KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS

Dr. Temple Grandin

Temple Grandin, Ph.D. is one of the most accomplished and well-known adults with autism in the world. She was selected by Time magazine as one of the "100 Most Influential People in the World" (2010).

Dr. Stephen Shore

Diagnosed with "Atypical Development and strong autistic tendencies" and "too sick" for outpatient treatment, Dr. Shore was recommended for institutionalization. Nonverbal until four, and with much support from his parents, teachers, wife, and others, Stephen is now a professor at Adelphi University where his research focuses on matching best practice to the needs of people with autism.

Dr. Thomas RaShad Easley

Thomas RaShad Easley, Ed.D., is the Assistant Dean of Community and Inclusion at the School of the Environment at Yale University. Dr. Easley is a certified diversity, equity and inclusion consultant who works with academic, corporate, and other organizations to help them actualize a strong diversity initiative that welcomes everyone and shifts work culture to be equitable.
