Meet the Counters at the Allegheny Front Hawk Watch

Mondays
Debbie Bodenschatz is counting for her eighth season at the Allegheny Front. Debbie is the Secretary for the Allegheny Plateau Audubon Society. She also specializes in amphibians.

Tuesdays
Jim Rocco has counted at the Allegheny Front for 25 years. Jim has spent more days at the Allegheny Front than any other counter.

Wednesdays
Rosemary McGlynn has counted at the Allegheny Front for over 20 years. Rosemary is in charge of fundraising for the Allegheny Plateau Audubon Society.

Thursdays
Dave Poder is our newest counter and is one of the very best Golden Eagle photographers in the region.

Fridays
Ed Gowarty has counted at the Allegheny Front for over a decade. He removed most of the stumps from the field, resulting in the smooth lush grass we see today.

Saturdays
Brian M. Wargo is the president of the Allegheny Plateau Audubon Society and is a Director of the Board for the Hawk Migration Association of North America.

Sundays
Bob Stewart is the Vice-president of the Allegheny Plateau Audubon Society and runs the membership department. He has counted for the last 19 years at the Allegheny Front Hawk Watch.
