Under his leadership, Pilot grew its revenue 3x to nearly $1 billion, and EBITDA grew fiftyfold.

Prior to running Pilot, Richard worked in all three branches of federal government, focusing on civil rights, national security, and technology policy. He has founded two successful nonprofits and serves on a number of nonprofit boards including the Wistar Institute and the Nantucket Boys and Girls Club. He also volunteers with his dog Noelle as a pet therapy team, working in hospitals and nursing homes.
2024 ADVANCED LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE SENIOR FELLOWS

Khatuna Salukvadze
ALI Senior Fellow

Khatuna Salukvadze brings to ALI experience in diplomacy and public sector leadership. In her most recent position as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Georgia to Lithuania, Khatuna worked on Euro-Atlantic security and European integration issues. She has been a change leader and a member of the reforms team of Georgia, contributing to the country’s institutional reforms. Previously, she held several prominent roles – spearheading the US-Georgia Strategic Partnership Charter, serving as a Senior Adviser to the Prime Minister, and leading the development of national and foreign security concepts of Georgia.

Khatuna is a member of the UN Senior Women Talent Pipeline (SWTP) and has been selected by the Secretary-General’s Global Call for Leaders for senior leadership in UN peace operations. Her work advocates the advancement of women to leadership positions in peacekeeping and international security. Khatuna has worked as a professor and researcher at Tbilisi State University and Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies.
