Celebrating 150 Years of JFS

Jewish Family Service of Colorado (JFS) will mark its 150th anniversary in 2022.
One of our celebrated founding members and early presidents, Frances Wisebart Jacobs (1843-1892), was a co-founder of the United Way of America. Known today as the "Mother of Charities," Mrs. Jacobs dedicated her life to serving people in need, regardless of race, faith, income, or ability. Under her visionary leadership, our organization was a founding member of the Charity Organization Society in Denver, which was formed as the Community Chest in 1887, the forerunner of the United Way.

In 1947, JFS merged with the Denver Coordinating Committee for Immigrants in response to the growing need for refugee resettlement in the wake of World War II, becoming Jewish Family and Children’s Services, and now Jewish Family Service of Colorado.

Today, JFS honors its tradition of serving all people in need by offering more than 30 programs and services, including food security, housing stability, mental health counseling, aging care, employment support, and disability services. JFS takes a holistic approach, assessing the various needs of the individual or family and provides the appropriate services from one organization. We continuously evaluate the evolving challenges of our community and adapt or develop programs that respond to the resulting needs.

We are proud to celebrate and share our 150-year history with you throughout 2022. In this packet, you will find a variety of ways to get involved and honor and sustain the vital work of Jewish Family Service of Colorado.
Today

Last year, the agency provided services to 32,000 people of all faiths, races, ages, incomes, abilities, sexual orientation, and gender identities.

Supporting JFS provides hope to the families we serve that their lives will get better. It gives them confidence that they are not alone in their struggles—that there is a community behind them, and neighbors invested in their success.

What is unique and differentiates JFS from other organizations is our holistic and comprehensive approach, where we assess the various needs of an individual or a family and provide the necessary services all from one organization. And just like we have for 150 years, we continuously evolve and adapt to meet the community’s needs.

JFS has evolved to meet the needs of our community for 150 years.
Everyone has a fundamental right to equitable access to opportunity and prosperity. We can come together to make our communities, our cities, and our world better places so that everyone, no matter their economic or social status, has access to live a more meaningful life and thrive. We continue to honor and fulfill our most important Jewish values of Tikkun Olam, the obligation to make the world a better place.

When you support our 150th anniversary, you help sustain the programs and services that our community relies on. You invest in new responsive, impactful, and innovative programming and guarantee JFS will be here for future generations. Together, we can continue optimizing programs, improving infrastructure, and increasing program capacity—all to meet the challenges presented by 21st century Coloradans. Your support allows JFS to be flexible and responsive to crises of every size and scope.

At JFS, we believe:
- Everyone has a fundamental right to equitable access to opportunity and prosperity.
- We can come together to make our communities, our cities, and our world better places so that everyone, no matter their economic or social status, has access to live a more meaningful life and thrive.
- We continue to honor and fulfill our most important Jewish values of Tikkun Olam, the obligation to make the world a better place.

You can help honor JFS’s legacy and be a part of our future. We ask you to do what you’ve always done—give generously, support our 150th anniversary.
