhousesf.org or (415) 231-5871

It’s Black History Month
Openhouse would like to highlight the work and contributions of Black LGBTQ+ people, which are too often forgotten and erased from history. Black people have always been at the center of the LGBTQ+ movement, from Marsha P. Johnson and Stormé DeLarverie to modern day leaders like Phill Wilson and Miss Major Griffin-Gracy.
